

Chapter 52 Complete

Theseus

Ever since we met our Mates I had seen a chance in my men and it was a chance for the better. They seemed more relaxed around each other and I had noticed that Amarah treats her leadership very different from what I was taught, but I get this feeling that my training has failed me in more ways than one.

Linus and I had watched her match in aww as she didn't shift into her Wolf form and I wondered who had taught her to fight like that. It also reassured me and Linus that she would be able to take care of herself if she would get attacked while being with Pup and Linus had just stared at her as she had choked Alpha Ajani unconscious.

Seeing her interact with her Grandparents had made me feel a bit jealous, but that had changed the moment her Grandmother told me to call her Nanna and I knew I would cherish every moment we would spend with Nanna and Pappi. It had caught me by surprise when she had asked Pappi to train Joseph the way he had trained her.

As we are packing Ajax is acting like an idiot and even though I know it means that he is comfortable around Amarah and her leadership it annoys the hell out of me. I am not sure as to why but it just does, I turn around to check our room one last time when I am hit against the head with a pillow and Linus pushes forward as we realize our Mate is responsible for it.

She runs from the room with the pillow still in her hands and Linus grabs another pillow from the bed to pay her back in full, but he hadn't counted on her jumping behind Ajax. I am in stitches as I look at the dumbfounded look on his face, but I am stunned to silence the moment another pillow hits us in the head.

Linus is enjoying the pillow fight, even though it is a bit unfair as I only have two males in my team and Amarah is joined by her Deltas, her Beta and my Beta. Apollo is smart enough to stay out of it, but gets pulled into the fight when a pillow hits him out of nowhere and I take the time to look at where it came from.

Linus stalks towards the curtain I know Melia is hiding behind, but the moment he pulls it aside she is gone and we hear our Mate laughing her ass off. We both enjoy this moment to the fullest and Linus can't resist pressing his cock against her body, our eyes locked as he presses her against him.

We are so focused on our Mate that we sense Ajax too late and I stare into the laughing face of my Mate as little feathers slowly glide through the air to the floor. The others turn silent as my Mate keeps laughing and I try to remember the last time I had a moment like this with my best friends, but I fail to recall one.

Linus huffs the moment a feather lands on my nose and everyone starts laughing at our expense. Amarah blows the feather of my nose before she kisses me and I grab her ass to lift her up into my arms, she wraps her arms and legs around me as I walk towards the couch.

I told her once before that I don't care who sees what we do as I sit down with her straddling my lap, not that I plan on doing this in the main living room of the Pack-house. I press my cock against her core as I gently bite her bottom lip to get access and I groan the moment our tongues meet inside her mouth.

Our surroundings disappear as I grind against her once more and I feel her moan into my mouth, making my cock twitch against her core. I lean back on the couch pulling her with me and we slowly start to grind against one and other, still kissing one and other.

Melia

Apollo had told me during one of our midnight talks that he enjoyed watching us interact with one and other, that he had missed that with Theseus ever since they had started their training and the more he told me the more I realized that Damon had kept a lot to himself when it concerned Pack business.

I saw Amarah running from their bedroom holding onto a pillow and I knew what time it was, I informed the others through the mind-link as I hid behind the curtain with a few pillows. The moment Linus hit Ajax in the face I knew I would make him my target and I waited for Linus to be focused on Ajax before I took aim, hitting him against the back of his head.

"Nice one, Melia." I heard Amarah say and it took some effort for me not to giggle. It didn't take long before almost everyone was involved with the pillow fight, except for my Mate that is and I decided to make him my next target. He didn't see it coming and he didn't figure out where the pillow came from, but Theseus did find out.

I barely managed to get away before Linus pulled the curtain away and I was in stitches the moment the pillow tore open as Ajax hit it against Linus' head. Apollo pulled me in his arms and I saw a huge smile on his face, one I hope I get to see more often in the future.

It surprises me a little as Linus pulls Amarah on his lap before he releases control back to Theseus, I think Apollo is more shocked than I am to see what Theseus is doing with his Mate and I pull him closer as I place my hand on his chest.

I am aware of what is going on between our Alphas on the couch, but I don't care as I feel Apollo's lips on mine and slowly I let my need for my Mate take over common sense. He lifts me up to back me against the wall and I feel his rock-hard cock pressing against my core, making me moan into his mouth.

I decided to wear a dress after we got back upstairs and right now I am grateful for my decision as I feel his hand slide under my dress. His other hand is fumbling with his jeans and I lift myself up a little higher to give him more space to free his cock.

He pulls my panties aside with one hand while the other guides his cock to my entrance and I moan loudly the moment he slides his cock into my pussy. I push down as he slides back inside me and I feel my body stretch around his huge cock, taking his full length.

One hand holds my hip in a firm grip as he pushes in and out of my core, harder and faster with every thrust and I push back harder and faster every time he slides back into my pussy. His other hand starts to glide towards my ass and I know what is coming next, my body is tingling all over in anticipation.

He slips his finger into my pussy to coat it with my juices before he slides it out to press his finger hard against my backdoor, I moan as he pushes his finger inside me. He doesn't slow down with his ministrations and I come undone the moment he slides a second finger into my backdoor, but he doesn't stop working my body.

I rest my head against the wall as I slowly come down from my orgasm, but I can already feel another building inside of me and I know he is nowhere near finished with me. He slides me down the wall as he gets down on his knees and this new angle makes me moan as he slowly picks up the pace again.

Apollo is sucking and licking my mark and the heat inside me builds up quickly again, before he slows down his ministrations. I know exactly what he is doing and he knows I enjoy the way he can work my body, the way he can make me come undone.

Our first night together he asked me if I wanted Pups and when I told him I wanted to have Pups with him he told me we wouldn't use any protection, because he wanted me to get pregnant as soon as possible. We both had hoped for years to find our Mate and now that we have one and other we don't want to wait with starting a family.

"Ready for me, Baby." He whispers in my ear and all I can do is moan. He picks up the pace again and slowly but steadily he slides faster and harder into my core, pulling me down every time he pushes his cock deep into my pussy. I hold on to his shoulders as I feel my body shaking and I am close to falling over the edge, but Apollo knows how to work my body.

I whimper as he slows down once again, but he doesn't speed up as he holds on to my hips and I can't push myself down with the hold he has on my hips. He looks into my eyes as he finally gives into my need for him and he pulls me back down on his cock.

My orgasm builds up again as he keeps sliding in and out of me, I pull him closer to me to lock our lips together and I moan as I feel his tongue sliding into my mouth. His cock and fingers inside my body make me a mumbling mess, not one thought left in my head that makes sense.

"Please, Apollo." I beg and he starts pounding into my holes even harder. I feel that my legs start to tremble and we both know what that means, I am close to falling into the abyss. An abyss I love falling into over and over again with him, an abyss only he can push me into.

His cock starts to twitch inside me and I come undone as he stills deep inside me to shoot his cum deep inside me. He slows down his fingers pushing in and out of my ass to keep my orgasm going and it takes a long time before we both come down from our high, "I love you, Apollo." I whisper as I place my head against his chest.

"I love you too, Baby." Apollo whispers as I slowly drift off to sleep in his arms, feeling complete.
