

Am I A God 591

Chapter 591: Search and negotiation

With the fusion of meteorite fragments, Zhao Yao looked at the mission panel, and the integration progress of the meteorite fragments has reached 8%.

Zhao Yao touched his chin and thought, "It's only at 8%. It seems that I will have to find more Americans if I want more pieces of meteorite fragments."

However, the trip to Japan had been too exhausting and so Zhao Yao planned to take a break first before coming up with a solution again.

"Oh right, how is the issue with the God of Death? I specially helped Elizabeth gather experience to level up. Isn't all of these preparation just for fighting against the God of Death and his people?"

Zhao Yao immediately opened the cat net and realized that 'tooth' has indeed become low-key recently. The entire South Supernatural realm was calm and there was no major events taking place.

And so, in the next two weeks, Zhao Yao was so free that he spend his time leisurely and he was intending to fill up his experience bar before finding a way to get more prizes.

In the meantime, a villa in the suburbs of Jianghai district.

Using the power up ability, the Explosive man, who once participated in the Cat King competition with Zhao Yao, was playing games.

Suddenly, he heard the door open downstairs. He frowned and yelled, "Ah Zhen, is that you? Didn't you go to work? Why are you back?"

However, there was no response. Feeling that something was wrong, the Explosive man stood up and walked downstairs.

He saw a middle-aged man sitting on his sofa, smoking cigar puffs by puffs.

Upon seeing the Explosive man walk down, the middle-age man looked up and took a glance at him: "Lang Gou, is he the one?"

A young man in a flower shirt and a mushroom head walked out of the kitchen while holding a cake and said, "Yes, it is him. This cheese cake is not bad, do you want a piece?"

"Stop tempting me. Don't you know that I have diabetes and high blood pressure?"

Looking at the two of them who were chatting so happily and was so comfortable in his house, the Explosive man narrowed his eyes and asked coldly, "Who are you two and what do you want?"

The middle-aged man's mouth turned into a cruel smirk: "Explosive man, you participated in the Cat King competition in Jianghai a few months ago right? We have some questions for you." As he spoke, he lifted his foot and placed it on the low cabinet in the living room.

Looking at the muddy boots resting on top of his clean low cabinet, a green vein popped up on Explosive man's forehead: "I don't care about who you are and what you want to do. But I do know that I am very angry now."

As he spoke, the air around him started to make continuous sizzling sound. It was the air exploding lightly around him.

"I have met a lot of dregs like you and I have many different ways to deal with people like you." Explosive man raised his palms and gently held the air around the palms. "Now put my cake back, then wipe the low cabinet and clean the floor. Then perhaps, I will let you all leave."

Upon hearing, Explosive man's words, the middle-aged man and Lang Gou laughed.

The next moment, the Explosive man felt a sharp pain in his chest and cried out in pain. A male voice sounded, beside his ear, blowing into his chest like the cold wind.

“Hush.” Midnight straightened his finger and did a hushing gesture, saying lightly, “Relax a little, Huangjian (explosive man’s real name), do not be afraid, we do not kill people without a reason.”

Explosive man forced himself to turn around and saw that a blur figure was already standing behind him. The opponent’s hand passed through his chest directly and gripped his heart tightly.

Midnight spoke near his ears and said, “Tell me everything that you know about the headless horseman.”

Explosive man sneered and the air around him began to seethe. A strong explosion was about to happen.

Midnight’s face turned cold and his hand tighten his grip. Explosive man, whose heart was gripped tightly, let out a cry of pain and fell to the ground. The air around him once again quietened down.

“Why do you need to be so agitated?” Midnight continued: “We just wanted to have a nice conversation with you.”

After a while, the middle-aged man took out a small notebook and crossed out Explosive man’s name silently. “It seems like he doesn’t know too much either. The identity of the headless horseman is indeed very secretive. Let me see which one is next now.”

On the notebook were the names of about fifty to sixty people and about seven and eight names were already crossed out. In the last few rows of names, the name Xiao Shiyu was present.

...

Half an hour later, more than ten police cars arrived at the location of the villa.

Lin Chen walked into the villa, glanced at the half-eaten cake and frowned.

“How is Huangjian?”

The chubby boy at the side said, "He is suffering from severe internal bleeding and is still in a coma in the ICU. This is already the seventh case this month. These people are way too arrogant."

Lin Chen took a glance at the dent on the sofa, the footprint on the low cabinet and shook his head: "They are very confident." He knelt down and looked at the footprint on the low cabinet saying, "They totally do not care if we have discovered them or not."

"Have you found the common trait among the victims?"

"As of now, not yet." the Chubby boy shrugged his shoulders and said: "Does all the patients being in coma and unable to make a statement count?"

Lin Chen frown and asked, "Do you think that they are looking for something?"

"Looking for something?"

Lin Chen nodded, "There must be some clues that we haven't found. We must stop following behind them and instead think of ways to get ahead of them to stop them." Lin Chen rubbed his chin and said, "Give me a copy of all the detailed information on the victims."

...

On the other hand, in the green belt of the third Huatien village.

A one-eyed cat slowly walked out of the shadows and looked at Dust Ball and Fish Ball. He frowned and said, "You are late." Following behind him were approximately ten supercats who have different colors and patterns on their fur.

Looking at them, Fish Ball smiled and said, "well quality goods are always worth the wait, aren't they?" As he spoke he pointed to Dust Ball: "This is a poison expert. She is a friend that I met in Thailand and she has many imported goods."

The one-eyed cat hesitated, "a Thailand cat?"

“Sawadikap.” Dust Ball nodded and said, “we have a stable supply of goods abroad, and we guarantee that the goods you receive would be better than the other parts of Southeast Asia and the price would also be cheaper by 20%. With our goods, no one in the entire Jianghai can compete with you.”

The pupils of the one-eyed cat slowly contracted.” How much goods do you have?”

Dust Ball and Fish Ball looked at each other. Dust Ball said,”Five tonnes. We can provide you with five tonnes of goods annually as long as you can finish them.”

“Hahaha, you are afraid that I cannot finish them?” The one-eyed cat laughed coldly and said, “I am not who I was two years ago. Now, I have awakened. Five tons? I can finish the fifty tonnes of goods from the ten Huatien Villages nearby. Just tell me where the transaction will take place at.”

Dust Ball stared at the eyes of the one-eyed cat and the one-eyed cat stared back unrelentingly.

After a period of time, Dust Ball mumbled,” Pay a deposit of 500 dollars. We will give you the first batch of goods.”

“Deal.”

“I only accept Alipay.”

“No problem.”

Just then, a female voice could be heard from the building beside them:”Preserved Egg! It’s time to eat!”

All the cats in the surrounding area had already dispersed and are running towards the building where the voice came from.

The one-eye cat ran towards the building too. Upon reaching the door he stopped and meowed:” Tomorrow, same time and location. Do not be late again.”

After looking at the one eyed black cat ‘ Pidan’ and his gang leave, Dust Ball and Fish Ball looked at each other and heaved a sigh of relief.

Fish Ball licked his fur and talked to Dust Ball in their conscious,” What a scary aura. These guys who sell grass are all crazy fellows.”

” Useless.” Dust Ball sniggered,” What are you scared of? We are the ones with the stuff, they should be begging us.”

” That is Pidan!” Fish Ball exclaimed,” He is the strongest supercats from the entire Huatian Village One to Village Ten. I heard that he once ate dog meat.”

” What?” Dust Ball lowered his voice,” So fierce?”

” Of course, all the catmint within these five kilometers has to go through him.” Fish Ball whispered,” Did you notice that Pidan only has one eye left?”

Dust Ball asked,” How did he end like that?”

