Chapter 1031: Furless

Red Sun scolded him in rage, “Stop saying nonsense, do you know how lucky you are today? Your luck won’t be so good all the time. Don’t spout rubbish again and offend other cats!”

Zhao Yao just smiled. He did not continue speaking, but in his heart he became even more cautious of the alien cats’ powers.

The Short Fur Tribe’s power of Awareness was already a difficult power to deal with by itself. Coupled with that kind of superhuman physique, it would make their capabilities revolutionary.

Next, Zhao Yao, Wheatley and the rest stayed in the guest house. Zhao Yao seized the chance to return to Closers World and talk to Giggie and the other cats, collecting information about the Awareness country, as well as the Short Fur Tribe and the Furless Tribe. After all, even Zhao Yao felt a sense of urgency while he was on the war planet.

In Closers World, Diana and Catherine rested on the clouds above and listened to the unending screams coming from the little black house. They shook their heads as Diana said, “What’s up with Zhao Yao nowadays, he’s pushing himself so hard. It’s as if he’s a fake Zhao Yao.”

Catherine said, “Maybe he’s facing a mid-life crisis. He’s almost 30 years old. He hasn’t gotten married and doesn’t even have a girlfriend. He doesn’t take care of his appearance and only knows how to bully cats at home all day long... How perverted.”

In the little black house, Zhao Yao pursed his lips. “What do these two silly cats know? It’s all because of those alien cats.”

Thinking about how he had been working so hard for the past half of the year, Zhao Yao became angry. The more he thought about it the angrier he became.

“My life motto is to live an easy life and enjoy the fruits without the labor. Now I’m actually being forced to work hard everyday to become stronger.”

He grabbed Giggle and snipped away at his fur irrationally. “It’s all because of you guys!”

“Quick tell me all the information you know or I’ll snip off your balls!”

“Meow!!!!!”

A night of the sped up dreamscape passed. Everything was peaceful and no one knew where Pi Pi went. Anyway, he did not come back for Zhao Yao again.

After slogging away for a night, Zhao Yao got much of the information he needed about the Short Fur Tribe, Furless Tribe and the war planet. The information he had about the Awareness country was filled in by a huge margin as well.

“I’m almost there. At this rate, I would just need another one or two days to finish analyzing Giggle’s information about the Awareness country. After which, I will be able to upgrade Closers World myself.”

Early in the morning the next day, Black Dune came to find Zhao Yao not long after he returned to the guest house to prepare to go for the Assembly.

Walking amidst the steel strongholds, Zhao Yao could see that there were a lot of Furless Tribe cat slave soldiers around. The lowest levels among them were all above Level 10 while the higher levels were above Level 20.

What made Zhao Yao even more surprised was the physique of these Furless Tribe cat slaves.

Almost all of them had a superhuman physique which alone could allow them to survive for long periods of time in the universe.

The cat slaves that filled the whole war planet were in fact a superhuman unit.

“What Giggle and the rest said were true. The supercats from the Furless Tribe had the power to strengthen, reconstruct, and evolve physical bodies. Even if their apostles lost their superpowers, the only thing they would lose was the power of Awareness. They would still retain their superhuman physiques.”

“The way they use the power of Awareness was different from that of the Short Fur Tribe too...”

At that moment, Zhao Yao stared at the cat slaves from the Short Fur Tribe. The information Giggie revealed to him yesterday kept replaying in his mind.

Unlike the Short Fur Tribe, which used the power of Awareness to conduct all sorts of Awareness distortion, Awareness control and even Awareness attacks, the Furless Tribe only used the power of Awareness for strengthening their physical bodies.

After much onerous training, they reached a stage where their Awareness and physique merged into one. Their Awareness was fully locked into their physical bodies and inseparable.

Their power of Awareness could not leave their bodies or be used in attacks, and it certainly could not be used to traverse through the Awareness Dimension.

After sacrificing all those unique powers of Awareness, what they got in return was an unbelievably scary, immensely strong, powerful and sturdy physique.

After their Awareness and physical bodies merged, the strength of their bodies were unimaginable. At the same time, their superhuman defense far exceeded that of similar supernatural beings.

“They are like super sandbags, with long, tank-like blood vessels,” Zhao Yao thought. “It might be even scarier than the physical body Pi Pi controlled yesterday.”

Sensing the moodiness in the atmosphere, Black Dune looked at the broken moon in the sky and asked, “The moon here looks really weird. Why is in such a deformed shape? Did some sort of astronomical disaster happen before?”

Red Sun and Wheatley paused for a moment.

Red Sun paused and stared at the half-broken moon in the sky. He said in a soft voice, “That moon broke apart when something crashed into it.”

“Something crashed into it!!” Black Dune stared at the deformed moon in astonishment.

Blue Moon, who came along with them, asked in bewilderment, “How is that possible? Such a... such a huge moon actually...”

Red Sun’s expression was complicated. He explained, “It was broken by the previous Cat King of the Furless Tribe.”

Everyone was astonished and awestruck by what he had just said. Black Dune asked, “They actually broke the moon around the headquarters. Does that mean the Long Fur Tribe cats had attacked them?”

“No.” Wheatley pursed her lips before she continued, “It was broken in battle with the current Cat King of the Furless Tribe, White Short Star, as the two cats were fighting for the throne. These muscular babarians from the Furless Tribe are hopeless. They only know how to solve their problems with brute force.”

Seeing the shocked faces around her, Wheatley said, “You guys will understand once you see more battles with the Furless Tribe in it. These guys’ physical bodies are constantly evolving and have unimaginable power. They have super defensive powers, so when they fight, it is very normal to see destruction in the planet environment.”

Zhao Yao was analyzing all that he heard in his heart. “If they can break the moon apart, it is not just immense powers. It would also require a gigantic and sturdy physique. All three conditions must be present... in that case, the cats in the Furless Tribe...”

Gasps and shouts of astonishment filled Zhao Yao’s ears as the spot they were standing at had been enveloped by a huge shadow.

Zhao Yao looked up and saw a huge black shadow standing atop them.

It was a furless cat with a body that was hundreds of meters long.

The gigantic cat materialized in thin air and flew across their heads, before it slowly landed at the field not far away from them.

It took a light step on the ground, instantly creating booming vibrations, as if there was a mini earthquake going on.

When its tail swept across the air, huge gusts of strong wind swept across them, which sent Zhao Yao's hair flying.

“Level... 70?” Zhao Yao stared at the gigantic cat before him and fixed his gaze on the cat's head. This alien cat had the highest level of Awareness he had ever seen in his life.

From its huge physical body, Zhao Yao could feel a shocking wave of strength, power and grandeur emanating from this cat.

Chapter 1032: Meeting

“I want!” Zhao Yao looked at the huge cat who had the greatest power of awareness that he had seen. A great desire surged within him. “I want! I want this cat!”

Thinking of how he was going to ride, lay and stand on such enormous cat, he became excited.

“What's with you Guang Yu?” Wheatley felt Zhao Yao was acting weird and looked at him curiously.

Zhao Yao suppressed his excitement and shook his head as he said, “It's nothing. I'm excited to see such a large cat.” He turned to Wheatley and asked, “Is this cat the Cat King of the Furless Tribe?”

“Of course not. That's one of the eight Furless Tribe's Huge Cat God.” Wheatley said, “Furless Tribe's Cat King, White Short Star, is much larger than he...” After some recalling, she stretched her hand. “Very, very, very large!”

