

Am I A God 571

Chapter 571: Making Mischief

After Kaede Hattori and Kappei Hattori's mother had finished her revelation, everyone was outraged and looked at Kaede Hattori's father, Aoyama Hattori.

Zhao Yao smiled and flicked his finger to activate his power of illusion. A green hat floated down and landed on Aoyama Hattori's head before anyone had the time to look at him.

With Zhao Yao's power of illusion, everyone was able to see the green hat, except the Hattori family.

Hideki Kujyo furrowed his brows. "This feeling of unease again... similar to the incident with Mr. Yamada, as if there is something in the air..."

It was as though lightning had struck and exploded something in Kaede Hattori's mind. He looked at his mother in disbelief. The crimson blood rays on his body pulsed violently.

Aoyama Hattori, with the green hat on his head, extended his finger and pointed at his wife beside him, his body trembling with rage.

Aoyama's wife felt that her body was no longer under her control and shouted immediately, "No, that's not true!"

However, another man who was under Zhao Yao's control came forward—the chauffeur Wang Sang. He said, "Master and Madam, extreme apologies. On that day, I was hiding in the room discreetly watching AV when the blackout happened. A man opened the door, rushed in and chased me out.

So the man who was with Madam on that day... was not me. He was the deceased Lord Matsuyama Hattori.

Young master Kaede is not your son. He is your brother."

Pooh! Aoyama Hattori spat out a mouthful of blood. Kaede Hattori took a few steps back. His face was shocked in a trancelike state.

“False.” At this moment, another old woman, again under Zhao Yao’s control, came forward. Aoyama Hattori looked at her and said fearfully, “Dearest mother.”

Aoyama Hattori’s mother said, “Aoyama, you are not related to Kaede because you are not your father’s son. You are the son of my agent Matsuyoshi and I.”

Bam! The green veins on Aoyama Hattori’s head pulsated violently.

Everyone in the banquet hall was too distracted by this series of unexpected events to care about the wedding ceremony.

Everyone was drawn to the big show. To them, it was extremely surprising and exciting. It was a hundred times more entertaining than a wedding.

That was Zhao Yao’s intention. In fact, the words from the manipulated people could be easily verified. Using this distraction as a means to stop the wedding was sufficient.

By the time the Hattori family verified the truth, Zhao Yao would have long completed the chain missions and dragged the Hattori family through the mud. The actual truth would not matter anymore.

“Enough!” Kaede Hattori roared. Following the outburst, blood-colored rays radiated from his body in all directions.

Everyone in the banquet hall felt as though they had been drenched by a pail of cold water. Goosebumps surfaced all over their bodies and unspeakable terror silenced them.

Kaede Hattori had already shown mercy. If he had exerted his full force, more than half of the guests would have been driven either to death or insanity by the terror.

After stunning everyone with this move, Kaede Hattori coldly said, “Mother and grandmother, you are too tired today. Because of neurasthenia, you are spouting nonsense. Hanzo, accompany them back home to rest.”

Immediately, a Special Higher Police officer came forward and brought the two women away.

Next, Kaede Hattori looked at the chauffeur Wang Sang and said, “Wang, I know that you are a good person. Go back and rest a little.”

Kaede Hattori had survived countless battles and devious schemes, so he was an experienced man. Using only a few words, he managed to pacify the crowd and control the situation.

He understood that someone was sabotaging the wedding. However, in such a short time, explaining the truth was not easy and the explanations could make matters worse. He let that option go. It was faster and more effective to use brute force to intervene.

The wedding had already become a farce and could not be finalized.

It was just Kaede Hattori’s excuse for his plan, anyway. He slowly drifted towards Kappei Hattori and said, “Kappei, where is the ring that I gave you? Take it out. There are problems with the wedding so it will be an engagement instead. You and Nanako will be engaged today.”

Kappei Hattori felt his heart beating at the same rhythm as Kaede Hattori’s nearing footsteps. His body trembled with horror. He had no intention of resisting and took out an anti-radiation box from his chest.

Once the anti-radiation box opened, everyone’s gaze locked onto the ring held by Kappei Hattori.

Inside the ring’s settings were neither precious stones nor diamonds. They were not topaz, sapphire, jade or pearl. There was a strange mystical rock. Though it looked normal, it attracted the attention of all the apostles and supercats.

When the ring was taken out of the anti-radiation box, all apostles, especially the supercats, felt majestic energy fill the air. When inhaling said air, the supercats felt changes to their superpower that they had not felt for a long time.

“The Meteorite Fragments!”

“The Meteorite Fragments are set in the wedding ring.”

“This feeling... confirms the rumours—The Meteorite Fragments can increase the power of supercats!”

Hideki Kujyo locked his gaze on the Meteorite Fragments ring and thought, “I wondered how long the Meteorite Fragments have been in the hands of the Hattori clan. The meteoric rise of Kaede Hattori could be the result of the Meteorite Fragments. They definitely used them to increase the power of Kaede’s supercats.”

Before eyes that were filled with greed, surprise, and envy, the Meteorite ring was slowly put on Nanako’s finger.

The door of the banquet hall was kicked open and dozens of black-clad Americans marched inside in an orderly fashion.

The leader was a golden-haired man with a large muscular build. He was over two meters tall and his arms were as thick as thighs. He looked like the Titan giants from the legends. He looked down on all the Japanese.

Chapter 572: The Attack

A member of the Special Higher Police walked up to them and shouted, “Who are you? We are hosting an important wedding. Please leave immediately!”

After being confronted by the Special Higher Police officer, the little giant smiled in disdain and punched in the air. The Special Higher Police officer flew out and smashed against the wall with a loud crash. They couldn’t tell if he was still dead or alive.

All the Special Higher Police officers stood up and rushed towards the little giant with murderous intent.

He laughed heartily and said, “You Japanese are too weak. Let me teach you what a real battle looks like.”

“Titan...” Zhao Yao looked at him with anticipation for a good show. “... The elite American Delta Force member. After his apostle potential awakened, he was sent to Japan and stationed there permanently. He is endowed with gravitational power. Titan is just his alias and not his real name.

For safety and secrecy, the powerful apostles of the American unit only use aliases while executing their mission and not their real names.”

Titan’s aggressive stance ignited the fury of all the Japanese apostles.

However, Kaede Hattori remained calm and composed. Looking at the arrogant Titan, he coldly said, “Titan, I am giving you 15 seconds to kneel down and apologize. Otherwise, not even Apollo can save you.”

Zhao Yao stroked his chin and thought, “Apollo, the strongest American apostle who is stationed in Japan. Is he here now?”

Hearing Kaede Hattori’s words, Titan laughed wildly and said, “We suspect the Special Higher Police of stealing the Meteorite Fragments from a laboratory in Maine and conducting inhuman biochemical experiments. Experiments on the human body.

The American government has negotiated with the Japanese government. You are to disband the Special Higher Police within 72 hours, surrender the Meteorite Fragments and accept the CIA’s thorough investigation. If you fail to do so, we will execute a precision strike against the Special Higher Police and terminate this anti-human terrorist organization. Today’s action is your first warning.”

Kaede Hattori’s brows raised instantly. “Such arrogance.”

Zhao Yao thought, “The Americans are as per usual simply brutal. They’ve seen how quickly the Special Higher Police has grown... do they intend to terminate them with a single blow? They apparently do not want to see a united Japanese supernatural world. Kaede Hattori will not yield easily.”

Kaede Hattori suddenly stood up and grasped the air with a single hand. Blood rays materialized from the thin air and rushed towards Titan.

Titan lifted his hand and punched the air in front of him, causing the spread of a focused gravitational wave. However, the gravitational wave had no effect on the blood rays. The blood rays easily passed through the gravitational wave and permeated Titan's body.

Titan's face was immediately violently distorted. His forehead sweat profusely and his eyes revealed profound terror.

Regardless, he braced himself and did not collapse. He laughed wildly and said, "Hahahaha, are these the Divine Rays of Terror? Not very terrifying. They don't come close to the s*it that I sniffed at home."

