Chapter 811: The End of Project X (3)

In the dark passageway by the side, Kun Wu and Doll were dumbstruck.

“Too strong, too strong, too strong,” Doll said bewildered. “When Project X separated into numerous clones, he was invincible. After merging all his clones, his power was God-like.”

“As compared to us, Project X’s power was of another dimension. We are too far behind.”

“We are unable to defeat him. It is impossible to kill him.

Kun Wu was trembling and her limbs’ fire extinguished as she was filled with immense terror.

Doll said, “Kun Wu, we have to think of a way to escape. I can construct a spaceship. Let’s leave this planet. Earth is doomed.”

Doll shivered uncontrollably as he was scared stiff.

Xiao Yu and Nekomata charged forward to intercept Project X’s paw.

Doll tried to stop them but it was too late. “Idiots, you are killing yourselves!”

As both of them charged towards Project X, they expanded and transformed into two gigantic ghosts as they pounced on him.

Project X frowned. He flicked his claw and sent a hurtling air bullet like a howitzer shot that penetrated their ethereal bodies.

“Let go of Zhao Yao and his cats!”

Xiao Yu's spirit squirmed into Project X's body and transformed back to her normal self to attack his organs.

"Humph, you are tired of living." Project X's organs vibrated and Xiao Yu was broken down into many pieces. She was forced to transform into her spirit form to escape.

As Xiao Yu and Nekomata were about to attack again, Project X opened his mouth and spat. "Don't think you're the only ones that can transform into ghosts."

An emerald spirit emerged from Project X's mouth, expanded rapidly, and extended its hand to pin Xiao Yu and Nekomata firmly on the ground.

His Divine Rays of Terror swept over both of them, who were so terrified that their eyes showed white and they trembled with fear, unable to move. The emerald spirit returned to Project X's body.

Doll shook his head and said, "Let's escape Kun Wu. We are defeated."

Project X smiled and extended his paw towards Lightning. He wanted to rip all supercats of their superpowers and intelligence.

He heard footsteps and looked askance as he said, "Are you looking for death?"

Zhao Yao, whose right arm was growing back to normal, stood up and walked towards Project X.

Zhao Yao heard a meow and turned to look. Mango emerged from the passageway and panicked when he saw the seriously wounded supercats. He yelled in fear as he ran towards Zhao Yao.

Matcha was worried and shouted, "Mango? Run away!"

Project X flashed, grabbed hold of Mango and hauled him up. "Another supercat? This cat looks rather foolish. Didn't his intelligence properly develop during the Awakening?"

"Let him go!" Zhao Yao was shocked and worried when he saw Mango being captured. Then an idea came to his mind.

His eyes were filled with hesitation, pain, and finally deep sorrow. “I shall do it this way...”

“Project X!!!” Zhao Yao roared in fury and activated the illusion to induce Mango to excrete.

Mango frowned and his whiskers stood on ends. Invisible waves emanated from him.

Project X discovered something was amiss and backed off. He moved slightly and his body froze.

Zhao Yao gritted his teeth and felt deep sorrow.

“Project X’s active ability can rip supercats of their superpowers and intelligence while his passive ability can duplicate the superpowers of the surrounding supercats.”

“So Project X had duplicated Mango’s superpower.”

“Mango transferred the excretion instinct to Project X, who passively duplicated Mango’s superpower and transferred the excretion instinct back to Mango.”

“Both of them compounded the excretion instinct with each other. If the compounding effect lasts for long, Mango will...”

Within a short time, Mango’s superpower increased exponentially due to the compounding effect. Nobody could determine how many times it was increased. A thousand times? A million times? Perhaps a billion times?

Project X and Mango’s bodies emitted clouds of blood mists.

Every pore on their bodies emitted fine mists of flesh and blood at an exponential rate.

Mango’s unlimited increase of his superpower went beyond Zhao Yao and Project X’s understanding. Even Project X’s consciousness was excreted and he went into a daze.

Within 100 meters of both Mango and Project X, all materials were excreted. Dimensions disappeared and time accelerated as they were expelled. Both of their bodies entered a strange state.

Zhao Yao fixed his eyes firmly on both of them as he shouted, “Bai Quan, Zhao Xue! Bring them out!”

Bai Quan stood up as blood foam and pieces of his internal organs gushed out while he breathed. “Boss! What about you?”

Zhao Yao spoke one word at a time, “I want to save Mango. All of you will leave first.”

“But...” Zhao Xue opened her mouth as she looked at the dimensions shrink and disappear. She wanted to say that there was no hope for Mango but was held back when she noticed Zhao Yao’s resolute back.

Bai Quan tapped Zhao Xue’s shoulders and shook his head. He grabbed Fish Ball, Lightning and the rest before leaving.

Xiao Yu looked at Zhao Yao and shouted, “Zhao Yao, what are you doing? Come with us!”

Matcha and Elizabeth yelled, “Zhao Yao! Leave with us!”

Zhao Yao glanced at them and smiled as he activated his power of illusion and induced the supercats into passing out. “Xiao Yu, leave with them!”

Xiaoyu’s eyes turned red and she shouted, “You are unable to save Mango. Leave with us!”

Zhao Yao said, “I am losing Mango just to kill Project X. I will not agree to such losing terms even if I have to die.” He knew that only if either Mango or Project X died, would the runaway superpower stop.

If Mango died first, Project X would come back to life. If both of them were alive, the effects of the runaway superpower would expand and kill everyone. If both of them died, then Zhao Yao would lose Mango.

Of all possibilities, Zhao Yao would only allow Project X to die first.

“Project X has to die.”

Zhao Yao turned his head to see the disappearing bodies of Project X and Mango, who were surrounded by a layer of blood mist. The effective range of Mango’s runaway superpower kept expanding. The hundreds of clones that were sealed by the Great Flow of Idleness began to explode one by one.

Zhao Yao squinted his eyes and charged towards Mango.

As he entered the outer range of Mango’s superpower, Zhao Yao’s body started to disintegrate, disappear and regenerate continuously.

“It is very powerful.” Zhao Yao was shocked. “Shouldn’t the outer range be the weakest point? My flesh is unable to withstand the damage. I have to think of another way. If this continues...”

“I have to try Time Freeze.” Zhao Yao shook his head. “No, time is expelled, causing time and space to be unstable. If I activate Time Freeze and Project X goes into Time Freeze, I am actually saving him.”

Zhao Yao saw the situation worsening and said helplessly, “I can only try my previous solution.”

Zhao Yao went forward step by step towards Mango’s position as his flesh disintegrated. He let out a scream of pain.

“Even... Even the Ultra Rapid Regeneration superpower is expelled outside my body...” He was overwhelmed by excruciating pain and his consciousness went blank. Then his memories and consciousness were expelled outside his body.

Chapter 812: The End of Project X (4)

On the Book, the ability tree representing the power to regenerate slowly became grey.

When Zhao Yao took a step forward, all the flesh on his body was torn and as the power to regenerate was being discharged out of his body. For the first time, Zhao Yao understood the pain of being torn into thousand pieces.

After taking a step, Zhao Yao could no longer move. All his perseverance and will power was thrown to the back of his mind as he fell to the floor. All that was left in his brain was the pain.

He raised his head and looked at the alarming power. When he tried to get up, his consciousness was engulfed by the pain.

Then, the Book lit up and the ability tree to regenerate lit up again.

Zhao Yao was shocked. "This is..."

At the same time where the Book lit up again, Zhao Yao no longer felt pain. The feeling of incredible comfort returned to his body.

"The power of regeneration is back? Is it the effect of the Book?"

However, the power of regeneration was discharged out of his body again. Intense pain seized Zhao Yao all over and every inch of his skin and flesh felt like there were knives tearing them apart.

Then, the Book was activated again and the power of regeneration was back.

Zhao Yao was shocked. "Is my Book's fighting against the discharge power of Mango and Project X?"

Thinking of this, Zhao Yao felt emboldened and walked towards Mango and Project X step by step.

As the power regeneration was no longer discharged out of his body and the Book had returned back to normal, all the other powers were not discharged.

Hence, during the fight between the Book and Mango/Project X, Zhao Yao walked towards the two cats with sudden pains.

...

White.

In a pure white dimension.

Project X stood in his spot and looked across.

There was a cat who looked exactly like Kun Wu, sitting there smiling at him.

Project X frowned. "Where are we?"

"In your conscious." The cat answered, "Can you see it? Soon, it will collapse."

Project X turned and looked at the vast dimension. It was all white.

