

Am I A God 651

Chapter 651

The King of Death's eyes flashed brilliantly. "It's settled."

He had ordered the movement of the puppets so as to bait Black Panther to his next teleportation point. He was also testing the maximum range of his teleportation.

Finally, he led Black Panther to a location with the least puppets which he had spread far apart. After Black Panther teleported, he withdrew the puppets to a safe distance, out of the maximum range of teleportation.

Once he realized the situation, Black Panther yelled, "Mentor, bad news, the puppets are not within range. I am unable to teleport."

"No problem, we have traveled far enough." Zhao Yao jumped down and surveyed the four distant figures that were speeding towards him. He opened his mouth and spat out Elizabeth, Ares, Lightning, and Roly Poly.

When Black Panther was teleporting at a high speed, Zhao Yao was unable to communicate with Black Panther telepathically and he was concerned that the cats he spat out would be lost along the way, so he resorted to countering the attacks with his Deflective Field.

When Black Panther was no longer teleporting, Zhao Yao's concern was no longer valid. He spat out the four cats who were all made invisible by Roly Poly while Ares hung onto Zhao Yao's body.

Meanwhile, the Terminator team saw that Zhao Yao and Black Panther had stopped. Their eyes sparkled with surprise. "Not running anymore?"

"The King of Death has succeeded, they can't escape."

"Kill Black Panther first."

"Do not kill Zhao Yao."

The four men lost their sense of hearing, so they were unable to communicate. However, their thoughts were almost the same.

The black flames shrouding the four men exploded violently and the energy from their legs pounded the ground. Like four cannon shots, they hurtled towards Black Panther, totally disregarding Zhao Yao's existence. Even if they had to endure the first strike from Zhao Yao, they were adamant about killing Black Panther first.

Moreover, after the short skirmish with Zhao Yao, they had roughly estimated the power of his attacks, which could be easily absorbed by their black flames.

Though the fiery black flames did not have heat and were unable to incinerate objects, they were able to absorb massive damage and use that energy to upgrade their powers. The greater the damage, the greater the improvement of their bodies, speed, and power.

As they rushed headlong into battle, Zhao Yao communicated via his consciousness, "Lightning, activate your power."

Sparks flew from Lightning's body and Zhao Yao activated Time Freeze. Grabbing the lightning with his hands, he advanced towards the four men.

When he was holding the lightning, the super static electricity caused Zhao Yao's hair to stand on end as though each strand was on fire. There were no traces of discomfort on his face. "Humph, similar attacks have no effect on me."

Zhao Yao had become immune to the effects of the super static electricity and he could disregard the dangerous discharge.

During the frozen time, Zhao Yao strolled to the front of the Terminator team and bashed them with lightning. After dealing with them, Zhao Yao intended to settle the problem of the feline girls.

He returned to his original position, grabbed Black Panther and the four cats, and walked towards Fu Mi.

When time resumed, the Terminator team screamed in agony, their hair stood on end like steel needles. Pain permeated their bodies, overwhelming them to the point where they howled and collapsed to the floor, unable to stand up.

With the damage done to their bodies, the black flames broke into a raging fire. Licks of black flames came out from their eyes, mouths, ears, and nostrils.

“What power is that?”

“This is no good. I am unable to move due to the pain!”

“I got it.” Terminator gritted his teeth, his hand travelled down his lower body and he yanked with all his might.

With a loud bellow of excruciating pain, he pounded his fist on the ground, causing an explosion that degenerated into a crater.

Meanwhile, on the lawn, the group of fighting feline girls felt a blurred image flash in front of them. A man appeared right before them.

“Who is that?”

“Brother?” Zhao Xue exclaimed, “Run brother! This place is dangerous!” Zhao Xue was anxious seeing Zhao Yao. Right now, feline girls were only a match for each other. Other apostles were unable to attack effectively and were easily defeated by the feline girls. This was not a fight for normal apostles.

With the exclamation by Zhao Xue, all feline girls instantly focused their attention on Zhao Yao.

The eleven feline girls from the House of Cats activated their psychokinesis in order to restrain Zhao Yao and use him as a hostage against Zhao Xue.

Meanwhile, Fu Mi and her companions countered with their psychokinesis to protect Zhao Yao.

The next instant, all the feline girls felt their psychokinesis smashing into a great wall, unable to penetrate a five-meter radius around Zhao Yao.

The feline girls from the House of Cats were puzzled. “What happened?”

Another feline girl hollered, “Is this guy able to fend off our psychokinesis?”

“What situation is this? Where is everybody?” Zhao Yao frowned as he could not hear their breathing and heartbeats. However, he felt the invisible attacks on Ares’ Deflective Field.

Fu Mi and her companions are in their ethereal forms. What is the issue with the House of Cats?”

Sphinx cat had not explained the details of the situation on the cell phone. Since he was not able to figure out the situation clearly, Zhao Yao decided to let Ares maintain the Deflective Field and he himself would protect Black Panther.

“Black Panther, get ready to come in.”

The feline girls watched Zhao Yao open his mouth and a swirling vortex sucked Black Panther into Zhao Yao’s belly.

“Cannibal!?”

Everyone was shocked by what they had seen. At the same time, Sphinx cat knelt in a shrub near to Zhao Yao and privately communicated to him, “Zhao Yao, Zhao Xue, and her companions are now in an ethereal form. As for the feline girls from the House of Cats, according to my observation, they may be in gaseous form.”

“Gaseous form? Zhao Yao was taken aback.

Sphinx cat nodded his head. He had been observing using his superior insight ability. He could detect the abnormal flow of the air currents, as though there was a life force circulating on the lawn and within the house.

While the feline girls were still in shock and Zhao Yao was contemplating the situation, a ferocious bellow rang from behind the wall.

“Zhao Yao!!”

The wall was blasted into smithereens and four black infernos rushed in, gazing intensely at Zhao Yao. They were the Terminator team.

Their ears, mouths, eyes, and nostrils spat out streams of Dark Scorch. Their entire bodies were covered by the Dark Scorch as well. Their faces were horribly distorted and their pain caused them to periodically inhale cool air. Their gazes towards Zhao Yao were filled with deep hatred.

Zhao Yao turned his head and was astonished by what he saw. “You are able to endure my attack? You have earned my respect.”

Meanwhile, the four men bellowed and their bodies created four streams of airwaves while they sprinted in front of Zhao Yao. Like gigantic steel claws, four pairs of gigantic hands grabbed onto Zhao Yao.

Chapter 652: Stronger

Satan’s Dark Scorch was a supercat power that absorbed damage and enhanced physical strength.

The super static electricity attack made Terminator and the others suffer great pain. However, it did not cause any physical damage to them. Instead, it enhanced their physical bodies.

The four of them attacked out of anger and their attack set off a hurricane. The four pairs of hands were burning with black raging fire as they tried and scratch Zhao Yao.

“As long as he doesn’t die.”

The four of them temporarily were more physically fit than the Butcher. The power erupted like a tsunami. Ares’s Deflective Field exploded. Air currents surged through Zhao Yao’s body and seemed like they were going to crush Zhao Yao.

Before Zhao Yao could retaliate, a shadow flashed across the air and a series of shadows could be seen flashing around Zhao Yao.

Then with a rumble, the four black-fire warriors let out a scream and were thrown out.

“You want to attack Ares?”

“Ares, let me teach them a lesson for you.”

Sphinx had attacked. He was so fast that no one could see him. He beat up the black-fire warriors violently.

His steel claws were as hard as titanium as he scratched across their chests and his paws hit their backbones. His tail which was harder than steel columns whipped their faces.

The attacks came down like a thunderstorm, hitting the black-fire warriors until they curled up in mid-air. They couldn't even land on the ground, retaliating was impossible.

