

Ancient GM 1751

Chapter 1751: New Era

The Lifelong Reamlord roared loudly, the Lifelong World Heart repaired his damaged body but it was impossible for Qin Wentian to give him any more chances. He directly punched out, onto the Lifelong Reamlord's body. This punch contained the full power of his heavenheart mandate. In an instant, boundless radiance illuminated everything, piercing the eyes of people. Countless people could only shield their eyes from the radiance and the Lifelong Reamlord and Qin Wentian were at the heart of it.

What was different now was that Qin Wentian was bathing in that sacred light while the body of the Lifelong Reamlord was slowly turning into nothingness, disintegrating by the glare.

“How did you do that?” The Lifelong Reamlord's expression contorted as boundless terror appeared in his heart. He stared at Qin Wentian in an extremely confused manner. Earlier, he definitely wasn't wrong. He had learned the limiting rule of Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate and he also unleashed a sure-kill strike. However, why was Qin Wentian not in that patch of the void? That illusory body that was rotting away actually became his real body instead?

“You have the Lifelong World Heart but I have an undying body. World Hearts can be broken, how can you counter the undying aspect of my body? In the future, the Lifelong Realm will be governed by me. You can go in peace.” The boundless radiance from the Radiance Conflagration erupted forth once again with full power, at point-blank range, illuminating the space around them.

“I'M UNWILLING!” The Lifelong Reamlord roared. Supreme authority and countless beauties in his harem. Even if in the future he was stuck at forever at this realm, as long as he was more cautious and didn't go and offend those powerful characters, he would forever be the king of the Lifelong Realm, enjoying boundless glory. The entire world was his, all the women in his territories were his.

However, would all of these become clouds and mist? He actually fell to a subordinate. A subordinate who was merely a mid-stage immortal emperor a hundred years ago. The young man whom he appointed to take over the Lifire Palace was the one who killed him. In addition, his territories and harem would be Qin Wentian's. When he thought of his threats towards Qin Wentian's earlier, fear blossomed in his heart. After he died, how would Qin Wentian treat his women and descendants?

When he thought of those beauties landing in Qin Wentian's hands, his heart felt even more pain. When he thought of Fairy Biyue reuniting with Huang Zhan, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, his heart felt like it was being diced into pieces.

He had boundless regret and reluctance in his heart. However, even so, there was no way he could escape death. No matter how powerful or how much authority you have in life, before death, everything would return to the void.

The light was extremely blinding. The battle in the air finally ceased. Countless people inclined their heads and stared at the vanished silhouette of the Lifelong Realmlord as waves of shock rose in their hearts. Many people started to tremble involuntarily due to fear. The Skyair Palace Lord was a very good example of this. Not only him, those from the Lifelong Sainthall, as well as the people who criticized and insulted Ye Qianyu earlier. Right now, all of them seemed to be able to predict what their endings today would be.

Never in their wildest dreams would they have expected that the young man who was reprimanded by the Lifelong Realmlord would be the cause for a large-scale rebellion. They also never imagined that he would directly challenge the Lifelong Realmlord and would even be the victor, directly killing the Lifelong Realmlord. What consequences would there be for them? They didn't even dare to think about it.

And for those who came here to attend the magnificent grand banquet of the Lifelong Realm today, all were completely stunned. That lofty divinity-like character whom they feared and respected, actually died today. He was killed by the legendary character Qin Wentian who was also the Lifire Palace Lord. This scene was like how he killed the previous Lifire Palace Lord back then, replacing his position. How domineering was this?

At this moment, they suddenly realized that a legend was born before their eyes.

Many people suddenly felt an intense anticipation in their hearts. Their anticipation for Qin Wentian, truly a legendary character that enjoyed a meteoric rise, crushing all obstacles in his way. How could they not be filled with anticipation for his future?

