Chapter 1741: Inquiries From All Locations

Qin Wentian stared at the crowd. He then waved his hands, “Everyone, you have leave to go. Make your preparations and come here again for my orders. After that, follow me to Lifelong City.”

“Yes, Palace Lord.” Everyone bowed and started to leave.

Naturally, Xu Li and the others who followed Qin Wentian to the lower world stayed behind. Mo Fei was here as well. Right now, Mo Fei was a protector of the Lifire Palace.

“Palace Lord, does the Lifelong Realmlord really intend to remove you from your position?” Mo Fei walked up and asked.

“If I tell you the matter is even more serious than that, what would you think?” Qin Wentian smiled and looked at Mo Fei.

Mo Fei didn’t know that Qin Wentian and Di Tian were the same person. In the past, they put all their bets on Di Tian and had a very good relationship with him.

“Protector Mo, you can retreat first.” Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly. He knew that Mo Fei would surely contact Di Tian.

After everyone left, Qin Wentian silently mused. For those people who directly left earlier, he can already change them all, replacing them with his own people. Di Tian would nurture another batch of experts and as for the many empyreans he brought with him, they would naturally have to follow him in the future.

“Over there at the Lifelong Saint Hall, they should receive the news that you are back soon.” Xu Li stated.

“Since I’ve already come back, the Realmlord wouldn’t have any more suspicions. Ye Qianyu would also naturally be safe. We shall wait for the Lifelong Banquet to commence.” Qin Wentian mumbled. After that, the Lifelong Realmlord did message Beiming Youhuang, asking her why she didn't directly head back to the Lifelong Sainthall. Beiming Youhuang replied saying because her father was in the Lifire Palace, she wish that the Realmlord would allow her to stay a few days here at the Lifire Palace together with him.

In the Lifelong Sainthall, the expression of the Lifelong Realmlord was extremely unsightly after he received Beiming Youhuang's reply. Right now, only his personal disciple the Skyair Palace Lord was beside him.

"Master, she refused to come?" The Skyair Palace Lord asked after he saw the expression of the Lifelong Realmlord turning dark.

"She is truly a slut. Seems like you are right. The two of them definitely have some illicit things going on. If you hadn't discovered this, my reputation would surely have been tarnished." The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke. Since Beiming Youhuang was staying at the Lifire Palace with Qin Wentian, his thoughts would naturally drift towards those shameless deeds.

"I also heard that Qin Wentian even brought his wives here and had also summoned the important personnel of his Lifire Palace telling them that Master was unhappy with him and might remove him from the Lifire Palace Lord's position. He wanted to know who his subordinates would side with." The Skyair Palace Lord laughed.

Qin Wentian was still in the dark and didn't know anything. How could there be such a simple punishment, removing his position as the Lifire Palace Lord? Wasn't his thinking too simple? He actually still dared to bring his wives and close friends to the Lifire Palace. This was simply courting death.

"He wants followers?" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly laughed. Did he take those monarchs and governors as fools? If he was unhappy with the Lifire Palace Lord, who would still dare to express that they were willing to follow Qin Wentian? Are they tired of living?

He, the Lifelong Realmlord, was then the master of the Lifelong Realm.

"How ridiculous, doesn't he know his own limits?" The Skyair Palace Lord mockingly spoke. "However, this disciple heard that Qin Wentian truly knows how to enjoy life. Not only is Ye Qianyu so beautiful, both his wives are also supreme beauties. They, in addition to Beiming Youhuang, all have flawless countenances. This Qin Wentian really knows how to enjoy life."

The eyes of the Lifelong Reamlord flickered with coldness when he heard that. Every time he heard Beiming Youhuang's name, he would feel extremely unhappy. This was simply a humiliation to him. She promised to be his woman yet still had such an ambiguous relationship with Qin Wentian. Where do they want him to put his face at?

This place was the Lifelong Realm, yet his subordinates actually dared to humiliate him like this.

“Why? Do you have some designs on them?” The Lifelong Reamlord stared at his disciple and smiled. “If you like them, how about master bestows them to you?”

“Your disciple don't really have such hobbies. It's just that Beiming Youhuang with her defiled body actually dared to lie to master. We have to punish her severely for this offense. As for those other women, we can slowly arrange to deal with them at our pleasure.” The Skyair Palace Lord sinisterly spoke. This pair of master and disciple were major characters of their respective regions yet they were here discussing such sordid things.

Just because the Lifelong Reamlord felt that he was humiliated and the Skyair Palace Lord naturally wished to take revenge, avenging his defeat to Qin Wentian in the ancient battlefield. He wasn't able to forget about that single sword strike which destroyed his pride.

“Let them enjoy themselves for a period of time first.” The Lifelong Reamlord wasn't in a rush. He could head over to the Lifire Palace and capture Qin Wentian now, but that would be beneath his dignity and status to do so. Once news of this matter spread out, his reputation might suffer and this was something he wouldn't stand for. Hence, he decided to wait for Qin Wentian to deliver himself to him at the Lifelong Banquet.

As for Beiming Youhuang, did she really think he would still announce the marriage? Simply ridiculous.

Qin Wentian didn't know what the Lifelong Reamlord was thinking about. He only inquired about Ye Qianyu's condition. Right now, the Lifelong Reamlord has only placed her under house arrest in the Lifelong Sainthall, not allowing her to leave but he didn't do anything else to her.

Today, Jialan Yuntian of the Jialan Clan came to look for Qin Wentian. Right now, there were many people of the Jialan Clan who had important positions in the Lifire Palace. Jialan Qiuyue also seriously reminded the Jialan Clan that they must form a good relationship with Qin Wentian no matter what. Hence, when Jialan Yuntian learned that something may have happened between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Reamlord, he personally paid a visit here together with Jialan Qiuyue.

Currently, Qin Wentian was clad in a simple white robe. Jialan Qiuyue glanced at that handsome figure as a look of complex emotions appeared in her eyes. She wouldn't be able to forget that moment when Di Tian removed his mask forever, her heart was filled with complete shock when she just learned of his true identity.

"Clan leader Jialan, what can I do for you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I heard that previously, Palace Lord has summoned the various governors and monarchs and said that the Realmlord is very unhappy with you and might remove Palace Lord's position?" Jialan Yuntian asked.

"Such an incident did happen." Qin Wentian nodded.

According to logic, if Qin Wentian was removed, the next in line to take over the Lifire Palace Lord's position should be Di Tian. However, Jialan Qiuyue knew that things wouldn't be so simple like what Qin Wentian has told everyone. Hence, she urged Jialan Yuntian to come here and meet with Qin Wentian.

"Palace Lord do you have a strategy?" Jialan Yuntian asked.

"What can I do?" Qin Wentian laughed. Jialan Yuntian stared at his eyes, filled with disbelief.

Back then, Qin Wentian and Di Tian joined forces, playing the previous Lifire Palace Lord around in their palms and eventually killing him before Qin Wentian ascended to his current position. How would he admit defeat so easily, allowing the Realmlord to take away his current position without a fight?

Regardless of his instincts or the reminders of Jialan Qiuyue, Qin Wentian was definitely not somebody so simple.

"Palace Lord, do you have anything you need my Jialan Clan to help you with?" Jialan Yuntian directly spoke after being silent for awhile. This caused Qin Wentian to look straight at him.

This time, his opponent was the Lifelong Realmlord. The Jialan Clan actually dared to choose sides now?

Although the Jialan Clan always wanted to become the palace lord of one of the nine world palaces, this was still something that was within the scope of their strength. However, the Lifelong Realmlord was the supreme ruler of this endless stretch of territories. He was an unrivalled existence. This was also why Qin Wentian had no intentions of pulling more people to his side. It was basically impossible to get anyone to join him.

Because, his enemy was the Lifelong Realmlord, the master of the Lifelong Realm.

“If I really gave a command, would the Jialan Clan dare to obey it?” Qin Wentian casually laughed, causing Jialan Yuntian’s heart to tremble. These words contained a hidden meaning within. It was as he had expected, this matter was definitely not so simple.

Maybe, what happened to the previous Lifire Palace Lord might very well happened again. A storm would arise but he still wasn’t able to tell the ending despite it looking like everything was already destined.

Back then, didn’t everyone also think that the Lifire Palace Lord would prevail for sure? But didn’t Qin Wentian end up killing him instead? Who would have guessed at such an ending?

The person sitting now on the Lifire Throne was none other than Qin Wentian.

“I don’t have enough authority to make a decision on this matter. I have to check with my father.” Jialan Yuntian spoke.

“Since this is the case, there’s no need for you, Jialan Clan Leader to say anything more.” Qin Wentian smiled. He then turned to Jialan Qiuyue, “Miss Qiuyue, are you well?”

Jialan Qiuyue cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian, “And if I say that I’m not?”

“If you are free, you can come to the Lifire Palace for a walk anytime you wish to.” Qin Wentian didn’t directly reply to her words. Jialan Qiuyue fell in love with Di Tian but he wasn’t able to accept her love. He also understood in his heart that his actions might have caused quite a number of girls to fall for him. But for some things, what should be severed, must be severed. Although doing so might make him seemed somewhat cruel and cold.

“Palace Lord.” Jialan Yuntian suddenly spoke. “Our Jialan Clan is a major clan. If you wish for all of us to rush to our death, this is something that is clearly impossible. But if Palace Lord truly has the ability to change the sky, our Jialan Clan is willing to follow you.”

Qin Wentian glanced at Jialan Yuntian. In truth, he was very clear that if the Lifelong Realmlord could dominate him completely, who would dare to stand by his side?

Jialan Yuntian was willing to follow him but the prerequisite was that he had to be strong enough to defeat the Lifelong Realmlord. In truth, such a declaration might as well not be said as this was common sense. It was like trying to decorate something that was already perfect.

After all, if he could really defeat the Lifelong Realmlord, who would dare to not follow him?

“I understand, you can leave first.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Jialan Yuntian bitterly smiled when he saw Qin Wentian’s attitude. He then stood up and bid his farewell.

After that, he brought Jialan Qiuyue with him as they departed. Qin Wentian continued sitting there, pondering over this matter. But at this moment, a voice suddenly rang out in his mind, “Qin Wentian, I heard that you offended the Lifelong Realmlord?”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian immediately took out his messaging crystal to reply.

“Will things be troublesome?” The other party asked.

“There might be an open conflict.” Qin Wentian replied, causing the other party to be shocked. The other party then replied, “Seems like you must have encountered good fortune in the lower world and have some degree of confidence. Do you want me to inform the saint lord?”

“Will Senior Yi be able to come?” Qin Wentian started as he asked. The person conversing with him was one of the Gemini Palace Lords.

“I don’t dare to guarantee it.” The other party replied.

“If Senior Yi can come, this junior will naturally be extremely grateful.” Qin Wentian replied. “However, it’s fine if he won’t be able to make it. I will do my best. Oh, by the way, I brought many members of the Battle Saint Tribe with me when I returned to the Lifire Palace. This time around after we head to Lifelong City, I'll let them meet with all of you."

The other party was stunned after they heard that. After that, he laughed, "Who would have thought that we would still be able to meet with the descendants of our tribe. Qin Wentian, thank you!"

Chapter 1742: Surging Undercurrents

The once-per-hundred years Lifelong Banquet was still the most magnificent and largest-scale event in the Lifelong Realm.

Inside Lifelong City, experts were as common as clouds. Experts from the minor and major powers through the Lifelong Realm would all gather here once every hundred years. For people of some status, they naturally wanted to come and broaden their horizons.

It was rumored that in the banquet a hundred years ago, Qin Wentian and Di Tian shook the Lifelong Realm with their names, shooting up into the skies after a battle. They then obtained the Realmlord's recognition and after that, these two joined forces and killed the Lifire Palace Lord. The ending was Qin Wentian became the new Lifire Palace Lord while Di Tian became the vice palace lord.

And now, both Qin Wentian and Di Tian had already broken through to the empyrean realm, they naturally no longer needed to contend against the other immortal emperors. They would send their subordinates to do battle instead. Nobody knew which characters would rise up to fame this time.

After all, at the grand banquet, they would have a chance to meet extremely famous characters. The legendary Lifelong Realmlord, the nine world palace lords, the number one Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, etc. Everyone was filled with anticipation, the peak powers of the Lifelong Sainthall's territories and the territories governed by the nine world palace lords would attend this for sure.

Everyone was waiting to attend the glorious grand banquet but the vast majority of them didn't sense the undercurrents brewing in the dark. A storm would definitely occur but at the very least, the situation was still very calm now. Only a minority of powers had managed to sense it.

For example, the Xuanyuan Clan, Jialan Clan, etc, as well as the Skyair Palace Lord and Gemini Palace Lords.

Qin Wentian led everyone from the Lifire Palace and had just arrived in Lifelong City. The Lifelong Sainthall naturally received news of his arrival. The Lifelong Realm Lord laughed coldly in his heart. As expected, Qin Wentian still had no idea what was going to happen and still voluntarily delivered himself here. He simply doesn't know what is death. Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang were in cahoots with each other and actually planned to trick him. This was simply a humiliation. He is going to make Qin Wentian lose all face at the Lifelong Banquet this time around.

Right now, Qin Wentian and his subordinates were temporarily staying in the Jialan Clan. Their arrival caused many people to pay a visit to the Jialan Clan because everyone still didn't know the current state of relationship between him and the Lifelong Realm Lord. With regards to Qin Wentian, the new Lifire Palace Lord, everyone felt that his future was boundlessly bright and they naturally wanted to maintain a good relationship with him. But of course, there were some people who already received the news. Quite some time ago, the Lifelong Sainthall already sent someone to fetch Ye Qianyu over. Although this seemed like an insignificant thing, if one thought about Ye Qianyu's identity, they would soon understand there was another meaning to this.

