

Am I A God 641

Chapter 641: The Chase and Spirit

When the two feline girls saw that Bai Quan was not hurt by their full-scaled attacks, they were really shocked.

However, before they could react, Bai Quan appeared in front of them with the wind whooshing behind him.

“What about this...”

Before his sentence ended, Bai Quan waved his palm and instantly violent air currents gathered and the distorted air exploded in front of Bai Quan. The air currents charged towards the fog.

After a loud explosion, the fog dispersed into the air as it was hit by the strong air currents.

Bai Quan looked at the empty building in front of him and questioned, “Gone? Did they escape or ...”

Several meters away, two blurry white fogs entered the sewers trembling. They did not dare make any noise until they were a few thousand meters away.

“Waaa! It was so scary! I thought I was going to die.”

“This is so scary. Let’s return to the professor.”

The two feline girls transformed into white fog again. They fled for a few more kilometers before turning back into feline girls and rushing towards the House of Cats.

About half an hour later, the two feline girls darted into a villa in the suburbs.

They went to the professor and meowed, “Professor! It was so terrifying! We were going to capture Zhao Yao but a strange man stopped us.”

“The strange man was so scary! Our psychokinesis was useless against him.”

The professor was listening to the two feline girl’s report and frowned. “Strange man? Your psychokinesis was ineffective? Is it a kind of special power?”

Although he was surprised but he soon placed his focus somewhere else.

“It’s okay, there will always be a counterpower for powers. Occasionally meeting an apostle who is immune to psychokinesis is normal.” Professor Xu smiled excitedly and said, “You guys can forget about Zhao Yao for now. I have found traces of Fu Mi and her team. We need to capture them first.”

As he spoke, Professor Xu brought the two feline girls to the basement. “Before that, you have to replace your powers. I just bought a supercat that is more powerful. When you guys turn into fog and use his powers, no one will be able to stop you.”

In Xiaoyu’s bedroom, Zhao Xue, Ah Yuan, and Yellow Bro sat at the side awkwardly.

Xiaoyu was sitting opposite the three feline girls. She sized them up and Fish Ball, who was on her head, was also observing them.

“Feline girls?” Xiaoyu said in disbelief. “I don’t believe you. Unless you transform in front of me.”

Zhao Xue answered awkwardly. “Auntie Xiaoyu, why would I lie to you...” Transforming in front of Xiaoyu made her feel uncomfortable.

Ah Yuan stood and said, “It’s okay. Let me do it.”

Xiaoyu watched in shock as Ah Yuan transformed into a feline girl. Xiaoyu’s mouth dropped open and her eyes almost fell out.

Xiaoyu jumped up and walked rounds around Ah Yuan. She touched Ah Yuan's tail and blurted, "This is actually real?"

Ah Yuan blushed when her tail was touched. She avoided Xiaoyu's touch and protected her tail. "Don't... don't touch it!!"

"Hey," Xiaoyu looked at Ah Yuan enthusiastically. "Do you still have the cat transformation medicine? Give some to me. I want to become a feline girl too."

Ah Yuan shook her head and said, "We don't have that with us. Besides the cat transformation medicine may fail and you could die. Besides death you may even ..."

As she spoke, she transformed into a cat and meowed, "You could stay a cat forever." Zhao Xue translated for Ah Yuan who was in cat form.

Xiaoyu was disappointed. "I see."

When Fish Ball heard 'stay a cat forever', his eyes lit up. "If Xiaoyu drinks the cat transformation medicine and stays a cat forever..."

In his mind, he imagined the high school student turning into a small spotted cat.

...

Fish Ball would slap the small spotted cat on the head and threaten her, "Xiaoyu, why didn't you bury my shit? From now on every shit I take in the house will have to be buried by you. Do you hear me?"

The small spotted cat would ask, "Why should I?"

"Why should you?" Fish Ball laughs, "Because this is a world where the powerful are respected and I am the strongest of them all."

...

As he imagined the scene, he couldn't help but laugh and thought to himself, "If only Xiaoyu could become a cat."

Meanwhile Zhao Xue explained, "Auntie Xiaoyu, the thing is that the feline girls of the House of Cats have the power to turn into gas and use psychokinesis. We need your Spirit Cat powers to fight back."

Then, she introduced the feline girl's psychokinesis and physical abilities and the ability to borrow powers.

"I see." Xiaoyu asked, "Nekomata, are you willing to lend them your powers?"

Spirit Cat appeared in mid air, flew around the feline girls, and said, "Of course, there is no problem! Besides, I am also very interested in your existence."

Nekomata decided to follow the feline girls to their base. Under Xiaoyu's strong persuasion, she was also going to visit the base in spirit form.

Fish Ball hugged Xiaoyu's elbow and begged, "Xiaoyu bring me along too. I want to see the cat transformation medicine!"

"No." Xiaoyu avoided Fish Ball. "You are too weak. If I bring you along, I still have to protect you. It's so troublesome."

Xiaoyu and Nekomata followed Zhao Xue back to Fu Mi's base. After another round of introductions, Nekomata started lending her powers to the feline girls.

Soon, there were blurred figures of feline girls flying through the walls and furniture.

"It's so amazing!"

"Hahahaha. Psychokinesis still can be used."

"With this power, even if we can't fight the House of Cats, we don't have to worry about being caught," they exclaimed.

...

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao brought Black Panther to Uncle Ho. He introduced Black Panther's powers and God of Death's situation to Uncle Ho.

After hearing about Black Panther's powers, Uncle Ho's eyes lit up. "Ohhh. There are such extraordinary powers?" While in his mind he thought to himself, "I must not be friends with this guy. I have to blacklist him after this."

Chapter 642: Communication

Uncle Ho continued to listen to the relationship between Black Panther and God of Death. When he heard about Black Panther's current situation, he asked Black Panther solemnly, "Is Zhao Yao speaking the truth? You can identify God of Death's puppets?"

"I can't confirm if they are God of Death's puppets or not." Black Panther scratched his head. "But I do see them."

After hearing Black Panther, Uncle Ho thought of something and looked at Zhao Yao. "What do you want to do?"

"I am planning to locate all the God of Death's puppets." Zhao Yao touched his chin and said, "Although there are many of them, with help from the government, we should be able to do it, right?"

Uncle Ho nodded. "This is an important issue. I need to report to my superior about this."

Zhao Yao agreed and let him be. If he wanted to find all the God of Death's puppets, having Black Panther alone is not enough. He needed the government's support.

Once he succeeded, then, the country could step in and control all those puppets. By then, they would have the advantage. It didn't matter if they jailed, released or saved the puppets. In fact, if they could control all the God of Death's puppets, it means that God of Death would no longer be able to create more.

Or they could keep the puppets under surveillance and understand more about the God of Death's powers to find his weakness.

Of course all these things were easy to say but they required a massive amount of work that Zhao Yao alone could never complete. That's why he approached Uncle Ho.

Although he agreed to let Uncle Ho report this to his superior, he had his own conditions. "It is okay if you want to report it to your superior. However, I will not participate in the detailed planning. I have my own way in dealing with the God of Death."

Letting Black Panther assist the Government in looking for the God of Death's puppets was his back up plan. Compared to handing this to others, he trusted himself more.

"And, before you guys make a decision, Black Panther will have to be with me. I have promised to protect him."

Uncle Ho nodded. "I understand."

After talking to Uncle Ho, Zhao Yao left with Black Panther. They were going to meet Black Panther's supercat. Zhao Yao had to protect this important supercat too.

...

After Black Panther and Uncle Ho made contact, God of Death who was in Huadu started hesitating.

"According to my puppets in Jianghai, they reported that there is a high chance that Black Panther has already contacted the government through Zhao Yao."

