

Am I A God 871

Chapter 871: Action

Matcha walked out of the Cat Wonderland depressed. He thought to himself, “What should I do? The abortion is going to hurt and I am a male cat. Where is the baby going to come out from?”

“From behind?” Thinking of that Matcha was alarmed.

“From the front?” Matcha was shivering in his heart.

“Damn it! Do I need to cut my stomach open?”

Matcha did not know that his situation was because of powers, he did not dare to tell anyone either.

Of course, Zhao Yao did not know about the accident with Matcha too. He would not tell the cats what happened to him either.

So, Matcha did not know that the state of his body would be returned to normal and that the fetus in his body would go back in time and return to being part of his body.

Matcha was thinking to himself, “Maybe I can ask Zhao Yao or Elizabeth to cast illusion on me so I can ignore the pain...”

As Matcha was thinking about it, a black shadow ran over to him, hit his stomach and knocked Matcha onto the ground.

Uncle Egg ran over from afar and shouted, “Roly Poly! Roly Poly! Don’t run around!”

Matcha felt a pain in his stomach and fell to the ground. He hugged his stomach and looked at Roly Poly with fright. “Stupid cat! What are you doing! If something happens to my stomach, can you be held responsible for it?”

Uncle Egg ran over and bit onto Roly Poly's leash. "I'm sorry, Matcha. Roly Poly ran away suddenly and I lost him."

Matcha looked at Uncle Egg suspiciously. "Are you guys trying to harm me? Do you know how important is my stomach now?"

Uncle Egg looked at Matcha in confusion and Matcha remembered that Uncle Egg did not know about it. He turned and looked at Roly Poly who was looking at him curiously. He sighed, "Forget it. Just be careful. Don't knock into someone else."

Matcha watch them leave and asked suddenly, "Oh ya, where is Milk Tea?"

"I did not see him." Uncle Egg said, "He said that he wanted to help me take care of Roly Poly, but I don't know where he went."

Then, Matcha's phone rang.

It was Zhao Yao.

"Matcha, from now on, without my permission, you are not allowed to use Time Freeze, do you get it?"

...

In the white house, a blond elder was sitting in the chair and pressing his phone.

The assistant reminded him, "Star Cats want us to evacuate immediately."

"Evacuate? Do you know how many people are watching us?" The blond haired elder raged. "He wants the American President to retreat from the White House? Is there a safer country in the world? What will the people think? Would they vote for a coward?"

He typed on his phone and uploaded a selfie. He was going to post on social media, “I want everyone to know that their president is going to stay in the White House today and this country is safe.”

Then, he sent a photo and captioned. “Working overtime in White House tonight.”

The assistant started calling the Star Cats helplessly.

Star Cats commander Steve said nervously, “According to the stats, he is already here at White House. Ask the president to evacuate immediately.”

“What? He is already inside?” The blond hair elder yelled in shock. “Are you kidding me? What are you guys doing? I give you guys hundreds of billion each year and you guys can’t even stop one guy!”

“Evacuate! Evacuate!”

“Send me out of here immediately!”

The assistant nodded and started to arrange things. At first, he did not know that the enemy was there. Of course he wouldn’t leave, it would be embarrassing.

Furthermore, they were working together with the Star Cats.

Who knew that despite the layers of defense, the thousands of apostles and the various back up plans, he would still be able to enter. Now, he would not stay longer, being embarrassed would be better than being in an accident.

When everyone in the White House was about to take action, the floor started to shake.

It was like an earthquake.

Meanwhile, outside the White House isolation region, thousands of meters away from the White House, countless citizens, media and apostles were gathered. They were observing the White House from afar.

In front of the TVs, computers, and ipads millions of Americans were watching the news report curiously.

“Everyone, this is CNN. I am your reporter, Claire. We are bringing you a report from outside the White House.”

Then, the camera turned and the White House appeared in front of everyone.

“As everyone can see, now, the White House has been surrounded by large amounts of troops and all unauthorized personnel have been evacuated 1 kilometer away.” The female reporter looked at the time. “Currently, it is already past midnight and the White House still looks intact.”

In the studio, the host smiled and said, “Claire, it looks like this is a wasted trip.”

A guest at the side said, “The White House is one of the safest places in the world. The threat may be just a prank.”

“If there is really going to be an attack, it wouldn’t make sense to give a warning first...”

“I think that the person behind this may be XXX, XXX or XXX, their motives may be...”

“Everyone look! The exoskeleton mechanical army is the latest development in the military. It was said to be still under development, surprisingly, they are already in use.”

“It provides the soldiers with strong bullet proof and explosion proof defense. It can also provide soldiers with triple the loading capacity and they can bring along more weapons.”

“Furthermore, the digitized helmets are equipped with infrared, sonar and electromagnetic detection. When battling in the wild, fighting with these equipments is as easy as killing a cockroach in your kitchen.”

“Our country now has the most developed weapons in the world.”

“Evidently, the President has used this chance to show our military strength.”

“Everyone look, two minutes ago, our president just sent a tweet. Let us look at the content...”

In all the news reports, all the hosts and guests were relaxed and joking. In most of the American’s hearts, they were still the strongest country and the super power in the world. They had the most amount of money, the strongest army, and the most terrible weapons.

Chapter 872: Demolish

On earth, the Americans were invincible.

Therefore, after Zhao Yao made the threat, most Americans were first infuriated then they were curious.

They were infuriated that someone had challenged their country and they were curious to see if there was a change in the White House.

Meanwhile, when the female reporter got bored at the scene and looked at the camera man beside her. “Tom, do you think we’ll catch a big story?”

The camera man laughed, “How can it be Claire? Don’t you know how powerful the White House troops are? Even if they faced transformers, they would be beaten into pulp.”

Claire looked disappointed. “Then, am I not wasting my time?”

Tom said, “Not necessarily. Maybe some people will come over to cause trouble. Throw eggs or crash a car. Then, you can do a live report.”

Suddenly, Tom saw that Claire looked astonished and he turned around to look at the White House too. Then, he was startled.

At the same time, countless people were screaming.

In front of the screens, the people watching the reports gasped and stood up.

In the screen, a large piece of the the White House's roof disappeared.

Then, large pieces of walls started disappearing.

It was like an invisible creature was eating the White House.

...

In the frozen world, Zhao Yao walked slowly along the corridors as he looked at the panicking faces. Then, his eyes lit up. "Hey, isn't this the President?"

He walked in front of the blond haired elder and tidied his tie. "He looks frightened."

Then, he picked up a pen and wrote on his hand. "Don't be afraid. I won't kill you."

"But, you have to hand over Doomsday or I will demolish the Capitol."

After writing, Zhao Yao walked in front of a wall and used the Murasama Blade to cut it. Then, Zhao Yao pushed the wall gently and it fell over. It was as easy as cutting a cake.

