

Am I A God 841

Chapter 841: Hunted

When he saw Wang Coco like this, Zhao Yao was alarmed. Would she get rid of Elizabeth scarf's effects like this?

Zhao Yao touched her head and comforted her. "It's okay. Just don't talk about it."

Wang Coco was better and she looked at Zhao Yao apologetically. "I'm sorry Zhao Yao. I cannot speak about it. However, if you join the Star Cats and you are under Arthas, you will know."

"It's okay." Zhao Yao rubbed Wang Coco's head and thought in his mind, he should just knock her unconscious. It would be beneficial to his plan.

Wang Coco lowered her face shyly.

Lightning was bored of this. "Why are they still touching each other? Is there going to be an end?"

"Humans are so troublesome." Dust Ball said in disgust. "They spend all their time touching each other."

"Will Zhao Yao bring this woman back?" Catherine said, "The houses on Cat Island are already tight enough. Now, in addition to cats, he is going to bring humans back too?"

All the other supercats agreed.

Then, Zhao Yao suddenly reached out his hand and pressed onto Coco's head, making her unconscious.

All the supercats who saw this were surprised.

Ares asked, “What is Zhao Yao doing?”

Lightning thought about it and said, “Unless Zhao Yao wants to knock her unconscious and...”

Zhao Yao could not hear the supercat’s private chat and he looked outside the mansion.

“Since there is no useful information from Wang Coco, then I shall have to try it myself.”

Zhao Yao still thought that he had entered a form of dream or illusion. After all, the powers that Wang Coco had showcased, both duplicating multiple powers or using powers when there was a power ban. All these were beyond the limits.

“Let’s look at the size first.” Then, Zhao Yao’s body flashed and he grabbed onto Fish Ball, who was hiding in the bush, and charged out of the mansion.

Every step he took, was several meters. In an blink of an eye, he had traveled a few hundred meters.

But, after running for several minutes, which was about a thousand meters, Zhao Yao realized that there was no longer any changes in his position from the mansion. The view of the city was like background picture, no matter how he far ran, he was not approaching the city.

“I knew it. There is something wrong.” Zhao Yao stopped and saw that he was still in the same spot. He said coldly. “Dream? Or is it an illusion?”

Then, the sky grew bright and endless light shone onto Zhao Yao. It was like the heavens were looking down upon him. An intense pressure was placed on Zhao Yao.

Ares, Dust Ball, Lightning, and Fūjin’s fur stood up, as they narrowed their eyes and snarled at the sky.

“Here already?” Zhao Yao turned Elizabeth back into a Ragdoll cat and changed his power into Time Freeze. He had to be sure. Zhao Yao was very wary.

Then, in the raging winds, there was a frustrated yell. Wang Coco came over and raged. “Zhao! Yao!”

Zhao Yao sighed, "Women."

Wang Coco flew over like a breeze and raged at Zhao Yao. "Zhao Yao! How dare you use an illusion on me? Good job."

Zhao Yao laughed. "I am great. Besides, you fell for me. Now, you are blaming me for being too handsome. This isn't right." Although he was smiling, deep inside he frowned. "It's Wang Coco? What is happening? Arthas is still hiding? Isn't he too cautious."

Upon hearing Zhao Yao, Wang Coco laughed. "I see you have some tricks up your sleeve. Zhao Yao. Today I will let you know that there are always people better than you."

"Wind!"

As Wang Coco stretched out her hand, a tornado which was several thousand meters tall was formed. In sand and stones spiral, there were also several trees, huge stones, and even a few roofs. They were all swept up by the tornado.

When the people in the mansion saw the tornado, they screamed in terror.

"Tornado!"

"Edward! What are you doing? Why are you doing this?"

"Stop it! The house is about to collapse!"

All the guest stares at a fat white man in anger.

However, he shook his hands and said innocently. "It isn't me. I did not activate my powers." Then, when he tried to stop the tornado, he realized that he could not activate the power.

"Powers are gone!"

“It is the power ban again!”

“What is going on! Weren’t they caught?”

Zhao Yao heard the commotion in the mansion and he started pondering. He avoided the tornado easily and attacked Wang Coco.

Then, Zhao Yao flashed behind Wang Coco and punched. As the wind stopped, his fist passed through Wang Coco’s body like she was a phantom.

“Zhao Yao!” Wang Coco turned and laughed coldly. “You have no idea how strong I am. Angering me will be the thing that you will regret most in your life.”

Then, she blew at Zhao Yao.

He recalled what happened to the leader of black robed and he did not take it lightly. He used Cheese’s flying powers and retreated quickly to avoid the breath.

“Hey, you are too revengeful. All I did was to touch your head. At most, I will let you touch mine.”

“Ah!” “Zhao Yao!”

Zhao Yao took the chance and fed Cheese a Cat Spicy Strip and wore the cloak.

“Tornado, invincible towards physical attacks, turn people old... And recovery powers? Or is this a dream and they are controlling the dream.”

Then, Wang Coco chased him. “Zhao Yao! There is no escape!”

Red laser light shot out of Wang Coco’s eyes and every where the laser shot across, the air burnt and the grass turned charcoal.

However, with Zhao Yao’s quick reaction, before the laser shot out, he dodged it.

“Another power... But, I seem to get the pattern.”

“But, where is Arthas hiding?” Then, Zhao Yao looked up towards the sky.

Wang Coco looked at Zhao Yao fly around in the sky and said coldly. “Even if you can fly a thousand miles, you would not be able to escape...”

Then, in the next dozen of seconds, Wang Coco displayed all kinds of powers. She displayed amazing fighting capabilities and destroyed the entire mansion. All the guest were stunned.

“What! Why does she have my red laser light!”

“And my Shadow Flash. Why does Female Demon of Death have this.”

“Be careful. Don’t go outside. It is too dangerous!”

Chapter 842: Arthas

High up in the air, a cat’s paw was stirring the winds and clouds casually. As the clouds and wind dispersed, the entire mansion’s view was pulled in constantly. Soon, it was showed clearly in front of him.

Beside the cat paw was a black man. “This Zhao Yao, he is very cautious.”

The cat with his paw out was a British Shorthair who had very long whiskers. His eyes were half closed and there was a pendant on his neck. Looking at the pendant, it was a meteorite fragment.

He was one of the nine elder cats in Star Cats. He was Arthas.

“Even if he is cautious, you still have to consider the difference in powers.” Arthas spoke with confidence. “In here, even if he is a tyrant, he will have to bow down.” He spoke in fluent English.

On the battlefield, Wang Coco was attacking and chasing Zhao Yao. It looked like Zhao Yao was running around like a pitiful rat.

“Of course.” The black man smiled and bowed. He was not very concerned about the intruder too and said, “Arthas, I am here because the area near the beach has not been peaceful. The Divine Fire Palace got hold of a supercat that can control sand. As long as the cat is near the beach, it is almost impossible to kill. Furthermore, countless apostles can borrow his powers and our army has been defeated...”

Arthas’s eyes were half closed and he looked like he was about to fall asleep anytime. He said calmly. “I am listening.”

The black man stopped and said, “Dragon from the Pacific base has been defeated by Headless Horseman and is under investigation. The Union’s intent is to send another two Natural Disaster Representatives to support the Pacific base and beach.”

“Humph, what about the Headless Horseman?” Arthas laughed coldly. “He came to fight at our doorstep. Are we going to pretend nothing happened? Those few cats have been getting more and more timid. Why not disband and do charity instead?”

Evidently, the secret that Zhao Yao was the Headless Horseman had not gotten out yet. Uncle Ho and his team had been keeping it a secret. At least foreign influences like Star Cats did not know about it.

