

Chapter 42 Luna Position

Amarah

I get down on my hunches in front of Joseph and tell him I am going to take a shower, “I will be right back, my Little Wolf. Stay out of trouble.” I say and he wraps his arms around my neck as he says, “I will, Amarah.” I press him a little tighter to my chest as I kiss him on the top of his head.

Before I get the change to walk out of the room I hear Mom ask Joseph why he answered Alpha Crios the way he did and I look at her with a smile on my face, “I asked Atlas what Amarah meant when she said all the paperwork had been taken care off and he explained that Amarah and Uncle Theseus adopted me.

If I am not mistaken that means that they are my parents now.” He says and Mom nods her head. “Who’s shoulders was I sitting on when Alpha Crios addressed me?” He asks as he is looking at Mom and she answers him that he was on Theseus’ shoulders.

It apparently hasn’t registered with anyone yet and Joseph looks at Delia as he asks, “If Uncle Theseus adopted me, what does that make him?” Delia’s eyes widen as she suddenly understands what Joseph is referring to and she starts giggling.

Mom looks from Joseph to Delia before she realizes what he is talking about, “That would make Theseus your Father.” Mom answers his question and I hear Dad gasp as he finally understands that Joseph had meant him with Grandfather, he kisses the top of Joseph’s head before he says thank you.

“And that means that I wasn’t lying to Alpha Crios, I was with my Father and my Grandfather. Right, Mom?” he asks as he looks at me. Tears form in my eyes as I wrap him in my arms and hold him close, “Yes, my Little Wolf. You were with your Father and Grandfather and soon everyone will understand what you meant.” I say.

After I place him back on the couch I walk to my room to take a shower and get dressed for dinner, Theseus is following me into my room with a distracted look on his face and I know he is still processing what Joseph called me. “Don’t be surprised if he calls you Dad next time he answers you or asks you a question.” I say as I wrap my arms around his waist.

I raise my head as Theseus lowers his head and I open my mouth the moment his lips touch mine, granting him access to my mouth. One of his hands is on my hips while the other hand is traveling up my body towards my breasts and I can smell the scent of my arousal in the air, “This is going to be quick and fast.” He growls in my head.

My hips buck forward against his rock-hard cock and he starts walking me towards the bathroom without breaking our kiss. Instead of reaching my breasts his hand travels back down to grab the hem of my shirt and by the time we are inside the bathroom we are both butt naked.

He reaches with his hand behind me to turn on the water and he starts kissing his way to my mark, he pulls back just a little to take a good look at my mark, “It looks amazing, my Alpha.” He whispers before he starts sucking on it, sending my body into a frenzy and I can’t stop the loud moan that escapes me.

Once the water has the right temperature he walks us into the shower and before I can say or do anything he turns me around, “Hands against the wall, my Alpha.” Linus commands and a shiver of pleasure runs down my spine. There is not a thought in my head that is willing to object to Linus’ command and I place my hands against the wall.

Linus steps behind me to slam his cock into my sopping pussy in one thrust, he doesn’t give me time to adjust as he starts pumping in and out of me and I love the way he is taking control. It is as if he knows what I need right now and the harder he pounds into my pussy the closer I get to my climax, his hand glides down my back towards my ass ever so slowly.

My body is more than willing to take what Linus has to give and the moment he presses his thumb against my ass my body grants him entry. His other hand slides from my hip to my backdoor and the moment he pulls his thumb out he inserts two fingers, stretching me wider. “Once we are home I will take that ass completely and I am going to make you scream my name as you come, my Alpha.” He growls.

He is no longer alternating his movements and I feel filled to the brim with his cock and fingers inside me, “Please, Linus. Please.. make me come.” I manage to get out and his movements become faster and more erratic, “Linus, please.” I beg over and over again as he starts pounding even harder and as I come undone he slams his cock to the hilt into my pussy to shoot his cum inside me.

My breathing slowly calms down as Linus pulls himself out of me before he turns me around, “Get used to this, my Alpha. I will take you whenever, wherever I get the change to and I am going to enjoy every minute of it.” The look in his eyes tell me he is not kidding and I moan at the idea of Linus bending me over my desk.

He brings his head closer to my ear as he whisper, “And I don’t care who sees.” I press my thighs together as I moan again and I see a smug look on his face, just before he gives control back to Theseus. “Did you like that, my Alpha?” Theseus asks as his hand disappears between my legs and all I can do is nod my head; I won’t lie about it I really liked it.

His fingers are playing with my clit as he bends down to suck a nipple into his mouth and I grab his shoulders to keep myself from falling. I lean my head against the wall as my eyes close and I enjoy the feeling of my Mate touching my body, forgetting about everything else for a while.

It doesn’t take long before I am close to the edge again and I feel a bit disappointed when Theseus pulls his hand away from my pussy, he just lifts me up to slam me down on his cock. “Oh, fuck.. Theseus.. again..” I moan and he lifts me of his cock to slam me down again, going as deep as he can get.

He keeps slamming hard and deep into my pussy and I scream my release as he empties his balls deep inside me, we are both panting as we are coming down from our high. His forehead leans against my chest as my head is still resting against the wall and it takes a few minutes before I am able to stand on my own two feet.

We finish cleaning ourselves up before we get dressed again and we walk into the living room to find Joseph fast asleep in Dad’s arms. We still have an hour and a half before dinner is served and I ask Theseus to follow me to the dining room in our suite.

Ione, Melia, Rhea and Eos grab their Mates and we all sit down at the table, “I think we should start discussing how we are going to combine our Packs, what name to give it and how border patrol should be run.” I say and I know Melia already thought about our new border patrol runs and I believe Ione already thought about our new Pack-house.

“Amarah, there is something else I need to discuss with you. When I took over from my Father I found a lot of things that didn’t add up in the Pack’s finances and it took me a while to find out what was wrong with them. Ademus is Ajax’s younger Brother and he has helped me rebuild our finances, he is the only one that knows the truth.

Other then my men that is, I have left him in charge of the finances and Apollo’s Father is left in charge of border patrol. I don’t trust my Father to have the Pack’s best interest at heart and with Delia’s questions I trust him even less.

I trust Ademus with my Pack’s finances, but I understand if you might be reluctant to hand it over to him as I did and I want you to think about it.” Theseus explains and Ione asks him how Damon managed to mess up the Pack’s finances without his Beta figuring it out.

“What do you mean, Ione?” He asks her and I know Damon probably never discussed the books with his Beta and his Gamma. Ione asks him if he discusses financial decisions with Ajax and Apollo, but the look on their faces already tells us everything we need to know.

“Theseus, if there is one thing my Father taught me is most important it would be to have an open and honest relationship with your Beta, Gamma and Deltas. We all need to be aware of how our Pack is doing, whether that is financially, mentally or physically and that means to discuss everything.

If I want to make a change within the Pack I run it by them, we discuss every possible outcome and only then do we decide if the change can take place. For an example I will use the new Pack-house, it is a large investment and it will not be cheap.” I say and I tell them about our discussion when I first came up with the idea.

I can feel Theseus becoming a bit annoyed, but I doubt it has anything to do with me and suddenly he starts laughing. “What the hell is so funny, Alpha?” Midas asks and Theseus needs a few minutes to calm himself down, “We were never trained properly and I doubt if your Fathers were, but Linus pointed out something.” He says.

We are all looking at him and I know Midas will never let him forget this, “Linus said that all I had to add to this relationship is a pretty face and that I should consider taking the Luna position.” He manages to say and I am in stitches. Theseus is right though; I think Damon kept his Beta and Gamma in the dark on purpose.
