

Am I A God 611

Chapter 611: Ambushed and surrounded

Zhao Yao who was clasp his nose under the cover of the illusion stopped immediately.

“This guy can see through my illusion? So he can see what I look like right now?”

Old K laughed coldly and activated the toxin.

“Huh? Why hasn’t he showed up yet? Does losing consciousness not end the illusion?” Old K frowned and walked forward to search for the Headless Horseman.

Zhao Yao was wearing his Flying Cloak, had Xuan-Yuan Sword on one side of his waist and Murasama Blade on the other side. He also activated the Deflective Field. After all, Ares had turned into Xuan-Yuan Sword and to maintain this Supercat armor made up of so many supercats, he needed the Deflective Field.

Shielded by the Deflective Field, Zhao Yao and the supercats were not poisoned by Old K’s toxins.

As he watched Old K try his luck at searching for him, Zhao Yao’s face fell. He told the cats telepathically, “Close your eyes. I am going to launch my continuous attack.”

After Matcha, Elizabeth, Roly Poly, and the rest had closed their eyes, Zhao Yao activated the first step of his triple attack: The Paralysis Ring.

“Paralyze, paralyze, paralyze!”

Old K was attracted to the dot uncontrollably. Soon, his body started moving by itself.

“What ... happened?”

Bang! After the first step, his steps got faster and faster until he was running on fours. He chased after the red dot like a cat.

When Zhao Yao moved his right hand, the laser beam from the Paralysis Ring would move on the floor. Then, Old K would react like a cat and chase after the laser beam frantically.

Next, Lang Gou, who was hiding near the side, shot out and chased after the beam with Old K.

“What is happening?” Old K raged. “Lang Gou why are you chasing after the red dot too?”

“How would I know?” Lang Gou panicked. “I cannot control myself.”

Whenever Zhao Yao moved his right hand, the two of them would chase after the red dot.

In fact, Midnight was also out and chasing the red dot along with the two of them. It was just that he had activated his Virtual Spirit-Body. He was transparent so no one could see him.

Matcha pointed at the two of them and said, “Look at the two of them. Don’t they look like dogs?”

Zhao Yao easily controlled them with the Paralysis Ring. He asked Elizabeth to stop her illusion and showed himself.

He was dressed all in black. His black cloak fluttered in the wind like a flickering flame, whipping the air as if Fūjin was blowing at it.

On his waist were two swords, one gold and one silver. There was nothing above his neck.

After being satisfied with how handsome he looked as the Headless Horseman, Zhao Yao looked at them and asked, “The poisonous catmint is manufactured by you right? Do you have any other accomplices?”

Lang Gou shouted, “Old K activate the toxin!”

“I activated it long ago!” Old K’s face turned solemn.”The toxins are useless against them. They are not reacting to them at all.”

“Just tell me, where are you all from?” Zhao Yao looked at the two of them and said, “How dare you sell drugs in my territory?”

Both of them clenched their teeth and ruthlessness flashed in their eyes. They remained silent, believing that they had not lost yet.

At the same time, the humanoids realized that the situation was not right and launched an attack. Although the Paralysis Ring was in use, it was useless against these humanoids.

The first humanoids to attack were the two who waited from the towers and the water tank.

The two humanoids each held a Barrett M82. They aimed at Zhao Yao’s head and pulled the trigger immediately.

Two armor piercing bullets sped at 880 metres per second or more towards Zhao Yao.

The bullets were capable of piercing through 20 mm of steel. The bullets pierced through the layers of sound barriers and hit the Deflective Field mercilessly.

This was the weapon used in war against armor targets. Now that it was used against a human, the destruction of said human body would be ghastly.

The bullets had a terrifying force. Under normal circumstances, even the Deflective Field could not stop it. Zhao Yao could only watch the bullets approach closer and closer towards his head.

The Deflective Field could only delay them for 0.3 seconds or 0.5 seconds. But, for Zhao Yao, who had the power of five cats, it was enough.

Watching the bullet appear in front of him suddenly, Zhao Yao's eyes turned cold. He tilted his head to the side and took a step forward. The Deflective Field deflected the bullets as they traveled past his shoulders and landed deeply in the ground.

"Wow, using a sniper rifle to shoot at me?" Zhao Yao narrowed his eye looking like a predator who caught his prey. "Since you shot me, prepare to take a blow from my sword."

Xuan-Yuan Sword, transformed into by Ares, was already in his hands. Then, with both of his hands, he raised the sword and slashed down. The wind and thunder sounded through the air and a violent sword aura charged out from his gesture.

Bam!

A terrifying sword aura that was 10 meters long slashed across the sky like a lightning bolt and cut towards a tower not far away.

Everyone was astonished.

With a loud rumble, the entire tower collapsed. Only cement and gravel were left where the tower stood.

"What a powerfully destructive force." Old K's mind was filled with disbelief. "This destruction got to be equivalent to a missile."

Without even turning his head, Zhao Yao slashed towards the water tower nearby. Crushed by the sword aura, the entire water tower collapsed. Along with the straps of metal, the water also showered down like light rain.

While Zhao Yao was taking care of the two humanoids, the rest of the humanoids had all taken their positions and launched an attack at the same time.

First, two rockets exploded on top of Zhao Yao's head at the same time.

Then, 11 humanoids simultaneously charged from the roof, windows, doors and from behind the pillar. They were so uniform in their movement that it felt like they had done it a thousand times. In the same 0.1 seconds, all 11 of them pointed their right hand at Zhao Yao. Suddenly, their palms started transforming and soon became 11 electromagnetic rifles which fired metallic waves.

This round of attack almost immediately followed the previous one. It was as if the humanoids did not care about if the last round of attack was successful or not, they just attacked.

The humanoids' electromagnetic rifles used the electromagnetic acceleration to fire the bullets. This technology was more advanced than most high-tech weapons owned by many countries. Every bullet's penetrative power was about the same as the armor piercing bullet shot by a sniper rifle. In that instant, tens of thousands of bullets flew towards Zhao Yao. Even a tank would have been blown up.

The Deflective Field was no match for this type of attack. It would be torn apart.

Zhao Yao was not intending to receive this kind of attack's impact either.

Dust Ball opened a Dimension Portal and Zhao Yao took a step back. Dust Ball opened the portal where Zhao Yao had taken a step. This smooth cooperation between them was long familiar.

At the same time that Zhao Yao entered the Dimension Portal, another Dimension Portal opened in another part of the factory.

Two Dimension Portals. One to enter and one to exit.

Chapter 612: Multiple attacks

The rocket exploded into tiny fireballs which flew through the Dimension Portal and went towards the humanoid who was on the other side.

The metallic waves fired from the electromagnetic rifle also flew into one Dimension Portal and exited out of another.

Boom! All the bullets surged in the factory and rows of bullet holes appeared on the wall. The walls collapsed one by one. Even the steel columns were penetrated. Soon, the whole building was on the verge of collapsing.

Two humanoids exploded and became metal scraps on the floor, after being pierced by multiple armor-piercing bullets

Old K started shouting, "Stop! Stop immediately! He has dimensional powers!" After watching the bullets fly around chaotically creating multiple holes on the wall, Old K's heart almost stopped beating.

"He has such strong dimensional powers. Looks like ordinary weapons are useless against him." Old K's thoughts raged, "This Headless Horseman is the nemesis of all modern weapons."

Whenever Zhao Yao's right hand moved, the Paralysis Ring's laser beam would also move. Even when in such danger, Old K had to run around the factory to chase after the red dot. He almost died from the fright.

Furthermore, these humanoids were his enemies as they were made of metal. His toxins could not force the humanoids to stop. He could only resort to shouting.

On the other hand, Lang Gou's face was pale and his mind was a mess. "Compared to these humanoids, the Headless Horseman is a true war machine. He has the destructive power of a bomb and an impenetrable defence due to his dimensional powers. We actually have to fight against such a monster?"

"Wow, so they are all humanoids? No wonder they are so fierce." Zhao Yao stood in the Dimension Portal and watched the bullets fly across the factory. Then, he raised the golden sword and slashed the air four times.