He slammed his palm down and a violent gravitational force engulfed the entire hall. All people and cats instantly felt as though their bodies were burdened by an unbearable weight and collapsed to the floor. They let out shocked cries and screams of pain.

"This... This is Titan's Gravity Frenzy."

"Why did the Americans attack?"

"God, we are all going to die!"

Kaede Hattori's body sank a little before the blood rays accompanying his body stopped him. The power of the Divine Rays of Terror negated the effect of the gravitational force.

Hideki Kujyo staggered. Before he fell flat, Kensei Yagyu, who was by his side, unsheathed his sword and slashed the air. The shadow of his movement transformed into a huge throne that shielded their backs.

Zhao Yao was standing motionless. The Deflective Field protected him so he was nonchalant about these attacks. He walked silently to one side and grabbed Matcha, Fish Ball, and Lightning.

Many apostles were unable to fend off such unexpected gravitational force attack and fell flat. It was a chaotic scene.

Titan roared, “Kaede Hattori, you dared resist investigation and attack special agents. Prepare to face the music of the international court! Capture this terrorist!”

Although his order was to capture, the American troops all lined their guns on Kaede Hattori’s body. Gunshots rang in the air. A dense metal storm engulfed Kaede Hattori from all sides, intending to perforate him like a hornet’s nest.

Faced with such an attack, Kaede Hattori did not lose his composure. Blood rays materialized from thin air and shielded his torso. The moment they touched the Divine Rays of Terror, the bullets were distorted like fried braided dough and fell to the ground.

The previous time he had exerted his power, he had had to release his inner terrifying demons before they could erode reality. Now, the distortion of reality by the Divine Rays of Terror was an easy affair for Kaede Hattori. It was simple as taking a stroll in the park.

Looking at the squad’s incessant firing, Kaede Hattori laughed and waved his hand. Waves of crimson blood, several meters tall, emerged from the ground and swallowed one of the American warriors.

“Titan, even if Apollo were here today, he would not dare say such things to me.” Kaede Hattori advanced step by step. The blood wave swallowed another American officer. It was like walking in hell.”

Following Kaede Hattori’s footsteps, strong feelings of terror penetrated Titan’s consciousness. They stiffened his muscles, awoke deep terror inside of him and accelerated his heartbeat.

Some resign themselves to fear while facing terror, while others fight to the death under the pressure of fear.

Titan, who had gone through countless life and death situations, belonged to the latter category. His face donned a hideous expression and he clenched both his fists. The air was vibrating and a powerful gravitational force concentrated above his fists. The force continued to rise! And rise! And rise!

The ground around Titan shook violently. Tables, chairs, bricks, and cement slowly floated up into the sky.

As he gathered his power, Titan stared at Kaede Hattori and laughed. “Kaede Hattori! You are such a fool. To think that you dare to fight us? Are you going to fight against the most powerful country in the world? The Japanese government will give up on you.”

“Titan.” The blood wave emerged from underneath Titan’s feet and swallowed his entire body. Only his head was left unswallowed.

Kaede Hattori took pleasure in the Divine Rays of Terror covering his body and Titan’s terrified expression. Kaede Hattori walked to face him and softly said, “So, are you prepared to fight against the most powerful apostle in the world?”

The next moment, the blood wave swallowed Titan’s head. In vain, Titan struggled like a worm on amber. His face was so overwhelmed with terror that it was warped like a hell-born devil.

Chapter 573: Kensei

Following Kaede Hattori’s move, Hideki Kujyo’s eyes brightened abruptly. “What a fool! A direct move? Absolute power has made him arrogant.”

After all the other Japanese and the Special Higher Police members witnessing the scene were dumbstruck and terrified. Their anxiety was greater than the joy from the victory.

The price to pay for direct confrontation with the American was too great. Although they hated the Americans for their arrogance and oppressive behavior towards Japan, this direct confrontation and disregard for diplomatic relations had great repercussions. It would cause a series of chain reactions with Japan definitely on the losing end.

After Kaede Hattori defeated Titan, it was finally Kensei Yagyu’s turn to make a move.

His hands slowly came out from underneath his samurai costume. They were pure white and perfect and exuded a strange and fascinating aura. He moved with a samurai sword tightly clasped in both his hands.

Compared to the previously discreet unsheathing and slashing of the sword to fend off the gravitational attack, Kensei Yagyu currently showcased his samurai sword publicly. It seemed like an ordinary long sword, however, in the hands of Kensei Yagyu, it had a special mystical aura. Everyone's gaze gravitated to the tip of the sword.

Kensei Yagyu advanced towards Kaede Hattori step by step.

With every step, the entire banquet hall seemed to quiet.

“Kaede! Hattori!” Kensei Yagyu roared. Slashing and cutting down opponents was second nature to him, as he had done it millions of times. Kensei Yagyu was so gifted this was like breathing for him.

“After killing you, I will be the strongest in Japan.”

Kensei Yagyu slashed the air as though slashing through chaos and separating the yin and the yang. The entire banquet hall was engulfed by both light and dark rays. A black shadow in the form of a huge sword tip shot out and sliced through tables, chairs, air... before finally landing on Kaede Hattori's body.

Kensei Yagyu's supercat had the following abilities: Shadow Concealment, Shadow Weapon, and Shadow Jump. Based on these abilities, his disciples had acquired huge fame.

After witnessing Kensei Yagyu's abilities, everyone realized that Sato, Onitsuka, and Ishia had been much less talented than their master. The difference was like Heaven and Earth.

Before the blade could enter his body, a sky-high blood wave surrounded Kaede Hattori. Blood rays and dark shadows collided and canceled each other out, dissipating into the air. However, the impact left a little tear-shaped wound on Kaede Hattori's hand. An indication that he was not completely shielded from the sword attack.

Kaede Hattori eyed Kensei Yagyu and Hideki Kujyo and said coldly, “So the Kujyo clan is going to attempt the impossible and invite disaster?”

Hideki Kujyo hollered and said with a righteous face, “Kaede Hattori, you are obstinate, self-opinionated and indulge in willful aggression. You are deluded into using brute force and terror to dominate Japan. You have even secretly conducted research on biochemical weapons and caused the United Nations' to launch a crusade against Japan. I will not let you succeed.”

At the same time, several assistant directors of the Special Higher Police also came forward in support of Hideki Kujyo. They had already colluded with the Americans.

They were also under the orders of certain Japanese clans that did not want to see the rapid rise of the Hattori clan and the domination of the Japanese supernatural realm by Kaede Hattori. This violent reaction was due to Kaede Hattori's use of supernatural powers and his meteoric rise to power.

Hideki Kujyo retreated feeling satisfied. The surrounding Japanese apostles looked at each other but no one made a move. When the situation was this unclear, how could they make rash decisions? Once there was a definite verdict, they would rush towards the loser like hyenas chasing down their victim.

The faces of the Special Higher Police members were also showing signs of hesitation. Under the orders of the assistant directors, they surrounded Kaede Hattori without acting.

Slash, slash, slash, slash! Kensei Yagyu rushed forward while laughing. Upon execution of the four slashes, dark lethal shadows, that looked like black sword energy, landed on Kaede Hattori's head.

Kaede Hattori's body cast an enormous blood wave that deflected Kensei Yagyu's attack with a boom.

Hearing Hideki Kujyo's words, he said scornfully, "Hmm, Hideki, are you colluding with the Americans too? Then there is no reason for Kujyo clan to exist."

Kensei Yagyu made another sprint. His body transformed into various dark shadows and that evaded the Blood wave. Then he materialized in front of Kaede Hattori and thrust his sword towards him.

The sword tip vibrated violently like an electric drill. Light and shadows were like a violent thunderstorm that combined as dark sword energy. It slashed through the blood wave and cut open Kaede Hattori's cuff.

"Kaede Hattori! Duel with me. Do you still have time for idle chit chat?"

While laughing wildly, Kensei Yagyu completely integrated the shadows. His Shadow Jump was simply too fast. It was like countless shadow warriors materialized from thin air, exuding an aura never felt before. He zoomed from underneath tables and chairs, behind curtains, from light sources, underneath feet and even from Kaede Hattori's own shadow, where he slashed Kaede Hattori's body.

