

Am I A God 901

Chapter 901: Forbidden Devil

Carl looked at the man in front of him in shock. He could not imagine how could he break through all the defense and grabbed him like he was grabbing a chick.

“Where is the Forbidden Devil?”

When Carl heard the voice beside him, he asked, “Who are you?”

“Who am I?”

There was a noise that rang and large amounts of rebels and apostles swarmed towards the building. There were tens of thousands of them.

Upon seeing this, Carl’s eyes glimmered with hope.

Zhao Yao looked back and rose into the sky while grabbing onto Carl with one arm.

Zhao Yao grabbed Sheriff and the other two cats into his arms and then changed to Sleep Medusa. He cupped Carl’s ears and said to the cats, “Cover your own ears.”

The three cats immediately took out their ear plugs, dropped their ears and then covered them with their paws. They were very clear on what Zhao Yao was going to do.

Then, he saw Zhao Yao yell at the rebels, “Get lost.”

As Zhao Yao yelled and due to the effects of the Dual Mode Transmission, the rebels who heard the voice fell down like dominos. They fell down in large bunches, then jumped up and ran around in fear after the 8 seconds of forced sleep.

After the 8 seconds of fear, during which they wanted to attack Zhao Yao again or escape. Zhao Yao would yell again and it rang through the base.

As the second time was double the effects, it was 16 seconds of forced sleep and fear.

When they woke up again, Zhao Yao would yell again.

32 seconds... 64 seconds ... 128 seconds...

Carl watched Zhao Yao play with his men like toys and he was in despair.

In front of such a strong person, all his authority and wealth and his army was useless.

Zhao Yao released Carl's ears and asked, "Can you tell me now? Where is the Forbidden Devil?"

After an hour, when the government soldiers received the notification and rushed to the rebel base. They saw that the rebels were lying around on the ground, unable to be awakened. The tens of thousands of apostles and rebels were still in a forced sleep.

Zhao Yao brought cat that he just obtained back to Cat Island.

That night when Zhao Yao returned to the Cat Island, he called Elizabeth, Catherine, and Dust Ball to gather.

Then, Zhao Yao raised the leopard cat in his hands and said, "Foresee, activate Forbidden Devil territory."

"Okay, I will do it. Please don't hit me." Foresee looked at Zhao Yao timidly and activated the Forbidden Devil territory.

All the supercats exclaimed and realized that they could no longer use their powers.

Zhao Yao looked at the timid cat in his hands and stroked the cat. "Now, maintain the Forbidden Devil territory and do not stop no matter what happens."

Upon seeing Foresee nod obediently, Zhao Yao heaved a sigh of relief.

“Now, will everyone retreat slowly and identify the area of the Forbidden Devil territory.”

Zhao Yao and the supercats retreated slowly and around 50 meters, they realized that they could cast their powers again.

“50 meters?” Zhao Yao looked at Dust Ball and said, “Let’s start.”

Dust Ball nodded and stood 50 meters away. She was almost sticking to the border of the Forbidden Devil territory.

“If it is this case, then when Dust Ball spits out Project X from the Extradimensional Belly, Project X will land in the Forbidden Devil territory immediately,” Zhao Yao thought. “However, even if he lands in the Forbidden Devil territory, he will still have very strong physical abilities. So there needs to be another way.”

Hence, Zhao Yao was going to try the effects of Forbidden Devil territory.

He switched to Matcha’s Time Freeze and then stood outside the Forbidden Devil territory and activated it.

In the frozen world, the Forbidden Devil territory still existed. It meant that although Zhao Yao could not activate Time Freeze in the Forbidden Devil territory, if he activated it outside, the Forbidden Devil territory could not work.

Then, Zhao Yao tried Elizabeth’s illusion and then he stood outside the Forbidden Devil territory and looked at Foresee.

However, there were no changes in Foresee after he activated the illusion and controlling powers. Even though Elizabeth’s powers were cast outside, they were unable to affect Foresee.

Hence, Zhao Yao tried Sleep Medusa and realized that there was still no reaction from Foresee if it was by sound. However, Foresee would sleep if he saw his body.

Zhao Yao thought about it and crafted a detailed plan.

In the Extradimensional Belly, Project X was lying at the side in the empty space.

Then, there was a flash in the Extradimensional Belly and one Project X disappeared.

The rest of the Project Xs opened their eyes in shock.

“Is it Zhao Yao? He is taking action?”

“He already has the confidence to defeat me?”

“It’s a pity that this space is isolated. I cannot feel what happened to my clone.”

Then, there was a flash again and another Project X disappeared.

The Project Xs in the Extradimensional Belly started disappearing one by one and soon, there was only one left.

“What the hell is...”

Project X disappeared from the Extradimensional Belly too.

On the Cat Island, when Project X appeared, he realized that he could not activate his powers anymore. Then, he saw Zhao Yao in a distance and he fell asleep.

There were dozens of robotic cats pointed their plasma cannons at Project X. They wanted to use the high temperature to evaporate Project X.

Then, Zhao Yao shook his hand and said, “Stop it. This is the last one. Don’t kill him.”

Zhao Yao walked in front of Project X and changed to Nightmare Lord. He pressed in between Project X's eyebrows.

...

In the darkness, when Project X opened his eyes again, he found that he was back somewhere familiar.

"This... is the cat toilet?"

In front of him was Lion Head, licking his paws and saying, "Mirror, mirror on the wall. Who is the prettiest cat of them all?"

Chapter 902: Dreamscape Torture

Upon hearing Lion Head speak, Project X's heart sank. "What... Zhao Yao, he... turned me..."

Lion Head patted the mirror and said, "Hey, can you hear me? Am I the most beautiful cat?"

"Get lost, fat woman," Project X raged. "It will never be you!"

Bam!

He saw Lion Head activate her powers and become as big as a lion. She slammed her paws on the mirror and cracked it. Project X was trembling. "What do you want to do?! Stop! I will shatter!"

Lion Head asked coldly, "Who is the cutest cat in this world?"

"It's you. It's you! Okay!?"

Lion Head showed her claws and scratched gently across the mirror. "You don't sound very willing."

"You are the most charming and pretty cat in the world. If I were still a male cat, I would f*ck you."

“Nonsense! I did not ask you to say such stuff! You are so disobedient.” Lion Head turned her head and ran out. “Hahahaha...”

“Rubbish cat.” Project X was a bit angry. However, he started worrying about his cracks. “If I am a mirror, will I really die if I crack? Damn it, can the crack be mended? Is there anyone who will help me mend it? Being a toilet mirror is too dangerous, I have to escape.”

Project X was forced into sleep after the Forbidden Devil, hence he did not know that he was in a dream.

Zhao Yao was watching him from the sky. Zhao Yao’s eyes were sparkling dreamily and he could see every corner in the dreamscape. This was one of the powers of entering a dream.

Zhao Yao placed Project X in the toilet temporarily and wanted to see what he could control after activating Nightmare Lord.

