

Chapter 98 The Morning After

Umayza

After that first time they gave control back to Conri and Evander and both took their time to explore my body. They made me come over and over again and in between they told me about the Pack they were born into. I loved hearing about their childhood, about the trouble they would get into and what their parents were like.

I woke up a little while ago when Yade decided her sleepover was done and I asked her how her time with Jasper was, but before she answered me she looked at my memories. She was a bit disappointed that she had been absent, but she told me that she would enjoy it more after Conri and Evander had marked me.

“I hope we can visit their birth Pack one day, I would like to see where they grew up and I would like to meet their parents.” I tell Yade. She tells me we can once this assignment is over, after all the Council allows newly Mated couples time off and we could spend it at White Crescent Pack.

I smile as I think of how we will spend that time and Yade showing me a few images of what she wants to do with Kane and Mylo have me pressing my thighs together. I ask her again how her stay with Jasper and Orion was and she shows me a few of his memories from his childhood.

I feel my Mates stir beside me and I finally decide to open my eyes, only to be met with golden eyes of Kane. “Goodmorning, Babygirl. I can feel that Yade made it home.” He growls and she pushes forward a little to show herself. I feel a pair of hands traveling down my back and I remember that movement from last night.

Conri had me riding his cock at one point and Evander was guiding me up and down his cock, my eyes were locked with Conri’s eyes. I hadn’t noticed that one of his hands had left my hips, I had moaned loudly when his thumb had started pressing against my back hole and I came so hard the moment he pressed down again.

My breathing has become labored from the memory and I see a smirk on Kane’s face as Mylo’s hands reach my butt cheeks. “Mylo told you yesterday we would take it easy as it was your first time. Think you are ready for what we have been wanting to do ever since we found you, Babygirl?” Kane asks.

I don’t know how to respond, but it looks like he is not expecting me to answer him and I feel a hand disappearing between my legs from behind. “Kane, look how wet she is.” Mylo growls as he pulls his hand away to show him his fingers covered in my pussy juices.

Kane doesn’t give me time to react as he lifts me up until I am hovering over Mylo’s rock-hard shaft, I gasp the moment his cock touches my entrance and Kane slowly lowers me over his cock. I place my hands on Mylo’s chest as I take in his cock and the moment he bottoms out Kane releases my hips.

Mylo replaces his hands to help me glide up and down his cock and I feel Kane’s hand between my legs to coat his fingers with my juices, just before he slides them up to my ass. I expect him to slowly insert one finger and it catches me off guard as he pushes two fingers in.

Both of them pick up the pace as one slides his cock in and out of my pussy, while the other is pumping his fingers in my ass. I start moaning louder as they pick up the pace further and when Kane puts his hand on my shoulder to push me onto Mylo’s chest I don’t object.

Kane starts pumping his fingers faster and with this new angle I am losing myself quickly in a bliss. I feel Kane moving behind me, then I feel his cock nudging against my ass and his cock enters my ass after one hard push to open up my ass.

He leans forward to ease himself further into my body as Mylo pulls his cock out of my pussy, once Kane is in my ass to the hilt Mylo only has the head of his cock still inside my core and as Mylo starts pushing back in Kane starts pulling out.

I feel so full with both their cocks inside my body, they keep their movements slow and it is driving me insane. “Please, stop teasing me. Fuck me hard.” I whisper when I can’t take it anymore and I gasp as they stop alternating their ministrations.

My breathing is heavy and I feel how they push me closer to my orgasm as they lose control of their rhythm. “Fuck, Babygirl. I am going to cum.” I hear Mylo growl, just before I feel Kane slam into my ass to release his load and I come hard as Mylo bottoms out to shoot his cum into my pussy.

Kane slowly pulls out of me before he collapses on the bed next to me and Mylo, it takes the three of us a while before our breathing has leveled out. Yade has retreated to the back of my mind to get some rest and when I finally look at my Mates I see that Conri and Evander are back in control.

“Are you okay, Babygirl?” Evander asks, I nod my head in response and before I can say anything else I feel his body stiffen. Someone is mind-linking him and the look on his face tells me it isn’t good. Conri lifts me from Evander’s body and takes me with him into the bathroom.

He places me on the counter before he turns on the shower and a small smile appears on my face as he grabs everything I am going to need. After he checks the warmth of the water he lifts me of the counter and steps into the shower with me in his arms.

Evander

Mylo had pushed me back quickly when he realized that Yade had returned and I was stunned to see how our little Mate responded to our Lycans did. I loved how she felt around our cock and how tight she became when Kane started pushing his fingers in, but when he replaced them with his cock it became even tighter.

Conri and I had shared the bed with a female in the past, but not once had we taken her like this and I am glad we can tell Umayza this was a first for us as well. When she nodded to my question if she was okay I wanted to continue making love to her, but I got a mind-link from Armand.

I walk into the bathroom to find my Brother and our Mate in the shower, but I think a bomb could go off without them noticing. Conri is sitting on small seat built into the shower and Umayza is riding his cock hard. Watching them brings my cock back to life, even though I had thought it would take me a few hours to be ready again.

I step behind her in the shower to push a finger into her backdoor and it glides in easy with Conri’s cum still in there. I don’t hesitate as I pull my finger out to replace it with my cock and I start pounding her hard and fast. My hands are placed against the wall to keep myself up and I hear her moaning as I pick up the speed.

“Just like that.” She mumbles as Conri and I slam into her body at the same time. Conri looks up at me as she is mumbling incoherent and I have a huge grin on my face as I hear him in my head, “Looks like our little Ghost loves it hard and fast. I can’t wait to sneak up on her and bent her over whatever surface is nearest.”

I growl out loud as I picture her bent over a kitchen table or the back of a couch with Conri pounding into her and I feel my cock grow even harder than it already was. I whisper into her ear what I pictured in my head and I feel her clenching around my cock.

“She likes it when you talk dirty to her.” Conri grumbles in my head and I decide to push her over the edge, “I can’t wait to have a place of our own, I will make sure there are enough surfaces for us to bent you over. Maybe we should put the rule in place that you have to wear dresses inside without underwear to accommodate us.” I whisper in her ear.

She screams her release as we keep pounding into her body and I feel my balls tighten as her ass clenches around my cock. It only takes me and Conri a few more pumps into that gorgeous body of hers before we shoot our cum into her once again.

Once we are all breathing normal again Conri washes her hair and I quickly clean myself before we switch places. I lift her out of the shower into Conri’s arms who is holding out a towel for her and she starts giggling as he starts drying her off.

“Armand linked me after he got a call from Council-member Armas.” I say as we are getting dressed. “The Alpha from Blue Crystal Pack gave us permission to enter White Horn territory from this side. He had a visitor early this morning and she was asking for Umayza.

Because he didn’t have names he knew she wasn’t part of the team and decided to inform Armas, from his description Boaz concluded it was Calliope. His Warriors will patrol the borders, but won’t interfere with our investigation.” I tell them.

Umayza sniffs the air as we get closer to the other cottage and I smile as I realize she is smelling breakfast, “Looks like Yonatan is already up.” She says with a smile on her face and I chuckle as I hear Conri say. “It might be Theron as he always makes our meals.”

Most people find it strange to hear that Theron prepares our meals, especially if they don’t know him that well. Umayza hadn’t looked surprised yesterday when he had joined Yonatan in the kitchen, none of her team had looked surprised and knowing Yonatan prepares their meals it makes sense.