Don't forget that back then, Ye Qianyu was once imprisoned in the Lifelong Sainthall. Hence, some powers felt that something was unusual and they decided not to head to the Jialan Clan to pay their respects to the Lifire Palace Lord, choosing to maintain a distance. If not, if the Realm Lord was truly unhappy with Qin Wentian and knew that they had a close relationship with Qin Wentian, things would be extremely dire.

But at this moment, the Jialan Clan who had clearly deduced the truth, actually allowed Qin Wentian to stay in their clan's residence. This clearly showed that there was a profound meaning hidden in it.

Qin Wentian naturally understood this.

At this moment in the Jialan Clan, the core members of the clan, including Jialan Jiangshan and those present were seated in a great hall. Jialan Jiangshan tried two times to obtain the Lifire Palace Lord's position but both times ended up in failure. In truth, he did feel a heavy sense of defeat in his heart. That year when he saw Qin Wentian and Di Tian's strength, he could only sigh. The new replacing the old, he knew he was inferior.

After obtaining the news sent to him by Jialan Yuntian, he understood that another opportunity just presented itself before the Jialan Clan. It was just that the stakes this time was far larger. If he was the slightest bit careless, the entire Jialan Clan might end up being buried.

“Palace Lord Qin, let’s not beat around the bush. I’ve already forbidden outsiders from entering here. Palace Lord Qin, since you already know that the Lifelong Reamlord would target you, why did you still come back? Are you preparing to contend against him?” Jialan Jiangshan straightforwardly asked.

“You should know why I killed the previous Lifire Palace Lord, right? Now, the Reamlord has brought Ye Qianyu to the Lifelong Sainthall. I have no choice but to come.” Qin Wentian calmly replied, his words causing Jialan Jiangshan’s heart to be filled with shock. That was right, this scenario was similar to back then. But in the past, Qin Wentian’s opponent was the Lifire Palace Lord. This time around, the strength of his opponent was much stronger in comparison.

Because, his opponent was the Lifelong Reamlord.

“Does Palace Lord Qin have at least 50% confidence?” Jialan Jiangshan stared at Qin Wentian as he asked again.

“So what if I have, so what if I don’t?” Qin Wentian replied.

“If Palace Lord Qin has 50% confidence, my Jialan Clan is willing to give our all, sacrificing everything to follow Palace Lord Qin. If Palace Lord Qin doesn’t even have 50% confidence, my Jialan Clan will stand aside and observe everything neutrally, not participating in the Lifelong Banquet this time around.” Jialan Jiangshan spoke. Because, if he attended the banquet and the Lifelong Reamlord gave an order to seize Qin Wentian, the entire Lifelong Realm all needed to obey his order. How would dare not to obey? It was impossible even if he wished to remain neutral.

50% confidence was the Jialan Clan’s bottom line. If Qin Wentian had 50% confidence, he was willing to bet it all on him.

“Isn’t the Jialan Clan afraid that I will make use of you all again?” Qin Wentian spoke, clearly admitting to the fact that he made use of the Jialan Clan back then. Naturally, all of that was in the past. The Jialan Clan actually also understood this as well.

“This is different from that year. Back then, Palace Lord Qin already had hatred with my Jialan Clan due to the Jialan Monarch. But now, the Jialan Monarch has already died and the hatred has dissipated. Just like how Jialan Qiuyue trusts in Palace Lord Qin, I’m also willing to believe Palace Lord Qin one more time.” Jialan Jiangshan spoke.

“Even if I say that I have the confidence, what can the Jialan Clan do for me? You all have to understand that if I have the power to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord, I wouldn’t lack an empyrean-ranked power like the Jialan Clan.” Qin Wentian bluntly replied.

“Back then since I dared to contend for the Lifire Palace Lord’s position against the previous Lifire Palace Lord, this means that I still have some connections in the Lifelong Sainthall. In Lifelong City, many powers are familiar with each other and I might be able to influence some of them to stand on your side. But of course, the prerequisite is that you must display enough strength, allowing everyone to know that you are capable enough to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord. Also, I bet you don’t know this. The palace lord of the strongest world palace in the Lifelong Realm, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, his relationship with the Realmlord in actuality is an extremely bad one.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. There actually was such a matter?

“Since this is the case, why does the Realmlord still permit him to exist?” Qin Wentian spoke. From his current understanding of the Lifelong Realmlord, he knew that the Lifelong Realmlord wasn’t any magnanimous individual.

“This matter contains a secret, outsiders do not know of this and this would definitely be considered a scandal to the Realmlord if it was spread outside.” Jialan Jiangshan spoke. “Has Palace Lord Qin heard about the rumors saying that the Realmlord wanted to accept the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord as his disciple?”

“I’ve heard about it before.” Qin Wentian nodded his head.

“Haha, I believe Palace Lord Qin has heard about this but you wouldn’t know of the true story behind it. In the past, during the time when the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord was already a subordinate of the Lifelong Realmlord, he got acquainted with an extremely beautiful maiden with outstanding talent named Fairy Biyue. It’s said that her beauty was so great that the moon and flowers paled in comparison. Both of them were in love with each other however, the Lifelong Realmlord interfered in this, actually acting to seize that maiden, bringing her to the Lifelong Sainthall and even made her birth a child for him. He knows that the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord hated him very much, so he wanted to accept him as a disciple. But under such circumstances, how would the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord agree? It was because he disagreed that the Realmlord wanted to kill him. However, Fairy Biyue truly loved the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord. Why did she agreed to be together with the Lifelong Realmlord in the first place? It was precisely she didn’t want the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord to come to any harm.”

Jialan Jiangshan slowly continued, “The gist of the matter is as such. But I’m not too clear of the finer details. In any case, although the Desolate Heaven Palace is the number one strongest palace, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord has always kept a low profile and only rarely acts in the open. No one could touch his position but the moment he becomes a threat to the Realmlord, the Realmlord would surely not spare him. I’m guessing that given the personality of the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, he will definitely avenge this hatred. It’s just that he doesn’t have enough strength now and chose to lay low.”

After Qin Wentian heard that, he felt even more angry in his heart. This was like the same situation with Beiming Youhuang. Who would have thought that the Lifelong Realmlord already was guilty of this longer ago, he is simply despicable to the extreme. Just because he is the Lifelong Realmlord, he did whatever he wanted, treating the world as his. He even wants to snatch the women of his subordinates. What a shameless person.

“What are your intentions by saying this?” Qin Wentian asked.

“I can try to persuade the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord. If you can display enough strength to stand against the Lifelong Realmlord, he would side with you. At that time, it would surely cause huge waves to rise in the Lifelong Banquet. Even for the Lifelong Realmlord’s subordinates, they wouldn’t dare to act recklessly once the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord is involved. At that time, the pressure on you wouldn’t be that great as well.” Jialan Jiangshan spoke. Qin Wentian nodded. This was logical. But of course, the prerequisite was that he had to have enough strength to contend against the Realmlord. He had to display his strength at the Lifelong Banquet.

At this moment, someone suddenly walked over in a rush. Jialan Jiangshan frowned, “Didn’t I say that no one is to disturb us no matter the matter?”

That subordinate bowed, “Someone from the Xuanyuan Clan is here. That person says that he is here because he wishes to convey some words of the Xuanyuan Palace Lord and this is an extremely important matter. This is why I...”

“Xuanyuan Clan? What are they here for?” Jialan Jiangshan had a look of bewilderment on his face.

“They are here to look for me.” Qin Wentian laughed. Seems like Di Tian’s communication with the Xuanyuan Clan was effective. It was not too convenient for the Xuanyuan Palace Lord to come in person himself, hence he sent someone here to convey his words. One could only wonder what the message he wanted to convey was.

Jialan Jiangshan's eyes flashed, he cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian. Seems like Qin Wentian still had some cards in the dark.

"Let's meet that person then." Jialan Jiangshan stood up. He and Qin Wentian followed the subordinate and after some moments, they soon saw Xuanyuan Hao standing there. Back then when Di Tian first came here, Xuanyuan Hao was none other the one who wanted to seek a marriage proposal with Jialan Qiuyue.

"Palace Lord Qin." Xuanyuan Hao clasped his hands.

"After our meeting in Ancient Azure Mystic, I wonder what message does the Xuanyuan Palace Lord have for me?" Qin Wentian smiled and asked.

"Palace Lord asked me to pass on a message. The message is this 'During the Lifelong Banquet, I will observe the situation seriously.'" Xuanyuan Hao spoke. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Observe the situation seriously? Did this mean what he thought it meant?

"Just a single sentence?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Palace Lord just asked me to convey this single sentence over." Xuanyuan Hao bitterly smiled. In truth, he also had no idea what that meant.

"I understand." Qin Wentian calmly replied. Seems like the Xuanyuan Palace Lord was telling him that he would observe from the sidelines and wouldn't directly act to oppose him. Although he didn't promise that he would do anything for Qin Wentian, it was also an expression of good will of sorts. The Xuanyuan Palace Lord didn't wish to offend him.

Jialan Jiangshan's gaze flickered. Seems like there were surging undercurrents everywhere. Something major was probably going to happen at the Lifelong Banquet this time around!

Chapter 1743: Borrow Your Woman for a Dance

Outside the Lifelong Sainthall, a flight of stairs of ten thousand steps could be seen. On the top of the stairs, the statue of the Lifelong Realm Lord was being worshipped by countless people and had stood here for tens of thousands of years, like a symbol of eternity.

As the grand banquet commenced, the ten gigantic platforms were erected once more. The nine world palace lords also had their thrones prepared for them, with the training grounds in the center where the various talented immortal emperors could display their skill.

At this moment, countless people were gathered below the platforms, they came here precisely because they wanted to observe this grand event of the Lifelong Realm.

“I wonder which of the world palace lords would be the most outstanding one this year.” Someone glanced up at the nine thrones as that person commented.

“I heard that the Kanwater Palace Lord actually died while he went for a mission in the lower world. I wonder if there’s anyone who has already taken over the Kanwater Palace Lord’s position. There’s a high possibility that someone would be selected as the new Kanwater Palace Lord this banquet.”

“Seems like this is an opportunity to many of the major powers. Most probably, many empyreans wish to take over the Kanwater Palace Lord’s position.”

“In the previous grand banquet, two supreme characters appeared. Qin Wentian and Di Tian caused the Lifire Palace to enjoy glory that was long denied them, they were even more inspiring than the Desolate Heaven Palace then. Sadly, the previous Lifire Palace Lord wasn’t able to enjoy for long before he was pulled down from his position and killed by the two supreme geniuses. For this banquet, Qin Wentian and Di Tian would be here with identities as the main palace lord and vice palace lord of the Lifire Palace. I wonder if the Lifire Palace’s immortal emperors would be able to have a performance as outstanding as a hundred years ago.”

Many people were discussing. The date of the grand banquet finally arrived. Outside Lifelong City, the entire space was bustling and extremely lively. It was unknown how many experts had gathered here.

“The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord has arrived. This time around, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord is actually the first to arrive.” Someone revealed a startled expression, staring at a direction where a group of imposing experts could be seen walking over. These experts were all from the Desolate Heaven Palace. The man in the lead was none other than the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord. Beside him, the leaders of the various peak powers in his territories had come together with him as well.

After the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord arrived, he directly flew up to one of the nine platforms and sat on the treasured throne there. The other experts then went to find their own seats on the platforms.

“The Xuanyuan Palace has arrived too.” Many people stared in another direction. When the Xuanyuan Palace Lord arrived, he glanced at the imposing Desolate Heaven Palace Lord but he didn’t call out a greeting and directly sat down on the throne prepared for him.

After that, the Dragonsaddle Palace, Scarlet Origin Palace, Gengmetal Palace and Gemini Palace all arrived respectively. When the experts of each world palace arrived, they would undoubtedly cause a commotion and spark discussion among the crowd.

“The Lifire Palace is here.” At this moment, many figures appeared in the distance. Countless people stared in their direction, the focus of their gazes was on the white-robed young man in the lead. His simple clothing was unable to mask the light of glory exuding from him. His aura was extremely outstanding. Those who saw Qin Wentian a hundred years ago all silently mused that Qin Wentian has changed. His aura became even more transcendent. As the Lifire Palace Lord, he was also considered a major character of a region.

“So he is the Lifire Palace Lord?” Those who didn’t come for the previous banquet silently mused as they surveyed Qin Wentian, their hearts filled with curiosity. Qin Wentian was definitely considered a legendary character. In the past when he participated in the banquet, he shone so brightly with a cultivation base that was merely at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Tens of years later, he actually succeeded in replacing the previous Lifire Palace Lord and became the new one. This was simply a legend and his cultivation speed was truly terrifying to the extreme.

Although from the immortal emperor realm to comprehending source origins wasn’t really that strict on the timing requirement as the main point was one’s comprehension ability, it was still extremely difficult for most people. For some people, source origins of their respective laws might only take awhile to be comprehended. But for others, they might not be able to comprehend it even if they took forever.

Yet Qin Wentian managed to achieve this in a shockingly short period of time. He only used tens of years.

“The Skyair Palace Lord hasn’t arrived. The Kanwater Palace Lord won’t be able to come by in any case.” Many people silently mused. At this moment, on the top of the stairway, in the direction of the Lifelong Sainthall, two extremely beautiful fairy-like maidens appeared. They were still the same as the two maidens who appeared in the grand banquet before. Their beauty was unrivalled and their cultivation bases were also extremely high. All the palace lords respectively stood up and bowed in greeting, "We pay our respects to the two fairies."

Jialan Qiuyue was among the people from the Lifire Palace, she sat quite close to Qin Wentian. When she saw this scene, her gaze involuntarily flicked to Qin Wentian.

A hundred years ago, Di Tian was beside her. When Di Tian saw this scene back then, he said a sentence that she would forever be unable to forget.

Di Tian said that his women must definitely become someone like the two of them, lofty and high up, receiving respect from the multitude of his subjects.

The Qin Wentian now didn't bow. He calmly stared at the two fairies, his eyes had no hints of respect at all. His woman Ye Qianyu was still imprisoned in the Lifelong Sainthall. You want him to pay respect to the Lifelong Realmlord's women now? It was impossible.

