

Am I A God 671

Chapter 671: Siege

“Not a dragon, just a little kitten.” Zhao Yao smiled and said, “Don’t be scared by its bellows, he is actually very gentle and likes to be stroked at the chin.”

Lin Wanqian felt a cold shiver run through her body. She looked at Zhao Yao and thought, “What is his story?”

Zhao Yao looked at the gang members and asked, “How many apostles are there in the Cobra Gang?”

They were still in awe of the huge dragon and ignored his question. Finally, a short gang member came forward and said, “We have 50 apostles! If they join forces, they are able to fight against the Italian army!”

“That powerful?”

As Zhao Yao was in deep thoughts, the gang members heaved out of relief. Zhao Yao was not that awesome since he was easily beaten. In the next moment, Zhao Yao spat out Sphinx cat.

The gang members were frightened when Zhao Yao opened his mouth again. They heaved in relief when they realized it was only a sphinx cat even though it was muscular.

A freight container was spat out following Sphinx cat. The little kitten gently moved its paw and tossed the container ten meters in the sky. After catching it firmly, it tossed the container again into the sky.

A boom followed every time the sphinx cat caught the container. The ground underneath him cracked with large fissures that looked like spider webs. Everyone was stunned.

“Monster... Monster!”

“This is the power of the devil!”

“Oh God, save us.”

Seeing the commotion created by Sphinx cat, Zhao Yao waved his hand and said, “Enough Sphinx cat, stop playing.”

Sphinx cat, who had just started his warm up, frowned and laid on the ground to do his internal training. His body emitted a series of hums.

Zhao Yao stroked his chin and thought, “This should be safe enough. The spicy cat strips are limited and will only be used when faced with a difficult opponent.”

The gangsters in the courtyard were all stunned as they had never seen such powerful supercats. In their eyes, Zhao Yao was the devil king with demonic power.

Lin Wanqian was shocked beyond imagination, perhaps greater than all the accumulation in her life. Her perspective of the world was turned upside down.

“Is the world I am in, a fantasy world with superpowers?” She recalled the superpowers shown by Zhao Yao and was much more confident about the coming battle.

Sounds of engines came from far outside the small building. More than ten vans surrounded the building.

Lin Wanqian became nervous. She was extremely fearful of gang members, especially the local gangsters.

Men armed with handguns alighted from the sieging vans and gazed in the direction of the small building. They looked fierce and arrogant.

A speeding SUV came to a halt and a mountaineering boot set foot on the ground.

A burly man of more than two meters exited the SUV, which shook up and down as though relieving itself of a heavy object.

He removed his sunglasses and surveyed the building. “Nick, is he inside?”

Nick leaped from the vehicle and gazed intensely at the building. “He killed Zach and Poison Dart inside. He must have fled by now.”

“Nobody can escape after killing my people. No one.” The burly giant sneered and gave orders. “Send ten men into the house to check if the women are still around and whether Zach and his men are still alive. Put the rest of our men on standby, we will pursue them soon after.”

They thought Zhao Yao had already escaped. After assessing the situation in the building, they would continue their pursuit.

The ten gang members with firearms rushed into the courtyard and saw Zhao Yao and his companions behind him.

Ten guns were focused on them. One of the gang members yelled, “Boss, they are still inside.”

“Still inside?” The burly giant was surprised. He lowered his head when he walked through the main door. Seeing Zhao Yao and his companions, he hollered, “Chinese man, aren’t you afraid of death?”

Nick followed behind and gazed with hatred at Zhao Yao. “Boss, he killed Zach and Poison Dart. Be careful, he is an apostle.”

“An apostle is no big deal, who is not... an apostle... like...”

The last word of the giant burly man was husky. He expanded rapidly while granite rocks covered the surface of his body. Before long, he had transformed into a four meter stone golem and was staring fiercely at Zhao Yao. “Chinese man, who sent you?”

Nick and the gangsters watched the transformation with pride. He was the leader of the Cobra Gang, the apostle Lorik, who possessed the Golem superpower.

The stone body was immensely powerful and immune to most bullets. He was a meat grinder on the battlefield.

Lin Wanqian was terrified. "I must be dreaming, are there that many apostles in this world?" With so many guns pointed at her, Lin Wanqian, who was used to living in a peaceful world, was terrified as she had never encountered such a battle scene. Cold sweat dripped profusely down her spine.

The stone golem realized he had stunned everyone and stomped forward, every step creating a large depression. "Chinese man, aren't you answering? I shall question you personally."

The gang members behind the stone golem showed their taunting faces. Nick shouted maliciously, "Chinese man, you will pay the price for what you have done."

The stone golem extended his hand to grab Zhao Yao's head. His body was restrained by powerful energy and tossed like a cannon shot, smashing through a wall.

He crash-landed with a loud bang and weighed down five to six trees before rolling more than ten meters onto a mud path.

The gang members were alarmed and raised their firearms, firing wildly at Zhao Yao and Lin Wanqian.

Chapter 672: Stone Golem And Dragon

When Lin Wanqian saw the gang members firing, she let out a shrill scream and raised her hands to shield her face.

Following the dense stutter of gunshots, Lin Wanqian did not feel she was hit. She lifted her head and saw the bullets floating in front of them. When Zhao Yao shifted his hands gently, the bullets flew back and perforated the gang members in a splattering of blood.

The gang members outside heard the loud bang and screams of pain, they became perplexed. Raising their guns, they prepared to dash into the courtyard.

Lin Wanqian was stunned. Following the raising of Zhao Yao's arm, the wall of the surrounding courtyard rose with loud crackling sounds.

It crumbled and shot out in all directions like a grey hurricane.

Gunshots, screams of agony, and fierce roars rang in her blank mind. The smell of gunpowder and blood stench invaded her nostrils, stimulating her senses.

When she recovered from her daze, the wall had vanished. Half of the gang members were on the ground while the rest were looking at the battle in a daze.

A ferocious roar rang from the nearby mud path.

The stone golem, who was tossed out by Zhao Yao's Deflective Field, shook his head and stood up. After witnessing the fall of his men, he roared furiously, "No one can kill my brothers and get away! I am going to destroy you!"

He ran with heavy stomps. He grabbed a van with his enormous hand and tossed it towards Zhao Yao.

The stone golem had shown astonishing explosive powers. The vans were like toy cars as he tossed them out towards Zhao Yao with ease.

Bam! Bam! Bam! Collision sounds emanated as the vans crashed. The gang members cheered wildly for their leader as he showed off his power.

The vans smashed on the ground and formed a small metal hill. The impact was enough to smash a huge elephant into meat sauce.

The stone golem knew that his opponent would not be defeated easily and he roared, "Open fire!"

The gang members fired in the direction of the vans and the stone golem bellowed ferociously as he charged like a war chariot towards Zhao Yao.

The old vans exploded when the bullets hit the oil tanks. With strong air currents, the fireball of the explosion turned the small courtyard into an inferno.

The stone golem charged fearlessly into the sea of flames, intending to finish off his enemies while he gained the upper hand.

The golem's ferocious roars came out from the sea of flames, followed by loud collisions and screams of agony of the gang members who stood behind Zhao Yao.

Nick gazed at the inferno and said with malice, "This Chinese man is dead. Boss had never gone into such a bad temper."

