Chapter 881: Giving birth and Not Giving Birth

“Doomsday’s powers are too dangerous. I should keep him beside me and bring him back to Old Cat to brainwash him, after we settle the Star Cats incident. Then, we can slowly deactivate the powers on the others.”

“Furthermore, isn’t this guy a creator of Star Cats? Maybe he has some useful intel then I can settle Star Cats once and for all.”

Then, he asked Elizabeth to control Doomsday and chat with Doomsday while he used Sheriff’s powers to collect more intel on the Star Cats headquarters.

Of course the other creators were no longer in the headquarters. After all Doomsday had been jailed for so long, Zhao Yao caused such a big chaos in America and caught 5 creators.

Many of the intel that Doomsday knew was no longer relevant, but Zhao Yao believed that if he searched with that information, he would be able to find the rest of the Star Cats.

Zhao Yao’s expression turned serious after listening to the information Sheriff read.

Other than the Star Cats intel, he got to know more about the asexual pregnancy situation.

The Dream Dimension was chaotic and disordered. Without dreamscape, there was no concept of time and dimension.

During this period of time Doomsday had been running around countless people’s dreamscapes and activated his powers. There were at least a hundred thousand humans and cats pregnant asexually.

Furthermore, the process was accelerated and who knew when they would give birth.

If he left the matter alone, it would cause great disruption in society.

Zhao Yao thought to himself, “The Star Cats issue can be settled later, however, these men and male cat’s lives are at stake.”

After thinking about it, Zhao Yao decided to bring Doomsday back to Jianghai and asked Old Cat to brainwash him. Then, he could go back to the dream dimension and deactivate his powers.

He flew back to Cat Wonderland with supersonic speed and found Old Cat without anyone knowing.

“Old Cat, I have an important task for you.”

Old Cat looked at Zhao Yao, who appeared suddenly and asked in bewilderment. “What do you want from me?”

Zhao Yao explained the situation and continued, “I will place Doomsday in front of you for you to brainwash him. Make him go out and deactivate his powers for the humans and supercats. I know that your brainwashing powers only last for 24 hours, so don’t forget to ask him to come back every 20 hours. Understand?”

Zhao Yao understood the powers of Doomsday and knew that he could roam around freely in a dreamscape and cast powers in it. The action of going through a dreamscape was not restrained by time and space, so it would be hard to track him.

After saying all of this, Zhao Yao pointed at Sheriff and said, “You know what Sheriff’s powers are. I will bring him along when you are brainwashing Doomsday, so you better not have funny thoughts.”

Zhao Yao looked at his watch and said, “Of course, I know that it is difficult to control your thoughts. I will give you five minutes to calm down and think of whatever you want. Understand?”

Old Cat nodded and typed, “I understand. What kind of thoughts can I have? I promise to finish the task.”

Although Old Cat always had a great performance and obeyed Zhao Yao’s rules of not messing around with his powers, the power of brainwashing was too strong and strange, especially since Cat

Wonderland had many strong supercats. If his brainwashing powers were used badly, they could be as strong as a nuclear weapon.

Therefore, Zhao Yao used Old Cat's powers with great caution.

He watched Old Cat talk to the Dream Dimension for half an hour and added all the objectives and prerequisites. Then, Doomsday disappeared in front of Zhao Yao and entered the Dream Dimension with the objective of deactivating his powers.

Arthas exclaimed, "He can travel through the Dream Dimension as he pleases? How did Doomsday do it?" Arthas was shocked. "I cannot even do that. What did Doomsday experience? If I had such powers, I would never have been caught by Zhao Yao. I could have defeated him and stabbed him with the saber everyday..."

Zhao Yao slapped Arthas on the head and said, "I will give you a chance to reorganize your thoughts."

Arthas thought to himself, "How will I be able to fight Zhao Yao. I am just a cute household pet. I really think too much."

Zhao Yao looked at the disappearing Doomsday and thought, "This is so troublesome. I will have to delay my American plans. Aye, the Americans will have to wait."

At first Zhao Yao wanted to go to America, harvest experience points, collect supercats, and meteorite fragments. So he could increase his capabilities, defeat Project X, and help Roly Poly and the others recover.

However, he could not leave the Doomsday incident alone. He could only push back the plans for America.

Arthas raised his head and he felt a strange frequency radiating in the Dream Dimension. "It's so weird."

Zhao Yao asked, "What happened?"

Arthas said, "I can feel that something happened in the Dream Dimension. Something has been changed. Do you want to bring me and check it out?"

Of course Zhao Yao would not agree to such things. It would be another round of trouble if Arthas was connected to the Dream Dimension again. Furthermore, it was at such a crucial time where Dream Dimension was recovering the victims under Old Cat's control.

In the Dream Dimension where Zhao Yao and Arthas could not see. There was a vision looking at Dream Dimension curiously.

...

Just when Zhao Yao was controlling Doomsday to recover the victims.

At a district in Jianghai, in a cardboard cat bed. Matcha was lying on the ground and letting out screams.

Outside the cat bed, Bai Quan's voice sounded, "Matcha? Are you Matcha?"

Matcha was anxious and shocked. "Why did Bai Quan come over here?"

Bai Quan was outside the cardboard and said, "Milk Tea! What are you doing here? Boss asked me to look for you. He is worried about you. And Milk Tea was kidnapped. Did you know that? Thankfully we found him."

Bai Quan followed Zhao Yao's orders and tracked Matcha down.

Matcha was surprised. "Zhao Yao was worried about me? Milk Tea was kidnapped? At least he is back now. But, I am too ashamed to see anyone now."

Meanwhile, Bai Quan squat down and looked into the cat bed. He saw Matcha lying on the ground with his mouth open and looked very uncomfortable.

Bai Quan was shocked and asked, "Matcha, what happened to you? Are you sick?"

When he saw that Bai Quan was going to pick him up, Matcha yelled, “Don’t touch me!”

Bai Quan was bewildered. “Why?” Then, he passed the phone in front of Matcha and said, “If you have any problems, type it out. I will ask Boss to help you.”

“Don’t ask Zhao Yao to come over!” Matcha typed.

“Why?” Bai Quan asked, “If you won’t tell me why, I will ask Boss to come over now.”

Matcha typed helplessly, “I am about to give birth...”

Bai Quan was in shock. “What?”

However, there was no time for them to continue to chat. Matcha screamed and a claw reached out from his mouth.

Chapter 882: Traveling through dreamscape

Bai Quan said, “Use your strength!”

Matcha. “I’m about to vomit my stomach out!”

Bai Quan continued. “Come on Matcha, one of the hind legs are out already!”

Matcha screamed, “Shut up!”

Unfortunately, Bai Quan did not understand Matcha’s meows.

“Wait, wait a minute.” Bai Quan looked at the phone screen and said, “This says that if the hind leg of the kitten is out first, it’s Dystocia. It will get stuck.”

Matcha rolled his eyes and cursed inside. “I am giving birth with my mouth. How can it be the same?”

Bai Quan spoke with a nervous look, “It says to push back then pull it out again.”

Matcha screamed, “No! Hurry up and drag him out... Boohooo...”

Bai Quan who could not understand cat talk tried to push. He pushed the kitten back by a bit then slowly pulled it out.

Matcha shrieked non-stop, “No! I can’t do this! I don’t want to give birth anymore! Caesarean! I want a caesarean!”

Bai Quan said, “Matcha harder! I can see the head already!”

An hour later, Matcha lay on the floor dead. His eyes were lifeless and lost their focus. He looked withered and said, “What did I just go through? My mouth no longer feels like mine.”

Bai Quan beside him said, “Matcha, the little kitten you gave birth is so cute. Do you want to take a look?”

Matcha stared lifelessly and said dejectedly, “Ahh I’m so miserable.” He sent the message on his phone with his paws after he saying that.