The beautiful eyes of the two fairies gleamed with a resplendent light as they stared in the direction of the nine world palace lords. When their eyes swept through Qin Wentian, their gazes involuntarily stopped there. They could see that Qin Wentian was different from the other palace lords, there was no respect in his eyes or manner at all. In fact, his eyes even contained a penetrating might to them, as though he was judging them. This caused them to feel extremely uncomfortable. In any case, even if one left aside their high cultivation bases, just the fact that they were the Realmlord's women was enough for their statuses to be higher than the palace lords. How dare a new palace lord like Qin Wentian look at them like that?

However, Qin Wentian acted like he had no idea and continued looking at them in the same manner. Although he felt the gazes of the two maidens on him, he still continued to stare at them. This caused coldness to flicker in the eyes of the two women as they silently noted this down. Although Qin Wentian's talent was outstanding, he actually dared to act so impudently after becoming a palace lord?

The two women stood at the side. After that, from afar, the figure of the Lifelong Realmlord could be seen walking over. As the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord, the Skyair Palace Lord was walking together with him. This caused everyone to muse that as the personal disciple, the Skyair Palace Lord's status was definitely a trusted aide among trusted aides of the Lifelong Realmlord.

When the Lifelong Realmlord arrived, countless gazes turned to him as everyone held their breath in silence. Their eyes were filled with respect, staring at this lofty character.

This man, was none other than the master of the Lifelong Realm, a realm that spanned countless territories. He possessed boundless authority, this entire realm belonged to him.

To countless people, their hearts were only filled with worship and respect towards the Lifelong Realmlord.

Countless people bowed willingly, their respect was from the depths of their hearts. When Qin Wentian saw this, his heart trembled. Everyone in the world would always admire those standing at the peak. Only by possessing supreme strength would you have a supreme position, allowing you to look down on the world as the masses paid their respect to you. However, who would know what the Lifelong Realmlord's personality was like? Ordinary people would never be able to come in contact with him. They wouldn't have any direct connection with him either. To the people of the world. He was a character that lives only in the legends, an existence where no one could touch. He was the symbol of their faith, their god.

And today, what he wanted to do was to knock the Lifelong Realmlord who was the symbol of faith, this divinity of the Lifelong Realm, off his divine pedestal.

The Lifelong Realmlord waved his hands, listening to the greetings by everyone as well as the awe, respect and reverence in their eyes made him feel extremely satisfied. This was the feeling of power, this was also where the charm in absolute strength lies in.

Why did people of the world chase after strength?

Because, only if you are strong enough would you be able to obtain a supreme and lofty position, enjoying the worship and respect of those below you, controlling immense amount of authority, embracing the beauties in the world. This entire realm was his, as long as he wanted a woman, he could directly take her for himself.

The Lifelong Realmlord was a pragmatic individual. He enjoyed authority, status and loved to be worshiped by others. He was fond of the satisfaction of having such immense power.

However, when his gaze turned to the direction of the Lifire Palace, when he saw Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang who was seated beside Qin Wentian, the sense of satisfaction faded away, replaced instantly by humiliation. This was a black mark on his reputation. The lofty and supreme him was actually humiliated by the lies of his subordinates? This was something he could not accept.

In the Lifelong Realm, he was the emperor. Only he had the authority to humiliate others, no one else had the qualifications to do this to him.

“Sit.” The Lifelong Reamlord calmly spoke, he no longer gazed in Qin Wentian’s direction.

“Many thanks Reamlord.” Everyone bowed before they sat down. The Skyair Palace Lord also left the Reamlord’s side and went to the treasured thrones arranged for the respective palace lords.

“Another hundred years have passed. During these hundred years, I have to still thank everyone for helping me manage the territories of the nine world palaces.” The Lifelong Reamlord laughed. “Let the banquet commence.”

As the sound of his voice faded, the countless beautiful female servers of the Lifelong Sainthall stepped out and started to serve the dishes.

The scene was extremely harmonious and lively, things were as flourishing as those banquets in the past. There seemed to be no difference at all. Everyone naturally didn’t realize that the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord seemed to be much calmer than before. The Xuanyuan Palace Lord also didn’t say much, not even greeting the other palace lords.

“All of us has received kindness from Reamlord, it’s only natural that we would do our best to manage the territories on behalf of Master.” The Skyair Palace Lord was still the first one to speak as was before. Everyone responded in agreement, the Lifelong Reamlord smiled and nodded his head. “A hundred years ago, the dances by the Red Dust Immortal Palace were so beautiful that even empires would topple. I wonder if everyone still remembered the mesmerizing dancer those years ago?”

As the sound of his voice faded, those who knew of some things, felt their hearts shudder. Those who didn’t know anything were bewildered as they glanced left and right. The mesmerizing dancer from a hundred years ago? Who was she?

People started to whisper to each other in discussion and soon after, many people recalled that the identity of the most outstanding dancer in the grand banquet a hundred years ago. It was rumored that it was precisely because of her that the previous Lifire Palace Lord died.

Ye Qianyu was now the new Lifire Palace Lord's woman. When Qin Wentian first became the Lifire Palace Lord, the Realmlord freed Ye Qianyu and bestowed her to him.

And now, Ye Qianyu could be said to be the Palace Mistress of the Lifire Palace.

However, in such an occasion, the Lifelong Realmlord wanted Ye Qianyu to become a dancer?

What was the underlying meaning of this?

The hearts of many people trembled. Some experts of the major powers revealed sharpness in their gazes. It was rumored that the Realmlord wasn't very happy with Qin Wentian. Seems like the rumors were true.

"Everyone, all of you are right. This beautiful dancer is none other than the woman the Lifire Palace Lord is in love with. Back then because he liked her, I bestowed her to him." The Lifelong Realmlord continued to smile. "Speaking of which, I also feel somewhat reluctant. Her dance is simply too mesmerizing, causing me to sink in admiration. Those years ago, I would often ask her to dance alone for me to watch, helping me to relieve my boredom. If it wasn't because Palace Lord Qin is in love with her, I would surely have been unwilling to give her over."

"This is Master's conferring a reward to Palace Lord Qin, Palace Lord Qin will naturally note this down with gratitude in his heart." The Skyair Palace Lord laughed. Many people had strange expressions on their faces. There was no doubt that this did sound like a kindness from the Lifelong Realmlord to Qin Wentian. But saying this information out in public now was like the Lifelong Realmlord completely didn't want to give Qin Wentian any face. It can be said that he was trampling on the Lifire Palace Lord's pride.

"Palace Lord Qin. Today, this seat is prepared to borrow Ye Qianyu, asking her to dance her mesmerizing dance for the enjoyment of all. It's okay with you, right?" The Lifelong Realmlord smiled as he asked!

Chapter 1744: Do you even know shame?

The Lifelong Realmlord smiled and glanced at Qin Wentian. It wasn't that he was really looking for Qin Wentian's opinion. He was naturally intentionally doing this because he wanted to humiliate Qin Wentian.

He then turned his gaze to everyone and continued to laugh, "Such a magnificent scene can only be found in this grand banquet. How does everyone feel about that?"

"The Realmlord's grace is boundless. It's truly a rare opportunity being able to witness Palace Lord Qin's lover as a dancer." The Dragonsaddle Palace Lord laughed.

"I do miss that dance a hundred years ago." The Skyair Palace Lord spoke. He naturally had to support his Master and he was waiting for today before he made a move against Qin Wentian because he wanted to publicly humiliate him.

After all, it was very hard to suppress the breath of resentment caused by the humiliation his master went through.

After that, many other powers also laughed and started discussing as though they were speaking of an ordinary dancer and not Qin Wentian's woman.

Many people glanced at the Lifire Palace Lord, wondering what his reaction would be. However, many of these people were disappointed. Qin Wentian had no reaction, merely calmly observing everything. However, how could they know that the killing intent in Qin Wentian's heart for the Lifelong Reamlord and Skyair Palace Lord had already risen to the peak.

He didn't say anything. Right now, Ye Qianyu was still in the Lifelong Sainthall. He wanted to see her first.

The Lifelong Realmlord gave a command to one of his subordinates, telling him to fetch Ye Qianyu over. Everyone continued to enjoy the banquet, the atmosphere was extremely lively.

"Palace Lord Qin, that dancer is truly charm incarnate. In the Lifire Palace, you must have definitely admired her dance frequently, right? How envious I'm of you." A person from the Sword Spirit Sect laughed and stared at Qin Wentian.

A hundred years ago, there was already conflict between Qin Wentian and the Sword Spirit Sect. He challenged Xiao Yu of the Sword Spirit Sect back then, using the Sword Spirit Sect as a stepping stone to gain fame. After that, because of the matter with Beauty Xiao, he offended the Sword Spirit Sect once again. No wonder the Sword Spirit Sect wanted to humiliate him given the current situation.

Qin Wentian calmly turned his gaze at the person of the Sword Spirit Sect who spoke. The calmness in his gaze was somewhat unnerving, causing everyone to feel a chill down their backs. But that expert laughed even louder when he saw Qin Wentian's gaze. He then continued, "If there's an opportunity, I also want to admire the dancer alone for myself."

Anger? Rage?

So what? Who cares about Qin Wentian's emotions. The rumors of the Realmlord being unhappy with Qin Wentian could now be verified. Most probably, Qin Wentian's ending wouldn't be too good. At this moment, it was time to whack the one who had fallen from grace. Who told Qin Wentian to be so arrogant back then, not wanting to give face to their Sword Spirit Sect?

Not long after, Ye Qianyu was brought here. She was as mesmerizing as ever, exuding boundless charm. Her long skirt fluttered in the wind, just a glance at her would cause the blood of every man to burn hotly, let alone her dancing that mesmerizing dance. Many people were filled with anticipation, wanting to watch it.

"Ye Qianyu, carry on." The Realmlord calmly spoke. Ye Qianyu's elegant figure slowly walked forth. Her beautiful eyes glanced in the direction of Qin Wentian. When she arrived at the center of the platform, the Skyair Palace Lord laughed loudly, "No wonder Palace Lord Qin would be so mesmerized by this dancer. The charm she exuded a hundred years ago is even more prevalent now, a truly excellent creature of the world. Palace Lord Qin must have enjoyed himself a lot, right? However, Palace Lord Qin, you must not forget the kindness Master has bestowed on you. This dancer is someone my Master gave to you as a reward. In the future, remember to bring her over more often to the Lifelong Sainthall so she can dance for my Master to admire."

"Before she starts dancing, I wish to ask her a few things." Qin Wentian suddenly spoke out. He then turned to Ye Qianyu, "Qianyu, come over first."

"Mhm," Ye Qianyu smiled. Her beautiful figure flashed, arriving beside Qin Wentian. This caused the Lifelong Realmlord and Skyair Palace Lord to furrowed their brows but they didn't stop her. They wanted to wait and see how Qin Wentian would disobey the Realmlord's order before they used it as an excuse to finish him.

"Qianyu, wait at the side for now." Qin Wentian nodded to her. Ye Qianyu smiled again and walked behind him as though nothing was going on. Previously, she has already received Qin Wentian's voice transmission. Today, her man was going to fall out with the Lifelong Realmlord. Although she didn't know how Qin Wentian was capable of this, but since he said he was going to do it, he would naturally have enough confidence in himself.

“Qin Wentian, what do you mean by this?” The Skyair Palace Lord shouted. “Master is still waiting for this dancer to show us her dance. Are you disobeying master's order?”

“Who the hell do you think you are? Are you even qualified to speak to me in this manner?” Qin Wentian turned his gaze to the Skyair Palace Lord. In an instant, those people who lifted their wine cups all froze, their hands suspended in the air because of this sudden outburst of domineering words.

Qin Wentian actually directly berated the Skyair Palace Lord in public, asking who the hell did he think he was?

Although he was now the new Lifire Palace Lord, the Skyair Palace Lord was after all one of the strongest three palace lords among the nine world palaces. In addition, he was also the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord with status equivalent to the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord. Yet, Qin Wentian dared to act so brazenly?

In an instant, countless gazes focused on Qin Wentian. His words were like a bolt of thunder, heralding the arrival of the storm.

The Skyair Palace Lord started. After that, his expression turned extremely ugly. Qin Wentian actually wanted to humiliate him in public.

Very well, even if previously, they could find no excuses for them to deal with Qin Wentian today, Qin Wentian had already voluntarily leapt out to court death. Although he knew that his master would surely force Qin Wentian, he didn't expect Qin Wentian couldn't endure it just after awhile.

“Palace Lord Qin, do you know what you are doing?” The Skyair Palace Lord coldly asked.

“Back then in the lower world, you were also as arrogant and brazen towards this seat as you are now. Yet, what was the result? You were almost killed by a single sword strike by me, you can't even fend off one of my attacks and I had to show mercy. If you weren't the personal disciple of the Realmlord, I would have already killed you then. Do you think you could survive till now to speak to me like this? Trash, how dare you bark at this seat with your puny strength. As one of the world palace lords, do still want your face?”

Qin Wentian coldly spoke, directly revealing the truth of what happened then, mercilessly shaming and humiliating the Skyair Palace Lord.

This old matter wasn't anything worthy of boasting to Qin Wentian. He also couldn't be bothered to mention it. However, this Skyair Palace Lord truly didn't know what was shame. Since he was asking for it, he would let the Skyair Palace Lord understand what shame is.

As expected, as this sentence rang out, countless people felt incredibly shocked as they mumbled to each other. Numerous gazes turned from Qin Wentian to the Skyair Palace Lord.

Such a battle actually erupted between the two of them before? As the personal disciple of the Lifelong Reamlord, the Skyair Palace Lord couldn't even fend off a single one of Qin Wentian's sword strikes?

Even the Lifelong Reamlord was frowning as he stared at the Skyair Palace Lord. At that time, this wasn't what the Skyair Palace Lord told him.

