Chapter 3671 Nest of Beasts

It has to be said that this baby Haoran is still very discerning, and he can immediately tell that Ye Feng is extremely talented and powerful.

At this time, Ye Feng glanced at Baby Haoran who was guarded by a white energy shield not far away, and immediately smiled and said, "You are so confident in me."

Baby Haoran said with a smile: "Although I am young, I never misjudge people. This is my natural talent. Even my father praises me for my extraordinary talent."

At this time, not far away, there was a nine-tailed fox fairy several hundred meters tall. The rather ferocious fox face suddenly showed a hint of sneer, and said loudly: "Baby Haoran, what are you doing to me?" This kid who suddenly appeared is really confident, but I want to tell you, this time you really misjudged the person. This kid's cultivation level is not high, but only the tenth level of the Infinite Realm, and his cultivation level, but The Great Perfection of the Tenth Level of Ultimate Transformation, which has surpassed the Infinite Realm! It is a whole level higher than this kid, how can he fight with me?"

It has to be said that this nine-tailed fox fairy seemed to be very confident in his own strength. He continued to say: "Moreover, I am the descendant of the ancient demon fox. I possess very ancient and powerful ancient secret techniques. You can kill that kid in an instant, and you, baby Haoran, today you accidentally broke into my territory, so you can't escape. You have so many peerless treasures that your father has refined for you. It is said that They are all made from the bones of ancient gods and demons. They are all rare treasures. I must get them all!"

boom!

Almost as soon as the Nine-tailed Fox Fairy finished speaking, a monstrous pink light burst out from his body.

These pink lights directly condensed into a huge nine-tailed fox phantom high in the sky, exuding a monstrous ancient power of will, and directly hit the energy light outside the Haoran baby. above the cover.

"Boom!"

Suddenly, a terrifying roar sounded.

next moment.

"Click, click..."

Protect Haoran Bao

Bao's white light shield actually began to have cracks, like glass that was about to break, and it seemed that it was about to be breached temporarily.

"Wow! This move is so powerful!"

Baby Haoran immediately screamed loudly at this time.

Obviously, at this time, the nine-tailed fox fairy was really serious. He directly released the ancient power, and all of a sudden the white energy mask protecting Haoran's baby was almost shattered into pieces.

Buzz!

But at this time, there was another treasure on Baby Haoran, which emitted a bright light and formed a light mask.

Seeing this scene, the nine-tailed fox fairy just smiled coldly and said: "I keep attacking, but I want to see how many treasures you have to protect."

But suddenly at this time.

Boom!

Ye Feng, who was not far away, charged directly towards the nine-tailed fox fairy, exuding huge killing power from his body.

Seeing this scene, the nine-tailed fox fairy immediately smiled disdainfully and said: "You are a weak boy, I didn't kill you directly, but you dare to take the initiative to provoke me, then I will first kill you, this annoying boy. Let's kill him, and then kill the baby Haoran and rob him of his unique treasure."

Buzz!

At this moment, a terrifying pink light erupted from the nine-tailed fox fairy, rushing towards Ye Feng.

At this moment, Ye Feng felt that his spirit and soul had become a little dazed, as if he had entered a dreamland.

Ye Feng immediately understood that this was the innate ability of the nine-tailed fox fairy, which could pull the enemy into an endless illusion.

The pink light released by it not only has terrifying attack power, but also has the effect of making the enemy fall into an illusion. It is really weird and powerful to the extreme.

But this is nothing to Ye Feng.

Because Ye Feng is an extremely rare soul master.

So at this moment, Ye Feng directly released his huge soul power.

Boom!

At this moment, a very terrifying soul wave suddenly emanated from Ye Feng's head, directly smashing the pink light around him that wanted to pull him into the illusion.

"What?"

Seeing this scene, the nine-tailed fox fairy immediately couldn't help but exclaimed: "You are actually a rare human soul master. No wonder you are not afraid of me, but I don't only have the innate ability of illusion, my The attack was also very scary."

Boom!

At this moment, the nine-tailed fox fairy's entire majestic body pressed directly towards Ye Feng.

His claws seemed to be made of steel, very sharp and capable of tearing anything into pieces.

Hands of hell!

At this time, Ye Feng did not hesitate and directly used his extremely powerful palm.

Rumble.

At this moment, Ye Feng's hell hand burst out with the power from the ancient hell, directly colliding with the claws of the nine-tailed fox fairy.

Click click click!

The next moment, what horrified the nine-tailed fox fairy was that Ye Feng's hell hand shattered every inch of his claws.

The terrifying pain made the Nine-tailed Fox Fairy's face immediately become distorted.

He couldn't help but yelled: "How is this possible! You little human being

How could he have such a strong body? "

Ye Feng originally had no way to fight against an extremely powerful monster like the Nine-tailed Fox Fairy.

But before, Ye Feng absorbed the blood of the nine-headed giant, so he evolved his Hongmeng Immortal Body and entered the middle stage of the fourth level of the Hongmeng Immortal Body.

Therefore, the current level and strength of Ye Feng Hongmeng's immortal body can naturally crush this nine-tailed fox fairy.

Even if the cultivation level of this nine-tailed fox fairy is a whole level higher than that of Ye Feng, he is still no match for Ye Feng in terms of physical strength.

"Pfft!"

At this time, Ye Feng took advantage of the victory to pursue, and used the hand of hell to instantly crush the head of the nine-tailed fox fairy.

"ah!!"

At this moment, an earth-shaking scream suddenly erupted from the headless body of the nine-tailed fox fairy.

Then the entire headless body of the nine-tailed fox fairy suddenly fell to the ground and died instantly.

Ye Feng looked at the dead Nine-tailed Fox Fairy, and just smiled coldly and said: "If you have a inheritance confrontation with me, maybe I won't be able to do anything to you for a while, but I didn't expect that you would dare to directly fight with me. In a battle with great power, my newly evolved Hongmeng Immortal Body will naturally be able to crush you easily."

And seeing the nine-tailed fox fairy being killed by Ye Feng, almost no time wasted, very fast, very fast, which made the baby Haoran not far away immediately screamed with joy.

Baby Haoran shouted: "Brother Ye Feng is really powerful, his fighting power is too strong. Brother Ye Feng, I am not here to play, but to find a very powerful treasure left by this beast-controlling dynasty, called 'Ten Thousand Beasts'" 'The Nest', which stores countless seeds of various monsters and monsters left by the Beast Control Dynasty, which can cultivate an endless army of monsters and monsters. I am very interested. The two of us can work together. To find."

Chapter 3672 Flame Troll

"The Nest of Beasts?"

When Ye Feng heard Baby Haoran say this, a trace of surprise suddenly appeared in his eyes.

The big insect next to him exclaimed: "What? The Nest of Ten Thousand Beasts? That is the birth treasure of our Beast Controlling Dynasty, the Beast Controlling Emperor. It can cultivate thousands of demons and evil beasts. Got it?" The Nest of Beasts is like getting a steady stream of demonic beasts!"

Hearing the exclamation of the big bug next to him, Ye Feng's eyes flashed slightly. It seemed that this Nest of Beasts was indeed a good thing. It turned out to be the natal treasure of the super ancient man, the Beast Controlling Emperor.

But at this time, Ye Feng still activated his Devouring Domain first and began to devour the nine-tailed fox fairy that he killed.

The skills and energy of this nine-tailed fox fairy, as well as the blood of the ancient fox demon contained in his body, are very good and can bring all-round improvements to Ye Feng.

"Rumble..."

At this moment, a stream of very majestic and abundant blood energy was immediately absorbed, and then all injected into Ye Feng's body.

For Ye Feng, what he wants most now is the blood energy of powerful creatures that can quickly improve their cultivation skills.

At this moment, Ye Feng's cultivation aura began to rise steadily as he swallowed.

"boom!"

At a certain moment, Ye Feng's cultivation bottleneck finally broke through completely.

Directly from the tenth level of the immeasurable realm, he transformed into the half-step extreme transformation realm above the immeasurable realm!

It is only less than one big realm away from the divine rune realm where Senior Brother Gu is.

So at this time, Ye Feng's eyes were full of joy.

This time I really got a huge harvest.

However, what makes Ye Feng's eyes quite disappointed is that the bloodline of this nine-tailed fox fairy has not upgraded his Hongmeng bloodline again.

It just made his Hongmeng bloodline improve a little bit.

It seems that although the nine-tailed fox fairy is much stronger than the nine-headed giant, the bloodline contained in his body is not as good as the bloodline contained in the body of the nine-headed giant.