Fish Ball shook his head in pity,” At that point of time, Pidan’s powers had not been awakened. He fought with a Corgi from his area, he bit the Corgi till it never dared to come down his block and pee. However in that fight Pidan was also...”

Dust Ball was shocked, ” He was blinded by the dog?”

” No, his eye is infected from playing too much World of Warcraft . The eye starts tearing the moment he opens it. In that fight, the corgi bit off a patch of fur from Pidan’s head. Didn’t you realise that Pidan’s furN looks extra thin?”

” You damn cat.” Dust Ball slapped Fish Ball on his head,” Where is the link between these two incidents?”

The two cats were talking as they return to the Extradimensional belly. Red Packet had been waiting for them. When he saw the two cats, he immediately asked, "How is it?"

Fish Ball raised his paw and said, "Of course it is settled."

"Yes!" Red Packet raised his paws happily and thought to himself, "I knew it, I should use my power to earn money. Only then it showcases my luck."

However, Dust Ball cut in, "They want five tonnes annually, I can't handle that alone. What do I do now?"

"Just hire more cats." Red Packet looked at the hundreds of cats in the Extradimensional belly and laughed coldly, "With money hiring supercats is not an issue. If your planting associate do not have enough cats, start to hire them now. The Extradimensional belly has Light of Creation, you can harvest the catmints in one or two weeks time. Furthermore, the quality is a lot better than those outside. We just have to wait for money to come in"

"Huh?" just when Red Packet was halfway through his sentence, Zhao Yao poked his head in and asked, "What are you guys talking about? What money?"

The three cats froze in their positions, Red Packet muttered, "Why does Zhao Yao appear so unexpectedly? I didn't even hear him walk over."

Dust Ball was thinking, "Oh my god, Zhao Yao would surely take all our catmint and money. Then, he will force us to continue to plant catmint and sell them for him."

Fish Ball was stunned, "Why is it Zhao Yao again? Damned it, did a cat betray us? I can't let Zhao Yao stop me from overtaking Jianghai Distinct. I should let Xiao Yu out to bite him."

After hearing Zhao Yao's question, all three cats had their own concerns. Red Packet was the first to react and told Zhao Yao, "It's nothing, you were mistaken Zhao Yao. We said we were losing money. We went for an online gambling and we lost money again."

"Oh? Is it?" He looked at them suspicious.

Fish Ball nodded his head vigorously, "Yeah that's right. The last time you did not turn off your computer, we saw an online gambling advertisement on your web page and went to gamble. But, we lost terribly."

Zhao Yao froze and asked immediately, "When did the three of you see my web page?"

Red Packet said, "It was that time when you secretly hid in the corner of the Extradimensional belly to use your computer, then got bored and went to bath. That was the time we used your computer."

Zhao Yao covered Red Packet's mouth and glared at them, "How many times must I say? You are not allowed to use my computer without my permission. All of you sneaky cats, if you use my computer without my permission again, I will shave off all your fur."

As Zhao Yao walk away in exasperation and all three cats heaved a sigh of relief, "All is well. All is well."

Red Packet said, "Okay, Zhao Yao has not gotten suspicious yet. We need to find more cats to plant catmint quickly. We need to increase our production. With the catmint we harvest from the Extradimensional belly, soon, the entire Jianghai District have to ask us for catmints."

Zhao Yao was looking at the cats from afar, he laughed coldly, "I knew that all of you would not answer me honestly." Looking at the three cats, especially the fiery exclamation mark on top of Dust Ball's head, Zhao Yao got excited.

"Fiery exclamation marks again? Is it there's luck draw again?"

The thought of lucky draw made him excited. However, judging by their looks, they didn't want to bring him along, nevertheless ask him for help. After some consideration, Zhao Yao decided to spy on them to see what they are up to.

"What? Plant grass?" Elizabeth looked in the mirror and told Diana, "Can you help me fix the fur on my face? And, the fur on my paw is getting too long."

Ragdoll cat's fur grew pretty fast, the fur near the paw would even be long enough to cover paw pads. Hence, it gets dirty easily.

Elizabeth used to be more lazy in the past, but now, she has to do live stream everyday. Naturally, she would be more concerned about her looks.

After speaking, Elizabeth held out her paw for Diana to trim. She looked at Dust Ball, Red Packet and Fish Ball and sneered, "I have no interest in planting grass. Cats from the cat cafe would not be involved in things like that."

...

"Planting grass?" Matcha was wearing a yellow construction hat, in front of him was a blueprint. He started shouting at Ares, "It's crooked! Ares be careful! If you break the wires, I will ask Zhao Yao to neuter you!"

However, Ares's mind was somewhere else. All he could think of was, "Why does Sphinx want to sleep behind me recently?" He shook his head, "Anyways, I will use this renovation as an excuse and stay outside for a few days."

Matcha turned back and looked at Red Packet, Dust Ball and Fish Ball. He shook his head and said, "Can't you see that our construction site is so busy already? I have no spare time to help you plant grass. Our project is due in three months and that is Zhao Yao's birthday. This building is our gift for him."

Speaking of it, Matcha turned and shouted at his fellow cats, "Everyone work harder! Lets finish this level's water and electricity today. There will be meat for dinner!"

Dust Ball, Red Packet and Fish Ball had no choice but to go look for other supercats.

Chapter 593: Activate

Red Packet, Dust Ball and Fish Ball looked for more supercats, but, most of them rejected the idea. They were not interested in planting catmint.

Hence, Red Packet changed his strategy and finally hired approximately 20 cats to help them plant catmint.

Standing in front of the catmint field, he looked at the supercats and said, "Everybody, the opportunity to get rich is right in front of us. When, all of you decide to join the sunshine catmint project, the hardest problem has already been solved. Ordinary people count on luck and wait for opportunities. Geniuses look for opportunities. But we, create opportunities."

As he spoke, Red Packet pointed at the catmint field behind him: "Jianghai district requires approximately 50 million tonnes of catmint annually.(All made up by Red Packet)

Starting from the year before, the needs for catmint has grew drastically reaching twice its initiate amount now. As more cats awaken, more and more supercats need catmint to relief stress. Furthermore did you know that one in two cats loves catmint."

Cannon raised his paw and asked, "But, Red Packet..." After the Japan incident, he had followed Baiquan back to Jianghai district. After all, Zhao Yao had caused such a serious trouble in Japan. How could he continue to stay there?"

"Please address me as Teacher Red Packet. In our sunshine catmint project we do not discriminate anyone. As a senior, all of you an address me as Teacher Red Packet."

"Teacher Red Packet." Cannon rolled his eyes and asked hesitantly: "There are so many sources to buy catmint from. Why must others buy from us?"

Dust Ball pointed at him and said, "Cannon, have you eaten the catmint we planted?"

Cannon looked at the catmint field behind Dust Ball and shook his head: "I am not interested in catmint."

Looking at his look of disdain, Dust Ball threw a bag of processed catmint in front of him angrily: "Try it."

"There is no need to." Cannon shook his head: "I really have no interest in catmints."

Dust Ball slammed his paw in front of Cannon: "I ask you to try it!"

Cannon shrugged his shoulders in dismay and opened the bag of catmint. He picked it up with his paw and sniffed it.

The next moment, his eyes jerked open. Every fur on his body was standing, it was felt it like a star exploded in his body.

Cannon took a deep breath and felt the catmint granules pour into his body like a cold current through his nose. He couldn't help but shudder.

"Catmint can do this?"

Dust Ball who was at the side said proudly:" Humph, this is the catmint I planted myself. No other catmint in this world would be better than this. So, do you have any other questions?"

Upon seeing Cannon nod, Red Packet continued enthusiastically:" It is not just about the quality of catmint. Our sunshine catmint project is unlike any other projects. Other large companies spend billions of fund on television, on-line advertisement and celebrity endorsement.