Upon feeling the gazes of the Reamlord and countless people, the expression of the Skyair Palace Lord instantly turned ashen. After that, his countenance became malevolent, he stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "Impudent, how dare you speak nonsense here to ruin my reputation!"

Denial?

Qin Wentian stared at him and coldly laughed, "Seems like you really did not mention this to the Reamlord. Since you said that this seat is talking nonsense, why don't I challenge you right now before the eyes of everyone and the Reamlord? If you can fend off a single one of my attacks, it shall be considered my loss. I will apologize to you in public. But if you cannot, my sword attack won't be like that of the past. There shall be no mercy shown. I will crush the shameless you underneath my might, I won't allow you to continue to sully the reputation of the Reamlord."

The Skyair Palace Lord's countenance contorted yet he didn't dare to accept the challenge. Clearly, he felt trepidation in his heart. Upon seeing this scene, how could everyone else still not understand? Qin Wentian's words were actually real.

"What a terrifying Lifire Palace Lord." Many people silently mused. A hundred years ago, Qin Wentian was still an immortal emperor, and fought on the platform against experts from the other world palaces. At that time, he was just an insignificant character to the Skyair Palace Lord. But now, after a mere hundred years, he actually reached a level where he dared to berate the Skyair Palace Lord in public. Also, he had once defeated the Skyair Palace Lord with a single strike. How terrifying was his strength?

The expressions of those from the Sword Spirit Sect also grew ugly. Qin Wentian had actually become so strong. If this person wasn't eliminated, it would be future trouble for them. Luckily, the Realmlord was preparing to act against Qin Wentian today.

As expected, the Lifelong Realmlord was extremely unhappy now. The Skyair Palace Lord was humiliated like this by Qin Wentian in public and he even lost in a single strike. Wasn't this throwing his face?

Was this Qin Wentian's retaliation?

"Qin Wentian, we can speak of this later. I've already said earlier to allow everyone to enjoy the dance performed by Ye Qianyu first." The Lifelong Realmlord changed the topic. All other debts could wait for now.

"Reporting to Realmlord, it's imperative that I must speak of this now. I have something to report to Realmlord." Qin Wentian spoke and continued, "This has something to do with me and Beiming Youhuang."

"Mhm?" The eyes of the Lifelong Realmlord gleamed sharply. "What is it?"

He wanted to hear what Qin Wentian has to say.

"Actually, although I and Youhuang aren't really apprentice siblings under a master but we were once taught by a mysterious senior together before. We can be considered half-apprentice siblings. That year when we first came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, we encountered some troubles. At that time, my cultivation base was still low and in order to better roam the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Beiming Youhuang pretended to be my senior apprentice sister. From then on, the two of us maintained this identity to the rest of the world." Qin Wentian slowly spoke.

The Lifelong Realmlord naturally already knew about this. A sharp smile curled his lips. Was Qin Wentian trying to confess voluntarily so he could ask for forgiveness?

Qin Wentian was observing the Lifelong Reamlord too. When he saw his expression, Qin Wentian understood that the Reamlord already knew about this. No wonder he would take Ye Qianyu as a hostage.

“And?” The Lifelong Reamlord coldly spoke.

“Although we are not really apprentice siblings, we encountered many life-and-death situations in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and our relationship is even closer than normal apprentice siblings. That year after I killed the previous Lifire Palace Lord, and when Reamlord was considering how to deal with this matter, you told Youhuang that you can consider allowing me to become the Lifire Palace Lord but you also brought out the suggestion of her becoming your concubine at the same time. Because of me, Beiming Youhuang actually chose to sacrifice herself and promised you. I also know that Reamlord would announce this in the banquet today hence I have to say everything now. I only want to tell Reamlord that the wedding between you and Youhuang is impossible. I won’t allow her to sacrifice herself just to satiate your lust.”

Qin Wentian slowly spoke.

“RIDICULOUS!” The Skyair Palace Lord roared in anger, “An adulterous couple actually daring to humiliate my master. It is his glory and his kindness to her that my master wants to take her as a concubine. Who could have thought that you two scums are in cahoots, repaying my master’s kindness with enmity, even daring to tarnish his esteemed reputation. The two of you must be killed.”

“Glory? Kindness?” Qin Wentian coldly laughed. “The Reamlord has already lived for so long yet he is still so despicable and lecherous. The two of you, a pair of master and disciple, are truly similar indeed. Do you all even know shame?”

Qin Wentian’s words were like thunder from a clear sky!

Chapter 1745: To Stand Out

Qin Wentian’s voice wasn’t loud but each of his words were like thunder blasting into the hearts of everyone.

Today was the grand banquet only held once in a hundred years. Many people were able to see the Realmlord who was the symbol of their faith. This event held today, was the largest occasion in the entire Lifelong Realm.

However, during today where there's such a grand occasion, Qin Wentian who was a Palace Lord under the Lifelong Realmlord, had actually publicly insulted him by saying that despite living to such an age the Realmlord was still an extremely lecherous, despicable and completely shameless individual.

Insulting the Realmlord, no one dared to imagine that such a matter would occur. But right now, there was actually someone doing so, causing many to still be in a daze.

They came here to attend the banquet, they came here to see which supreme geniuses would appear this time around. Who would have thought that they would actually see a storm unfolding?

In the history of the Lifelong Realm, such a thing has never happened before. Let alone insulting the Realmlord in public, no one would even dare to do so. The Realmlord was a lofty existence, the master of the Lifelong Realm. Who would dare to show him disrespect?

Many people felt their hearts trembling, even the various palace lords didn't expect Qin Wentian to come on so ferociously. Qin Wentian's retaliation was so sharp and direct. Borrowing my woman for a dance? In that case, I shall insult you in public. You are a shameless and lecherous man.

Even the Sword Spirit Sect and the other peak powers were stunned. This fellow...was he courting death?

Countless gazes turned to the Lifelong Realmlord. They were speculating what the Lifelong Realmlord was currently thinking about now? Most probably, the killing intent in his heart should have towered up into the sky.

The Lifelong Realmlord continued to sit there, actually not saying anything. Even he himself was shocked by Qin Wentian's words. Who was he? He was the master of the Lifelong Realm. Never would he expect that Qin Wentian would dare to insult him in public. So what even if he used a thousand blades to pierce Qin Wentian now? His reputation was already damaged.

At this moment, he was pondering over how exactly he should handle Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian's women, and Qin Wentian's family. Many venomous methods of punishment instantly appeared in his mind. He wanted to make Qin Wentian regret ever living in this world.

The Skyair Palace Lord was enraged as well, the killing intent in his heart grew even stronger. Qin Wentian would die for sure today, no one would be able to save him. So what even if he really was World Overlord Yi's disciple? Daring to insult the Lifelong Realmlord, who was the same level as World Overlord Yi, even if the Lifelong Realmlord killed Qin Wentian, what could Yi say?

Qin Wentian would definitely die today. What they needed to do now was to cleanse the Realmlord's reputation. Everyone in the world was watching. The things that happened today would swiftly be circulated around the entire Lifelong Realm. If Qin Wentian's words were taken as the truth, the Lifelong Realmlord who is the symbol of faith, a supreme existence, would then have an ineradicable black spot on his reputation forever.

"Realmlord, your subordinate begs for a chance to act for you. I'll capture the Lifire Palace Lord and I shall kill him on behalf of you." The Dragonsaddle Palace Lord spoke.

"My Sword Spirit Sect is willing to be the one acting on behalf of Realmlord as well." The sect leader of the Sword Spirit Sect stood up and personally spoke.

"This subordinate also seeks Realmlord's approval for me to kill Qin Wentian, I shall capture all his subordinates." The Scarlet Origin Palace Lord also expressed his stance. After that, the experts from many powers stood up as righteous indignation fills their heart. It felt as though the one Qin Wentian was insulting wasn't the Lifelong Realmlord but was them instead.

At this moment, they naturally had to stand out to express their attitude, displaying their loyalty.

A huge clamor instantly rang out. But in the midst of this commotion, those who were more observant would discover that both the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord and the Xuanyuan Palace Lord, who were major characters, actually didn't express their stance or say anything. Naturally, they had no need to say anything because they would definitely stand by the Realmlord's side. They were just waiting for the Realmlord to give the order, right?

Only to see that at this moment, the Lifelong Realmlord lifted his hand. In an instant, all the clamor turned to silence. From this, one could see how imposing the Lifelong Realmlord was.

"Beiming Youhuang." The Lifelong Realmlord suddenly spoke, staring at Beiming Youhuang. "You are the most clear about what happened back then. I did indeed hesitate whether or not to give Qin Wentian the Lifire Palace Lord's position. In my perspective, there are still others worthy of a consideration. And as for me, it's because I admired you that I wished for you to become my woman. I did ask you for your opinion did I not? You didn't reject me then. How could I as the Lifelong Realmlord force myself onto a woman?"

"Also Qin Wentian, despite you killing the previous Lifire Palace Lord, I didn't hold it against you and even gave you the Lifire Palace Lord's position, freeing Ye Qianyu allowing her to reunite with you. However, I had no idea about your relationship with Beiming Youhuang. You guys could have told me then, how would I be calculative about such things? Why do you want to try and tarnish my reputation now?"

"Master, this adulterous couple definitely has something going on and even dared to hide this from Master. Most probably their aim was to get the Lifire Palace Lord's position. And now, when Beiming Youhuang saw the date of Master making the announcement was getting nearer, she suddenly regretted it, deciding to repay your kindness with enmity and even tried to tarnish Master's reputation. Master, you must not easily spare such despicable people." The Skyair Palace Lord coordinated beautifully and spoke out, the two of them echoing each other. It was like Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang were the despicable ones who repaid kindness with enmity.

"Fascinating." Qin Wentian praised. "The relationship between I and Youhuang is one that's filled with innocence. I, Qin Wentian, am an upright and frank man, how would I not dare to admit the identity of my own woman? Ye Qianyu is precisely my woman. It was only for the sake of her that I entered the Lifire Palace. The Realmlord should very well be aware of this point. Also, when I became the new Lifire Palace Lord, I announced the fact that she is my woman to the entire world. It's impossible for the Realmlord to not know of this, right? However, Realmlord actually imprisoned my woman in the Lifelong Sainthall. What's the purpose of doing this? Is this showing 'kindness' to me? The Realmlord claims my woman as a dancer, wanting her to perform before everyone else. The crowd responded with many lewd remarks as they stared at my woman with ill-concealed lust. Is this also considered a part of the Realmlord's 'kindness'?"

"Lifelong Realmlord, just the incident earlier is already sufficient to let everyone in the world know what sort of person you are. The two fairies beside you are extremely outstanding in terms of beauty, why don't you get them to dance so everyone here can admire them. How about it?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"You dare to be disrespectful to the two fairies?!" The Skyair Palace Lord angrily roared.

"I heard that the Lifelong Realmlord has a harem filled with beauties. So what even if two of them stepped out to perform a dance? Naturally, maybe these two were also forced to join his harem because of his threats. If this is the case, I, Qin, will apologize to the two fairies." Qin Wentian spoke. The Realmlord wanted to cleanse his reputation? Is it even possible?

The Lifelong Realmlord suddenly laughed. “This seat has lived for countless years. As the master of an entire realm, I’ve met countless beauties through the years. So what even if I have a harem full of beauties? There are countless women in the world who wish to become my woman. Do I even need to threaten them?”

“Today is the day of the grand banquet and it should initially be a very happy thing yet someone actually spoiled all the atmosphere. Is there anyone willing to help this seat to capture this rebellious man?” The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke.

“We are willing to aid Realmlord.” At this moment, experts from many major powers all stood up, expressing their willing attitudes. The Lifelong Realmlord continued sitting there. For such matters, there was basically no need for him to act, it would be a loss to his status. Given his status, he only needed to give a single command. He wanted to see why Qin Wentian dared to do this. Who was it that given him such courage.

In an instant, countless experts stepped out, surrounding the platform the people of the Lifire Palace was on. At this moment, the expression of countless people on the Lifire Platform changed, including many monarch and governor-level characters. There were also many experts from the peak powers in the Lifire Territories. Although they came here with Qin Wentian, they weren’t willing to stick together with him to face the Lifelong Realmlord’s wrath.

This Qin Wentian was probably 80% crazy and was courting death. They didn’t want to send themselves to death. Someone instantly spoke, “Although I’m a monarch of the Lifire Palace, I’m ultimately still Realmlord’s subordinate and would never dare to do such a rebellious act. I beg Realmlord for forgiveness.”

“Those who have nothing to do with this, just step out now. I won’t pursue it.” The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke. At this moment, he naturally wouldn’t be stingy, he would rather show off his magnanimous bearing.

In an instant, several monarchs stepped out. Those who went with Qin Wentian to the lower world all hesitated. They felt that Qin Wentian’s actions today were a little too crazy. Do they still want to stick with him and continued walking down this path?

Although they once silently vowed to themselves saying that they would follow Qin Wentian from now on, but in the times of life and death and with the Lifelong Realmlord as the opponent, they naturally had to be cautious.

Very swiftly, more people stepped out and moved away. Qin Wentian didn't stop them. The number of experts on the platform for the Lifire Palace continuously dwindled in number. It was then strange if they didn't make their escape now. They didn't wish to die together with Qin Wentian.

"Qin Wentian, just give yourself up." The Sword Spirit Sect's leader personally acted, the sword intent from him felt incomparably sharp. Qin Wentian saw experts from all areas surrounding him. He then calmly glanced at the other platforms. Even at this moment, the Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace and Jialan Clan didn't act.

Before Qin Wentian displayed enough strength to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord, they naturally wouldn't do anything. Even though they might support Qin Wentian in their hearts, they still needed Qin Wentian to be powerful enough or they would simply be sending themselves to death.

"You are truly foolish." Qin Wentian stared at the sect leader of the Sword Spirit Sect, his words causing the eyes of the sect leader to sharpen. His sword intent grew even stronger as ancient sword sages manifested around him, brimming with killing intent.