"Although there is no evidence, from the reactions and schedules of the personnel in charge, it is most likely true."

The three puppets in front of God of Death glanced at each other. They were an elder, a teenage boy and a girl in her 20s. Among them, the teenager spoke, “Will this have a serious impact on your powers?”

All three of them were puppets with high intelligence, judgment, and social experience.

Because they were his puppets, the God of Death was confident that he could control them and hence, he did not have absolute control on them. He let them maintain their own consciousness while working for him.

When facing of Zhao Yao, the God of Death had activated many dangerous powers which he had never activated before. A few puppets were nothing.

God of Death shook his head and said, “It is uncertain. With Black Panther’s help, I can’t confirm if they can find my weakness. However, I will not take the risk.”

The elder said, “But Zhao Yao is protecting Black Panther. To kill Black Panther, we have to fight Zhao Yao. This is inconsistent with our plans.”

The girl said, “What about we find Black Panther’s supercat? If we cut the source of his powers...”

The teenager shook his head, “Zhao Yao is not an idiot. They would definitely protect the cat.”

The girl asked, “Then what do we do now? It’s too early to fight Zhao Yao. We are still unprepared. We are still in the middle of liberating more supercats to gain greater combat power.”

Before the two of them started arguing, the elder suddenly said, “Actually, I think we may be able to fight Zhao Yao.”

When saw everyone looking at him, he explained, “Zhao Yao has two advantages. The first is his personal powers. We have never seen such strong combat powers in a small scale fight. The second is how he affects God of Death. Without these two advantages, he is no different from an ordinary human.”

“If we avoid these two points and use our intel and large manpower to fight him...”

“For example, we make use of someone else. Zhao Yao does not have a strong intelligence network like us. If we use the God of Death’s puppets to create a conflict or hire someone else to deal with Zhao Yao. Then, he will not realise that we are the ones behind this.”

The teenager rejected the idea. “Normal apostles are too weak. They are no threat to Zhao Yao.”

The girl laughed, “If they are too weak then we can lend them powers.”

The teenager frowned. “Then we are exposing our powers.”

The girl laughed, “The amount of supercats we have is more than what Zhao Yao has. If both of us expose our powers, Zhao Yao will be the one at a disadvantage. In fact, Zhao Yao does not even know that these are our powers. But, we can learn more about his powers.”

The elder said, “It make sense. I agree to this idea, but we have to be careful. We can’t let Zhao Yao know that we are behind this.”

The girl said, “Zhao Yao has so many enemies. As long as the people who attack don’t know our identity, there is no way Zhao Yao will know we did it.”

From the start, God of Death was listening to the three puppets discuss. He then he opened his eyes suddenly and said, “Okay. We will execute this idea. Find an apostle to kill Zhao Yao and Black Panther. Lend him Satan’s powers.”

The elder added, “The first goal should be to kill Black Panther. After killing Black Panther we should then attack Zhao Yao. However, we can’t tell the apostle that our target is Black Panther. It would be too obvious he is sent by us.”

The teenager said, “As long as we take Zhao Yao out of the equation, Black Panther is dead. We can send our fighter and lend them powers. Now, we shall see how much powers Zhao Yao has.”

“Don’t be too pessimistic.” The girl smiled. “Zhao Yao is just a man. Even apostles are humans and not gods. As long as he is not careful, he is dead.”

The God of Death was highly efficient. For an organization with millions of people merged as one, his efficiency was far beyond any organization in this world.

Soon, a killer named Terminator was contacted by his puppet and entered the country.

With the aid of God of Death's intelligence network and apostles, Terminator was kidnapped five minutes after leaving the plane.

When he woke up again, he was already in a small dark house in Jianghai. There were four other men who were also awakening beside him. Terminator looked around, there were two white men, one black man and a guy with brown skin.

Chapter 643: Gather

In the dark room, the five of them looked at each other warily.

At this moment, in the dark room, a screen lit up. A man who was wearing a mask appeared. He looked at the five of them and said, "I hope you guys are well. If you haven't realized this yet, there is a new power in your body."

"Oh wait, I forgot that you guys can't hear."

After speaking, subtitles appeared on the screen.

The five of their faces changed immediately. They started howling and making all kind of noises.

At this moment all of them have realized that they couldn't hear.

Terminator looked at God of Death who was in the screen and yelled, "It doesn't matter who you are. I want you to remember that I will find you and I will kill you. Then, I will let my dog feed on your body."

The other four also let out different howls and threats.

Upon facing death threats from the five of them, God of Death laughed and said in the subtitles. "Will everyone calm, down, I will explain your current circumstances. Then, you will realize that things aren't as bad as they seem."

“Terminator, ex-member of the XXX special forces, participated in the XXXX war. He once killed seven armed men by himself. After becoming an apostle, he left the special force and used his powers to kill the CEO of XXX company.”

Terminator’s eyes narrowed menacingly.

“Black Mamba, ex-member of the Delta force, participated in the XXXX revolution and the assassination of OOOO. After becoming an apostle, he became a mercenary. He used his powers and single-handedly killed more than 200 armed men in North Africa.

When he saw the subtitles, the black man laughed coldly and flashed his teeth.

“Sharky and King Kong, both were ex-members of the Alpha team, participated in more than 50 counter-terrorism operations. They became apostles in the XXX fight. Both of them defeated a whole armored force and used that chance to fake their own deaths. After which both became well-known mercenaries.”

The two white men looked at each other and a strong intention to kill flashed through their eyes. They knew too much and to avoid being killed by the country, they had had to fake their own deaths. Who knew that the past they tried to cover up could be uncovered by someone so easily.

Then the God of Death looked at the guy with brown skin tone and said, “And Jaguar, ex-member of the Mexican XXX organization. After awakening, he killed the entire organization and escaped to North Africa to be a mercenary”

Looking at their shocked faces, God of Death laughed. “There is nothing to be surprised about. The strength of my Intelligence Network is beyond your imagination. For others, your identities may be a secret but for the more powerful countries, your identities are nothing.

“Now, let’s talk about the main focus. The five of you are the best killers and ex-special force members. You guys are the most dangerous people in the world. I have gathered all of you here to help me with something you are the best at. To kill someone.”

Compared to peaceful apostles like Zhao Yao, there were many people like the five of them who liked to use their powers for violence to benefit themselves.

The screen showed Zhao Yao's picture...

"This guy is called Zhao Yao. He is your target. He has many powers, some of which include teleportation, illusion, and psychokinesis."

"Especially his illusion powers. His illusion powers have a wide range and have excellent effects. It can kill people who can't resist the illusions immediately. However, according to our research, his illusions are transmitted through sound waves. To defend yourselves against this power, I have conducted a simple surgery on you to ensure that you can no longer hear anything. This way, you will not be affected by the illusions."

The last battle with Midnight, Old K, Lang Gou, and Zhao Yao, had allowed him to gather a lot of Intel. It was collected by God of Death through the humanoids.

Like the fact that the illusion is transmitted through sound, it was received by the humanoid's audio receiver and analyzed by God of Death afterwards.

Therefore, this time, God of Death specifically destroyed their hearing to prevent them from falling for the illusions.

But the God of Death did not provide other information like the fact that Zhao Yao can revive himself, his Murasama Blade or the Golden sword aura. This was because if they knew and were captured by Zhao Yao, after interrogation, they would give away God of Death immediately.

So except for powers like illusion, the God of Death did not give any clear information to prevent Zhao Yao from discovering that he was behind this.

After he spoke, the five of them in the dark room started shouting at him.

Terminator raged, "Nonsense. Apostles can only borrow one power. This is the rule. How can someone master so many powers at the same time?"

The black man laughed coldly and said, "I am not going to work for you, masked freak. Wait for my revenge. I will kill your entire family, including your son, your daughter, your wife, and your parents."