The sword's reflection and shadow violently changed every second. Every change would spawn even more sword slashes on Kaede Hattori.

The fierce duel attracted everyone's attention.

Zhao Yao was carrying a plate of mango pudding. He happily ate as he watched the two of them duel. Feeling happy, he could not resist clapping his hands and crooned, "Excellent!" Some of the Japanese glanced angrily at him.

Hideki Kujyo fiercely glared at Zhao Yao and thought, "Fool." Remembering that Kensei Yagyu had promised to "accidentally" execute Zhao Yao, he decided to disregard him. He considered him dead.

As Zhao Yao watched the duel, he thought, "This sword-wielding fellow seems pretty strong. However, Kaede Hattori seems to be stronger. Seems like I will not be required in the mission to conquer the Japanese supernatural realm." Thinking that he could earn experience points while slacking, Zhao Yao felt wonderful.

On the battlefield, Kaede Hattori seemed entirely engulfed by the sword tornado. The enormous blood wave was incessantly being cut, separated and broken apart.

Slash, Slash, Slash, Slash, Slash, Slash, Slash! Kensei Yagyu seemed to have forgotten the world around him facing Kaede Hattori, who dominated Japan. He exerted all his strength.

All countries, situation, sword strokes and Special Higher Police officers were being pushed to the back of his mind. He was like a sword with the sole purpose of killing and the strongest, most ferocious resolution to terminate all until there was none.

The blood wave in front of Kaede Hattori was torn apart by the sword slashes. Kensei Yagyu opened his mouth, revealing a cruel smile. Wielding the long sword with infinite brilliance and darkness, he slashed Kaede Hattori's neck fiercely.

Chapter 574: Ambush

The atmosphere was raging and life trembled. Everyone's attention was attracted to the splendour bright light from Kensei Yagyu's blade. In fact, the whole hall's lights diminished leaving behind thousands of shadows that merged together with the blade. It brought death and destruction as it slash towards Kaede Hattori.

This attack held all of Kensei Yagyu's belief. It was the perfect integration of his shadow abilities and swordsmanship, it was the strongest attack he had ever made.

However, the next moment, from the void of space a pale white palm stretched out and blocked Kensei Yagyu's shadow blades. Metallic sparks were produced from the friction between the palm and the blade.

More and more pale white palms appeared from the void of space and held onto the shadow blade one by one.

Kensei Yagyu's attack got slower and slower till it gently stopped in front of Kaede Hattori.

Numerous mysterious figures were looming in the void of space. The roof of the hall started to seep blood and many rotten hands reached out from below the ground. The hall was filled with women screaming and babies crying.

Kaede Hattori's horrific world had arrived.

"Fight?" Kaede Hattori pondered softly. At the same time, the pale white palms from the void of space exerted force on the blade together. The shadow blade shattered and disappeared into thin air.

Divine Rays of Terror converge towards Kaede Hattori and transformed into a blood red robe on him.

He glanced towards Kensei Yagyu who was stumbling backwards and commented, "The warmup just now was considered a fight?"

As he spoke, more peculiar figures started appearing. Some were centipedes formed from human heads, some were monsters formed from several broken limbs and some were a blur shadow.

Fear crept up everyone's spine. After seeing Kensei Yagyu's disbelief, Kaede Hattori shook his index finger and said, "All of you have no idea how strong I am. Such ignorance is the only reason why you dare to attack me. "

While speaking, all the peculiar creatures have swarmed towards Kensei Yagyu. However, this time Kensei Yagyu's blades were no longer as powerful.

On contrary the creatures and monster, some had no form, some had skin as hard as metal, some spat water and fire and some could revive immediately after death.

In the horrific world, all these creatures were formed from the Divine Rays of Terror. As long as Kaede Hattori's Divine Rays of Terror does not end, there would be endless of them.

When one creature has been slaughtered, two other creatures would appear. When two creatures were sliced into half by the shadow blades, four creatures would appear from the void of space.

Kaede Hattori stood by the side and watch Kensei Yagyu struggle as the creature surround him, like a cat toying with a mouse.

The battle situation changed drastically, Kensei Yagyu who had the upperhand just now, has lost his advantage. Although he has not completely lost but anyone could tell he could no longer win Kaede Hattori.

With the spread of the Divine Rays of Terror, Hideki Kujyo was also severely affected. He could not withstand the creeping fear and hence pressed his phone frantically, "Apollo, what are you waiting for! Hurry attack!"

However, no matter how he pressed the phone, nothing changed. Hideki Kujyo's heart sank. When he thought that the Americans had given up on them, a sigh came from above.

A crushing noise followed. To everyone's disbelief, the entire banquet hall's four walls started collapsing. After the collapse, many American Apostles who were wearing black shirts and pants was revealed.

From above their heads, the entire roof also crumpled. However, the stones and concrete slabs did not fall downwards. Instead, they started floating upwards and the situation above them was unveiled.

There were 12 blonde foreigners floating above their heads, looking at these Japanese as if they were insignificant ants.

In the middle of the 12 guys, there was a teenager that had absolutely perfect body proportion and looks as handsome as the Sun God from the legends.

This teenager, Apollo, was the strongest American Apostles that was stationed in Japan.

Apart from him, the 11 Apostles beside him and the hundreds of Apostles that had surrounded the banquet hall were all floating in mid air. They were all apostles who had borrowed the gravitational ability.

Upon seeing this, Kaede Hattori's face turned solemn. Given the great number of American Apostles that had arrived together but he did not received any news beforehand. The significance behind this made him feel disappointed but he could hardly hold a grudge against it. America held onto too much of their country's weaknesses. Under pressure, their government could only give in.

From today, he, Kaede Hattori, will change all of this.

"So Apollo, you are finally here?" Kaede Hattori sniggered, "Do you think just by bringing more Apostles you can win me?"

Apollo lowered his eyelids, he neither looked at Kaede Hattori nor Kensei Yagyu. He just calmly said, "Hattori you are walking on a route of no return. Even if you get away today, you would not be able to escape the hunt down in the future, only death awaits you. This is the current circumstance and it would not be changed by one man's will."

“Cut the rubbish, first let me kill all of you then I will get rid of the pests in the government.” Kaede Hattori clenched his fists firmly and the horrific world expanded once more. It expanded till it had encompass all the surrounding American Apostles.

With an order from Apollo, hundreds of Apostles exerted their gravitational ability. A terrifying and inescapable force acted on Kaede Hattori straightaway. Instantly, it shattered several of Kaede Hattori’s bones. His internal organs were bleeding profusely. Blood was oozing out from his eyes and nose.

Yet, the next moment, Kaede Hattori had a blinding red light shining out from his body. It transformed into several layers of force fields and defended him from the alarming gravitation.

Despite this, sounds of his bones breaking were still heard. It was as if the next moment he would be teared into pieces by the violent gravity.

When there is a lack in quality, make it up with quantity. Kaede Hattori had strong individual abilities, hence the American side sent out hundreds of Apostles with similiar gravitational abilities to fight as a unit.

Only big countries like America had the ability to allow hundreds of Apostles to borrow such a strong ability like gravitation at the same and get be worried that things will get out of hand.

Red veins began appearing in Kaede Hattori’s eye, in an instant, the creatures of the horrific world had began charging towards the surrounding Apostles.

At the same time, the layers of blood red light had wrapped Kaede Hattori up, turning his body into an enormous blood red cocoon.

The whole hall turned into a fierce battlefield immediately. As Kaede Hattori had to disseminate his abilities, Kensei Yagyu was relieved from the stress. Kensei Yagyu held his sword, continously attacked the few creatures in front of him and broke free.

Upon seeing Kensei Yagyu who was wrapped by several layers by blood red light, Kensei Yagyu held onto his katana tightly. In a flash, he charged towards Kaede Hattori.

Halfway through charging, he glanced towards the corner and saw Zhao Yao hiding in the corner, still eating his pudding.

“Moron.”

His glance turned solemn, he launched an attack from a distance. Then continued to charge forward.

Chapter 575: Collapse

As Kensei Yagyū joined the fight again, Apollo looked at the blood red cocoon Kaede Hattori used to defend himself. He tilted his head, stretched out his hand and clenched his fist.