"Since I dare to come here today, my objective is clearly to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord. Why are you in such a rush to gain merit to flatter the Lifelong Realmlord? Could it be that you've never thought about the fact that what if I have the strength to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord? At that time, what ending would your Sword Spirit Sect face?" Qin Wentian's words caused the Sword Spirit Sect Leader's expression to change as unease appeared in his heart.

Could it be that Qin Wentian truly came here prepared? He had someone behind his back that could contend against the Lifelong Realmlord? He still didn't dare to think in the direction that Qin Wentian himself might already have enough strength to do so on his own.

"Just based on your words and agreeing with the Lifelong Realmlord earlier, speaking disrespectful words about my woman, the Sword Spirit Sect shall cease to exist today. Since you wish to stand out so much, I shall grant you your wish." As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, the white robes he wore fluttered. A bright light flashed, a beam of light directly blasted into the body of the Spirit Sword Sect's sect leader.

"ARGHH!" A voice filled with incomparable agony rang out. The crowd watched on, stunned. The body of the Spirit Sword Sect Leader was instantly riddled with countless holes as he disintegrated before their eyes.

At this moment, the sect leader's face was filled with boundless fear and panic. He stared in shock at Qin Wentian as endless regrets appeared in his heart.

From today onwards, the Sword Spirit Sect shall cease to exist in this world!

"No...!" The Sword Spirit Sect Leader howled. After that, his body slowly turned illusory and a few moments later, he directly transformed into dust which dissipated along with the wind!

Chapter 1746: Rebellion of the Four Palaces

Qin Wentian merely took a small step forward, but in an instant, those experts surrounding him were all frightened into retreating. Their faces were filled with terror as great waves of emotions rose in their hearts.

The Sword Spirit Sect Leader was an extremely powerful empyrean. However, just a beam of light shot out by Qin Wentian caused him to disintegrate completely. He couldn't resist at all.

Only at this moment did many people suddenly realize that when Qin Wentian insulted the Lifelong Realmlord, that wasn't him courting death. It was possible that he might have broken through to that legendary realm.

For the nine world palace lords, the empyreans of many peak powers felt their hearts trembling. How can this be possible?

In a mere hundred years, could he really have managed to do that? This was completely unprecedented.

Below, countless experts among the crowd were all in a daze, stunned by shock. Was this new Lifire Palace Lord going to change the sky?

He exuded boundless magnificence. Once, he rose up in this Lifelong Banquet and today, at the Lifelong Banquet, he actually was going to challenge the Lifelong Realmlord from the underlying meaning of his words earlier!

“Heavenheart Mandate.” At this moment, the Realm Lord who was seated on his throne calmly spoke. He stared at Qin Wentian. He truly didn’t expect this. Qin Wentian actually didn’t come here just to send himself to death, he came here fully prepared. When Qin Wentian insulted him earlier, he initially thought that there was someone backing Qin Wentian up.

The Lifelong Realm Lord was a world overlord existence, he clearly knew how difficult it was to enter this realm. The more he knew, the more he didn’t dare to think about it. Qin Wentian actually climbed from mid-stage immortal emperor to the world overlord realm in a mere hundred years? What concept was this?

When the crowd heard the words ‘Heavenheart Mandate,’ all the empyreans felt their hearts tremble. They naturally understood what the two words meant. Heavenheart Mandates were the sign of World Overlords.

Had Qin Wentian already become a World Overlord?

The expression of the Skyair Palace Lord was so contorted that it could no longer be described as ugly. He naturally didn’t expect, not even in his wildest dreams, that this was possible. Only now did he realize what Qin Wentian meant when he said that he had no qualifications to talk to him. The Skyair Palace Lord now truly had no rights to speak equally with Qin Wentian.

The people of the Jialan Clan felt their hearts trembling. Jialan Jiangshan was shuddering as well, the young are fearsome indeed. He suddenly felt that he had truly aged. Once, he saw Qin Wentian and Di Tian entering the Empyrean Realm together and killing the previous Lifire Palace Lord. And today, he saw Qin Wentian killing the Sword Spirit Sect Leader in a single strike from his comprehensions of his Heavenheart Mandate.

Jialan Yuntian, Jialan Yunhai, Jialan Qiuyue and the rest were all completely speechless as they stared at this young man in white.

Was this his confidence?

The eyes of the Xuanyuan Palace turned sharp. That year in the ancient battlefield, he had already experienced for himself Qin Wentian’s brilliance. But even so, this scene now was truly shocking. Seems like he must have encountered good fortune in the ancient battlefield and returned here prepared. Clearly, if Qin Wentian didn’t die, his future accomplishments would surely far surpass the Lifelong Realm Lord. If he had to choose someone to follow, he would rather choose Qin Wentian.

But even so, he was still hesitating. Should he stand out to declare his support? This naturally was a very good opportunity. If not, when the trend of the situation is clear, there would no longer be a meaning. This was definitely going to be a huge gamble. Qin Wentian transmitted a message to the Xuanyuan Clan, informing them to choose carefully. He decided to seriously observe and wouldn't make any reckless moves. However, the time to choose has now come.

Everyone had different thoughts in their mind. Nobody noticed the fear and regret in the heart of the experts from the Sword Spirit Sect. They had personally seen their sect leader being slayed. Right now, they could only hope that the Realmlord was able to kill Qin Wentian or their sect would truly be doomed.

“No wonder you dared to be so brazen. So it turned out that you do have some confidence. Are you trying to smear this seat's reputation so you can rally the others to rebel?” The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke. The him right now still didn't forget to try and cleanse his reputation.

“Lifelong Realmlord, your innate personality is a despicable man, why do you still refuse to admit it? Given someone of your disposition being able to sit so long on your throne, I wonder how many people have suffered grievances. Today, it's time for you to give your position up.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. However, his calm voice was like a thunderbolt.

Today, it's time for you to give your position up.

The Lifire Palace Lord Qin Wentian told the Lifelong Realmlord to step down, did he desire to replace him?

“What audacious words. Just because you've comprehended your Heavenheart Mandate and entered this realm, do you think you are strong enough to win against this seat? Just with the meager amount of subordinates you possess, are you intending to go against all the powers in my Lifelong Realm? Qin Wentian, your appetite is too big. Although your talent is high, you don't know how to keep a low profile, you shall be exterminated by the heavens.” The Lifelong Realmlord was as expected of someone of his status. Even now, his emotions didn't fluctuate too much. He gave off a feeling that he was as heavy and stable as a mountain.

“It's really about time for you to retire.” At this moment, a cold voice rang out. The eyes of the Lifelong Realmlord flashed with coldness, staring in a certain direction.

After everyone saw who it was that had spoken, all of them felt extremely astonished.

“The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord!” The spectators felt their hearts trembling. Today, they were here to attend the grand banquet. Who would have thought that a storm of such proportions would erupt.

The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord was the number one expert among the nine world palaces. Even he has chose to stand out now, speaking for Qin Wentian, saying that it's time for the Lifelong Realmlord to retire.

Out of the nine world palaces, two palace lords had rebelled. One was the legendary character Qin Wentian, his rise to fame was like the speed of a shooting star, unexcelled in the world. For the other person, it was actually the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, the number one expert in the nine world palaces.

“Huang Zhan, how dare you.” The Skyair Palace Lord coldly spoke. “My master gave you the position of a palace lord and even once wanted to take you as his disciple, treating you as one although you are not. You actually want to rebel now?”

“Treating me as a disciple?” The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord Huang Zhan coldly laughed. “I'm able to live till today because of the protection of a woman. Everyone if the realm thinks that I'm the strongest palace lord in the nine world palaces, but who among them would know that I'm nothing but a coward? I don't even dare to fight for the woman I love. Lifelong Realmlord, back then you seized the woman I loved and you have always been on your guard against me. Once I pose the slightest threat to you, I believe that my death date wouldn't be far off. Who would have thought that even after so many years have passed, you are still as shameless and despicable as ever, using the same methods to deal with others. Today, I'd rather be mocked by everyone in the world. Even if I died here today, I will reveal your true character. You are lowly and despicable, an extremely shameless individual.”

The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord Huang Zhan had endured this for a long time. Finally, there was someone who stood out to oppose the Lifelong Realmlord. He didn't want to endure any longer, he clearly knew that if he said such a thing out loud, his own reputation would be tarnished and he would even be mocked by everyone in the world for not having the guts to fight for his woman. However, he could no longer be careless. Even if the Lifelong Realmlord was the one victorious today, the black mark on his reputation would circulate through the entire Lifelong Realm. Unless of course, he killed everyone who came here to attend the grand banquet today. This was something clearly impossible.

Give the number of people here to attend the grand banquet, if he did so, the Lifelong Realm's strength would wane greatly and might even collapse.

Discussions rang out among the crowd again. The Lifelong Realmlord has actually seized the woman the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord loved before? This was simply...

In that case, was everything Qin Wentian has said real? The Lifelong Realmlord was actually such a despicable person?

At this moment, many people felt their faith crumbling as their vision of the world was flipped upside-down.

That was right, those supreme existences only existed in the legends. Others could only stare up at and couldn't come in contact with them. However, these legendary existences were also human. As long as they were human, they would definitely feel greed and desire.

The Lifelong Realmlord's weakness was lust. Hence, he was willing to use any sorts of despicable methods to achieve his aim. He felt that the entire Lifelong Realm was his, as long as he liked a woman, he would want to acquire them. Even if that person was his subordinates' women.

If this was true, it meant that Qin Wentian was truly forced to rebel by the Lifelong Realmlord. Just like what Qin Wentian had said, the Lifelong Realmlord imprisoned Ye Qianyu in the Lifelong Sainthall and wanted to borrow Ye Qianyu to dance to the crowd. Qin Wentian had no choice but to rebel.

"Seems like you guys have planned this for a long time, allying in the dark and will spare no expense to destroy this seat's reputation. If you all want my position, come and openly snatch it away. Why do you need to take all these measures?" The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke, as though the words of Qin Wentian and the Desolate Heaven Palace were just them trying to damage his reputation. He naturally wouldn't admit to this.

"Realmlord, there's no need for you to deny it any longer. Those of the older generations all know about this incident. Although you are a lofty individual, it's true that you have a despicable character. Why don't you give your position up?" At this moment, Jialan Jiangshan spoke out. Only now did everyone realize that the Jialan Clan didn't sit on the platform reserved for Lifelong City, they sat on the platform reserved for the Lifire Palace.

"Who else is going to join forces with Qin Wentian, you might as well all step out now. This seat doesn't mind a few more dancing clowns." The Lifelong Realmlord still suppressed his anger at this moment. From this, one could tell how terrifying his endurance was.

“Speaking of this, I also remembered some of the things that happened in the past.” The Gemini Palace Lord spoke out, staring at the Lifelong Realmlord. “Lifelong Realmlord, you should remember that back then, you had a very good relationship with my master, right? At that time, you were humble and polite, and extremely friendly to my master. You invited him to explore a secret realm. After experiencing many dangers together, you actually took the treasure alone and fled. My master saw your true colors and started to distance himself from you. You felt guilty, that’s why you brought out the suggestion for the two of us to take the Gemini Palace Lords position. However, how can this be compared to the treasure you took for yourself? That is an overlord-ranked divine weapon!”

The palace lords all stood out one by one. Earlier, those who knew nothing finally understood now. So it turned out that the master of the Gemini Palace Lords was also a world overlord, an existence on the same level as the Lifelong Realmlord. They couldn’t help but wonder if they heard of him before.

Seeing that the Desolate Heaven Palace and Gemini Palace both standing out, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord had a decision in his heart. The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord Huang Zhan was the strongest empyrean in the Lifelong Realm. The master of the Gemini Palace Lords was Yi. It was about time he made his decision. He knew that there was no way for him to remain neutral. If he didn’t stand on Qin Wentian’s side and if Qin Wentian was victorious in the end, their Xuanyuan Clan would be in dire straits. He had to make his choice now.

“This subordinate has followed Realmlord for many years. Our clan fought on behalf of you to help gain this empire. Although we have been following Realmlord’s orders for so many years, I still have to stand out to say something now. The words all the palace lords have spoken are true. Realmlord, it’s true that your cultivation base is high. It’s also true that your personality is not too good. Why don’t you take this chance to give up your position. You are no longer qualified to sit on the throne.”

The Xuanyuan Palace Lord had chosen to stand on Qin Wentian’s side.

Out of all the world palace lords, the Kanwater Palace Lord has already fallen. Only eight were left.

As for the remaining eight palace lords, there were a total of four who actually chose to rebel, wanting the Lifelong Realmlord to step down. These four are: The Desolate Heaven Palace, the Xuanyuan Palace, the Gemini Palace and the Lifire Palace!

The strength of these four palaces were only stronger compared to the other four, not weaker.

This once per hundred years grand banquet of the Lifelong Realm was truly going to be a shocking one!

Chapter 1747: Yi

The Desolate Heaven Palace is the number one palace out of the nine world palaces.

The Xuanyuan Palace is the earliest palace to follow the Realmlord. Then, including the Desolate Heaven Palace and the Skyair Palace were the strongest three out of all the world palace.

The Gemini Palace was also very powerful. Both their palace lords were not simple characters.

As for the Lifire Palace, it has already surpassed the Desolate Heaven Palace in truth because they had Qin Wentian. He alone was enough to stand above everyone.

Hence, the strength of these four world palaces had already far surpassed the Skyair Palace, Scarlet Origin Palace, Dragonsaddle Palace and Gengmetal Palace.

This meant that the number of subordinates who wanted to rebel was actually more and stronger compared to those who supported the Realmlord. Now that this shocking scene had occurred, everyone in the crowd was completely stunned. All of them stared up at the platforms from the ground.

At this moment, those who were waiting to see Qin Wentian make a fool out of himself, feeling that he was courting death, were now completely stupefied. Some felt that they weren't able to see the situation clearly. Why was this happening?

