

Am I A God 1051

Chapter 1051: Kick

“He’s not moving!”

“He’s not reacting!”

Olivier was extremely excited as he had a strong feeling. “I can kill Zhao Yao!”

He twirled the nanowires viciously around Zhao Yao’s neck.

His eyes glimmered brightly as he tugged with full effort.

Pom!

The nanowire was straightened and the wires that was twirled around Zhao Yao’s neck emitted metallic scratching sounds.

The muscles of Olivier bulged from his effort and he exhaled a white mist as he exerted his full strength. However, the nanowires failed to make any marks on Zhao Yao. Not even a drop of blood was seen.

Zhao Yao turned his head and looked at Olivier. “Hey Zhao Xue, I’dlike to leave him to you but he’s eager to fight me. What should I do?”

Zhao Xue squatted on the ground as she held her stomach and roared, “Do anything you want as long as you don’t kill him!”

The corners of Zhao Yao’s lips lifted.

Olivier felt a gentle wind in front of his eyes and a sharp pain in his chest. He was flung far away.

A series of booming sounds later, Olivier had smashed through three thick trunks as he rolled on the ground. Then he smashed a large rock and came to a halt.

He lifted his head and felt a sharp pain in his chest.

“I have broken three ribs...” He lifted his head and saw Zhao Yao covering his chest as he floated towards him. Zhao Yao said, “Did you use your leg to kick Zhao Xue? Was it your left leg or right leg?”

Zhao Yao said, “You better not move. Wait for Zhao Xue to beat you to death...”

Swoosh... Olivier half squatted and like a compressed spring, he stomped heavily on the ground, causing it to crack. With a loud boom, he appeared in front of Zhao Yao. His hand flashed and Olivier obtained a super alloy bayonet. He stabbed Zhao Yao's chest viciously.

Pom!

A black figure flashed across him as though he was in a dream. He was unable to react and the steel blade that he was holding was stomped until it was deformed and broke. His stomach was kicked by Zhao Yao until he flew out once again and smacked against the ground. He rolled and created a deep trail that was more than ten meters.

Wah! Olivier spat out fresh blood. “My stomach... my intestines are crushed...”

“The difference in combat prowess... is too great...”

Zhao Yao floated towards him with his hands covering his chest. He said helplessly, “If you don't move, you won't get kicked. You don't seem to understand.”

Olivier flashed as he intended to flee.

Zhao Yao was like Olivier's shadow. He appeared behind Olivier and gave him a kick.

Bam!

Olivier's right hand fractured and he fell limply to the ground.

Ha! Olivier hollered and took out a thunderflash from his Dimension Bag. In the exploding brilliance, he fled in the direction of the ocean.

Bam!

Zhao Yao followed closely behind Olivier as the blinding light of the thunderflash had no effect on him. He executed a right whipping kick on Olivier's calf, which bent like a twisted dough.

Olivier did not give up because he knew it was a life and death situation.

His face looked fierce and his eyes bulged. Terror, fear, regret, anxiety, agitation, fury... his mixed feelings caused his adrenaline to surge.

"I'll die if I don't escape... I have to escape... my combat prowess is much inferior..."

"Why... Why am I afraid?!"

Olivier, whose hand and leg were disabled, sprawled on the ground. He used his remaining hand and leg to escape like a fleeing hyena.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

He was like a soccer ball that was kicked up in the air. No matter how much suffering he went through, or how he escaped or retaliated, Zhao Yao kicked him until he was airborne.

"Hey, stop running. I'll kick you to death."

After being kicked back to his original position, Olivier was filled with madness as he looked at Zhao Yao. "B*stard!"

"He didn't think much of me."

Shame and fear that Olivier had not felt before surged within. He looked at Zhao Yao red-faced and both his hands flashed as he took out a tactical nuclear bomb.

“Zhao Yao, don’t move!”

Zhao Yao’s expression changed slightly. Olivier discovered his hand becoming numb as Zhao Yao grabbed the nuclear bomb from him.

Olivier laughed hysterically and looked viciously at Zhao Yao with his red-shot eyes. “It’s of no use. Before the start of my operation, I started the countdown sequence to prevent failure of my mission.

The power of this tactical nuclear bomb is sufficient to detonate the entire island. You might not die but your kin and cats will die! If you let me go, I’ll tell you...”

Zhao Yao frowned and both his hands flashed. Then he looked at Olivier and said, “Are you done yet?”

The nuclear bomb disintegrated into pieces and dropped to the ground.

Olivier was motionless. He looked astonished at Zhao Yao and the bomb fragments. “How could it be? Even the best bomb disposal expert could not have done this, the bomb would have exploded halfway. Why...”

Zhao Xue, who had completed regeneration, ran over and looked at Olivier. “Come, fight with me. I’m going to hammer you this time.”

Olivier squinted his eyes and looked at Zhao Yao, who had walked to one side to make a phone call.

Olivier was feeling pressured. “Zhao Yao ignored me... I’ll kill his sister...”

Pom! Fists collided with fists. Olivier’s fist were armed with steel spikes and they were bent beyond recognition. Zhao Xue regenerated her fist and pummeled Olivier with her blood-stained fist.

“Beating a woman?! Ah!”

“Come on, fight!”

“Awesome!”

Looking at Zhao Xue beating up Olivier, Zhao Yao, who was floating in mid-air, spoke into the cell phone, “Doll, how’s the rest doing?”

Doll’s nanobugs, which were deployed all over Cat Island, detected anomalies. Zhao Yao hurried back to Cat Island to help Zhao Xue defeat Olivier.

Zhao Yao asked Doll about the situation at other locations.

Doll said, “Bai Quan’s having some problems. Do you want to send someone over there?”

“Let Anthony (the Star Cat with Teleportation superpower) send Sphinx cat over.” Zhao Yao looked at the badly beaten Olivier, who had a body strengthened by Level 25 power of awareness. Apparently, Olivier’s body was not as tough as Zhao Xue’s body which was trained according to Sphinx cat’s method.

“Good, I’ll let them know.” Doll stopped before saying, “There are two suspicious moving targets in Cat Wonderland and the black cat that swallowed Roly Poly and Mango... hmm, what’s going on?”

Chapter 1052: Three Outlooks

After Perditiion swallowed Roly Poly and Mango, he traveled at high speed and arrived in Jianghai’s rural area.

As he raised up his stomach, Roly Poly sneered as he was immersed in the stomach acid.

“This cat dared to swallow me. He has kicked a steel plate. Project X! Deal with him!”

Roly Roly placed his paw on the stomach wall and got ready to absorb his superpower DNA.

Project X shook his head and said, “He’s a supercat with the power of awareness. I can feel his superpower DNA absorbing energy from other dimensions.”

“Ah!” Roly Poly panicked and said, “Perhaps, he’s Zhao Yao’s new supercat? Zhao Yao’s finally making his move against me? No...” Roly Poly shook his head. “If Zhao Yao wants to deal with me, it won’t be so troublesome...”

Project X said, “Don’t think too much. Coordinate with me to capture his superpower DNA. Let’s deal with this cat first.”

Pom! Mango’s head knocked against Roly Poly’s stomach.

“Why is Mango here?!” Roly Poly was shocked and looked at Mango’s frowning silly look. He consoled Mango and said telepathically, “Don’t be angry Mango. Wait for a while, I’ll bring you out.”

Perdition, who was running continuously, stopped at a wall corner.

He licked his own stomach and was puzzled. “What’s this feeling... is my stomach upset? I’m thinking too much?”

Buzz!

Hearing the intestines in his stomach moving incessantly, Perdition massaged his tummy. “Am I having a stomachache? Is it because of breakfast? I’ve always felt that the cat ration fed to stray cats is of poor quality...”

Surveying the surroundings, Perdition walked into a small alley and thought, “I’ll find a place to relieve myself.”

Perdition found a corner position and tilted his buttocks. As he was about to relieve himself, a meow frightened him and he stood up.

He turned his head and saw an American Shorthair standing on a wall, looking at him unhappily.

