

Ancient GM 1691

Chapter 1691: Experts from the Upper World

As Qin Wentian's voice faded, the immortal emperors behind him all had solemn expressions. The various peak powers of the immortal realms were all gathered here at the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire today.

When had the immortal realms ever had such a magnificent and grand occasion?

At the very least, these people here today had never seen it before. Countless gazes and countless immortal senses were focused here. What capabilities did Qin Wentian have to contend against the other powers of the immortal realms.

“Qin Wentian, although you didn't die in the war back then, there's no doubt that that your soul shall be scattered today.” A cold and sinister voice rang out. The Senluo Immortal Emperor radiated an intense killing intent.

Qin Wentian didn't even stare at him. He only calmly continued, “The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms transformed so much, with dao elements everywhere in the City of Ancient Emperors. Also, there are many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that have descended here as well and I'm sure some of them are among us in the crowd now. The reason why I summoned all the major powers here is because it's about time for us to crown someone that can unify the immortal realms. In the eras of ancient emperors, they did the same thing. And now, the time is right again.”

Qin Wentian's voice was like booming thunder, clearly circulating everywhere, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble.

Today, the time was right for the era of ancient emperors to return?

“Haha, Qin Wentian, you actually dare to dream so futilely about unifying the immortal realms? Do you speak with confidence just because of these immortal emperors behind you?” Pei Qing laughed uproariously. His eyes flashed with coldness as he stared at Qin Wentian. With regards to Qin Wentian, he felt some jealousy. Back then, Qin Wentian was just a junior to him. But now, Qin Wentian has already exceeded him.

“Your words fit our intent as well. As expected of a disciple from our sect. It’s about time for Azure Mystic to be unified.” In the direction of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the few people in the lead coldly spoke. Clearly, they also wanted to use this opportunity where every major power was gathered to unify the world and become the hegemon of Azure Mystic.

“Agreed. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms is simply too chaotic now.” From the chariot beside the Senluo Immortal Emperor, a calm voice rang out, agreeing with Qin Wentian’s words. Clearly, the person inside had the same ambition as well.

“Let’s discuss about unifying the Azure Mystic later. Killing Qin Wentian first is more important.” Another person icily spoke. This person was the sect leader of the Sacred Sun Sect, and he was impatient to take Qin Wentian’s life. He knew that Qin Wentian had to be killed no matter what or his Sacred Sun Sect would most probably end up like the Ying Clan and Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

“Kill Qin Wentian first!” The demons of the White Tiger Race also roared. All of them wanted Qin Wentian to die. As to unifying Azure Mystic, they themselves could also feel how unusual the immortal realms had become. Most probably, existences above the emperor realm had appeared and there wasn’t only just one of them. If there truly were existences of that level wanting to unify Azure Mystic, who are they to say no? Death would be the only thing waiting for those who refused to accept the new circumstances.

However, they wanted to kill Qin Wentian no matter what. Because if somehow Qin Wentian became the one that took the throne, all his enemies would have to die.

“Since this is the case, it’s really about time to account for the debts all those years ago.” Qin Wentian spoke. He stared at the experts in the air and calmly continued, “Back then, those powers that participated in the war to kill me includes the Senluo Immortal Empire, Sacred Sun Sect, Phoeroc Race, Heavenhold Demon Race, Void Beast Race and the White Tiger Race. I’ll be settling the grudges with them one by one and has nothing to do with the other peak powers. But naturally, if any of you neutral parties wish to interfere and treat me as an enemy, I’m happy to play along with you guys.”

“Qin Wentian, your actions are too brazen and have broken the taboo of our demonic races. All of us at the Desolate Mountain Range will kill you on sight.” The new demon king of the Phoeroc Race icily spoke.

“You gathered the major powers of the immortal realms here and you intend to contend against them just with the support of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji, Emperor Yu and your subordinates? And now, you want to deal with your enemies first before you deal with the rest of us?" Pei Qing coldly laughed. Right now, Qin Wentian's group was already terrifying enough. Pei Qing didn't want to give him any chance at all.

"Pei Qing, I've yet to mention you yet you are in such a hurry to die?" Qin Wentian turned and faced Pei Qing. With just a glance, Pei Qing only felt himself sinking into a phantasm space completely. There was no one in his surroundings and in that space, only he stood there, facing against Qin Wentian alone.

"Illusion-type domain? You really dare to act?" Pei Qing's expressions changed as he called out, wanting to seek help. Right now when facing against Qin Wentian alone, he truly didn't have any confidence.

"Back then in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, weren't you extremely arrogant before me? Since you want to court death, let me help you." Qin Wentian icily spoke. At this instant, Pei Qing only felt his entire body becoming cold. His aura erupted forth but a formless pressure soon bore down on him. A terrifying palm imprint descended from the sky, directly grabbing him. He was basically helpless and couldn't resist.

"Impudent!" Pei Qing's master stepped out, exuding a terrifying aura. The experts of the Chaotic Sky Sect all radiated cold intents as they spoke, "Qin Wentian, how dare you act so insolently."

"Qin Wentian, my Chaotic Sky Sect is also one of the strongest powers in the immortal realms today. I want to see exactly how strong the alliance you formed is. Is it really capable of contending against so many peak powers of the immortal realms." Pei Qing icily spoke as he stared at Qin Wentian.

"Chaotic Sky Sect?" A look of disdain flickered in Qin Wentian's eyes. "If they want to take revenge for you, I'll welcome them."

As the sound of his voice faded, his palm moved. Pei Qing only felt a sense of breathlessness as his entire body felt to be on the verge of crumbling. He screamed in agony, "YOU DARE?!"

"BOOM!" With a thunderous explosion, Pei Qing's body directly exploded, transformed into dust. This scene completely stunned everyone. Countless experts from the Chaotic Sky Sect glared with hatred at Qin Wentian. Pei Qing's master's eyes flashed with an intense killing intent but also a hint of fear. Right now Pei Qing was extremely powerful, yet he couldn't even withstand a single strike from Qin Wentian and was killed from a distance like that.

When they thought about Qin Wentian's startling battle achievements once more, their hearts suddenly chilled and they didn't dare to act recklessly.

"Since you all want death so much, I'll grant it to you." Qin Wentian spoke. "Destroy the Sacred Sun Sect."

"Yes, Palace Lord. A group of experts soared into the air. How terrifying was an army of immortal emperors? The experts of the Sacred Sun Sect all roared, "You guys really dare to act?"

Those manor powers named by Qin Wentian earlier all bristled and unleashed their auras. There were even demons from the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race preparing to act. The new king of their race stared at the various demons around him and spoke, "Qin Wentian's deed of humiliating the previous king of my race is already a clear warning to all of you. Don't you guys want to kill him?"

Many of the demons silently sighed, Qin Wentian was too domineering. Although the various demon races didn't like it when Qin Wentian humiliated their brethren so badly, they were still filled with fear and trepidation for him. If Qin Wentian was weak, they naturally wouldn't mind rushing over to finish him off. But Qin Wentian was clearly extremely powerful. They had no choice but to treat this cautiously.

In the direction of the Sacred Sun Sect, the sect leader stood in the center and emitted terrifying sun flames. It was as though they were in a formation that augmented the strength of their skills. A terrifying giant sphere that was a true sun actually appeared, it spun about and shot out beams of sunlight towards the immortal emperors who were rushing at them. Every beam of sunlight contained immense might. The sect leader of the Sacred Sun Sect had an emperor crown on his head. That crown was an extremely powerful divine weapon and the sun was manifested by it.

However, given the fact that Qin Wentian's subordinates were from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and some were even monarch characters, how could they not have powerful divine weapons? Resplendent beams of light flashed as a terrifying frost corroded the power of the sunlight. A mist filled the area, protecting them as they rushed the members of the Sacred Sun Sect.

At the same time, many experts also rushed towards the Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Beast Race, Void Beast Race and the White Tiger Race. The sounds of clashing filled the air as battles instantly erupted. The skies changed color as the commotion shook this space.

As for the other experts, they all choose to spectate, not interfering in this clash. Only now did everyone here realize that the situation of the past wouldn't repeat today. Because, although the major powers were gathered here, not everyone would truly join forces to kill Qin Wentian in such a situation. Why was this so?

Only because, things have changed.

During the past, the various major powers had the absolute advantage. But today, the Ying Clan, Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, Old Man Duo Tian and the others were already killed. Who else would dare to join in recklessly?

Could it be that only Qin Wentian had the ability to threaten the other powers of Azure Mystic? What about the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect? Even if they killed Qin Wentian, wouldn't that simply be making things easier for the other powers that had the ability to threaten the entire immortal realms? Hence, many people were waiting. They knew that the real battle has yet to begin. And for that battle, only a vast minority of people that were gather here could participate.

Qin Wentian didn't participate in the battle. The army of immortal emperors from the Lifire Palace, the Southern Phoenix Clan, the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Matriarch Ji, Emperor Yu and the immortal emperors from the Battle Saint Tribe were already extremely powerful. They were more than enough to deal with several peak powers at the same time.

His gaze then turned to the dragon chariot of the Senluo Immortal Empire.

A swishing sound could be heard, the dragon chariot crumbled apart as an imposing and tyrannical figure appeared. That figure opened his eyes as a beam of resplendent light shot out. An incomparably majestic might bore down from the heavens, enveloping this boundlessly vast region.

The sky changed color, hell on earth suddenly seemed to have appeared. The surroundings were turned into his hellish domain and just the aura from it caused the immortal emperors here to tremble. Countless people turned their gazes towards the direction of the Senluo Immortal Empire and stared at that expert while great waves of shock shook their hearts. Although they were all just guessing earlier, when they saw an existence of this level really appearing before their eyes, they still felt their hearts trembling.

At this moment, the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire all knelt on one knee and had incomparably respectful expressions on their faces. Even the immortal emperors from their empire were kneeling. This scene was truly shocking indeed.

The Senluo Immortal Empire turned and stared at Qin Wentian as he icily spoke, “The esteemed envoy from the Senluo Immortal Palace in the upper world has descended. You actually still dare to dream about destroying my Senluo Immortal Empire? I said it before, today shall be the date of your death.”

“Experts from the upper world have descended...” Everyone silently mused. If experts from the upper world really descended here, there should be characters with cultivations above the emperor realm, right?

How regretful for Qin Wentian. Was he really destined not to be able to escape death today?

“I’ve given you the chance to submit to me. Since you want to die, this seat will grant you your wish.” That empyrean-level character from the Senluo Immortal Empire spoke. A beam of hellish light shot towards Qin Wentian, brimming with apocalyptic might. Countless gazes turned to Qin Wentian as many people’s expressions changed.

This was especially so for Qin Wentian’s kin and close friends, many of their countenances turned pale. Would this supreme character, who was someone so close to them, really going to die here today?

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji and the others all watched on with worry, as fear could be seen in their gazes. This scene was too terrifying, that beam of hellish light directly slammed into Qin Wentian, engulfing him completely.

Chapter 1692: Empyrean-level Battle

“Ancient emperor...” The hearts of countless people trembled when they saw the destructive beam of hellish light shooting forth. Even immortal emperors were trembling. The experts from the Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Demon Beast Race and the Sacred Sun Sect all had malevolent smiles on their faces. So what if Qin Wentian had returned? He still wouldn’t be able to escape death. After he died, they will definitely make the people of the Evergreen Immortal Empire and their alliance regret ever living in this world.

The vast majority of experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire prostrated themselves, their eyes were filled with reverence. As expected of their esteemed envoy from the upper world. How could Qin Wentian survive?

At this instant, the gazes of countless people were riveted on the location Qin Wentian was at. But all of a sudden, Qin Wentian's body began to emit an incomparably resplendent light. He seemed to be basking inside, resembling a divinity of light. When the hellish light struck Qin Wentian, the light from him flared, easily eating away at the hellish energy, causing the hellish beam of light to disintegrate.

The radiance from Qin Wentian grew stronger and stronger, so blinding that they couldn't open their eyes. Countless people lifted their palms to shield their eyes. The radiance illuminated everything in the surroundings and finally, the hellish domain was actually forcibly wiped away, turning into dust.

Qin Wentian continued standing there. He, in his white robes, exuded boundless magnificence through the generations. His black hair fluttered in the wind and from the start until now, he has never even moved at all. At this moment, the expressions of many people turned ashen. They seemed to have finally understood something.

Silence bore down on everyone. In this boundlessly vast space, the countless experts here finally understood at this instant. They understood an extremely shocking truth.

The Qin Wentian that returned, wasn't simply at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. He was already an existence surpassing the immortal emperor realm.

What did this mean exactly? This meant that he was an existence at the ancient emperor realm! He wasn't someone from the upper world, and was from their very own Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. From a junior, he slowly climbed up, surpassing countless geniuses as well as experts of the senior generation and had broken through to that legendary realm before he returned.

As to why many people didn't dare to think about this before, was because all of them felt that the amount of time passed was just too short. From the time Qin Wentian was hunted down until now, it hasn't even been two hundred years. Who would believe that he could step into the legendary realm above immortal emperors in just two hundred years when he was only an immortal king back then? This was simply a fantasy, it cannot be true. Yet, things were exactly what they thought it was impossible to be.

The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms has finally produced its very own ancient emperor again, Qin Wentian.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji and the others all smiled, the worries in their hearts faded away, only leaving behind shock. So it turns out that Qin Wentian was far stronger than they had imagined.

The experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm narrowed their eyes as they stared at Qin Wentian. They didn't expect that Qin Wentian had actually broken through to that realm. He had truly hidden himself extremely deeply.

