

Am I A God 1021

Chapter 1021: Remedial Class And Worker

After hearing the teacher's words, he smiled. "Don't worry Mr Lee. I don't beat up cats. I'll use reason to convince him."

After hanging up the phone, Zhao Yao was glum. "I can't let Latte and Matcha stay together. He's being spoilt."

He recalled Latte when he came the first time. He was an adorable, obedient, and intelligent kitten. How did things turn out this way?

"Ning Ning, I'm going out for a while. Tend to the shop."

Ning Ning came out of the kitchen but Zhao Yao had left.

...

In the first year classroom of Jianghai's First Cat School.

Latte sat on the table arrogantly as he ate his canned food. He boasted, "Why do we do homework? What's the use of doing homework? I can see that the first year students are the most capable in the school."

A kitten asked bewilderedly, "Why? The senior cats are awesome too."

"D*mn them if they are awesome. In this school, not having to do homework and worry about exams is the most awesome thing to do," Latte said. "As a first year student, we aren't afraid of repeating school because we remain first year students. We can skip our homework and exams. Isn't it awesome?"

The eyes of the first year kittens glimmered. "We are the most awesome."

“Brother Latte, you’re very philosophical.”

“You’re indeed a kitten with an IQ of 90, very intelligent.”

Latte smiled contentedly. “What’s the big deal? I only used an IQ of 60 for this matter. I was playing truant until a mad woman came and captured me. Otherwise would still be playing computer games outside.”

Everyone in the group was in awe of Latte.

Mango, who was also in the first year class, stood up and struggled to get out of the group.

Latte shouted, “Mango, what are you doing? Don’t wander off! You might not find the bathroom.”

Mango walked to the classroom entrance and rubbed intensely on Zhao Yao’s feet.

Latte froze after seeing Zhao Yao and cold sweat dripped from the back of his head.

“Why is Zhao Yao in school?”

A white kitten beside Latte meowed at Zhao Yao, “Who are you? Why did you come to our class? Tell us or we’ll...”

“D*mn you!” Latte slapped the white cat’s head and opened his eyes wide as he looked demurely at Zhao Yao and shouted, “Zhao Yao, Zhao Yao, why did you come to school?”

Zhao Yao squatted down to caress Mango’s head and lifted his head to gaze at Latte. “Latte, come outside. I have things to say to you.”

Latte followed Zhao Yao silently and came to an empty classroom.

Zhao Yao looked at Latte and sneered. “I heard you haven’t done your homework for many days?”

Latte said immediately, "It's not intentional. I'm unable to do the homework." He grabbed Zhao Yao's calf and said, "Zhao Yao, the first year's work is too difficult for me. I'm unable to do it. I'm hopelessly lost in my homework!"

Let me study in kindergarten. I think the course is more suitable for me."

After listening to Latte, Zhao Yao became glum and said, "You're thinking of studying in kindergarten? Mango's studying in the first year class and Fish Ball's studying next year in middle school and preparing for his examinations. If you study in kindergarten, aren't you disgracing me?"

Latte said, "Zhao Yao, Zhao Yao, the teacher said that kindergarten, elementary school, and middle school are just classification for jobs. There's no discrimination."

Zhao Yao kicked Latte and said, "You didn't pay attention in class. You can't remember the teacher's words."

After kicking Latte a few times, Zhao Yao continued, "I thought of letting you inherit billions of assets and dozens of buildings. It seems you are not intelligent enough for the job."

"Ah?" Latte blinked his eyes and gazed at Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao recalled Matcha, Roly Poly, and Elizabeth and thought for a while as he said, "Latte, when I first saw you, I knew you weren't an ordinary cat. I thought highly of you. Of all the supercats, you are the only one suitable to inherit billions of my fortune."

Zhao Yao looked at the motionless Latte and thought, "Latte's willpower is stronger than Matcha's? Strange, perhaps he doesn't know the meaning of billions."

Zhao Yao shook his head helplessly. "Billions in fortune means you can buy lots of salmon. So much that the school's stadium is stuffed full but there are still more salmon."

The dazed Latte's eyes lit up immediately.

Zhao Yao said, “Look at you. You can’t handle the first year. You’ve disappointed me. I thought of letting you take care of my properties in your fifth graduation year, but now...” He sighed.

Latte shouted, “Zhao Yao! I’ll learn diligently every day! Don’t be disappointed in me.”

“If you are diligent, I’ll be relieved.” Zhao Yao caressed Latte’s head and said, “I’ve talked to your form teacher. From today onwards after school, you’ll remain in the form teacher’s office to finish your homework before going home.”

Latte froze and felt despondent. Even a stadium full of salmon was no longer attractive.

Zhao Yao returned to the cafe and saw more than ten men sitting inside. Ning Ning, Lee Shuyao, Yang Hui were sizing them up curiously.

Yang Hui thought, “These me... look like they are from the Sun family?” Yang Hui knew that the Sun family was the local tycoon family in this small town. The Sun family was not influential outside but was despotic in town. Everyone lived in fear of them.

She thought, “Looking at the situation, are they looking for trouble? The boss is jinxed.”

As Zhao Yao stepped in, more than ten of them stopped him.

Zhao Yao frowned. “How can I help you?”

The leader, who was a middle-aged man said, “Boss, I’d like to check, is my brother Sun Jian in your hands?”

Zhao Yao looked blankly and said, “Who’s Sun Jian?”

He could not remember the broadcaster who had created trouble in the cafe.

The middle-aged man became grim and reminded Zhao Yao, “My brother’s a live stream broadcaster. He came to your cafe to do a live stream and he disappeared. Some people said they saw him mopping the floor in the cafe.”

“Oh, you are talking about worker number five.” Zhao Yao suddenly realised who was Sun Jian.
“Why are you looking for him?”

Chapter 1022: Work

Hearing Zhao Yao’s words, the man was stunned and said, “He disappeared for a long time and we can’t get through his cell phone. We are worried about him. Could we see him?” Zhao Yao smiled.
“Of course.”

Zhao Yao opened the kitchen Dimension Portal and shouted, “Hey, number five, your family’s here to see you. Come out and talk to them.”

Sun Jian walked out of the Dimension Portal and emerged from the kitchen. He was dumbstruck when he saw the middle-aged man. “Brother? Why are you here?”

The man looked at Sun Jian and approached him. He observed Sun Jian’s thin and pale face.

The man said with concern, “What’s with you? Why can’t we get through your cell phone?” He turned to glare at Zhao Yao and asked Sun Jian, “Did the boss force you to stay? If you’re being bullied, I’ll avenge you.”

The surrounding henchmen stood up and looked maliciously at Zhao Yao.

They were wary previously as Sun Jian was in Zhao Yao’s hands. With Sun Jian’s appearance, they were no longer worried.

“Chat with your brother and clear up any misunderstandings.” Zhao Yao said something to Sun Jian, walked casually to a chair and sat down. He stroked his chin and practised the dimension sealing.

Sun Jian got a shock from his brother’s words and grabbed hold of him.

Sun Jian recalled how terrifying Zhao Yao was. Though Zhao Yao only showed the tip of an iceberg, his superpowers were frightening.

As his brother was about to antagonize Zhao Yao, Sun Jian stopped him immediately to prevent an impending disaster.

Sun Jian looked at his brother and said immediately, “Nobody bullied me. I want to work in the cafe.”

Sun Jian’s brother looked surprised and said, “You want to work in the cafe?”

“Yes, the boss’s a good person, he speaks well and likes to play with cats. I want to work here for a few days.” Sun Jian was afraid of antagonizing the boss and said, “I’m finishing in three days. I’ll go home after three days.”

“Three days? Working? What are you up to?” His brother looked bewildered at him. When did his brother like working?

“Another three days!” Sun Jian looked at Zhao Yao and said, “Boss, I have to work three more days before going home?”

Zhao Yao hesitated and smiled as he said, “Yes, about three more days.”

Ning Ning felt a cold chill in her body. How many days was that? This was an endless cycle of three days.

She felt sympathy for Sun Jian and could not resist saying, “There are only three days left and he’s worked a lot. Boss, why don’t you release him?”