Zhao Yao asked curiously, “Two times? Three times? Or ten times?”

Wheatley frowned as she calculated mentally the size difference. Finally, she pouted her lips and said, “This is a secret! How could I tell you?”

Zhao Yao thought, “Her mathematics are bad. She can’t even calculate the difference.”

Zhao Yao was excited by the information about White Short Star. To capture those cats, he had to put in more effort.

Zhao Yao followed Wheatley to the stronghold’s huge hall.

The hall did not have ceilings but was exposed to the night sky. The length and width were too huge to see the ends. The hall was like a huge open plaza.

There were lots of various colored and sized supercats with their cat slaves at the plaza.

Zhao Yao surveyed the supercats and observed different levels shown above their heads.

According to his intelligence, only important cats from the Short Fur and Furless Tribe attended this meeting. Most of them were very powerful. Only a small portion were of Level 10 to Level 20 and they had powerful support behind them.

Before the start of the meeting, Zhao Yao observed that the supercats only mingled with those of similar levels. It was rare to see supercats with huge level difference mingling together.

Zhao Yao’s eyes focused on Pi Pi, whom he met yesterday. Pi Pi had a height of 2.5 meters and was mingling with other supercats.

Zhao Yao observed the level indicators above their heads and they were Level 30 to Level 40 supercats or humans.

Sensing Zhao Yao’s gaze, Pi Pi turned his head and smiled cruelly before ignoring him totally.

“He’s vengeful,” Zhao Yao thought. “According to Wheatley, he’s her big brother. This is troublesome.”

Wheatley found a place to settle down but did not mingle with other supercats. Instead, she grabbed Zhao Yao's arm and said playfully, "Guang Yu! You haven't told me the story for today, quickly tell me the story!"

Zhao Yao told his story to Wheatley while he observed the crowd in the great hall. Soon he discovered something unusual.

He saw several furless cats, who were a few hundred meters long, sprawling like ranges of mountains. Their eyes moved around as they communicated telepathically. The Level 70 furless cat whom Zhao Yao had seen before was among them.

A few furless cats, who were about a hundred to two hundred meters long, rested on the ground as they communicated telepathically. Zhao Yao noticed that they were Level 60 to Level 70 supercats.

There were also three-headed cats, eight-clawed cats, feline humans who were standing on hind legs and large cats with armor scales...

The cats of the Furless Tribe were not just merely huge and powerful. They adapted to different environments and survival needs, hence they developed various strange appearances.

"I'd love to capture all of them." Zhao Yao licked his lips.

Cats of the Short Fur Tribe looked ordinary and were similar to the Earth's cats. The other difference was that they were more spiritual.

As Zhao Yao told his story to Wheatley, a meow rang in the hall. Zhao Yao turned to see a grey cat meowing at his own family member.

With this meowing, the mingling supercats returned to their own families.

Wheatley brought Zhao Yao to her family's spot.

Wheatley's father was standing in the front while Pi Pi stood near Wheatley. The white cat Ya Xing, whom Zhao Yao had met before, also appeared.

Looking at the cat who had killed him before, Zhao Yao was stunned as the level indicated had dropped from the previous Level 30 to Level 25.

Zhao Yao thought, “He has become weaker? No, this should be due to injury. Was it caused by the Cat Hunters?”

Zhao Yao looked at the cat beside Wheatley’s father. The gray cat’s fur was shiny but there were no messy clumps. The gray cat sat quietly and was unaffected by the surroundings.

Zhao Yao was surprised that the grey cat was a super strong Level 72 supercat.

After Black Dune’s introduction, Zhao Yao got to know that this shocking gray cat was the most powerful cat in Wheatley’s family. He was Wheatley’s grandfather, the Short Fur Sage Grayley. He taught Wheatley and Zhao Yao the Dimension Seal.

The most powerful cat in the Short Fur Tribe was the Whitehand Grandmaster. Theoretically, he ruled over all the supercats in the Short Fur Tribe.

And below him were twelve supercat families. Wheatley’s grayback family was one of them.

The Whitehand Grandmaster and the twelve families controlled the fate of the Short Fur Tribe.

A majestic power of awareness emanated from the thin air and engulfed everyone as though they were submerged 10,000 meters below water. Everyone felt they were filled with the grand power of awareness.

“This powerful energy...” Red Sun looked at the direction of the energy. “The Grandmaster’s here!”

With a series of exclamations, a huge cat figure emerged from the middle of the hall. The figure flashed and transformed into a gray cat squatting on the ground.

The body of the ancient cat was full of gray fur while the paws were covered with white fur.

The ancient cat gave a worldly wise aura of graceful aging.

Its body was frail and declining. The muscles on the face were droopy and there were a few strands of white fur on the head. The four paws were licked shiny to the point of luminous but they were unable to hide his frailness.

From the human's view point, it was difficult to ascertain his age by observation.

Zhao Yap was able to sense his aging through his appearance.

The Whitehand Grandmaster was the leader of the Short Fur Tribe and was 50 years of age.

Zhao Yao looked at the Whitehand Grandmaster's head.

“Level 99!”

Chapter 1033: White Short Star

Seeing this cat, Zhao Yao understood that this Level 99 cat was the strongest Short Fur Tribe supercat, the Whitehand Grandmaster.

“Oops, my desire's acting up again.”

Zhao Yao wanted to put the cat into his arms and cuddle him to his heart's content. Then he would bring the cat home and never let the cat go out.

A strong power of awareness flooded the hall and everyone heard the frail voice of the Whitehand Grandmaster in their minds.

“White Short Star? Everyone's here, how long do you intend to sleep?”

Everyone kept very quiet and not a sound was heard in the hall.

The ground quaked for a while.

“What’s happening? Is that an earthquake?” Zhao Yao frowned and felt the series of quaking coming from the ground. He lifted his head. “No, not earthquake. It’s a slight change in gravity.”

“The cause of the change...”

Zhao Yao lifted his head to observe the night sky. The broken moon rotated and revealed its back to the alien planet.

A huge cat head occupied two thirds of the surface area of the moon.

The cat turned his eyeballs and his huge pupils looked coldly at the supercats in the great hall.

Zhao Yao was shocked. “Is this cat... overdoing it?! Wait, we’re at least tens of thousands of kilometers away from the moon? The power of awareness of the Whitehand Grandmaster can be transmitted over such huge distance?!”

Isn’t it covering the war planet and the surrounding night sky? No, covering and broadcasting is different. To be able to transmit power of awareness a distance of tens of thousands of kilometers... is perversion.”

The supercats and cat slaves exclaimed in shock as they did not know that the White Short Star had become that big.

“What did White Short Star do?”

“Did he swallow the moon?”

“The moon’s big, could his real body do it?”

“His body is no longer a basic one.”

The forehead of the cat moon face undulated like mountains and valleys which transformed into the image of the furless cat. He leaped in the direction of the great hall.

This was White Short Star separating himself from his flesh body. He used his avatar to attend the meeting.

The cat moon face closed his eyes and continued sleeping.

“Avatar?” Zhao Yao was shocked. “Is the avatar that large? The size and distance... Is he going to kill all of us in the hall?”

The cat avatar flashed and vanished into the night sky.

Everyone’s vision became dark and the great hall was covered by a large shadow. Zhao Yao lifted his head and saw a gigantic furless cat covering the sky above the great hall.

