

Chapter 161

Sofia's P.O.V.

As I stare at the girl, I suddenly remember where I know her from. My Brother send me her picture the other day, telling me she would become chosen Mate number five.

He said her name was Tali and she is the Daughter of Alpha Talon and his fated Mate. I grab my phone and dial his number. It takes two more tries before he finally picks up and grumbles "This better be good."

"I think it is. Do you know where your chosen Mate is, right now?" I ask and he tells me what happened between her and her Stepmother.

"Well, I went to the Palace to see my Son and guess what? She is here." We both don't understand what she is doing here and not with the Council. I tell him that I will find out and keep him informed.

I disconnect the call and go in search of my Son, he will be able to provide the answers I need. But one of the Guards tells me he retired for the day with his family.

"I ran in to my Father-in-law down the hall, who is the girl that was with him?" I ask and the Guard shrugs his shoulders. This one is no help at all and I go searching of other staff members to get some answers.

No one knows who she is and I am about to give up, when one of the kitchen maids tells me that she is the Mate of the King's Gammas.

I text my Brother the information and I know he is going to be furious.

Alpha Roger's P.O.V.

After my Sister hung up on me, I video-called Talon hoping that he had answers for me.

"Where is she?" He asks and I can see by the look on his face that he is as surprised as I was at the news. "I don't know anyone at the Palace and I know that she has never met a Royal, because they never visited my Pack."

I hear a message coming in, I open it and as I see the words I crush the phone in my hands. "She found her fucking Mates. The King's Gammas are her fucking Mates."

I grab my chair and I let it fly through my office window, Ayden looks up at my outburst and just shakes his head. In the past twenty-four hours he has seen every side of me there is and for some reason it leaves no impression on him.

"How the fuck did she find her Mates?" I hear Ayden ask as both his Father and I are cussing and swearing at the situation. We both fall silent as his words sink in, that definitely is a solid question.

"They most have been with the Council when she was brought in. There is no other explanation, only the King goes to see the Council and only at their request.

So the question is why were they at the Council, did something else happen that morning?" I ask Talon, for a moment he is quiet and then shakes his head. He tells me that I was informed of everything that went on that morning.

"I asked Alena specifically what happened, what she said to Tali to make her snap. But she was adamant that Tali attacked her without provocation." Ayden confirms that Alena and Tali had not been in the same place, when she had attacked Alena.

"Let's hope that Sofia is able to find out anything. Maybe we will be able put some puzzle pieces together." I disconnect my call with Talon and link the Omega I have been having fun with lately.

Ayden's head snaps up as he smell her near the door, he saw what I did to her after we got back here. He grins as he walks towards the door to open it.

Ayden's P.O.V.

The girl on the other side of the door thinks she knows what she is in for. Yesterday, I just watched as Roger had his way with her. He had told her to enter and he waited behind his desk as she approached him.

When he had told her to come to him, I could smell and sense the fear coming from her. He had ripped her clothes off and had turned her around before he pulled her down to force his cock in to her ass.

She had screamed and whined, but it had infuriated Roger and he had become even more rough in fucking her. He had turned his chair in my direction and I had jerked myself off as I saw his cock disappear in to her ass over and over.

I wonder what he will do to her this time, she knows that he is a sadistic animal and I have noticed that every woman in this Pack avoids him if they can.

She enters the room and Roger tells her to take her clothes of, unless she wants him to help her. I lock the door behind her and I follow her movements with my eyes.

My cock hardens as she bends over to take of her panties and a smirk crosses my face as I remember what Roger did when he ordered me to take of my clothes. Roger gets to my side as she is taking of her dress, his hand grabs my cock and I groan at the feeling.

"Bent over my desk." He orders and he gestures for me to go after her, but she is a bit to slow for my taste. I push her to the floor, I get on my knees behind her and pull her up by her hips.

My Wolf pushes forward as our cock lines up with her ass, he growls and starts to shove our cock in to her. He chuckles and tells her to keep screaming, that he loves hearing her scream.

We fuck and mark females in our Human form, but some say that fucking a female in her Human form as a Wolf is the best feeling ever. My Wolf has wanted to do that ever since we had read about it.

Last night I had told Roger about it after he had dismissed her and he had promised that next time I would get the chance to do it to her. He told me he had grown tired of her and wanted to make sure she would never be able to forget us.

"Do it, Ayden. You know your Wolf wants to." He whispers in my ear and it is all it takes for my Wolf to completely take over. In seconds I am in the back of his head as we turn in to our Wolf form.

The girl screams on the top of her lungs and I howl as I bury my cock deep in her ass. I start rutting her, the more she whines the faster I go and soon my cock is moving in and out of her as fast as I can with my Wolf speed.

"Fuck, Boy. That looks so fucking amazing. I might have to try that myself, very soon." And I know that Roger intends to use our ass for it, my cock grows bigger and harder at his words and I can see that she is bleeding.

Roger and I both stare at her ass as I keep pounding her, I feel my balls tighten and I roar as I slam my cock as deep in her ass as I can and shoot my load inside her.

"Get out of my office and out of the Pack-house. Don't ever set foot in here again or I will kill you." He says to her as his eyes are on my naked form.