The feline girls from the House of Cats shouted, “This is not the battlefield for normal apostles like you. Get out of our way.”

A few feline girls activated their psychokinesis together and even in the powered up state, they could not move the four black-fire warriors. They were suspended in midair by Sphinx cat's attacks.

Before they could react, Sphinx cat wielded a fist towards the feline girl who spoke. Despite being in a gaseous state, the feline girl felt that she flew out involuntarily. She could only gather herself together after a hundred meters. She looked at the scene in terror. “What attack was that?”

The wind raged and the four black-fire warriors were constantly yelling. The floor beneath them looked like it was bombed. All the soil, sand, and plants had flown everywhere after Sphinx cat stepped on the ground.

Sphinx cat hit the black-fire warriors on the chest and as a white gas exploded out from between his paws and their chest, the four black-fire warriors shot off into the distance. A loud shriek was heard and they crashed into the school building.

The four warriors crashed into the building like bombs. The feline girl's base and the school building collapsed.

The feline girls were dumbfounded by this series of attacks. They couldn't even see Sphinx cat. All they saw was four men filled with black flames charge towards Zhao Yao and be thrown out by an invisible force.

Then, the entire battlefield looked like it was bombed and air currents crashed so violently that their psychokinesis could not calm them down. The four black-fire warriors were also attacked by an unknown force and their psychokinesis was unable to move them. In fact, the air current from the attacks had ejected a feline girl by hundred meters.

In a few seconds, the entire school building and the greenbelt nearby had turned into ruins. They had never even heard of destruction of this scale, not to mention witnessing it. This kind of destruction was beyond their imagination.

"What power is this?"

"A human can do this?"

"It was as powerful as a cannon."

Meanwhile, Zhao Xue, Fu Mi, and the others were also in shock. Yellow Bro asked, "Fu Mi, I thought only feline girls could take on feline girls. Why do I feel like they are more powerful than us?"

Fu Mi was also bewildered. "I don't know."

However, something more astonishing happened. The four black-fire warriors who flew out stood up from the ruins. They swept the cement, stones and broken walls off of themselves and the black flame surrounding them was more turbulent. It also grew to a height of three meters, emitting an evil and mysterious aura.

Terminator laughed, "Zhao Yao it is useless. The more you attack us, the stronger we get. Just give up."

Zhao Yao tilted his head and told Elizabeth, “Elizabeth, illusion.”

“I have activated it for a while now.” Elizabeth said, “I don’t think they are affected by it.”

Surprised, Zhao Yao raised his eyebrows. “That powerful?”

Meanwhile, Sphinx cat had already charged up and slapped Terminator on the face. Terminator spun and flew off in a distance. As Terminator flew off, the other three black-fire warriors attacked Sphinx cat.

Sphinx cat’s face changed. This time, the four black-fire warriors were more powerful than before. Although he knocked down the four of them again, it was not as easy as the previous time. They fought amidst the ruins and the remaining broken walls also flew out. It was as if there were five dragons on a rampage.

Every moment of contact and collision of powers was like thunder. The ruins of the school building turned into ashes with the rumbling.

Looking at the shocking destruction, all the feline girls were stunned.

“Since when did the normal apostles become so powerful?”

“The scale of destruction, the physical strength, this is so scary! It probably won’t even hurt if bullets hit them.”

“Their powers are so strong. There are such strong powers in the world?” The House of Cat’s feline girls looked at the battle with greed. “If we get hold of such powers, we would become stronger and no one will be able to fight us.”

After fighting for a while, Sphinx cat observed the black-fire warriors and when he thought back on what Terminator had said, he retreated into shadows.

Finally, everyone saw what was fighting the four black-fire warriors. A Sphinx cat.

Zhao Xue exclaimed, “It is Sphynx? He’s that powerful?”

Fu Mi and the others were also shocked that the cat who was protecting Zhao Xue was so powerful. The scale of destruction and the physical abilities, if it was not that they had the spirit superpower, they wouldn’t even last for a second. Before this, she had thought that his physical abilities were similar to the feline girls, what a mistake.

“Sphynx cat is already so powerful.” Fu Mi thought to herself. “However, the four of them are more powerful. After the vigorous attack from Sphynx cat, they weren’t even hurt. This is so terrifying. The four apostles are terrifying. Our fight was like a game compared to them. There are such strong powers in the world?”

The feline girls in the House of Cats look at the four black-fire warriors in envy.

Terminator looked at the disappearance of the Sphynx cat and looked at Zhao Yao. He laughed coldly, “Zhao Yao was that your trump card? It is powerful but meaningless towards us. Attacks like this only make us stronger.”

Although Terminator couldn’t hear, he was used to attacking the opponent verbally to increase the psychological advantage.

As he spoke, the four of them flashed and surrounded Zhao Yao.

Zhao Xue, along with Fu Mi and the rest could feel the evil aura radiating off the four warriors. Fu Mi panicked. “Where are they from? They are too terrifying!”

Zhao Yao shouted at Zhao Yao. “Brother, run. I will block them.” As she spoke, she activated her psychokinesis and worked it around Black Mamba’s neck.

Her psychokinesis which was normally capable of breaking a steel column only slowed Black Mamba slow down slightly. He groaned and walked towards Zhao Yao again.

Zhao Yao shook his hand and said, “You don’t need to block them. I will take care of these four losers immediately. Sphynx cat, you don’t have to attack too.”

Sphynx's voice came in. "It is impossible that they can absorb powers infinitely. After a while, they should turn weak again."

Zhao Yao replied coldly, "There is no need to. I will crush them now."

Chapter 653: Playing

Zhao Yao moved back and entered the Dimension Portal, then, he sat down on the sofa.

When they saw a sofa suddenly appear and Zhao Yao's actions, they were all confused.

Zhao Yao didn't care and sat down comfortably on the sofa. He adjusted his position and told Ares, "Ares make the sofa float."

Then, the sofa Zhao Yao was sitting on floated.

Zhao Yao placed his chin on his hand, looked at the four black-fire warriors and said slowly. "You want to fight me with only one power? I have so many ways to kill you. But, I have a lot of time today so I shall play with you."

Zhao Yao thought, "Zhao Xue is watching right? I shall show her how powerful her brother is today."

As he spoke, a red light flashed across both Elizabeth and his eyes.

Although the illusions were ineffective against the black-fire warriors, this did not affect Elizabeth's controlling powers.

Zhao Yao and Elizabeth stared at Terminator and Black Mamba. Then, they felt their body stiffen and lost control. To their horror, they realized that they had started attacking Sharky.

Sharky who was hit in the waist and back fell onto the floor. He looked at Terminator and Black Mamba in anger and shouted, "What are you doing!"

All he saw was Black Mamba and Terminator looking innocent and confused. They had no idea what just happened.

Suddenly, Sharky and King Kong attacked Black Mamba and Terminator.

King Kong: "What's wrong with my body?"

Sharky: "I am controlled?"

The next moment, Black Mamba and Terminator was controlled and attacked King Kong and Sharky again.

Under the control of Zhao Yao and Elizabeth, the four black-fire warriors started attacking each other. Once they attacked each other, Zhao Yao and Elizabeth would release their control. However, when they stopped attacking Zhao Yao and Elizabeth would control them to attack again.

The inexplicable battle hurt the four of them to the point where they didn't care if each other could hear and started shouting.

"Are you guys crazy?"

"Stop."

Everyone who saw this was puzzled. Zhao Xue watched the intense fight among the four of them and asked, "What happen to them? Why are they attacking themselves?"

Fu Mi replied in shock, "They look like they are being controlled. Zhao Xue, does your brother have the powers to control others?"

"I... I don't know." She looked at Zhao Yao who was lying on the sofa. He was peeling a banana and watching the four black-fire warriors fight as entertainment.