Bai Quan was speechless. “Take a look at the child. Maybe your mood will get better after looking at him.”

Matcha gave a zombie-like whining, “Ahhh I’m so miserable.”

Smiling at Matcha, Bai Quan said, “Look, this is your son.”

Matcha spoke, “Son?” His eyes lit up, with numerous touching scenes of parent-child cats huddling together in movies and television series flashing through his mind.

“Oh this is my son.”

Matcha looked down at the little kitten twisting about in his arms and asked, “Why is he covered in blood?”

Bai Quan replied, “Oh, that’s the blood from your mouth, not his.”

Matcha cried out, “Ah I’m so miserable.”

Bai Quan looked at Matcha lying on the floor dead and thought. “He looks really depressed.” He then said, “Matcha, do you want me to call everyone in Cat Wonderland to come and visit you? There is no way you can work like this. You must rest for a few days.”

Meow!

Matcha immediately spiked up and typed into his phone rapidly. “Do not tell anybody! Bai Quan! You must swear never to tell anyone about this. This thing shall rot in your stomach forever! Or else I’ll kill you, little brat!”

“Okay.” Bai Quan reluctantly nodded his head.

“No! You must swear never to speak of it! If you leak out whatever happened today, you must give birth to a kitten as well.”

Bai Quan had nothing to respond.

Matcha said, “Hurry up and swear!”

Looking at Matcha who was looking at him pitifully, Bai Quan reluctantly said, “I swear to…”

“That’s enough,” Bai Quan suddenly asked. “Who is the father of that kitten?” However after seeing the anger on Matcha’s face, Bai Quan quickly nodded his head and said, “Okay okay, I won’t ask anymore.”

Tsk! Matcha suddenly drew breath and looked down at the little orange kitten and said, “Why did he bite me?”

Bai Quan laughed and said, “He is looking for milk to drink.”

Matcha reached out his paws and slapped the little orange kitten’s head and shouted, “Go away!”

The little orange kitten shrank back frightened and starting crying with his eyes closed.

Bai Quan said, “Okay okay, don’t be mad, I’ll buy goat milk powder to feed him. Oh yeah, I suppose you don’t have milk?”

Matcha texted him a look: “ㄥ-ㄥ...”

After looking at the expression on the screen, Bai Quan said, “Okay understood. I’ll buy goat milk powder.”

After Bai Quan left, Matcha continued to lie on the bed with a fallen apart expression. Hearing the little cat’s miserable calls, he could not help but turned to look at the little orange cat sniffing around in the air while crying miserably with his eyes closed.

Matcha reluctantly carried him and said, “Okay, you can hug me, but do not bite me again.”

The little orange cat crawled into Matcha’s arms and immediately quieted, shifting around with a face of contentment as though he was still looking for the position to drink milk.

...

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao was hiding and monitoring Doomsday fixing his victims.

Spending an entire week’s time, traveling across the dreamscapes, most of the victims finally recovered. The destruction caused by Doomsday was also completely restored.

Zhao Yao looked at where Doomsday had disappeared and spoke to himself: This should be the last trip, there should not be anymore victims after this.

With a sigh of relief, Zhao Yao looked to Arthas beside him and asked, “How? Can you see anything? Can other supercats replicate the power of Doomsday?”

When Zhao Yao first knew that Doomsday got his powers after coming into contact with the Dream Dimension, he wanted Arthas to take a look at it to see if it was possible to replicate this power.

However, Arthas shook his head and said, “No, his situation is too special. It is a coincidence in a coincidence. The power in Dream Dimension is very violent, chaotic and filled with uncertainty. It is completely different from the material world. I have no idea how to make it merge like Doomsday.”

“Oh is it?” Zhao Yao nodded and thought to himself that he would wait till Doomsday completed the last batch then he would go to the United States to continue collecting experience points and meteorite fragments.

“Wait till the fragments in the United States are all collected, Elizabeth or Dust Ball can be leveled up to LV10. If more tasks are completed maybe both Elizabeth and Dust Ball can be upgraded to LV10, some of the other cats can also be upgraded to LV9.

Including the skill points from collecting Meteorite Fragments, two of the skill points can even be upgraded.”

“Along with the Divination cat in Star Cats.” Zhao Yao spoke to himself: Can the stocks be predicted? Our fortune will depend on him.

While Zhao Yao was flattered thinking about the income in the future, Doomsday suddenly appeared from the void of space but only half of him appeared, looking at Zhao Yao horrified he said, “Save me!”

Zhao Yao grabbed his paws and asked, “What’s happening!”

“There’s something...” Doomsday panicked and screamed, “Something is catching me in the dream!”

Snapping sounds sounded while he was speaking and Doomsday's body started to dissipate.

Doomsday screamed, "He is dragging me away! Save me!"

Although Zhao Yao really wanted to save Doomsday his body was not dragged or pushed away, instead it was going into the Dream Dimension. He had no relevant superpower and can only look to Arthas beside him and said, "Quick, do something!"

Arthas frowned and said, "This is not the connection between Dream Dimension and the material world, I cannot enter."

Zhao Yao looked at Doomsday helplessly, fished out a spicy cat strip and fed it to Doomsday. "Eat it!"

Doomsday did not know what Zhao Yao fed him but he ate it in the situation of chaos.

Then, his body flickered and burst out a huge cloud of white smoke.

When the white smoke disappeared, Doomsday also disappeared, leaving behind a pink airplane cup in his spot.

Arthas looked at this scene shockingly and said, "What is this?"

Doomsday was shocked as well, vibrating as he said, "What happened to me? What have I become?"

Chapter 883: Strange Cat

Seeing Doomsday quivering, Zhao Yao's body trembled and the corners of his mouth could not help but tilt up.

Doomsday immediately said, "Zhao Yao! Are you laughing?"

Zhao Yao suppressed his body's movements and said seriously, "No, I've no reason to laugh."

"Are you denying? The corners of your lips are almost touching your ears!" Doomsday said anxiously. "What did you change me into?"

Ares, Fish Ball, Dust Ball, Elizabeth and Lightning gathered curiously and sniffed the new object.

Fish Ball said, "It's a huge and thick stick. What weapon is that?"

"Idiot, how can a weapon be so short?" Ares' nose sniffed as he said, "I smell batteries, this must be a torch!"

Elizabeth put her head on the object and looked at the notch as she said, "I have used a torchlight before. It doesn't look like this and there's no such notch."

Lightning's expression changed and he felt like a fish out of water as he said softly, "Isn't this that airplane..."

He felt a strong murderous intent and turned his head to see Zhao Yao staring at him gravely.

Elizabeth asked, "Lightning, do you know what this is?"

Lightning laughed loudly and said, "I'm only a Pallas cat. What do I know? I'm just guessing."

Cannon shouted excitedly, "I know, I know! This is..."

Bam! Cannon passed out on the ground, his mouth dripping white foam. Lightning shook his head and thought, "You are too inexperienced Cannon. To survive in Cat Wonderland, one has to learn to read Zhao Yao's mood. If you can't do that, how long can you survive?"

Zhao Yao smiled as he said, "Stop guessing. It's a cup for drinking."

Arthas walked up and examined the airplane cup structure curiously. He said in surprise, “Why is the cup uneven inside? The capacity’s very small.”

Zhao Yao said, “It’s to prevent water from leaking out. Stop examining it. It’s just a cup. There’s nothing special...”

Arthas examined Doomsday curiously and said in astonishment, “There’s water inside. What water is that?”

Zhao Yao said, “There’s water inside?”

“Let me taste it.” Arthas lifted up the cup to drink.

Zhao Yao immediately said, “Don’t drink...”

Arthas gulped down the water and finished it. He licked the cup and said, “It tastes like normal water, except for that sticky feel.”

Zhao Yao covered his face and said softly, “How can it not be sticky...”

Arthas exclaimed in shock, “What! My stomach’s becoming bigger!”