The black man was thinking reluctantly. “Isn’t it all because you cats couldn’t come up with a conclusion after the discussions. What can we do about it?”

“What?” Then, Arthas opened his eyes and looked at the battlefield in shock.

“Female Demon of Death is so powerful.” In the ruins of the hall, Tom stuck his head out and gasped. “She has so many recovery abilities. Natural Disaster Representatives are strong.”

The ragdoll cat, Selena also said, “Well the human is pretty strong too. That speed and power. I think 99% of the people in this hall are no match for him.”

“It doesn’t matter how powerful he is. Can’t you see that he is being chased around by Female Demon of Death?” Tom shook his head. “I think that he won’t last for long. Besides, where is Cameron?”

The other guest in the hall had similar thoughts. It was that Wang Coco had drawn their attention. The powers that came down one by one, it made all their hearts jump. They were thinking that when they go back, they would have to report this immediately and raised the danger level of the Female Demon of Death.

Meanwhile...

“Zhao Yao! When are you going to stop running?!” Wang Coco blew at Zhao Yao and a vacuum blocked in front of Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao, who was flashing around like a lightning, stopped. He looked at Wang Coco.

“Finally, you have decided to stop running?” There was a red glow in Wang Coco’s eyes and it looked like it could release a destructive energy anytime.

Zhao Yao said calmly. “Wang Coco, do you really think that I can’t defeat you?”

“Hahahaha.” Wang Coco sneered at Zhao Yao and swung her sleeves behind her. “You want to beat me? Do you know what a natural disaster is? What a joke...”

Bam and in the next moment, Zhao Yao appeared behind Coco.

“It is useless. My body...” Wang Coco sneered and wanted to shoot out red laser at Zhao Yao. However, the next moment, she was unconscious.

Sleep Medusa!

As Wang Coco was unconscious, all the surrounding powers stopped. She turned into an experimental object and was grabbed by the throat by Zhao Yao.

When Wang Coco woke up again, she saw Zhao Yao's blood red eyes. "Look at my eyes."

Then, Wang Coco's body jerked and she was controlled. Her body was shivering uncontrollably as she looked fearful. She had entered the horrified state after the forced sleep.

Zhao Yao whispered in her ear. "This is a natural disaster apostle?"

"So weak."

She looked at Zhao Yao and fear was instilled in her heart. She wanted to scream and escape. However, her body was immobilized.

Zhao Yao swung his hands and Wang Coco was thrown like a bomb. She hit a broken wall and fell onto the floor, shattering her bones, leaving her immobilized.

She forced herself to look up and watch Zhao Yao in disbelief. "How could it be? This is in the Dream prison! How could I lose to him? Unless, he is this strong in the physical world?"

Zhao Yao looked towards the sky and said, "Arthas, come down. I can feel that you are above."

As Zhao Yao spoke, there was an explosion in the air and a huge cloud in the shape of a cat appeared on top of the mansion. As the cat look across the people present, they felt a fear from within. Some of them even fell to the floor, shivering.

Then, the cloud cat open its mouth. "Zhao Yao? I never expected you to beat my apostle here. You have great potential and have great powers. Do you want to join Star Cats? You can replace Coco."

"What?" Wang Coco opened her mouth and looked at Zhao Yao with resentment.

Zhao Yao laughed. "Yeah, I can join Star Cats. But I have a request."

"Oh? You are willing to join?" The cloud cat was happy. "Say your request. As long as it is within my capabilities, I will agree."

Upon hearing this, Wang Coco's mouth opened wider. It was like she had lost her soul. "How could this be..."

Zhao Yao said, "Let me be the boss of Star Cats. All nine of you will have to work for me at my shop. All the meteorite fragments have to be mine. If you are agreeable, I would consider joining Star Cats."

There was dead silence. The giant cloud cat did not move and he stared at Zhao Yao with intense pressure.

"Arrogant."

The next moment, the entire sky crashed down on the mansion.

Chapter 843: Dream

What is the sky crashing called?

Arthas presented this sentence vividly.

The winds raged and the clouds were rolling down. The atmosphere was roaring and thunder sounded.

The distance between the sky and the ground was diminishing constantly. It was like a mountain was crashing down.

Upon seeing this, everyone who was present was in shock. Some had their mouths wide open and were quaking like frightened ducks.

The scene was too horrifying. The layers of the atmosphere crashed down like a mountain.

The cats on Zhao Yao were screaming when they saw this.

Zhao Yao stared at the sky that was pressing down on them calmly. He said, "Don't panic. Look at it carefully. It is just clouds." Zhao Yao's eyes scanned across the sky and watched the changes in the atmosphere.

“It is the same power as the one that Wang Coco has. It is the power to control the winds. However, it is just that the area that he controls is bigger and his power has a higher efficiency.”

Zhao Yao analyzed the supernatural phenomena calmly. As the cloud layer got nearer and nearer, he leaped and broke through a layer of the atmosphere with the Cheese cloak. He flew towards the cloud cat.

Upon seeing Zhao Yao flying towards him, the cat closed his palms and the falling clouds turned into several gigantic paws and pressed down on Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao snorted and as there was a golden flash from his body, he passed through the layers of clouds like a shooting star. There was a bam and the gigantic cloud cat was dispersed in an explosion.

Everyone on the floor looked at Zhao Yao who blow up the sky. They were astonished and stared at the golden figure in the sky.

Only Wang Coco was laughing coldly as only she knew what was happening. Thinking of the answer that Zhao Yao gave, she shook her head. “He is asking for death.”

She knew very clearly that they were in Arthas’s dream and how scary he could be.

Dreams were made from biological consciousness. As a psychological master, Arthas could control the consciousness of any living thing. He could even leave a lock in Wang Coco’s consciousness so that she could not betray him.

Arthas could also awaken people’s consciousness in their dreams and use their dreams to form a sub conscious being to fight their conscious.

In the dream, he could use all the supernatural powers to attack them and bring up their pain, fear, misery, and panic. He could deal psychological attacks through dreams.

The more realistic a dream is, the more the person dreaming would accept it and hence, the larger the damage.

So, in this dream, it was incredibly close to reality, except that Arthas's powers were enhanced exponentially.

“In the Dream prison, it is impossible to defeat Arthas. Although dying in dreams is not really death, as long as Arthas keeps attacking and torturing them, their consciousnesses will shatter. The person will become vegetative or they will be exhausted and become venerable...”

At the same time, Zhao Yao, who broke the cloud layer, looked at the higher sky and yelled, “Arthas!”

“Get down!!!”

Bam!

How strong was Zhao Yao's body? How strong were his organs? His lungs exhaled out strongly and blow out a series of air bombs. Everywhere it hit, the air would disperse the clouds and people below could see what was happening in the air.

Tens of thousands of meters above, there were two tiny dots. Zhao Yao narrowed his eyes and he could make out a human and cat figure.

“Is it there?”

Zhao Yao's body halted and the next moment, the Deflective Field covered his body as he charged upwards towards Arthas.

Accelerate! Accelerate! Accelerate!

Zhao Yao was travelling faster than the speed of sound and then there were white trails behind him.

Looking at this, Arthas laughed coldly and he pressed his paw down. Then, the atmosphere condensed and the air between Zhao Yao and Arthas become a thick solid wall.

“Rice Cake!”

Zhao Yao shouted and Rice Cake, who had already eaten the Spicy Cat Strip, flew out and became a silver blade in Zhao Yao's hands.

