

Ancient 27

Chapter 27 You are a monster!

"boom!"

Another punch hit the black prison.

Click!

The huge prison was shaking violently, and the cracks on the prison wall were getting bigger and bigger.

All the demons, including the demon leader, were shocked.

The person trapped in the prison hardly looks like a person, but a humanoid beast, the Prison Lock Mad Dragon, who is about to escape.

"Taikoo Dragon Elephant Fist!"

"Break it for me!"

Ye Feng yelled for the third time, and with this punch, his fist turned into a bronze color.

The bronze battle body explodes!

Three ancient huge dragon elephants with majestic bodies. With one step, the mountains and rivers were shattered and the wastelands were shaken.

At this moment, Ye Feng was like a wild beast, bursting out with overwhelming power, smashing the prison into pieces and rushing out.

"not good!"

The demon leader instantly activated the power of the Demon Lord's seal in his body, and suddenly turned into a majestic troll that was more than ten meters tall!

boom! boom! boom!

"ah!"

"ah!!"

But at this time, Ye Feng's eyes were cold and he rushed directly into the remaining eight or nine ordinary demons. He punched out and killed all the demons instantly.

"Damn it! Die!"

The sudden change made the demon leader extremely angry.

He never thought that Ye Feng, the young sword king, would be so powerful.

This made him feel extremely puzzled, because as we all know, sword practitioners generally have very fragile bodies. They pursue the edge of the sword and only attack but not defend.

But Ye Feng went against common sense. He put down his sword and became stronger!

"Devil's Wrath!"

"The ax splits the heaven and the earth!!"

The demon leader's majestic body, more than ten meters tall, stepped in front of Ye Feng. He held the giant ax in his hand and struck it down with air force.

Come on, the terrifying impact can literally split a hundred-meter-high mountain.

"The oven of creation!"

At this moment, Ye Feng no longer held back, and an ancient oven appeared behind him.

boom!

Countless living beings died around him, including strong human beings, demons, and even evil beasts. The energy and blood of all living beings were absorbed at this moment and rushed into the oven of creation behind Ye Feng.

At this moment, Ye Feng's power surged, and the power of the Dragon Elephant in the Ancient Dragon Elephant Fist also increased crazily.

"Roar!"

"Roar!"

"Roar!"

Along with three vast roars, the shadows of three new ancient dragon elephants appeared behind Ye Feng.

At this moment, a total of six ancient dragon elephants appeared behind Ye Feng!

The giant beast seemed to have stepped from the vast ancient times. It looked up to the sky and screamed, roaring to shake the mountains and rivers, destroying the dry and decayed, and breaking through everything.

"boom!!"

Ye Feng didn't show any pretense, and punched directly on the giant ax of the demon leader.

His bronze-colored fists looked like they had just been cast from a divine furnace, surging with a cold and hard metallic luster and possessing overwhelming power.

"Crack!"

In the horrified gaze of the demon leader, his giant ax was actually blocked by Ye Feng's fist, and cracks appeared on the body of his giant axe.

"What?!"

The demon leader shouted in disbelief: "Boy, are you a human or a monster? How can you have such a body as strong as divine iron! Have you inherited the bloodline of ancient ferocious beasts?"

Ye Feng remained silent and just sneered. His whole body turned into a bronze color in an instant, and his skin

The skin, muscles and bones seemed to be poured with divine copper water, making them indestructible.

"boom!"

He punched the troll body of the demon leader, sending the huge body flying and smashing into the mountains in the distance.

"puff!"

The demon leader spurted out a mouthful of black blood, his red pupils filled with fear. At that moment, he felt like he had been hit by a huge mountain.

How could one person possess such great power?

"you....."

"you are not human!"

"You're a monster! You're a monster!"

The demon leader was so frightened that he peed his pants. He quickly climbed up from the endless mountain rubble and ran quickly towards the distance without choosing a path.

"You can't escape!"

Ye Feng roared, his voice was like thunder from the sky, and the entire wilderness seemed to be shaking.

The bronze battle body is fully activated, the majestic essence is burning in the furnace of creation, and he possesses the power of six ancient dragon elephants. This makes Ye Feng's combat power at this moment reach a new peak, and his combat power is unrivaled!

"Uh-huh!"

Boom!

He crushed a hill with one sudden step, and with the help of the huge impact, his whole body was like a cannonball, chasing the demon leader in the direction where he escaped.

Whether it is the huge demonic power of the demon leader or the magic box in his hand that collects the essences of many living beings, they are all the treasures Ye Feng desires!

In the blink of an eye, the two figures chased each other and disappeared from this area.

At this time, in the wilderness thousands of miles away.

A "swish" sound!

Two figures appeared, it was Chu He and Ye Shenyue.

Ye Shenyue's beautiful eyes were shocked and angry, and said: "Chu He! How can you leave Ye Feng alone!"

\u003e

Chu He's eyes were cold and stern, and he shouted: "He has been imprisoned and is a dead man! I don't want to die with him! Junior Sister Ye, I saved you, please be careful with your tone!"

Ye Shenyue was silent at first, then stood up suddenly and walked towards the wilderness.

Chu He's eyes were startled and he said, "You...what are you going to do?"

"Go find him, I can't leave him alone." Ye Shenyue said coldly.

Chu He's eyes suddenly became extremely gloomy, and he could no longer maintain his elegant posture as before. He yelled ferociously: "Ye Shenyue! You are seeking death!"

But Ye Shenyue ignored him, her crystal delicate face stained with blood, and her lonely figure quickly disappeared into the wilderness.

Seeing this, Chu He furiously smashed a boulder next to him, causing the rubble to roll over.

He directly took out a signal bomb from a storage ring space on his finger and lit it directly. The signal bomb flew high into the sky with a "whoosh" sound and exploded into a firework.

"Swish, swish, swish!"

Soon, more than a dozen black shadows flashed from a distance, and each of them was filled with the powerful aura of the ninth level of the Spiritual Martial Realm.

This is an extremely powerful team, the Shadow Guards secretly trained by the Lord's Palace of Nanyang County.

"See Young City Lord!"

A dozen shadow guards knelt on one knee in front of Chu He.

Chuhe said coldly: "Escort me back to the city."

"Yes, Young City Lord!"

More than a dozen shadow guards followed Chu He, carefully on guard, and the group disappeared under the night.

At this time, on the other side, Ye Shenyue finally arrived at the previous place before she was exhausted.

But at this time, there was no trace of this place.

However, Ye Shenyue's eyes lit up, and she saw the dead demon corpses all over the ground.