However, this is not the case in sunshine catmint project. The money we earn will all be distributed to each and everyone of you. By doing doing this, our profit at least tripled."

Cannon was bewildered:" Without advertisements how are we going to promote our catmint?"

" We will advertise by word of mouth. We will let our customers sell our catmint for us! As long as they recommend our catmint to someone else, you will get commission. Think about it, who doesn't know someone who wants catmint? If each of you sell our catmint to three cats, then each of them sell to three more cats, our catmint would spread like a virus."

Red Packet exclaimed," Every packet of catmint that gets sold, they will have to retrieve the catmint from you. All of you just need to sit at home , wait for the commission and get successful."

Zhao Yao, who was hiding in the distance, rolled his eyes:"Red Packet is trying to do multi-level marketing again?"

In a distance, all the cats who heard Red Packet burst into a round of applause.

Dust Ball and Fish Ball looked at each other and saw a burning flame in each others eyes:” Red Packet is a business genius. We are sure to succeed.”

On the other side, Zhao Yao and Roly Poly who were invisible, rolled their eyes continuously. Roly Poly patted Zhao Yao on his shoulder and said,” Zhao Yao do you need the Royal Cat Police Force to arrest them? ”

Zhao Yao thought about it and looked at the fiery exclamation mark on top of Dust Ball’s head:” Let wait and see. If they only cheat money from their fellow cats, it is not considered illegal.”

Roly Poly:”? ? ?”

On the the hand, after Red Packet’s speech, the cats were all very eager to get started.

Red Packet continued and said,” We have everything prepared, we have a business route, we have manufacturing process and we have the best sales person. Now, we just have to plant the catmint and we will become the decision maker for all the supercats, the elites in the industry and the leader of this social revolution.”

Looking at the group of enthusiastic cats planting the catmint, Zhao Yao took out his phone and text Dust Ball,” Dust Ball I heard that the plantation department was hiring, do you still need help?”

“No it’s okay. We can handle this ourselves. We will give let you taste the new catmints soon.”

Zhao Yao snorted. At this moment, Xiaoyu sent him a message.

“Zhao Yao! What did you feed Noodle! I washed his mouth ten times already but, it still smells!”

Zhao Yao:”? ? ?”

Xiaoyu:” Stop pretending! Noodle told me everything! It was you who fed him all the weird food.”

” Stupid dog.” Zhao Yao clenched his teeth:” You want to play with me?” Zhao Yao laughed coldly and started flipping through his album. He soon found the picture that was taken at the US military base. Till today, he still couldn’t look at this picture straight in the eye.

In Xiaoyu’s house.

When Xiaoyu saw the photograph she screamed,” Ahhh!”

Upon hearing Xiaoyu scream, Noodle rushed over and guard in front of Xiaoyu.

“Noodle!” Who knew the next moment, Xiaoyu kicked Noodle from the back and shouted,” Get out!” Her mind kept replaying the contents of the photograph that she just saw. It was Noodle hugging and licking a cat whose entire body was filled with .

Chills went down Xiaoyu’s spine as she recalled that Noodles had just licked her.

“This is so disgusting! Noodle who did you learn this from? Is it Fish Ball?”

“From today, you are no longer allowed in my room. Go bath now!”

Wu~~~~ a pitiful howl could be heard coming from the bathroom.

Chapter 594: Tailing

After confirming that Dust Ball and her gang are indeed planting catmint, Zhao Yao left them alone. Before he left, he ordered Roly Poly to continue to observe them.

The next night, Zhao Yao was playing with his newly downloaded game. Roly Poly sneaked to his side and said,” Zhao Yao, Dust Ball and her gang are up to something new.”

Zhao Yao’s eyes lit up:” Let’s go!”

The next moment, a human and cat both disappeared into the thin air and went towards Dust Ball's directions.

Zhao Yao followed Dust Ball, Red Packet and Fish Ball all the way through the dimension door to the cat cafe. He watch them run towards Xiaoyu's house then rushed towards the area where Preserved Egg stayed.

However this time it was not Preserved Egg who hosted them. It was the other black cat under him. Behind the black cat was three other black cats and all of them were big, tall and strong. For ordinary cats, they looked like someone never to mess with.

Fish Ball walked up to them with a smile and said," Brother Yadan, where is Preserved Egg? We brought the first batch of goods that weighs 100kg."

Yadan looked at them coldly:"Our boss is unsatisfied with your goods. He doesn't want it anymore."

Upon hearing this, Fish Ball panicked:" Unsatisfied? What is Preserved Egg unsatisfied with? In the entire Jianghai district, our goods are the cheapest."

"It has nothing got to do with the price. The quality of your goods is lower than the other supplier's goods. Hence, Boss has decided to buy the goods from the other supplier."

Dust Ball was unconvinced:" How can it be? The quality of our catmint is the best in the entire world. It is impossible that there are better quality catmints."

Looking at his agitated state, the black cats behind Yadan walked up and stood in front of Dust Ball like two tall mountains.

Yadan said coldly:" That is enough, kid. Our boss don't want your catmint anymore. Any more complains and you will be beaten up."

Dust Ball wanted to initiate the fight immediately but Red Packet stopped him. The black cats walked away and Dust Ball was annoyed:" Red Packet, why did you stop me?"

“Even if you fight them, it does not solve the issue. It only ends all the possibilities of us ever cooperating again.” Red Packet explained, “As for the catmint that is of better quality than ours, aren’t you curious?”

Speaking of it, Dust Ball’s eyes lit up with reflected yellow light: “It is impossible that there is catmint that is of better quality than ours. You can question my abilities but you can not question the quality of our catmint.”

Red Packet rubbed his head and explained, “I am not saying that you are inferior, I’m just trying to say that there must be something we don’t know. We need to investigate this.”

On the other hand, in the basement of the district. Preserved Egg licked the catmint on the floor crazily: “Oh my god! This catmint is so awesome!”

He looked up eagerly and asked the white cat in front of him: “How much goods do you have? I’ll buy all of them.”

White cat smiled and said, “We can sell you our goods but you have to agree to a few of our conditions.”

“Speak! The goods are splendid, I would agree to any conditions.”

White cat spoke calmly: “First, we have to be your only supplier. Then, we want to have a share in the running and sales of your business.”

The black cat, who was the side, stood up: “You guys are asking for too much, you are not the only supplier available. Why don’t you ask around and see who is in charge for Huatien village one to ten.”

The other black cat growled, “You want a share? Young cat, we need to do things one at a time. By being too ambitious you may get yourself into trouble.”

Another black cat spoke up, "We worked so hard to get to where we are today. You just came and you expect to get a share? There is no such logic in this world, especially when we have so many cats under us."

All the cats were against the idea. However, Preserved Egg looked at the catmint and said, "Being the only supplier is not a problem. We have rejected all the suppliers before you. But, we will need to reconsider the issue regarding the shares."

"I will give you some time to reconsider." White cat continued and said, "The second condition is that I want you to help me collect information regarding the headless horseman."

"The headless horseman?!"

The four words were like magic. It made all the cats who were present take a deep breathe uniformly.

"Why do you want to find out more about the headless horseman?"

"Are you an enemy of the headless horseman? Then, we shall not cooperate. Do not try and drag us into this."

"I heard that the headless horseman has to eat a cat everyday and consumes cat blood regularly."

"I saw on the cat forum that the supercats in Jianghai University was taken away by the headless horseman. Now, they have to bath everyday."

"That is so scary! It is terrifying! He is a monster who abuse cats."

"The previous time, Haoge the cat next door met the headless horseman. He commented that the weather was hot and all his fur was shaved. Till now, his fur still has not grown out. I heard that even his wife and his kids could not recognize him."

"What a monster."

