

Am I A God 621

Chapter 621

At the cat café entrance.

Two orange cats, one fat and one slim squat opposite the cat café, fixing their gaze on it.

The fat one, Yellow Bro said, “So that man is the owner of this cat café?”

The slim one, Ah Yuan replied, “Yes, his name is Zhao Yao. He’s Zhao Xue’s brother. Smith died at Jiang Hai University. Zhao Xue’s clothing and student pass were found where he last was before he died. So he must have given the medicine to Zhao Xue, who transformed and escaped successfully.”

At this point, Ah Yuan became serious and said, “Professor Xu most probably had discovered the truth. We have to beat them in finding Zhao Xue.”

Yellow Bro did not speak. She only drooled while looking at the food of the cat café’s customers. “Ah Yuan, what are we having for lunch?”

“Eat, eat and eat, you only know about eating.” Ah Yuan slapped Yellow Bro’s fat head in anger. “This a matter of life and death regarding the human race. Be more serious! We are saving the world!”

Yellow Bro’s head rested on the ground, her big eyes looked very sad as she said, “I am hungry.”

At this instant, Ah Yuan’s gaze brightened. “She’s coming!”

In the distance, on the streets, Zhao Xue wore an ill-fitting T-shirt and jeans and walked towards the cat café furiously.

Ah Yuan’s eyes lit up as she said, “She mastered the technique of transforming into a human in such a short time? That is formidable. Let’s go Yellow Bro, we will find her.”

Meanwhile, Zhao Xue walked into the cat café. She swept her gaze over the humans and cats in the cat café. However, there were no signs of Zhao Yao.

Bai Quan approached and asked, “Greetings, Miss, is this your first time?”

“Uh, I am looking for Zhao Yao, I am his sister.”

“Oh?” Bai Quan was surprised on hearing and sized up Zhao Xue before asking, “Blood-sister?”

Zhao Xue frowned and said, “Blood-sister.”

Bai Quan was even more astonished. He nodded his head and said, “Please come in and take a seat. Recently, boss has not been in the cat café during the day. However, before the end of the workday, he will come back. Do play with the cats while waiting for him.”

He could not resist sizing up Zhao Xue and thought, “How does boss have such a pretty sister? Genes are... indeed intriguing.”

Meanwhile, Zhao Xue was fuming as she sat down and she thought, “Zhao Yao dares to be late even though an appointment has been fixed? My transformation will only last half an hour. What if he does not return by that time? Even worse, if he comes back in the middle of my transformation...”

Zhao Xue became more vexed the more she thought about it. At this time, a Persian cat walked in front of her, tilted its head and looked at her meekly.

As an undergraduate who often fed stray cats, Zhao Xue naturally liked to play with cats. Seeing such an adorable cat at her legs, she was tempted and grabbed the Persian cat, cuddling its head and back. Moreover, due to the mysterious effect of the Sound Field Therapy in the air, Zhao Xue felt her vexation gradually calming down.

Her ears slightly quivered and she heard a soft voice saying, “This woman does not order any drinks after cuddling for so long, is she thinking of getting a free pass?”

“Huh? Zhao Xue furrowed her brows and looked around as she thought, “Who is speaking?”

“Look at her raggy clothes. Don’t think she can order much stuff.”

Zhao Xue immediately reacted. “It is this cat!” She was shocked. “Yes, this is the territory of the cat café section. Are the cats who work here supercats? As a human, am I able to understand cat language?”

She heard the same soft voice again, saying, “Why is this woman staring at me? Forget it, let me act cute and see if I can squeeze some money out from her.”

Looking at the widening eyes, tilted head and adorable face of the Persian cat, Zhao Xue abruptly felt a creepy chill. She flung her hand and put the Persian cat on the ground.

Once she understood cat language, she could no longer enjoy cuddling cats. Looking at the glances of the supercats, Zhao Xue felt they were after her money.

She heard a thump and Zhao Xue’s ears quivered. She turned around to see two orange cats, one fat and one slim, lying on the cat café’s window sill. The slim cat widened his eyes to look at her while the fat one was drooling and gazing at the milkshake on the table.

Seeing the two orange cats, Zhao Xue thought, “Stray cats looking for food?”

In the next moment, she heard the voice of a female kid ringing in her head. “Zhao Xue! Quickly follow us! You are in danger!”

“Hey? Supercats?” Zhao Xue looked curiously at the two orange cats. “Do they know me?”

The slim orange cat patted on the windows with her paws, looking worried. “Do you hear us? Zhao Xue! Quickly follow us. You are able to transform into a cat, aren’t you? An organization is coming after you. If you do not wish to let your parents and brother fall into danger, quickly follow us!”

On hearing the words, Zhao Xue’s face changed. “You know about my cat transformation?” She opened her mouth to speak subconsciously and the message rang in the mind of her target. She had learnt subconsciously to communicate with supercats after her cat transformation.

That orange cat received Zhao Xue's message, curled up her whiskers and nodded incessantly. "Yes, the organization that discovered the cat transformation medicine is an evil group that is perverting the entire world. You have to follow us immediately. If they discover that you are still alive, they will wipe out you and your kin."

After hearing this, Zhao Xue's chest tightened. "But I am still waiting for my brother."

"Do not wait for your brother. If you meet him, you will harm him." The orange slim cat continued to coax, "Quickly, follow us before it is too late. They will arrive at any time."

Zhao Xue hesitated for a while, then her eyes filled with resolution. Although she didn't know if the orange slim cat was telling the truth, her cat transformation left her only one choice—to follow them.

Half an hour later, Zhao Yao walked out from the Dimension Portal, which was located in the storeroom upstairs. He heard Bai Quan saying, "Boss, your sister just came to look for you, however, she just left."

"Huh? Left?" Zhao Yao furrowed his brows and opened up his phone to contact Zhao Xue, only to find a message from her.

"Something's popped up, let's meet again."

Chapter 622: Cat Transformation

Zhao Yao was vexed after reading Zhao Xue's message. He was treating the addiction of the supercats and his sister had left just when he returned.

Zhao Yao immediately replied, "If you don't come here, I will go to the forum to confront you with evidence."

"Something really popped up." Zhao Xue texted Zhao Yao. Her tone was extremely solemn. "Zhao Yao, I have an important matter to attend to. Give me some time. I will explain everything to you when I return."

Zhao Yao said perplexed, "Is it related to supercats? Let me help you. My abilities are extremely powerful, I am..."

Zhao Yao wanted to reveal that he was the Headless Horseman. However, he remembered that Zhao Xue had the impression that the Headless Horseman was a woman. So he finally said, "Anyway, I am extremely powerful. More powerful than all the apostles that you know. If you have problems, look for me. I am able to help."

"I know that you are powerful." Zhao Xue smiled as she shook her head while replying, "This matter is not related to abilities so you are unable to help. Brother, give me some time."

Recognizing the solemnity of her tone, Zhao Yao understood that she was resolute.

After texting her brother, Zhao Xue looked at the two orange cats leading her and said, "What you just said, is that the truth?"

"Of course!" The slim Ah Yuan said, "We will teach you our transformation ability and you will be able to transform into a cat and human at will. In that case, Professor Xu and the rest will not be able to find you. You do not understand your true value. A person like you, who survived the cat transformation medicine, is rare. The odds are one in a thousand."

Zhao Xue nodded. She was most concerned about the cat transformation issue. This, according to her, was a huge problem with the highest priority.

As long as she could solve this problem and no longer transform into a cat or at least have the ability to transform at will in between her human and cat forms, then the rest were secondary.

Meanwhile, as Zhao Xue's brother, Zhao Yao naturally could not carry out his threat of going to the Jianghai University to blackmail her. He looked helplessly at the portrait of Zhao Xue on his screen and sighed. "Well, my sister has grown up. She doesn't listen to her brother anymore."

Shaking his head, Zhao Yao thought for a while before summoning Sphinx cat to sniff out Zhao Xue's scent in the cat café. This was to track Zhao Xue using her scent.

The man and his cat trailed after Zhao Xue's scent and arrived at an alley, only to find a T-shirt and jeans at the dead end.