The cat asked, "How? Do you regret your actions? So many efforts were destroyed by one cat."

Project X shook his head and sat down. "It is okay. Even if I lose, I can feel that I have one more chance at being reborn. Even if I lose again after reborn..." Then he looked up and asked the cat. "What are you?"

"You can't remember?" The cat who looked like Kun Wu shook her head. "I can't remember either. All I know is that I am the only one left. I should be important to you."

Project X's eyes narrowed and felt like he had forgotten something important.

"Your consciousness is about to be expelled out, this is the last of what's left. We don't have much time left. The cat, who looked like Kun Wu continued, "You don't need to care about me. Tell me what are you going to do when you go out?"

Project X lowered his head and was analyzing the entire battle.

“With my powers. I have been hiding my clones and sending out clones to test his powers. I wanted to resolve them one by one and then kill him. This is the best strategy and at first, it was very successful.”

“Too bad.” He touched his chest. “I never expected Sphynx cat’s powers would have side effects.”

The cat, who looked like Kun Wu was curious. “Oh? You felt it?”

“Yes, I was almost expelled out of my body. There was such a huge difference, I can still feel it now.” Project X shook his head. “Because of the emotional weakness and the opponent’s illusion, I fell for the illusion. I almost gathered all my clones...”

Speaking of this, Project X remembered the sleeping powers of Zhao Yao.

Project X continued, “If, at that point of time, I was really immersed in the illusion and gathered my clones then fell for the sleeping powers, I may really have died.”

The supercat who looked like Kun Wu said, “You are lucky that a spirit woke you up.”

“Luck is considered a skill too.” Project X said calmly. “Besides, to create a battlefield that is advantageous to me is part of my battle plan. If this was Zhao Yao’s battlefield, he would have his own advantages.”

Kun Wu said, “However, you were no longer and met with a strange cat.”

“I... was too arrogant.” Project X said calmly. “One is the weakest when he is at his strongest. When I gather all my clones and reach my full powers, it is also the only chance to truly kill me.

To defeat me, they need to gather all my clones together and have powers powerful enough to fight against me. Alas, they did the first step but not the next.

However, to be able to force me till this stage... they are amazing. Since I already know the powers of this strange cat, I will no longer fail.”

As he spoke, the white consciousness started to collapse.

The supercat who looked like Kun Wu said, “You are leaving? Best wishes.”

Then, his consciousness collapsed entirely. There was a distortion in the dimension and Project X was reborn. The whole world in front of him stood still.

Project X opened his eyes and he saw the scene in front of him along with Zhao Yao, who was standing in front of him.

“Zhao Yao? Why did that strange cat disappear?” Project X was alarmed then he searched carefully and could not feel Mango’s presence. After seeing the blood trails under Zhao Yao’s feet, he laughed.

“He is dead? So we died together, right? You killed him? Ha ha, to protect yourself, you killed your own cat?”

He looked at his surroundings and there weren’t any supercats. There was only Zhao Yao. Project X was relaxed. The countless battles before this had helped him understand all of Zhao Yao’s powers. He was not afraid of Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao looked at Project X and laughed. He took out a enema and said, “You were speaking of Mango? He is here.”

Project X did not understand Zhao Yao.

Then, he heard meowing come from the enema.

Project X was stunned. “You turn your cat into this? How did you do it?”

Zhao Yao looked at Project X pitifully and said, “How sure are you that I only turned Mango like this?”

“You!” Project X felt that something was amiss. He couldn’t control his body and powers!!! He never used Time Freeze but there was no else in the hall except him and Zhao Yao, so he thought Time was frozen.

Zhao Yao walked in front of Project X and picked up the mirror on the floor. "Project X, do you really think I can't deal with you? If it wasn't for Mango, I would have a solution too."

Now, Mango and Project X had been fed a Cat Spicy Strip by Zhao Yao.

Mango became an enema and Project X became a mirror.

Chapter 813: The End of Project X (5)

In fact, when Project X was gathering his clones and his powers were raging, Zhao Yao had prepared a Spicy Cat Strip. He wanted to wait for Time Freeze to cool down and use the enhanced Time Freeze with Ultra Rapid Regeneration to run over and stuff a Spicy Cat Strip into his mouth.

Sleep Medusa was Zhao Yao's first trump card. He had planned to use it after Project X gathered his clones.

If the plan failed, it would be a disguise.

The Spicy Cat Strip was the real trump card.

No matter how much he overpowered him, no matter what Project X did, before Project X had gathered all his clones, he did not use the Spicy Cat Strips.

He knew that he only had one chance, if he couldn't get rid of him once and for all, the Spicy Strips would be useless.

However, the sudden appearance of Mango spoiled the chance. Zhao Yao watched Project X take Mango's powers and intelligence but he could not stop Project X.

After all, Zhao Yao was no match for Project X. Even if he wanted to stop Project X, he would have to drag past the 12 seconds Time Freeze. He had wanted to use the enhanced Time Freeze but 12 seconds was enough for Project X to kill Mango many times.

Then, he thought of an idea: to use an illusion to cause Mango and Project X's powers to rage.

Lastly, he would give them Spicy Cat Strips.

Zhao Yao looked at the mirror in his hand. "Do you think that meeting Mango was by chance? Do you think that I only prepared one way to deal with you after you gathered all your clones?"

"Idiot, you were lucky that Mango came over. Your powers almost got out of hand. If he hadn't... maybe you would have really gotten away."

Project X went crazy after he realized he had become a mirror. "Ah!!!! You... you lowly beings, stupid..."

Crack... There was a crack on the mirror and Project X shouted, "What are you doing!"

"Shut up." Zhao Yao said, "You speak again and I will crush you."

"You! You cannot..." Project X was flustered. He didn't know if he could be reborn if he died under such conditions. Besides, he had no longer had any clones outside.

"Why can't I?" Zhao Yao snorted, "I asked you to shut up. If you speak again, I will place you under the toilet."

Project X was raging but feeling the crack, he did not dare to speak. He was howling in his heart. "How is this possible... No! I am defeated by such a strange power!"

"Zhao Yao! Don't give me a chance. If I am given a chance, I will kill you and all your cats!!"

After picking up Project X and Mango, Zhao Yao fell to the floor in exhaustion.

He looked at the disappearing hall and thought to himself. "Is the power disappearing..."

Then, everyone and cat in the Fortress Nightmare saw a flash and when they opened eyes again, they were back in Cat Wonderland.

Everyone were very surprised by it and were all searching for Zhao Yao.

“I... won.” Zhao Yao looked at everyone. “Project X is dead.”

All the supercats were cheering.

Momo turned into a spirit and wanted to escape. Xiao Yu grabbed onto her tail. “You still want to escape! Don’t you know how much money you owe me?”

Momo looked at Xiao Yu in shocked. “I? I owe you money?”

Doll looked at Zhao Yao in disbelief. “How did he do it? He defeated a monster like Project X?”

Kun Wu looked at Zhao Yao’s mirror and bewilderment flashed across his eye.

Then, Ares screamed and walked in front of Sphynx cat’s body. He was shocked. “Sphynx cat...”

Matcha, Elizabeth, Lucifer ... All the cats gathered up and looked at Sphynx cat, who was lying motionless on the floor.

Matcha turned and looked at Zhao Yao. “Zhao ... Zhao Yao, Sphynx cat?”

“I’m sorry.” Zhao Yao sighed, “I... was too weak.”

That moment, Matcha and the others gathered around Sphynx cat and were bawling. The tears rolled out like a waterfall.

“Sphynx cat!” Matcha hugged Sphynx cat’s body and cried.

Elizabeth’s eyes were filled with tears. “Sphynx cat!”

Ares looked at Sphynx cat dazedly. Sorrow filled his heart. “Why are you dead?”

Upon seeing the supercats cry around Sphynx cat, Zhao Yao sighed and clenched his fist. “I am still too weak.”

Although Zhao Yao sounded prepared when he spoke to Project X, he knew that if Mango had not appeared, if the Book hadn't resisted the rage, if he had really used his original plan...

After Project X gathered all his clones, dragging the 12 seconds to go into the enhance Time Freeze, then feed Project X the Spicy Strip.

In the 12 seconds, there would have been countless deaths.

Then, Matcha was crying and pointing at the enema in Zhao Yao's hands. “Zhao Yao! What happened to Mango? Turn him back!”

Zhao Yao shook his head. “Mango has suffered heavy injuries. If he turns back into a cat, he will die anytime. I have to find a supercat who can heal him before turning him back.”