Sun Jian hesitated and looked in anticipation at Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao glared at Ning Ning and said, “There are only three days left. Why don’t you replace him?”

“Er...” Ning Ning was scared and said, “Work for another three days. Time will pass quickly.”

Sun Jian sighed. He was afraid that his brother might antagonize Zhao Yao and said, “Enough, I’ll work three more days to earn my own money. Leave quickly. Don’t disrupt the boss’ business.”

Zhao Yao reminded him, “Talk nicely to your brother.”

Sun Jian got a fright and shivered. He said softly and earnestly, “Brother, I’m happy here. Don’t worry. I’ll return home after three days.”

His brother stared wide-eyed at Sun Jian as he could never imagine his rich brother becoming like this.

He patted Sun Jian’s shoulders and said happily, “Brother, you’ve grown up. Seeing your previous decadent life and your current state... You’re now working hard to earn your money.”

His brother was full of gratitude as he walked to Zhao Yao and said, “Boss, thank you. My brother’s... My family was unable to control him. I can’t imagine that now he’s working hard to earn his money and he’s respectful to me.

Thank you. I’m grateful to you!”

Zhao Yao nodded and said, “That’s what I should do.”

Sun Jian’s brother was moved and he said, “My brother had been disobedient since young. Feel free to discipline him at work. I’m handing him over to you. I think three days is too short. Let him stay here for another two months.”

Sun Jian panicked and said, “Wait, brother, listen to me...”

Sun Jian’s brother stopped him and said, “Don’t say a word. Work here diligently for a period of time.”

“Boss, please take care of my brother.”

Zhao Yao smiled, “Don’t mention it. I’ll help you educate him.” He said solemnly, “Number five... I mean Sun Jian, he’s mischievous and impatient. He might call and send messages to you saying that he wanted to go home...”

“Boss, don’t worry. Now that he’s turning over a new leaf, we won’t be lax with him. I’m handing him over to you.”

Sun Jian said in shock and fear, “Brother...”

“Sun Jian, it’s for your own good. Stay here and work. Get rid of your bad habits. We’ll come back in two months.”

Sun Jian broke down when his brother left. His brother had made things worse for him.

Ning Ning dripped cold sweat as she looked at Sun Jian despondent figure. “Another endless cycle of two months...”

“Go and work.” Zhao Yao smiled at Sun Jian and said, “Work diligently. I have high hopes for you.”

Lee Shuyao and Yang Hui looked at each other and felt something weird about the incident.

Lee Shuyao thought, “Sun Jian... seems to be afraid of the boss. Why is that?” She recounted her experience with Zhao Yao. “He’s an otaku cat lover. How is he scary?”

Zhao Yao was not bothered about this incident. Sun Jian was like an additional flavoring in his life. The countless supercats on the alien planet was his next target.

He intended to stay in the cafe for the next few days to practise the Dimension Seal.

Chapter 1023: Project X And Learning

Zhao Yao was practising his skill for a while before his cell phone started vibrating. It was a message from Zhao Xue.

“Roly Poly’s information?”

Zhao Xue was assigned to spy on Roly Poly while he captured the supercats. She also helped to capture the supercats in secret.

When Zhao Xue returned, she summarized information about Roly Poly for Zhao Yao.

Though Roly Poly was careful, he was not able to fend off Sheriff’s mind reading and Zhao Xue’s surveillance which was over ten hours every day.

Zhao Yao obtained lots of information regarding Roly Poly.

“Project X?” Zhao Yao looked at the information from Zhao Xue and thought, “Project X didn’t die and became Roly Poly’s secret weapon?”

“Absorb other supercats’ superpower DNA to boost Roly Poly’s invisibility?”

Zhao Yao studied the videos sent by Zhao Xue. They showed Roly Poly’s recent boosted superpower.

“Roly Poly was able to go through walls and parts of his body became ethereal, hmm...”

Zhao Yao squeezed his chin and smiled, “Not bad, once he upgrades some more, I’ll contract him.”

Roly Poly had to be monitored to prevent him from creating trouble.

After pondering, Zhao Yao assigned Doll to spy on Roly Poly as he had a robot army that could monitor Roly Poly 24/7.

Using the time acceleration in the dreamscape to revise his material, in addition to boosting of his brain from Sphynx cat’s constitution, Zhao Yao mastered the Dimension Sealing skill.

With a thought, the Level 49 awareness emanated out from Zhao Yao and the air rippled.

Zhao Yao shouted at Diana and the supercats, “See if you can travel in the Awareness Dimension.”

Diana, Catherine, Elizabeth and Matcha tested but they were unable to enter the Awareness Dimension.

Zhao Yao tested with them. With his skill level, the Dimension Seal of a Level 49 awareness had a radius of a hundred meters and lasted for roughly ten minutes.

The door room opened and Milk Tea stood on his hind legs, his front paws raised to support a pile of documents with his head. He strolled in.

“Zhao Yao!” Milk Tea walked to Zhao Yao’s side and said, “This is Cat Wonderland Street and Dust Ball catmint’s monthly financial reports.”

Zhao Yao was curious and asked, “Milk Tea, when did you start helping Bai Quan?”

Milk Tea said shyly, “I told Bai Quan I could help him. After school, I trained at the Cat Wonderland Street and helped Sister Dust Ball with the Dust Ball catmint promotion.”

Zhao Yao patted Matcha’s head and said, “Look at your son, he’s working and earning money while you are studying in third year elementary school.”

Matcha curled himself up and covered his head with his white paws as though he was in shame. He sneered in his heart. “If that’s called working, I can do it too. I, George Matcha, started working when I was two years old. My work experience is more substantial than his.”

Milk Tea said, “Master Zhao, don’t criticize Brother Matcha. He’s trying very hard.”

Zhao Yao shook his head and perused the documents from Milk Tea. He wanted to see how much profit was made so that he could be happy.

Milk Tea said, “The growth of Cat Wonderland Street has slowed down. I did some market research. It’s because similar shops and malls are being set up. A lot people and cats are copying us.

I feel that the entertainment items at Cat Wonderland Street could be streamlined by using big data analytics and cloud computing to analyse users’ needs and upgrade the experience of the workers and users...

Mobile tablets are gaining more traction than PC. I’ve checked. Our companies don’t have mobile apps. In the next season, we should start our mobile app campaign...

As for vertical segmentation of cat’s entertainment, we still have a lot to improve on. I tutored Merlin, Ares and Sphynx cat’s on entrepreneurship. I’ll let you go through their proposals later...”

Zhao Yao could not resist asking, “Milk Tea, are these your thoughts?”

Milk Tea smiled and said shyly, “I learned from Bai Quan. He’s more knowledgeable than me.”

Zhao Yao thought for a while and said, “Do more if you like it. It’s alright if we lose money. I’ll let Bai Quan allocate some money for you...”

Matcha thought, “Perhaps I could borrow money from Milk Tea?”

Zhao Yao completed his training on Dimension Seal. He opened the Dimension Portal and returned to the palace of the Frosted Teeth City. He wanted to learn another skill from Wheatley.

“Meow!” Under Red Sun’s envious and jealous gaze, Wheatley jumped on Zhao Yao’s shoulders and stroked his head as she said, “Guang Yu! Tell me a story immediately. You haven’t told me the story for today.”

“Yes.” Zhao Yao pondered and said, “I’ll continue the orange cat Jojo’s story.”

After half an hour of storytelling, Zhao Yao looked at the story-thirsty Wheatley and asked, “Wheatley, I’ve learnt the Dimension Seal. Do you have other powerful skills for me to learn?”

“Ah? Other skills?” Wheatley said, “Besides the Dimension Seal, I only have Frost Dragon.”

Zhao Yao learned the silver level Frost Dragon from Wheatley. After noting it down, he went home to practise it.

When he returned to the cafe, he heard Ning Ning exclaiming excitedly. He frowned and asked, “What are you shouting about?”

“It’s Black Phoenix!” Ning Ning said excitedly, “Black Phoenix won three battles against the American Terminator, Japan’s robot and India’s Luohan. He’s awesome!”

Zhao Yao frowned and said, “What lousy aliases.”

“They are Forbes ranking apostles!” Ning Ning said, “Black Phoenix was ranked fifth yesterday. He’s continuing his challenge.”