The feline girls from House of Cats watched in the four black-fire warriors fight in shock.

“This man actually has the power to control others.”

“What a peculiar power.”

The feline girls looked at Zhao Yao with greed. If they had the same power, they would become very powerful too.

Meanwhile, Sharky yelled and charged towards Zhao Yao. In that instant, Black Mamba and Terminator attacked Sharky’s back and chest. However, Sharky continued charging towards Zhao Yao at a faster speed. He didn’t care if he was injured, he just wanted to attack Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao was eating a banana and he flicked his wrist and activated Cheese’s flying abilities. The ground below Sharky broke away and flew into the sky with Sharky.

Soon, all the supercats in the Extradimensional Belly had gathered around Zhao Yao. However, they were all hidden by Roly Poly’s invisibility.

Sharky who was in the air tried to jump down from the rising piece of land. However, he realized that whenever he jumped another piece of land would appear under him. Instead of landing on the ground, he was rising higher and higher.

Sharky watched the building get smaller and smaller in cold sweat. He never thought that Zhao Yao would have such strange abilities.

Meanwhile, King Kong was pinned down by Terminator and Black Mamba. He was yelling angrily but he could not escape them.

“Zhao Yao!” a shout came from the sky. It was Sharky, he had broken through the obstacle under his foot and was charging down with the aid of his black flames.

“Good try.” Zhao Yao snapped his fingers and a Dimension Portal appeared in front of him.

Sharky was charging towards Zhao Yao like black lightning, however, he was swallowed by the Dimension Portal.

Then, Sharky was spat out like a cannon towards Terminator, Black Mamba, and King Kong. The collision caused a huge amount of sand to fly up. Sharky continued to crash into a wall, dug into the ground and rolled to a stop on the streets.

Upon looking at the four black-fire warriors rolling on the ground, Zhao Xue was amazed. “What power is this! It can swallow people up and spit them out?”

Fu Mi was shocked. “Zhao Xue, your brother has many powers too?”

“How is it possible?” The feline girls in the House of Cats were bewildered. “How can this guy master several powers at once?”

The four of them who were on the ground stood up in a rage. The black flames on them grew five meters tall.

Black Mamba and Terminator also looked at Zhao Yao filled with fury.

The target was a lot stronger than expected. Terminator tried to pressure Zhao Yao and said, “Zhao Yao! It is useless. No matter how many powers you have, you can’t harm us. We will only get stronger and you will be defeated.”

“Harm you?” Zhao Yao threw his half-eaten banana on the floor and Rice Cake who was invisible was fed a Spicy Cat Strip. Zhao Yao drew out the Murasama Blade.

Holding the Murasama Blade which vibrated ten million times each second. Zhao Yao spoke calmly, “Don’t get me wrong, I am just enjoying the fun of bullying the weak. If I really want to hurt you...”

Time stopped flowing.

It was a blur and everyone could just see Black Mamba let out a painful yell before he was surrounded by the silver flashes of the blade.

“I just need one power to kill you. However, I don’t like to kill. I like to help others and I think you need my help.”

In everyone’s terror, Black Mamba’s body started spurting out blood and his right hand fell to the floor. He hugged his broken arm and was yelling in pain. Although the black flames rose again and the injury closed quickly, the broken arm did not grow back.

“This is impossible. What ability is this? What attack is it?”

“I didn’t see it. How did it happen? How was Black Mamba injured?”

The other three black-fire warriors watched this scene in terror. Although they could not hear Zhao Yao, they knew that he had the ability to kill them. They yelled and with desperate conviction, charged towards Zhao Yao.

Chapter 654: Undefeatable

When he saw the three of them charging towards him, Zhao Yao asked coldly, “Who allowed you to come over?”

Then his right hand moved and a beam of light shot out from the red gem on the Paralysis Ring. That instant, the three black-fire warriors who desperately wanted to kill Zhao Yao stopped abruptly. They turned around and started to chase after the red beam frantically.

Even Black Mamba who was screaming in pain threw away his broken arm and chased after the red dot too.

In fact, it was not just them, all the feline girls who were in spirit or gaseous form started chasing after the red beam.

Zhao Xue was shocked. “What is wrong? Why is my body out of control?”

Fu Mi watched everyone who was present get controlled around by the red beam. She was stunned too. “What power is this? Why are we chasing after the red beam?” She was going crazy. They were in spirit form and yet they were still being controlled.

The feline girls from the House of Cats were in disbelief too.

“Why? We are already in our gaseous state, how can we be affected by the power?”

“Controlling humans, floating sofa, lifting the ground up, the silver blade and the red beam. How many powers does this guy have!”

“Why is it like this? I thought only we could have multiple powers? Why does this guy have this ability too? In fact, he has more powers than us!”

Everyone was going crazy from the Paralysis Ring. However, Zhao Yao was moving the Paralysis Ring and observing. At last, he saw an exclamation mark appear in the air.

“Oh, is someone going to help?” He looked at the four black-fire warriors but the exclamation mark was not from them. It must be from a feline girl then.

Thinking of this, Zhao Yao grabbed Ragdoll cat, Catherine, and pointed the Paralysis Ring at Catherine.

“Roly Poly, remove the invisibility on Catherine.”

The next moment, everyone looked at the Ragdoll cat and blacked out.

Compared to Elizabeth’s illusion that required them to hear and remain in solid form, Catherine’s powers were of higher range. Even if the opponents were shadows or spirits, she could force them to sleep.

The priority of the powers was something that Zhao Yao had figured out. After all, he had used so many powers and that was the conclusion he had come to. The priority was a form of authority. Every power was different. For example, most of the powers were of lower priority compared to Mango’s power. They could be overwritten by Mango.

Matcha's Time Freeze was of even higher priority. In Time Freeze, even Mango's powers would be frozen.

Although Elizabeth's illusions had a wide variety they were of lesser priority compared to Catherine. Illusions were ineffective on the feline girls and black-fire warriors but Catherine's powers were still effective.

Zhao Yao was thinking, "Although Mango's powers are useful they are hard to show off with. The next time I level up the Book, I should add Catherine into the book to counter all the weird transformation and forms."

As Zhao Yao was thinking, a dozen figures appeared in midair. The feline girls returned to their original form and fell on to the ground.

However, Catherine's powers could only cause light sleeping. Hence, when they fell onto the ground, the feline girls woke up.

When the feline girls woke up, Zhao Yao looked at the girls and sent out invisible waves towards the feline girls. "Pupil Dispersion."

That moment, hundreds of Mathematics Olympiad questions flooded their heads. They let out shrieks and some started crying out loud. All of them looked devastated.

Fu Mi shouted, "It is so hard! Why is it so hard?"

Ah Yuan cried, "I can't do it! I really cannot!"

The feline girl from the House of Cats grabbed her head in pain. "This question is too hard!"

Zhao Yao laughed and said, "Looks like my Pupil Dispersion is effective on high school students too." He turned and saw Zhao Xue kneeling on the floor in desperation. "Damn, I can't do this at all."

Meanwhile, Xiaoyu looked relaxed and stood up. “What? They are all practice questions from Math Olympiad. It is so easy.”

Zhao Yao’s face turned black when he saw this. He didn’t care about Fu Mi, Zhao Xue, Xiaoyu, and the others. Instead, he took the chance and flicked his finger.

This time the Deflective Field wrapped around the 11 feline girls from the House of Cats. The 11 feline girls were hidden by another feline girl’s invisibility power. Even if they were back in their original forms, they were invisible. However, their breathing and heartbeats gave them away.

Surrounded by the Deflective Field, even if they turned into gas, they could not escape.

After doing all of this, Zhao Yao shouted, “Ares.” The next moment, Ares took over the Deflective Field with the 11 feline girls.