Before this, all of them thought Qin Wentian was here to send himself to death. But in the blink of an eye, there was actually so many people willing to support Qin Wentian. This caused those who mocked Ye Qianyu earlier to all be stunned and their hearts were filled with regret. If today, the Lifelong Realmlord was really replaced by Qin Wentian, they knew very well what their consequences would be. They silently cursed themselves for being stupid, following the crowd. The Lifelong Realmlord wouldn't look upon them highly for that and yet, they have offended Qin Wentian immensely.

Those monarchs and governors from the Lifire Palace who stepped out and went over to the other side because of a single sentence from the Lifelong Realmlord, were all completely stunned too.

What situation was this? There were actually three other world palaces supporting Qin Wentian. This was simply too crazy.

This scene caused them to feel that it was somewhat similar to the scene which happened in the Lifire Palace back then. If the same incidents that occurred then repeated in the Lifelong Realm now, what would their ending be like?

When they thought of this, their hearts began to fill with terror and panic. They were praying that the Lifelong Realmlord was able to kill Qin Wentian. If not, their own situations would be extremely dire.

“Very good.” The Lifelong Realmlord’s expression grew heavy. Four world palace lords including a peak power, the Jialan Clan had actually chosen to rebel. Out of the four palaces, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord actually chose to rebel too, this was truly unexpected.

Such power can be considered extremely immense. Also, the various palace lords stood out to say that his character was extremely despicable. This made the Lifelong Realmlord understand that his reputation was tarnished completely. It was impossible to cleanse it no matter what he did.

“This seat has always treated all of you very well. What conditions did he promise you exactly to make you guys betray me? Since this is the case, I will grant you your wishes. For all who participates in the rebellion today, the assets of their clan and other businesses under them shall all be confiscated. All of them shall be heavily punished. Since they dare to betray this seat, they best be prepared to pay the price.”

The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke. He stood up from his throne and in an instant, an extremely terrifying power enveloped this entire space. This was the power of a world heart, a heart’s domain. Everyone instantly felt that they were shifted into a special dimension. It was as though they could personally feel the Lifelong Realmlord’s anger. A terrifying fire burn in their hearts.

“It has been so long since we last met. Lifelong, you are still the same as ever, you are unable to control your expression once you are angered.” At this moment, a voice suddenly drifted over. The expression of the Lifelong Realmlord stiffened as he stared into the horizons. At this moment, his eyes became extremely sharp as he spoke. “So, an old friend has arrived. I was wondering why they would have such courage to rebel. So it was you controlling everything from the shadows. Do you want to seize my Lifelong Realm?”

“I’m not as infatuated with power as you might be. You should be the most clear about this. I’ve also never interfered before in the matters today. It’s just that I know about it. My disciples reported this incident to me, hence I rushed here to take a look.” The voice originated from the void. Countless people stared into the distance, exactly who was it who had arrived? This person actually could speak to the Lifelong Realmlord on equal grounds.

From the void, a figure slowly materialized. This man was dressed in simple robes and looked middle-aged. His entire person exuded an imposing air.

“We pay our respects to master.” The two palace lords of the Gemini Palace greeted. At this moment, quite a number of people already knew of this newcomer’s identity.

Yi, an expert at the world overlord realm. He was the Lifelong Realmlord’s friend those years ago.

“Ancient Emperor Yi.” Qin Wentian silently mused as he stared at the figure in the air. Although Yi had the appearance of a middle-aged man, he was still extremely good-looking and projected a heroic aura. When he was younger, Yi must have definitely been extremely handsome.

“Junior Qin Wentian pays my respects to Senior Yi.” Qin Wentian bowed low. His karma with Yi had began since a very long time ago. Right now, he finally met this legendary character, an ancient emperor existence back then, whose legends were being circulated around by people of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Yi cast a glance at Qin Wentian. His eyes that were like the starry skies, flashed with unmasked admiration. “Qin Wentian.”

“Senior knows of me?” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Mhm, I already know of your story. The young are truly fearsome indeed, you are much more outstanding than me.” Yi laughed. From a certain perspective, this young man before his eyes was considered half his successor. He obtained his inheritance and became the saint lord of this generation, mastering God’s Hand.

“Senior praises me too much. Maybe senior doesn’t understand junior that well but ever since I cultivated the secret art in the City of Ancient Emperors, the two of us were already bound by unbreakable karma. I would often hear the stories about senior and now, I’ve finally met senior.” Qin Wentian smiled. This kind of feeling felt very wondrous. World Overlord Yi used to be a character that only existed in stories for him, but now, he had actually appeared before his eyes. Most probably, many people in Azure Mystic would feel the same if they saw Yi now.

“Are you very disappointed?” Yi laughed.

“Naturally not. It’s my fortune to be able to witness Senior’s glory.” Qin Wentian sincerely spoke.

“Haha, right now you’ve already comprehended a heavenheart mandate and you will soon be at the same cultivation realm as me. There’s no need to be so humble.” Yi smiled at Qin Wentian. When the Lifelong Realmlord heard their conversation, he only knew now that Qin Wentian basically wasn’t Yi’s disciple. This was the first time the two of them met.

In that case, everything he thought of before was merely his own imagination.

“Yi, since you don’t really know about the things here. What do you plan to do now that you have returned?” At this moment, the Lifelong Realmlord spoke, disrupting their conversation. If Yi wanted to deal with him, things would be extremely troublesome. Qin Wentian was an expert who had comprehended a heavenheart mandate. As long as Yi tangles with him, no one under him would be able to block Qin Wentian.

Countless people were stunned. The situation instantly changed. A world overlord expert had appeared and this world overlord had a very good relationship with Qin Wentian and was also the master of the Gemini Palace Lords.

If he interferes, who says that it was impossible to pull the Lifelong Realmlord down from his position today?

Yi glanced at the Lifelong Realmlord before turning back to Qin Wentian, “What are you planning to do?”

“Since senior has arrived, please help me to act as a witness.” Qin Wentian spoke. “I originally am the Lifire Palace Lord under the Lifelong Realmlord. However, he went too overboard in bullying. For me to obtain this palace lord’s position, he actually threatened my good friend Youhuang to be his concubine. And now, he even publicly humiliated my woman Ye Qianyu. This matter today is very easy to resolve. The Lifelong Realmlord just needs to apologize in public to Beiming Youhuang and get the two fairies by his side to dance for the admiration of the crowd. After that, he should step down from this position and leave the Lifelong Realm. If he is willing to do all this, I can let bygones be bygones.”

Qin Wentian's words caused everyone to be stunned. How could the Lifelong Realmlord agree to such conditions?

The lips of the Lifelong Realmlord curled up in a mocking manner. He coldly spoke, "You instigated my subordinates to rebel. Today, even if Yi wants to protect you, I will kill you for sure."

"In that case, this means that the conflict is unable to be resolved" Yi spoke.

"Since this is the case, I can only ask the Lifelong Realmlord to provide me with some guidance. Senior, please help me control the situation to prevent the Lifelong Realmlord from taking desperate actions, killing the innocent. I will also not participate in the slaughter of the experts from the Lifelong Sainthall. The other battles shall be handed to our subordinates to handle. I'll challenge the Lifelong Realmlord alone." Qin Wentian formally issued a challenge just when many people thought that Qin Wentian's backer was Yi and he would join forces with Yi against the Lifelong Realmlord.

Qin Wentian wanted to challenge the Lifelong Realmlord alone.

Indeed, given experts on their level, if they really acted against those of lower cultivation realms, that would be a pure slaughter. However, Qin Wentian also wasn't afraid. Even if Yi didn't come here today, the family and harem of the Lifelong Realmlord were still in the Lifelong Sainthall. He had so many descendants here, how could the Lifelong Realmlord himself not be worried?

Unless, he killed Qin Wentian before this. If not, once Qin Wentian revealed enough strength to threaten him, how would the Lifelong Realmlord dare to act recklessly?

Naturally, since Yi has come. It would be for the best if he acted as a witness.

"You, challenge me?" The Lifelong Realmlord stared at Qin Wentian. "You should have obtained some good fortune in Ancient Azure Mystic, right? After entering this realm, you are so eager to test your strength? Since this is the case, I'll let you know the price of arrogance."

"Once, the previous Lifire Palace Lord acted in the same manner as you, filled with boundless arrogance. However now, he has already been dead for many years." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"Haha, you actually compared this seat with the previous Lifire Palace Lord." The Lifelong Realmlord laughed loudly. His figure flashed, directly shooting up into the sky. In an instant, bright light radiated forth, illuminating the entire space. A gigantic ancient tree appeared, so large that it could blot out the sun, the moon, the sky and the stars completely.

The Lifelong Reamlord had the word 'Lifelong' in his title. His world heart, was the Lifelong world heart.

“Be careful. The Lifelong Reamlord has comprehended a total of two Heavenheart Mandates.” Yi transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian nodded slightly in response. His figure flashed like lightning, directly flying up into the air.

“Those below listen to my orders. Annihilate these rebels completely. After this battle, I'll heavily reward those who manage to achieve meritorious deeds. I can consider them for the positions of world palace lords for the five world palaces.” The voice of the Lifelong Reamlord thundered through the air.

Four great world palaces rebelled, the Kanwater Palace Lord has fallen. There would soon be a vacancy of five palace lords.

A single sentence by the Lifelong Reamlord caused many major powers to feel their hearts stirring. An empyrean from the Sword Spirit Sect coldly roared, “My Sword Spirit Sect is willing to fight for Reamlord. Who is willing to fight together with my sect to exterminate these rebels?”

To the Sword Spirit Sect, they didn't have any choice. They had to support the Lifelong Reamlord!

Chapter 1748: Empyrean Army

There were four world palaces out of the nine rebelling but the other four world palaces with their palace lords were supporting the Lifelong Reamlord. There were many peak powers in Lifelong City and many empyreans had come to attend the grand banquet this time around. If they were all willing to stand on the Lifelong Reamlord's side, this would undoubtedly be an effortless victory. They could easily subdue Qin Wentian's subordinates and quell the chaos.

However, the problem was that the victory and defeat between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Reamlord hasn't been determined yet. Who would dare to say the Lifelong Reamlord would win for sure?

If they stand out now to kill Qin Wentian's subordinates and the eventual victor was Qin Wentian, what would it bode for them? It would undoubtedly be a calamity.

Naturally, if the Lifelong Realmlord was victorious, they would naturally be able to receive more rewards.

If they could choose, many powers would rather sit on the fence, they had no inclinations to be swept up into this storm. But in truth, many powers were forced to take sides. For example for the four world palaces who rebelled, if they didn't battle and if the Lifelong Realmlord was the victor, all of them would surely be slaughtered and vice versa.

Those powers that didn't belong to the direct control of the Lifelong Sainthall would be better off as long as they didn't participate. Even if Qin Wentian won, he most probably wouldn't find trouble for them. But if the Lifelong Realmlord won, he would surely suppress them.

Hence, to many other powers, they were trapped in a dilemma.

In the Lifelong Sainthall, many people with extraordinary auras appeared. These were all the descendants of the Lifelong Realmlord. Now that such a major thing has occurred, they naturally had to come out.

Upon seeing these people appearing, more and more major powers stepped out. The experts they had at their disposal were as numerous as the clouds, with several empyreans. These powers all had no way to terminate their connection with the Lifelong Realmlord. Among them, many powers sent their outstanding female descendants to the Lifelong Sainthall and were the Lifelong Realmlord's concubines. There were also many who married the Realmlord's descendants, or married to major characters of the Lifelong Sainthall.

Hence, the number of people participating in the battle increased.

"Kill all rebels and show no mercy. All of you have received kindness from the Realmlord before. Right now, are you all only planning on saving your own hides?" A beautiful woman with a transcendent demeanor shouted. She was actually exuding the aura of an empyrean, many people didn't recognize her but those peak powers all knew that this was the number one favored concubine of the Lifelong Realmlord. She was beautiful and extremely powerful and had a very high position in the Lifelong Realmlord's harem. She could even influence matters of the Lifelong Sainthall if she wanted to.

As the sound of her voice faded, many powers stepped out. Someone added, "That's right. The Lifire Palace instigated the rebellion. At this moment, we should fight for the Realm Lord and quell the chaos, destroying these rebels!"

At this moment, another beautiful woman flew over. Her beautiful eyes gazed in the direction of the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, she was so beautiful that flowers would pale in comparison.

"Biyue." Huang Zhan felt his heart ache when he saw the woman he loved appear. She was now already a concubine of the Lifelong Realm Lord. His heart was filled with extreme conflict.

"Slut, scam the hell away." The beautiful woman earlier cursed when she saw Fairy Biyue. Fairy Biyue turned pale. When he saw this scene, Huang Zhan radiated an extremely violent aura as he coldly spoke, "Concubine Lu, how dare you."

"Why? Huang Zhan, you don't like my behavior? Could it be that the two of you still have feelings for each other? As expected, Biyue didn't obey the propriety of being a wife. After this battle, I shall discipline her properly." Concubine Lu icily spoke.

"I'll kill you." Huang Zhan's aura flooded out. He flew through the air, rushing at his opponent. However, the Skyair Palace Lord moved like lightning, blocking his attack. A sword materialized and slashed out at the void.

"Follow me to kill these rebels, we have to repay the Lifelong Realm Lord for his kindness to us." An empyrean from the Sword Spirit Sect roared, drumming up morale, wanting to get more people to participate in the battle.

"FIGHT!" The Xuanyuan Palace Lord roared. Right now, they had no choice but to battle.

Jialan Jiangshan stared at the crowd of experts as he silently speculated. He didn't know if the choice he made today would be a blessing or a curse. Let's hope that the Jialan Clan won't be destroyed in his hands.

Stepping out, Jialan Jiangshan rushed towards the crowd and began to attack. His heart was already determined.