Om! As the Murasama Blade vibrated at a high speed, Zhao Yao slashed across the wall single handedly. Under the silver blade flashes, the condensed air was split apart and Zhao Yao continued to fly.

Towards Arthas.

Arthas and the black men watched Zhao Yao approach them and had no signs of panicking. They looked at Zhao Yao calmly.

Arthas laughed, "Zhao Yao, look what is this."

Then, his paw flicked and a golden force field appeared in front of Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao raised his eyebrow and slashed. As the blade flashed, the blade moving slower and slower. It was like being trapped in a quagmire.

"Force Field?" Zhao Yao was surprised. "It is a Deflective Field?"

Arthas was casting the power that Zhao Yao had just casted.

Arthas said slowly, "Zhao Yao, there are differences between powers. An ordinary supercat's power will never be comparable to a strong supercat's powers no matter how hard they train. Like the difference between you and Wang Coco or you and me.

You can use so many powers. It is more than enough to deal with the normal apostles.

However, when I deal with you, I am more than enough too."

"Are you?" Zhao Yao hesitated and his gaze turned solemn. He changed his power to Time Freeze and when everything was still, he walked around the large patch of golden light and came in front of Arthas. He slashed down at Arthas.

However, when the blade was about to hit down on Arthas, he saw a golden light blocking it in front of Arthas. Then, Arthas jumped backwards and avoided the attack.

“He can overcome Time Freeze?” Zhao Yao was stunned and his blade slashed towards Arthas continuously.

Then, he saw that there was a silver blade flying out from Arthas. It was a blade that looked exactly like Murasama Blade. Arthas flicked his paw and the blade charged at Zhao Yao with the Deflective Field.

Chapter 844: Fight and Judgment

Bam!

The two Murasama Blades clashed together and many air waves were created from the collision of the blades. In terms of strength, Arthas’s Deflective Field was weaker than Zhao Yao who had used his hands.

However, Zhao Yao was not happy at all. He was very solemn.

“He can even produce another Murasama Blade?”

Zhao Yao was really shocked by this then he saw that Arthas even had the Cheese cloak.

At first, the two blades were chasing each other and Zhao Yao’s physical qualities were better than Arthas. However, Zhao Yao soon realized that Arthas had the same physical abilities as him. They were fighting so fiercely and they fought till the Time Freeze ended and still could not defeat each other.

“This fellow... He doesn’t only duplicate power but also energy?”

Sphynx cat’s powers were just the ability to work out but he could duplicate the result of Sphynx cat’s work out. It was incredible.

Then, Zhao Yao changed to Sleep Medusa.

Then, the moment he looked at Arthas, both of them were forced into a deep sleep and fell down from the sky. They woke up halfway through.

When they looked at each other again, he felt that he had controlled Arthas's body. However, his body was controlled by Arthas too. It was Elizabeth's illusions.

Zhao Yao raised his knife and wanted to slash towards his own chest but Arthas flew over and stopped Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao turned his blade and avoided Arthas. He attacked himself again.

They were controlling each other's body, to attack themselves and stop their opponent. They looked like they were trying to commit suicide while stopping the opponent.

Arthas's voice sounded in the void. "Zhao Yao, there is a limit to powers and meteorite fragments are the key to breaking the limits.

Originally, your powers are stronger than mine. But, with the help of the meteorite fragments, I broke through the limits. Can you feel it? The difference between us?"

Zhao Yao did not speak and the blades continued to clash in the air. With every clash in the air, there were metallic sparks.

"Everything that you have and will have, I will have too. Everything that you never had, I will have too."

While he was talking, the wind roared in the sky, helping Arthas to attack Zhao Yao, which made the battle between them more dangerous.

Within the short exchange of extremely dangerous attacks, Zhao Yao suddenly controlled Arthas and quickly force his eyes closed and the control over him instantly failed.

Arthas's body was still under Zhao Yao's control while Zhao Yao was free of Arthas's control.

“As expected, he may be able to duplicate my superpowers but is unaware of its limitations?”

Elizabeth’s controlling ability allowed her to take complete control over the target she had locked onto. Just now Zhao Yao controlled Arthas and Arthas controlled Zhao Yao, hence Zhao Yao closed Arthas’ eyes to stop his control.

At this stage, Zhao Yao got more confidence in his original conjecture.

“Not only superpowers, he can even freely duplicate my equipment, including the strength obtained from my training. Such a superpower is too unreasonable.”

“The battle produced a big commotion, however, none of the Americans’ troops have come over after so long..”

“Plus the superpowers previously casted by Wang Coco in the Forbidden Devil territory... ”

“There are so many things that are illogical. Is this really a dream or some kind of illusion?”

“If not, this superpower is too strong, even Project X could not be his opponent, or he alone would be able to rule over the world. There would never have been so many events happening. On the other hand, it is very unreasonable for the United States government to not take any action after such a big commotion from the battle.

Zhao Yao thought about all the illogical elements in this battle and looked at Arthas who was temporarily under his control. “This guy might have even learned how to be reborn...”

At this thought, a sharp ray of light from the silver blade was sent over in his direction, splashing blood all over the air directly from Arthas’s body.

Arthas who was killed by one slash, started to regenerate and activated Time Freeze as expected by Zhao Yao.

Arthas opened his eyes and a flash of surprise flashed across his eyes. “I’ve even gained the ability to be reborn. What a big gain.”

At this thought, he returned his move with a slash on Zhao Yao's head.

Zhao Yao also activated regeneration and Time Freeze. The two of them launched themselves at each other again in the world that stayed still.

"I was actually reborn?" Zhao Yao started to doubt his conjecture once again.

"When dealing with the Nightmare Cat, death previously stopped the dream, could this not be a dream but instead some kind of special dimension? Thus I am unable to escape or affect the people outside?"

Even though he was very troubled by the situation he was in, Zhao Yao's Time Freeze clearly stopped after Arthas's since he was reborn later.

Therefore when Arthas ended up immobile, Zhao Yao slashed at Arthas again in the remaining two seconds of time freeze.

Clearly, even though Arthas had the same superpowers as Zhao Yao, in the skillfulness of their application, Arthas was far from Zhao Yao. Thus, this resulted in the miscalculation of timing and was slashed by the blade.

Zhao Yao used this chance to experiment if he would wake up after death and made use of the time difference to give the opponent another slash to kill him effortlessly.

However, after lying in the pool of blood for a few seconds, Arthas appeared in front of Zhao Yao again, unwounded.

He looked at Zhao Yao condescendingly and slowly spoke, "Zhao Yao, don't you understand? I used the meteorite fragments to break through my limitations. My superpowers have already reached the level of god, which is a stage you will be unable to yourself defend against no matter how much wisdom, luck, effort you gain in this lifetime."

"No one can defeat me in my territory. As long as I am willing, even one thought will be able to kill you..."

Looking at Arthas who was able to revive himself after the death from the slash, Zhao Yao said, “I suppose we are in a dream now?”

Arthas was slightly surprised but broke into laughter and said, “Do you realize what is happening? What can you do about it? I am omnipotent in the dream. I cannot be killed; I cannot be defeated, while all of you can only accept my eternal torment here.”

The imprisoning dream created by Arthas was focused on attacking, hence he loved to fight while continuously attacking his opponents with words to weaken their will to fight, creating a atmosphere of despair.

Zhao Yao replied, “Even though this may be a dream but through the fight just now, you’ve showed that you cannot limitlessly modify this dream. Our superpowers are still functional here.”

“So what?” Arthas shrugged his shoulders. “I can freely use all of you guys’ superpower. You guys will never win against me.”