The four black-fire warriors also woke up. They had lost their hearing and were not affected by the illusion.

“It is so terrifying. Zhao Yao is not human. How can there be such a powerful apostle?”

“This Zhao Yao is a freak. He has so many powers. We are no match for him.”

“Escape. We have to escape or else if we are captured and our toxin acts up, we are dead.”

Watching the four black-fire warriors run, Zhao Yao laughed and place his chin on his palm. He looked at them and said, “I shall give you eight seconds.”

After eight seconds, the four black-fire warriors’ bodies flashed. As time stopped and started flowing, they realized they were back at their starting point, in front of Zhao Yao.

When they saw Zhao Yao they ran again. However, eight seconds later they were back in front of Zhao Yao.

They ran again and were back again. It happened for three times and when once again the four black-fire warriors landed in front of Zhao Yao, they stopped running.

Zhao Yao looked at them panting and asked, “Not running?”

Black Mamba was shocked. “What is going on? The powers are so strange. What just happened?”

Sharky was about to break down. “Damn it. What power is this?”

Terminator broke down. “How many powers does this guy have?”

“Let’s just fight him!” King Kong hollered and dashed towards Zhao Yao. When his fist was about to hit Zhao Yao’s head, his body flashed and returned back to its starting place.

Upon seeing this, the four black-fire warriors gave up. They couldn’t defeat him, they couldn’t run. Until now, they couldn’t even go near him. He was really undefeatable. They were no match for him.

Chapter 655: Mummified

When Zhao Yao was playing with the four black-fire warriors, the feline girls from the House of Cats tried to escape the Deflective Field. After they realized they couldn’t, they turned into gas.

Even so, they still couldn’t break through the Deflective Field.

While they were trying to escape, they saw Zhao Yao playing with Black Mamba, Terminator, and the rest.

“This guy is too scary.”

“His powers are infinite. How many powers does he have?”

“The last power is so strange. What exactly is happening?”

Seeing how powerful Zhao Yao was made them give up trying to resist. Up till then, Zhao Yao was still sitting on the sofa. He never once stood up. This meant that he was not even at his maximum capabilities.

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao's face changed. "You guys!"

The black-fire warriors who were wrapped in black flames started screaming and their body began aging under the burning flames.

Their muscles shrank, their hair started turning white, and their teeth dropped one by one. They had been in their prime years and now they were all senile and weak. In fact, they were still aging.

Zhao Yao stood up for the first time wanting to do something, he saw Terminator reach out towards him and say, "Save... Save me..."

The next moment, the four black-fire warriors dried up and were mummified. They were dead.

In a building not far away, God of Death put his binoculars down. "The side effect of black flames had taken effect? The four of them look like they have been sucked dry of their lives."

Although the four black-fire warriors were silenced, the God of Death was not happy. After he saw Zhao Yao's capabilities, he fell solemn.

"Zhao Yao... this guy is too dangerous. I may be only one in the world who stands a chance at defeating him." That moment he felt like a brave warrior preparing to face evil.

"Gather everyone for a meeting. The intel we have collected is very important."

Zhao Yao looked at the dried corpses on the floor in surprise. The feline girls around started screaming out of fear. They were all junior school or high school students, witnessing such a horrific death frightened them out of their wits.

Zhao Yao immediately raised a few walls using the Deflective Field to block the corpses.

“I didn’t even touch them and they died.” He frowned. “They died just like that? Did the person behind them kill them? Or was it a side effect of their powers?”

At the same time, Fish Ball crawled out from the bushes and ran towards Xiaoyu. He hugged Xiaoyu’s leg and said, “Xiaoyu! You are okay! I was so worried.”

Then, the husky barked and ran over too. He hugged Xiaoyu’s other leg and barked frantically looking concern.

“What are you two doing here?” Xiaoyu was stroking their heads happily till she smelled a stench coming from Fish Ball. “What is that smell on you? It stinks!”

“It’s Matcha’s urine!” Fish Ball shouted what he had wanted to say long ago. “That stench that filled the room just now was Matcha’s urine!”

Nekomata translated Fish Ball’s words and Xiaoyu turned into spirit form to avoid Fish Ball’s touch. When she heard what Fish Ball said she raged, “Stupid Matcha!”

Fu Mi, Ah Yuan, and Yellow Bro were all crowding around Zhao Yao and looked at him excitedly. “You are Zhao Xue’s brother? You are so powerful.”

Yellow Bro looked at Zhao Yao and asked, “Why do you have so many powers? Are you a feline girl too?”

Ah Yuan punched Yellow Bro on the head and shouted, “Open your eyes. He is obviously a guy. How can he be a feline girl?”

Zhao Yao looked at the feline girls with curiosity. When he saw the furry ears on their heads, he couldn’t help but stroke them. “Oh, they feel exactly like cat’s ears.”

Fu Mi blushed and took a step back. “Don’t touch my ears. Why do you and Zhao Xue like to touch my ears.”

Zhao Xue was speechless.

“Okay okay. I shall not touch your ears.” Zhao Yao looked at the exclamation mark on Fu Mi’s head and smiled. “Is there anything you need help with?”

Fu Mi looked at the guy who was stronger than her imagination and said immediately, “Can you save our companions? They were captured by the House of Cats.” As she spoke, she looked towards the feline girls who were trapped in the Deflective Field.

“Save your companions?” Zhao Yao looked at the mission panel, it was a mission with 1000 experience points. He smiled and nodded. “No problem.”

The police siren sounded again. Hundreds of apostles surrounded them. A group of many apostles, acceleration apostles, psychokinesis apostles and ones with other powers were here just to deal with the feline girls.

Seeing so many apostles appear, the feline girls’ faces changed.

Fu Mi said, “There are so many of them. Let’s retreat.”

Ah Yuan nodded. “Yeah. Let’s not fight against government officials...”

Zhao Yao shook his hand and comforted the feline girls. “It’s okay. I have connections. They are with us.” He started shouting at one government official. “Hey, it’s okay already.”

When Lin Chen saw Zhao Yao he rolled his eyes, then he stepped out immediately and flashed in front of Zhao Yao. “Yeah, we get it. Stop screaming. Your identity is supposed to be a secret.”

Zhao Yao shrugged his shoulders and laughed while he told Lin Chen what had happened. Soon, the police had set up their boundaries and cleared the area. The four bodies of the black-fire warriors were dragged out. Their autopsy report would be given to Zhao Yao too.

The feline girls watched in awe.

Yellow Bro looked at Zhao Xue and asked, “Your brother is so capable. Is he a high ranked officer?”

Ah Yuan said, “He is so strong and he can order the police around. I think he must be a high ranked apostle.”

“I... I don’t know.” Zhao Xue shook her head and looked at Zhao Yao’s back in confusion. Everything that happened today had extremely surprised her. It was to the point where she was already numb to it. The once familiar Zhao Yao was so foreign to her now.

Chapter 656: Saving Lives

The situation was handled by the government and Zhao Yao waved to the feline girls and brought them into the Extradimensional Belly.

The House of Cats girls, who were trapped in the Deflective Field, were pulled like balloons into the Dimension Portal.

In a large building a few hundred meters away, a feline girl with X-ray vision put down her binoculars, her forehead dripping with cold sweat. “This man is too terrifying, I have to inform the Professor.”

...

In the Extradimensional Belly, the feline girls were surprised to see hundreds of supercats running about. They were also astonished to overhear the private conversations of the supercats in their minds.

The supercats surrounded and gaped at the feline girls. They let out cries of astonishment.

Rice Cake, who had transformed back into cat form, gaped at the feline girls. “This cat is very big.”