Upon hearing the chatter from the cats, Preserved Egg shouted, "Will all of you shut up. We are just collecting information, what can he do to us?"

Preserved Egg couldn't resist the temptation and sucked up another mouthful of catmint. He shuddered and he was overjoyed. "This catmint is so different from any other catmint. It is not just an ordinary catmint, this catmint is really addictive. I'm sure that after the supercats try this, they will never be able to do without it..."

Preserved Egg looked at the white cat and said, "It's a deal. We will help you."

Shortly after, the white cat was escorted out by a few black cats. Once the white cat was out, the cat started texting. "Old K? All is settled at Huatien village. They will start selling our catmint from tomorrow onwards..."

In the greenbelt that was not far away, three cats were staring at the white cat.

Red Packet whispered, "It should be her. Fish Ball you are more familiar with this place. Have you seen this cat before?"

Fish Ball stared at the white cat in a distance and thought to himself: "Long fur and nice ass, this girl is hot." Upon hearing Red Packet's question, he answered immediately: "No, I have not tried her. Er, I mean, no I have not seen her."

Dust Ball was in disbelief: "So she is the one who has better catmint than me?"

Red Packet saw that the white cat was ready to go and immediately said, "Let's follow her."

About 50 meters behind them, Zhao Yao was spying on them from a tree branch while he carried Roly Poly on his back.

"So they were trying to sell catmint?" Zhao Yao's eyes lit up: "But it looks like they have encountered some difficulties. I guess Dust Ball's mission has something to do with this."

Thinking of this, Zhao Yao smiled and continued to follow them.

Chapter 595: Spying

Red Packet, Dust Ball and Fish Ball followed the white cat all the way till they reached a foreign district. They watch the white cat run into her house in an underground garage. The three cats looked at each other with dismay.

” What do we do now?” Dust Ball asked, ” She doesn’t look like she planted the catmints herself.”

” I’m afraid she may only be a middle person.” Red Packet started pondering, ” We need find out who is providing the catmints.”

Dust Ball frowned:” How are we going to find out? Keep following her? That’s such a waste of time. We are cats, every minute that pass is five minutes gone for us.”

Just when Dust Ball and Red Packet were out of ideas, Fish Ball who was at the side, coughed. He stood up and said proudly:” It is my turn to shine.”

Looking at Red Packet and Dust Ball’s puzzled looks, Fish Ball grunted, ” There is no female cat on this earth that I cannot handle. Give me five minutes and I guarantee that I can find out whatever you want to know.”

Dust Ball looked at Fish Ball in disgust but Red Packet’s eyes lit up:”Fish Ball, are you sure?”

” Do not call me Fish Ball. Call me Fish Ball the Master of picking up girls or Fish God .”

As he was speaking, Fish Ball confidently walked out.

In Dust Ball’s disgust and Red Packet’s anticipation, soon, there was a commotion in the cat house.

Red Packet was excited:” Did he succeed? Is Fish Ball’s ability picking up girls?”

Dust Ball rolled her eyes:” Jerk.”

In about a minute, Fish Ball walked out triumphantly.

Red Packet asked, "Was it successful? Who is providing her with the goods?"

Fish Ball was a bit embarrassed and asked, "Do any of you have 500 dollars?"

Looking at the bewildered look of the two cats, Fish Ball laughed and said, "So she licked my paw and said she needed to charge 1000 dollars for this service. However because I was so handsome she will only ask for 500 from me. Furthermore if I pay there will be unexpected service."

Red Packet smacked Fish Ball's head: "You idiot, what did we ask you to go there for? To spend money? You didn't get any information and you are asking for 500 dollars."

Fish Ball was annoyed: "It's called socializing. Which business doesn't need it? Furthermore how do you socialize without spending money? If you won't even spend 500 dollars how do you expect to achieve success?"

As Red Packet was hesitating, Dust Ball rejected this idea with a disgusted look: "Don't give it to this jerk. Anyways there was no investment in this project yet, since there is no buyer now, let's just pull out of this."

Zhao Yao gave Dust Ball and Red Packet a fixed amount of pocket money regularly. Unlike them, Fish Ball was more pathetic. Xiaoyu's family do not give Fish Ball any amount of money, hence, he could only grab the red packets in the Wechat groups for daily expenses."

This time, Dust Ball and Red Packet only included him because he said he knew of a buyer.

When the three supercats were in a disagreement and at a loss, Zhao Yao came up to them from behind: "It looks like they have encountered some difficulties. Now is the time for me to show up."

Thinking of this, Zhao Yao deactivated the illusion effects and Roly Poly's Invisible abilities. He appeared in front of the cats suddenly and asked in a low voice: "What are you guys doing?"

The sudden emergence of Zhao Yao scared them so much that Dust Ball jumped up, Red Packet fainted on the spot and Fish Ball wanted to run off immediately. But Zhao Yao who had five cats abilities, grabbed onto his hind leg and dragged him back.

Zhao Yao woke Red Packet up with a slap. He looked at them and said, "Do three of you know how long you will be sentenced to jail for selling catmint?"

Fish Ball was stunned: "I can be sentenced for selling catmint?"

Red Packet immediately said, "Don't be fooled by Zhao Yao. How can selling catmint land you in jail."

"Oh? Is it?" Zhao Yao laughed coldly. He activated the Deflective Field and trapped the three cats: "The three of you are now under arrest. Get ready to stay in the jail till you die."

Red Packet started yelling, "This is illegal detention! I want to sue you!"

"Hahahaha." Zhao Yao looked at Red Packet menacingly and said, "Go ahead and sue. I am the country's undercover high-rank officer. Everyone in the public security department is under me. The prison chief of the Jianghai Super Prison is my good friend. You want to challenge me? Now I suspect the three of you of treason. You will have to take a trip with me."

In Fish Ball's eyes, Zhao Yao looked like a devil. He was frightened till he peed in public. He knelt down in his pee and plead, "Zhao Yao! I didn't sell any catmint. They lied to me, I thought they were selling cat grass that's why I helped them promote their goods."

Red Packet snapped, "Fool! Do you think by pleading Zhao Yao would let you off?"

Zhao Yao rubbed Fish Ball's head and said, "Okay, since it is your first offense, I shall let you off."

"My King! I am so sorry!" with a thump, Red Packet fell to the floor and rolled over to show his belly. He spoke with great sincerity, "My original plan was to earn some money the hard way everything up to you. Since now you have discovered my plans, I shall let you lead this project. You can order me to do anything and I would not even frown."

"Damn it." Dust Ball clenched her teeth and looked at Zhao Yao: "Although I did not do anything illegal but as long as Zhao Yao has got his eye on me, it is worse than breaking the law. This two cowards are unreliable. I can only depend on myself now."

Zhao Yao was the most concerned about Dust Ball. Looking at the fiery exclamation mark on top of her head, he realized that she was not going to give in easily. He coughed and said, "Dust Ball your accomplice have owned up. Do you still want to resist? Do you really think that I do not torture cats?"

Dust Ball snarled and showed her teeth. She glared at Zhao Yao with her eyes wide opened and exclaimed, "Supercats will never become slaves."

Zhao Yao laughed coldly and took out a water gun from the Extradimensional Belly. He aimed at Dust Ball's paws and shot water at it.

Meow! Dust Ball let out a shriek, "Even if I fall, there will be many more like me who will stand up against you! Zhao Yao, you can't suppress the supercats forever."

As she was speaking, Zhao Yao shot a jet of water into her mouth.

Looking at her pathetic state, Red Packet and Fish Ball shivered at the side.

Red Packet used his conscious to communicate with Dust Ball: "Dust Ball just give in. You can pretend to agree first."

