

Am I A God 46

Chapter 46: The Arrest

Lin Chen finally recovered from his initial shock of knowing the existence of supercats. He had an epiphany and immediately asked Inspector Ho, “Don’t tell me the person who attacked me ...”

“Superpower huh,” Inspector Ho continued, “Supercats can lend their power to humans. In terms of physique and their dexterity, cats are still lagging behind humans. For example, humans will always have a heads up in operating guns, bombs, cars or even airplanes.

Hence, a human can use the power he borrowed from a cat more proficiently.

The Americans who have borrowed the superpower from supercats are known as the Apostles. However, they can only borrow one power at any instance.”

“Americans?” Lin Chen asked, “These supercats are created by the Americans?”

“No. Until now, nobody knows who created these supercats. However, we do know that this is a global phenomenon which is not exclusive to China. Consequently, countries have developed their respective plans to address this problem.”

Lin Chen recalled reading a news article and asked, “The incident at Wall Street...”

“A few Americans and the apostles are behind it,” Inspector Ho replied with no intention of hiding the truth from Lin Chen. This was possibly due to the security clearance that Lin Chen had obtained, and Inspector Ho had regarded him as an ally. “The Americans are used to being the world’s sole superpower. There is nothing they will not do to cats to retain their position as the hegemon.

A large number of supercats and apostles have been caught for experimentation. I’m sure there will be an uproar soon.

I heard that the target for the Wall Street incident was a high ranking executive. However, the executive had a gun with him, and he was quite good with his gun which resulted in the tragedy.”

Lin Chen was listening as he glanced at Milk and asked, “How about us?”

“Our leaders are smarter than the Americans. The Americans are too straightforward in their approach. Unlike them, our leaders know how to get things done.” After his attempt at bootlicking, Inspector Ho continued, “Currently, our country’s plan is guided by the principle of differential treatment.

We would be extremely friendly and accommodate to the majority of the apostle population and supercats who were neutral. If need be, we could even take care of them without conditions.

We would not bother the apostles if they used their power for petty crimes instead of arson or murder. We would rather have a friend than an enemy.

However, there was one small group of supercats and apostles who want to destroy the peace and harmony that the human race and cats had enjoyed since time immemorial.

Our higher-ups were extremely concerned about this group of people and cats. This was especially so after what had happened in America, and this had resulted in a demand for quick and firm action to be taken against them. You would be part of our next course of action.”

“B...Bu...But...” Lin Chen stammered, “How about the rest of the citizens? Do we keep them in the dark?”

Inspector Ho replied, “Supercats are still a minority among all cats. Based on our latest Intel, only cats that have not been sterilized can awaken their superpower.

Thank goodness most of the cats have been sterilized. Most of the cats that have had their superpowers awakened are stray cats, and their number is minuscule. Hence, the public still does not know much about this. Most of the supercats related incidents have been labeled as supernatural happenings or just fake news.”

Suddenly, Inspector Ho looked at Lin Chen and asked, “Come, let’s test your abilities.”

Jiangmen city's threat level had gone up over the next few days. Even Zhao Yao noticed reports of skirmishes all over the news.

However, Zhao Yao was clueless as to the cause of these incidents.

Over the next few days, he occupied himself with daily missions, refining his culinary skills, and honing his power. Every night, he would bring Elizabeth out for patrols. Both his BOOK and the cats' experience had increased. His ability to stop and control time had improved remarkably, with the margin of error dropping to below 0.3 seconds.

However, he did not manage to meet new supercats, and he was unsure if it was due to the government's actions.

At the same time, the police had found the cat that they wanted.

...

At 9 pm, a large group of civilians was taken away by a mysterious force in a small suburb.

The middle-aged man was at his dining table, with his head buried in chunks of meat as he devoured the food before him.

Suddenly, a loud bang was heard, and the middle-aged man was blasted away by an extraordinary force. He lay on the floor with blood streaming out from the wound on his chest.

"Success."

"Get the second team on standby."

"Snipers, get ready."

A team of policemen clad in bulletproof vests entered the building via the roof. They fired a few shots, smashed the windows and dashed into the room.

At the same time, another group of armed police entered via the hole left behind by the security door that was blown apart by the explosion. They were armed with assault rifles and were extremely nimble in their movements.

