

Chapter 123 Just Us

Umayza

The moment the whistle sounds everyone in the room goes quiet and we watch as Alpha Ajani shifts into his wolf, I hold my breath as I watch her looking at the Wolf in front of her. My mates both suck in a breath as she stays in her human form and I get this distinct feeling that she is going to humiliate him in a worse way than she did with Alpha Claus.

I listen to the sounds of her match but my eyes are on the little wolf that is watching her intently and I see his eyes shift between his own and that of his Wolf. He is really enjoying the match and I can tell that he is proud of her being his Mom, the grin on his face becomes bigger and bigger with every blow she throws.

Her Mate is watching with his Wolf at the surface and the look on his face tells me that he is very impressed with his Mate's ability to fight a Wolf in Human form. I don't know many Wolves or Lycans that can take on a Wolf or Lycan in their Human form, I know I am not capable of doing what Alpha Amarah is doing right now.

The moment I see his eyes widen I look up to see the most amazing thing I have ever seen in my life, she is slowly choking the air out of him. Yeah, I knew it. This female is a force to be reckoned with and any Alpha that is stupid enough to cross her will end up six feet under.

Not a sound is heard as she chokes the air out of him and even after she steps aside everyone remains silent, but that changes the moment she gets announced the winner. We are all cheering and howling as the referee counts Alpha Ajani down, she did one hell of a job and I really hope she will accept our request.

No one won the bet as no one had predicted this outcome, but I doubt anyone is sorry. We talk about the match some more before we decided to get some training in before lunch and I get quite a few strange looks when I ask Theron to spar with me.

My Mates aren't to happy about it, but I don't really care. They will go easy on me and even if Theron goes easy on me it will still be a challenge for me. I am not to sure about Callen and Armand, so I decided to ask Theron. Orion preoccupies my Mates by asking them to help him with his training and I smile as I see them head off a few feet away from me.

I watch Theron as he takes a stance in front of me and I know he is waiting for me to make the first move, looks like he learned from our first encounter on the training grounds. I jump up as if I want to punch him in the face, but as he moves his arms up I kick him in the groin.

He lowers his arms to cover his crotch and I punch him in the face before I am back on the ground, "Fuck, that is the second time you out smarted me." He growls before he lunges at me and I drop to the ground as he flies over me. We keep dodging one and other most of the time, but a few times we connect with the other.

I know I will have a few bruises by lunchtime, but it doesn't bother me much as I know that Yade will heal me. From the corner of my eye I see Evander and Conri taking the time to explain something to Orion, they really want to teach him how to improve his skills and I am glad they are willing to help him.

"Okay, Ma send me to tell you all to get showered and changed. Lunch will be served in thirty minutes." Asilda says as she walks up to her Mate, she walks into his open arms not caring about the fact that he is covered in sweat. I get sandwiches between my Mates and I quickly wiggle to the side to escape, making a run for the Pack-house.

I run as fast as I can and Yade is enjoying this chase as much as I do, both of us hoping for a certain end result. I hear them both growl as they chase after me and I giggle as I duck for some branches, but I know they can't avoid them.

"Little One, you are going to pay for this." I hear Conri growl in my head and I hear Evander curse as he runs through the branches. "You will have to catch me first." I respond and I speed up even more as I see the Pack-house come into view.

Ma is shaking her head as Dad calls out to others to get out of the way and I have a clear path into the Pack-house and up the stairs. I get to our room before they caught up with me and I go straight into the bathroom to undress and turn the shower on.

Yade is rolling around in my head, but we both know that if they really wanted to catch me I wouldn't have made it three steps away from them. With their Lycan speed they can outrun me at any time and I press my thighs together as I hear Evander in my head.

I hear the door open as I rinse the shampoo from my hair, but I don't turn around towards my Mates and I feel them stepping behind me. Conri wraps his arms around my waist and I lean my head against his chest as my eyes close to enjoy this feeling of peace and comfort.

I never thought I would have this, but I am glad I was forced to go on this assignment with my Mates and that we found out where things had gone wrong. He slowly turns me around towards Evander and with my eyes closed I enjoy their hands roaming my body, building up the heat in my body.

Conri's cock is poking my back as he presses me closer to his body, his lips are trailing down to my neck and I moan as he starts sucking on my mark. Evander gets down on his knees and places one of my legs over his shoulder, while Conri is focused on my breasts.

I feel him breathing close to my core and a shiver runs down my spine in anticipation. With my eyes closed I don't see what they are doing, but it does make this more intense and the moment he sucks my clit into his mouth my back arches away from Conri.

"Ready for us, Little One." Conri whispers in my ear just before Evander pushes two fingers into my core and I scream in pleasure at the intrusion. They know exactly how to work my body and I am still surprised at what my body can handle when it comes to my Mates.

Conri keeps pinching my nipples after which he kneads my breasts, while Evander pushes his fingers in and out of my core in a steady pace and I am incapable of thinking straight. One of my hands is tangled in Evander's hair, while the other is in search of Conri's cock.

He groans as I wrap my hand around his cock, but in this position I am not able to move my hand up and down much and Conri starts moving his cock up and down in my hand. I moan as both of them speed up their ministrations and I know Conri is right behind me as Evander pushes me over the edge, shooting his cum against my back.

Evander doesn't give me time to come down from my high as he turns me around in Conri's arms, he groans when he sees Conri's cum running down my back and I feel two fingers sliding down my back towards my ass. His fingers get coated with Conri's cum and he pushes two fingers inside me as he whispers, "Did you enjoy that, Little One?"

My face is buried in Conri's chest as I whisper affirmative and he starts sliding his fingers in and out as I push back, Conri lifts my face towards him to lock his lips with mine. He lets his tongue glide over my bottom lip and I part my lips to grant him access to my mouth.

He lifts me up to push his rock-hard cock into my pussy, Evander steps closer to my back and I know they are going to enjoy my body as I will enjoy what they plan on doing to me. I whimper when he pulls his fingers out, but he quickly pushes his cock in my backdoor and I am filled to the brim with my Mates.

They start sliding their cocks in and out of my body, Evander pushes in as Conri pulls out and I am panting as they pick up speed on their ministrations. Evander lets his hands slide up my body towards my breasts and Conri keeps a tight grip on my hips as they speed up even more, pushing me closer to my orgasm.

I can feel that both of them are getting close to coming as their cocks twitch inside my body and it pushes me over the edge, I scream their names as I come undone on their cocks. They both start pounding into me simultaneously as my muscles squeeze their cocks and a few seconds later they cum inside me.

Evander slowly pulls out of me after I have come down from my high, while Conri holds onto me and slowly we catch our breaths before Conri finally puts me back on my feet. Evander has grabbed my shower gel and I enjoy his hands soaping up my body, while Conri quickly cleans himself up.

Conri makes sure the suds get rinsed of my body as Evander cleans up himself and a few minutes later we walk out of the bathroom, "Keep an eye on our Mates." Yade says and as I put my clothes on I see Conri looking around the room with a strange look on his face.