Uncle Egg licked his fur and commented, “What is the use of being big when it is bald all over? I can see that her body lacks nutrition and may have dermatitis. Stay away from them to prevent infection.”

Lucifer asked with curiosity, “Aren’t they tired standing on two legs?”

Fu Mi expressed her astonishment and said, "So many cats and they are also supercats." The Pallas cat before her knelt down. She asked with curiosity, "What is this cat?" She was about to touch his head when Lightning jumped back.

Lightning also looked at Fu Mi with curiosity. "Wow, what kind of a cat are you? Why are you so ugly?"

Fu Mi frowned and declared angrily, "I am not a cat. I am human."

Lightning looked at Zhao Yao and asked, "Zhao Yao, are you thinking of keeping these cats? They are extremely ugly!"

Fu Mi wanted to strangle this tactless cat, however, as it was the territory of Zhao Xue's brother and she was in awe of his power, she let it pass.

Zhao Yao slapped Lightning's head and scolded, "What nonsense, I have no intention to keep so many people. That will be costly."

He looked at Dust Ball and said, "I borrowed the three Dimension Portals just now. You may get them back. Do not lose track of Matcha."

"Yes, let's see how Matcha is doing." Lightning ran excitedly to Dust Ball.

Ares said joyfully, "Oh, let's see how Matcha is doing!"

"Let's go and see how Matcha is being beaten!"

The supercats ignored the feline girls and swarmed over to Dust Ball, in anticipation of a good show.

Zhao Yao looked at Fu Mi and asked, "Are you asking for my help to rescue your companions? Do you know where the base of the House of Cats is?"

Fu Mi shook her head. "I do not know but the prisoners will definitely know."

Zhao Yao nodded and gazed at the eleven feline girls, who were trapped in the Deflective Field in their gaseous forms. “Tell me honestly where your base is.”

There was no answer as the feline girls were not betraying their companions.

“Do not force me.” Zhao Yao lifted up Catherine and shouted, “Do you dare to look over here?”

Each of the feline girls fell asleep and revealed their true form. Zhao Yao snapped his finger and activated the power of Pupil Dispersion on the feline girls.

The feline girls broke into tears. Zhao Yao asked again, “If you continue to keep quiet, I will continue with more difficult questions like Higher Maths, Calculus, Probability Theory...”

A feline girl sobbed uncontrollably as she begged, “No! Do not force us. I will tell you!”

...

Meanwhile, in a villa in a rural area, Xu Guanyuan frowned and said, “What did you say? A man with more than ten superpowers captured Xiao Qing and her companions?”

The feline girl before him nodded her head and said, “That man is too terrifying, Professor. Let’s escape before he comes for us.”

Xu Guanyuan looked at her with a lot of doubt. He trusted the feline girl, however, her description was too incredible. How could a man possess more than ten superpowers? That was not logical.

Another feline girl, who was standing beside Xu Guanyuan, said, “Xiao Wei, are you mistaken? How can a man possess more than ten superpowers?”

“I am very sure what I’ve seen is correct!”

While they were in a heated discussion, a loud explosion rang from upstairs. The feline girls looked worried and Xiao Wei shouted, “It must be that man!”

...

After Zhao Yao blasted the steel door open, he walked into the garden of the villa and said, "Anyone at home? I have a delivery."

Two feline girls jumped out of the villa windows, sized up Zhao Yao and yelled, "Who are you? This is private property and no strangers are allowed entry."

Zhao Yao looked at them and replied, "Is this the home of Professor Xu? I am here to socialize with him."

The two feline girls looked at each other, then activated their psychokinesis against Zhao Yao. However, they felt as though their psychokinesis had no effect. Zhao Yao swept their necks using the Deflective Field and they passed out.

Zhao Yao walked into the villa to search for the Professor and was met with countless attacks from the feline girls who were in gaseous form. In one hand, he held Catherine and in the other, he aimed the Paralysis Ring at Catherine. Using this combination, he cast the feline girls into a deep sleep as he advanced into the villa.

Catherine was unhappy and said, "Zhao Yao, do you know how to carry a cat? I am feeling very uncomfortable. Are you able to support my buttocks?"

Zhao Yao coaxed, "Bear with me for a while, I'm almost done."

After walking around the villa, Zhao Yao encountered six feline girls and put them into the Extradimensional Belly after subduing them. He did not find any traces of the Professor and the captured feline girls.

Zhao Yao frowned and closed his eyes, focusing on his hearing. Suddenly, he opened his eyes and gazed below his feet. "There is something underneath."

He stomped the ground. A piece of the floorboard crumbled and underneath he discovered a corridor that led to the basement.

After walking in the corridor for more than ten meters, he turned and saw a steel door. He activated the Deflective Field to force open the door. What he saw shocked him.

More than ten naked girls with their eyes closed and lacking any sense of awareness were submerged in nutrient tanks. They were in a vegetative state because of the failed cat transformation medicine. Xu Guanyuan kept them alive here in hopes of reviving them one day.

Professor Xu did not keep the girls who had lost their apostles' potential after the failure of the medicine.

Those girls didn't know about apostles nor the cat transformation medicine that they had consumed.

Zhao Yao surveyed the girls in the nutrient tanks and frowned. He heard Fu Mi talk about this before. Now that he had witnessed it, he walked to the front of the tanks and listened with his ears attentively. "I hear breathing and heartbeats. She is still living, perhaps in a vegetative state? I wonder if Lucifer will be able to cure her?"

Chapter 657: Waking Up

Zhao Yao spat out Lucifer and slapped him. Lucifer was dumbfounded and asked, "Zhao Yao, what are you doing?"

The loyalty of Lucifer did not decrease so Zhao Yao kicked him hard. Lucifer's body shook as he looked at Zhao Yao and said, "Zhao... Zhao Yao, do not tempt me. I am a normal cat now."

Lucifer's loyalty increased by one point.

"You are abnormal." Zhao Yao activated his power of illusion and deprived him of his senses. "Maybe I should deprive you of your senses permanently."

Lucifer stared wide-eyed at Zhao Yao and said, "Zhao Yao, are you that unempathetic, cruel, and unreasonable?"

Lucifer's loyalty decreased by one point.

Zhao Yao nodded his head with satisfaction. He broke the tanks and rescued the girls. He said to Lucifer, "Lend them your superpower."

Lucifer did as he was told.

A minute later, Zhao Yao observed the unconscious girls and frowned. "It isn't working?"

Zhao Yao thought for a while. "Vegetative state means brain dead? Lucifer's ultra rapid regeneration is able to regenerate a brain that was blown to smithereens, perhaps... there is no regeneration?"

He narrowed his eyes and punched the girl's head. She let out a moan and started coughing. Opening her eyes, she stared blankly at Zhao Yao and said, "You..."

Zhao Yao smiled as he activated his power of illusion and the young girl went into a deep sleep. "Rest for a while."

A surveillance monitor, which was hidden in a corner of the house, recorded the entire sequence.

After confirming that Lucifer was able to treat the girls, Zhao Yao continued searching. He discovered an alloy-constructed metal compartment where the captured feline girls were being locked up. They were all in a deep slumber.

As they were not in danger, Zhao Yao continued his search and discovered several imprisoned supercats. He freed them and put them into the Extradimensional Belly.

The freed supercats looked at the new environment with astonishment. Several hundreds of supercats were playing, bickering, and fighting.

Cannon walked to them and sized them up before asking, "Are you new here?"

The supercats nodded their heads and Cannon laughed heartily. "Do you want to learn how to grow catmint? Our catmint section provides food and lodging. Our benefits are the best and there is an end of the year bonus."

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao arrived at the deepest end of the laboratory. A middle-aged man was hauling a young girl from a huge tank full of emerald liquid nutrients.