Although the Realmlord has died, the words spoken by the four palace lords who rebelled earlier has already caused everyone present to feel doubts about the Lifelong Realmlord's personality. Also, what did whoever would replace the Realmlord have anything to do with them who were ordinary people? They only wanted to see a stronger existence, and a more elite legendary character.

“BOOM!” The sound of an explosion rang out, startling everyone. When the crowd turned their gazes over, they discovered that the statue of the Lifelong Realmlord which had stood for the passage of countless years on the top of the stairway, was destroyed by someone. What was laughable was that the person who destroyed it was actually none other than the Scarlet Origin Palace Lord who has always been on the Lifelong Realmlord’s side. After he destroyed the statue, he bowed to Qin Wentian in the air, “Earlier, this subordinate had no choice but to obey the Lifelong Realmlord’s command, and had to fight on his side. Now that the Lifelong Realmlord is dead, Palace Lord Qin naturally would replace him as the Realmlord. This subordinate pays my respects to the new Realmlord.”

Everyone started for a few moments before they recovered. All of them silently cursed at how shameless the Scarlet Origin Palace Lord was. The reaction of this fellow was actually so fast? His skin was also so thick that it was unbelievable.

This was especially so for the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord and Gengmetal Palace Lord. They had contempt in their eyes as they stared at the Scarlet Origin Palace Lord but soon after that, they also bowed, “Your subordinates are guilty. We pay our respects to the new Realmlord. From now onwards, we would not dare to disobey any of Realmlord Qin’s commands.”

The experts of the Xuanyuan Palace, Gemini Palace and Jialan Clan were all speechless at how shameless these people were. To protect their lives, they were actually capable of saying such words.

The crowd in the surroundings also stared at these people speechlessly. They were truly shameless enough, moving so quickly to proclaim that they submit to the new Realmlord.

These palace lords naturally could feel the looks of contempt in the eyes of others. But so what of it? The Lifelong Realmlord was already killed by Qin Wentian and the situation couldn’t be any clearer. Qin Wentian was sure to replace the Lifelong Realmlord as the new Realmlord. Could it be that they wish to die by continuing to resist? Compared to their lives, what was the loss of face? What was the pride of being a palace lord? Nothing was more important than their lives.

For this point, although everyone still felt contempt for them, they also understood in their hearts. They inclined their heads and stared at the imposing figure in the air. At this moment, the experts of the Xuanyuan Palace, Jialan Clan and many other major powers all bowed and called out, “We pay our respects to Realmlord.”

“We pay our respects to Realmlord.” Countless people called out. Even for those major powers who fought against Qin Wentian’s faction earlier all also called out loudly. The general trend of the situation was set. If they don’t surrender now, it would mean that they don’t want their lives.

The Skyair Palace Lord’s face turned as pale as paper. He didn’t greet Qin Wentian because he understood that Qin Wentian might spare everyone but it was impossible for Qin Wentian to spare him.

At the instant Qin Wentian killed the Lifelong Realmlord, the fate of the Skyair Palace Lord was already decided – death.

It was just that even now, he still found it hard to accept this. Today, they had originally prepared to ruthlessly humiliate Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang. His master would then kill Qin Wentian after that. However, why would the winds and clouds suddenly change as this scene which was completely unexpected, actually occurred. Even now when he stared at Qin Wentian, he still found it hard to accept the fact that the Lifelong Realmlord has already been killed and his fate now was in the hands of Qin Wentian.

Concubine Lu’s face also turned pale. The moment the Lifelong Realmlord died, she already understood that it was all over. Everything was over.

For people on Qin Wentian’s side, their emotions were completely opposite. The Xuanyuan Palace Lord sighed at how fortunate he was to have made the right choice. Initially, he struggled for a long time. But luckily, he gambled correctly.

As for the Jialan Clan, they understood that the glory belonging to their clan has finally arrived. They were the ones who were determined to support Qin Wentian the most. Although they believed in Qin Wentian, they did so because they felt that Qin Wentian would have some back up or external aid and they also didn’t expect Qin Wentian to be able to kill the Realmlord on his own. At this moment, they felt that what just happened was somewhat unbelievable, like they were in a dream. Jialan Jiangshan shivered, he felt that he was too audacious in this gamble. After all, the opponent Qin Wentian had to face was none other than the Lifelong Realmlord but back then, he still made the decision to bet it all on Qin Wentian.

