

Chapter 118 Visit

Umayza

After we leave the Alpha's office we all go upstairs to freshen up and to get changed for dinner, this of course takes a little longer for me and my Mates. As we walk down the stairs I find out it also took a little longer for my baby Brother and Asilda turns slightly red as Callen asks if they enjoyed themselves.

I knock him on the back of his head and tell him to stop teasing my Sister. I walk into the dining room to hear quite a few people talking about Luna Jess and I know that the moment she walks in they will stop with their gossip. I have two Lycans to calm down as we listen to some of them saying that Drew should move on.

I hate listening to people talking behind someone's back and I am glad I have my Mates with me to calm me and Yade down. Despite that I actually enjoy dinner and we talk about Dad and Ma being mated, Conri asks how long it will take before they realize the connection between them.

Orion decides to show us around Silver Lotus Pack after dinner and just as we step out of the Pack-house Dad and Ma walk into view. Dad smiles at me while Ma smiles at Orion and they are saying something to one and other, Ma stops dead in her tracks as she looks from Dad to Orion.

The moment we stand in front of her I notice the unshed tears in her eyes, "You're his Father." She whispers and Dad just nods his head. "Ma, there is more you should know." Orion says as he pulls her in for a hug. "This is Asilda, my Mate." He says as he pulls Asilda closer.

It takes a few moments before Ma is able to say anything, I am looking at Dad with a smile on my face and Conri and Evander have their arms wrapped around me. My family is complete again and I can't wait to see what the future brings us.

"Orion, aren't you going to introduce me to the rest of your friends?" Ma asks while she looks at us. "Well, Gorgeous. I think that that should be my job, this is Umayza, my other Pup." Dad says and she gives me a big smile before she pulls me in for a hug.

I introduce my Mates to her after she has released me from our hug, she looks up at my Mates as she mutters "Fuck" and I can understand why. I am not tall with my 5'7", but I think Ma got stuck at 5'4 and Conri and Evander tower over her with their 6'3.

We walk around the territory for a while when it suddenly hits me, no one told Ma I am Orion's twin and I ask Yade if she can scare the shit out of my baby Brother for me. Orion jumps to the left and bumps into Dad in the process, Asilda and Ma are staring at him as I am laughing my ass off.

"Okay, that is not funny." Orion yells at me and Dad Chuckles when he realizes what happened. "Why did Yade scare the shit out of me?" He asks and I see confusion written all over Ma's face as I say, "Because you and Dad forgot to mention a very important detail to Ma."

Both of them stare at each other, but apparently they are clueless as to what they might have forgotten to mention and I just stare at the two of them with my arms crossed in front of my chest. After about ten minutes they give up and ask me what they forgot to tell Ma.

Yade and I can't understand why they can't find the answer and I grab my Mates to walk in the opposite direction, yelling over my shoulder, "I hope either one of you remembers by morning or you can stay here." I keep walking towards the Pack-house with Conri and Evander on either side of me and they are the only reason I have not shifted to Yade yet.

Conri and Evander don't say a word as we get closer to the Pack-house, but I doubt they know the detail they forgot to mention to Ma and I think they are smart enough not to ask me about it. I feel exhausted from the trip and reliving those memories and I tell my Mates I need some sleep.

Evander lifts me in his arms and his scent wraps around me like warm blanket, lulling me to sleep in his arms. I wake up in the morning without my Mates beside me, but I can sense they are still in the room with me and as I sit up straight I see them standing in front of the window.

"Everyone is accounted for according to Callen." Conri says as he turns towards me and he quickly walks over to scoop me out of bed. "Goodmorning, Little One." He says before he kisses me and I wrap my arms around his neck as I open my mouth for him.

Evander steps to my other side and after Conri and I break our kiss he lower his head demand a kiss as well. We quickly go through our morning routine and from time to time I collide with one of my Mates as we are still trying to get used to being around each other in a small space.

"We'll get the hang of it, eventually." Evander mutters after I have stepped on his foot for the third time and I giggle as I see him give me a fake pout. I shake my head before I place a kiss on his cheek and walk out of the bathroom to get changed, Conri and Evander are right behind me.

Theron is waiting at the bottom of the stairs with three plates in his hands and I thank him as I grab one while walking to the front door. Ma steps in front of me with a stern look on her face and I hand my plate back to Theron before I face Ma again.

"Umayza, I think you should apologize to your Father and your Brother. Your reaction was uncalled for and very childish." She says and I let Yade push forward enough so Ma can see her, "Ma, I have every right to be mad at them. As I said they forgot to mention a very important detail to you and without it I don't think you will fully understand the story of Dad's first Mate." I growl softly.

I don't want to scare Ma and I sure as hell don't want to piss her off, but she doesn't know that the woman that died protecting the Wolf she raised also died to protect me. Evander has his arms wrapped around my waist and asks Ma what Dad told her about his Pups.

Apparently he just told her he had a fated Mate once for a little over a year and that he had Pups with his first Mate, but he never mentioned anything else about his Pups. "Ma, how long does a pregnancy last?" I ask her and before she answers me I can tell she has figured it out on her own.

"You are his twin." She whispers and I just nod my head as I accept my plate of food again. Ma marchese out of the front door and before my Father and baby Brother realize what is going to happen she smacks them both on the head at the same time.

She doesn't say a word to them as she steps next to me and everyone's attention gets drawn to Alpha Drew. As we had discussed he will not inform the Pack of what he knows, I will inform them as Armand and Ragnar with their Squads will take care of the Wolves involved.

I finish my breakfast before I get up to address the Pack, Conri tells me they have eyes on the ones they need to grab and that is my cue to start talking. I explain that I work for the Council and I explain what kind of work I do for the Council and I even tell them who I am related to.

My eyes connect with Gabriella's eyes and she knows that her days are numbered. The more I reveal the more nervous the other two are getting and one of them even tries to leave the meeting, but Evander grabs him by the neck. Forcing him to stay where he is and I know Mylo has made sure he knows that Mylo is present.

"I know that there are those that think Alpha Drew should move on and find a Mate that can give him an heir. The only reason this Pack doesn't have an heir yet is because of a female that believes she should be your Luna and she has poisoned Luna Jess every time she found out an heir was expected.

This wasn't a one female job; it was the combined effort of three Pack-members. Isn't that correct, Gabriella?" I ask and everyone around her snarls at her. I let them voice their disapproval towards Gabriella and I know it will get worse when they hear who else are involved.

"As I said there are others involved, Wolves you have trusted with your lives and that of the ones you love. The poison has been recovered from the spot where I told Alpha Drew it could be found, under Grant's work bench." I hear snarls and roars erupting all around me, but I am not done yet.

A Wolf steps forward to ask who else is involved and I know he will be confused at first, but then outrage will follow quickly. "Beta, I know this will be hard to believe but it is your Sister." Before anyone can respond he turns around and lifts his Sister of the ground by grabbing her throat.

"I told you that Drew would never take another Mate, no matter how long it would take and that he would rather hand to Pack over to another Alpha than to give Jess up. I no longer consider you family." His Wolf roars as he pushes her towards Ragnar.

It takes a long time before the Pack settles down, I just watch as one after the other finally calms down enough and Ma is sitting next to me as she ignores her Mate and her Son. I know Jasper is with me and Asilda has been looking strange at Orion.