The Nightmare Lord power allowed him to drag the target into a dream and then weave dreams.

However, the dream was woven by both the target’s subconscious and Zhao Yao. Zhao Yao could manipulate movement speed and the time in dreamscape. He can also pick 7% of content from the target’s subconscious to weave into the dreamscape.

“Diana’s Nightmare Lord powers can equate one hour in the dream to one second in the real world. The forced sleep lasts eight seconds, including the one second that he wasted placing Project X into the dream, there was still seven seconds left. This means I have seven hours.”

Zhao Yao looked at the list in front of him. It was the 7% of things taken from Project X’s subconscious.

“The worse he is affected by the dream, the worse the damage he receives after he wakes up. The worst damage would be equivalent to not sleeping for 7 days. The lowest was equivalent to not sleeping for one day.” Zhao Yao laughed. “I’m going to have fun.”

Soon, Project X saw a large group of cats squeezing their way into the toilet and crowding the toilet. It was packed till they were standing right in front of him.

“Be careful!” Project X yelled. “Don’t squeeze me!”

“I’m about to shatter! Stop rubbing! Go away!”

“Who peed here?!”

When the ordinary cats finally left, Project X felt like there were a few more cracks on his body and there was an indescribable smell.

“No, I can’t stay here anymore! If this continues, I will go crazy.”

“Zhao Yao! Are you there? Can you hear me?” Project X yelled. “Do you not want to revive your cat? If I die, you can never revive them again!”

Zhao Yao would not compromise so easily. He wanted to torture Project X slowly. He wanted Project X to feel his body cracking slowly then, at the seven hour shatter and die.

When the dreamscape ended, Zhao Yao looked at the results and thought, “Four days without sleep? Looks like I can go further.”

Project X was tired but due to the powers of Sleep Medusa, he still entered the fear and crazy state.

He was hysterically afraid, however, he did not know why was he afraid, neither did he know what he was afraid of. He only knew that he wanted to escape and run from the fear.

After yelling, Project X kicked the air and shot off.

With his physical abilities, no one there could stop him.

Zhao Yao did not want to stop him either because in the direction in which Project X was heading, there was a hidden Dimension Portal. It was open and he could not see it. The Dimension Portal was one meter away from Project X and with a step, Project X was back in the Extradimensional Belly.

Zhao Yao laughed. As long as Project X could not activate his powers at the start due to the Forbidden Devil territory, after being under Catherine's control, it would be very hard for him to escape the rest of Zhao Yao's powers.

Zhao Yao walked in front of the Dimension Portal and yelled at the Project X, who was running inside. "Project X!!!!!"

When Project X recovered from the eight seconds of fear, all he could hear was Zhao Yao's yell. Then, he fell into the forced sleep again and this time it was for 16 seconds.

Before he fell asleep, his brain only had enough time to give one reaction. "His voice can force me to sleep too? Then, next time I..."

...

Outside the Dimension Portal, Zhao Yao looked at the supercats beside him and said, "It is too slow for me to deal with him in the dream alone. You guys should come into the dream together."

All the supercats were forced into sleep and some cats who were already sleeping on Cat Island were dragged in as well.

Matcha's eyes were wide open and he looked at the supercats, who lined up properly. He stretched his back and asked, "What is happening? Wasn't I sleeping?"

Lightning yawned at the side in confusion too.

Zhao Yao told them, "You guys are dreaming now. I'll give you one minute to freshen up. There are chores to be done in the dream."

Zhao Yao wanted to brief them beforehand so that they can stay clear and when the dreamscape ended they would receive minimal damage which would be not sleeping for one day.

Matcha's eyes widened when he heard Zhao Yao. "Working overtime in my dream is too much."

“Exactly!” Cannon yelled, “I have to work overtime in my dreams! This is too much!”

Chapter 903: Insufficient Sleep

Zhao Yao looked at the agitated cats. He shook his hand and said, “Okay. There will only be one overtime and every cat will get a bonus of 1000.”

Upon hearing this, all the cats cheered happily.

Cannon was excited. “This is great, we can earn 1000 from one night!”

Lightning nodded. “Zhao Yao is finally kind! If each cat is given 1000, won’t he lose millions?”

Looking at all the happy cats, Zhao Yao was thinking, “This time, it is a 16 second sleep. In the dream, it will be 16 hours, overtime 16 hours and I am giving 1000. Aye, it is a loss.”

Zhao Yao could take 7% of every cat’s subconscious and weave it into the dream. By being in the dream, they were helping Zhao Yao. With so many supercats in the dream, Zhao Yao could manipulate a lot of things.

Meanwhile, Project X felt his body jerk, he opened his eyes to find himself staring at the ceiling of the hospital.

He sat up and looked at the countless wires attached to his body. He was bewildered. “What is happening? Why am I here?”

After entering the dream, Project X, who didn’t realize it was a dream, had a greatly lowered intelligence. He could not identify the logical problems in the dream.

Suddenly he heard something outside and saw Lion Head walk in looking depressed. Then, Lion Head smiled at Project X. “Gou Sheng, you are awake?!”

“Who is Gou Sheng?” Project X asked Lion Head. “You look familiar. Do I know you?”

“Wu~~~~. Gou Sheng, I am your mother. How could you not recognize me?”

“My mother?” Project X wanted to slap her. But, he realized that his paw was weak and his powers had disappeared.

“What is going on? Where are my powers?” He jumped up and charged out of the ward. “Where am I? Where are my powers? Who are you?”

Fūjin and Rakshasa, who were wearing nurses’ uniforms, walked up and forced Project X back into his ward.

After a few minutes, Project X and Lion Head came to the doctor’s office. Ares was wearing a white robe and looked at Project X from behind his desk. He explained slowly, “This is a typical sign of mania, which is a mental illness. He also has some serious fantasies. My advice is for him to stay in the hospital. It is too dangerous to let him out.”

Project X looked at Ares in suspicion. “You are Zhao Yao’s supercat right? What are you guys doing? Where are my powers? Stop lying to me!”

Ares looked at him and continued talking to Lion Head. “The patient is delusional and created a supercat identity for himself. He made himself believe that he has powers. It will be very tough for you to take care of him alone.”

“Who is delusional?!” Project X stood up angrily. He sat down when he saw Fūjin and Rakshasa take a step forward. “Rubbish.”

Lion Head said, “I understand, doctor. Then, you guys have to take care of him.”

Despite Project X’s yells, he was brought back to the treatment room by Fūjin and Rakshasa and was tied to the chair.

Ares looked at Project X and said, “Tell me. What new powers did you awaken recently?”

Not going to speak? Then I will tell you what I know about you.” Ares looked at the information on his hand and said, “Gou Sheng, an ordinary village cat. Came to the city to work and one year ago, you found a job as a security guard. Then, you fell for a female named Elizabeth, who was staying in the area.”

“She was your goddess, but she did not like you. Her boyfriend was Matcha, the Mayor’s cat. You were not comparable to him, then you started to imagine that you had powers...”