Fish Ball looked at Perdicion and shouted, “Hey, burly guy, are you pooing indiscriminately?”

Perdicion was stunned. If he was human, Perdicion would have killed him but he was a cute supercat and Perdicion did not harm him.

It was a normal thing to poo but Perdicion was labelled by him as being “indiscriminate” so he felt uncomfortable.

Perdicion thought for a while then nodded. “You have a problem?”

“Are you pooing indiscriminately? Did you bring along a newspaper? Do you know where to dispose of your poo?” Fish Ball looked at Perdicion’s blank look and said angrily, “I know you aren’t prepared! Do you know that indiscriminate pooing is prohibited in Jianghai!”

Perdicion said, “Ah?!”

Fish Ball said angrily, “It’s because of a black sheep like you that I was scolded. Recently, there have been cases of poo being thrown indiscriminately in the small district. Was this you?”

Perdicion said, “How could I do such a thing? Besides...”

Perdicion thought for a while and decided to correct Fish Ball’s way of thinking so that he was not bound by human thoughts. Perdicion said, “Indiscriminate... Indiscriminate pooing is in our nature and a God given right. Why do you follow human rules?”

A charismatic voice filled Fish Ball’s mind. Perdicion activated his superpower.

Perdicion wanted to change the three of Fish Ball’s beliefs and let him understand that indiscriminate pooing was a cat’s natural rights=.

Fish Ball felt dizzy all of a sudden and thought, “Indiscriminate pooing seems alright... Why aren’t we allowed to poo indiscriminately?”

The cell phone in his backpack rang and Fish Ball woke up. He took out his cell phone and found that someone had sent him Wechat messages.

An uncontrollable person said, “Are you done yet? Why did you go out for such a long time? Are you pooing outside?”

“An uncontrollable person” was Xiao Yu’s new account alias. Seeing Xiao Yu’s message, Fish Ball replied, “No! I saw a cat pooing indiscriminately and I’m correcting him!”

He lifted his head and glared at Perdition as he said, “Hey! If you didn’t bring newspaper, go to the bathroom. Otherwise, I’ll report you.”

Perdition was dumbfounded and activated his superpower. “Why do we have to go to the bathroom? Don’t be bound to human rules. Free your nature and embrace true freedom...”

Fish Ball said, “Why are you full of nonsense? Are you going? I’m calling the cops if you don’t follow the rules. Do you know that this is my territory?”

Perdition looked surprised at Fish Ball. Perdition’s superpower was like using his willpower to break a spoon. The moment it broke, he had changed three of his target’s beliefs.

At this instance, he felt he was trying to break the steel column of a large building.

“His willpower’s strong and he is adamant about proper pooing,” Perdition thought. “Is it because he lost something important due to indiscriminate pooing? So he was unable to let it go?”

Perdition tried to change Fish Ball’s three beliefs but Fish Ball saw Xiao Yu’s figure in his mind.

Seeing that Perdition was not budging, Fish Ball said furiously, “Aren’t you going to the bathroom? I’m calling the cops!”

Perdition did not believe his superpower had failed. He glared at Fish Ball and continued saying, “Think of your nature. Feel your heart. Think of the things that you really want...”

Fish Ball was infuriated. Perdition did not listen to him and even glared at him.

“I would like you to go to the bathroom, why is that difficult? Why are you so uncultured?”

“How could it be?” Perdition was shocked. “Why haven’t his three beliefs been changed?”

Perdition did not know that he received Furless Tribe’s endowment, which was the fusion of awareness and body. Hence he had the power of awareness and a strong body but his superpower did not improve.

Fish Ball had a strong support of the power of awareness and he deflected Perdition’s Change of Three Outlooks superpower.

“I’m getting angry!!” Fish Ball was infuriated and howled into the sky. With his howling, pairs of luminous eyes came from the surrounding walls, bushes, balconies, roof tops, underneath cars to take a look.

Perdition frowned. As he was about to leave, his feet became weak.

Seeing the surrounding cats sizing him up, Perdition felt grave. “This is getting from bad to worse...”

Noodle came barking. After seeing Fish Ball, Noodle shouted, “Fish Ball, why are you howling? Xiao Yu asked me to call you back. You haven’t finished your homework.”

At this moment, Noodle opened his eyes widely as sounds of crackling rang in the air. Fish Ball dodged hurriedly as Perdition pooped indiscriminately. Dark curry contents spurted out, along with Roly Poly and Mango.

Roly Poly looked up in a daze.

“Are you kidding me?”

“What’s going on?”

Roly Poly slowly sat up as he stared at the mess around him in a trance. “This guy actually shat me out of his ass? Thank goodness no one saw...”

The next moment, clicking sounds rang out as lights flashed around him. The countless supercats that had gathered around them had taken out their phones quietly and started to take pictures of him.

Roly Poly froze on the spot as did his gaze. It was as if his eyes had turned to stone.

“My cat life...”

Project X commented exasperatedly, “Hey, Roly Poly, it’s just being shat out. There’s no need to be so pessimistic. My thoughts almost left my body back then. I’m still alive now and can even play a bit of Mobile Legends everyday.”

Roly Poly thought, “The whole world knows that I was shat out like shit by another cat. How am I supposed to live as a cat now...”

Project X consoled him and said, “Don’t worry, netizens’ memory of things only lasts for three days nowadays. Two days later when there is a new update in Closers World or an attack from alien cats or whatever, no cat will remember what happened to you.”

Right at that moment, Fish Ball shouted at Roly Poly, “Roly Poly! Don’t be scared!”

Roly Poly’s body shook. He turned and stared at Fish Ball, moved by his words.

Blinding rays of light emanated from Fish Ball’s body as he shone directly on Roly Poly. He then took out his phone and screamed, “Roly Poly! Smile!”

Roly Poly’s eyes turned blank as he collapsed on the floor like a puddle of mud.

The next moment, as Mango’s ability acted up again, the cat’s butt shook and another rain of poop splattered out.

Roly Poly's last strand of dignity was completely shattered by this second onslaught of shit. He stopped thinking completely. It was as if his eyes turned into two black holes; there was no sign of life left in him.

Noodle wagged his tail and ran up to him, asking in a concerned manner, "Don't be scared, don't be scared. I'll lick you guys up in a bit. You guys will be clean after some licking."

Fish Ball glanced at Perdition, who had passed out from the extreme diarrhea and scoffed as he said, "I literally scared the shit out of him." As he said that, he turned back to Roly Poly, who was about to turn to stone. "Let's take a few more photos first."

On the other hand, Doll, who had just taken a screenshot from the video, said to Zhao Yao over the phone, "The cat that ate Roly Poly and Mango has already been dealt with. Do you want me to take him back?"

"Lock him up in the Extradimensional Belly." Zhao Yao turned to look at the elder who was battling with Zhao Xue and said, "Same goes for this guy."

Zhao Xue raised Olivier high over her head as he said weakly, "Wait, I surrender..."

"Surrender?" Zhao Xue screamed. "Did you not check up on us before you came? Over here, losing is only the beginning."

After a loud thud, Olivier was ruthlessly smashed down against Zhao Xue's knee before he collapsed on the floor and passed out completely.

Zhao Yao turned and asked over the phone, "Where are the other two suspicious persons?"

Doll replied, "Let's do a video call. I will show you from there."

...

On the Cat Wonderland Street, Sebastian frowned slightly as he was put off by the crowd around him.

“China... Why are there so many people here?”

“They said Zhao Yao is here, but I can’t find him at all.”

Sebastian thought to himself, “I thought I just needed to come here and squash him to death. Looks like I still need to find a way to seek him out now.”

He thought about it for a moment before he went to a remote alley. His body flashed and he entered the Awareness Dimension, traveling through it and arriving at a luxury villa tens of kilometers away.

Sebastian returned to the villa he had randomly chosen and seized. He already regarded this place as his stronghold in Jianghai.

To him, especially after he had gained the power of Awareness, everything in the world belonged to him. The only difference was whether he wanted to seize it or not.