Although Zhao Yao did not have any cats with healing powers but he knew that Uncle Ho had.

Zhao Yao looked at Kun Wu and Doll. “Leave. I am not in the mood to fight with you guys.”

Kun Wu was still staring at the mirror in Zhao Yao's hands. However, Doll reacted and pulled her away.

Then, Zhao Yao looked at the supercats from the prison and sent them back to Uncle Ho.

All sorts of cleaning up, tidying up, and renovating Cat Wonderland followed. He had to send Matcha, Fish Ball, Elizabeth, and the rest to the pet hospital.

However, even if the building was fixed, the scars left in the hearts of the supercats were not easily fixed. All the supercats were filled with sorrow and looked pathetic.

Zhao Yao sighed and walked out of the door. He leaped and jumped onto the rooftop. He returned to the Cat Island through Extradimensional Belly.

...

In a toilet on Cat Island.

Project X was hung in the cat toilet and because he was stuffed with a dozen of Spicy Cat Strip, he would remain like that for a dozen of hours.

Because Zhao Yao did not tell him, Project X did not know that he would turn back into a cat after a period of time. He thought that as long as Zhao Yao did not deactivate the power, he would remain as a mirror forever.

Project X was hung in the toilet as he watched the supercats use the toilet and looking into the mirror. Project X grew more and more frustrated and more and more fearful. He yelled, "What are you looking at? What is there to look at? Can't you bend down and look at your own butt?"

"Wow." Airplane looked up and pressed his paw on the mirror. "A mirror is so arrogant?"

"I said..." Project X was about to yell again, but he felt the cat's claws against the mirror and apologized immediately. "I'm sorry!!"

"Who is the most good looking cat?"

"It's you! It's you! It's you!"

"This is too much indignity..." Project X looked at Airplane walk away arrogantly and he was about to explode. 'Do I really have to be a toilet mirror for the rest of my life? Are you kidding me?'

Near him, Sang Biao, who was toilet paper, moved his body and said happily. "Boss, I never expected you would come to accompany me. Are you uncomfortable now? It's okay. After a while, you will get use to it. Cat shit isn't that dirty actually."

"Who wants to get used to it?" Project X was rolling his eyes. "Get lost."

Chapter 814: Resurrection and Treatment

When Project X was raging, Zhao Yao appeared outside the cat toilet. He smiled. “How are you, Project X? Do you like your new job?”

“Zhao Yao!” Project X answered menacingly. “I will not succumb to you.”

“Okay. You can continue. I am just passing by.”

When Project X saw that Zhao Yao was really leaving, he was anxious and wanted to speak but he hesitated.

Zhao Yao slowed down his pace drastically and thought. “He can tolerate it for this long? No, I have to find out how to heal Roly Poly.”

Roly Poly’s powers and intelligence were taken away from him. Zhao Yao had to find a way to save him and Project X was the only clue.

Finally, Project X shouted, “Zhao Yao! Don’t you want me to return the powers and intelligence to the supercats?”

“I have no interest. There are so many supercats, it’s okay if I lose a few.” Zhao Yao laughed coldly. On the surface, he looked like he left mercilessly, however, he slowed down.

Project X was anxious when he saw Zhao Yao continued to walk. “Zhao Yao! As long as you let me go, I will give them back their intelligence and powers. I have thought about it. Your powers are stronger than I expected. We can communicate equally. There is no need to fight.”

“Let you out?” Zhao Yao laughed coldly. “Impossible.”

Project X said helplessly, “Sphynx cat, if you let me out, I can’t save him... But I know of a way to revive him.”

Zhao Yao’s eyes lit up and said calmly, “Speak.”

As Project X spoke, Zhao Yao frowned but he nodded.

Project X's body flashed and entered the Extradimensional Belly.

Project X sighed, "At least I don't have to be in the toilet anymore."

After several hours, Project X who had regained his body suddenly realized that the mirror form was not permanent. That was why Zhao Yao had sealed him up in this dimension.

Thinking of this, Project X yelled.

"B*stard!"

But all the doors were closed in the Extradimensional Belly. He was imprisoned there and could not leave.

No matter if it was Dust Ball or Zhao Yao, both would not open the Extradimensional Belly.

Zhao Yao thought, "I can't let him out yet. I have to use this time to improve my powers and after I can completely defeat Project X I will let him out. By then, I would force him to return the powers and intelligence to the supercats. I will kill him after that and complete the mission. And... about reviving Sphynx cat..."

After hearing Project X's information, Zhao Yao was overjoyed and returned to the hospital to tell Matcha and the rest the good news.

However, when he opened the ward door, he saw that Matcha, who had originally been full of sorrow, had gotten down from his bed and stood in front of Roly Poly happily. "Fool, you never expected this day, did you? Come..." He dipped his claws into a canned food and wiped it onto his lower body.

"Come, fool, come and lick it."

"Hahaha, Old Cat you have take a clear photo. I will show him when he recovers."

“Oh ya, don’t forget to burn a copy for Sphynx cat. It would entertain him even if he is in the underworld.”

Zhao Yao clenched his teeth. “Stupid cat.”

Matcha felt the air turn cold and Zhao Yao’s voice come from behind him.

“Matcha, what are you doing?”

Matcha turned and explained, “I am helping Roly Poly with his rehabilitation! Doctor Liu said he has dementia and he needs his daily rehabilitation to recover...”

“Get lost!”

“No problem!” Matcha laid on the floor and rolled out obediently.

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes and shook his head. He looked at the Roly Poly who was looking at him with his eyes wide open and took out the cat stick from behind his back.

“Roly Poly, come play with the cat stick.”

Watching Roly Poly jump around and playing with the cat stick like a normal cat, Zhao Yao smiled happily.

Then, Zhao Yao turned and saw Old Cat who was in a daze. “You...”

“Ah!” Old Cat poked his eyes and shouted, “I didn’t see anything! I can’t see anything!”

After playing with Roly Poly for awhile, Zhao Yao gathered all the supercats and told them. “Everyone, I have something to discuss with you guys today.”

Behind Zhao Yao, a banner was hung up by Ares. It said: “First meeting for the resurrection of Sphynx cat.”

Under the banner was a Sphynx cat's body in a freezer. On the freezer, there was a black and white photo of Sphynx cat.

“According to Project X, there is a way to resurrect Sphynx cat.” Zhao Yao said calmly.

“However, we cannot act rashly. Everyone has seen the capabilities of Project X. Although I won this time, if we were to battle again I may not be able to win again.

We can try to resurrect Sphynx cat according to what he says but we have to be stronger than him and completely dominate him.”

Matcha raised his paws.

Zhao Yao pretended that he couldn't see. He continued, “So, other than running the Cat Wonderland, I will go and complete some missions to upgrade the Book. At the same time, we have to start collecting meteorites...”

Matcha rolled in front of Zhao Yao and waved his paws continuously.

Zhao Yao sighed and looked at Matcha. “Matcha, what do you have to say?”

Matcha stood up happily. “Zhao Yao, what about the rewards? We contributed so much, shouldn't there be rewards?”

All the supercats were excited and looked at Zhao Yao with anticipation.

“Okay. All of you will receive rewards.” Zhao Yao pulled out his phone and said, “Come and scan the QR code. I will transfer the money to you.”

“Yeah!”

All the cats were cheering and gathered up. Sphynx cat's freezer was pushed away and the black and white photo fell to the floor.

Zhao Yao was transferring the money and sighing. He watch his money deplete and sighed more heavily. "To relieve everyone's sorrow is not an easy task."

Meanwhile, Doll brought Kun Wu to the beach. "Kun Wu let's go. Project X has finally been settled. We just have to deal with the Headless Horseman and there will be world peace!"

Kun Wu shook her head and recalled the mirror in Zhao Yao's hand and frown. "Doll, I want to go to Cat Wonderland."

Doll was shocked. "What?"

Kun Wu said, "I want to work at the Cat Wonderland. I want to observe the Headless Horseman."

"What?!" Doll was shocked and at the same time his robotic head lit up in green light.

Headless: "Where is the green light? It is incredible like an electrocution. Like a miracle in my life.."

Doll yelled, "Headless!!"

Headless answered, "Boss there is no need to thank me. Data says that this is the best time for this BGM. Isn't it funny? The users who used it says it funny."

Chapter 815: Opening for Business

Zhao Yao spent the whole day using his superpowers to rebuild and renovate most of the destroyed Cat Wonderland. It would be open for business again the next day.