Seeing Ning Ning’s excitement, Zhao Yao frowned and searched for information about Black Phoenix.”

Black Phoenix was more popular than what he imagined. After the appearance of supercats, Black Phoenix was the first high profile apostle to live stream his challenges to other apostles.

Zhao Yao was not listed on popular searches for half a year. The netizens required new stimulation. Black Phoenix was the hot replacement for the missing Zhao Yao.

Although the live stream was banned by many countries, the internet was abuzz with his news. His fans and followers on this social media breached 30 billion.

Chapter 1024: Game

“Black Phoenix...” Zhao Yao studied Black Phoenix’s news and thought, “He’s arrogant.”

Zhao Yao treated this news as internet sensations and celebrity gossip. He slept and entered his dream to practise his newly acquired silver level skill—Frost Dragon.

Ning Ning frowned at the side. “He’s sleeping again.” The next moment, she was happy again as she was able to play with her cell phone.

Zhao Yao entered Closers World and studied the information in the Book. Elizabeth was progressing well on the evolution bar and she could reach Level 20 by today.

He glanced at Tom.

Tom and Strangle were standing at the safety area of the revival point in the wilderness after being trapped by Gaia.

Strangle stood angrily in the revival point while Gaia and his men surrounded him outside the safety area.

Gaia's body was golden in color and a pair of ten meter long wings floated behind him. The wings vibrated with his breath.

Gaia laughed loudly and shouted, "Shorty Strangle! Come out if you dare!"

"I'm warning you! Don't let me see you in the wilderness! I'll kill you every time I see you until you quit the game!"

Hearing Gaia's arrogance, the green veins on Strangle's forehead pulsated. He bit Tom's neck and shouted, "This d*mn cat! I'll following the connection of Closers World to kill him!"

Tom said in pain, "No Brother Strangle! Giggle doesn't allow us to do that. If players die in real life from the game, there would be no more players."

Strangle said furiously, "What's Giggle to me? When I'm out in the streets, he's still suckling breast milk! These primitive cats are killing me until I'm trapped at the revival point. If I don't kill him in real life, how can I endure such humiliation?"

A terrifying and dominant presence descended from the sky. They felt the engulfing energy which was controlled by Zhao Yao in Closers World.

Strangle was shocked. "Such strong power of awareness!" He felt his awareness being pinned down by a supreme power. With a little pressure, he would disintegrate.

A voice flowed into Strangle's awareness. "Brother Strangle, I'm giving you respect by calling you Brother Strangle. Closers World's my creation. You may play in it but you have to follow the rules... is that okay?"

Feeling the overwhelming power brushing his body like multiple tentacles, Strangle nodded in fear. "Yes, I understand."

He thought in shock, "Did Giggle become that powerful after creating this awareness country? If I recall other cats... No, the more cats there are, the less each one obtains. To defeat Giggle in this awareness country, I won't be the one doing it..."

Zhao Yao nodded his head. The energy in Closers World receded like flood water.

Strangle felt better and heaved in relief. He asked Tom, "Why is Giggle's tone more ferocious than before?"

Tom said, "I don't know. He's been like this for a long time."

Strangle casually asked as he did not see Giggle for a long time and he could not remember his voice or tone.

Gaia shouted, "Shorty Strangle! Why are you silent? Look who's here?"

A female cat who bought a shiny Ragdoll cat skin walked to Gaia's side and rubbed on him.

Strangle, who was glaring at Gaia, shouted in fury, "Sweetie! You joined their guild too?"

Gaia sprawled on the back of the female cat and laughed wildly, "Shorty Strangle! Even your female cat's mine! If I were you, I would delete my account and quit the game! Why are you disgracing yourself?"

Sweetie said to Strangle, "Brother Strangle, don't blame me. Cats climb towards greater heights. You can't even afford the latest double eleven God of War's costume. I have to follow Brother Gaia."

Strangle fell to the ground in anger and his hair stood on end. He screamed as he charged out but was held down by Tom.

Strangle said furiously, “Don’t stop me! I’m killing them!”

“Don’t be rash Brother Strangle! You can’t defeat them!”

Strangle was even more furious but he was helpless. If he could defeat them, he would not be trapped in the revival point.

Tom consoled him and said, “Brother Strangle, Gaia’s powerful because he bought the double eleven God of War’s costume. Once we have it, we can defeat him.”

Strangle said, “Where do we buy this God of War costume?”

Tom quickly said, “Access the Commerce City pages. There’s a new double eleven God of War gift hamper. After buying it, you’ll have a chance to accumulate the costume fragments. Once you have collected 120 fragments, you can create the winning costume.”

Strangle stared at the gift hamper with his red eyes as he muttered, “I don’t have enough gold coins to buy it.”

Tom said, “Let’s earn some money in the dungeons.”

The aim of Closers World was to attract the players to play and not for their money. All the items in the games, including items from the Commerce City, could be purchased using the game currency.

Looking at the God of War gift hamper, Strangle nodded viciously. “Let me obtain the winning costume and I’ll deal with Gaia and Sweetie!”

Seeing Strangle leave to conquer the dungeons, Zhao Yao nodded with satisfaction. Strangle was quite addicted to the game.

Gaia's job was to play with Strangle and defeat him once in a while. After that, let Strangle win one or two times before failing again. It was like hanging a carrot in front of a donkey to attract Strangle to continue playing.

Zhao Yao could spend the time to strengthen himself instead of worrying about the alien cat's intrusion.

Zhao Yao activated Diana's Nightmare Lord and entered Dreams within Dreams. With the help of Time Acceleration, he started learning Frost Dragon.

Elizabeth was progressing well in her level upgrades and Zhao Yao's power was steadily increasing.

After spending a few days of learning in dreams, Zhao Yao returned to the material realm to practise Frost Dragon.

On this night, Zhao Yao sat on the sofa on Cat Island. He looked at Matcha, whose back was facing Zhao Yao and playing Mobile Legends happily. Zhao Yao focused his gaze. "Matcha has Time Distortion, I'll experiment on him."

A Level 49 awareness transformed into a white dragon and shot out.

Chapter 1025: Reincarnation and the Duel

A white Frost Dragon the size of a thumb crashed into Matcha's back. Matcha shivered as his thought process slowed down.

Matcha suddenly realized that his mind was unable to keep up with the speed of the game. He was assassinated a few times in a row by assassins and he could not even activate a skill before he died from the attack. It made him so angry he started meowing in rage.

Zhao Yao smiled slightly. He pointed a finger and a white dragon the size of his arm shot towards Matcha's back.

Matcha's thought process slowed down again in that instant. He stared at his phone in front of him in a daze. It took a while for him to press on the phone screen again and he only did that occasionally from then on.

The hero that he controlled in the game turned into an idiot instantly as he would be killed by his enemy after taking a few steps out.

Fish Ball, who was controlling a tank, could not help but scold him as he screamed, "Matcha, what the hell are you doing?!"

Zhao Yao smirked again as another white Frost Dragon that was as big as the whole room slowly materialized in the air. After letting out a huge roar, the dragon charged towards Matcha's back before completely integrating into his cat body.

Matcha froze on the spot as his thoughts were completely frozen. He stopped thinking altogether, as if time had stopped for him at that moment.

Zhao Yao observed the immobilized Matcha. He stretched his hand to pat his head and then his butt. When he saw that the cat still did not react, he finally nodded his head in satisfaction. "It's a pretty good skill. With this skill, I will have even more battle tactics to use next time."

After an hour, Matcha regained consciousness as he shivered again. He was bewildered as he thought to himself, "What's going on? Did I just zone out?"

Zhao Yao had already returned to the Frosted Teeth City. He wanted to continue learning more skills from Wheatley.

Anyway, he had yet to level up all five cats to Level 25. Zhao Yao decided to learn more new skills from Wheatley first, or it would put to waste the Level 49 power of Awareness he had gained.

However, Wheatley only rubbed her chin and said despondently, "I don't know any other skills."

"Ah?" Zhao Yao asked, "Even if you don't know any other skill, don't you have other skill books here?"