Zhao Yao reached out, carried the wall and hummed while he walked onto the grass patch outside.

In the middle of the grass patch was the opened Dimension Portal.

He walked to the Dimension Portal and threw the wall inside. The parts that exceeded the dimension of the door were cut and thrown in again.

Project X sat in the Extradimensional Belly and looked at the bricks and cement being thrown in, he thought, "What the hell... is this guy doing?"

After doing all of this Zhao Yao used Cheese Cloak and flew back into sky. He had returned to the clouds and entered Ares' Deflective Field.

Ares' Deflective Field was like a huge bag that contained all the supercats.

In Time Freeze, they were frozen in the air together.

Zhao Yao carried Ares in his arms and resumed time.

Zhao Yao was flying with Cheese and Zhao Yao carried Ares, while Ares was carrying all the supercats with the Deflective Field.

Zhao Yao said, "Ares, set the Deflective Field such that I can come in and out freely. When the Time Freeze's cool down period has ended, I will go down again."

Then, Zhao Yao looked down and started counting.

Matcha was Level 8 and every time he used Time Freeze for 12 seconds, he could have a relative time of 96 seconds with Boiling point.

96 seconds was enough for Zhao Yao to fly down, cut the house, throw it into the Dimension Portal and fly back.

There were many times where Zhao Yao did not even need 96 seconds. He also would not maintain the same frequency for them to find out the pattern.

...

To everyone else in the real world, it was like every seven or eight seconds, the White House would have one part missing. It was like there was an invisible monster eating up the White House.

"What!" Reporter Claire eyes lit up, but she spoke with a heartbroken tone. "Everyone look! The White House has disappeared! Before this, the president was in the White House. We don't know if he has been attacked. We will continue to report for you!"

There were live streamers who were pointing their phones at the White House and gasping.

“Look! The roof of the White House is gone! Even the walls are gone!”

“Oh my god! What is eating the White House!”

“How is the president?”

Meanwhile, in the White House, the bodyguards and assistant evacuated the president out.

The president looked at the disappearing walls, furnitures and electronics and he panicked. He exclaimed, “What is attacking us?”

The surrounding bodyguards were anxious as even if the body guards were apostles, they have never experienced such peculiar attacks.

“Where are the Star Cats? Where are they?”

“On your left! Retreat!”

A bunch of them walked halfway and saw that the floor in front them disappeared. They yelled and retreated.

“What is happening outside?!”

“Check if the backup retreat route is still safe!”

“Damn it! The House is about to collapse!”

After the chaos, there was a blue flash in front of the President and a dozen of Star Cats apostles in an exoskeleton armor were transported.

The leader of the Star Cats apostles said, “President, hold onto me. We will bring you out.”

There were another flash and the president and his team disappeared.

The entire White House was still disappearing, Steve looked at the picture in the control room and said in disbelief, “He is really going to demolish the White House?”

He turned his head and yelled, “What is going on? How is he doing it?”

“No... no idea, he has never displayed similar powers before.” The assistant said, “There are too much possibilities.”

“Try and stop him!” Steve shouted. “We cannot allow him to continue. Send out the toxin team.”

As he spoke, the Star Cats apostles were activated.

In the blue light, the toxin apostles in exoskeleton armor were transported into the White House. As they activated their powers, the air was filled with all kinds of toxins.

Any ordinary human who took a breath would die from poison immediately.

Chapter 873: Aftermath

“It is useless, Sir,” The assistant said. “The White House is still being demolished.”

“Not afraid of toxins?” Steve sneered. “Then, use a low temperature and freeze the White House down!”

One by the one, the apostles in protective clothing ran into the White House and the chilling air filled the entire building.

All the table lamps, chair, television, computer, and toilets were frozen by the chilly air. The temperature of the entire White House was decreasing below negative hundred degrees Celsius. There were no signs of life in the White House.

However, the situation did not change. The floor and the furniture were still disappearing from the White House.

“Did the observation team discover the target?” Steve raged. “What did he do?”

“No... no idea,” The assistant said. “The infrared and sonar vision channels all couldn’t see him. The electromagnetic waves can’t detect him either, but he is there!”

“What about underground?” Steve shouted. “Doesn’t he know how to descend underground?”

Under the White House, a team of apostles reporting, “No, he isn’t here.”

Steve grabbed onto his head and rubbed his hair. He looked at the half demolished White House and moaned, “What is happening?”

Star Cats had made all kinds of precautionary plans for the powers that Zhao Yao showcased.

They used apostles with Monster’s powers to fight against Zhao Yao’s strong physical qualities.

The exoskeleton armor was to defend against illusions.

The prediction team and transfer team were to track his teleportation.

The digging team was to prevent him from going underground.

The psychokinesis team was to fight against his force field and to restrict his movement speed.

The toxins, low temperature, medical, hypnosis and a dozen other powers were mobile units.

However, they did not expect or prepare to meet in such circumstances.

Steve said bitterly, “We can’t see him, can’t detect him, can’t attack him and can’t defend against him. We are defenseless against Zhao Yao now.”

The assistant said, “Sir, there were words written on the President’s hands.”

“What?” Steve asked, “What were they?”

He looked at the photo and read it. “Tomorrow morning? The Capitol?”

The Capitol was much more important than the White House. It was the heart of America. It was the place where all the inauguration of the President were held and where all the important laws were passed. This shows how scared the place was to Americans.

It was like demolishing the Great Hall of the People and Tiananmen.

Steve could not imagine the consequences of demolishing the Capitol so violently. His scalp turned numb.

In the screen behind Steve, Anthony said, “He can write on the President’s palm, which means he can kill you guys anytime.”

On the other screen, the supercat with prediction powers, Merlin said, “It would not be wise to continue to fight him. Maybe we can sit down and have a talk. After all Doomsday is our common enemy.”

“We can tell him about Doomsday and let’s not rush into dealing with him before figuring out his powers.”

“However...” Steve said helplessly. “He did not give us any contact details. We cannot leak the news out or everyone will know that we have succumbed to him and we don’t know if China can contact him.”

“The next target is the Capitol. We have to contact him or stop him before something happens to the Capitol.”

Then, the satellite phone rang and Steve answered the phone. His eyes lit up.

“Everyone, I think we can negotiate with him now.”

...

Meanwhile, as the last wall disappeared, the entire White House disappeared in front of everyone.

The building that had hundreds of years of history and seen centuries of America's presidents had completely disappeared.

Outside the White House, the crowd, media, and live streamers turned from excited, shocked and nervous to silent. They fell more and more silent. When the entire White House disappeared, the crowd was completely silenced.

Everyone looked at the empty land feeling depressed and fearful.

Although White House was just a building it symbolized countless Americans' spirit, confidence and faith.