Fish Ball also communicated with Dust Ball privately: "Dust Ball at this rate, you are going to be drenched soon! Just plead for forgiveness."

Dust Ball heard them but chose to ignore. She glared at Zhao Yao and said, "Zhao Yao I have tolerated you for very long. Today, I am going to stand up against you till the end. I am going to set an example for all the cats at home."

Zhao Yao laughed coldly: "Then you can give up your position as the president of the plantation department. Red Packet, from now on you are the president of the plantation department. Extradimensional Belly and every catmint field on the Cat Island is now under your control."

Chapter 596: Discussion and Mission

On seeing Dust Ball's changing expression, Zhao Yao continued, "Of course, if you are willing to apologize, you are still my agriculture minister. My large miles of fertile farmland will be managed by you."

After hearing his words, Dust Ball's face revealed signs of hesitation.

Zhao Yao doubled up and said, "Haven't you thought of selling catmint? If you apologize sincerely, I will help you sell the catmint and you do not have to pay me."

Red Packet was shocked. "Zhao Yao, you do not want our money?"

"Nope." Zhao Yao thought, "I have billions sleeping in the bank, what I want now is not money." He looked at the Burning Exclamation Mark above Dust Ball's head. "What I want is the chance for the lottery."

Upon seeing Dust Ball's hesitation, Zhao Yao looked at Roly Poly, who was on his shoulder, and chatted privately, "Roly Poly, help me coax him."

Roly Poly looked at Dust Ball and said discreetly, "Dust Ball, agree quickly. His mood isn't that great. If you do not agree, he might just burn your catmint farm."

Finally, Dust Ball yielded and said, "Zhao Yao, will you help us sell the catmint?" Dust Ball thought, "Although this fellow is unscrupulous, with his help, the success rate will be much higher."

Zhao Yao squeezed his chin and said, "Tell me what you know about the matter in its entirety."

After a long conversation, Zhao Yao looked at Dust Ball with satisfaction and said, "Dust Ball, do you require my help?"

Dust Ball was a cat that received missions before. After hearing Zhao Yao, she immediately reacted. It seemed like there was a mission displayed above her head, no wonder Zhao Yao had his eyes on her.

Dust Ball sighed, no sure whether to laugh or cry. Upon recalling the mission targets who were being helped, she could not help shiver a bit and thought, "Tell me earlier that you want the mission, I will have complied earlier."

Hence, she quickly said, “Yes, yes, yes, Zhao Yao, please help us sell the catmint.” b

Mission: Dust Ball’s Ambition

Mission Objective: Help Dust Ball control the entire Jianghai catmint market

Reward: Every increment of 1% of market share in the catmint market allows a single lottery chance per month

Mission Penalty: None

After the mission had appeared, Zhao Yao’s eyes illuminated. “Such fine ability that I have, this mission is generated very well, just what I needed the most.”

Zhao Yao was full of enthusiasm after the appearance of the mission. He contemplated on the intelligence provided by Dust Ball and the rest. He analyzed in his mind, “The catmint in the Extradimensional Belly were grown using Light of Creation. In terms of taste, texture and nutrition, it was far superior than normal catmint. Logically, domination of the entire Jianghai market is just a matter of time.”

“However...” Zhao Yao turned his head and looked at that middleman cat again. “Surprisingly, there is catmint that is superior than Dust Ball’s catmint. The only possibility is that the competitor has a supernatural ability to improve the catmint quality. It is better to figure the background of the competitor.”

At this thought, Zhao Yao said, “Prepare yourselves, we shall look for that white cat to buy catmint later.”

“Ah?” Fish Ball asked with bewilderment, “We are supposed to sell catmint, aren’t we? Why do we have to buy?”

“Fool.” Red Packet said, “This move is called nothing ventured, nothing gained. We will pretend to buy catmint and find out the truth about the competitor and the reason for the high quality catmint.”

“Not bad.” As Zhao Yao was speaking, he snapped his finger to activate the illusive magic, changing himself into an orange cat. “Let’s go. Remember, I am your boss, my family business is coal mining, very rich. Dust Ball, you are secretary. Fish Ball and Red Packet are both bodyguards. It was Preserved Egg who introduced us.”

In a normal condominium, the landlord and landlady were on the floor. They looked like they were sleeping.

Midnight sat at the dining table by the side, furrowing his brows as he operated on the computer, “Old K, any news about the headless horseman?”

Old K was lying on the sofa, playing with his handphone. After hearing Midnight, he said, “No, not that easy. The goods have just started selling and not really rolled out yet. Moreover, we are unable to find him, else we would not be making such a move.”

“Yes.” Mushroom head youth took out a bottle of milk from the fridge. He drank as he spoke, “If we knew that the headless horseman was so difficult to find, we should have sold all the goods via the shop channels once we arrived. Currently, we have no useful intelligence even after looking for so many people.”

He abruptly furrowed his brows and looked at the milk that he held in his hands. “Ah, it is chocolate flavour. Can’t this family just buy plain milk?”

Midnight looked at the information recorded in the computer and compared to the name list booklet held in his hand. He said, “Before headless horseman’s debut, it is impossible not to have records.”

Mushroom Head took a bottle of yoghurt from the fridge, nodded his head and said, “Correct, the identity of the headless horseman must have been created after he had fully developed his ability. Before that, he definitely must have left some trails, just that nobody had connected the trails and the headless horseman together.”

Midnight scanned line by line all the intelligence collected during this time. He slowly said, “When capturing a murderer, the first crime scene is always the crux to solving the crime. The same applies to the headless horseman. Every time he appeared, no trails were left so it was hard to find any real evidence.

If we can find the locations where he appeared the first few times, at that time, he would not be that mature and experienced, there would be more evidence left behind.”

Mushroom Head said, “You found it?”

Midnight shook his head and said, “The revealed abilities of Headless horseman include invisibility, illusive magic, teleporting and force field. His first famous location was at the cat king competition. A few weeks before the competition, he had already appeared in the Jianghai city doing chivalrous acts. That was the actual time period that he first appeared in the supernatural realm.”

He operated on the computer and opened up a few listings. “I compared God of Death’s compiled list of supercats and apostles in Jianghai. Under the columns with the four abilities, invisibility, illusive magic, teleporting and force field, there are two hundred and four targets. From that number, fourteen of them had not revealed their true identities. Out of this fourteen, eight of them had not emerged after the appearance of the headless horseman.”

Midnight squinted his eyes and scanned through numerous photographs. “Headless horseman could be one of these eight targets. However, they were not easy leads as their actual identities and locations were unknown. The informant that was related to these eight targets...” As he was speaking, he compared the name list in his hand and circled a few names and then thought for a while. Then he circled Xiao Shiyu’s name.

Chapter 597: Plan and Meeting

Midnight thought, “Xiao Shiyu was linked to a killer cat incident two years ago. She was rescued by a masked man who possessed teleporting and psychokinesis abilities. The masked man then appeared at the earthquake cat incident and showed a mastery of illusive magic. After that, Xiao Shiyu resigned from her job and went to work in a cat cafe.

Teleporting, psychokinesis, illusive magic—these three abilities coincide with the abilities of the headless horseman. And resigning from a job to work in a cat cafe feels very strange.”

Midnight furrowed his brows slightly. On this thought, he starred Xiao Shiyu’s name to mark her importance.

“Hmmm?” Mushroom Head brightened his eyes and responded, “This is getting easier? If we continue to look for the eight targets, perhaps one of them will be the headless horseman.”

“We only have a high chance.” Midnight calmly said. “There is also the possibility that the headless horseman is not from Jianghai city, but from other cities or even other countries.”

At this moment, Old K, who was lying on the bed, said, “Haha, we have baited a big fish. We’re going to earn a fortune this time.”

Midnight turned his head and asked, “What?”