At this time, Ye Feng could only place his hope on other demons and beasts.

At this moment, Ye Feng looked at the baby Haoran next to him and found that the baby had a big head and looked very cute and innocent.

Baby Haoran was talking to the big silver bug at this time, and seemed to be very interested in this big silver bug.

Obviously, this is the nature of children, who like all kinds of weird things.

Ye Feng smiled and said loudly: "Baby Haoran, we are not going to look for the Nest of Beasts for the time being. I still need to hunt more demons and evil beasts to improve my strength."

The big-headed baby Haoran said at this time: "Okay, then I will go hunting with Brother Ye Feng. I have many treasures, and I will definitely be able to help Brother Ye Feng."

"good."

Ye Feng smiled and nodded. There is no doubt that the crown prince of Haoran Academy must have many peerless treasures.

At this time, Ye Feng looked at the big insect beside him and said loudly: "Let's go to the next place where monsters and evil beasts live."

The big insect immediately nodded and said, "Yes, Lord Ye Feng."

Uh-huh!

At this time, Ye Feng jumped directly on top of the big insect's head.

When Baby Haoran saw this scene, he immediately shouted with great anticipation: "Brother Ye Feng, I also want to stand on the head of this cute big bug."

Ye Feng smiled and said, "Then just come up."

Baby Haoran immediately nodded happily.

Buzz!

The little baby's body actually produced an inexplicable force at this moment, which directly caused the baby Haoran to fly high into the sky, and then landed on the top of the big insect's head, standing next to Ye Feng.

Baby Haoran obviously found it very interesting at this time, and immediately laughed out loud: "Brother Ye Feng, it's so fun."

At this moment, the big insect was flying quickly towards a certain direction of the ancient ruins of this beast-controlling dynasty.

In less than half an hour, they had arrived at their destination.

At this time, a piece of barren scorched earth appeared in front of them. The earth was a deep red, as if the entire ground had been burned by flames. Not a single blade of grass grew, and everywhere was filled with the pungent smell of burning sulfur.

At this time, the big insect said loudly: "Master Ye Feng, this is the last place where the most powerful monsters and monsters I know live. I will not bring Ye Feng to the other places where ordinary monsters live." The Lord has gone, because he doesn't have any special powerful bloodline, so he probably won't be able to help Lord Ye Feng. This demonic beast in the Scorched Earth has inherited the bloodline of the ancient flame giant, which is very powerful."

Ye Feng nodded, and then flew down directly from the big insect's head.

Baby Haoran also flew to Ye Feng's side at this time, looking at everything around him curiously.

At this moment, Ye Feng saw an emerald-colored token on Baby Haoran's body, which emitted a cool energy mask, surrounding Baby Haoran and protecting Baby Haoran from the scorched earth around him. It can be roasted and damaged by the flames of the earth, and can even protect against the toxic gases emitted from the magma of this scorched earth.

Seeing this scene, Ye Feng couldn't help but reveal a hint of envy in his eyes, and couldn't help but say: "Baby Haoran, your father is really kind to you. He has refined so many special treasures, and you can use them anytime, anywhere." Protect you according to changes in the environment."

br\u003e Baby Haoran said with a smile at this time: "If Brother Ye Feng wants it, I can give these treasures to Brother Ye Feng for you to use."

Ye Feng immediately smiled, shook his head, and said, "No, you can just use it yourself. I'm not afraid of these flames."

At this moment, Ye Feng was talking, and a flame suddenly appeared on his body. It was the Flame Emperor's Flame that controlled the bones of the Flame Emperor.

It is a dominator-level flame, which naturally makes Ye Feng not afraid of the baking of the fire of heaven and earth in this scorched land.

As for the poisonous gas, it will not harm Ye Feng at all. After all, Ye Feng has an extremely powerful physical strength.

At this time, seeing the flames coming out of Ye Feng's body, Baby Haoran was very curious and couldn't help shouting: "Wow, Brother Ye Feng can actually control the power of fire. It's really amazing. We Haoran I have never seen anyone as magical as Brother Ye Feng in the academy."

When Ye Feng heard the praise from Baby Haoran, he just smiled, touched Baby Haoran's big head, and said loudly: "When I fight the flame troll in this scorched earth later, baby, stand still." Stay away, lest I hurt you."

Baby Haoran immediately nodded and said very obediently: "Okay, brother Ye Feng, I will remotely release the power of the treasure to assist you."

"good."

Ye Feng smiled and nodded at this time, then took a deep breath and walked quickly towards the inner area of this scorched land.

Ye Feng has already felt that there is a very terrifying atmosphere in this scorched earth.

It should be the flame troll.

Ye Feng could not help but murmur in his heart at this time, "I hope that the bloodline contained in this flame troll can allow my Hongmeng Immortal Body to undergo another transformation. I hope that I can awaken the fourth level of my Hongmeng Immortal Body soon." Bloodline talent."

Chapter 3673 Sense of Oppression

Ye Feng is still very much looking forward to the fourth-level bloodline talent of the Hongmeng Immortal Body that has not yet awakened.

Because for Ye Feng, Hongmeng Immortal Body can be said to be Ye Feng's strongest trump card, and it is also Ye Feng's strongest means and thing with the most potential.

Therefore, once the bloodline talent at the fourth level of the Hongmeng Immortal Body is awakened, Ye Feng knows that he will get another very powerful trump card.

Therefore, Ye Feng now has great desire to evolve his own Hongmeng Immortal Body.

Because once the Hongmeng Immortal Body evolves, it is very likely that Ye Feng will awaken the fourth level of bloodline talent.

The first three levels of bloodline talents are all very magical and very effective, and they have helped Ye Feng a lot.

Some talents, even Ye Feng's breakthrough to the current powerful state and the advanced interface today, are still in use and have not been eliminated.

Therefore, Ye Feng is naturally looking forward to awakening each of his bloodline talents.

So at this time, Ye Feng walked towards the deep area of this scorched land, looking for the breath of the flame troll.

"Buzz!" ??

Suddenly at a certain moment, a terrifying and ferocious aura suddenly surged out from the depths of this scorched land like the turbulent sea.

"boom!"

Almost at the next moment, a majestic troll, several kilometers tall, covered with long red hair, held a metal rod that reached the sky and the earth in his hand. The metal rod was still burning with flames, slowly. Slowly walked out of the mountains deep in the Scorched Land.

This is the Fire Troll!

The aura of cultivation on his body was clearly that of a powerful being from the ninth level of the Talisman Realm above the Extreme Transformation Realm!

The ninth level of the divine rune realm!

That is a powerful cultivation level comparable to that of Senior Brother Gu!

Moreover, this flame troll is so tall and majestic, like an ancient demon god, standing among the mountains. It looks very ferocious, terrifying, and extremely oppressive.

The flaming metal rod in his hand is probably a very terrifying weapon, with crushing power.

"Wow, what a big troll..." Baby Haoran opened his mouth wide at this time, obviously shocked.

After all, that flame troll, with its body spanning several kilometers, towering over the earth like a mountain, looked really terrifying.

At this time, Ye Feng also felt a huge pressure. He felt that his whole body instantly felt a sense of oppression, which was very depressing.

Ye Feng's eyes suddenly became serious at this moment.

The big insect not far away couldn't help but exclaimed: "What kind of opportunity did this flame giant get? How did it become so powerful through cultivation? I remember hundreds of years ago, he and I cultivated It's almost the same."

At this time, the big insect was very frightened, obviously very shocked by the growth speed of the flame troll.

"I didn't expect that someone dared to come to my territory without risking their lives."

Suddenly at this time, a flame troll came out of the mountains not far away and made a sound.

The sound was so loud that it could shake the sky.

The entire earth was shaking violently at this moment.

This shows how terrifying this flame troll is.

This is an extremely terrifying demonic beast that is very difficult to deal with.

But at this time, Ye Feng's eyes were filled with a deep desire.

Because Ye Feng sensed a very ancient and advanced bloodline energy fluctuation from this flame troll.

If you can hunt down this flame troll, you will definitely be able to greatly improve your bloodline level.

Hongmeng will never be destroyed by then

The body has evolved again, which will not only further strengthen Ye Feng's body constitution, but Ye Feng also looks forward to awakening the fourth-level bloodline talent of the Hongmeng Immortal Body.

"Boy, you are so arrogant, you dare to show your murderous intention towards me."

At this time, it seemed that he sensed Ye Feng's fighting will and killing spirit. The flame troll immediately said angrily: "Good boy, your courage is commendable, but your cultivation strength is not worthy of you at all." In my eyes, your courage is just stupid impulse! I will show you the power of the troll!"

boom!