“Black hole Radiation.”

Using the gravitation ability application developed by America’s supercomputer, the gravitation that was acting vertically downwards on Kaede Hattori changed and all started acting in different directions.

At the same, all the other American Apostles also followed suit and used the same attack. Kaede Hattori felt like he was sucked into a black hole, gravitational force was acting on him in all directions and was pulling him apart.

Even his Divine Rays of Terror could not withstand the gravity. It could only act in the opposite direction to neutralize the force.

The hundreds of Apostles were constantly changing the direction of their gravitational force. There was no way Kaede Hattori could change the direction of his Divine Rays of Terror according to the hundreds of Apostles. Hence, Kaede Hattori was badly injured almost immediately. The blood red cocoon shattered around him, cuts started appearing on his skin. Blood was oozing out from his wounds and flowing upwards due to the gravitational force.

Apollo commented coldly.”Do you know that gravity travels at the speed of light? This means that you have no where to hide. Hattori, you have already lost this battle.”

Despite hearing that, Kaede Hattori continued his attack on the Apostles. However the Apostles who were hit by the Divine Rays of Terror remained in their positions and appeared untouched.

Kaede Hattori's face turned solemn, "They are all projected images?"

Apollo smirked, "Other than traveling at the speed of light, gravitational force has another characteristic. It is that it acts on everything even at the greatest distances, from the smallest cells to galaxies. Currently, we are attacking you from somewhere that is beyond your reach. Hattori, you do not even have the chance to fight back."

Gravity travels at the speed of light. Furthermore, having hundreds of Apostles attacking in every direction, it made up for the weakened gravitational force caused by the long distance.

This resulted in Kaede Hattori being unable to defend himself. In fact he was pinned to his position by the violent gravitational force. Unable to launch a counter attack, unable to hide.

This was an attack planned specially to counter Kaede Hattori's Divine Rays of Terror. The effects of these hundreds of Apostles attacking would be far better than thousands of Apostles with different abilities attacking together.

Zhao Yao was cautioned with what he saw. Even with such strong abilities like Kaede Hattori, once he is targeted, he was defeated badly. This further proves his belief of remaining low-key and hiding his abilities.

This is the importance of military intelligence in a battle between the superpowered. Kaede Hattori was overconfident. Although he had strong abilities but he was still mortal after all. All mortals have weaknesses."

"Unpredictability is what makes superpower truly powerful."

While thinking, he gently pushed his palm forward and the shadow blade from Kensei Yagyu was frozen in midair by the Deflective Field.

On the other hand, Kensei Yagyu used Shadow Jump and was charging towards Kaede Hattori. To Kensei Yagyu, Zhao Yao was only an insignificant person from China. Before this he had wielded his katana and sent his shadow blades to slash Zhao Yao.

In Kensei Yagyu's eyes, Zhao Yao was a dead man. He placed all his attention on Kaede Hattori and continued charging towards him.

Kaede Hattori was the strongest enemy Kensei Yagyu ever met. He had to kill Hattori, even if it means that he had to give up his honor and attack him while he is surrounded.

If Hattori lives, the Kujyo and the entire Yagyu family would have to suffer the wrath of his revenge.

However, while he was charging towards Kaede Hattori, he was unaware. In fact the whole hall was unaware.

Of the fact that the black sword aura attacking Zhao Yao, was frozen in midair and shattered into pieces before it even reached Zhao Yao.

The next moment, a fish ball was raised up in the air by the Deflective Field and glaring bright light soared into the sky like a mini Sun lighting up the hall.

Kensei Yagyu suddenly realized that there were no longer any shadows around him. He had lost his chance of shadow jumping.

Next, a Ragdoll cat (Catherine) appeared in front of him. The moment he saw Catherine, his subconsciously relaxed, fell into deep sleep and was no longer in Shadow mode.

Then, his body tensed up and he opened his eyes again. He was lifted up by his head.

Instinctively he wanted to retaliate but no matter how hard he tried, nothing moved. Be it his hands, legs, body or even his eyes. His ability to turn into shadow had also completely disappeared.

He was thrown off guard," He took me down without even showing himself? Who is this person?"

He squinted hard to try and see the person. Looking at the glaring red light from the person's eyes and the cold face. Kensei Yagyu was astounded," He is the China dude?"

After seeing Kensei Yagyu's change in facial expression, Zhao Yao frowned," Roly Poly, how many times must i tell you? My head needs to be invisible! My head needs to be invisible!"

Roly Poly curled his lips in annoyance and whispered to himself, "You keep changing what you want. How am I supposed to know?"

Concurrently, Zhao Yao asked Elizabeth to activate her illusion powers and Zhao Yao now looked like Kaede Hattori's dead grandfather, Matsuyama Hattori. Furthermore, Zhao Yao took the mask from Dust Ball's mouth and wore it.

Dust Ball opened his mouth again and released Sphynx cat. Zhao Yao said," Sphynx cat, go with Roly Poly to look for the Americans."

Roly Poly grabbed onto Sphynx cat's neck and both of them shot off to go look for the location of Apollo and his men. Although the other supercats do not have the ability to stay invisible but Elizabeth used her illusion powers and hid them from sight.

This is a dangerous and fierce fight, hence once he starts fighting, his strategy is to stay steady and safe. Hence, the first thing he did was to released the invisible Sphynx cat and then use the Power Up card.

With a flick of his palm, Zhao Yao had activated Ares's Deflective Field. Kensei Yagyu was thrown out immediately and he crashed through two walls before falling onto the ground covered in blood.

Kensei Yagyu wanted to stand up but he vomited out a mouthful of blood instead. With his eyes wide open, he glared at Zhao Yao who currently had the appearance of Matsuyama Hattori.

The abnormal situation quickly caught Apollo and Hideki Kujyo's attention.

Apollo frowned in disbelief," Matsuyama Hattori? You are still alive?"

Hideki Kujyo eyes were also filled with doubt. After noticing the special sound waves in the air, he was puzzled," It is the same kind of fluctuation again. What is this exactly?"

The rest of them who were hiding- Nanako, Sylvie, Kappei Hattori and others- were all equally shocked by the appearance of Matsuyama Hattori.

Upon hearing Apollo, a thought came to Zhao Yao's mind," Am I seeing an illusion? This means they are not far away. Sphinx cat go and search the roofs nearby."

On the other hand, Kaede Hattori was also very shocked to see Matsuyama Hattori. " Grandpa?"

Zhao Yao laughed loudly and used Old Cat to translate," Kaede, you did well. Grandpa faked my own death and hid in the mountains for 30 years to train hard for Fist of the World King. Now, watch closely, this is the Fist of the World King that has been passed down in our family for generations."

While speaking, Zhao Yao was covered in golden flames and he punched forward. The golden flames were like a magnificent dragon swallowing Kaede Hattori completely. At the same time, it disintegrated the gravitational force that was attacking Kaede Hattori.

Chapter 576: The Reversion

Rays of golden flames enveloped Kaede Hattori's body, protecting him from further attack by the gravitation.

Though the gravitation attack from Apollo and his men was immensely powerful, to the point that it was able to break through Kaede Hattori's Divine Rays of Terror and injure him severely, it was powerless against the 'Power Up Card' enhanced Deflective Field.

As he watched Kaede Hattori being wrapped in golden flames, Zhao Yao shouted, "Kaede, accept my powers!"

"Grandpa!" Kaede Hattori felt the golden flames that were protecting him and said in surprise, "Are you an apostle as well?"

"Silly child," Zhao Yao walked to him and stroked his forehead, "Who are you calling grandpa, I'm your father."

Kaede Hattori was completely taken aback.

Zhao Yao continued, “Did you forget what your mother and Wang Sang had just said? You are the son I had with your mother.”

Upon hearing these words from ‘Matsuyama Hattori’ himself, Kaede Hattori was dumbstruck at that moment, and did not even care about the dangerous fighting situation at hand anymore. All that was on his mind was this shocking piece of news.

His real father Aoyama Hattori, Matsuyama Hattori’s son, current head of the Hattori household, immediately opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood before he passed out, dying on the spot.