Sphinx cat looked at the clothing and said, “The scent ends here.” He furrowed his brows. “Very strange, I have never encountered a situation like this before.”

Zhao Yao was puzzled and said, “Ends? How can it be? Is it a change of clothing? Even if it is a change of clothing, there should still be a scent left behind.”

“Completely no scent at all.” Sphinx cat was puzzled and said, “There are the scents of three cats. Two of the scents were there the whole way.”

“Oh?” Zhao Yao’s eyes brightened. “Follow them.”

Zhao Yao and Sphinx cat, along with Roly Poly, who was following Zhao Yao for 24 hours, tracked the scent of the two cats under the cloak of invisibility.

Their traveling speed was much faster than that of the ones they tracked. It was not long before they arrived at the aqueduct and saw the three cats.

Zhao Yao’s eyes flashed momentarily. “Are they the ones?”

Sphinx cat nodded his head and said, “The scent of the two orange cats... correct. They have been following Zhao Xue along the way.”

Zhao Yao nodded his head and activated the Deflective Field for protection. Simultaneously, he captured the three cats and held them in mid-air, while revealing himself and asking, “What kind of cats are you? Where is Zhao Xue?”

Seeing the sudden appearance of Zhao Yao, Zhao Xue got frightened and immediately turned her face so that he would not recognize her.

Ah Yuan and Yellow Bro were indifferent as Zhao Yao was Zhao Xue’s brother and they were far away from the cat café. Moreover, Zhao Xue had transformed into her cat form. The Professor would not be able to find Zhao Xue.

After hearing Zhao Yao's question, Ah Yuan pointed to Zhao Xue at the side and said, "Zhao Xue is here."

Zhao Yao lifted his brow and looked at Zhao Xue's supposed position and said bewilderedly, "Really 'Zhao Xue'? 'Zhao Xue', why are you here? Why are you messing with these wild cats?" He recognized this cat. It was the cat that Dad and Mum had raised and its name was also "Zhao Xue".

Zhao Xue immediately reacted and said after exhaling, "They... They are my friends. We were taking a walk."

"A walk?" Zhao Yao looked at her suspiciously. "Taking a walk outside of the Extradimensional Belly?"

Zhao Xue immediately said, "I am already part of the cat café section. I previously worked in the cat café."

"Working in the cat café... When are you allowed to come out?" Zhao Yao's gaze on the little cat was filled with increasing suspicion. This cat was very dubious.

"Well? From his tone, does Zhao Yao know that Zhao Xue is a cat?" Ah Yuan tilted her head and thought, "And the sister is working in her brother's shop? His tone seems pretty stern."

Zhao Yao put aside the matters relating to his family cat and looked at the two orange cats with the lingering scent. "Where is my sister? She was with both of you just now."

Ah Yuan looked puzzled and said, "Isn't Zhao Xue here? You were chatting with her just now." She pointed to Zhao Xue again.

"I know Zhao Xue is here." Zhao Yao said, "I am asking, where is my sister? You were in the alley just now. Did you see her? Do not lie. My friend told me. Your scents were together along the way."

Ah Yuan was speechless.

"Hehe, very good, a challenge... I like challenges." Zhao Yao took out a tool bag from his chest and removed from the bag a water gun, trimmer, scissors and masking tape...

Whenever an item was taken out, Ah Yuan's body would quiver without reason, feeling an ominous aura coming from the objects.

Ah Yuan screamed. "What are you going to do?"

"Hehehehe." Zhao Yao laughed and caressed the water gun and trimmer at the same time. He picked up the scissors and aimed at Ah Yuan's fur, posing here and there. "Where shall I cut first? If you tell me the whereabouts of my sister Zhao Xue, I will let you off."

Ah Yuan roared, "She is Zhao Xue! Isn't Zhao Xue here? D*mn it! You just chatted with her!"

"Humph! You're stubborn!" The cold ray in Zhao Yao's eyes flashed and he advanced towards Ah Yuan's buttocks, preparing to trim the fur.

"No!" At this moment, Ah Yuan's body emitted a dazzling light, blinding the eyes of Zhao Yao.

When the light faded, a teenager girl with cat ears, of about fourteen to fifteen years old, stood in front of Zhao Yao. The important areas of her body were covered by cat fur, only revealing smooth and glossy skin in the exposed areas.

After consuming the cat transformation medicine and having mastered the transformation ability, a human was able to achieve the half human, half cat fighting mode.

Chapter 623: Half Cat

Zhao Yao was dumbfounded as he watched, his hand still holding the scissors.

Meow! The feline girl roared and her eyes narrowed to a single line. Her extreme shame was transformed into vicious fury as she activated her ability.

Boom! Psychokinetic energy erupted from her body and smashed onto Zhao Yao's body like waves crashing down on the rocks. However, the attack was unable to penetrate the Deflective Field.

Meanwhile, after a meow and flash, Yellow Bro transformed into a little feline girl of over ten years old. She also activated her Psychokinesis to attack Zhao Yao.

With the combination of both Psychokinesis, Zhao Yao was slightly surprised that the energy level was on par with his base level Deflective Field. However, the combination was unable to bypass the current Deflective Field.

After deflecting this wave of attack easily, Zhao Yao looked with embarrassment at the two feline girls. He glanced at his scissors and discovered a tuft of orange fur.

Zhao Yao immediately hid the orange fur and asked, “Is this your supernatural ability? Transforming into humans? Why are you Psychokinetic? Do you have the ability to use multiple powers simultaneously?”

“We are originally humans!” Ah Yuan was red-faced and glared furiously at Zhao Yao. Her ears quivered as she said, “We consumed the cat transformation medicine as humans and acquired the ability to become cats!”

“Cat transformation medicine? So they have such gimmicks?” Looking at both cat-eared girls, Zhao Yao smiled as he said, “Good stuff.”

Ah Yuan and Yellow Bro displayed their fangs and claws as though they were protesting cats and glared at Zhao Yao. “Release us immediately!”

Zhao Yao shook his head and said, “That I cannot do. You have to tell me, where my sister Zhao Xue went.”

“So we have said!” Ah Yuan was so agitated that the ears were flattened down and the tail was swaying violently. “Zhao Xue is here... you’re wrong...” She immediately reacted and said, “If you don’t know about the cat transformation medicine, then why were you and Zhao Xue...”

Zhao Yao also realized what was happening instantly and looked in astonishment at Zhao Xue. “You!” Recalling how he did body checkups and temperature measurements on her, especially the memories of how he trained her, gave Zhao Yao a throbbing headache.

Zhao Xue was agitated and her emotions were on a roller coaster. She was the cat girl in front of Zhao Yao. Once Zhao Yao realized what she was, she was so emotionally affected that she transformed with a bang, emitting brilliant rays and changing into a white cat-eared girl.

Looking at her changes, Zhao Xue yelled and covered her chest. Although it was covered by cat fur and nothing could be seen, she still felt a sense of shame.

Especially seeing Zhao Yao's astonished gaze fixated on her. She immediately hollered, "Don't look!"

Zhao Yao stroked his chin and said, "Pretty good, cat-eared girl, better looking than your previous self."

Zhao Xue gnashed her teeth and yelled, "Zhao Yao! You are tired of living."

Ah Yuan and Yellow Bro looked at Zhao Xue joyfully and said, "Zhao Xue, you managed to transform into half cat half human form, you are a cat transformation genius."

Zhao Xue rolled her eyes and said, "Genius... pooh! Who wants to be this kind of a genius, quickly tell me how to change back."

Roly Poly, who was watching the show all the time, commented with both his eyes shining, "Too d*mn exciting."

Ah Yuan shook her head and said, "We do not know how to transform. We have to bring you to see Fu Mi. Only she knows how to let us master the cat transformation ability."

Zhao Xue furrowed her brows and whined in anger.

Zhao Yao dispelled the Deflective Field silently. He extended his hand and asked, "This cat transformation medicine, can both guys and girls consume it and transform?"

Ah Yuan dilated pupils and shook her head. "Only female apostles can transform and the success rate is very low."