Luckily, Qin Wentian was the victor.

Jialan Qiuyue stared at the magnificent figure in the air as she fell into a daze. The radiance of some people was something no one would be able to block. When they emit their light, they would be the focus of everyone in the world, with the entire world willing to submit to them. Qin Wentian was undoubtedly such an existence.

“The young are to be feared indeed.” Yi sighed with admiration in his heart. A junior from Azure Mystic, who was younger than him by countless years, actually could kill the Lifelong Realmlord today.

The two palace lords of the Gemini Palace clenched their fists tightly as excitement could be seen in their eyes. The Saint Lord of this generation was even more tyrannical compared to the second-generation Saint Lord Yi. Would their Battle Saint Tribe be able to climb back up to their former heights? They could see hope now.

Ye Qianyu, as usual, exuded charm freely. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian as she felt pride in her heart. This was her man. When he learned of her fate, he only spoke three words to her – ‘Wait for me.’

All the humiliation she suffered earlier was completely wiped away at this moment. From now onwards, who in the world would dare to criticize or insult her? Those who had done so earlier all felt boundless fear rising up in their hearts now.

Beiming Youhuang lowered her head as gentleness flashed in her eyes.

This battle was for Ye Qianyu, but from a certain perspective, it was also for her.

The magnificence of the white-robed young man knew no bounds. His figure slowly descended through the air as numerous experts flew towards him. Jun Mengchen and the other empyreans all stood behind his back. For a period of time, it was like this entire group was bathing in rays of radiance and glory. Their strength completely surpassed the forces of the previous Lifelong Realmlord. Now, a stronger Realmlord has been born. This realm would only grow even stronger than before.

“How do you want to die?” Qin Wentian turned his gaze to the Skyair Palace Lord. This man was as despicable as the Lifelong Realmlord. Earlier, his words were filled with venom, disparaging Ye Qianyu and even insulted the relationship between him and Beiming Youhuang. Now that the Lifelong Realmlord has died, the first person Qin Wentian wanted to kill, was naturally the Skyair Palace Lord.

“Qin Wentian, so what even if you’ve won? You won’t be able to cleanse the black mark on your reputation. Your women…” An incredibly malicious look could be seen on the Skyair Palace Lord’s face. Even before his death, he wanted to use vile words to curse at Qin Wentian. But at this moment, the light fell on him. The power of the heavenheart mandate directly pierced through his throat, causing him to instantly be unable to speak.

“You don’t even know regret before death. I initially wanted to give you a quick one. But since you like to insult and humiliate people so much, why don’t you stay alive then?” The light emitting from Qin Wentian brightened, seeping into his opponent’s body. The Skyair Palace Lord screamed as all his internal organs and immortal-foundation was damaged.

With a wave of his hand, the Skyair Palace Lord was flung through the air, just like an insect. To the lofty and proud Skyair Palace Lord, living in such conditions was even more miserable than death. As long as he doesn’t die, he would have to suffer all kinds of humiliations!

Chapter 1752: Title

The Skyair Palace Lord was crippled, directly swept aside by Qin Wentian. Everyone could already predict what his fate would be.

A once extremely arrogant palace lord of the nine world palaces. Now that he was crippled, what sort of humiliation would he have to endure? Once, he stood high up and was able to peer down imperiously at everything. How would those he had offended before take their revenge on him? Just like what Qin Wentian had said, sometimes, living was even more miserable compared to death. Now, it all depended on whether the Skyair Palace Lord was brave enough to commit suicide or not.

Qin Wentian then turned his gaze towards the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord as coldness flickered in his eyes. Begging for mercy by surrendering?