Zhao Yao was surprised as he said, “Teleportation? White Short Star has other superpowers?”

“Not other superpowers.” Red Sun said, “It’s Space Fold. He’s using energy that is capable of destroying planets to squeeze time and space. The effect’s similar to teleportation.”

“Using his body’s power to fold time and space?” Zhao Yao looked bewildered at the gigantic cat in the sky and thought, “A huge planet could squeeze space but a cat... it’s not logical.”

The gigantic cat turned his head and said, “Still... too large...”

The gigantic cat distorted his body and shrunk himself rapidly to become a dozen meters tall. Then he landed on the ground.

“No, not the ground.” Zhao Yao looked at the cat’s heel. “If that weight landed on the ground, the great hall would be flattened. His leg...”

Zhao Yao saw clearly that his leg did not touch the ground but floated a few meters above the ground. His body was filled with waves of distorted grains.

Seeing Zhao Yao's puzzled gaze, Red Sun explained, "That's Lord White Short Star distorting time and space to reduce his impact on the environment."

Zhao Yao looked in disbelief at Red Sun. Then he looked at the Whitehand Grandmaster and White Short Star. The more he looked at them, the more he liked them.

He had flexible sizes, was soft and was able to contract and expand with ease. He was a good cat.

Zhao Yao understood that the flesh body of the Furless Tribe was not limited to becoming stronger but was able to adapt to and surpass the universe.

The level indicator above the White Short Star was even more astonishing. It was Level 100.

According to Zhao Yao's estimate, even if Whitehand Grandmaster was unable to defeat White Short Star, he could use the Dimension travel to fight or retreat. White Short Star's "leap" required vast amounts of energy and was not flexible. He was unlikely to pursue Whitehand Grandmaster.

White Short Star, who had successfully landed, blinked his eyes and twisted his neck. His eyes were half closed and looked sleepily at Whitehand Grandmaster.

"You are..." White Short Star said in a daze. "Who? Who's waking me?"

Whitehand Grandmaster exhaled and licked his paws to control his temper.

Red Huge Star, a hill-sized Cat God, hurried behind White Short Star and said telepathically, "Boss, the Long Fur Tribe attacked us. We are discussing the war with the Short Fur Tribe today."

The White Short Star tilted his head and raised his paw to touch his ear. He said slightly dazed, "Ah?"

Whitehand Grandmaster swung his tail and thought, "I have already advised the Furless Tribe not to select their leader according to their fighting prowess as they would select an idiot for a leader. I'm right, as expected."

Red Huge Star explained with embarrassment, “Apologies, my boss is not fully awake. He’ll be alright in a while.”

“What’s that? I’m not interested in wasting time waiting for him. Do you know how old I am? Do you know how precious time is to me?”

Whitehand Grandmaster activated his power of awareness and rays of white light pounded on White Short Star’s body.

Violent fury, confusion, unconsciousness, depression and hopelessness... a series of disruptive emotions landed on White Short Star and exploded inside of him. The emotions would have caused an ordinary person to go insane.

The eyes of White Short Star opened abruptly and he looked fiercely at Whitehand Grandmaster. Then he calmed down, sprawled on the ground, pushed up his buttocks and stretched his back.

Sounds of his bones cracking were heard and they sounded like the booms of a collapsing mountain.

White Short Star shook his head and said, “Thank you. I’m awake now.”

“That’s good.” Whitehand Grandmaster said, “Let’s discuss in detail how to fight the war.”

Red Huge Star said, “The attack from the Long Fur Tribe was extremely fierce and they attacked 15 of our planets, 7 of our sectors and over 3 million cat slaves. We have to gather our forces quickly and retaliate.”

Chapter 1034: Genius

As the Cat God spoke, his body undulated and part of his back transformed into a large star map that showed the battle situation.

“They are not simply intruding and raiding. According to information from the battlefield, the Long Fur Tribe was building starports, stargates and strongholds.” He said grimly, “They’re occupying the planets they attacked.”

The war between the Short Fur, Furless and Long Fur Tribes lasted decades with sporadic fighting and stopping. The actions included raids for humans and resources or damaging each other’s power. It was rare to see occupation of planets and expansion of territories.

The power of the tribes were quite evenly matched. The Long Fur Tribe was unable to guarantee that they could continue winning so they did not spend resources constructing on the battlefield.

The Long Fur Tribe’s construction of infrastructure indicated they were occupying the planets that they had won.

The supercats in the hall frowned as it was bad news.

“This time, the scale of the war will be huge.” Whitehand Grandmaster said, “No one will be spared...”

The Short Fur and Furless Tribe were taken by surprise by the sudden brutal attack of the Long Fur Tribe. The Furless Tribe would lead the retaliation by traveling the Awareness Dimension to harass and collect information about the enemy.

The Short Fur Tribe required time to gather their forces and prepare for war.

The 12 families of the Short Fur Tribe were allocated different battle sectors. Wheatley’s family were assigned a specific location.

In the internal family meeting, as Wheatley’s combat prowess was not strong, she was not assigned specific battle missions. Instead, she was relegated to the reserve force.

Pi Pi sneered and said, “Father, Wheatley’s not participating in the battles. Why doesn’t she lend me her cat slave?” His gaze fell on Zhao Yao and he said, “I heard she has a powerful cat slave. Isn’t it a waste to put such a cat slave under her?”

Wheatley looked angrily at Pi Pi and said red-faced, “He’s my cat slave! You’ll not snatch him away from me!”

Pi Pi did not look at Wheatley. He gazed at his father and said, “Father, the enemy’s at our doorstep. We can’t afford to waste valuable resources.”

Wheatley looked at her father with a pitiful face as she was worried that Guang Yu would be snatched away. She would not have stories to listen to and no sanitary pads to use. What if Pi Pi refused to return Guang Yu, especially when he was extremely glib tongued.

Zhao Yao did not have Wheatley’s concern. He recalled Pi Pi’s malicious gaze and was worried that Pi Pi would try to kill him within a few days. Should he capture Pi Pi and teach him a lesson in the small black hut?

Wheatley’s father pondered hard as his tail wagged a few times. “Pi Pi’s right. Wheatley, you can’t be willful. This is war and victory’s more important. It’s a waste for Guang Yu to stay under you. Lend him to me for a period of time.”

“Ah?” Pi Pi was stunned. “Father, why...”

Wheatley’s father glared at him and said, “Guang Yu’s able to accept my superpower. Isn’t it more effective for him to stay under me?”

Pi Pi gritted his teeth and glared unhappily at Zhao Yao.

“But...” Pi Pi turned to look at Guang Yu. “He’s a new cat slave and was not properly trained. His loyalty’s not as dependable as Red Sun. It’s dangerous to endow him with too much superpower.”

“I’ll use him after a complete awareness distortion...”

Zhao Yao felt his hair standing on end as he observed Wheatley’s malevolent gaze.

“He’s trying to control me completely...” Zhao Yao’s eyes flashed. “I can’t use brute force. The War Planet has a lot of powerful supercats. I’ll be in trouble if they attacked me. And that powerful...”

He turned his gaze to the dazed Short Fur Sage Grayley.

He was daydreaming throughout the entire meeting but nobody dared to show disrespect to him.

During Pi Pi, Wheatley and her dad's conversation, everyone were more or less focused on Zhao Yao.