Suddenly there were four golden flashes and four sword auras rushed towards the four humanoids like four golden dragons. They were followed by a brutal force which swallowed the four humanoids whole and flew out.

The four violent sword auras violently charged in four different directions. Along with the humanoid, the sword auras wrecked the walls of the factory, leaving behind a pile of debris. After crashing through the walls, the sword auras continued charging for a few hundred meters before coming to a stop.

The next moment, the humanoid brushed the rubble from his body and dashed towards Zhao Yao. By then, the majority of the artificial skin on its body had peeled off, exposing his metallic body.

“What? That tough?” Zhao Yao was slightly shocked. These humanoid bodies were a lot tougher than expected. The sword aura from the Deflective Field was not enough to cut them, but the electromagnetic armor-piercing bullets could.

Although Deflective Field’s overall power was stronger than armor piercing bullets, it didn’t have the same kind of penetrative power.

Zhao Yao turned his head and saw that the humanoids who had been hit on the pillar and the water tower could still fight. Their artificial skin was torn apart. They were two silver skeletons who charged towards Zhao Yao.

Meanwhile, the humanoids had noticed that something was amiss. They stopped their attack instantly. An electric signal was transmitted to their processor.

“Close combat.”

Having a digitized mind allowed them to think and act at the same time. Almost all the guns stopped firing instantly. Four humanoids who charged Zhao Yao like leopards. In their digitized eyes shined a thirst for blood.

Old K was pleased with what he saw. “These humanoids are made of Chogokin. They are hard to destroy with normal weapons. Looks like Headless Horseman is currently having trouble destroying them. We need to find a way to end the control this red dot has on us. Then, we can attack this monster together with the humanoids.”

Every step the humanoids took, the cement floor crumbled. It provided them with a lot of potential energy which they used to charge towards Zhao Yao. Each humanoid had a poisoned bayonet. They were like four poisonous snakes. They each took an unusual path to attack the vital spots on Zhao Yao’s body. They passed through the Dimension Portal like it was a phantom.

“Asking for death.” Zhao Yao frowned. The Xuan-Yuan Sword in his hand had become the Murasama Blade. Zhao Yao reached for the blade and sliced forward.

Murasama Blade pierced the humanoid’s chest as if it were tofu. Then Zhao Yao turned his blade and sliced through it. The humanoid’s body was sliced into two like a piece of cheese and fell onto the floor.

Upon seeing this scene, Old K and Lang Gou were stunned and howled in their minds. “Another new power? How many powers does this guy actually have?”

The Murasama Blade was also immediately registered in all the processors of the humanoids.

The red light in the humanoid’s eyes narrowed. They were like frightened rabbits as they crushed the cement floor uniformly and jumped a dozen meters away from Zhao Yao.

“Escape?” Zhao Yao’s sigh rang in everyone’s ears. In the next moment, time was stopped.

Silver blades flashed through the air like flowers. Three jumping humanoids crumbled into pieces of metal and fell onto the floor.

In four consecutive attacks, four humanoids who were like the Terminator with the latest weapons were cut apart by Zhao Yao. Old K and Lang Gou who were watching felt chills down their spine.

Before one metal humanoid fell onto the floor, the Dimension Portal had already brought Zhao Yao in front of another humanoid.

The humanoids had a large amount of combat data installed in them. Their combat instincts were better than any Special Forces in the world.

With Zhao Yao in front of him, the humanoid had already fired his electromagnetic rifle at Zhao Yao’s head. At the same time, his leg kicked hard against the ground. He wanted to fire and avoid Zhao Yao at the same time.

Zhao Yao ignored its attacks and let the bullets pass through the Dimension Portal like phantoms. All he did was slice them with his blade.

The humanoid tried to block with his arm but his arm, neck, along with his chest were sliced open by the blade.

Before the body had fallen to the ground, Zhao Yao once again appeared in front of the next humanoid.

His figure flickered like an evil spirit in the dark and the devil from hell. Even such strong and powerful opponents like the humanoids were just like ordinary humans to him.

Zhao Yao flashed around the factory with the Dimension Portal. From time to time there were bright flashes from the blade. In a short while, another three humanoids lay on the floor in several pieces.

At the same time, Zhao Yao ears picked up on a trembling sound. Then, he saw that the remaining seven humanoids were retreating while carrying Old K and Lang Gou.

Evidently, the Paralysis Ring's effective time period was up. They had returned to normal.

“What is going on? What are the people in the intelligence department doing?” Old K's face was distorted as he yelled. “Except for illusion and invisibility, they got none of the other powers right.”

“All our attacks were useless against him. Even the humanoids couldn't stop him.” Lang Gou panicked. The next moment, he saw Zhao Yao chasing after them and he shouted, “Hurry! He is catching up.”

As the time stopped and resumed, a silver lotus appeared in the air from the silver flashes of the blade. The humanoid who was engulfed in the lotus cracked and was torn into pieces.

Chapter 613: Analysis and Poisoning

Compared to Old K and Lang Gou who were in life-threatening danger, Midnight who was in his Virtual Spirit-Body was a lot safer. He watched the entire battle calmly.

He also chased the red dot, it was just that he was not in danger.

While he was running after the red dot, he also watched the Headless Horseman carefully and analyzed his powers.

“The golden sword has a sword aura that can attack at a broad range”

“He has a defensive field surrounding him, but the defensive field cannot block an attack from the armor-piercing bullet.”

“Dimensional powers? When he is hiding inside a dimensional portal any attacks from this dimension cannot touch him?”

Every time Midnight saw a new power which the Intelligence department had not recorded, he was appalled.

“How powerful is the Headless Horseman ?” Midnight’s mind was analyzing what he had just seen. “Although he is strong, he isn’t invincible.”

“The most troublesome power is the dimensional power.” Midnight thought to himself. “Even so, he is not invincible. Although he has avoided all our attacks, the fact that he can cut the humanoids with the silver blade means he can still be attacked.”

“When the blade is cutting his opponent, he cannot use the force field to defend himself anymore. He has to let the blade out.”

Although Midnight had made some small mistakes when analyzing Zhao Yao’s powers, he still arrived at the correct conclusion.

“It is not easy to make use of such a short moment. If we fail, we will be cut into several pieces.” Midnight sighed. “Luckily, there is someone here who can do it effortlessly.”

When they were fighting, Midnight spoke through his walkie-talkie and headset, “Old K spread your toxins all over the humanoid.”

In Midnight’s analysis, when the Headless Horseman attacked the humanoid, the body of the blade was unprotected by the force field. This meant that Old K’s toxin could spread onto the blade and when the Headless Horseman hid again, the toxin could spread from the blade onto the Headless Horseman.

His analysis made sense but he had neglected the fact that the silver katana was a Murasama Blade. That is because Midnight, Old K, and Lang Gou didn’t know that it was a Murasama Blade. The humanoids who knew had no chance to tell them.

With a blade that vibrated a hundred thousand times per second, there is no way the toxins could spread onto the sword.

Although Midnight’s analysis was not completely correct his decision was the right one: to ask Old K to activate his toxins.

Originally, after activating the toxins several times and not seen any reaction from the Headless Horseman, Old K had given up on using his toxins. Therefore, Zhao Yao had no idea that the air in the factory was filled with toxins.

Hence, when Zhao Yao was walking around the factory and attacking the humanoids, he was inevitably contaminated.

When Zhao Yao activated the force field, he could concurrently not activate Time Freeze.

So Midnight's thorough but flawed analysis had led to an accurate result.

Controlled by Old K's powers, Zhao Yao fell unconscious in the Dimension Portal and fell to the ground.

This was the battle of superpowers, too much unknown and yet too much intel. Several different powers overlapped. Even a veteran like Zhao Yao had moments where he was careless. He did not even know that he had been contaminated with the toxin because of his contact with the air during Time Freeze.

Lang Gou rushed forward but his hand slid past Zhao Yao's body. "I can't attack him."

"He can maintain the sub-space defence even when he is unconscious?" Midnight ordered, "Old K kill him." After the fight just now, Midnight knew that except for Old K's toxin, they had no other way to attack the Headless Horseman.