As Arthas was forced into labour, Zhao Yao transformed Doomsday back to cat form. Doomsday immediately reverted Arthas’s pregnancy.

Doomsday shouted, “Zhao Yao! What did you change me into? Why am I quivering uncontrollably?”

Arthas said fearfully, “Zhao Yao! What superpower is that? You transformed Doomsday into a cup! And I became pregnant after drinking the water! If I pour the water into the river, won’t many people and animals become pregnant?!”

“Normal people don’t drink the water...” Zhao Yao said. “Let’s not talk about this. I transformed Doomsday because you’ve got no solution.”

He turned his head to look at Doomsday and asked, “What happened? Who’s chasing after you?”

All the supercats’ attention were focused on Doomsday as he replied fearfully, “There’s a strange cat in the Dream Dimension. That cat is powerful. I’m unable to outrun him. He waited for a long time to make his move, otherwise I would have been captured by him...”

“Strange cat?” Zhao Yao said. “Arthas, didn’t you say that nobody could replicate Doomsday’s ability to travel in Dream Dimension?”

Arthas shrugged his shoulders and said, “God knows. Superpowers are strange and unpredictable. I’m not surprised if there are ten other superpowers that allow travels in Dream Dimension.”

Zhao Yao looked at Doomsday and asked, “Describe in detail the cat’s looks.”

Doomsday said, “He’s a strange cat with blue fur and he stands on his hind legs. Yes, his five claws are nimble like your human fingers...”

Zhao Yao’s gaze froze when he heard the description. An illusion of Project X in his initial form appeared before him.

“Does he look like this?”

Doomsday squinted his eyes to observe the illusion. He nodded and said, “Yes, yes, yes, that’s the kind of cat but the face and body shape are different. They are not the same. Is this a new breed of cat?”

Zhao Yao’s heart felt heavy. He ordered Elizabeth, Sheriff and the other cats to watch over Doomsday. He activated his Extradimensional Belly superpower and asked Project X, “Hey, are there similar cats like yourself out there?”

Project X, who was motionless like a rock, opened his eyes abruptly and replied telepathically, “You met a cat that looks like me?” Project X sounded nervous.

Zhao Yao asked, “What’s his superpower?”

Project X remained silent as though he was thinking hard.

Zhao Yao was not going to give up asking as a supercat that could travel in Dream Dimension was dangerous. Especially when Zhao Yao did not have any superpowers that could control the dreamscape. He had to know his enemy's superpower beforehand.

Zhao Yao said, "Project X, tell us honestly. Otherwise I'll fill up the dimension with dog poo so that you can evolve to eat poo."

Dust Ball protested strongly and Zhao Yao immediately caressed her to calm her down.

Project X sighed in the Extradimensional Belly. He seemed to recall some stuff and said, "I don't know his superpower."

Zhao Yao said furiously, "You..."

"Our supercat race is all over the universe. I'm not the only one."

Zhao Yao was shocked and his eyes lit up. "You're not the only one?"

"Are they more powerful than you?" Zhao Yao asked impatiently.

"Haha, what do you think?" Project X smiled and said, "Do you know the source of power for the superpower?"

After listening to Project X's scornful tone, Zhao Yao opened the portal and stabbed him with the Dragon Slaying Saber.

Project X screamed in pain as he collapsed to the ground. Zhao Yao said condescending, "Do you know this saber's source of power?"

Project X looked at the surrounding void fearfully. He was astonished by Zhao Yao's numerous superpowers and he could not figure out why Zhao Yao could switch between so many superpowers.

Zhao Yao looked bewildered at Project X. “He passed the Dragon Slaying verification. Is he able to use superpowers?”

Chapter 884: Harvesting Plan

The pain of the saber cut made Project X realize his predicament. Project X explained, “Superpowers derives their energy from superpower DNA which was found in my body. This superpower DNA allows all life to use other dimensional energies. These energies are the source of superpowers.”

“Wait,” Zhao Yao said. “Didn’t the Meteorite cause the Awakening of superpowers?”

Project X said, “The Meteorite stimulated the supercats’ potential because it carried my superpower DNA. My superpower DNA uses the bodies of various cats on Earth to awaken different superpowers.

We share the same blood type. After absorbing my superpower DNA, they are able to connect to energies from other dimensions to control and develop their superpowers.”

“This is my superpower harvesting plan,” Project X said. “I was sent to Earth the moment I was born. My purpose for existence is to allow the supercats on Earth to develop their superpowers from my superpower DNA so that I can harvest their superpowers.”

“Why does this sound like the creation of a weapon?” Zhao Yao stroked his chin and thought, “What about me? Does my Book have superpowers?” He recalled his initial awakening of his superpowers.

“Perhaps Matcha bit me? And transferred the superpower DNA into my body? Isn’t that too coincidental?”

“Is Project X telling the truth?”

Zhao Yao shook his head to dismiss his thoughts. He asked Project X doubtfully, “The Earth cats and you share the same blood type? Are you saying that cats are aliens?”

“Maybe, I’m not sure. When I gained awareness, Earth was close by. I had vast knowledge of supercats and a superpower harvesting plan in my memories. My thoughts were implanted with this order—to carry out this harvesting plan.”

Project X shook his head and said, “We won’t like the ending of the plan. If they discover you, what do you think they’ll do to you?”

Project X said gravely, “Zhao Yao, we’re now in the same boat. To fight against these unknown entities, we have to cooperate with each other.”

“Since you’ve met the supercat that looked like me, did you fight with him?”

“Nope.” Zhao Yao was digesting Project X’s information. He took a while before replying, “He’s able to travel in the dreamscape. He tried to capture my cats in their dreams but he failed.”

“Dreamscape?” Project X was puzzled and Zhao Yao decided to tell him the details as he was already imprisoned in the Extradimensional Belly.

Project X said, “That’s not the dreamscape, it’s the Awareness Dimension.”

Zhao Yao said bewildered, “What? Not the Dream Dimension?”

“The names are different. The material realm is only part of the universe’s ten dimensions. The remaining dimensions are dark and mysterious. The superpowers’ effect on the material realm was derived from the various dimensions’ energies.

The Awareness Dimension was created from the awareness of all life in the universe and dreams were means of the manifestation of awareness in the material realm.”

Zhao Yao was in a daze as he muttered, “Oh, I understand now.”

Project X said with concern, “Your cats attracted their attention when they traveled in the Awareness Dimension. There’s no concept of distance and time in the Awareness Dimension. Since they found your cats, they are able to travel unlimited distance and focus their awareness on Earth.”

Project X said, “The Awareness Dimension is used to retrieve me after I complete my harvesting. That’s the only dimension that I know of besides the material realm.

Project X did not expect the entities to discover Earth that fast because he did not think that the Earth supercats were able to evolve and travel in the Awareness Dimension.

He was unable to travel to other dimensions, not even the supercats who were pursuing Doomsday. They were only able to travel in the Awareness Dimension.

“If Project X’s telling the truth, then a powerful alien force could have discovered Earth?” Zhao Yao’s mind started postulating. “The aliens are treating Earth like a superpower harvesting field? If they discover my Book, what will they do?”

“If they capture Doomsday, Matcha, Elizabeth, and the rest...”

Zhao Yao’s eyes lit up with cold rays as he recognized the alien force as foes.

Project X said, “Zhao Yao, release me so that I can help you. Your superpowers are powerful but you are no match for them. We have to cooperate...”

Zhao Yao switched from the Extradimensional Belly to Time Freeze and stopped discussing with Project X. To Project X, the alien force behind the superpower harvesting plan was unfathomable and impossible to defeat.

To Zhao Yao, as long as the Book continued upgrading, he was confident of defeating all enemies.

“I’ve to buck up. I’ve yet to harvest experience points and supercats from the Americans,” Zhao Yao thought. “Alien cats... they’re all cats. I’ll capture them as they come.”