Meanwhile, both Inspector Ho and Lin Chen were in the commanding vehicle watching as the scene unfolded. Lin Chen heaved a sigh of relief when he saw the target lying on the floor, lifelessly. Lin Chen muttered, "A 12.7mm armor-piercing bullet, even an elephant would be destroyed by it."

Inspector Ho cautioned Lin Chen, "Do not let your guard down. The target is extremely brutal, and he can mutate his body..."

Inspector Ho was cut off by a gut-wrenching scream coming from the video footage.

The cameras installed on the armed police started to shake vigorously and suddenly the body lying on the floor previously vanished.

They noticed a shadow that was mutating in shape. It was followed by a human figure zooming past the cameras. Suddenly, the policemen looked as if they were attacked by an invisible force and fell onto the floor, motionless.

It was followed by more gunshots and screams of despair which ended with an explosion and a flash.

In a matter of a few minutes, they had lost communication with every single police officer within the building.

Inspector Ho stared at the footages solemnly when Lin Chen interjected, "I'll go."

"Wait," Inspector Ho grabbed onto his shoulders and commanded, "Teams 4, 5 and 6 maintain your firepower and get ready to infiltrate the building. Snipers lock onto the target and fire at will."

Inside the building, the middle-aged man was examining the large cavity on his chest. His bones and flesh were wriggling around to seal his wound. This was the power of regeneration.

Even though his muscles and bones have been strengthened to their biological limits, the armor piercing bullet used by the police were still able to inflict a significant amount of damage on him.

If not for his power of regeneration, he would have died in that instance. He was boiling with anger and fury at the thought of it.

Chapter 47: Brutal

There was non-stop screaming, and gunshot sounds coming from the building.

The black shadow was just like the devil from hell. It appeared out of the corner of your eyes and dragged the police officers into the abyss of darkness.

During his rampage, the middle-aged man's pupil started to constrict, and a hint of yellow appeared across his eyes. He was furious and his hunger to kill was palpable.

“Yes, just like this...”

“All you people...”

“All of you deserve to die...”

His nails started to grow extremely long, and his joints began to jut out. His palm was now as big as a dragon's claw.

His canine teeth started to stick out from the side of his mouth, and all his muscles were just growing bigger and stronger. It was as if he had transformed into a monster.

Maybe he was a monster all along.

It managed to awaken its superpower approximately two months ago.

The first thing it did after awakening was to kill its owner.

Since then, it had been wandering around Jiangmen city like a ghost. Its only purpose was to kill those who mistreated and tortured their cats.

It obliterated those who tried to stop it.

It serendipitously discovered another supercat which had the power of regeneration. It disguised itself as the humans who the supercat was close to and borrowed the supercat's power of extraordinary regeneration.

After obtaining this superpower, it realized that it had the potential to be a lot stronger, stronger than anyone in this world.

During its fight with the police officers, it was nervous yet excited. It was nervous because of its fear of the destructive power of their assault rifles. However, it was excited to destroy these weapons that humans were so confident in.

Within a short span of a few minutes, it managed to destroy the first wave of police officers. To it, the entire process was a child's play.

The weapons in the police officers' hands could injure it, but their reaction was too slow. Their movement was too slow. They were too weak.

Once it started moving at his top speed, none of the police officers could track it or land a shot at it.

The human body was too fragile against its mighty claws. One light pinch by it could turn their bodies into minced meat.

Its lips curled into a smile upon sighting the next wave of police officers. It was so excited to continue its next round of rampage.

Its movement was as quick as lightning as it darted around the entire building in the blink of an eye.

The sharp claws coupled with its monstrous arms allowed it to smash through walls and kill the police officers behind it quickly.

Its muscular legs possessed explosive strength unparalleled in this world. It was able to dodge the rain of bullets as if it was teleporting and none of its enemies could take an aimed shot at it.

The tinge of green across his eyes allowed it to see in the dark. It would hide in the corners and the shadows of the rooms and pounced on its enemies from their blind spots. It would return to the darkness after its attack, leaving the police officers frantically spraying around to no avail.

It could feel the bullets penetrate its skin, but its muscles would stop them.

