

Am I A God 661

Chapter 661: Waking Up and the Get-up

Next morning, in the extradimensional belly, Zhao Yao yawned as he woke up and pushed himself up from the sofa.

He got angry when he saw the cat fur on his clothes. “Who sneaked onto my bed last night.”

Roly Poly, who was beside the sofa, looked up and said sleepily, “Zhao Yao, this is the fur from Bald Head and his gang. Didn’t you bring Dust Ball along to kill them, scaring them so much that their fur fell all over the place.”

“Oh right, I almost forgot,” Zhao Yao dusted the fur off his clothes as he said, “What about breakfast?”

Lang Gou walked over with his chest puffed up in pride as he brought over a bowl of century egg porridge with minced meat and said, “Boss, here’s your breakfast.”

Zhao Yao took it and ate a huge mouthful. His eyes widened as he said, “Midnight’s cooking has improved. But having porridge every time is a little boring. Ask him to experiment with other dishes. I want to eat marinated chicken feet, shumai, and Xiaolongbao.”

“D*mn salted fish, you should just choke to death! Are these dishes that can be easily made simply by experimenting with them?” Lang Gou cursed silently as he replied with a polite smile, “No problem Boss, I will ask Midnight to do that today.”

After breakfast, Zhao Yao stood up and stretched his waist as he thought expectantly, “Tonight I will be able to calculate the rewards from this month’s cat café earnings as well as those from the catmint market share rates. Not sure how much of the catmint market share we dominate, I will just draw a ten-combo first then.”

As he thought, Zhao Yao walked over to the Garfield cat, Gaia, and asked curiously, “How is it? Have you reached the points for this level?”

Gaia replied sluggishly, “No... Not yet.”

“This can’t go on Gaia, your game-boosting efficacy is too low.”

Gaia’s face sank as he said, “Zhao Yao, give me more money, please. You can just buy monthly game credit. If not, it’s too difficult for me to play well.”

“If I give you money for boosting the game I might as well just play the game myself right? Don’t start thinking of using money to solve problems at such a young age.” Zhao Yao stroked Gaia’s head and consoled him, “Continue pressing, when you reach that level I will give you a death-exemption gold plate.”

Gaia rolled his eyes while nodding, “You’re so nice to me, Zhao Yao.”

Zhao Yao stroked his head as he thought, “It’s all because I want to treat you of your internet addiction. I’ll let you boost the game for three months. Let’s see if you still feel like playing this game afterwards.”

After greeting Gaia, Elizabeth had already trotted over to him with a comb in her mouth, “Zhao Yao, Zhao Yao, help me comb my fur. It got tangled.”

Zhao Yao squatted down and took the comb. He brushed Elizabeth’s fur as he asked, “Lizzie ah, there are no problems with the live stream right.”

Elizabeth enjoyed the combing very much as she replied, “There’s no problem, the live stream’s popularity is rising steadily. I just don’t know how photos of me leaked online, I suspect someone here secretly took photos of me.”

“Oh?” Zhao Yao frowned, “Don’t worry, I will ask Airplane to send the royal cat guards to investigate and catch this cat and skin him alive.”

Roly Poly was just about to get up for breakfast when he heard their conversation. His fat body trembled as he thought, “Looks like it’s time to delete the WeChat chat group and cut off all traces to ensure my safety. Next time I will just rent an overseas server to start a discussion forum that gives out free bonuses and sell advertisements to grow my business.”

Once he was done combing Elizabeth's fur, the whole family of ragdoll cats, Catherine, Diana, and Caesar all lined up in front of him, waiting for their turn with a comb in their mouth.

Zhao Yao was exasperated. "Why don't you guys ask Midnight and the rest to comb your fur for you."

"Their so rough with their hands, my fur always drops when they comb for me," Catherine said, "Zhao Yao you're better than they are at combing fur."

After combing the ragdoll cats, Zhao Yao walked to the training arena. Sphynx cat was there with Zhao Xue who struggled to move her body under a pressure of 10 times the ordinary force. "This is so hard but there's no way I can cheat my way out of this so I just have to train hard."

"Boss..."

At that moment, Bai Quan suddenly appeared behind Zhao Yao, scaring Zhao Yao so much that he turned in an instant and said warily, "What are you doing Bai Quan? Why didn't you make a sound when you were walking behind me? What a scare..."

Bai Quan said exasperatedly, "Boss, come out and take a look. We have a situation outside the café."

Zhao Yao was puzzled, "What situation? Can't you handle it?"

Bai Quan shrugged, "I think you should just go and take a look."

Zhao Yao brushed his teeth and washed up before walking out of the dimension portal to the cat café. He walked out of the door of the cat café and saw the strange sight that Bai Quan had mentioned to him.

Across the street, a cat was lying on the cement ground and staring at the cat café.

This cat was quite unique. Its whole body was covered in a layer of long white fur, except its face and limbs, which revealed only short stubbles of orange fur.

Across the street, Matcha lay expressionless on the cement ground and stared deadpan at the cat café. His body was covered in white fur, with a long strip of black fur pasted on top of his eyes. His tail was even wrapped with some goat fur shirt sleeve he had picked up somewhere from the streets.

He thought to himself, “I spent the whole night preparing this get-up, plucking my fur everywhere and it’s finally done. I should look like Elizabeth now. Quick, come and hug me, Zhao Yao.”

Zhao Yao saw Matcha’s get-up and immediately turned away with goosebumps erupting all over his body.

Matcha was surprised, “Is he touched? With the same looks, I would definitely fare much better compared to Elizabeth.”

However, Zhao Yao opened the door of the cat café and went in without looking at Matcha again as if he never noticed him.

Bai Quan asked, “What should we do?”

Zhao Yao waved him off, “Don’t care about him, the time’s not up yet.”

On the other hand, Matcha lay on the cement ground confused. “What happened, doesn’t Zhao Yao like the look of a ragdoll cat? Why is he not touched at all by this costume?”

“Eh? What animal is this?” A little boy ran over and stared at Matcha curiously as he stretched out his hand to touch him.

Matcha snarled as he turned away, scaring the little boy who turned on his heels and ran.

Matcha thought to himself, “He doesn’t like ragdoll cats with long fur? Right, I remember Zhao Yao would always shave at night, does that mean...”

Zhao Yao did not look at Matcha again. He made himself a cup of coffee and sat at his usual spot to surf the Internet. After a while, he looked towards where Matcha was and was surprised, “He left?”

Zhao Yao thought Matcha had walked off and concentrated on playing computer games and reading the news. As he read the news, he thought “Oh? Sunspots are increasing recently?” Even then, he would glance towards the street sometimes to see if Matcha had returned to his spot.

After two hours, Zhao Yao finished his coffee and when he glanced at the street again, he spat out his coffee in shock.

He saw a bald Matcha with only fur left on his head lying on the ground and staring at the cat café.

Matcha thought, “Zhao Yao shaves every day. Since he loves shaving so much, he will be touched when he sees my clean, shaven look right? Quick, come hug me right now.”

Zhao Yao took one look at him before lowering his head and taking out a tissue to clean up the spilled coffee on the table. “This idiot is a goner. Is it because I fed him expired kitten cream cake when I was young that he wasn’t able to develop properly?”

Chapter 662: Apologies

Matcha looked at Zhao Yao who had no reaction to his performance at all. After 10 minutes, he pulled open the zipper on his belly and crawled out from the toy skin.

It turned out that he had not shaved his fur. He had just crawled into a headless stuffed animal, from far it looked like he had no fur.

“Do I really have to shave and then Zhao Yao will be happy?” Matcha thought to himself. “Oh my, how can I be so unlucky.”

After Zhao Yao saw that Matcha left, he sighed, “If this guy still hasn’t grown up then I can only take him back and rear him like a prince. Haizz, this silly cat.”