Chapter 845: Hurting Each Other

Zhao Yao stabbed Arthas’s chest again and watched him fall down.

The body disappeared and Arthas appeared again.

“Do you understand? As long I don’t let you, you will never be able to kill me. And for me to kill you, it’s just...”

Arthas fell to floor again and disappeared and reappeared again.

Arthas shook his head. “Zhao Yao, you are a genius. If it wasn’t that I wanted you on my side, you would have long been dead. So, can you stop doing such meaningless things...”

Then, Arthas looked at the small golden knife on his waist, which was the Dragon Slaying Saber, he asked, “Do you really think such a small knife will be able to kill me?”

Zhao Yao shook his head.

“Then, why are still stabbing me?”

Zhao Yao said, “It is for you to suffer.” He thought to himself. “If I can’t destroy the physical body then I shall try causing harm to the mental body.”

“What? Make me suffer...” Before Arthas was done with his sentence, he blacked out again and he came to a white operating room.

He moved slightly and realized that he had been tied to the operation table. All his powers were useless and he became an ordinary cat again.

When, he saw a group of people in white coat walking up, Arthas panicked. “What are you guys doing!”

“The patient’s mood is not stable.”

“Tie him tighter.”

“We ran out of anesthetic. What do we do?”

“Feed him some coke at least he would be happier.”

Arthas looked at the people in white coat walk around the room and he saw the operating knife cut into him. He watched himself get operated on and he yelled out of anger. Then, he fell towards the floor.

Zhao Yao smiled and look at Arthas who was yelling in grief and fell. He landed onto the floor with Arthas and said, “I have finally found the chance to stab you. If you don’t pass the Dragon Slaying Saber’s test, will your powers be banned?”

Then, Arthas landed on the floor, creating a small meteorite like pit. The cat was squatting in the pit and hugging his lower body.

Upon seeing this, Wang Coco was stunned. “What is this? Arthas has been knocked down?”

Zhao Yao stepped on Arthas and said satisfyingly. “Stupid cat, tell me what is your power? Why can you duplicate everyone’s powers and my weapons?”

Poof.

Zhao Yao looked at the thing Arthas hid behind his back. It was a Dragon Slaying Saber, which was currently on his foot now. Arthas used his strong physical body and hid the Dragon Slaying Saber in his fur and pushed his back muscles to stab Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao said in disbelief. “You duplicated my knife? You passed the Dragon Slaying Saber’s test? No, you duplicated the saber before all of this?”

Arthas laughed menacingly. “Now it is your turn to feel my pain!”

Zhao Yao blacked out and found that he was lying on a cold surgery table. A bunch of people in white coats were gathered around his lower body.

“Here comes another one.”

“This surgery is difficult, everyone please be serious.”

“Are we going to use anesthetic?”

“There are too many nerves here, to not affect the future happiness of the patient, we cannot use anesthetic.”

Zhao Yao yelled, “Get lost!”

Argh!

Arthas laughed coldly at Zhao Yao, who was kneeling on the floor. He looked at Zhao Yao, who was looking deadly pale. “I told you, in this dimension, no one can...”

Poof.

Arthas looked at the saber stabbed into his stomach and looked at Zhao Yao in despair. “Is this not going to end?”

Zhao Yao, who passed the Dragon Slaying Saber test yelled, “Come, let’s harm each other.”

Then, when Arthas and Zhao Yao fell towards the ground, the guests in the hall couldn’t help but run in their direction. They wanted to see what the results were.

Then, they saw the cat and human, who both had their powers banned, wrestling on the floor. Zhao Yao would stab Arthas and Arthas would scream.

Then, Arthas would stab Zhao Yao and Zhao Yao would kneel on the floor and slam the floor in agony.

Tom was speechless. “The saber is hardly longer than a finger and yet they are screaming so badly. What pussies.”

Meanwhile, Wang Coco controlled the air and broke her neck. Then, she recovered and ran over. She looked at Zhao Yao and Arthas, who were wrestling on the floor and was shocked. She could not link the majestic and divine Arthas to the cat in front of Zhao Yao.

Although Wang Coco did not understand why did their fight ended up like this, she could tell that they were fighting in their dreams. It has become a death battle. They were attacking each other psychologically and waiting to see who crashed first.

Arthas shouted, “Ah! I am going to stab you till you die!”

“Who is afraid of you?” Zhao Yao answered. “I am going to stab you till you break down! Whoever who backs out will be a dog! Ah!”

Unlike the guests, who did not understand what was happening, when Zhao Yao and Arthas were stabbing each other, Ares and the rest did. There were chills running down their spines as they watched the horrific scene.

Many of them had tried the Dragon Slaying Saber before.

“So cruel!” Ares looked at Zhao Yao and Arthas in pain. “Are these two monsters? They stabbed each other so many times and they are still stabbing? Don’t their hearts ache?”

Elizabeth looked at them in disgust. “Freaks. These two guys are freaks. Zhao Yao is a huge freak.”

Lightning looked at the saber stab down again and again and he shivered. “Zhao Yao is too cruel. I will never offend him.”

Fish Ball was lying on the floor shivering in fear as he remembered the night when he was stabbed by the Dragon Slaying Saber.

Dust Ball was in awe. “This is a real warrior. Do you know what is called a true champion? Only people who are this ruthless to themselves deserve this title. Zhao Yao! From today on, I will look up to you the most.”

Upon hearing the supercats, Zhao Yao turned his head and yelled, “Why are you guys talking so much? Come over and take a few stabs for me!”

Dust Ball, Ares, and the rest retreated a dozen of meters.

Fish Ball yelled, “Zhao Yao, I will help you watch over the other men. I will not let them disturb you. You can get rid of Arthas in peace.”

The supercats looked at Zhao Yao and Arthas in fright. The weapon in their hands was too scary. Although their powers were banned, they still had extraordinary physical capabilities. Which cat would dare to go up next?

Zhao Yao was angry. “Useless!”

Meanwhile, Arthas yelled at Wang Coco. “Coco, why are you watching? Come and help!”

Wang Coco froze and then she charged towards Zhao Yao. Anyways, even if she died in the dream it would just be psychological damage.

However, she only flew a dozen of meters and saw that Zhao Yao had thrown the Dragon Slaying Saber at her. She was stabbed by the Dragon Slaying Saber.

Wang Coco fell onto the ground and she was in an operation room. The people in white coats appeared around her and spoke in a language that she did not understand.

“Who is it this time?”

“It is a large baby trapped in the umbilical cord! It is so dangerous!”

“Make her give birth! Make her give birth!”

Wang Coco looked at the actions of the people in white coat and she let out screams that could shatter glass.

When, she recovered consciousness, she fell onto the ground like she had had her soul ripped from her.

Meanwhile, seeing that Zhao Yao had thrown the Dragon Slaying Saber away, Arthas laughed, “Hahaha! Zhao Yao, you are dead!”

He picked up the Dragon Slaying Saber and charged towards him. However, Zhao Yao grabbed onto the Dragon Slaying Saber and they struggled.

The Dragon Slaying Saber that Zhao Yao had thrown, fell in front of Tom after piercing through Wang Coco.

Tom and Selena looked at the Dragon Slaying Saber with great curiosity.

Tom wondered, "The saber looks weaker than my claw. Why are they screaming so loudly after being stabbed?"

Selena picked up the Dragon Slaying Saber and asked eagerly, "Do you want to try it?"

"How to try.."

Poof, Tom fell to ground and looked like a withering corpse. Despair and numbness filled his eyes.