With the aid of infra-red, the police officers managed to land a few shots on it using armor-piercing bullets. However, its extraordinary regeneration abilities allowed it to recover its strength soon after.

The screams of devastation and the sounds of rapid gunfire were music to its ears as it was enjoying the massacre in front of it.

Inspector Ho and Lin Chen were taken aback by the killer cat's strength. Its speed, power, and explosiveness had reached a level that we humans could not achieve. The trained police officers were unable to offer any types of resistance against it.

Lin Chen shouted, "We must leave. This is a suicide mission."

Inspector Ho was in agony as his face turned into a frown and a vein popped across his forehead.

"Let them retreat!" Lin Chen screamed, "We need the army to deal with this monster!"

Before Inspector Ho could give his next command, there was a drastic turn of events.

"It is gone!"

"Be careful; it might be hiding."

"Check on every corner!"

"It is really gone!"

The killer cat decided to leave before Inspector Ho could give his instructions for his police officers to retreat.

“Where did it go?”

“It escaped northwards!”

Inspector Ho commanded, “Do not let it escape!”

“I’ll go,” Lin Chen said as he dashed out of the commanding vehicle.

Under the starry sky, the killer cat was leaping from the top of one building to another.

It was bleeding from a small wound on its belly. Its muscles were slowly ejecting the bullet out from its body.

It realized that it had lost its regenerative prowess from the previous skirmish.

There was only one explanation for it.

“No doubt,” Killer cat said while its face turned gloomier than ever, “Those who deserve to die must be killed.”

...

Zhao Yao was in his Panamera, driving along the streets under the night sky.

He just went to a haunted school which he discovered on the internet.

He managed to sneak into the haunted school using his power to manipulate time. However, there were no traces of supercat, let alone signs of a killer cat.

It was about time for him to end his patrol and he returned to his car.

Elizabeth was standing on the co-driver seat, with half her body outside the window. She was staring at the traffic light with a worried look.

Zhao Yao immediately comforted Elizabeth and said, “Do not worry. We will catch it as long as it is hiding out here.”

Once they returned to their housing estate, Zhao Yao was playing with his phone while he locked his car.

He saw a WeChat notification from Xiao Shi Yu.

She sent two pictures of a kitten with orange spots.

The cat in the first picture was drenched in blood, with its body contorted in unimaginable ways. It was as if the cat was knocked over by a car.

The second picture was the same cat, but it was slightly bigger than before. There were no visible injuries on it. Its fur was white and smooth. It looked just like any other domestic cats.

Xiao Shi Yu said, “This is the cat that I mentioned the other time. I sent it to an animal hospital after it got knocked over by a car. Even the vet said that there was no chance of recovery. However, it managed to recover after I took care of it for awhile.”

Zhao Yao stopped in his tracks when he saw the photos. He thought, “This is supernatural no matter how I see it.”

Elizabeth, who was resting on Zhao Yao’s shoulder, commented, “Even with a cat’s vitality, it is impossible for it to recover after sustaining such injuries.”

“Superpower?” Zhao Yao gave it serious consideration before backtracking to his Panamera.

“If it’s a supercat, it’s better for me to take a look.”

Chapter 48: The Search

Zhao Yao drove towards Xiao Shi Yu's district in his Panamera. However, he knew something was amiss when he saw plenty of police cars zooming past him.

"Why are there so many police cars today?"

"I hope a fugitive did not just escape from prison."

Zhao Yao entered the district after parking his car.

"That cat seemed like a stray cat from this place," Zhao Yao thought as he patrolled the area. He found a few stray cats resting underneath cars but could not find the one in the picture Xiao Shi Yu sent him.

"This is not a good sign. This district is quite big. I will need quite some time to find that cat." Zhao Yao and Elizabeth walked a few rounds around the area but to no avail.

Elizabeth reminded Zhao Yao, "Most stray cats are quite shy and afraid of strangers. It must have gone into hiding when it saw you. Doesn't Xiao Shi Yu stay here? It would be more efficient if we got her to help us in our search."

Zhao Yao's eyes lighted up as he heard Elizabeth's suggestion, "That's true. I should just give her a call."