“Operating Cat Wonderland, selling more catmint, completing more missions, and collecting more meteorite fragments.” Zhao Yao sat on the executive chair in his office as he formulated a plan in his mind. Suddenly, Dust Ball burst in hurriedly.

“What’s wrong, Dust Ball?”

Dust Ball held a huge bowl of catmint in her mouth as she exclaimed anxiously, “Zhao Yao! Zhao Yao! The Extradimensional Belly is being used to lock up that idiot, Project X. Now I have no place to plant my catmint! What should we do? Dust Ball Catmint is about to run out of stock!”

Zhao Yao nodded and replied, “I thought about this problem as well. I have a solution.”

Dust Ball stared at Zhao Yao in admiration as she asked, “What solution do you have?”

Zhao Yao took out a bag of catmint from below his desk and told her, “You will sell this from now on.”

Dust Ball glanced at the bag of catmint and immediately said, “This is not our catmint.”

“Yeah. I bought this from Taobao.”

Dust Ball was shocked. “You! You want me to sell fake goods?”

“How is this fake? This is catmint as well.”

Dust Ball replied, “But... but this is the catmint grown in the Extradimensional Belly. It wasn’t grown with the Light of Creation. The taste will be different.”

“Just say you guys upgraded the formula,” Zhao Yao casually replied. “If it doesn’t work add some soil and grass. Anyway, we’re the only ones licensed to sell catmint in Jianghai. Does it matter what kind of catmint we sell?”

Dust Ball shook her head immediately. “No! I won’t sell counterfeit goods! This is against my professional conduct!”

Zhao Yao searched under his desk again and took out a watermelon knife and threw it in front of Dust Ball.

“Don’t think I will be scared just because of a knife!!” Dust Ball pointed accusingly at the counterfeit catmint and said, “I will sell this catmint not because I’m afraid of this knife of yours but because I’m worried that the cats in Jianghai won’t be able to enjoy catmint if I stop selling it.”

“Humph!” After saying her piece, Dust Ball picked up the bag of counterfeit catmint and strode off.

Zhao Yao reminded her, “Don’t forget to change the packaging.”

“Got it.”

Zhao Yao could not help but add, “Add some nutritional paste, canned cat food or stuff like that so that it won’t taste the same as ordinary catmint.”

“So annoying. Stop telling me how to make catmint. I’ll do it my own way.”

Zhao Yao shook his head as he watched Dust Ball leave. “This girl. The older she gets, the more disobedient she becomes.” He unlocked his phone and decided to browse through the news and the Cat Web.

Due to the appearance of the gigantic Fortress Nightmare, it was impossible to cover up the incident at Jianghai’s Cat Wonderland. There were already countless netizens discussing the issue of supercats.

This time, Uncle Ho and his men did not avidly remove posts or censor discussions about the topic. It was evident that they wanted the citizens to accept the reality of the existence of supercats.

After all, two years had passed since the awakening of supercats. More and more people in society had become aware of the existence of supercats. With such a long buffer period, it was enough for the public to slowly accept this shocking piece of news.

On the Cat Web, more theories came up regarding this latest incident. However, as Project X’s profile was kept top secret and confidential, normal apostles and supercats did not have detailed information on Project X. As such, all sorts of rumors were abound in the superpower realm.

However, the incident this time had occurred at the Cat Wonderland. Naturally, the boss of Cat Wonderland, the Headless Horseman, would be implicated in some way.

That huge, black shadow of a fortress and the countless prison cats that charged into the Cat Wonderland that day added clout and terror to the Headless Horseman's name. Not only that, it cloaked his identity in a mysterious light.

“How strong is the Headless Horseman exactly?”

“Has the government secretly acknowledged the Headless Horseman's presence and clout?”

“This is my ideal list of superpower names! The Headless Horseman would rank fifth at most!”

Zhao Yao smirked as he scrolled through the Cat Web, looking through all kinds of posts trying to guess how powerful the Headless Horseman was and which apostle was more powerful. He was secretly pleased in being the hot topic of discussion on the web.

After browsing the internet for the whole day till, Zhao Yao stood up and stretched his back before heading for the rooftop of the Cat Wonderland.

“Business officially resumes tomorrow. Our preparations are almost done so everyone can go back and rest for today,” Zhao Yao instructed as he thought, “Today marks the end of the month as well. I should go back to the Cat Island later to add experience points and draw some rewards.”

After a few minutes, Matcha, Elizabeth, Dust Ball, and the other supercats gathered on the rooftop one by one, as if they were waiting for something.

Shortly after, a huge shadow descended from the sky as it flapped its wings, slowly landing on the rooftop.

It was the Tri-headed Golden Dragon that Cat Sage turned into. However, the Tri-headed Golden Dragon was wrapped in layers of black cloth at that moment to cover its blinding golden scales.

Next, the supercats lined up to sit on the dragon's back one by one, as if they were boarding a shuttle bus.

In fact, it was technically a shuttle service as the Extradimensional Belly was now sealed off and unpassable to contain Project X. Instead, Zhao Yao allowed Cat Sage to turn into the Tri-headed Golden Dragon to fetch the supercats to and from work every night. Zhao Yao himself also sat on the Tri-headed Golden Dragon to return to Cat Island.

Once they returned to Cat Island, Milk Tea and Yellow Mud could be seen waiting from afar. When they saw the Tri-headed Golden Dragon landing, they immediately ran up and jumped onto the dragon's back to hug Matcha.

"Brother Matcha, Brother Matcha!" Milk Tea asked worriedly, "Are you guys okay? I was so worried!"

"Don't hug me!" Matcha screamed, scaring Milk Tea away. "What's wrong, Brother Matcha?"

"You touched my wounds," Matcha pointed at his broken nail and said, "This is my battle scar from my duel with Project X. That guy snapped off my nail just like that. Luckily I reacted quickly and bit the fur on his chest to make him retreat."

Matcha said in a serious tone, "Project X is one formidable cat. He's the strongest opponent I have met in my whole life... Ahhhh!!!!" He screamed as he tumbled down from the dragon's back.

"Get lost." Elizabeth kicked Matcha off with her leg as she smiled at Milk Tea and said, "Milk Tea, remember, you can only believe half a sentence out of the 10 Matcha says. You should listen to less of his b*llshit from now on."

Milk Tea stared at Elizabeth indignantly and retorted like a devoted fanboy, "I don't want to hear you badmouth Brother Matcha. Brother Matcha won't lie to me!" As he said that, Milk Tea went on to chase after Matcha, who had tumbled off.

Elizabeth shook her head. "This foolish child."

"Let's go, let's go!" Rice Cake clambered down the dragon back gleefully, "Time to play some mobile games!"

Cheese followed closely behind her as he shouted, “Slowly, Rice Cake, be careful not to fall while running.”

Ares climbed down slowly, carrying the freezer containing Sphynx cat’s body and his memorial photo. Using the -60 degrees temperature of the Deflective Field, Ares was able to preserve Sphynx cat’s dead body in perfect condition.

Lucifer and Fūjin, together with their underlings, followed behind Ares from a distance. They stared at Ares and the freezer on his back in astonishment. They felt as if a chilling breeze had passed through them.

Chapter 816: Calculating Payout and Drawing Rewards

Fūjin suddenly screamed out, “I think Sphynx cat looked me in the eye just now!”

Lucifer screamed after him, “Ah!!!” The group of cats huddled together at once.

Uncle Egg bit Roly Poly’s tail and tried to drag him down. However, Roly Poly, who was robbed of his intelligence, clung onto the dragon back as he was too scared to climb down.

Staring at the foolish look on Roly Poly’s face, Uncle Egg could not help but sigh, “Sir Roly, how did you become like this. What should the Roly Party of the Royal Cat Police Force do now? Which cat can save a building from its imminent collapse? Who can save this country from its crisis?”

Meow! Roly Poly suddenly spotted a seagull nearby and launched forward, nearly crashing to the floor.

“Be careful, Sir Roly!” Uncle Egg was shocked and immediately bit on Roly Poly’s tail, saving him in time.

Uncle Egg said to Zhao Yao anxiously, “Zhao Yao! Zhao Yao! Roly Poly is like a madman now. I can’t look after him myself. Could you send a few more cats over?”

Zhao Yao thought for a bit and nodded. After all, most of the facilities on the Cat Island were designed for supercats. For Roly Poly, who had no intelligence to speak of now, it was indeed dangerous. It would be troublesome if he accidentally got electrocuted or things like that.