“I’ll capture the Star Cats, treat Roly Poly, and revive Sphinx cat.”

Zhao Yao had always looked down on his enemies psychologically while overestimating his enemies tactically. He was extremely wary of the Awareness Dimension’s power.

“I’ll contract the next supercat with a dream-related superpower.”

After he ended his conversation with Project X, he was surprised when he noticed Doomsday.
“Why is Doomsday sleeping? Wake him up.”

Arthas walked up to Doomsday and patted his head. “Hey Doomsday, wake up. Enough sleeping.”

Doomsday opened his eyes and glanced at Arthas. As he smiled, he vanished into thin air.

Zhao Yao activated Time Freeze as Doomsday disappeared. He grabbed where Doomsday was but it was in vain. His disappearance was too sudden.

Zhao Yao was astounded and deactivated Time Freeze. He turned his head and looked at Arthas and asked, “What’s wrong?”

Arthas was dumbstruck as he said, “Doomsday traveled in the Dream Dimension... and left.”

“How is that possible? Why did he leave?” Zhao Yao was puzzled and said, “He was clearly afraid of that strange cat.”

Chapter 885: Contracting Diana

All the cats were terrified and astonished the moment Doomsday disappeared.

In the chaotic Awareness Dimension, three invisible forces of energy collided with each other.

Each time they collided, huge masses of information exchanged between them.

“I caught the target. It has the ability of traversing the Awareness Dimension and creating forced pregnancies.”

“It’s so rare for a subspecies to have such abilities.”

“This ability is very useful for us. It can speed up the breeding of subspecies and increase the production of superpowers. I will bring him back. What do the two of you plan to do next?”

“I want to stay here and play for a while more.”

“Me too. This planet looks pretty interesting. I have found a way to incorporate the dawn of awareness here.

...

In the material world, Zhao Yao sniffed hard at the air around him. However, he could not smell the scent of any unfamiliar cats. He quickly switched to the extradimensional belly and asked Project X about the situation.

Project X said, “It’s the dawn of awareness. They can infiltrate the dreamscape to occupy the awareness of other lives. Your cats’ awareness must have been occupied, taking away their ability to traverse the dreamscape.”

Zhao Yao grinded his teeth before he said, “They can occupy our awareness as long as we enter our dreams? Is there no way to stop this?”

Project X replied, “They have stronger and better control over the energy in the Awareness Dimension, which you don’t have. You can only activate your superpowers with your innate capabilities. Since you’re fighting against them in the Awareness Dimension, you will naturally be powerless against them.”

Zhao Yao nodded. He understood that the current situation was worse than he had expected. He did not know what the other party would do after taking Doomsday with them. Zhao Yao decided to speed up his original plan to take over the Star Cats, collect the meteorite fragments, treat Roly Poly, and revive Sphynx cat.

Zhao Yao looked at Project X again and asked, “Do you know how to gain control of the Awareness Dimension?”

Project X shook his head, “Do you think they will actually impart this ability to me? As long as I do not have the power to control the Awareness Dimension, I will be powerless against them no matter how great my destructive power is in the material world. This was the only reason why they were assured enough to let me out.”

Zhao Yao nodded and looked at his Book panel. He began to think whether he could contract a supercat with a connection to the dreamscape and level up the supercat to see if it could gain the ability to control the Awareness Dimension.

Book: Level 7 (70 217/50 000)

Matcha: Level 8 (12 510/50 000)

Elizabeth: Level 9 (6 300/100 000)

Dust Ball: Level 9 (5 600/100 000)

Ares: Level 8 (5 600/50 000)

Lucifer: Level 8 (700/50 000)

Sphynx Cat: Level 7 (5 700/20 000)

Catherine: Level 8 (700/50 000)

“I can directly level up the Book now. However, that would leave me with around 20 000 points, which can increase the level of the newly contracted supercat to Level 7 at most.”

It was not Zhao Yao’s first time leveling up to Level 7. However, there was never a sign of power to control other dimensions. His worry was that the newly contracted supercat might not be able to attain this power.

The only thing Zhao Yao was looking forward to was a higher level, the evolution module he would gain after collecting 100% of the meteorite fragments and the drawing of rewards at the end of every month.

“Even if I can’t attain the power to control the Awareness Dimension, I should perhaps obtain a dream-related superpower so that I won’t be powerless if I am attacked.”

Zhao Yao decided to level up the Book first after thinking about it.

In that instant, when he tapped to level up, a numbing sensation rose in his body. He was inheriting the powers of Catherine, the previously contract cat.

As he had inherited Sphinx cat's powers before that, Zhao Yao only felt a slight sensation this time round. After the inheriting process ended, he only felt a small increase in his physical capabilities.

However, given his current physical prowess, even if he used the training ability to improve his skills, the incremental effects would become smaller and smaller and eventually become ineffective. Catherine's powers were said to produce merely instant results.

After leveling up the Book to Level 8, Zhao Yao thought for a bit and called Diana over. He decided to contract this sister of Elizabeth's.

After the contracting was done, the main missions of leveling up the Book and contracting supercats were completed. Zhao Yao gained another 6 000*2 experience points the book became Book: Level 8 (32 217/50 000). The main mission was updated as well.

Main Mission: Inherit more supercat powers and catch more supercats

Mission Objective: Upgrade Book to Level 9 and gain the powers of the ninth supercat.

Reward: 10 000 experience points

Mission Penalty: None

"Haha, I almost forgot about the experience points from this main mission. However, the extra 12 000 experience points is still not enough for me to level up to Level 8. Luckily, I still have 7 skill points. If I use one or two skill points on Diana..."

Zhao Yao stared at Diana's panel and smiled expectantly. Diana clutched her big tail at the said and asked anxiously, "Zhao Yao! What are you trying to do?"

Zhao Yao smiled and said, "Don't worry. It's a good thing. I will boost your superpower."

“Really!” Diana looked at Zhao Yao in delight. She had long been envious and jealous of Elizabeth and Catherine as both of them had their superpowers upgraded. She bumped her head repeatedly against Zhao Yao’s calf as she said, “Zhao Yao, you’re so nice.”

Zhao Yao added all the experience points to Diana at once, leveling her up to Level 7. After that, he opened the ability tree to take a look.

Diana’s ability was called the Nightmare Lord in the Book. She could create all sorts of dreamscapes in the target after the target fell asleep.

This was an ability of dreams to begin with. This ability was not an offensive one by itself. The target would just get a nightmare and not feel good the next day at most.

After Zhao Yao leveled up to Level 7, an immediate difference could be seen when all the layers of the ability tree were added together, especially after the addition of two growth skills with one skill point.

Nightmare Lord: After coming into contact with the target, a dreamscape can be implanted in the target’s body. After the target falls asleep, the ability to induce dreams can be activated within a 50km range from the target, pulling the target into the dreamscape. When adjusting to the target’s dreamscape, change the dreamscape by moving the things in it or speeding up time.

Each time a dreamscape is created, 7 (the Level of the Book) *1% of the subconscious can be extracted from the target and yourself to be combined and added into the dreamscape.

1 second in the real world is equivalent to 7 (the Level of the Book) *1 hour in the dreamscape.

Each time the dreamscape ends, there is a mental impact on the energy level of the target. It ranges from a maximum of not sleeping for 7 days to a minimum of not sleeping for a day.

After tapping on all seven layers of the ability tree and adding the two growth skills under Level 6, Diana’s Nightmare Lord ability instantly increased by a large margin.

This could be said to be a very secretive and immensely powerful skill.

After coming into contact with the other party and planting the dreamscape, a nightmare attack could be conducted within a 50km range from the target.

The effects of each nightmare attack might only be equivalent to a day of not sleeping but after attacking continuously for more than 10 times, the target could actually suffer severe mental injuries to the point of becoming brain-dead.