“This is impossible. I do not believe you! You are lying!”

Suddenly the wall beside him collapsed, it showed Matcha and Elizabeth walking on the streets and he was tailing behind them.

“That is me?”

Then, the scene changed again and he was under Elizabeth’s block. He leaped towards the dustbin and rambled through the dustbin after Elizabeth threw her rubbish. He tore the rubbish bag apart and then looked for Elizabeth’s fur in the rubbish and held it happily in his hands.

“Picking up female cat’s fur? That’s disgusting!”

Then, the scene changed again. He was caught by Elizabeth for tailing her and Matcha called a bunch of cats to beat him up.

Looking at Matcha’s arrogant attitude, Project X was trembling with anger.

Ares said, “Are you seeing illusions again? Your illness is getting worse...”

Accompanied by Ares’s description, Project X’s face was turning blacker and blacker. The next 16 hours, kept challenging his mind and trampling his values. His self-awareness was greatly damaged and he was bullied badly by Ares, Elizabeth, and Matcha.

Zhao Yao accelerated it and watched everything.

After 16 hours, when Project X woke up again. His eyes were filled with weariness. His reaction and thought process slowed down greatly, however, he still ran around in the Extradimensional Belly due to the fear.

Zhao Yao: “The physical damage is 3 days? The psychological damage is 4 days? Then, let’s try both together.”

When the fear ended, Project X was spat out by Dust Ball in the Forbidden Devil territory. Project X saw Zhao Yao again.

This time was a 32 seconds forced sleep, which also meant 32 hours of dreamscape.

After the repeated dreamscape and the repeated psychological attacks, two days passed in the real world.

The total damage that Project X had received was equivalent to 100 days of not sleeping. When he woke up again, he looked like he had aged severely. His eyes sank in and looked dazed. Even under induced fear, his body would only tremble and he could hardly move.

Although he had Sang Biao’s physical evolution, he could not strengthen his consciousness.

If it was an ordinary person who had received such attacks, they would have died long ago. Project X survived due to his strong physical body, but psychologically he was in a terrible state. His brain felt like it was going to die at any moment.

Zhao Yao stood by the Dimension Portal. He had spent so long weaving the dreamscape. He did not sleep for several days as well and was weary.

He looked at Project X, who was trembling on the ground and waited for his fear induction to end.

Chapter 904: The return of Roly Poly

Zhao Yao controlled his eyes and prevented him from sleeping. He then said coldly. “Project X, you should understand now. You are no longer capable of fighting us. Heal my cats and I will stop attacking you.”

Project X moved his mouth and talked telepathically. “Sleep... Let me... Sleep...”

Zhao Yao looked at his blood shot eyes and threw Roly Poly into the Extradimensional Belly. “Heal him. Return his powers and intelligence to him. Then, I will let you sleep.”

Project X’s eyes tilted over and looked at Roly Poly. He stretched out his paws and wanted to touch Roly Poly on the head. After Roly Poly entered the Extradimensional Belly, he was shivering in the corner. Project X could not even stand up, not to mention touch Roly Poly.

Zhao Yao threw a fried chicken onto Project X’s stomach and Roly Poly ran up immediately to bite the chicken. Project X also managed to touch Roly Poly’s head.

That moment, Roly Poly’s eye gleamed and it shone with wisdom and light.

All the memories of what he did when he lost his intelligence returned to him. They replayed in his mind like a movie.

Roly Poly sighed, “I am back.”

After going through the awakening, losing intelligence, getting back his intelligence, Roly Poly felt like he just experienced a very long dream. His view about his life and the world had changed a bit.

While Project X was touching Roly Poly’s head, a subtle flesh and blood fused into Roly Poly’s head. Roly Poly was taken aback and felt like there was something extra in his body.

“Project X! You!”

Roly Poly blacked out and he realized that he was lying face to face with Roly Poly. Project X looked really old and with his withered body, he looked like he was about to die any moment.

Roly Poly said coldly, "Project X, what are you trying to do? Zhao Yao would not let you go if you do something funny."

"You don't need to worry. This is your conscious. I am just placing a small part of myself in you," Project X laughed and said weakly. "Roly Poly, do you think that I don't know? Even if I turn over a new leaf, even if I surrender and save all the cats, Zhao Yao would not let me live."

"Because my existence itself is a threat to earth, to humans, and all the supercats. It has nothing to do with my personality and what I do."

Roly Poly sneered coldly, "Then what do you want to do? For me to die together with you?"

Project X's body floated in front of Roly Poly and he whispered beside Roly Poly's ears. "Roly Poly, I know your experiences. I understand your powers and know your ambitions.

I can grant you powers. You will be strong enough to fulfill your dreams. As long you succumb to me, you can use my powers to conquer the world."

Roly Poly's face changed and said, "Grant me powers?"

Project X laughed. "Yes. The physical body in front of you will be killed by Zhao Yao, but as long you let me diffuse into you and live. I can lend you all my powers and you will be the strongest supercat in the world with unparalleled strength and power."

Roly Poly laughed coldly. "You are only negotiating with me because you are too weak. Or you would have just swallowed my body and controlled me."

Project X's face changed and said, "Be assured. I have no interest in your body. It will only cause Zhao Yao to be suspicious."

"Yeah, you shouldn't be interested." Roly Poly laughed. "But to be your man? Forget it. For cats like you who can't even save your body, you are not fit to be my boss."

"What did you say?" Project X raged. "Don't you want my powers?"

“Of course I want powers!” Roly Poly said. “Any supercat in this world can defeat me easily and when I lost my intelligence, I could only be walked like a dog. You have never experienced such things. How can you understand how much I desire to have strong powers!

It is my dream to become the strongest supercat. I want to inherit Cat Wonderland and I want to become Zhao Yao’s most trusted supercat! Matcha and the rest will be trampled by me!”

Project X was bewildered. “Then, why did you reject me?”

Roly Poly smiled, “That is because there are some changes to be made about the way we are going to cooperate. You will not be my master. We are equals, you lend me your powers and I grant you a chance to live.”

Project X laughed. “You? Grant me a chance to live?”

“Yes.” Roly Poly pressed his paw on Project X’s head and said slowly. “Or you can try to kill me. You know better than me how bad Zhao Yao’s revenge will be.”

Roly Poly tapped Project X’s face and said, “Stay in my body obediently and lend me your powers. If you try anything funny, I have a million ways for Zhao Yao to know your current situation.”

Project X’s eyes narrowed and said slowly, “Okay... Very good... Looks like I did not choose the wrong cat.” He let out a series of laughs and disappeared in front of Roly Poly.

When Roly Poly regained consciousness, it was the real world. He looked at the weak Project X on the floor and ran towards to Dimension Portal.

“Zhao Yao, I missed you so much!” Roly Poly hugged Zhao Yao’s leg and started crying. “You finally saved me!”

Zhao Yao stroked Roly Poly’s head and comforted him. “Okay. As long as you are back. Take a break and relax for a period of time.”