“News from Big White, saying that a local tycoon wants to buy our goods.” Old K smiled and said, “No lack of money. However, he wants to meet us to discuss and test the goods.”

“Really?” Mushroom Head smiled a little. “How much can we earn?”

Looking at his companions’ jubilant expressions, Midnight furrowed his brows and said, “We are here solely for the headless horseman. Selling catmint is just a side job.”

“Got it, got it! Don’t be so uptight Midnight.” Old K smiled and said, “If we are unable to find the headless horseman from those eight targets, perhaps we’ll have to turn to our catmint sale channels to find him? Maybe his cat consumes our catmint, hahaha.”

Midnight furrowed his brows and said, “Locate the few remaining informants first.” He pointed to the circled names in his notebook and said, “We’ll sell the goods next week.”

Old K revealed his displeasure and cut back, “Why? I can go discuss business now so it won’t affect the headless horseman issue.”

Midnight coldly said, “Selling catmint is just a side hustle. If you leave, you create a possibility of exposing us.”

“Don’t you trust me?” Old K stood up in anger. “What if I want to sell now?”

Midnight's body became translucent. "Frankly speaking, I do not understand why the God of Death asked both of you to help me. I am able to solve the headless horseman issue by myself, without assistance from one or two people. This isn't a big deal for me."

Old K revealed a contrived smile. Green mist rose from the surface of his body. He grudgingly said, "Midnight, are you defying orders from the God of Death?"

Midnight's body had completely become transparent, then it disappeared. Mushroom Head immediately said, "Hey, Midnight, do not act rashly. Old K, apologize quickly."

"Why?" Old K braced himself and said, "Midnight, if you dare make a move on me, we will die together." Foul stench came from Old K's body which had just turned green.

Looking at the scene, Mushroom Head backed up a few steps and covered his nose. "Are you all crazy? Stop this immediately."

The next instant, Old K let out a scream and covered his stomach, saying, "Let go! Release your hand! Release your hand!"

Pow! Following his scream, Old K felt acute pain in his stomach. He vomited a mouthful of blood. However, he was not finished. He laid on the ground coughing violently and then vomited gastric acid and fluid and even the dinner he had just had. Finally, he spat out a small stone from his stomach and felt much better.

Looking at the stone in the pool of vomit, Old K was enraged. "Despicable, this b*stard actually put a stone into my stomach."

Midnight's phantom figure appeared once again and he said coldly, "Next week after we have located the eight suspects, we shall proceed with the catmint transaction. Of course, I will not stop Big White from preparing the meeting."

Mushroom Head nodded with a smile and said, "I have no problem with that."

Old K suppressed his anger, nodded and said, "I don't have an issue with it either."

...

As Midnight, Old K, and Lang Gou planned their next move, Red Packet lay on the floor with Zhao Yao, in the guise of an orange cat, sitting on top.

The orange cat looked at Big White cat and said, "Let me tell you, I don't lack money. My parents are in the coal mining business. If I ask them for money, they won't ask what I plan to spend it on even if it is hundreds and thousands of millions."

Having said that, he conveniently showed his bank balance. "See that? This card has two billion. My pocket money for this month."

Looking at the balance, Big White cat opened his eyes wide. His gaze immediately changed.

Fish Ball added, "Brother Yao is superb." He looked at Big White and said, "Brother Yao came to Jianghai with the intention of doing big business here. If you sell some goods to us and build good relations with Brother Yao, then you're luck will never end! I can guarantee that you will profit endlessly."

"Fish kid, don't talk about money. That's rude." Zhao Yao said, "I came to Jianghai to make friends. As for money, it is a b*stard. Isn't making money easy?"

Big White cat nodded his head, laughed loudly, and said, "Brother Yao, do not worry. Our catmint will pass the strictest test. You will not regret buying from us."

Suddenly, his handphone vibrated, Big White cat unfolded it and looked at the screen. He furrowed his brows and said, "Brother Yao, boss says that this week is no good. He can only meet next week. Before our next meeting, he is giving you a packet of catmint to test. This facilitates future discussions."

At this point, strong reluctance and hesitation flashed over Big White's face. He struggled to take out a packet of catmint from the cat dwelling and reluctantly handed it to Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao said with disdain, "Look at you, worried that I will cheat you of a packet of catmint? Tell you frankly, there are a lot of people who want to sell to me. You are not the only one. If Preserved Egg had not introduced us, I would not have looked for you."

Big White cat laughed and confidently said, “Boss, bring that back home, have a taste and you will know. Our catmint will surely make any cat yearn for more.”

Chapter 598: Bribery and Testing

After obtaining the catmint and having scheduled the next meeting, Zhao Yao brought his cats back happily.

Zhao Yao looked at the catmint in his hands but could not feel anything special. He sniffed at it repeatedly. It was the same as normal catmint.

Dust Ball was already eyeing the catmint eagerly and shouted, “Zhao Yao, quick, let me have a taste. I want to see how good the catmint is.”

Zhao Yao shook his head and said, “There’s no hurry. Let me check it first. This catmint is so highly rated, it may have special effects and is possibly related to a supernatural power. Do not taste it.”

After that, Zhao Yao left the Extradimensional Belly with the catmint.

Dust Ball watched Zhao Yao walk away with yearning. Red Packet and Fish Ball left since there was nothing they needed to attend to.

Fish Ball ran towards the building with eighteen floors. “I am going to work on the construction site. According to Matcha, they’re having salmon for dinner.”

Red Packet walked towards the catmint farm. “I’m leaving, Dust Ball. Store the catmint. With Zhao Yao’s help, we definitely have a market.”

Fish Ball went through the Dimension Portal and arrived at the construction site. He saw a lot of supercats working.

He went forward and saw Caesar pushing a brick on the ground. He immediately asked him, “Caesar, have you seen Matcha?”

“Looking for the foreman?” Caesar said. “Probably on the rooftop.” After that, he started to work on the brick while heaving and puffing from the effort.

Ares used his Deflective Field to lift around ten sacks of cement. He was passing by when he saw Caesar. An idea flashed through his mind and he lifted the brick using the Deflective Field. Caesar only needed to exert a small force to push it.

Caesar looked gratefully at Ares and said, “Thank you, Ares.”

“Don’t mention it! That’s what good brothers do.” Ares nodded at Caesar and said, “Let’s have dinner tonight. Bring along Diana and Catherine. We’ll eat together.”

Caesar’s face was relaxed. He felt that a heavy weight was removed from his heart. Since I’ve started working at the construction site moving bricks every day, my life has lost some of its meaning. At least I don’t have to face Sphynx cat which is stressful. Speaking of which, it’s been a long time since I’ve seen Catherine. I wonder how the live streaming is going...

Caesar smiled as he nodded his head. “Good, I’ll bring my wife and daughter along. We haven’t had a meal together for a long time.”

Caesar thought, “Hmm, Ares has been working at the construction site with us daily with more than ten hours of overtime. He is so hardworking and barely has time to visit Sphynx cat. They’re such good buddies. Sphynx cat has to work in the Extradimensional Belly for Zhao Yao every day. I’ll invite Sphynx tonight. Ares will be very happy.”

Ares and Caesar looked at each other and smiled. They both felt great for the rest of the day.

After Fish Ball talked to Caesar, he walked up to the rooftop and saw Matcha pressing on a handphone and sniggering loudly.

Fish Ball’s eyes brightened. “Huh? What are you looking at? He sneaked up to him carefully and saw that Matcha was posting something on the screen.

He didn’t know how Matcha had managed to obtain a handphone that could access the cat web. Matcha rapidly typed, “Shocking, the Headless Horseman did not even take mercy on a newborn cat. 99% of the cats do not know the cruel truth...”

Matcha sniggered once again at the post's rapidly increasing replies.