He turned on the computer and started searching for information on Zhao Yao.

“Hmm, heard that the person-in-charge of managing supercats in Jianghai is very close to Zhao Yao?”

...

In the forest on the outskirts of the city.

Bai Quan swiftly dodged the opponent’s attack as he leaped and flew up to the sky.

He did not want to fight with the other party. After all, Roly Poly and Mango had been captured. That situation was obviously more urgent to deal with.

However, he had just flew up to the sky when he felt the laser that had just attacked him sweep across his face.

“Eh?!”

The man who identified himself as Chang Haotian followed closely behind Bai Quan, grabbing him by the ankles and throwing him on the ground like a pinwheel.

Amidst the booming explosions, a trail of shadows followed Bai Quan as he crashed right into the ground, forming a huge depression.

Bai Quan slowly crawled out of the pit and frowned. His eyes seemed to have been blasted right through by the laser as he was close to blind now.

Although he had an immensely strong physique, the eyes were still a relatively weaker organ.

Laser attacks were a kind of supersonic attack. Once aimed at the right spot, they were almost impossible to dodge.

“The fluid in my eyes must have been boiling,” Bai Quan thought. “I’ll lose my vision temporarily. This can’t be helped, but it will be a bit troublesome.”

His ears twitched as he looked at Chang Haotian and said, “So this means you won’t let me go right?”

Chang Haotian broke into raucous laughter before he said, “It’s either I kill you, or you kill me. But now it looks like...”

Zoom! As the earth cracked apart, Bai Quan had already charged right up to Chang Haotian, pointing right at his forehead.

The two became entangled in an intense battle. Countless lasers flashed as they left chunks of burning flesh all over Bai Quan’s body.

However, the more they battled, the more shocked Chang Haotian became.

“While he is fighting with me, he is maintaining an irregular high-speed displacement as well. Is he trying to avoid my laser attacks?”

“This guy is so strong. In terms of power, speed, reaction time or fighting techniques, he is still slightly above me.”

“That was close,” he rejoiced in his heart. “If I didn’t blind him from the start, it would have been much more troublesome.”

“But now, a blind man is just a blind man. Even if you can detect my movements from the sounds I make, you won’t be able to predict how the lasers will strike...”

At the same time, Chang Haotian’s body transformed as he activated his superpower. His flesh and blood instantly turned into transparent diamonds.

The next moment, a strong laser beam burst out from afar, but this time, the target was Chang Haotian himself.

When the laser beam passed through Chang Haotian’s diamond body, it underwent countless reflections and refractions to become countless piercing laser needles that exploded out in all directions.

Chang Haotian moved slightly as the laser needles shot out in all directions like light coming out of a disco ball. The laser swept across Bai Quan’s body leaving burn marks all over him.

Chapter 1054: One Shot, One Kill

“Every section and shape of this golden diamond body was carefully and specially designed by me.”

“After receiving the blast from the laser cannon, it will not weaken the impact but strengthen it by reflecting it as countless laser needles shooting out in all directions.”

“As I move, the pathways of light change accordingly. The range of the laser needles becomes irregular, making it almost impossible to dodge.”

“Although the laser attack occurs at the speed of light, making it almost impossible to avoid, the speed at which it is refracted out as light can be seen with the naked eye. A truly strong and expert fighter should be able to avoid it.”

“Unless... he is blind.”

Whoosh!

As Chang Haotian took a step out, countless laser needles shot out from his body.

Bai Quan, who was totally unprepared for the attack, was almost instantly swept through by countless laser needles. Huge chunks of burnt flesh appeared all over his body as it sizzled with white smoke, as if it was freshly cooked meat.

“What attack was that?” Bai Quan was alarmed by numerous burns on his body. “There were suddenly so many laser beams and they almost all attacked at the same time. Does he have other accomplices? They all have the power of laser attacks?”

“Bai Quan must now be thinking whether there are other people attacking him.”

Chang Haotian scoffed and continued to charge towards Bai Quan. The fists of the two collided as both of them kicked out at the same time, as if two whips made of steel had struck at each other.

Amidst the booming explosion, both parties were equally matched in physical brawling. However, Bai Quan’s body had already been severely burnt and his chest was a burnt patch of black. His power and speed were decreasing.

Bai Quan, who had lost his vision, was totally unable to avoid the countless laser needles emanating from Chang Haotian’s body. The odds were against him.

“No, at this rate I will lose,” Bai Quan frowned to himself. “Then there’s only one way...”

Bai Quan thought of changing to a different battle tactic to see if he could crush his opponent once and for all.

However, the sky suddenly changed.

A dimension portal slowly opened as Dust Ball stuck her head out. Beside her was the alien cat with Mass Transfer superpower, Anthony.

Sphinx cat said, "Move aside everyone."

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh! A blast of lasers scoured the dimension portal, scaring Dust Ball and Anthony into retreating back behind the portal.

Sphinx cat stared at the battle scene and frowned as he said, "It's here?"

Dust Ball and Anthony hid behind him as they stretched out their head to nod before quickly retreating back inwards.

"Tsk, what a nasty scene." Sphinx cat shook his head as he watched the battle in front of him. He stood upright on his hind legs with his other two limbs crossed behind his back as he stepped out of the dimension portal leisurely. He proceeded to free fall downwards like a gigantic rock that weighed a thousand kilograms.

Bam!

Chang Haotian whipped his head around and saw a meteorite like body dropping from the sky and crashing right into the ground, creating a huge depression.

In the huge pit, a small body slowly stood up.

Bai Quan was shocked. He turned towards the source of the sound and thought, "This aura..."

"Teacher, you're here?"

Over the past few months, Bai Quan had to pass through the transferal gate to reach the snow mountains, where he would find Sphynx cat to borrow his abilities.

While he borrowed Sphynx cat's abilities, he would also teach Sphynx cat about physical training and physical battle tactics.

He was astounded by the realm which the other party had mastered.

“Don't... Don't call me...” A hoarse voice came out of Sphynx cat's mouth as if there was something stuck in his throat as he continued saying, “... Teacher.”

Bai Quan was even more amazed now. “Teacher, you can speak now?”

“Yeah.” Sphynx cat consciously touched his throat and said, “It's all because I have to... to... communicate with you humans. How troublesome. It's all because you guys can't hear telepathic communication, so I have to specially change some parts of my body.” As he said that, he became more fluent in his speech.

He stretched out a paw from his back and cracked his neck as he stared at the faraway Chang Haotian and said, “Hey, if you run now, I won't chase after you. After all, I'm not a young cat who will just kill the moment I see a person.”

Chang Haotian was stunned for a moment. He just stared at Sphynx cat without saying a word.

“This cat... is so strange.” He stared at the furless cat that had dropped from the sky and could not help feeling how absurd the whole situation was.

He did not feel any sense of enmity from that cat. If he did not focus on sensing that cat, he might not even have sensed it at all.

Conversely, ever since that cat appeared, uncontrollable feelings of fear started rising in his heart.

He felt like a rat that was facing an impending earthquake, or like an antelope that had been targeted by a cheetah.

These two completely bipolar emotions appeared in his mind at the same time, making Chang Haotian very confused and conflicted.

“Teacher? This Bai Quan is calling this cat his teacher? Are their superpowers all related to superior physical constitution? This cat should be stronger than Bai Quan right?” Chang Haotian looked at Sphynx cat and thought to himself, “Pure physical strength alone will not be enough to surpass the speed of laser beams, and it definitely won’t be as strong or sturdy as diamond. He is not a match for me...”

Sphynx cat frowned. “The murderous aura remains around you. Looks like you’re not going to give up.” He saw Sphynx cat stretch out his paw. That furless paw, arm and back suddenly warped and transformed as his muscles contracted violently. In the blink of an eye, his paw had already turned into the shape of a dragon’s claw.

Sphynx cat calmly said, “Bai Quan, remember this. When fighting with someone who has superpowers, the most important thing is...”

“One shot, one kill.”

Whoosh!

