

Chapter 183

Alpha Talon’s P.O.V.

Listening to Xandros’ hushed voice, I realize that we don’t have much time and I know I will not get the answers I want from him. I don’t even have time to ask him if she is already marked.

After he disconnects the call, I stare out the window and his words run through my mind. When he mentioned leaving in the morning while her Mates were on patrol, I wanted to compliment him on his smart thinking.

I walk back to my bedroom and think on whether or not to call Roger right now, but as I remember our last conversation my cock hardens. My Wolf flashes an image of Eva in my head and I realize that I want her again.

I had to control myself from not marking her and for some reason my Wolf is still not happy about that. He has been demanding her presence ever since and I don’t understand why.

I know that Eva makes us feel things no one else has ever managed to do, but she is not our fated Mate. I had that once and this feels nothing like it, this feels better for some reason.

Even though I told her that next time I would not be alone, I decide that I want her for myself. I link Eva and tell her to drop whatever she is doing and to get to my room immediately.

The moment she walks in to my room, my Wolf pushes through and he grabs her hips to lift her up. She puts her legs around my waist and starts grinding my cock. My Wolf backs her in to the wall and she starts to grind on my cock even harder.

“Eva, I…” but I don’t know how to explain myself and after fumbling around a little, I manage to get my cock out of my pants. She looks at me and says “Alpha, please. I need you.” That is all I need to hear to lose control, I slam my cock in to her soaking wet pussy and as I pull back I hear her moan.

I grab one of her breasts and pinch her nipple, while I slide my cock back in to her core. She begs for me to move faster and I do as she asks, I slam in to her core over and over again.

By the way she is breathing I can tell that she is close to her climax and I pull my cock out of her. She whimpers at the loss of my cock and I lean towards her so I can whisper in her ear “Get on the bed, Eva.”

The second I place her on the floor, she makes her way over to my bed and like last time she crawls on to it. I push her down and hold her down by putting one hand on her lower back.

My other hand disappears between her legs and I insert to fingers in to her core. I slide them in and out, picking up the pace every time I slide them back in and soon my fingers are glazed with her juices.

I pull my fingers from her core, only to push them against her backdoor. She tries to move away, just like last time, but I don’t give her the chance. I push them against her hole again and again, until her ass gives in.

Her moans have become louder, the more I pushed against her backdoor and the second my fingers slide in she moans even louder. “My baby likes it rough, don’t you.” I say as I start sliding my fingers in and out.

She pushes back against my hand and I slam my fingers in, even harder and deeper. But the second I feel her nearing her climax, I pull my fingers out and I slam my cock in.

“Alpha, please.” She moans and I start pounding her ass, my Wolf is right with me and we enjoy the view we have on her ass. I let my hand slide to her clit and I put pressure on it with the tip of my finger.

She moans as she pushes back on my cock, my finger presses down her clit again and I feel her ass clench on my cock. “Do that again.” My Wolf demands and I am more than willing to oblige him.

I repeat my ministrations a few more times, suddenly I feel my balls tighten and I tell her to come. As we both come, my Wolf pushes forward and sinks his canines in her marking spot. The sensation of marking her makes me come even harder.

I pull out of her and collapse on the bed, right next to her. I turn my face towards her, expecting her to be pissed as hell for marking her without her permission. Instead I am looking at her smiling face and she says “You are mine, Alpha. Put that cock in to someone other than me and I will kill you.”

My Wolf wants to pin her to the bed, but apparently we don’t know everything about Eva. Without much trouble she gets away from us and is standing on the other side of the room, shaking her head at me.

She tells me that she is the Daughter of a Lycan and that she is more than capable of taking me down. And as I look in to her eyes, I know that she is telling me the truth.

I get off the bed and walk towards her with a smirk on my face. I let my eyes glide down her body, their first stop her breasts and I lick my lips as I imagine sucking those nipples in to my mouth.

My cock hardens and with every step I take it is bobbing up and down. My eyes continue their journey down her body and as they land on her pussy, I groan as I imagine getting on my knees to suck her clit and slam my fingers in to her pussy.

I look in to her eyes and tell her what I want to do as my eyes travel down her body once again. Her nipples harden and I see her juices leaking from her pussy.

I take the final steps to close the distance between us and show her that I was not kidding. One nipple gets sucked in to my mouth and the other gets cupped by my hand. As I pinch her nipple between my thumb and index finger, I bite down on her other nipple and she releases a loud moan.

I repeat my ministrations a few more times and soon she is panting. Then I drop to my knees and put one leg over my shoulder, I suck her clit in to my mouth and slam two fingers in to her pussy.

She begs me to go faster as she leans back against the wall. Her juices drip from my fingers and I insert a third finger in to her pussy. My other hand slides around the back and for a second I contemplate on pushing more fingers in to her pussy.

But I just collect some of her juices and slam two fingers in to her ass as I bite down on her clit. She screams and moans, I bite down again and again and I love the feeling of her pussy and ass clenching around my fingers.

My cock is rock-hard and I know that I am close to coming again. “Alpha, I want you to come in my pussy.” She moans and I pull her to the ground, I spread her legs as I push them towards her shoulders.

I slam my cock in and as I slide in and out of her soaking wet core, I pinch her clit. She puts a hand in my neck and pulls me towards her, as I feel us both come her canines sink in to my neck.