The grey eyes of Jun Mengchen, Bai Wuya and that old man now shone with sharpness. To Jun Mengchen, that senior brother of his who had always created miracles, was back again. Qin Wentian was undoubtedly a living legend.

To Bai Wuya, he felt proud of himself because of Qin Wentian's accomplishment. This was a young talent he had discovered and now, his aura was already incomparably dazzling, walking at the forefront of this era.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord felt thousands of emotions in his heart. What was magnificence? Qin Wentian was basically the epitome of it. He had dominated this entire era, no one could be compared to him.

That envoy from the Senluo Immortal Empire froze. He stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "No wonder you dared to act so brazenly. So you have actually also stepped into the empyrean realm."

"The matters of Azure Mystic will be handled by Azure Mystic itself. I don't care who you are. If you scam now, I can treat it like nothing has happened earlier. Do what you have to do, but don't interfere in the matters of my Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian stared at that envoy as he spoke tyrannically.

"HAHAHA!" That person laughed uproariously. "What big words. Don't tell me you want to represent Azure Mystic? Don't forget that the ban is now relaxed, there will be countless experts from our world descending here. You wish to represent this immortal realm?"

"Also, I heard that you had already died once almost two hundred years ago. Seems like you must have encountered a bout of good fortune and obtained a blessing through calamity to achieve your accomplishments today. I believe you must have just recently entered the empyrean realm and as for me, I've already entered the empyrean realm for thousands of years. You want me to scam? Just with you alone, are you qualified enough?" That envoy laughed maniacally. The hell domain appeared once more. His words caused the gazes of many people to flash, after all, there was some logic to it. Since the ban on this immortal realms had been relaxed, there would definitely be floods of experts entering here in the future. Although Qin Wentian's cultivation speed was quick, he had most probably just entered the ancient emperor realm not too long ago. How would he contend against the others?

Right now, the situation was still uncertain.

“Using amount of time to speak about strength and power before me? How ridiculous can you be. I'll ask you for the last time, will you scram or not?” Just as everyone was gauging who was the stronger one among the two, Qin Wentian spoke again, as tyrannical as ever. However, no one dared to rebut him. After all, speaking about amount of time in relation to strength and power before Qin Wentian was truly pointless. How many years did he even cultivated for? And from the immortal king realm to now, how many years did he use?

“What a brazen fellow, not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth.” Rage flashed across the features of that envoy. He glanced at Qin Wentian. In an instant, the hell domain appeared around Qin Wentian, trapping him within. After that, countless devils formed of magna flames appeared, rushing towards him.

For empyreans, their law's will was like heavenly might. With a single thought, they could control their laws however they wished to. How powerful was that.

In the sky above, boundless hell energy gathered and shot down, wanting to bury Qin Wentian in the ground. However, terrifying spatial energy soon appeared around Qin Wentian, materializing void blades that slashed out, tearing the entire space apart. Qin Wentian stepped out, directly moving out from the domain area, exuding an incomparable carefreeness.

“I don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth?” Qin Wentian coldly laughed. Boundless spatial lights filled the air, slicing through space, instantly enveloping the Senluo Envoy.

“Slash!” With an intention, the void blades slashed down madly. The Senluo Envoy froze. A layer of terrifying magma rocks covered his body, seemingly indestructible. Countless thunderous explosions rang out, the magma rocks glowed a brilliant red but a few moments later, the magma rocks started to crumble apart.

The Senluo Envoy stretched his hands out and in an instant, the law energies here all completely erupted, forming gigantic diamonds with the property of magma, resembling floating islands.

“DIE!” As he waved, the floating islands slammed down with the force of meteors, smashing towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian’s body was like a stream of flowing light, vanishing from sight. With a thunderous boom, the floating islands slammed together but Qin Wentian had disappeared. In the next moment, Qin Wentian directly appeared in front of the envoy. Incomparably resplendent light and sharp swords frenziedly slashed out, resembling the unending tides of the great ocean. The Senluo Envoy hurriedly retreated. The space in which the two of them was fighting in, transformed into a vacuum. Nobody dared to get near it. The eight true dragons pulling the chariots were reduced to dust, filling the skies with a rain of blood due to them unfortunately being hit by some of the aftershocks.

“Courting death!” The Senluo Envoy roared. The entire space was shaking, like it was about to be torn asunder. His fist gleamed with a terrifying radiance and directly punched out. An incomparably fearsome attacking technique exploded forth, concentrating the essence of his hell domain within his fist. Given how close the distance between them was, there was no way for Qin Wentian to dodge at all.

For empyreans using innate techniques, they would incorporate their law’s will into their attacks, making them shockingly powerful.

Naturally, Qin Wentian didn’t even intend to dodge. An ancient dharma body born of the buddha laws manifested before Qin Wentian. Countless buddha arms formed, radiating an aura of the buddhas returning in victory as he unleashed his radiant divinity fist attacks, covering everything with a burst of radiance. Everywhere his attacks passed, things were turned into ashes. The expression of the Senluo Envoy changed. How could this brat comprehend so many source origins and even had such a powerful innate technique?

The envoy howled loudly, gathering the entirety of his strength and attacked madly. However, the countless number of arms sealed this entire space, acting like vines, seeking to bind him. After a few exchanges, the envoy was completely helpless and was captured easily.

Qin Wentian walked over step by step, the light from him shining brilliantly, making him appearing incredibly holy.

“Given your puny level of strength, you even dared to want me to kneel and submit?” Qin Wentian stared at the Senluo Envoy, causing the Senluo Envoy’s expression to drastically change. He hurriedly spoke, “I’m someone from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I swear that I won’t interfere in the matters of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms again. Please spare me!”

The people from the Senluo Empire were dumbstruck. After that, their shock all turned into a deep terror. Even the Senluo Immortal Emperor started to panic. Their esteemed envoy was actually defeated? What did this mean? This meant that their Senluo Immortal Empire had to prepare to face a calamity that would wipe them out completely.

“I told you to scam yet you mocked me for not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth. What about now?” Qin Wentian glanced at the Senluo Envoy. Swords of light flew over, piercing into him, causing that envoy to scream in pain as his body was destroyed bit by bit. Under the stunned gazes of the crowd, he finally faded into the air, transformed into dust.

Silence was everywhere, the hearts of everyone were pounding violently. An ancient emperor just died like that. This...they felt their minds turning numb. After Qin Wentian returned to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, have things really gone crazy to such an extent? The opponent was an ancient emperor, a character that hasn't appeared in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms for countless years yet he was killed just like that, destroyed by this supreme and magnificent genius Qin Wentian.

How terrifying was Qin Wentian exactly? Nobody would dare to believe that Qin Wentian was still an immortal king a hundred plus years ago. This was simply unfathomable.

Was Qin Wentian strong? He was naturally strong. His astral souls have already determined his absolute advantage when he fought against those on the same level as him. It was true that he had just recently entered the empyrean realm, but he had comprehended the source origins of all his laws. This was something many empyreans wouldn't be able to do even after thousands or ten thousands of years. Back then, right after he broke through to the empyrean realm, the Lifire Empyrean then even used the Lifire Grand Formation to fight him but the Lifire Empyrean failed to gain any advantage at all. At that point of time, the Lifire Empyrean had already been in the empyrean realm for over ten thousand years.

At this moment, the people from Senluo Immortal Empire, the Sacred Sun Sect and many of the demon races which he had a grudge with, all felt terror deep in their hearts. Qin Wentian was simply way too powerful. What would their fates be?

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji and the others sighed in admiration in their hearts. They also didn't expect that Qin Wentian was actually at such a high level where they could only incline their heads and stare at him.

“From today onwards, who in this world wouldn't know him?” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Nanfeng Yaoyue, glanced at the young man in white as she sighed. In the past, Qin Wentian was only a talented junior. How would she dare to imagine that Qin Wentian would have such accomplishments today?!

Chapter 1693: The Return of the Heaven Devouring Beast

Two hundred years ago, a change occurred to the immortal realms. Dao elements began appearing in the City of Ancient Emperors as countless geniuses vied for them.

Why would they do so?

It was naturally because they wanted to become an ancient emperor and fought for the throne in the sky, becoming unrivalled in the immortal realms. In the recorded history of Azure Mystic, many of those existences who had stepped into that realm had once unified the immortal realms. No one dared to disobey them. Although there were only a few records, nobody dared to suspect their unparalleled achievements of becoming the hegemon of the vast immortal realms.

From this, one could very well imagine what sort of existence ancient emperors were here. They were the supreme who stood at the true peak, and were qualified to be the hegemon, controlling the entire world.

And today, an ancient emperor-level character was killed by Qin Wentian in public in the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. What did this mean? How could Nanfeng Yaoyue not understand?

After today, Qin Wentian's name would circulate across Azure Mystic. Nobody would fail to know of Qin Wentian from now on.

Many people from the Southern Phoenix Clan sighed in their hearts, incomparably stunned. Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge suddenly felt as though Qin Wentian seemed so near, yet so far from them.

If they weren't his friends, most probably, they wouldn't even have the qualifications to stand together with him. This character who could even kill ancient emperors...even peak-stage immortal emperors had to kneel to him.

Among the vast crowds of people, Qin Wentian saw many familiar faces. Li Yufeng, Beiming Nongyue, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor and many others. All of them were incomparably shocked.

Although Xu Qingyao only interacted with Qin Wentian in the City of Ancient Emperors, the impression Qin Wentian had given her was just too deep. Also, that battle earlier made her unable to forget his magnificent silhouette even more.

Chu Qingyi's eyes were slightly red, feeling incomparably complicated in her heart. Has he already reached this step? In that case, she could only congratulate him. In her beautiful eyes, tears could be seen. He was the one she silently fell in love with. His name shook the world, nobody didn't know of him.

"Senior brother Qin!" Jun Mengchen clenched his fists tightly. In the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, those who were acquainted with Qin Wentian all felt countless emotions in their hearts. Even an ancient emperor died in his hands.

"Senluo Immortal Emperor. Is today going to be my death date?" Qin Wentian stared at the Senluo Immortal Emperor. At this moment, the Senluo Immortal Emperor's expression was like dead ashes. The experts of the Senluo Empire all had fear and terror on their faces. Even the esteemed envoy from the upper world died in Qin Wentian's hands, how would they possibly be Qin Wentian's opponent? Given Qin Wentian's current cultivation realm, he most probably only needed a single thought to kill them.

"Qin Wentian, you killed someone from my Senluo Immortal Empire that's from the upper world. In the future, you will also find it hard to escape death." The Senluo Immortal Emperor's expressions turned wretched as he howled. He knew that he would die for sure today.

"You won't be able to see it." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"I'm willing to lead my entire empire and submit to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect." At this moment, the Senluo Immortal Emperor transmitted his voice secretly to those experts standing at the front of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Currently, only this power had the capabilities to save his life. Naturally, he still spoke with Qin Wentian on the surface, "Qin Wentian, how did you do it? How did you reach this realm given such a short amount of time?"

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Before his death, the Senluo Immortal Emperor was actually concerned about this?

Staring at his shifty gaze, Qin Wentian instantly understood. He didn't waste any more time. Resplendent beams of light directly blasted into the Senluo Immortal Emperor's body as he willed.

"Stop!" At this moment, an expert from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect roared. Qin Wentian didn't care about him. When he heard this, it further confirmed his guess. The Senluo Immortal Emperor must have sought help from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. The beams of light flared brighter, the Senluo Immortal Emperor screamed in pain before he vanished like smoke, turning into dust.

Not only for the Senluo Immortal Emperor, the radiance from Qin Wentian enveloped all the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire. He then spoke, "Back then, the Senluo Immortal Emperor led the Senluo Immortal Empire, allying with many other powers to hunt me down. Since I've returned, let the Senluo Immortal Empire's name become history then."

As the sound of his voice faded, the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire all let out screams of pain as one died after the other, vanishing into the light.

Although he had already reached that level. However, what he was doing now was for the sake of his revenge. What could anyone else say?

Back then, more than half of the peak powers gathered to kill him. At that time, Qin Wentian was only at the immortal king realm and emperors wanted to hunt him. Now that he has returned, no one could say that it was against the rules despite the fact that he was killing immortal emperors while at the ancient emperor realm. Many had personally witnessed how the immortal emperors wanted to hunt him down. Everything he did now was just paying them back in their coin.

"Another peak power of the immortal realms is destroyed." Many people sighed silently. The Senluo Immortal Empire was one of the three great empires in the central regions. But now, two out of the three empires there were already destroyed. The Senluo Immortal Empire and the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were completely eradicated, their names becoming history.

If it was in the past, the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire would surely feel happy. But now, they weren't as joyful as they should be. Because, they understood that even if the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire and Senluo Immortal Empire was destroyed, their Shooting Sun Immortal Empire wouldn't be able to achieve anything much too. With Qin Wentian here, all their hopes of climbing further were crushed. This was a man that could even kill ancient emperors. Even if someone among them also broke through to the ancient emperor realm, they wouldn't be able to defeat Qin Wentian.

This immortal realm would belong to Qin Wentian or someone who could defeat him. Their Shooting Sun Immortal Empire was only qualified to be a spectator.

There is a beautiful princess in the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire and is also now an immortal emperor. Back then, she was teased once by the monk Bujie in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and as she was hunting Bujie down, she met Qin Wentian. Now that she saw Qin Wentian again, she felt as though she was in a dream. Everything felt so surreal. All those scenes in the sacred academy back then appeared again, flashing through her mind.

At that time, who would have thought that the handsome young man with Bujie would have such accomplishments today?

All the experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm also had ugly expressions. Qin Wentian actually ignored them.