Xiao Shi Yu was slightly shocked when Zhao Yao called her; she thought, "Why is he calling me at this hour?" However, she still picked up the phone despite her initial reservations, "Hi, is this Zhao Yao? What's up?"

Zhao Yao explained that he required her help to find the cat. However, she could not understand why he chose this timing to find the cat. Still, she decided to come down and help.

Zhao Yao waited for her at the lobby. Before long, she came down with a tank top, joggers and her hair in a mess. It seemed like she was just getting ready for bed.

She was holding on to some cat food and asked Zhao Yao curiously, “Why are you interested in finding this cat?”

“It is so pitiful. I want to adopt it and take care of it,” Zhao Yao continued, “It is very dangerous for stray cats to live in the city. I want to bring it back home as soon as possible.”

Xiao Shi Yu reluctantly accepted his explanation and began helping him in his search.

“Meow, meow!”

“Meow, meow!”

In just a few minutes, many stray cats in the district have gathered around Xiao Shi Yu. They were hungry for the cat food in her hand. However, the cat that Zhao Yao was looking for was still nowhere to be found.

Xiao Shi Yu responded dejectedly, “I just fed it a while ago; it must have gone somewhere to rest.”

However, Zhao Yao was anxious to find the cat and said, “It’s okay. Let’s just try for ten more minutes. If we really can’t find it, we will resume our search tomorrow.”

...

On the other hand, Lin Chen was speeding along the streets in pursuit of a killer cat. He was so fast that it seemed like his shadows could not catch up with him.

This was the power that Milk had given him – extreme speed. Not only was his physical speed lightning-quick, his reflex and thought processing were far faster than ordinary humans. He could reach speed of up to 60 kilometers per hour when sprinting.

Currently, he was on the heels of a killer cat.

Inspector Ho was giving him instructions via his earpiece, “Turn left at the next junction. From there, head towards the north-east direction and you should reach Chang Feng Hotel. Do you see it?”

“Our satellites have located the killer cat. However, if it enters any buildings or shopping centers, it would be very troublesome.”

“Catch it!”

Lin Chen leaped and landed on his right foot with a loud thud. For a moment, his body was stationary. Then based on the law of action-reaction, he turned direction and soared towards the sky and started sprinting towards Chang Feng Hotel.

With the help of Milk, Lin Chen had achieved a speed that ordinary humans cannot imagine. It was not merely an increase in muscular strength. To Lin Chen, he felt a change in time flow which allowed him to move at such an astounding speed.

He was sprinting down the streets with his eyes fixed on the rooftop of Chang Feng Hotel. He could see a black figure leaping over Chang Feng Hotel, towards the north.

“This guy...its movement, is it really possible biologically?” Lin Chen thought as he recalled killer cat’s rampage in the building.

“Even if I cannot defeat this guy, I must at least restrain it. I cannot allow such a dangerous thing to be on the loose,” Lin Chen sped up with this thought at the back of his head.

...

Meanwhile, the killer cat was jumping from one building to another at god-like speed. Every contraction and expansion of its muscles produced an immeasurable explosiveness.

It was making a beeline towards Xiao Shi Yu’s district.

“How dare it take back my power of regeneration?”

“The only logical explanation is that the cat saw Xiao Shi Yu and managed to see through my disguise,” Killer cat said so with an aura so vicious that it sent chills down your spine. It squinted its eyes and continued, “Did that kitten’s intelligence mature so quickly in such a short span of time?”

“It seems like it would be a smart move to get rid of that nosy woman.”

With its Mystique-like ability to mutate and transformed its body into anything it desires, the killer cat was endowed with incredible strength and the power of self-healing.

After its transformation, it was able to transcend the boundary between cat and humans. It was able to borrow power from other supercats.

When it combined its innate superpower with rapid regeneration, the end product was an exponential growth in strength as proven by the previous fights.

Even Inspector Ho and Lin Chen were shocked by the massacre that they witnessed. Killer cat’s desire to possess the power of regeneration only grew after experiencing the potential it had.

Finally, it had reached one of the flats in Xiao Shi Yu’s district. It used its large paws to break a window. This dexterity was not something one would expect from such a massive and towering monster. Its movement resembled more like a cat than what it looked like at that point.

When it reappeared, it had already transformed into an old lady wearing a simple T-shirt and pants. It looked towards the district ahead while it ambled along.