Chapter 846: Negotiation and Army

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao and Arthas wrestled together. They were both reaching for the Dragon Slaying Saber.

Zhao Yao yelled, "Elizabeth!"

Elizabeth sighed, "I really don't want to be involved in such a perverted fight..." Then, she controlled Arthas.

Zhao Yao laughed and grabbed Arthas's neck. He looked at Arthas maliciously. "Elizabeth, let go of him. The more he struggles, the better it is."

When, Zhao Yao was going to stab him, Arthas shook his paws and shouted, "Wait!"

Zhao Yao laughed coldly. "Stupid cat. What do you want to say? I am telling you, if I don't stab you till you die, there will be no end to this!"

"Zhao Yao! Do you want to start a war with the Star Cats?" Arthas threatened. "I am warning you! Except for me, there are eight other cats who are as powerful as me. Although you can deal with me, this doesn't mean that you can deal with them! Beware that you will die terribly!"

Zhao Yao stabbed the saber beside Arthas's paw and scared Arthas till his fur dropped. "Zhao Yao! Calm down! Don't try to settle everything with violence. We can discuss this. What kind of demands do you have?"

“I am very calm!” Zhao Yao looked at Arthas and wiped the saber on Arthas’s neck. “Tell me, how did I enter the dream and how do I go out?”

Upon hearing this, Arthas hesitated. Evidently, this was his secret, a secret that he would not tell anyone. “I can’t... tell you this secret. Change your demand.”

“You are not going to tell me?” Zhao Yao’s glare grew cold as he grabbed Arthas. In Arthas’s terror, he walked over to Wang Coco and stabbed Wang Coco.

Wang Coco looked at Zhao Yao in despair. “Why do you have to stab me?” Then, she fell unconscious.

“Did you see that?” Zhao Yao said. “If you don’t want to be stabbed then speak.”

Arthas nodded when he saw Zhao Yao pointing the Dragon Slaying Saber at him. He pressed his paw on the saber and said nervously, “I will speak! Don’t stab me! Please do not be rash!”

“When you guys entered the mansion, you entered the dream. If you want to go out...” Upon seeing that Zhao Yao was drawn into the conversation, he slammed his head against the Dragon Slaying Saber and let it pierce through his body.

Zhao Yao’s eyes narrowed and showed anger. “This fellow!”

This was a dream after all. One could not escape dreams through death. After being caught, Arthas decided to commit suicide and suffer through the test again to be reborn into the dream.

Hence, Arthas appeared in the sky again. He hugged his lower body and yelled in pain as weariness flashed across his eyes.

In this dream, there could not be real death. But every death would bring about psychology damages, not even mentioning the amount of psychological damage brought about by the saber.

He had suffered more psychological damage than he expected by fighting Zhao Yao.

Now, Arthas was no longer considering getting Zhao Yao on his side. He was considering how to kill Zhao Yao countless times so that he would be in a vegetative state in reality. It was the only thing Arthas wanted to do now.

He glared at Zhao Yao. “You want the secrets of this dream? Okay, I shall tell you!”

Then, many faces of humans and cats appeared on Arthas’s body.

The many cat that faces looked like Ares shot out golden rays.

A human face shot out blood red light from his eyes.

A face like Elizabeth’s released a formless sound wave.

Behind Arthas’s head, a face that looked like Zhao Yao appeared and yelled in anger.

All the faces that came out from Arthas’s body looked like they wanted to rush out of Arthas’s body to form individual bodies.

“Can you see this, Zhao Yao?” Arthas laughed crazily. “These are your subconsciouses. They know everything about you, all your powers, strategies, strengths, and memories. They are you.”

In the dream, they have all your powers. Can you beat so many of them alone?

Zhao Yao grew solemn. If was really like what Arthas had said then it would be difficult for Zhao Yao to fight them.

“Kill them!” As Arthas gave the order, all the subconsciouses formed individual bodies and landed in front of them like rain. They attacked Zhao Yao together.

Zhao Yao’s menacing subconscious was in the lead and in an instant a golden punch that brought along the raging air and the thunder smashed towards Zhao Yao’s head.

Zhao Yao's face fell as he looked at the countless amount of apostles and supercats in front of him. He retreated, but his subconscious did not let him go and they started fighting.

Zhao Yao activated Time Freeze and started avoiding the attacks. However, his subconscious followed suit and soon his other enemies caught up.

There were countless attacks and after Zhao Yao used Sleep Medusa, he killed a huge number of them. Only to see them revive.

Killings, death, rebirth... The enemies that Zhao Yao killed were reborn repeatedly and under the strong attacks, he died and was reborn too.

After dying for five to six times, Zhao Yao felt a buzz in his head. He was wary. "There is a price for dying in the dreams..."

Arthas laughed. "Zhao Yao, do you think that you can die countless time in these dreams? Every time you die in the dreams, you will suffer strong psychological damage till you break down. Then, you can leave the dream."

Zhao Yao's face changed as wanted to kill Arthas. He wanted them to die together, however, he was stopped by his subconscious.

Upon seeing this, Ares yelled, "Help Zhao Yao!"

Fish Ball shouted, "It is our turn to fight!"

Elizabeth snorted and looked at her own subconscious. "How am I so fat!"

Chapter 847: Siege And Release

Seeing Ares and the cats charging towards them, Zhao Yao quickly shouted telepathically, "Don't come over here. It's not worthwhile to die here. Moreover your willpower is weak. Death will weaken it more."

“Don’t you worry! Let us rescue you this time!” Ares roared as the golden Deflective Field transformed into a huge cat. Elizabeth, Fish Ball, and Fūjin jumped into the Deflective Field.

The huge golden cat surrounded the supercats as they collided with the Subconscious Army.

Elizabeth meowed and sound waves were emitted from her mouth. “Have a taste of our superpower!”

Fish Ball’s eyes shot out white rays that terrified the Subconscious Army as they thought they were lasers and dodged. The subconscious version of Fish Ball ran headlong into the white light and laughed. “That’s the most useless cat. Don’t be afraid of his superpower!”

The huge golden cat swept his tail and hit Lightning, who was on the tail’s end, into subconscious Fish Ball, who flew out screaming in pain.

The golden cat charged forward with Catherine in his mouth. Their enemies fell asleep wherever the golden cat went.

The enemies possessed the same superpowers as Ares and the cats. Though Ares’ team was cohesive, they started to incur casualties.

“My d*mn supercats are so disobedient.” Seeing Ares’ team charging despite his orders, Zhao Yao sighed. Seizing the opportunity of the distraction, he charged out of the siege.

The subconscious Zhao Yao followed Zhao Yao closely and fixed his gaze firmly on his prey.

Zhao Yao remained calm as he analyzed, “In this dreamscape, the subconscious is able to manifest his superpowers however they are not real. Though he won’t be killed, his willpower will be weakened...”

After Zhao Yao was mentally attacked, he could feel mental fatigue and Arthas’ words came true.

Gazing at the violent battle ahead, Zhao Yao had an idea and the Dimension Portal of the Extradimensional Belly opened in front of him.

The subconscious Zhao Yao who was in close pursuit backed off like a frightened kitten when he saw Zhao Yao and the Dimension Portal.

...

In the sky above, Arthas surveyed the battle with satisfaction. The black man beside him descended and said, "Lord Arthas, are you alright?"

Arthas became grim and said, "What could possibly happen to me? Do you think I'll lose to him? I was just toying with him just now."

"Er..." The black man nodded helplessly and said, "If the fight continues, he'll be in a vegetative state. Isn't a serious wound sufficient?"

Arthas folded his paws and said overbearingly, "Are you telling me what to do?"