The gang members beside him nodded. Recalling the crazed behavior of the stone golem, which was similar to the Incredible Hulk in the movies, they shivered out of fear.

In the next instant, all was quiet in the inferno. A strong wind dispersed the sea of flames, revealing the battle scene.

The stone golem was lifted up in mid-air, his legs were swaying side by side and he was struggling wildly to free himself in vain.

Zhao Yao looked at the golem and asked, "Is that all?"

Sphinx cat who had surveyed a perimeter of a thousand meters returned to Zhao Yao and said grimly, "There are no reinforcements, leaving only one apostle and the gang members before us."

"Well, 500 men? 50 apostles? I know you were lying but isn't that too exaggerated?" Zhao Yao turned his head and saw that his enemies had turned into burnt corpses. He sighed and said, "That is enough, we are standing down. I thought they were more powerful than this."

Sphinx cat laid on the ground again while Ares reduced the range of the Deflective Field. The crimson rays from Elizabeth's eyes gradually vanished and Zhao Yao kept his Spicy Cat Strips.

"Too weak." Matcha folded his paws and said, "Humph, I am not needed in this fight at all."

Roly Poly rolled his eyes and said, “Yeah, you are so strong. Of course, you are not needed in such an insignificant skirmish.”

“Roly Poly, you are the only one who understands me.” Matcha pounded his chest and said, “I am the trump of the trump cards, the god of the supercats. I will only intervene at the last critical point. Don’t worry, when the time comes, I will intervene.”

“This arrogant prick...” Roly Poly thought, “I have to be more direct as he did not understand my sarcasm.”

After Roly Poly made the Tri-headed Golden Dragon visible again, Cat Sage looked at the stone golem in his claws and asked, “Is it fun, little rock?”

The stone golem was terrified by the huge dragon. He exerted his strength and tried to pry open the dragon’s claws. However, he was no match for the colossal strength of the dragon.

The stone golem was a giant as compared to a normal person. However, the 4-meter golem was like a ragdoll as compared to the 60-meter long Tri-headed Golden Dragon.

The dragon grabbed onto the stone golem and nosedived. After an explosive collision, the stone golem was buried deep into the mud.

He let out deafening roars and lifted his head but was weighed down again by the dragon claws. Even when he exerted all his might, he was unable to get up.

Seeing their boss subdued, the members of the Cobra Gang were terrified and at a loss.

Zhao Yao glanced at them, snapped his fingers and activated his power of illusion—Infinite Flow of Idleness. They collapsed to the ground, too lazy to stand up, move or breathe. After ten minutes, the illusion ended.

Zhao Yao discovered that the mission for exterminating the Cobra Gang was completed and he gained 2000 experience points. He was very pleased.

“The Cobra Gang is a small gang.” Zhao Yao shook his head, gazed at the restrained golem and said solemnly, “Cat Sage, bring him up.”

The stone golem was placed in front of Zhao Yao. Witnessing his fallen gang members, he was filled with grief and anger. Glaring at Zhao Yao, he yelled, "You are a devil. What do you want? Why do you kill my men?"

Chapter 673: Blackmail

Lin Wanqian was in a daze after watching the battle. She had not witnessed such a brutal fight involving superpowers.

She drummed up her courage and rebuked the stone golem, "Those fallen gang members are your brothers, what about those kidnapped women? Aren't they humans too? Don't they have parents and siblings?"

The stone golem said grimly, "They had nothing to do with me. They are swine that are to be sold. How could they be on par with my brothers?"

Lin Wanqian sighed when faced with such irrational logic. She was unable to communicate with him as his perspective was distorted.

Zhao Yao could not understand their conversation and called out to Lin Wanqian, "Hey, stop chatting with him. Ask him whether he can contact members of Double-Headed Vulture."

With the help of Lin Wanqian's translation, both parties started conversing.

Zhao Yao questioned him eagerly, "Are you the leader of the Cobra Gang? Do you know how to contact Double-Headed Vulture?"

The stone golem looked at Zhao Yao and said, "Why should I tell you? You are going to kill me anyway."

"Heh heh." Zhao Yao smiled and pressed his head. "You will tell me."

Zhao Yao activated Catherine's sleep superpower to deactivate his golem ability. After that, he activated the power of illusion to subject him to various illusions of torture.

Lorik saw numerous female ghouls materializing out of thin air and they fed on his limbs, devouring his flesh.

"Do not come near me!"

All of you, get lost.

You swine! Get loss!"

Moments later, Lorik screamed hysterically, "I will tell, I will tell you everything. Make them stop! Make them stop immediately."

Zhao Yao looked at his watch and waited for three minutes before dispelling his illusion. Lorik heaved out of relief after discovering he was intact.

Zhao Yao said, "If you don't give me a satisfactory answer, I will imprison you in your nightmare. Do you understand?"

Recalling the nightmarish scenes, Lorik's eyes showed terror.

With the help of Lin Wanqian's translation, Zhao Yao obtained detailed information.

The Cobra Gang was a small local gang responsible for kidnapping women and then selling them to Double-Headed Vulture.

"The Double-Headed Vulture's headquarters should be located in the mountains. Only their members know the exact location among the numerous mountains."

In order not to suffer again, Lorik spilled the beans, "The leader of the Double-Headed Vulture is Karim and he stays in the mountains all the time. His five sons help him to attend to the European human smuggling and drug businesses."

Lin Wanqian added, "I heard from the news that villages grow poppy in the mountains. A coalition of countries cooperated in a drug bust and destroyed a few thousand tons of drugs. The Double-Headed Vulture is indeed very powerful."

Zhao Yao asked, "Who are you able to contact?"

Lorik said, "His third son Edron is responsible for human smuggling. I know one of his men, who collects our kidnapped women."

Zhao Yao nodded and said, "Ask him out later."

"Later?"

"Yes, before I capture him." Zhao Yao smiled at Lorik, "I shall empty you of money and supercats."

Zhao Yao gazed at Lorik with his brilliant eyes and Lorik felt his hair stand. After recalling his terrifying nightmare, he complied.

Lorik brought them to a small villa, a secret base that most of his men were not aware of. His money and supercats were well hidden inside of it.

A twenty-kilogram obese cat was lying on the sofa while six supercats were serving him fruits and barbecued meat.

Zhao Yao's gaze flickered and controlled the obese cat using Elizabeth's superpower. He looked at the female cats and asked, "Are you supercats?"

Five minutes later, Matcha and Roly Poly stood by the obese cat, kicking and punching him.

"Scumbag, you are pretty arrogant." Matcha stepped on his face and said, "What's the deal with six cats serving you? That is tyranny, something I cannot stand for."

Roly Poly said in private to the obese cat, "Hey, do you want to take it easy? Do you have a personal bank account?"

Meanwhile, Lightning consoled the six sobbing female supercats and said, "It's okay. You are fine. You are all rescued."

A female cat cried and said, "I met him on the road and he fed me a sausage. I thought he was a good man but he brought me home, tied me up, and forced me to serve him every day."

Another female cat complained, "I was at the roadside waiting to be fed. He came and touched me, then brought me home, telling me he had lots of canned food for me. I am old and retiring, so I followed him. There was no canned food, only cat food. I was being played with during the day and cuddled at night, unable to escape his clutches."