Old K hesitated, "God of Death wants him alive and I already have control over him."

"Kill him immediately!" Midnight yelled, "He is too dangerous and if he is given any chance to retaliate we are all going to die."

Old K thought about it and agreed promptly. "I understand." He pointed his palm in Zhao Yao's direction and clenched it.

"Toxin explosion!"

The toxin accumulated in Zhao Yao's body and his entire body turned green. The supercats around him were pointing at him and discussing.

Matcha said, "Look, Zhao Yao has turned green."

"He was healthy just now. Why is he turning green?" Elizabeth asked curiously.

Roly Poly was startled and jumped off Zhao Yao. “I think he has been poisoned. In games, they look like this when they are poisoned.”

“It’s okay. He activated Time Freeze just now.” Matcha answered relaxedly. “Watch, he may be dead now but he will be revived in a short while. Everyone step away from him. He will definitely be alive later.”

The moment Zhao Yao’s heart stopped beating, Time Distortion was activated. Zhao Yao’s body returned to the state before he was poisoned and the world around him stood still.

Zhao Yao opened his eyes and it was filled with fury.

“Dead again?” He glared towards Old K and Lang Gou. “I am going to kill the both of you.”

In the frozen world, Matcha tapped on the immobilized Elizabeth’s shoulders and said, “See, I told you. Every time he revives he’s angry. So angsty.”

Zhao Yao walked in front of Old K and kicked his groin hard. Then, he slapped Old K twice and assaulted Lang Gou who was at the side. After doing all this, he still felt anger in his chest.

“Damn it. It is so unsatisfying if they have no reaction.”

“But, if I unfreeze the time, would I die again? I don’t even know what attack they launched just now.”

He rubbed his chin and still couldn’t let things rest. He opened the diamond hall on the front page.

“Cat Princess’s Dress, come out now.”

Zhao Yao spent five diamonds and wore the Cat Princess Dress. For the next 10 minutes, he could activate two powers at once.”

Then, he spent another diamond on a power-up card.

He activated the Ultra Rapid Regeneration and went back to the Dimension Portal to take Xuan-Yuan Sword and Murasama Blade.

After doing all of this, Zhao Yao exchanged his Time Freeze for Elizabeth's illusion powers.

As his Time Freeze changed to illusion, the world started moving again.

Old K, Lang Gou, and Midnight were all stunned beyond words when they saw Zhao Yao appear again in a dress. As Roly Poly had left, Zhao Yao's head was no longer invisible.

Looking at the shocked faces of Old K and Lang Gou, Zhao Yao laughed coldly and pointed at himself. "This is my strongest form. Now that you have seen it, do you know what this means?"

"You guys are dead."

Chapter 614: Breath of Resurrection

"Poison!"

Old K could not understand why Zhao Yao, who had just died, was alive again, wielding two swords and dressed in a female costume.

However, he understood the danger of his opponent. He roared as he clawed the air in the direction of Zhao Yao.

The poison ability was fully activated, however, Zhao Yao only let out a whimper. He was immune due to his Ultra Rapid Regeneration ability.

"Still trying to poison me?" Zhao Yao held the Xuan-Yuan Sword in one hand and smashed the Old K's face using the back of the sword. Old K screamed in pain and collapsed to the ground. Zhao

Yao rushed forward and continued smashing him, wielding the Xuan-Yuan Sword with an imposing aura. Old K was so badly hammered that he crawled all over the place. His mouth was full of blood and he screamed as he crawled, frantically looking for a place to hide.

“You are vicious.” He screamed as Zhao Yao stepped on the bottom half of his body.

“Try poisoning me again,” Zhao Yao taunted.

Lang Gou was dumbstruck as he watched. He didn’t know why this scene invoked a terrifying primary school memory of when his father chased him down ten streets after the parent-teacher meeting.

The humanoid robots were not as sentimental. They raised their guns and fired.

Armor-piercing bullets penetrated Zhao Yao’s chest, shoulders, and brain... However, while the bullets penetrated his body, the wounds were already healed. Once Ultra Rapid Regeneration was activated, unless Zhao Yao’s entire body was destroyed in one moment, it was not possible to kill him.

The armor-piercing bullets were inferior to normal bullets. Normal bullets were able to stay longer in his body, thus impeding Ultra Rapid Regeneration.

Zhao was enjoying the wave of pleasure from the volley of bullets and let off Old K for a while. He turned around, pointed his Murasama Blade at the robots and shouted, “Try firing again!”

The robots ignored him and fired a few rounds that landed in his brain.

“Gutsy!” Zhao Yao activated Time Freeze and rushed forward, cutting and slashing in a frenzy.

Old K and Lang Gou felt a flash pass by their eyes. The limbs and torsos of the remaining seven robots were cut off, leaving the heads intact. Seven pairs of electronic eyes blinked and watched them helplessly.

Old K cried as he said, “Gosh, he’s too strong.”

Old K was given such a beating that he tossed and turned screaming in pain. His entire body was swollen and fresh blood dripped from the corners of his mouth.

“Zhao Yao!” Old K still remembered his name. At this instant, he was overcome with anger and shame. He shouted in a shrill voice, “You are too much, we are King of Death’s men. Though you have beaten us today, you will not have such a happy ending!”

“King of Death?” Zhao Yao smashed the Xuan-Yuan Sword on Old K’s face again, removing his wisdom tooth as well as filling his mouth with crimson blood. “King of Death still?”

“What is so great about this King of Death?”

Zhao Yao grabbed Old K’s head and abruptly smashed it against the floor, causing Old K to howl in pain. The bridge of his nose was completely broken. “Let him find me, if he dares come, I will hammer him as well.”

Old K was in such agony, he was unable to utter complete sentences.

Both Lang Gou and Zhao Yao flickered briefly and reappeared in a pure white dimension.

Looking at the surprised Zhao Yao, Lang Gou said, “Hehe, my ability is... drawing my opponents into this dimension and changing them into cats. However, you will be ordinary cats while I become the ferocious Pallas cat or even a Lynx cat. I’ll use my rich experience in fighting cats to win...”

Zhao Yao did not say a word. He rushed forward and smacked the head of the Pallas cat (Lang Gou’s avatar) with his paw.

It was only a smack and yet Lang Gou was reeling and almost fainted from it. “You...”

“I have the strength equivalent to five cats and you want to fight with me?” Zhao Yao charged at the Pallas cat and started biting and tearing.

A few moments later, Zhao Yao and Lang Gou had returned to the material world. Zhao Yao looked intact, however, Lang Gou was in a pathetic state with tattered clothing and a blood-stained body.

Old K’s face was full of despair. Zhao Yao once again stepped on his face and said, “Where is King of Death? Get him to come here. Last time he talked to me, it was cordial and he even called me his big brother. A little hoodlum like you dares stir up trouble?”

Zhao Yao lashed Old K’s face with the Xuan-Yuan Sword as he uttered word by word, “Do you know that you’re a little hoodlum?”

Lang Gou stealthily backed off at what he saw. Zhao Yao, who was beating Old K up, pointed to Lang Gou without looking at him and said, “Try and take another step back.”

Lang Gou instantly froze in his tracks as he looked at Old K whose face was full of tears and blood. He did not dare to leave and yet he did not want to stay any longer.

Matcha said, “That Old K was beaten into such a pathetic state, worse than what we saw last time. Zhao Yao cannot be offended. See, he’s not moving! Is he dead?”

Elizabeth shook her head and said, “No, he’s moving again. Tsk, tsk, Zhao Yao will not let him die so easily. Moreover, Zhao Yao hasn’t used his power of illusion yet. He still has more to endure.”

Roly Poly stood up, pointed excitedly at Old K and said, “Everyone take a look. His nose seems broken... tsk tsk tsk, very pitiful.”

Caesar didn’t dare look so he covered his eyes and said, “Have they finished fighting? Why do I feel my head hurting again?”

After seriously wounding Old K, Zhao Yao pointed his finger and activated the Shit Wave. Old K felt faeces seep out from the surface of his body. After a painful scream, he vomited white foam, laid silently on the ground, and passed out.