..

Zhao Yao and Xiao Shi Yu still could not locate the cat. Xiao Shi Yu commented, “When I was feeding it just now, it seemed exceptionally happy and ate more than usual. I’m afraid it won’t be coming out tonight.”

Zhao Yao frowned and replied, “Alright, I’ll try again tomorrow. Can you wait for me before feeding them tomorrow?”

“I don’t know why you’re so anxious to find it,” Xiao Shi Yu said while looking at Zhao Yao, “Let’s split up and try one last time. It might have been frightened when it saw the both of you coming along with me.”

Zhao Yao turned his head towards Elizabeth who was lazing on his shoulder and agreed with what she said. He nodded his head and replied, “Yeah, let’s walk one more round. We will rest for the day if we can’t find it.”

Simultaneously, Lin Chen had already reached the entrance to the district and heard the voice from his earpiece, “Killer cat disappeared from our system after it got here. It must have used its power to disguise as another person.”

“Lin Chen, do not be rash and act alone. Just stay put and wait for our reinforcements. I have contacted the army. They are the only ones who can deal with this monster.”

Seeing the district in front of him, Lin Chen retorted, “There is no time to wait!”

Who knew how much destruction the killer cat could bring about in this district?

Lin Chen ignored the commands from Inspector Ho as he dashed into the district alone.

“Where?”

“Where could it be hiding at?”

Chapter 49: The Encounter

Behind the shadows, killer cat saw Zhao Yao, and Xiao Shi Yu split into their separate routes with a glint in its eyes.

“That’s good; it won’t matter if I let this guy escape. He will just have to thank his lucky stars.”

Killer cat began stalking Xiao Shi Yu in its old lady disguise.

When it was just inches away from Xiao Shi Yu, she suddenly turned around as if she knew that it was behind her.

It had a sly grin on its face as it got ready to pounce onto Xiao Shi Yu. However, at the exact moment, there was an explosion right next to it which sent it directly into the muddy fields.

It immediately turned its head around to Lin Chen who was pointing his gun towards it. Lin Chen asserted, "Do not move."

Xiao Shi Yu panicked from the gunshot and scrambled to escape from them.

Killer cat stared at Lin Chen with a devious smile on its face and said, "Police officer, how did you managed to recognize me?"

However, Lin Chen did not reply. His entire body was in a heightened state of alertness as all his muscles were tensed up and his eyes fixed on his target.

Actually, it was just a gamble on Lin Chen's part.

It was unusual for an elderly lady to be strolling around the district at this hour. Even though it bothered to change into a new set of clothing, it was still wearing the same pair of tattered sports shoes from before. The most obvious thing which gave the killer cat away was the blood stains on the sole of its shoes.

This completely matched the profile of killer cat which was engaged in a bloody massacre and must have worn out its shoes from its engagement with the police officers.

These were the evidence which led Lin Chen to this deduction.

Killer cat's response after Lin Chen's test shot only confirmed his hypothesis.

After witnessing killer cat's rampage in the building, Lin Chen was not confident of bringing it down.

He understood how strong one group of professionally trained police officers, who were armed with state-of-the-art equipment, were.

Even when these police officers were inundated with gangsters or hooligans a few time their number, they could still easily overcome them.

However, when this group of elite warriors was put up against the killer cat, they were annihilated instantly.

A 12.77mm armor piercing bullet could not take the killer cat down, let alone a pistol.

Lin Chen knew that he stood no chance against this monster.

The only thing that made him chose to fight against it was his sense of justice.

The killer cat did not even consider Lin Chen as a threat. It merely glanced at Lin Chen, stretched a little and turned its body towards Xiao Shi Yu. With a quick twitch of its muscle, killer cat propelled itself towards Xiao Shi Yu with a loud boom.

Lin Chen pulled the trigger at the instant killer cat began its pursuit. However, the bullet ricocheted from its back and left a tiny scratch behind. The bullet could not penetrate its body as it was stopped by its muscle, which was as tough as marble.

Even though it did not manage to inflict much damage on the killer cat, it still affected killer cat's strike as it missed its original target. Instead of piercing through Xiao Shi Yu's heart with its sharp claws, it only managed to hit Xiao Shi Yu's waist, but it was enough to send her flying off.