Lightning comforted them and said, "Don't worry, you are all safe. I am the Pallas cat prince. If you want to take revenge, tell me and I will do it for you."

Zhao Yao looked at Lorik and said, "Scumbag, you didn't tell the truth. Not only did you kidnap women, but you also kidnapped female cats."

Lorik lowered his head and said, "I took in the stray cats as they were wandering on the streets. They were accepting of strangers who gave them food. My cat took a liking to them and wanted them to serve him. Only then would he lend me his superpower."

They do not have powerful abilities. The powerful supercats were captured by the Double-Headed Vulture. We had no choice."

"Enough, I do not want to listen." Zhao Yao asked excitedly, "Money? Where is it hidden?"

Lorik pried open a floor tile and dug out a huge chest containing bundles of Euros. Zhao Yao nodded. There were about 50,000 to 60,000 Euros.

Zhao Yao gazed at Lorik and demanded fiercely, "So little? Are you fooling me?" He activated his power of illusion and Lorik's nightmare started once again.

Chapter 674: A Phone Call And Paris

After his interrogation, Lorik did not answer.

Zhao Yao shook his head. The Cobra Gang was vicious, brutal and very poor.

He accepted the chest of Euros condescendingly. While Lorik was bleeding and looking at him, he walked to the obese cat.

Matcha was stepping on the obese cat while Zhao Yao asked, "How's it? How's the chat with your new friend?"

Matcha put the meat pad of his paw before the obese cat and commanded, "Lick."

The obese cat retorted, "You are too much orange cat! Don't think I am scared because you are greater in number. I am not afraid of a duel with you!"

"What?" Matcha fumed and hollered, "What did you call me? Orange cat? Are you blind? I am Jianghai's Scottish Fold." Time Freeze was activated and ended. The obese cat lay at Matcha feet badly beaten and unconscious.

Roly Poly turned his head and thought to himself, "Idiot."

Matcha smiled at Zhao Yao and pointed with the thumb of his front paw. "You can count on me to educate new cats. I will let him turn over a new leaf."

The eyes of the obese cat turned white, his mouth muttering inaudibly. Matcha stepped on his mouth and said, "Fatso, behave yourself. I shall teach you manners when we return home."

Zhao Yao swallowed the obese cat and the six female cats into the Extradimensional Belly. He released the kidnapped women after returning to the downtown area.

At the same time, Lorik fixed an appointment with his Double-Headed Vulture contact at a restaurant.

Two hours later, the main door of the restaurant was shuttered and the curtains pulled.

A muscular bouncer laid twisted on the floor while a middle-aged man with a small beard knelt on the floor, glaring intensely at Zhao Yao.

He said angrily, "Double-Headed Vulture will not let you go. You and your family will perish due to your foolishness. You do not know what kind of trouble you are in."

Zhao Yao sighed in frustration. "Why do all of you repeat the same words?"

A few minutes later, he knelt on the floor with cold sweat dripping all over his body and his eyes moving frantically recalling the terrifying illusions.

Zhao Yao said to Lin Wanqian, "Let him call Edron and find out his location."

Edron was Karim's third son, responsible for the human smuggling ring in Europe. The bearded man was his underling.

Under threats of the terrifying illusion, he finally made a phone call. After a discussion, he hung up the phone and said to Zhao Yao, "I told him a rich Chinese businessman wanted to purchase a shipment of high-quality virgins. He arranged for me to meet him in Paris. I can bring you with me if you impersonate as the assistant of the rich Chinese businessman."

"Paris?" Zhao Yao frowned and asked, "Isn't he in this country?"

He shook his head and said, "Only Karim is hiding in the secret mountain base, his five sons are not in this country. Edron is either in London or Paris tending to the human smuggling business."

Zhao Yao narrowed his eyes and asked, "Do you know the location of the Double-Headed Vulture's lair?"

"I don't know. I really don't know!" He exclaimed, "Only Karim's sons and his Dragonhawk unit know the location. We do not have access to high-level secrets."

The Dragonhawk unit was the strongest superpower unit of the Double-Headed Vulture. It consisted of hundreds of powerful villains, criminals, murderers and insane men who were battle-experienced apostles.

They fought against coalition forces from Italy, Montenegro, and Kosovo deep in the mountains and shielded Karim while he moved his secret base. The unit had earned its notoriety in the European supernatural realm.

The bearded man said, “Do not fight against the Double-Headed Vulture. Once you are captured by the Dragonhawks, they will torture you to a state worse than death. I know of Edron’s hidden stash of gold bars. We can retrieve them and escape to a distant place far from this country.”

Zhao Yao did not agree with him. Instead, Zhao Yao would get the gold bars and continue his pursuit of Edron in Paris.

“Capture Edron, then he will bring us to Double-Headed Vulture and they will be exterminated.” Zhao Yao stroked his chin and said, “I shall set up the Dimension Portal here so that I can return anytime.”

If he did so, there would be only two Dimension Portals left in Jianghai.

Zhao Yao reluctantly closed the Dimension Portal of the 18-storey building and set up one over here.

He planned to bring the bearded man to look for Edron. He looked at the bearded man and asked, “Do you speak English?”

As the bearded man was involved in the human smuggling, he might be somewhat fluent in foreign languages.

He nodded and Zhao Yao nodded in return. Lorik and Lin Wanqian were no longer needed.

Zhao Yao snapped his finger and Lorik looked terrified as he collapsed to the ground, gradually closed his eyes and entered the darkest and final ten minutes of his life.

Zhao Yao looked at Lin Wanqian and said, “You may leave now as I do not need your help anymore.” He spat out 10,000 Euros but after thinking for a while, he swallowed back 2000 Euros.

“This is your tour guide fee. Take it and leave the country as soon as possible. It is going to be chaotic very soon.”

Lin Wanqian saw Zhao Yao spitting money out and thought, “He spat money out from his mouth? That is cute. What other objects can he spit out?” She shook her head hard. “This is not the time for this.”

She received the money and asked, “Are you going after Double-Headed Vulture?”

“Of course.”

“Oh, be careful. If you need help, give me a call anytime.”

“Okay, goodbye.”

Lin Wanqian waved in farewell and watched Zhao Yao vanished into the thin air. She felt that the day’s events were a fantasy, only the 8000 Euros in her hands were real.

Zhao Yao traveled discreetly to Paris with the bearded man via public transit and a flight.

Looking at the bustling Parisian streets, Zhao Yao stroked his chin and thought, “Well, I am officially working right now, so I have no time for leisure.”

He looked at the dejected man beside him and spoke to him in English, “Let’s go, where did he tell you to meet?”

The bearded man sighed heavily. “I shouldn’t have come. We really shouldn’t be here. Edron’s accompanied by the Dragonhawks. We will be killed.”

Zhao Yao slapped him on the head. “You are talking trash. If you don’t comply, I will kill you now.”

“Okay.” The bearded man looked at Zhao Yao as though he was looking at a dead man. Under his threats, he said, “He is meeting me tonight at 9pm, XXX bar.”

“Tonight 9pm?” Zhao Yao looked at his watch and it was afternoon. “Do you know where he is? Let’s meet him directly.”

“How would I know?” he gave a wry grin and said, “Edron travels discreetly. Nobody knows his daily itinerary and location.”