Zhao Yao turned to Lang Gou and said, “Tell me, are there any more of you?”

At this instant, Zhao Yao felt an explosion of pleasure in his cerebrum. Bam! He collapsed on the ground.

This was one of Midnight’s direct moves—putting a stone into Zhao Yao’s brain.

Looking at Zhao Yao lying on the ground, Midnight took a few steps back and said, “Ultra Rapid Regeneration? Well, bring it on...”

Zhao Yao sprung up from the ground in two seconds. He felt a weight in his brain. Although his cerebrum had completed regeneration, the stone still pressed down on it, which explained the heaviness.

Zhao Yao massaged his head and furrowed his brows. “Why is my head so heavy? What’s in there?” Zhao Yao opened his mouth and activated the Extradimensional Belly. The stone in his brain went through his skull and was sucked into the Extradimensional Belly.

“Suddenly, I feel at ease.” Zhao Yao’s head spouted a fountain of blood but he felt no pain just a feeling of relaxation. In an instant, the wound was completely healed.

Looking at the empty factory, Zhao Yao sneered and said, “Hehe, is there another one?”

Although he knew that Zhao Yao was unable to see him, when Zhao Yao’s gaze swept over where he stood, Midnight instantly felt as though cold sweat was seeping from his back.

Chapter 615: Meeting

“The Ultra Rapid Regeneration of the Headless Horseman is too powerful.” Midnight swallowed a few times. When Zhao Yao was hiding his true prowess during the fight and he had the upper hand with one sword and a knife, Midnight felt he had a chance to win.

Now Zhao Yao had cast away the airs of an idol and was fully committed to fighting, Midnight saw no chance of winning at all.

As Midnight was about to retreat, Zhao Yao prepared to leave after he finished saying, “Just you wait!”

Zhao Yao activated Time Freeze ran into the Dimension Portal, which was like a weapon armory. He could obtain various kind of supercats at any time and any location.

This time, Zhao Yao took out Catherine the Ragdoll cat.

After dispelling Time Freeze, he lifted Catherine and shouted, “Coward, I am talking to you. Will you dare look at my cat?”

Midnight looked at Catherine almost subconsciously as it is human nature to look over when being called. After looking at Catherine he immediately reacted. This was definitely a trap.

Before he could turn his head or close his eyes, he fell asleep instantly. He was unable to sustain his ability and his form appeared. He collapsed on the ground with a loud bang.

Even Lang Gou subconsciously turned his head. He fainted and went into a deep sleep.

All the men deployed by the King of Death had been completely defeated by Zhao Yao. He looked at his three prisoners on the ground and captured them using the Extradimensional Belly. He intended to interrogate them properly.

Elizabeth and Diana took turns activating their abilities, ensuring that the three prisoners had no abilities after sleeping for 24 hours. Then Zhao Yao could start his interrogation without any worries.

Things related to the King of Death were of utmost importance so Zhao Yao would not let Old Cat intervene. It was not easy to figure out what a cat was thinking, especially a Chuan Xiao warrior like Old Cat. Zhao Yao could not depend on Old Cat for important issues. He restricted himself to only using Old Cat's brainwashing ability when he wanted to conveniently tie up loose ends.

After sending the three of them into the Extradimensional Belly, Zhao Yao disguised himself as the Headless Horseman again and searched the entire factory.

First, he found a large number of raw materials, tools, and samples of poisonous catmint. He decisively destroyed them with fire.

After searching for some time, Zhao Yao found another person who looked familiar.

In the basement, Black Panther was tied to a chair and a computer screen was placed in front of him. An old fellow on the screen laughed and said, "Black Panther, we've been chatting cordially for the past few days. We have confirmed on our side that you are not the Headless Horseman. I'm very sorry that my men captured the wrong person."

"No problem, no problem." Black Panther looked at the avatar of the King of Death on the screen and said, "It is good that you have gotten the facts right. I find you quite familiar and you don't look like a bad person. Do not capture the wrong person again though. It is fortunate that you met me because if you encounter my headless mentor it will be disastrous."

King of Death smiled wryly and said, "Yes, it has been hard on you for the past few days. Someone will rescue very soon."

"Ah? Really?" Black Panther looked at the avatar of King of Death on the screen and said, "Will we meet again? Aren't we already good friends?"

King of Death smiled as he shook his head. "You treated me like a friend? You... aren't afraid of me?"

"You are so old... what is there to fear?" Black Panther looked at the aged figure of King of Death and said matter-of-factly, "You are already quite old. Why are you still messing around with secret societies fighting and killing? Do secret societies have old age insurance? In the future, if you are attacked, it will not be considered a work injury. The medical fees may not be affordable. It is better to retire early."

The King of Death grinned helplessly. He knew Black Panther was not very bright and that he would not be able to reason with him. So he gave a perfunctory reply, "If I retire, my enemies will find me for revenge."

"I can shield you." Black Panther said, "From now on, we are brothers. In the future, if you have any issues, I will shield you."

King of Death laughed heartily as though he had just heard a joke. Then he shook his head and said, "Okay, we are brothers from now on."

At that time, Zhao Yao opened the basement door. He walked in and stopped for a while after seeing Black Panther. He touched his kidney subconsciously and asked warily, "Black Panther? Why are you here?"

"Headless mentor!" Black Panther looked at Zhao Yao as the Headless Horseman and shouted, "Why are you here? Are you rescuing me?"

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes and intended to turn around and leave. Meanwhile, Black Panther was touched and said, "Headless mentor, I know that you have not forgotten me and you came here especially to rescue me..."

Zhao Yao looked at the old person on the screen and asked, "Who are you?"

"Headless Horseman, or should I say, Zhao..."

Once King of Death spoke, Zhao Yao's thoughts flashed and Black Panther fell into darkness as he was deprived of his five senses and could not hear their conversation.

"Greetings Zhao Yao, I am the King of Death." King of Death said, "Since you are here, this means that Midnight and rest have been defeated?"

Zhao Yao narrowed his eyes and thought, "The three apostles were able to directly identify me during the fight. Have they already reported my identity to King of Death?"

The two men gazed at each other via the computer screen, scrambling for thoughts.

The King of Death thought, “According to the photographs sent from the monitoring console, Zhao Yao’s abilities are terrifying. Even if I have all my apostles here, it will still be a suicide mission. I have to free more supercats to gain more combat prowess before I can defeat him.”

The King of Death had captured numerous apostles and supercats. For example, Doll was a highly threatening supercat and she had the capability to create robots.

As for apostles like Midnight, Old K, and Lang Gou, their lending of abilities was very limited.

Once King of Death liberated supercats and lent numerous dangerous abilities to apostles, then his power would expand rapidly and would be harder to control.

Facing a threat like Zhao Yao, King of Death could not afford to consider too much. Lending much more powerful abilities to apostles and discovering more supercats was his plan of action.

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao was frantically thinking things through. “My only effective attack against the King of Death is the Sixth Sense power of illusion. Based on its previous effects, if I use the Great Flow of Idleness, the King of Death may perish and the tens of thousands of people under his control will also die. In this case, before I have a better solution, I will not make any moves against him.

The previous time Zhao Yao had activated the Sixth Sense power of illusion against the King of Death, everything had gotten out of hand and hit the news, which had scared Zhao Yao. Hence, he could not afford to use the Sixth Sense power of illusion against the King of Death rashly.

Although the Old Cat could be used to counter King of Death, however, Old Cat was born in Chuan Xiao and was an out-and-out rebel. Zhao Yao was wary of Old Cat and would not let him intervene.

Zhao Yao thought, “In this case, only...”

The King of Death thought, “The only battle plan is...”

Chapter 616: Dealing with Things

King of Death: “As long as I’m alive, there is hope. Even if he curses my whole family I will have to endure it. Even if I hide until Yoshihiro Togashi dies. The struggle in life lies in perseverance and patience.”

Zhao Yao: “Temper needs restraint, while avoidance is not a solution. Both are necessary and should be used wisely in order to win. I will avoid King of Death for now and upgrade my powers at a faster pace while in hiding. After I upgrade Elizabeth a few times, defeating the King of Death will be an easy game.”