The other white man named Sharky turned and wanted to leave the place immediately. He started to look for an exit.

The God of Death did not reply to them but continued.

“If you can kill him for me, I will pay each of you 10 million USD, fix your hearing and give you your antidote.”

When the subtitles reached the end, all five of their faces changed.

The God of Death said, “If you don’t believe me, you can take a look at your inner right arm.”

The five of them looked at their inner arms and saw a black line extending out from their palm.

“As the toxins in your body spread, the black line will reach your heart in 12 hours and by then, you will be dead.”

After reading the subtitles, Jaguar laughed coldly. “Who of us will believe you? There is no such toxin in the world. Do you think we are children? I think we should escape from here, find you and kill you...”

The God of Death laughed and in the next moment, the black line on Jaguar’s wrist grew long and in everyone’s terror, it reached his heart. Then everyone watched as Jaguar spit out mouths of black blood and died.

This toxin was developed from the toxin powers of Old K. Although Old K was captured, his supercat was still with God of Death.

“Think about it, 10 million USD, recovered hearing, and your life. All these are enough for you to calm down.”

The five of them including Terminator calmed down. However, they gazed at the screen angrily and it was evident that all of them wanted to kill the person who kidnapped them.

“Then I shall continue to provide information. The target also has a buddy. The buddy seems to have the power of teleportation and the impressive part is that he can bring someone along with him during the teleportation. If you want to kill the target, you have to kill the buddy first.”

As he spoke, Black Panther’s photograph appeared on the screen. The God of Death did not list Black Panther as the first target as he did not want to expose himself.

At least, before he was prepared, he did not want to fight Zhao Yao.

After introducing both the Black Panther and Zhao Yao’s powers, God of Death said, “Now, I will introduce the power in you.”

Chapter 644: Tailing

The next day, because it was the weekend, Xiaoyu left her house early and rushed with Nekomata to the feline girls’ base.

At this point in time, she was still very interested in the feline girls. She really wanted to go play with the feline girls every day.

Not long after Xiaoyu left, a cat extended its head out from the window and glared at her coldly, “Humph, she’s going to find the feline girls without me.”

Fish Ball wanted to jump out of the window and tail Xiaoyu. However, a dog head stuck out his head beside him. “What are you trying to do, Fish Ball?”

Fish Ball jumped and looked at the husky who was staring at him and mumbled, “Suck up.”

“What did you say?” Noodle started barking, “Xiaoyu asked me to watch you and prevent you from getting into trouble. Before you try anything funny, you have to deal with me first.”

Fish Ball smacked his lips and asked Noodle, “Noodle, aren’t you interested in the feline girls? Don’t you think it is a good idea for Xiaoyu to turn into a feline girl?”

“Xiaoyu turning into a cat?” Noodle thought about it and shook his head vigorously. “No no no no. A human turning into a cat is not a good idea.”

Fish Ball thought about it and asked again. “What if she turns into a dog? If the professor can invent the cat transformation medicine, then he probably can invent dog transformation medicine? Or invent something that can turn us into humans? Don’t you want to go and see?”

However, it was apparent that the difference between a cat and a dog was huge. The cat transformation medicine was already a miracle, the possibility of inventing dog transformation medicine was close to impossible, let alone successfully transforming into a human.

However, to outsiders like Fish Ball and Noodle, they were similar things.

After Noodle heard what Fish Ball said, he could already imagine himself as a human.

...

Xiaoyu kissed the husky gently on the mouth and after a blinding light, she saw that the husky had turned into Ho Hao Cang.

Xiaoyu was overjoyed. “Noodle you are so handsome when you turn into a human.” Then she blushed and said, “Noodle, will you be my boyfriend?”

“No, Xiaoyu.” Ho Hao Cang shook his head and said, “You are great, but I don’t like you.” Then, he would leave Xiaoyu sorrowfully.

At this point in time, Zhao Yao would jump out and shout, “Noodle! Don’t you dare bully my aunt!”

Bang! After knocking down Zhao Yao, Ho Hao Cang shook his head. “Trash.”

...

As he imagined that scenario, his saliva started dripping onto the floor. He nodded his head and said, “Turning human is a great idea. I want to turn into a human!”

Fish Ball said, "Then we should follow Xiaoyu and look for the professor who invented the cat transformation medicine."

The husky picked up Fish Ball and swung the cat onto his back. "Sit tight." The next moment, he opened the door and dashed out of it.

Outside of Xiaoyu's house was a greenbelt. A stray cat saw the husky and Fish Ball run out of the building. It squinted its eyes and picked up the phone next to it.

Meanwhile, in the base of the Cao Gang, about 10 supercats were gathered together eating meat and sucking catmint. A cat looked at its vibrating cell phone and shouted, "Fish Ball is out!"

"He is finally out!"

"If he continued to hide in the human's house it would have been hard for us to find him, but he is out now!"

"Boss, let's capture him and demand our money back!"

When Matcha saw that all the cats were looking at him, Matcha thought to himself. "If we capture Fish Ball, would it expose the fact that they did not actually take our money?" As he thought about it he said, "This is not a simple issue. Let's discuss a plan.."

"Boss!" the floret cat yelled, "You want to let him go? He took our hard earned money!"

When Matcha saw all the cat's eyes narrow their eyes and start shaking their tails and lowering their bodies like they were ready to fight, he was slightly shocked. He immediately raised his paws and shouted, "Kill Fish Ball!"

All the cats raised their paws and shouted together, "Kill Fish Ball!"

Matcha raised his paw again. "Kill Dust Ball!"

All the cats followed suit. "Kill Dust Ball!"

“How in unison.” He looked at the agitated cats and shouted again. “Kill Zhao Yao!”

“Kill Zhao Yao!”

Suddenly the floret cat asked, “Who is Zhao Yao?”

Matcha brought all the cats to hunt Fish Ball down. They wanted to capture Fish Ball and ask for the whereabouts of their money

On the other side of the Dimension Portal, Lightning was watching intently. His right paw dipped in the fish can and said while licking his paw. “It’s coming! The climax is coming! Do we interfere if they fight?”

“Why interfere?” Elizabeth replied excitedly, “Let’s just watch.”

Roly Poly was typing on his phone. He seemed to be recording something. “Kill Fish Ball, 392 times. Kill Dust Ball, 103 times. Kill Zhao Yao, 502 324 times.”

Ares asked curiously, “Roly Poly, what are you recording?”

“Matcha’s conversation with the supercats.” Roly Poly frowned and said, “This information is very valuable and should be shown to Zhao Yao.”

In an office in the city, an official apostle picked up the phone and asked, “What is it?”

“What? The Cao Gang has been found?”

“Very good. Follow them, we will arrive immediately.”

The official apostle put down the phone and laughed coldly, “In this world, only death and taxes are inevitable.”

...

Meanwhile, Xiaoyu and Nekomata reached the feline girls' base. When they entered, they could feel the cold wind blowing and heard a soft humming in the air. The remote controls, cups, bottles, and computers were vibrating, in fact, the table moved by itself.

If an ordinary human came, they would have thought that the house was haunted.

But, Xiaoyu knew that it was the feline girls trying out their new powers.

She soon saw Ah Yuan's head appear on one side of the wall and looked at Xiaoyu delighted. "Xiaoyu! Nekomata's powers are fantastic."

As she spoke, Ah Yuan lifted her arm and the sofa floated.

When Xiaoyu saw this she grew envious because what Ah Yuan was doing now, was something that the pure spirit superpower was unable to accomplish.

Nekomata's powers had a lot of abilities. The most obvious ones were using virtual body and psychokinesis to create a supernatural phenomenon. However, these two abilities were mutually exclusive, from a virtual body to being a spirit that can't be seen. The more virtual the body gets, the weaker the psychokinesis. If they were in spirit form, then the psychokinesis could hardly be used.