Almost at the moment when the flame troll finished speaking, he directly released his extremely powerful power, and then attacked Ye Feng instantly.

At this time, the flame troll did not even use the flaming metal stick in his hand. Instead, he stepped directly towards Ye Feng. He seemed to have great contempt for Ye Feng and wanted to trample Ye Feng to death with the sole of his foot. It's like stepping on an ant.

Because Ye Feng may really be just a little ant in the eyes of this flame troll. ??

At this time, Ye Feng saw the flame troll stepping over with the sole of his foot. He immediately smiled coldly and said, "Since you want to compete with me, then I will let you see the power of my body." The power is definitely no less than yours!"

"Hands of hell!"

At this moment, Ye Feng did not hesitate and directly released the power of the Hand of Hell.

The Hand of Hell was originally one of Ye Feng's very powerful methods. After all, it was the palm of the Lord of Hell, Abi, and contained the power of the ancient Lord of Hell.

Moreover, Ye Feng's current Hongmeng Immortal Body has also been greatly improved, so the power of Ye Feng's Hell Hand is even more terrifying at this time.

Boom! !

At this moment, Ye Feng's hell hand immediately appeared

It turned into a size that covered the sky and the sun, and then collided with the huge foot of the flame troll. A terrifying roar suddenly erupted, causing the entire surrounding world to shake violently. .

Not far away, Baby Haoran couldn't help but exclaimed: "Wow! Brother Ye Feng's palms can actually become so big, and they are not energy palms, but real body power. It's amazing!"

Baby Haoran, this little baby, seems to have never seen anything in the world. He exclaims when he sees everything. He is just like a child.

"impossible!"

At this time, Ye Feng's hell hand directly blocked the flame troll's feet, which immediately made the flame troll feel deeply shocked.

He couldn't help but take a few steps back. Looking at Ye Feng's hand of hell that was covering the sky and exuding terrifying hell energy, the flame troll couldn't help but exclaimed: "You Who is it? Why does it have such a terrifying hand of hell? How can this hand appear on a small human being like you? This is impossible. "

When Ye Feng heard what the flame troll said, he just smiled coldly and said, "Don't worry about how I got this hell hand, because you will definitely die in my hands today."

Boom!

At this moment, Ye Feng immediately rushed towards the flame troll.

At this time, the flame troll immediately shouted with disdain: "It was just a casual kick from me. Next, I will use a truly powerful method."

"Flaming metal rod!"

Almost at this moment, the flame troll directly held the huge metal stick burning with flames in his hand and struck Ye Feng fiercely, as if it could shatter the entire world.

This flaming metal rod is definitely a very terrifying attack weapon, its power is earth-shattering!

Chapter 3674 Talent Awakening

Boom! !

At this time, the flaming metal rod was like a divine pillar of heaven and earth. It crashed down from high in the sky in an instant, as if it could break mountains and split seas. It was really terrifying.

I have to say that the attack of this flame troll is still very terrifying and its strength is very powerful.

At this time, he held the flaming metal rod in his hand and slammed it down, making Ye Feng feel as if his entire body was about to split apart. It was really terrifying.

At this moment, Ye Feng did not directly use the Hand of Hell to fight against this extremely powerful flaming metal rod. After all, this was a very terrifying ancient magic weapon.

So at this time, Ye Feng did not hesitate and directly released the living dead puppet that he had subdued before.

Rumble...

At this moment, from a jade pendant on Ye Feng's body, a huge living dead puppet made of corpses suddenly rushed out, and directly collided with the flame metal stick of the flame troll.

Boom!

Almost at that moment, the flaming metal rod shattered the living dead puppet into pieces.

When the flame troll saw this scene, he immediately laughed out loud: "Boy, no matter what method you use, you will be blown to pieces by the stick in my hand."

At this time, Ye Feng smiled indifferently and said: "Do you really think you killed this living dead puppet? My living dead puppet is immortal. As long as there is a steady stream of corpses to replenish it, it will It can be constantly reorganized and resurrected."

At this time, Ye Feng released all the corpses in the dead pit that he had collected before, and then put the broken living dead puppets back together again.

The living dead puppet resurrected and continued to attack the flame troll.

"What?"

Seeing this scene, the flame troll immediately showed a trace of surprise in his eyes.

With such a look on his face, he couldn't help but said: "You are actually a being who can control such undead spirits. It seems that I have underestimated you, but this is of no use, because your living dead puppet is basically useless to me. It can't cause any harm, I smash it again and again, I don't believe that I can't destroy this living dead puppet."

Boom!

At this moment, the flame troll immediately waved the flaming metal rod in his hand crazily, beating the living dead puppet to pieces again and again.

Ye Feng didn't hesitate at this time. He directly took advantage of the moment when the living dead puppet was holding back the flame troll and released the power of the cursed crystal ball.

The Cursed Crystal Ball is the soul magic weapon left by the Cursed Demon Lord. It is very terrifying and highly praised by the Demon Ancestor.

So at this time, Ye Feng released the cursed crystal ball and unleashed his soul master attack method.

Uh-huh! Uh-huh! Uh-huh...

Suddenly, curse symbols descended on the flame troll one by one, directly attacking at the soul level.

The fire troll simply cannot resist this soul-level attack.

Because its flaming metal rod cannot break those curse symbols from the soul level.

Because these curse symbols are all composed of soul power, the flame troll's metal rod is a solid thing and cannot be touched at all.

Boom!

So almost at this moment, the cursed soul symbols all bombarded the flame troll's mind.

At this moment, the flame troll immediately felt that his spirit and soul had been severely damaged.

Kick, kick, kick!

The flame troll immediately couldn't help but take several steps back.

There was even blood flowing from his eyes. It was obvious that his soul and spirit had suffered huge trauma at this moment.

At this moment, the flame troll couldn't help but yelled: "You kid can still control soul-level attacks? Who are you? You are not an ordinary human race at all. What kind of ancient race are you?"

Ye Feng just smiled coldly at this time and didn't say much. Instead, he used the living dead puppet to entangle the flame troll's physical attack, and then used his own soul to attack, severely damaging the spirit and soul of the flame troll.

Taking advantage of the fact that the flame giant was now trapped in the quagmire of battle, Ye Feng suddenly released the powerful inheritance of the Flame Emperor's master bone.

Sky Flame Palm!

Boom! !

Suddenly, the endless flames above the entire sky formed a big flame hand, covering the sky and the sun, as if it could burn the sky, and suddenly bombarded it fiercely, hitting the flame giant.

In one fell swoop, the flame giant's entire towering body was torn apart.

The flame troll didn't even let out a scream. It was completely shattered by Ye Feng's big flame hand and died instantly.

At this time, when he saw that the flame troll was killed instantly, Baby Haoran not far away didn't even take action. He immediately burst into laughter and said, "Brother Ye Feng is really powerful. He killed this huge monster in one fell swoop. The head was killed, the fighting power was too terrifying. "

At this moment, the eyes of the big insect not far away were filled with deep wonder.

At this time, Da Chongzi was once again glad that he had surrendered in front of Ye Feng, otherwise, he would have died in Ye Feng's hands.

Because Ye Feng's fighting power is really terrifying.

And at this moment, Ye Feng flew directly to the flames in front of him without any hesitation.

Where trolls die.

Then Ye Feng directly released the Devouring Domain and began to devour the blood energy left by the flame troll.

Of course, what Ye Feng is most interested in is the advanced bloodline contained in the body of this flame troll.

This flame troll inherits the bloodline of the ancient flame troll, so its bloodline level is very advanced.

After Ye Feng absorbed the advanced bloodline of this flame troll, he could immediately feel his Hongmeng bloodline, and he was instantly improved.

Ye Feng's Hongmeng Immortal Body once again broke through and transformed at this moment, directly evolving from the middle stage of the fourth level to the late stage of the fourth level.

It is only one step away from Dacheng.

It has to be said that the bloodline level of this flame troll is indeed very good, allowing Ye Feng Hongmeng's immortal body to be directly improved and enter the late fourth level.

At this moment, as Ye Feng's Hongmeng Immortal Body entered the late stage of the fourth level, Ye Feng immediately felt a hidden bloodline energy fluctuation, which was immediately generated in his body.

Ye Feng's eyes immediately lit up with joy.

This kind of obscure bloodline fluctuation is definitely a precursor to the imminent awakening of the Hongmeng Immortal Body's fourth-level bloodline talent.

