

Chapter 93 Jasper And Yade

Evander

Conri and I watched as Umayza slept in her Brother's arms, she had a smile on her face as her head laid on his chest and a few minutes later Orion had drifted off to sleep as well. Axel and Theron had made a schedule for patrol around the cottages, but I hadn't seen Alexia and Blaze for a while.

When Umayza finally woke up she came to the realization that Gray needed to know about Orion, but she didn't inform him about Calliope being here and I am not sure if I agreed with her on that. He is her Father and he has a right to know that she might be in danger.

I am about to ask where they have gone off to when they walk back into the cottage, "Captain Armand, Calliope checked into a Hotel on the other side of Blue Crystal Pack. Kendrick and Wenonah are with her, there is also a male that we didn't recognize and she has posted a lot of Warriors around the Hotel." Alexia reports.

I remember Orion mentioning that Calliope asked a male to forcefully mark Umayza, he was also the one to make Orion come clean about why he was watching her and that Umayza was not his type. Someone clearing their throat pulls me from my thoughts, Armand is looking at me and I know he expects me to say something.

Umayza and Orion are on the back porch with Theron and Yonatan to make sure their Wolves learn how to communicate without affecting Umayza or Orion in any way. Armand is right to make sure their Wolves know how to communicate without distracting Umayza and Orion, I just hate that he doesn't want me or Conri around.

"The male must be Orion's friend, the one that made him realize that this assignment wasn't going to turn out good. I have an idea that most of Orion's assignments were to gather information about chosen Mates or business deals and something tells me he would withhold information if it could cause harm to someone.

Umayza can't be the first assignment in which he didn't reveal everything he found, there must have been other times he would leave out vital pieces of information." I say and Armand agrees with me, he has been thinking the same thing.

Blaze informs us of the amount of Warriors Calliope took with her and we know that we will be outnumbered if it comes to a fight. We talk about how we can help to keep Umayza safe, after all they have been working with her for years and they have developed a way of working together.

"Alexia or Boris will inform you when she gets pulled into a memory, one of you has to keep an eye on her while the other is there to protect the two of you. The rest of us will make a perimeter around the three of you to keep anyone away from you.

Orion can stay in the first circle with Alexia and Boris, the rest of us will be the outer circle and we will be the first line of defense." Axel says and Conri and I just nod our heads. Callen and Blaze take care of lunch as we are still discussing how to deal with Calliope and her entourage.

"We could inform the Alpha from Blue Crystal Pack, he knows that we are coming here to investigate what happened to Little Horn Pack and he might be willing to lend us some of their Warriors. After all, we are here to find answers for his Cousin, Princess Taliyah." Callen suggests from the kitchen.

Umayza

Theron and Yonatan are watching us as Orion and I let our Wolves communicate with one and other, it still startles me and Orion every time we see the other's Wolf in our head and I have squealed a few times in response. Jasper keeps apologizing for scaring me and I keep telling him he should stop apologizing.

It is almost lunchtime when Jasper appears in my head again, but this time I am not startled by it and I chuckle as he lays down next to Yade. "Orion, do you feel different from normal?" I ask him and he shakes his head as he looks at me questioningly.

I decide not to say anything, because I would like to know if he will be able to tell that Jasper is with me and how long Jasper is able to stay with Yade in my head. I also want to find out if anyone can tell that Jasper is with me or that I still feel the same to everyone.

I look at the two Wolves in my head and I smile as I see Jasper curled around Yade, both of them fast asleep from learning to communicate with each other. "Blaze, is lunch almost ready? This communication exercise is exhausting and if I don't get something to eat soon I will fall asleep." I whine at her.

Blaze chuckles through the mind-link before she tells me to head to the kitchen because lunch is almost ready, "Come on, guys. Lunch is almost ready, let's continue this after I had something to eat." I say as I get up from my seat and head inside followed by Orion, Callen and Yonatan.

I sit down at the kitchen island in between Conri and Evander, both of them giving me a funny look and without thinking about it I get out of the seat to sit down at the table near the backdoor. Orion sits down next to me with a knowing look on his face, but he doesn't say anything.

"Captain, what time will we be going to Little Horn territory in the morning?" I ask before I shove some food into my mouth. I keep my eyes on my plate as I don't want to face my Mates, my thoughts start running through my mind again and it is taking me to a place I never wanted to visit again.

I don't even hear a response from Captain Armand, I don't hear Orion calling out to me as my world slowly turns black and I sure as hell don't see the looks of fear on the faces of my Mates as I lose consciousness.

Conri

I know what it feels like to learn to communicate with your twin's Lycan or Werewolf and I wish I had told Umayza about it before she had gone outside with Orion. Discussing what we were going to do kept my mind of Umayza and Yade, it kept both me and Evander busy.

Evander pointed out that she would be exhausted after a few hours of learning about her Brother's Wolf and how to communicate with him. We had it easier than she and Orion will have it, we grew up together and so did our Wolves. It will be a distraction if they didn't take time to learn to communicate.

"Something is off with Umayza." Evander says as she sits down between us, I try to figure out what could be wrong and I sense that Evander is correct. But apparently we both screwed up somehow as she gets up to sit down at another table.

"Umayza." I hear Orion say and as I turn around Evander is rushing towards her, catching her before she can hit the floor. I can still sense something different about Umayza, but I can't tell what is causing it and as Evander puts her down on the couch I ask Orion what happened outside.

He looks at me as if I spoke a foreign language, "She feels different, I can sense something is different and I am trying to find out what it is. This is not the way she normally feels to me, hence my question as to what happened outside." I explain, but he tells me nothing happened outside.

"Orion, didn't Umayza ask if you felt different from normal?" Yonatan asks and suddenly I know why she feels different to us. From the corner of my eye I see that Evander is holding her hand as her eyes slowly open, "Orion, are you sure you don't feel different from normal?" I ask him and he shakes his head.

I step closer to Orion and look straight into his eyes to notice that Jasper is not there. "Can you tell me where Jasper is?" I ask him and he tells me he retreated to the back of his head near the end of training. "Can you try to reach Jasper?" I ask him next.

After a few minutes he looks at me and tells me Jasper has put up a block he can't get down, "No, Orion. Do you recall I said Umayza felt different to me and Evander?" I ask while I turn towards our Mate. "The moment Umayza sat down between me and Evander she noticed something was off and when he pointed it out to me we both looked strangely at Umayza, causing her to sit down at the other table.

Umayza, we can feel if something is off with you. Only when you are close as it doesn't work as the Mate-bond, but I know what happened outside and I am surprised that Orion hasn't noticed it yet." I say and I see guilt in her eyes as she looks from me to Evander.

I quickly tell her there is nothing to feel bad about, "We screwed up before and I understand that without the Mate-bond it is difficult to feel or read our emotions. Orion, the reason you can't reach Jasper is because he is with Umayza and Yade." I say.

I explain to everyone that if a bond between twins or triplets is strong their Wolves or Lycans can go to the other's mind if they are close by. "Evander and I are not capable of doing it, but I should have known the two of you could. Umayza already asked if it was normal that she saw Jasper and that should have been enough warning for us."

Orion looks at Umayza to see if I am pulling his chains, "Conri is right, Jasper is with Yade and they are both fast asleep in my head." She confirms with a huge smile on her face.