"I dare not." The black man backed off as cold sweat formed on his cheeks. This was no joking matter. Arthas was the master of this dreamscape and the black man could not afford to antagonize him, otherwise he might die without knowing the reason.

Arthas saw Zhao Yao opening the Dimension Portal and the hesitating subconscious Zhao Yao. He shouted in fury, "What are you doing? Quickly finish him off!"

The subconscious Zhao Yao became more terrified and backed off another step.

Arthas said infuriated, "Why is subconscious Zhao Yao so timid?" He moved both his paws and controlled subconscious Zhao Yao to charge at Zhao Yao.

A tentacle came out from the Dimension Portal and wrapped around subconscious Zhao Yao.

"Zhao! Yao!"

A loud roar came from the other side of the Dimension Portal. The shocking malice and murderous intent gave Arthas the chills.

As the subconscious Zhao Yao cut off a tentacle, more tentacles came out from the Dimension Portal. They flashed as if travelling through dimensions and wrapped around the subconscious Zhao Yao.

The subconscious Zhao Yao struggled wildly. Even though he had great strength, he was unable to break free of the tentacles and he could not even make a scratch on them.

Seeing the powerful subconscious Zhao Yao being dragged into the Dimension Portal, Arthas was getting anxious. "What's that object?"

The real Zhao Yao had retreated and he hid behind the Dimension Portal.

After prompting by Zhao Yao, Ares and the cats noticed the Dimension Portal and charged towards it in spite of their injuries. They followed Zhao Yao and hid behind the Dimension Portal.

Arthas frowned as he stared at the black void of the Dimension Portal and sneered, "Is that your killer move? Everyone charge! Destroy it at all costs!"

As the Subconscious Army charged towards the Dimension Portal, a paw came out from the portal and grasped the ground outside. He crawled out from the portal slowly.

Zhao Yao shuddered. "The real Project X is still in the Extradimensional Belly and not in the dreamscape. This Project X is created according to my subconscious knowledge."

Arthas was in the sky surveying the battlefield. He had an ominous feeling when he saw the strange cat climbing out of the Dimension Portal. "Is he the escaped Project X?"

Project X looked at the charging supercats and apostles and was engulfed by numerous explosions and superpower attacks.

Arthas smiled. "Project X isn't that impressive."

Countless tentacles came out from the rising inferno. Clones of Project X ran out of the Dimension Portal continuously and merge together, forming a large expanding meatball.

The meatball broke out of the inferno, revealing a monster with numerous tentacles and organs. The organs pulsed while the tentacles grew longer and longer.

“What a disgusting creature.” Arthas ordered another attack but Project X absorbed the heat and energy of the fire and explosions directed at him and grew bigger. He bellowed as he charged forward.

The supercats were grabbed by Project X and assimilated into his body.

Even the light rays from the sky, the earth underneath his legs and the air from the environment were absorbed by him and assimilated into his body.

Roar!

Seeing the huge monster bellowing at the sky, Arthas panicked. “What’s going on? What’s that creature?”

Numerous thick tentacles of ten meters reached up and covered the sun and sky. The revived Subconscious Army was grabbed and assimilated into his body.

Project X, who was liberated in the dreamscape, grew, evolved, and became stronger at an astonishing speed. He swallowed everything in front of him.

Within his body, countless lights lit up and fires burnt. Sparks spurt out from the surface of his body.

His body underwent nuclear fusion to provide unlimited energy for his massive body.

Chapter 848: The End and Capture

Tentacles as high as mountains swept across and flattened the manor grounds. Clouds in the sky were perforated and a violent gale uprooted trees of the nearby forests. Arthas and the black man backed off in terror.

Arthas panicked and screamed, "Kill him! Kill him!"

The Subconscious Army charged at Project X again.

Arthas said in shock, "The energy field of the dreamscape was negated by the stronger energy field of the creature."

"He's immune to the sound wave illusion." Arthas gaped. "He shut off his five senses and uses an advanced method to sense this world."

Seeing the flames, lightning and frost being absorbed and assimilated into Project X, Arthas trembled. "Project X is evolving and is absorbing incremental amount of energy."

The subconscious Zhao Yao used all his might to attack but he was easily blocked by a tentacle and drawn into Project X's body.

"D*mn... what an incredible power!" Arthas inhaled a gust of cold air. "He had surpassed the limits of flesh and blood. Perhaps he is evolving towards non-carbon structure..."

Project X was unaffected by the control illusion as he separated into numerous clones. After they squirmed out of the main body, their eyes lit up and fired crimson lasers, vaporizing all apostles and supercats.

Arthas' legs started trembling. "He's can duplicate superpowers. What a terrifying creature!"

All attacks against Project X were in vain as he would use the same superpower to kill his attackers.

As the grotesque body of Project X grew larger and larger, Arthas felt a mixture of terror and hopelessness that he had not experienced before. He could not imagine such a terrifying creature in this world.

Project X shook his body gently and a layer of darkness covered the surface of his body.

"He's evolving again?" Arthas moaned. "He's able to attack with casual movements and his vibrations are converted to heat energy for consumption. His defenses are getting stronger."

The black man standing beside Arthas was dripping cold sweat as he said, "My Lord, you've to stop this dreamscape. This creature will kill all of us."

Arthas shook his head as he said reluctantly, "No, I can't stop the dreamscape... The price is too high. I must not stop this dreamscape. It's alright, he can't fly..."

Project X's body extended towards the sky. With the aid of gravitational force, his mountainous body gradually floated.

Millions of tentacles twirled around his body. From far, it looked like a dark sun rising in the sky.

The black man said anxiously, "My Lord, you've got to stop the dreamscape! He'll kill everyone and we'll go into a vegetative state in the real world!"

Arthas hesitated as his paws trembled incessantly.

The flying Project X extended his tentacles and aimed them at Arthas. The tentacles warped and opened up, revealing organic laser cannons that were targeting Arthas.

As though the sun had exploded, the light rays illuminated the sky and engulfed Arthas and the black man.

The revived Arthas made his decision. "I'll stop this dreamscape."

Arthas' face looked very grim. "Stop... I can't stop the dreamscape... Someone's taking control of the dreamscape..."

He looked at the flying Project X as though he had lost his family and his fear peaked. "It's him? How did he do that? I spent a year training and depended on the Meteorite Fragment for the past few years to increase my superpower before I could use the Dream Dimension!!"

The black man sweated profusely as he said, "What? You can't stop the dreamscape? What are we going to do?"

“Stop the violence. This is the only way.” Arthas’ eyes lit up as he focused his attention. Willpower was his true power.

“I declare that everything stops right now.”

Silver rays covered the entire dreamscape as reality and dreamscape disintegrated. Darkness fell upon everyone. When they recovered, they found themselves in the main hall of the manor.

Everyone looked dazed as most of them could not recall the dreamscape that they were in.

Dreams were weaved by the subconscious. Those without strong willpower were not able to recall their dreams.

Having the strength of six cats that surpassed normal people, Zhao Yao immediately recalled the events in the dreamscape. He checked the Extradimensional Belly and found Project X motionless in the vacuum environment. He heaved in relief.

He searched for traces of Arthas.

At the back door of the manor, the black man, Coco Wang, and Arthas fled in a hurry.

Arthas said fearfully, “Escape... we have to escape. We’ve got to bring news of the dreamscape to the others.”

He said feebly, “Zhao Yao possessed within his body the power to destroy the world.”

Recalling the gigantic figure of Project X in the dreamscape, their eyes were filled with terror.