Qin Wentian naturally wanted to ignore them. At the moment one of them spoke, Qin Wentian immediately knew that the Senluo Immortal Emperor had asked them for help before his death. How could he still show mercy? He had vowed that he would hunt down those powers who participated in the war against him those years ago and destroy them all. Nothing could interfere in this.

“As expected of a disciple from our sect. Now that your wings have hardened and entered the empyrean realm, you feel that you can already ignore the sect’s edicts.” The experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm coldly spoke.

“Back then when I was in the sect, when so many major powers grouped up and wanted to kill me, where was the sect? Now, I depend on myself to take revenge, could it be that you guys are planning to obstruct me?” Qin Wentian mockingly spoke. The experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm coldly snorted but they had no way to refute Qin Wentian’s words. They truly had no right to stop him.

“Kill them all.” Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the battle in the air that was halted as he coldly commanded. The demons of the Phoeroc Race, Void Beast Race, White Tiger Race and the others all had terror on their faces. They explosively retreated, preparing to flee. After discovering that Qin Wentian had entered that legendary realm, they understood that it was impossible for them to win against Qin Wentian.

Right now, fleeing was their only option.

Qin Wentian coldly laughed. Astral light surrounded his body as a gigantic ancient tree appeared behind him. Countless vines instantly stretched forth rapidly, causing swishing sounds to ring out. The greater demons were all easily caught by the vines. They howled in rage and expanded in form trying to break free. The Heavenhold Demon Race excelled in feats of strength but the tree vines were simply too powerful, locking them in place securely. The Phoeroc Race went all out, launching attacks in a frenzy and the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race used sun flames wanting to burn their way through. Despite so, the tree vines seemed invulnerable to all attacks, they grew thicker and thicker, completely binding them all.

“Flee?” When emperors faced against an ancient emperor-level existence, did they even have the chance to escape?

Screams and howls rent the air. The other demons from the other races stared in shock but no one moved to help. Although they hated Qin Wentian’s method, but who would dare to act in the face of an ancient emperor’s fury?

Now, all of these demons couldn’t help but to breathe a sigh of relief. Luckily, they didn’t join in with the others to hunt down Qin Wentian back then or they wouldn’t be able to survive today.

“Yiya!” At this moment, a raging wind gusted by as a golden demonic beast soared through the air with lightning speed. This beast was in the form of a roc, he descended through the air, directly flying towards Qin Wentian.

“Little Rascal!” From below, Purgatory exclaimed! That golden roc suddenly changed its form, becoming a snow-colored little puppy that rushed into Qin Wentian’s embrace.

“Boohoo, you finally returned.” Little Rascal sobbed. He initially thought that Qin Wentian had died. It was only until he heard the news circulated by the Phoeroc Race and Sun Gold Demon Beast Race did he know that Qin Wentian was still alive. He and Qin Wentian used to be linked telepathically and could sense each other’s presence. But after that war back then, that link had completely disappeared. He really didn’t think that Qin Wentian was still alive.

“Little Rascal, I’ve returned!” Qin Wentian stroked Little Rascal on his head as he spoke gently.

“That old monster is dead.” Little Rascal mumbled with a low voice that was filled with sorrow.

“I know, I’ve already slain the two vile creatures responsible, roasted them and ate them. It’s good that you’ve return. There are still many greater demons here, you can handle them.” Qin Wentian spoke. Little Rascal raised his head and stared at those bounded greater demons that were howling madly. His body directly soared into the sky as he took on his true form, that of a golden giant heaven devouring beast, exuding a sense of majesticness, as well as a terrifying balefulness.

With a flash, he directly appeared in front of a greater demon from the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race. His golden claws pressed against the demon’s head as a terrifying golden light flashed. His target screamed as his body was devoured bit by bit. The heaven devouring beast could even devour the sun, the moon and the constellations of a world. There was nothing they cannot devour.

Very quickly, that greater demon from the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race was completely swallowed. Little Rascal’s figure flashed about with great speed, devouring each of those greater demons trapped in the tree vines one by one, turning them into his nutrients.

“How brutal.” The expressions of many greater demons changed. The humans here also felt their hearts trembling. Qin Wentian was expressionless as he watched Little Rascal venting his emotions.

The cruel demon world was one where the weak would be eaten by the strong. If Little Rascal didn’t devour them, they would devour Little Rascal.

Staring at that heaven devouring beast that was frenziedly devouring, as well as that magnificent figure in white, many people sighed silently in their hearts. None of them ever wanted to antagonize this baleful god Qin Wentian ever again.

Chapter 1694: All the Emphyreans

In the vast space, trapped by the tree vines, there were many demon emperors. However, all of them were turned into the heaven devouring beast’s nutrients. This was a simply shocking sight.

Many demons felt their hearts trembling. The heaven devouring beast was as expected of a unique beast, it was actually able to contain the essence and energy of so many powerful greater demons and there didn’t seemed to be any change to its body.

Finally, after the heaven devouring beast finished its devouring, he transformed back into that snowy-white puppy. His stomach rumbled as he slowly made his way towards Qin Wentian and laid down lazily. After that, he closed his eyes, and golden light could be seen gleaming from its body.

Qin Wentian had a look of astonishment on his face. Was this falling asleep after feasting on a good meal?

“Purgatory, help me take care of Little Rascal.” Qin Wentian passed Little Rascal over to Purgatory. His gaze turned to the skies as he continued, “Since you all have already arrived, why don’t you show yourselves. Is there any meaning to hiding away?”

Many people felt their hearts pounding. There were still experts hidden? Among the crowd, the vast majority were all peak-stage demon emperors but they didn’t sense anything. Didn’t that mean that these experts all had higher cultivation bases than them?

A moment later, three figures descended through the air, moving towards the location where the Jiang Clan gathered. Their gazes were terrifying as though they could see through everything and everyone.

The Jiang Clan of the southern regions had always been mysterious. They appeared low-profile and didn’t seek to gain power, yet they give others an incredibly dangerous feeling. Right now, three empyreans appeared within their midst. The gazes of everyone naturally turned over, feeling great waves of emotions rocking their hearts.

These three were all existences at the ancient emperor level?

If it was true, wouldn’t things be too terrifying?

“Three empyreans, how impressive of the Jiang Clan.” Qin Wentian spoke. His words undoubtedly verified the speculations of the crowd. Many people felt their hearts pounding fiercely.

“The Jiang Clan originates from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Jiang Clan here is just a side branch of ours.” One of them spoke. Qin Wentian silently mused that the waters of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms were truly deep indeed. The Heavenly Talisman Realm, Jiang Clan, Ying Clan and some of the others all actually had inheritances from the upper world. Now after the ban was relaxed, there were so many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms coming here. He also didn’t know the reason why.

Evidently, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms wasn't as simple as it looked to be on the surface. If not, there wouldn't be any reason for empyreans to come here. Azure Mystic didn't have any means at all and the average strength of cultivators were much weaker when compared. Why would the empyreans want to come here?

If it was purely for the sake of recruiting disciples, there should be more than enough people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to choose from. There was no need for them to expend the effort and travel all the way here to do so.

In the air, more experts descended but they didn't head to any other major powers. They only smiled, "We are just passing by here to watch the show."

From different directions, over ten empyreans appeared, seemingly out from the void. Upon seeing this scene, the experts from Azure Mystic all felt their hearts trembling wildly. There were actually so many empyreans hidden in the dark?

Are these all ancient emperor characters?

They simply didn't dare to imagine that there were actually so many legendary characters actually gathering in their Azure Mystic Immortal Realms today. This made them feel extremely unbearable. They weren't able to accept this in such a short time.

However, Qin Wentian already knew that there were many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms coming here. And now that such a major thing was happening in Azure Mystic, it would naturally attract their attention. It was impossible to hide this from their immortal senses.

"Since everyone came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and are all empyreans, you guys naturally are our Azure Mystic's guests." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, he also wouldn't offend all these empyreans for nothing.

"Those from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, just come out. There's no need to hide any longer." Qin Wentian glanced in the direction of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. After all, he knew that it was possible for the Heavenly Talisman Realm here to open a spatial tunnel to connect the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to the dimension they were in. Although he didn't specially sense the surroundings, he knew that the empyreans from the Heavenly Talisman Realm must have also arrived and were hiding in that separate dimension.

“The Heavenly Talisman Realm?” Many people turned their gazes to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. After that, an empyrean laughed, “I didn’t expect that they are from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. To think that they would have such a peak power under their control in Azure Mystic. They must have been preparing for many years.”

From the void, light flashed as several figures walked out, all of them empyreans. Their auras were extremely terrifying and they were clad in golden robes, exuding an imposing majesticness. They were none other than experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Countless gazes stared at these empyreans that appeared from the void. At this moment, they only felt a sense of surrealism.

Today, they initially thought that it would be a battle with all the peak powers of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms participating in this. However, at this moment, many discovered to their horror that even the vast majority of peak powers didn’t have the qualifications to participate in this.

In addition, Qin Wentian evidently already knew that such a scene would occur. Qin Wentian, who was now at the ancient emperor level, no longer placed the peak powers of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms in his eyes. He summoned the peak powers of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to gather and obtaining his revenge was merely his first step. Earlier, he had hidden his true cultivation, not revealing his ancient emperor-level strength because he wanted all his enemies to send themselves to the death by appearing before him.

Only now did the people of Azure Mystic realize that Qin Wentian was no longer on the same level as them. He who has returned, was an ancient emperor, a lofty existence they could only look up to.

“The devil cultivators of the Myriad Devil Islands have actually arrived here at Evergreen’s royal capital. What do you all want?” At this moment, an empyrean of the Jiang Clan spoke, his words causing the eyes of everyone to flash. The devil cultivators of the Myriad Devil Islands also arrived?

Although the volume of his voice wasn’t loud, it traveled easily through the air. Everyone in the royal capital heard it. All of them then waited quietly and not long after, a fearsome devil might could be felt permeating the area, causing those weaker cultivators to feel stifled.

The devil experts of the six supreme devil halls, and all devil emperors controlling the devil regions had arrived, forming a fearsome army of devils, powerful enough to rival the alliances of the immortal realms.

Right now in Azure Mystic, the immortals, the devils and the demons each had a separate area where they held supreme. Before the Demon God Mountain appeared, the Myriad Devil Islands were already separated from the rest of the immortal realms by the devil gate, both in opposition. The entirety of the strength the Myriad Devil Islands possessed was capable of contending against the alliances in the immortal realms. From this, one could imagine how powerful they were. Right now, the six supreme devil halls have led their experts over and surrounded everyone.

“Does the Myriad Devil Islands also want to unify the immortal realms and become the hegemon? However, where is the Myriad Devil Sovereign?” The people of Jiang Clan laughed. No matter how powerful the devil army of the Myriad Devil Sovereign was, if there wasn’t an empyrean backing them, they were simply not worthy of a mention. Before empyreans, immortal emperors were like ants. Everyone was very clear about this point when they saw Qin Wentian act earlier.

Only to see the devil cultivators all turned their gazes to the figure in white standing in the air as they bowed together and roared, “We pay our respects to the Devil Sovereign!”

“We pay our respects to the Devil Sovereign.” In the direction of the devil army, everyone bowed as they greeted. This caused countless people’s expressions to flicker as they stared at the person the devil army was bowing to. Over there, in the airspace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the white-robed Qin Wentian was precisely the one standing there.

At this moment, the hearts of many involuntarily trembled again.

“Dispense with the greetings.” Devil might radiated from Qin Wentian, creating a fearsome pressure. With a wave of his hand, the devil experts all inclined their heads. At this moment, the hearts of countless people violently trembled.

So it turned out that Qin Wentian was the Myriad Devil Sovereign.

They initially thought that Qin Wentian had returned from the upper world and wanted to lend the aid of major powers friendly to him for his revenge. He gathered the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji and the others to help him. However, never in their wildest dreams did they expect that Qin Wentian had actually become the Myriad Devil Sovereign. The countless devil experts from the Myriad Devil Islands all treated him as their lord.

If those empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms didn’t show up, just given the strength of Qin Wentian’s forces, it was already enough for him to conquer and unify the immortal realms. Even the currently powerful Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect couldn't be compared to him. After all, the millions of devils on the Myriad Devil Islands would obey him. Just this group alone was sufficient to contend against the entire immortal realms.

“Brother Qin has actually already controlled the Myriad Devil Islands. Now that the devil experts have gathered here, are you preparing to take control by force, forcing the other powers and the various demonic races to submit to you?” Jiang Zihua asked.

“Who is your Brother Qin?” As Jiang Zihua's voice rang out, Qin Wentian shot a stare over as he coldly spoke, “Are you even worthy?”

Jiang Zihua froze, his countenance turning unsightly. Qin Wentian's words were simply smacking his face, not polite at all. But, who would dare to say that what Qin Wentian has said was wrong?

Right now, Qin Wentian was someone who could even kill ancient emperors. He Jiang Zihua, no matter how high his talent is, was merely an immortal emperor. In any case, was his talent higher than Qin Wentian? Since Qin Wentian said he wasn't worthy, he naturally wouldn't even have the qualifications to refute it.

Jiang Zihua coldly snorted. So what if Qin Wentian was an empyrean? Being humiliated publicly like this caused Jiang Zihua's expression to turn extremely ugly. He coldly spoke, “You are truly different. Now, you already start to look down on your peers of your generation?”

Qin Wentian's eyes stared at Jiang Zihua, his terrifying gaze penetrated through everything. At this moment, Jiang Zihua only felt himself entering a strange world, it was like everything in his mind was seen through by Qin Wentian.

“Back then in the City of Ancient Emperors, are you the one who exposed me when I took on the identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King?” Qin Wentian's voice thundered through Jiang Zihua's mind, causing his eyes to narrow. His expression changed, “Are you provoking me?”