“I don’t need to rest.” Roly Poly raised his head and looked at Zhao Yao. “Let me do more chores at Cat Wonderland. During that time, I was wasting too much time.”

Zhao Yao looked at Roly Poly, taken aback. “Okay, as long as you want to. ” He asked Sheriff privately, “Is there anything wrong with Roly Poly?”

Sheriff listened and realized that Roly Poly’s mind was filled with words flattering Zhao Yao. There was nothing useful. He tugged his mouth and said, “There is nothing weird. He just keeps flattering you.”

Zhao Yao nodded and stroked Roly Poly’s head. “You can do your stuff. I have to recover the other cats.”

Since Roly Poly was successfully recovered, Zhao Yao planned to recover the other cats too. Project X recovered, returned their powers and intelligence to Cat King of the South, Cat King of the North and the others.

Roly Poly left and heaved a sigh of relief when he no longer saw Zhao Yao. “I made it.”

Project X’s voice rang in Roly Poly’s mind. “You... know how to deal with the mind reading cat already?”

“Humph, I have always been serving Zhao Yao. How can I not have thought about this.” Roly Poly said, “The problem is, will you be discovered?”

Project X said, “I am hiding in your subconscious. The cat can only listen to your thoughts and not subconscious...” Project X’s voice grew weaker and he said, “I am not going to speak anymore. I need... need to rest...”

Uncle Egg ran to Roly Poly and said excitedly, “Sir Roly! You are finally back!”

Roly Poly turned and said gently, “Uncle Egg, life has been hard on you. I have to think about what needs to be done next. Oh and my phone is with you right?”

Chapter 905: Level Up

Roly Poly took the cell phone that was handed by Uncle Egg and felt better after looking at it.

“Ah, I haven’t used the internet and played computer games for a long time.” Roly Poly sighed with mixed feelings as he said, “Uncle Egg, tell me about the recent situation in Cat Wonderland, especially Matcha. What has he been doing recently?”

“Very well, Master Roly.” Uncle Egg looked at Roly Poly and felt that he had an unfathomable aura about him. Even the way he used the cell phone had a mysterious feel.

Zhao Yao made a call to Uncle Ho and brought the supercats into the Extradimensional Belly for Project X to heal them.

Project X placed his paw on the Cat King of the South, Li Li’s head and restored her intelligence and superpower. Project X looked feeble as he said, “That’s enough... Zhao Yao... I have to rest as I’m reaching my limit.”

“Don’t worry, there are only a few cats left. Rest after you heal all of them.” Zhao Yao waved at the astonished Li Li as she walked slowly from the Dimension Portal. She could not understand her predicament so Elizabeth walked to her and explained it in detail.

Project X’s condition became worse and worse as he healed more supercats. He looked extremely weak as if he was going to die any time.

After healing the last supercat, Project X shivered as he said, “Is that enough, Zhao Yao?”

Zhao Yao smiled at Project X and said, “You have healed the supercats who lost their intelligence. What about reviving Sphinx cat?”

Project X struggled to hold himself as he said, “The one with the Revival superpower is not me but another supercat.

I told you before that he arrived on Earth thousands of years ago and he possessed the Revival superpower.”

“But you didn’t tell me his whereabouts and where he is on Earth. Besides the Revival superpower, does he have other superpowers? Why didn’t he leave Earth? Did he maintain contact with the alien cats?”

Zhao Yao blurted out the questions that he had wanted to ask long ago. Previously, Project X was holding the upper hand, hence he was able to negotiate terms with Zhao Yao. The tide had turned against Project X and Zhao Yao was able to ask without restraint.

Project X hesitated for a while and said, “When the Americans researched superpowers, they also studied superpower history. They combined technology with superpower and made breakthroughs in world history and archeology.

I collated their research materials and obtained a new discovery...”

Zhao Yao frowned at Project X’s words. According to Project X, the Americans found trails of supercats in an ancient tomb a thousand years ago.

The supercat appeared many times in human history and he showed his Revival superpower numerous times.

“I intended to harvest the superpowers of Jianghai’s supercats before journeying west to look for this supercat... It’s a pity...”

Zhao Yao did not believe Project X and said telepathically to Sheriff, “How’s that? Is there any problem with his words?”

“No,” Sheriff said. “He was natural and did not have any hesitation. He’s telling the truth.”

“What happened in the end?” Zhao Yao frowned. To find such a well-hidden supercat was like finding a needle in the haystack.

Zhao Yao was not sure if the supercat was still alive, whether he was on Earth, or if he still possessed the Revival superpower.

Zhao Yao organized the materials before sending them to Uncle Ho. This type of massive search was best accomplished with government resources.

Zhao Yao focused his attention on the Extradimensional Belly.

Five Dimensional Portals were installed above Cat Island. The portals were surrounded by large number of feline robots who aimed their plasma cannons at the portals.

Zhao Yao waved his hand and said, “Open fire!”

Plasma with a temperature of tens of thousands of degrees celsius shot into the Extradimensional Belly and created violent flames and air streams that filled the space, killing all life within.

In the extremely high temperature, Project X, who was at his weakest, witnessed his body vaporize. He smiled as he closed his eyes.

Project X vanished in an instant.

On Cat Island, a few hundred feline robots aimed at the Dimension Portal and fired their plasma cannons for half an hour. The Extradimensional Belly became a living hell with extreme temperatures and pressure.

The high temperature objects were released from the Extradimensional Belly and the frosting Deflective Field was used to restore it to normal.

Zhao Yao stood in the Extradimensional Belly and exhaled. “Finally I succeeded.”

He looked at the mission panel that showed he had completed the mission of exterminating Project X and received 100,000 experience points.

Zhao Yao was feeling uneasy. The BOOK gave him superpowers but he relied on his cognition to obtain and complete missions.

Project X was so easily killed that he felt disillusioned.

“Forget it. There shouldn’t be any problems. I am going to grow stronger than Project X. Even if clones of him existed, they would die if they came after me.”

Zhao Yao looked excitedly at the BOOK’s panel and it showed BOOK: Level 8 (181507/100000)

The experience points were sufficient for a supercat to upgrade to level 10.

“Upgrade to Level 10 and complete the evolution. Then I’ll think of ways to deal with the alien cats.”

After removing his nemesis Project X and healing Roly Poly and the supercats who had lost their intelligence, Zhao Yao was still looking for a chance to revive Sphynx cat. His next significant goal was dealing with the alien cats.

After pondering, he decided to find out more about Closers World from Arthas and Diana before giving Diana the 180 thousand experience points for level upgrades.

“Dust Ball, organize the supercats to cultivate catgrass and catmint in the Extradimensional Belly. I’m going to see Arthas and Diana for a discussion.

Kun Wu, who came with Doll to Cat Island to witness the death of Project X, was skeptical.

She had always wanted to visit Cat Island to see Project X. As Zhao Yao had requested Doll’s help, Doll brought along Kun Wu to fulfill her wish.