Wheatley lay on the bed with her four limbs facing upwards as she rolled around lazily and said, “Learning skills is so troublesome. I don’t want to do those things.”

Zhao Yao was exasperated. He thought about how he should really think of another way to learn new skills.

However, Wheatley suddenly flipped around and went right up to Zhao Yao. She placed her head against Zhao Yao’s forehead and asked, “Guang Yu! That… Did you bring that here?”

“Huh?” Zhao Yao was stunned for a moment. He was still thinking of how to change course to learn new skills and even thought of how to go about learning about the Awareness country skill and its related knowledge. As such, he did not immediately get what Wheatley was asking for.

Wheatley said in a slightly abashed tone. “I’m injured again. My blood is flowing non-stop.”

Zhao Yao immediately nodded and said, “I got it. I will bring it to you in a moment.”

Wheatley immediately smiled when she heard that and kept nudging and bumping Zhao Yao’s head. “Good boy! That’s my cat slave!”

However, she suddenly frowned and started sniffing hard at Zhao Yao’s head and neck.

Zhao Yao was confused as he asked, “What’s wrong, Wheatley?”

Wheatley’s gaze sharpened instantly as she stretched out her hand and picked up a strand of orange cat fur from Zhao Yao’s clothes. “Guang Yu! You found another cat outside?”

Zhao Yao was stunned. His body tensed up immediately.

Due to the difference in culture on Earth, it was alright for a human to keep a hundred or even two hundred cats. It was a world of many cats to one human.

But on the cat planet, Satol, the world was reversed. A human can only serve one cat, while a cat enjoyed the worship of countless humans. It was a world of many humans to one cat.

In this place, if a human interacted with many cats, that person would be severely condemned.

Zhao Yao was at a loss for words when Wheatley retracted and said in a slightly dejected voice, “Meow... I know you cat slaves can’t resist when you see a cat.”

She touched her chest and her butt as she said pitifully, “Is it because I don’t have a tail or my paws or paw pads. I don’t even have fur now. Is that why you went to find other cats?”

Zhao Yao did not know what to say. He just said, “You look quite good like this too.”

“It’s not good!” Wheatley said angrily. “The me now is so inflexible! I can’t even take a look at my butt even if I wanted to. These two lumps of meat on my chest are so troublesome as well.

I don’t have a single fur on my body too. The friction I get from bumping things makes me feel pain as well.”

As she said that, she stuck out her small pink tongue and licked around her lips as she said in frustration, “My tongue also became much shorter now. It’s so inconvenient to lick things now.”

She looked at Zhao Yao pitifully and asked, “Have I become less cute now?”

Zhao Yao paused for a while. After thinking about it, he patted Wheatley’s head, but Wheatley immediately dodged. “Don’t touch a cat’s head! A cat’s head is not something anyone can touch!” After she thought about it, Wheatley rolled her eyes in a full circle before she said, “But if you want to touch me you can touch my back or butt.”

“No thanks... I’m not touching anymore.” Zhao Yao retracted his hand and said, “If you hate being in a human body so much, why did you reincarnate as one? Can’t you just change back into a cat form?”

“Dad made me reincarnate as a human.” Wheatley sighed. “He said I’m too stupid. If I reincarnate as a cat in my first time and I didn’t manage to live long enough, I would not be able to complete my second reincarnation in time.”

Zhao Yao asked curiously, “Reincarnation... Do you need a lot of preparation for that?”

“Of course!” Wheatley looked up and said to Zhao Yao, “I spent a long time preparing my first reincarnation, and that was only possible with the help of my Dad. My second reincarnation will be much harder to achieve. If I use a cat body, I might really not be able to complete the reincarnation in time.”

Zhao Yao asked, “Does every subsequent reincarnation become harder to achieve?”

“Yeah.” Wheatley curled up on the bed and hugged her legs as she muttered, “If you’re talented enough or your capabilities are strong enough, it won’t be much of a problem. My talent is too weak. The increase in my power of Awareness totally cannot match up to that of the increase in an ageing cat. If I don’t reincarnate as a human, my second reincarnation will likely be at risk of failure.

However, after reincarnating as a human, the increase in power of Awareness would slow down as well. Even if I could complete my second reincarnation, I would still lag far behind more capable cats.”

When she said that, Wheatley glanced at Zhao Yao and asked, “Guang Yu, are you going to run away with another cat?”

Seeing the scared and worried look on Wheatley’s face, Zhao Yao reassured her and said, “Don’t worry, I won’t run away with other cats.”

After comforting Wheatley, Zhao Yao returned to Earth and walked to the Cat Island. The image of a person appeared in his mind.

“If looking to a cat doesn’t work, I will have to find a person then.” Zhao Yao squinted as he thought, “Hopefully the Cat Hunters have mastered the knowledge of the Awareness country.”

Suddenly, Zhao Yao’s phone rang. He picked up the call and asked, “Uncle Ho?”

The moment Zhao Yao answered the call, Uncle Ho shouted, “Zhao Yao, is it true that you’re going to duel with Black Phoenix?”

Chapter 1026: Rumors

“Huh?” Zhao Yao was confused. “Duel?”

Uncle Ho said, “Quick, go online and check. There is news spreading all around saying that you’re going to duel with Black Phoenix. What exactly is going on?”

Zhao Yao ended the call and immediately went online to look up the news regarding him and Black Phoenix. A whole bunch of headlines appeared on the screen.

“Breaking! The two greatest apostles are dueling each other? It’s actually because of her?”

“Black Phoenix challenges Zhao Yao to a duel. A truth which scientists don’t dare to reveal, a truth even Jack Ma is shocked by.”

“The most beautiful apostle rises to popularity. Netizens claim: Super Daniel Wu.”

“Super Daniel Wu?” A thin crack immediately appeared on the floor beneath Zhao Yao. He continued reading on in disdain.

“The reason for the battle is actually because of Zhao Yao’s fear that Black Phoenix will become stronger?”

“The world’s no. 1 spot is finally being contested!”

“Black Phoenix and Zhao Yao! Who will be the strongest apostle?”

Zhao Yao continued reading on. The news about his duel with Black Phoenix were all over the Internet. However, he and Black Phoenix clearly were not the ones who started the rumors. Furthermore, much of the news sites and social media that reported on the duel were not in favor of him.

“What the. Fine if you don’t say I’m handsome, now you’re actually doubting my superpowers?”

Zhao Yao contacted Doll and said, “Help me check something. Where exactly did the news of me and Black Phoenix having a duel come from?”

Almost instantly, Doll replied Zhao Yao with the information he wanted.

Zhao Yao opened the message Doll sent and found out that it was from a Weibo account with the user ID 'Superpower Observer King'. This was where the news of Zhao Yao and Black Phoenix dueling originated.

"Breaking news. According to the latest news, Boss Zhao can no longer hold on to his seat.

BP (Black Phoenix) is rising like a beast. Now, even the few strong apostles left are not willing to clash with him. Even Boss Zhao fears that BP will continue to grow stronger, hence he decided to strike first."

"After hearing the voice recordings from various sources and what my friends had described, the most crucial point now is that both parties are unwilling to back down. One thinks he is the world's first, everyone must give face to him, while the other feels that he is capable enough to challenge that seat."

Many elders have advised him against it, but he will not budge on his decision. Everyone, let's just sit back and wait for the grand duel."

Zhao Yao glanced through some of the posts on the user's Weibo account. He realized that this account was just a marketing account that used these so-called breaking news to attract viewership and attention.

Zhao Yao thought to himself, "Everyone's attention to superpowers had been increasing ever since that time when I live streamed and fully exposed the existence of superpowers to people."

With a certain degree of viewership, there would certainly be benefits to be reaped from it. It was like people's attention to the entertainment industry. As the public became more and more interested in the superpower realm, all kinds of news, scoops and superpower celebrities all began to operate their own businesses.

Hence, when rumors of Zhao Yao, the strongest apostle, and Black Phoenix, the hottest apostle on the Internet broke out, the news naturally spread like wildfire.

Just as Zhao Yao was looking at that, Doll sent another message. "Just a bunch of guys who just rely on creating rumors to hype up their viewership and earn money. Do you want me to delete their accounts?"