After an hour, when Zhao Yao looked across the street again, he almost wanted to hit his face.

Matcha had tied a few branches on himself and lain on the floor. He stared at the cat café and thought, “This is called bondage contrition. I am being so sincere... How can Zhao Yao not accept me?”

Zhao Yao shook his head and pulled the curtains. He did not want to see Matcha anymore.

Seeing this Matcha slammed his paws on the ground. “He won’t even forgive me after this? Must I live stream myself eating poop? Don’t be too extreme!”

Matcha thought about it and walked off in another direction. His eyes were glistening with intelligence.

“Well, I got thrown out because I ate Elizabeth’s cake. Then does it mean that...” Matcha was thinking about it as he disappeared off the end of the street.

That night, Zhao Yao was lying on the sofa and strolling through the cat web to see if there was anything interesting happening while he waited for his end of month settlement.

Suddenly, a headline caught his attention. “Maine, USA has a large power shortage?” Zhao Yao remembered that the meteorites landed in Maine. One of his missions was to collect the meteorites, increase the skill points of the supercats, and activate the evolution module. Is the power shortage related to the meteorites?”

Zhao Yao had collected 8% of the meteorite fragments in Japan and since he returned to China, his collection had not increased. One reason was that he was too busy dealing with the God of Death, the other was because most of the meteorite fragments were in the USA.

“With USA’s power system, it should be rare for such large power shortages to happen. Has it really got to do with the research on the meteorites? Did the Americans make any discovery again?”

Zhao Yao was not the only who had thought of this. There were many IDs on the Cat web who were guessing that the power shortage had something to do with the meteorite.

Some said it was a signal from the aliens. Some said that the aliens were here. Others claimed it was an alien virus and some even said that the meteorites had been absorbed by a cat. There were many rumors spreading. Zhao Yao read them and felt that they were ridiculous.

However, his collection of meteorites determined if he completed the mission, added a few more skill points and activated the Book's evolution module. Zhao Yao thought about it and called Uncle Ho to ask about the situation.

Uncle Ho sounded very tired when he answered, "What is it?"

Zhao Yao asked, "The incident in Maine in the US, the power shortage, is it related to the meteorites?"

"We don't know yet." Uncle Ho sighed and said, "However the situation is quite bad. All our spies do not have any news. The American government has sealed all the relevant information and several areas in Maine have instituted martial law. They even called back overseas apostles..."

Zhao Yao said, "It's that serious?"

"In this incident, no news is the biggest news." Uncle Ho sighed, "It is a sign, the Americans must have made significant progress on the meteorites."

Upon hearing this, Zhao Yao frowned. Now the Book's main functions were upgrading of the cats, the diamond hall and the lucky draw. The evolution module was the next function to be activated. If something went wrong with the meteorites, wouldn't it mean that he could no longer activate that function?

Thinking of this, Zhao Yao asked, "Uncle Ho, you guys have been collecting information about the meteorites right?"

Uncle Ho was surprised. "You are interested in the meteorite fragments too? Oh, those meteorite fragments can make powers stronger. It is normal that you are interested in it."

Zhao Yao laughed and said, “If there is any news of the appearance of the meteorite fragments, remember to tell me.”

After putting down his phone, Zhao Yao knew that Uncle Ho did not trust him completely and that if they had news about the meteorite fragments, they would not inform him. He had to find a solution himself.

“I shall continue to pay attention to news on the cat web.” Zhao Yao thought about it. “I can only take note of relevant news about the meteorite fragments and prepare for the battle with God of Death at the same time. After I kill the God of Death, I can concentrate on collecting the meteorite fragments.”

Then, Zhao Yao strolled through the web and until midnight for the settlements to finally come in.

First, he looked at the income of the cat café. After excluding the electricity bills, cat food, toilet materials, drinks, and other costs, he still had 1 125 495 dollars left. He was awarded 2200 experience points for it. As he claimed the experience points, he started next month’s mission.

Zhao Yao claimed the experience points and after the double experience points card, he had 2200*2 experience points. He looked at the panel.

Book: Level 6 (46242/20000)

Matcha: Level 8 (3910/50000)

Elizabeth: Level 8 (3000/50000)

Dust Ball: Level 8 (25755/50000)

Ares: Level 7 (3900/20000)

Lucifer: Level 6 (7800/10000)

Sphinx Cat: Level 6 (5200/10000)

Zhao Yao held his chin and thought about it. “The experience points that the cat café gets are much lesser than what it needs to level up. Furthermore, Uncle Ho and Old man Zhuang contributed to a lot of its revenue. It is about time for the cat café to expand.

Thinking of the troubles expanding the cat café would bring, Zhao Yao frowned. Other than the cat café, he had to expand the catmint market, complete missions, take care of cats, give Elizabeth rewards, and counsel the cats at home. He was really too busy.

“Forget it. I will hand the expansion of the cat café over to Bai Quan. I will ask him to buy the shops beside the cat café.”

He looked at the experience points of the supercats. Although he had enough experience points to level up Ares, Lucifer, and Sphynx cat, but he didn’t. He wanted to accumulate the points to level up Elizabeth and kill the God of Death.

Taking into account that he had to leave 20000 experience points to level up the Book and 60000 or 70000 experience points to gain Sphynx cat’s strength. He still needed about 30000 experience points. Zhao Yao had to complete a few more missions to get them.

He resisted the urge to level up and looked at the other settlement. The percentage of catmint market they had taken over.

This was the month’s new mission. From the percentage of catmint market they dominated, every 1% would give him a chance at the lucky draw.

However, after Zhao Yao looked at the settlement, he frowned.

Chapter 663: Lucky draw and apology

“Only 11%? How can this be?” Zhao Yao pondered, “I have taken over most of the Cat King’s areas and there are so many cats who ordered Dust Ball Catmint online.

Then Zhao Yao realized, “Unless normal cats’ catmint markets are also included?”

Zhao Yao took a deep breath and said, “Looks like after dominating the supercat catmint market, I have to dominate the normal cats’ catmint market.”

“Aye, this is so troublesome. I feel like I don’t have enough money for it. “Zhao Yao thought about it. “Looks like it is time to make more money.”

Zhao Yao concluded that from now on, other than completing missions, he had to let Bai Quan expand the cat café and he had to think of ways to dominate more catmint markets so that he could get better items from the lucky draw.

Then, he had to accumulate experience points, level up Elizabeth, and kill God of Death.

After, killing the God of Death, he could concentrate on collecting meteorite fragments and activating the evolution module.

“Very good. Simple and clear. The plan is all in my head.” After summarizing, Zhao Yao rubbed his palms and decided to draw.

Now Dust Ball Catmint dominated 11% of the market. This meant that Zhao Yao had 11 chances at the lucky draw.

When he was about to draw, he suddenly thought of something and walked over to the catmint field, picked up Red Packet and grabbed him.

Zhao Yao rubbed his hands on Red Packet, hugged him and started the lucky draw.

50 experience points earned

100 experience points earned

1 packet of Spicy Cat Strips (10 inside)

1 packet of Spicy Cat Strips (10 inside)

5 experience points earned

50 experience points earned

Fragments of the Cat Prince Costume

Fragments of the Cat Prince Costume

5 experience points earned

10 experience points earned

He looked at the things he obtained from the lucky draw and was frustrated. “Who said 10 consecutive tries would produce miracles!” He felt like luck wasn’t on his side today. He did not get any new equipment. Zhao Yao thought of his last try and decided to pause for a while before trying.

“Screw this. Why couldn’t they have a cash top up? I would draw till I’m bankrupt.”

Zhao Yao hesitated for a while and decided to use the last draw.

Instantly new equipment appeared on his panel– Titanium Dog Eye.