Kun Wu looked at Roly Poly curiously and walked over to him.

Chapter 906: Evolution

Dust Ball started transporting materials into the Extradimensional Belly to transform it into a supercat haven and catmint farm.

Zhao Yao arrived at Arthas and Diana's room and saw Arthas, Diana, Rice Cake, and Gaia lying down in the cat dwellings. They were wearing game visors on their heads and they looked like they were playing the computer game Closers World.

Zhao Yao thought, "Are all of them playing computer games in the name of research?"

Zhao Yao nudged both of them to wake them up.

Arthas yawned as he said, "Zhao Yao, why are you here?"

Zhao Yao said glumly, "I'm checking how your research is progressing. How's it going? Did you uncover the workings of the online game?"

Arthas' eyes lit up when Zhao Yao mentioned the online game. "This game is very addictive! There are two major camps, various ways to play, dramatic events and interesting creatures..."

Zhao Yao became more and more sour and Arthas immediately replied, "Er... I researched the game and it was as expected. It's an Awareness World built in the Awareness Dimension."

"In the Awareness Dimension?" Zhao Yao said. "Didn't you mention that in the Awareness Dimension, there's no concept of space and time like in the material realm? Instead, it's a chaotic and random dimension that connects the dreamscapes of all life? How could there be a stable game world in such an environment?"

"This is where it's awesome!" Diana explained. "The Closers World is a dreamscape and it's more sturdy than normal dreamscapes. It can exist for a long time and the scenes are fixed in stone. They are unaffected by the changes in the players' awarenesses..."

Diana scratched her head as though she was confused and said, "If the Awareness Dimension is a restless ocean, then everyone's dreamscapes are like sandcastles on the beach that can collapse for any reason.

But in Closers World, the castles are as sturdy as steel fortress."

Arthas nodded his head and said agreeably, “The dreamscape that I created in the Beverly Hills was like a sand pit as compared to the Closers World’s luxurious automated cat toilet.”

Diana said, “Closers World is able to exist independently in the Awareness Dimension and resist violent drifts of awareness. It is invulnerable against our superpower attacks.”

“That powerful?” Zhao Yao frowned and thought. “Isn’t it closely related to dreamscapes and awarenesses? With Diana’s current level, she’s unable to fight against the alien cats. I’ll let Diana level up.”

Arthas shared another discovery while researching Closers World.

“I might have found the reason behind Closers World’s existence.” Arthas said, “Based on my senses, I can feel the game players supplying energy to Closers World.”

Zhao Yao was surprised and said, “I didn’t know such stuff was possible.”

“Yes, all living things expend mental energy during our daily activities. When we sleep, our mental energy and body are replenished.” Arthas said, “I can sense that we are spending our mental energy when we are playing in the Closers World.”

“All our emotions like joy, anger, sadness, excitement, and thought processes expend our mental energy which is absorbed by Closers World.”

Zhao Yao asked, “Are you able to guess the use for the mental energy?”

“I suppose a portion of the energy is used to maintain Closers World,” Arthas said. “I don’t know about the rest. This is the first time I have encountered the absorbing of people’s mental energy. I can sense the phenomenon but I can’t figure out how they do it.”

Zhao Yao nodded grimly. The situation was worse than he thought. He could not figure out what the alien cats were up to and he did not have the power to defeat them in a direct confrontation.

He was even killed by them in the Awareness Dimension.

“I’ll level up Diana and let her go through evolution to see if she can fight against the alien cats.”

Zhao Yao looked at BOOK’s panel as he awarded tens of thousands of experience points to Diana and upgraded her to Level 10.

Diana was now Level 10 (0/0).

It seemed Level 10 was the maximum for a supercat.

“Is evolution required after attaining Level 10? I’ll upgrade Diana’s skills first.”

Zhao Yao looked at the skill tree of Level 8 and Level 9 and picked four skills that used up two skill points and expanded the radius of the sleep superpower to 100 kilometers.

The probability of the subconscious’ content being woven into the dreamscape was 20%.

One second in the dreamscape was equivalent to 14 hours in the material realm.

Zhao Yao looked at Diana’s Level 10 skills with great anticipation.

Dream Demon’s Constitution: You can change the state of your body and enter a dreamscape while expending your mental energy.

Nightmare’s Breath: You possess mastery of dreamweaving and excellent understanding of human nature. You are able to use this skill once in a dreamscape to deal massive mental energy damage to your target.

Zhao Yao sighed. These two level 10 were extremely powerful but they were still not related to the Awareness Dimension’s energy.

He used up one skill point for Diana to learn Dream Demon’s Constitution and Nightmare’s breath. There were five remaining skill points after he collected the Meteorite Fragments.

Zhao Yao accessed BOOK’s evolution module and selected Diana for evolution.

He saw the evolution option: Awareness Dimension Evolution.

Zhao Yao thought, “Evolution option? There’s only one evolution option? I’m not sure if I’m exposed to the Awareness Dimension or only Diana’s allowed this evolution option. I guess it’s my limitation as BOOK provided my superpowers. I experienced the Awareness Dimension’s energy so I’m allowed to choose it.”

This was what Zhao Yao wanted to master. He immediately selected Awareness Dimension evolution and a progress bar appeared, showing 0%.

Zhao Yao read the words under the progress bar and thought, “I need to accumulate the Awareness Dimension’s energy to complete the evolution?”

Chapter 907: Leveling up in game

In a huge modernized mansion in United States.

The blue cat Amakusa was lying on the ground and beside him were a dozen of maids feeding him food, massaging him, combing his fur and grinding his paws.

The American Shorthair, Giggle, was sitting on the other side of the sofa and looked at the middle aged woman. Giggle looked into the woman’s eyes and entered her awareness and twisted it. “It has to be more and more accelerated. All the pathways have to be spread out. It does not matter if the benefits are compromised a bit.

Remember! The focus has to be on the virtual reality. It can replace sleep. It can become a second human world, do you understand?”

Giggle looked at Amakusa after the middle aged person left. He was angry when he saw that Amakusa was sleeping on the maid’s chest and yelled, “Amakusa, what are you doing? Haven’t I told you to practice in the sealed world?”

Amakusa gulped the salmon down and said solemnly, “Don’t call me Amakusa. I love Earth. I am half an earth cat. Earth is my second home and when we are here, you have to call me by my earth name, Tom.”

Giggle looked at Tom coldly. “Tom, why aren’t you practicing in the sealed world? For humans, it is just a game. As long as you follow what I say, you can train yourself in the game.”

Tom swung his tail lazily and said, “The game that you have created is so stupid. Have you played World of Warcraft? It is so much more interesting than your game. You should learn ...”

After Giggle heard this, the veins on his head started bulging. He had spent so much effort on this game. He had spent dozens of sleepless nights creating that game and could not withstand Tom’s insults.

Then, his narrowed his eyes and the maid screamed.