At this time, while Ye Feng was waiting for the awakening of the fourth level bloodline talent of Hongmeng Immortal Body, he quickly absorbed the skill energy of this flame troll to make a rapid breakthrough in his cultivation.

"boom!!"

Finally, at a certain moment, Ye Feng burst out with a huge momentum of cultivation breakthrough!

Ye Feng's cultivation level, at this moment, directly broke through and rose to the real first level of the extreme transformation realm, which is above the half-step extreme transformation realm! !

Moreover, Ye Feng Hongmeng's fourth-level bloodline talent is slowly awakening at this moment...

Chapter 3675 God's Armor

Buzz!

At this time, Ye Feng Hongmeng's bloodline talent at the fourth level of his immortal body was awakening rapidly.

Finally, just half an hour later.

Buzz!

In front of Ye Feng, something emitting bright light finally slowly appeared.

This thing turned out to be a set of armor shrouded in the auras of many ancient gods! .??.

"Huh? Armor?"

When Ye Feng saw this set of armor, he immediately had a mysterious message in his heart.

It is the introduction to this armor.

It turns out that this armor is called the God Armor, and it is the bloodline talent of the fourth level of the Hongmeng Immortal Body awakened by Ye Feng.

"It's actually a set of armor?"

At this time, Ye Feng's eyes showed a trace of surprise.

He never expected that the fourth-level bloodline talent of his Hongmeng Immortal Body would eventually awaken a set of armor that looked very powerful.

At this time, Ye Feng received the information about this set of divine armor.

Once this set of divine armor is released and worn on the body, it can greatly increase Ye Feng's various attribute abilities.

For example, Ye Feng's perception, Ye Feng's soul power, Ye Feng's combat power, body power, and mana, etc., can all be increased in all directions.

Moreover, this set of armor can not only increase Ye Feng's various powers, but also has very terrifying defensive power.

Ye Feng's eyes suddenly showed surprise.

I never thought that one day I would be able to awaken this kind of armor-like blood talent.

At this time, Ye Feng had to sigh that the blood talent of his Hongmeng Immortal Body was really miraculous.

At this moment, Baby Haoran saw someone in front of Ye Feng not far away.

Suddenly a set of very magical armor appeared.

This armor is also wrapped with many divine halos.

Uh-huh!

Baby Haoran immediately flew to Ye Feng's side, and couldn't help but said in surprise: "Brother Ye Feng, why did a set of armor suddenly appear in front of you? This doesn't seem to be a trophy, it just appeared out of thin air. "

When Ye Feng heard what Baby Haoran said, he couldn't help laughing and touched the other person's big head, and said loudly: "This is indeed not a trophy, but an innate ability that I awakened. It seems to be a physical armor. , it's actually a talent."

Hearing what Ye Feng said, Baby Haoran immediately opened his mouth, seemingly shocked.

He seemed unable to understand that a practitioner's innate ability could actually be condensed into a set of armor.

This is really unheard of.

Even though Baby Haoran is the crown prince of Haoran Academy and has seen many strange things, he was still surprised at this time.

At this time, Ye Feng did not directly put on this set of God's armor, because Ye Feng felt that it was not necessary to wear this set of God's armor now.

Only when he encounters a more powerful enemy can Ye Feng be qualified to put on this set of divine armor to fight against the enemy.

At this time, Ye Feng suddenly looked at Baby Haoran beside him, and then said aloud: "Baby Haoran, you said before that the most precious treasure of this beast-controlling dynasty is the Nest of Beasts, so let's go look for it now. , If we find a Nest of Beasts, it will be of great help to us. We can equally share the seeds of various demonic beasts in the Nest of Beasts."

Haoran baby heard Ye Feng

Having said that, he immediately said with a smile: "Okay, okay, I have a map in my hand that points to the place where the Beast Control Dynasty's Nest of Beasts is hidden. But before, I didn't dare to go alone. Now I have Brother Ye Feng." If someone as powerful as you goes with me, I will have the courage to go."

Uh-huh!

After Baby Haoran finished speaking, he took out an ancient yellowed map from his storage ring.

This map looks very old, but there are densely packed routes drawn on it.

The big insect came over at this time and looked at the final destination on the map. Suddenly there was a trace of horror in his eyes. He couldn't help but said: "Master Ye Feng, you can't go to that place. Although There may be a nest of beasts hidden there, but it's very dangerous."

Ye Feng heard what the big insect next to him said, and there was a hint of curiosity in his eyes. He couldn't help but look at the location finally pointed to by the map, and asked aloud: "What on earth is this place? What makes you so scared?"

At this time, Da Chongzi seemed to be frightened and his face was a little pale. He couldn't help but trembled and said: "The location that this map finally guided was the forbidden area of our Beast Control Dynasty back then. It is said that the Beast Control Emperor back then was and Some kind of mysterious and terrifying existence fought in that forbidden area and died, leading to the destruction of the entire beast-controlling dynasty. Therefore, there must be very terrifying dangers in that forbidden area and cannot be easily passed."

Hearing what this big bug said, Ye Feng showed a trace of curiosity on his face, and couldn't help but said: "Then let's go directly to see what was the reason for the collapse of the Beast Control Dynasty? And what's the reason? The Great Beast Controlling Emperor also died in that forbidden area, maybe we can find the good fortune that the Beast Controlling Emperor left behind back then."

As far as Ye Feng is concerned, although Ye Feng also attaches great importance to the terrible dangers that Big Chongzi mentioned, he can't stop going there just because there are dangers in that place. That is not in line with Ye Feng's character.

Baby Haoran seemed to be fearless at this time. He screamed loudly: "Big insect, don't be afraid. I will protect you and nothing will happen to you."

Buzz!

As Baby Haoran spoke at this time, all the treasures on his body lit up, forming a protective shield that enveloped everyone present.

When Big Chongzi heard what Baby Haoran said, he couldn't help but smile bitterly and said, "You have no idea how terrifying it is in the forbidden area."

Ye Feng glanced at the big insect and said, "Have you ever been in the forbidden area?"

The big insect shook his head and said loudly: "How dare I go in."

Ye Feng immediately laughed out loud and said: "You haven't even gone in, so you said it was very dangerous inside. It's just hearsay. And if there is really an irresistible danger, we can withdraw immediately and there will be no problem." of."

Hearing what Ye Feng said, Big Chongzi could only nod helplessly. After all, he couldn't disobey Ye Feng's orders.

At this time, the big bug could only silently follow Ye Feng and Baby Haoran. The two of them followed the instructions on the map and flew quickly towards the deepest forbidden area in the ruins of the Beast Control Dynasty.

Whether it is the seeds of countless demonic beasts in the Nest of Beasts or the precious wealth left behind after the death of the Beast Controlling Emperor, Ye Feng wants it very much.

Moreover, the powerful bloodline talent he had just awakened, the God's Armor, also gave Ye Feng enough confidence to face the huge and unknown dangers.

Chapter 3676: Forbidden Land

At this moment, Ye Feng took Baby Haoran and Big Insect and flew toward the deepest forbidden area of the beast-controlling dynasty.

Along the way, Big Chongzi was obviously a little uneasy and a little scared, so his face was always very downcast.

Baby Haoran is like a child who is not afraid of anything. On the contrary, he is very excited and looking forward to it.

Ye Feng warned at this time: "If you really encounter any irresistible danger in that forbidden area, you must come out in time and not get trapped in it."

What Ye Feng said at this time was naturally meant for baby Haoran. After all, this baby's character was so wild that he was not afraid of anything.

When Baby Haoran heard what Ye Feng said, he immediately smiled and said: "Brother Ye Feng, don't worry, I will definitely not hold back brother Ye Feng. If there is really any danger, I will definitely run out immediately. of."

When Ye Feng heard what Baby Haoran said, he immediately nodded. After all, he still needed to be reminded.

Along the way, Ye Feng saw all the broken and collapsed buildings in the entire Beast Control Dynasty, which were very dilapidated.

But countless buildings gathered together, even if they collapsed and were broken, still had a very strong visual impact.

Ye Feng couldn't help but sigh at this time: "Unexpectedly, such a powerful and ancient cultivation dynasty and civilization like the Beast Control Dynasty was destroyed that year. What happened to this lost ancient interface? So many powerful ancient cultivation civilizations, all It has been destroyed, and the entire interface is quite desolate, which is really incredible."

Hearing what Ye Feng said, Baby Haoran said thoughtfully: "I seem to have heard my father say that in all the worlds, many interfaces seem to be affected by a mysterious force every once in a while. To cleanse, our world of origin has also experienced a cleansing, but because there are countless strong people and too many powerful people in the world of origin, it was not successfully cleansed by that mysterious power. "

Hearing what Baby Haoran said, Ye Feng's eyes immediately moved, and he couldn't help but said: "This mysterious...