Zhao Yao frowned. "Let's not close their accounts first. Continue to check on their real identities. I want to see who it is that had the guts to tarnish my name like that."

"Send their address to me."

...

In a condominium in Huadu.

A middle-aged man exclaimed when he saw the figures on the computer screen, "We have exceeded one million shares! Hahahaha, we are going to be really famous now!"

A bespectacled young man asked worriedly, "Do you think it's a good idea for us to do this? Zhao Yao and Black Phoenix won't come and take revenge on us right?"

"What are you scared of?" The middle-aged man scoffed. "At most they will just send a lawyer's letter over to sue us? Do you think he would actually come and beat us up? That would be better actually, it would be even greater news."

The middle-aged man explained, "Given their capabilities and standing, their every move would need to consider many other things. Why would they come and pick on us specifically? Furthermore, anyone with a bit of brains in them should know that we are just spreading rumors. Those who shared and believed the news are either just spreading the rumors for fun or just fools. It's nothing too serious."

The bespectacled young man was still worried. "I heard that Zhao Yao is a petty man who is very vengeful. What if he comes and attack us with his superpower?"

"Congratulations, you are right."

The two of them turned around and saw Zhao Yao walking in through the window, wearing a black cloak.

Zhao Yao stared at the two of them and asked, "Did anyone instruct you to post that scoop?"

“Zhao... Zhao Yao?!” The middle-aged man was stunned for a while, but he immediately shouted, “Don’t act rashly! I have 24-hour surveillance here. If do something to us I will expose you online immediately and you will become the top search in no time!”

Zhao Yao chuckled. With a light wave of his hand, the dimension portal beside him had already crashed towards them, taking both men into the Extradimensional Belly.

When both men entered the Extradimensional Belly, the first thing they saw were pairs of green and yellow eyes staring at them.

Seeing more than a hundred cats gathered around them, the two men began to panic.

The middle-aged man screamed, “Zhao Yao! This is kidnapping! This is illegal detention! I am going to sue you for this!”

“Kidnap?” Zhao Yao laughed as he walked in through the dimension portal. He stared at the two of them and said, “Since both of you were willing it doesn’t count as kidnap...” He clapped his hands and said to the cats around them, “Let him eat shit.”

The middle-aged man’s heart pounded and the next moment, he felt himself being restrained by Ares’ Deflective Field. He watched as the cats walked up to him one by one as he screamed, “You can’t... hurhur... hurhur....”

Zhao Yao watched as the middle-aged man devoured the shit. He glanced at the bespectacled youth at the side and asked, “Who made you guys frame me online?”

“No... no one.” The bespectacled youth said nervously, “It was King Bro who wanted to be famous on Weibo so he posted that. We just made up the news ourselves.”

“What?” Zhao Yao stared at the two of them in disbelief. He asked Sheriff beside him, “Is he speaking the truth?”

Sheriff replied, “He’s saying what he feels in his heart.”

Zhao Yao stared at the middle-aged man and waved at the cats to stop. He asked, “You made this up?”

The middle-aged man spat out the spit in his mouth before he shouted, “Zhao Yao!! I will fight it out with you!!”

“Fight it out?” Zhao Yao chuckled. The Dragon Slaying Saber that was hanging on his neck vibrated slightly. Zhao Yao stroked the dagger and said, “Did you see that? My Dragon Slaying Saber is craving some fresh blood again.”

After a short while, the two men fell on their knees in fear. Zhao Yao sat on the sofa in front of them. He filed his nails with the Dragon Slaying Saber as he asked, “You guys know what to post on Weibo from now on, right?”

The middle-aged man nodded and said, “I know, I know. We will definitely sing praises of you...”

“Huh?”

When he felt as though the air around him turned still in that instant, the middle-aged man immediately said, “I mean we will definitely report the truth and post about your coolness and power objectively and fairly.”

Chapter 1027: Ambush

Zhao Yao nodded and said, “Tell the truth as it is. Don’t feel pressured to do it. Oh right, about that Black Phoenix... Throw shade at him like your life depends on it.”

He thought to himself, “It would be too troublesome if I have to come out by myself every time to maintain popularity and attention. Having a bunch of marketing accounts and an army of fans is not too bad of an idea.”

He said to Doll, “Next, you will cooperate with him and share his post a billion times with five billion likes. Make this the trending topic across all the platforms there are out there. Make sure it hits the No. 2 trending spot at least a thousand times.”

When the middle-aged man raised his head, he realized that Zhao Yao had already disappeared.

Outside the room, Zhao Yao contacted Doll and asked, “Where’s that Black Phoenix at?”

Doll replied, “Let me look it up...”

Zhao Yao said, “Prepare a camera. I will need to live stream in a moment.”

Doll asked curiously, “Huh? Why would you need to live stream?”

“Of course I need to,” Zhao Yao retorted indignantly. “What’s the point of beating the sh*t out of him but I don’t live stream it? How will I become famous like that? How can I act cool without that?”

...

In a villa in California, United States.

“Haha, this is ridiculous.” A long-haired young man lay on the sofa, scrolling through his phone as he said, “The news of me dueling with Zhao Yao suddenly spread like wildfire. I am even more famous in China now.”

A golden-haired young lady said at the side, “Do you want to seriously consider dueling with Zhao Yao? Anyway, whether you win or lose, your popularity will still rise by a huge margin.”

Black Phoenix wagged his finger and smirked as he said, “There’s no rush. I will go and challenge him when my abilities become stronger. If I want to fight, I would definitely want to win. Or else what’s the point of picking a fight?”

As he said that, he turned to a multi-colored cat at the side and said, “Isn’t it, Oliver?”

The multi-colored cat meowed a few times. Behind that cat, there were three other cats lying on the sofa sleepily.

These four cats were the source of Black Phoenix's confidence. Each of them had powers that were beyond Black Phoenix's imagination. It revolutionized his understanding of superpowers.

It was also with their help that Black Phoenix could challenge the various strong apostles that were out there, even Zhao Yao.

The multi-colored cat blinked a few times as he asked the other three cats, "Why don't we just attack Closers World? How much longer must we wait?"

Giggle, who possessed the body of a blue cat, said to him, "If we attack Closers World directly, it is tantamount to battling with the Awarenesses of thousands of people. With Zhao Yao controlling the game, it will be a huge disadvantage against us."

These four cats shockingly turned out to be Giggle and three other comrades he had found. The three other cats came to Earth precisely for the purpose of dealing with Zhao Yao and snatching Closers World.

However, Giggle, who had battled with Zhao Yao before, knew that he was not an easy opponent.

According to the information they had gathered, Zhao Yao seemed to have gained control of Closers World and continued to operate the game.

Hence, Giggle decided not to forcefully attack Closers World and clash with Zhao Yao head on in the game itself. Rather, he opted to seek out the other party in the real world and ambush him with the help of the three other cats. Once they had defeated him, they would then reclaim Closers World.

However, after Zhao Yao had concealed his identity, they were unable to find him for a brief period of time.

Hence, they decided to use Black Phoenix to lure Zhao Yao out and ambush him.

A white cat asked, "I already controlled a few guys to spread the rumors online. However, Zhao Yao didn't come and find Black Phoenix at all. Are you sure he will really come?"

Another black cat said, “Being the strongest man in this whole primitive planet, his capabilities surely surpasses that of others. He might just ignore these rumors and not seek out Black Phoenix at all.”

“No,” Giggie replied confidently, “This petty... selfish... shameless b*stard will definitely come.” He scoffed, “But never would he imagine that there would be four of us supremely strong supercats waiting to ambush him by Black Phoenix’s side. Once he reveals himself, the four of us will strike together. He will definitely lose.”

Giggie and the three cats were very confident of their plan and so was Black Phoenix. “Last Saturday I defeated the Supersonic Assassin. My ranking should rise to the top three soon enough. Once I am more accustomed to this power, I will surely be able to defeat Zhao Yao.”

However, defeating Zhao Yao is only the start. With this power, I can completely control all the governments in the world and reign as the ultimate emperor of Earth.”

Just as Black Phoenix and Giggie were brimming with confidence thinking about the bright future ahead of them...