Now, in front of countless Americans it was demolished such that they were helpless against it. It crushed the confidence of the entire nation.

Originally the Americans could announce to the world with the greatest confidence and pride that their President, the highest authority of their nation, lived there. They were not afraid to let everyone know that they were confident that they had the capabilities to keep their President safe.

But now, with a warning, with the latest developed weapons and witnessed by countless people, the White House was destroyed in an unexplainable way.

If the White House could be destroyed like this, then what about other places? Was there anywhere safe on this earth?

In front of their TVs and computers, countless Americans covered their mouths in shock and watched the White House disappear in disbelief. Some were angered, some were upset, some were afraid and some were worried...

It was like the internet was bombed with a nuclear bomb. News swept across the world like a tornado and it spread to billions of people.

“... On 21 August, at 12.26am, the America White House was under attack for unidentified reasons...”

“... The entire White House has disappeared... cause unknown... no casualties...”

“... Currently the American President is still healthy... he displayed strong condemnation and has promised that... the attacker will be caught...”

“... No organizations have claimed responsibility for this...”

...

In the Cat Wonderland office, Matcha sat at Zhao Yao’s desk and there was a foreign phone number. Then, he heard crappy Chinese.

“Hi, this is the American President’s office. May I ask if Zhao Yao...”

Matcha slammed down the phone. “Stupid! The liars are everywhere. How can Americans speak Chinese?”

Matcha was still very concerned about his stomach and was unaware of the big news in America.

Chapter 874: Giving Birth and Discussion

Matcha hung up the phone and buried his head in his stomach. The more he thought, the angrier he became.

He did not sleep that night and was busy for the day. As he pondered, he fell asleep unknowingly.

A series of roars were heard and Matcha opened his eyes in a daze.

“Matcha!”

“Matcha, what’re you doing?”

“Wake up!”

Matcha opened his eyes and saw a short and fat version of himself patting him. “Your son’s poeing again. Go clean up immediately!”

Matcha turned his head and saw a small orange cat sprawled on the ground. Beside him were lumps of poo.

After cleaning up the floor, Matcha heard another shout. “Matcha! Your son’s constipated. Go lick him!”

Matcha retorted, “Why should I lick him?”

“When a kitten’s constipated, his parents need to lick them to stimulate his stomach. Don’t you know this? What kind of a dad are you?”

Matcha walked over reluctantly.

“Matcha, there’s no more milk! Buy some milk for your son!”

“Remember to feed him milk at specific points in time.”

“Tomorrow’s his vaccination. Don’t forget to bring him to the appointment.”

“Matcha! Get up immediately, your son...”

Matcha was kept busy with his son’s errands. When he next looked into the mirror, he saw a frail face with blood-shot eyes.

His fur was oily and looked like he had not cleaned himself for days.

His paw pads were soiled and filled with dust.

His cheeks were hallowed and his eyes listless. Even his stomach slimmed down.

“How did I become like this? My looks dropped by at least 50 points.” Matcha muttered to himself.

He heard the flapping of wings and a Munchkin cat flew in and circled above his head. The Munchkin cat shouted happily, “We meet again and it’s earlier than I expected! Are you happy?”

Matcha frowned and glared at Doomsday as he said, “Who are you? I feel like beating you up.”

“Hahaha.” Doomsday laughed loudly. “I deliver surprises for the world. I fight for world peace and gender equality.”

“Huh?” Matcha frowned and looked at Doomsday. He was dazed in the dreamscape but he still had his subconscious’ mind and memories.

Matcha’s eyes popped when he recognized Doomsday. “It’s you! You’re the one who delivered the kitten to me! Are you the one who made me pregnant?” Matcha wailed as he charged towards Doomsday and wrestled with him.

Two orange cats tossed and turned on the ground as they fought. Doomsday shouted in shock, “What’re you doing?”

“You’re asking me?” Matcha roared furiously. “You’ve gotten me into hot soup!” He bit Doomsday’s ear.

Argh! Doomsday screamed in pain as he kicked wildly at Matcha using his hind leg. “I know you’ll be unhappy at the beginning but you’ll thank me in the future! I gave you the world’s best gift!”

“The world’s best gift?” Matcha was angered. “Do you know how much I’m suffering? I’m a tomcat and you let me give birth to a kitten?!”

Matcha bit Doomsday’s ear viciously.

“Ah! My ear’s dropping! My ear’s dropping!” Doomsday panicked and said, “You don’t know what’s good for you! I’ll get you to understand my good intentions!”

The next moment, the world swirled and quaked as Matcha’s eyes were filled with darkness. Then he awoke in the office.

“What? I was dreaming?”

As he was recalling his dream, he felt a sharp pain in his stomach. He looked at his tummy which had grown bigger.

“S*it!”

“I’m feeling the pain of labour?!” Matcha panicked and exclaimed. “Why do I feel like I’m giving birth?”

Matcha became anxious as though he had caught fire. “What shall I do? What shall I do?”

Old Cat came into the office and said, “Sir George, we’re starting the meeting... We...” He lifted his head, saw an empty chair, and was puzzled. “Not in the office? I thought I saw him just now?”

Matcha activated Time Freeze to hide outside Cat Wonderland. He muttered, “No, I can’t stay in Cat Wonderland...”

“I’ve got to find a place where nobody will recognize me...”

“Yes!”

...

With the disappearance of the White House, powerful organizations in the world were shocked by such powerful superpower.

In Jianghai, half an hour after the White House's disappearance, Uncle Ho took a flight to the North to attend a secret high profile meeting.

Looking at familiar and some unknown leaders, Uncle Ho could not stop swallowing his saliva nervously.

He had few occasions to speak except for answering some questions during the meeting. However, he got to know a large amount of intelligence unknown to him previously.

“Zhao Yao is the confirmed perpetrator of the White House incident.”

“The United States have informed us that the Pentagon was very unhappy about this incident. The effect on international relations...”

“Zhao Yao's superpowers went beyond our expectations. Is there any conclusion from the superpower strategic unit?”

“As for the unknown superpower, we're unable to observe, defend, counterattack or organize effective...”

After hearing four consecutive 'unable', everyone frowned deeply.

“Previously, Zhao Yao exhibited similar superpowers but without the destructiveness.”

A senior leader looked at Uncle Ho and asked, “Mr Ho, you've been in charge of Zhao Yao. Do you know what that superpower is?”

Uncle Ho stood up nervously and said, “Though we were in contact for long periods of time, Zhao Yao's cautious and used illusion and invisibility to hide his superpowers so we are not sure either.”

An elderly leader said, “Don't worry, just tell us what you know. Bold speculations and meticulous confirmations are what we want.”

Uncle Ho nodded and pondered before saying, “Zhao Yao exhibited a similar superpower before and the duration is short so we thought it was the Teleportation superpower. After observing several battles, his superpower’s not as simple as a Teleportation superpower.”