Chang Haotian was stunned for a moment before he felt emptiness in his body. His face was a complicated mix of shock and confusion.

He tried to look down, but he realized he could no longer do that.

Because at that moment, his head, torso and limbs had been dismembered into six parts, flying up towards the sky.

He had been dismembered into six parts by Sphynx cat and thrown into the air, before landing on the ground with a loud thud.

At the same time, Sphynx cat, who had just disappeared before his eyes, slowly emerged from the forest. He dragged a young man with him, who was the apostle that had been blasting laser cannons in hiding.

Sphinx cat walked over to Bai Quan and threw the young man on the floor as he slowly said, “One shot, one kill. Don’t give these apostles a chance to use their abilities.”

Bai Quan pointed to the dismembered Chang Haotian and said, “Teacher, he looks like he’s not dead yet.”

Chang Haotian’s head rolled around on the floor, his face looking utterly astounded, as if he wanted to run far away.

“Don’t talk so much.” Sphinx cat’s paw swept across the air with a trail of shadows and a loud thud. Bai Quan immediately fell to the ground as he clutched his stomach.

Sphinx cat narrowed his eyes at the diamond head that was still rolling about on the floor. “That’s why I say all these nonsensical abilities of you guys are really troublesome.”

He screamed at the transferal gate in the sky, “Take all of them back!”

Looking at the message he received on his phone, Zhao Yao nodded. “That means... there’s only two people left.”

“Doll, have you found them?”

Doll said, “These two guys have the ability to travel in the Awareness Dimension, I was not able to stalk them as such. However, one of the two guys have totally no intention to conceal himself...”

The next moment, Zhao Yao’s body flashed as he disappeared into thin air.

Chapter 1055: Fear Strikes

Sebastian walked into a huge building as if it were his own house.

According to his sources, this was the Jianghai government’s supercats management office.

He walked to the counter where the lady at the desk greeted him politely and asked, “Hi Sir, how can I help you?”

Awareness Distortion activated. Not long after, Sebastian arrived in front of a hidden elevator under the lady's directions.

Security guards, police and office staff.

Sebastian controlled all the defense personnel and office staff he passed by, turning them on his side.

"The defense over here in China is too weak."

He went up to the highest level of the building as if he was walking around his own house. At this point, there were more than a hundred people following behind Sebastian.

Sebastian pushed open the doors to the office on the highest floor as his followers trailed behind him in a single file.

However, he saw that behind the office desk, the office chair slowly turned, revealing Zhao Yao before him. "Actually, you don't have to try so hard to find me. You could have just sent me a message on Weibo."

Sebastian laughed, "I was wondering how I could come up so easily. Turns out you were waiting for me here all along." As he said that, his face immediately turned serious. He said to Zhao Yao, "Return all your supercats to me and I will spare your life and let you live as a commoner."

"Ah?" Zhao Yao rubbed his head as he said, "You look like a decent kid. Why do you sound like a fool when you speak?"

Sebastian's gaze immediately turned murderous as he glared at Zhao Yao. "You asked for it." He immediately activated his power of Awareness Distortion to completely control Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao glanced at the Level 15 label on top of his head and easily deflected his attack. "Tell me, where did your ability come from?"

"It's useless? That's impossible." Sebastian was slightly stunned by how Zhao Yao seemed totally unaffected. The next moment, he decided to activate his powers at full force.

If it was a normal person, or even an average apostle, entering the other party's Awareness and controlling it would be as easy as entering a room for him.

However, Zhao Yao was like a safe vault. He could not break in to his Awareness no matter how hard he tried.

"Looks like you still don't really understand..."

Zhao Yao stroked his brow as he continued, "The gap between us..."

As he said that, the crowd that had followed behind Sebastian dispersed in an instance. They had completely broken out of his control.

"What?" Sebastian turned and saw what had just happened and was dumbfounded. "You broke through my ability? Something's wrong..." He tried to control the crowd again but realized that they were being controlled by an even stronger force.

Sebastian turned and looked at Zhao Yao as he asked, "Your ability..."

"Ah, you mean Awareness Distortion? Or Awareness alone? It's the same ability as yours, just that mine is of a higher level." Zhao Yao shrugged his shoulders and said, "It's like the difference between monkeys and humans."

"Monkeys and humans?" Sebastian stared at Zhao Yao indignantly. Just as he was about to activate his powers again, his body froze as he immediately succumbed to Zhao Yao's control.

"He can even... control me."

He always thought he had awakened with the most unique ability in the world that could easily wipe out all the apostles he met. That was until he met Zhao Yao now, who easily broke through his ability and even beat him with a stronger and much more powerful ability.

Sebastian's confidence was completely shattered at this moment. He stood on the spot like he had lost his soul and stopped answering Zhao Yao's questions.

However, no matter how Zhao Yao controlled him, he could not get any information out of Sebastian as he simply knew nothing of the sort.

“Then there’s only one person left.” Zhao Yao turned towards a government official who was slowly backing away. He glanced at the Level 18 label on top of his head and asked, “Are you planning to leave just like that?”

The officer looked at Zhao Yao blankly and asked, “What’s wrong, Mr Zhao Yao? I don’t understand what you mean.”

Zhao Yao pointed to his own head and said, “Stop acting. You stand out like a red name in my eyes. Sit down obediently. Don’t force me to kill someone.”

The next moment, the staff member suddenly collapsed on the floor as he lost his Awareness. However, Zhao Yao could feel a surge of Awareness flying out of the man’s body.

“Trying to escape?”

With a wave of his hand, the dimension portal swallowed Sebastian whole. Zhao Yao’s body disappeared in a flash as he chased after the Awareness that had fled.

When Zhao Yao returned to the physical world in pursuit of the fleeing Awareness, he realized he had arrived in a pet shop.

A muscular Russian man stood beside the table quietly as he stared at him. Zhao Yao stared at the Level 18 above his head and recognized the other party as the Awareness that had fled from him.

Next, he saw a young, average-looking Asian man sitting on a chair beside him. The young man’s long hair was all over his face but he did not seem to care, and focused on reading the book in his hand.

All around him, there were numerous normal cats that were lying down, flipping, walking and even running around. There was even a cat that was sleeping soundly in his arms.

“Did he lure me here on purpose? Is he trying to ambush me? Doesn’t look like it...” Zhao Yao glanced at the book. The title of the book on the cover was “Three Forms”. He glanced at the top of the Asian man’s head and thought to himself, “Level 59? If I strike first, I should be able to finish him off quickly.”

His power of Awareness rippled out slowly as he started to activate Dimension Seal.

The long-haired youth did not seem to notice anything. After reading the book for a while more, he looked up and said to Zhao Yao, “Zhao Yao, have you ever thought about a scenario where you would run into aliens?”

Zhao Yao paused for a moment and thought, “What is this guy trying to say?”

Seeing how Zhao Yao did not respond, the long-haired youth continued, “Think about this scenario.”

“One day, a bunch of aliens suddenly came to Earth.”

“As the power of aliens far surpassed that of humans, they easily defeated the human armies and ruled over Earth.”

“Humans became like dogs, pigs, cows and sheep, and were treated just like any other animal by the aliens. From being at the pinnacle of society, humans were banished to the level of existence of pigs and sheep.”

“You guys would be raised as pets, slaughtered, even eaten like beef or mutton. Some would be played around with as if they were the cats and dogs now. Some would be tortured like lab rats.”

“Of course, some humans would be adored by aliens and pampered while they were locked up in their cages by their alien masters. Conversely, there would also be some aliens who do not like little pets and would abuse them like how cats and dogs are being abused in society now, dismembering them, drowning them, grilling them and even being thrown out into the vast universe...”

“The position of humans and cats would be completely reversed.”

The young man closed the “Three Forms” book and looked up at Zhao Yao, “Think about such a scenario. Would you feel scared?”

Chapter 1056: The Conversation

“Such a scenario would be similar to the relationship between supercats and humans now.”

“To get foie gras, the goose is trapped in a narrow space and force fed huge amounts of food everyday.”