However, the feline girls had Psychokinesis originally and it was not in conflict with the spirit superpower. It allowed them to use their psychokinesis powers when they are in virtual form.

Chapter 645: Ready to attack

The feline girls were going around their room and moving the furniture around their rooms with psychokinesis.

After their practice, the feline girls deactivated their powers and joined Xiaoyu. They were eating dinner and planning on what to do next.

Fu Mi was very satisfied. “This is great. With the spirit superpower and our psychokinesis, we will definitely win the House of Cats.”

Shui Yao twitched her cat ears and said enthusiastically, “When are we going to set off?”

“Let me think.” Fu Mi scratched her head. “There are fewer people at night so it’ll bring about less damage. Let’s go tonight.”

Sphinx cat looked at the feline girls who were discussing their attack plan and frowned. “This combination is cheating. If I want to win against them, I have to attack them before they turn into spirit form or I won’t stand a chance. The key to fighting them is to initiate the fight.”

While the feline girls were planning how to attack the House of Cats, in a building not far from them, 12 feline girls observed where Fu Mi, Zhao Xue, and the others were.

One of them twitched her ears and said to the phone. “Professor Xu, we have confirmed their location.”

“No.1 you will report to me and you are in charge of this attack. The rest, prepare to attack. “A voice came from the phone and ordered, “Capture them and bring them back.”

“Yes!”

The next moment, No.1 who had just answered the call, launched the power that Professor Xu had just bought. She pressed down on a feline girl and said, “Invisible!”

In that instant, that feline girl vanished into thin air. However, if closely looked at, one could see a blurry human figure.

This was the new power Professor Xu had bought. It was to turn the target invisible.

Then, No.1 turned all the other 12 feline girls invisible. The only flaw was that the surface of their bodies refracted light unnaturally.

However, when they turned in to gas, it was impossible to see with the naked eye. They were like a cool breeze blowing towards the base.

When the feline girls from House of Cats were about to attack, opposite the school where Fu Mi was, a dog and a cat stuck their heads out.

Fish Ball was solemn. “Did you see that? Xiaoyu just went in.”

Noodle nodded his head. “Yes, she went in. What are we going to do now? We can’t go in straight away, Xiaoyu will see us.”

When they thought about the consequences of being discovered by Xiaoyu, both of them shivered.

Fish Ball thought to himself. “Damn it, she is just a high school student and yet she terrifies us. I have to turn her into a cat! I will let her know how powerful I am in the cat realm.”

Noodle: “For the peace between cats and dogs, for the peace between humans and supercats, I have to turn into a human and do something. Although being a dog is not bad, there are too many restrictions.”

Noodle thought about it and said, “When Xiaoyu comes out, we can pretend like we don’t know Xiaoyu, get to know the feline girls and wait for an opportunity.”

While Fish Ball and Noodle were observing the feline girl’s base, about one street away, another cat stretched its head out and sent a message. “Boss, Fish Ball and that dog have stopped. I don’t know what they are trying to do, but they don’t look like they are up to any good.” He snapped a photo and sent it over.

Over on Matcha’s side, a dozen supercats was surrounded by a breeze. It made their jumping and running abilities increase drastically. They were jumping around on the building and rushed towards Matcha.

It was apparent that among the supercats, there was a supercat who could control the wind.

Matcha felt his phone vibrate and stopped. All the supercats around him stopped too and looked at Matcha’s phone.

The previous news from the cat spy was simpler and it did not mention the husky. When they saw the photo and its content, all the cats were infuriated.

“Jerk! This Fish Ball befriends dogs?”

“He is a cat traitor! I knew there was something wrong with him long ago.”

“Kill Fish Ball!”

“Kill Fish Ball!”

Matcha thought to himself. “Noodle? Why are both of them out?” When he thought about it, he smirked and said, “Whatever, we can take care of the dog together.”

Then, Matcha lead the supercats and ran towards the position of Fish Ball and Noodle.

Not far from them, three black cars zoomed past. There were official apostles all armed with anesthesia guns, electric batons, and bulletproof vests.

“Where are they?”

“About 500 meters away from us.”

“Follow them closely.”

Terminator, King Kong, Sharky, and Black Mamba sat down calmly in a drinks stall not far from Zhao Yao’s café. The violence in their eyes gave away what they were feeling inside.

“That bastard. When everything is over, I will tear him into pieces.” Terminator thought to himself and looked at the other three. “That guy is so secretive, I am afraid that after completing the task, he will not let us live either. The only thing we can threaten him with is the target’s life.”

“No matter how we carry this operation out, it is best if we reach a common consensus.”

Terminator’s eyes narrowed. “However, should I communicate with the other guys? Can I trust them?”

As he was thinking about it, the Russian guy named Sharky sat up straight and wrote on the table with water. “When we accomplish the mission we will be killed.”

After seeing what he wrote, all the other three sat up straight and blocked what Sharky had written in every angle.

Upon seeing this, Sharky’s eyes lit up and continued, “With our current powers we completely have the power to capture the target and use him to negotiate with the guy behind this. It is our only chance.”

Sharky looked up and watched their reactions. When he saw that Terminator, Black Mamba, and King Kong nod their heads, he smiled.

At that moment, the phone given by the God of Death rang. It was a message.

“The target has appeared.”

Chapter 646: Attack

After receiving the information, the Terminator’s team of four looked in the direction of the café and thought, “Are they coming?”

At the same time, inside the café, Zhao Yao had just exited the Dimension Portal. He walked down the stairs then settled down at his favorite place.

In the building opposite the café, the puppet of the King of Death was spying on Zhao Yao with binoculars, however, he did not discover any trace of Black Panther.

“Where did he hide Black Panther?”

The target of the Terminator team was Zhao Yao. However, the King of Death was very sure, the person he wanted rid of was Black Panther.

Before the appearance of Black Panther, the King of Death would not allow the Terminator team to take any action.

However, Black Panther had not made his appearance and time was running out as the lives of the Terminator team were being held hostage by the toxin.

The King of Death tilted his head and brooded, “Worse comes to worst, I shall sacrifice the four of them. Even if they die, not many people will investigate.”

The King of Death did not expect that he would be unable to trace the whereabouts of Black Panther, even with his superior intelligence gathering.

...

In the home base of Fu Mi, eleven transparent streams of energy transformed into gentle breezes and came in via the windows, gaps in the door and pipes.

Zhao Xue, Xiaoyu, and Fu Mi did not detect the intrusion. They gathered around the dining table, taking their meal and chatting about their plans.

Sphinx cat was sprawled on a chair by the dining table. He kept his body very still while he abruptly jerked his ear and looked intensely in the direction of the opened window.

The intruding feline girl who was detected was frightened. “This cat can see me.” She continued her original action—transforming into a gentle breeze and blowing into the room.

Sphinx cat furrowed his brows. “The wind? Am I too sensitive?” After dismissing his thoughts, he closed his eyes and the body vibrated mildly as he continued his training.

Xiaoyu declared, "Tonight, I want to watch the battle! All of you will be fighting and I will only watch from the sidelines."

Fu Mi frowned and said, "Aren't you going to class tomorrow? It is not good for you to go out so late."

"This is not the time for classes. We are fighting against the evil organization and saving the world. There is no time for classes." Xiaoyu turned her head and noticed Yellow Bro staring with her big eyes at the pudding in her bowl.

Xiaoyu immediately covered her pudding and said, "That is mine!"

Zhao Xue caressed Yellow Bro's head and said, "Yellow Bro since you like pudding, have mine since I do not like sweet stuff." Yellow Bro immediately swallowed the pudding from Zhao Xue in one gulp and looked intensely satisfied.