From this lucky draw, he had obtained 220 experience points, 2 fragments of the Cat Prince Costume, 20 Spicy Cat Strips, and a Titanium Dog Eye.

Including what he had drawn the last time, in total, he had 4 fragments of the Cat Prince Costume, 35 Spicy Cat Strips, a Paralysis Ring, and a Titanium Dog Eye.

“Titanium Dog Eye...” Zhao Yao was pretty speechless. “What is this? Why do I feel like it is very unreliable.”

“Huh? The introduction...”

The next morning, when Zhao Yao opened the cat café, he found a small cake in front of the cat café.

“What?” Zhao Yao bent down and picked up the cake. On the cake was a crooked “Sorry”, which seemed drawn on by claws. There was also a candle on it.

Zhao Yao looked at the cake in surprise before he overheard a conversation.

“It is so weird, this morning a Scottish Fold came by and placed a cake in front of the cat café”

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes and looked up. An orange cat’s tail was swishing outside in the bush from where the voices came.

Then, he heard Matcha reply in a high-pitch voice. “What? So weird? A cat sent the cake? A rare Scottish Fold to boot?”

In the greenbelt, Matcha changed his voice deliberately and lowered his voice. “Yes, I saw it with my own eyes. The Scottish Fold looked weak, it was like he had worked through the night, finally bought a cake and walked another 10 kilometers just to place it in front of the cat café.”

“What?” Matcha spoke in a high pitch voice again. “So the Scottish Fold looked like he worked through the night, bought a cake and walked another 10 kilometers just to place it in front of the cat café? What a cool Scottish Fold.”

After speaking Matcha waited for a while and wondered, “Why is there no reaction? It can’t be that Zhao Yao couldn’t tell the cake was from me? Damn it, I should have carved my name on it.”

The orange cat stretched his head out cautiously from the greenbelt and when he saw that Zhao Yao was looking in his direction, he immediately retreated back. “That was so close. If not for my Time Freeze, I would have been discovered. However, why hasn’t he reacted?”

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao looked at the cake and pursed his lips. The cake looked more and more familiar, it felt like he saw it yesterday. He opened WeChat and opened Xiaoyu’s posts. Alas, he saw the same cake with the caption. “It’s my birthday again. I feel like my body has grown sexier too.”

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes and remembered that Xiaoyu wanted to beat Matcha up for the urine incident at the feline girls base. It can't be that she would give her birthday cake to Matcha.

"Did this silly cat steal the cake?" Zhao Yao touched his chin and thought, "Although stealing Xiaoyu's cake is very interesting; this means that he still has not grown up. He is still swindling."

Hence, Zhao Yao called Xiaoyu.

Xiaoyu. "Hey, Yao, why did you call me today? Do you miss me? Do you want to come over this weekend and treat me to a meal?"

Zhao Yao pursed his lips. "Stupid kid", he thought. "I want to ask something regarding your birthday cake..."

Xiaoyu laughed and said, "Oh, it is about the cake? How is it? Does it taste good?"

Zhao Yao raised his eyebrows in surprise and asked, "You know that Matcha took it?"

Xiaoyu laughed again and said, "Matcha earned it. He worked for me yesterday, The cake is his pay. He said he was going to give it to you."

When Zhao Yao heard that he was stunned. "Work? What can he do?"

"He helped me copy my homework. High-school homework is too easy... I am too lazy to do it." Xiaoyu explained, "He is much faster than Fish Ball and the rest. I have decided to ask him to copy my homework more often. Hello? Hello?" Xiaoyu looked at the phone and complained, "Yao is getting more impolite. How can he hang up on his aunt?"

Meanwhile, Matcha was lying in the greenbelt and frowning. "Why hasn't he gotten it yet? Is it because he is too old? That's why he isn't getting my hints? Does he expect me to go in front of him and tell him the cake is from me?"

Chapter 664: Stray Cat and Dog Eye

Just as Matcha was thinking about it, a hand stroked Matcha on his head and picked him up.

Looking at Zhao Yao who finally picked him up, Matcha rubbed against Zhao Yao and said, “Zhao Yao, Zhao Yao. You finally hugged me.”

Zhao Yao stroke Matcha’s head and smiled. “Good job.”

Matcha look at Zhao Yao with his eyes glistening. “Zhao Yao, can I go home?”

“Yes, of course, you can.” Zhao Yao carried Matcha back to the cat café.

Behind the Dimension Portal, Lightning yawned, “So it ended? I feel a bit depressed. I won’t get to watch Matcha live stream anymore.”

Elizabeth said faintly. “This lad was smart for once. He finally learned from his mistakes.”

Dust Ball controlled the Dimension Portal to return and said, “It has finally ended. I was so bored with Matcha.”

A few minutes later, Zhao Yao looked at the mission panel and suddenly realized that Matcha had to be a stray for seven days, there was still half a day left.

The door of the cat café opened, Matcha carried a new yellow bag and was placed on the floor again while the door slammed shut.

Matcha was speechless and he threw the bag onto the floor in anger. “Are you kidding me? I still have half a day?”

Then, his phone vibrated and Matcha saw the money that Zhao Yao had transferred. He laughed and ran off happily.

“Let’s go to Cat Street and play.”

Meanwhile, Xiaoyu was in the corridor. After she hung up the phone, she returned to the classroom, she was called to the teacher's office.

"Xiaoyu, why did you do it?"

Xiaoyu was confused.

The teacher threw the homework in front of her and shouted, "Look at it yourself!"

Xiaoyu opened her homework and saw many red crosses. Except for the first three questions, the fourth question's answers were copied onto question five. Question five's answers were copied on question six. Subsequently, all the answers were wrong.

The teacher said coldly. "You copied the homework, right? Not only did you copy, but you copied wrong. Stay back after school today to do your work."

Xiaoyu clenched her fist and raged in her mind. "Matcha! I am going to kill you!"

Zhao Yao took Matcha back after half a day and finally obtained the 500*2 experience points.

Then, he discussed with Bai Quan about the operations of the cat café. He handed the expansion of the cat café over to Bai Quan. His only request was to make as much profit as possible.

After the discussion, Bai Quan said, "Boss, if we want to expand, it will require a lot of money. The two shops beside us, their contracts are not up yet. Furthermore, their business is quite good. If we want them to leave, we may have to spend a lot..."

"Money is not the issue." Zhao Yao shook his head and said with confidence. "I have decided to rob, no, look for investments."

Bai Quan hesitated, "Boss, you said you were going to rob..."

"I said look for investments." Zhao Yao shouted, "How can I steal? Our supercat industry is an industry with great potential. Furthermore, with investment guarantees like me, how can there be no investments?"

Bai Quan hesitated, “If it is a cat café, I don’t think there will be many people who are willing to invest.”

“Who told you we will be a normal cat café?” Zhao Yao said, “Our goal is to turn the entire mall into our cat café. By then, we would not only serve normal people but also apostles and supercats. Once the customers come in, there will be hundreds of cats for them to choose from.

Young Lolita cats, Mature Garfield cats, Black British Shorthair, from the cheapest orange cats to the most expensive Ragdoll cats. We will have every cat they want.

Furthermore, all the cats won’t scratch or bite. It doesn’t matter if they stroke them, hug them, kiss them or make them wear bells, collars and socks, the cats will fulfill all their wishes.

It is a one-stop service. If they are unsatisfied with the cats, they can change the one they have at any time. Once we become the biggest cat entertainment center, not only ordinary humans would want to come. Apostles and supercats will come every day too. This business covers three consumer groups. That means a huge profit.”

“O... Okay then.” Bai Quan wiped the non-existence sweat on his forehead and said, “Then Boss, when are you going to transfer me the money?”