Zhao Xue scolded in her thoughts, "The inventor of this medicine must be a pervert."

Once he heard that only girls were able to change, Zhao Yao clenched his fist and said, "Yes! This inventor of the medicine is a genius."

He looked at the big and small duo of feline girls. One was about fourteen to fifteen years old while the other was about eleven to twelve years old. After the transformation, they did not look threatening, in fact, they looked vulnerable.

Zhao Yao asked in curiosity, “Are you looking for your comrade after this?”

“You are not allowed to come !” Zhao Xue said with a ruddy face, “Ah Yuan, Yellow Bro, let’s go.”

Zhao Yao felt the anger and embarrassment of Zhao Xue. In order not to provoke her, he said, “Okay, Zhao Xue you can go alone, however, you have to bring along a supercat for protection.” He pointed at the Sphynx cat at the side.

Zhao Xue did not object. She looked at Sphynx cat, then Ah Yuan and Yellow Bro and asked, “Is that okay?” After obtaining approval from Ah Yuan and Yellow Bro, she brought along Sphynx cat.

Zhao Yao reminded Sphynx cat, “You will follow and protect Zhao Xue, if there are any changes in circumstances, inform me. In addition, lend your ability to Zhao Xue, so that she can continue to train and be stronger.”

After putting on a small backpack on Sphynx cat and storing a handphone in the backpack, Zhao Yao patted Sphynx cat’s shoulders and said, “Go.”

Sphynx cat looked at Zhao Yao and said, “Recently, Ares...”

“Wait till you come back...” Zhao Yao patted Sphynx cat’s shoulders and said in a heavy tone, “I will tie him up and send him to your dwelling.”

Looking at the disappearing silhouettes of both human and cats, Zhao Yao waved his hand and shouted, “Zhao Xue! Learn the cat transformation diligently. Don’t be lazy, I will wait for your return to further the development of this ability.”

“Zhao Yao!” The deep end of the aqueduct rang with Zhao Xue’s angry voice, “Just you wait...”

Looking at Roly Poly's strange stare, Zhao Yao shrugged his shoulders in embarrassment. "Hehe, Roly Poly, see how my sister misses me."

"You were more excited to look at the feline girls just now than to find your sister." Roly Poly thought in disdain and spat invisible phlegm on the ground.

Since Zhao Xue was sent out for further training under the protection of the Sphinx cat, Zhao Yao was able to put his mind at ease.

The fighting prowess of Sphinx cat was incredibly strong. Even if Zhao Yao and the Sphinx cat were to fight against each other, not in a fighting ring but a totally unrestrained battle, Zhao Yao might be killed by his stealth attack.

Moreover, Zhao Xue had a strong constitution. With the continuous training of Sphinx cat, she would become stronger and stronger and be safer too.

"Over the next few days, I shall complete the mission of beating evil."

The more important task was being able to grow stronger and dominate King of Death. Once the King of Death was neutralized, then he would not fear his people being killed by the King of Death.

The mission of beating evil required the extermination of the poisonous catmint source and treating the addiction of the cats.

Zhao Yao had completed the first part—Old K and the rest were working illegally in the Extradimensional Belly. Zhao Yao had to complete the remaining second part.

Chapter 624: Illegal work and Addiction treatment

In the Extradimensional Belly, Old K, Midnight, and Lang Gou looked at the mountain of cat food and cat litter, the stains, the cat litter that was that was on the floor, and the dirty cat toilets that needed to be cleaned.

Midnight frowned. “Every day we wake up to shovel the poop, clean the place, sweep and mop the floor, wipe the toilets, and wash the plates without any days off or holidays. Even a robot needs days off for maintenance.”

“What is going on?” Midnight pointed at the pile of shit on the doorframe of the cat toilet. “These stupid cats, normally, when they use the toilets and stain the walls, I have nothing to say. But, this? Half of their shit is outside the toilet. How do they even do this? Are they even supercats? They are not ordinary cats without intelligence. Don’t they know how to use a toilet?”

At this moment, a Garfield cat rushed out of the toilet. It was Ares’s follower, Gaia. She dashed out of the toilet. As she ran, the filth on her butt fell all over the floor. “Don’t press start! Wait for me Rice Cake!”

“This stupid cat!” Looking at the filth on the floor, Midnight wanted to strangle the cat. This cat was too inconsiderate. Didn’t they know how tiring it was to clean the toilets? Midnight yelled at Gaia. “Can you clean yourself before coming out?”

“How is that something to get angry about?” Old K, looking depressed, pulled Lightning out from the cubicle beside them. The night before, Lightning and the other cats had gotten high on catmint. After going to the toilet he had fallen asleep inside and now his fur was filled with filth.

Old K pointed to Lightning and asked Matsuo, “Matsuo, what do I do with him?”

“You have to bathe him.” Matsuo looked at Old K pitifully. “Wear a few more layers of gloves. Once you get used to it, it will be fine.”

As they were speaking, Lightning started laughing loudly and talked in his dreams. “Is it enough? Is it enough? If it is, then shout it out!”

Accompanied by a flash of lightning, Old K’s hair stood up and he fell to the floor like a steel rod.

Seeing Old K like this, Lang Gou broke down. He looked at Matsuo and asked, “Matsuo, for how long do we have to do this? Living like this is inhumane.”

“That is hard to say.” Matsuo sighed, “It depends on how boss is feeling. Two weeks ago, he was in a good mood. He brought me to Japan and also visited the maid cafe.” While he was speaking, he smiled. Faceless (Mao Gang’s leader) smiled with envy.

... Old K, Lang Gou and Midnight looked at each other. This was worse than being in jail. At least if they were in jail, they had something to look forward to. Working for Zhao Yao was a scandal. They did the dirtiest and most tiring jobs, got hurt by the supercats accidentally, and they had no idea when was the end to this.

In fact, selling catmint was not even illegal. At most, they would have been charged for fighting and injuring others. Furthermore, God of Death might even come and save them.

Thinking of the countless amount of cat poop, cat pee, and vomit they had to clean on top of the supercat attacks, the three of them shivered.

“I want to go to jail.”

“Zhao Yao! Let me out!”

“Yeah, hand us to the police! We are willing to own up!”

“What?” Zhao Yao’s attention was drawn into the Extradimensional Belly. Hearing the three of them, he activated the illusion and entered with a Shit Wave. It made the three of them yell and groan, then he said, “Where do you think you are? You think you can come and go as you please?”

Midnight’s face turned pale as he struggled to stand up. “You can’t detain us for life. If you do, I would rather die.”

Zhao Yao shook his head and said, “Of course not for life. When you have realized what you’ve done wrong, turned over a new leaf and have decided to fight for the rise of China, I will let you go.

Don’t worry. I can tell who is the hardest working, who has been slacking, who has really turned over a new leaf, and who is lying. The ones who really turn over a new leaf will get their chance to leave.”

Roly Poly, who was stuck with Zhao Yao every day, looked at the three of them and sighed. He felt for them as he was in the same situation. “Guys, once you are on the list in Zhao Yao’s mind, you will probably work for him forever.”

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao carried Roly Poly, turned into the Headless Horseman, and appeared under the Jianghai night sky.

After looking at his phone, the Sphynx cat notified Zhao Yao that all was clear.

Sphynx cat thought, "They are useless. I can beat one with each fist. Zhao Xue will be fine."

"I am not asking you about whether you can beat them." Zhao Yao said, "I know that you can do that. Just take a few pictures of them for me."

Sphynx cat was confused, "Huh? What do you mean?"

"Take a few more pictures of the cat-eared girls for me." Zhao Yao said, "You can protect Zhao Xue when it is convenient."

After talking to Sphynx cat, Zhao Yao smiled satisfyingly and walked towards the basement.

Once he entered, he saw that the floor was filled with supercats. They were lying around lifelessly. They were all the supercats with a drug addiction.

Cat King of the North introduced him to the group, "There are 43 supercats in total. They are all addicted to the poisonous catmint. They would do anything for it."