What exactly is the power of? What is their purpose of cleaning the major interfaces? "

When Baby Haoran heard Ye Feng's question, he immediately shook his head in confusion and said, "I don't know about this. If I have time, I'll ask my father. I'll ask him if he knows."

When Ye Feng heard what Baby Haoran said, he immediately smiled and said: "There is no need to worry about this for the time being. Anyway, it is not a level that we can touch yet."

After saying that, Ye Feng continued to concentrate on his journey.

After passing through a large area of ancient collapsed buildings, they finally arrived at the final point of the map in Baby Haoran's hand.

At this time, a huge arch appeared in front.

The entire arch was pitch black, as if it was contaminated with demonic energy, giving people a very dark and deep feeling.

It's like stepping through this arch and entering a dark and boundless hell.

The big bug was obviously very frightened at this time and walked tremblingly.

Buzz!

Ye Feng began to exude his own power at this time, and was always on guard, just in case.

Baby Haoran also activated many treasures on his body, emitting a light shield that enveloped him, giving him extremely strong defensive power.

At this time, Ye Feng, taking Baby Haoran and Big Chongzi, directly crossed the huge black arch and walked into the space inside.

This should be the forbidden area of the entire Beast Control Dynasty. There are collapsed areas everywhere, and they look even more depressed than the broken buildings outside.

At this time, Ye Feng suddenly seemed to notice something, and immediately couldn't help but said: "Baby Haoran, where is the specific location of the Nest of Beasts? Do you have any instructions on this map?"

Baby Haoran immediately nodded and said loudly: "My father gave me this map. He said that this map contains the seed of a demonic beast in the Nest of Beasts, which can guide us to the Nest of Beasts." location."

At this moment, Baby Haoran said, inputting some mana and entering the map in his hand.

Buzz!

At this moment, the map suddenly floated up, and then flew quickly towards a certain direction of the forbidden area of the beast-controlling dynasty.

"Follow me quickly."

When Ye Feng saw this scene, he immediately took Baby Haoran and the big bug in the direction of the map and quickly chased them.

Soon, this map stopped at a very desolate high altitude.

High in the sky, there was a huge tomb suspended at this moment.

This tomb is entirely made of steel and looks very ancient and shocking.

The big insect couldn't help but exclaimed immediately: "This steel tomb, could it be the powerful magic weapon refined by the beast-controlling emperor of our beast-controlling dynasty, the sky burial tomb!"

"Sky Burial Tomb?"

When Ye Feng heard what the big insect said, there was a hint of surprise in his eyes, and he immediately looked towards the tomb high in the sky, which looked like it was made of steel.

This steel tomb is not the tomb of a big shot, but an extremely powerful ancient magic weapon?

It was a powerful magic weapon refined by the Beast Controlling Emperor, the commander of the Beast Controlling Dynasty back then.

And being able to name it the Tomb of Burial Sky shows the broad-mindedness and incomparable self-confidence of the Beast Controlling Emperor back then.

The burial tomb of the sky means that the entire sky can be buried, which shows its domineering power.

At this time, Ye Feng couldn't help but asked: "This sky burial tomb

The tomb is floating high in the sky, and it is the natal magic weapon of the beast-controlling emperor. It would be a pity not to go and explore it. "

Uh-huh!

After saying that, Ye Feng jumped directly and flew high into the sky.

Baby Haoran was also very curious at this time, and quickly said: "Brother Ye Feng, wait for me, I also want to take a look at this amazing tomb, what is so amazing about it."

There was obvious fear in the big insect's eyes at this time. After all, what was floating in front of him at this time was the natal magic weapon of the beast-controlling emperor.

However, the big bug had no choice but to fly high into the sky with Ye Feng.

At this time, a group of people came to the steel tomb, and Ye Feng immediately saw that the surface of the steel tomb was stained with a lot of blood, which looked a bit shocking.

Obviously, the Beastmaster Emperor used this sky burial tomb to fight with some mysterious force, and an extremely brutal fight must have occurred.

Otherwise, it would be impossible for the Beast Controlling Emperor to die and the weapons to still be here.

At this time, Ye Feng did not hesitate and flew directly in front of the Sky Burial Tomb, stretched out his hand to touch it, and wanted to directly refine the Sky Burial Tomb.

After all, this is the ancient great figure of the Beast Controlling Emperor, and his natal magic weapon must have been very powerful and very advanced.

If it can be refined, it will become one of Ye Feng's most powerful weapons.

But just at the moment Ye Feng touched the sky burial tomb.

Boom!

From this sky burial tomb, an unrecognizable corpse suddenly rushed out. His eyes were glowing green and he was still wearing a golden imperial robe. He rushed towards Ye Feng, trying to kill Ye Feng. shred.

When the big insect saw this scene, he immediately couldn't help but said in horror: "This... this is the dead body of the Beast Controlling Emperor back then, and it turned into a corpse!"

Chapter 3677 Refining Puppet

At this moment, the transformed beast-controlling emperor looked very terrifying and ferocious.

"howl!!"

He let out a shrill howl and charged crazily in the direction of Ye Feng. It was obvious that he was going to eat Ye Feng directly as if he had seen food.

Uh-huh!

Ye Feng immediately retreated quickly at this time.

After all, Ye Feng doesn't know how powerful this beast-controlling emperor is after his corpse transformation.

Ye Feng possessed the space gem, so he disappeared in an instant, causing the corpse-turned beast-controlling emperor to be thrown into the air.

After the Beast Controlling Emperor missed the target, he immediately changed his target and placed his target on Baby Haoran.

Although Baby Haoran looks like a little baby, his father, the dean of Haoran Academy, naturally fed Baby Haoran a lot of elixirs of heaven and earth in order to train his son.

Therefore, the life energy emanating from Baby Haoran's body is also very terrifying, making this corpse-turned beast-controlling emperor naturally very eager.

"Uh-huh!"

The transformed beast-controlling emperor directly impacted in front of Baby Haoran, and then fiercely stretched out a green corpse claw that had transformed into a corpse, grabbed it towards Baby Haoran, and directly bombarded it. On the energy light mask surrounding Haoran's baby.

"Boom!!"

Along with a huge roar, Baby Haoran was blown away and hit the ground.

But the baby was not harmed.

Baby Haoran just got up immediately, touched his big head covered with dust, and couldn't help but said: "It's amazing. The defensive light shield on my body was broken into two layers at once."

At this moment, it can be seen that the two treasures emitting defensive light shields on Baby Haoran's body are broken.

However, several treasures flew out of Baby Haoran's body, and several layers of protective light shields were emitted again, protecting Baby Haoran's entire body.

Seeing this scene, Ye Feng's eyes showed surprise.

The dean of Haoran Academy is indeed rich and powerful, and he has actually refined so many defensive treasures in the body of baby Haoran.

At this moment, Ye Feng had a little glimpse of the power of this beast-controlling emperor.

It can break through two layers of defense on Baby Haoran in an instant, which is more powerful than any enemy Ye Feng has encountered so far.

But what made Ye Feng breathe a sigh of relief was that the beast-controlling emperor seemed unable to release his inherited power. He simply turned into a zombie-like thing and could only hunt enemies with the power of his body.

This made Ye Feng leave the scene far away, fly high into the sky, and then directly aimed in the direction of the corpse-turned Beast Controlling Emperor, releasing a series of sky flame palms.

Boom! !

Suddenly, the big hands of flames that covered the sky bombarded down from high in the sky, and all of them hit the body of the Beast Controlling Emperor, causing the whole body of the corpse-transformed Beast Controlling Emperor to start to burn with blazing flames.

"howl!!"

At this time, the Beast Controlling Emperor immediately let out a howl of pain. Obviously, the Beast Controlling Emperor did not seem to have completely lost his mind, and he still knew pain.

However, facing this weird and ferocious monster, Ye Feng would not show any mercy at all.

At this moment, Ye Feng released the Sky Flame Palm and directly released the power of the cursed crystal ball to conduct a long-range soul attack.

After the corpse of this beast-controlling emperor changed,

, the reason why he can move and fight against the enemy is supported by a trace of soul remnants in his body.

So at this time, Ye Feng used the Sky Flame Palm to drag the body of the beast-controlling emperor, and then used the cursed crystal ball to release his extremely powerful soul attack power to obliterate the soul remnants of the beast-controlling emperor's body.

Boom!