“I will transfer you 10 million tomorrow. I will transfer you the rest when I get investments.” Zhao Yao had several hundred million in his bank. However, dominating the catmint market was very important too. He couldn’t transfer Bai Quan all the money.

Zhao Yao planned to pay 10 million out of his own pocket first, then try and pull in some investments to expand the cat café and catmint market. It was so that he would get more experience points from every month’s settlement and increase his chances at the lucky draw to improve his capabilities.

After addressing all of that, Zhao Yao returned to the Extradimensional Belly and surfed the net. He needed to find suitable investors.

“Old Wang, Old Ma, Old Ma?” Zhao Yao thought to himself. “But they are all not convenient. Who should I get the money from?”

Roly Poly jumped onto Zhao Yao's leg and asked, "Zhao Yao, who are we going to rob?"

"Not rob. We are trying to get investments." Zhao Yao patted Roly Poly on the head and said, "Don't keep your robber habits from the past. To expand, to go big, we have to operate according to business rules. If we think about robbing every day, how are we going to improve our business?"

Roly Poly nodded but deep inside he did not agree.

Zhao Yao looked at Roly Poly and remembered the Titanium Dog Eye he had drawn the day before.

"Speaking of that, can I use the Titanium Dog Eye on Roly Poly?"

He recalled the introduction of the Titanium Dog Eye.

Titanium Dog Eye— supercat equipment, with the titanium dog eye a supercat will increase its stuck-up abilities to 3000%

"What is the stuck-up ability?" The Titanium Dog Eye's introduction was unclear like the Paralysis Ring. Zhao Yao was thinking that he had to try it to figure out. "Anyways Roly Poly's abilities are not improving and I can't sign the contract with him yet. Why not give him the equipment to improve his abilities?"

He took out the eye that looked like a diamond from the panel and placed it in front of Roly Poly. "Roly Poly do you like it?"

Roly Poly saw the diamond-like eye, he was shocked at first then he was overjoyed. "Really? Zhao Yao is giving me a diamond? Didn't he just get Matcha back? I knew it. He dotes on me more than Matcha."

Roly Poly nodded his head violently. "I like it. Zhao Yao as long as it is from you, I like it."

Zhao Yao asked again, "Are you sure you want this?"

"Yes, yes." Roly Poly nodded.

“Is it?”

“Then I will give it to you.”

“Remember that you asked for it, I didn’t force you.”

After multiple confirmations, Zhao Yao stuffed the Titanium Dog Eye in Roly Poly’s eyes.

That moment, the Titanium Dog Eye merged with Roly Poly’s eyeball. Roly Poly felt a chill and something went into his eye.

“Zhao Yao, what happened? Why did the diamond go into my eye?” Roly Poly looked at Zhao Yao panicked.

Only to see Zhao Yao frown and looked at Roly Poly. “Roly Poly, what was that? You look down on me?”

“What? No?” Roly Poly looked at Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao was angered and slapped Roly Poly on the head. “No? Are you not looking down on me because I am lazy and I want to succeed without working hard?”

“What?” Roly Poly was shocked. “How did Zhao Yao know?”

Chapter 665: Dog Food

When Roly Poly saw that Zhao Yao was angry, Roly Poly explained, “I didn’t mean it like that. I have always respected you and I admire what you have done till this day.

“Really?”

“Yes, yes.” Roly Poly open his eyes and tried his best to look kind and innocence. “Look at my eyes. Look at how sincere I am.”

Zhao Yao looked into his eyes and he immediately felt that Roly Poly looked at him with disgust, disdain and disregard. He felt that he condescendingly look down on him from the Titanium Dog Eye.

“You stupid fat cat!” Zhao Yao grabbed onto Roly Poly’s head and pressed hard. “Roly Poly, you are getting a big head, spiritually and physically. I should chase you out like Matcha so that you will grow up.”

As he spoke, Zhao Yao picked Roly Poly up and walked towards the Dimension Portal.

“No, Zhao Yao!” Roly Poly pleaded, “I am so loyal to you. If you throw me out, it is like taking my life.”

Because Roly Poly was picked up by Zhao Yao, he glanced towards the supercats at the side.

Uncle Egg was the first to stand up, his fur was standing and electric sparks flew around. “Roly Poly, you think that I am always fooling around? That I am just wasting my life away?”

Ares used the Deflective Field to trap Roly Poly as he shouted, “You fat cat, you think I am afraid of Shynx cat? You think that I am useless?”

Zhao Yao, who couldn’t see Roly Poly’s eyes anymore, suddenly realized, “Are these the effects of the Titanium Dog Eye? It has such strong despicable powers.”

Then, Zhao Yao saw more and more supercats gather around them. They were enraged under the gaze of the dog eye. Zhao Yao covered Roly Poly’s eye immediately and walked away.

Without the dog eye, the supercats calmed down, looked at each other in confusion, and walked away.

Roly Poly whose eyes were covered, also realized. “Zhao Yao, what did you do? What is wrong with me?”

“It is a good thing.” Zhao Yao said, “I have given you divine equipment.”

Roly Poly cried, "Can I not have it anymore? Give it to someone else."

"Currently, I do not know how to take it out. You can try it first." Zhao Yao said, "Furthermore, with this, it is like having a second power. A cat with two powers, you turn from R card straight to SR."

Roly Poly was speechless, "I am afraid that I will be beaten to death."

Zhao Yao said, "No, no. Let's figure out how to use this. We should be able to turn it off."

Roly Poly asked, "How are we going to turn it off? I can't feel anything unusual."

Zhao Yao rubbed his chin and said, "Why not try closing your eyes?"

Roly Poly did not believe him. "Are you sure?"

Roly Poly did not know that the thing Zhao Yao had given him was a Titanium Dog Eye. Thus, it was normal that he did not believe this method. However, Zhao Yao insisted and Roly Poly closed his eyes as Zhao Yao turned him around.

Roly Poly who was turned around grabbed onto his head as he was afraid to be beaten up.

After a while, he realized that Zhao Yao had not beaten him. Roly Poly heaved a sigh of relief. "So all I have to do is close my eyes? But this means I can't see anything."

Zhao Yao thought to himself. "There is only one Titanium Dog Eye, I remember I placed it into Roly Poly's right eye." Hence, he told Roly Poly. "Open your left eye and see if it works."

Roly Poly turned and tried. He replied, "I can't open only one eye."

Zhao Yao walked to the supercats cabinet and found an eye mask for Roly Poly.

When he faced Roly Poly again, Zhao Yao nodded his head and said, "As long as we don't see your right eye, it is fine."

Roly Poly was speechless, “This means I can only see with one eye now?”

“It is not like you can’t see. It is just an eye mask.” Zhao Yao said, “You just have to wear an eye mask normally and you have one extra strong power. How many cats wait for such a good opportunity to happen to them.”

Roly Poly was cursing in his heart. “How is this a strong power?”

Zhao Yao continued, “Now, we just have to see what your dog eye can do. However, I can’t be the test subject. Let’s find a weaker cat.”

After a few minutes, Zhao Yao brought Sphinx cat and Roly Poly to a house on the Cat Island. Roly Poly pointed at Sphinx cat and started screaming, “Zhao Yao! This is a weaker cat? I am going to die!”

“No, it’s okay.” Zhao Yao comforted Roly Poly. “Sphinx just looks fierce, he does not have strong attacking powers.”

“Who are you lying to!” Roly Poly pointed at all the muscles on Sphinx cat and shouted, “These are not strong attacking powers?”

Sphinx cat who was being pointed at gently pushed the door open and the entire door crumbled into pieces. Sphinx cat apologized, “I’m sorry. I think I used too much strength.”