Fish Ball immediately shouted, "Well Matcha, recently someone's been secretly smearing Zhao Yao on the internet. So it was you!"

Matcha's body stiffened. He turned his head to look at Fish Ball and said, "Assh*le! Fish Ball, if you rat me out, I will have to silence you." He slid his hand across his throat.

Fish Ball immediately threatened, "Watch out for my posts on the cat web. They might expose your true colors."

Matcha smiled coldly, "Silly Fish Ball, you do not even have a cat web phone, how will you post anything? The phone card that you are using is also from Xiaoyu."

Fish Ball's aura was quite deflated when he threatened once again, "Matcha if you give me a handphone and a phone card, I will not rat you out."

Matcha shook his head and said with scorn, "You see. You will not make it big by working for a little student. You're so pathetic that you don't even own a decent handphone. We supercats are disgraced by you."

Fish Ball answered feebly, "Not a little student, Xiaoyu is already a junior high school student."

Matcha said with disdain, "Do you still want a handphone?"

Both of Fish Ball's eyes lit up as he said, "Are you giving me a handphone?"

Matcha said, "I will bring you to the Extradimensional Belly to get one later. Zhao Yao placed a few cartons of handphones in the Extradimensional Belly. We can collect them anytime."

Fish Ball looked at Matcha with envy and said, "Zhao Yao is so good to all of you."

Matcha put down his paw and said, “Money does not matter. The old guy’s pretty rich. Frankly speaking, Fish Ball, if you are willing to help me, you can help yourself to the handphone and such.”

Fish Ball happily said, “Really?”

“Of course!” Matcha’s ordinary handphone started vibrating on the ground. He lowered his head to look at the screen and became immediately excited. Roly Poly had sent a few photographs to a group chat.

The group’s name was the Lilibet gentlemen society.

The content of the photograph was a generous view of Elizabeth’s backside.

Roly Poly wrote below, “The entire series of photos costs 200 dollars. If you want to see them, do a direct transfer.”

Matcha angrily said, “This Roly Poly... his photographs are so expensive.”

Fish Ball curiously asked, “What group is that?”

“Roly Poly secretly set it up and thought I did not know about it.” Matcha said with envy, “It is so easy to make money by with invisibility powers. If only my ability was invisibility as well.”

...

Meanwhile, Elizabeth, who was in the midst of live streaming, furrowed her brows after noticing a comment. She was unhappy.

“Latest Lilibet photographs set is out! Add Wechat YYJ2000”

Elizabeth hurriedly chatted telepathically with Diana, “Diana, please ban this douchebag. Recently, there have been many disruptions like him while I’m live streaming.”

Roly Poly frowned. “Hmm, banned again.” He looked at the group size and was delighted. “The amount of people watching is pretty large. I can earn quite a bit.”

A guy in the group sent a private message to Roly Poly.

Wash Cat King (Account ID of Cat King of the West) sent, “Great God, I want the photographs.”

After the message, 200 dollars were transferred to Roly Poly.

Roly Poly happily accepted the money when Wash Cat King sent, “Great God, do you have the cat litter Lilibet uses? I want to buy some.”

“This Otaku.” Roly Poly revealed an expression of disgust and rolled his eyeballs, thinking, “Anyway, he is unable to recognize what she uses. I might as well sell him one that I have just used.”

Roly Poly messaged, “Yes.”

At this moment, Zhao Yao imperceptibly appeared behind Roly Poly. “Roly Poly, follow me. I need your help.”

Chapter 599: Experiment and Endorsement

Roly Poly was brought to Cat Island by Zhao Yao and they entered a small wooden house.

In the house, Lucifer was tied up with some rope and hung from the air. He looked excited. Seeing Zhao Yao approach, he shouted, “Zhao Yao, what are you going to do to me?”

“Are you planning on lashing me with a whip? Or punching and kicking me?!” Lucifer’s eyes lit up as he spoke, “Let me tell you. No matter how much you torture me, I will not yield!”

“Come on, hit me! Hit me! Let me show you the strong willpower of supercats.”

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes, took out the catmint from Big White cat and brandished it in front of Lucifer. “You will sniff this packet of catmint. Before that, I have to tell you a little about the situation first...”

Zhao Yao explained where the catmint had come from and the possibility that it could have supernatural effects. Finally, he explained, “I am choosing you because you have the strongest rapid regeneration ability and you are the only one with the most immunity. Even if there is poison in the packet of catmint, you will not die.”

Initially, Lucifer thought Zhao Yao was trying to feed him catmint and was disappointed. However, when he heard where the catmint had come from, he became enthusiastic and said, “Very good Zhao Yao, you want to poison me!”

Lucifer said excitedly, “Poison me. Even if you poison me with the rarest and most lethal kind, I will not break!”

Zhao Yao sighed and said, “Who wants you to break? I only want to test the effects of this packet of catmint.”

Lucifer meowed as he shouted, “Zhao Yao, are you threatening me? Meow, even if you threaten me, it is of no use. Even if you poison me and then beat me viciously after that, I will not surrender!”

“Nutcase.” Zhao Yao rolled his eyes, waved the catmint, and said, “So you agree to sniff this packet of catmint?”

“That is too evil Zhao Yao, you’re actually using a little innocent kitten to do experiments.” Lucifer licked his lips incessantly, looked at both Zhao Yao and the catmint and said, “I am so angry, I hate you. If you have the guts, torture me to death, or I will never forgive you.”

Zhao Yao sighed and thought, “This cat is definitely crazy.”

After some thought, under Lucifer’s overjoyed gaze, he put the catmint in front of him and watched him sniff the catmint pellets one at a time.

Once all the catmint was finished, Lucifer shuddered.

Zhao Yao looked at him seriously and asked, “How is it? What is so special about this catmint?”

“It’s very normal.” Lucifer said with disappointment, “Not as good as the one planted by Dust Ball, the grass lady.”

Zhao Yao stroked his chin and released Lucifer from the ropes. He turned to Roly Poly and said, “Roly Poly, you will monitor Lucifer 24 hours a day for the next few days. If there are any strange reactions, inform me immediately.”

“What?” Roly Poly slanted his head and said dejectedly, “I have to accompany him?”

Lucifer’s breathing became heavier and he said, “So you are stalking me... Zhao Yao and Roly Poly, both of you are too evil.”

Zhao Yao shook his head, covered his forehead and said, “Not stalking, I am imprisoning you here. If there are no side effects after a week, I will release you. During this time, Roly Poly, you are responsible for guarding him. Remember do not leave your post without permission. I will occasionally video-chat with you to monitor Lucifer’s condition.

As for food and water, I will let Matsuo bring some over every day. If you are unable to stand it, tell me beforehand and I will arrange for another cat to take over.”

Roly Poly sighed. What bad luck... I won’t be able to keep watch on Matcha, Ares, and Airplane. I will not be able to take Elizabeth’s photographs as well? Well, there’s a large number of cats in the Royal Cat Police Force, however, none of them can take excellent and highly-sought after photographs. I am the only exception. Well, it is a waste of my photographic skills to guard a silly cat.

After Zhao Yao had locked the door, Roly Poly stood guard outside and Lucifer was imprisoned in the wooden house.

“Roly Poly! Quickly let me out!

Even if you imprison me, it is of no use!

“An indomitable spirit lives in this tiny cat!”

Listening to Lucifer's fervent ramblings, Roly Poly sighed with boredom. He opened up his handphone and intended to play games instead.

The next moment, a message was received.

Fish Ball had sent, "Roly Poly, are you able to teach me photography?"

Roly Poly frowned and replied, "Photography is something you laborer cats will never understand."

After Zhao Yao had settled the catmint issue, he returned to the cat café. He intended to work and plan his next move to dominate Jianghai's catmint market.