Chapter 675: Touring and Waiting

“That troublesome?” Zhao Yao listened to the bearded man and gazed at the bustling Parisian streets while frowning. “Currently, it is 3pm. There are six more hours before the meeting.”

Roly Poly saw Zhao Yao’s expression and lay on his head, saying, “Zhao Yao, why don’t we tour Paris?”

There are a lot of famous tourist attractions like Louvre museum, the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame cathedral and the Champs-Élysées. Let’s indulge in the romantic Parisian atmosphere. Shall we have an afternoon tea at the Alfresco café?”

“What is there to see? Just watch tourist videos.” Zhao Yao pondered, “Shall I go home and have homemade chicken? After staying abroad for many days, home is still the most comfortable.”

Elizabeth scoffed, “I don’t want to go home. I want to tour the Eiffel Tower and take pictures on the Champs-Élysées!!”

Zhao Yao coaxed, “That is not fun. The most expensive places are tourist attractions. Do the French tour these lousy places? If you want to have fun, go to places that the locals frequent. The tourist attractions are meant to earn foreigners’ money. The food is expensive and tasteless. You will definitely regret it.”

“I want to take pictures.” Elizabeth said with excitement, “I’d like to send the pictures to my group of friends, like Sweetie Pie, so that they know I am in Paris.”

Elizabeth got to know Sweetie Pie on the internet and she was part of her group of friends. Zhao Yao said, “Elizabeth, that is an incorrect attitude. Are we here to take pictures? Touring is immersing yourself in the local food and culture and not just taking pictures.”

Elizabeth frowned, “If I don’t take pictures, who will know that I have been in Paris?”

“Silly cat, when you send messages to your circle of friends, you can choose to indicate your current location.” Zhao Yao shook his head and said, “Take a picture holding a cup of Starbucks coffee and describe yourself enjoying a rare afternoon break. After that, casually indicate your location. Isn’t that more sophisticated than taking Eiffel Tower pictures?”

Elizabeth nodded and said, “Seems reasonable.”

Zhao Yao said, “Of course, don’t publish tour photographs. It is too conventional. Immerse yourself in the local culture.”

Elizabeth asked again, “How do I immerse myself?”

Half an hour later, Zhao Yao brought the bearded man to an internet café, which was difficult to find in Paris. Zhao Yao pointed to the people playing games inside and said, “Look, this is the local Parisian culture. Immerse yourself. It isn’t easy finding one of these cafés.”

Elizabeth was fuming. “Why would anyone travel to Paris just to access the internet?”

Zhao Yao caressed Elizabeth’s head and said, “Don’t be angry Elizabeth. As a cat, you have to be merry. If you don’t like internet cafés, I will get a French baguette for you. It is a Parisian delicacy. Since we have come from far, it will be a pity if you miss it.”

Five minutes later, in the Extradimensional Belly, Elizabeth stared at the French baguette in anger. She was extremely infuriated when she noticed Youyou bakery on the packaging—Jianghai Baoshan District XX road XX building number.

Elizabeth hissed in anger and glared at Zhao Yao. “Zhao Yao, are you trying to fool me with this bread?”

Zhao Yao was playing computer games as he said, “Well, Elizabeth, how could you say that I am fooling you? A true Parisian baguette is as hard as a brick. You wouldn’t be able to chew it.

I have done my research. The owner of the Youyou bakery opposite our cat café is highly skilled. Their ingredients are of high quality and the price is value for money. He clinched the seventh spot in the National Bread Competition. After continuous improvement by the owner, his French baguette is more suited to our taste, definitely more tasty than Parisian baguette.”

Elizabeth was fuming as she chewed on the French baguette. “I made cakes for him and he only bought a baguette for me? He is tricking me.” She got angrier as she munched on the bread. She looked at Zhao Yao, who was focusing on his computer game and wanted to wreck the computer. She cursed him in her heart, “Computer games, computer games, addicted to computer games for the whole day. Doesn’t he notice that there is a beautiful ragdoll cat here?”

The bearded man was also brought into the Extradimensional Belly. Zhao Yao did not feel at ease leaving him alone in Paris, so he shielded his five senses and placed him inside.

At this instant, a black figure pounced on Elizabeth from the back. Fortunately, she dodged it.

Elizabeth turned around to look and saw Mango sprawled at her previous position, shaking his buttocks.

His body was almost the same size as Matcha, however, his face was twice bigger than Matcha’s. Elizabeth sighed. “Well, Mango, you are no longer the cute little blue kitten.”

Mango meowed and pounced on Elizabeth again. Elizabeth rolled her eyes and emitted crimson rays, controlling Mango. “Mango, go and find Brother Roly Poly so that he can teach you to behave.”

Looking at Mango beat Roly Poly to the ground, Elizabeth sighed. “This silly kid, how do you expect to attract female cats like this?”

Roly Poly said, “Wow, why is this silly kid so strong?” He wanted to become invisible to escape but his efforts were in vain. He could not outrun Mango and was pinned down by him. He could only moan in pain.

Elizabeth felt very light as if she was being lifted up.

Zhao Xue buried her head into her long fur and said happily, “You’re so adorable Elizabeth, why are you so cute?”

Turning her head, she saw Zhao Xue carrying her. She rolled her eyes and said, “Miss, I have already worked today. I do not attend to customers after working hours. If you wish to cuddle cats, come early to the cat café tomorrow.”

Zhao Xue was disappointed. Elizabeth’s eyes emitted crimson rays and she controlled Zhao Xue to put her down.

Elizabeth shook her head at Zhao Xue’s dejected gaze. “Women like you love to cuddle so much. Let me give you 20 dollars for you to buy a dog and you can cuddle all you want.”

Time passed quickly. Zhao Yao suddenly smashed his computer mouse and yelled angrily, “D*mn, someone cheated. Why do I always encounter cheaters?”

Rice Cake lifted her head and said, “Zhao Yao, that person just now didn’t cheat...”

Her mouth was immediately covered by Cheese. “Do not speak any further Rice Cake. It is Zhao Yao’s excuse.”

“Who says I am finding excuses?” Zhao Yao shouted furiously, “He obviously cheated, I shot 30 bullets and he didn’t die.”

Cheese nodded and said, “Yes, it was blatant cheating.” He spoke privately to Rice Cake, “Rice Cake, do not argue with Zhao Yao or you will be mistreated by him.” He promised himself to protect his sister from the tyranny of that man.

Zhao Yao suddenly looked worried. “Already 10pm? Darn it, I am late by one hour.” He stood up and shouted, “Let’s go! Stop playing. We are starting work. All you know is play.”

Chapter 676: Explosion and Conflict

About twenty men in black sat around the bar gazing around coldly.

Edron, who had brown curly hair, sat in the middle of the table and knocked its surface impatiently.

Edron looked at his men and asked, “What time is it?”

“10:30”

“Where is York? Why isn’t he here yet?” Edron shouted, “Call him!”

“The phone could not get through.”

Edron slammed the table. “What is this fellow doing?”

His men reminded, “Boss, are we still waiting for him? The French police have been keeping a tight watch.”

“What are you afraid of? This Parisian trash... They can’t even take care of a bunch of refugees, yet they want to deal with us?” Edron laughed coldly. However, he thought about it and said, “Call them and ask. We can’t wait for him all night.”

