

Chapter 38 Mark Me

Amarah

I never believed the stories I heard from mated females, that you would lose control the moment you were ready to mark and mate with your fated Mate. How could I have been so wrong? Ever since I got out of the elevator I have wanted to jump his bones and the hell with the consequences.

I wasn't nervous about Theseus rejecting or hurting me, I was nervous because I feared he wouldn't want me to be so straight forward. When his finger pressed against my ass for the first time I almost come and when he finally did make me come I thought everyone in the building heard me.

Theseus knows what he wants and he is not afraid to show me. I know we will clash from time to time, but that will only be outside our bedroom. I love how he takes what he wants from me and I know he will show me what he wants from me.

I feel the heat rush through my body as he sucks harder on my nipple and I moan the moment he pushes two fingers into my core, "Fuck, you feel so tight." He mumbles before he starts sucking my other nipple and as he starts pulling his fingers out his other hand glides down my body.

My body responds to his ministrations and I feel myself getting closer to another orgasm, I start panting as he starts pushing his finger into my ass again. My body is getting an overload of sensations and I scream his name as I come around his fingers.

I am still coming down from my orgasm when I feel his cock against my entrance and before I can say anything he slams me down on his cock. He holds still deep inside me and whisper in my ear, "It will ease in a moment, just let me know when you are ready."

My body quickly adjust to his cock inside my pussy and I move my hips to show him that I am ready, "That is it, my Alpha." He groans and I move my hips again. I lift myself up before I slam down on his cock and it feels so amazing to take every inch of him inside me.

Theseus has his hands on my hips to help guide me up and down his shaft, I have one hand on his shoulder and the other is tangled in his hair and I lower my head to kiss him. I gently nip his bottom lip to get access to his mouth and the moment our tongues meet I moan into his mouth.

His mouth leaves mine to trail kisses down to my collarbone and back up again, only to avoid my mouth so he can kiss the same path on the other side and I keep riding his cock hard and fast. I feel his cock twitch inside me and I speed up just a little bit more.

My canines elongate as I near my orgasm, but for some reason I don't move towards his marking spot and I hear him groan near my ear, "Mark me, my Alpha." He mutters, his words break the control I had on myself and I sink my teeth into his neck.

It pushes Theseus over the edge and I feel how he shoots his cum inside me, pushing me over the edge as well. We both slow down our ministrations as I clean his mark with my tongue and he pulls me with him as he lays down on his back with my head on his chest.

I listen to his heartbeat becoming steady again as my hand roams his arm, his hands are running circles on my back and I feel myself get all hot again. Just his touch is enough to ignite my body again and as his hands reach the bottom of my back my hips buck forward.

Without saying a word he flips us over and as I lie on my back I look into his lust filled eyes, "This feels so fucking good, my Alpha. I am going to enjoy this body for the rest of my life." He says as he keeps his eyes locked with mine and I can see that he means every word.

He grabs both of my knees and he pushes them against the bed, I can feel myself stretching around his cock as he bottoms out. Our bodies slap together as he shoves every inch of his cock back into my soaking wet pussy and I cry out in pleasure as he slowly moves his hips.

Just adding and releasing the pressure on my sensitive spot, I watch as his cock sinks into my pussy over and over again. I crunch the covers in my fists as he starts pumping faster, I am completely at his mercy as he holds my knees in place.

I feel my orgasm crawling closer and I whisper, "Mark me, my Alpha." I know I don't want to be without him ever again, I can feel that he will never betray me and with Theseus I want everything the Mate-bond has to offer. His canines pierce my skin and my body starts shaking and trembling as stars explode behind my eyes.

Theseus keeps pushing in and out of my core and just as I think my orgasm has died down it hits me again, I am a moaning mess as I feel the next one rolling through my body. There is nothing left in my mind, other than the feeling Theseus gives me and as I scream my release again he comes with me.