Zhao Yao stood behind the dimension portal atop the villa as he slowly moved inside the villa.

He took a look at Black Phoenix first before turning his gaze to the four cats on the sofa.

“LV 29, LV 25, LV 20 and LV 23.” Zhao Yao’s eyes scanned across the heads of the four kittens. “Is that Awareness? Where did these four alien cats come from? The levels on their heads are so high, yet they’re pretending to be earthling cats? Are they trying to ambush me?”

Zhao Yao moved the dimension portal as he paced back and forth between Black Phoenix and the four cats.

“Luckily the Cat Prince Costume absorbed the skills from Wheatley’s father. I shall cut off your escape routes first.” As he said that, Zhao Yao activated the power of Time Freeze.

In the world of Time Freeze, the Level 49 power of Awareness emanated and spread out in all directions from the dimension portal, filling up the whole room.

Dimension Seal!

When time resumed its flow, 100 square meters of the Awareness Dimension had been temporarily sealed.

Zhao Yao, who had the power of Time Freeze, did not care about hiding his identity. He unleashed the Level 49 power of Awareness with no qualms, instantly inciting a reaction from the four cats.

Meow!

As the meowing sounds rang out one after another, Giggie and the three cats tried to activate the power of Dimension Travel, but their bodies actually reappeared the moment it faded away.

“What a strong power of Awareness!”

“Who’s using the Dimension Seal power?!”

Black Phoenix felt an immense pressure crashing down all around him. As he was not aware of the levels of Awareness and the existence of a skill like the Dimension Seal, he immediately asked the four panicking cats, “What’s going on? Did something happen?”

After casting the Dimension Seal, Zhao Yao stepped out of the dimension portal. He looked at the four cats and said, “The four of you, are you guys from the Short Fur Tribe? Why did you guys come to Earth?”

Giggie stared dumbstruck at Zhao Yao who stood before them. He could feel an enormous presence imposing pressure emanating from him. He asked in bewilderment, “How can this be? You are Zhao Yao? How can you have such a strong power of Awareness?”

Zhao Yao just sat on the sofa in the living room and said, “I’m the one asking you guys the questions. Answer me as you should, or else, don’t blame me for being mean.”

The golden-haired girl by the side screamed, “Zhao Yao?! What do you want!?”

Black Phoenix stood in front of the golden-haired girl and said to Zhao Yao, “Zhao Yao, those rumors about the duel have got nothing to do with me. You found the wrong person. Leave my house this instant!”

Zhao Yao completely ignored the two of them. He only stared at Giggie as he twitched his nose. The Awareness surrounding them all around swept across the bodies of the four cats like countless tentacles. At last, he fixed his gaze on Giggie and said, “You feel really familiar... Are you Giggie?”

Giggie tried to put up a strong front as he shouted back, “Zhao Yao! You smell familiar too. Is this the power of Awareness of another cat from the Short Fur Tribe? You’re relying on another cat from the Short Fur Tribe?”

The other three cats’ expression changed when they heard that as well. If another stronger cat from the Short Fur Tribe took control of Earth and Zhao Yao, it would spell trouble for them.

Zhao Yao’s gaze fluttered as he said, “So what? I can’t believe you actually didn’t die, and even brought some other cats here. Why, are you trying to snatch back Closers World?”

The communication between Zhao Yao and these cats were telepathic. To other people, it looked as if they were just staring down at each other intensively without speaking a word.

Seeing how Zhao Yao was so fixated on the cats and did not give two hoots about himself, Black Phoenix could not help but say, “Zhao Yao, are you even listening to me?! Leave my house immediately, or I will...”

“Shut up.” Zhao Yao casually pointed at Black Phoenix as the Deflective Field enclosed his mouth and eventually spread to his whole body, pressing him down on the sofa. “Sit still. It’s not your turn yet.”

Chapter 1028: The Conversation

“This guy!” Black Phoenix felt as though a mountain had crashed down on him as he couldn’t even twitch a hair on his body.

However, Black Phoenix did not give up. Instead, he activated the superpower that gave him so much pride.

A Level 18 power of Awareness exploded from his body. Though he could not borrow the full powers of the alien cats, his current power was enough for him to ride the waves in the superpower realm.

Awareness Distortion activated! Black Phoenix wanted to directly control Zhao Yao's body.

However, he tried so hard but his efforts were fruitless. After defeating countless apostles with this ability, it failed to have any effect on Zhao Yao. This was the first time his power had failed to activate.

If controlling humans and apostles were as easy as breathing and drinking water for him, his inability to enact his power on Zhao Yao was akin to using the strength of one man to move an entire planet.

His ability was blocked on the spot, completely unable to pierce through the supremely strong defensive force of the Level 49 power of Awareness.

"You!" Black Phoenix stared at Zhao Yao in disbelief. This was his first time being unable to activate his power, which put him at a loss of what to do.

Zhao Yao turned and glanced at Black Phoenix. He felt as though Black Phoenix had just used his ability to attack him. Zhao Yao simply pointed at him with his index finger in midair.

A force strong enough to twist and contort steel columns entwined Black Phoenix's body along the contours of the Deflective Field. Black Phoenix's neck tilted slightly before it completely broke apart.

All the power Black Phoenix had flowed out of his body like water. He felt the world turning darker and darker as a sense of disbelief overwhelmed him.

"I... I'm going to die?"

"Just... Just like that?"

“He... killed me just like that?”

“D*mn...”

“D*mn... D*mn d*mn d*mn...”

Amidst his harrowing fear, Black Phoenix felt his vision black out completely into emptiness.

With a wave of his hand, the dimension portal swooped forward and sucked Black Phoenix into the Extradimensional Belly. He said to the cats in the Extradimensional Belly, “Send this guy to the front of the Door of Everlasting Life and leave him there till I come back.”

When the golden-haired girl saw Black Phoenix being killed and suddenly disappearing in midair, she screamed in alarm and stared at Zhao Yao in shock and overwhelming fear. Zhao Yao got annoyed by her expression and just pointed at her to knock her out.

“Great, now we can continue talking.” Zhao Yao stared at Giggie and the three cats as he said, “Thanks for coming all the way here. However, as you guys have seen, this planet already has a ruler.”

Giggie stared at Zhao Yao nervously as he asked, “Who’s the cat backing you up?”

The multi-colored cat said, “That Awareness feels really familiar.”

The white cat replied, “It must be one of the cats from our Short Fur Tribe. A power like Dimension Seal is not a skill that anyone can easily learn.”

“Don’t tell me that Short Fur Sage has his eyes on this place?!”

As he watched the cats conjuring up all sorts of possibilities in their minds and scaring themselves, Zhao Yao could not help chuckling as he said, “That’s right, at least you guys have some brains to think. This place is already the Short Fur Sage, Grayley’s, territory. My power and skills are all from him.”

The Short Fur Sage Grayley was the cat Zhao Yao went to find when he went to learn the Dimension Seal skill previously. Although he did not even see what the cat looked like, it did not prevent him from using his name to spin this story.

“It’s actually Grayley!” Giggle and the three cats immediately froze on the spot as fear flashed across their faces.

Zhao Yao thought to himself, “Grayley’s name seems pretty impressive to use.”

He kept staring at Giggle’s body as he was still the most interested in Giggle out of these four cats. After all, Giggle was the cat that had created Closers World. This meant that he had knowledge of the Awareness country. This was one of the things Zhao Yao really wanted to know about right now.

Giggle and the other three cats exchanged glances as they communicated telepathically and anxiously.

“Grayley actually set his sights here?”

“Does this guy want to construct an Awareness country here secretly as well?”

“Obviously. Which of the top ranking Short Fur Sages don’t have their own Awareness country?” It was precisely because of the immensely strong powers of the Awareness country that made them ban other cats from constructing their own Awareness country.”

“The top few Sages all use the power of the Awareness country as a deterrent against others. The Sages were below them would surely try to find a way to do that as well.”

“We should escape immediately. Grayley is not one to be trifled with.”

“We would be doomed if he wants to silence us!!”

Giggle said cautiously, “Since Lord Grayley has set his sights on this place, we will definitely not dare to take any part of it. If there’s nothing else we will take our leave...”