Ya Xing, who was deep in thought, looked at Zhao Yao and frowned. "He... looks familiar."

He recalled Zhao Yao's identity. Zhao Yao was the commoner in Frosted Teeth City who was shredded by his power of awareness.

Ya Xing thought, "Oh? He didn't die? He revived after his awareness was destroyed? Humph, interesting."

Sensing everyone's gaze, Zhao Yao thought, "Why don't I pretend I'm being controlled. I'm confident of that."

"Since I'm pretending, I'll do something more extreme."

Zhao Yao could not help glancing at Grayley as his indicator of Level 72 was too alluring and Zhao Yao was tempted.

"Whitehand Grandmaster and White Short Star... Borrowing their power is too difficult. Wheatley's father will not want to lose a powerful cat slave and will not lend me to Whitehand Grandmaster."

"If I borrow Grayley's superpower, the chances of success are higher."

As Zhao Yao was considering the details, the panel on Book flashed with new mission.

Mission: Bold Deception

Mission Objective: How can you let a Level 72 supercat slip through you? Do what you are supposed to do.

Reward: After analyzing strong power of awareness, Book will gain more knowledge. Use the Cat Prince Costume to borrow Grayley's superpower. After success, the diamond hall will have new items.

Penalty: None.

Zhao Yao's eyes glimmered. The diamond hall had not had new items for some time. Analyzing strong power of awareness to unlock new items was something he looked forward to.

"If I fail, I'll use Time Freeze and the Dimension Portal to escape. I'll frame the Long Fur Tribe too."

After thinking for a while, Zhao Yao led the crowd's gaze to Wheatley's father. "Everyone, please listen to me."

"As a cat slave, if I can accept superpower from supercats perfectly, then the stronger the cat, the better it will be. I will be able to fully use my potential."

Zhao Yao activated Time Freeze and used his Level 49 awareness to attack the three cat slaves behind Pi Pi before deactivating his superpowers.

He secretly implanted an order in the awareness of the three cat slaves.

A bearded cat slave jumped out from behind Pi Pi and said, "Accept superpowers perfectly? Only a genius cat slave that appears once in a blue moon can do that. There are no such people in the Short Fur Tribe."

Chapter 1035: Killing Zhao Yao

Zhao Yao braced his chest and said, "Correct! I'm obviously that genius cat slave, so I'm able to accept Fei Fei's (Wheatley's father) superpower."

“Nonsense.” A thin cat slave behind Pi Pi said, “Do you know what that means? That’s a one in a million chance! We’ve only managed to find one so far! Stop dreaming!”

Pi Pi nodded his head and was shocked when a tall cat slave behind him jumped out and shouted, “If you have the potential, then you should become Lord Grayley’s cat slave! Borrow his superpower and go to war! It’s obvious that you are not the one.”

Pi Pi shouted angrily, “Shut up.”

Zhao Yao said, “Pi Pi, don’t be angry. I think your cat slaves are correct. I’m willing to accept Lord Grayley’s superpower and fight for Short Fur Tribe! I’ll go through danger and even death to protect and fight for our tribe.”

The other supercats’ eyes lit up when they heard Zhao Yao’s words. “This cat slave’s glib-tongued. Perhaps, he’s the rare cat slave.”

Wheatley thought, “He’s indeed my genius cat slave who can provide my sanitary pads. He’s my greatest treasure.”

The cat slaves behind Pi Pi raised their hands and shouted, “Let him try! Let him try! Let him try!”

Pi Pi was infuriated. “Get out the three of you!”

Wheatley’s father glanced at Zhao Yao and asked, “Do you know how powerful Grayley’s superpower is? If you’re overloaded, you’ll die.”

Zhao Yao said, “For cuddling... For the Short Fur Tribe, I’m willing to try even if it costs me my life.”

Wheatley’s father pondered and nodded as he said, “I’ll let you try.” He turned to look at the dazed Grayley and said, “Father, wake up. I have important things to tell you.”

Seeing Grayley gaping and salivating in his daydreams, Fei Fei rubbed his father’s chin reluctantly. “Father, the meeting’s over.”

Grayley shivered and yawned. “Over? Carry on while I return. I have important experiments to do...”

Fei Fei rolled his eyes and bit Grayley’s tail. “Wait!”

Fei Fei told Grayley about Zhao Yao and asked, “Father, what do you think? Do you want to lend him your superpower?”

“Hmm, let’s try.” Grayley was solemn and squinted his eyes at Zhao Yao.

Fei Fei said telepathically, “Father, don’t forget to control him first.”

Grayley had a Level 72 awareness that was the most powerful in the family. If Zhao Yao was able to borrow his superpower, Zhao Yao would be the second most powerful warrior in the family.

Grayley was cautious as Zhao Yao was not related to him by blood. He had to control Zhao Yao properly to ensure there were no problems.

Grayley nodded and said, “Don’t worry, I don’t have Alzheimer’s disease. Yes, who’s Guang Yu?”

Fei Fei pointed at Zhao Yao and Grayley flashed and caressed Pi Pi’s head. “Good kid and pretty strong too. Borrow my superpower...”

“Father!” Fei Fei said helplessly, “That’s not Guang Yu. He’s your grandson Pi Pi.”

Pi Pi rubbed his bald head on Grayley and said, “Grandfather, I’m Pi Pi.”

“Ah?” Grayley looked surprised at the 2.5 meters tall Pi Pi and said, “Good grandson, I’ve not seen you for a few years and you’ve grown so tall? What happened to your fur?”

Pi Pi said helplessly, “My previous flesh body died. I changed to a fortified human body that was given to me by my friend from Furless Tribe. That’s not a cat body.”

“Oh.” Grayley nodded and looked angrily at Fei Fei, “Bad son, that’s my grandson Pi Pi. Where’s the cat slave?”

Fei Fei sighed. “Father, your aging’s getting serious. It’s affecting your cognition. When are you reincarnating?”

“Ah?” Grayley looked puzzled at Fei Fei and said, “What did you say?!”

Fei Fei shook his head and walked over. He brought Grayley to Zhao Yao and pointed to him. “This is Guang Yu. Control him and lend him your superpower.”

“Oh.”

“Wait!” Seeing Grayley about to use his superpower, Zhao Yao said, “Let me prepare myself. I’m a bit nervous.”

Grayley nodded and Zhao Yao looked at the Dimension Portal at the side. Inside were Matcha, Bai Quan and Zhao Xue. He said, “Do you understand what I’ve told you just now?”

The three of them nodded. As Zhao Yao was about to continue, his super sensitive body felt a strong gaze focusing on him.

Zhao Yao turned his head and saw White Short Star staring at him.

White Short Star gazed at the Dimension Portal and looked puzzled.

Zhao Yao was shocked. “He could feel the Dimension Portal?! Yes, he could use his body to distort space... By his reaction, he only felt something amiss. He can’t see the Dimension Portal.”

Zhao Yao knew he had to be fast. If things dragged on, he might be discovered.

Zhao Yao used his power of awareness on Matcha, Zhao Xue, and Bai Quan. “Follow my plan and don’t panic. Everything’s under control. There’s no problem.”

He looked at Grayley and Fei Fei and said, "I'm ready."

Grayley nodded and his Level 72 power of awareness exploded. Zhao Yao felt his mind emptied by an invisible force. His awareness was in turbulence and his vision blurred as numerous images flashed and a formless voice nagged at him.