“Hmph.” Qin Wentian coldly snorted, rumbling Jiang Zihua's mind. Earlier, every micro-change to Jiang Zihua's expression was seen clearly by Qin Wentian. His eyes of truth were able to see past all lies and illusions. Seems like what he speculated was correct. The person who exposed his identity was Jiang Zihua.

The Jiang Clan had secret arts that enabled them to intercept immortal sense transmissions of others. When he was the Saber-Sword Immortal King, his identity was exposed and revealed. Back then after thinking about it for a long time, he already suspected it was Jiang Zihua who did so.

“I’m taking his life.” Qin Wentian didn’t stare at Jiang Zihua, he was looking at the three empyreans of the Jiang Clan instead. There was truly no need for him to look at Jiang Zihua. Given his current status and cultivation base, it would take a thought from him to finish Jiang Zihua off. If it wasn’t for the fact that the Jiang Clan had empyreans here, he would have already done so.

“How brazen.” An elder from the Jiang Clan icily spoke. “Don’t go too far.”

“Qin Wentian, on what grounds are you doing this?” Jiang Zihua coldly stared at Qin Wentian. What sort of character was he? He was one of the most supreme geniuses of the Jiang Clan and had a high chance of becoming the future clan leader. However, he was humiliated like this here.

“On the grounds that you attempted to harm my life when we were back in the City of Ancient Emperors.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Who can prove that the one who revealed your identity was me?” Jiang Zihua icily spoke.

“There’s no need for proof. You know you are him, and I’m sure I’m right. That is already enough.” Qin Wentian tyrannically replied!

Chapter 1695: Tripartite Power

I’m sure I’m right. That was already enough.

How domineering and tyrannical were Qin Wentian’s words? He completely disregarded everything else, there was no need for proof or anyone to admit their guilt. Since he was sure he is right, that was already enough.

Qin Wentian would say this because there was basically no proof to be found. But he knew that it was definitely Jiang Zihua.

The people of the Jiang Clan had always kept low profiles and were exceedingly mysterious but right from the start, he already felt extremely wary towards them. Back then at the start, Jiang Zihua’s younger brother Jiang Ziyu was acquainted with him at the Southern Phoenix Clan’s inheritance ground and invited him multiple times to head to the Jiang Clan. At that time, he felt that the Jiang Clan already had some dubious motives. And now, three empyreans from the upper world's Jiang Clan descended here. From this, one could tell how deeply they have hidden their true strength.

“You want to kill someone of my Jiang Clan just because you are sure you are right? Do you think we will agree?” An empyrean from the Jiang Clan coldly spoke. So what if Qin Wentian killed an empyrean earlier? That was merely an ordinary empyrean. As for them, they were three extremely powerful experts that were sent here to this lower world. Also, given their strength in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, they truly didn't have a mere Azure Mystic in their eyes at all. Although this Qin Wentian was also an empyrean, they couldn't give a damn about him if this place was the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

This was because there was a ban to enter this place. They believed that this must be the reason why Qin Wentian dared to act so brazenly towards them here.

“Even if you all don't agree, I have to kill him. The grudge that has to be resolved, has to be resolved no matter what.” Qin Wentian continued.

“You have more people under you. In that case, if we go on an all-out slaughter, things will be easier for us than for you.” A Jiang Clan's empyrean threatened coldly.

“I've remembered your words.” Qin Wentian stared at the person who spoke. He didn't continue speaking to them. Next, he turned to the direction of the Heavenly Talisman Realm, “I already know where the Heavenly Talisman Realm is located in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Now that I've died once, any connection of fate and karma between me and the Heavenly Talisman Realm is already severed. But even so, I've received the gratitude of the Heavenly Talisman Realm before in the past and hence, I'm not willing to enter a war against the Heavenly Talisman Realm. I really hope that the Heavenly Talisman Realm can release Jun Mengchen and the other prisoners.”

Qin Wentian's words were sincere. Although the actions of the Heavenly Talisman Realm today couldn't be said to be wrong as after all, their original intent was clearly to unify and claim hegemony over the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, because of some uncontrollable factors and reasons, it was destined that he would walk on a path that was a different direction from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Since this was the case, let all connection between them be severed then. As long as the Heavenly Talisman Realm was willing to spare Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya, he could allow all every grudge that had happened after his death to be wiped clean. If they encountered each other again in the war for supremacy over the control of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, they would contend against each other fairly, using their own methods.

But if the Heavenly Talisman Realm wasn't willing to release the prisoners. In that case, for the sake of Jun Mengchen, for the sake of his senior brother Bai Wuya, the Heavenly Talisman Realm wouldn't simply be an opponent that was vying for control over the entire immortal realms against him. They would truly, irrevocably, be his enemy.

"How can we easily release traitors? However, since they are members of our sect, if you and they are willing to submit again, the Heavenly Talisman Realm is naturally more than happy enough to receive you all within our ranks and forget all past grudges." An empyrean from the Heavenly Talisman Realm calmly spoke. How can it be so simple, wanting them to release the prisoners?

No matter what, the Heavenly Talisman Realm was considered a realm unto itself in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. These people were all disciples of the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord, how can they betray the sect just like that? What did they take the Realmlord as?

Or maybe, they don't even know what sort of existence a Realmlord was.

Now that the rules of Azure Mystic have changed and the ban was relaxed, it had completely disrupted their original plans. Unifying Azure Mystic was not as important as the past, but then again, it was still useful if they could unify this world. In any case, given how much effort they had put in through the years, they naturally didn't want all those efforts to go to waste.

"This is...they still chose to reject it." Qin Wentian sighed in his heart. He turned his gaze to Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya. The wind blew as his white robes fluttered. He stood there, nobody knew what he was thinking about,

"Is the Heavenly Talisman Realm sure that you want to do this?" Qin Wentian asked again.

"The words of empyreans are as heavy as nine gigantic cauldrons." How could the four empyreans of the Heavenly Talisman Realm choose to compromise? Qin Wentian didn't have the qualifications to make them compromise.

"Alright, since this is the case, Mengchen, Senior Bai. You guys wait for me a little more. I will definitely save you in the future." Qin Wentian stared at Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya.

"Senior brother, I'll wait for you." Jun Mengchen smiled brightly. Although he was imprisoned, seeing that Qin Wentian was alive and this powerful, made him extremely happy. He was truly happy. He believed in his senior brother Qin's words. Since Qin Wentian said he would save them, he would surely do so.

“Right.” Bai Wuya nodded, only saying a single word.

Qin Wentian no longer glanced at the experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. He glanced at all the major powers gathered here, “I, Qin Wentian, summoned everyone here today for a specific reason. Firstly, it was for revenge, and secondly, it’s to unite Azure Mystic. From our history, ancient emperors had united the immortal realms many times and left behind records of glorious eras. Today, I’m planning to follow in their footsteps and desire for Azure Mystic to be unified, ending the current chaotic situation, concluding all mutual grudges between the respective powers.”

“In this chaotic world where geniuses contend against each other for supremacy, along with the appearances of dao elements in Azure Mystic, how can it be so easy to unify the world?” Someone spoke.

“It’s precisely so for that reason that unifying the immortal realms is necessary. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realm’s rules have changed and it’s time to set up new rules. Now, it should be a great period of cultivation with many heroes born in our Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Why is there a need to kill each other just to gain the inheritances of dao elements? Things now are different from the past, empyreans from the upper world will continue streaming into here. Even if one of you steps into the ancient emperor realm, can you be sure that you will be invincible and can defeat all invaders? Only with me present can I claim to be so. What’s the point of slaughtering each other for the inheritances of the dao elements? If your dao is correct, you would naturally be able to break through and find a way to head to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.”

Qin Wentian continued, “There are countless experts in our vast Azure Mystic. However, other than those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, is there anyone in Azure Mystic that is stronger than me? I seek to unify Azure Mystic but this isn’t because of my own selfish ambitions. You guys are useless to me, I don’t need more subordinates. As for the glory of the act, I look with even more disdain upon it. In the upper world, I can also be considered hegemon of an area, a world palace lord with millions reporting under me. My authority and status isn’t any less than what I would have if I unify Azure Mystic. Hence, my reason for doing so isn’t for personal benefits, I only want Azure Mystic to be stronger. For those powers willing to submit to me, they will receive my protection but they also need to obey my orders. All of you can consider it well.”

The experts from the various major powers felt their hearts trembling when they heard this. In the history of Azure Mystic, it was true that many ancient emperors had once united the world but they eventually left for other places. Truly, status and authority held nothing for characters of that level. Right now, Qin Wentian has already gained control of the Myriad Devil Islands, Evergreen Immortal Empire, and the Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji and many others were clearly willing to follow him. Under his banner, already more than half of the major powers in the immortal realms have submitted to him. If the others submitted, they would be able to join this powerful alliance. If they refused to submit, they wouldn't be able to receive his protection and in this chaotic situation, the strength of their forces would constantly weaken.

This was especially so if Qin Wentian's subordinates pressured them in the future. They would have no one backing them at all. Hence, they needed to seriously consider this.

"My Heavenly Talisman Realm has established the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect here in Azure Mystic and we also desire to unify the world. For those who are willing to submit to us, they will all be protected by the Heavenly Talisman Realm." An empyrean of the Heavenly Talisman Realm spoke as he continued, "The Heavenly Talisman Realm is a major power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and we have branched out to Azure Mystic for countless years, even opening up another separate dimension. In addition, there will only be more empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms coming here in the future. Everyone, you best make your choices wisely."

"Who is willing to follow our Jiang Clan?" An empyrean from the Jiang Clan spoke. Many of the other neutral empyreans had looks of interest on their faces. Right now, three peak powers were wresting control over the this immortal realm. How interesting. How would the major powers of this world choose?

No matter how they chose, they would definitely offend the two other powers. Could they endure such fury?

"My Askheart Temple won't participate in this dispute for control over Azure Mystic." The reverend from the Askheart Temple pressed his palms together.

"Reverend, given the current situation now, can the Askheart Temple survive independently? If you do not choose, you are only waiting to be destroyed." The Jiang Clan's empyrean calmly spoke.

"Reverend's state of heart is extraordinary. The Askheart Temple is a sacred ground and if Reverend isn't willing to participate in the dispute of control, I will not force you all. I, Qin, am willing to protect the Askheart Temple from all chaos and if someone dares to disrupt the quiet and peace of Askheart Temple, that would be equivalent to making an enemy out of me." Qin Wentian spoke, his words causing that empyrean from the Jiang Clan to glance over. Weren't his words a challenge to him?

The words spoken by the two of them clearly showed the difference in their demeanors.

“This old man represents the Askheart Temple to thank Sir Qin.” The esteemed reverend pressed his palms together and bowed.

“Reverend is too polite.” Qin Wentian bowed back. Back then, the Askheart Temple fought on behalf of him. Doing this now was what he ought to do.

“Given how chaotic the immortal realms are now, I also don’t hope for corpses of my subordinates to die needlessly. I’m willing to follow the general trend. My Darknorth Immortal Empire is willing to follow the footsteps of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.” After contemplating, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor spoke. Qin Wentian and his daughter Youhuang had a connection and he was also a good friend of Nongyue. Hence, if he really had to make a choice, he would naturally choose to stand with Qin Wentian.

“Thank you for making this choice, Uncle.” Qin Wentian spoke to the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, referring to him as ‘Uncle,’ treating him as a senior. This caused many people to have strange looks in their eyes. The Darknorth Immortal Emperor felt more at ease after he heard that.

“Since the Darknorth Immortal Emperor is willing to submit, our Hundred Refinements Sect and Jadestage Immortal Palace are naturally willing as well since we are one alliance.” The Hundred Refinements Sect Leader expressed his stance. The Jadestage Immortal Palace Mistress also nodded to Qin Wentian.

“Mhm,” Qin Wentian nodded to the two of them. For the northern regions, he had already obtain 50% of the powers there.

“Our Chaotic Sky Sect is willing to submit to the Jiang Clan.” The experts of the Chaotic Sky Sect expressed. The empyreans of the Jiang Clan smiled, “An intelligent choice.”

After that, the various powers expressed their attitudes. The Shooting Sun Immortal Empire of the central regions was willing to submit to Qin Wentian.

The Thundergod Hall, Snowdrift Sage Hall, Skynibble Sacred Cult all chose to submit to the Jiang Clan. As for some of the major powers in the west as well as the Beast God Sect, they chose to submit to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Just like what the Jiang Clan’s empyrean has said, in such chaotic times there would be even more empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms appearing here, if one doesn’t submit to a greater power and wish to survive independently, they are only waiting to be destroyed.

“The demon races of the Desolate Mountain Range are willing to retreat back there and not enter the immortal realms again.” One of the more powerful greater demons, a Baize, spoke. Back then when the Demon God Mountain appeared, the demonic races from the Desolate Mountain Range entered the immortal realms in a full-force invasion. Right now, they were forced by the circumstances. Many of their powerful demonic races were killed, causing their total strength to wane but they were also unwilling to submit to humans. Hence, they could only make the choice of retreating.

Return to the Desolate Mountain Range?

Many people coldly laughed. The current state of the immortal realms was already like this. How could they retreat just because they wanted to retreat? But even so, the major powers didn't say anything. The consequences of this choice by the demonic races will reveal themselves in the future.

Today, countless experts from the various major powers gathered in the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Qin Wentian domineeringly took revenge and killed many emperors, even destroying an empyrean yet the final conclusion was that three truly supreme powers was established at the end, forming a tripartite of balance.