As they said that, the four cats immediately jumped off the sofa and ran towards the door of the house to run out of the area enclosed by the Dimension Seal and escape.

Of course, Zhao Yao was not about to let them go that easily. With a light squeeze of his palm, power that could move mountains and rupture seas crashed down on the four cats through the use of the Deflective Field.

“Wait a minute. If the four of you leave, what would happen to the other two cats? How much longer are they going to hide on Earth?”

“There are more cats?” Giggle was stunned for a moment before he immediately replied, “Only the four of us came this time. Aside from us, no other cats came... If there are more here, they have nothing to do with us.”

The two other cats which Zhao Yao mentioned were of course lies to trick Giggle into revealing whatever information he knew. Seeing the fear in their faces, Zhao Yao believed that there could possibly only be the four of that came to Earth.

Hence, Zhao Yao said again, “Only these four kittens and you guys want to snatch the Awareness country? Humph, who are you kidding? Tell me, who’s the cat behind you guys. Which cat in the Short Fur Tribe is secretly backing you guys up?”

Giggle immediately shook his head rapidly as he squeaked, “No, no, aside from the four of us...” Halfway through his words, Giggle suddenly reacted over and recalled something.

“If I say that there is really only the four of us who know...”

Giggle stared at Zhao Yao, who looked as though he had black smoke emanating from his body and seeping towards them.

“If I say that.. He might just torture us to death.”

His tail slowly slumped on the ground as Giggle said to Zhao Yao, “Hmm... We have already told Fei Fei about this planet... He knows we’re here.”

Hearing Giggle's words, the other three cats reacted immediately. They thought he was trying to intimidate Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao frowned. If there were other cats in the Short Fur Tribe who knew about the Awareness country that would really be more troublesome.

"I can only lock them up for now. The most important thing is still to see if I can get any information about the Awareness country from this guy."

Zhao Yao turned to Giggle as he stared at him greedily.

After thinking about it, he pointed at them and activated the silver skill, Frost Dragon. Four rays of light immediately shot through the four cats.

"I can't seal the dimension for 24 hours every day. There is only one place on Earth where I can lock these four cats up."

Chapter 1029: War

Zhao Yao stood up as he watched their thoughts freeze on the spot. He took out four Closers World game consoles from the dimension portal and put it on each of the four cats. He subsequently removed the Dimension Seal and started the game, transferring the Awareness of the four cats directly into Closers World.

When Giggle and the other cats' thoughts started to flow again, they realized that they had been moved to a small house.

They felt as though they were being suppressed by a pressure equivalent to that between Heaven and Earth. That was the might of the power of Closers World. It completely immobilized them.

Zhao Yao smiled cheerfully as he walked towards them. He stared at Giggle happily as he said, "Let's have a nice chat today."

"No!"

“Stop right now!”

“Ah! I’m going to die!”

After half an hour, Zhao Yao walked out with a spring in his step. Although he did not manage to get all the information out of Giggle, he did manage to glean some knowledge about the Awareness country. As long as he continued with his methods, he would surely be able to get all the information he needed from Giggle.

Right at that moment, Doll sent a Wechat message and asked, “What are we going to do with Black Phoenix? Someone nearby had already called the police.”

Zhao Yao just remembered that he kind of demolished Black Phoenix’s house when he defeated him and took him into the dimension portal.

In a few moments, Zhao Yao reached the Door of Everlasting Life in the depths of the snowy mountains. Black Phoenix seemed to have frozen completely. Zhao Yao casually picked him up and threw him into the Door of Everlasting Life.

Not long after, black clouds billowed as Black Phoenix was thrown out of the Door, revived.

Black Phoenix who was thrown out on the floor was still in a state of extreme fear after experiencing death. He slowly regained his senses as he raised his head and looked at the snowy world around him and also at Zhao Yao.

“I... didn’t die?”

“What is going on?”

“What just happened?”

Zhao Yao calmly said, “Nothing. You almost died but I saved you, that’s all.”

As he stared at Zhao Yao standing before him, it finally dawned on Black Phoenix that the difference in power between him and this man was at a level beyond what he could ever imagine.

Black Phoenix stared at Zhao Yao as he asked in a scared and nervous tone, “What do you want? If you’re talking about the duel, rest assured, I won’t do such a dumb thing again...”

He stared at Zhao Yao and emphasized every word as he said, “All those who dream of wanting to duel with a monster like you, are all idiots.”

Zhao Yao smiled. He stretched out his hand towards Black Phoenix, who was kneeling on the floor, and said, “Be my son.”

“Ah?” Black Phoenix whipped his head up in astonishment.

Zhao Yao’s lips curled up in a smirk as he let Doll film him from a flattering angle.

He stretched out his palm and repeated his words. “Be my son, Black Phoenix.”

The next day, Black Phoenix acknowledged Zhao Yao as his father. The video of Zhao Yao accepting Black Phoenix as his godson spread like wildfire across the Internet, dispelling all the previous rumors at once.

For the next few days, Zhao Yao occasionally popped by the little black house in Closers World to chat with the alien cats and especially with Giggie, to get to know more about the Awareness country from him.

However, as there was a lot of knowledge about it which needed a lot of fact-checking, progress was slow.

Days passed. As Zhao Yao was trying his best to learn about the Awareness country in the shortest period of time, Elizabeth had also finally reached Level 25. Zhao Yao decided on Dust Ball as the fifth supercat to be upgraded to Level 25.

He would just need to wait for Dust Ball to reach Level 25 before this maximum level could be advanced again and allow him to continue leveling up all five supercats.

Compared to the alien cat's power borrowed through the Cat Prince Costume, Zhao Yao still preferred the abilities of his own contracted cats in the Book.

This morning, Zhao Yao was happily thinking of how the end of the month had come again, which meant another round of monthly payouts. He did not know how many experience points or rewards he would be able to gain this time round.

He arrived at Frosted Teeth City as usual today. However, when he reached Wheatley's room, he saw a very nervous Wheatley as well as the serious looks on the cat slaves beside her, including Red Sun and Black Dune.

When Zhao Yao appeared, Wheatley immediately looked up and said, "Guang Yu, you're here!" She stood up and continued, "Let's go everyone. The General Assembly is about to start."

Zhao Yao was surprised. "General Assembly? What's that?"

On this rare occasion, Wheatley's expression turned serious as she said, "It's the General Assembly for War. We are about to go to war again."

Zhao Yao was even more surprised. "War?"

Red Sun scoffed as he said scornfully, "You don't even know this? We Short Fur Tribe have always been fighting against the Long Fur Tribe by forming an alliance with the Furless Tribe. This three-pronged battle has been going on for decades.

This time, the Long Fur Tribe has initiated an offensive after recuperating for two years. It's time for war again."

Wheatley sighed in resignation. "I hate battles the most."

Next, Wheatley led her cat slaves in activating Dimension Travel as they left the cat planet, Satol, directly and headed towards another star in the universe.

The Short Fur Tribe, Furless Tribe and Long Fur Tribe each ruled over different stars in the Milky Way. Satol, the cat planet which Zhao Yao was on, was one of them.

Zhao Yao followed Wheatley and the rest through the Awareness Dimension and back to the physical world. When they arrived, a planet that looked destroyed and broken, covered in magma with lightning thundering all around appeared before them. A half-destroyed moon continued to rotate about the planet.

“War planet Heris, the headquarters of the Furless Tribe.” Wheatley sighed and said, “Let’s go.”

The next moment, the line of cat and humans traversed through the Awareness Dimension again. When Zhao Yao and company arrived back in the physical world, rows of enormous steel fortresses appeared before them.

Rows after rows of strongholds appeared on the surface of the planet like rolling mountains, making their scalp go numb just by looking at it.

Even in midair, Zhao Yao could feel countless explosions of Awareness filling the sky around them, even sweeping past their bodies, as if it was confirming their identities.

This was a planet that had been completely designed to be a battle stronghold. Even Zhao Yao gulped at the sight before him. It was his first time seeing such a magnificent scene.

Wheatley led the crowd to a huge entrance. Immediately, a few Short Fur Tribe cat slaves that were clad in armor came forward to welcome them.