At that moment, the bar’s door was kicked open and Zhao Yao walked in with the bearded man. He pointed to Edron and asked, “Is it him?”

Upon seeing this, Edron asked in annoyance. “York? Why were you so late? Is this your Chinese assistant? Tell him that I call the shots here. Ask him to stop...”

Zhao Yao snapped his fingers and everyone fell to the floor except for Edron and York.

Zhao Yao patted the bearded man on the shoulder and asked again, “Is it him?”

“No...” York answered nervously. “It is not him.”

Edron looked at York in anger and yelled, “York, you betrayed us! The Double-Headed Vulture will not ...”

Bam!

Fumes engulfed the entire bar. The raging high temperature burnt every the air and everything into ashes.

The surrounding citizens watched the flames and shouted in shock. Soon, the police and fire brigade rushed down and investigated the cause of the fire.

On the roof opposite the bar, Zhao Yao grabbed onto York and the fake Edron. He heaved a sigh of relief. "How ruthless. They tried to kill all of us immediately."

Zhao Yao looked the fake Edron and asked, "How? They didn't inform you that they planted a bomb right? Do you want to tell me where is the real Edron is now?"

The fake Edron clenched his teeth and kept quiet. He glared at Zhao Yao and refused to cooperate.

Zhao Yao shrugged his shoulders. "Not helping? That's okay." He opened his mouth and spat out Sphinx cat. He pointed to the fake Edron and said, "Pick up this scent. Bring me to where he was before this."

In a manor that was a few kilometers away from the bar, the real Edron looked at the computer screen that had turned black and shook his head. "York, York. Why did you betray us?"

A guy filled with tattoos asked Edron, "Edron, why did you kill that guy? We should capture him and interrogate him so that we know who is after us."

"Alpha, that is meaningless." Edron laughed and shook his head. "The British, the French, the Germans, the Italians, the Asian gangs and those poor guys from the neighboring country, who doesn't want to kill us? Why should we care who is after us?"

Alpha frowned and asked, "But, exploding a bomb in the middle of Paris is too extreme. The French police will go around biting like mad dogs."

Edron laughed coldly and said, "Alpha, that was the past. Now, is the time of superpowers. One person can turn the tide, one cat can subvert a country. Do you know why we have expanded so quickly these recent years? It is not just because of Dragonhawk, but also because we are relentless, fierce, and eager enough.

Edron looked menacingly at the Parisian night sky and said, “The rich British and French, they do not dare compete against us. They know we are not afraid of death. They know that we have the ability to kill thousands and millions of people. That is why they dare not declare war upon us. If we weaken, they will charge like a bunch of hungry wolves, rip our bodies apart, take our women, and steal our wealth.”

Alpha sighed, “Without York, we have to arrange for a new person to take over...”

At that moment, an explosion was heard from outside the manor, Edron frowned and ordered, “What is going on? Alpha, bring your man and take a look.”

The base Edron was in was not an impermeable fortress but it was definitely dangerous to break into.

Except for the hundreds of soldiers who were stationed there permanently, there were more than a dozen Dragonhawk members. They were all powerful apostles who were skilled in fighting.

Even if the French special forces came, Edron was confident that he could retreat unharmed.

A man rushed in and shouted, “Boss, someone broke in.”

“What?” Edron was furious. “Is it the French police? Or is it other gangs?”

The man was a bit flustered as he said, “There is only one Chinese guy.”

“How is that possible.” Edron narrowed his eyes. “Was it that guy just now? He isn’t dead?”

Alpha laughed menacingly and said, “Edron, let me go. It is probably an apostle and normal soldiers can’t beat him.”

Looking at Alpha besides him, Edron calmed down. With Alpha, an apostle poses no threat.

As Alpha left, the Double-Headed Vulture’s soldiers looked at him in awe and followed behind him.

Alpha, one of the seven Dragon Slayers in Dragonhawk, played an important role in Double-Headed Vulture and was the strongest apostle under Edron. As long as Alpha was there, Edron was confident in overcoming any challenge.

...

In the front yard of the manor, Zhao Yao was leisurely strolling on the grass patch. York and the fake Edron were yanked along by his Deflective Field.

The Double-Headed Vulture soldiers reacted very quickly. Half a minute after Zhao Yao knocked down the front door, they were already rushing over with all kinds of pistols, rifles, and semi-automatic firearms. They opened fire on Zhao Yao mercilessly.

York and the fake Edron closed their eyes in fear. However, although the guns fired non stop, they were not hurt. They opened their eyes and exclaimed in shock.

They saw that every bullet that was shot would come to a stop and go back to where it came from at a faster speed due to the Deflective Field.

As more soldiers lay dead in a pool of blood, the soldiers stopped shooting. They retreated with every step that Zhao Yao took. However, Zhao Yao was moving faster and faster.

As Zhao Yao rushed forward, the soldiers were strangled by an invisible force one by one. Within a hundred meters, there were dozens of dead soldiers.

“Don’t be too cocky, Chinese guy.”

A quagmire appeared under Zhao Yao suddenly and he fell into it.

At the same time, there were silver flashes in the air and the hundreds of silver colored metal wires wrapped around Zhao Yao.

The air was vibrating and it turned into a capsule and trapped Zhao Yao inside.

“Caught you!”

Chapter 677: Destruction

As one by one the powers trapped Zhao Yao, they suppressed his powers and wanted to capture him alive.

When the Double-Headed Vulture soldiers saw that Zhao Yao was immobilized due to the suppression, they heaved a sigh of relief.

A black apostle walked out and looked at Zhao Yao coldly. “Humph, you want to fight us with such weak abilities? Looks like our ruthless reputation is not over yet.”

He walked towards Zhao Yao and looked condescendingly at him. “Chinese, who sent you here? Confess now and you will suffer less.”

The Chinese man laughed under his gaze and at the powers suppressing him. Unknowingly, Elizabeth’s illusion had covered the entire manor.

Suddenly the black apostle was in pain and when he looked down, he saw that he was engulfed in black flames.

Ahh! He screamed and fell to the ground. The floor beneath him turned into a quagmire. He tried to use the muddy water to extinguish the fire on him. He soon realized that the flames were hard to extinguish. Instead, they spread faster and burnt his flesh and blood until there were only bones left.

Everyone who saw this scene was in shock. Soon, there was an order.

“Kill him!”

The rest of the apostles activated their powers together and hundreds of metal wires cut towards Zhao Yao. However, they passed Zhao Yao’s body like a shadow.

The distorted air turned into a huge palm and grabbed Zhao Yao with enough strength to crush a car. However, it still passed through Zhao Yao's body.

Everyone was stunned. Then, Zhao Yao snapped his fingers and another apostle was screaming surrounded by black flames.

"Weak. So weak." With Zhao Yao's words, more and more Double-Headed Vulture soldiers were engulfed in the black flames. "These are the apostles of Double-Headed Vulture? So weak."

The air palm attacked Zhao Yao once again. This time, Zhao Yao opened his mouth and blew. A gush of air dispersed the palm and in a blink of the eye, the three apostles who attacked were burning in black flames and screaming in pain.

The other three apostles' faces changed. After Zhao Yao looked at them, they exploded on the spot and turned into piles of flesh and blood.