“Within a certain distance, he can complete many actions that we are unable to observe in a short time.”

“A similar superpower that I can think of is our unit’s Time Acceleration. However, he’s faster than that. Even high-speed cameras can’t capture his actions or changes in his shadow.”

“I only know of one superpower that can do that.”

Everyone looked at him curiously. “What superpower?”

“The superpower’s faster than light,” Uncle Ho said grimly. “Time Freeze, more than a minute of Time Freeze.”

Chapter 875: Negotiation

After listening to Uncle Ho’s speculation, everyone was silent and slowly took in the incredulous information.

Everyone understood the concept of Time Freeze and how unnatural it was. Nobody had discovered such a superpower in the supernatural realm. Time Freeze was an unscientific and illogical superpower.

When such superpower was used by an apostle with compound superpowers, his threat level was multiplied.

An elderly leader asked, “Are you sure it’s Time Freeze?”

Uncle Ho said, “I can’t be 100% sure but with our current intelligence on Zhao Yao, only Time Freeze fits the description of his superpower.”

“Wow, Time Freeze!” An Army leader said. “Someone actually possessed this incredible superpower.”

The leaders gradually recovered from their shock and started discussing their plan of action.

“Elevate Zhao Yao’s security clearance.”

“As for the Americans... an official reply’s not required. I’ll dispatch a messenger discreetly.”

Not only China but the other countries in the world were investigating the details of the White House incident. Everyone wanted to find out what terrifying superpower was used in this attack.

Because China and the United States collaborated in banning information, not many people knew Zhao Yao’s identity and his terrifying superpowers.

...

In the United States.

Though there were many setbacks contacting Zhao Yao, after assistance from numerous middlemen, the Americans managed to contact Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao picked up his phone and heard the other party conversing in English followed by Mandarin.

“Greetings, I am Steve from the Star Cats. We have met before.”

Zhao Yao frowned and said, “You’re repeating yourself. You think I don’t understand English? Are you looking down on Asians? Is that racial discrimination?”

"I..." Steve inhaled deeply and said, "I think there's a misunderstanding. You must have cooled down after demolishing the White House? Let's discuss any issues that you're unhappy with. There's no need to resort to violence, don't you think?"

"That's nothing to discuss. Just surrender the remaining four Star Cats, Doomsday and the Meteorite Fragments," Zhao Yao said. "I won't demolish the Capitol Building and I'll reconstruct the White House. I'll add in lawn mowing and room cleaning. The White House will be as good as new."

Steve cursed Zhao Yao silently for his insatiable greed. Steve thought that the problem was not about reconstructing the White House.

As Zhao Yao was currently the stronger one, they were on the receiving end of his attacks. They could not defend or attack and were in a helpless position.

Steve ate his humble pie and said, "Doomsday's not with us as he has escaped and his superpower has evolved. If you want to find him, we can help you."

Zhao Yao was silent and Steve said, "If you were affected by Doomsday's superpower, besides being able to be treated by him, there's another traditional method..."

"What nonsense is that!" Zhao was agitated and said, "Who told you I'm pregnant? Don't you spread rumors! I'm looking for Doomsday not because I'm pregnant!"

After listening to Zhao Yao's heated outburst, Steve and the four pioneer cats felt helpless.

Anthony, the supercat with mass transfer superpower, said, "Zhao Yao was indeed made pregnant by Doomsday."

The Divination cat, Merlin, said, "I heard one becomes more hot-tempered after being pregnant. No wonder Zhao Yao's so vicious."

Another supercat with the Frost superpower, Ace, said, "Don't antagonize a pregnant man. Shall we wait for him to give birth before having a discussion? Perhaps after giving birth, he will develop maternal love. It might be easier to reach an agreement."

Steve quickly replied, “Yes, yes, yes, we know you aren’t pregnant. Doomsday isn’t with us. You’ve found the wrong person.”

“I don’t believe you,” Zhao Yao said. “Unless you find the whereabouts of Doomsday and inform me, I won’t believe you.”

Steve retorted, “You are getting unreasonable? You attacked our Natural Disaster apostles first so our Star Cats retaliated. If you hadn’t captured Arthas and the other Star Cats and weakened our defenses, Doomsday wouldn’t have escaped and caused... so many unnatural pregnancies.”

“Hey! Bingo! I’m unreasonable. Are you going to retaliate?” Zhao Yao said, “Tell me the whereabouts of Doomsday and I’ll believe you.”

Steve was so furious he felt like wringing Zhao Yao’s neck. However, he understood that he was the weaker one so he was unable to do anything to Zhao Yao.

Steve suppressed his anger and said, “Yes, we can help you find Doomsday. What about the Capitol Building...”

“No.”

Steve said warily, “We’ve cleared our misunderstandings. There’s no need to resort to violence...”

“I haven’t cleared any misunderstandings,” Zhao Yao said. “The Star Cats and Meteorite Fragments are still in your hands. I’m warning you, if you don’t surrender the cats and the fragments, I’ll not be finished with you.” Zhao Yao hung up the phone.

Steve could not help slamming down the phone and shouted, “I’m unable to negotiate with him. How can I continue the negotiation? How can there be such a greedy, unscrupulous and uncouth person?”

Anthony coaxed, “Buck up Steve. Think of the consequences if you fail with the negotiation. First the Capitol Building, followed by the Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial Hall, Mount Rushmore National Memorial Park, Empire State Building and everything on American soil will be destroyed by Zhao Yao.”

Steve said helplessly, “He’s beyond unreasonable. Do we surrender our cats and the fragments to him? He’ll become more brazen and have no scruples.”

Steve’s eyes flickered coldly as he said, “Such a weak talk would not result in true peace. We have to let him know we can’t defeat him but we can attack his kin, friends and cats.”

The four Star Cats looked at each other and said, “Fine, Steve, whatever plans you have be prepared for failure.”

Merlin said, “I can foretell Doomsday’s location but we’re not aware of your plans. Do you understand?”

“That’s what I hoped for,” Steve said. “It’s time I show Zhao Yao our true colors. We can’t let him think that we are without teeth, otherwise we won’t be able to negotiate with him.”

Steve dialed a cell phone number and said, “Hello? We failed in the negotiation. Follow my previous orders and give me a call once it’s successful.”

Chapter 876: Rescue

The apostles, who were sent by the Star Cats to China, began their operation.

In the basement, a man and woman who bribed the Cao Gang’s Mao Mao, hung up their phones. Behind them were twenty Star Cats apostles.

Before Zhao Yao went to the United States, the Star Cats had secretly sent a small section of apostles to avenge Sea Dragon’s defeat.

The plan was to hit fast and furiously before Zhao Yao could react. To cut off his superpowers, they had to kidnap all the cats in the Cat Wonderland. If they were unable to kidnap the cats, the order was to kill all of them.