“What is going on? Why did my body become like that!” The maid screamed and then she touched her chest in shock. “No wonder they are so weak. They are carrying around such a huge burden. How can they not be weak? Wait... this is a pair of hands. It will be so much easier to catch mice.”

Giggle was speechless. “What are you focusing on? I just shifted your awareness!”

“Oh right.” The maid looked at the blue cat that was meowing at them, terrified. Evidently, the maid’s awareness had been shifted onto the cat.

Tom was surprised. “How did you do it? Giggle, we should have the same powers. How can you shift my awareness? My dad can’t even do it.”

Giggle said smugly, “You should understand that the strength of the awareness dimension is relative to your capabilities. The stronger person can dominate over the weaker ones. The bigger the difference in capabilities, the easier it will be for me to dominate. In the Awareness Dimension, I am much stronger than you, that is why I can shift your awareness.”

Giggle continued, “How? Do you want to play Closers World?”

He reached out his paws and Tom’s awareness had returned to the cat’s body.

Tom said in dissatisfaction, “Why did you sent me back? I think that the human body is great. Send me back!”

Giggle was speechless. “If you are going to play Closers World, it doesn’t matter which body you use. You want to use the human body to play other games right?”

“Okay, okay. I am only going to play the game you created,” Tom said helplessly. “Give me any game account that is at its maximum level and give me a legendary weapon.”

Giggle looked at him angrily. “No. Closers World has become an important part of the Awareness Dimension. It has become strong with the help of countless people.

Because it is so strong and important, it is even hard for me to change its rules. What I can do now is only use Closers World to get stronger. Like how I just transferred your awareness.”

Tom said, “What? You can’t even change the equipment?”

“I can’t. But, I can use Closers World to collect energy and strengthen myself...”

Tom said, “What about teleportation? Can I kill instantly? Can I scan the map?”

“I said, I cannot modify the data in the game. But, as long as I can collect the energy in Closers World, I can...”

“What.” Tom turned his head with disdain. “You can’t do anything and you call it a game...”

Giggle raged, “Are you playing or not?! You ramble again and I will transfer your awareness into a pile of shit and then let a dog eat you. Then, poop you out again and eat you! Poop you out again and eat!”

Tom tugged the corners of his mouth and said, “It is so childish to use the transfer of awareness for such things.”

“Mary! Get a pile of shit and a dog here.”

“Okay, okay. I will play it. Your temper is so bad. No wonder you do not have a girlfriend.” Tom walked towards the game console.

Giggle reminded him, “Don’t forget about the method I have taught you. I am not asking you to really play the game.”

...

In China, Zhao Yao looked at the awareness progress bar and started pondering.

“How do I collect energy from Awareness Dimension?”

Zhao Yao thought about it and asked Arthas and Diana.

Arthas thought about it and said, “Collecting the Awareness Dimension’s energy. Like Closers World, where it collects players’ energy?”

Diana said, “But all the scattered energy will be absorbed by Closers World itself and we will not be able to absorb it.”

Zhao Yao touched his chin and said, “Let’s try it first.” He has decided to enter the Closers World first then see if there was any reaction with the Book.

Ever since Zhao Yao had tried to cast Diana’s powers in Closers World, his account got sealed for three days. He has not played that game since.

Now, he took out the game and laid on the floor, entering Closers World.

A man wearing only his boxers appeared in front of Zhao Yao and at the side was the option to choose the appearance of the character.

Zhao Yao did not really care about his appearance in games. He couldn’t be bothered to change his appearance and after clicking random a few times, he selected confirm.

He looked at the dialog box for name and typed. “Your Grandfather”

“Taken?” Zhao Yao frowned. “People now have such low standards. Even such names can be taken.”

Zhao Yao tried “Your father’s father” and it was also taken.

“Aye, forget it. Let’s try something that will not be taken.” Zhao Yao thought about it and typed “Zou x GuangYuCui”

At last he had found a name that wasn’t taken.

Chapter 908: Newcomer Guide

After he named himself, the game started. Zhao Yao’s vision went black and there was a sunny yard in front of him.

“Hi, Zou x GuangYuCui, welcome to Hundred Beasts College.” A bearded elderly man in black robe walked up to him and gave an introduction. “Use your consciousness to control your body how you normally do...”

Zhao Yao realized that he could control the man he had just created and after familiarizing himself for a while, he could control him like he controlled himself.

Like in real life, his body in the game was too weak.

Without the strengthened five senses, power, and speed, he felt weak.

“I am really not used to this.” Zhao Yao looked at the elderly man and in addition to being able to hear him, there was a dialogue box on top of his head. It was the text of what he had just said.

Zhao Yao skipped the basic tutorial and went ahead.

Suddenly, one man ran over and started kicking the elderly man. After killing the elderly man, he added a few more kicks.

The men started hitting the elderly and then snorted. “What. This is a bunch of rubbish. There is no equipment. The blogger must have lied.”

Zhao Yao looked at that man, who wanted to leave, and the elder that was on the floor. Zhao Yao was shocked.

He had just set up an account, had not learnt anything, did not get any equipment and the elderly man was dead. Not only dead, but also naked and now censored.

This game was too real. There was no life bar and he was dead? And stripping was really just stripping off his clothes. How was this game authorized?”

Zhao Yao looked closely and realize that the robe that men was wearing was the same as the elder. It was not the first time that he had killed an elder. He may have even killed the elderly paired to him.

Thinking of this, Zhao Yao was very angry. He pointed to the man and shouted, “Hey! You killed my elder and you want to walk off like that?”

The men turned back and looked at Zhao Yao. “Just wait, there will be a new one.”

“So what if there is a new one? It won’t be the same anymore,” Zhao Yao said. “And you caused me to wait for it to refresh. This is wasting my time!”

The men sneered. “So what if I have wasted it? You can crawl along the Internet cable and come beat me.” Then, he walked off.

Zhao Yao got even more angry. He glared at the name and made a mental note. “His name is Beaten? When I level up, I will beat you till you vomit blood.”

Zhao Yao remembered that in this game, in the grassland, he could PVP. He would let the men know who he had offended.

Zhao Yao waited for a dozen seconds and finally the elderly man crawled up and his injuries had recovered. He looked at Zhao Yao and said, “Now, choose your sealed beast. Different sealed beasts will grant you with different powers.”

A dog, turtle, and rabbit appeared in front of Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao frowned and looked at the turtle, dog, and rabbit. Their information floated up to introduce them.

Dog was physical damage, the turtle was tank and the rabbit was for healing.

Zhao Yao knew the rules of Closers World. It was to capture animals and seal them in his body. Different animals had different powers.

However, Zhao Yao did not want to choose any of them.

The elder smiled at him. “If you are dissatisfied with these beasts, there are some others...”

Zhao Yao was excited. “Did I uncover a secret function? Was it because he was killed? Is the reward for killing the elderly to obtain a secret beast?”

Then, a panel that jumped out in front of the elder and showed a husky, a shiba inu and poodle. They were sold at 1000 US Dollars.