Furthermore, if Zhao Yao used this power together with Elizabeth and Catherine's powers, the combined superpowers of the mother and daughter trio would even be enough to kill Project X.

However, Zhao Yao still felt that it was a pity as he stared at this superpower. It did not have the power to come into contact with the so-called Awareness Dimension.

Even so, at least Zhao Yao had some defensive power in the dreamscape now.

"Looks like I have to find other ways to attain the power to control the Awareness Dimension. It's either I continue to level up Diana or use the evolution module after collecting all the meteorite fragments."

Zhao Yao still decided to take over the Star Cats first. He would decide on his next move after collecting the experience points and meteorite fragments.

Chapter 886: The Capture

"Heal me! Heal me! I'm running out of HP!"

"Who asked you to pull in so many mobs!?"

"DPSers, dodge! The mages will die!"

In a small room, four supercats were standing in front of a computer and making a ruckus as they played the game seriously.

At that moment, a cell phone rang. The Frost cat, Ace, said with annoyance, "Who's going to answer the call?"

The Divination cat, Merlin, scoffed and said, "It must be Steven. Anthony, take the call."

Anthony was angered. “Why should I?”

“Because you died.”

Anthony had no choice but to answer the call. He typed and sent a voice message which read, “Steven?”

Steven sent a voice message back. He spoke in an angry tone. “Anthony, why did you guys take so long to answer the call? I knocked five out already!”

Anthony replied guilty, “We are working now. You know how we had to rebuild the Star Cats after Zhao Yao left. We are very busy now.”

“You guys aren’t playing games right?” Steven asked suspiciously.

“How can that be! What kind of cats do you think we are?” Anthony’s typing speed started to increase. “Merlin and I are researching on how to upgrade our superpowers to defeat Zhao Yao!”

“Okay, I wrongfully blamed you guys. I apologise.” Steven shook his head and continued, “I have bad news to tell you. After Zhao Yao disappeared for one whole week, he appeared again half an hour ago and wrecked one of our bases in Maine. I think you guys should prepare to relocate anytime now.”

“Ah? This guy is back?” Anthony shouted towards the room, “Zhao Yao is back in the US!”

The whole room flew into frenzy at once. The four cats hugged each other in fear and alarm, dropping cat fur all over the floor.

The Mass Transfer cat, Anthony, exclaimed, “What should we do! God knows how much things he’s going to steal from us this time!”

The Divination cat, Merlin, said, “Calm down guys. Calm down. Everyone lick your fur first and calm yourselves down.”

Frost cat, Ace, licked his fur, paws, chest, and stomach fervently as he said, “There’s no way out! We can’t beat him in battle but we can’t all hide either, given how big the Star Cats is with so many people and so many cats.”

Arthur, another supercat, chimed in, “Since we can’t beat him in a fight and he can’t find us, just let him take whatever he wants. Speaking of that, there is a newly released dungeon. Have you guys raided it?”

Merlin agreed, “Yeah, he can’t find us anyway.”

Anthony nodded. “Instead of worrying blindly, let’s be the first to raid the dungeon.”

The Frost cat, Ace, raised his small paw and said, “I agree. Let’s play a game first to soothe our nerves. We’ll think of way we feel better.”

“That’s right. How can we think of a strategy to counter this problem when we are all so flustered? Let’s calm ourselves down first.”

The four supercats panicked for a while before they returned to their own computer desks and prepared to play the game.

However, the moment they joined the game, they received a private message, “Anthony, are you playing games? I am Steve!”

Anthony immediately replied, “I’m a game booster!”

Steve replied, “Stop playing! Zhao Yao is already here and you guys are still in the mood to play games? Keep your guard up and prepare to transfer at anytime now.”

Anthony replied: “(°Д`)”

Steve: “Don’t act pitiful in front of me. Quick, go offline now. I will send people to follow your user IDs closely.”

Anthony and the other supercats went offline glumly. After that, he slammed his paw on the table in fury and said, “D*mn it. Steve is actually spying on us!”

The Divination cat, Merlin, said, “He has no idea how important playing this game is to us!”

The Frost cat, Ace, raised his paws and shouted, “Playing games has become our only source of entertainment. Now we can’t even play games. What’s the point of our cat lives now?”

“Exactly,” Arthur said. “We can’t even play games. We should might as well be captured by Zhao Yao!”

Just as the four cats were grumbling, a cough rang in their ears. The four cats turned around in unison and saw Zhao Yao before them.

The Mass Transfer cat, Anthony, was so scared he jumped two meters high in alarm, grabbing on to the chandelier in the room. Divination cat, Merlin, immediately slid under the sofa to hide and Frost cat, Ace, collapsed to the floor as his legs turned weak. Only Arthur stood with his chest puffed in the air, flaring his fur at Zhao Yao as he continued to make low, threatening growls.

Zhao Yao shrugged his shoulders and said, “Do you guys want to follow me back on your own accord or do you want me to knock you guys out first?”

After Zhao Yao returned to the US, he used the intel collected from reading Doomsday’s mind and with the help of Sheriff’s mind reading ability, tracked down the whereabouts of these remaining four pioneer supercats.

However, when they saw Zhao Yao, it was impossible for the four pioneer supercats to surrender without a fight.

Anthony first tried to activate his Mass Transfer powers to escape as blue light emanated from the four supercats in the room.

The Frost cat, Ace, turned into a blizzard and charged towards Zhao Yao, trying to entrap him to buy more time for the mass transfer.

Merlin, the Divination cat, could not stop trembling in fear.

Rays of sword shadows appeared behind Arthur.

As he faced the attacks from the four supercats, Zhao Yao calmly said, “Have a good sleep guys...”

The next moment, a voice rang in the ears of all four cats. Their vision turned to black before they collapsed on the floor.

After dealing with the four supercats, Zhao Yao took the meteorite fragments from each of their bodies. His meteorite fragments collection increased to 81% instantly and his skill points also increased to 8 points.

At the same time, he earned another $5\,000 \times 4 \times 2$ experience points for successfully catching the last four pioneer supercats. This made his experience points become: Book: Level 8 (54 107/100 000).

Next, Zhao Yao went on a hunt around all of America, sweeping up all the meteorite fragments owned by the Star Cats. He finally increased the meteorite fragments collection to 88%, completing the mission to collect all the meteorite fragments owned by the Star Cats. This earned him another $8\,000 \times 2$ experience points.

As for the remaining 12%, Zhao Yao guessed that it was scattered around the world in the hands of other groups or countries.

“What an excellent harvest.” Having finally completed the two big missions concerning the Star Cats, Zhao Yao left the US superpower realm in a mess as he brought the four pioneer supercats with him back home and returned to the Cat Wonderland.

“Let me go home and organise my gains first before I decide on my next plans.”

...

Anthony opened his eyes in a dazed and confused state of mind. He found himself in an office and immediately flipped over and crawled on his limbs as he saw Merlin, Arthur, and Ace beside him. There were two other supercats on the other side which he had never seen before.

Zhao Yao sat behind the office table in front of them. He was laughing foolishly at his computer screen.

Anthony asked telepathically, "What's going on?"

Merlin replied, "I don't know. We found ourselves here when we awoke."

Frost Cat, Ace, looked at the unfamiliar orange cat and multi-colored cat at the side and said, "Hello, can I know what this place is?"

Chapter 887: Interview

Mao Mao glanced at Anthony who was beside him and said, "This is Cat Wonderland, don't you know? Who are you guys?"

"Cat Wonderland?" Ace exchanged glances with his companions looking lost.

The assistant beside Mao Mao could not help but said, "Hey, the four of you must be new?" He pointed to Mao Mao behind him and continued, "This is my boss, leader of the Cao Gang, Mao Mao, do you guys want to follow my boss?"

Let me warn you, in Cat Wonderland, if you do not work for a boss, you can't even survive one day. The number of supercats that have died here on the second day is more than the furs on your face."