“To get the gall of a bear, the bear has to be dismembered first.”

“To achieve a greater mass, water is blasted through plastic tubes stuck up the nostrils of cows for hours.”

“Cats are thrown atop high ledges or have their eyeballs gouged out for entertainment...”

“At this point, humans can pity them and shed some crocodile tears for them.”

“But what if the situation is reversed? Supercats will treat humans just like how they treat animals.”

“Do you know that the Long Fur Tribe has already started using human clones in their battles...”

The young man stared into blank space, as if he was immersed in his own memories.

“The absolute difference in power and race renders humans completely powerless against supercats. That is an apocalyptic scenario for humans.”

Zhao Yao silently set up the Dimension Seal around the place. Once he was done, he quietly heaved a sigh of relief and said to the man, “What exactly are you trying to say?”

The man did not reply immediately. He stroked the cat in his arms before he slowly said, “The battle between supercats and humans is never-ending. There is no space for negotiation. Which side will you choose in the cutthroat battle between these two races? Which side will you be able to stand on?”

Zhao Yao stared at the other party and asked, “You are from the Cat Hunters?”

“The Cat Hunters is not the only anti-cat group fighting the Short Fur Tribe. The Short Fur Tribe is also not the only tribe out of all three tribes that has anti-cat groups fighting against it.” The man calmly said, “Zhao Yao, I checked your background before and saw the history of your planet. You are very lucky to have been born on a planet dominated and ruled by humans.”

“However, the danger is imminent in this land. The Short Fur Tribe can arrive on this planet at any moment.”

Zhao Yao narrowed his eyes. He finally understood what the man was getting at. The man was trying to recruit him.

If that was the case, the apostle that had attacked him previously was merely a pawn used by this man to test him.

The man specifically mentioned the Short Fur Tribe as well. Zhao Yao thought about it for a while. The only way for news of the Short Fur Tribe to have been leaked on Earth would be through Tom and Giggle.

Giggle had once told Zhao Yao that he had revealed his plans on Earth to Fei Fei. This Fei Fei was not Wheatley’s father, though they had the same name, but it was a cat higher up in Giggle’s clan.

However, this was likely to be false. Or else, other supercats would have come to Earth a long time ago.

Seeing the thoughtful expression on Zhao Yao’s face, the youth said, “This thing is quite complicated. I will start by explaining the Source Plan of the Short Fur Tribe...”

“Source Plan?” Zhao Yao frowned. “Doesn’t sound like a good plan.”

“Of course it isn’t. Simply put, this is a plan designed by the Short Fur Tribe to invent new superpower weapons that can help them fight against the Long Fur Tribe. Of the 12 clans, only the gray-back clan is in charge of this plan. The few short fur cats that you caught belong to this clan.”

The young man slowly said, “Firstly, how much do you know about the Long Fur Tribe?”

Zhao Yao decided to sit down. The man seemed like he had a lot of information about the alien cats, so Zhao Yao decided to have a chat with the man. “I don’t know anything about that. Care to explain it to me?”

At the same time, he activated Time Freeze and wrote down a new mission in the Extradimensional Belly.

The supercats in the Extradimensional Belly and in the physical world galvanized into action as well. They started the evacuation process within and around the exterior of the building. Doll also sent out masses of feline robots to surround the building.

The young man said, “The Short Fur Tribe has the power of Awareness. Each generation of supercats from their tribe are born with the power of Awareness. They can even use it to control other lives.

The Furless Tribe possesses the power of physical constitution enhancement. Each generation of supercats from this tribe can strengthen their physical constitution using their power of Awareness, giving them immunity against most lesser powers.”

“As for the Long Fur Tribe, they could use the power of Awareness to strengthen their superpowers. On top of that, each generation of supercats born in this tribe will awaken with different kinds of superpowers.”

“The Source Plan, is therefore the Short Fur Tribe’s grand plan to steal the powers of the Long Fur Tribe. The full details of this plan is considered classified information of the highest security level in the Short Fur Tribe. We only know a small part of it.”

The young man looked at Zhao Yao and said, “20 years ago, the Short Fur Tribe captured a bunch of supercats from the Long Fur Tribe. They wanted to use the powers of these cats to strengthen the capabilities of the supercats in the Short Fur Tribe and even provide their descendants with more abilities.”

“You have to understand that the Short Fur Tribe’s forte lies in Awareness. They can use their power of Awareness to do all sorts of unimaginable things, even inventing a skill like the Awareness Country. This skill allows them to exist in high-level dimensions and dreamscapes for long periods of time.

However, they have too little information and research on the powers of the Long Fur Tribe.

Hence their plan was unsuccessful. Prolonged research did not enable them to mass produce supercats that were born with the power of Awareness and other superpowers.

In face of the failure of the plan, some of the higher ups in the Short Fur Tribe proposed some special methods. One of them is to plant the newborns of these experimental cats onto a few planets for them to reproduce rapidly. Once a massive population was created, they would select a few gifted cats from the masses to see if the method works.”

The effectiveness of this plan is very low, but the key point is that it had low costs.”

“Project X!” Zhao Yao was stunned. “So Project X is a product of the Short Fur Tribe’s plan?” He turned to the young man in front of him as he began to think rapidly in his mind. “This guy actually knows more than Giggle and Tom? Looks like they are doing better than I expected in the Short Fur Tribe.”

“No, now is not the time to think about all of this. If what he said is true...” Zhao Yao immediately recalled all the information he knew about Project X. “That means that the alien cats also had compound abilities and can even manipulate the bodies of the Furless Tribe’s supercats? Just that these experimental subjects did not have the power of Awareness.”

Zhao Yao voiced his query and received an affirmative reply from the young man.

“A year ago, a supercat called Doomsday was retrieved from your planet, which greatly sped up the experimental progress. The supercats that they sent out subsequently did not return and other supercats have started to suspect the activity on this planet. However, they have been temporarily suppressed by us.”

The young man continued, “However, it is only a matter of time before they send more supercats here. Your planet will soon be faced with the greatest crisis it has ever met in its history.”

Zhao Yao stroked his chin and slowly said, “Let me think. Are you guys going to recruit me next?”

“We are your only option. Are you thinking of siding with supercats against humans like us?” The young man slowly said, “I know you have already become the apostle of one of the 12 Sages, which is Grayley. But even he will not help you to secure a planet. After all, you are nothing but a mere human to him.”

“And if I don’t join you guys?”

A cold glare flashed in the young man’s eyes. “Although I considered that possibility, I would advise you against it.”

A few minutes ago, in the Extradimensional Belly, Sebastian, who had completely broken down mentally and even passed out, slowly opened his eyes.

Chapter 1057: The Battle

Zhao Yao stared at the man and slowly said, “You’re threatening me?”

The next moment, Zhao Yao’s phone vibrated.

The young man sat down and took out his phone as well. He turned to Zhao Yao and twitched his lips as he said, “Take a look at your phone.”

Puzzled, Zhao Yao took out his phone and unlocked it. He saw a flurry of messages sent to him. All his relatives and supercats sent him the same message which had only two words: Save me.

The young man said, “Sebastian, who you just sent away, I made him lose on purpose.

I never expected you to have an alternate space. However, after you sent him in there, I already made him control all your supercats and men.

Zhao Yao, you have no more cards in your hands. Don’t do anything foolish. Join us, we will be your strongest support in fighting against supercats.”

“Oh,” Zhao Yao chuckled, “Yeah, looks like I was tricked.”

...

In the Extradimensional Belly, Elizabeth, Matcha and Catherine stared at Sebastian as they took out their phones and sent out messages.

They managed to resist Sebastian's control with their Level 25 power of Awareness. However, they continued to pretend like they were under his control.

Matcha narrowed his eyes. "Zhao Yao was right. This guy lost too quickly that it was dubious. Playing dirty? Can you even play us out?"

Elizabeth asked, "What now? Do we go according to plan or just attack him ourselves?"

Catherine said, "Let's wait for Zhao Yao's orders first. He seems to have other plans in store."