Chapter 1696: Heaven Empyrean

Qin Wentian stood in the air and stared at all the experts here. It was impossible for anyone to unify the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms today since the empyreans of both the Jiang Clan and Heavenly Talisman Realm stood out. In such a situation, clearly it was impossible for him to start a battle. If not, regardless of his victory or defeat, there would be casualties among his friends and family.

“Since everyone has chosen who to side with, let the matter here today come to an end. You guys can leave now.” Qin Wentian waved his hand, incomparably carefree. All those enemies that participated in the war back then were all destroyed by him. Next, unifying Azure Mystic was the only thing remaining. Also, he has yet to save Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya.

The experts of the Heavenly Talisman Realm glanced at Qin Wentian. Was Qin Wentian issuing an expulsion order?

“Qin Wentian, are you really determined not to return to the sect?” The empyreans of the Heavenly Talisman Realm felt somewhat reluctant. If Qin Wentian rejoin them, what threat could the Jiang Clan pose? They could directly steamroll their opponents and unify Azure Mystic, there was no need to waste any more time or effort.

“If Jun Mengchen and the others even suffer the slightest bit of injury, I will make the entire Heavenly Talisman Realm here be buried together with them.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The four empyreans of the Heavenly Talisman Realm ruthlessly glared at him, their eyes flickering with killing intent as though they wanted nothing more than to finish Qin Wentian off right here and now.

“Qin Wentian, you will regret it.” An empyrean from the Heavenly Talisman Realm replied. After that, they waved their hands and led the experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect away.

“Farewell.” The Jiang Clan also led those who submitted to them away.

The air trembled, the experts from the Myriad Devil Islands that were surrounding them all opened up pathways for them to leave. The people who gathered in the royal capital felt some frustration and disappointment as though they had lost something. The things that happened today toppled their understanding of everything. Even ancient emperors could die. Also, with so many ancient emperors appearing, this was simply a shocking sight. Sadly, the battle to unify Azure Mystic still wasn't fought in the end.

But no matter what, the things that happened here today in the Evergreen Immortal Empire were already enough to enter the annals of history. There were very few records about ancient emperors but today, all of them witnessed how Qin Wentian personally killed an ancient emperor and had seen the magnificence of this living legend. A thousand years from now, this would surely become a legendary story of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, leaving its mark in history.

In this time period of close to two hundred years, the previous war and this event were all historical matters.

With some melancholy, many people left. There were also some who decided to stay behind in the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Since the world was now split into three parts, Qin Wentian evidently would use the Evergreen Immortal Empire as his base of power. Maybe, this royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire might become an unprecedented majestic city in the future.

The major powers who submitted to Qin Wentian didn't leave and they were still filled with trepidation. This was especially so for the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire. Right now given the states of affairs in the immortal realms, peak-stage immortal emperors were no longer important. Only empyreans had the qualifications to decide the situation.

Today, Qin Wentian displayed overwhelming strength, killing a character at the ancient emperor level and had more than 50% of the powers in the immortal realms under his control. However, why were there still so many powers that chose to submit to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and the Jiang Clan?

Because, Qin Wentian was only a single empyrean while the other parties had more more than one empyrean. Hence, this affected the choices of many major powers.

Those neutral empyreans who came here to watch the show also left. The greater demon races who had invaded the immortal realms also started to retreat, preparing to return to the Desolate Mountain Range, deciding to concentrate fully on their cultivation. After the Demon God Mountain appeared, the Desolate Mountain Range was transformed, they initially thought they could rule the world but they didn't expect the rules of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to change and so many empyreans appeared. Now, they had become the prey of others. The Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Demon Beast Race and many other greater demons were completely annihilated.

After many people went off from the Evergreen's royal capital, there were still some experts remaining. The Darknorth Immortal Emperor and Beiming Nongyue, the sect leader of the Hundred Refinements Sect and Li Yufeng, the palace mistress of the Jadestage Immortal Palace, the ruler of the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire as well as their princes and princesses. All of them stood before Qin Wentian, yet they didn't know how should they address him.

Right now, given Qin Wentian's strength and cultivation base, it wasn't too much to refer to him as 'senior.' But after all, it would still sound strange as Qin Wentian was simply too young.

"Everyone, you guys can just call me "Wentian." Qin Wentian didn't really mind such things.

"That wouldn't be appropriate." The ruler of the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire spoke. "No matter what, you can now already be considered to have control over half of the major powers here in the immortal realms. It would be better if you have a title. The devil cultivators can call you the Myriad Devil Sovereign, but what about the rest of us?"

These words had the intent of expressing his good will. After all, it really wasn't too appropriate to refer to Qin Wentian directly by his name.

"Ordinary emperor titles are insufficient to express the dignity of your current station. Qin Wentian, since there's the word tian (heaven) in your name, why don't we refer to you as the Heaven Empyrean?” The palace mistress of the Jadestage Immortal Palace softly spoke in a melodious voice. As the sound of her voice faded, many people had approval in their eyes. This was truly a good title.

Right now, Qin Wentian’s cultivation base has already exceeded the emperor realm, it wasn’t suitable to refer to him with the word ‘emperor’ in his title. Also, this name Heaven Empyrean could not only express his cultivation realm, it was also a salutation of respect. Heaven Empyrean, the one ruling the heavens, seeking to control the world.

“Good name.” The ruler of the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire nodded.

“Not bad indeed. Let’s go with this then. Since we desire to unify the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, you naturally need to have a title.” The Darknorth Immortal Emperor also agreed. Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly, the words of these people weren’t wrong. He needed to have a title since he wanted to unify the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. The title ‘Heaven Empyrean’ was pretty suitable.

“We pay our respects to the Heaven Empyrean.” The Hundred Refinements Sect Leader bowed and called out.

“We pay our respects to the Heaven Empyrean.” The other experts followed his lead and expressed their respect. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the others smiled and also flew over as they bowed and greeted, “We pay our respects to the Heaven Empyrean.”

“Everyone, there’s no need to be so polite.” Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and continued, “Since everyone is willing to advance and retreat with me, I’m prepared to use the Evergreen Immortal Empire as our headquarters. I want teleportation arrays leading to each of your bases to be constructed here so we can better communicate and reinforce each other if need be to deal with any unexpected changes to the situation in Azure Mystic.”

“Right.” Everyone nodded.

“However, I have a suggestion. I hope the various powers can relocate to the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, forming a closely-connected network.” As Qin Wentian spoke, the expressions of the various experts here changed. Qin Wentian knew what they were thinking about, he continued to explain, “By doing this, it isn’t for the Evergreen Immortal Empire to claim supremacy and gain control of the forces under all of you. Now, given how chaotic the immortal realms are, since all of you put your trust in me, I’ll naturally take responsibility and protect you all. In truth, I feel that even if we construct teleportation arrays, things wouldn’t be that useful as empyreans can instantly destroy them. You won't have enough time to activate them. If something really did happen, it would be hard for the others to send reinforcements in time."

"The territories controlled by the Evergreen Immortal Empire are vast. We can construct many buildings like the imperial palace here, and the control of them would be spread out among all of you. I was planning to station them in the various directions to better cope with unexpected situations. Right now, the spatial tunnel connecting the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and Azure Mystic Immortal Realms is already opened and there would be many empyreans from the upper world descending. Hence, I'm not sure when this matter of unification would conclude exactly. But there's no doubt once the unification is concluded, I will also return to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. At that time, all of you can go with me if you want to, or choose to stay behind if you wish so. I won't force any of you to follow me. At that time, if you all wish to relocate back to your original locations, you can do so as well."

Qin Wentian slowly spoke, everyone nodded their heads. Qin Wentian's words were logical and it proved that he didn't have selfish motives. After Qin Wentian left here, the unified Azure Mystic Immortal Realms wouldn't be like a piece of unbreakable iron. Without an empyrean here to maintain order, the alliances formed would disintegrate sooner or later.

Also, to many of them, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms held great attractiveness. Many of them have been stuck in the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm for many years and had no way to break through. But this was also because of the limitations imposed upon them by the environment here.

"Everyone, feel free to make your choices. I won't force you guys and since I've already promised all of you my protection, I will naturally do my best. However, if someone fails to follow my orders, don't blame me then." Qin Wentian spoke.

"We all understand the intent of the Heaven Empyrean. Since this is the case, my Darknorth Immortal Empire is willing to relocate." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor spoke. Given how vast the immortal realms are, it was impossible to control everyone fully. Was the Lifire World Palace powerful in the Lifelong Realm of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Of course it was, but it was also impossible to make sure everyone follow orders willingly. But naturally, as long as one gains control the strength of the upper-most level, it was equivalent to gaining control over everything else.

"In that case, our Hundred Refinements Immortal Sect is willing to relocate as well." Everyone in the Hundred Refinements Immortal Sect expressed. Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Nanfeng Yaoyue and the rest laughed. They knew that a supreme power had just been born in the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

“You all can leave and do whatever is necessary then.” Qin Wentian waved his hand. He descended through the air. The curtains of the commotion caused by the gathering of all the major powers in the Evergreen Immortal Empire finally closed.

But the entire immortal realms were trembling as countless people discussed about this matter. The supreme genius Qin Wentian returned and had become an ancient emperor, standing above all the immortal emperors.

The titles of Myriad Devil Sovereign and Heaven Empyrean spread all over the world.

Those who had personally witnessed the battle became valuable guests no matter where they went and naturally spread the story of what they saw. Those who didn't witness the grand event also started to boast, embellishing the stories they heard, speaking as though they were really there.

Countless experts gathered at the Evergreen Immortal Empire's royal capital and refused to leave. They heard that the Heaven Empyrean wanted to unify the world and transform the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire into the headquarters of a super alliance, becoming a supreme mega city. They naturally didn't want to miss out on such an opportunity. Now, every inch of land here was contested by countless people who wanted to buy them.

The royal capital expanded. The Evergreen Immortal Empire, Southern Phoenix Clan and the other powers all hired craftsmen and builders, creating immortal palaces and ancient halls that were located in different directions of the royal capital. The Southern Phoenix Clan, Darknorth Immortal Empire, Hundred Refinements Sect, Jadestage Immortal Palace and the other powers started to aid in the expansion effort, creating plenty of new buildings. For a period of time, the atmosphere of the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire became extremely lively.

In one of the many cities in the eastern regions, the inns were filled with people and everyone was discussing about the recent events in the Evergreen Immortal Empire. At this moment, two figures covered in dust walked into a certain inn and sat down as they began to order some wine and dishes.

These two were a man and a woman but they didn't seem to match up well at all. The man was rather chubby and had an immortal-foundation cultivation base while the woman was extremely beautiful with an air of innocence.

“It has been tough on you during these days. I, fatty, have let you down, I shouldn’t have allowed you to suffer with me.” Fatty sighed as he stared at the beautiful woman in front of him. That woman rolled her eyes at him, “I’ve already followed you for so many years, why are you speaking about such nonsense? Compared to the past, we can now already hold our own in the immortal realms. Things are already very good.”

“Mhm, little wife come here. Try to eat more alright. In the future after this fatty becomes wealthy, I’ll roast some nutritious greater demons from the desolate region for you to eat.” The fatty laughed.

“Haha, fatty your words are so braggy. Do you think you are the Heaven Empyrean?” Someone at the side laughed.

“Yeah, how magnificent is the Heaven Empyrean? He even roasted the demon kings from the Phoeroc Race and Sun Gold Demon Beast Race to eat. After that, he captured so many other greater demons for his demonic beast companion to devour. He is truly an unrivalled character.”

“The Heaven Empyrean again.” The eyes of the fatty flashed. This time, they took the risk and returned here and discovered many people talking about this so-called Heaven Empyrean. From the sounds of it, the Heaven Empyrean should be an incredible existence, a supreme character in the immortal realms.

“Yeah. It’s rumored that he came from a particle world. Back then in the past, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor refused to accept him as a disciple and he entered the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to cultivate instead. Who would have imagined that he would have such accomplishments today? Eastern Sage must have been truly blind.”

“What did you all say?” The fatty jumped up from his chair. Upon seeing everyone turning to stare at him, he swallowed a mouthful of saliva and asked, “Who is the Heaven Empyrean?”

“The Heaven Empyrean naturally is the Heaven Empyrean. He naturally still has another identity, he is the lord of all devils, the Myriad Devil Sovereign and is now the number one expert in our world.” That person spoke.

“I’m asking about his name.” The fatty roared.

“Oh, the Heavenly Empyrean, Qin Wentian.” After contemplating for a moment, that person replied, revealing an expression of reverence on his face when he said the name. Everyone in the surroundings also had looks of respect on their faces.

Fatty narrowed his eyes and was dumbfounded for a few seconds. After that, he leapt up in the air excitedly, “The wonderful life waiting for this fatty is finally about to arrive!”

Chapter 1697: Insta-killing an Empyrean

Qin Wentian naturally didn't know that a certain fatty was jumping up and down happily in a city in the eastern regions after hearing his name. He also didn't know that the hearts of many who knew of him were shaking due to great shock. These people who were acquainted with him were either friends or brothers that had shared life-and-death experiences, or beautiful maidens that secretly admired him, there were also some who had grudges with him. All of them without fail, continuously heard about Qin Wentian's name.

The Heaven Empyrean's name circulated through the immortal realms. Just like what the Southern Phoenix Matriarch Nanfeng Yaoyue has said, no one in the world didn't know of him.

The royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire became more majestic. Countless experts were extremely busy but Qin Wentian felt very carefree. Right now, Mo Qingcheng, Qing'er, Little Rascal, Purgatory and the others were all around him and he could set some worries in his heart at ease. Naturally, he didn't forget about Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya.