Ace spoke to his companions, "Have you guys heard of this supercat? Seems like a supercat from a big organization?"

"Never heard of him." Anthony looked at Mao Mao and said, "But it feels like they are very powerful."

The assistant tri-colored cat continued to say, "Who in Jianghai hasn't heard of Mao Mao, even Cannon, who works under Sister Dust Ball and works for the Headless Horseman needs to give Mao Mao boss face. You guys are lucky this time. Mao Mao is recruiting followers. Working under us in Cat Wonderland will guarantee your success."

“Humph.” Mao Mao, who was at the side, proudly turned his face away.

“Humph your head.” Zhao Yao who was behind the desk slammed the mouse onto Mao Mao’s head and said, “Who allowed you to form gangs on my territory?”

Mao Mao did not expect Zhao Yao to be able to hear their private conversation since they did not know about the existence of Sheriff. After getting hit by the mouse pad, Mao Mao and the multicolored cat immediately turned onto their back and said with a face to please, “How would we dare form gangs under your eyes? We are just kidding.”

“Humph.” Zhao Yao took a look at the articles in his hands and said, “The two of you kidnapped my cat while I was away?”

Mao Mao leaped and scrambled under Zhao Yao’s feet in an instant, licked his shoes while he said, “Misunderstanding misunderstanding, it’s all just a misunderstanding! All I wanted to do was to play with your cats. We were kidnapped together!”

The assistant multi-colored cat looked at this scene shockingly, screaming internally, “Boss! How can you! Even if he is the Headless Horseman, we should not lick him like this!”

Mao Mao said, “What does a lick represent? As long as I am able to fulfill my ambitions, I am willing to do anything. These are my morals. Don’t stand there and look. Come over here and lick together with me!”

Anthony, along with the other cats, were stunned at this scene and started to chat to telepathically.

“Is this guy a devil?”

“What kind of reputation is able to scare these two cats like this...”

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao kicked Mao Mao and the multi-colored cat who ran up to lick him, and said, “Okay okay, stop licking. Originally I don’t take in useless cats like you, however, there is no way I’ll let you leave this place without paying a price for kidnapping my cat.”

The two cats straightened their ears and listened to what Zhao Yao was about to say carefully.

Mao Mao spoke to himself: Humph, I did not waste my time while getting locked up here. I have already heard that the cats caught work at Cat Wonderland to repay their debt and it is up to Zhao Yao how much they owe. Basically, they work here till death.

However, this is to my advantage, I will start from the bottom and step by step, work my way up to the top of Cat Wonderland and look at the spectacular view from the top..."

Zhao Yao glanced at Mao Mao and said, "Don't say I'm unkind. I'll give you guys two choices. Firstly..."

The two cats stared at Zhao Yao with their eyes wide open.

"Chop off both of your paws. I'll pretend that nothing happened."

"Ahh!!! " The multi-colored cat stared at Zhao Yao in shock and flipped over immediately while shouting, "Please let us go! We will agree to anything except for this!"

He saw that Mao Mao was still frozen. He immediately pulled him over and said, "Boss, hurry up and plead the Headless Horseman with me."

Mao Mao pushed the multi-colored cat away, looked at Zhao Yao, and said, "You want a pair of paws from each of us, if I chop off 4 paws from one cat, can you pretend that nothing happened?"

The multi-colored cat looked at Mao Mao stunned, and said touchingly, "Boss?"

Zhao Yao also looked at Mao Mao surprised and said, "You are willing to chop off four paws?"

"Pass me the knife." Mao Mao looked at multi-colored cat beside him and continued, "I can chop off four of his paws."

"Boss! How can you do this?"

Looking at the two supercats who were about to get into a fight, Zhao Yao pinched his forehead and spoke, “Okay enough, you still have a second choice.” While saying, he took out two contracts and placed it in front of the two supercats.

“Our Cat Wonderland is a very formal big company, we never lie. Sign this contract and we will be a family. There will be salary every month, holidays, and a sufficient training module as well as a performance based reward system. Every cat here will have a lot of freedom to perform.”

While saying, Zhao Yao placed a pen in front of Mao Mao with a smile and said, “Sign it.”

Mao Mao lowered his head, about to look at the details of the contract but he heard Zhao Yao’s voice. “Hey, I told you guys to sign it, didn’t I? Who told you to look at it?”

Mao Mao and Multi-colored cat felt a chill at the same time.

“This is the deal with the devil!” the multi-colored cat screamed. “Boss, don’t sign, don’t sign it! The rest of our lives will be over if we sign it!”

“Do you think we have a choice! When I first stepped into Cat Wonderland, I was already prepared to endure everything.” Mao Mao gripped the pen and started to sign it.

Watching the two cats write their name down, Zhao Yao nodded his head and said, “Don’t worry, we are a big company. We will not cheat cats. You guys do not even need to sign the contract. Now, our company has reformed. Every cat signs a contract, receives salary, and bonus.”

Zhao Yao put the two contracts into the drawers and spoke to outside, “Okay, you guys can go out, there will be people outside to bring you around and familiarize the situation.”

“Wait a minute.” Zhao Yao suddenly stopped the two cats, made Mao Mao turn around and looked at the appearance of Mao Mao. He said, “I have to make you distinguishable from Matcha. If not you will be too similar to Matcha which will affect your work.”

After a thought, Zhao Yao reached out his hands and the Deflective Field went into cutting mode and directly shaved a small patch of fur from Mao Mao’s head, balding him.

“You look better like this. You guys can go now.”

The multi-colored cat looked at Mao Mao's bald head in shock while Mao Mao just looked at Zhao Yao confused. He was chased out by Zhao Yao before he was able to comprehend the situation.

Chapter 888: Collecting the Fragments

After Mao Mao and his adjutant left, Zhao Yao gazed at Anthony and other Star Cats.

"I'm going to be straightforward. Stay for a year and work for me. After that, you can leave and I won't stop you."

The four Star Cats were prepared for the worst after witnessing what happened to Mao Mao. Their eyes lit up and looked at Zhao Yao. "Is that for real?"

They thought they had to be Zhao Yao's slaves forever. They were able to leave after a year of work so they felt happy.

Zhao Yao nodded and said, "My cats have freedom to leave as I don't like to enslave supercats. With your superpower, if I didn't watch over you, wouldn't you have left?"

The four Star Cats looked at each other and conversed telepathically among themselves. Finally, Anthony came forward and said, "Fine Zhao Yao, we'll work one year for you."

Convincing the four Star Cats was much easier than he thought and he heaved in relief.

The reason he was keeping them was for Anthony's Teleportation and Merlin's Divination superpower.

The Extradimensional Belly was used to imprison Project X, so he was unable to use the Dimension Portals for traveling long distances. Zhao Yao flew to and from America and he had weathered considerably.

Anthony's Teleportation would be useful to boost his power, especially when he engaged in direct combat with Project X.

Merlin's Divination could help him find the Meteorite Fragments.

After taking over the Star Cat's Meteorite Fragments, he had only collected 88% of all fragments. To find the remaining fragments was like searching for a needle in the hay. With Merlin's Divination, he would be able to find all fragments with ease.

Zhao Yao thought, "Merlin and Anthony will help me find the Meteorite Fragments quickly and complete the Meteorite mission so that the fragments could be pieced together. I'm curious to know its power. Then I'll decide how to allocate the earned experience points."

If these two tasks were completed, I could defeat Project X and save Roly Poly and Sphinx cat."

Zhao Yao was going to bring Anthony and Merlin along with him and watch over them closely to prevent them from creating trouble.

Though Ace and Arthur's superpowers were powerful, with Bai Quan and other supercats watching over them, they were unlikely to cause trouble.

Zhao Yao handed Ace and Arthur over to Bai Quan and looked at Anthony and Merlin as he asked, "Tell me your superpowers in detail."