We are both covered in a sheen of sweat and he places his head against my forehead as he tries to catch his breath. "I love you, Theseus." I say before I can change my mind and a huge grin crosses his face. "I love you, my Alpha and I always will, you are stuck with me." He answers before he locks our lips together.

After we lay there for a while snuggled close together our breathing steadies and I can feel the exhaustion crawl into my system, "Oh no, my Alpha." He whispers. "Let's get you cleaned up first before we go to sleep." He lifts me up bridal-style and walks into the bathroom.

Our shower takes a little longer when I decide to wash his body, Theseus already warned me that his body would react to my touch and the closer to his cock I get the harder it becomes. I wrap my fingers around his shaft and his head falls backwards as he groans.

I move my hand up and down his cock at a slow, steady pace and I lower myself to my knees in front of him. I keep my eyes on his face as I lick the head of his cock and his eyes lock with mine as I let his cock slide to the back of my throat.

"Fuck... that's it... harder." He mumbles as I suck his cock, I move up and down his cock and I feel his hand tangle in my hair. He starts pushing his cock deeper into my mouth and with every thrust he pumps harder into my mouth, he groans louder every time he slides into my mouth.

He shoots his cum down my throat the moment I squeeze his balls, "Swallow it, my Alpha. Swallow all of it." He growls as he holds my head in place and I suck every last drop of his cum out of him. He pulls me to my feet and slams his lips to mine as he lifts me up, pushing me against the wall.

Once he breaks our kiss he whispers in my ear what he has planned for me, but not until after this Competition is over and I nearly climax at his words. He has a smug look on his face, because he can smell what his words did to my body and without warning he slams two fingers into my pussy.

He isn't gentle and he doesn't take it slow, but right now I don't want or need that. I need him to make me come and for some reason he knows exactly how to work my body, it only takes a few moments before I shatter into a million pieces as he finger-fucks me over the edge.

After we have finished our shower he carries me back to the bed and teasingly I say, "You shouldn't spoil me this much, if you're not careful you will have to carry me everywhere." He smiles at me before he says that it will be his pleasure.

He gently places me on the bed before he crawls next to me and I place my head on his chest as he wraps his arms around me. We have just settled ourselves in bed when his phone starts to light up and he tells me why he turned the sound off.

It is a notification from Luna Maeve that Jane just headed back to Harver and that she and her Mate will be there in time for the first match. I kiss Theseus on his chin as he sighs in relief, I know he was a little bit worried about Jane being there.

He had told me he wouldn't stop worrying about Damien or Penelope finding out until Joseph was safely in his arms and I know that they will put up a huge fight the moment they find out Theseus and I will be raising Joseph. I had told Theseus that they probably had more trouble with me raising Joseph than with him raising Joseph.

Mom already ordered a few things for Joseph and some of it would get delivered here, while the rest would get delivered to the Pack-house. I have been planning for years to build another Pack-house, because of the memories this one holds and I think this is just the excuse I have been waiting for.

"What is running through your mind, my Alpha?" Theseus asks and I places my hands on his chest to support my head. "After I took over from Dad I asked him if he would mind if I build a new Pack-house, as you can imagine this one holds a memory I would like to erase from existence.

I have been drawing up plans with Ione, but we would always run into a tiny problem. Well, actually five huge problems and those problems are our Mates. We have been living together our whole lives and I don't understand why an Alpha would want to be to far from his Beta, Gamma and Delta's.

We took into consideration that we would all end up with a Mate and Pups, but to house them all on the same floor would mean a rather large Pack-house and that was unnecessary for White Crescent Pack. However, with combining our Packs we will need a bigger Pack-house." I see a smile appear on his face.

"I want to talk about it with everyone present, but I think it is a very good idea to build a new Pack-house and I think I might know where to build it." He states. "Now, get some sleep. You have some asses to kick in the morning, my Alpha."

He places my head back on his chest, right above his heart and I drift off to sleep as I listen to his heartbeat.