Apollo could not be bothered with their family drama, and commanded all his gravitation apostles through his headset, shouting “XXX, YYY, mark your positions, aim downwards and attack Matsuyama Hattori with full force.”

A loud boom was heard, and under the effect of the invisible gravitational power, the surrounding air was turned into a force field as well, slamming against the Deflective Field around Zhao Yao, but its efforts were futile.

The gravitaiton force unit was like a divine curse used to subdue Kaede Hattori, defeating him to the point that there was no temper left in him.

However, the combined power of a hundred apostles with the same ability was still unable to surpass Zhao Yao’s Deflective Field, which was as good as the whole lot of them being completely suppressed by Zhao Yao’s power.

Given the same number of apostles but with different individual abilities, Zhao Yao would not have been able to suppress them so easily, and might even be more troublesome for him to fend of their powers.

This was precisely the growth and inhibition dynamics between different abilities, and the importance of gathering intelligence.

On Apollo’s side, his attacks were unable to break through the powers of Zhao Yao and Kaede Hattori combined, while at the same time, Sphynx cat had already traced their bearings from the rooftop of a nearby building.

With Roly Poly on his back, Sphynx cat was still invisible as he followed their trail and climbed up the outer walls of the apartment building with ease and reached the rooftop of the apartment building. Looking at the American apostles before him, he sped towards them in an instant, knocking out ten over apostles at once.

It turned out that the gravitation force unit that Apollo was leading were all standing on the rooftop of a building near the hotel, and were surveying the scene with their sight, which enabled them to unleash their gravitational ability.

Hence when they first attacked, they immediately tore down the outer walls surrounding the banquet hall, as well as the roof of it.

Since they had been discovered by Sphynx cat, they started to be knocked down one by one.

As more and more apostles were being knocked out, Apollo realized very quickly that something was wrong and reversed the gravitation, lifting all the apostles in the air.

“We’re being attacked!”

“I can’t see him, but I can sense a force that’s moving around.”

“Quick, use the infrared imaging goggles to see!”

After knocking out more than 50 apostles, Sphynx cat was finally struck by the explosive gravitational force and flew up into the sky.

Although Sphynx cat had immense power in his body, his physique had never changed and was at most of the same weight and size as a dog.

Hence, Sphynx cat could be easily raised by a person, just like what the gravitational force was doing now, raising him into the sky at an alarming speed.

As the gravitational force threw him skywards, Sphynx cat lost his ability to cast his powers for a moment. He continued to exert his powers with full force, thrashing his four limbs about, but alas only a few gusts of wind were produced and he flew off course afterwards.

The efficacy of generating a force field from the air around him to reverse the gravitation was too low, generating at most one hundredth or one tenth of power. Normally this would be good enough for Sphynx cat to use it on abusing vegetables, but to use it against the combined strength of Apollo and his men was way beyond their means.

If the gravitation could be said to be suppressed by the Deflective Field, Sphynx cat's super strong body was now equally suppressed by gravitation.

After being struck by the gravitation in a moment of carelessness, Sphynx cat's abilities were stripped by 9×9 of its original powers as he was sent flying skywards.

Sphynx cat who was flying skywards tried hitting the air around him and blowing out as much air as he could but it had little if no effect in reversing the gravitation, and he could only watch himself flying higher and higher into the sky.

Looking at the city that was becoming smaller and smaller before him, Roly Poly's eyes bulged in fear. If they accidentally dropped from this height, Sphynx cat would at most break a leg, but he, Roly Poly, would suffer a death that was worse than death itself.

Frightened, Roly Poly immediately whipped out his phone and sent a message to Zhao Yao, informing him of their current situation.

In the banquet hall, Zhao Yao received the news and raised his eyebrows. He had not considered this point before, and shook his head in his heart, "Indeed, in this world, it was impossible to not be counterattacked by an enemy. At first I thought that given Sphynx cat's powers and with Roly Poly's invisibility as his cover, there would be no problem, but now they are actually subdued."

At the thought of this, Zhao Yao immediately walked to the spot where the hotel's outer walls had been, and said as he stared at the sky outside the window, "Kaede, aside from the Fist of the World King, the Hattori family still had another spiritual power that was passed down for generations, watch this."

In the next moment, Zhao Yao pressed his palm on the floor, and Elizabeth unleashed her power of illusion at the same time, creating rays of black trails around the floor, followed by an explosion of the mass of black smoke.

At the same time, Dust Ball had opened his mouth and spat out Cat Sage.

Once Cat Sage came out, his body immediately experienced a drastic change as his body expanded to 60 meters in length, his whole body covered in golden-scaled armor as he let out a deafening roar and charged towards the sky.

Zhao Yao let out a long laugh and said, "See this Kaede, this is the spiritual animal of the Hattori family, the golden three-headed dragon."

Everyone was shocked at the scene before them, as the golden three-headed dragon charged into the sky like a fighter jet, heading in the direction of the Sphynx cat as all three of its heads opened their mouths and let out a deafening roar.

At this moment, god knows how many Japanese people had witnessed this scene, and gasped or screamed in astonishment.

The one who was most affected was definitely Kaede Hattori and Kappei Hattori. Kaede Hattori was confused beyond words, and had no idea what this was all about.

Kappei Hattori on the other hand very quickly accepted it as a fact, and jumped up happily and said, "Grandpa! I want to learn this spiritual power as well!"

On the other side, Hideki Kujyo stared intensely at Zhao Yao's spot, and feeling the strange movement in the air around him, he finally recalled what it was, "These are, sound waves?"

"Who's using his superpower to release these special sound waves?" He finally found the source of his strange feeling and tried activating his own power, opening his mouth to emit reverse sound waves that gradually neutralized Elizabeth's illusion sound waves.

Hence at the next moment, in the shocking view of everyone who was at the scene, Zhao Yao's body flashed like a TV screen that had lost its signal, and changed from the image of Matsuyama Hattori back to his original form, with cats all over his body.

Zhao Yao was still smiling gleefully as he patted Kaede Hattori's shoulder and said, "Kaede, do you want to learn the Fist of the World King? Daddy can teach you." He still wanted to act as if he was increasing Kaede Hattori's powers and trick the superpower world in Japan into admiring him, so that he could finish his chain mission.

But right at this moment, Elizabeth quietly whispered from aside, "Zhao Yao, the power of illusion had broken."

Chapter 577: Exposed

Upon hearing Elizabeth's words, Zhao Yao froze on the spot and as his expression stiffened.

He switched his power over to Matcha at the first instance and activated time freeze.

Level 8 Matcha activated time freeze, which totalled 8 times of 12 seconds, giving Matcha and Zhao Yao an extra time of around 96 seconds.

On top of that, Zhao Yao had used his Power Up card, extending the timeframe to 120 seconds. Multiplied by 8 times, this amounted to 960 seconds, meaning a total of 16 minutes, which was enough time for Zhao Yao to do whatever he wanted to do.

As he watched the world around him come to a standstill, Zhao Yao first took 3 seconds to compose himself and get rid of the awkwardness from earlier on.

Never did he expect that Sphinx cat and Elizabeth's powers of illusion would be countered by the Americans, just as he was thinking of how Kaede Hattori was being picked on by them.

Matcha, who was perched on Zhao Yao's shoulders, laughed so hard that he started rolling on the floor, "Hahahaha, Zhao Yao, Zhao Yao, your stupid act got exposed!"

Zhao Yao whipped his head around and glared at Matcha coldly.

The fur on Matcha's back stood on its ends and he stood up immediately, saying calmly, "Zhao Yao, are you going to silence all of them?"

As he said that, he kicked out a paw and licked it as he said, “These paws of mine have been so used to playing cheerful music that it’s about time to get some blood on these sharp claws!”

As he licked his paws, a sharp scratching sound was heard as Matcha accidentally scratched his tongue, which sent him screaming and pacing up and down in pain saying, “So painful! So painful!”

“This should count as getting blood on them too,” Zhao Yao glanced at Matcha with a look of disdain, stroking his chin as he started to think of his next move.