A supercat saw the Cat King of the North and his eyes lit up. He crawled over to hug the Cat King of the North's leg. "Cat King of the North! You must have the Divine Catmint right? Just let me suck one more time, once more will do!"

The Cat King of the North sighed, "I do not have that kind of catmint."

"You must have it. You are the King, how can you not have it?" When he saw that Cat King of the North still didn't agree, the supercat turned around and brought a confused kitten. "Cat King of the North, this is my daughter. How about this, I'll give her to you. You just have to give me one more mouthful of catmint. I'm begging you."

As he spoke he dropped the kitten and said, “Xixi, beg the Cat King of the North.”

The kitten looked at the Cat King of the North with her innocent eyes and asked, “Cat King of the North, can you let my dad have another mouthful of the catmint? My dad’s head hurts so much, he can’t even sleep at night.”

Zhao Yao frowned. “This drug addiction is worse than I expected.” Thinking this, he snapped his fingers and all the cats in the basement were deprived of their five senses and they fell unconsciousness.

Unlike those who were under this power in the past, this time, those deprived of their five senses were finally relieved from the pain. Even the darkness in front of them became familiar and calm. All of them fell into a rare slumber.

However for the drug addiction to be over, it was not a matter of hours or minutes. Hence, Zhao Yao sat down and continued casting his powers

Chapter 625: Gift

For the next few days, Zhao Yao went around as the Headless Horseman. He spread the news on the cat web as he helped the cats who were addicted. He used illusions to help the supercats endure the pain of quitting the poisonous catmint. When he finished helping all the cats, he had completed his task of defeating the crooks and was awarded 1000*2 experience points. He was awarded an additional 2000*2 for curing all the patients.

Upon completing this task, Zhao Yao’s experience points in the BOOK became BOOK: Lv6 (39342/20000)

However Zhao Yao did not level up the Book, he just kept the experience points. Currently, Elizabeth’s cover page was Lv8: (2000/50000). He wanted to collect experience points so that he could level Elizabeth up to Lv9 immediately and see if he could strengthen Elizabeth’s Sixth Sense illusion.

Meanwhile, the market for catmint and Elizabeth’s live stream popularity were increasing steadily. Every time the catmint market grew by 1%, he would have one chance at the lucky draw at the end of the month. There was about one week left until the end of the month, Zhao Yao decided to focus all his attention on the catmint market to accumulate more chances for the lucky draw.

This required Zhao Yao to discuss with the Cat Kings. He had to introduce them to Dust Ball's catmint.

That day, Zhao Yao was going out to promote the catmint again. When Elizabeth saw him she meowed, "Zhao Yao it is the weekend. Aren't you going to rest?"

"Nope, I am not going to rest. I have to meet the Stadium Cat King for business." He stuffed a bun into his mouth and went out. "I have asked Bai Quan to buy some imported salmon for you guys to eat. Consider it a Labor Day gift."

As Elizabeth watched Zhao Yao leave, she was absorbed by her thoughts, "Zhao Yao has been so busy recently. This is the first time I've seen Zhao Yao work so hard."

Diana whispered in her ear, "Furthermore, he brings Roly Poly with him everywhere. They even sleep together and bathe together. It is so suspicious."

Elizabeth was surprised. "What? That's happening?"

Diana suggested, "Sister, it is not that I want to speak badly about you but you are too arrogant sometimes. As cats, there is a time to be arrogant and a time to be intimate with humans. If you keep giving him the cold shoulder, there's a possibility that you might fall out of favor and become a stray again."

"Stray cat?" Elizabeth turned her head and recalled her days as a stray cat.

She had no internet and electricity. Every day she had to scramble around for leftover food. She had to endure hot summers and cold winters, always had an empty stomach and lived on the constant fear of being attacked by humans, dogs, and cats. She didn't even have time to clean her fur.

Remembering all of that, Elizabeth shivered and called for the cats under her to gather.

Immediately, all the cats in the Extradimensional Belly who belonged to the cat café gathered in front of Elizabeth.

“Zhao Yao has been working tirelessly to give us a good life. He has been working so hard. It’s about time we repay him.”

Elizabeth raised her head and stood confidently, looking at the cats gathered below her, she continued, “Furthermore, the second anniversary of my adoption is coming soon. I have decided to prepare a gift for Zhao Yao. Any ideas on what I should give him?”

A female cat suggested, “Give him a red packet. Zhao Yao likes money.”

Elizabeth shook her pink paws and rejected the idea. “All our money is from Zhao Yao. What is the point of giving it back?”

Another female cat said, “Why don’t we clean up the place? When Zhao Yao returns to a clean Extradimensional Belly, he will definitely be happy.”

Elizabeth thought about it and the image of Zhao Yao lying comfortably on a rubbish-filled sofa playing his mobile games appeared in her mind. She shook her head. “Nope, next idea?”

Catherine said, “Why not bake a cake for Zhao Yao. Don’t they all say to capture a man’s heart, start by capturing his stomach?”

Elizabeth tilted her head and thought about it. She pictured Zhao Yao’s happy face when he saw the cake as he stroked her head and said, “This cake is delicious. Elizabeth did you make it especially for me? What a good girl, I will support you on your stream tonight.”

After picturing that, Elizabeth smiled and nodded. “Let’s make a cake! I will give a cake to Zhao Yao!”

The supercats in the Cat café started to get busy. The good thing was that in the 18th storey building, there was a kitchen, gas, oven, and all the equipment needed.

Elizabeth and her sisters were researching and watching videos on how to bake a cake at night. At the same time, they ordered the ingredients they needed online secretly and asked for them to be directly sent to Matcha’s construction site.

For the next few days, Elizabeth worked during the day on her live stream and at night went to prepare the cake after Zhao Yao fell asleep. She only slept two to three hours every day. Although she tried her best, no matter how hard she tried, she still failed. Elizabeth started complaining, “Why is baking a cake so hard?”

Diana’s eyes lit up and said, “Why not make a salmon cake? Don’t humans like to eat salmon too?”

Zhao Yao changed into the Headless Horseman and told the University Cat King, “The catmint produced by Dust Ball has a long history. It can be dated back to the Qing dynasty. Did you know that Empress Dowager Cixi had a white Persian cat?”

“Yeah, I know.” The Cat King answered, “I have seen it in the movies. A sexy white cat.”

“The catmint she consumed was the same kind of catmint that Dust Ball is producing today. One hundred years ago catmint of this quality was only found in the royal palace. You couldn’t try it even if you wanted to.” As he spoke, Zhao Yao opened a bag of catmint and handed it to the Cat King. “Come try it.”

Looking at the cat’s satisfied face while trying the catmint, Zhao Yao asked, “How is it?”

“It is good.” The Cat King indulged in it. “The taste is so pure.”

“Our catmint is all handmade with an old recipe. There are no chemicals added throughout the fabrication process. We are selling quality and healthy products.

Even human food is unsafe for consumption nowadays. Think about the quality of your canned cat food. Everyone is so concerned with their health now. Do you think such a traditional, natural, and green catmint would not be a great hit?”

Zhao Yao asked, “So? Shuini, do you want a batch of them?”

Shuini nodded his head without stopping. “Yes, yes.”

After setting up a business route for the entire University district, Zhao Yao returned contently to the Extradimensional Belly. Once he was back, a supercat notified Elizabeth immediately. Elizabeth rushed over and told Zhao Yao. “Zhao Yao! Zhao Yao! I have a gift for you.”

“Oh do you?” Zhao Yao looked at Elizabeth surprised. “What kind of gift is it?”

“Come with me and you will know.” Elizabeth reached out her paws and dragged Zhao Yao out of his sofa.

Zhao Yao laughed and felt like he was being pulled away by a daughter pulling her dad. He followed her to one of the kitchens in the 18th storey building. Elizabeth opened the door with her head and shouted excitedly. “Tada! Zhao Yao this is the seafood cake I made especially for you.”

On the table was a palm-size cake made with large amounts of salmon, roe, and sea urchin.

On the cake was written, “Zhao Yao, you have worked hard!”

At least it was supposed to be like that.

Now, there was only Matcha on the table. He was licking his paws which had leftover salmon on it. More than half of the cake has been eaten and there were several paw prints on it.