Feelings came and left him. After Grayley retrieved his superpower, Zhao Yao's awareness was distorted and he became Grayley's loyal puppet.

Grayley said, "Done. Let me lend you my superpower."

Matcha activated Time Freeze at this instance.

The world stopped. Bai Quan and Zhao Xue who had borrowed Matcha's superpower, ran out from the Dimension Portal.

Target: Zhao Yao!

They have to kill Zhao Yao before Time Freeze ran out. With the Revival of the Time Distortion, Zhao Yao will be revived and be rid of the Grayley's control.

Zhao Yao turned his head and looked coldly at the two people before him.

Chapter 1036: Suicide Plan

Under Zhao Yao's cold gaze, Bai Quan and Zhao Xue stopped subconsciously in their tracks.

Zhao Xue thought, "First time... First time I've received such a scary expression from brother..."

Bai Quan was looking grave. "Is this the feeling people get when fighting with my boss? I feel my brain boiling like water. His murderous intent's like a knife cutting my skin... He's hard on his enemies."

"Zhao Xue, let's attack according to plan," Bai Quan said. "Don't be afraid. Boss said that he could only use Time Freeze. We also have Time Freeze. Only his superior constitution is helping him now."

“I understand.” Zhao Xue swallowed her saliva and said, “He’s scary.”

Zhao Yao was no longer powerful. To weaken himself, all the superpowers on the Cat Prince Costume were gotten rid of.

Zhao Yao could only activate Time Freeze to fight with Bai Quan and Zhao Xue, otherwise he would be killed.

At this instance, he only had Time Freeze and his superior constitution.

He had gotten rid of his Dragon Slaying Saber, Paralysis Ring and other items.

In order to kill himself successfully, he had planned in detail.

Before going to the alien planet, he knew he could be controlled by his enemies so he designed 20 ways he could kill himself. He remembered all these clearly...

“Attack...” Bai Quan charged first followed by Zhao Xue. They turned to lightning and attacked Zhao Yao from both sides.

Both Bai Quan and Zhao Xue had been training for a long time so their constitution were far superior to normal people.

With full effort, the movement of the body exceeded the speed of sound. The actions of the hands and feet were many times faster than the speed of sound.

With their pincer attack, they could pummel an armored car into scrap metal within seconds.

Zhao Yao remained composed under attack. He extended his hand and blocked countless lightning-like attacks.

“He’s fast!” Bai Quan and Zhao Xue were shocked. “Did he... train in secret?”

Their visions blurred and they lost sight of Zhao Yao.

“Where are...” Zhao Yao’s voice rang behind them, “... you looking?”

Bam!

Zhao Xue and Bai Quan’s backs were hit by Zhao Yao’s fists that carried the weight of mountains. They flew out from the impact.

Zhao Xue opened her mouth to vomit out the blood from her internal injuries but Bai Quan stopped her. “You can’t vomit blood and stain the place. The alien cats will discover that something’s wrong.”

After hitting both of them, Zhao Yao shot out like a rocket and his speed exceeded many times the speed of sound. Within moments, he caught up with Zhao Xue.

He pointed out his index finger like a high-speed bullet towards Zhao Xue’s brow chakra. He wanted to penetrate Zhao Xue’s brain and kill her.

Zhao Xue’s muscles exploded with energy as her hands reached towards her brow to block the attack.

No matter how hard she tried, she could not use her hand to block in time. She saw Zhao Yao’s finger approaching rapidly. In the next moment, her brain would be penetrated.

“I’m not fast enough,” Zhao Xue thought. “... Brother is too fast and ferocious... My head’s about to be penetrated...”

With the sudden outburst of his superior constitution, his finger was more powerful than a tank’s armor-piercing shell.

Zhao Yao gazed at her coldly as his hand and legs accelerated. As he was about to penetrate her skull, he saw her flash and vanish.

“What?” Zhao Yao’s head shivered and he recovered. “It’s the Dimension Portal! They set up the Dimension Portal before I came over? When? Before the start of the plan?”

“Before the start of the Time Freeze, Dust Ball had already set up the portal? No wonder White Short Star came over here. Is the effect of two Dimension Portals too obvious?”

“They set a trap inside to kill me. If I’m killed, I won’t be able to assist Lord Grayley!”

“I can’t go in!”

“I must not go in.”

Zhao Yao thought of many plans and his desire for survival surged. His legs stamped on the ground viciously in a bid to stop.

But his velocity was too high and he was too close to the Dimension Portal.

Though he reduced his speed, he swooshed and ran into the portal.

As he went into the portal, he was wary and nervous as he prepared for attacks.

The Extradimensional Belly was empty and there were no attacks.

When Zhao Yao recovered, he felt pain in his lower body and lowered his head to see his body severed at the waist.

Puff, puff, puff!

Zhao Yao continued to charge forward as his body was cut by invisible knives. His superior body was cut into pieces as his head fell to the ground with blood splattered all over.

“Consecutive uses of the Dimension Portals?” Zhao Yao looked at pieces of himself and he understood.

The Dimension Portals were vertically, horizontally and diagonally placed in front of the Dimension Portal where he charged in.

He was like a supersonic fish that was cut by a vegetable knife and sliced into many pieces by the Dimension Portals.

Zhao Yao used his supersonic speed and the boundary of the Dimension Portal to kill himself.

“I can’t recall having such plan...” Zhao Yao thought. “After thinking of the plan, I erased my own memories?”

“Awesome, I’m a genius to think of such a suicide.”

“It’s a pity I can’t see other reserve plans. I wonder if there were any genius plans to kill myself...”

Zhao Yao closed his eyes and he flashed. Like time travel, he recovered his original self and stood up.

“S*it, was it successful? I’m in great pain.”

Zhao Yao heard the voice and turned his head to see Zhao Xue with her broken hand and leg laying on the ground. Her face was contorted with pain.

She knew of the plan and reduced her speed and tried her best to dodge.

But Zhao Yao’s planned position and distance was too suicidal. Even if Zhao Xue jumped to one side after entering the portal, she would still lose her hand and leg.

Seeing Zhao Yao’s cold gaze, Zhao Xue’s heart sank.

“It can’t be...”

Chapter 1037: Level 60

Under Zhao Yao's cold gaze, Zhao Xue panicked and her pain was overwhelmed by her fear.

Zhao Yao was putting her under too much pressure. The dozens of suicide plans had all been pre-planned by Zhao Yao.

Zhao Xue was worried that Zhao Yao might have left some loopholes and was not killed.

"Just joking."

Zhao Yao flashed and appeared next to Zhao Xue. He caressed Zhao Xue's head and said, "It was hard on you."

"Oh! You scared me to death." Zhao Xue heaved in relief but her face turned red. She almost wet herself just now and she was unable to hold it any longer.

"Go and work! Don't forget to send me to Lucifer. I'm in great pain!"

Zhao Xue deactivated Time Freeze and she froze like a statue.

Bai Quan walked to the Dimension Portal and looked at the frozen Zhao Xue before asking Zhao Yao, "Is it settled? Boss?"

"Yes." Zhao Yao said, "I'm leaving. Take care of the loose ends for me."

Zhao Yao returned to the cat planet and his original position. With his superb memory and control of his body, he went back to his original pose and position before the Time Freeze.

Time resumed.