Ah Yuan was concerned and said, "Don't let her eat too much. She has been putting on weight recently."

As Zhao Xue was about to reply, she abruptly creased her brows. "Do all of you feel that the wind is suddenly stronger?"

Sphinx cat suddenly opened his eyes and meowed, "Something is wrong!" At this moment, as his body was not covered in fur, he was able to sense with clarity that winds from all directions were blowing on his body. This was not logical.

Since he did not know what methods of attack were used, Sphinx cat could only dodge and hide.

A loud explosion ensued. The chair underneath Sphinx cat crashed with a loud boom. Fortunately, he had already knocked through the walls with Zhao Xue and flew out of the school compound. He only brought along Zhao Xue because her constitution had significantly improved by his training superpower and she could withstand the acceleration from his high-speed movements.

If it were other feline girls, the wall knocking would have killed them instead of saving them.

At the instant when Sphynx cat retreated, the eleven feline girls from the House of Cats activated their psychokinesis which wore down on bodies of Fu Mi, Yellow Bro, Ah Yuan, Ah Zhe, Shui Yao, and Xiaoyu.

Yellow Bro, Ah Zhe, Shui Yao, and Ah Yuan passed out before they could react.

Only Fu Mi, who had superior strength and rich battle experience and Xiaoyu, who trusted Sphynx cat's instinct, activated the Spirit superpower and evaded the attack.

As for the Spirit Cat, its normal ethereal form was immune to the attack.

Fu Mi looked at her four unconscious companions and shouted furiously, "Who is that?"

Sphynx cat narrowed his eyes and surveyed the four fallen ones in the house, thinking, "They executed a preemptive strike." After seeing Zhao Xue rush forward, he tried to restrain her by grabbing with his paw. As she was in ethereal form, she passed through his body and disappeared into the air.

Sphynx cat reminded her, "Zhao Xue, do not act rashly. Figure out the enemy's abilities first." After giving advice, Sphynx cat had no intention of falling headlong into battle. Instead, he scurried away and went into hiding, just like a crouching tiger in the mountains, secretly waiting for an opportunity.

Because he knew that the attackers were most likely the feline girls from the House of Cats. As they had psychokinesis, if they executed a preemptive strike and he got lifted up, he would be in serious trouble.

Hence hiding and waiting for an opportunity to execute a death shot was more effective than rushing headlong into battle.

The ethereal form of Zhao Xue did not have these concerns. She directly rushed into the room and extended her grasping hand to activate psychokinesis, intending to snatch back her unconscious friends.

Although the Psychokinesis was activated, she felt an overbearing force controlling Ah Yuan and the rest. Zhao Xue's lone power was unable to move their bodies at all.

Fu Mi, who was also in ethereal form, shouted, "Someone is using psychokinesis! Have to find them first!" Fu Mi was unable to see the ethereal form of Zhao Xue, hence the shout was a private communication via their shared consciousness.

The eleven feline girls of the House of Cats shouted together, "They are nearby, find them!"

Fu Mi shouted in shock, "Who is here?"

"Where are you?"

"Do not break my vase!"

With the vase dropping onto the floor, several psychokinetic forces instantly pounded onto its location.

Fu Mi and Zhao Xue were unable to see the eleven feline girls of the House of Cats and vice versa. Hence, they relied on their subconsciousness and attacked any sudden movements.

This caused a chain reaction and the whole room was filled with psychokinesis. Violent forces swept all over the place, wrecking the entire house. Table and chairs, electric appliances, and ornaments were crushed into pieces. Even the walls were filled with holes, as though they were ripped by wild beasts.

The unconscious feline girls were protected subconsciously by both parties, however, the entire room was a war zone.

Moments later, both sides paused and surveyed the room, which was in utter ruin. They were also observing if their opponents had been killed by the psychokinesis storm.

Chapter 647: Infiltration

"What actually happened?"

"Who hit me?"

"Who am I hitting?"

“Where am I?”

“Where is the enemy?”

During the battle of the school compound, Fu Mi, Zhao Xue, and the House of Cats’ eleven feline girls were all fighting in the dark. Nobody had any idea what was happening.

At this moment, everyone stopped to ascertain if their enemies had been defeated.

The next instant, Ah Yuan was dragged along the ground by the psychokinesis of Zhao Xue. Her action was countered by the eleven feline girls from the House of Cats and they activated their Psychokinesis to grab Ah Yuan.

“D*mn, they are still here.” Zhao Xue frowned.

One of the feline girls from the House of Cats yelled, “Fu Mi, you can’t escape, come out.”

Fu Mi retorted, “Even if I come out, you won’t be able to capture me. Release Ah Yuan and the rest.”

“We will release them if you come out!”

“Release them first then I will come out!”

The two of them bickered as though they were little kids. Maybe they were still kids... Zhao Xue rolled her eyes and thought, “The feline girls from the House of Cats have borrowed similar Spirit superpower to ours, so they are untouchable state and yet able to activate psychokinesis.”

“This is getting tricky.”

Zhao Xue would not be so worried if both sides were unable to hit each other. However, they had been caught by surprise. Ah Yuan, Yellow Bro, Ah Zhe, and Shui Yao were knocked unconscious on the floor and restrained by their opponent’s psychokinesis.

This meant that the enemy had hostages. Even if Zhao Xue and Fu Mi escaped, they would have captured four of their companions and the House of Cats would have won half the battle.

Meanwhile, Fu Mi and the feline girl from the other side were bickering furiously.

Fu Mi taunted, “You fool, why did you help Professor Xu? He is a villain. He caused us to be like this!”

The opposing feline girl retorted scornfully, “What is so bad about us? We are stronger, prettier and more intelligent. We are far superior to humans!”

Fu Mi hollered in anger, “What about those who died?”

“Professor Xu is able to resurrect them.” The opposing feline girl continued, “They are only brain dead and Professor Xu has been trying to resurrect them. As long as we have more resources,, more experiments and consolidate both our powers to gather more resources, Professor Xu will definitely be successful. Professor Xu will make us even prettier with bigger busts, longer legs and slimmer faces...”

Xiaoyu asked excitedly, “Really?”

Fu Mi reprimanded angrily, “Xiaoyu! How can you believe them?”

The opposing feline girl sneered and said, “Why shouldn’t we believe him? If we don’t believe an inventor of the cat transformation medicine, who has a doctorate and is a talented genius, should we believe a brat like you, who has not even graduated from junior high school?”

“Ah! This is infuriating!!”

Pandemonium erupted in the room once again. No matter how they fought, there were no casualties. All their valiant efforts were in vain.

As both sides engaged in the meaningless battle, Fish Ball and Husky gathered at the wall surrounding the school.

Fish Ball asked, "Noodle, what are you searching for?"

Noodle walked along the base of the wall sniffing here and there. While searching, he said, "Looking for a dog hole, we cannot wait like fools outside and be in the dark. We have to get closer, observe them at close proximity in order to collect intelligence."

Fish Ball said, "Huh? I don't see the need." He looked at his body and said, "I am such an adorable kitten, normal kids will go crazy if they see me. Wait until Xiaoyu leaves, we shall enter directly."

Noodle frowned with disdain. Abruptly, his ears perked up and his eyes brightened. "Found it, over here." He dug out a dog hole from the bushes and squirmed headfirst into it.

Fish Ball looked at the struggling buttocks of Husky, licked his paws and said, "Are you alright? Quickly go inside."

"There is a small problem." Noodle pushed with all his might and his face became solemn. "I think I am stuck."

"Ah?" Fish Ball was unhappy. He stepped on Noodle's backside and said, "Get off, let me go in."

"No..." Noodle said nervously, "I think I can neither go in nor come out."

"Stupid dog." Fish Ball kicked Noodles' backside viciously a few more times before saying, "Told you not to eat so much. Now you are so obese that you can't get into a dog hole."