Seeing Elizabeth and Zhao Yao, Matcha lifted his head and said, “Elizabeth, this cake was not bad. You should change the roe to caviar. It is too salty now. You can let me taste it again after you make it.”

Chapter 626: Stray

“Matcha!”

After a burst of shrill scream and a series of snarls, there were sounds of the furniture being flipped over and Zhao Yao shouting.

After separating the cats, Zhao Yao persuaded, “Elizabeth, calm down. I cherish the sincerity of your gift. Will you forgive Matcha?”

Elizabeth glared at Matcha and looked at Zhao Yao. “Zhao Yao! You are too biased towards Matcha. No matter what kind of trouble he gets into, you help him take care of it. Previously, he was removed from his position as the leader of the Royal Cat guards but you still named him as the leader for the construction site. You are always so biased that’s why he has nothing to fear.”

On the other hand, Matcha held onto his injured nose and said, “Stay jealous fat woman. I am just so lovable. I entered Zhao Yao’s house one year earlier than you. Is this how you speak to your senior?”

Zhao Yao smacked Matcha on his head and said, “Shut up.”

Zhao Yao turned to look at Elizabeth. After looking at the golden exclamation mark on top of Elizabeth’s head he asked, “So Elizabeth, under what circumstances will you forgive Matcha?”

Elizabeth pointed to the cake and said, “I stayed up for so many nights to complete this seafood cake! Matcha has to be punished!”

As Zhao Yao was comforting Elizabeth, he stroked her and said, “Okay, okay. So how do you want him to be punished?”

Meanwhile, Matcha seized the chance when Zhao Yao was looking at Elizabeth to spit out his tongue and roll his eyes at Elizabeth.

“This idiot!” Elizabeth’s eyes narrowed. After thinking, she suggested, “Throw him out for a week. Let him understand how blessed he is right now. Let him experience how hard life gets for strays.”

Roly Poly who was still following Zhao Yao around everywhere nodded his head and agreed, “Elizabeth and I both know how hard life can get. That’s why we are so mature. Matcha was raised in a sheltered environment since he was young. He takes everything for granted that’s why he is so immature.”

Roly Poly started to list the number of times Matcha screwed up. “Every time something is handed to him, he fails. Like the last task at the prison, he couldn’t complete it. He wasn’t of much use during the Ürümqi fight either. In the supercat armor, he is the least useful one. He was a bad influence when he was the leader of the Royal Cat police force. He only knows how to play Mobile Legends and use credit cards secretly.

Furthermore, at the construction site, every cat was supposed to get one death exemption ticket but he made three cats share one ticket and kept the rest for himself...”

Elizabeth was annoyed. “Look! You favor him too much Zhao Yao!”

Mission: Educate

Mission Objective: Matcha has been getting out of hand. This has caused great dissatisfaction among the other supercats. To educate Matcha to be more mature, let him experience one week of being a stray.

Reward: 500 experience points

Mission Penalty: None

After hearing what Roly Poly and Elizabeth said, Matcha quickly nuzzled up to Zhao Yao. “Humph! You guys are terrible. Zhao Yao would never abandon such a cute kitty like me. Right, Zhao Yao?”

Half an hour later, the door at the bottom of the building was opened and Matcha, who was carrying a small yellow bag, was thrown out.

When the door was about to be closed, Matcha dashed between the gate to stop it from closing and plead, “Zhao Yao! Zhao Yao! I am your favorite little Matcha. You’re just going to throw me out like that? Aren’t you afraid that something will happen to me?”

“You are no longer little Matcha but fat Matcha. It is about time for you to go out, experience the world, and burn some fat. It is time to grow up.” As he spoke, Zhao Yao pushed Matcha out and slammed the door.

Matcha squatted outside the door and grunted, “Humph, he will let me in soon.”

After waiting for a while, Matcha was bored. He opened his bag and saw that there were three packets of cat snacks and a phone. “Haha, I can play Mobile Legends. After this Zhao Yao will probably come and get me.”

Three hours later, all the cat snacks were finished and the phone was low on battery. Matcha looked at the gate, astonished. “Is Zhao Yao asleep? Why isn’t he here to get me yet?”

Then something rustled in the bushes and Matcha jumped. “Who is it?”

Yellow Mud (Zhao Yao district’s wild supercat) stuck his neck out, sniffing about in the air. When he saw Matcha, his eyes lit up. “Matcha? What are you doing downstairs?”

“Oh, it’s you Yellow Mud.” Matcha heaved a sigh of relief. His ears stood up again as he replied, “I am here for a walk. I haven’t been seeing you around lately. Where have you been?”

Yellow Mud sniffed at the three packets of snacks. Once he saw that the snacks had been eaten, he looked disappointed.

When he heard Matcha’s question, he answered, “Recently, this district’s security has been chasing stray cats away. Furthermore, this entire building is almost empty. The granny that used to feed me had moved away too. So I haven’t been coming.

We shall talk next time. I haven’t had dinner. I need to go.”

“Okay.” When he saw Yellow Mud leaving, Matcha thought, “Humph, you made me wait for so long. I shall let you panic and wait for me.”

“Yellow Mud.” Matcha chased after him and said, “Let’s go together. I will join you today.”

Yellow Mud looked at him curiously. “Huh? Don’t you need to go home?”

Matcha answered angrily, “I am not going back tonight. I am going to play all night!”

As the two cats left, Zhao Yao slowly came out from the side of the door. It was beside where Matcha had been squatting. Zhao Yao was worried for Matcha and had stood at the side for three hours.

After rubbing Roly Poly's head, Zhao Yao sighed. "This guy has never been a stray cat. I feel so apprehensive about this. Let's just follow him for a while." He followed Matcha and hid himself with Roly Poly's invisibility and Elizabeth's illusion so that Matcha wouldn't notice him.

Yellow Mud brought Matcha to the dustbin. Matcha pinched his nose and his face filled with disgust. "Yellow Mud, why did you come to the dustbin? There is only garbage inside."

Yellow Mud leaped into the dustbin and scrambled through the garbage. "That is not true. Although there are many useless things inside, sometimes, there is leftover food. Bingo!"

Yellow Mud dragged a fish head out and threw it on the floor. "Today is a lucky day. It is such a huge fish head!" He looked at Matcha and said, "Matcha, you can eat first. This is my treat."

"Erm." Matcha looked at the dirty fish head and looked at Yellow Mud's hungry face. He shook his paws and said, "It's okay. I have eaten a lot of food just now. I am still full. You can eat first."

"Okay, then I shall start!" Yellow Mud started munching on the fish head happily. Halfway through eating, someone came over and chased them away. "Go away! Stupid stray cats, you messed up the dustbin again."

"This guy!" Matcha looked at the angry man and was about to attack. Yellow Mud who was at the side pulled him away and hid in the grass.

Matcha was mad. "Why did you pull me away? I could have taught him a lesson."

Yellow Mud shook his head and said, "It is our fault for messing up the dustbin. It's okay. He will leave in a while."

After the guy was gone, Yellow Mud jumped out, took the fish had and ran back."Matcha, let's go."

Chapter 627: Onlooker part 1

Hearing what Yellow Mud said, Matcha wagged his tail and followed him.

The two cats passed through the neighbourhood and Matcha followed Yellow Mud through the city as they scraped leftovers from the trash. Of course, Matcha refused to eat no matter what and Yellow Mud ate half of whatever he could eat. Then he bit on to a plastic bag to pack the remaining food and left the neighbourhood with the bag in his mouth.

Although Matcha was hungry after exercising that much, he cried out silently after seeing the leftovers in the plastic bag, "I, Matcha, would rather die than eat this kind of rubbish."

Zhao Yao who carried Roly Poly and followed them all the way, couldn't help but say, "Roly Poly, you are so heavy. From now on, please don't eat dinner. You're affecting my ability to move."

Roly Poly was speechless.

Zhao Yao thought for a moment and realized that he could not just follow them around like this. Wouldn't it mean that he would have to wander around aimlessly with Matcha? That would be too tiring.