The elderly said kindly. “I have three powerful sealed beasts here and I can sell them to you at a cheap price. If you buy them, you can get a free starter kit and a butcher kit.”

“What the heck...” Zhao Yao raged. “The tutorial is not even over and they want to steal my money... What game is this? I don’t even need 1000 US Dollars to buy a dog in reality! Furthermore, if I buy a dog I will get a butcher kit? What logic is this? Only an idiot would buy this!”

Zhao Yao looked at the three pets. He used to play tank in his previous games and he chose the turtle with his eyes closed.

The elder looked at Zhao Yao and shook his head. The rest of the beasts disappeared and there was a turtle left in front of Zhao Yao.

“Then, I shall teach you how to catch a beast and seal it. We shall experiment on your turtle.”

Then, the elderly took out a ball.

Zhao Yao rolled his eyes. “Have you guys not been sued yet?”

The elderly man said, “At this point in time, you may think that this ball looks familiar. But, it is not what you think. Look carefully. This is the way to capture the beast...”

The elder held up the ball in his hand and threw it at the turtle multiple times. After a series of shrieks, the turtle stopped moving.

“Remember that you have to approach from the back and then hit it hard.”

The elderly man wiped off the sweat on his head and said, “It maybe more tough for beginners. However, as you get more familiar with it, it will get easier. I heard that for the strong ones, they can throw the ball a dozen meters away and it can still knock the target out...”

“Still not knocked out?” Then, he rushed up and hit the turtle again. “You need to be careful. Turtles defenses are very high. They may be able to escape!”

Looking at the immobilized turtle, the elderly man was satisfied. “Did you see that? You have to be fast, accurate, and hard. Don’t have any mercy.”

Zhao Yao looked at this scene in shock. He stared at the elderly man and was wondering if there was a BUG in the system or if the creator of this game was nuts.

Chapter 909: Hard to level up and the progress bar

The elderly man opened the closer ball in front of the little turtle that had fainted.

Zhao Yao thought to himself, “So we are finally back on track, the turtle should be sucked into the closer ball? This is outright plagiarism! They will definitely be sued soon. The creator of this game clearly did not bother to spare a thought.”

He saw the closer ball in the elder’s hand shoot out a beam of red light with a “Pong” sound, instantly burning the little turtle on the ground into ashes, then suck the ashes into the closer ball.

The elder passed the closer ball to Zhao Yao and said, “Suck the unconscious closer pet into the closer ball and the seal will be complete. Next, I will teach you how to summon the closer pet in the closer ball.”

“God damn... How is the closer pet still there? My turtle is only ashes,” Zhao Yao exclaimed to himself. “What are you guys thinking? I don’t understand the creators. Are you guys serious? Does this company still want to make a profit? What kind of ridiculous game is this!”

The elder said, “To summon the closer pet...”

“Guys come over! The elder has refreshed there!” A loud commotion was heard. Zhao Yao turned around in exasperation and saw a bunch of smurf accounts dashing over in his direction. Every one of them wore a black elder’s cloak. They surrounded the elder and attacked him vigorously.

Then after another round of plundering, turning the elder into a cloud of mosaics, one of them who was originally naked was wearing the elder’s cloak.

“Now, all of us have clothes to wear!”

“This is such a stupid game. When we just started we were shirtless and only have a pair of boxers. It is so embarrassing to talk to girls!”

“Exactly, finally there are clothes to wear!”

“Let’s go and level up! I heard that by killing the convenience store owner we will be rewarded with equipment. Let’s hurry up!”

Zhao Yao looked at the cloud of mosaics on the floor silently, then looked at the people that just attacked the elder and stopped them.

The leader frowned and said, “What do you want? Just wait for a while, he will be refreshed again...”

“No...” Zhao Yao smiled and said. “Look at me, I have also just created this character. Why don’t you guys help me kill the elder too.”

One minute later, Zhao Yao who was wearing the black cloak, continued to listen to the elder’s tutorial.

“In order to use the closer pet’s power, the closer ball must be used. You need to be calm then use the spell you learnt to summon the closer pet’s power...”

Zhao Yao took a look at the closer ball in his hands that read: LV1 Black Turtle

Then Zhao Yao chose the pooped out option, used it. Immediately, he saw a black turtle hop out of the ball and crawl into Zhao Yao’s chest.

At the same time, Zhao Yao received a notification “Possessor of the power of the black turtle, slight increase in recovery, defense and vitality, learnt black water control, able to slightly decrease the movement speed of nearby units.

Zhao Yao knew that character details did not exist in Closers world. One could not view their own attack power, defense, and other indicators. Everything was dependent on estimation and thoughts.

However, after using the closer pet, he was able to have a rough gauge of his abilities.

His abilities could be used as long as he muttered the name of the ability in his heart.

Zhao Yao concentrated on 'Black water control'. Immediately, black water could be seen rising around him. The murky water rose continuously and vigorously.

"The visual effects... It's so ugly..."

Zhao Yao suddenly regretted choosing the turtle, however, he had already chosen it and there is nothing he could do about it. He could only catch a better and cooler closer pet in the future.

The elder spoke again, "Zou x GuangYuCui, now I have a mission for you, are you willing to take it on?"

Looking at the two options that appeared, Zhao Yao chose to accept.

Then, he heard the elder say directly, "Go to the neighboring pig pen and kill twenty pigs."

Zhao Yao was amused. "Simple and clear..."

Then the elder smiled graciously. "Of course, if you are willing to pay a small sum, I can let someone else kill the pigs for you."

Looking at the option of paying USD$10 or completing the mission quickly, Zhao Yao turned a blind eye to it.

"Isn't it just killing a few monsters? Only an idiot would pay to complete the mission."

Hence, Zhao Yao left the house and went to the pig pen. He saw a large crowd of newbies squatting in the pig pen, rushing up to every pig that appeared and killing them instantly.

Zhao Yao squatted for a while and only managed to touch a pig once after 15 minutes, then he turned impatient.

"How does one complete this mission?"

After thinking for awhile, Zhao Yao walked out of the pig pen and ran back shortly, screaming, “Brothers! A legendary creature appeared near the school. Everyone is trying to catch it! Let’s hurry up and catch it!”

“Legendary creature?”

“Where is the legendary creature?”

“Hurry, catch the legendary creature!”

Looking at the crowd that ran out, Zhao Yao smiled. Then his face changed again after seeing the few of them that remained. “What ridiculous game is this? They can’t even gauge the number of monsters to refresh. The game creator is really useless.”

He killed the pigs with the remaining people for ten plus minutes. Zhao Yao scolded while killing the pigs. “Shitty game! Shitty game! If not for the VR element, who would play this game?!”

Then, there was a commotion.

“God damn, we were cheated!”

“Who was said that there was a legendary creature?”

“Wasn’t it that Zou x something something guy?”

“Just by the name he sounds really shitty already!”