With its monstrous strength and enormous claws, it managed to turn Xiao Shi Yu's waist into minced meat with a single swipe. Xiao Shi Yu was howling in pain as she lay on the floor.

Her organs had been damaged by killer cat's strike as she continued to bleed profusely. In an instant, the entire floor flooded with blood.

Killer cat took a step towards her and got ready for its second strike. Simultaneously, Lin Chen threw away his pistol and dashed towards it.

With his superpower awakened, it seemed like Lin Chen was faster than the killer cat. He pounced on it with his dagger, but it dodged the attack with a simple tilt of its body. However, the killer cat lost its chance to land its second strike on Xiao Shi Yu.

“Apostle!” Killer cat roared after seeing Lin Chen’s power. Its eyes seethed with anger as it shouted, “Which traitor lend you its power!”

“In that case, I’ll just have to kill you first before I proceed to her.”

In the eyes of the killer cat, every human being was a potential enemy. Thus, any supercat which lent its power to a human would be a traitor in its eyes.

It abhorred all these apostles and their supercats.

With a loud boom, the killer cat began its transformation. It started off with increased blood flow in its body. Then, every single muscle in its body expanded at an unprecedented rate. Its limbs and fingers grew longer and thicker. Claws emerged from beneath its skin. The clothes and shoes it was wearing were torn apart by the force of its expansion. Its fangs appeared from the corner of its lips.

Instantly, it had transformed from a frail elderly lady to a monster towering over Lin Chen.

“It did not even use its full strength previously?” Lin Chen was astounded by the monster standing in front of him. Suddenly, its enormous paws came flying towards Lin Chen.

“Run!”

Lin Chen could not fight against this monster heads on, leaving him with the sole option of escape.

Hence, killer cat commenced its pursuit of Lin Chen. Even though Lin Chen had the power of super speed, it could not get rid of the killer cat which was hot on his heels. Lin Chen was literally running away from death.

It was always harder for a person to achieve his top speed when retreating from his enemies.

Killer cat continued sending slashes across Lin Chen’s face with its sharp claws. Lin Chen could even feel the impact from the slashes even though they did not manage to hit him.

To an onlooker, it seemed like Lin Chen was in a dance with killer cat's claws. Lin Chen was fighting for his life as he dodged and retreated from the barrage of attacks.

The killer cat was able to break the cement floor with every step it took. Lin Chen knew that he would be on the brink of death if the killer cat managed to land one strike on him.

Suddenly, killer cat squatted down and sent its legs, which were as thick as steel column, towards Lin Chen.

Lin Chen tried to dodge this attack. However, with a twitch of the muscle, its legs began to expand like a rubber band; it turned into a 2 meters long steel whip, lashing towards Lin Chen.

Even though the angular frequency at which Lin Chen kicked at was the same, but its lengthened legs increased the reach of its kick, which resulted in a speed which was 7 to 8 times faster than the original. It was impossible for Lin Chen who was retreating to dodge this kick.

Even before the kick made an impact, Lin Chen already felt like he was suffocating from the force of the kick. It seemed like the air particles around them had all exploded simultaneously.

Lin Chen could only use his arms to block this attack. He felt like he had been hit by a truck which was speeding down the highway. He was sent flying off with the sound of its bones cracking in both arms.

After dealing a massive blow on Lin Chen, the killer cat did not continue with its pursuit. Instead, with a contraction and relaxation of its muscles, the killer cat was instantaneously transported to where Xiao Shi Yu was. It rose up and sent its hammer-like foot directly onto Xiao Shi Yu's neck. Lin Chen boiled with anger as he saw killer cat tearing Xiao Shi Yu's neck apart before his very eyes.

Xiao Shi Yu stopped breathing almost instantly after receiving two blows from the killer cat.

However, no one seemed to have noticed that the flesh and bones of her body have started to regenerate on their own.

Xiao Shi Yu's eyes began to lose focus as she went unconscious. The killer cat had an accomplished grin on its face. It turned around to face Lin Chen who was struggling to stand but could only kneel on the floor. It asked Lin Chen with a tinge of sarcasm, "Policeman, are you trying to save her?"