On the other side, Qin Wentian was also worried about the general situation in the immortal realms. According to his scouts, he learned that many more experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms appeared in various locations. They all seemed to be searching for something and was keeping low-profiles. In addition, there were people who saw empyreans flying through the horizons, travelling extremely far away to unknown lands beyond the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Although Qin Wentian had no idea what these experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are searching for, he knew that there clearly must be some secrets hidden within Azure Mystic. Back then countless years ago, the Heavenly Talisman Realm and the Jiang Clan already sent out a branch here to develop in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Their main purposes should be to search for this unknown thing as well. And now, since the ban was relaxed, many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms personally came down to the lower world to search themselves.

In the blink of an eye, several months passed. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was still jointly ruled by the tripartite powers but none of the three supreme powers made any moves to invade each other. Most probably, all of them felt some mutual trepidation in their hearts.

During these days, other than accompanying his family and friends, he would also occasionally guide the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the others on their cultivations. Right now, strength and insights are already at an extremely high level. Not only that, he even brought many treasures from the upper world to aid in the cultivation efforts of everyone here. He hoped that more empyreans would appear in his alliance, there were too many people stuck at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm for too many years. They were only a single step away from reaching the empyrean realm and the difference between the two realms was just a spark of insight.

However, Qin Wentian failed to cause anyone under him to break through to the empyrean level but there was an empyrean who came to the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire looking for him.

When Qin Wentian saw the person who appeared, he was instantly stunned. This was especially so after he sensed the fluctuations of the person's cultivation base. A great amount of shock stirred in his heart.

This, should be then the real person from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms that became an ancient emperor. Qin Wentian didn't expect it to be him. Seems like his cultivation speed wasn't any inferior to Qin Wentian himself who was aided by a series of fortunate events.

"You annihilated the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race?" The person who just arrived was also clad in white. He had a lanky figure and exuded a transcendent aura.

"Seems like I've acted too fast and affected your quest for revenge." Qin Wentian apologetically replied. So it turned out that the person who came here was none other than Hua Taixu.

Qin Wentian knew that back then in the City of Ancient Emperors, the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King died in the hands of demons from the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race. Hua Taixu naturally wanted revenge. In another words, even if Qin Wentian didn't act, the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race would also have become history.

"The ending is still the same." Hua Taixu's calm voice had no fluctuations. He recently broke through and only came out after he stabilized his foundation. After coming out, he learned that Qin Wentian was named as the Heaven Empyrean and he had already annihilated the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race.

“The spatial tunnel from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms has appeared, it’s about time to go back. In any case, I heard that the Heavenly Talisman Realm has captured Jun Mengchen. When are you heading there? I can go there with you.” Hua Taixu’s voice didn’t contain too much emotion but he was actually willing to fight side by side with Qin Wentian. Back then in the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian, him, Jun Mengchen, Nanfeng Yunxi and the others has also once fought together before and experienced many things.

“Right. I’ll head there once the time is right. Why don’t you rest and cultivate in the imperial palace for now?” Qin Wentian spoke.

“That’s alright. You should have messaging crystals with you, right? Give me one of them, when the time comes for you to act, just inform me and I’ll come by accordingly.” Hua Taixu’s words caused Qin Wentian’s eyes to gleam with sharpness. Hua Taixu seemed to be very familiar with the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. However, he didn’t ask anything more, he directly took out a messaging crystal and imprinted his immortal sense into it and passed it to Hua Taixu.

After Hua Taixu also left his immortal sense in his crystal, he directly departed, as though he had never appeared at all. Qin Wentian glanced at his vanished silhouette as a look of contemplation flashed in his eyes. At this moment, several figures appeared around Qin Wentian. Little Rascal and Nanfeng Yunxi came over and their eyes were also gleaming with a bright light. After all, they once fought together with Hua Taixu when they were in the City of Ancient Emperors.

And the conversation Hua Taixu had with Qin Wentian earlier caused them to feel that Hua Taixu has already reached Qin Wentian’s level.

“He has broken through the emperor realm.” Qin Wentian softly spoke. Nanfeng Yunxi’s beautiful eyes gleamed sharply, Little Rascal had a look of shock on his face. After that, Little Rascal sighed dispiritedly, “Ai, seems like this genius has slacked too much.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed, he felt that Hua Taixu was somewhat different from before.

Time continued to flow by, after the tripartite balance of power was formed, things seemed to have calmed down on the surface. In the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, there were now many majestic imperial palaces. It was rumored that during the time of construction, there were many grandmasters laying powerful formations on the buildings as well. It was just that nobody knew if these rumors were true or false.

...

Today, the spatial tunnel leading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm was opened forcibly from the outside. Two handsome figures dressed in white stepped together into the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

These two exuded magnificence through the generations and had transcendent auras. They were none other than Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu. They didn't head to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect but directly barged into the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the lower world instead.

The spatial gate flashed, Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu directly stepped through it. Their immortal senses swept out and discovered many experts but they weren't in a hurry to act. After all, many people here were characters at the immortal emperor realm and below and when these people discovered Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu, all of them had shocked looks on their faces. After all, in the past, no one could possibly invade the Heavenly Talisman Realm because they had no way to enter. However, Qin Wentian could.

"Invasion, Qin Wentian is invading..." Very swiftly, the experts of the Heavenly Talisman Realm circulated this news out. However, since Qin Wentian has openly showed himself, he naturally couldn't be bothered about news leaking out. Swishing sounds rang out, tree vines shot over with the speed of lightning, directly rushing towards an immortal emperor. The expression of that immortal emperor drastically changed as he frenziedly tried to flee but how could he make it in time? The thick vine directly bound him. After that, Qin Wentian brought his captive along as he made his way into the depths of the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

On their journey in, he discovered more immortal emperors. The tree vines multiplied and shot out in all directions as an ancient tree manifested behind Qin Wentian. Not too long after, over ten immortal emperors were caught by him. All of them struggled madly but how could they be strong enough to break free?

"BOOM!" A heaven-shaking might gushed over, instantly enveloping Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu. The entire sky changed color as the world turned to ice. Frost descended everywhere, those immortal emperors felt themselves being frozen, the vines were also losing all hints of vitality. Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu were frozen as well.

A figure walked over, exuding immense power. Cracking sounds rang out, Hua Taixu and Qin Wentian broke free of being frozen.

“Qin Wentian, you actually dare to act so brazenly.” An empyrean from the Heavenly Talisman Realm roared. This was an empyrean that was guarding the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the lower world, he was extremely powerful.

The two of them ignored him. At the next instant, Hua Taixu’s eyes turned into vortexes, there were no longer pupils, but the vortexes seemed like a separate space, a different world. A strong suction force directly absorbed the Heavenly Talisman Realm’s empyrean into it. In the next moment, that empyrean only felt his will being overridden and his body was out of his control. He was actually traversing through the cycle of countless samsara as numerous scenes flashed through his mind.

And at this moment, a fearsome sense of danger arose in his heart. That empyrean howled in anger but his consciousness remained trapped inside the world of endless samsara, unable to extricate himself. Destructive energies crackled around his body, but he had no way to control his fear. He started trembling and in the next moment, felt a burst of pain. This pain lasted only for a short time because his body had completely disintegrated in a few moments due to the destructive attacks. Since he had already died, his consciousness was naturally snuffed out as well.

Within the span of a second, an empyrean was insta-killed.

Those emperors, that were caught, all had despair on their faces. Their hearts felt like dead ashes, this powerful empyrean guarding their Heavenly Talisman Realm was killed in a single strike by the two invaders? Who could block these two then?

Even that expert at the empyrean level had no opportunity to inform others for help, vanishing in an instant after the joint-attack. One has to know that the empyrean guarding here was at the so-called ancient emperor realm. But he got insta-killed so easily?

Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu continued, not bothered at all by the terrifying levels of destruction when the two of them joined forces. In truth, having such an effect was also considered normal. Hua Taixu was proficient in the energy of samsara and reincarnation. After he comprehended the source origins of his laws, his eyes became the ignition point for his source origins. With a single gaze, his eye technique would automatically activate, trapping his target into endless samsara. There was no way for his target to struggle free so easily.

When the target got trapped, Qin Wentian used his fastest speed to unleash his powerful attacks. How could he fail to kill a defenceless target? This was simply a perfect partnership.

“Where is Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya? If you guys refuse to speak, just die.” Qin Wentian spoke. Many of the immortal emperors he captured felt their hearts trembling. Someone then replied, “They are in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect...”

Qin Wentian continued to fly through the air with Hua Taixu beside him. The amount of immortal emperors they captured grew more and more. As long as Qin Wentian wanted it, just a single thought from him could cause these immortal emperors to disintegrate into ashes. However, Qin Wentian didn't kill them. Unless it was absolutely essential, he still wasn't willing to start a massacre in the Heavenly Talisman Realm!

He believed that the Heavenly Talisman Realm changed because of some edicts from the upper world. And no matter what, this place, was ultimately once his home.

At this moment, inside the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, in a floating palace, the three remaining empyreans grouped together. Their expressions were extremely unsightly to behold. They just received news that Qin Wentian had invaded the Heavenly Talisman Realm here in the lower world!

Chapter 1698: Short-term Glory

In the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the auras from the three empyreans were extremely frightening. Qin Wentian, he actually dared to invade the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

“Go!” The eyes of those three radiated killing intent as their law origins manifested around them. After that, one of them opened up the spatial pathway leading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm but before they could step into it, a spatial gate opened near them as ancient tree vines shot over, wrapped around tens of immortal emperors, appearing before them. Behind the vines, Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu stepped out.

Numerous figures soared into the air, the people of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect felt their hearts trembling when they saw this. Qin Wentian actually killed his way here. Not only him alone, the other person beside him was Hua Taixu, the supreme genius with the title of the Samsara Great Emperor, Hua Taixu.

“Traitor, how dare you!” The three empyreans coldly stared at Qin Wentian, their voices were like frost.

“I truly didn’t wish to do this but since you guys want to force me, I can only take action.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Hua Taixu didn’t reply. His gaze was extremely terrifying, his pupils replaced with samsara vortexes. In an instant, the three empyreans felt themselves being pulled in and trapped in those vortexes, unable to extricate themselves.

“Careful!” Their expressions changed as their consciousnesses were trapped. In their minds, the scenes flashing past were out of their control but their reactions were extremely quick. One of the empyreans started to glow with boundless runic light. A golden screen of light suddenly manifested, intersecting with the runic light, forming a shield of law’s origin before them, Qin Wentian’s palm slammed into the golden screen of light, shattering it but it bought enough time for the three empyreans to struggle free as they respectively flew towards different directions, separating themselves.

“Kill the one in the center.” Hua Taixu silently transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. His samsara eyes locked on to the empyrean in the center. It was the empyrean that had manifested the law’s origin shield. Boundless light radiated from that person but he discovered that he was drawn into a world of endless samsara by Hua Taixu’s eyes.

“Bang!” Hua Taixu stabbed out with his spear. The law origin shield spun about and was knocked away and Qin Wentian directly seized the opportunity and appeared before this man. Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu’s teamwork was perfect, so quick that the others couldn’t react.

The two other empyreans at the side were also extraordinary characters. One of them grabbed out in the air and Qin Wentian immediately felt a heavy pressure pressing down on him, making him unable to move. That terrifying pressure continued to bore down on him while the other empyrean wielded a long spear that crackled with the power of lightning and thunder. The skies instantly turned dark as rumbling noises filled the air. The spear in his hands shot out towards Qin Wentian, leaving behind a trail of violet light that was compressed to the extreme. If this spear pierced Qin Wentian, the thunderous energies within would cause Qin Wentian’s body to explode.

Everyone involved in the battle were empyreans, no one was a weakling. The cooperation between the two was also extremely perfect. There was no need to intentionally do anything to compensate for the other, everything flowed together perfectly.

Hua Taixu was still engaging with the empyrean in the center, making sure that the empyrean had no way to escape his world of samsara formed by his eye technique.

Qin Wentian was unable to move due to the effect of the gravity laws and an empyrean-powered spear was launched his way with shocking might. With an intention of will, his demon sword appeared before him, emitting a long and sharp screech as it transformed into a great roc. The source origin of the laws of sword was channelled into it by Qin Wentian. The great roc spread its wings, blocking the area before Qin Wentian and as its wings closed in, it enveloped the space before it directly within.

“KACHA!” The powerful energies in the spar caused the roc’s wings to explode. Remnants of thunder and lightning energy interweaved, like divine lightning from the nine heavens that desired to destroy everything. From this scene, one could very well imagine what would happen if the spear hit Qin Wentian. But at this instant, the remnants of explosive energies were blocked by the demon sword, negating a huge amount of it.

Everything happened too quickly, in the time a spark took to fly off a flint. A buddha dharma body projection appeared in front of Qin Wentian, its multitude of arms extended forth, unleashing attacks, completely wiping out the remnant energies and also causing countless gigantic palm imprints to converge into one as it slammed towards the empyrean in the center that was trapped by the world of samsara. The experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect watched with shock as the gigantic palm imprint blasted into the body of that empyrean. A thunderous boom echoed as the entire space here trembled.

That empyrean, died instantly.

At this moment, the hearts of countless people shuddered. From Hua Taixu and Qin Wentian coming here to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect after they invaded the Heavenly Talisman Realm, the battle erupted in an instant. The attacks launched were all too swift and in a few moments, one of the empyreans was already killed by Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu. Also, this was a scenario where three empyreans were fighting against two.

They couldn’t help but to think about the fourth empyrean that remained behind in the Heavenly Talisman Realm to guard there. He must have also already been killed, right? Under the joint-efforts of three empyreans against two, one of the three empyreans was actually killed. In that case, given the fact that the empyrean in the Heavenly Talisman Realm was acting alone against the two of them, how could he not die?