Hence, Zhao Yao arranged for a few supercats to take turns looking after Roly Poly round the clock.

Next, Zhao Yao returned to his parents’ villa by the beach and lay down on a sofa, intending to wait for midnight to come so that he could calculate his monthly payout.

Shortly after, however, Ares came over to put down the freezer. He could not use it for 24 hours straight and he needed to charge it at some point.

Zhao Yao placed the freezer behind him and started playing phone games while waiting.

Time flew by and in the blink of an eye, midnight had come. The time to calculate monthly payouts had come.

However, Zhao Yao glanced at the panel in the Book and at his phone as he thought to himself, “I should finish this round before calculating the payouts. It doesn’t matter if I’m a few minutes late anyway.”

Just as Zhao Yao wanted to continue playing his phone game, the freezer behind suddenly shook violently.

Zhao Yao’s body tensed up as he turned around and stared at the freezer. He said in a careful tone, “Sphinx cat? You came back to see us?”

He thought for a bit and said, “Rest in peace, Sphinx cat. I will calculate my monthly payouts after this round. Once my capabilities surpass that of Project X, I will bring you back to life.” Seeing as the freezer stopped moving, Zhao Yao continued playing his game in peace.

However, Sphinx cat’s black and white photo suddenly dropped on Zhao Yao’s head, scaring him into standing up.

“What the f*ck.”

“Okay, okay, I will calculate the payout now, alright,” Zhao Yao rubbed his head and said, “You should go back soon. It’s not good to come back every now and then. I will let Ares burn more catmint grass for you tomorrow.”

Glancing at the freezer that had stopped moving again, Zhao Yao sighed in relief and thought, “Is this for real, there’s actually such a power in this world?”

Glancing at the cup that had fallen from the strong gusts of wind, Zhao Yao thought, “It must be a coincidence. The wind is strong by the sea. It’s very normal, Zhao Yao.”

However, he lost the desire to continue playing games so Zhao Yao focused his attention on the panel in the Book to check his monthly payout.

First was obviously the Cat Wonderland’s returns. After deducting the operating costs, the profit for the month was 5,165,439 dollars, which amounted to 103 000 worth of experience points. He tapped on it to redeem the points and start the monthly mission for the next month.

When he saw this, Zhao Yao broke into a wide grin, “Opening the Cat Wonderland is indeed profitable. This gives 10 300*2 experience points at once.”

Zhao Yao quickly tapped to redeem it. The experience points board on the panel immediately became:

Book: Level 7 (21 777/50 000)

Matcha: Level 8 (7810/50 000)

Elizabeth: Level 9 (2600/100 000)

Dust Ball: Level 9 (1900/100 000)

Ares: Level 8 (1900/50 000)

Lucifer: Level 7 (2000/20 000)

Sphynx Cat: Level 7 (2000/20 000)

Catherine: Level 6 (0/10 000)

“Can I level up my supercats now?” Zhao Yao thought for a while. He was not in a rush to level up now so he went on to look at the catmint market’s payout.

The catmint market had reached a shocking 45% of the market share, giving Zhao Yao a total of 45 consecutive chances to draw rewards.

“Amazing!” Zhao Yao’s heart burst with happiness at the payout and immediately grabbed Red Packet, hugging him in his arms as he drew a ten-combo first.

10 experience points earned

50 experience points earned

5 experience points earned

50 experience points earned

1 packet of Spicy Cat Strips (10 strips)

1 packet of Spicy Cat Strips (10 strips)

1 packet of Spicy Cat Strips (10 strips)

Fragments of the Cat Prince Costume

5 experience points earned

10 experience points earned

Seeing the contents of the rewards drawn, Zhao Yao shook his head in dissatisfaction as he quickly drew another ten-combo. He did this for a few times before he used up all his chances to draw rewards.

He gained a total of 650*2 experience points, 7 packets of Spicy Cat Strips (70 strips) and 7 Cat Prince Costume Fragments. He had accumulated (11/80) of the Cat Prince Costume Fragments.

Looking at the rewards drawn this time round, Zhao Yao's face soured. "There are a lot of Spicy Cat Strips but I didn't even draw a single divine weapon. What kind of bad luck is this?"

"I can only wait for the next draw. I must try my best to raise the market share of the catmint market this month."

Zhao Yao turned his attention to the experience points in the Book.

"Which cat should I level up?" Zhao Yao thought, "My plans for now is to develop my business in Jianghai and increase the market share. At the same time, I will continue to complete missions and earn experience points."

"Next, I will be going to America to collect meteorite fragments," Zhao Yao thought to himself. "Once I'm done collecting meteorite fragments, I will gain much more skill points and activate the Book's so-called evolution function."

"Anyway, I don't have any tricky opponents to deal with now. I shall wait till after the next monthly payout to see if I should upgrade the supercats before I go to America."

At that thought, Zhao Yao resisted the urge to level up his supercats. He unlocked his phone again.

Bam!

Zhao Yao grabbed the photo of Sphynx cat that dropped on him and said in exasperation, "Fine, fine, I'll go do missions now, okay?"

...

The next day at Cat Wonderland, every supercat's jaw dropped as they gaped at the cat in front of them.

"What the f*ck, where did this cat come from?"

"The Headless Horseman is truly amazing. He actually managed to get his hands on such a premium quality cat?"

"How much is this newcomer worth? I want to keep her as a mistress!!"

The burning stares of desire from the supercats around Kun Wu made her frown slightly. However, she was assured at the thought of her own superpower.

She followed Matcha's pace obediently as they walked to Zhao Yao's office.

Matcha observed the shocked looks on the supercats around them and his heart sank, "Humph, this YYJH[1] Zhao Yao found outside actually had the gall to come to Cat Wonderland."

...

At the same time, outside Cat Wonderland...

The father ragdoll cat, Caesar, stared at the metal block in front of him and wondered curiously, "When did this sculpture appear?"

At that moment, the mother ragdoll cat, Catherine, walked over and told Caesar, "What are you looking at?" She glanced contemptuously at the mechanical cat in front of her and continued, "Haven't you heard? The female cat that Zhao Yao had a fling with in OX city found her way here. Zhao Yao called her into his office the moment she arrived."

"Ah?" Caesar exclaimed, "Doesn't that mean she's the lamb entering a tiger's den?"

Chapter 817: The Interview and Stealing Cats

“Yeah, exactly,” Catherine said worriedly. “Yet another competitor comes. I told Lizzie to watch out for her but she insists that it’s not an issue...”

Right at that moment, the feline robot in front of Caesar and Catherine moved. Doll trembled as he stared at the Cat Wonderland from afar.

In her mind, the thought of her waiting at the bottom floor while Headless Horseman cuddled Kun Wu made Doll feel really sad.

Right at this moment, the internal telephone in the robot interior rang. It was Kun Wu.

“Kun Wu? When are you coming down?”

“I won’t be coming back tonight. Don’t wait for me. Go home first.”

Du du du du...

Hearing the call end, Doll broke down and sprawled to his knees as he cried out, “No!!!”

“Kun! Wu!”

Headless started singing a melancholic tune, “Snow petals drifting, the North wind whistles, the world ever a boundless...”[1]

Doll was so enraged his voltage scaled to alarming levels, “Headless! Shut up!”

...

In the office, Zhao Yao frowned and said, "Matcha, close the windows. That ghastly screaming is so noisy."

Matcha immediately ran forward and closed the windows for Zhao Yao. Next, he stood at the side and stared at Kun Wu before turning his gaze to Zhao Yao. Looking at back and forth between the two, his eyes narrowed instinctively, "There's definitely a thing going on between them. I must stay here and keep a close watch on the two of them."

Zhao Yao frowned as he glanced at Matcha, "Get out, I want to talk to Kun Wu. You keep watch outside. Don't just let anyone come in."

Hearing his words, Matcha could not help but walk out of the room. However, he dragged his feet as slowly as he could and only hurried off after Zhao Yao glared at him.

Once the door closed, Matcha immediately pricked up his ears and pressed against the door to try and hear what was being said in the room. However, he could not hear anything at all.

"What's going on? Since when was this room so soundproof?"

Matcha was so anxious he started scratching his ears and cheeks in panic. He wanted to find an excuse to go in again and eavesdrop on what they were talking about, but he was scared that Zhao Yao would scold him for that.

At this moment, he felt something bumping against him. Matcha turned and saw Milk Tea staring at him with big round eyes as he asked, "Brother Matcha! What are you doing?"