The last two apostles yelled and pressed both hands on the ground. The ground trembled and the entire manor turned into a swamp. A mud wall that was a few meters tall swept towards Zhao Yao.

The Chinese man took a deep breath and all the mud was sucked into his mouth.

Under the astonished gaze of the two apostles, Zhao Yao spat out two beams of mud and submerged the two of them.

In a few seconds, the terrains of the manor had changed and all the apostles who attacked were dead.

The elite team Edron was so proud of was defenseless against Zhao Yao. They were as weak as toys and destroyed by Zhao Yao easily.

Zhao Yao's power was miraculous and extremely incredible.

Edron watched the unbelievable scene while he followed Alpha out. He looked at the Chinese man with great caution.

Alpha looked at the bodies on the floor and raged. “Chinese man, you are looking for death.”

Edron stood behind Alpha and asked, “Who are you? Why are you an enemy of the Double-Headed Vulture?”

His gaze was gloomy and he stared at Zhao Yao with hatred. Dragonhawk only had about a hundred people, now over a dozen of them were dead. This was a huge loss. His father Karim would be furious. The culprit of all of this stood in front of him.

To him, the Double-Headed Vulture was very influential and even owned their own superpower force. To attack them, there must be an important reason and the person must have a strong background.

Zhao Yao looked at them and laughed, “Haha, when you play games, do you attack a monster and tell him why?”

As he spoke, a golden sword aura charged towards Edron.

When Alpha heard his reply, he raged. Upon seeing that Zhao Yao still wanted to attack, he howled and started expanding. He turned into a devil who stepped on two flames. He had two horns on his head and grew a pair of bat wings as he stood in front of Edron.

Alpha, who had turned into a devil, confronted the golden sword aura. He raised his hand and destroyed it. He looked at Zhao Yao and said, “Even Kensei from France would not dare to speak to me like this. Chinese man, I will peel your skin off...”

Everyone from Double-Headed Vulture cheered. To them, Alpha fended off Zhao Yao’s attack easily. This meant that Alpha was stronger.

Zhao Yao frowned and asked, “What is Kensei?”

The French Kensei team was an official team of government apostles. As one of the five strongest countries in the world, the French Kensei team also had first-class strength. They had stopped terrorist attacks many times, resolved several local wars, beheaded leaders of illegal armed forces, and had a high reputation in Europe for the past two years.

Alpha didn't expect that this guy would not know Kensei. He thought that Zhao Yao was acting dumb to insult him. He raged and a blood-red glow shone from the devil's mouth.

Infinite red flames came out of his mouth and charged towards Zhao Yao.

A terrifying heat surrounded Zhao Yao in the form of a shock wave. The continuous waves swept across the ground and made the people who were watching the fight close their eyes and block their faces.

When Alpha closed his mouth, the fire diminished and the raging wind stopped. When everyone opened their eyes, there was no one there. Even the grass, mud, and wall once visible in the distance had turned into ashes.

"He is finally dead."

"What a pity, we should have interrogated him."

Seeing the enemy dead, all the Double-Headed Vulture soldiers cheered.

Alpha's face gleamed with delight as he turned and spoke to Edron, "Edron, let's evacuate. The Parisian police already have their eyes on us."

However, a stunning situation occurred. The facial features of Edron distorted and turned into Zhao Yao's face.

When Alpha turned and looked around, all the Double-Headed Vulture soldiers in front of him had changed into Zhao Yao.

Chapter 678: Interrogation

After turning into Zhao Yao, they looked at Alpha and clapped. "Awesome. Awesome."

Alpha was furious. "What are you doing? Let them go!" When he spoke the first half of the sentence, his voice was still normal. However, when he reached the second half, his voice had changed into an unfamiliar voice.

He touched his face and exclaimed, "What is going on? Why is this happening?"

Edron walked up and pulled out a mirror. He showed Alpha his reflection and said, “Alpha, you look so handsome now.”

In the mirror, Alpha had turned into Zhao Yao. Alpha yelled and smashed the mirror and grabbed Edron by the collar. “What have you done? Turn me back!”

Edron who had Zhao Yao’s face laughed and smiled eccentrically. “Don’t you look good now?”

“Are you not handsome?”

Alpha turned and saw that everyone had turned into Zhao Yao. The bodies on the floor turned their heads and smiled at him. “Are you not handsome?”

Ahh! Alpha opened his mouth and spat flames out. The flames swept towards the bodies, turning them into ashes. However, the flames turned into Zhao Yao and asked, “Are you not handsome?”

Alpha stumbled backward and heard a bellow-like sound. He turned and realized that the entire manor was changing. The windows became eyes, the door became a mouth and Zhao Yao’s face appeared.

Seeing this, Alpha could no longer take it. He yelled and spurted out a sea of flames, burning everyone and the entire manor into ashes.

“Die! All of you should die!”

Although everything was burning, the laughter still continued. Alpha looked down and saw his palm had turned into Zhao Yao’s face. On every part of his body, his arms, shoulders, and abdomen, Zhao Yao’s face appeared.

In the real world, the entire manor was silent. All the Double-Headed Vulture soldiers were lying on the ground, their eyes were moving around frantically and their faces were distorted. They were all experiencing an indescribable horror.

In front of Edron, Alpha was on the ground with his eyes and mouth wide open. He was laughing maniacally and looked like he was crazy.

The person who had brought all of this on them was standing in front of Edron, wearing a black robe. The young man was as powerful as the gods and devils. Edron looked at him quietly as cold sweat dripped down like rain.

This young man had entered the manor like it was empty and wherever he went, apostles and soldiers fell to the ground and yelled in pain.

Even the strongest Dragon Slayer Alpha had succumbed. He was now on the ground, laughing like a fool.

York and the fake Edron behind Zhao Yao were aghast. In their eyes, Zhao Yao was like a devil.

Zhao Yao praised the usefulness of Elizabeth's illusions in his mind. This power was easily defended against by covering the ears. However, people who don't know were defenseless against it, no matter their strength. This was the strongest and weakest power he had.

Edron cherished his life more than the gangs before. He smiled politely and said, "We, Double-Headed Vulture, have the strongest influence throughout all of Europe. The assets in our hands are worth more than ten billion euros. Furthermore, we own the Dragonhawk team. It is capable of fighting against official apostles from any country in Europe.

If you are willing, we would like to cooperate with you. You can be the captain of the Dragonhawk team and with our strong alliance, the whole of Europe will be under our feet."

Zhao Yao laughed and stroke his head as if he were a dog and said slowly, "I don't work with weaklings. Now tell me, where are the headquarters of the Double-Headed Vulture?"

Edron's pupils contracted and his entire body started to tremble. There was an endless stream of sweat on his forehead and he seemed like he was seeing the world's most horrendous illusions.

When he was awake, he was lying on the floor covered in sweat. He looked extremely weak and his gaze was filled with fear. He looked at Zhao Yao as if he was a devil.

Zhao Yao stood in front of him calmly and his black robe fluttered behind him like flames, emitting a villainous and malicious presence.

Zhao Yao spoke to Ares privately, “Can you pull the robe irregularly? Make it look natural? And don’t cover my eyes.”

Ares: “So picky...”