"I do not know the effects of Big White cat's catmint, so it won't be taken into account for now. Instead, I will focus on gaining a greater share of the market."

"Hmm, in today's world, volume is king, the greater the volume, the greater the control. I want to improve our catmint sales' volume, so I need to let all the supercats in Jianghai know about Dust Ball's catmint."

Zhao Yao typed the word advertising on the computer, rested his cheeks on his hand and thought, "After advertising, strong effective supply channels are required. The four cat kings of Jianghai and the cat kings of Jianghai's gangs will be able to help me."

"With this move, I will be able to take over the majority of the market share."

As Zhao Yao was working out the details of his plan, the bell in the cat café rang. Old K and Mushroom Head Lang Gou walked in.

Xiao Shiyu immediately received both of them, though she found their gazes to be quite strange.

Zhao Yao lifted his head to study the two men. He felt puzzled and thought, "Such a combination is coming to the cat café to play with cats? Strange."

Elizabeth sat on a table in the middle of the cat café. A female university student was feeding salmon pieces to her one mouthful at a time. Another female office worker at the side was holding her paw. The worker took out a pair of scissors and started cutting near the tender paw pads. She was helping Elizabeth trim her leg fur.

Another female high school student was combing Elizabeth's back and head. When she was extremely comfortable during the combing, Elizabeth would squint her eyes.

When she saw the two men enter, Elizabeth looked at them with contempt and said, "Two men coming here to play? One is already fifty years old and does not even own a single cat. Wonder why they are in cat café, tsk, tsk."

At this point, Diana sat down beside Elizabeth and said, "Lizzie, Cat King of the North contacted me, saying that he wished to invite you to endorse his family's supernatural cat food."

"Endorsement!" Elizabeth's eyes brightened. "How much is he paying?"

Chapter 600: Search and Probe

Diana said, "The Cat King of the North says he will sponsor us a lifetime of free supernatural cat food."

"Miser." Elizabeth said with an face of disdain, "Endorsement without paying a single cent? He thinks we are country bumpkins from the rural areas? Directly reject him."

Diana nodded his head and continued, "The Cat King of the East also contacted us, saying that he would like you join his new supernatural live streaming platform."

"Ah? Supercats also have live streaming platform?" Elizabeth rolled her eyeballs and nodded as she thought, "I remember Zhao Yao said before that the Cat King of the East only had the accelerated speed ability? And he a government cat, hence it is understandable that they are creating a supernatural cat live streaming platform."

In fact, with the development of the awakened supercats and increased participation rate in the societies, many supercats with various ID appeared on social media networks, live streaming, blogs and group messaging platforms.

To tighten the control on these areas, the government created a supercats live stream platform. All supercats and apostles who would like to live stream supernatural ability and related contents could only make use of this official platform. The normal platforms were only allowed to live stream ordinary contents.

And this platform was obviously only accessible via the cat web of the Cat King of the North.

“These humans are making things complicated.” Elizabeth tilted her head, thought for a while and said, “Well, as long as it does not affect my live streaming at Douyu, opening another live stream on the supernatural platform is not a big deal.”

At his time, Old K and Lang Gou walked to the front of Elizabeth’s round table.

Lang Gou looked like a normal mushroom head youth, nothing special and a harmless feeling.

However, Old K looked more dark and vicious, exuding a feeling of unfriendliness.

With the appearance of Old K, the four ladies at the café revealed faces of anxiety.

Old K only widened his mouth and smiled, then looked Elizabeth and said, “Hey, mind if I carry this cat for a while?”

The four ladies immediately formed a protective shield in front Elizabeth. Facing this dark, vicious looking stalwart guy in silence, their actions indicated their attitude.

Old K revealed a grim smile and extended his hand towards the table to grab Elizabeth. At this time, Bai Quan blocked Old K with his hand and gently said, “Apologies guest, these four ladies are currently playing with Elizabeth. You may want to play with other cats first. When they are done, you may come over.”

Old K wanted to use his brute force to push away Bai Quan’s palm. However upon exertion, he discovered that his arm was like a block of mountain—immovable.

He immediately became aware that the waiter was quite strong, his body of fifty years was unable to pit against him.

“Haha.” Old K felt indignant from the Midnight incident and he was not feeling good. When he was being blocked by Bai Quan, his body surface immediately emitted imperceptible poison gas.

Even if his heart was already harboring flames of anger, he would not directly make his move. Moreover, Elizabeth’s Sound Field Therapy and Sixth Sense illusive magic had engulfed the entire cat café.

Everyone who came in would display favorable disposition towards Elizabeth subconsciously. The same applied to Old K, who wanted to hug Elizabeth when he entered.

As Old K was about to teach this waiter a lesson, Lang Gou who was behind him, patted his shoulder and said, “Well, let it go, we are not here to create trouble, let’s find other cats to play with.”

Old K glared viciously at Bai Quan, “Be careful waiter, don’t try to act tough.” After saying, he gave a forced smile and sat on a chair by the side.

Bai Quan turned back his head and smiled towards the four ladies. “Very sorry, apologies for the disruption of your meals.”

The female university student patted her chest and said, “Oh, that man looked so scary, thank goodness Bai Quan, you are here.”

“Yes, yes, Bai Quan, are you able to chase them out? Why allow such fierce people in the cat cafe.”

Bai Quan gently smiled and said, “That will not do. All who come in are customers. No matter what kind of customers, we cat cafe will treat them with sincerity.”

After the daily baptism of the Sound Field Therapy and the cultivation from Sphynx cat’s training ability, Bai Quan had become a changed man. He was tall and slim but with a stalwart and muscular build. His temperament was also extraordinary and he had the potential of a handsome gentleman.

The four ladies gazed at Bai Quan with signs of admiration.

On the other hand, Old K and Lang Gou sat down and glanced at each other. “There is definitely a problem.”

In the presence of the Sound Field Therapy, they both felt a sense of comfort. Hence they understood that there were supercats in this cat cafe.

According to King of Death’s latest intelligence, they knew that the owner of the cat cafe fought against the King of Death before. He exhibited Psychokinesis and Teleporting supernatural powers. Concluding with Midnight’s analysis, they suspected that the owner of the cat cafe was masked man in the killer cat and earthquake cat incidents.

Whether the masked man was the headless horseman would require them to personally come over and determine.

Lang Gou scanned the layout of the cat cafe and discovered Zhao Yao hidden in a corner, operating the computer. “That must be the cafe owner, I will chat with him.”

Bai Quan arrived in front of Old K and asked, “What drinks would both of you like?”

Old K looked condescendingly at Bai Quan and coldly said, “I do not like your service. Does the cafe have waitresses? Let her service me.”

Bai Quan furrowed his brows and went to find Xiao Shiyu. After explaining the situation, he reminded her, “Approach me if there are problems, do not force yourself to do things that you are unwilling to do.”

Xiao Shiyu nodded her head and said, “Don’t worry, this is not the first time I encounter difficult customers.” She smiled happily as she walked over. She looked at Old K and said, “Greetings, what drinks do you like? I recommend the latest set meal for the spring season, very delicious and value for money.”

Old K did not reply, his eyes glaring at Xiao Shiyu, making her feel baffled. Then he slowly said, “Any set meal will do, however this cafe is openly making use of supercats to make money, isn’t there a problem?”

On seeing the expression change in Xiao Shiyu, Old K smiled and said, “Little friend, you are not the only one who has supercats in the world. By openly making use of supercats to make money, shall I say naive or foolish to you?”

Xiao Shiyu asked in a serious tone, “Are you an apostle?”

“Who knows.” Old K probed by asking, “Without proper support, the supercats and apostles are unable to survive in this world. Interested to join us?”