The King of Death laughed, “Zhao Yao, hah!”

“King of Death!” Zhao Yao spat.

King of Death smiled even wider as he said, “You are one powerful guy. My best apostles were all defeated by you just like that.”

Zhao Yao smiled widely, revealing his sparkling white teeth. “You are the amazing one. I was so secretive about my identity but you exposed me just like that.”

King of Death responded, “We won’t know until we exchange blows, so let’s just leave it for today.”

“Yeah, let’s leave it,” Zhao Yao said, “I am someone without much ambition. All I do is dawdle around all day. I hate battles the most.”

King of Death said, “Same for me. Just browsing through discussion forums and playing games makes my day. What’s the point of fighting so hard every day, right?”

“Exactly,” Zhao Yao said, “I don’t understand that either. I hate using violence the most. King of Death, you better not pick a fight with me. I will just run away.”

“Why would I!” King of Death laughed, “I was intending to sell Ivory and cash out my stocks to travel around the world. Why would I fight? Let’s not talk about this anymore. My friend is asking to play a round of PUBG with me.”

“See you next time.”

“The next time I see you, I will finish you off.”

After ending the conversation with King of Death, Zhao Yao glanced at Black Panther before throwing him out on the streets. After that, he swallowed himself back into the Extradimensional Belly.

Since his identity had been exposed to King of Death, Zhao Yao had many things to do.

“Dad and Mum are already safe on the Cat Island, I will go get Zhao Xue. This time I can’t let her find any more excuses, I will make sure to bring her back.”

“I should interrogate King of Death’s three underlings carefully. If I know myself and my enemy, I will never be defeated.”

“The next thing is Elizabeth’s power of illusion. Using the Sixth Sense illusion on King of Death is too risky as it puts thousands of people’s lives in danger. It is too huge a price to pay. But I still have the spicy cat strips. I should give Elizabeth one to try and see if she will be able to deal with King of Death immediately after her transformation.”

Zhao Yao had not attacked King of Death for now as the combat methods he currently had had were too weak. The Great Flow of Idleness was too powerful on the other hand and could disrupt the harmony in the universe. Furthermore, it might not actually be able to kill the King of Death.

However, if the gear Elizabeth transformed into after eating spicy cat strips could kill King of Death, he would finish him off immediately.

Bam!

A tub of cold water splashed on Old K's head, waking him up instantly. Once he awoke he felt pain in every inch of his body, especially in his broken nose and the bones in his hands, which made him groan instinctively.

He forced his eyes open to look at his current situation. He saw two people in front of him. It was Zhao Yao's cleaners, Matsuo (ex-CEO of the money-lending platform) and Faceless (ex-gang leader of the Mao Gang).

Faceless scoffed as he said to Old K, "Hey newcomer, think carefully about what happened. It should be etched in your mind." He was obviously gloating.

Although he resented Zhao Yao for wiping out the Mao gang, now that he was on Zhao Yao's side, he felt joy in gloating over the misfortune of others falling at Zhao Yao's hands.

Old K's eyes flashed as he recalled what had happened.

"That guy Zhao Yao knocked me out in the end. What about Lang Gou and Midnight?" He raised his head to look at his surroundings and realized that Lang Gou and Midnight were there as well, lying unconscious on the floor.

"Have we all lost? Even Midnight..." Old K could not help but recall every scene of the previous battle.

When he thought of that, fear rose in his heart uncontrollably. His face turned white and he trembled involuntarily.

“Zhao Yao, that devil...” Old K suddenly felt his body ache more. “Too strong, this guy is too strong. Sword strength, blade rays, teleportation, rebirth, and many other complex powers we could not understand. We actually had to fight a monster like him?”

Thinking about how he had gone to the cat café to provoke him made Old K feel that he had really been courting his own death. Not just him, but the whole of Ivory and King of Death himself. They were all seeking their own deaths.

Matsuo got straight to the point, “Alright, since you get the situation now, just spit it all out. The group that’s backing you guys, the masterminds behind this, why did you guys come to Jianghai? Where the poisonous catmint come from? Explain clearly.”

Old K told them everything he knew. In fact, it was very difficult for him to hide anything from them. They already had information about King of Death. What Zhao Yao wanted to know now was more information regarding King of Death and Ivory.

After that, Matsuo and Faceless woke Lang Gou and Midnight respectively and questioned them one by one.

Zhao Yao had brought Roly Poly and Elizabeth invisibly along with him. He and Elizabeth controlled Midnight and Lang Gou’s bodies respectively to prevent them from resorting to desperate measures.

When he heard all that they had said, Zhao Yao silently shook his head, “These three guys know very little.” There was nothing he could do even after listening to their accounts.

Due to the unique powers of King of Death, the civilian, logistics support, and management staff in Ivory were basically just King of Death himself. Although these apostles held high statuses, they were practically uninvolved in daily operations. As long as they completed missions and fought in battles, they reaped their benefits once their job was done. They naturally knew nothing about King of Death’s secrets.

As he thought of this, Zhao Yao shook his head and decided to not continue listening. However, he frowned again as he glanced at his phone, “Why is Zhao Xue not replying to me? No matter what excuse she gives this time, I will still bring her here.” Using the power of illusion, Zhao Yao took away Old K and his trio’s five senses.

“Elizabeth, I’ll leave these three to you. Turn off their senses for 24 hours. We’ll discuss what to do with them after the illusion wears off.”

“So what should we do after 24 hours? Release them?”

“Definitely not. They will be my cleaners for at least 30 years before they can be released from my prison.”

24 hours after Zhao Yao left, Old K, Lang Gou and Midnight slowly opened their eyes.

Matsuo stared at them as he said, “Newcomers, from now on you guys will be in charge of cleaning the cat litter here every day. Boss has a total of more than 160 cats, so the cleanliness of the cat toilet is especially important. All the cat toilets should be cleaned once every two hours. I will do random spot checks, so don’t let me catch you slacking off.”

As he said that, Matsuo felt a sense of pride rising.

Faceless also sighed, “I can finally stop cleaning pet litter. Cleaning up after 160 cats every day, sweeping the cat litter, wiping off stains... These chores are really not suitable for people.”

Chapter 617: The Search for the Sister

Matsuo took Old K and the other two guys for a walk around the Extradimensional Belly. Once the trio had sobered up, they realized that their powers had expired and could not be used anymore. They appeared to be very docile and obedient especially in such an unfamiliar environment.

Old K and his two friends were awestruck when they saw all kinds of supercats running around, surfing the net, and playing games.

Old K: "Headless Horseman actually has so many cats."

Lang Gou: "Losing to someone with so many cats is not an injustice, not an injustice at all."

Matsuo led them to the toilet area, which was lined with dense rows of cat toilets, shocking the trio.

Midnight gasped, "How many cat toilets are there?"

Matsuo replied, "The 160 cats here are all good cats that love cleanliness and hygiene. Hence, Boss prepared 200 cat toilets for them."

Midnight was shocked by his words. "200 cat toilets? So that means we have to clean 200 cat toilets every day? How is that possible?"

Matsuo smiled. "I know how you feel. At first, you will feel like it's an impossible task, but after some time, you will come to realize that living like this is not too bad after all."

Looking at the cat toilets and the cats walking in and out of them, Old K, Midnight, and Lang Gou knew there was no hope for them.

At this moment, an orange cat came out of the cat toilet in front of them.

The orange cat glanced briefly at the three of them. Midnight swore he saw a glimpse of contempt flash in the orange cat's eyes.

Matsuo quickly greeted the orange cat. "Matcha, you're done with your business? Have the toilets been clean recently? Are you comfortable with using them?"

Seeing the attitude of this cat, Midnight frowned and said, "What's this cat's background? He looks so annoying."

Matsuo immediately straightened his back and said, "This is Lord Matcha, Boss' favorite cat. Remember that guys. Don't ever offend him."

Seeing that Matcha was already far away, Matsuo said in a low voice, "This cat is very petty and loves complaining to Zhao Yao, so be careful around him."

The trio's faces fell at his words. Their worth would never be equal to that of a cat here.