When Zhao Yao created trouble in the United States, he brought along his powerful supercats. The Star Cats ordered the apostles in China to lie low as a backup.

“Finally, it’s our turn to act.” The female apostle, Ada, smiled and said, “Zhao Yao’s faraway in the United States and he brought along his powerful supercats. The Cat Wonderland’s his greatest weakness. We can use the cats here to blackmail him. I don't understand what the higher-ups are thinking. We could have acted earlier."

"Don't complain Ada. As agents, our mission is to carry out orders. As for whether the orders are logical is not up to us." A male apostle, Auvare, walked to the front of Mao Mao.

The Cao Gang leader Mao Mao, the adjutant floret cat and Milk Tea were all tied to chairs.

Mao Mao used his looks which was similar to Matcha and disguised himself as Matcha to kidnap Milk Tea.

And the three cats were captured by Ada and Auvare.

Seeing Auvare approach, Mao Mao's stuffed mouth emitted muffled noises as he screamed in his heart, "What do you want?"

The white cat on Auvare's shoulder shrugged his shoulders and said, "Sorry brother, we're worried you may leak news so we have to imprison you. Once we deal with the Cat Wonderland's cats, we'll release you."

After hearing the white cat, Milk Tea opened his eyes widely as he became agitated.

Noticing Milk Tea's expression, Auvare said, "You're Milk Tea? Tell us about Cat Wonderland."

Milk Tea replied angrily, "I'm not going to tell you!"

The white cat used his cell phone to translate Milk Tea's reply and Auvare smiled as he said, "If you tell us, you can help us capture the cats. If not, we'll blow up Cat Wonderland and kill all the cats inside. That's your fault..."

Milk was inexperienced and was stunned by the death threats. He was full of tears as he stared at Auvare.

Ada added, "Think carefully, if they're captured, they will have a good life in the United States. Once we blow up Cat Wonderland, they'll die."

Thinking of their horrible deaths, Milk Tea's eyes dripped with tears. He drooped his tail and asked, "How could you do such things..."

Auvare squatted down and caressed Milk Tea's body and said, "This world's cruel. Anyone, at any place and time, can die abruptly. Just like Cat Wonderland's cats and you."

He rested his palm gently on Milk Tea's head and said, "Only you can decide whether your friends live or die. No one can help you."

Milk Tea felt extremely helpless and shivered as he thought, "Brother Matcha! Master Zhao! Where are you?"

"No, Master Zhao had gone to the United States. Now that I'm kidnapped, there's no way Brother Matcha can find me."

"If the Cat Wonderland is rigged with a bomb and it explodes, only a few cats will live."

"Help? What should I do?"

....

After Zhao Yao hung up the phone, he gave Bai Quan a phone call.

"Hello Bai Quan, the Americans are likely to attack Cat Wonderland. Prepare according to our plan."

Bai Quan nodded and said, "Yes, I checked just now. Matcha and Milk Tea are missing."

"Huh?" Zhao Yao's brow jumped as he said, "Did you find them?"

Bai Quan sniffed the cat fur in his hand and replied, "There should be no problem. Matcha's not around so I'm unable to borrow his superpower..."

“Use Cannon’s superpower.” Zhao Yao smiled and said, “Cannon’s superpower is especially good against Americans.”

“I got it,” Bai Quan said. “I’m making a move now.”

Zhao Yao reminded him, “Be careful and take care of your safety. Survive and there’s hope.” Surviving battles was Zhao Yao’s guiding principle.

“Don’t worry Boss. I’m pretty strong now.”

Bai Quan gathered Cannon, Cat Sage, Doll, and Zhao Xue.

Bai Quan stroked Cannon’s head and said, “Let’s go and rescue Boss’ cats.”

Using Bai Quan’s superior sense of smell, they located Milk Tea.

Surveying the nearby basement, Baiquan said, “Doll, send some nano robots to scout the basement. The priority is to locate Matcha and Milk Tea.”

“I got it.” Doll transmitted data to the nanorobots as they materialized from the air and sneaked into the basement. The robots searched the entire basement without being discovered by the apostles.

“We found a supercat and 22 apostles with unknown superpowers,” Doll said. “We found Milk Tea and the people interrogating him about Cat Wonderland. There are two cats besides Milk Tea. One’s Matcha and the other’s a floret cat.

Doll had mistaken Mao Mao for Matcha.

Doll’s paws emitted rainbow rays that depicted the scenes in the basement.

“This basement room is an abandoned air raid shelter. There are three entrances and their locations are over here...”

Bai Quan nodded and said, “I’ll protect Matcha and Milk Tea. Cat Sage, you’ll...”

After allocating the tasks, Bai Quan and Zhao Xue flashed and vanished. Doll and Cat Sage looked at each other and nodded. They moved towards their planned positions.

....

In the basement, Auvare caressed Milk Tea's head and smiled. "Well, are you going to tell us and save your friends? Surviving is the most important. As long as they're alive, you'll have opportunities to save them in the United States."

Milk Tea's eyes drooped as he fell into sorrow and hesitation.

Auvare wanted to take advantage of Milk Tea as he was gullible. If he knew of their superpowers, he would be able to capture the Wonderland's cats with ease.

A massive explosion was heard and a hole was blown open in the ceiling. Bai Quan's eyes lit up and his body emitted pure virgin power as he descended from the ceiling and grasped Auvare's head in his palm.

Auvare screamed loudly in pain but his mouth was covered by Bai Quan. "Shhh, don't shout." He swept his hand and pulled Mao Mao, the adjutant floret cat and Milk Tea behind him.

Chapter 877: Rescuing Milk Tea

Bai Quan swept up Milk Tea, Mao Mao, and the floret cat behind him and glanced at Auvare before gazing at Ada and the 21 apostles.

After borrowing Cannon's superpower, his virgin power exploded. In Bai Quan's eyes, Auvare appeared dark and round like a huge hot air balloon.

While he was grasping Auvare's head, his body cut into Auvare's dark balloon. If he moved a little, he would deal a fatal blow to Auvare.

He warned Auvare not to struggle and scream, however, that was not possible.

Auvare let out muffled sounds as he moved his limbs to activate his superpower. He wailed painfully and vomited white foam as he passed out.

“Why did you struggle?” Bai Quan shook his head and said to Ada and the apostles, “Are you from the Star Cats? I don’t like fighting to the death. If I leave with Milk Tea, will you pretend that nothing happened?”

Ada sneered and said, “Leave? You’ll stay as well!”

The 21 apostles attacked. Five of them pulled out their handguns and activated their Gun Control superpower. Bullets shot towards Bai Quan’s dead spots like his brow, eyes, the back of his head and heart.

The remaining apostles activated their superpowers. The air around Bai Quan’s legs became mud, then steel plates that shrunk and constricted his movements.