"It seems like there is no other way but this." Zhao Yao moved further away from Matcha and Yellow Mud. He opened a Dimension Portal and stepped into it. With a single thought, he activated the Deflective Field and it carried the sofa in the distance in front of the Dimension Portal.

Zhao Yao lay relaxed on the sofa. He watched Matcha through the space door as if watching a TV. His body immediately relaxed, "Well, now this is comfortable."

Seeing Matcha and Yellow Mud walk towards another dustbin, Zhao Yao used his consciousness and the Dimension Portal started following them.

"That's right! This is much easier." Zhao Yao just lay on the sofa and stroked Roly Poly, who he held in his arms. The two Dimension Portals in front of him became a camera lens for Zhao Yao. As his consciousness flashed, he saw a picture of everything Matcha and Yellow Mud did.

Without permission from him or Dust Ball, anyone from the material world cannot see and touch the Dimension Portal.

Zhao Yao's behaviour soon attracted some curious cats. Lightning came over and looked at Yellow Mud and Matcha displayed in the Dimension Portal. "Zhao Yao, what are you doing?"

Zhao Yao was lying on the sofa, stroking Roly Poly, while eating melon seeds said, “Looking at this reality TV cat show. Matcha now has only one mobile phone and he will have to live outside for seven days and 168 hours.”

“Oh?” Lightning’s eyes lit up.”So interesting!” He immediately looked at it with gusto.

Lightning, Fūjin, Rakshasa, Lucifer, Diana, Catherine, Caesar, and other supercats, were all supercats who had never experienced a stray cat’s life and had been fed since childhood were attracted. They came over to watch the wandering life of Matcha.

Even Elizabeth ran over with great interest, looking at the Matcha and Yellow Mud through the Dimension Portal.

After a while, Dust Ball also came over. “Zhao Yao, what are you doing? Why can only one Dimension Portal be used? On top of it all, it’s the one that is connected to Cat Island. This means that I can’t use any of them. How do I transport catmint now!”

Lightning and several other supercats immediately asked her to keep quiet. “Shhh.”

Dust Ball was speechless, “What are you doing?”

Lightning whispered, “Looking at Matcha pick up rubbish.”

Dust Ball: “What?”

Just then, the supercats started to make noise.

“They have found chicken!”

Lightning immediately shouted back, “Where?”

“Oh~ It is braised chicken.”

“Is it nice? I have not eaten it before.”

“He is eating it! Yellow Mud ate it!”

“But his expression tells me that it wasn’t really good.”

Dust Ball looked at the group of enthusiastic supercats speechlessly, “Are you all idiots? What is so interesting about this?”

In the image projected by the Dimension Portal, Yellow Mud and Matcha finally left the neighbourhood and crossed the road. Matcha followed Yellow Mud to a dilapidated bungalow. It seems to have been built for decades. The outermost house already had two big “Demolish” signs on it.

Yellow Mud came to a small attic where no one lived; Matcha followed. The moment they entered they heard a shriek. A wild cat was seen in the distance pressing down on a small tri-colored cat. He opened his mouth and bit on the neck of the tri-colored cat.

The tri-colored cat that was being bitten constantly struggled. From time to time a cry was heard. It was obvious that its strength and size was not on par with that of its opponent. It was impossible to break free from the big cat’s mouth.

Yellow Mud who saw this scene immediately put down the plastic bag and ran forward to give the big cat a merciless bite.

Seeing Yellow Mud rush over, the big cat immediately released the small cat and quickly retreated. Yellow Mud chased it for a few steps and the two cats fell into a confrontation. After a while of growling at each other, at this very tense moment, Matcha flashed. The big cat cried out in pain, jumped out of the window and escaped.

“Floret! Are you okay?” Yellow Mud trotted to the side of the small tri-colored cat. Looking at the wound on her ear he immediately started to lick it, while sighing and comforting, “It’s okay, I’ve driven the bad guys away.”

The small tri-colored cat rolled into a ball and hid under Yellow Mud’s body, still in shock.

Yellow Mud put down the fish head that he had carried and placed it in front of the small cat. He smiled at Matcha, “Thank you, Matcha. If it weren’t for you, I would be injured again today.”

Matcha rolled his eyes, “You are way too weak. You can’t even beat an ordinary stray cat.”

Yellow Mud shyly licked his paw and said, “It can’t be helped. My power is useless on cats. The cats here don’t eat poop but the stray dogs in the neighborhood do not dare provoke me.”

The tri-colored cat hiding under Yellow Mud was smelling and licking Yellow Mud. After smelling Matcha’s scent, she immediately shrunk and started to look nervous. She still poked her head out and looked curiously at Matcha.

Yellow Mud quickly licked the back of the tri-colored cat and comforted her, “It’s alright Floret, he’s my friend.” Then, he pushed the leftovers in the plastic bag towards her, “We won the grand prize today and found a fish head! Go ahead and eat it quickly.”

The tri-colored cat smelled the fish head in the plastic bag, made a pleasant meow, and couldn’t wait as she began nibbling at it.

Matcha looked curiously at Yellow Mud’s sister, excited. “Great, Yellow Mud, so you have a sister? I am definitely becoming friends with you.”

Behind the space door, Lightning slapped the ground and said, “Hurry up and end the friendship with him, Yellow Mud!”

Elizabeth also shouted anxiously, “Yellow Mud, hurry and take your sister away.”

Roly Poly’s eyes turned, as he waited. “Keyword: Time Freeze...3 seconds. Brother, the sister is in front of the brother... yes...” His eyes filled with anticipation.

Chapter 628: Onlooker part 2

Matcha walked up to Floret surrounded by the crowd’s anxious shouting. He looked at the tri-colored cat and said, “Hi, my name is Matcha. I am your brother’s good friend.”

Floret lifted her eyes, glanced at Matcha and lowered her head again. She bit onto the fish head and hid in a corner as if she was afraid that Matcha would snatch her food.

“Do you think I would snatch food from you?” Matcha spoke to her gently. “Although I may look ordinary, I am a Scottish Fold from Jianghai. My family owns a cat café. We even have an island on off the shores of Jianghai. I can bring you on a fishing trip if you like.”

Everyone behind the Dimension Portal was complaining, “He is that shameless?”

However, the tri-colored cat was not interested in what he said. She sized him up and went back to eating her fish head.

Matcha nudged Yellow Mud and asked, “Is your sister okay? Why is she not interested in such a perfect guy like me?”

Yellow Mud was a bit embarrassed as he explained, “Floret is an ordinary cat. She does not understand what we are talking about.”

“What?” Matcha looked at the tri-colored cat who was gobbling down the fish head and was surprised. “She has not awakened?”

“Yeah.” Yellow Mud nod his head and said, “Floret was born at the same time as me, but she has not been awakened. Furthermore, her leg is injured, so I bring her food every day to take care of her.”

As he spoke, Yellow Mud licked his sister’s fur and cleaned it for her.

All the supercats behind the Dimension Portal meowed gently. They looked at Yellow Mud and Floret sympathetically.

After eating, Floret looked satisfied as she started licking her own fur. After cleaning herself, she yawned, hobbled towards a paper box and slept inside free of worries.

For an ordinary cat, hunting, eating, cleaning herself and sleeping was a normal routine.

Yellow Mud was also yawning and told Matcha. “Matcha, let’s sleep. It is very cold at night.”

“What?” Matcha was speechless, “You guys sleep so early?”

Yellow Mud nod his head and said, “Yeah, what else can you do after eating? Only with sufficient sleep will we have the strength to look for food. We need to go look for food again after midnight.” He pointed to the box Floret was sleeping in and told Matcha. “I found this paper box recently, it is clean. Come and sleep in it or you will be awakened by the cold.”

For Yellow Mud, the paper box beside the dustbin was very clean. But for Matcha, this box was filled with germs, dirt, and a stench from the dustbin.

However, he couldn’t bring himself to speak the truth. Hence, he said, “I don’t sleep that early. You can go and sleep first.”

Yellow Mud nodded his head. “Okay then. We shall sleep first.”