Zhao Yao’s face changed. If they returned, it would be harder to kill the pigs. They may even interfere and stop him from killing the pigs.

What happened next was what Zhao Yao predicted. With the increase in the number of players, the difficulty of killing the pigs increased. Especially when some people were either intentionally or unintentionally blocking him, slowing down his efficiency at killing the pigs.

“If this was in reality...”

“This is shitty game with a shitty storyline, shitty flow, and worst of all, the shittiest abilities...” Looking at the mission that he was unable to complete after so long, Zhao Yao got so mad that he went offline. “Forget it. I shall find Arthas and his friends to carry me. They played this shitty game for so long. They should be at a higher level.”

Zhao Yao removed the equipment on his head and planned to look for Arthas and his friends. Suddenly, he remembered to look at Book.

Surprisingly, the progress of Diana on Book increased by a very slight amount.

“Oh? This game really does allow the Book to collect awareness dimension?” Zhao Yao’s eyes lit up. “How does one collect it? Is it related to what I have done just now?”

Zhao Yao immediately decided not to look for Arthas. He played this game for Diana to evolve so he could fight the alien cats. The most important thing now is to try out what actions in Closers World will allow the progress bar to grow.

Chapter 910: Experiment

Looking at the growth in the progress bar, Zhao Yao immediately understood. By owning the Book, he indeed collected the awareness dimension’s energy when playing Closers World just now.

However, how was it collected? He recalled what he had done just now while he was online.

“Kill the elder? Kill the pigs? Remind them to kill the legendary creature?”

Zhao Yao decided to try doing each of them one by one again to see if the progress bar would continue to grow.

The moment he went online, he headed towards where the elder was. Once he stepped into the house, he heard the elder talk to him. “You are here, Zou x GuangYuCui.”

“Yes, yes.” Zhao Yao replied instinctively. However the NPC did not reply to him. Then, Zhao Yao could be seen sneaking up to the elder, activating black water and punching the back of the elder’s head.

The black water rose from the ground, submerging the elder’s leg, slowing down his movement speed. Then, Zhao Yao gave him two continuous punches on the elder’s head, causing him to back off and turned to stare at Zhao Yao in anger. “You want to kill me?”

“Er...”

Next moment, the elder was seen taking out a torch. Flames sparked, bursting into a strong flame and heading towards Zhao Yao.

Zhao Yao wanted to dodge but his movements were unable to keep up with his mind and he could only retreat. After a series of struggles, he finally died under the torch.

When he appeared in the house again after rebirth, he looked at the elder who was smiling and Zhao Yao was speechless. “Why can’t I kill you by myself even after learning abilities?”

Hence, he ran out of the house and screamed at the players outside, “Hurry, come over here! The elder refreshed! I saw him with equipment, someone come over here and help!”

Immediately, many players looked in his direction and a dozen of them ran over.

Zhao Yao laughed and looked at the elder, “Let me see how you are going to die this time.”

Even though could use the torch really well, one torch was unable to defeat many opponents. Against the vast number of players, the elder still died and fell to the ground.

“Damn! Where is the torch?”

“I did not receive it?”

“Did any of you received it?”

“Maybe it didn’t drop!”

“Aye! Zou X! Didn’t you say there was weapon?”

Zhao Yao shrugged his shoulders and said, “You guys saw the weapon he holding onto too.”

Looking at the crowd of players walking away in anger, it was unclear if the weapon had not fallen or someone had taken it without saying. After all, the inventory in Closers World is was like the dimensional pocket. If the player did not take it out, no one would know what was inside.

Looking at the crowd of players that left hurriedly and the elder that was left behind in a cloud of mosaics. Zhao Yao quickly went offline to check if there were any changes in the Book.

However, when he was looking at the evolution bar, Zhao Yao started doubting.

“The progress is too little, too slow. It is hard to tell if it has increased.”

There was no number on the progress bar, there was only a slight increase in brightness. Zhao Yao was unable to tell whether it had grown or not.

“If not... try again?”

After Zhao Yao came online again, he fell silent after looking at the elder that was reborn.

The elder in front of him wore a full black armour and held a huge sword. His eyes gave off faint dark rays and he was armed from head to toe except for his teeth. He didn’t look like one to be messed with.

“Does the NPC in this game becomes stronger after rebirth? Is this legitimate?”

However, even though the elder seemed unfriendly, with the amount of equipment he was wearing, the players would only be more keen to kill him. Zhao Yao quickly dashed out and screamed, “The BOSS appeared! The BOSS appear! The BOSS will drop legendary weapons!”

A crowd of players swarmed over like locust, with their eyes lighting up at the sight of the armored elder. They were close to drooling.

A dozen players surrounded the elder, kicking and punching him.

However, this time the fully armored elder was clearly stronger. He killed the players one by one. Meanwhile, more players noticed and crowd over. Zhao Yao dashed over as well but was squeezed out after barely touching the elder.

Looking at the elder engulfed by hundreds of players, Zhao Yao nodded silently and thought to himself, "It seems like the ants are killing the elephant in this game. Are there no settings for defense? Or is the elder too weak?"

Suddenly, he shook his head. "Whatever, why do I have to wonder about the settings of this ridiculous game."

Soon, the elder died from the crowd of players. However, it seemed like no one received the armor, causing the crowd of players to be furious.

Suddenly, Zhao Yao saw a shocking scene. A female player rode onto the censored elderly, fished out the closer ball and started to hit the elder repeatedly.

"What?"

"This is too inhuman!"

"Even if it is an NPC, she shouldn't be doing this."

"The creators of this game are not stupid. How can they let you catch a NPC?"

While the players were expressing their views on society's evolving values. The female player can be seen opening the closer ball at the elder after attacking for a period of time.

The next moment, a beam of light shot out, instantly burning the elder into ashes and sucking it into the closer ball.

“Oh my god!”

“This is indeed a ridiculous game!”

“What were the creators of this game thinking?”

“I can’t keep up with the thought process of Apple...”

That being said, many players looked at the female player and asked, “How is the elder?”

“Yeah, what abilities does he have?”

“Come on, show us.”

The female player looked at the closer ball in her hands and it seemed like she was reading the abilities of the elder. Shortly, she frowned, turned away and walked off. She could not be bothered with the opinions of the other players around her.

However, the players had already developed a strong interest in catching the elder or generally any NPC. They were teaming up to catch the NPCs and the crowd left to catch the different NPCs.

Zhao Yao was left behind in shock looking at the location where the elder had disappeared. “My elder, he was caught just like this?”

However, now that the elder had disappeared entirely, Zhao Yao was no longer certain.

Zhao Yao was really not sure about the thought process of the game company. God knows if this ridiculous game would revive the elder for him.

“Never mind, I should go offline to check if the Book grew.”

After that thought, Zhao Yao stopped standing there foolishly and went offline immediately. Looking at the little progress in the bar, comparing with what he remembered from earlier.

“Seems like it grew a little? But it does not seem obvious though.”

“If not... Kill more NPCs?”