The apostles were able to transform the air into a bullet shield. With 15 of them activating the same superpower, they were able to twist a truck into a fried dough twist.

The Natural Disaster Representative, Ada, activated her Sub-Zero superpower and transformed herself into an Ice Goddess. She brought with her a temperature of less than -100°C as she flew towards Bai Quan.

Ada and Auvare were Natural Disaster Representatives. They were able to teleport back to the Star Cats every 24 hours to borrow the Frost superpower from one of the pioneer Star Cats, Ace.

They could also transform their body into pure ice and create a frost field of -100°C.

Auvare was ambushed and knocked out by Bai Quan before he could activate his superpower.

Ada activated her superpower with full force. Her frosted body was immune to most attacks and she left a trail of frost wherever she went.

If Bai Quan were to be hugged or touched by her, he would freeze like an ice cream stick and perish.

Bai Quan straightened his back to brace himself against the attacks. He had no intention to dodge them.

The bullet storm landed on his body and made popping sounds but they fell off harmlessly as Bai Quan's strong virgin power shielded his body.

One or two stray bullets penetrated Bai Quan's defenses and landed on his well toned body. The bullets were distorted and fell to the ground without doing any harm.

Even if the 15 apostles exerted their full efforts, they were unable to manipulate the air to shift Bai Quan's legs an inch.

Bai Quan shook his legs and leapt out of the constricting air. He slapped his palm on the frosted Ada.

"Elemental ice? Normal physical attacks are useless against her, but ice is easily affected by air streams..."

The muscles on Bai Quan's right arm rose up and expanded like huge dragons, creating an alarming explosion that shot out an air stream towards Ada.

Argh! Ada screamed as she flew back from the impact of the air stream. She gave a furious roar and struggled to fend off the air stream. She used all her strength but was unable to hold herself. She collided into the wall, freezing it, and leaving a trail of frost.

She brushed against two of her apostles and froze them to death.

Ada recovered herself and shouted angrily, "Kill him!"

At this moment, a loud bang was heard from another entrance. Cement blocks and steel columns collapsed as the basement quaked. Three large golden dragon heads peered out from the settling dust.

The golden dragon bellowed as his head rose up and demolished thousand tons of cement floors above, exposing the basement to the sun.

Large dragon eyes gazed at the apostles and his nose spat fire sparks. The dragon looked at the apostles as though they were chocolates in the snack box. The apostles felt chills running up their spines.

At the same time, explosions rang from the third entrance. The surrounding walls collapsed and hundreds of Doll robots surrounded the apostles. The hands of the robots transformed into plasma cannons that gave off threatening glows. The robots aimed their cannons at the apostles.

The unconscious Auvare abruptly transformed into elemental ice and pounced on Bai Quan with his deadly frost.

Auvare had only passed out just now and he waited for a chance to transform into elemental ice and ambush Bai Quan.

When everyone was distracted by the Doll robots and the Tri-headed Golden Dragon, Auvare completed his transformation and hugged Bai Quan.

Bai Quan counterattacked by using his superior reflexes.

He opened his mouth and spat out a monstrous air stream towards Auvare, stopping him in his tracks. Bai Quan brought the three cats behind him and teleported, retreating to a distance tens of meters away.

Auvare wanted to attack again but two robots had fixed their aim on him. Plasma with ultra high temperature hit him squarely on his body.

Amidst the painful wailing, Auvare was vaporized into snowflakes. The ground underneath melted and formed magma-like substances.

An Air Control apostle screamed in terror and created an air barrier around him as he ran outside. He did not run far as he was squished by the dragon's paw.

Zhao Xue walked out from the shadows in her half-feline, half-human form. She was starting to like her cat ears and tail.

“You disposed of the enemies before I could show my skills. They are too weak.”

Chapter 878: Doomsday's Whereabouts

“Don't underestimate them, Zhao Xue.” Bai Quan looked at his frosted palm and said, “With their superpowers, if they knew about our superpowers and ambushed us, besides Doll, I, you and Cat Sage could be seriously wounded.”

Ada and the apostles were terrified by what they saw.

Ada looked at Bai Quan, the Tri-headed Golden Dragon, and the silver robots as she could not take her defeat lying down.

“Besides Zhao Yao, there are so many strange creatures in Cat Wonderland? Yet we intended to attack them? Those idiotic higher-ups! Don't they know that their intelligence was outdated by a few years?”

Bai Quan, the Tri-headed Golden Dragon and the robots' combat power were on par with the Natural Disaster Representatives. Although the feline girl did not fight, she looked powerful.

Ada was most worried about the surrounding robots. A cannon shot from one of the robots killed Auvare. If they fired their cannons simultaneously, what kind of damage would they do?

Bai Quan, who was always smiling, gave her an unfathomable feeling and she felt as though Bai Quan had figured out all her weaknesses.

Ada could not figure how Bai Quan defeated Auvare.

“We... We surrender,” Ada said.

Bai Quan nodded, put down the three cats, and teleported. Ada turned around and noticed that all the apostles had passed out on the floor.

She heard Bai Quan say, “All the apostles were knocked out. This woman can transform into elemental ice. Doll, do you have any idea of how to imprison her?”

A robot, who was hugging a large can, came over, and displayed Doll’s images. “This is a can for storing liquid nitrogen. Use it to imprison her for the time being.”

Bai Quan looked at Ada and frowned. “Would you like to go into the can yourself or do you need my help?”

“B*stard!” Ada cursed furiously and transformed into snowflakes that filled the entire can.

Bai Quan heaved in relief, looked at Milk Tea, and caressed his head. “Thank goodness Milk Tea’s alright. Otherwise I’ll incur the Boss’ wrath.”

Zhao Xue squatted down and looked at the trembling Mao Mao and his adjutant, who were hugging each other. She frowned and said, “Is this cat Matcha? If he’s Matcha, wouldn’t he be flogging the corpses now?”

Everyone stared at them, causing Mao Mao and his adjutant to hug each other tightly in terror.

In their eyes, they were the monsters and devils of the Headless Horseman, Zhao Yao.

Milk Tea said, “He’s the one who disguised himself as Matcha to kidnap me!”

“Huh?”

The adjutant floret cat was overwhelmed by the fierce gazes sweeping over him and he fell to the ground, sobbing. “It’s all your fault!” He pointed at Mao Mao and shouted, “I thought joining another gang or selling catmint was better!”

“Instead you wanted to become a killer!”

“There’s no profit! And we became kidnappers!”

“Shut up!” Mao Mao roared at his adjutant. He looked at Bai Quan and meowed, “I know the Headless Horseman’s rules. My money’s under the cat dwelling. Take it!”

The adjutant yelled, “Gang leader! We can’t lose the money! This is our last bit of money. Without it, there’s no Cao Gang!”