The experts on both sides clashed together. For a period of time, chaotic aftershocks devastated the area in the air. Those spectators below all watched with tumultuous feelings. They didn't expect such a thing would occur at the grand banquet today. Who would have thought that a world-shocking battle would erupt?

“Qin Wentian’s side seems to be suffering a disadvantage. Although World Overlord Yi has appeared, he most probably won’t participate in the battle. Also, given how deep the foundations of the Lifelong Realm is, their forces aren’t something the Lifire Palace can deal with, although a total of four palaces had rebelled as well.” The crowd silently mused. The ending of this battle might be decided by the winner of the battle between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Realmlord. It would truly be too cruel if all of Qin Wentian’s subordinates were killed.

At this moment, among the crowd, numerous figures suddenly flew up in the air, moving with lightning speed, incredibly swift.

Behind one figure, an entire projection of a world appeared behind him, containing a myriad of transformations. This person exuded an aura as though he could dominate the entire world. He shot straight towards the direction of the Sword Spirit Sect with the power of an explosive arrow blasting from a heavenly bow. In an instant, the world projection erupted forth with boundless source origin energy, creating a flow of chaos, imbuing him with enough power to split the skies.

The expression of the empyrean from the Sword Spirit Sect who tried to drum up the morale earlier drastically changed when he saw this expert. He only saw countless source origin powers blasting towards him, blotting out the sky. A pair of fists were like an entire world being hurled at him. Numerous sword sages formed from his sword intent, however, when the sword sages came in contact with the fists, all of them were blasted into smithereens. That world-destroying fist light directly slammed into his head, blasting it apart. Before his death, a final thought flashed in his mind. The Spirit Sword Sect was finished.

“Who is that?” Many people felt great shock in their hearts. That person was actually an extremely good-looking young man. However, a sense of imposing majesticness could be felt radiating from him, as though he was the lord of this world.

In another direction, a giant golden beast appeared. The body of this beast seemed to be constructed from gold and this beast was like the king of all bestial creatures. He wrenched open his maw and his howl filled the sky. A terrifying suction force was exerted on many experts. The people he targeted all couldn’t control their bodies at all as they flew involuntarily towards that opened maw.

“No!” Someone screamed in shock. He was about to be devoured by the golden giant beast.

In another direction, many devil practitioners appeared. The devil might from there towered up into the sky. The person in the lead radiated the red light of judgement, executing the experts of the Sword Spirit Sect. There were also some who were shrouded in complete darkness. They directly appeared behind their targets and assassinated them with ease. There were also experts who could summon ancient devils to do their bidding, destroying their enemies.

Not only them, there were many more experts flying up into the air to participate in the battle. They had been hiding among the crowd only to appear at the decisive moment, doing so with explosive might.

They directly appeared in different battlefields, but several of them aimed for the Sword Spirit Sect. Because, Qin Wentian had personally said that the Sword Spirit Sect shall cease to exist today. Hence, right now, the Sword Spirit Sect was the one enduring the strongest attacks. Earlier, they were the ones who shouted the loudest but in the blink of an eye, they actually drew a calamity upon their own heads. The people of the Sword Spirit Sect felt boundless terror and despair, what sort of existence had they angered? Just because of a few humiliating words spoken about Ye Qianyu, their entire sect was going to be annihilated.

Many sect members felt intense hatred for the Spirit Sword Sect Leader at the moment before their death. They hated him for involving their sect into this storm. So what even if the Lifelong Realmlord was the victor later? They would all already be dead, they wouldn't be able to see it.

“Who are these people?” Countless people below were extremely shocked. Where did this army of empyreans come from?

Although empyreans were above the emperor realm, no one would be able to tell that a person was an empyrean just from a single glance. Although they had comprehended source origins, they haven't truly reached the level of a world overlord. If they wanted to hide their cultivation bases, even overlords wouldn't be able to sense it. Hence, no one discovered that an army of empyreans were actually hiding among the crowd.

Concubine Lu froze as her expression turned extremely ugly to behold. Those powers who stood out and declared support for the Lifelong Realmlord instantly felt regret. Qin Wentian's backup was much more terrifying than they had imagined. Although no one knew where these people came from, they clearly had a connection with Qin Wentian.

For those who still sat on the fence, they heaved a sigh of relief, deciding not to participate in this storm. No matter what the future holds, they would choose to remain neutral. The price for participation was too great.

Let alone those on the side of the Realm Lord, even the Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace, Gemini Palace and Jialan Clan were stunned by this. After that, they felt excitement in their hearts. So it turned out that Qin Wentian had long arranged everything. This caused their confidence in Qin Wentian to increase even more. This fellow was simply a miracle.

The Xuanyuan Palace Lord suddenly discovered that these people who were initially inconspicuous in the crowd, suddenly felt somewhat familiar to him. He had met them before, these were the people Qin Wentian brought with him to the ancient battlefield back when they were in the lower world. At that time, he didn't really care about them, hence he didn't notice them before this. It was only now that he discovered that there were actually many empyreans among them.

But, isn't Azure Mystic a place where there are no empyreans?

Could it be the world-ending battlefield?

Upon thinking up to here, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord's heart trembled. What good fortune did Qin Wentian acquire exactly?

Yi stood in the air, silently watching everything. His eyes were fixed on a figure. This person wielded a divine bow and was rapidly shooting out arrows. This man was none other than Emperor Yu, he was now an empyrean and was Yi's follower back then when Yi was still in Azure Mystic.

Beside Yu, Yi could sense many familiar auras. Evidently, these people were all from the Battle Saint Tribe. Qin Wentian truly had not let the Battle Saint Tribe down. The accomplishments of these people were even higher than those from the Battle Saint Tribe who followed him, the second-generation Saint Lord.

The Gemini Palace Lords also saw this. Smiles could be seen in their gazes, their fellow tribe members were actually also already empyreans. At this moment, they were filled with gratitude for Qin Wentian.

Before this, everyone thought that other than the battle between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Realm Lord, the subordinates of the Realm Lord would surely crush Qin Wentian's side in battle. Who would have thought that the situation changed so quickly. Qin Wentian actually hid an army of empyreans and they were all now erupting forth with their power.

Today, for this once per hundred years grand banquet, could it be that the Lifelong Realm's skies would really be changed?!

Chapter 1749: Fighting Against Lifelong

For the Lifelong Grand Banquet, everyone came here to attend it. They did see many major characters but they didn't see everyone bowing to pay respect to the Lifelong Realmlord, they didn't see the competition between the various factions between the immortal emperors, and the competition between the nine world palaces.

They came here, and what was before them was only a scene of chaos. Qin Wentian instigated four world palaces to rebel, and he also had hidden an army of empyreans. He himself also comprehended a heavenheart mandate, but no one knew for sure if he had successfully completed his breakthrough to the world overlords realm. In any case, the strength Qin Wentian erupted forth with now was much stronger compared to the time when he fought with the previous Lifire Palace Lord. He crushed everything before him with ease, wanting to replace the Lifelong Realmlord.

Qin Wentian was originally already the Lifire Palace Lord of this generation. If he could defeat and kill the Lifelong Realmlord, there was no need to doubt that he would become the new Realmlord and ascend the throne, becoming a lofty and supreme existence.

In addition, he could even change the name of the Lifelong Realm. If he ascends to the throne, the entire era would change. He could rename this realm to anything he wanted.

The battle in the air continued. The might the empyrean army exuded was seemingly unblockable but the Lifelong Realmlord also had many empyreans reporting to him. Although they were surprised by the appearance of this empyrean army earlier, they would still have the ability to fight it after they recovered. Although it wasn't easy, the Lifelong Realm faction had already started to slowly block the advance of the Qin Wentian's faction's crazy attack.

The attack of the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord was extremely tyrannical. He was fighting against the Skyair Palace Lord who was the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord and every attack he used was ruthless to the extreme, designed to kill. Fairy Biyue didn't know how to describe the emotions in her heart when she saw this. Even if Huang Zhan won and she obtained freedom, so what of it? Could everything return back to the past? It was impossible, she already bore a son for the Lifelong Realmlord. In that case, wouldn't Huang Zhan and her son become enemies?

Love, hatred, regret and passion. These were the most difficult things on earth to sever. Huang Zhan had laid low for so many years, only erupting forth today. This also required great courage.

In the air, ancient trees appeared around the Lifelong Realmlord, blotting out the sky. He was like a divinity of an ancient tree. Right now, calmness could no longer be seen in his eyes. There was only an unmasked cold killing intent. He stared at Qin Wentian, "These people should have been brought out of the ancient battlefield by you, right? No wonder you've comprehended a heavenheart mandate. What did you obtain in the ancient battlefield?"

"Good fortune can be found everywhere in the ancient battlefield. I've already told you before that there is an important matter I have to settle and it wasn't convenient for me to return, yet you had to do such despicable acts to force me. Back then in the past, the Lifire Palace Lord died because he imprisoned Ye Qianyu to threaten me. Why must you follow in his past footsteps?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"Hahaha, how could this seat be ignorant of that? If it wasn't for the fact that you are Yi's disciple, how could I have given you the position? Back then, I already knew of your grudge with him. After you killed the Lifire Palace Lord, I initially wanted to kill you or expel you out of the Lifelong Realm but sadly, this seat believed that Beiming Youhuang was your senior sister and out of the kindness of my heart, this seat wanted to convert both of you into my own people. Who would have thought that you two are an adulterous couple and now, you even dared to say such words to me. If I knew this would happen then, how would I have shown mercy?" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke.

"Lifelong Realmlord, you are always at a lofty position and have already grown used to your invincibility. You have never cared for the feelings of others. Let me repeat this one last time, between me and Beiming Youhuang, there's only innocence. Now that I'm standing before you, I, Qin Wentian am upright and can face the heavens, why must I lie about this fact to you? But even so, did you really think that making her as your concubine is showing her kindness? Who the hell do you think you are?" Qin Wentian mockingly spoke, "Someone despicable would naturally never admit that they are despicable. Today, you can already see that there are so many subordinates rebelling and deserting you. Could it be that I truly have such great rallying strength? All of them feel that I would win against you hence they chose to support me? The only reason is because you are a despicable person and would never truly be able to win the hearts of your subordinates, yet you still feel so self-satisfied in your own world."

"Shut up!" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly snorted. "Since you instigated the rebellion, you should already know the consequences of failure. Not only will you die, but Beiming Youhuang and Ye Qianyu will also pay a price for their actions. Also, this seat heard that you even brought two beautiful wives back with you and they are currently staying in the Lifire Palace? After your death, this seat shall admire them properly and help you take good care of them."

The Lifelong Reamlord clearly was already enraged and didn't bother to control his words. Such despicable words spoken by him had clearly revealed his true nature.

"What an ugly mouth." Qin Wentian spoke, his body radiated boundless light. Right now, it was useless to say anything more. Let the victor and the loser be determined with their battle.

"This seat will do what I've said." The Lifelong Reamlord coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, the ancient trees around him expanded to reach the sky. The shadows they casted could be seen all around, their vines forming a complex lock, trapping Qin Wentian in his surroundings, causing him to have no way to escape.

"KILL!" The Lifelong Reamlord coldly exclaimed. Those gigantic vines surged forth, their sharp-pointed ends were even sharper than swords. All of them rushed frenziedly at Qin Wentian, moving with incredible speed. World heart, heart's domain. In this domain, the heavenheart mandate of the Lifelong Reamlord completely surrounded Qin Wentian. There was no escape.

Around Qin Wentian, even beneath his feet, the ancient vines manifested, wanting to bind his body.

At this moment, boundless radiance suddenly radiated from Qin Wentian. In such a fight, what was the most important was how the experts controlled their heavenheart mandates, and how strong their heavenheart mandates were exactly. Boundless light covered Qin Wentian, illuminating the ground, disintegrating everything into nothingness from the glare.

The heavenheart mandate Qin Wentian comprehended was somewhat similar to the Sun Blaze Heavenheart Mandate he encountered in the World of Ten Thousand Laws. However, his wasn't formed from a fusion of fire and light source origins, it was formed from the source origins of light and sword, and had an addition of his own insights through his cultivation. He named his heavenheart mandate as 'Radiance Conflagration.'

This heavenheart mandate contains an extremely terrifying penetrating might. Although he didn't add the spatial source origins into the fusion, but given his insights into space, when he activated the Radiance Conflagration Heavenheart Mandate, everything around him would be disintegrated into the void. Even those sturdy ancient vines around him were of no exception. After that, the power of his Radiance Conflagration surge forward, disintegrating the vines, blasting towards the Lifelong Reamlord.

This was the first time he truly used a heavenheart mandate to fight against a world overlord. He also wanted to see what the disparity in strength between his heavenheart mandate and the Lifelong Realmlord's heavenheart mandate was.

The locked space was slowly opened up by the Radiance Conflagration Heavenheart Mandate. However, an instant after they were destroyed, the ancient vines were reborn again, this cycle of destruction and creation continued anew for several cycles.

This heavenheart mandate was known as the Lifelong Heavenheart Mandate. The Lifelong Realmlord depended on this to manifest his world heart. He hoped that he would have a long life and would be able to be reborn even after his death. Not only does this heavenheart mandate have fearsome attacking prowess, it also had a shocking recovery rate. It was very similar to the source origins of wood, granting the Lifelong Realmlord huge amounts of vitality.

However, the Lifelong Realmlord didn't feel proud of himself. At the first exchange of blows, he could already tell that Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate was very powerful, extremely powerful. It could actually directly destroy the power of his heavenheart mandate. Also, he sensed that Qin Wentian seemed as though he has yet to manifest his world heart. He could only use his heavenheart mandate in his attacks.

"You have yet to break through completely to the World Overlord Realm?" The Lifelong Realmlord stared at Qin Wentian.