As their senior, Matsuo reminded them, "Remember, don't say he's just an orange cat. You must call him a Jianghai Scottish Fold or he'll get angry."

Midnight pursed his lips and said, "Surely there's no need to be so careful."

"What do you know," Matsuo chided. "Remember, after you enter this place, forget your past status, experience, and background, those mean nothing here. We are like the ants in this place, the lowest of the low. We can't afford to offend any of our cat masters. We must be careful with everything that we do and must always be."

Midnight did not believe him, "It can't be that dangerous."

Right at this moment, a ray of black light sliced through the sky.

In the next moment, an explosion was heard as a steel column hit a container near the border, leaving a big hole.

"Sorry, sorry, my paws slipped," Sphinx cat said as he walked towards the container. He tore apart the metal board of the container with one swipe of his paws to retrieve the steel column.

Dust was all that was left of the steel column. All he did was lightly pinch the steel dust as if he was making noodles for the steel column to revert to its original shape.

Elizabeth rolled her eyes. “What’s up with Sphynx cat? Why is he so distracted nowadays? He keeps making mistakes when training. He wouldn’t be able to pay the price if he accidentally kills me like that.”

“Sister, don’t be angry,” Diana said with her phone in her mouth, “Look, the fur on your head is messy now. Fix it before the live stream later.”

Midnight and his trio were dumbstruck by Sphynx cat. Lang Gou pointed at the muscular cat walking on its two hind legs and turned to Matsuo as he said, “What the heck, that is also a cat?”

“That’s why I told you guys to be careful,” Matsuo said ominously. “Most of the supercats here can easily kill you guys. Alright, time to start cleaning.”

Midnight, Old K, and Lang Gou had never felt like their futures were so bleak before.

When Zhao Yao reached Jianghai University, he checked his phone and realized that Zhao Xue had already replied.

Zhao Xue: “Brother, I’m not in school. You won’t find me even if you go there.”

Zhao Yao raged, texting back, “Then where did you go? I must bring you with me this time. My enemy is after my life now. I can’t let you run around outside.”

“I’m not running around.” Zhao Xue, who was on the Cat Island in their parents’ house hastily typed, “I am in a very safe place now. Don’t worry and don’t go to my school to look for me and make a fuss.”

Zhao Yao stared at Zhao Xue’s reply suspiciously. His sharp intuition told him that something was not right. “Zhao Xue, are you hiding something from me?”

“No. Anyway, I’m fine... Don’t worry about me.”

Zhao Yao's eyes flashed as he thought about Zhao Xue's behavior. Hiding from me, not wanting to see me in school, rejecting my requests for photos or videos and saying that she is in a safe place...

Zhao Yao's heart sank. Don't tell me Zhao Xue is pregnant? Must be that she met some b*stard who knocked her up, so now she refuses to see me, Dad, and Mum now and even went into hiding...

Don't tell me she wants to give birth to the baby?!

It must be so or else she wouldn't be hiding and refusing to see me, not even telling us anything. Don't tell me that guy already left her?

"Ah!!" Zhao Yao slammed his palm on the floor. "Disgusting! Which b*stard dared do that to my sister? I'm going to tear him apart."

Zhao Yao's thoughts became nastier by the minute and all sorts of scenarios appeared in his mind.

He wanted to text Zhao Xue immediately to confirm his suspicions with her, but he stopped halfway as he realized, "No if I ask her directly, she will definitely not admit it. She might even cut off contact with me. What if she goes to some unlicensed clinic and both lives are lost..."

At the thought of this, Zhao Yao took a deep breath, "Calm down, Zhao Yao, you must stay calm. A university student with pre-marital pregnancy is a very common, very natural occurrence..."

"Natural my ass!" Zhao Yao furiously kicked the stone pier beside him, inviting curious stares from the university students afar.

Seeing the stares from the university students, Zhao Yao scolded them, "What are you staring at? Remember to wear condoms when you have sex or your family members will be very worried."

After ranting, Zhao Yao sighed and pulled a long face. He felt that this was more tiring than the big battle he had just fought against Old K and his men.

"No, as an older brother, how can I just stand by and watch when my own sister is in trouble?"

“Zhao Xue will definitely do something silly if I ask her. I should ask her friends. They might just know where she’s hiding.”

When Zhao Xue saw that Zhao Yao had stopped replying, she sighed to herself in relief, thinking that he had given up on finding her.

Three hours later, Zhao Xue was lying in her mother’s arms as her mother massaged her shoulders and head. She closes her eyes in bliss as she sighed contentedly.

Suddenly, a string of message notifications sprung up and made her phone ring incessantly. Zhao Xue sat up lazily and stretched her back before walking to check her phone.

Mama Zhao was amused by this scene. “So many people want to get in touch with our supercats, they’re so cute.”

Zhao Xue was shocked when she saw the messages her friends had sent.

“Zhao Xue, you’re getting married?”

“Zhao Xue, you’re pregnant?”

“Zhao Xue, you’re about to give birth?”

Zhao Xue exploded with anger and wagged her tail vigorously as she huffed in anger, “Who is it? Who is spreading these rumors about me? Ahhh! I’m so angry!!”

“I will tear him apart!”

Chapter 618: The Threat and the Chase

“This is slander! Blatant slander!” Zhao Xue shook with anger, meowing menacingly as she read the string of messages sent to her.

“Despicable. At this rate, I might just become a headline in the local newspapers!”

On his side, Zhao Yao was chatting with a female university student. He said worriedly, “What should I do with Zhao Xue now that she’s pregnant and alone with no money and no one to take care of her? You really don’t know where she is?”

“Zhao Xue is pregnant? I didn’t know that,” the female student gasped.

Zhao Yao sighed again, “Looks like Zhao Xue really loves that man. She didn’t even tell any of you. That foolish girl, it’s not as if I would separate them from each other if she had been honest with me, right?”

Right at that moment, Zhao Yao’s phone rang. His eyes brightened as the caller was actually Zhao Xue. He answered the call immediately and heard an ear-splitting scream hollering at him, “Zhao Yao! Do you want to die?! Why did you spread such nonsensical rumors about me being pregnant!”

At that moment, Zhao Xue was completely naked as she ran into the forest on Cat Island. She turned into the form of a girl temporarily to make the call.

As her cat body grew, the amount of time she could turn into a human body extended such that she could take on her human form for 30 minutes every day.

Zhao Xue deliberately assumed human form to lash out at Zhao Yao, “You better go and explain to my friends and tell them that whatever you said to them just now is nonsense!”

Zhao Yao replied, “Zhao Xue, where exactly are you? You’re really not pregnant? Then why are you avoiding me?”

“I!” Zhao Xue screamed, “I am traveling. It’s none of your business.”

Zhao Yao immediately replied, "Then come back right now. Your brother, aka me, offended his archenemy. Leaving you alone outside is too dangerous."

"I have my own things to settle here," Zhao Xue said, "I won't be able to come back for now."

Zhao Yao's eyelids fluttered ever so slightly as he scoffed, "Zhao Xue if you don't come back, I will just continue asking around your school for your whereabouts, especially since you're pregnant."

"Zhao Yao!" Zhao Xue flared up immediately, "Don't you dare!"

Zhao Yao gripped his chin as he said, "Asking everyone one by one is too inefficient... Should I just ask on your school forum then!?"

"Ahhhh!" Zhao Xue screamed before her tone suddenly changed as she said sweetly, "Zhao Yao, don't bully your sister anymore alright? I will treat you to a meal once I'm back."

"No, if I don't see you within a day, I will make my move," Zhao Yao threatened. "Hmm, speaking of which, I still have your bed photos from high school. What do you think will happen if I send them out?"

Zhao Xue immediately remembered the time when she was in high school and two of them were still living together. Although the photo was not a very scandalous one, it was enough to let people's imagination run wild.

When she heard Zhao Yao's words, Zhao Xue immediately cried out, "Zhao Yao don't you dare! If you do that, I will post photos of you wearing Mum's clothes when you were young."

Zhao Yao forced out a laugh as he said, "Big deal, most people have worn one or two items of their mother's clothing when they were young."