At this moment, rays of cursed light immediately attacked the body of the Beast Controlling Emperor, directly passing through the Beast Controlling Emperor's body and bombarding the remaining thoughts of the Beast Controlling Emperor's soul.

Click click click!

The next moment, the remnants of the beast-controlling emperor's soul were instantly shattered by Ye Feng's powerful soul attack.

Then the transformed body of the Beast Controlling Emperor's corpse suddenly stopped on the Burial Tomb, standing there alone, as if it had turned into a walking corpse.

Ye Feng saw this scene at this time, and his eyes suddenly showed a look of joy.

It seems that I succeeded.

Uh-huh!

At this time, Ye Feng flew directly from the sky to the Burial Tomb and stood in front of the transformed body of the Beast Controlling Emperor.

Ye Feng saw the entire body of the Beast Controlling Emperor, which had suffered numerous traumas, with numerous cracks and wounds visible to the bones!

This shows how tragic that battle was.

However, even though the Beast Controlling Emperor suffered such serious injuries, his physical strength was still very terrifying.

At this time, Ye Feng did not waste any time and directly put the transformed body of the Beast Controlling Emperor's corpse into his storage ring.

For Ye Feng, the transformed corpse of an ancient great figure like the Beast Controlling Emperor is still very valuable.

If it can be refined into a puppet, it will be a very terrifying help and indestructible.

At this time, Demon Ancestor also shouted in the space between Ye Feng's eyebrows: "The Beast Controlling Emperor turned into such a terrifying zombie. It's really a bit surprising. I remember that I was talking to the Beast Controlling Emperor back then. We discussed martial arts practice together. This is an amazingly talented being. I didn't expect that it would end up in such a miserable end. But Ye Feng, you got the body of this beast-controlling emperor and you can give it to me to refine. I promise to refine it into a very powerful zombie puppet."

Hearing what Demon Ancestor said, Ye Feng's eyes moved, then nodded slightly, and directly sent the body of the Beast Controlling Emperor into the space between his eyebrows, allowing Demon Ancestor to refine it.

After all, this Demon Ancestor is proficient in all kinds of weird supernatural powers. Maybe he can really make full use of the corpse of the Beast Controlling Emperor to create an indestructible puppet.

At this moment, after Ye Feng handed the body of the Beast Controlling Emperor to the Demon Ancestor, he then looked directly at the huge steel tomb under his feet in front of him.

This sky-burial tomb was the natal magic weapon of the Beast Controlling Emperor back then, and it was very powerful.

Uh-huh!

At this moment, Ye Feng no longer had any hesitation, and directly released his magic power and input it into the sky burial tomb, hoping to directly refine the extremely powerful natal magic weapon of the beast-controlling emperor.

As for this time, Baby Haoran was watching around, seeming to be looking for the area pointed to by the map and where the Nest of Beasts was hidden.

At this moment, Big Chongzi seemed to have seen something very terrifying, and immediately couldn't help but said in horror: "Master Ye Feng, Master Haoran Baby, look quickly, on the wasteland not far away, There is a group of Yin soldiers passing through! Could it be that the forbidden land of our Beast Control Dynasty is connected to the legendary underworld? "

Chapter 3678 Underground Passage

At this time, after the big insect finished speaking, both Ye Feng and Baby Haoran showed deep surprise in their eyes, and looked quickly in a certain direction in the distance.

Sure enough, they immediately saw a group of Yin soldiers with green light all over their bodies walking in groups on a barren land not far away.

This is the legendary Yin soldiers crossing the border.

It shows that this forbidden area of the beast-controlling dynasty is connected to a mysterious and unpredictable underworld.

At this time, Ye Feng looked at the big insect and said loudly: "This group of Yin soldiers have not discovered us for the time being. Don't provoke them. After we get the treasure left by the Beast Controlling Emperor, we will leave here immediately. Don't provoke trouble."

When the big insect heard what Ye Feng said, he immediately nodded and stepped back, for fear of attracting the attention of a group of Yin soldiers emitting green light in the darkness not far away.

Buzz!

At this moment, Ye Feng continued to concentrate on refining the burial tomb in front of him.

For Ye Feng, this sky burial tomb is the most powerful treasure left by an ancient powerful man like the Beast Controlling Emperor.

Therefore, Ye Feng naturally has a huge attraction.

If this Sky Burial Tomb can be refined, then Ye Feng will get another extremely powerful treasure, which can greatly enhance Ye Feng's overall strength.

At this moment, Baby Haoran, who was looking around not far away, seemed to have discovered something, and immediately said: "There is an underground passage below. The Nest of Beasts guided by the map may be where this underground passage leads. "

When Ye Feng heard what Baby Haoran said, he immediately nodded and said, "After I refine this Sky Burial Tomb, we will go find the Nest of Beasts."

Ye Feng is naturally very interested in the Nest of Beasts.

After all, according to Baby Haoran, the Nest of Beasts contains many seeds of demonic beasts that were refined by the Beast Control Dynasty back then.

As long as various resources are continuously input into the Nest of Beasts, each demonic beast can transform from a seed into an extremely powerful fighting beast, which is very powerful.

It is equivalent to getting countless armies of demons and evil beasts.

At this time, Ye Feng quickly refined the burial tomb in front of him.

With the death of the Beast Controlling Emperor, the Sky Burial Tomb has become an ownerless thing.

Therefore, Ye Feng would naturally not encounter any difficulties when refining it at this time.

In less than half an hour, Ye Feng had successfully refined the Sky Burial Tomb in front of him.

At this moment, I saw this huge tomb that looked like it was made of steel, and it immediately exuded a terrifying aura of death.

Then it quickly shrunk, and was caught in Ye Feng's hand, and was put into his body.

When the big insect saw this scene, he couldn't help but said in admiration: "Master Ye Feng is really powerful. The most powerful magic weapon that the Beast Controlling Emperor refined back then was directly refined in less than half an hour. It's really amazing."

Baby Haoran couldn't help but clapped his hands at this time and said aloud: "Brother Ye Feng is indeed powerful. This kind of ancient treasure of the strong man, I am afraid that even if my father comes, he will not be able to refine it for a while, but You know, my father's cultivation level is much higher than that of brother Ye Feng. However, brother Ye Feng has done things that even super strong men like my father cannot do. It's really amazing. Yeah, brother Ye Feng can be said to be the most powerful genius I have ever seen."

What Baby Haoran said at this time is naturally true. After all, this kind of baby is extremely innocent and pure in heart, and will not deliberately flatter others.

At this time, Ye Feng just smiled, and then said aloud: "I have refined the Sky Burial Tomb. I have obtained an extremely powerful ancient treasure. There should be no big danger next."

After Ye Feng refined the Sky Burial Tomb at this time, he could sense that there was an extremely terrifying power in the Sky Burial Tomb. It should be the ancient power left behind by the Beast Controlling Emperor. It was very terrifying.

Once released, it will turn the world upside down and shake the world.

At this moment, Baby Haoran nodded, and immediately pointed to the underground passage dug by himself in front of him, and said loudly: "Let's go find the Nest of Beasts quickly, those Yin soldiers are so scary, the baby is very scared, I want to get out of here as soon as possible."

Hearing this, Ye Feng couldn't help but smile and nodded, and then walked directly into the underground passage with Baby Haoran and Big Chongzi.

"Tap tap tap..."

Ye Feng was walking at the front of this underground passage at this moment, so he was naturally the first to take the lead. After all, Ye Feng's current cultivation strength was the most powerful among the two and one insect.

At this time, the entire underground passage was very long, the surroundings were dark and gloomy, and the air was very humid and cold, giving people a very scary feeling.

"I always feel like we are Heading towards the legendary underworld. "At this time, the big insect beside him slowly made a sound.

There was a "pop" sound!

Ye Feng suddenly slapped the big insect and said loudly: "Don't be frightened all day long. Just concentrate on walking. There is nothing to be afraid of. We are all practitioners, not ordinary people. We really have some weird powers. Way to deal with it."

Baby Haoran also glanced at Big Chongzi at this time, and said with some disgust: "Big Chongzi, although you look very cute, you are too timid."

After finishing speaking, Baby Haoran actually took out a jar of old wine from his storage ring and said loudly: "Big worm, come and drink this jar of wine. This is brewed by my father himself. After drinking it, you can be brave." , you won't hide even when the Lord comes."

Hearing what Baby Haoran said, Big Chongzi immediately fell silent and didn't know what to say.

When Ye Feng heard what Baby Haoran said, he became very happy. He couldn't help but ask: "What kind of wine is this? Is it so powerful? After drinking it, you are not afraid of the master coming?"