What a pity. It seems like she is already dead. You will also be dead in a few seconds, and you will never be able to save anyone.”

Killer cat slowly sauntered towards Lin Chen, with the wicked smile on its face. It saw the fury in his eyes and said, “Do you know that I love people like you who hate me to the core and yet cannot do anything against me.”

Lin Chen yelled in anger and tried to stand on his feet. However, the killer cat immediately sent him flying off with a kick. Every single bone in his skeleton was sore, and it felt like he had been hit with a wrecking ball. He could not even stand.

“Hahaha,” Killer cat started smiling, “You can continue to struggle, and I love to see the look of anguish on your face.”

Lin Chen was furious at the killer cat, but he felt a sudden sense of despair.

At that moment, a voice erupted in both their ears, “Hey, are you the killer cat that has been causing havoc in Jiangmen city?”

Killer cat turned around to see a shadow at the far end, beneath a tree. There was also an enormous cat resting on his shoulder. Their stares were so cold that it sent chills down killer cat’s spine.

Lin Chen spotted the shadow and shouted, “Escape!”

Killer cat said, “I wanted to let you go today, why did you come back?”

Zhao Yao replied coolly, “You make me so mad.”

The sounds of the wind interfered with their voices and made it difficult for one to decipher what they were saying.

Immediately after Zhao Yao completed his sentence, killer cat propelled his body forward like a bolt of lightning. It went straight for Zhao Yao’s head with its outstretched claws and chilling look on his face.

“Stop!”

Lin Chen closed his eyes in despair. Even though he could not see Zhao Yao’s face, he knew that no ordinary human beings could fight against the killer cat.

All he could do was open his mouth and let out a thunderous bellow.

Chapter 50: The Bloody Battle

The world stopped moving when the killer cat lunged at Zhao Yao with its blade-like fingers and a ferocious look on its face.

When Zhao Yao saw Xiao Shi Yu lying on the floor in a puddle of blood, he remained as composed as ever.

He removed a mask from his pocket and froze time for 2 seconds. At the next instance, he had launched a barrage of attacks on the killer cat.

He made use of the extreme speed which “Boiling Point” had endowed him with. Within 4 seconds, the movements of his punches had turned into afterimages as he continued his attack ceaselessly. He finally paused when time resumed as per normal.

He landed a total of twenty-eight punches. He had used every ounce of energy in him in all the punches, and they were infused with “Boiling Point”. Each was equivalent to a professional boxer’s knockout punch, and it felt as if you were slammed by a hammer that weighed hundreds of pounds.

When the impact of these punches exploded onto killer cat’s face, it felt as if an enormous truck had crashed directly onto its face.

In Lin Chen’s field of vision, he saw that the killer cat suddenly paused in its movement. The man opposite killer cat seemed to have only waved his arm and an invisible force which came from nowhere sent killer cat flying off.

When the killer cat stood up again, its head had already been deformed, and it was bleeding profusely. Its nose had sunken into its skull as if it was a pit

“Hello? Lin Chen!”

“What happened?”

“Tell us! What is happening right now?”

Lin Chen was taken aback by this scene, and he could not react to the questions being thrown at him.

This was the first time that killer cat had been subdued.

Killer cat let out a thunderous howl as it stood there. Its eyes turned bloodshot instantly as it straightened its back. Its facial features were distorted, but it was getting ready for its counterattack.

However, at the next moment, a ray of red light flashed across Elizabeth’s eyes. The killer cat realized that it could not move its body and could only stand there as it watched Zhao Yao walked towards it.

Both the killer cat and Lin Chen were taken aback by what was happening. Then, Elizabeth let out a small meow which marked the start of the illusion.

A pair of flaming wings appeared on Zhao Yao’s back and a huge door opened behind it. It opened to a sea of emptiness, and many spirits were emerging from it.

“This masked man! This guy! What kind of power is this,” Lin Chen stared at Zhao Yao with his mouth wide open.

By that time, Zhao Yao had already reached the killer cat. Zhao Yao was encircled by the spirits floating around him as he said coolly, “Do you see them? These are the spirits that you have sent to the afterworld, and they are here for you.”