The dreamscape was manifested based on the dreamers’ subconscious knowledge. The events that occurred in the dreamscape were based on reality.

Arthas and Coco Wang made use of the dreamscape to organize banquets, where they could gain prestige, obtain classified information and facilitate the assimilation of the Star Cats into the upper echelon of society. Then they would have greater power in the human society.

They did not expect their plans to backfire.

Before they ran out of the manor, they heard a gust of wind. Zhao Yao was casually walking in front of Arthas, Coco Wang, and the black man.

Arthas roared frantically, “Shut your eyes and ears! Don’t look and listen to him!” After the encounter in the dreamscape, Arthas had discovered Zhao Yao’s superpowers.

The black man transformed his body into a stream of flames and charged towards Zhao Yao.

Coco Wang swiveled and fled while carrying Arthas.

They knew they were no match for Zhao Yao so they wanted to escape.

Zhao Yao looked at their backs and said, “Stay.”

They heard a gentle sigh by their ears. In the next moment, the burning black man transformed back to human form and fell to the ground.

Coco Wang’s eyes were filled with darkness and she fainted.

The black man thought he was immune to Zhao Yao’s superpower by transforming into fire while Coco Wang struggled to carry Arthas so she did not shield her hearing.

Arthas shut both his ears and eyes and trembled as he curled into a ball on the ground.

Zhao Yao smiled. Capturing Arthas in reality was much easier than he thought.

He had a lot of questions about the dreamscape for Arthas.

Chapter 849: The Dream Dimension

Zhao Yao looked at Arthas who collapsed on the floor with no sign of struggle. It was an odd sight given his terrifying capabilities in the dream.

“Things like superpowers are really not to be underestimated in any battle,” Zhao Yao thought. In reality, he could hang Arthas upside down and wallop him hard but in the dream there was not much he could do to counter Arthas’ attacks.

“And there’s Project X. The Project X in the dream is too terrifying...” A glint of wariness flashed across Zhao Yao’s eyes. “I need to find out the relationship between this dream and reality. If the Project X in Arthas’ dream is already so terrifying, does that mean that Project X would be equally terrifying if he was released in real life now?”

Sirens from police cars blared outside the manor. Zhao Yao’s ears twitched as he picked up the black man, Coco Wang, and Arthas from the floor. He leapt and fled the manor in a flash.

He casually ripped off the meteorite pendant on Arthas’ neck and melted it into his body.

This increased his completion rate of collecting meteorite fragments by 7%, increasing from 13% to 20%, earning himself some extra skill points.

At the same time, the mission to kidnap Arthas was completed successfully. Another 5000*2 experience points were awarded to him.

Zhao Yao gave a small smile. Next, he found a small, vacant villa where he threw the black man, Coco Wang and Arthas on the floor. Zhao Yao then lazed on the sofa as Elizabeth stared at Arthas and activated her powers of control on him.

Seeing how Arthas still had his eyes shut and his paws around his ears, Zhao Yao instructed, “Elizabeth, let him look at me.”

Arthas was forced to open his eyes and drop his paws as he stared at Zhao Yao.

When he saw Zhao Yao playing with the Dragon Slaying Saber in his hand, fear flashed in his eyes.

Zhao Yao played around with the saber as he said gleefully, “It’s the same question as before. Spill it out.”

Arthas felt hopeless. Was he really going to reveal his power?

However, he suddenly saw Zhao Yao's hand slip while he was playing with the Dragon Slaying Saber and watched as the knife lightly pierced his own leg. His whole body started convulsing.

"This guy is so cruel! He even dares to stab himself? Is he threatening me?" Arthas trembled in fear as he watched Zhao Yao's actions. He did not dare to hide the truth anymore as he said, "I'll say it."

Upon hearing that, the sheriff at the side nodded his head at Zhao Yao.

After they conversed for a while, Zhao Yao finally understood what Arthas' superpower could do.

Arthas' superpower was actually super mental strength.

This strength allowed Arthas to lift up a small car just by sensing his surroundings or even sense and manipulate some emotions. It was an all-encompassing ability though it did not have a deep impact.

It was only after he started wearing the meteorite fragment everyday that his mental strength started increasing. One day, he suddenly realized that his mental strength had already reached the point where it was strong enough to influence other people's subconscious.

He went on to learn hypnosis. Through that, he was able to enter dreams to kill the opponent's mental state, increasing his fighting power by leaps and bounds.

Zhao Yao asked, "How did you make people enter your dreams then?"

Arthas replied, "Hypnosis can be achieved through changes in sound, light, or verbal communication."

The sheriff beside Zhao Yao immediately turned and said, "He's hiding something. The most important thing is something called a dream dimension."

Zhao Yao's eyes flashed as he stared at Arthas and stabbed his tail with the knife.

...

Arthas opened his eyes and stared at the familiar ceiling. Tears flowed from his eyes in an instant.

A group of people in white coats gathered around him.

“Woah! It’s a familiar face!”

“Why are you here again? You didn’t get a clean job done the previous time?”

“Why are you still crying? Help him wipe away his tears.”

“Stop crying, you’re already a regular here. Don’t you know the pain gets worse when you cry and struggle?”

Arthas begged pitifully, “Spare me please. I can’t do this anymore.”

...

Zhao Yao saw Arthas’ body shaking in an instant before his eyes turned white and his four limbs started convulsing. He finally collapsed on the floor weakly, as if his soul had flown out of his body.

Zhao Yao lightly slapped Arthas’ face with the Dragon Slaying Saber before he said, “Enough, stop acting like you’re dead. I’m warning you, don’t talk shit to me. Answer me honestly when I ask you a question. Understand?”

Arthas immediately nodded his head.

Zhao Yao asked, “What method exactly did you use to make us enter the dream in the manor?”

Arthas sighed. He knew there was no way he could keep this secret today and had no choice but to spill the beans, “That’s the power of the Dream Dimension”.

“The Dream Dimension?”

After acquiring the ability to enter dreams, Arthas went on to learn various other related skills. He even took courses on physics, astronomy, sociology, and psychology in UC Berkeley.

At the same time, the meteorite fragment he wore continuously improved his mental strength, boosting his energy and brain.

Arthas’ abilities of controlling the subconsciousnesses and entering dreams increased at unprecedented rates with each day.

One day, he finally felt a unique existence in his mental state.

“Everything that we can see is the physical world. The whole universe, from the galaxy to a molecule, gravity, and even quarks, are all made of physical substances.”

“However, all that we can see in the universe, added together, only constitutes a small part of the whole universe. The space and things we can see are not even a tenth of what the whole universe actually contains.”

Arthas sighed. “It was on that fateful day, when I felt an energy that could not be detected through scientific means. After some research and experimenting, I called him the Dream Dimension.”

“Dream dimension?” Zhao Yao felt like he was becoming more and more confused. He continued to ask, “Why did you call him a dream dimension?”

Arthas explained, “Just like what I said earlier, the physical world that our lives could see in the past was merely a small part of the universe.

It’s as if we are blind, we can only see a very small part of the whole universe.

The Dream Dimension, however, is a different part of the universe which we have never seen before.”

Arthas become more excited as he talked about it. Maybe it was because he had kept his research to himself for so long so he felt joy in this sense of release as he poured it all out.

He continued, “However, the dream dimension and the physical world alone are still too little for us to explain the whole universe. There must be many other dimensions that have yet to be discovered. Adding up all these different dimensions will then truly constitute the whole universe.”

Zhao Yao massaged his temples as he stared at Arthas. He suddenly stabbed Arthas’s tail again. “Are you kidding me?”