Grayley looked at Zhao Yao and frowned. "I feel that you are different."

Zhao Yao smiled fawningly, "I'm more loyal to Lord Grayley and Short Fur Tribe."

Grayley's beard quivered but he was not bothered as he was very confident of his ability. It was not possible to go wrong with a human who had inferior superpower and was controlled by him.

Grayley thought for a while and said, "Good, I'll endow you with my superpower. Take as much as you can. If you're unable to endure, you'll die."

"Let's proceed."

All the cats looked curiously at Zhao Yao and Grayley as Pi Pi thought nervously, "Don't let Zhao Yao succeed, otherwise I won't be able to deal with him."

Ya Xing thought, "A human who was gazed to death by me, how could he be that powerful?"

Wheatley thought fearfully, "My sanitary pads!!!"

Zhao Yao also looked nervously at Grayley as he was a Level 72 supercat. He did not know if there would be any problem. If there was, he would escape using Time Freeze.

Grayley knocked his head on Zhao Yao's calf and majestic energy emerged and was absorbed by the Cat Prince Costume.

"It's coming!" Zhao Yao was shocked. "It's a very strong power!" The Cat Prince Costume was obtained after one year's effort was equipment provided by the Book. It was no ordinary piece of clothing but a part of Zhao Yao's arsenal.

As the Cat Prince Costume absorbed Grayley's power, Zhao Yao felt a strong oppressive force. This was the first time he had such an uncomfortable feeling.

Grayley smiled as he said, "Pretty sturdy. Take more. Take as much as you can!"

Stronger power of awareness flooded and gradually... Zhao Yao felt that the Cat Prince Costume was starting to strain under the heavy load.

"Level 72 superpower... It's not easy to borrow."

Zhao Yao became grim and said, "Please stop, I'm unable to hold it..."

Grayley stepped back a few steps and looked disappointed at Zhao Yao. "Hmm, stronger than Fei Fei but still not my match or Moon Shadow."

Moon Shadow was Grayley's strongest cat slave. He was a human that could borrow a large portion of Grayley's superpower.

Grayley made such a comment because the Cat Prince Costume only attained Level 60.

Grayley looked at Zhao Yao with admiration as he was a rare cat slave with great potential.

Zhao Yao thought, "Level 60, is that Cat Prince Costume's current limit? Perhaps, I have to use the Improvement Stone to strengthen it..."

Pi Pi jumped up and said, "I said that Zhao Yao could not be that rare genius."

Wheatley said solemnly, "Grandfather, return Guang Yu to me. I have great use for him."

Wheatley's father said, "Lend him to me. I'm in need of such a man."

"Stop the nonsense. It's a waste to if I lend him to you." Grayley was furious and slammed on the table. "Look at you silly cats. I spent so much time to teach you but none of you reached six-star or five-star level."

"Look at Night Night next door. He grew up with Fei Fei and trained hard since he was young. Now he's at six-star level!"

"A bunch of fools!"

All the cats kept quiet and dared not say a word.

Grayley looked at Zhao Yao with satisfaction. "Hmm, you are not the best but you're good. You'll follow me."

Wheatley lifted her head and shouted, "Grandfather! Guang Yu's my cat slave!"

In the Short Fur Tribe, a superior cat could not take away the cat slave of an inferior cat.

Grayley thought for a while and said, "Then you'll follow me so that you can be with your cat slave. This way, I'm not taking away your cat slave."

"Ah?" Wheatley was unhappy. "Where are you going?"

"I'm going home." Grayley said in a matter of fact tone, "You've got to remember, as a cat, stay at home. Don't gallivant outside. Staying at home is our tribe's tradition."

Wheatley's father reminded Grayley and said, "Father, you can't go home. You've got to go to the front line and protect our sector."

"Ah?" Grayley sprawled helplessly on the ground and looked in disdain at Fei Fei. "It's... It's all because of your incompetence that I have to fight on behalf of you. If I were you, I would kill myself out of shame."

Wheatley was unhappy but because of the stories and sanitary pads, she had to accompany Zhao Yao and Grayley to the battle sector.

Though Grayley was not interested in protecting the sector, he was very concerned about his new cat slave.

That feeling was like capturing a low level Pikachu. He wanted to develop him and see if he could be powerful.

"Let me think..." Grayley looked at Zhao Yao and said, "You just joined not long ago. You're lacking in skills. Learn more awareness skills. I'll teach you a few powerful ones.

And you have to train your body, otherwise the foundation will be weak. You have to be more durable... Hmm, this is the Furless Tribe's territory. Let them strengthen your body."

Chapter 1038: Evolution

Zhao Yao looked at the mission completion in the Book and heaved in relief. He was worried he could not borrow Grayley's Level 72 superpower and fail his mission.

With the completed mission, the Diamond Hall in Book evolved. Zhao Yao felt some of the power of awareness in the Cat Prince Costume being drawn into Book.

After some analysis, in addition to a Power Up Card, X2 Exp Card and the Cat Princess Skirt, the Diamond Hall had new items.

Improvement Stone: It is able to strengthen Book's equipment but with some chance of failure. It will cost one diamond.

Improvement Hammer: It is able to strengthen +7 and above equipment. The equipment will not be damaged when it fails. It will cost ten diamonds.

Cat's Eye Stone: It can be fused with Book's weapons and increase its power by 1%. It will cost one diamond.

The Diamond Hall allowed exchange of 10 000 experience points for a diamond.

Zhao Yao narrowed his eyes. "I'm exploding with excitement!"

After his supercats started evolving, the equipment in the Diamond hall was not able to catch up with the evolution.

The Power Up Card was ineffective on supercats above Level 10. The Cat Princess Skirt was replaced by the Cat Prince Costume. The only useful item was the X2 Exp Card.

Because the effect of the experience points was not as good as the evolution requirement after Level 10, Zhao Yao did not bother to use the X2 Exp Card.

For the past days, he accumulated two diamonds daily and he had a total of 21 diamonds.

After seeing the new items in the Diamond Hall, he wanted to use his diamonds to test out the items.

Besides allowing the evolution of the supercats and lottery draws, Book had a Diamond Hall where he could strengthen himself.

Though he would like to try but it was not the time for it. Zhao Yao focused his attention on the alien cats.

Seeing Grayley developing him, his attributes and skills, Zhao Yao was happy and concerned at the same time.

His constitution had reached superman level and he would not be discovered in the Short Fur Tribe. However, the Furless Tribe, who was adapted in strengthening and evolving their bodies, would discover Zhao Yao's superior constitution.

Zhao Yao had already formulated a plan after collecting information of Short Fur and Furless Tribe from Giggie.

After listening to Grayley, Zhao Yao replied, "My body's pretty strong. I'm able to fight, run fast and I've had great strength since I was young..." He leaped with effort and jumped to a height of more than ten meters. All the cats were shocked by his prowess.

Zhao Yao dared to exhibit his prowess because in the Short Fur Tribe, there were natural cases of humans with such strong bodies.

He had been in contact with the Short Fur and Furless Tribe for a long time even before the war with Long Fur Tribe.

Numerous supercats were reincarnated as super humans and the Furless Tribe managed many super humans, hence the human population in Short Fur Tribe had a sizable number of super descendants.

Once in a while, there were humans with super constitution.

Zhao Yao got to know this from Giggle so he dared to divulge and explain his super constitution.