"Anyway Zhao Xue, just remember, if I don't see you in 24 hours, be prepared to regret your choice."

Looking at the hung up call, Zhao Xue was filled with rage. She wanted to scratch Zhao Yao to death.

“Despicable, this guy is so despicable!” Zhao Xue was troubled. “What should I do? Should I meet Zhao Yao in my human form? But I only have half an hour’s time, if I’m exposed wouldn’t that be really embarrassing? No matter what, it won’t be worse than the current situation. I just need to pacify Zhao Yao within half an hour and all will be well.”

At the thought of that, Zhao Xue immediately sent a message to Zhao Yao to meet tomorrow at his cat café.

Zhao Yao glanced at the message and nodded his head when he saw that his sister had given in. “That’s more like it. If not for King of Death’s threats, I wouldn’t force you like this. Blame it on King of Death.”

Thinking of King of Death, Zhao Yao quickly found a secluded spot to return to the Extradimensional Belly. He was going to find Elizabeth to feed her a spicy cat strip to see if she could deal with King of Death after her transformation.

While Zhao Yao was thinking about how to deal with King of Death, in the southern Huadu district, King of Death had also mobilized all of Ivory to form a huge army that trained apostles in preparation for the battle against Zhao Yao.

“Adam has been activated and is currently in the process of awakening.”

“Doll has been escorted to the factory.”

“All kinds of internet access must be banned in the factory. All hardware must have an indicator lower than 3.”

“Our American counterpart has agreed to add a meteorite to the transaction, but they requested...”

“Agree to all their requests as long as they give us the meteorite.”

Ivory had been growing its influence peacefully with the unique nature of King of Death’s powers. After all, in the eyes of King of Death, as long as he grew his power he would eventually conquer the world.

However, the Headless Horseman represented a real threat to his life. Hence, King of Death abandoned his past considerations and activated every dangerous power he had. He armed masses of apostles to form an unparalleled elite superpower army in the South.

They had only one objective:

...

Zhao Yao walked to a remote alley and with a turn of his body, disappeared from the physical world and returned to the Extradimensional Belly.

Not long after Zhao Yao disappeared, two pairs of cat ears emerged from the high wall behind the alley.

“Can you still hear his voice?”

“No, I can’t. Where did he go?”

After a while, a pair of big yellow eyes peered out from the wall. Glancing at the empty alley, the orange Dragon Li screamed, “Bad news, Yellow Bro! That man has disappeared.”

“Huh? Disappeared?” Another Dragon Li peered out of the wall and shouted, “How is that possible? We have been following him all along meow.” Seeing the empty alley, he cried out in despair, “Ah Yuan, we lost him.”

The orange cat, Ah Yuan said, “Just now he went around trying to find out about Zhao Xue. He might just know where Zhao Xue is. Let’s go and find out who he is.”

Yellow Bro agreed grudgingly, “That’s the only thing we can do. Hope Zhao Xue hasn’t been caught by Professor Xu.”

As they said that, the two orange cats had already leapt across to the roof of the other building.

Ah Yuan landed on the edge of the rooftop. Yellow Bro followed behind him and jumped, but he missed the edge by just a few centimeters. He fell from midair.

Ah Yuan remarked, “Yellow Bro, you ate too much. You can’t even jump over such a small distance.”

“Meow!” Yellow Bro drooled as he replied, “Desserts are too yummy, meow. Let’s go eat cheesecake again tonight!”

Chapter 619: Charm and the Scarf

Upon returning to the Extradimensional Belly, Zhao Yao wanted to find Elizabeth to feed her a spicy cat strip.

He fed her one and an explosion with white smoke occurred as a long, white and furry scarf appeared on the ground.

Zhao Yao grabbed the scarf and ran his hands through it. It felt like numerous Elizabeth tails merged into one.

Zhao Yao understood that the gear a cat transformed into after taking a spicy cat strip would have slightly different powers from the original cat. He wanted to experiment with the scarf to test its powers.

First, he tried to cast the power of illusion but soon realized that they did not work. Zhao Yao then tried to use mind control on others but that failed as well.

“Eh? Both mind control and illusion powers are gone?” Zhao Yao stroked his chin and thought it was strange.

At that moment, he suddenly realized that more than 10 supercats had gathered around him.

Cannon (the Japanese cat with the virgin boy power) stared squarely at Zhao Yao and replied, “Nothing much. Just came here to look at you, handsome.”

Zhao Yao was delighted by his words and laughed out, “What are you saying, who taught you that. What an obedient little cat.” As he said that, he stretched out his hand and ruffled Cannon’s head.

Cannon was delighted when Zhao Yao patted his head. Seeing this, the supercats around them squeezed closer to them and started meowing at Zhao Yao.

Uncle Egg bumped his head repeatedly against Zhao Yao, “Zhao Yao! Pat my head please.”

Dust Ball also ran to Zhao Yao’s feet and bumped against his calf as he said, “Pat me! Zhao Yao pat my head please!”

“What’s happening?” Zhao Yao stared at the crowd of cats curiously, “Why are they all being so coy today.”

At that moment, Elizabeth’s voice rang in Zhao Yao’s head, “Zhao Yao, look in the mirror.”

“Look in the mirror?” Zhao Yao’s eyes flashed before he regained his senses. He walked to the mirror and saw a strikingly handsome young man wearing a fox tail-like scarf. It was as if a deity had walked straight out from a painting.

“This is me?” Zhao Yao stared at his reflection in astonishment and touched his face, “My looks haven’t changed much, but why does it feel like my charm has increased by so much?”

He leaned on the mirror and inspected the sides of his face, forehead, and chin, “D*mn, I’m so handsome now. What will I do if I wake up to this handsome self every day?”

Elizabeth really wanted to roll her eyes, so she said, “I think it’s my power. After I turned into a scarf, I guess my power turned into increasing a person’s charm. Appearance wise there seems to be no change, but you just look much more pleasing to the eye. Hehe, looks like your charm has increased by quite a lot.”

Elizabeth continued anxiously, “Okay we’re done. Now that you know what my power is you can turn me back now.”

“Are you kidding me?” Zhao Yao suddenly took on a righteous tone, “Superpowers are such a deep and mysterious thing. How can you come to a conclusion in just a few minutes? I think I need to experiment with the scarf more to see what effect it truly has. What if there’s some danger to it?”

“Ah?” Elizabeth replied, “But…”

“No buts,” Zhao Yao walked towards the dimension portal gleefully as he continued wearing the scarf, “This scarf’s power is too dubious. We need to experiment with it properly.”

As he said that, he had already stepped out of the dimension doorway and entered the cat café.

When he appeared in the cat café lobby, the first person he saw was Xiao Shiyu. Seeing how Xiao Shiyu stared at him, Zhao Yao smiled slightly.

What surprised him next was how Xiao Shiyu immediately turned red when he smiled at her and lowered her head, not daring to look at him again.

“It’s that powerful?” He raised his eyebrows as he walked around the cat café in delight, secretly pleased with his new power.

At that moment, he felt himself become the center of attraction in the cat café. The customers in the cat café and every female there, including university students, high school students, office ladies, nurses, policewomen, and many others, were all somewhat attracted to his presence.

One lady was bold enough to stare seductively at Zhao Yao and licked her lips as if she was a female leopard that had spotted her prey.

Elizabeth was not amused, “Okay, that’s enough, right. It’s really just increasing your charm. It’s a very obvious power.”

“No, Elizabeth you’re too careless,” Zhao Yao said. “These customers are all familiar people. It’s not their first time seeing me, so it’s very normal for them to be attracted to my male hormones. We should try it out on strangers.”

Just then, that bold lady walked over and said to Zhao Yao, “Boss, you look very handsome today.” As she said that, she stroked the scarf hanging from Zhao Yao’s neck and said, “Spring is already coming to an end but you’re still wearing a scarf, how fashionable.”

Zhao Yao took two steps back as he felt a little embarrassed, “Hehe... I’m scared of the cold.”

The lady continued, “Boss, let’s have dinner together tonight?”