Baby Haoran chuckled and said aloud: "This is what my father said when he was drinking with his friends. I thought this wine was very powerful, so I stole a few bottles. I was still young and couldn't drink, but Brother Ye Feng and the elders You guys should be old enough to drink, you can try it."

When Ye Feng heard what Baby Haoran said, he immediately smiled, then took the jar of wine from Baby Haoran's hand and smelled it. Ye Feng suddenly felt that his whole spirit had been greatly improved. When I woke up, my whole state suddenly changed, and I seemed to become fearless.

After sensing all this, Ye Feng's eyes revealed a trace of surprise as he stared at the jar of wine in his hand.

It seems that this jar of wine is indeed a good thing. After all, it was developed by a top-notch person like the dean of Haoran Academy.

The leaders of these overlord forces in the Origin World, such as Haoran's baby's father, the dean of Haoran Academy, and the leaders of such top forces are probably the same as the world leaders of the major interfaces. The strongest being next to the Overlord, only one step away from being able to step into the top level of the Overlord.

Therefore, what they refine, even if it is just a jar of wine, is probably a very good thing.

At this time, Ye Feng directly put the jar of wine into his storage ring, smiled and said loudly: "Baby Haoran, I will accept this jar of wine, and wait.

When I really encounter something scary, I will drink a few sips of this wine with the big bug and I won't be afraid anymore. "

When the big insect heard what Ye Feng said, he couldn't help but smile helplessly. He didn't expect that Ye Feng would discuss a jar of wine so seriously with a kid like Baby Haoran.

Baby Haoran laughed loudly, clapped his hands, and said loudly: "Brother Ye Feng still believes in me."

After finishing speaking, a very wide underground space suddenly appeared in front of the few people.

Apparently, they had walked out of the underground passage and arrived at a very huge underground space.

In this underground space, Ye Feng immediately saw that there were many traces of buildings and sculptures around it.

Obviously, this underground space was deliberately built by someone back then. It was most likely the Beast Controlling Emperor who built this underground space. It is like an underground palace and does not look much weaker than the remains of the Beast Controlling Dynasty on the ground.

At this time, Da Chongzi looked at the entire underground palace group with a look of amazement in his eyes, and said loudly: "I have lived in the Beast Control Dynasty for so many years, and I didn't know that there was actually a building built in the forbidden area of our Beast Control Dynasty. Such a huge underground palace complex."

Ye Feng spoke slowly at this moment: "This may be another mysterious place of the Beast Control Dynasty. It is most likely the place where the Beast Master Emperor practiced retreat here."

The big insect shook his head and said aloud: "The Beast Controlling Emperor is a simple man. Although he is a powerful man, he has never been very particular about living. He would not have built such a huge place just for his retreat. The underground palace complex must have a deeper meaning."

When Ye Feng heard what Big Chongzi said, he nodded slightly and said: "Anyway, let's explore this underground palace complex, hoping to find the most powerful treasure of the Beast Control Dynasty, the Nest of Beasts."

The Nest of Ten Thousand Beasts does not have any special attack power, nor does it contain the powerful power of the Beast Controlling Emperor like the Sky Burial Tomb.

But the Nest of Ten Thousand Beasts has an ability that no treasure can match, that is, the Nest of Ten Thousand Beasts contains the seeds of countless demonic beasts that were refined by the Beast Control Dynasty back then.

As long as a steady stream of resources are input, the seeds of these monsters and monsters can be cultivated and grown into many monsters and monsters, which have extremely terrifying power.

Obtaining the Nest of Beasts is equivalent to acquiring an ancient and powerful army of demonic beasts!

Chapter 3679 Creepy

At this time, Ye Feng and Baby Haoran both walked towards the vast underground palace group in front of them with deep curiosity and expectation in their eyes.

The big insect followed behind the two of them, sighing a little.

Perhaps, the big insect was originally a product of the Beast Control Dynasty, so he naturally had a sense of fear towards the taboo places of the Beast Control Dynasty.

However, during this period of time, Da Chongzi also saw the power and terror of Ye Feng.

He knew that Ye Feng was an extremely terrifying young man with endless means, and he might really be able to get a lot of good things from this forbidden place.

So at this time, Da Chongzi was very determined to follow behind Ye Feng.

Even if it is very scared inside, it can only go on with one heart now.

Suddenly the big insect spoke up and said: "Master Ye Feng, just now Master Haoran Baobao said that the wine that can strengthen the courage, can you let me take a few sips?" .???.??

Ye Feng smiled slightly, took out a jar of wine from his storage ring, and threw it directly to the big bug behind him.

"Gulu, Gulu..."

Big Chong immediately took a few gulps.

Then suddenly the big bug's whole body started to smoke, its eyes turned red, and he said loudly: "Where is the Lord? I want to challenge him!"

Seeing this scene, Baby Haoran immediately smiled, clapped his hands, and said loudly: "Brother Ye Feng, you see, my father is right. After drinking this kind of wine, you are not afraid of the coming of the master."

When Ye Feng saw Big Chongzi looking so excited, he couldn't help but shook his head and said loudly: "He must have drunk too much."

After finishing speaking, Ye Feng continued to shuttle quickly inside the underground palace complex, trying to find where the Nest of Beasts was.

Now Ye Feng's idea is to find the Nest of Beasts as soon as possible and then leave here as soon as possible.

After all, this forbidden area of the beast-controlling dynasty still feels quite weird.

It would be better to find the treasure early and leave early.

Otherwise, I really got into something taboo.

, that would be troublesome.

After all, ancient and powerful men like the Beast Controlling Emperor all died in this forbidden area.

Although countless years have passed, no one can guarantee that the strange thing that killed the Beast Controlling Emperor is still in this forbidden area.

Buzz!

At this moment, Ye Feng didn't hesitate at all and just exuded his extremely powerful soul power, spreading towards the surroundings.

Baby Haoran was standing around at this time, suspended in mid-air, also looking for something.

Suddenly at this moment, Baby Haoran seemed to have discovered something, and immediately couldn't help but said: "Brother Ye Feng, I seem to see light shining in a dilapidated palace in the distance."

When Ye Feng heard what Baby Haoran said, he immediately nodded and took Baby Haoran and the big insect, flying quickly towards the shining palace that Baby Haoran discovered.

They shuttled through this group of underground palaces, and something terrible seemed to be observing them in the dark.

But no one noticed.

Even with Ye Feng's powerful soul power, he didn't notice that there was a mysterious existence staring at them in the dark.

Half an hour later, Ye Feng, Baby Haoran and Big Chongzi finally arrived in front of the palace that Baby Haoran mentioned.

More than half of the palace has collapsed.

Among the ruins of the dilapidated palace, there is really light shining.

Ye Feng took Baby Haoran and Big Chongzi and walked directly into the collapsed palace.

"This is....."

They were immediately surprised by the scene in front of them.

I saw a coffin made of emerald jade placed in this dilapidated and collapsed palace.

Baby Haoran was far away before

The shimmering light seen in the palace is the coffin made of jade, the shimmering jade light.

Seeing this scene, Ye Feng's eyes showed a look of surprise, and he couldn't help but said: "Why is there a coffin in this palace?"

"Look!"

At this time, the big insect seemed to have seen something, and Ye Feng and Baby Haoran also looked around in the direction of the big insect.

I saw that there were many other collapsed palaces around this palace.

But they were shocked to find that every palace collapsed. There is always a coffin.

Each of these coffins has a strange shape, and the materials used to cast the coffins are different.

The coffin in front of Ye Feng and the others was made of jade.

Some of the coffins placed in other collapsed palaces were made of steel, some were made of red wood, and some were even coffins cast from clay.

But every coffin seems to exude a very ancient and vast atmosphere, as if it has been placed here for countless years.

The big insect seemed to have thought of some legend at this time, and immediately couldn't help but his eyes widened, and he exclaimed: "Master Ye Feng, I seem to understand something, this underground palace is not at all the place where the Beast Controlling Emperor used to retreat. It is a place where the tombs of all the emperors of our Beast Control Dynasty are buried. This underground palace is not a place for people to live at all, but a place for the dead. This is a place specially used to place coffins. A group of underground palaces for the dead, underground palaces specially built for the dead."

Hearing Big Chongzi say this, both Ye Feng and Baby Haoran showed a hint of coldness in their eyes.

They also felt a creepy feeling.

This vast and endless group of underground palaces was actually specially built for the dead.

Only the dead strongest men of the Beast Control Dynasty stay here and are Buried here.