“Oh? You’ve had a super body since young?” Grayley was trusting of Zhao Yao as he had distorted his awareness and made him a 100% loyal cat slave. Grayley said, “It’s good to have a super body, the stronger your constitution, the better...”

Grayley was happy to know that Zhao Yao had a naturally strong constitution. He was ecstatic to discover that his low level Pikachu was actually a luminous Pikachu.

Grayley looked at Fei Fei and asked, “When are we initiating the counterattack?”

“Seven ordered days later.” Fei Fei said, “Everyone needed time to prepare so we decided on seven days before attacking.

“Good, you’ll take care of our sector.” Grayley looked excitedly at Zhao Yao, “I’m training my new cat slave.”

Zhao Yao heaved in relief knowing he had made the right choice.

Wheatley was curious. She jumped up and said, “I want to join!”

Grayley flashed with Zhao Yao and Wheatley and they traveled in the Awareness Dimension towards places belonging to Furless Tribe.

Pi Pi looked at Zhao Yao vanish and gritted his teeth. “S*it, he’s a lucky guy. Humph, a human’s always human. They cannot be compared to cats. I’ll surpass you very soon.”

...

Zhao Yao followed Grayley and descended upon the material realm. His vision flashed and he was at a huge training field.

Thousands of humans were running, weightlifting, fighting, chasing and some were being beaten up.

Wheatley asked curiously, “Grandfather, where’s this place? Why am I not aware of such place on War Planet?”

“There are lots of things you don’t know.” Grayley said, “This is the Asura Arena for Furless Tribes’ cat slaves to train their bodies. We’re not here to train.”

“There are many superpowers of the Furless Tribe that can be used to strengthen the body. They is mainly training, abrupt changes, modification and evolution.” As Grayley spoke, he transmitted his power of awareness.

A strong gust of wind blew across the arena and a burly cat who was standing on his hind legs appeared before them.

Zhao Yao could feel the immense power of the furless cat who was three meters tall.

Every muscle was clearly defined like marble sculpture. Every movement brought along undulating flesh and blood.

The level indicator above his head showed Level 55 and Zhao Yao was well aware of his combat strength.

Zhao Yao thought, “In the Short Fur and Furless Tribe, the strongest supercats are Whitehand Grandmaster and White Short Star who are Level 99 and 100 respectively. The twelve families’ head and the Huge Cat Gods are about Level 70 to 80.”

“The cat before him was a middle-range supercat.”

Grayley said, “Corona, he’s my new cat slave. I’d like to strengthen his body. Could you lend him use your Blood of Evolution?”

Corona tilted his head and used his sensitive perception to scrutinize Zhao Yao. “His body’s strong. Is it natural?”

Corona walked one round Zhao Yao sniffing and observing him. “He has good foundation. Is he using only the Blood of Evolution?” Corona licked his lips and said, “Would you like to use the power of awareness to strengthen his body?”

“I’m not fusing the awareness and body together,” Grayley said. “He’s a Short Fur Tribe cat slave.”

Chapter 1039: Tough Guy

Seeing Grayley reject his suggestion, Corona replied, “Okay, the cost of the Blood of Evolution isn’t cheap, what can you give me?”

“Money, I have lots of money,” Grayley said. “One billion Cat Sterling? Or 1000 two-star cat slaves.”

“D*mn rich tycoon. It’s easy to make money from these dreamscape players.” Corona scolded in his heart. He was afraid Grayley might go back on his words and said quickly, “One billion Cat Sterling. Deal.”

Grayley said, “Let’s begin. I’ll let someone bring over the money later. Help me strengthen my cat slave.”

Corona extended one of his front paw’s claws and cut his chest gently. A drop of boiling blood fell on his paw pad.

Corona saw Zhao Yao’s puzzled face and explained, “My Blood of Evolution contains the body material which was strengthened by my power of awareness and life force.

Once the Blood of Evolution has entered it, your body will be taken over by the Blood of Evolution. Your body will become stronger and your willpower will be stained by the blood. If you survive, you become stronger and after training your awareness, it will fuse with the body and enter the stage where awareness and body become one. If you are unable to survive...”

Corona smiled. “Heh heh, you become my puppet.”

Zhao Yao was shocked. “This blood’s dangerous.”

Grayley said, “Don’t worry, I’m around to help you. Don’t worry about the mental part as he’s unable to stain you. You don’t need to use the Blood of Evolution to train your willpower. You’ll learn the power of awareness from Short Fur Tribe. Use the Blood of Evolution to strengthen your body only.”

Looking at the Level 72 Grayley and Level 65 Corona, Zhao Yao was relieved and nodded.

“Let’s begin.”

Corona flicked his paw and the boiling fresh blood shot towards Zhao Yao like a bullet.

With Zhao Yao’s superior reaction, he only managed to see a black blurred line before feeling chest pain. A surging heat spread throughout his body.

“Hey...” Zhao Yao opened his mouth and his face became contorted in pain as he fell to the ground.

Corona said, “When the Blood of Evolution takes over your body, you’ll feel a bit of pain. The longer you endure, the better the effect of the strengthening.”

Zhao Yao pressed on his chest as his face contorted and his teeth chattered from the immense pain. He cursed in his heart. “D*mn, he called this a bit of pain? I’m dying of pain!!”

Wheatley said in concern, “He looks like he’s in great pain. Is he alright?”

“It’s alright.” Corona sprawled on the ground and rolled once as he hugged his hind legs and tail. As he shook his body, he said, “The body will get stronger as the pain gets more acute. At most you’ll faint and wake up again. It’s alright.”

Wheatley said, “Can’t you cut off his sense of pain?”

“Every cell’s in pain. How do I cut off the pain?” Corona said, “The mental contamination is more serious, hehe... That’ll depend on your grandfather.”

Zhao Yao stood up as they gazed at him in shock. He said in a relaxed manner, “It’s good. It’s not that painful and it’s within my limits.”

Corona looked surprised at Zhao Yao and he scrutinized Zhao Yao's face continuously to determine his condition.

The Blood of Evolution was part of his superpower and he knew how painful it was for the blood to take over the body but Zhao Yao was able to do it casually.

“Impossible? Is there such a tough human?”

Corona could not resist saying, “Stop acting tough. Previously, there were people who resisted but they didn't last long. Screaming the pain out may help you last longer.”

Zhao Yao smiled and shrugged his shoulders. “Is it that painful? I don't feel it.” His face changed and his body trembled.

Zhao Yao did not look well and Corona said, “Humph, I told you not to resist. I'm well aware of how painful it is.”

“Hmm, it's very painful... Super painful... Extremely painful... So painful that I'm dying,” Zhao Yao said slowly.

Wheatley looked worried at Zhao Yao. “Guang Yu, do you want to lie down and rest?”

Zhao Yao raised his hand and felt the immense pleasure in his body as he said, “It's alright and it's only a little pain. Why do I have to lie down? Even if I die of pain, I'll remain standing.”

“Good!” Grayley said with admiration. “Our Short Fur cat slaves should have such an attitude. You're good.” His power of awareness flowed into the surroundings of Zhao Yao's awareness and formed a protective shield.

Zhao Yao felt the Blood of Evolution like a virus spreading wildly throughout his body. The blood contained a certain willpower that was contaminating his awareness. It was trying to manipulate and control him.

With Grayley's help, he felt his awareness being protected by an invisible armor. All the effects of the Blood of Evolution were unable to affect his awareness.