...

"Looks like he doesn't know that the earthling supercats under me had already gained the power of Awareness. It's better not to let him know about that as well."

In the pet shop, Zhao Yao thought about the situation at hand as he glanced at the contents of the Book. As he heard the truth from the words of the young man, his mission was completed and he gained 10 000*2 experience points.

At the same time, a new mission appeared in the Book.

Mission: A Slap in the Face

Mission Objective: This arrogant guy actually dared to threaten you? Teach him a good lesson. Show him what cruelty really is.

Reward: 5000 experience points.

Mission Penalty: None.

“It reflects my thoughts exactly.” Zhao Yao stared at the young man before him and thought to himself, “But I can’t kill him nor keep up with this beta mode. To turn from beta to alpha, the easiest way is to use weapons against him. Heh heh, it just so happens that my weapons are strong enough...”

Although the other party threatened him, the man was not from a friendly organization and was even prepared to sacrifice him and Earth.

Zhao Yao knew that if what the man said was true, the man would really be of great help to him. This organization would indeed be of great use.

“Time to put my acting skills to good use...”

Zhao Yao stared at the young man in front of him and suddenly burst out laughing. “Do you really think that threatening me will work? If you did a background check on me, you should know what kind of a person I am.

Whether its my kin, my friends or the cats I have...”

Zhao Yao broke into what seemed like a crazed, devilish smile to him as he said, “They are all like poker chips that can be easily sacrificed. Using them to threaten me only shows how naive you guys are. You’re telling me an organization like this can overthrow the supercats?”

The young man paused for a moment and glanced at the Russian man, Ivanovic. He asked him using his power of Awareness, “Is he speaking the truth?”

Ivanovic maintained a poker face as he replied, “I don’t understand Mandarin.”

The young man rolled his eyes and explained briefly before he asked again, “From what you know, is he really such a person?”

Ivanovic nodded his head and immediately replied, “Yes.” He glanced at Zhao Yao meekly before he continued, “Heard that this guy will eat his own cats, beat his own sister, and overtly exploit his workers. A lot of people who had offended him disappeared mysteriously. He is the leader of the biggest and extremely evil organization on Earth. Even the government can’t do anything about him.”

“I get it.” The young man nodded and stared at Zhao Yao as he fell into a dilemma. “The target this time is actually such a horrible person? I don’t know if it’s a blessing or a curse to recruit such a person into the group...”

Zhao Yao dragged the corners of his lips as much as he could and continued smiling devilishly. He stared at the man and said, “Actually, you don’t have to try so hard to make me join. Just amaze me with a power of yours, like... beating me in a fight.”

As he said that, the power of Awareness surged out from Zhao Yao’s body, forming two Frost Dragons that charged right at the man.

The young man’s face changed slightly as he raised his right hand and activated his power of Awareness, forming a huge, bright red palm that caught the two Frost Dragons.

The Awarenesses of both parties collided in different skill forms.

One was a freezing power that could freeze the thought process of a person and turn him into a vegetable.

The other was a fiery power that would speed up the thought process and eventually drive the target into madness.

Two completely opposite powers collided against each other as both parties experienced a bout of discomfort from the impact.

The young man’s pupils contracted slightly as he immediately sensed that the other party’s Awareness was slightly stronger than his. His thought process had actually slowed down by a very thin margin.

Hence, he immediately launched a series of skill attacks.

His power of Awareness first turned into numerous Lightsabers that swept towards Zhao Yao, followed by another part of his Awareness that formed an invisible wave which closed in on Zhao Yao secretly.

Zhao Yao resisted the onslaught of attacks with his Level 60 power of Awareness.

“Hmm, it’s like what Grayley said. The difference of a few levels in power of Awareness is not a decisive difference in power. The key lies in how the person uses that power and other superpowers with it.”

When he saw that Zhao Yao was able to resist his test attacks without casting any skills, the young man’s face turned serious.

Black level skill – One Cat Three Uses

In that instance, the young man was able to split his Awareness into three parts and turn into three corresponding physical forms of himself. What surprised Zhao Yao even more was how the level atop the other party’s head remained at Level 59.

“What a powerful skill?” The power of Awareness rippled out of Zhao Yao’s body instantly as countless Frost Dragons burst out roaring in midair, audible only in their Awareness.

The Russian man at the side seemed to have his thought process slowed down even though it was only the excess waves of Awareness power that rippled towards him. The Russian man looked as if he was about to freeze on the spot at any moment.

The young man, who had split himself into three clones, started to activate different skills each.

Divine Speed, which instantly increased the speed of the young man’s Awareness and shortened its transmission distance.

King Kong: The young man’s Awareness instantly lit up with golden light as his defensive power was enhanced.

As his potential increased exponentially, the young man’s Awareness level instantly jumped to Level 60 from Level 59, achieving a temporal level up.

Silver level skill – Ivory Light in Hundreds. Hundreds of lightsabers that could slice through the power of Awareness appeared instantly, flashing menacingly in the air.

“Zhao Yao, I know you activated the Dimension Seal. Let me tell you this. Don’t activate the Dimension Seal recklessly under uncertain circumstances, because you never know if you will be the one who needs to escape.”

When he saw the rays of Ivory Light slashing towards him, Zhao Yao immediately retreated backwards and activated his golden armor skill. His Awareness turned into numerous golden shields that blocked him from the attacks. However, the Ivory lightsabers slashed right through each of his shields, forcing Zhao Yao to retreat backwards continuously.

“This guy knows way too many high level skills.”

After all, Zhao Yao only trained his power of Awareness for a short period of time. The skills he had learnt were all from the books in Wheatley’s library. He did not manage to learn any battle skills under Grayley either. At this moment, he was suppressed and subjected to an onslaught of attacks by his opponent.

The young man stared at Zhao Yao who kept retreating as his Awareness was continuously broken down by his attacks. He smiled and said, “Our power should satisfy you now.”

“Let’s see if you can take this attack of mine first!”

The next moment, in the world of Time Freeze, Zhao Yao charged towards him and raised his hand as he stabbed the young man mercilessly, stabbing him more than a hundred times with the Dragon Slaying Saber.

Chapter 1058: Dragon Breakthrough

Everything stopped in a Time Frozen world.

Zhao Yao stood in front of the youth and slashed him with the Dragon Slaying Saber continuously.

The youth’s hair was trimmed off inch by inch.

Zhao Yao cut off his hair so that he would not know his attack methods.

He activated the attacking effects of the Dragon Slaying Saber without stabbing his body.

After slashing for more than a hundred times, Zhao Yao extended his hand and disposed all the cut hair into the Extradimensional Belly.

When time resumed, Zhao Yao returned to his original position and aimed his hand at the youth as he shouted, "Dragon Breakthrough!"

The youth was shocked. "Dragon Breakthrough? What's that? Why didn't I feel the rippling of the power of awareness?"

Before he had a chance to react, his vision became dark. When he awoke, he was on a hospital bed.

With the aid of Zhao Yao's Level 60 awareness, the +12 Dragon Slaying Saber had Level 60 awareness verification.

As the youth was boosted to Level 60 by BUFF, hence not all saber slashes were effective so Zhao Yao slashed more than a hundred times.

"Is he a new patient?"

"It has been a long time since we opened for business."

"Finally, we have a patient."

The youth felt himself tied to the bed and he struggled in vain.

"What's happening?" He was shocked. "What kind of an attack is that?" Is that Dimension Travel? No, I'm unable to use my superpower. Is that an illusion?"

In the skill sets of awareness, there was a skill set for illusion.

The weaker illusions skill sets were sending illusions to the target via awareness transfer. Stronger illusions skill sets meant pulling the target into the dreamscape of the Awareness Dimension.

“Am I being pulled into his dreamscape?” The youth analyzed his situation calmly. “Why am I unable to use my skills and superpower? Dragon... Breakthrough... Is there such a skill in the Short Fur Tribe?”

A group of people in white robes surrounded him and stripped him of his clothes.