He watched Yellow Mud and his sister squeeze together in the paper box and Floret kept nudging towards Yellow Mud’s stomach. Matcha sighed and looked at the moon outside the window.

“Aye... It is so boring.” Matcha placed his bag down. “Moments like these are made for playing a game of Mobile Legends.”

When he turned on his phone, he was stunned.

“There is only 7% of the battery left!” He suddenly recalled that he had played three hours of Mobile Legends when he was under the block.

“Damn it. I can’t play a game with 7%”

Matcha was looking at the low-battery phone when he suddenly remembered. “I have left for so long, shouldn’t Zhao Yao be worried sick? ”

In Matcha's imagination, after Zhao Yao went downstairs and realized he had left, Zhao Yao shouted and looked for him anxiously. "Little Matcha! Little Matcha! Where are you?"

Then he shouted exasperatedly, "Ahhh! I regret everything now! Why did I throw you out!"

"As long as you can come back! I am willing to hand you all the savings from the Cat café and Cat Island!"

As he thought of it, he giggled and opened WeChat. "Humph. Maybe he's already looking for me."

He scanned through updates and was disappointed. "No one mentioned that I ran away from home? What a bunch of cold-blooded creatures."

Thinking of this, he messaged Old Cat and asked, "Old Cat, how is Zhao Yao? Is he worried sick? Is he very anxious, stressed, and remorseful?"

Old Cat squinted and looked at Zhao Yao who was playing with his phone on the sofa and answered, "He looks very normal."

"What?!" Matcha was extremely disappointed and continued asking, "What about the other supercats? Did they feel for me? Are they opposed to Zhao Yao's tyranny?"

"Nope, everyone is the same. They look pretty happy."

"These ungrateful brats!" Matcha was annoyed. "They were all lying to me!"

After a while, Matcha realized that his phone had run out of battery. He stared at the black screen and let out a howl.

"Damn it. What am I going to do now?"

Matcha lay on the floor and staring at his black phone screen in despair. It was so early. Normally at this time he was still high from playing. How could he fall asleep?

He was rolling around on the ground and thinking about his current situation.

“Damn, I want to go home.”

“What should I do next?”

“No matter what, I should charge my phone first.”

After a while, Matcha fell asleep unknowingly.

On the other side of the Dimension Portal, all the cats watched this scene with great interest.

“He is asleep! He is really asleep!”

“He moved! He moved! His right leg just moved!”

“Look! Look! Floret is about to turn!”

In his sleep, Matcha rolled into the paper box and cuddled together with Yellow Mud and Floret as it was too cold.

Zhao Yao yawned and told Dust Ball. “Dust Ball help me look after Matcha and record it for me.”

Dust Ball looked at Zhao Yao speechlessly, “What?”

“I will have to trouble you.” Zhao Yao stroked Dust Ball’s head and said, “You will watch after Matcha for me. If there is anything just call me. I still have to work and meet the Cat Kings tomorrow to promote the catmint.”

When he saw that Dust Ball was unwilling, he continued. “Be good. Matcha is so useless, you don’t want him to die outside too right?”

“Okay.” Dust Ball sighed, “I will look after this useless cat.” She mumbled, “It’s not because I am afraid that something will happen to him. It is because I enjoy watching him suffer.”

Chapter 629: Getting Accustomed to a Vagrant Life

Matcha slept in a paper carton, his paws facing the sky, snoring extremely loudly. He had no awareness of his surroundings at all.

In his groggy state, he felt something butting him. Matcha shifted his paws and said, “Don’t push me, Zhao Yao, let me sleep another minute.”

Matcha immediately reacted. He was not at home. Opening his eyes, he saw Floret sniffing his body. Noticing that Matcha had awakened, Floret fled off in fright, hiding behind a pile of rubbish, nervously watching Matcha from a distance.

“What is there to be afraid of?” Matcha waved his paw at Floret and said, “Come over Floret, big brother will give you milk to drink.”

Behind the Dimension Portal, cold rays emitted from Dust Ball’s eyes. “Disgusting fellow.”

Diana said, “This Matcha is too much. How can he bully a little kid?”

Roly Poly shouted, “Teach him a lesson Dust Ball. Open the Dimension Portal and teach him a lesson.”

Dust Ball squinted her eyes and said, “I promised Zhao Yao not to open the Dimension Portal recklessly, however...”

In an abandoned attic, Matcha edged closer to the hidden Floret and laughed heinously. “Floret, come over here, let big brother lick your fur.”

At this instant, an explosion rang. A block of brick hurtled past him and Matcha dodged in the nick of time by activating Time Freeze.

Matcha wiped an imaginary line of cold sweat from his head and said with a smug face, “Ha! Thank goodness I am agile and casually evaded it. Why did a brick suddenly fly towards me?”

As he thought about it, wind and thunder roared. Matcha stared with his big eyes and looked upwards with an alarmed expression. Tens of bricks abruptly fell down while his Time Freeze was cooling down. Matcha was so frightened that he curled like a ball, trembling in fright.

A loud rumble rang in the air. Seconds later, Matcha opened his eyes and discovered that he was not hit by any of the bricks. He immediately covered his chest and inhaled large gasps of air. “Scared me to death. This old house is too unsafe. A pile of bricks falling like that.”

On the other side of the Dimension Portal, the cats clapped their hands in celebration.

“Good!” Lightning watched with relish. “Let’s have another go!”

Roly Poly shouted earnestly, “Dust Ball, may I throw?”

Dust Ball raised her brow and said, “Sure, fifty per throw.”

Roly Poly immediately said, “I’ll pass. Looking at other cats tossing isn’t that bad after all.” He sighed regrettably as he thought, “To think that I, Roly Poly, have been a hero for life, but after owing Zhao Yao, my life has become poorer.”

Meanwhile, Matcha lay in the attic for half a day and only managed to get up with some difficulty. He felt his stomach wiggle and emit rumbling sounds. “I feel hungry all of a sudden. Yikes, I haven’t eaten from yesterday till this morning. I am famished.”

At that moment, Yellow Mud jumped in from the window and released the plastic bag from his mouth, pouring out the food on the ground.

Matcha was surprised and asked, “Yellow Mud, you went out so early to find food?”

“Yeah.” Yellow Mud nodded and said, “Everyday I have to search for food in the rubbish before it is cleared. I intended to bring you along but you were so sound asleep so I didn’t call you.”

Yellow Mud recalled the process of waking Matcha—pushing wildly for half a day, even pressing on his nose to nearly suffocate him, Matcha didn't even wake up.

Yellow Mud frowned, looked at Matcha, and said, "Matcha, after sleeping for a night, you must be hungry. My harvest was pretty good today. I even found a whole sausage. Quick, try it."

Matcha squinted his eyes and looked at the food on the ground. His eyes revealed signs of hesitation. "Looks pretty dirty... but I am famished..."

Two days later.

Yellow Mud returned with a bag of food in his mouth. A large and a small figure scurried over and took the food. They poured the contents of the bag on the ground and began eating voraciously.

Matcha said surprised, "We have struck the lottery, there's fishtail today." Floret curled up her tail, and held her chin up and chest out as she meowed happily as if agreeing with Matcha's words.

Looking at both big and small cats eating happily together, Yellow Mud narrowed his eyes and said, "Well... Matcha... Do you want to follow me tonight to look for food?"

"Wah?" Matcha backed up and inadvertently ran into Floret. "I can't. I have to stay at home to protect Floret. What if other wild cats bully her? You are Floret's brother. I don't think you will want to see your sister pregnant one day?"

Yellow Mud looked at Matcha speechless. He felt as though he was carrying a mountain on his back. "This Matcha is voracious... even more than both Floret and me... I feel so tired..."

Watching Yellow Mud's expression darken, Matcha pounded his chest and said, "Yellow Mud, don't worry. Do not be deceived by my wild cat looks. My family is very rich. Zhao Yao and the rest are worried sick about me and want me to go back. When I go back, I will pay back my debt with money and ensure that you have fish for every meal."

Yellow Mud sighed and said, "Why aren't you going home to look?"