Xu Guanyuan grabbed her neck with one hand and pointed a knife to her throat. There were traces of blood scars on her throat. He stared at Zhao Yao with a crazed look and yelled, “Do not come closer. If you come any closer, I will kill her!”

Zhao Yao’s gaze flickered as he advanced towards Xu Guanyuan. “Xu Guanyuan, I want to kill you right now. This is the second time I have the urge to end a life.” He extended his hand and the surgery knife flew from Xu Guanyuan’s hand. The young girl was retrieved by his Deflective Field.

“What do you know? What is wrong with transforming all women into feline girls? Don’t you think the world will be a better place? With evolution, their offspring will surpass humans and the world will be perfect.”

Xu Guanyuan broke into a laugh and said, “I have injected her with a plant toxin that I personally extracted. Without my antidote, she will perish within an hour. The rest of the feline girls have also been poisoned with the same toxin. If you do not wish to cause their deaths, let me go!”

Zhao Yao lifted his head to level his gaze on Xu Guanyuan. He exerted power with his palm and strong air currents traveled with the Deflective Field towards Xu Guanyuan, pinning him to a wall.

The creaking sound of broken bones rang from his body. Almost half of his bones were fractured. He let out howls of pain as he collapsed to the floor incapacitated.

Zhao Yao ignored his pain. He lowered his head and discovered that the girl was bleeding from the nose.

Zhao Yao was exasperated. He took out Lucifer from the Extradimensional Belly and said, “Lend her your superpower.”

With the ultra rapid regeneration, her nose stopped bleeding. Zhao Yao touched lightly on her forehead and regenerated her damaged brain. Her body shook slightly. She gradually regained consciousness.

The young girl looked at Zhao Yao and then discovered that she was naked. Letting out a shrill scream, she jumped up and covered herself with her hands. She looked in terror at Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao waved his hand in embarrassment and explained, "It is alright, I am here to rescue you." He pulled a blanket from the Extradimensional Belly and flung it over her body.

The young girl looked suspiciously at Zhao Yao while stealing glances at the surroundings. "What place is this?"

At this moment, Xu Guanyuan, who was lying on the ground, gave a groan and endured excruciating pain while lifting up his head. "Qing Qing? You have awakened?"

"Dad?" She was surprised to see her father on the ground and rushed forward to help him up. However, she stopped when her father screamed in pain. With tears welling up in her eyes, she asked, "Dad, how are you? How do you end up like this? Is it painful?"

Xu Guanyuan looked at her daughter with yearning, his trembling hands caressing her cheeks. "Sorry... sorry... Qing Qing."

Zhao Yao felt aghast and asked coldly, "Xu Guanyuan, what have you done?"

Xu Guanyuan turned to look at Zhao Yao and said, "I saw from the surveillance monitor how you rescued those feline girls. Honestly, I am amazed."

Zhao Yao retorted, "You are putting on an act for me to save your daughter?"

Xu Guanyuan spat out a mouthful of fresh blood. After a traumatic blow by the Deflective Field, the internal injury of a normal person progressively deteriorated. "Yes, I was afraid... that you wouldn't save her. I am responsible for all of this, it has nothing to do with Qing Qing. Please do not harm her, will you?"

At his sincere request, Zhao Yao sighed. "You do not have to do this. I will save her regardless of what you do."

Xu Guanyuan laughed without restraint. "I am going to die, am I not? Neither you nor the government will let me off."

Qing Qing looked furiously at Zhao Yao. “Dad, is he the one who harmed you? Are your injuries from him?” Her pupils contracted and her hair stood on ends. She looked as though she was transforming into a feline girl.

Chapter 658: Cat God

Xu Guanyuan gazed at Zhao Yao imploringly and said, “Please knock her unconscious, will you?”

Zhao Yao raised his brow and activated his power of illusion. Qing Qing fainted to the floor. He said solemnly, “Xu Guanyuan, you actually used your daughter to perform experiments?”

“It shouldn’t have failed!!” Xu Guanyuan spat out blood and said hysterically, “My previous simulations were all successful. The animal testings were safe, all were successful!! It shouldn’t have failed!”

Zhao Yao asked, “You carried out the experiments to save your own daughter?”

Xu Guanyuan said calmly, “My daughter was in a vegetative state. I wanted to cure her. I needed more data and experiments to improve the cat transformation medicine to save her. I am very sorry for the feline girls. However, if I can save Qing Qing, everything is worthwhile. If the medicine is successful, everyone can be cured, the world will change and humans will enter a new era. The cat transformation medicine will be the world’s greatest invention.”

“With the development of superpowers, even if you do nothing, the world will still enter a new era.” Zhao Yao shook his head and lifted him using the Deflective Field. “Do you know what is going to happen to you?”

“It is a pity. I will never see the completion of the cat transformation medicine.” Xu Guanyuan gave a wry smile. His face was severely distorted by the enormous pain in his body. With great exertion, he slowly said, “Do not tell Qing Qing the truth, will you?”

As Zhao Yao was about to answer him, his body spasmed. He opened his mouth and vomited a large amount of dark-colored blood.

Zhao Yao was taken aback while he used his remaining energy to say, “Thank... you...”

Xu Guanyuan’s heart stopped beating. He opened his eyes revealing a deep sense of regret.

The feline girls were not poisoned. It was Xu Guanyuan who was.

Zhao Yao shook his head at the passing of Xu Guanyuan. He threw the corpse on the floor and looked at the unconscious feline girl. He lifted and tossed her into the Dimension Portal of the Extradimensional Belly.

A fire started burning in the void of space and Zhao Yao immediately retreated into the Dimension Portal.

The flames formed a circular ring and a weird creature walked out from it.

Its entire body was filled with deep blue sea-colored fur and its four legs stomped with fiery flames. A single horn sprouted from his head, occasionally flashing with lightning.

In Zhao Yao's eyes, it was merely a fire-stomping, blue-furred, single-horned kitten.

He looked in amazement at the cat and asked, "Supercat?"

The creature looked at the corpse and Zhao Yao before saying, "A pity."

Zhao Yao asked in a demanding tone, "Who are you?"

"My name is Kun Wu, God of Cats." The supercat sighed. "If the cat transformation medicine had been successful, it would have been immensely beneficial to the future of the Earth. It is a pity."

Zhao Yao curiously sized up the supercat, Kun Wu. It was his first time encountering such a cat and he wanted to bring him home.

Kun Wu read Zhao Yao's intentions and said, "Human, you and your supercats are powerful, however, it is still not enough to counter the future crisis. The awakening of the cats may look like an opportunity but is actually a crisis."

"What crisis?" Zhao Yao was piqued. "Er... Kun Wu, do you have WeChat? Can I add you as a friend?"

Kun Wu hesitated and shook his head. “I do not add strangers.” He said gravely, “I can feel... in the far East, an evil presence is awakening. Hurry up and strengthen yourself. Perhaps you have a better chance of winning.”

Kun Wu’s flames dissipated and his figure vanished into thin air.

Zhao Yao’s eyes flashed with crimson rays and Elizabeth activated the mind control superpower but in vain. Kun Wu was like a mirage that disappeared without a trace.

“No effect? Perhaps that was not his real body?” Zhao Yao was astonished. “Mirage? Or illusion? It is very likely as normal supercats do not look like that.”

“And what is the relationship of this supercat with Xu Guanyuan? What is his concern with the cat transformation medicine?”

Suddenly, the surrounding equipment burst into flames. Zhao Yao was worried and ran out quickly. He put all the feline girls one by one into his Extradimensional Belly.

As he walked outside, he discovered that the equipment was in flames too. He opened the Dimension Portal and activated Time Freeze so that he could place all the feline girls inside. Everyone was safe.