The youth sneered. “Humph, trying to humiliate me? It’s hilarious. You’re using such underhanded method to...”

The youth’s composure vanished.

A white-robed person took out a bag of strange tools containing wrenches, metal wires, screwdrivers and acids.

The youth frowned and said, “What are you doing?”

“What am I doing?” The white-robed person smiled merrily. “We’re going to use these wrenches, metal wire, screwdrivers, acids and hemp ropes to cleanse your body. Enjoy yourself.”

“Cleanse my body?” The youth was bewildered for a short while before screaming out loud.

Splat! Fresh blood splattered on the person’s white robe. Lots of blood spurted out all over the ward and it looked like an abattoir.

“Stop immediately!”

“I’ll kill all of you! Just you wait! I’ll definitely kill all of you!”

“I beg you, please stop, I beg you...”

After the cleansing was completed, the eyes of the youth became dark. When he awoke, he discovered he was in the clean ward again.

He was slashed more than a hundred times and the successful effects of the Dragon Slaying Saber would be more than once.

He watched a few white-robed persons approaching him and the youth was terrified. "It can't be..." He struggled hard. All the Awareness Dimension Travel, awareness skills, awareness strengthened body were not effective. He could only suffer through the same ordeal again.

The youth lost count of time and the number of tortures he went through. By the time he awoke and saw the office in the material realm, he started tearing up.

Zhao Yao, whom he hated previously, looked adorable.

Zhao Yao shook his head and stroked his head as he consoled him and said, "Don't cry. It's alright, it has ended."

The youth said with agitation, "Do you know what I went through?!!"

"I know, I know." Zhao Yao patted the youth's back and said with sympathy, "The first condition for practising the Dragon Breakthrough was for me to be the first victim. To master this gray level skill, I went through much suffering."

The youth changed his view of Zhao Yao. "He chose to suffer through all this? He's a strong man."

"Wait, did you say it's a gray level skill?" The youth looked in astonishment at Zhao Yao. He was about to say that the skill was not powerful enough but he discovered his power of awareness was prohibited from usage.

"It's indeed the Short Fur Tribe's highest grey level skill as it prohibited the usage of my power of awareness." The youth was in awe of Zhao Yao. "Grayley taught you gray level skills? He thought very highly of you."

"It's only for a short while. You'll be good after a few minutes." Zhao Yao patted his shoulders and said, "You've disappointed me. You're so weak, are you able to defeat those cats?"

Zhao Yao looked at Book's mission status and he had completed the mission. He obtained 10 000 experience points.

The youth was not angry as he was in awe of Zhao Yao after he was being defeated by Zhao Yao's gray level skill—Dragon Breakthrough.

The difference was like elementary students showing off versus the CEO of Alibaba showing off in front of you. The effects were entirely different.

Zhao Yao treated the youth viciously, so the youth thought Zhao Yao was one who did not care about his family and his cats.

The youth looked at Zhao Yao and said courteously, "I'm not the strongest in my group and we are not weak. The important thing is that we could continue to hide the existence of Earth. Join us Zhao Yao. You're the only hope for helping us defeat the supercats."

"Is he convinced? We could talk about joining." Zhao Yao looked at him and said, "After chatting for so long, what's your name? What's the name of your organization?"

"I'm Bai Yueguang," The youth said proudly. "Our organization is called Cat Revolution Society. We started from the three largest anti-cat groups in the Short Fur Tribe. Our leader and deputy leaders controlled Sage Level supercats."

"Oh?" Zhao Yao narrowed his eyes, "The control you mentioned means you've used the Awareness Distortion superpower to control three Sage level supercats?"

Chapter 1059: Cooperation

After encountering the Cat Hunters, Zhao Yao knew that there were a lot of humans who were resisting the Short Fur Tribe, Long Fur Tribe and the Furless Tribe.

Especially within the Short Fur Tribe, using Awareness Distortion to control humans and to take back superpowers from the humans looked like a foolproof plan to control all the cat slaves.

However, humans could also make use of Awareness Distortion to control supercats.

The Cat Revolution Society controlled the supercats and used them as weapons. They distributed the superpowers to their members.

If the development of the Cat Revolution Society was left uncontrolled, the society could expand much more rapidly than Short Fur Tribe.

The number of cat slaves outnumbered the supercats.

“Cat Revolution Society, the name’s pretty good.” Zhao Yao, said, “After joining you, will I be controlled by you?”

“Of course not.” The youth said, “Zhao Yao, during our investigation, we found that you didn’t defect to the Short Fur Tribe and betray Earth and you weren’t controlled. Otherwise we wouldn’t spend time discussing with you. We would have captured you and remove your control.”

“We’ll never use Awareness Distortion to control people as this is our Cat Revolution’s baseline.” Bai Yueguang said, “The Short Fur Tribe enslaved us using Awareness Distortion to control our will and soul. If we did the same thing, how different are we from them?”

We’ll always uphold the free will of everyone. If anyone was caught using Awareness Distortion to control our own people, he would be imprisoned for a long time as it was the most serious crime in our society.”

“Oh?” Zhao Yao already knew that they were aware he was not controlled, otherwise the probing and persuasion would be in vain.

After hearing of the Awareness Distortion prohibition, he immediately asked, “Do you have ways to resist the Awareness Distortion?”

“Yes.” Bai Yueguang transferred a message to Zhao Yao via his awareness. “Please accept our token of sincerity. This Personality Backup is able to resist the Awareness Distortion.”

Zhao Yao scanned through quickly and his eyes were filled with admiration.

This skill could duplicate a puppet from the awareness and allow the puppet to be controlled by Awareness Distortion.

Once the puppet was controlled by the Short Fur Tribe and if his power of awareness was strong enough, he could rid the puppet of control. If he was not powerful enough, the puppet could be destroyed using their prepared methods.

It was equivalent to creating a human shield to absorb the damage. If one was not discovered, then he would not be controlled.

“Awesome, this is awesome.” The more Zhao studied the method, the more amazed he was. He could not help asking, “Who invented this?”

“Our leader invented this. If you join us, you’ll have a chance to meet him.”

“On the basis of this Personality Backup, I’ll consider joining you.” Zhao Yao said cunningly, “What else could you provide me?”

Bai Yueguang wiped the sweat off his head and thought, “He’s very greedy.” He said, “We’ll use our resources to help you become an important person in the Short Fur Tribe. The war of the tribes is a good opportunity.”

Zhao Yao said, “Okay, I’ll join you.”

Bai Yueguang was at a loss when he heard Zhao Yao agree so candidly. He looked stunned at Zhao Yao and said, “You... are not worried about failing? If you’re found out and captured, the entire planet would become a living hell.”

“What’s the use of worry.” Zhao Yao glared at him and said, “What? Do you need proof? Proof of my sincerity?”

“No... of course not.” After being glared at, Bai Yueguang agreed fearfully.

Bai Yueguang was in awe of Zhao Yao after being slashed by the Dragon Slaying Saber and attacked by “Dragon Breakthrough”.

He was wary of Zhao Yao and could not raise his voice. In the ensuing conversation, he was the follower and followed Zhao Yao's lead.

Bai Yueguang understood that the conversation and cooperation with Zhao Yao was just the beginning and they had to go through events to improve their mutual trust.

He was not in a hurry and he said to Zhao Yao, "Our men would contact you on the battlefield. The details of the plan would be discussed later."

"Okay, we'll maintain contact later." Zhao Yao looked at him and said, "Well? Would you like to stay for a meal?"

"No... it's not necessary." Looking at the man that used Dragon Breakthrough against him, Bai Yueguang declined and said, "I've matters to attend to. Let's maintain contact later."

Zhao Yao coaxed, "What's the hurry? Stay for a meal and we'll have some wine to socialize."

"No... it's not necessary." Bai Yueguang said, "I really have matters to attend to. I'll take my leave."

Seeing him leave in a hurry, Zhao Yao said, "What about these apostles?"

"I'll leave them to you!" Bai Yueguang ran out of the Dimension Seal's boundary and vanished.