Matcha's eyes lit up in that instant as he said to Milk Tea, "Milk Tea! Did you come to find Zhao Yao?"

Milk Tea nodded, "I'm looking for Master Zhao to calculate my pay for yesterday's work."

A hint of glee flashed across Matcha's face. "Good, just walk into the room later. Once you're in, stay there for awhile and listen to what Zhao Yao and the cat inside are talking about. Do you understand?"

As he said that, the big orange cat licked the small orange cat's head. The small orange cat nodded and said seriously, "I understand, Brother Matcha!"

...

Zhao Yao stared at Kun Wu and asked curiously, "You want to work at the Cat Wonderland?"

Kun Wu nodded.

Zhao Yao leaned against the executive chair and raised his legs on the table. He looked at Kun Wu condescendingly and asked, "Which school did you graduate from?"

"Er... I..."

"You've never been to school?" Zhao Yao shook his head and sighed, "Then what did you work as previously?"

"Ah... I... I... I..." Kun Wu stuttered, "I helped someone look after a supermarket before."

"So a temporary job." Zhao Yao frowned and continued, "Why did you think of coming to our company to work?"

"Ah..." Kun Wu started breaking out in cold sweat as she thought to herself, "What should I say? I can't think of an answer at all. I didn't know finding a job would be so difficult?"

At that moment, knocks on the door were heard as a small orange cat trotted in and leaped into Zhao Yao's arms.

Zhao Yao patted Milk Tea's head and said, "Milk Tea, wait for a while, I am conducting an interview now."

Milk Tea nodded obediently. "I will wait here."

Hence, Zhao Yao stroked Milk Tea as he looked at Kun Wu again and asked, “Have you thought of an answer?”

Kun Wu replied nervously, “I... I think I will have a bright future if I work here. I want to come here and earn more money.”

Zhao Yao nodded but shook his head the next moment. “You have no education or work experience. It’s a little difficult on our side to hire you.”

“I can do anything!” Kun Wu added, “Washing bowls, sweeping the floor, and cleaning toilets... I will do anything that you ask me to do.”

“We don’t lack workers for these tasks,” Zhao Yao stroked Milk Tea, who was glaring and snapping at Kun Wu.

Kun Wu replied pitifully, “That’s not what you said the last time...”

Zhao Yao pursed his lips. “You mean that time when I touched you? I, the Great Yao, have touched many cats outside. If all of them come here to find a job, won’t this become more like a charity than a Cat Wonderland? Also, if you want to work here, the basic requirement is to consent to being touched.”

Kun Wu was evidently uncomfortable with being touched. “Is it a must to be touched? I just want to rely on my own skills to earn money.”

Zhao Yao scoffed at her and said, “Just leave if you can’t. I don’t need you here.”

Kun Wu was stunned. A flash of hesitation flashed across her face. However, at the thought of Project X, she replied in the end, “Then... alright then.”

Zhao Yao smiled in satisfaction and slapped his thigh. “Sit here.”

A wave of humiliation flashed across Kun Wu’s face. Even then, she still jumped onto Zhao Yao’s lap and curled into a ball.

Zhao Yao stroked the cat on his leg and said happily, “You maintained your cat fur pretty well.”

Kun Wu gritted her teeth in silence.

Zhao Yao said, “You can’t behave like this. The first thing you need to learn about working here is to smile. Come on. Show me a smile.”

Kun Wu forced out a smile on her face.

“Not bad.” Zhao Yao stroked the horn on Kun Wu’s head and said, “I will call Elizabeth over in a moment. She will train you properly. You will learn a lot from her. Don’t worry about the money. Our employee benefits are very good here at Cat Wonderland. As long as you work hard for the next two years, you will earn enough to return to your hometown to buy a house. Until then, find an honest and reliable partner cat to spend the rest of your live with.”

Zhao Yao gloated secretly when he saw Kun Wu agreeing absentmindedly. He asked Sheriff beneath his feet telepathically, “How is it? What else is she still thinking of?”

Sheriff replied, “It’s still about Project X. It seems like she can feel Project X’s presence and desperately wants to see Project X.”

Zhao Yao nodded and stared at Kun Wu curiously. He thought to himself, “Is that so? In that case, I’ll let her stay at Cat Wonderland first. Anyway I know her motive, she will definitely cooperate with me and abide by my rules.”

Of course, Kun Wu did not know that her actions were under Zhao Yao’s scrutiny. That was how she let herself be touched all over and came fully under his control at this moment.

Zhao Yao let Kun Wu wait there for a while as he turned to Milk Tea and asked, “Milk Tea, what are you here for?”

Milk Tea replied, “Master Zhao! Master Zhao! Yellow Mud and I cleaned up a huge area yesterday...”

...

Matcha, who had been waiting outside, finally saw Milk Tea come out. He immediately asked, “Milk Tea, what did they talk about?”

Milk Tea stared at Matcha. His heart skipped a beat as he thought to himself, “D*mn, I was chatting so happily with Master Zhao at the end that I forgot what they said before that. What were they talking about?”

Seeing the dazed look on Milk Tea’s face, Matcha asked again, “What is it, Milk Tea?”

Milk Tea frowned deeply as he tried to recall the conversation in the office. At last, he forced out a reply. “Too much was said. I only remember something like, ‘I can do anything’... a lot of touching...’sit up here yourself’... calling Elizabeth over in a moment...”

When he spoke till the end, Milk Tea was frowning so hard his small eyebrows scrunched up into a ball of fur, “I can’t remember anymore.”

At the side, Matcha’s mouth was already hanging wide open, aghast at what he had just heard.

The next moment he suddenly reacted over and immediately covered Milk Tea’s mouth, saying, “You didn’t tell me anything and you didn’t hear anything. Do you understand?”

“This is big news! Breaking news!” Matcha raved in his mind as he ran out, “Has Zhao Yao finally unleashed his bestial instincts? What should I do? Aren’t I in the biggest danger now? No, I must let Elizabeth and the rest know about this and come up with a plan together.”

...

At the same time, in the pet hospital in the military base.

A medical intern slowly walked past a ward and glanced at Mango, who was unconscious. The corners of Mango’s lips revealed a smile.

“Is this the Headless Horseman’s cat?”

He walked towards the ward, but was stopped immediately. He took out his work identification card and said, "I'm here to change his dressing."

He entered the ward the next moment and stroked the unconscious Mango. He spoke to his hidden ear microphones, "I found him. You guys think of a way to deal with the security."

In a room one kilometer away, a foreigner with brown hair and blue eyes replied, "Got it."

In the security office, the surveillance screens flashed before being replaced by videos.

"Done. You only have 20 seconds at most. Use it well."

The medical intern in the ward nodded. He opened his mouth and spat out a British Shorthair that was the same size as Mango.

Chapter 818: Sealing Cats

After swapping Mango with the British Shorthair, the medical intern swallowed Mango into his stomach.

When he was done, he tidied his appearance and walked out as if nothing happened.

He avoided the crowd and walked to a secluded corner. His body moved and he disappeared into green smoke in a flash.

He flipped over the outer wall and took off his clothes, throwing them into the dumpster. Next, he changed into the fresh set of clothes he had prepared beforehand. His body transformed and he turned into a young lady with long, black hair who skipped happily in the streets.

A voice speaking English rang out from the earphones and asked, "How is it?"

"I got it." The young lady smiled. "It's the Headless Horseman's cat. We got a big catch this time."

"YES!!" The voice on the other end of the earphones cheered in joy. "Retreat as planned. I will be waiting for you on the ship."

The young lady with long, straight black hair patted her stomach and walked off in delight.

In the hospital, the nurse walked into Mango's ward. She frowned when she saw the blue cat. "Mango? Why do I feel like you became fatter?"

She stroked the other party's body and did a simple examination. The next moment her face changed as she realised, "Something is wrong..."

"Has this cat been switched with a fake?"

Instantly, countless government apostles rushed into the hospital. The news spread up to the higher authorities quickly and reached Uncle Ho in no time.

Uncle Ho shook his head. He gave out orders to investigate the incident thoroughly at all costs while dialling Zhao Yao's number on his phone.

...

On the Cat Island, Milk Tea ran around in the thick forest, climbing up onto a tree branch.

He turned to look behind him. Yellow Mud was looking around frantically as he screamed, "Milk Tea! Stop playing!"

"It's almost time to go to work!"

"Quick come out! Cat Sage is going to leave!"

Milk Tea laughed delightedly. "He can't find me!" He jumped off the tree branch the next moment and ran further in into the thick forest.