“Luckily I wore the mask beforehand, at least my face hasn’t been exposed,” This was the only thing Zhao Yao could take comfort in.

“If the power of illusion was broken, maybe I should kill off the person who broke it?” Zhao Yao raised his head and observed his surroundings. There were too many people and cats in the banquet hall. Given such a short time, it was impossible for him to find the person who broke his power of illusion.

He turned and stared at Kaede Hattori, whose face was frozen and still in a state of shock, and a thought came to Zhao Yao’s mind, “Kaede, would you listen to my explanation?”

Matcha tapped Zhao Yao’s leg and asked, “Zhao Yao, Zhao Yao, quick help me take a look, did it leave a scar? I have a scar-prone body.”

“Scar-prone my ass, get lost.” Zhao Yao pushed Matcha away and thought next, “Let’s try to hoodwink them first, if it doesn’t work, then I can only reset the scene and start all over again.”

At the thought of this, Zhao Yao immediately deactivated the time freeze and switched over to Elizabeth’s power of illusion. He stared at Kaede Hattori, who was a few meters away and said, “Kaede, hear dad out for a bit, things are not like what you thought.”

Kaede Hattori stared at him coldly as the blood-red rays began concentrating around his body, “So you were the one behind all these things with my mother and Kappai?”

Zhao Yao explained, “Kaede, since it came to this, there is no point for me to hide anything from you. Actually your real name isn’t Kaede Hattori, it is Xiao Feng.

Thirty years ago, the Hattori family was out to kill us off, and brought you back to Japan at a young age and raised you up since then. Today we are reunited as father and son, which is the perfect opportunity for our revenge.”

As he was saying that, Zhao Yao looked towards Aoyama Hattori (Kaede Hattori’s father) who was afar, and his eyes glinted with red light, bringing Aoyama Hattori back to consciousness as he pointed at Zhao Yao in disbelief and said, “You! The Great Bandit! You didn’t die!”

Zhao Yao stared at Kaede Hattori with a face full of sincerity, hoping that the other party would trust him again. Thereafter, he would only need to help him finish off the apostles at the scene to complete the chain mission.

Just as Kaede Hattori frowned and started to hesitate again, Kappei Hattori shouted from afar, “Brother, don’t trust what he says. Hattorie can control people’s minds! He can control our words and actions.”

Kaede Hattori’s eyes focused, and all sorts of evil spirits had charged towards Zhao Yao, and Kaede Hattori had even fashioned a blood-red gun that looked as if it was solid and charged ruthlessly towards Zhao Yao to pierce him.

Bloodthorn gun! Kaede Hattori used the strongest counterattack produced at highly concentrated and pressurized levels of the Divine Rays of Terror, which had even split the five meter thick fortification apart.

However, the Deflective Field which Ares emitted did not have the Power Up card, and was easily destroyed by the highly concentrated Divine Rays of Terror.

Previously when he wiped out the Spirit Army, Kaede Hattori’s Divine Rays of Terror were already strong enough to slightly infiltrate Ares’ Deflective Field.

At this moment, Kaede Hattori’s terror waves had spread even further, and with the name of being the strongest in Japan, more than a hundred thousand lives were in fear of his great name, strengthening his Divine Rays of Terror to unprecedented levels. Without using the Power Up card, Ares’ Deflective Field would be wrecked in an instant.

However, even though Ares’ Deflective Field was broken, it was enough to give Zhao Yao an instantaneous moment for him to switch his powers.

Layers and layers of golden light rays shielded against Kaede Hattori's bloodthorn gun as Zhao Yao, who used the Power Up card, activated the Level 8 Deflective Field. The collision between the golden light rays and the blood-red rifle resulted in a loud explosion, forcing Zhao Yao and Kaede Hattori take a few steps back.

All sorts of weird creatures, devils and ghosts charged towards him from all sides, gradually circling around Zhao Yao as if they were going to tear him up into pieces at any moment.

"Sigh, Kaede, can't you just listen to dad explain? Now we're facing a great enemy before us, it's not the time for us to fight between ourselves," Zhao Yao shook his head and said.

Upon hearing that, the murderous look in Kaede Hattori's eyes intensified as he shot out with the bloodthorn gun in his hand. Despite the resounding impact from the collision between the blood-red and golden rays, the bloodthorn gun was still unable to break through the other party's defense.

He frowned slightly. The power unleashed by his opponent was definitely not something he could defeat quickly, and with the present threat of the Americans, Kaede Hattori knew that if he continued to fight it out with his opponent, the only one who stood to win would be the Americans, as much as what his opponent just did had infuriated him greatly.

On the other hand, if he could make use of his opponent's ability to shield against the gravitation attack, he might even get the chance to kill off Apollo and his men.

Just as he was about to continue saying something, a loud "Ka-cha!" sound was heard as something broke. The impact from Kaede Hattori's bloodthorn gunshot earlier on had split the mask that Zhao Yao was wearing on his head into half, causing it to drop to the floor.

The mask Zhao Yao was wearing was of low quality to begin with. Previously when he was switching his powers, he had managed to fend off Kaede Hattori's attack with the Power Up card-enhanced Deflective Field, but some of the impact had inevitably passed through during that time and swept through Zhao Yao's clothes.

His clothes were fine, but the low-grade mask broke.

"It's him!"

Everyone who saw this was shocked beyond words, especially Hideki Kujyo, Nanako and Kappei Hattori.

Kappei Hattori shouted, “Big brother, he is Zhao Yao, Nanako’s friend from China. This guy is here to ruin the wedding.”

Chapter 578: The Battle

Hideki Kujyo exhaled deeply, “So it was actually that Chinese guy, did he come here just to stop the wedding? I can’t believe I actually underestimated him, and even forgot about him.

But then again, his identity has already been exposed. Whether it’s Kaede Hattori or Apollo, neither of them will let him off for what he has done. No, if Kaede Hattori was smart enough, he would actually put aside his grudge and work with him to defeat Apollo.

But given how much Apollo and his men had prepared for this, even if Zhao Yao and Kaede Hattori worked together it would still be impossible for them to win. Speaking of that, why hasn’t Apollo and his men initiated the fight? Are they waiting to watch us fight amongst ourselves so as to reduce the strength of Japan’s superpower realm?”

At this point, Hideki Kujyo was still unaware of the situation outside. Sphinx cat had already wiped out half of Apollo’s men. Hideki Kujyo thought that Apollo and his men were deliberately holding back, waiting for them to fight amongst themselves.

In fact, out of everyone present in the banquet hall, Zhao Yao was the only one who knew the situation outside.

Hideki Nanako stared at Zhao Yao and covered her mouth in shock. She started questioning herself, “This is Zhao Yao? Did he come here for me? To prevent me from getting married? And his abilities have become so powerful?” Nanako was so touched by this thought.

Sylvie, who was at the side, frowned as she thought, “I never thought that he would be such a devoted guy. He actually came to stop the wedding for Missy?”

Kensei Yagyu was spitting out blood as he stared at this scene. He wanted to expose Zhao Yao's identity, but he was in so much pain that he could not utter a word. Looking at the situation before him, his expression soured by the minute. It was only after fighting Zhao Yao personally that he fully understood how horrifying Zhao Yao was. The terror felt from being controlled by someone else yet having no means to resist at all was an experience that still sent cold chills through his body.

"This Chinese guy's abilities are far beyond expectations. Hideki Kujyo that idiot, his Intel is unreliable. This Chinese guy's power is on par with Kaede Hattori... No, his powers may even be above Kaede Hattori. I wonder if the Americans can defeat him."

Zhao Yao sighed in exasperation, "Cheap masks come with great risks." He patted Dust Ball's head for him to spit Catherine out.

The next moment, he raised Catherine up and said, "Everybody, will all of you look here? Let me explain what just happened."

Before this, Zhao Yao already had everyone's attention. After what he said, everyone's attention focused on Catherine instead.

As Catherine used her ability, everyone who was looking at her fell asleep immediately.

Zhao Yao started giving orders, "Okay, everyone prepare to clear up the place. Dust Ball, spit out Caesar and Diana. Clear the last three minutes of their memories. Ares, fix the damage caused by Kaede Hattori. Elizabeth, prepare to control Kaede Hattori so that he does not cause any further damage."