"Wait." Noodle said, "I haven't pooped today. After pooping, I will be able to fit inside."

Fish Ball rolled his eyes and said, "Hurry up."

"Don't say a word." Noodle said, "This requires utmost concentration. I cannot be distracted."

As they were conversing, tens of cats' heads popped out from the rooftop of the opposite building. Their leader, Matcha, looked at Noodle and Fish Ball, who were at the corner of the wall, and yelled, "They are here. Everyone, follow me! Catch that Fish Ball and get back our money!"

Meow! The group of supercats replied in unison. They leaped down from the building with the aid of the breeze and rushed towards Fish Ball and Noodle.

Fish Ball and Noodle were puzzled. Noodle asked bewilderedly, “What happened? Why are there so many cat meows?”

Fish Ball turned back to look and he said in astonishment, “It is Matcha. He brought along a large group of cats who are charging towards us.”

“Quickly chase them away.” Noodle said in anxiety, “I feel like I am about to poop.”

Fish Ball smiled and waved his paw at Matcha. “Matcha, why are you here?”

“You dare to steal our Cao Gang’s money!” Matcha roared, “You are dead, Fish Ball!”

The cats behind echoed in unison, “You are dead, Fish Ball!”

Fish Ball was dumbstruck. “What the hell?” Seeing the gang approach with murderous intent, Fish Ball nervously kicked Noodle and hollered, “Silly dog, go in quickly!”

Noodle looked constipated expression as he said, “Don’t rush me... the more you rush, the harder it is.”

As Matcha and his gang were about ten meters away and Fish Ball was in a state of panic, a booming explosion rang.

The wall inside of which Noodle was stuck crumbled into million pieces and hurtled in all directions.

This high wall behind the school was built during World War II. It was three meters tall and half-a-meter thick. It was exploded with such power that it shook the ground vigorously. The wall crumbled in layers. Even the ground underneath undulated with the immense force, causing Noodle and Fish Ball to be scared stiff.

Sphinx walked out after using his palm to demolish the wall. His ears quivered as he looked at Fish Ball and Noodle. "Fish Ball? Good timing, I need your help."

The charging Matcha and the Cao Gang of supercats were dumbstruck by the demolition and they stopped in their tracks. Matcha had a deep understanding of Sphinx cat and his terrifying ability so he could not bully Fish Ball.

Matcha pointed to an empty street and shouted to his right, "Fish Ball! Where are you running to? Everyone, let's pursue him! Don't let that d*mn cat escape." He bolted after shouting.

The remaining cats hesitated for a while, then hollered before following Matcha.

Chapter 648: Seeking help

Upon seeing Matcha, Sphinx cat was overjoyed. He wiggled his leg and stirred up air pressure underneath. In an instant, he appeared in front of Matcha. The strong draught he created ruffled Matcha's fur and the booming sound surrounded him. A pit was created by Sphinx's landing.

Sphinx cat swept up Matcha in his mouth and said, "Need your help. Follow me."

"Wait a minute!" The floret cat hollered, "Where do you intend to take our Cao Gang leader?"

Sphinx cat gave them a scornful look and put one of his legs on the ground. After an explosion, the cement floor started cracking, forming a depression which finally became a crater.

The floret cat swiveled around, pointed to the empty street and shouted at the top of his voice, "Our gang leader is being kidnapped! Everyone, follow me to rescue him!" The group of supercats followed him and bolted off.

Matcha looked at the fleeing Cao Gang and sighed, "They have learnt fast, definitely more shameless than I am. They will have a bad ending in the future." Rubbing his paws, Matcha smiled at Sphinx and asked, "Brother, what can I do for you?"

Although Matcha could make use of Time Freeze to escape, he understood clearly that if Sphynx cat really wanted to catch him, he would not be able to outrun him even if he sprinted for the entire duration of the Time Freeze. So he gave up resisting.

Sphynx cat bolted towards the school with Matcha in his mouth. “There are four unconscious kids on the floor. I want you to activate Time Freeze and drag them out.”

The Sphynx cat had an accurate analysis of the situation in the house. As the enemy had launched a preemptive strike, there was no way his side could win this fight.

The crux of the fight was the four hostages. Currently outnumbered and unable to rescue the hostages with psychokinesis, it was a matter of time before the enemy could threaten them using the hostages.

Hence, it was of utmost importance to think of a way to rescue the four hostages. Only then could they have a choice to fight or flee.

Sphynx cat abruptly stopped in his tracks and asked, “Matcha, are you able to rescue the kids from this place using Time Freeze?” Normally, Matcha was not able to push people, however, Sphynx cat recalled that Matcha had rapid speed during Time Freeze and that greatly enhanced his pushing capability and the effects on the material world.

However, Sphynx was not sure of Matcha’s upper limit which is why he posed the question.

After hearing the question, Matcha pounded his chest and assured, “Don’t you worry, I train daily. What is so daunting about pushing a few kids?”

Sphynx noticed Matcha’s shaking potbelly and showed a face of distrust. He turned his head back and grabbed Fish Ball by his mouth.

He brought the two cats to the back of the wall. Slapping the wall, he explained, “Matcha, later on, I will demolish this wall. Making use of this distraction, you will rush in using Time Freeze. Rescue the four unconscious kids on the floor and think of a way to wake them. Inform them to activate their Spirit superpower and prepare for battle.

Fish Ball shouted, “What about me?”

“Emit light with all your might.” Sphynx cat said, “Matcha, bring along Fish Ball after you activate Time Freeze.”

After nodding to Matcha, Sphynx cat exerted his strength and slapped the wall forcefully, instantly creating a large hole in the wall.

Momentarily, all the feline girls in the house were focused on the broken wall and in that instant, the entire world came to a stop.

A level eight Time Freeze with a duration of 12 seconds was activated. Matcha had a multiplier effect of 8 times, meaning that he had 96 seconds in the Time Freeze.

Matcha patted on the head of Sphynx cat arrogantly and said condescendingly, “To think that you are so muscular and yet depend on me to rescue everyone?”

He extended his white paw and slowly went over the debris of the wall. With a casual expression, Matcha strolled in, thinking, “This Sphynx cat was so overbearing just now, should I just run away instead?”

However, after considering the stalwart build of Sphynx cat, Matcha swallowed hard. “Forget it, because of his sincere begging, I shall help him a little.”

“Yes, I forgot about Fish Ball.”

Hence, Matcha turned back to grab Fish Ball and entered the room.

He sized up the environment and noticed the four little girls lying on the floor not far away. Matcha thought, “Are those the four?”

Matcha immediately walked forward, bit their sleeves and dragged with all his might and straightening his tail. Even his nose turned red from the exertion.

No matter how hard he tried, they would not budge.

“They are not budging...” Matcha stared blankly at the little girl before him. Suddenly his gaze flashed with brilliance. “If I am unable to move them, I may as well wake them up directly. I don’t think the activation of the Spirit superpower is that difficult?”

“How shall I wake them up?” Matcha surveyed the surroundings. All objects were destroyed and none of them were usable.

His eyes brightened abruptly and he stood up, aiming his lower part of the body at Ah Yuan’s cheeks and saying, “Let my holy water awaken you.”

Shoo! It shot out without much energy and scattered directly on the body of Fish Ball, who was by his leg.

Matcha immediately held back and thought, “D*mn, I didn’t sleep well last night.”

He aimed accurately, breathed deeply for a few times to accumulate his energy and shoo! His stream shot up in mid-air and scattered all over the place.

Matcha immediately held back once again. “The problem with my strong constitution is that it is hard to control. Seems like I can only shoot at close range.”