Because Qin Wentian had once killed an empyrean in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, he became known as the number one expert of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. He was truly terrifying indeed.

However, even the Samsara Emperor Hua Taixu had also stepped into the legendary level and was actually so powerful. This caused everyone in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to be filled with shock.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord had also arrived. When he saw Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu killing their way over, his eyes gleamed with sharpness. Ultimately, the thin balance had ruptured. Actually, he didn't wish to see this. Back then when the Heavenly Talisman Realm used Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya to threaten Qin Wentian, he already knew that Qin Wentian would make a move against the Heavenly Talisman Realm for sure. Given Qin Wentian's personality, how could he endure this? Even if his opponent is the Heavenly Talisman Realm, he would still go all out because the other party had already touched his bottom line.

In truth, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord could understand Qin Wentian's current emotions. Actually, he didn't want to start a war with the Evergreen Immortal Empire but he had no choice but to do so. He simply understood this young man whom he watched grow up too well.

Hua Taixu turned his eyes towards the empyrean that was proficient in the gravity laws. He was also under great pressure and found it hard to move. However, his eye techniques were capable of causing someone to be trapped with just a single glance. The two of them were currently in a confrontation in the air.

After Qin Wentian killed one of the empyreans, he faced off against the empyrean that was proficient in lightning laws. Brandishing the demon sword in his hand, the sword itself was like a great roc, spreading its wings, wanting to soar up high in the skies. When Qin Wentian infused his energy from the source origin of laws into it, the demon sword desired to break through the dome of the heavens, filling the air with countless roc shadows, each brimming with a fearsome sword intent as they clashed with the crackling lightning bolts.

"Qin Wentian, you are too rebellious. The Heavenly Talisman Realm will punish all traitors for sure." The empyrean felt a little trepidation in his heart as there were already quite a few empyreans that died to Qin Wentian. He couldn't help but to feel fear.

"Why must you force me?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with killing intent. Since he had already acted, there was no way for him not to go all out. If not, the threat an empyrean represented was just too great. He might be able to handle empyreans but what about the Evergreen Immortal Empire? What about the Southern Phoenix Clan? What if this empyrean targets Qing'er and Qingcheng for revenge?

He was naturally clear that since he decided to act, he had to be ruthless enough to completely eliminate all threats, removing all future sources of trouble. At such a critical moment, his heart mustn't grow soft. He also understood that although he did care about this ex-sect of his, resulting in the fact that other than killing empyreans, he didn't kill anyone else, things would be different if the situation was reversed. His sect took him as a traitor and they also wanted to conquer the immortal realms. If they had a chance to act, they would surely kill him for sure. After they dominated the world, those who allied themselves with him would surely be hunted down.

Hence, there was basically no need to choose at all.

The demon sword hummed shrilly, another powerful gigantic great roc manifested, gleaming with radiance from his laws of light and boundless sword intent from his laws of sword, rushing towards his opponent. Qin Wentian slowly stepped forth, with every step he took, the amount of might he radiated increased.

“BOOM!” A powerful gravity bore down on Qin Wentian, disrupting him, making it tough for him to continue to move forward. Spatial light flashed, his body vanished completely and at the same instant, Hua Taixu's samsara eyes erupted forth with a terrifying light, causing the expression of the empyrean that was using the source origin of gravity laws to contort. Qin Wentian wanted to kill him.

With a piercing sound, sword light flared. The great roc arced through the skies, as fresh blood splashed through the air. That empyrean's body was lacerated into pieces before turning into nothingness by the immense sword intent of the great roc.

The empyrean proficient in lightning laws, that faced against Qin Wentian earlier, felt his countenance pale. He rapidly retreated, releasing his source origin of laws, wanting to open up the pathway to the Heavenly Talisman Realm to escape. Out of the three empyreans here, two were already killed. He knew that if he didn't flee, there would be no suspense to the situation, he would die for sure.

How could Qin Wentian allow him to leave? Swishing sounds rang out as countless vines appeared. He stepped through a spatial gate along with his vines, and the vines directly wrapped around his opponent. However, his opponent's body suddenly erupted with a fearsome destructive thunderous light, causing the vines to disintegrate.

The radiance and sword intent of Qin Wentian interweaved together as they flowed forwards, targeting his opponent. That empyrean's body was protected by his law origin but the layer of protection disintegrated together with the radiance when they came into contact. At this moment, a sharp whistling sound echoed out as the demon sword shot through the skies. In a situation where it was impossible for the empyrean to defend, the demon sword directly opened up a hole and tunnelled through his body. An empyrean with no heart to battle and only wanted to flee...right at the start, his combat prowess already dwindled drastically. Also, he had his back facing Qin Wentian. How could he still survive?

His corpse continued to descend through the air. In this instant, the gazes of everyone in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect turned to that corpse falling through the air as their hearts trembled violently.

The three powerful empyreans were all killed, not even one remained. Most probably, the empyrean that remained in the Heavenly Talisman Realm to guard it had also died as well. Initially, the supposed strongest supreme power, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect who had four empyreans, actually collapsed in an instant, becoming history in this chaotic world, leaving behind only a period of short-term glory.

What they didn't expect was that the person who ended this period of glory for them, was none other than an ex-disciple from their very own sect, the supreme genius that was heavily nurtured by the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Qin Wentian.

In the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, there were many people that were acquainted with Qin Wentian. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, Taishan Immortal King, Saberlord of Death, Zi Qingxuan and the others...all of them were staring at Qin Wentian now, their hearts numbed from shock. However, a moment later, they also felt a sense of relief. It has finally ended, they no longer needed to bear this burden in their hearts and do things that they weren't willing to do!

Chapter 1699: Equal Fame

Qin Wentian glanced at the crowd. After that, he stepped forth, moving through space and directly appeared at the entrance of an ancient cave in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. His sword intent slashed out, destroying the formation protecting it, revealing a prison with Jun Mengchen, Bai Wuya and the old man.

Sword light flashed, a sharp sound echoed out as the prison broke apart. Qin Wentian landed on the ground.

“Senior brother Qin!” Jun Mengchen’s eyes gleamed resplendently. They already knew that Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu were here to rescue them. Upon seeing the two of them joining forces to kill the three empyreans, Jun Mengchen and the two others felt immense shock. It was simply too difficult to imagine that Qin Wentian was already this powerful. Also, Hua Taixu was similarly as awesome as well. Before this, Jun Mengchen believed that he was already very strong. But if he compared himself to his senior brother and Hua Taixu, he was still a little too weak.

Bai Wuya laughed and stared at Qin Wentian. These hundreds of years were like oceans turning into mulberry fields. He had cultivated for many years and believed that he had witnessed many storms before. However, on Qin Wentian, he saw a miracle that caused his heart to be unable to remain calm.

He was the one who watched as Qin Wentian grew up. Back then when he was a spectator for the test Eastern Sage held in Qin Wentian’s particle world, he had already paid attention to Qin Wentian. From there, he inducted Qin Wentian into the Heavenly Talisman Realm. At that time, how weak was Qin Wentian? He was merely at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm and was just a junior with potential and talent. He really took good care of Qin Wentian but who would have thought that right now, Qin Wentian became someone he could only look up to. Qin Wentian joined forces to wipe out three empyreans from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, this was simply unimaginable.

These two people were both participants at the test Eastern Sage organized in their particle world.

If Eastern Sage could see the battle today, one could only wonder what emotions he would feel in his heart. Two such supreme characters but he had missed out on them both, choosing to select the descendent of an immortal king as his disciple instead. His judgement was truly bad.

What sort of characters were ancient emperors, it was tough for even one to appear even if multiple tens of thousands of years have passed. Eastern Sage met two of them before they bloomed and even had the chance to take them as disciples. As long as he said a single sentence, they would take him as their master. Sadly, he missed out on such an opportunity.

“Mengchen, senior brother!” Qin Wentian smiled when he looked at the two of them. “I made you guys wait for me for such a long time. It has been tough on all of you.”

“What are you talking about?” The old man who inducted Jun Mengchen walked over and spoke. “Back then when we decided to walk on this path, we originally already believed that we wouldn’t have an opportunity to be freed. Who would have thought that this world would soon belong to the two of you. Bai Wuya, the junior apprentice brother you inducted is much stronger than mine. Jun Mengchen, you better work hard.”

Jun Mengchen shook his head and laughed, “I naturally can’t be compared to senior brother. But I’m not weak okay?”

“Oh? What if you compare yourself to him?” Bai Wuya asked, turning his glance to Hua Taixu. Jun Mengchen felt black lines all over his face. “How would I know that I would be acquainted with these two monsters?”

Jun Mengchen felt somewhat depressed. It’s true that he had outstanding talent and had never suffered such setbacks before.

Staring at Jun Mengchen’s expression, everyone laughed. The atmosphere was now exceptionally relaxed. Now that Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya were saved, the matter of the Heavenly Talisman Realm was settled. As for the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Qin Wentian didn’t have any plans to make a move against it. After all, this place was also once his home. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord had shown him kindness many times before, he couldn’t be so cold and ruthless.

Turning his gaze over, Qin Wentian stared at the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Right now, the changes to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect were exceedingly great when compared to the past. Some things remained the same but the people here have changed. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord walked over, moving in front of Qin Wentian as he spoke, “Wentian, I’ve let Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya down.”

Qin Wentian looked at the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, but before he could say anything, Bai Wuya already replied, “Emperor Lord, this has nothing to do with you. You didn’t have any authority to choose at all or you would join us in the prison. Other than that, there’s no meaning to it at all.”

Bai Wuya was clear on matters of grudges and gratitude. The empyreans from the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the upper world descended. These people were all ancient emperors. Although the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was the leader of the sect, he basically didn’t have any authority to make any decisions at all. Everything was decided by the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Back then, the Heavenly Talisman Realm came into contact with the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and aided him in establishing the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, defeating the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. Most probably, ever since then, they were already prepared to move out, making the preparations to unify Azure Mystic. Sadly, they didn't expect the rules to change. After the ban was relaxed, many things that were out of their control happened.

"That's right. Emperor Lord, this matter has nothing to do with you nor the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Both my senior apprentice brothers made their choices and endured the consequences with me, how could we still implicate others? Senior brother Qin, let this matter come to an end here." Jun Mengchen tried to persuade Qin Wentian. He was worried that Qin Wentian might vent his anger on the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

"Mhm, don't worry I can fully understand." Qin Wentian nodded to the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. "Emperor Lord, do you have any plans in the future?"

"Me?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord glanced at the sect he established, feeling extremely complicated in his heart. Although the empyreans were killed by Qin Wentian, there were undoubtedly more empyreans from the upper world that would be coming down. Who didn't want status and fame? Many people desired to unify Azure Mystic under their name and all of them were core characters of the Heavenly Talisman Realm that were stronger than him. Even if a few empyreans were killed, he still wouldn't be the one in control of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

The current Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was already different from the past. It was now fully controlled by the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

"I'm prepared to roam the world and will be focusing on my cultivation. I might head to the City of Ancient Emperors and see if there's a chance to improve my cultivation base." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord smiled, prepared to give everything here up. Back then, he only returned because he had a grudge with the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. He wanted to prove himself. Now, everything has already concluded. He wanted to truly focus on seeking the martial path.

"Mhm," Qin Wentian nodded. He then glanced at the Taishan Immortal King, Tuoba Saintsky and the others, and Zi Qingxuan. He smiled at her and nodded, transmitting his voice to her, "Qingxuan, if you are willing to, you are welcome to come to the Evergreen Immortal Empire to cultivate."

Each to their own, Qin Wentian wouldn't decide the path others wanted to walk. After this matter was concluded, he will naturally bring Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya away. But for the others, they can choose to walk their own path. In any case, they were all friends in the past, he naturally wouldn't vent his anger on so many of his old friends in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect just because of the orders sent down by the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

“Emperor Lord, this is a messaging crystal. In the future if you need anything, you can use it to contact me directly.” Qin Wentian and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord exchanged strands of immortal senses, leaving an imprint behind in each other’s crystals. No matter what choice the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord chooses, Qin Wentian wouldn’t forget the gratitude he had towards him. If the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord encountered any difficulty or danger, he would help out for sure. Naturally, this was also warning the people from the Heavenly Talisman Realm not to do anything against the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. He was sure that since he had expressed his attitude, nobody would dare to try anything funny.

“Mhm, I’m waiting for you to become the overlord of Azure Mystic.” The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed. This young man has soared up to the sky and was now at the peak of this world, becoming an ancient emperor character, leaving his name behind in history.

“I will.” Qin Wentian smiled. “I’m leaving first.”

After speaking, he brought Jun Mengchen and the others together with him, directly using the spatial path leading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm as it would hasten their journey.

Not too long after, they returned back to the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Upon seeing the reconstructed majestic imperial palace, Jun Mengchen felt many emotions coursing through his heart. It felt like it had been a lifetime ago since he last saw this.

“Qin Wentian, Jun Mengchen, I will bid my farewell here.” Hua Taixu turned to them and spoke. Qin Wentian started, “You are leaving so soon?”

“Mhm, the matters of Azure Mystic have concluded. I will head to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and I believe that we will still have opportunities to meet in the future.” Hua Taixu glanced at Qin Wentian as he spoke.

“You are always like this.” Qin Wentian laughed. “Alright, see you then. Let’s meet again in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.”