“No... No thank you, I have something tonight.” Looking at her and the other girls around him staring at him seductively, Zhao Yao quickly walked out of the cat café as he said, “I have to go now. Enjoy yourselves.”

Zhao Yao heaved a sigh of relief after coming out of the cat café. Elizabeth, who was hanging on his neck, asked, “Zhao Yao, what’s wrong? Didn’t you always wish for girls to notice you?”

“What do you know, I prefer the passive type,” Zhao Yao walked on the streets and immediately sensed his attractiveness as people around him kept turning back to look at him. Five girls added him on WeChat and three boys asked him for his phone number. Seven girls asked him for directions on the streets. More than 10 girls secretly took photos of him, which they deleted after a few hours and went to get their eyes checked.

Of course, quite a few aunties gave him things to eat and wanted to introduce their daughters to him.

After shaking off all those people, Zhao Yao sat down by roadside shrubs holding a plate of desserts. Glancing at the aunty who gave it to him, he swallowed it in one bite and sighed, "You can really do anything as long as you're handsome."

At that moment, Zhao Yao suddenly felt that the world was so beautiful, people were so kind, and everyone was so nice to him.

Elizabeth sighed, "We're done, right? Isn't our experiment to test if we can deal with King of Death?"

Zhao Yao touched the scarf on his neck and said, "Hmm, is it possible for me to use this power against King of Death? It's not a decisive power though."

Zhao Yao thought about what it would be like if King of Death and the thousands of people under his control started liking him and decided that it was too troublesome for him to handle. As he thought of that, he finished the desserts and put the empty plate down beside him.

At that moment, an office lady who passed by gave Zhao Yao a 10 dollar note as she said, "You're so handsome. Don't be a beggar. Go find a job quickly."

"What the heck?" Zhao stared as the empty plate was filled with more than 100 dollars in a span of 10 minutes. He looked at the 16 spicy cat strips he had left, "I really have to complete more missions to draw more ten-combos and get more spicy cat strips."

Zhao Yao continued with the aggressive promotion of catmint and sent out even more supercats to open more channels elsewhere.

Since the poisonous catmint source had been destroyed, it stopped spreading around. However, the supercats who were already hooked on it fell into misery and suffering overnight.

Chapter 620: Passing through Dimension Portal

On her second day in the Extradimensional Belly, Zhao Xue walked carefully among the cats. Every stare from the cats would make her extremely nervous as if they were going to assault her.

“My chastity cannot be smeared while I’m a cat.” Zhao Xue’s big eyes looked at every cat in the Extradimensional Belly warily. According to her experience, the private lives of wild cats could be very messy. These supercats were not sterilized so they were just as bad. Her previous chat with Lightning had reinforced her impression of the cats.

Zhao Xue would not enter the Extradimensional Belly had she have had a choice as she was worried she might be assaulted by the supercats here. She had become weaker after transforming into a kitten as she was without any supernatural abilities.

If faced with danger, she could temporarily transform into a human to fight for half an hour. However, she would not be clothed in human form, so unless forced to, she would not transform back into a human rashly.

“Today, I have to think of a way to leave, find Zhao Yao’s cat café and meet with him. However, I have tried the three Dimension Portals here in vain. I have to think of solutions.”

As Zhao Xue was contemplating her options, Airplane brought along a group of Royal Cat guards. They swaggered through the city seeking attention. Cats backed off when they saw them.

Ever since Airplane had proposed his plan to Zhao Yao to set up an intelligence task force and received a huge sum of funding, the Royal Cat guards had become most powerful in the Cat Nation.

At this instant, Airplane saw Zhao Xue in the distance. Her fur was glossy and figure slender. His eyes brightened as he asked, “Such a beautiful kitten, how come I have never seen her before?”

“My Lord seems like a new cat.”

Airplane said, “Go, let’s go take a look!”

In the other corner of the Extradimensional Belly, Matcha was holding his handphone and studying his learning materials without stopping.

Fish Ball was beside him and peeked at the screen. Seeing a screen full of words, he felt dizzy and immediately asked, "Matcha, what book are you reading? Aren't you supposed to be carrying bricks today?"

Matcha stacked his paws and lay his head on them. With a serious face, he was reading the Rebirth Counterattack: Extermination of the Deities and Buddhas series on his handphone screen. He responded, "As a strong warrior, I am currently researching how to improve my disposition and fashion style. Do not disrupt my learning."

At this time, the scream of a supercat rang from a distance.

Matcha and Fish Ball lifted their heads and saw Airplane with a group of his cats surrounding a female cat.

"Little rat? Where is my little rat?" Airplane walked around the female cat and smiled perversely, "Cat sister, have you hidden my little rat?"

The Royal Cat guards surrounded both Zhao Xue and Airplane like four walls.

"Why am I not able to find my little rat?" Airplane slowly edged closer to Zhao Xue and said with a twisted face, "Is my little rat hidden under your buttocks? Let me see quickly. Don't suffocate him."

Zhao Xue's eyes flashed coldly. As she was considering whether to make her move, a voice rang, "Stop!"

An orange flash preceded Matcha retracting a pair of cat paws, appearing behind Airplane and then standing up slowly.

Ah! Airplane screamed and immediately flew out. His whole body trembled as though he had been given a series of beatings.

Matcha turned to face the dumbfounded Zhao Xue, smiled and said, "Do not worry miss, with me around, I will not allow tomcats to bully female cats."

Airplane lifted his head. His swollen eyes glared at the orange cat. He furiously roared, "Matcha! Why did you hit me?"

“Insignificant ant.” Matcha aimed his back at Airplane, reminding himself not to turn his head and simultaneously saying, “I, Matcha, do not need to explain my actions to you.”

Airplane was bewildered and said, “What are you saying? I am asking you why you hit me.”

“Shut up.” The back of Matcha’s head still faced Airplane and he said grimly, “You do not understand how powerful I currently am. My supernatural ability is beyond your imagination.”

“Your supernatural ability is freezing time for 12 seconds, that I know.” Airplane opened his mouth, thought about Matcha’s words and finally said, “And I am asking you why you hit me.”

Bam! Airplane flew out and rolled on the ground more than ten times before coming to a halt.

Because of the effect of Time Freeze, Matcha flashed on the spot as he shook his head saying, “In this world... another contamination.”

Airplane looked at Matcha’s head, his mouth full of blood and said, “Didn’t you turn your head to look at me when time froze? I saw the shadow of your silly smile.”

“Hehe.” Matcha clenched his paws angrily and coldly said, “When did you have hallucinations of me turning my head?”

“D*mn cat.” Airplane said perplexed, “Do you know cat language? I am asking you, why did you hit me?!”

At this moment, Zhao Xue shyly raised up her paws and said, “Hey, apologies, the little rat was underneath my buttocks when I sat down.” She looked at the little rat toy on the ground and said, “I’m really sorry. I’ll go first.”

Matcha stroked his head with his right paw, stuck out his tongue cutely and said, “Good to have found it.”

Airplane turned his head from the little rat and looked at Matcha, however, he had disappeared.

“D*mn. Catch that Matcha and beat him to death!”

The surrounding Royal Cat guards acted on their orders. They went in all directions like flood water looking for traces of Matcha.

In the meantime, Zhao Xue lightly exhaled as she arrived in front of Elizabeth. “Greetings, are you Elizabeth from the cat café?”

Elizabeth lifted her head, looked at Zhao Xue and asked, “What is it?”

“I heard that I have to join cat café section in order to leave the Dimension Portal...”

“A cat like you wants to join cat café section?” Elizabeth sneered and said, “Your fur isn’t fully grown yet, we’ll talk again once you become an adult. We do not keep underaged cats.

Our cat café is a proper cat café. Every cat has a regular body checkup and bath and is voluntary. If people find out that our cat café allows underaged cats to be played with, it will reflect badly on us.”

Zhao Xue was speechless.

“I may appear small in size, however, I am already a grown up.”

After persuading her for a long time, Zhao Xue managed to join the cat café section. She went to find Dustball for permission and finally left the Extradimensional Belly.

After that, Zhao Xue escaped from the cat café and stole a set of clothing with difficulty. Feeling relieved, she transformed back to human form and wore the clothing.