Zhao Yao continued to comfort Roly Poly. “It’s okay, I am here. Nothing will happen to you. Sphinx’s five sense are extremely sensitive and he had a strong will. We can try out the limits of your eyes.”

Roly Poly was shivering and his fur was dropping. Suddenly, he shrieked, turned invisible and ran out. However, he was caught by Zhao Yao. Soon, there were screams and howls coming from the house.

After several experiments, Zhao Yao understood the details of how to use the dog eye.

First, when Roly Poly looked at someone, the person felt like they were being looked down upon. If they looked at each other, Sphynx felt an alarming amount of hatred and evil intentions. In fact, he could hear Roly Poly's imaginary voice scolding him.

The way to stop it was also very simple. Vision has to be blocked.

Next was testing the effects of the Dog Eye when Roly Poly was invisible.

Sphynx cat's senses were too sensitive so he knew beforehand that Roly Poly was looking at him. Hence, Zhao Yao decided to carry Roly Poly and find an unknowing target while they were invisible.

They returned to the Extradimensional Belly. The invisible Zhao Yao uncovered Roly Poly's eye mask.

Rice Cake and Gaia who were gaming suddenly felt infinite disdain looking at them. Gaia turned her head and looked at Rice Cake who was beside her. "Rice Cake, are you looking down on me? You think that all I know is gaming? I am a useless cat? Let me tell you, I hate people who look down on my gaming!"

Rice Cake turned over and yelled, "What kind of a look was that? You're looking down on me? You think I am short? Let me tell you, I hate others calling me short! I will jump up and disfigure you!"

Chapter 666: Looking for Investments

Seeing that Rice Cake and Gaia almost got into a fight, Zhao Yao immediately turned Roly Poly's line of sight towards Lightning.

Lightning's body began to shiver instantly. He felt strong humiliation bubbling from the bottom of his heart. As soon as he looked up, he saw Cannon beside him and said angrily, "Stupid cat! What are you looking at? You say I'm being cuckolded? I will kill you!" Then, he attacked.

The two cats rolled together. Cannon looked at Lightning with annoyance: "What's with that look? Do you think I'm not tough? I can be tough enough to kill you!"

The two cats were rolling while slamming each other with their claws and bumped into Fish Ball.

Fish Ball saw the look from the two cats and only felt that their burning looks were overwhelmingly contemptuous. They seemed to penetrate his fur and pierce through his heart. “Which one of you said my ability is trash?” Lights shot out from his body. He was then hit by Lightning and Canon and fell to the ground.

Looking at the three cats who fought more and more fiercely, Zhao Yao immediately covered Roly Poly’s eyes and thought: “Once he’s invisible, the object of hatred is directly transferred to the surroundings?”

Roly Poly was excited with what he saw: “Good treasure, it’s a good treasure.”

Just as he thought about killing Matcha with his dog eye and driving away Elizabeth, so that he could have Zhao Yao and the whole Cat Nation to himself, Zhao Yao had already patted Roly Poly’s eye mask and said: “Roly Poly, the power in your eyes is too strong. You are not to break the seal and use it casually without my permission.”

Roly Poly instantly felt deflated: “Alright.”

After experimenting with the Titanium Dog Eye, Zhao Yao was very satisfied. At this moment, his phone vibrated with news from Bai Quan.

“What?” Zhao Yao looked at it, and frowned. It was not easy to expand the cat café. The surrounding shops were not willing to sublet. After all, they were close to the university town and there were several large communities around. It was the largest shopping mall within 10 kilometers. The location was very good. The business of the store was good and the loss from subleasing was too great.

“It’s probably the money then.” Zhao Yao looked at his phone and thought, “Give them more money, enough to let them all be willing to sublet. However, if their decorations, loss of time, cost of moving, all kinds of manpower and material resources must be compensated for as well then I am afraid that it will cost a huge sum. Even if I want to buy the whole mall and transform it into a clubhouse, if they are not given hundreds of millions or more than a billion, the mall won’t budge.”

Zhao Yao thought about it again. “There is still a cost problem. The monthly settlement mission only counts the revenue after costs are subtracted. Now we have to let the money go around in a circle and try to let others buy it and give it to me, just like Uncle Ho gave me.”

“There is still Jianghai’s catmint market.” Zhao Yao thought: “Assuming that the number of ordinary cats is ten times that of supercats. First, the amount of catmint that Dust Ball grows has to be multiplied by ten. If I want an ordinary cat owner to buy catmint... most of my advertisements are directed at super cats, it will be useless.

Even the quality of catmint is meaningless to ordinary people. If I want to open up this market, it seems that I can only rely on money to get through the channels. This will require even more money.”

Maybe through some operations, strategies, and technology to improve the profit of the cat café, I’ll slowly occupy more markets. But how will I get the time to do all these things?”

He decided to use money to solve these problems in a straightforward manner.

He was going to use money to exchange the experience points earned by the cat café and the lucky draw tries for the catmint market.

Thinking in this direction, Zhao Yao felt that the few hundred million in the bank were not enough. At the thought of buying a shopping mall in the future, tens of thousands of experience points per month, dominating the catmint market, and having 100 tries every month for the lucky draw, Zhao Yao felt full of enthusiasm.

“Hey, let’s see if there are rich people who need more help from apostles.” Zhao Yao opened the cat web and began to search. There is a division regarding the employment and requesting for the help of apostles.

However, after looking it for a while, Zhao Yao shook his head: “No, I need too much money. Simply just a few million or tens of million are too small a sum. It is useless to me.”

Zhao Yao suddenly remembered where his first bucket of gold came from: “The Mao gang, I attacked the cat dealer group then the leader of the gang was touched by my story and gave all his savings to me to support my cause.”

At the thought of this, Zhao Yao nodded to himself and felt that he had found the right direction. He immediately called Uncle Ho and asked: “Uncle Ho, have there been any evil and rich criminal organizations emerging recently?”

“Why are you asking this?” Uncle Ho looked at Zhao Yao with suspicion: “Do you want to do something again? Zhao Yao, Brother Yao, we have been very busy recently. Please don’t stir up any trouble.”

“How is that possible? I am just asking.” After Zhao Yao realized that Uncle Ho refused to cooperate, he ended the conversation and hung up the phone.

He opened a forum on the cat web and asked, “Which organization is the wealthiest supercat organization in the world currently?”

Seeing that the post was from the Headless Horseman, it immediately gathered mass attention, besides some useless and cheeky replies, Zhao Yao quickly got a lot of answers.

Some said that Ivory from the southern part of the country and Claws from the north. The two were ignored by Zhao Yao. If he were to attack the God of Death in Ivory now, it would cause large-scale social unrest. And, he did not hear about any bad actions taken by the Claws from the north. Also, he had just had a phone call with Uncle Ho. He was not planning to create turmoil in the country right now.

Some continued to say that the American cat, Star, backed by the government, had meteorites on hand. Americans had a lot of cats and money. This was also ignored by Zhao Yao. After all, the United States was the world’s number one power. It was powerful, its military strength was impressive, its intelligence network was developed, and the number of supercats it possessed was also large. Zhao Yao did not plan to attack them anytime soon. It would cause international disputes.

He decided that he needed to level up around eight or ten levels and become invincible before challenging America.

They continued to talk about the super-organizations in the Middle East, Britain, France, and Russia. Zhao Yao looked at them all and selected his own targets.

However, either these organizations relied on superpowers and Zhao Yao did not want to confront national forces for the time being. He was not strong enough to ignore international powers. It was easy to cause international disputes which would result in a bunch of issues.

Or the organizations were legal and they were doing legitimate business and hence Zhao Yao was unable to disregard that and snatch their money.

Zhao Yao couldn't find any target.

“What?” Zhao Yao's eyes suddenly lit up. The name of an organization lit up his eyes: “Double-Headed Vulture? International drug trafficking organization? Use powers for drug trafficking? Also carries out part-time human trafficking? That's you then.”