“This is called class. Don’t you get it?” Zhao Yao was annoyed. “With this, it will be so much easier to question him later. We are dealing with an international criminal organization. Can you guys be more professional?! Matcha stop playing with your phone!”

Matcha raised his head. “I am not playing. I was just checking the time!” The next moment, a voice came from the phone and said, “Welcome to Mobile Legends. Five seconds until the enemies reach the battlefield.”

Zhao Yao clenched his teeth and hid his unhappiness while continued to squat down expressionless. He patted Edron on the cheeks and said, “Tell me. Where are the headquarters of the Double-Headed Vulture?”

Edron had crumpled. He opened his mouth and told Zhao Yao everything he knew. Zhao Yao nodded with satisfaction and everyone in the manor died except for Edron.

Zhao Yao looked at Edron and thought about his next step.

His mission was to destroy the Double-Headed Vulture and take more than 2 billion USD from them. If he attacked the Double-Headed Vulture headquarters straight away, the members who were aboard, Karim’s four other sons, would definitely flee. By then, it would be hard to find them.

If he didn’t kill them, Zhao Yao felt that it would not count as completing the mission. Furthermore, the four sons would definitely have their own assets and Zhao Yao did not intend to let those go.

“Looks like we have to split up.” Zhao Yao touched his chin and thought, “I have to strike once and get rid of all the minions of the Double-Headed Vulture.”

“Essentially, I have to attack all four sons at once. I can deal with the headquarters later.”

“This means, I need at least four teams.” Zhao Yao was counting. “I can be on my own.”

Dust Ball had the Extradimensional Belly, she could return anytime. With Sphynx cat, they could attack and defend and should be hard to track.

Elizabeth’s illusion had strong powers, there were hardly any powers who can restrain her. Plus Cheese’s moving powers and Ares’s defense, they could be a team.

The rest had to be high movement powers. This probably meant Cat Sage’s Tri-headed Golden Dragon. His attack and defense were strong, plus Roly Poly’s invisibility and his Dog Eye and Catherine as the trump card. It should be enough.

Zhao Yao thought about it, judging from Edron’s abilities, the capabilities of the teams he split should be more than enough to deal with them. He just didn’t know if the supercats would agree.

“I will ask them later. Now, my priority is...” Zhao Yao looked down at Edron who was on the brink of collapsing.

Zhao Yao grabbed onto Edron and made him transfer all the money in his account to him.

Chapter 679: Teaming up

Edron transferred about thirty million euros to Zhao Yao. Zhao Yao was encouraged and very motivated to do the rest of the mission.

“Wow. Thirty million euros is about two billion RMB?” Zhao Yao was overjoyed. “This is lucrative. It is so lucrative. With this much money, I can buy a few more buildings. When I buy every building in the district, the entire district will be mine. By then I can recruit female tenants only. What a wonderful idea.”

Thinking of this, Zhao Yao shook his head. “No, no, no. Zhao Yao, you are getting ahead of yourself. The money is for the operation of cat café and to dominate the catmint market to earn more lucky draw chances. I can’t spend it randomly.”

He calmed himself down and looked at Edron coldly. “Only this much? Where is the rest of your money?”

“There is no more. I really don’t have any left.” Thirty million gone made Edron’s heart ache. It wasn’t that he did not want to stand up to Zhao Yao; Zhao Yao was too ruthless. He never wanted to experience the illusion again.

Looking at Zhao Yao’s ruthless expression he continued, “The rest are fixed assets in England and France. I can’t change them to cash in such a short period of time. Furthermore, most of the money is with my dad. This is all of my savings.”

“Is it?” Zhao Yao laughed coldly. He did not believe that criminals like him who did human and drug trafficking would not have a backup plan and leave all their money in the bank.

“That’s so dishonest.”

Then, Edron started to see illusions again. He saw hundreds of butchers naked. They were walking around and shitting around him. They laughed and walked towards him.

“Don’t come near me!” His limbs were pressed down by the butchers and his clothes were ripped apart. Edron was screaming, “Don’t come closer! Don’t come closer!”

After a while, he let out a scream and tears of humiliation rolled down his face. “Stop! Make them stop! I will give you the money!”

Zhao Yao waved and the illusions disappeared. He stared at Edron on the floor and said, “Wouldn’t it have been easier if you cooperated earlier?”

After another round of interrogations, Zhao Yao managed to extort another round of cash, jewelry, and gems. They were worth about five million euros.

Next, he had to bring the supercats hiding in the manor back into the Extradimensional Belly.

“This is about it.”

He looked at Edron's exhausted and frozen face, Zhao Yao used illusions to trick Edron into the Extradimensional Belly. The strategy for what happened afterwards had to be discussed with the supercats.

Zhao Yao gathered the elites and leaders of the six departments and explained the situation. He continued, "Now, the Double-Headed Vulture has four groups abroad. Before attacking their headquarters, I have decided to split you into four teams and destroy their influences oversea and confiscate their illegal earnings."

After hearing Zhao Yao's words, every cat had different thoughts. They experienced excitement, hesitation, nervousness, and worry.

"Destroy their base?" Matcha was excited. He jumped and raised his paws. "I want to go! I want to go! Zhao Yao, include me!" He was overjoyed. "How did Zhao Yao become rich? From robbing. Now it is my turn to get rich."

When he saw Matcha's excited look, Zhao Yao was silent. "Our opponent is an international criminal organization. They are very powerful and have many apostles. We need very strong supercats to defeat them."

"Isn't that me?" Matcha continued raising his paws and said, "I will go! I will go!"

Zhao Yao fell silent again. He looked at Matcha's anticipating and innocence eyes and thought, "How do I say this? How do I say that you are too weak? I can't, then it leaves me with no choice."

"Okay, Matcha you will be with me. We are Group One." Zhao Yao didn't give supercats the chance to arrange themselves into groups. "Dust Ball and Sphynx cat, you guys are Group Two.

Elizabeth, Cheese, and Ares, Group Three.

Cat Sage, Roly Poly, and Catherine, Group Four.

We will separate into four groups and attack at the same time. Our aim is to defeat all the minions of the Double-Headed Vulture and take all their money."

Zhao Yao looked at the cats and said, “Everyone please remember that this is not just for ourselves. It is for world peace, to fight against evil and to liberate the supercats enslaved by the Double-Headed Vulture. Good will always win over evil!”

After hearing Zhao Yao’s speech all the supercats had their own thoughts.

Matcha: “Zhao Yao still trusts me He has to bring me around to have a peace of mind.”

Roly Poly: “Exploitation, extortion, corruption, fraud, and robbery... Meow I am so talented.”

Elizabeth: “Tour with expenses provided? I must take more photos this time.”

Sphynx: “Why am I not with Ares? Why is Ares with Elizabeth? How can Zhao Yao do this?”

Cheese: “Can I bring my sister along to play?”

Ares: “He scared me. At least I am not with Sphynx. Elizabeth? It would have been better to be with Catherine, Elizabeth lacks a bit of flavor.”

Cat Sage: “For justice! For the supercats in the Double-Headed Vulture! Zhao Yao is so great. I knew that I followed the right guy.”

Catherine: “So troublesome... Why does a ragdoll cat like me have to go out and work? I have not cut my nails yet... I don’t feel like working.”

Old Cat: “It looks like Matcha is in favor again after he came back. It is time to talk to Sir George again.”