Hence, he hurriedly sat on Ah Yuan’s face and aimed at her cheeks. Shoo! Shoo! Shoo! After that, he proceeded to the other three feline girls. Once it was done, he aimed at the sky and relieved himself for a while before feeling a sense of relief.

“Haha! This time, my volume is greater than Zhao Yao’s, seems like my kidney is the world’s number one.”

Sensing that time was running out, Matcha bolted off.

Just as he left the room, the time resumed. There was a terrible stench in the air and a series of exclamations ensued.

“What is that?”

“It stinks!”

“Get out of the way! Who urinated?”

Sensing the urine particles in the air, everyone thought that a feline girl who had activated Spirit superpower had urinated in the air. They subconsciously got out of the way and quickly fled from the urine-filled environment.

Xiaoyu’s body drifted through the urine-filled air, her eyes observing the urine particles passing through her ethereal body. She opened her mouth and screamed at the top of her voice.

Fish Ball followed Sphynx cat’s instructions and emitted bright rays, instantly blinding everyone.

Although Sphynx cat did not know if the enemy was using their eyesight to sense their surroundings, losing Fish Ball was no big deal, he might as well have taken the risk.

Fish Ball was emitting light and feeling indignant at the terrible stench on his body. “Matcha! If I do not take revenge, my name is not Fish Ball!”

Ah Yuan and the rest were completely drenched. After waking up, while everyone was blinded by Fish Ball’s light, they transformed into their ethereal forms.

“This Matcha is indeed unreliable. However, right now two wrongs make a right.”

After observing the situation, Sphynx cat withdrew from the edge of the battle and did a detailed analysis. “The battle experience of the feline girls was too superficial. They were in the ethereal form and yet afraid of being drenched in urine. If it were me, I would ignore the urine and activate psychokinesis. Ah Yuan and the rest would not have a chance to transform.”

Meanwhile, Matcha had just run off from the collapsed wall and saw the supercats of Cao Gang scurrying towards him. Matcha was overjoyed and asked, “Are you coming to rescue me?”

The floret cat screamed, “No gang leader! A lot of cops have arrived!”

Chapter 649: Escape

Numerous police cars blocked the street entrance. More than ten government apostles alighted from three black vans and gazed at the fleeing Matcha and floret cats.

“So many cops!” Matcha subconsciously wanted to activate Time Freeze, however, his urination just now had used up the duration of Time Freeze and it had entered a cooling period. Hence, he followed the group of supercats, who changed direction and hid behind a wall.

When the group of cats turned their heads, they saw flora, stones, cement, tables, and chairs flying around in mid-air with these items occasionally smashed into pieces.

Fish Ball had finished emitting light and was sprawled on the floor, dodging the flying objects above his head. He crawled slowly in the direction of the exit and ground his teeth, saying, “Matcha, if I catch you, I will feed you my feces.”

The air echoed with the frantic voices of the feline girls.

“Scoundrels of the House of Cats, quickly get lost!”

“It is of no use, your psychokinesis is no match for ours. Witness how we are demolishing your house.”

A loud explosion ensued. A few large beds flew out of the window from the bedroom and smashed on the ground.

Fu Mi and the rest immediately countered with their psychokinesis. Under the stress of more than ten streams of psychokinesis, the large bed lasted for a few seconds before it was shredded into five to six pieces with a bang.

Matcha was gaping as he watched the scene. “S*it, this place is more dangerous than I thought.”

As he turned his head, more than ten government apostles activated Speed Increase and appeared next to Matcha. They restrained Matcha’s head and stated, “Mao Mao of the Cao Gang, you are under arrest.”

Matcha immediately retorted, “I am not Cao Gang’s leader, I am an impersonator. You have arrested the wrong cat.”

The government apostles did not understand cat language and shouted, “Stop yelling, talk when you are at the station.”

Upon hearing Matcha, the arrested cats of the Cao Gang glared intensely at Matcha.

Matcha glared back and yelled, “What is there to see, haven’t you seen a Jianghai Scottish Fold before?”

“Enough, stop yelling!”

The government apostle tied up Matcha using a rope. At this time, another government apostle restrained Noodle and asked, “Officer, what shall we do with this dog?”

Everyone turned their head to take a look, the husky was spitting out his tongue and smiling at them in a silly way.

“Why do you capture a dog? Release it.”

Husky wagged his tail and fled.

In the next instant, everyone was intrigued by the battle of the feline girls and lifted their heads to watch.

“What is happening? Are apostles with psychokinesis fighting?” The government apostle commanded, “Whoever you are, stop immediately...”

“Get lost!” The yelling government apostle was lifted by the psychokinesis, smashed into the wall and knocked unconscious.

Fu Mi hollered, “Run! All of you are unable to defeat them!”

The government apostles did not yield. Half of them took custody of Matcha and the Cao Gang while the other half rushed forward. They activated their Speed Increase superpower and flashed around the battlefield, looking for the traces of other apostles.

It was not long before they discovered that they were unable to find their enemies.

“What happened?”

“Nobody.”

“Invisibility? Use infrared imaging.”

Unfortunately, infrared imaging, sonar detection, and electronic imaging were unable to detect any enemies. Instead, they succumbed to the forces of psychokinesis and were knocked unconscious.

Without a visible target and being targeted by invisible attacks, the government apostles were in a disadvantaged position.

Matcha waited patiently for the 12 seconds of cooling down period and casually watched the fighting.

The cats of the Cao Gang, who were being tied up, glared intensely at Matcha. Baring their teeth, they threatened, “D*mn cat, how dare you lie to us?”

“Hehe.” Matcha recalled their pitiful state when they were being restrained and tied up. He laughed mockingly as he taunted, “Not only did I lie to you, but I also spent all your money. Are you very angry?”

After the taunting, the eyes of the Cao Gang turned bloody red. All of them glared at Matcha so intensely that his heart beat frantically.

“Hehehehe, I love the way you looked when you hit the roof and were helpless.” Matcha said, “Wait till you are released from prison, I shall make a move first.” He activated Time Freeze.

In the frozen time frame, Matcha wanted to escape, however, he was bound by ropes and was unable to move an inch.

“This is horrible!”

He shook his body, with great determination. He fell onto the ground with a loud bam and rolled onto the streets. As he rolled faster and faster, he traveled far beyond the battlefield.

“Hahahaha! Nobody can catch me Matcha... Ouch...”

...

Behind the Dimension Portal, Dust Ball lamented, “Matcha is missing again!”

Lightning shouted, “Find him quickly.”

Caesar watched the battlefield from the Dimension Portal and asked, “The fight is getting interesting, do we intervene?”

“None of our business.” Elizabeth yelled, “Chase after Matcha. I want to witness that despicable cat being beaten.” She activated her power of illusion and controlled the government apostles to release the supercats of the Cao Gang.

The cats of the Cao Gang did not know what happened and seized the opportunity to flee.

“Capture that d*mn orange cat!”

“Kill that orange cat!”

“Kill that orange cat!”

Ares looked at the flashing and disappearing Sphinx cat from the portal and urged, “Look for Matcha, Matcha’s situation is more exciting. There is nothing to watch in this invisible fighting.”

With the urging of the cat assembly, Dust Ball controlled the Dimension Portal to search for Matcha.

...

“Trash!” A feline girl activated her psychokinesis. A government apostle was lifted up and tossed out as she yelled, “Do not hinder us!”

Fu Mi immediately countered with her psychokinesis and put him down gently. She became anxious and thought, “This cannot go on. Besides us, the normal apostles are not able to fight against the feline girls as their triple superpowers were too overwhelming.”

Ah Yuan hollered, “Normal apostles quickly retreat. This is not your fight.”

The government apostles realized their folly. Those who were able to flee, fled. Those who were unable to escape retreated to a safe distance surrounding the school and called for help.