Zhao Yao clapped his palms, "Everyone get ready. We are going to try that again."

Currently, Zhao Yao was acting on his backup plan 'Reboot and Restart'. Which mean that when all else fails, he would eliminate all of their memories, reset the scene and restart all over again.

At this moment, the entire banquet hall shook and violent explosions were heard outside. Everyone who were asleep, woke up startled.

Catherine's sleeping powers could only set people into light sleep, hence, it was very easy to be woken up from.

It was no surprise that the loud explosions and trembles outside the hotel woke them up instantly.

Kappei Hattori pointed at Zhao Yao and shouted, "Kill this China guy! He is behind all of this!"

All the Apostles were getting uneasy as Zhao Yao's actions just told them that they were included as his targets.

Most of them no longer dared to look at Zhao Yao. The power to make all of them pass out instilled fear in their hearts.

In the meantime, the hotel had stopped trembling. However, the Dragon's roar could still be heard. Evidently, the hotel trembled due to the aftermath from the fight between Apollo and the Dragon.

Even supersonic fighter jets had joined the fight. The appearance of the Dragon was too eye-catching, Apollo reported it directly to the authorities and the American government pressured the Japanese to send out their fighter jets.

Since the fighter jets has already been operated, the Japanese army and police would arrive soon. Zhao Yao knew that he had a limited amount of time left. There was not enough time left to erase their memories again.

Looking at the people who had woken up, Zhao Yao touched his forehead in disbelief, "All of you, why can't you guys just act according to my plan?"

To everyone's surprise, Zhao Yao stretched out his hands and the golden flames around him amplified. The golden flames started sweeping towards everyone else in the hall. In an blink of an eye, there were around 20 Apostles who were trapped in the golden flames immobilized.

All the cats who were no longer protected by the illusion, started retreating into the doorway Dust Ball opened.

Zhao Yao was not afraid for himself, however, without the cover of the power of illusion, should anything happen to the supercats he would be infuriated. Hence, he let all them pass through the doorway first.

He did not enter the doorway, but, stood by the door and looked at the large number of Apostles coldly.

Now that the supercats were out of danger, he had nothing to fear. He had two lives which he could switch between and the doorway was opened behind him. He could leave anytime he wanted. Hence, it also meant that he could do whatever he wanted.

In the face of Zhao Yao's attack, everyone was ready to retaliate. There were more than half of Japan's strongest fighters from the supernatural realm in this hall. If they attack together, the entire building would collapse.

The first to attack was a high-school boy who released a Force Field Shield in attempt to even off Zhao Yao's Deflective Field.

However, he was no match for the Deflective Field that was at its climax. In less than a second, all his organs were damaged and he was bleeding profusely.

When he was about to collapse, two other Apostles launched their attack. It was a wide range of Gas Shield and Plasma Shield respectively.

The three types of shield together could only slow down the speed of the Deflective Field spreading.

On the other hand, Kaede Hattori frowned and hesitated. He was angered by Zhao Yao's actions but at the same time, he wanted to use Zhao Yao's powers to help him defeat Apollo.

The high-school boy shouted, " We cannot last for long! Hurry up and attack!"

The Apostles and the supercats started attacking.

Chapter 579: A snap of the fingers

Numerous apostles and supercats began to launch direct attacks such as flame-lightning-frozen toxins, which are already inferior, at Zhao Yao. Before even coming close to Zhao Yao, the attacks have been annihilated one by one by the blast of air from the Deflective Field.

A man, dressed like a monk, was seen, stretching out his hand. The dagger in his hand has already passed through the black wormhole and pierced Zhao Yao directly in the neck.

Another lady dressed in a suit, held a doll in one hand, and a small knife in the other. The small knife stabbed the chest of the doll and blood immediately oozed out profusely from Zhao Yao's chest.

There was another man draped in a black robe. He reached out and grabbed something in midair and Zhao Yao's heart immediately went fanatic. There was severe internal bleeding occurring inside his body and his heart slowly began to collapse as blood dripped from the corner of Zhao Yao's mouth.

In the next moment, the golden flames slowly disappeared and Zhao Yao fell with a plop, into a pool of blood.

Looking at this, everyone breathed a sigh of relief as the outburst of Deflective Field created by Zhao Yao just now was too astonishing.

However, after looking at Zhao Yao who is now lying in a pool of blood, they also came to the realization that the opponent was not as strong as he had looked.

A trace of pity flickered in the eyes of Kaede Hattori. He was still hesitating if he should join hands with the opponent, but who knew, the opponent had died in the next instance. This has shown that the opponent's ability to deal with gravitational attacks was very effective, but is still not enough to deal with this kind of powerful-siege.

If it was Kaede Hattori, a flash of his fearsome aura would have frightened the others so much that there would not even be a need for him to face such ridiculous ability attacks.

There was a pang of delight in Kappei Hattori's heart as Zhao Yao had insulted the Hattori family and this was his well-deserved ending.

Hideki Kujyo on the other side, slowly shook his head and said, “This guy turned up on his own to try to cause damage in front of so many powerful people. It was a display of ignorance and egoism and he was indeed searching for the dead end.”

However, at this very moment, someone suddenly exclaimed, “What about the cat that he has with him?”

“How are those supercats even gone?”

“Wait, the Chinese...”

At this very moment, Zhao Yao, who was originally lying in the pool of blood, began to stand up slowly. He twisted his neck slightly and said lightly, “Good job, I have basically confirmed your combat strength.”

The wounds on his body had completely disappeared and he looked intact, as if he had never been attacked before.

The apostles who saw this scene once again launched an attack. Shots of flames, lightning, curses and swords all hit Zhao Yao.

The flames exploded on Zhao Yao’s body. The lightning pierced his muscles. The curses stimulated small traces of blood and the swords penetrated his’s body.

This is the first time that Zhao Yao used an enhanced regeneration during actual combat. The original ultra-fast regeneration is already powerful enough, whereby the regeneration speed and process was completely visible to the human eye.

However, the regeneration after the use of the power up card, the regeneration speed is even faster than what is visible to the human eye.

All the attacks landed on Zhao Yao’s body, but they did not cause any impact. The flames burned, but his skin had already been repaired before the flame dissipated. His skin looked white and smooth and not a slightest scorch was seen.

The swords and knives cut Zhao Yao's chest, and even passed through his chest, but the chest muscles, ribs, and internal organs had been repaired at the same time that the blade passed through. His body remains intact, as if he had not been injured at all.

And behind Zhao Yao, the Dust Ball has already opened the space door when the battle was taking place and has led the cats away to hide.

The amazing feeling of pleasure exploded within Zhao Yao's body. The many attacks landing on his body has stimulated the release of regenerating poison and that has caused him to feel immense pleasure. He was even slightly indulged in the moment and wanted to be attacked further.

Ares, who was in the space door immediately shouted, "Zhao Yao, do not be addicted! Do you want to become like Kappei Hattori?"

At the very thought of Kappei Hattori, Zhao Yao's body quivered and he gathered willpower to ignore the thought of wanting to feel more pleasure. With a single step back, he disappeared into the space door.

"What the..?"

"He has disappeared."

"Where?"

At the same time, Zhao Yao who was in the space door has safely switched to the ability to stop time. He then turned to look at the surprised and doubtful Japanese people in the hall, and directly showed them the existence of the space door and revealed his own appearance.

Looking at the people who gazed over, Zhao Yao reached out his hands and slowly said, "Then it is my turn now. It only takes a very short moment, just like a snap of your fingers... You all... Are you all ready?"

In the next moment, everyone heard a crisp finger snap coming from Zhao Yao's hand.

At the same time, Zhao Yao also launched a enhanced Time Freeze for a relative time of 16 minutes.

In the still world on the other hand, Zhao Yao came out from behind the space door and first came to the monk who was able to pass the weapon through the wormhole directly to his neck and kicked the monk in his crotch.

He had confirmed the position of all the apostles who posed a threat to him, when he was using his regeneration power to deal with the attacks, just now.