Lucifer: “Damn fighting a criminal organization? They have to face countless powerful people and danger. How I wish I could help.”

Rice Cake: “None of this concerns me right? Can I go back and play games? Can I leave?”

Gaia: “Why are the cats gathering? It looks crowded. It’s okay, I don’t think they realize that I am not there. I should continue playing my game.”

Fish Ball: “Why am I here? What are they talking about? It has nothing to do with me, right? I am just passing by. Do I just have to nod?”

...

After Zhao Yao left Edron’s manor, a guy in black came to the manor and pulled down the fence to look at the traces of the battle and the bodies.

There was a big-nosed blond middle-aged man. He stood in front of Alpha and frowned. “Is this Alpha the Dragon Slayer from Double-Headed Vulture? He is dead too?”

His men answered him, “Sir, all the soldiers and apostles in the manor died from suffocation. Edron is missing but he just transferred money from his bank. We think that he is still alive.”

The blond guy narrowed his eyes and glared coldly. He thought of the fight here and the explosion in the city, he laughed coldly. “They dare to unscrupulously attack in Paris. Do these thugs really think that they can do whatever they want with a bit of power?”

He ordered. “Check all the surveillance cameras in the city, airport and on the highway for the last three hours... Inform all the apostles... Keep the entire city under surveillance... Let out the hunting dogs... Put a Kensei team on standby...”

As the blond man spoke, his orders were issued and Paris became a giant net.

Chapter 680: Hit the Road

While the high-ranking officials were raging, countless actions were taken.

In the Extradimensional Belly, Zhao Yao had created the groups.

“There are no objections right?” When Zhao Yao saw that no cat objected, he continued, “I shall appoint a cat to be in charge for each group. I will be in charge of Group One, Sphynx cat is in charge of Group Two, Elizabeth will be in charge of Group Three and Cat Sage is in charge of Group Four. Everyone stay in your own groups. You have to follow the orders of your leader. Their orders are my orders.”

Speaking of this, Zhao Yao’s eyes let a cold and menacing glare that made all the cats’ fur stand up.

“Zhao Yao is so scary!”

Zhao Yao said, “If someone doesn’t listen to their instructions, don’t blame me for giving harsh punishments.” He grabbed Lucifer and chopped him into two. “This will be your fate!”

Lucifer spat out his tongue and rolled his eyes. “This feels nice.”

Seeing the cats shiver in fear, Zhao Yao continued, “Okay, these are the temporary groups. If the leader thinks it is necessary, you can pick more cats.”

Ares and Sphynx cat raised their paws immediately.

Ares, “Catherine!”

Sphynx, “Ares!”

The two cats looked at each other and Ares looked away immediately in a cold sweat.

Zhao Yao coughed and explained, “The cats already grouped cannot be re-adjusted. I deliberately matched your powers so that there would be attack, defense, movement and stealth powers. There can’t be any one missing.”

Roly Poly raised his paws and asked eagerly, “Can we bring along Red Packet?”

Red Packet jumped as if he was stepped on. “Don’t bring me along on such a dangerous battle!”

Zhao Yao shook his head. “Red Packet is a non-combat cat, let him go.”

Roly Poly sighed, “Aye, if I brought along Red Packet, maybe I could rip off more money.”

Cheese raised his paws and asked, “Can I bring along my family members?”

Rice Cake swept her tail agitatedly and meowed, “I don’t want to go!”

Seeing that the cats had nothing more to add, he asked, “Are there any more problems? Okay, then...”

He woke Edron up and he instructed Edron to call his brothers to arrange for a meetup. They would never expect that Edron had betrayed them and all agreed to meet tomorrow in different parts of Europe.

Looking at the cities, Zhao Yao rubbed his chin and said, “London, Rome, Berlin, and Istanbul? You guys live really far apart.”

Zhao Yao looked at the map and said, “So we will split the locations. The final meeting point will be...

Dust Ball and I have the Double-Headed Vulture, we can return to the country where the Double-Headed Vulture is headquartered anytime. I will go to London while Dust Ball will go to Berlin.

Elizabeth has the weakest mobility, she will go to Rome.

Cat Sage has stronger mobility so you will go to Istanbul.

When everyone is done, we will meet at the Double-Headed Vulture’s headquarters. Any problems?”

All the supercats were ready to go. After hearing Zhao Yao’s question they answered in unison, “No problems”.

Hence, they traveled to Paris' airport and Zhao Yao sent the different cats into different airplanes. Lastly, in the frozen world, he stepped onto the flight to London.

...

An hour later, in Trafalgar Square, London.

Matcha sat on a long bench and had a bag of bird food beside him. He waved his paws and the bird food spread towards the Square.

In an instant, a flock of pigeons fought for food around Matcha.

Matcha shook his butt and tail. He was ready to pounce on the pigeons.

When Zhao Yao turned around, he rolled his eyes. He grabbed Matcha by the neck and walked away. "How many times must I say that we are not here to feed pigeons."

He looked around and frowned. "Why is it so hard to find? Where is this?"

After Zhao Yao left his flight, he had followed the address and started looking for the place. After a while, he realized that he was lost.

He turned on his phone and tugged the corners of his mouth. "I don't have international roaming. I can't check my gps."

Matcha stuck out his head from Zhao Yao's shoulders and asked, "Zhao Yao, are you lost?"

"How is that possible?" Zhao Yao pointed to a random direction and said, "It is further down that way." As he walked he asked Edron, who was in the Extradimensional Belly, "Hey, do you know your way around London?" As he asked, he looked at the map.

An hour later, Zhao Yao was holding onto the map and walked towards his destination. Then, the sky started to drizzle. He shook his head and sighed, "London weather."

Zhao Yao activated the Deflective Field which covered a thin layer on his body. It looked like he was drenched by the rain but actually, he was not wet at all.

He came to a bar and looked up. He then looked at the map again and asked Edron the address. He nodded and thought, "This should be the place."

He pushed the door and tried to go in but the door did not move. This was a piece of cake for Zhao Yao as he activated the Deflective Field and walked in. He then realized that the bar was empty. He raised his brows and asked, "Hello?"

However, the bar was still empty and there was no one inside.

Zhao Yao frowned and sat down. He looked at the time. "Okay, there's still half an hour left. Let's wait."

Matcha jumped down from Zhao Yao's back and onto the bar table to sniff around.

Zhao Yao did not restrict him as cats are highly curious. If he did not let Matcha sniff around, it would be worse than killing him.

When Zhao Yao arrived at the bar, in the apartment across the street, a dozen staff members were looking at the monitor screen in surprise.

"Who is this guy?"

"Is he here to meet Brandon?"

"According to our info, Brandon is here to meet his brother Edron. Edron is an Asian?"

"He looks like a tourist." A staff said after looking at Zhao Yao checking his map. "Just like all the other Chinese tourist."

Their boss, an apostle from England's Protoss team, Anthony, frowned. "Ignore him. We just have to monitor this meeting."

A man said hesitatingly, “He may die.”

Anthony said, “This is the first time Edron and Brandon are meeting in the country. The Double-Headed Vulture is a big threat to our country and we spent so much manpower and resources to get one man inside the organization. There is no way we are going to give ourselves away because of a tourist.”