When time resumed, the entire basement laboratory exploded with huge tongues of flame. All the equipment were reduced to ash, however, the walls and the floor were intact. It seemed as though the fire was intended to wipe out all traces of equipment and computers.

Zhao Yao was perplexed. “Is this fire being controlled? If I did not save the feline girls, perhaps they would not be burnt? Is it done by the strange cat? Isn’t the cat mourning the experiment? Why was everything destroyed in the fire?”

In the Extradimensional Belly, Zhao Xue was embarrassed when she saw the naked feline girls being tossed in one by one. She chided him, “Zhao Yao, what are you up to? Why are they stripped of their clothing?”

Yellow Bro knelt down to examine the bodies of the feline girls. Touching their smooth skin, she asked curiously, “Why are their bodies sticky? What kind of a thing is that?”

Fu Mi pulled Yellow Bro aside and said, “Do not touch it, Yellow Bro. That is disgusting stuff.”

“Eh? What is it?” Yellow Bro scrutinized the sticky liquid and everyone was shocked when she licked a mouthful and said, “Sweet, pretty tasteful.”

“Fool!” Ah Yuan punched her on her head. “Do not eat it!”

“It is alright.” Zhao Yao walked out from the Dimension Portal. “Those are liquid nutrients. I don’t think there is poison inside.”

Fu Mi, Zhao Xue, and Ai Yuan blocked Zhao Yao from stepping forward. They hollered frantically, “Don’t come over! Don’t look!”

Zhao Yao replied condescendingly. “They’re all flat-chested. There is nothing to see. If only they transformed, they might look better.” Everyone glared at Zhao Yao while he tossed some clothes over. “Let them put these on.”

Fu Mi’s companions gradually regained consciousness. Once they saw each other, they all hugged in excitement.

Zhao Yao let Lucifer lent his regeneration power to the feline girls in vegetative state and helped revive them.

Zhao Yao smiled contentedly when he gained 2000 experience points.

Chapter 659: A New Mission

Another 2000 experience points were added as a reward for all the hard work he had done during this period. Zhao Yao stared at the experience points in the Book, which had changed to Book: Level 6 (41 742/20 000).

“Not bad, not bad. Tomorrow night will be the end of the month. My experience points will be totaled right? That means more experience points. It’s nearing the end of Matcha’s week-long education as well, which means another 500*2 experience points for me.” Zhao Yao glanced at Elizabeth’s panel, which showed: Elizabeth Level 8 (3000/50 000).

“At this rate, even if there are no big missions next month, as long as I continue working hard every day to help other people, I will definitely be able to level up Elizabeth. By then, if I can upgrade the Sixth Sense illusion I will finish off God of Death immediately.”

Zhao Yao no longer had trouble finding the God of Death. As long as Black Panther was around, he could ride with Black Panther to track down God of Death’s puppets anytime.

After looking at the panel, Zhao Yao looked up and saw the feline girls in front of him and thought, “What should I do with them? Release them into the wild? Or just keep them here?”

At the same time, the feline girls groaned as they awoke from their coma. Hearing the screams that followed, Zhao Xue’s face reddened as she thought, “Zhao Yao, how did he manage to heal all of them? What exactly did he do to these young girls who had been naked.”

Seeing the feline girls awaken, Fu Mi and the rest rushed towards them and cried in joy.

Within moments Fu Mi had brought all of them to see Zhao Yao and looked at him with gratitude as she said, “Thank you, Brother Zhao Yao. You’re such a great person. You actually saved all of us!” She grabbed Zhao Yao’s hand as she exclaimed, “Thank you, from the bottom of my heart. Thank you so much.”

“No problem, it’s nothing,” Zhao Yao shook her hand as he stared at the new mission on the mission panel.

Mission: Adopt the feline girls.

Mission Objective: Furry ears and tails, powdery soft paws, beautiful faces, and smooth chests. These cute feline girls should be brought home and raised immediately.

Reward: 50 experience points will be awarded for every feline girl adopted in the next 24 hours.

Punishment: To be struck by lightning if 0 feline girls are adopted after 24 hours.

“What the f*ck, this mission...” Zhao Yao’s heart skipped a beat, “Since when do I have these thoughts. Book how did you become so insidious? Struck by lightning? How badly do I actually want to adopt them...”

Fu Mi wanted to let go of his hand, but he held on tightly and his expression became a bit strange.

Zhao Yao hesitated. “Do I really want to raise these feline girls? That can’t be. I’m such a righteous person, the savior of the human race. How can I wish to do such a thing?”

Glancing at the mission on the Book again, Zhao Yao sighed in frustration, “Fine, I did wish to raise feline girls, but just a little... Who wouldn’t wish for that? Living together with cute feline girls, going to work together, stroking their heads when I’m bored... This is something normal people would dream of.”

Zhao Yao looked at the experience points on the panel pitifully, “But they are humans after all. They have families to return to. They have parents. They need to study. How can I adopt them just like that?”

Looking at the punishment for the mission, Zhao Yao scowled, “D*mn this thing, if I have to be struck by lightning for doing good, it really doesn’t pay to be kind.”

The Book represented Zhao Yao’s powers. The punishment reflected how biased he was. However, desires were desires and logic was still logic. They were not the same.

“I am not Matcha, who does what he likes just because he has the power of time freeze. I am a righteous person,” Zhao Yao thought.

Looking at the feline girls in front of him, Zhao Yao asked, “What are your plans after this. Will you girls be going home straight away?”

Fu Mi nodded, “Many of us here haven’t been home for really long. Our parents must be so worried. We plan to send everyone back home today.”

“Alright, I will be the good guy till the end. I’ll send you all home.”

Zhao Yao sent Fu Mi and the other feline girls home one by one. He sent the locals home while he asked Uncle Ho to arrange for policemen to accompany the foreign girls back to their homes overseas.

As for Professor Xu's daughter, Qing Qing, Zhao Yao thought that it was better for Caesar and the rest to erase her memories from the previous day. After all, it was better for her not to know what had happened to her father and send her to her grandmother to be raised by her kin.

After sending off the young girls, only the feline girls from the House of Cats were still held captive in the extradimensional belly. Each of them looked lost and had no idea what to do.

The reason why they stayed with Professor Xu was to help him research the cat transformation medicine, save their comrades and strengthen their bodies for the future.

However, the House of Cats had been destroyed and Zhao Yao saved all the comatose feline girls. They seemed to have lost their direction in life all of a sudden.

As for those feline girls, Zhao Yao naturally did not send them home. Most of their actions had been illegal and they were not educated. They were 'triple low', which referred to people in the lower categories of income, education, and age.

Hence, Zhao Yao ordered the supercats found in the House of Cats to retract their superpowers. After removing their borrowed powers, Zhao Yao would then hand them over to Uncle Ho for education and re-orientation for them to become better people.

When he was done with all this, Zhao Yao looked at the last remaining feline girl and said, "What is it? Looks you have many questions for me."

Looking at Zhao Xue, Zhao Yao thought to himself, "Humph, I bet I looked d*mn cool to Zhao Xue today. No, I can't show off now. I must keep it cool and look cool."

Zhao Xue turned around and stared at him awkwardly. She was not used to his amazing powers since he had always been a useless bum in her eyes. She said in a small voice, "Where did you get so many supercats from?"

“I picked them up,” Zhao Yao said, “These are all the stray cats I picked up. They were abandoned on the streets. I couldn’t stand it so I adopted them. I love little animals so I couldn’t bear to see them suffer on the streets.”

Not so far away Dust Ball shouted, “Zhao Yao! You threw Matcha out for almost seven days already when are you going to call him back?”

Zhao Yao turned and glared at Dust Ball as he said, “Shut up!” He continued saying to Zhao Xue, “Matcha is a more mischievous cat, so I left him outside to hone his character and toughen him up. It’s for his own good.”