"Why is he so shy?" Zhao Yao shook his head and looked at the burly Russian, Ivanovic.

Ivanovic was trained as a special forces soldier and he ascended Mt Qomolangma before but now he was dripping cold sweat on his head. Though he did not understand Chinese, he saw the expressions and actions of both of them. He understood that Bai Yueguang fled in fear.

Zhao Yao looked at the Russian guy and said, "Why are you so serious?"

"What's going on?" More sweat accumulated on the Russian's back. "Is he going to silence me? And kill me?"

Seeing the Russian becoming nervous, Zhao Yao thought for a while and decided to let Caesar erase his memory before letting him go. Zhao Yao did not bother to talk to him.

Zhao Yao opened the Dimension Portal to survey the Extradimensional Belly's situation. It was his first time letting Matcha and the rest deal with an apostle who had powers of awareness. He had high expectations of his capable supercats.

He heard screams the moment he opened the portal. Zhao Yao said helplessly, "I've told you a few times, don't torture prisoners. Only bandits do such things. We are legitimate organization and we go according to rules..."

Matcha's voice was heard as he said, "If we go with the rules for these scumbags, we don't have any work to do. Do we still have to work?"

Chapter 1060: Dealing With Things

Zhao Yao said, "D*mn cat, why are you raising your voice at me?"

Matcha said, "Officer, our brothers are working hard and you're asking us to stop? It's going to cost us our lives!!"

Zhao Yao said, "I'm not asking you to stop, I'm asking you to follow the rules. Don't break the rules like last time. Think of the consequences."

"Breaking the rules?" Matcha was indignant and said, "We risked our lives for you while you reaped the rewards. What about us? You are blaming us for being underhanded?"

Zhao Yao said, "Do you think I'm reasoning with you?"

Matcha was speechless.

"I wonder who's the b*stard who had been badmouthing me on the internet." Zhao Yao said, "And made my name stink. So you've to think of the consequences and stop breaking the rules."

In the Extradimensional Belly, Sebastian's shrill voice was heard. "Zhao Yao? Is that you Zhao Yao? I surrender, I surrender. Release me immediately." Matcha shoved a bundle of cat grass into his mouth and said, "Shut up."

Zhao Yao consoled him and said, "Don't panic. If you tell the truth, they'll be kind. If not, you'll suffer. Once you have done the requirements, they'll release you."

In the other corner of the Extradimensional Belly, Zhao Xue pointed at Olivier and said, "Why is he bleeding profusely? Lucifer, take a look and lend him your ability."

Lucifer looked at Zhao Xue's shocked expression and rolled his eyes. "Isn't he beaten by you?"

Rolling sounds were heard and Chang Haotian's diamond head rolled out from the Dimension Portal as Zhao Yao covered his face.

"Could you be more professional? Especially Dust Ball. Every time after admission of new people, check the permits of those entering and exiting the Dimension Portal. If everyone could enter and exit at will, isn't this a public toilet?"

Dust Ball said indignantly, "Why don't you create a blacklist after imprisoning them here. All the humans look the same to me. How do I know who is who?"

Zhao Yao sighed and said, "A bunch of trash. If not for me, you would have died without knowing why. I've told you many times to be professional, especially during battles. Don't give chances to the enemy. If you're not careful with superpowers, you'll cause deaths..."

He lowered his head to look at the rolling head and consoled, "Don't worry, your crime's not serious. Work hard for a few more days and you'll go back home."

Bai Quan walked in with embarrassment and took away Chang Haotian's head who looked at Ivanovic and shouted, "Save me! Save me!"

Ivanovic looked down and did not dare to lift his head.

Matcha looked at Chang Haotian who had been placed back in his position and shoved a cloth into his mouth.

Dust Ball said, “Why are you shoving him with a cloth? Even if he screamed until his voice’s gone, it would be useless.”

“It’s not professional if I don’t shove him with a cloth.” Matcha said, “Didn’t you hear that Zhao Yao’s reminding us to be professional?”

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes and looked at the Dimension Portal as he shouted, “Silence, silence. Don’t let the noise go out. I’m able to hear your commotion over here. Soundproof the Dimension Portal.”

The Russian guy became more and more nervous and cold sweat dripped profusely on his head.

Zhao Yao looked at him and said, “Don’t panic. Your problem’s not serious. Go in first. I’ll bring you out later.” Zhao Yao pointed at the Dimension Portal in front.

Ivanovic looked at the dark Dimension Portal that reeked of blood stench and shouted to Zhao Yao, “Please don’t silence me. I know the rules, I’ll work for you. Assassination, blackmail, protection money, capturing cats, I’ll do everything.”

Zhao Yao was stunned. “He looked like a tough guy, why is he so weak?” Zhao Yao was unhappy when he heard the words. “I’m happy that you’re volunteering to work but we are a legitimate company. We don’t do those things.”

Ivanovic nodded and blinked at Zhao Yao. “I understand. I’ve done a lot of legitimate work for KGB before.”

Zhao Yao exhaled and said, “Get lost, I don’t need people here.”

Ivanovic was dumbfounded. He saw Olivier, who was full of blood, crawling out from the Dimension Door and shouting, “Let me go!” He was dragged in by Zhao Xue in the next instance.

Zhao Xue smiled with embarrassment at Zhao Yao. “I’m treating his wounds but I accidentally let him run out.”

After Olivier recovered from Lucifer's regeneration superpower, he wanted to escape. Lucifer took back his superpower and Olivier was beaten up by Zhao Xue again.

Ivanovic was stunned as he looked at Olivier's deformed head and thought, "Is that what you call treatment? This is manslaughter!" He looked seriously at Zhao Yao and said, "Boss, let me work for you."

"I don't need your services."

"Please."

"I really don't need you. I'll let you go later."

"No, I don't want to leave. I'll work for you!"

Zhao Yao sighed and looked helplessly at Ivanovic. He had no intention for Ivanovic to work for him.

"Since you're so insistent. Okay, you'll work for me. Without pay."

"I don't want money."

Ivanovic started working for Zhao Yao while Sebastian and the others divulged what they knew about Bai Yueguang and their memories were erased before being thrown out.

"Next..."

Zhao Yao walked into the Extradimensional Belly. He carried Mango and caressed his head.

Seeing the large eyes peering at him and listening to the rumbling sounds from Mango, Zhao Yao recalled the battle experience.

"Mango did not have power of awareness. Theoretically, his superpower is ineffective against Level 10 and above supercats."

Zhao Yao thought, “Perdition’s body and power of awareness was strengthened by Bai Yueguang using unknown methods. However, he was affected by Mango. Why is that?”

Zhao Yao looked puzzled at Mango.

Zhao Yao returned to the Short Fur Tribe to see if Grayley had returned. He wanted to ask about the war situation.

Zhao Yao was summoned by Grayley.

After evaluating Zhao Yao’s training progress, Grayley nodded and said, “Not bad. The effectiveness and radius of your power of awareness had improved. You’ve put in effort. Keep it up and don’t slack off.”

Grayley was grave as he looked at Wheatley. “Wheatley, did you slack off again? Look at you, you can’t even be compared to a human. The next time I return, if you don’t have progress, you’ll follow me to the battlefield.”

Wheatley lowered her head and shook her buttocks like a cat wagging her tail. She said softly, “Oh.”

Zhao Yao nodded and thought of a way to ask his question. “Grayley, how’s the war going? With a powerful supercat like you, are the superpowers of the Long Fur Tribe ineffective against you? Are you defeating them easily?”

Grayley laughed and looked at Zhao Yao as he said, “Guang Yu, you’ve simplified the superpower battles too much. Indeed, a lot of superpowers are ineffective against me if their power of awareness are inferior to mine.

However, if the opponent’s superpower was to strengthen his body or to affect the material realm, then I’ll be affected. For example, Speed Acceleration, Teleport, changing of environment and burning of an entire spaceship. Even if they aren’t using power of awareness, their superpowers would still damage my body and be a threat to me.”