Seeing Arthas convulse and collapse on the floor, Sheriff said exasperatedly, “Boss, according to the results of my mind reading abilities, he seems to be saying the truth. At least, it’s what he thinks to be the truth.”

“Ah?” Zhao Yao stared at Arthas, who seemed to have been sucked out of his soul yet again and patted his head saying, “Sorry about that. I thought you were pulling my leg? Continue talking about that... that...”

“Dream Dimension,” After saying that, Arthas sighed in his heart. “Uncultured...”

Sheriff whispered to Zhao Yao from the side, “Boss, he said you’re uncultured.”

Chapter 850: Cold-Blooded

Zhao Yao slapped Arthas’ head as he said, “Don’t think too highly of yourself just because I acknowledged that whatever you said was true. Who cares about the stupid dimensions you are talking about? Just get straight to the point on how you actually made me enter into a dream.”

Arthas shot an angry glare at Zhao Yao, before he continued, “After countless research and tries, I discovered that I can only see the Dream Dimension in certain special locations.”

Zhao Yao felt a little enlightened, “Such as in the manor?”

“Yes,” Arthas said. “The Dream Dimension and the physical world belong to the same universe. In some special locations, I am able to use my mental strength to see the Dream Dimension in the physical world.

To enter the Dream Dimension, the only way I have found to cross over is through dreams, so I called it the Dream Dimension.

In fact, aside from myself, you humans had entered the Dream Dimension since the dawn of the universe, just that you guys treated your experiences there as merely dreams.”

“Dreams?” Zhao Yao said, “You mean the dream that we entered previously wasn’t simply your own dream but a Dream Dimension?”

“I developed that manor for a long time to make its connection with the Dream Dimension more versatile. It is now a half-physical, half-fantasy world. The moment you guys stepped into the manor, you would have already entered my dream and therefore, entering the Dream Dimension.”

“So that’s what it is?” Zhao Yao exclaimed, “That’s really something we can’t even defend ourselves against.”

“But that dream is now ruined by all of you!” Arthas screamed in rage, “My ten whole months of efforts have gone to waste because of you guys!”

Due to the appearance of Project X, Arthas had no choice but to violently cut off the connection between the dream and the Dream Dimension, completely destroying the fruits of his research.

Arthas stared at Zhao Yao and said, “Is that monster you released Project X?”

Zhao Yao did not reply Arthas but continued asking, “That monster is just one of my skills, it did not actually enter the dream. Will he be as powerful in real life as he was in the dream?”

“The Dream Dimension is part of the universe to begin with. Whatever happened there is intimately connected to whatever there is in the physical world and your subconscious,” Arthas said. “As to whether it would be exactly the same, don’t you already know the answer deep down?”

Zhao Yao stabbed Arthas' side with the Dragon Slaying Saber and said, "So do you actually know or not?"

Arthas said, "I have only just started exploring the Dream Dimension. Why don't we enter a dream again to experiment with it?"

Zhao Yao scoffed and stabbed Arthas' tail again.

"Now tell me all you know about Star Cats."

...

Just as Zhao Yao grabbed Arthas to interrogate him about information related to the Star Cats...

Jianghai, in a catmint bar, on a random cat street.

The leader of the Cao Gang, the orange cat Mao Mao, grabbed a pawful of catmint and stuffed it into his mouth. However, he spat it right out the next moment.

"What's going on? Is this catmint even for cats?"

A black cat behind the counter said in annoyance, "That's what low-quality goods are like. If you have money you can just get the 1982 silver vine, it will definitely taste good. If you have no money, just eat that."

Mao Mao stared at the black cat angrily and shouted, "Who said I have no money? Give me another five servings of catmint on special offer. Remember, it's five servings!"

"Poor beggar." The black cat rolled his eyes and turned to take the catmint.

Beside Mao Mao, his multi-colored cat sidekick said, "Boss, we don't have enough money to pay the bill."

“You don’t say.” Mao Mao looked at the catmint that the black cat had brought and confirmed with him, “This is the catmint on special offer, right?”

“Yessss.” The black cat pursed his lips in annoyance and threw down the bag of long expired catmint before he turned and walked away.

“Despicable,” The multicolored cat raged. “If it wasn’t for that scoundrel, Matcha, who stole our money, would we even be in this pathetic state now?”

Mao Mao’s eyes glinted with revenge. “That d*mned cat. One day, I will snatch back what he has taken from me.”

Just as the as the two cats sniffed the catmint and ranted, a female voice sounded from behind them, “Is this Brother Mao Mao from Cao Gang?”

Mao Mao and the multicolored cat immediately whipped their heads around. They saw a man and a woman, both clad in black shirt and pants. A white cat stood on their shoulders and stared at them.

The white cat smiled at them and said, “Greetings to the both of you. I heard the leader of the Cao Gang is an outstandingly rare strong cat cat with a morality above everyone in Jianghai. Seeing you here today proves that what I heard was true.”

Mao Mao stared at the two people and the cat and asked, “What do you guys want?”

The white cat said, “Keke, we want to find a considerably strong gang in Jianghai to settle some business and people recommended the Cao Gang.”

Mao Mao immediately stood up and said coldly, “There are too many cats here. Let’s go somewhere else to talk.”

Mao Mao brought them to an empty alley and asked, “What do you guys want?”

The white cat chuckled and said, “It’s just teaching a supercat a lesson. We’re wondering how much you charge here, Leader Mao?”

Mao Mao and the multi-colored cat glanced at each other. “This guy looks rich.”

“Just squeeze them dry. Quote a high price, Leader.”

Mao Mao tested the waters as he said, “500 for chopping off a tail, 1000 for breaking a leg, and 200 for every teeth or claw pulled out.”

“Leader Mao, you do fair business indeed,” The white cat continued. “Then how much do you charge for killing a cat?”

“Killing a cat?” Mao Mao gasped.

The multi-colored cat reminded him telepathically, “Boss, we don’t do cat-killing.”

The woman in black took out a photo of a cat. It was Matcha promoting courses in the Cat Wonderland.

The white cat pointed to the photo and said, “Kill this cat and we’ll pay you 100 000.”

Mao Mao and the multi-colored cat’s breathing immediately became heavier.

The multi-colored cat shouted, “Leader! We can’t take this up. This is Matcha. It’s that Headless Horseman’s cat!”

“So what if it’s the Headless Horseman’s!” Mao Mao started breathing more heavily, “With that 100 000, there’s nothing I won’t be able to buy! That is money that won’t ever run out for the rest of our lives. We’ll leave Jianghai once we’re done and escape to a place where no cat knows us and live there peacefully for the rest of our lives.”

The multi-colored cat was still hesitant. “This still doesn’t sound good? This is not against the rules of our trade. We will be the joke of the other cat gangs.”

“What’s not good about it? Can being in a gang your whole life earn you 100 000 dollars?” Mao Mao’s eyes gleamed as he said, “From today onwards, we are no longer a gang.”

The multi-colored cat asked, “Then what are we?”

“From today onwards, we are two cold-blooded killers.” Once Mao Mao and the multicolored cat sidekick were done conversing telepathically, they looked at the white cat and said, “We are in.”

Staring at backs of Mao Mao and the multicolored cat as they walked off, the woman said disdainfully, “Can these two useless bums even do anything?”

“There’s a Chinese saying. It’s called tossing a stone to find out what’s ahead,” The man beside her said. “Samantha, when it comes to superpower battles, the most important thing to have is patience. Even if we are stronger than the Headless Horseman, we must not let our guard down. Or else, our hubris will lead to our downfall. This is something that happens everyday in the world.”