After the two Star Cats explained their superpowers, Zhao Yao understood their superpowers better.

Anthony was able to set up a location tag after arriving at a location. After that, he was able to teleport anybody or objects within a radius of 10 meters to the location tag.

He was able to designate a maximum of 12 location tags and the activation time was ten seconds. This was a very powerful support superpower.

Merlin's Divination superpower was simpler. As long as he was aware of an object or person's information, he was able to foretell the location. The more detailed the information, the more accurate the foretold location.

This was another powerful support superpower for foretelling enemies' movements and it would boost Zhao Yao's gathering of intelligence.

The Star Cats held a large portion of the Meteorite Fragments while other countries and organizations held the remaining portions. The Star Cats were not willing to fight for the small portion of fragments as they did not have Zhao Yao's mission and the 100% Meteorite Fragments requirement.

Zhao Yao did not have so many concerns. The combination of Anthony, Merlin, and Sheriff was extremely efficient in locating the Meteorite Fragments.

The following days, Zhao Yao brought along Anthony and Merlin as they traveled around the globe in search for the Meteorite Fragments. They slowly pushed the collection rate towards 100%.

...

On a snow-covered highway in Canada.

A sportscar sped at 200 yards per second and the car floated due to the high speed. It left a trail of howling wind and scattering snow as it distanced itself from the pursuing police cars.

After the sportscar had shaken off the police cars, a human figure cut across the falling snow and ran alongside the sportscar.

The driver in the sportscar was dumbfounded. He accelerated once again and the sportscar took off like a fighter plane.

Zhao Yao shook his head and activated Time Freeze. He walked slowly to the side of the car and opened the door. A Norwegian forest cat was sitting beside the driver's seat and using his paws to control the steering wheel remotely.

Zhao Yao was surprised. "The cat's driving? His superpower's speeding?"

Surveying his body and the area around the driver's seat, Zhao Yao retrieved the Meteorite Fragment from a cup holder and assimilated the fragment into his body.

“What a driver...”

A few minutes later, a few police cars screeched to a halt by the roadside. Numerous cops alighted and charged towards the stationary sportscar. As they opened the door, they saw a Norwegian forest cat tied to the back seat, his innocent face staring at them.

...

Zhao Yao globe-trotted in search for the Meteorite Fragments.

Most of his cats had returned to Cat Wonderland to support the daily operations.

On an early morning, Matcha carried his backpack and left the Cat Wonderland stealthily.

He heard numerous yells as he walked out of the main door.

Matcha turned his head and saw Ares with a few of his cats yelling as they ran over. When they saw Matcha, they heaved in disappointment.

“It’s you, Matcha. Did you see Mao Mao and his adjutant?”

“Mao Mao and his adjutant? I didn’t see them.” Matcha asked. “What’s with them?”

“They are escaping from Cat Wonderland.” Ares turned to his cats and shouted, “Humph, they are not here. Let’s split up and look for them. We can’t let them escape!”

After the group of supercats left, Matcha sighed in relief and left Cat Wonderland. He took a couple detours as he walked towards his destination.

When he arrived at the old district, he crawled into the bushes, opened his backpack, and took out a furry cosplay costume. He exerted great effort to squeeze into the costume and he became a white furry cat.

He abruptly pressed his stomach and thought, “S*it! It’s so tight that my stomach’s painful. Not all cats are that slim. Why is this costume so small?”

After some adjustments to his costume, Matcha stood up and walked into the district under the security guards’ surprised gazes. He came to the paper carton where he spat out the cat.

Chapter 889: Adoption and Completion

The moment Matcha crawled onto the bed, he saw Yellow Mud lying on it and an orange little kitten sleeping soundly sprawled all over a small cupboard box on the other side.

Upon seeing Matcha appear, it seems as though several black dots went past Yellow Mud’s head. He looked at the fur Matcha was wearing and thought to himself: “What is this guy doing?”

Matcha went up to the little orange kitten, he first sniffed around, then tried to listen to it and felt that nothing is wrong. He turned around to ask Yellow Mud, “Yellow Mud, is he alright?”

Yellow Mud answered, “Eat and sleep, then sleep and eat. What can be wrong? Anyway, how is this kitten related to you?” He looked at Matcha with a face of suspicion and said, “He looks a bit like you.”

Matcha’s body stiffened up as he immediately said, “What are you talking about? All cats look alike. There’s no such thing as alike or not. I picked this cat up!”

Yellow Mud looked at Matcha with a face of suspicion and thought, “Is this cat be related to Matcha again?”

At this moment, the little orange kitten in the cardboard box woke up, opened his mouth, and started to whine. He had yet to open his eyes and was unable to see anything but only picked up on Matcha’s scent and felt an unexplainable sense of familiarity.

Matcha felt complicated looked at the whining little orange kitten.

These few days he already knew about Doomsday from Ares and Fish Ball.

“Damn it. I can’t believe it is a bloody super power!” Matcha got angrier and angrier at the thought. Why did he even do so many things for? If he knew earlier, he would have told Zhao Yao earlier, let him help to think of solutions and all of this would not have happened.

Now that the little cat was born, what should he do next?

Matcha thought, “It’s just my clone after all. Why should I care about him? I should just simply throw it out.”

Yellow Mud said, “Haiz, without an adult cat to look after them. This kind of little kitten if will only die outside.”

“Ah?” Matcha exclaimed. “That can’t be? I remember when I was mingling on the streets last time. I was well fed and there wasn’t any danger as well.”

Yellow Mud rolled his eyes and thought, “All you knew how to do was wait for me to do the job. I had to go on the streets everyday to look for you. Of course it was fine.”

However, Yellow Mud was embarrassed to say it so he just explained, “You were lucky. The streets are not easy to survive. As a stray cat, the first problem you face is the shortage of food, whatever is available has to be eaten. Even if it is not meant for cats and can result in diarrhea or poisoning.

There is no doctor to treat you, no place for you to rest. Once you have diarrhea or sickness, if it up to your luck whether you can survive.”

Yellow Mud sighed, “Plus a stray cat at his age, without any capabilities, will be bullied by other stray cats, let alone stray cats... I don’t even know how many cases of kittens being eaten up by rats I have seen.

The worst is to meet humans that torture cats. Anything can happen. To be a stray cat is really very miserable.

An ordinary stray cat without wisdom only has an average life span of three to five years. This little kitten has yet to be identified whether he is a supercat. In case he is not, the more miserable it gets.”

While he was saying, Yellow Mud started to smile again. “But fortunately, there is Matcha to take care of him. It will be alright.”

Matcha smiled guiltily and looked at the little cat who had his eyes closed and was sniffing in his direction. He thought. “It seems really miserable to throw him out. Why not hand him over to another person to look after him?”

The little kitten stumbled towards Matcha, hit Matcha on his stomach, and arched towards it.

Yellow Mud said, “Matcha, he seems to really like you. Do you want to give him a name?”

“No,” Matcha said. “I have thought about it, with only two of us, it will be impossible to always take care of him. I have decided to give him away to someone else.”

“Ah?” Yellow Mud said disappointedly. “Then who do we give him to?”

Matcha narrowed his eyes and said, “I still need to confirm this.” While speaking he looked at Yellow Mud and continued, “Yellow Mud, for the next two days I’ll have to trouble you to help me take care of this little kitten. I’ll immediately look for his next home.”

Matcha immediately took off his disguise after he left the area, quietly snuck back into Cat Wonderland and thought, “The first candidate will be Zhao Yao, right? If Zhao Yao takes in the little kitten, I still can see him around anytime.”

Therefore, the moment Matcha returned, he went to wait at Zhao Yao’s office. Zhao Yao finally returned in a hurry after two hours of waiting.

Zhao Yao looked at Matcha and said, “Matcha, your performance is not very good these days. There is a cat that reported you for loafing on the job frequently, is that true?”