“There’s no more Cao Gang!” Mao Mao said, “We are washing our hands off gang activities!”

Bai Quan noticed the cats meowing pitifully and was puzzled as he asked, “What are they saying?”

“They are claiming to be pitiful...” Zhao Xue said. “Bring them away.”

The two cats panicked as Mao Mao shouted woefully, “Don’t take us to Cat Wonderland! We don’t want to be slaves!”

“I know what Headless Horseman wants! Take my money! Please don’t send me to Cat Wonderland!”

...

In the United States, Zhao Yao nodded after receiving a call from Bai Quan. Then he frowned and said, “Milk Tea was rescued but Matcha’s still missing?”

Bai Quan said, “Yes, I questioned the apostles and they said they only captured Milk Tea. They don’t know where Matcha is.”

“Matcha!” Zhao Yao was troubled as he said, “Perhaps he went gallivanting? Or the Star Cats sent another unit to capture him? Are you able to find him?”

Bai Quan said helplessly, “He left a lot of scents in Cat Wonderland and the surrounding streets. I need more time to find him.”

“Fine, inform me once you find him.”

Zhao Yao hung up the phone and thought, “We didn’t detect Matcha using Time Freeze or Regeneration so he wasn’t captured by the Americans.”

Remembering Matcha’s playful behavior, Zhao Yao said, “He’s probably gallivanting somewhere.”

Moments later, Zhao Yao’s cell phone rang. It was Steve, whose tired voice came through and he said, “We found Doomsday’s location and I’m sending you the information. Once you find him, you’ll understand that it’s a misunderstanding between us.”

“Hoho.” Zhao Yao was not going to go after them for Milk Tea’s kidnapping as he felt it was more important to find Doomsday. He nodded after receiving Doomsday’s location. He placed his supercats in the invisible Deflective Field and flew up into the sky, towards Doomsday’s location.

...

In a warehouse by the seaside, Doomsday laid on top of a pile of cat food cans while studying the world map happily on his cell phone.

“Excellent! The American birth rate increased. Isn’t Japan next in line?”

“I heard their population’s shrinking. I’ll help them increase their birth rate tomorrow.”

“It’s difficult to control my location in the material world while traveling in the dreamscape.”

Doomsday was not aware that the superpower he unknowingly obtained came from Arthas’s Dream Dimension.

He thought he discovered another superpower by mistake.

“As long as I continue, I’ll make all the males pregnant once to achieve gender equality. Everyone will have their own children and the world becomes better.”

Doomsday fantasized about the future bliss. He did many things like creating the Star Cats and using his superpower to create pregnancies because of his ideals.

He believed that there was meaning behind his superpower and it was not about power, wealth, influence. It was something greater and more important.

As long as he used his superpower, everyone would understand the importance of life and their own happiness.

“The world will be a better place because of my superpower.”

Chapter 879: For Peace

Doomsday thought about the future and then started to eat the canned food.

“It’s a pity that I can’t stay in the dream and work. I will still feel hungry and tired. I need to sleep and eat.” Doomsday was eating as he thought about his target. “I need to do something big!”

When Doomsday indulged in his big plans of maintaining world peace, Zhao Yao was two thousand meters above him. Zhao Yao narrowed his eyes and observed the warehouse.

“Doomsday seems to have the powers to travel in the dreamscape, although I don’t know how he is doing it, but to catch him, I have to be fast. I cannot let him have the chance to escape.”

Thinking of this, he couldn’t help but to take out the Cat Princess Dress. He planned to use Time Freeze and Illusion to defeat Doomsday instantly.

Upon seeing Zhao Yao wear the dress, Arthas, Volcano and Poseidon were stunned.

They were chatting privately. Arthas was bewildered. “Do... Doomsday’s powers have this effect too? Except for pregnancy, it changes their self-awareness too?”

Volcano was excited. “This is so powerful, he actually twisted this devil’s personality. Doomsday, you must not lose! Doomsday! You are the supercats last hope!”

Poseidon asked, “What if he was originally like this? I heard that this is pretty popular nowadays.”

Volcano was surprised. “What? Really?”

Arthas exclaimed. “Humans are incredible animals.”

“Do not get influence by him Arthas!” Volcano yelled, “Or you will become perverted like him!”

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao’s cats were used to it.

Ares sighed, “It’s here again. Zhao Yao’s strongest form. I haven’t seen it in a long time. Zhao Yao seems more and more natural with it.” He thought to himself, “If I wear it, will I get stronger too?”

Fish Ball look at Zhao Yao and nodded, “Yeah.” He thought to himself. “The last time I went home and wore Xiao Yu’s clothes, I did not get stronger. What is the principle behind it?”

Dust Ball said, “What is there to comment about? The dress is so ugly, only the furless would wear it. Furthermore, it is a guy wearing a girl’s clothes. It is too perverted.” Dust Ball looked at the male cats and asked, “You guys don’t have such thoughts right?”

“How is that possible?!” Fish Ball raged. “I hate freaks who wear female clothing.”

“Yeah!” Ares joined in. “What kind of cat do you think I am. I will never be like Zhao Yao!”

Then, Zhao Yao turned and asked the cats, “What are you guys talking about?”

They shook their heads in unison. “Nothing.”

Zhao Yao looked at Sheriff suspiciously and Sheriff shook his head too. “They didn’t say anything.”

Upon hearing Sheriff, all the cats sighed and were grateful towards Sheriff.

Sheriff did it on purpose. He thought, “My job will offend other cats too easily. Since the ancient times, cats like me haven’t had good ends. I should befriend Zhao Yao’s cats at appropriate times.”

When the supercats were still gossiping, Zhao Yao wore his Cat Princess' Little Dress and was ready to attack.

Then, in the frozen world, Zhao Yao flew down with the cats and entered the warehouse. He arrived in front of Doomsday.

Looking at Doomsday and he recalled the photo that Star Cats gave him. He made a comparison and confirmed.

“That’s him, the orange Munchkin.”

Then, he changed his Deflective Field to Illusion and controlled Doomsday.

When time started flowing again, Doomsday realized that he could no longer control himself and he panicked.

“What is happening? Why can’t I move?”

A malicious laughter rang and Zhao Yao walked in front of Doomsday. “Doomsday?”

Doomsday looked at Zhao Yao and recognized him. “It’s you!” He watched Arthas’s dreamscape many times, of course he would recognize Zhao Yao, who fought Arthas in the dreamscape.

He also remembered that he gave Zhao Yao a kid.

He looked at Zhao Yao who walk over menacingly and he asked nervously. “What do you want!”

Zhao Yao pointed at his stomach. “Deactivate your powers.”

Doomsday refused. “No! Trust me, although you...”

Zhao Yao did not give him the chance to complete his sentence and stabbed him in the tail with Dragon Slaying Saber.