"If I've broken through, I could already finish you off through that first exchange of blows. It's just that I have no wish to be ordinary like you, only comprehending an ordinary heavenheart mandate and using that to manifest your world heart to enter the world overlord realm." Qin Wentian spoke with pride, mocking the Lifelong Realmlord. His words caused the expression of the Lifelong Realmlord to turn extremely unsightly. "Arrogant! You wish to comprehend a transcendent heavenheart mandate and use that to manifest your world heart? How egotistical is that? I'm afraid you won't have any chance left."

"Although I know that I would be fighting against you, I still didn't choose to break through to the world overlord realm completely. Could it be that you still don't know what this means? I've never treated your Lifelong Realm as my opponent. You are unworthy, you will just be an ordinary world overlord which I killed before I finished my break through to the world overlord realm." Qin Wentian's mocking was as intense as ever. It was true that he has yet to manifest a world heart but he could do so if he wanted to do. It was just that he didn't want an ordinary one.

There were many kinds of heavenheart mandates but there would only be a single world heart. Although it was still possible to transform it in the future, what he wanted to do first was to stabilize his foundations before he continued to develop his world heart. Back then when the Skybreak Heavenly Deity learned that Qin Wentian wanted to comprehend a heavenheart mandate first, he also misunderstood Qin Wentian. But now, that sense of disappointment had already disappeared. Qin Wentian's ambitions were simply too great. Although he chose to comprehend a heavenheart mandate first, that was merely him wanting to try things out and get a feel of using a heavenheart mandate. He didn't plan to manifest his world heart from this particular heavenheart mandate to enter the World Overlord Realm completely.

After tempering himself in the various secret realms. He had his own ideas on how to proceed further on his path of cultivation. The Skybreak Heavenly Deity also knew that when Qin Wentian broke through to the World Overlord Realm, he needn't interfere in anything. He just allowed Qin Wentian to comprehend whatever he wanted and would only provide guidance occasionally.

"This world would never lack geniuses because the majority of them have already died due to arrogance." The Lifelong Realmlord spoke again. His figure flashed, the ancient trees behind him all launched attacks towards Qin Wentian. The radiance emitting from Qin Wentian was as brilliant as ever, the power of his Radiance Conflagration Heavenheart Mandate fought back frenziedly against the Lifelong Realmlord's heart domain, continuously destroying the vines despite them being regenerated again and again. The Lifelong Realmlord simply poured his strength into defending, channeling his powers to rejuvenate the vines, weaving an extremely strong defense.

"Go to hell." The Lifelong Realmlord blasted his palm towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian made a clutching motion and the power of his heavenheart mandate burned through everything. However, those disintegrated vines didn't vanish completely. With a wave of his hand, the Lifelong Realmlord caused dark green sap to flow out of the vines before they were disintegrated, as they covered Qin Wentian's body.

"Rot." The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke. Every mote of that green sap contained the power of corrosion. Qin Wentian's body was being eaten away, corroded slowly by that green sap. His wounds grew larger, while the radiance from his heavenheart mandate grew brighter, trying to purify the power of the sap.

The Lifelong Realmlord coldly laughed as he stretched out his hand. A boundless amount of sticky dark green sap continued to flow towards Qin Wentian, burying him within.

What he comprehended was the Lifelong World Heart because he realized that he could regenerate all his powers, rendering them almost indestructible through the constant regeneration. For example, for his second heavenheart mandate, Rot, the dark green sap would be able to regenerate itself almost infinitely until Qin Wentian's body was transformed into a pool of blood. Not even his bones would be left behind!

Chapter 1750: Double Heavenheart Mandates

Since the Lifelong Realmlord could govern an entire realm, he naturally had something he can depend on. By merging his Rot Heavenheart Mandate with his Lifelong World Heart, it was able to cause the corrosion energy to be unending, capable of constant regeneration until his opponent corroded completely.

Back then, he depended on his Lifelong Heavenheart Mandate to manifest his world heart. He did this precisely because he wanted the regenerative supporting capabilities.

Boundless corrosion energy continued to invade Qin Wentian's body, destroying it slowly by rotting it away. The lips of the Lifelong Realmlord curled up into a malevolent smile. A genius? Taking just a hundred years to climb from the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm to the gate before the world overlord realm? So what of it? No matter how strong his talent is, it's nothing at all compared to death. As long as he died, everything would return to the void.

The Lifelong Realmlord's expression was extremely cold as he stared at the body parts of Qin Wentian that were vanishing bit by bit.

Challenging him without first becoming a full-fledged world overlord. That was simply courting death.

In the air, the torrents of energy dissipated, the countless vines were retracted, vanishing in an instant. World Overlords had world hearts and had comprehended heavenheart mandates. Their control over their power was so great that they could activate or summon it with just a single thought.

"The battle has ended?" Countless people inclined their heads staring up in the air. Qin Wentian's body had completely vanished yet the Lifelong Realmlord still stood there. At this moment, the subordinates of the Lifelong Realmlord all felt wild joy in their hearts while experts on Qin Wentian's side all turned pale. If the Lifelong Realmlord had really killed Qin Wentian, there was only one ending for them.

“Master’s might truly knows no bounds.” The Skyair Palace Lord roared, throwing his head back and facing the sky. He felt extremely depressed at how he was suppressed by Huang Zhan while they were fighting. But now, he was looking at Huang Zhan like he was looking at a dead man. Since Qin Wentian had already been exterminated by his master, there would only be one conclusion to today’s events.

A satisfied smile appeared on the Lifelong Realmlord’s face but at this moment, it was as though he suddenly sensed something. He frowned and in an instant, boundless energy radiated from him as the ancient vines appeared once more, blotting out the sky, forming a defensive shield before him.

This sudden change caused many people to feel puzzled. In the next instant, they only saw a beam of extremely intense light shooting out. Qin Wentian’s body seemed to have transformed completely into radiance as he unleashed the fist of radiance technique, brimming with the immense power of his heavenheart mandate. He instantly arrived before the Lifelong Realmlord as he launched his attacks.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian’s figure appearing again, the arrogant smile on the Skyair Palace Lord’s face suddenly froze. Huang Zhan roared, “RECEIVE YOUR DEATH!”

The battle below that had ceased, suddenly continued again with an even more ferocious momentum. In the air, when Qin Wentian’s fist light slammed into the ancient vine shield, his fearsome Radiance Conflagration was used in conjunction with this innate technique, erupting forth, completely decimating the defensive energy of the shield. After that, fiery beams of radiance continued to shoot towards the Lifelong Realmlord. Each beam of radiance was scorchingly hot to the extreme, they directly penetrated the Lifelong Realmlord’s body. With a thunderous boom, the Lifelong Realmlord’s body exploded into pieces, transformed into nothingness.

However, Qin Wentian could sense a shadow flashing past him. In the instant when the Lifelong Realmlord’s body exploded, another figure actually appeared behind it. This figure was also the body of the Lifelong Realmlord.

“He has an overlord-rank divine weapon on him which contains a unique power. In times of danger, the divine weapon can instantly create a substitute body to replace him in death. It would be very tough for your attacks to kill him.” From below, Yi issued a voice transmission to Qin Wentian. Before this, he didn’t act because he wanted to see Qin Wentian’s strength.

The battle between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Realmlord was something the two of them fought alone, they didn’t bring Yi into the considerations because each of them naturally had their own confidence. And at this moment, Yi naturally also wouldn’t interfere. He wanted Qin Wentian to feel all the sensations of this high-level combat for himself. It was just that he wanted to remind him since now Qin Wentian has already come into contact with the Lifelong Realmlord's dangerous core abilities.

That overlord-ranked divine weapon was none other than the one in the secret realm which he and the Lifelong Realmlord had obtain together. In the end, the Lifelong Realmlord took it for himself through a series of schemes. It was an extremely powerful self-protection weapon and had miraculous effects if used in battle.

The Lifelong Realmlord's expression grew extremely ugly, he was actually narrowly killed by Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian had only just stepped into this realm and hadn't completed his transformation yet. However, the heavenheart mandate he comprehended was actually so tyrannical, capable of threatening a true world overlord who has already manifested a world heart like him.

Also, how did Qin Wentian vanish completely before him earlier and suddenly appear again?

Something that could even hide itself from his world heart. What sort of ability was this?

There seemed to be only a single possibility. It was the same for Qin Wentian, he hasn't merely comprehended a single heavenheart mandate.

This young man before him actually used such a short amount of time to comprehend two heavenheart mandates? Other than his Radiance Conflagration, he actually managed to gain insight into another one? This wasn't simply something the word 'miracle' could explain. It was impossible even if one had supreme comprehension abilities. Unless, someone was guiding him.

"What is your second heavenheart mandate?" The Lifelong Realmlord stared at Qin Wentian and asked.

Qin Wentian coldly swept his gaze at his opponent. It was true that he hasn't merely comprehended a single heavenheart mandate. Earlier, the heavenheart mandate he used was named Phantasm Space, everything the Realmlord saw was just an illusion and when he activated it, the power of his second heavenheart mandate was able conceal his presence completely. This powerful Phantasm Space Heavenheart Mandate could even fool the Lifelong Realmlord, causing him to be unable to locate Qin Wentian's real body. This was the first time Qin Wentian was trying this out in an actual battle and the results filled him with confidence. It was true that this heavenheart mandate was stronger compared to some of the ordinary heavenheart mandates or he would have been instantly discovered.

Also, his attacks were even able to break through the Lifelong Realmlord's defenses.

"I initially thought that I've underestimated you, this was why I acted so cautiously. Who would have thought that you, the Lifelong Realmlord, would actually be so weak? I have grossly overestimated your capabilities." Qin Wentian didn't reply to the question as he coldly continued, "Just an attack of that degree already caused you to need to use a divine weapon to protect your life. It's truly time for you to give up your position. I'll return your words to you. There's no need for you to worry after your death, I'll take good care of the Lifelong Realm. I'll also make all arrangements and take very good care of your family."

The Lifelong Realmlord's expression turned extremely ugly, no longer as calm as before. Qin Wentian's words were a domineering reply to what he said about Qin Wentian's wives before this. He was the Realmlord of an entire realm and naturally would have immense confidence in himself, causing him to dare to say such words. He basically didn't think about what if he was defeated, what ending would he face then. But now, when the thought of defeat flashed through his mind, he couldn't help but to feel a chill in his heart.

In truth, after the short exchange of blows, he was no longer as confident in himself as before.

The Lifelong Realmlord then took out an ancient mirror which contained a wondrous energy within. This was another overlord-ranked weapon. He activated it and the mirror vanished into the void. Forming incantation gestures with his hands, the ancient mirror reflected each of his movements as he launched out another attack. The reflection naturally mirrored the attack as well, creating a copy of the exact same attack as both attacks were launched towards Qin Wentian.

This was not just a defensive-type overlord-ranked weapon. It was also an offensive-type.

Qin Wentian directly waved his hand, causing a beam of light to manifest. This light emitted from a treasured hoop, which instantly entered the void and flew towards the ancient mirror. A cold smile appeared on his face, he was pondering earlier on how to fight against the Lifelong Realmlord, should he use powerful overlord-ranked divine weapons to end the fight or not? But since the Lifelong Realmlord made the first move, there was no need for him to think any further. By using such an ancient mirror, wasn't the Lifelong Realmlord presenting a gift for him?

This treasured hoop had already seized overlord-ranked treasures before in the ancient battlefield. And now, there was naturally no exception. When the light flashed past, the ancient mirror actually vanished, its connection with the Lifelong Realmlord severed. The treasured hoop then shone with an even brighter light.

“This...” The Lifelong Realmlord turned pale. His overlord-ranked weapon was actually seized away?

What grade of treasure was that treasured hoop exactly? It was actually able to enter the void and seize the treasures of others away.

“You can die now.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, his body flashed, moving with lightning speed as he vanished from sight, launching attacks at the Realmlord. The heavenheart mandates of the Lifelong Realmlord unleashed their full power, instantly coating the air with boundless corrosion energy, wanting to rot Qin Wentian away.

This time around, the Lifelong Realmlord would no longer be careless, he attacked with the entirety of his strength, not holding anything back. Qin Wentian’s body disappeared and appeared again, mixing reality and illusion, continuously attacking him. The Lifelong Realmlord wasn’t able to differentiate which was real and which was false.

His expression grew even more unsightly as he let out a roar of rage. An immense amount of dark green light manifested around him in floods, wanting to completely corrode the entire space around him, regardless of where Qin Wentian was hiding.

When this scene appeared, Qin Wentian seemed to be the same as him, as though he had comprehended the Lifelong Heavenheart Mandate. He underwent a cycle of destruction and regeneration, again and again, like an undying being. Naturally, those that were destroyed were all Qin Wentian’s illusory bodies he created. After many times, the Lifelong Realmlord’s expression turned uglier and uglier but a cold intent soon surfaced in his heart. He discovered a rule, there was a limit to Qin Wentian’s heavenheart mandate’s power.

When Qin Wentian’s body was corroded again, the Lifelong Realmlord didn’t retreat to intentionally distance himself from Qin Wentian. He took the initiative to attack instead. With a flash of light, he directly stepped across space, appearing behind Qin Wentian whose body was corroding. He then ruthlessly smashed out with a palm attack that contained the immense power of world overlords. With that single strike, the space before him broke apart. No matter who was hiding in that patch of the void, they would be heavily injured or even die due to that attack.

This was the rule the Lifelong Realmlord had discovered. Everytime Qin Wentian’s true body appeared, it would appear in the location where the illusory body was destroyed. Even if Qin Wentian had the power of Phantasm Space, there was still a limit to it. It seemed that he wasn’t able to be too far away from the illusory bodies he created.

The Lifelong Realmlord's attack didn't manage to force Qin Wentian's true body out from that patch of void. The reason was because Qin Wentian was already beside him.

A piercing beam of light directly shot out. That rotting illusory body vanished, replaced by Qin Wentian's real body. The beam of light that slashed down towards the Lifelong Realmlord encountered no resistance. This beam of light contained the entirety of Qin Wentian's might and as it landed, numerous bloody wounds instantly appeared on the Lifelong Realmlord!