“Who went to report me?” Matcha expressed the hatred in his mind and immediately said to Zhao Yao, “Zhao Yao, Zhao Yao, I went onto the streets to promote the courses in our school, not to take a break!”

While speaking, Matcha climbed onto Zhao Yao’s shoulder, rubbed his face against Zhao Yao’s and tried to climb onto Zhao Yao’s chest.

“Zhao Yao, Zhao Yao, while you weren’t here I was very diligent. I am even the first in promoting our school’s courses in month!”

While Matcha was speaking, he tried to crawl into Zhao Yao’s clothes. When he was just about to climb in, he saw Sheriff peek out his head, smiling awkwardly at him, and said, “Hello, Matcha.”

Matcha said unhappily, “Why are you here?”

Sheriff said laughingly. “Why can’t I be here? I have been here these few days collecting meteorite fragments together with Zhao Yao.”

The next moment, Anthony and Divination both peeked out their heads, looked at Matcha and said, “We are here too.”

“These few days were so tiring.”

“But finally the collection is completed.”

Zhao Yao patted their heads and said, “I’ll treat you guys to a big meal for the hard work.”

Looking at Zhao Yao and the three other cats living harmoniously, Matcha pouted, jumped down from Zhao Yao onto the floor and shouted, “I’m leaving!”

Zhao Yao replied, “Close the door.”

Matcha walked out with angry steps but found out that Zhao Yao did not call him back. He pushed open the door angrily while saying, “They are eating good food. Hope they die from eating.”

Leaving the office, he fished out his phone angrily and crossed out Zhao Yao’s name on it.

“Unreliable guy. Bringing stray cats home everyday, how can the little kitten be trusted with you.”

“Zhao Yao! Out!” Matcha looked at the next name on the list and said, “Next, I shall see if Bai Quan can make it.”

In the office, Zhao Yao took out two cans of food from the drawer and placed it in front of Sheriff, Anthony, and Merlin, saying, “I forgot to restock the food in the office. There are only two cans left. The three of you will have to make do with it.”

Three of the cats looked at the cans speechlessly and thought silently, “This is the big meal?”

Meanwhile, Zhao Yao looked at his tasks list excitedly. The collection of Meteorite Fragments had already reached 100%, he not only received several skill points but could also choose to be completed and launch the evolution module.

Chapter 890: Evolution and Games

Zhao Yao came back to Cat Wonderland and wanted to activate the evolution.

He chose to complete the task and watched the mission panel for the collection of meteorite fragments disappear. There was an additional evolution panel on top of the basic mission panel, diamond hall, and lucky draw.

Zhao Yao clicked on it and realized that he had already signed a contract with 8 cats. Matcha, Elizabeth, and Ares were all included.

He chose Matcha and saw an evolution button. He pressed the button with anticipation and saw a line of red words.

“Level is insufficient. Unable to activate evolution.”

Zhao Yao was stunned and then he noticed the small line of words behind underneath. Evolution can only be activated when Level 10 is reached.

“It has to be Level 10?” Zhao Yao was glad that he did not spend his experience points randomly. He took a look at the panel.

BOOK: Level 8 (70207/100000)

Matcha: Level 8 (13010/50000)

Elizabeth: Level 9 (6800/100000)

Dust Ball: Level 9 (6100/100000)

Ares: Level 8 (6100/50000)

Lucifer: Level 8 (1200/50000)

Sphinx Cat: Level 7 (6200/20000)

Catherine: Level 8 (1200/50000)

Diana Level 8 (500/50000)

He looked at all of the experience points and sighed. "I cannot activate the evolution. I need a hundred thousand more experience points. Even though Elizabeth and Dust Ball both have the highest Levels, they have not reached Level 10. Looks like I have to collect more experience points.

Thinking of this, Zhao Yao stood up and looked at the three cats, who were scratching and sniffing at the canned food. "Stop eating. There is something important to do."

"What?" the three cats asked. "Don't you already have all the meteorite fragments?"

"How is collecting meteorite fragments enough? We have to do more meaningful things." Zhao Yao waved his hand and said to Merlin, "Predict, which supercat in this world needs our help now."

Upon hearing Zhao Yao, the three cats looked at each other and thought that the Zhao Yao in front of them was a fake. Even Sheriff thought that his powers malfunctioned as he heard Zhao Yao's thoughts of wanting to help.

Zhao Yao shook his head. “It is not easy for you to predict if there is too little information right? Then...” He took out his phone and logged into the Cat web.

“There are many supercats and apostles here. We can see who needs help and we can predict accordingly.”

Soon, Zhao Yao started shouting. “Look, this cat posted that he is troubled that he can’t slim down. We should help him.”

The post wrote, “Are there any other cats like me, who do not want to get up after lying down and sleep more than 18 hours? Recently, my weight has been getting out of control and I can’t slim down. Are there any recommendations?”

Anthony hesitated, “This is too little information. Merlin can’t be precise about the location.”

“It’s okay.” Zhao Yao clicked on his profile picture and said, “We can look at the post he has posted. The more we scroll, the more we will know.”

While Zhao Yao brought the three cats with him to do good deeds, Matcha sneaked into the gym on the third floor of Cat Wonderland.

The orange cat stuck his head out from behind the wall and looked at Bai Quan, who was exercising.

Although he could no longer borrow Sphinx cat’s powers, Bai Quan had already gotten use to exercising everyday. He would come to the gym everyday just for fun.

Matcha looked at Bai Quan and typed in his phone, “Second choice is Bai Quan. He has a good temper, gentle personality, and can cook great cat food. He never mistreats cats and does not bring stray cats home, extort them, threaten them or kidnap.”

Matcha listed a whole list of Bai Quan’s qualities and nodded. “It should be safe for Bai Quan to adopt the kitten.”

While Matcha was observing, a few men walked up and looked at Bai Quan with envy. “Great muscles.”

Bai Quan laughed and said, “You guys aren’t that bad too.”

“How are we comparable to you?” The guys continued. “Look here, look at your great waistline.”

Bai Quan patted them on the shoulder and said, “Xiao Mao, you have to work on your back muscles.”

“I have been too busy with work. Why don’t you teach us how to use this equipment?”

“Wow! The strength! You must be really powerful!”

Matcha’s sweat dripped as he watched them touch each other and compliment each other. “It feels weird.”

“Bai Quan... Out!”

Matcha looked at the list on his phone. “Next is Zhao Xue. I hope Zhao Xue will not disappoint me.”

...

In the United States.

Transmigrating in consciousness dimension, Amakusa laid on the sofa and looked at his new body. Then, he said, “This planet is interesting.”

Amakusa sat in front of the desk and controlled the computer. “What a weird civilization. The race here seem to revere us greatly and even bred a large amount of subspecies. These subspecies evolved to become supercats.

Amakusa said, "Forget it. I should just control their leader, dominate their army, and rule the planet!"

Giggle looked at the computer screen and said, "What is fun about ruling the planet? I have a better idea."

Amakusa asked, "What is it?"

Giggle said, "Have you seen the online games here?"

"Online games? What is that?" Amakusa said excitedly. "Oh ya, I just watched the Avengers. It was so funny. Do you want to watch it with me again?"

"Can't you use your energy for something more meaningful?" Giggle said. "Come let's figure out how to play this game together. I think we can use this to dominate the planet."

Amakusa answered, "There is nothing interesting about that. I shall watch it by myself then. It is so funny."

Then, a female voice sounded, "Jordan! David Beckham! It is time to eat!"

Amakusa was possessing a British Shorthair. He jumped up and licked his lips. "I've got to go. The humans are about to offer their offerings. I wonder what is there to eat."

Amakusa jumped off the table causally and walked to the kitchen with his tail held high. "I need to be more graceful. These primitive people treat us like gods. We should maintain the pride and grace of gods so that they will continue to revere us."

"You should really try the online games. They are very useful for my future plans of ruling the planet."