He skipped along happily until he reached a valley-like place.

Milk Tea wondered curiously, "Eh? Did this place exist on the Cat Island last time?" He sniffed at the entrance of the valley and a familiar smell came to his mind.

“It’s the smell of Brother Ares, Sister Dust Ball, and Master Zhao. Are they playing together?” Milk Tea’s eyes lit up as he ran into the valley, treading gingerly. He saw that deep in the valley, more than 10 supercats were huddled together with Zhao Yao, as if they were looking at something.

Dust Ball opened all five dimension portals, which were situated at different positions and in different directions.

The supercats gathered around the dimension portals and could clearly hear what was going on in the Extradimensional Belly.

As Fūjin howled out gusts of strong winds, hundreds of Project Xs were fighting around wildly.

With every punch and kick, every Project X could make the air around them reverberate from the impact, making it look like a thunderstorm.

Especially at the speed at which all the Project Xs were fighting, it was as if thousands of bolts of lightning were booming at the same time. Even Zhao Yao was not able to clearly see many of their moves.

Ares was shocked. “This Project X... He could actually carry on training in these moments?”

Dust Ball explained, “Mango’s ability should be one that expels things from his body. However, it is not a permanent effect. Once he is out of the range of his powers, he should be able to recover slowly. Project X’s superpowers are basically still intact so he can still train hard.

Sphinx cat’s training abilities coupled with Sang Biao’s evolution abilities sped up his improvement by leaps and bounds.

Red Packet said anxiously, “Then let’s just kill him now. Judging from the rate at which he’s training now, he is too terrifying. If he manages to escape, he will be undefeatable.”

“No, we haven’t recovered Roly Poly and Sphinx cat, so we can’t kill him yet,” Zhao Yao shook his head and said, “Don’t worry, Red Packet. Since he hasn’t managed to escape from the dimension portal, it would be useless no matter how much he trains his body. Using physical prowess to surpass the boundaries of the dimension portal is too crazy an idea.”

Ares stared menacingly at Project X, who was still training intensely. “But we can’t let him live so easily. Logically speaking, he didn’t even eat anything. How is he still able to train this hard?”

“It’s photosynthesis,” Dust Ball said. “This guy’s body is continuously evolving to adapt to his environment. He can now absorb the light energy from the Light of Creation in the Extradimensional Belly. That’s why he split into so many clones. It helps him to absorb more light energy.”

The Light of Creation promotes biological growth more than that of normal light sources, so it’s normal that he can continue training after absorbing the light energy from the Light of Creation.”

At the thought of this, Dust Ball’s gaze towards Project X became even more hostile.

“Taking up my space, absorbing my light, and defecating and peeing in my stomach... This wretched cat...”

Zhao Yao stroked his chin and thought, “We really can’t let him continue training like this or else it will be even more troublesome to let him out and restore Roly Poly in future.”

Zhao Yao thought for a moment before he said, “Dust Ball, Ares, Fūjin... Come with me. We shouldn’t let him have such a good time training.”

Once he said that, Zhao Yao left with the supercats to make some preparations that would allow them to disrupt Project X’s training.

Not long after they left, the bushes nearby rustled as Milk Tea walked out carefully. He glanced at the five dimension portals and walked towards them curiously.

“Eh? Why are there so many strange cats in the Extradimensional Belly?” Milk Tea stared at Project X who was behind the dimension portal and asked curiously, “Hey, what are you guys doing in the Extradimensional Belly?”

Project X stopped suddenly when he heard the voice ringing through the void of space. He asked, “Who is it?”

“I am Milk Tea. Who are you? Why are you staying in the Extradimensional Belly?” Milk Tea asked curiously. “And why do all of you look exactly the same as each other?”

Project X narrowed his eyes slightly as he said, “I am the God of Cats, Project X.” He continued in a bewitching tone, “Milk Tea right, do you want to become strong? Do you want to be the strongest supercat in the world, change your destiny, and change this world?”

When he heard no response, Project X continued again, “As long as you become my disciple, I can pass you countless divine powers. You will have the power to surpass all others and defeat all the powers in the world. You could even live on forever in the universe.”

Milk Tea replied eagerly, “Then can you find my mother?”

“Mother?”

“Yeah,” Milk Tea said, “My mother disappeared after she went on a holiday. Can you find her for me?”

“This... hmm...” Project X hesitated, “Well, it’s not impossible. As long as I can come out, I will definitely be able to find your mother after some time.”

Milk Tea retorted suspiciously, “You can’t actually find her right?”

“No, how can that be? I am the God of Cats,” Project X said. “As long as I am out...”

Milk Tea cut him off, “Then come out.”

Project X cursed, “What the hell...”

Annoyed, Milk Tea replied, “You can’t even come out and you call yourself the God of Cats.”

Chapter 819: Cat Pursuit

Project X suppressed his anger, changed the topic and said, “Change your request. Besides this, I can agree to other requests, whether it is increasing your strength, superpower, intelligence, or knowledge... I can help you.”

Milk Tea tilted his head, remembered Matcha’s words and said, “Do you have money?”

“Money?” Project X said indignantly. “What’s the use of that waste paper? We can obtain anything we want by using our superpower. Money is only used by trashy humans.”

“So, you don’t have money.” Milk Tea said, “So you are a useless otaku. Brother Gaia was earning money everyday by playing computer games at home.”

The green veins on Project X’s head almost exploded and he felt a strong urge to strangle Milk Tea.

Milk Tea turned to leave and discovered Zhao Yao behind him, giving him a fright.

“Master Yao.”

Zhao Yao looked at Milk Tea helplessly. After having the strength of six supercats and complemented by Sphynx cat’s strength, his constitution reached superman level. He was able to see minute details within a range of a few hundred meters.

He discovered Milk Tea’s strange behavior and wanted to see what Milk Tea was doing and Project X’s reaction.

“Project X is indeed unable to go out.” He turned to look at Milk Tea and said, “Milk Tea, you are not to come here. Do you understand?”

“Oh!”

Zhao Yao looked at Ares and said, “Inform the rest that the Prison Valley is a forbidden area on Cat Island. Nobody is allowed entry without my permission.”

After Milk Tea was chased away, Zhao Yao and the cats came to the Dimension Portal again. Looking at Project X, Zhao Yao sneered and said, “Let him gain some clarity.”

“Let me try first!” Dust Ball stepped out and blew out a mouthful of air. She continued blowing out the air which seemed to be connected to another Dimension.

She was blowing out air from the Extradimensional Belly.

“Let me try too!” Ares shouted and directed the Deflective Field into the Dimension Portal. The temperature of the Extradimensional Belly dropped rapidly to  $-60^{\circ}\text{C}$ .

The Extradimensional Belly became almost like a vacuum.

Project X’s body degenerated like a dried corpse. He became sour and huddled as his heartbeat slowed down. The blood vessels underneath the skin and his organs became distorted. He was adapting to a harsh environment.

Zhao Yao looked at Project X as his powerful senses kicked in. He raised his brow and thought, “Good riddance, he has a strong will for survival and is adapting to a harsh climate.”

Zhao Yao ordered, “Dust Ball and Ares, both of you are to guard Project X. Don’t give him any materials or energy. If there are abnormalities, inform me immediately.”

Zhao Yao left the Prison Valley with a heavy heart.

Project X’s will for survival and adaptability went beyond Zhao Yao’s expectation. He was evolving even in a near vacuum environment.

“It’s a pity the Light of Creation is part of the Extradimensional Belly and Dust Ball is unable to it shut off.” Zhao Yao shook his head and thought, “We have to earn more experience points to surpass Project X.

When Zhao Yao thought of Project X, who was evolving and improving all the time, he had no mood to play computer games. Instead, he intended to help the apostles and supercats in Jianghai city.

Uncle Ho called Zhao Yao, “Zhao Yao... sorry... we lost Mango...”

Zhao Yao hung up the cell phone and he smiled grimly, "Very good, I intend to earn some experience points and a mission came right up."

A minute later, a black figure flew up from Cat Island into the sky, breaching supersonic speed. He broke out of the clouds and hurtled towards Jianghai city. It was Zhao Yao wearing Cheese's cloak.

...

When Zhao Yao arrived at the hospital, the crime scene was surrounded by a large group of apostles and workers.

They got a fright when they saw Zhao Yao.

"Who is this guy wearing a hilarious mask?"

"Where did this mad man come from?"

"Chase him out."

Uncle Ho quickly came over, shooed everyone away, and brought Zhao Yao to the crime scene.