“Oh,” Zhao Xue nodded absentmindedly and asked, “Matcha is King George right?”

“Eh...” Zhao Yao thought, “Previously when Zhao Xue turned into a cat, she had always remained on the Cat Island right? But she could enter the extradimensional belly as well. Sigh, god knows how many things she knew in this place?”

Zhao Xue stared wide-eyed at Zhao Yao as if there were sparkles in her eyes. She asked, “Do you know where Sister Guang Yu went?”

Chapter 660: Protect the Sister and Wandering Around

Seeing the innocent look on Zhao Xue’s face, Zhao Yao laughed and said, “She got married. She went back to her hometown to get married. She has retired for good and will not be coming back ever again.”

Zhao Yao patted Zhao Xue’s shoulders and reassured her, “Don’t worry, you have your brother here to protect you from now on. Given my abilities now, no one will be a match for me. Next time if anyone bullies you, come back and find me. I will stand up for you and make sure that person suffers.”

Zhao Xue stared at Zhao Yao suspiciously, “Really? She got married?”

“Of course, why would your brother lie to you,” Zhao Yao slung his hand over her shoulder and hugged her neck as they walked to the dimension portal leading to the Cat Island. “I have all the money and power now. If you want anything, just tell me. I will get it for you.”

Zhao Xue said, “I still want to go back to my university and study first. If I don’t go back now, they might just expel me.”

Hearing Zhao Xue’s words, Zhao Yao quickly waved his hand and said, “No no, it’s better for you to stay on the Cat Island during this period.”

“Why?”

Zhao Yao replied, “There’s someone out there trying to get back at me. People like them love to target their opponent’s parents and siblings. If you go out now, there’s a high chance that you’ll be attacked.”

“Ah?” Zhao Xue said, “Didn’t you say you could protect me? That no one would be a match for you?”

Zhao Yao coughed hard before he said, “This is different. Though he can’t beat me, he’s very good at hiding and loves to play dirty tricks. He’s always ambushing me rather than fighting me head on. So before I kill him, it’s better for you, Dad, and Mum to stay here.”

Zhao Yao continued to explain in detail the whole situation with the King of Death, shocking Zhao Xue.

“King of Death’s powers are very troublesome. Although I can kill him now, many other people will die with him as well,” Zhao Yao patted his chest and said, “But who am I? Am I someone who would do such a heinous thing?”

Dust Ball shouted from afar, “Zhao Yao! Bald Head and his gang took our goods but refused to pay! Should we kill them all off tonight?”

“She’s kidding, why would we go and kill people?” Zhao Yao smiled at Zhao Xue before turning back to shout at Dust Ball, “Shut your mouth now. Why are you screaming and shouting over such a small issue? Don’t you know there’s something called WeChat message? I said before that we should digitize our work! Digitize! Can’t you understand human language?”

Zhao Xue stared at Zhao Yao doubtfully, but she still agreed in the end. “Okay, I get it. I can continue staying here for a while, but I can’t stay here forever, it’s not like I’m one of your cats. I want to go out and shop, meet up with friends and watch movies. I haven’t even graduated from university.”

Zhao Yao stroked his chin and said, “For your university, I will talk to your principal and request a leave of absence for you. As for your time here, don’t worry, it won’t be very long. By next month, at most by the month after that, I will be able to finish off the King of Death and you will be safe.”

“It’ll take that long?” Zhao Xue sighed but she knew it was for her safety. She could only nod in resignation, “Okay, I get it.”

Zhao Yao continued, “If you want to shorten the time there are other ways as well. If you borrow Sphynx cat’s powers to train every day, as long as you reach the same physical prowess as him and use your psychokinesis to borrow another supercat’s power, I will be reassured enough to let you go.”

Zhao Xue brightened up when she heard that. She thought of that time when Sphynx cat had beat up four black-fire warriors and the immense power he unleashed. It was way better than Zhao Yao’s laziness. Zhao Xue was very keen of this idea, so she nodded and said, “Okay, then I will go train with Sphynx cat first! I must become as strong as Sphynx cat.”

“Good luck!” Zhao Yao waved to the back of his sister as he thought, “Phew, finally managed to distract her. She didn’t suspect anything about ‘Sister Guang Yu’... right...”

After settling everything with the House of Cats, Zhao Yao stood on the roof of the building that night, prepared to accept Book’s punishment. To his surprise, he did not fail the mission.

He had successfully adopted one feline girl. 50*2 experience points awarded.

Zhao Yao’s eyes brightened before he quickly regained composure, “Don’t tell me it’s Zhao Xue? Speaking of which, she can be said to be living off me now as well.” At the thought of this, Zhao Yao smirked in delight and accepted the experience points with satisfaction.

As he said that, he looked up to the sky and thought, “But does my Book still have the power to issue lightning strikes?”

...

In the same night, Matcha, who had fought his way around and got beaten up in the process, looked as if he had dropped some fur as he limped in pain by the roadside looking all sad and unhappy.

“I tried so hard to pretend to be the leader of the Cao Gang yet they all betrayed me just like that. What a bunch of unloyal cats.”

Matcha’s stomach growled out loud as he winced, “I’m so hungry.” He sprawled on the side of the streets and decided to rest for a while.

At that moment, a young girl walked past hurriedly with a cat in her arms, looking lovingly at the cat while stroking the cat’s head.

At the sight of this Matcha sighed in envy as he said to himself, “Other cats all have their owners to hug them. Now, I have become a stray that no one hugs.”

The cat in the young girl’s arm twitched his ears as he shouted at Matcha, “Brother! Save me please! This woman is bringing me out to be neutered! Help!”

“That cat sounds like he’s saying something? He sounds agitated. Well, he’s probably excited, being hugged by someone,” Matcha sighed again, “Why hasn’t Zhao Yao come to fetch me? Don’t tell me he really wants to kick me out?” He took out his phone and opened his chat history with Zhao Yao, wanting to send him news about himself but he hesitated.

Seeing the low battery on his phone, Matcha thought, “Forget it. I should just charge my phone first.”

Outside Xiaoyu’s house, Matcha wriggled and crawled up onto the windowsill and peeked through the curtains to check the room. He saw Xiaoyu lying on the sofa in the living room caressing Fish Ball’s back with her leg.

“Even Fish Ball has someone to dote on him,” Matcha thought about the pee he had held in on the school campus today, “Forget it, since Xiaoyu is inside, I won’t disturb their happy moment.”

Inside the house, Fish Ball carefully sent a voice message saying, “Xiaoyu, could you not use me as a leg rest, you’re a little heavy.”

“Are you saying I’m fat?!”

“No, Xiaoyu, you are the cutest, prettiest, and most attractive person ever,” Fish Ball said, “But could you please use your hand to stroke me instead of using your leg.”

“No, you were drenched in pee and that traumatized me. I only dare to use my leg to touch you now. I don’t dare to touch you with my hands anymore.”

The husky barked twice as he gloated over Fish Ball’s misfortune.

Xiaoyu pointed to the husky and chided, “You still have the cheek to bark? You just shit wherever you like outside, then you still sit on it and cover your butt in shit. Starting from today, you are not allowed to sit on the floor at home with your butt for one whole week. Do you understand?”

Noodle cried sadly, “How can you blame me for this. When I was shitting halfway the wall suddenly collapsed, I was so scared that my legs gave way.”

Matcha walked alone on the cold hard streets as he thought about what he should do next.

“Seriously, isn’t it just because I ate a slice of Elizabeth’s cake? This Zhao Yao, he’s just biased towards Elizabeth and the rest. What’s the big deal with ragdoll cats?”

Images of the ragdoll cats Elizabeth, Catherine and Diana subconsciously appeared in his mind.