In an instant, the mission panel jumped and a new mission was born.

Mission: Suck Double-Headed Vulture dry

Mission Objective: Annihilate the international drug trafficking group, Double-headed vulture, and obtain at least $1 billion from them.

Reward: 5000 experience points

Mission Penalty: None

Chapter 667: Going Abroad To Earn Money

Three days later, Zhao Yao took a flight to the poorest country in Europe.

According to the intelligence on his cell phone, the headquarters of the Double-headed Vulture were located here.

When he exited the airport, he saw dilapidated streets, old buses, golden-haired and blue-eyed Europeans and their curious gazes. He shrugged his shoulders and waited for his tour guide to fetch him.

A short-haired lady with yellow skin and dark eyes walked over. She stood out from the crowd, so Zhao Yao spotted her immediately. She looked exactly like her photograph—Large eyes, short hair, egg-shaped face and a little short.

The lady waved and ran over to Zhao Yao. "Greetings, are you Mister Zhao Yao?"

"Yes, that is me." Zhao Yao extended his hand and said, "Are you the student Lin Wanqian?"

"Yes, that is me. Nice to meet you, Mr. Zhao Yao." Lin Wanqian shook hands with Zhao Yao and said, "We agreed on 500 Euros per day, is that alright?" She looked in anticipation at Zhao Yao as she was tempted by such a high price.

Zhao Yao nodded and waved with his hand, "No problem." He took out 500 Euros and said, "This is the tour guide fee for the first day."

Lin Wanqian was excited to see the money but she did not take it. Instead, she asked warily, "Mister Zhao Yao, I only provide basic tour guide services. There are no additional itineraries and I do not go out at night."

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes and said, "Do not let your imagination run wild. Do you think I would be interested in you?" He pointed to the golden-haired ladies on the streets and said, "Look at the European ladies, they are prettier than you. You are safe here."

Lin Wanqian was so infuriated by Zhao Yao's tactless comment that she puffed her chest and glared at him. After receiving the 500 Euros, she calmed herself and said, "Mister Zhao, what do you intend to tour? The southern coastline is extremely scenic and connects to the mediterranean sea. The sea water is so clean that you can see the sand underneath. It is almost summer. The sunshine is lovely..."

To earn the 500 Euro, Lin Wanqian had done her homework by familiarizing herself with the tourist spots.

Zhao Yao waved his hand and said, "I am not going there. I prefer to tour the city."

"Ah?" Lin Wanqian looked at him puzzled and said, "We can go to the Downtown Square, museum, art gallery, opera house and..."

Zhao Yao waved his hand again and said, "I don't want to go there. Bring me to the most chaotic location."

“What? The most chaotic location?” Lin Wanqian was terrified and took a few steps back. She looked warily at Zhao Yao and said, “Mister Zhao, what do you intend to do here?”

“Touring, haven’t I told you already? Zhao Yao observed her wary behavior and smiled. “Don’t worry, I do not like scenic views when touring. I prefer to immerse myself in the local culture.”

Lin Wanqian smiled awkwardly. She was having second thoughts about this tour guide job. Law and order here were not as good as they appeared and she did not want any trouble.

Zhao Yao asked, “Miss Lin, why are you here?” While strolling and observing the scenic views, Zhao Yao discovered that there were very few tourists here.

“I am here to fulfill my summer modules.” Lin Wanqian coaxed, “Mr. Zhao, there are places here that are not suitable for touring as they are dangerous. Shall we tour the National Museum in the downtown area?”

Lin Wanqian was not an ignorant kid. Underneath the peaceful facade, was a criminal ring that ran throughout Europe. Every year, large amounts of drugs and kidnapped women were sold here to the rest of Europe and even America.

Maintaining a low profile and avoiding trouble were her survival tools.

Zhao Yao sighed as he was perplexed. He did not know the local language and required a tour guide as a translator.

“Will you accept 1000 Euro?”

Lin Wanqian shook her head violently like a rattle drum while Zhao Yao said, “5000 Euro, only for one day.”

Lin Wanqian was dumbfounded and she hesitated for a while before struggling to say, “I will only bring you there and I will not do anything illegal.”

“That is enough, let’s go.”

Along the way, both of them traveled by public transport and on foot. Zhao Yao was enjoying this charming little European country.

There were many cafés on the streets and the locals looked free and easy. When they noticed both of them, they looked as though they had seen exotic creatures. The city buildings looked obsolete and were comparable to second-rate and third-rate cities in China.

As they proceeded further, the scenery changed from public roads to muddy paths, from the downtown areas to rural areas. Finally, they arrived at a street with numerous shacks that were self-constructed by the locals. They were squeezed haphazardly together forming a large labyrinth.

Some local kids begged Zhao Yao for money and were stopped by Lin Wanqian.

Lin Wanqian looked at Zhao Yao and said, “Try not to give them money. Do not take out your money from your wallet. If you want to buy any things, let me pay using Lekë, the local currency. Do not show your wealth. I am sure you understand this.”

Zhao Yao nodded, his eyes sweeping around, his ears quivering. He was paying attention to his surroundings.

“There must be a gang here and they will know where to find the Double-headed Vulture members. As long as I am able to find a single member, I will have the ways and means to locate the headquarters,” Zhao Yao thought, “To find the local gang...”

He thought for a while, looked at Lin Wanqian and asked, “Where is the red light district?” Although the Double-headed Vulture only dealt drugs, as the largest human smuggling ring in Europe, they would be in cahoots with the local gangs to force women into prostitution.

“Ah? Ah????” Lin Wanqian gazed at Zhao Yao with contempt and said furiously, “How would I know about such places? And... you came all the way here, just to...”

She could not imagine that a person would look for the red light district after a flight. He must be full of energy or rather full of lust?

Zhao Yao said, “Just bring me there.”

“Scumbag, you have to go yourself.” Lin Wanqian scolded, swiveled and ran off as she did not want to stay any longer. After more than a hundred meters, she regretted.

“This place is chaotic and dangerous. I don’t think it is a good idea to leave him here.” After thinking for a while, though she disliked him, she had to bring him back to the downtown area.

As she was turning her head, a huge pair of hands covered her mouth and she was pulled into a small alley. She struggled frantically but was made unconscious and carried away.

Chapter 668: Pursuit

As Lin Wanqian was being captured, Zhao Yao’s ears quivered. “Well?”

“Roly Poly, activate invisibility.”

After both of them were invisible, Zhao Yao activated Time Freeze and flashed next to Lin Wanqian.

Lin Wanqian was unconscious. A bald-headed brute carried her on his shoulders and walked with a long-haired burly man towards a van parked at the back of a small alley.

Zhao Yao activated his superpower to put down Lin Wanqian. After that, he activated Elizabeth’s power of illusion.

The eyes of the two men blurred momentarily and they saw an Asian man appear before them, carrying the unconscious woman. Both of them were hardcore gang members who kidnapped women for a living. Without hesitation, they rushed towards him.

The Asian man was easily defeated. The long-haired man grabbed the woman while the bald man punched and kicked the Asian man to the ground. The bald man stomped on his face, cursed in the local language before stomping heavily on his skull.

The long-haired man, who was carrying Lin Wanqian, said, “Enough Poison Dart, stop beating him. You are going to beat him to death.”

Poison Dart kicked the Asian man viciously on his stomach. Seeing that the Asian man had passed out, he spat and said in his local language, “Trash.”

The two men walked towards the van while Zhao Yao was behind them carrying Lin Wanqian. In fact, the burly man did not carry Lin Wanqian. They were both fighting thin air and were made to believe the illusion created by Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao tricked them so that they would lead him to their hideout.