Uncle Ho scrutinized Zhao Yao's costume. Everything was the same except the Halloween mask which negated his sombre aura.

Uncle Ho could not resist asking, "Why are you wearing that?"

Zhao Yao said unhappily, "I lost my Invisibility supercat when I fought with Project X. I can't make my head invisible. What do you recommend?"

Uncle Ho said, "At least wear something normal."

"I forgot about this when I hurried over here. I didn't prepare at all." Zhao Yao was upset as he said, "I only had this Halloween mask and my sister's silk stockings. Do you think I had a choice?"

“Okay, okay, okay.” Uncle Ho felt that it was better to wear his sister’s silk stockings but he did not want to antagonize Zhao Yao as the police had lost Mango.

Uncle Ho brought Zhao to the hospital ward and said, “Someone disguised himself as a doctor to replenish Mango’s medicine. He replaced Mango with a British Short and altered the surveillance images. He must have a hacker apostle.”

Zhao Yao lowered his head to scrutinize the blue cat and sniffed the cat’s odor. “Why is there the smell of French fries?” He frowned and sniffed some more to differentiate the smells. “Spicy soup, Maocai, chafing dish, spicy hotpot... a bunch of food and the subtle fragrance of a woman.”

After confirming the smell, Zhao Yao flashed and vanished.

“I am looking for Mango. You will continue with your investigation.”

Mission: Find Mango

Mission Objective: Find Mango

Reward: 5000 experience points

Mission Penalty: Nil

...

On board a cargo ship, a young girl with long black hair looked at the receding coastline and heaved in relief.

Beside the young girl, a foreign man patted his shoulders and said, “Don’t worry Aurora. We are out in the sea, the Chinese won’t be able to find us.”

Aurora sneered and said, “I sacrificed my long hidden identity for this mission and ran the risk of being pursued by the Headless Horseman. I hope you can pay the price.”

“Don’t worry, Star Cats treat his friends generously,” A man with a hawk nose said. “Moreover, this is the Headless Horseman’s cat. You won’t be disappointed with the price. You have to let us verify the cat’s superpower.”

He rubbed his palms and said with great anticipation, “The cat was treated with a lot of resources as he was wounded in the fight between Headless Horseman and Project X. His superpower must be very strong.”

Aurora nodded and followed the hawk-nosed man into the cabin. More than ten warriors followed behind and stood guard outside the door.

Aurora spat out Mango from her stomach. The hawk-nosed man was not repulsed by the saliva drenched Mango and said to a supercat at the side, “It’s your turn to do your job.”

Chapter 820: The Interrogation and the Search

The guy with hawked nose looked at the American Shorthair.

He pressed his phone and said, “Place it into the explosion-proof box. And don’t forget to put on the electric shock collars.”

Mango, who was unconscious, had an electric shock collar placed on him and he was then placed into an explosion-proof box. The box’s defense layers could prevent a majority of powers.

After doing all of this, the supercat squat in front of the explosion-proof box and spoke to Mango. “Hey, wake up. We are home.”

When the American Shorthair saw that Mango was still sleeping, he shook his head and shouted to Mango telepathically. “Wake up now! It is not time for you to sleep!”

After screaming for awhile, Mango opened his eyes finally and looked at his surrounding environment in a daze.

The American Shorthair spoke in an alluring voice. “Hi, you can call me Charlie. There is no need to be afraid. We mean no harm.”

Mango purred.

Charlie nodded satisfyingly and spoke on the phone. “Purring is a cat’s way of showing friendliness. It looks like he is easy to communicate to.”

As sound could not pass through the tightly sealed explosion-proof box, Charlie spoke to Mango through his consciousness. Therefore, he was not afraid that Mango would hear him speak.

The guy with hawked nose and Aurora were overjoyed to hear that.

The guy with hawked nosed said, “Whatever Headless Horseman is offering him, we will give double. We must get him over to our side.”

“I know.” Charlie looked at Mango and said, “We are the Star Cats from the United States. Do you know about the Star Cats? It is the biggest superpower organization in the world. In our organization, humans are not the only leaders. To us, cats and humans are equals and our founders are the nine strongest supercats.

In Star Cats, supercats are not tools used by humans. We are buddies. Any actions that discriminate against cats will be punished severely.

Mango purred again.

Charlie raised his eyebrows. “He seems to like Star Cats.”

“YES!” the guy with hooked nose said, “Come on, Charlie!”

Charlie nodded and continued with more enthusiasm. “Star Cats aim to free the world’s supercats. In the country that you were in, there is a discrimination against cats. Cats do not have freedom and have been living under oppression.

We have heard that you and your friends have been under living under Headless Horseman's exploitation, torture, and threats. That's why we are here to save you."

Mango purred again.

"Erm." Charlie thought about it and said, "You don't have to be afraid. We have left China. Headless Horseman will not be able to capture you. You are safe. Is there anything you want to say?"

Mango purred again.

Finally, Charlie felt that something was amiss. Why did the British Shorthair only know how to purr.

He tried to ask, "As long as you are willing to join Star Cats, we can help you create a new identity and get a United States Cat Identification. You will be able to breathe free air and no one will force you to use your powers. You'll get a fresh start..."

Mango: "Meow?"

Charlie's face fell and raged. "Do you even understand what I am talking about?"

Mango: "Meow?"

Charlie yelled, "Are you an idiot?"

Mango purred again.

Charlie was stunned when he saw Mango purring and rubbing against the box.

The guy with hooked nose asked, "How is it Charlie? What opinions did he give?"

"Nothing!" Charlie was angered. "This cat only knows how to purr. He doesn't have any intelligence!"

“What?” The guy with hawked nose heard and his face turn cold. All the soldiers raised their guns and pointed at Aurora.

Aurora raised her hands and said, “Hey! Don’t point the gun at me. This cat is really Headless Horseman’s cat!”

The guy who hawked nose said menacingly. “Then why does he not have intelligence?”

“How do I know?” Aurora said angrily. “Maybe he hurt his brain? Maybe he is pretending to be dumb? Ask your interpreter to ask carefully.”

Charlie’s eyes lit up and said, “Yeah, you are right. The explosion-proof box is sound proof, for me to hear him purr, he can communicate through supercat’s consciousness. He has to be a supercat. It is just that he has lose his intelligence.”

He thought of this and said, “Try to see if he is faking it or he is really dumb. If he is really dumb, it may be more advantageous to us.”

He asked, “Hi, do you remember what is your power?”

“Meow? Meow?”

“Power! What is your power? Do you want to try it?”

...

At the seaside, as the wind blew, a figure slashed across the atmosphere and appeared on the surface of the ocean.

Zhao Yao sniffed the area thoroughly and frowned. “No scent left? They left by the ocean?” He looked at the vast ocean and frowned harder. “Now, there is a problem...”

No matter how strong his sense of smell was, there was no way he could chase them on the ocean.

Zhao Yao phoned Uncle Ho and reported his location.

Uncle Ho said, "... Got it. We will inform the Marine to help."

However, Zhao Yao did not place all his hopes on Uncle Ho. "Who should I ask for help?"

Zhao Yao thought of Cat King of the South, however, Li Li had been stripped of her powers too. He needed to completely defeat Project X for Li Li to recover.

He flashed and soared across the sky again. He held onto his helmet and flew back to Cat Wonderland.

...

In Cat Wonderland, a University girl with pink hair hugged Elizabeth blissfully.

She rubbed Elizabeth's tummy and said happily. "Elizabeth, have you been eating a lot? There is a lot of meat on your tummy."

Elizabeth frowned and swept her tail onto the University girl's face. She said angrily. "Stupid human. If there is no flesh on the tummy, can it still be called a tummy?"

Kun Wu was in the arms of another girl next to the university girl. "Wow, look this cat is so special. The horn on her head feels so soft. It is so cool."

The pink haired girl reached her hand over and touched Kun Wu's butt. She exclaimed, "Wow, it is so soft. It feels softer than Elizabeth's."

Kun Wu asked miserably. "When are they going to stop?"

Elizabeth spoke in an experienced tone. "You can't endure it already? Most of the customers are like this. They love to rub your tummy and butt. It's okay if they do it softly, however, if it is too rough, you can shout and give them a warning."

Then, Elizabeth let out a yell. The pink haired girl let go immediately and stroked Elizabeth's head with concern. "What is wrong Elizabeth? Did that hurt?"

Elizabeth looked at Kun Wu and said, "See, these guys are easy to control. You can make them do different things with different screams."