Fu Mi and Ah Yuan understood that if not for their intervention, no matter how many apostles were here, they were unable to defeat the feline girls nor prevent them from leaving.

In a bush nearby, Sphinx cat shook his head as he surveyed the situation. “What kind of a messy fight is this?”

He whipped out his cell phone using his mouth and messaged Zhao Yao using WeChat.

“It is time to call Zhao Yao. This is a situation only he can settle.”

Sphinx cat messaged, “Zhao Yao, the feline girls are fighting and the situation is out of control. Come quickly.”

In the cat café, Zhao Yao was sitting on a chair playing computer games. He looked down and his phone was vibrating. He picked it up and asked, “Yes? A bad situation?”

“It is a bit far.” Zhao Yao recalled the address and frowned as he thought, “The Flying Cloak requires a Spicy Cat strip since it is not so urgent, I can use that...”

If Zhao Yao knew that Matcha and the Dimension Portal were very near to the battlefield, he would definitely have used the portal.

He had another method which was equally fast.

One minute later, after receiving a message, Black Panther, who was on Cat Island, arrived at the cat café via the Extradimensional Belly. Standing in front of Zhao Yao, he asked, “Headless mentor, is there anything wrong?”

Half a minute later, Black Panther carried Zhao Yao on his back with a worried face. Zhao Yao patted his head and said, “Black Panther, let’s go.”

“Black Panther, let’s go!”

Chapter 650: Pursuit

After listening to Zhao Yao, Black Panther sighed and said, “Black Panther’s negative emotions +999...”

“Black Panther, are you happy now?” Zhao Yao slapped Black Panther’s head and yelled, “Activate now.”

Black Panther activated his superpower with a gloomy face.

Instantly, numerous bright spots appeared in Black Panther’s vision. He could feel that everyone was his brother and was close to him.

Within the defined boundary, he could instantly appear behind them and stab their kidneys viciously.

Swoosh!

Black Panther carried Zhao Yao on his back and disappeared instantly. Reappearing behind a middle-aged man, he stabbed his back viciously before disappearing once again. This time, he appeared behind a youth.

The youth was urinating when he screamed in pain and fell into the urinals.

This was just the beginning. With the consecutive activation of his superpower, Black Panther brought Zhao Yao towards the direction of the feline girls. Along the way, they created quite a bit of chaos.

“Ah!”

“Ah!”

“Oh!”

“Ooo!”

A series of screams rang from the puppets of the King of Death. The King of Death covered his kidney fuming while his other hand typed furiously on the cell phone. “Black Panther, I am going to kill him! I am going to kill him!!”

At the same time, Terminator, King Kong, Sharky, and Black Mamba received the message from the King of Death.

“Zhao Yao and Black Panther have appeared. Black Panther is teleporting with Zhao Yao and traveling at high speed.”

“Kill Black Panther, prevent him from assisting Zhao Yao, then exterminate Zhao Yao.”

The eyes of the four men emitted cold rays. It was their turn to take action.

Sharky used his finger that was soaked in cold water to write on the table top. “Kill Black Panther, capture Zhao Yao, do not take his life.”

The four men gazed at each other and nodded.

The next moment, the surrounding passers-by let out gasps of astonishment as black flames appeared on the bodies of the four men. The ominous flames burnt fervently, however they appeared harmless as their clothing and objects were intact.

The four men rushed out of the convenience shop and leaped a few steps before shooting up to the roof and running in the direction of Zhao Yao.

With the combustion of the black flames, Terminator felt explosive energy circulating in his body, almost about to spill out of his body and engulf the entire world.

On every leap, powerful energy emitted from his soles. The ground underneath his soles cracked opened and the reactive force pushed their bodies into the sky. They felt as though they had been relieved of the gravitational pull of the Earth. Within a blink of an eye, they had traveled hundreds of meters in distance.

Leaping on the rooftops of high rise buildings, they closed in gradually on Black Panther's moving position.

The King of Death's puppets did not span all of Jianghai, so Black Panther still required Zhao Yao to spare a few steps and some detours.

The Terminator team however traveled in a straight line with astonishing speed. The King of Death updated them continuously on the location of Black Panther.

One of the puppets of the King of Death lifted his head and saw the four men leaping tens of meters in mid-air, from one building to another. His face looked intensely satisfied.

"Satan's Dark Scorch is able to absorb damage and strengthen the body temporarily. The greater the damage, the stronger the body becomes. They had accumulated several injuries, hence their bodies were as strong as Superman.

Dark Scorch is my most powerful superpower for direct confrontation." The King of Death muttered, "If I do not take the d*mn side effects into account..."

Meanwhile, as Zhao Yao and Black Panther teleported behind a puppet, they noticed four black flames streaking across the sky and traveling towards them at breakneck speed.

Black Panther hesitated for a while. “What is that?”

Zhao Yao could sense the malevolence of the four dark figures. After considering the situation of the feline girls, he patted on Black Panther’s head and said, “Ignore them, let’s continue. Let them chase us.”

At the same time, the Terminator team also noticed Black Panther and Zhao Yao in the distance. However, they flashed for a while and disappeared into thin air.

“They fled fast.” Terminator read the message on his cell phone. Narrowing his eyes, he thought, “We have predicted their escape route and direction.”

Black Mamba looked at the message sent by the King of Death and thought, “Going northwards.”

“Terminator and Black Mamba, you shall make a detour towards their navigation direction and intercept them at the front.” Sharky sprinted while he group-messaged, “Fight a fast decisive battle, the Chinese government is starting to notice us.”

The King of Death sensed his puppet’s location and sneered. “Humph, the superpower of Black Panther may be useful, however, if we are well prepared, we will be able to predict the location of your every moves.”

Every puppet was manipulated by the King of Death to assemble so as to ascertain Black Panther’s location.

With the support of intelligence from the King of Death, the four men rapidly narrowed the distance. Within a few minutes, when Zhao Yao and Black Panther reappeared, they were within a range of 100 meters.

“Three more teleportations at the most and we will catch up with them.” The eyes of Terminator shone brilliantly with cold rays. Black flames frolicked on his palms, changing into a dragon which accumulated dark power before the strike.

Moments later, when Zhao Yao and Black Panther appeared behind a puppet, Terminator and Black Mamba were already within ten meters of their location. Their fists were shrouded with the ominous flames, which looked like double dragons. They shot towards Black Panther.

On facing the ferocious attack of the two men, Black Panther got frightened and his body stiffened. Zhao Yao was unfazed. He flicked his finger and an invisible Deflective Field hurtled towards the two attackers.

Bam!

The air exploded as if detonating two huge bombs and the Deflective Field collided with the black flames. Under Zhao Yao's astonished gaze, the power of the Deflective Field rapidly dissipated while the black flames expanded and were about to penetrate the Deflective Field.

In the next instant, Black Panther activated Teleport and both of them vanished just as the fists of Terminator and Black Mamba hit each other and the collision sprouted black tongues of fire. The pure energy underneath their legs caused large fissures to appear on the road.

"Go after them!" Terminator roared like a tiger. Disregarding whether his companion heard him or not, he leaped with his might and a series of afterimages trailed behind him in the sky. He sprinted in the direction of their last location and continued his pursuit.

The six men continued their cat and mouse pursuit. The King of Death placed his puppets strategically to better predict the route of Black Panther. With every few flashes, the Black Panther was ambushed by at least two of the attackers.

All the attacks were countered by Zhao Yao's Deflective Field. The series of conflicts were fast and short-lived like fire sparks. As Black Panther was traveling at his maximum speed, he was only about 50 meters away from Fu Mi and her companions when he last teleported.

At this critical instant, Black Panther discovered that within a radius of 100 meters, besides the puppet that he had currently stabbed, all other puppets had retreated far beyond the range of his teleport.