He could have chosen to torture them to obtain information that had to be verified, but the illusion was more effective.

However...

Zhao Yao patted Lin Wanqian’s shoulders. She was still groggy. Zhao Yao shook his head and thought, “I cannot leave her here. I have to bring her along.”

Zhao Yao activated his power of illusion and carried Lin Wanqian while following the two men. The four of them boarded the van and drove towards the gang’s hideout.

After a short while, the van stopped at a small rundown building. Zhao Yao followed both men into the building and saw three men, who were watching a soccer match on the television, waving to them.

Zhao Yao asked, “What are they saying?”

Old Cat, who was on Zhao Yao’s shoulder, said, “Discussing soccer, greeting each other and nothing of importance.”

Zhao Yao nodded. Old Cat had been doing the translation the whole time, however, Zhao Yao preferred someone local so he engaged a tour guide.

Poison Dart carried the illusion of Lin Wanqian and smiled merrily as he climbed the stairs. “Look what I have here, a Chinese woman. I am sure she will fetch a good price.”

In the house, a large bearded middle-aged man was sipping coffee and reading the newspaper. He lifted his head to look. “Chinese? Could be another type of Asian, they all look alike.

This is very rare. Our customers prefer golden-haired and blue-eyed women. Chinese women may not be easy to sell as those customers will be shopping in South-east Asia.”

“My dad went to China to study, so I am able to identify Chinese! She is definitely Chinese.” Poison Dart caressed the cheeks of the illusion of Lin Wanqian and said, “She is quite pretty, small eyes and mouth, looks like a twelve-year*old girl. Some of our customers will like her.”

The middle-aged man, Zach, shrugged his shoulders. “Send her up. Remember to check if she is a virgin that will fetch a very high price.”

Zhao Yao surveyed the entire building while Elizabeth’s Sound Field superpower engulfed the whole place.

“First floor with four men, second floor with five men, third floor with twelve kidnapped women and the bald man.” Zhao Yao looked at the twelve women and frowned. They were tied by ropes and looked groggy.

Poison Dart was stripping the clothes of the illusory woman, checking if she was a virgin.

At his instant, Lin Wanqian regained consciousness. She discovered she was being carried on the shoulders and screamed. She struggled to climb down from Zhao Yao’s shoulders.

Her screams alerted the gang members.

“Let me go! Let go of me!”

“Help! Help!”

Though Zhao Yao had activated his power of illusion to shield their ears, they were still alarmed. The middle-aged man on the first floor, Zach, frowned and beckoned his men. “Go up and see who is creating the racket. Teach her a good lesson.”

Lin Wanqian was put down by Zhao Yao. She looked around in terror and pleaded, "Please let me go. I am an only child and I have AIDS so I will not fetch any price."

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes, looked at her pitiful face and said, "Okay, you are safe."

"Please, I beg you!" Lin Wanqian did not believe him and pleaded, "My mum and dad have been handicapped and are without jobs or income. They depended on me to support them."

"Enough." Zhao Yao sighed, "I told you that you were safe." Zhao Yao slapped Poison Dart's face and he stepped back. He was puzzled why had taken a step back. He did not feel any pain as his sense of touch was shielded.

Zhao Yao pointed at Poison Dart and said, "Do you see that? Besides me, nobody can see you."

Lin Wanqian was astonished. She walked in front of Poison Dart and waved her hands before exclaiming, "Really? Why is this happening?" She suspected that they could be in cahoots to deceive her.

Seeing her disbelief, Zhao Yao flicked his finger and activated his power of illusion. Lin Wanqian saw darkness and her body floated in a star-filled universe. She was scared stiff and started sweating profusely.

When the illusion faded, she looked at Zhao Yao convinced and asked, "You..are you an apostle?"

"Yes." Zhao Yao nodded and said, "I am the international cop Zhao Benshan. I came here to exterminate the drug trafficking organization, Double-headed Vulture. I need your cooperation."

Lin Wanqian gaped at him and thought, "I do not know how to answer!!!"

Footsteps were heard from the stairs. A gang member walked up cursing and swearing. "Who asked for help? Tired of living?"

Zhao Yao frowned as he could not delay his plan. He could not bear to see the gang members ill-treat the kidnapped women.

Zhao Yao walked to the gang member, exerted all his might and punched him on the chest. The gang member groaned and knelt to the floor, unable to say a word.

Chapter 669: Heartfelt Conversation

“What is happening?” Poison Dart looked at the fallen gang member and walked over when he felt a sharp pain on the back of his neck. He turned around and saw nothing.

“That sturdy?” Zhao Yao looked surprised by the bald man who was 15cm taller than him. He punched his forehead with all his might and he fell to the ground.

As Zhao Yao descended the stairs, he suddenly looked back at Lin Wanqian and said, “Why are you gaping? Follow me.”

“Oh...” Lin Wanqian thought they were leaving and followed him enthusiastically. Zhao Yao fought his way down from the third floor to the ground floor. All the gang members were unable to see the attacks and collapsed to the ground.

Zhao Yao said to Lin Wanqian, “Wait for me here.”

After Zhao Yao entered the small building again, Lin Wanqian wanted to run but she was afraid. While hesitating, she saw Zhao Yao exit the house with the fallen gang members floating behind him.

The ten captured gang members were tossed onto the ground.

Zhao Yao waved his hand and a chair floated to him. Sitting on the chair, he gazed at the ten men and said to Lin Wanqian, “Tell them I have questions. I will kill them if they do not answer.”

Zhao Yao kept Lin Wanqian because she could help him translate better than Old Cat.

Lin Wanqian looked at Zhao Yao in shock. Recalling his ferocious look, she translated to Poison Dart, Zach and the gang members.

The gang members reacted with scorn. Zach glared at Zhao Yao and said, “Chinese man, do not be smug because of your superpower. If you fight against the Cobra Gang, you will not leave this city. You will be dismembered and thrown into the feces pit. And this girl...”

Zhao Yao listened to Lin Wanqian’s translation. He was perplexed when the gang member starting cursing.

The Deflective Field was activated and a steel rod flew up and penetrated Zach’s wrist, pinning him to a mud wall.

“Ah!!!” Zach screamed in agony and glared maliciously at Zhao Yao and Lin Wanqian. “My brothers will take revenge for me.”

Lin Wanqian was scared stiff by his malevolent gaze. She stepped back and hid behind Zhao Yao.

Lin Wanqian understood the gang members very well and said timidly, “These people are not afraid of death. They will kidnap for a few hundred Euros and sacrifice themselves for a few thousand Euros.”

Zhao Yao stroked his chin. “Not afraid of death? Perhaps before meeting me.”

Most of his enemies in China would yield under such interrogation. However, the gang members were born in the poorest country in Europe. In such harsh conditions, they did not have a moral code and depended on brutality to survive. They do not care for others except for their own families.

Zhao Yao gazed his Zach, who was glaring back fearlessly. He even spat saliva at him.

Zhao Yao asked Zack grimly, “How many women have you sold?”

Zach sneered as Lin Wanqian translated. “100? 500? 1000? Who knows. Do you think I would be concerned with how many women I sold?”

Lin Wanqian covered her mouth as she felt the urge to vomit. She looked in astonishment at the ten gang members. She could not see any guilt, regret or perplexity in their eyes... only a matter-of-factness.

Zhao Yao maintained his composure, looked at Zach and asked, “Do you know about Double-Headed Vulture?”

Zach kept quiet, looked bewilderedly at them and sneered, “You are looking for death.”

“Not willing to comply.” Zhao Yao activated his power of illusion and an invisible vibration engulfed the gang members.

In the next instant, they exclaimed out of fright. They saw numerous ants climbing up their legs. No matter how they swatted, the ants would not give up. Zach’s body was filled with millions of ants devouring his flesh and bones and he yielded.