However, the killer cat did not reply. It just continued to stare at Zhao Yao. Zhao Yao could sense an intense anger emanating from those pair of eyes. The killer cat was thinking about how to escape from Elizabeth’s power and was willing its muscle to move.

Zhao Yao let out a smirk and used his time control abilities to continue his assault on the killer cat. At that moment, Elizabeth's power had been disrupted.

In Lin Chen's eyes, the killer cat was hammered by an enormous invisible force when Zhao Yao lightly tapped it. Blood spurted out of its head as it flew twenty meters away and landed among the bushes.

Before it landed in the bushes, the killer cat instantaneously leaped towards Zhao Yao with its monstrous claws, aiming straight for his head.

However, before he managed to make contact with Zhao Yao's body, Zhao Yao had already disappeared into thin air.

At the next moment, the killer cat was already restrained by the invisible force as it fell to the ground with a loud thud.

Zhao Yao was ambling towards the killer cat. After numerous rounds of time manipulation and an infinite number of punches on it, the killer cat looked as if a giant boulder had crushed it. It was lying motionlessly on the floor and bleeding profusely from every part of its body.

Elizabeth could control and restrain her opponent. However, if the enemies suffered injuries when they were under Elizabeth's control, Elizabeth might be inflicted with those damages and lose control over its enemies.

However, Matcha's ability of time manipulation would complement Elizabeth's power seamlessly. Elizabeth's power would be disrupted when time was stopped using Matcha's power. When time resumed, Elizabeth would use her power again to control the enemy. The teamwork between Zhao Yao and Elizabeth had led to a perfect combination.

In Lin Chen's eyes, the masked man was an adult bullying the killer cat which was like a defenseless child.

The entire sky was enveloped by the spirits. Zhao Yao continued standing there with the flaming wings on his back while the killing cat remained restrained by the invisible force. Every punch and kick by Zhao Yao seemed so light but yet dealt an enormous damage on the killing cat.

Every time the killing cat tried to launch a counterattack, the invisible force would stop it and killer cat would fall to the ground.

“It’s useless.”

Bam! The killer cat’s neck had been twisted 90 degrees as it was thrown against the floor. It was howling in pain as it tried to launch another counterattack on Zhao Yao in futile.

“Isn’t this a familiar scene? It’s just like how you kill and torture your victims.”

The killer cat was once again sent flying off by Zhao Yao’s punch, and it let out a loud roar. It was enraged and leaped towards Zhao Yao again.

Once again, it was stopped by the invisible force and fell to the ground.

“You were merciless against the victims who could not defend themselves, isn’t it? It’s exactly like you and me.”

The killer cat was squatting on the floor, with its limbs distorted in a manner that could no longer be recognized. All the muscles in its body were contorting and mutating as they tried to heal its wounds.

Instantly, Zhao Yao teleported in front of it. He lightly patted against the killer cat’s chest. However, he had, in fact, landed a barrage of punches on the killer cat during his time manipulation.

A loud boom was heard as the killer cat was sent flying off like a cannonball into a giant tree nearby. It could no longer control any muscles in its body.

It was impossible for it to survive such an onslaught after losing its power of regeneration.

At that moment, the killer cat found the entire situation extremely absurd.

It initially thought that Zhao Yao would just be an ordinary human being and he could be crushed like an ant. However, once both of them were engaged in the battle, it could not even land a single punch on him.

The confidence that the killer cat had gained after annihilating the elite police officers vanished instantly.

The killer cat could not wrap its head around what was happening.

“This guy... how was he so strong and so powerful?”

“I ... cannot defeat it? I cannot even land a punch on him?”

Killer cat realized that it could not defeat Zhao Yao half a minute into the battle. It was not even a close fight, and the killer cat would have lost even if it was in its best state. It was a one-sided affair, and the killer cat was blown away by Zhao Yao.

The killer cat was furious for not being able to land even a single punch on Zhao Yao.

At that moment, the killer cat was fighting not to win the battle but to vent its anger. It already knew that it had lost the fight to Zhao Yao.

“Lin Chen, what exactly is happening?”

“What happened?”

“Where is the killer cat?”

Lin Chen finally replied after being bombarded by all the questions, “Killer cat has been suppressed.”

“It seems like...it seems like it is going to be defeated.”