Grayley said, "I'll help protect you from the contamination of your awareness. You'll need to endure the physical pain. The longer you endure the better the effects of the blood!"

Zhao Yao nodded and activated Lucifer's Ultra Rapid Regeneration that transformed his pain into pleasure.

He pretended to be in pain. He also acted like he was nervous, helpless and brave as he looked forward to becoming stronger. He nodded and said, "Don't worry, it's just a bit of physical pain. I'll use my willpower to overcome it."

Corona looked in admiration at Zhao Yao. "It's a pity you're not with our Furless Tribe."

That gaze of admiration was like a cat lover looking at his cat being sterilized and the cat did not cry out in pain. Instead, the cat jumped into his arms and wanted to play with him. Zhao Yao was a tough guy.

Grayley said, "He's mine! Don't speak nonsense."

Wheatley said, "Guang Yu's my cat slave! My pitiful little Guang Yu, are you in pain?" She kept her wits and said, "Why don't we let Guang Yu enter a dream? Then he won't feel the pain."

"No," Corona said, "Everyone's limit is different. The pain is like a warning. If he can't feel the pain, after returning from the dreamscape, if his limit has been passed, his body will not be able to take it."

Zhao Yao waved his hand and said, "It's alright. I can deal with this minute pain. Let me tell you today's story."

Chapter 1040: The Blood of Evolution

One hour later... Zhao Yao was jumping around.

Five hours later... Zhao Yao was energetic.

Twelve hours later... Zhao Yao felt he was full of energy. He was so pleased that he could not stop.

More and more cat slaves surrounded him to watch.

“He was given the Blood of Evolution? Is that for real? He looks like he’s on drugs.”

“Super tough guy! His body’s trembling from the pain and he’s able to tell the girl stories!”

“He’s a real man!”

Grayley and Corona looked in surprise at Zhao Yao. This strong power of awareness and resilient attitude were the qualities of a top cat slave. Grayley was extremely satisfied and he wanted to train Guang Yu.

Six hours later, the feeling of surprise died down and became numbness and doubts.

“Is the guy becoming foolish?”

“He looked fine although it was a long time...”

“Could the Blood of Evolution turn bad?”

Corona thought, “It’s been a long time... Did he mutate?”

Zhao Yao understood that it was time for him to stop although he could continue. If he stopped, the effects would not reach their maximum potential but Zhao Yao thought that it was sufficient.

He was afraid that Corona or Grayley might dissect him if he continued.

He made his face contort in pain and he said exaggeratedly, “It’s becoming more painful... I can’t take it any longer.”

Hearing his cry of pain, everyone heaved in relief. That was the normal reaction after taking the Blood of Evolution.

Zhao Yao pretended to endure the pain for a while before he called it quits and let Corona take away the power of the Blood of Evolution.

The pleasure that Zhao Yao felt gradually vanished after Corona retrieved the power of the Blood of Evolution. He deactivated the Ultra Rapid Regeneration and felt his body strengthened by the effects of the Blood of Evolution.

Zhao Yao punched his fist towards the sky.

A gale gushed out from his fist and the shockwave made the surrounding cat slaves retreat in fear.

Zhao Yao waved his hand at the fearful cat slaves and saw violent winds, typhoons, and storms erupt from his hand. The nearby cat slaves were blown up into the air and they landed with a series of loud booms.

“What awesome strength!” Zhao Yao looked contentedly at his body and thought, “If I complement my strength with the Deflective Field, it will be an awesome combination.”

Zhao Yao felt his constitution doubling in strength. He was even stronger than Sphinx cat.

Corona said, “For the next few weeks, because of the Blood of Evolution, you would feel the side effects. Don’t have intimate relationships during this time. Have more rest and refrain from using your strength until you’ve fully recovered.”

“I’ll remind you again. You have to properly control your sudden increase of strength.”

Seeing Zhao Yao’s receding figure, Corona shook his head and sighed to the sky. “Why is he not one of our cat slaves?”

Grayley brought Zhao Yao and Wheatley to find a place to rest before he induced them into his dreamscape.

Zhao Yao and Wheatley returned to the gorgeous dreamscape where they first learned about the Awareness Dimension.

This time, the dreamscape master Grayley was with them.

“Though your body was strengthened that was only a foundation. The strengthening also prevents your body from being destroyed accidentally,” Grayley said. “As a Short Fur Tribe cat slave, your greatest strength is your power of awareness.”

Grayley chose four skills which he had pondered carefully. He looked at Zhao Yao and said, “I’ve selected four awareness skills for you. They complement each other in terms of attack and defense and the learning costs are not high. They are suitable for you.”

“Before we start the counterattack, you have to learn one of the skills and remember the contents of the other three skills.”

Zhao Yao nodded his head while Wheatley said, “It’s boring just learning skills. What about me?”

Grayley sneered and said, “You are learning too!”

“Ah?” Wheatley protested loudly as she said, “I’m not learning! I’ve learned Frost Dragon and that’s enough. Why do I have to learn more?”

“Aren’t you embarrassed to say that? You’re such a big cat and you only know one skill? You are not diligent in learning and you have bad results. You’re decadent and a bad role model for our tribe.”

Grayley activated his power of awareness that bore down on Wheatley. “You better learn diligently this time. If you don’t, you won’t be able to go out!”

While Wheatley was protesting, Zhao Yao was eagerly learning the awareness skills. Even if the skills were not his killer moves, by learning them fast, he would be able to formulate plans to counter them should he be attacked by the same skills. This was advantageous for Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao had the chance to observe Grayley's dreamscape. He thought, "I suppose this is Grayley's Awareness Country? In the Short Fur Tribe, only the Short Fur Sage could create an Awareness Country. All other cats who created one were attacked."

For the next few days, Zhao Yao spent most of his time in Grayley's dreamscape learning the skills.

Grayley's dreamscape did not have Diana's accelerated time so Zhao Yao's efficiency in the dreamscape was not much higher than outside.

During the training gaps, Zhao Yao managed to take a look at the end of the month accounting.

The end of month accounting was on the day of the meeting. Because a series of events occurred, Zhao Yao was caught off balance and he had delayed the summary until that day.

Zhao Yao looked at the experience points first.

Every 50 000 dollars of net profit would earn Zhao Yao 200 experience points.

Cat Wonderland expanded to Cat Wonderland Street with numerous powerful people protecting and guiding the expansion. In addition, Zhao Yao's fame also helped to boost the monthly income.

The Cat Wonderland Street provided Zhao Yao with 20 billion dollars in income and added 84 400 experience points to the Book.

The panel became Book: Level 8 (85 517/100 000).

Zhao Yao looked at the experience points requirements of the supercats. Only Lucifer and Sphynx cat required experience points to upgrade their levels.

Lucifer Level 8 (11 400/50 000)

Sphynx cat Level 7 (12 400/20 000)

With his current experience points, they were unable to reach Level 10.

Zhao Yao decided not to bother upgrading both supercats but he was considering using the diamond hall for improvements.

After some thoughts, he decided to focus on the lottery draws.

The lottery draws came from the market share of the catmint market. After the mission was upgraded, every 1% market share of China's market would yield ten lottery draws.

After Zhao Yao's repeated advertisement of the Dust Ball catmint and the support of the government, the market share reached 41% and he obtained 410 lottery draws.