Matcha was discouraged and he thought, “The cell phone battery is flat, so I do not know what’s going on at home.” Constantly confronted with Yellow Mud’s constant gaze, Matcha thought for a while until he had a flash of genius. “Okay, I will go back and take a look.”

A few hours later, Matcha carried a small bag and left the attic. Yellow Mud was at the window and he said, “Matcha, you really don’t want me to accompany you? Do you remember the way?”

“No, there’s no need. I remember the way.” Matcha thought, “Well, I’ll find a place to charge my cell phone first. Then I’ll ask about the situation at home. Humph, after charging it, I’ll order takeaway sushi for Yellow Mud and Floret and surprise them.” He imagined the pleasantly surprised expressions of the two cats after seeing the sushi.

“Wah!” Yellow Mud walked round and round the takeaway box. “What is inside? Is it edible? What a fragrant smell! Matcha, you are awesome!”

“Meow! Meow!” Floret would paw at the sushi box, sniffing here and there and she gazed at Matcha with adoration.

At this thought, Matcha smiled sillily. He was very satisfied and thought, “Must find a proper place for charging, let me think...” The next instant, Matcha’s eyes brightened. “Yes, find Fish Ball!”

Meanwhile, as Matcha left, the supercats in the Extradimensional Belly immediately shouted together.

Diana clasped her paws and said with a pair of misty eyes, “Matcha has left, let’s make use of this opportunity to bring Yellow Mud and Floret over.”

Roly Poly was eager and said, “Yes, although Matcha is a vagrant, he is highly dependent on Yellow Mud. That’s too easy and comfortable for him. It is good to bring Yellow Mud and Floret over and let them enjoy Matcha’s life. Switch their roles so that Matcha will live a true vagrant life.”

Chapter 630: Seeking Help

“I agree!”

“Let’s do that!”

Every supercat entered the discussion and started hollering.

Under the gaze of all supercats, the mistress of the Extradimensional Belly and the Dimension Portal, Dust Ball, nodded her head and said, “Let’s wait for Zhao Yao’s return and report to him. In the meanwhile let’s follow Matcha and watch.”

After the departure of Matcha and the Dimension Portal, Yellow Mud initiated his plan.

“Let’s go Floret.”

Meow? Floret looked strangely at Yellow Mud as he shoved a dirty rat toy, worn-out scratching board, a piece of black carpet into the bag.

“We are moving Floret.” Yellow Mud said seriously, “This Matcha is too voracious and yet he is unwilling to hunt for food. A vagrant’s life is cruel. With him around, we will break down with his insatiable appetite.”

He slung the bag over his shoulder and brought Floret outside. His face showed his guilty conscience. “Sorry Matcha, we need to survive. You have your four limbs and your superpower is greater than mine. As long as you are willing to work, you will never starve to death.”

Floret followed behind with a muddled face, oblivious of what was happening.

Meanwhile, Matcha had a level eight Time Freeze, so safety was not a concern. However, he had never been so far away from home, so after taking detours, losing his way, taking naps and breaks, he only arrived at Xiaoyu’s home in the evening.

“I remember Fish Ball saying... it’s the third floor?”

He climbed up the water pipe with great effort and arrived at the windows. However, it was locked so he knocked on the window, shouting, “Fish Ball! Fish Ball, come out and play! It’s Matcha, Fish Ball!”

Unfortunately, Fish Ball did not appear. Instead, a dog's face appeared. His eyes stared at Matcha.

“Er.” Matcha hesitated for a while and smiled at the husky. “Greetings Noodle, I am Matcha, Zhao Yao's Matcha. May I come in to charge my cell phone?”

Husky stared at him with his lifeless eyes, jumped off from the window sill and pulled up the curtains.

“D*mn dog!” Matcha knocked wildly on the windows and shouted, “Fish Ball! Fish Ball! Come out! Your big brother Matcha is here.”

Suddenly, the curtains were pulled away, showing Noodle's head. Matcha grinned and said, “Noodle, help me open the door. I am friends with Fish Ball and we are like brothers.”

Noodle held a writing board in his mouth and placed it on the window sill. After that, he jumped off and pulled the curtains again.

Matcha looked at the words on the writing board, “Bug off.”

Argh! The green veins on Matcha's forehead pulsed and his claws screeched across the window pane. “D*mn dog, wait till I come in later... I will beat him to death, then feed him feces.”

At this thought, Matcha immediately walked along the window sill and leaped to the wall on the other side. He extended his claws to grip onto the rocky part of the outer wall and climbed towards the other window sill.

However, just when he landed on the window sill, the Husky's head reappeared. The figure of a dog flashed with brushing sounds of movement and thereafter all windows were securely locked.

Matcha flew into a temper. His paws pounded on the glass and he scolded, “D*mn dog! You are purposely picking a fight! Where is Fish Ball? Get him here!”

Noodle merely glanced at Matcha with scorn, then raised the board with the words, “Bug off.”

Looking at the cat and dog fight, Fish Ball, who was on the other side of the Dimension Portal, stood up with excitement. “Finally, it is my turn to enter the fray!”

Following Dust Ball’s activation of the Dimension Portal in Xiaoyu’s house, Fish Ball squirmed out from the portal and leaped onto the window sill.

On seeing Fish Ball, Matcha was worked up and he said, “Fish Ball! You have finally come! Help me open the door!”

Fish Ball said with a face of masked innocence, “Eh, Matcha? Why are you here?”

Matcha almost blurted out on how he was being chased out and wanted to recharge his cell phone. However, after thinking, he felt it unwise to say so. If Fish Ball cowered under Zhao Yao’s despotic power and refused to release him, what would he do?

As such, Matcha rolled his eyeballs and said pretentiously, “Uh, I thought we are close so I came today to pay you a visit. Won’t you welcome me?”

“Why not?” Fish Ball laughed heartily but he thought resentfully, “D*mn Matcha, fortunately, I am well informed or else I might have inadvertently aided a sinful cat. Will I not be implicated and answerable to Zhao Yao?”

After the hearty laugh, Fish Ball straightened his face. “No Matcha, my house was installed with surveillance monitors recently. If Xiaoyu discovers that I let in other cats, she will skin me alive.”

Matcha begged, “Any blind spots? I can enter via the surveillance’s blind spots. If not, you can help me charge my cell phone, the battery is flat.”

“Not possible.” Fish Ball stole a glance at Noodle and said, “That d*mn dog is watching me the whole time, if I help you, he will tell on me.”

“What!” Matcha thought, “Perhaps God wants me dead?”

At this time, the main door of Fish Ball’s home opened. The trio of dog and cats looked over and saw Xiaoyu entering. She noticed two cats on the window sills—Fish Ball on the interior and Matcha on the exterior.

“Eh?” Xiaoyu scrutinized Matcha and said, “Is this a wild cat? Looks familiar?”

Spirit Cat flew out from the back of Xiaoyu, controlling the cell phone and saying, “Xiaoyu, this fellow is Matcha, a supercat from Zhao Yao’s side.”

“Uh?” Xiaoyu immediately looked at Matcha, her eyes illuminating. She walked to the window and flung it open. “Please enter Matcha.”

Matcha meowed and swaggered in.

Meanwhile, Xiaoyu poured a bowl of cat food for Matcha and said, “Have your meal first Matcha. I have some homework to finish, after that, I shall play with you.”

Xiaoyu grabbed Fish Ball and walked to her room. After placing Fish Ball on the table, she patted on his head and a soft gentle white light emitted from Fish Ball’s face, illuminating the entire table top like a desk lamp.

Xiaoyu took out her homework and thought at the same time, “I wonder what abilities Matcha has. I guess he is more useful than Fish Ball, who is only saving my monthly electric bill and not much of a use.”

At this thought, Xiaoyu worked more diligently on her homework. “Hehe, if Matcha is powerful, I shall keep him here.”

Fish Ball was bored stiff as he illuminated the tabletop and looked at the words on Xiaoyu’s homework. He immediately felt groggy, his eyelids became heavier and the light dimmed.

Xiaoyu slapped Fish Ball’s head and admonished, “Don’t switch off the light.”