“Stop! Stop!” Zach screamed in terror. “I will tell you, stop! I will tell you everything if you stop these d*mn vermin!”

Zach tossed and turned, knocking his body against the wall to stop the ants. However, Zhao Yao was unaffected and he watched solemnly.

Zach’s screams became more frantic. When he saw the flesh below his thigh completely devoured, he incinerated his body with a lighter.

The other nine men watched in horror. The ants on their body did not chew their flesh, however, they gazed at Zhao Yao with much terror.

Lin Wanqian was not subjected to the illusion so she could not see any ants. She was shocked by Zach’s screams and his incineration. Though she was frightened, she felt satisfaction seeing the gang members being punished for their sins.

Zhao Yao looked at them and said, “I am asking again, who has information on the Double-Headed Vulture.”

Everyone with the exception of Poison Dart hesitated. They were about to blurt out information on Double-Headed Vulture.”

Poison Dart stood up and said, “Don’t think that you can get any useful information from us. I will see you in hell!” He took out a handgun from his jacket and aimed it at Zhao Yao.

The bullet penetrated Zhao Yao as though it had shot through an illusion.

Zhao Yao appeared behind their back, shaking his head. The previous Zhao Yao was just an illusion.

The ants chewed on Poison Dart’s body, causing him to fire wildly at Zhao Yao, depleting his bullets. He screamed, collapsed to the ground and rolled all over the place.

Zhao Yao sighed. “You should have left one bullet for yourself.”

Poison Dart had lost his sanity under the illusory attack of the ants. He cried while imploring, “Pardon me, please stop these vermin, I beg you! I will tell, I will say everything.”

Zhao Yao controlled with his thoughts and Poison Dart collapsed to the ground, unable to move or speak, silently enduring the chewing of the ants. Zhao Yao looked at the remaining eight gang members and asked, “Who has information on Double-Headed Vulture?”

Chapter 670: Calling People

“I know!”

“I know, I know!”

The eight men competed with each other to tell everything. Lin Wanqian was concentrating as she translated, “They do not know the details about Double-Headed Vulture except that it is the leader of all the gangs and responsible for exporting kidnapped women and drugs overseas...”

When Lin Wanqian stopped, Zhao Yao asked, “What happened? Is there something you don’t understand?”

Lin Wanqian covered her mouth as she found it difficult to accept. “3... 3000 Euros to 5000 Euros for a kidnapped woman. How could they do such as thing?”

Zhao Yao sighed and said, “Ask them the location of the Double-Headed Vulture.”

Zhao Yao was disappointed with the answer. This location was a stronghold of the Cobra Gang and only their leaders were able to contact members of the Double-Headed Vulture.

Zhao Yao nodded and said, "Okay." He pointed casually to one of the men and said, "Where is your boss? Get him to come over, I will wait for him here."

Lin Wanqian did not translate his words. She looked astounded at Zhao Yao and said, "What are you saying? Are you waiting for them here? This is too dangerous. They will bring a lot of people. I also heard that the gangs have machine guns!!"

Zhao Yao waved his hands. "It doesn't matter, the more the merrier. You will translate my words directly."

Lin Wanqian was not complying as she thought it was suicidal. Even if Zhao Yao possessed superpowers, she was unsure he could handle hundreds of gangsters with firearms.

Zhao Yao shrugged his shoulders and said in frustration, "If you do not comply, I will leave you here."

"You!" Lin Wanqian reluctantly spoke to the eight men. Old Cat suddenly blurted, "Zhao Yao, this woman didn't translate your words, she said we were returning to our country."

Zhao Yao stared at Lin Wanqian and gravely said, "Translate my exact words before I will strip you naked and throw you in the wilderness."

Lin Wanqian glared at him. "Is this man trying to implicate me? Does he understand what I had translated? Why does he want me to translate?"

Lin Wanqian was fuming at his arrogance but she was helpless against physical threats. Under the supervision of Old Cat, she complied.

The eight gang members were shocked after listening to the translation. They looked dumbstruck at Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao was indifferent as he pointed out a member and asked, "What is your name?"

“Nick.”

Zhao Yao said, “Very good, Nick, you may go and convey my message. Remember to ask your boss to bring more men.”

Nick could not believe his luck and ran a few steps. When Zhao Yao did not stop him, he bolted off.

Lin Wanqian looked worriedly at Zhao Yao and yelled, “Hey! Are you really waiting for them here? It is too dangerous, let’s leave.”

Zhao Yao sat leisurely on the chair, studied the newly appeared mission and said, “Do not fret. Relax a bit. With me around, you will be the safest woman. As long as you are obedient, you will not die even if you wanted to.”

Mission: Exterminate the Cobra Gang

Mission Objective: Exterminate the Cobra Gang

Reward: 1000 experience points

Mission Penalty: None

“Simple and brutal mission... my favorite.” Zhao Yao nodded with satisfaction. “When I return, I should be able to upgrade Elizabeth.”

Lin Wanqian was overwhelmed with anxiety and she paced up and down, occasionally glancing at Zhao Yao and sighing heavily.

The remaining gang members sized up Zhao Yao gravely as if he was an idiot and a dead man.

Suddenly, Zhao Yao exclaimed in surprise. Lin Wanqian turned her head and asked, “Are you leaving?”

“No, I forgot about him.” Zhao Yao looked at Poison Dart and relinquished control over him. He remained motionless and gaped at the sky as though he had gone insane.

“He is that weak, succumbing just like that?” Zhao Yao shook his head and shifted his gaze at the eight men. They trembled in fear.

Zhao Yao did not punish them. He kept the kidnapped women in his Extradimensional Belly so that he could let them go home once he returned to the downtown area.

At the courtyard on the ground floor, Roly Poly rubbed his hands and reminded Zhao Yao, “Zhao Yao, the money.”

“Don’t be impatient.” Zhao Yao caressed Roly Poly’s head and said, “If I ask them for money, they will not comply. Let’s beat them up first.”

For safety’s sake, Zhao Yao spat out the supercats and equipped them with supercat armor version 3.0.

Matcha, Elizabeth, Ares, Mango, Lightning, Uncle Egg, Fūjin, Gaia, Rice Cake... every supercat was taken out of the Extradimensional Belly.

Zhao Yao treated the eight gangsters as dead men, hence he did not hide his preparation for a full battle.

Lin Wanqian was amazed while the eight gangsters looked worried. They looked at each other and postulated, “Are those supercats?”

“Impossible, how can a man possess so many supercats?”

Zhao Yao was contemplating. “This is a European gang with firearms and perhaps some apostles. I have to be extra careful.” He looked at a gangster and asked, “Hey, how many men is your boss able to bring over?”

The gangster replied with help of translation, “500 men, all fully equipped experienced fighters. If you release us, we can intercede for you and you will be spared from death.”

“That many?” The gangster nodded proudly when Zhao Yao expressed his astonishment.

“I should also beef up my forces.” Zhao Yao spat out Cat Sage, who transformed into a sixty-meter Tri-headed Golden Dragon and bellowed ferociously. Everyone was stunned.

“Maintain a low profile.” Zhao Yao quickly beckoned Cat Sage and said, “Sage, I have reminded you numerous times, we have to maintain a low profile with our superpowers. If you show your base card too early, everyone will know your worth.” Zhao Yao snapped his finger and said, “Roly Poly, make him invisible.”

It was fortunate that the small building was located in a desolate rural area, so nobody noticed Cat Sage’s transformation.

After witnessing the Tri-headed Golden Dragon become invisible, everyone in the courtyard gazed at each other, their eyes filling with terror.

Lin Wanqian was gaping as she pointed to the location where Cat Sage had vanished. “That... that... that... was that a dragon?”