However, after a brief period of horror, Ye Feng's eyes suddenly brightened up, and he couldn't help but said excitedly: "Since this ancient underground palace is filled with the emperors or some super strong men of your beast-controlling dynasty. Where they were buried, these coffins must contain all kinds of wealth and treasures they left behind."

"Um?"

Hearing what Ye Feng said, Big Chong immediately showed a look of astonishment on his face.

It seemed that it never thought that Ye Feng would suddenly have such an idea.

Originally, the big insect felt creepy and scary, but after hearing what Ye Feng said, it seemed to make sense.

At this time, Baby Haoran became amused by what Ye Feng said, and was no longer creepy. Instead, he immediately laughed, clapped his hands, and said loudly: "Brother Ye Feng is right, so many powerful people are buried here. There are so many coffins, and they must contain treasures left by ancient powerful men, and there may be some powerful magic weapons."

Hearing what Baby Haoran said, Big Chongzi looked at the two people, one big and one small, and couldn't help but shake his head.

It was really unlucky for the Beast Control Dynasty to meet these two people.

Not only the last emperor, but also the Heavenly Burial Tomb of the Beast Controlling Emperor was refined by Ye Feng.

And now the tombs of all the emperors of the Beast Control Dynasty are buried in this underground palace, and they will be turned upside down by Ye Feng and Baby Haoran.

But Da Chongzi wouldn't say much at this time, after all, he was now under Ye Feng's command.

So at this time, the big insect immediately said: "Then let's do it quickly. Let's spread out and pry open all the coffins in each palace. Maybe we can really get some ancient treasures." "

At this moment, Big Chongzi was talking, with a hint of excitement in his eyes. It seemed that the wine he drank just now had an effect, making Big Chongzi fearless at this moment. When the master came, he dared to fight. .

Chapter 3680 The mysterious figure

Ye Feng didn't waste any time at this time. He just said directly: "Then let's act quickly. Don't waste time. I always feel that something weird is staring at us in the dark. Maybe it's my illusion. "

Hearing what Ye Feng said, Big Chongzi and Baby Haoran both nodded and then dispersed.

Because now there is a coffin in every palace around, where the strongest figures of different beast-controlling dynasties are buried.

So at this time, they will naturally separate and dig out the treasures in each coffin.

If we act together, it will be too slow.

At this moment, Ye Feng, baby Haoran and Big Chongzi were separated immediately.

Ye Feng first focused on the jade coffin in the space in front of him.

This coffin looks very artistic and has a high artistic content.

At this time, Ye Feng didn't even have the heart to destroy this jade coffin with high artistic content.

But now that time was limited, Ye Feng no longer hesitated, and directly took the flaming metal rod obtained from the previously killed flame troll in his hand, and then smashed it hard on the jade coffin in front of him.

when! !

But the next moment, the metal stick with terrifying destructive power hit the jade coffin, and it just made a metallic roar.

This emerald jade coffin was not damaged at all!

Seeing this scene, Ye Feng's eyes widened slightly. He didn't expect that this jade coffin was so strong.

You know, this flame troll's weapon, the flame metal rod, has very terrifying destructive power.

"Hands of hell!"

At this time, Ye Feng directly used the Hand of Hell, bursting out the power of his Hongmeng Immortal Body.

Click click click!

Finally at this time, Ye Feng's hellish hand hit the jade coffin in front of him until cracks appeared.

But before Ye Feng could continue his attack, suddenly streams of bright red blood emerged from the cracks in the jade coffin, which looked very strange.

and terrible.

"Oops, the strong man in this coffin must have transformed into a corpse like the Beast Controlling Emperor."

At this time, Ye Feng's heart secretly thumped.

And the next moment.

Boom!

The entire coffin suddenly shattered.

A blood-red monster immediately roared and rushed towards Ye Feng, stretching out a red claw, which was very scary.

"Uh-huh!"

Ye Feng didn't hesitate at this moment, and immediately used the hand of hell to collide with the blood-red monster's claws.

Boom! !

Along with a huge roar, Ye Feng couldn't help but take several steps back.

The blood-red monster also fell back and hit the wall of the palace.

Ye Feng felt that his palms were numb at this moment.

This made Ye Feng's eyes suddenly reveal a look of deep surprise.

You know, Ye Feng's current Hongmeng Immortal Body has been upgraded to the late fourth level.

Moreover, what he had just used was the extremely powerful Hand of Hell.

But it was still a draw with this blood-red monster.

Ye Feng was staring at the blood-red monster that was not human in shape at this moment, with deep surprise in his eyes.

What is going on here?

How come every powerful person who died in the Beast Control Dynasty ended up in this very weird and ferocious look, just like the previous Beast Control Emperor, it was very scary and creepy.

At this moment, Ye Feng did not hesitate, and still released the Sky Flame Palm, using the power of the flame to specifically restrain the evil spirits, and forced the blood-red monster into the corner of the palace.

Then Ye Feng directly released his soul attack, using the cursed crystal ball, the cursed demon king's

A powerful treasure that directly attacks the remaining spiritual thoughts of this blood-red monster.

Just like dealing with the Beast Controlling Emperor, Ye Feng quickly killed the blood-red monster and let it fall to the ground.

Uh-huh!

At this time, Ye Feng flew over and found that after the blood-red monster's spiritual consciousness was wiped out, its entire body actually dissolved and turned into a burst of flying smoke, dissipating in the air.

This made Ye Feng's eyes show a hint of surprise.

Originally, Ye Feng wanted to put the body of this blood-red monster into his storage ring so that the Demon Ancestor could continue to refine it into a puppet.

But now it seems that is no longer possible.

Ye Feng didn't think much at this time, but walked directly to the exploding jade coffin.

He immediately saw that there was a blood-red sword left inside the coffin, which looked very ancient.

This is also an extremely powerful magic weapon.

Uh-huh!

Ye Feng took the blood-red sword directly into his hand and put it directly into the storage ring.

Having just witnessed the horror of this blood-red monster, Ye Feng flew directly in the direction of Baby Haoran and the big bug at this moment, fearing that they would also be in danger.

But just when Ye Feng walked out of the broken palace, the void suddenly fluctuated.

Buzz!

A mysterious figure wrapped in a black robe suddenly appeared in front of Ye Feng, his tone was a little low, and he said: "You are the most powerful young man I have ever seen, and you have the ability to directly attack. I need your help. If we delay it any longer, the entire interface we are in will be destroyed."

Seeing this mysterious figure suddenly appearing and saying such words, Ye Feng immediately showed doubts in his eyes.

Ye Feng stared at the mysterious figure in front of him and said loudly: "Who are you? I sensed in the dark that there is a strange existence staring at us in the dark. Could it be you?"

Hearing what Ye Feng said, the mysterious figure nodded slightly and said loudly: "I have been observing you secretly since you came to this underground palace complex. The big bug is too weak, and the little baby is too weak. What kind of ability, although I have many treasures, can't help me. Only you can help me."

When Ye Feng heard what the mysterious figure said, he immediately said: "What do you want me to do for you? And what do you mean when you say that if there is any further delay, this lost interface will be destroyed?" "

The mysterious figure immediately spoke out: "The Lord of the Underworld, using the underground palace complex built by the Beast Control Dynasty to bury the dead strongest men, has opened up the passage to the underworld, and wants to come here and capture the entire interface. , we must destroy that channel."

Hearing what this mysterious figure said, Ye Feng's eyes immediately moved.

When Ye Feng was on the ground before, he did see the scene of Yin soldiers crossing the border.

At this moment, Ye Feng was a little hesitant. After all, if this ancient lost interface was destroyed, it seemed to have nothing to do with Ye Feng.

Ye Feng only came to this interface to do tasks, and Ye Feng will leave here soon.

But just when Ye Feng was thinking, the mysterious figure in front of him suddenly pulled down his hood, revealing an extremely beautiful face, and said slowly: "You are someone who has come from outside our interface. Strong man, I really need your help now. If you help me destroy the plan of the Lord of the Underworld, then I am willing to share a huge opportunity with you. Originally, I wanted to enjoy that huge opportunity all to myself. Good fortune, but I really don't have the ability to fight against such a powerful existence as the Lord of the Underworld, so as long as you help me, I am willing to share that unprecedented chance and good fortune with you, and you will definitely not refuse."

Hearing this, Ye Feng's eyes revealed a hint of curiosity, and he said: "First, tell me what the unprecedented chance creation you are going to share with me is. I need to think about it, because I am not a user of this interface. There is no obligation to help you save this interface as a living being. I may only be willing to help you if the benefits are sufficient."