“I’ll wait for you at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” A rarely-seen smile appeared on Hua Taixu’s face. After that, he turned around and departed, incomparably carefreely. That calm tone of his contained an immense towering self-confidence. If it was others saying this, maybe Qin Wentian would feel that that person was too arrogant. However, when Hua Taixu said this, it actually gave off a feeling that it should be so by rights.

“The peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?” Qin Wentian stared at the vanished silhouette of Hua Taixu as he smiled, “Let’s hope to meet again at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms then.”

“That fellow is growing more and more mysterious.” Jun Mengchen mumbled. He naturally was filled with gratitude towards Hua Taixu. That fellow didn’t like to express himself and adhered to very strong principles when doing things, but nobody knew what he was thinking in his heart and nobody knew what he was going to do. But even so, the friendship between them couldn’t be denied, he was willing to fight alongside with Qin Wentian, heading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm and Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect with no hesitation at all. After the prisoners were rescued, he directly departed, not saying much more.

“Yea.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“Senior brother, right now how’s the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I really want to go there and take a look.” Jun Mengchen excitedly spoke.

“Very strong. Right now, I’m located in the Lifelong Realm of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There are a total of nine world palaces in the Lifelong Realm and I’m one of the world palace lords. Just the strength of my world palace there alone isn’t something the powers of Azure Mystic can contend against. You can very well imagine how strong it is. Right now, the ban on Azure Mystic has been relaxed but luckily, only empyrean-level characters can enter, world overlords are still banned. If not, I really don’t know what the consequences would be.” Qin Wentian slowly explained. Jun Mengchen had a look of intense anticipation on his face.

“Seems like there’s no more meaning to stay in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. I’m prepared to go with you, senior brother, to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Why do you still want to remain here? Things are extremely boring now.” Jun Mengchen was as blunt as ever, speaking his mind out.

“No matter what, Azure Mystic is ultimately our home. There are too much implications. I hope that before I leave, I can unify Azure Mystic, providing deterrence for those from the upper world and give Azure Mystic an era of peace.” Qin Wentian slowly spoke. “As for the matters that would happen after I leave, no matter which path Azure Mystic takes, even if I want to interfere in them, I wouldn’t be able to do so.”

Just like what he has said back then, he wanted to unify the Azure Mystic not because of the status it would give him. At his current level, the fame of being the overlord of Azure Mystic no longer held any significant meaning.

The news of what happened in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect soon circulated around the world. After all, this incident concerns ancient emperor characters as well as the number one expert of the world, the Heaven Empyrean. How could it not cause a huge commotion?

The four ancient emperors of the Heavenly Talisman Realm were slaughtered within a day. The Heaven Empyrean and the Samsara Empyrean joined forces and invaded the Heavenly Talisman Realm before they rushed towards the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, killing all the empyreans and rescuing Bai Wuya and Jun Mengchen. For a period of time, the entire world was trembling from the commotion. Other than the number one expert, the Heaven Empyrean, Hua Taixu's name also circulated around the world.

The Samsara Empyrean, once known as the Samsara Emperor, rose to fame with shocking speed. Everyone in the world knew of him, he became someone of equal fame with the Heaven Empyrean!

Chapter 1700: Fighting the Jiang Clan

The empyreans of the Heaven Talisman Realm were all killed. The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect controlled by the Heaven Talisman Realm was instantly demoted back into a major power instead of a supreme power. They had no more empyreans left. Since this was so, it was impossible for them to unify Azure Mystic any longer. Those powers that had submitted to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect earlier all started to regret.

After their four empyreans were killed, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was knocked off their divine pedestal and even before the tripartite balance was formed for long, it already disintegrated. Right now, only two supreme powers remained to contend for supremacy of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms but many discussions sounded out saying the Heaven Empyrean, Qin Wentian, would be the eventual hegemon.

The vast majority of people felt that it wouldn't be too long before the Heaven Empyrean dominated the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. He would destroy the Jiang Clan and become the only supreme power remaining.

After several days, news circulated out that the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect had collapsed. A supreme power with four empyreans was knocked off their divine pedestal and became history. They themselves also understood that without any empyreans, let alone contending against Qin Wentian, even if Qin Wentian didn't participate, they also wouldn't be able to win against the forces under Qin Wentian.

After the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect collapsed, all its experts also dispersed. Those powers that submitted to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect all came to the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, wanting to submit to Qin Wentian. However, Qin Wentian rejected all of them.

Although he wanted to give an era of peace to Azure Mystic, he wasn't any saint that was extremely kind. When he contended against the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and Jiang Clan, all three sides were equal. Since these powers had chosen then to join the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, where was the logic that he would accept them once the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect collapsed? But naturally, he also wouldn't be cruel enough to kill these people but in any case, it was destined in the future that these powers would never be able to stand at the peak of Azure Mystic. If he became the ultimate hegemon of Azure Mystic, the control of Azure Mystic in the future would naturally be left in the hands of those powers who first chose to submit to him.

After the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, only the Jiang Clan remained. Back then in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Qin Wentian said that he wanted to kill Jiang Zihua but the empyreans of the Jiang Clan rejected it. Now that the empyreans of the Heavenly Talisman Realm were destroyed and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect had collapsed, would Qin Wentian spare the Jiang Clan?

Everyone in the immortal realms were waiting for the battle to decide the overlord of Azure Mystic to erupt.

Today, Qin Wentian sent his men to the Jiang Clan to transmit a message, telling the Jiang Clan to hand over Jiang Zihua and that the Jiang Clan must never interfere in matters of Azure Mystic again.

The Jiang Clan naturally rejected. They cursed at Qin Wentian's arrogance and hence, the relationship between both parties became one of increased mutual hostility and combat seemed likely to erupt at any moment. If the Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian and the Samsara Empyrean killed their way into the Jiang Clan, would the three empyreans of the Jiang Clan be able to stop them?

Today, the three empyreans of the Jiang Clan sent Qin Wentian a challenge letter. The challenge letter arrived at the Evergreen Immortal Empire's imperial palace and Qin Wentian directly accepted it, moving out straight after he read it, heading alone to the location of the arranged battle.

At the boundaries where the eastern and southern regions meet, there was a huge stretch of ocean there with many islands situated within the stretch.

At this moment, two empyreans of the Jiang Clan were sitting on one of the islands. They had their eyes closed but light from their laws faintly revolved around them as formless law ripples radiated forth, permeating the vast ocean. Finally, one of them opened his eyes, "He has arrived. However, Qin Wentian is alone, I didn't see Hua Taixu."

"Could he be hiding in the darkness?" Someone replied. After that, he took out a messaging crystal and selected a strand of immortal sense, transmitting the message.

"If he is, how can he hide his presence from us?" That person confidently spoke. The two of them nodded and an instant later, Qin Wentian could be seen soaring through the air, arriving at the air space above them.

"Why are there only two of you?" Qin Wentian stood in the air and stared at the two empyreans of the Jiang Clan. The one of the left replied, "Qin Wentian, your actions in Azure Mystic are too arrogant. Even if you are the number one expert of Azure Mystic, you won't be able to escape the fate of dying young."

"The Heavenly Talisman Realm has already collapsed due to me. Where does your confidence come from?" Qin Wentian asked.

"The Heavenly Talisman Realm is merely the lord of a realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. How can he be compared to us, the Ancient Jiang Clan that had inheritances from countless years ago? In the lower world, you can still flaunt your might, but if this place was the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, my Jiang Clan can crush you just like crushing an ant. Qin Wentian, let me give you a final warning. Don't try to be an ant trying to shake a tree. For some people, you won't be able to afford antagonizing them." The empyrean from the Jiang Clan spoke.

"I don't know about the matters in Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. But in this place, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, I'm sure I can afford to antagonize your Jiang Clan." Qin Wentian spoke as a terrifying aura permeated the area. He couldn't be bothered to waste time talking. Since the Jiang Clan challenged him, let's fight then.

The eyes of the two empyreans from the Jiang Clan flashed golden and emitted sharpness. Golden buddhic light covered them, becoming an armor, exuding imposingness.

“Disable!” One of them roared. This was a buddha-path secret art known as the Immobile Art. Qin Wentian only felt terrifying surges of buddha laws source origin converging into an ancient rune that imprinted itself into his body. In the next moment, he felt his body turning stiff as his mobility was disabled.

The other empyrean stepped out, directly soaring through the air, arriving before Qin Wentian. His palm blasted forth, manifesting countless numbers of indestructible weapons that could slice apart the void. When they slashed at Qin Wentian, they directly cut into his flesh, entering his body.

The reason why the two of them were so confident was also because they had great strength. Upon joining forces, ordinary empyreans would surely be defeated and killed by a single strike from them.

However, how could Qin Wentian be an ordinary empyrean? When the attacks cut into his flesh, another body came out from his original body. There were now two Qin Wentians in the air. It was like the molting of a cicada and in the next instant, the first body was destroyed while Qin Wentian flew higher up in the air with a surprised look on his face. The empyreans of the Jiang Clan were truly extraordinary. Luckily, the Qin Wentian now was extremely experienced and had cultivated many different methods.

In the air, terrifying spatial storms appeared while countless spatial gates manifested. The airspace above the ocean was incomparably resplendent with flashes of light.

One of the empyreans of the Jiang Clan folded incantation gestures. The Immobile Art Rune was powered by the Great Dao and emitted buddhic chants, imprinting itself into the countless spatial gates in the air, forcing them closed.

As for the other empyrean, he transformed into a golden ancient buddha, manifesting a dharma body. Buddhic light gleamed resplendently and lightning crackled around him. Each of his attacks contained the power of lightning and thunder as he joined his ally in crushing all the remaining spatial gates. After that, he directly lunged towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's silhouette kept flickering as he stepped in and out of the spatial gates he created. The mysterious Jiang Clan was proficient in buddha laws. Many in Azure Mystic guessed that they must have plenty of buddha-path inheritances and back then those years ago, Jiang Zihua even defeated Bujie's master before. Although the states of their hearts didn't mirror that of the buddha, there was no need to doubt their combat prowess, all of the Jiang Clan's members were extremely powerful.

"Qin Wentian, you won't be able to escape us." The empyrean that used the Immobile Art coldly spoke. At this moment, he also manifested a dharma body and the buddic energy both of them emitted caused numerous ancient buddhas to manifest in the air as they descended from the heavens. At this moment, this entire space was filled with the ancient buddhas. The pressure they exuded caused terrifying rumbling sounds as the ocean below churned wildly, it seemed that the Jiang Clan's empyreans wanted to seal away everything here with their buddha arts.

Qin Wentian's flickering silhouette continued retreating. After that, explosive rumblings rang out as the ancient buddhas rushed at him. The Jiang Clan's empyrean also continued to use his Immobile Art, wanting to disable Qin Wentian's movements. Such power was too terrifying, capable of shaking the heavens. The unaffiliated cultivators cultivating on this stretch of ocean were all startled away by the sounds of this battle. When they saw the numerous buddhas filling the air, all of them felt a sense of disbelief as they continued to watch in a dumbfounded manner.

Such endless uninterrupted attacks made Qin Wentian felt extremely troublesome. After evading another wave of attacks, a giant palm imprint imbued with the immobile rune actually blasted his way, generating fearsome wind force from the power of that strike. It seemed that the Jiang Clan's empyrean had predicted where he was going to appear next and had attacked that position in advance.

Clearly, just defending alone wasn't a good strategy.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's body turned a shade of inky-black. Devil clouds suddenly covered the sky as a fearsome ancient supreme devil lord appeared before him.

When the palm imprint closed in, Qin Wentian's dark eyes gleamed with devil light. Immense amounts of devil might flooded the area, directly corroding the buddhic light.

"RETURN!" He coldly roared, the supreme devil lord expanded in size and stood tall, peering down with arrogance at everything under the heavens, as it slowly fused with Qin Wentian. Its head reached the sky, its foot stepped into the ocean, it was like this devil lord was the hegemon of this world and could control the heavens and earth. With a single roar from Qin Wentian, that Immobile Art Rune actually transformed into a devil rune after being coated with the immense devil might permeating the area. The palm imprint instantly turned around and blasted towards the two Jiang Clan's empyreans instead.

The inheritance of the Myriad Devil Island emphasized the laws of control. Back then at the immortal king realm, Qin Wentian could already defeat experts at the same realm using devil-path attacks on them. He could reverse their attacks and crush them effortlessly. All devil cultivators weren't able to last a single strike before him.

Right now, he had already entered the empyrean realm and had comprehended the source origins of devil laws. Only now could he truly unleash the full power of the inheritance.

The essence of the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance was the essence of control. All devils had to submit, the laws of heaven and earth are all for me to use.

Even the ancient buddhas summoned by the two Jiang Clan's empyreans began to corrode under the devil might. The inky-black light covered the golden buddhic light as the two intrinsic opposite-aligned powers clashed madly. But ultimately, the ancient buddhas were converted into ancient devil lords. From this, one could tell how tyrannical the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance is, it could truly ignore the laws of the world and use them according to the user's will. If this inheritance was cultivated to the peak, how terrifying would it be? Wouldn't it reach a state where as long as the user wants devil to exist, there wouldn't be any buddhas in the world?

And just as Qin Wentian was fighting against the two Jiang Clan's empyreans, in the location of the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, two terrifying auras appeared. At this moment, two figures could be seen in the air. One of them was the third empyrean from the Jiang Clan and for the other figure, no one had seen him before but his aura was extremely fearsome. This man was an empyrean from the Ying Clan in the upper world and was here for revenge. A crazy killing intent could be seen flickering in his eyes!

Qin Wentian had destroyed the Ying Clan in the lower world. Since this is the case, he wanted Qin Wentian to suffer as he did. A debt of blood must be repaid by blood. He will annihilate the Evergreen Immortal Empire!