“Are you Lord Wheatley? The meeting will begin tomorrow. Would the guests like to rest for a while first?”

Wheatley twitched her lips in annoyance and said, “Bring us to our rooms.”

Wheatley and the rest followed the cat slaves to travel through the Awareness Dimension again, arriving in front of a guest room.

Just as Wheatley was about to walk into the room, a palm burst through the walls of the guest room and caught a cat slave beside Zhao Yao. The cat slave was thrown out and landed with a loud thud, slamming right into a wall nearby. The cat slave let out an agonizing scream before he collapsed on the floor.

After retracting his arm, the man rubbed his elbow as barged through the walls of the guest room and walked out. He laughed sinisterly the moment he saw Wheatley. “Wheatley, this is the new physical body I requested from the Furless Tribe. What do you think about it?”

His gaze swept across Zhao Yao and gang, before turning to look at the cat slave he had injured gravely. He twitched his lips and said, “The quality of your new cat slave still seems pretty bad. Why don’t I just kill all of them so you can get a new team.” As he said that, he turned his gaze on Zhao Yao.

Chapter 1030: Time Freeze

Zhao Yao glanced at the man who had just attacked them.

“He is more than 2.5 meters tall with a physique that is unnaturally strong for a human. His skin is glittering, so it doesn’t seem like he has a normal epidermis layer either...” Zhao Yao was carefully analyzing all these details in his mind. “When he opened his mouth just now... It looked like there were a few long fangs inside... Did he turn his teeth into a weapon as well?”

“This guy is obviously not a normal human being. The Furless Tribe... are they using human bodies to battle...?”

His gaze landed on the man’s head as he saw the Level 38 label hovering above.

“A Level 38 Awareness... The supercats from the Short Fur Tribe are all very strong indeed...”

The man seemed to have noticed Zhao Yao observing him. He turned to Zhao Yao and smiled as he said, “Wheatley, this cat slave of yours doesn’t look very happy. Do you want me to teach him a lesson?”

As he said that, he took a step out and stretched out his palm, as if he was going to grab Zhao Yao’s head.

“Pi Pi! Stop!”

Wheatley and Red Sun were about to step up to stop him. “This is my cat slave. It’s not in your place to teach him a lesson.”

In this tense situation, Zhao Yao lips suddenly curved into a smile and burst out laughing at the muscular man before him.

“Hahahahahaha... Pi... Pi Pi?” Zhao Yao clutched his stomach as he pointed at the big bloke before him and said, “You actually call yourself Pi Pi when you look like this?”

He continued laughing as he said, “Hahahaha, this is too funny... I can’t, I can’t even... This name is too stupid... I’m dying it’s too funny...”

Wheatley was shrieking in her heart. All of them thought to themselves, “Shit! Pi Pi hates being laughed at the most!”

As he watched Zhao Yao laugh at him, the muscles all over Pi Pi’s body vibrated as the veins on his head popped out one by one.

Humph!

Thick fumes of white smoke gushed out of Pi Pi’s mouth and nostrils. A murderous glint flashed across his eyes as he said to Zhao Yao word by word, “You little cat slave, heh heh. You don’t understand the gravity of the mistake you have committed. I will let you...”

Wheatley screamed, “Enough, Pi Pi. If you dare touch my cat slave, I will tell Dad.”

Red Sun stood before Zhao Yao and immediately explained to Pi Pi, “Lord Pi Pi, this punk just became a cat slave not long ago. There are still many rules which he is not familiar with. He’s just an ignorant country bumpkin. Don’t take it to heart.”

Red Sun broke out in a cold sweat as he stared nervously at Pi Pi before him. Although he borrowed his Awareness from the man’s father and thus had an even stronger power of Awareness than the other party, it was still forbidden for humans to attack cats, be it in the Short Fur Tribe or the Furless Tribe.

Furthermore, they were in Furless Tribe’s headquarters, the war planet Heris.

Once he attacked Pi Pi to save Guang Yu, he might just be killed on the spot by another cat or human.

Furthermore, even though his power of Awareness was stronger than the other party, given the superhuman strength and physique of the man before him, the moment Red Sun made a move, he would probably be killed by the other party on the spot. Their distance was too close; he might not even have a chance to activate the power of Awareness in time.

“It’s just killing a cat slave.” Pi Pi laughed mirthlessly. “Surely Father wouldn’t blame me for that?”

Just as the tension in the air became even more intense with both Wheatley and Red Sun profusely breaking out in cold sweat, Zhao Yao suddenly started to back away.

Pi Pi smiled viciously as he asked, “You only want to escape now. Isn’t that a bit too late?”

“Urgh! So smelly!” Zhao Yao covered his nose as he continued backing off. He looked at Pi Pi and said, “Hey big bloke, you’re really disgusting. You just peed in front of everyone. Are you a pervert?”

Pi Pi was stunned for a moment. He immediately felt that something was amiss and looked down at his pants. He did not realize that a huge wet patch had appeared on his crotch and an intense stench of urine came out of it.

“How is this possible?!!!”

“When did I even pee?!”

“But no one attacked me just now.”

“My five senses have been fixed on them all this while. Everyone here did not show any abnormal behavior... Which means...”

“I really peed my pants?!”

At this moment, Pi Pi could not think of any other possible reason to explain how he had wet his pants. He began to suspect himself of peeing in his pants.

Everyone else trying to hold their laughter in while looking confused and curious at the same time, while Zhao Yao just looked at him with contempt. When Pi Pi saw all the looks on their faces, the blood in his body boiled with rage and humiliation as his Awareness exploded with these feelings.

“You rascal! I will tear you apart!” However, the next moment, his face stiffened as he felt around his butt. “How is this possible?”

Zhao Yao chuckled as he pointed at Pi Pi and said, “Hey big bloke. Are you thinking, ‘how is this possible?’, again?”

“You!” Pi Pi glared furiously at Zhao Yao. “You did this?”

“Hey hey, don’t blame me.” Zhao Yao waved his hands in denial and said, “Given your abilities, you should be able to easily detect that I didn’t move at all just now. I was just observing your actions and your panicked expression as I smelled a new pungent smell coming from you...”

Zhao Yao pointed at him and said with conviction, “You must have shat in your pants!”

“Ah!!” Pi Pi bellowed in rage as he wanted to charge right up to Zhao Yao and tear him apart. However, his face changed again as he stared at his ballooning pants.

“How is this possible?!” Pi Pi was shrieking in his heart. “Not again?”

“No... this can’t be...” Pi Pi frantically scanned across the astonished, confused and gloating looks in the crowd before him. “My eyes can even see the movement of particles in the air clearly, my skin can detect the gaze of all living beings. In that one minute just now, there was definitely no one who had come near me and no one who activated the power of Awareness. But why...”

“Why is my ass covered in a pile of shit? Did I really shit in my pants?”

“That can’t be... I felt nothing at all... Given the sharpness of the senses of this body, I can even clearly sense the movement in my intestines. If it’s really me... it’s impossible for me to not have any feeling from it. Unless...”

Zhao Yao pointed at Pi Pi and said, “Judging from your bewildered expression, you must have bowel incontinence. Because in severe cases of incontinence, you won’t be able to feel yourself peeing or shitting.”

Pi Pi was stunned beyond words.

Zhao Yao continued, “First it was peeing, then it was shitting. Did you pee in your pants because you were scared when you saw me?”

Seeing the rage in the man’s eyes, Zhao Yao immediately smiled and said, “To have incontinence even with such a strong body, is it because of the mismatch between your Awareness and physique? Is the human or cat who gave you this body doing that responsibly? Is there something wrong with your body now? Will you lose control of yourself and will other problems arise? Will you break down self-destructively eventually?”

Pi Pi’s expression turned even graver as he heard Zhao Yao’s analysis of his situation. When he heard the last sentence, he jumped up with all his might and disappeared in a flash.

“Little cat slave. Just wait, I will come for you next time.”

Looking at Pi Pi who had gone far off, Wheatley and Red Sun finally relaxed.

Wheatley said, “That scared me, Guang Yu. Thank goodness something went wrong with his body and he left.”

Zhao Yao smiled and said, “There’s nothing wrong with his body. I just stuffed dirty things in his pants.”