Matcha smiled and followed behind Zhao Yao. After seeing Zhao Yao kick the monk in his crotch, Matcha also followed and took one bite. It began to brutally tear at the meat, "Roar! Now you know how powerful I, Matcha, is!"

Zhao Yao saw the scene and imagine the felt pain from the brutal treatment the monk was receiving. He persuaded, "Alright, alright. Any more bites and the leg will probably just break."

Matcha retreated and licked its mouth, yearning for more. It pointed to the monk and said, "This time, I will spare you."

Zhao Yao had already walked to the woman who has a knife in one hand, a doll in the other and who have displayed the super power of cursing. With one swift punch, he hit her in the stomach.

Matcha did the same and slammed its head into her body, repeating it a few times afterwards.

And next in line, was the man in black robe who controlled the blood outburst in the body. Zhao Yao directly lifted his robe and frowned, "He looks so ugly. It is no wonder why he would cover himself with a black robe." With a twitch of his lips, Zhao Yao gave the man an uppercut.

Although there were many apostles who attacked just now, the ones to truly posed a threat to Zhao Yao were only these three. And so, he gave it a thought and decided to give the three of them one karate chop each to ensure that they would faint after a while and lose their ability to fight, completely.

Zhao Yao then went over to the other apostles and made different attacks on each of them.

When time started to flow again, everyone only saw Zhao Yao snapping his fingers and everyone else except for Kaede Hattori cried out in pain. Some flew away from the ground and some laid on the floor with a loud cry of pain, while others fainted before saying anything.

After one snap of the fingers, the entire hall was in massive destruction and the apostles all look at Zhao Yao with fear and terror in their eyes.

Chapter 580: Conquer and Reinforcement

Kensei Yagyu yelled and vomited a huge mouthful of blood once again. He felt a few of his ribs broken and his mouth was still full of the yellow liquid, which had a strong cat smell.

He looked at Zhao Yao with grief and anger. He was already seriously wounded, yet his opponent would not give him a chance. That was too vicious and merciless.

The scene of instant killing of all the strong warriors with a snap of the finger made Kensei Yagyu's heart sank deeper and deeper. "All methods of attack are not effective. This guy has an invincible body and the ability for instant kill of everyone. I cannot even figure his attack. Who is this powerful person?"

On the other side, Hideki Kujyo felt a pain in his stomach. A violent force erupted on his stomach, sending him flying out and crashing against the wall before dropping down.

Once he landed on the ground with a bang, Hideki Kujyo's face turned pale green with pain. He felt as though his intestines were being torn apart. However, when he lifted his head and looked around, all the people in the hall were like him, being attacked and then collapsing on the ground. A few powerful apostles even fell directly on the ground and it was not known whether they were dead or alive.

Hideki Kujyo looked at Zhao Yao with unease and fear. "This Chinese... what kind of ability is that? What kind of attack did he execute? "

Hideki Kujyo was never a strong warrior. Fermenting schemes, spreading rumors and collaborating with the strong were his survival methods. After understanding and having control of the supernatural apostles, he would seek to understand the workings of the supernatural abilities. To him, they were to be made used of like pieces on the chess set.

“But this Zhao Yao, what is his ability? I am unable to figure out his ability...”

Zhao Yao’s weird and mysterious way of attack made him and others feel extremely shocked. Compared to the yellow flames that just occurred and Kaede Hattori’s Divine Rays of Terror, Zhao Yao’s supernatural ability was unfathomable. This was the most terrifying aspect.

They were even clueless on how to defend against such ability.

Nanako and Sylvie were not being attacked and they stood at their location. Upon seeing the surrounding apostles who were sent flying or collapsing on the ground, their facial expressions showed rapid changes.

Nanako looked at Zhao Yao with mixed feelings. She could not imagine Zhao Yao to be so powerful. Because of her, he was willing to pit against the Japanese supernatural realm. In her heart, she felt turmoil, and at the same time, joy, worry, sweetness and fear.

Sylvie’s face showed a sense of seriousness. She could not imagine that the Chinese apostle, whom she scorned and thought was trying curry the favor of the Kujiyo family, was actually a hidden dragon in guise of a rabbit.

Sylvie became more astonished the more she thought, “After being attacked by hundreds of people, pierced on the throat, slashed on the chest, burnt by fire, hit by electric shocks and penetrated by swords, his body remained intact. On a snap of a finger, he defeated hundreds of apostles. With this ability, he was no longer human but a God. The apostle’s ability could be that powerful?”

Looking at the shocked and fearful expressions of everyone, Zhao Yao nodded satisfactorily, “Like what I have said, only need a short instant...” Concurrently, he extended his hand, showing that he was about to snap his finger.

Upon seeing his action, Kappei Hattori who was holding his chest in great pain, immediately shouted, “Stop him! Do not let him snap his finger!”

Zhao Yao gazed at Kappei Hattori silently and discovered that a few apostles were looking with anticipation at his finger. Obviously, a few fools had related the snapping of the finger with his ability. Even some of the intelligent people had the same suspicion.

Rolling his eyes, Zhao Yao snapped his finger and said, “Do not worry, I am not interested in killing all of you. I am here today to help my son.” After that, he looked gently at Kaede Hattori, who was at the side, and said, “Kaede son, today daddy will help you unify the Japanese supernatural realm. From now on, our hearts will beat as one. We shall do whatever we want in Japan, oops sorry, restore the glory of the Japanese supernatural realm.”

On hearing Zhao Yao’s nonsense, everyone sneered in their hearts and no one believed him. However, the next scene shocked them. Kaede Hattori bowed to Zhao Yao and said, “My lord father, I understand your intention. Our hearts shall beat as one and we will change the Japanese supernatural realm.”

At this moment, behind the door of the invisible space, eyes of Elizabeth emitted crimson rays. Elizabeth was controlling Kaede Hattori’s every move.

Upon witnessing the scene, Kappei Hattori shouted once more, “Elder brother! You are also being controlled...”

Pom! Zhao Yao flicked his finger and golden flames hit Kappei Hattori’s head, knocking him unconscious. Zhao Yao frowned and scolded him in his mind, “You have said too much. Think I am dead?”

Kaede Hattori was controlled by Elizabeth and the powerful Japanese warriors were all defeated. The Americans outside were being dealt with by Sphynx cat and Cat Sage so Zhao Yao was very confident of completing the chain mission and conquering the apostles and supercats.

As he was about to have a heart to heart talk with the apostles before him, there was a loud bang. A dark shadow permeated the outer wall of the hotel and rushed into the middle of the banquet hall.

Back to 15 minutes ago, while Zhao Yao and everyone were fighting in the banquet hall, the Tri-headed Golden Dragon was in the sky above the hotel, advancing towards Sphynx cat.

With the appearance of the Tri-headed Golden Dragon, Apollo and his men immediately reacted.

“D*mn, must be that defecting transforming cat!” Apollo first recognized the identity of Cat Sage, who escaped from the Maine laboratory and stole a small Meteorite Fragment. In the initial battle, Cat Sage had transformed into a large dragon. This was a very rare supernatural power.

However, the present Cat Sage had grown more powerful. From a normal dragon to a Tri-headed Golden Dragon. Apollo believed that the Meteorite Fragment had increased Cat Sage’s power.

Apollo had already suffered serious casualties from the invisible Sphynx cat. With the appearance of another Tri-headed Golden Dragon, Apollo knew that he was overwhelmed and he would not be able to deal with them.

As such, he ordered through his communication set and a hidden backup supernatural unit appeared. Under the pressure of the Americans, the Japanese fighter planes were already advancing towards the skies of Tokyo.

As the world hegemony, the American government had a clear understanding of Japan, where the last Meteorite landed. American’s supercats and apostles were considered the best in the world in terms of quality and quantity.

The Americans intended to subvert the dominance of Kaede Hattori and the unification of the Japanese supernatural realm. So they would not just place their hopes on a single ability supernatural unit. The gravitational power unit was intended to deal with Kaede Hattori and another supernatural unit was reserved as backup for unexpected circumstances.

The appearance of the Tri-headed Golden Dragon was the unexpected circumstances.