Then, Doomsday screamed intensely.

It was not just the physical pain but the physiological blow.

Doomsday was a supercat that wanted to bring about world peace with his powers. He was a supercat with ambition.

Dragon Slaying Saber's test brought about a huge psychological damage.

He lay on the floor in a daze. Zhao Yao squat down and said, "Deactivate your powers."

"No... no..." Even if he was tortured by the Saber, he still clenched his teeth and was unwilling to deactivate the powers.

Arthas advised at the side. "Doomsday, just give in! Do what he says! He will do anything to make you surrender!"

Doomsday looked at the supercats behind Zhao Yao, especially the Star Cats then his eyes lit up and was determined. "You can kill me. I will not give in."

Zhao Yao's eyes turned red and he activated the illusion— Shit Wave.

Doomsday vomited from the illusion.

Zhao Yao said, "Either you eat shit till you die or you deactivate the powers."

Doomsday was still unwilling. "Don't think about it!"

Zhao Yao was surprised. This was the first time he had met with such a strong cat.

Under most circumstances, as long as he beat the cat up, used the Saber or Shit Illusion, it made any cat give in.

However, Doomsday did not.

All the supercats at the side were shocked too. They looked at Doomsday in awe. Although they were in awe, they still wanted to return back to normal.

Zhao Yao asked, “Why won’t you?”

Doomsday answered sacredly, “For world peace.”

Chapter 880: No

“Peace your head!” Ares slapped Doomsday on the body and yelled, “Turn me back to normal!”

Zhao Yao looked at Doomsday on the floor, who was in pain, and thought, “Oh no... Is this cat mentally challenged?”

He thought of the baby in his stomach and he asked patiently. “What has this got to do with world peace?”

Doomsday’s eyes lit up and said, “This is what you don’t understand...”

Zhao Yao listened to Doomsday explain his theory and he was bored out of his wits.

After Doomsday talked about his visions and he looked at Zhao Yao in anticipation. “Do you think I made sense?”

Arthas was speechless, “This again.”

Volcano sighed too, “He is acting up again.”

However, Zhao Yao thought about it and said, “Yes.”

Doomsday was surprised. "You think I make sense too? I knew it!"

"But..." Zhao Yao asked, "There's something wrong with your theory."

Doomsday asked unbelievably, "What is wrong?"

Doomsday had thought about his theory for very long and felt that it was perfect. It was the best future for the world.

Hence, when he heard that Zhao Yao said there was a flaw, he looked at Zhao Yao with disbelief.

Zhao Yao said, "Have you been pregnant?"

"Yes."

"What..." Zhao Yao was scolding in his heart. "Pervert."

Zhao Yao continued, "Then, did you raise him up?"

Doomsday said, "Nope. I gave birth to myself. It was to save myself. However, when I was a creator of Star Cats, I raised many kittens."

Zhao Yao was stunned and he said, "It is not enough to just raise them. A lot of your targets are humans. You have to understand the human problem."

"Think about it. If in this world, guys could give birth by themselves and women could give birth by themselves. Then, there would be less people who are willing to be married."

Doomsday listened and felt like it made sense.

Zhao Yao continued, "Furthermore, with your powers, the guys would give birth to guys and the girls would give birth to girls. Then, the guys and girls no longer need each other to continue their lineage. Have you thought of the consequences?"

Doomsday asked, "What?"

Zhao Yao sighed. "Forget it. You would not understand either."

Doomsday was agitated. "What do you mean by I would not understand? I have researched this for very long!"

Zhao Yao shook his head. "If this continues, there will be world war soon. The end of the world is coming."

"What?" Doomsday asked. "Why? How could it be! Why would there be a world war?"

Zhao Yao looked at him and hesitated. "Aye, forget it. If I say, it will only make you feel guilty."

Doomsday said, "You're pretending..."

"Aye!" Zhao Yao sighed. "If this continues, you will be notorious."

"You!" Doomsday stared at Zhao Yao said, "Tell me! Why will I be notorious?"

Zhao Yao said, "You have been using this power often, haven't you felt that the world feels different? That there are a lot of negative changes?"

Doomsday was lost. "Negative changes? Talking about negative changes..."

"A lot of people don't look happy after they are pregnant."

"Of course." Zhao Yao was complaining in his heart. "Which guy would be happy about pregnancy?" he yelled. "That's it. That's because it's an asexual pregnancy. It causes a gender split and social unrest. Now, the fact that more and more people are unhappy, it's a sign."

"Really? Gender split?"

“Of course.” Zhao Yao said. “Ever since you have been pregnant, don’t you feel like you don’t want to look for female cats anymore?”

“Rubbish.” Doomsday denied. “I still like female cats.”

“Like?” Zhao Yao said, “Then show me.” And in the illusion, a Elizabeth walked over.

Zhao Yao pointed at the illusion of Elizabeth and said, “Go ahead and do it.”

“Why not!” Doomsday snorted and went up to the female cat. However, he was dawdling and did not succeed.

Zhao Yao asked, “Why? You can’t?”

“Wait,” Doomsday asked nervously. “I need some time to prepare.”

“All this is bullshit.” Zhao Yao sneered in his heart. “In my illusion, all his five senses are under my control. I control if he can do it or not. Hahahaha...”

Sheriff was sweating. “Are you a monster?”

He prepared for a while and fell onto the floor in despair. “Why can’t I do it?”

The illusion Elizabeth looked at Doomsday in disgust and walked away slowly. “Rubbish.”

It was a heavy blow to the already depressed Doomsday.

Zhao Yao said slowly, “Don’t you understand? This is the consequence of males giving birth. You will become more uninterested in female cats and then, you will be completely uninterested. You will like male cats instead.”

Doomsday was shocked. “What? Then... what should I do?”

“There shouldn’t be anymore pregnancies.” Zhao Yao said, “Every time you are pregnant, it will get worse. Not just you, all the people who are affected by your powers will be like that. Then, males and females will be opponents and there will be a social division. Then, a war.”

“I understand,” Doomsday said. “I need to deactivate my powers! But what about those who already gave birth?”

“Erm, there is nothing we can do about that minority. Now, you just have to help the ones who have not given birth.” Zhao Yao nodded satisfyingly. “Like me.”

Hence, Zhao Yao released a bit of Doomsday’s control and let Doomsday deactivate the control on Ares, Elizabeth and the other supercats.

Zhao Yao touched his stomach that had returned back to normal and relaxed.

Doomsday said, “Okay! Let me go! I need to deactivate the pregnancy on others!”

Zhao Yao asked, “How are you planning to do it?”

Doomsday said, “Through the dreamscape.”

Zhao Yao thought to himself, “If I let him go through the dreamscape then I would not have control of him anymore.”

Zhao Yao was unwilling to let him go so easily and lose control.