This Dragonsaddle Palace Lord was most probably the most shameless individual after the Skyair Palace Lord. Before this, he clearly agreed with the Lifelong Realmlord and had also insulted Ye Qianyu, even asking the Lifelong Realmlord for permission to fight on his behalf to subdue Qin Wentian. But now, the one who surrendered the fastest was none other than him. From this, one could already tell his character.

“It’s not wrong to serve different masters but do you think you can still live after insulting my woman?” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. In an instant, the expression of the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord turned ashen.

“I’ll give you two a quick death.” Qin Wentian spoke. The Radiance Conflagration Heavenheart Mandate radiated waves of power that enveloped the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord and Scarlet Origin Palace Lord. These two were truly despicable, and they were now actually begging for mercy? If he was defeated, the two of them definitely wouldn’t show him any mercy.

The power of his heavenheart mandate directly disintegrated the two palace lords, causing countless people to tremble. In a short instant, three palace lords were already punished.

“Gengmetal Palace Lord, I’ll allow you to bring your family along with you to leave the Gengmetal Palace. Remember to settle everything cleanly.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke, sparing the Gengmetal Palace Lord’s life. Earlier, two palace lords just died. The Gengmetal Palace Lord could already be considered extremely lucky. Fortunately, he kept a low-profile earlier and didn’t say anything he shouldn’t say, simply obeying the orders of the Lifelong Realmlord. This was what probably saved his life. He bowed, “Many thanks, Realmlord Qin.”

After speaking, he turned and left. Right now, those four world palaces that followed the Lifelong Realmlord were all already dealt with. In addition to the fact that Qin Wentian was originally the Lifire Palace Lord as well as the fact that the Kanwater Palace Lord had died, out of the nine world palaces, there would be six world palace lord positions vacant. Right now, the gazes of many people changed when they stared at the Jialan Clan. Before this, all of them felt the Jialan Clan were fools. But only now did they realize the wisdom of the Jialan Clan’s choice. The Jialan Clan had always wanted to become one of the nine world palace lords and now, it seems that this goal was extremely close to their reach.

“Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, Xuanyuan Palace Lord, hear my orders. You guys should have remembered clearly the faces of those who insulted Ye Qianyu earlier, right? Go deal with all of them.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke, directly issuing a command. Today, he killed the Lifelong Realmlord and he would naturally be the one to replace the Realmlord’s position. Living in a world like the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was impossible for one to not want power. Without power, his friends and family would all be bullied. Before this, the Lifelong Realmlord’s treatment of Ye Qianyu was a very good example.

Hence, he naturally wanted to do a thorough cleansing today so as to make the Lifelong Realm truly become something that belonged to him. Only then, would he be able to set his heart at ease as he pursued even higher cultivation realms.

Only using iron-blooded methods could he cause everyone to fear him. If he showed mercy to those who insulted his woman, who would place him, the new Realmlord, in their eyes at all?

“Roger.” The Desolate Heaven and Xuanyuan Palace Lords clasped their hands. After that, they brought along some of the powers in their territories and killed everyone who had insulted Ye Qianyu before. The expressions of many changed as they tried to escape. However, how would they be able to flee? There was no problem for them to be loyal to the Lifelong Realmlord. For example, Qin Wentian has spared the Gengmetal Palace Lord. Qin Wentian also didn’t bother with a majority of the major powers under the Lifelong Sainthall’s control. However, those who insulted Ye Qianyu, had made the biggest mistake of their lives. They shouldn’t have used such a method to fawn on the Lifelong Realmlord.

Countless people felt their hearts shaking as a massacre occurred before the eyes of everyone. Many were killed instantly. After the cleansing was done, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord returned to Qin Wentian’s side and bowed, “Your subordinate has a request, I hope that Realmlord Qin would be able to agree.”

“Speak.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“Concubine Lu has insulted the woman I love. I want her to die.” Huang Zhan spoke.

“Sure. Fairy Biyue will be handed over to you as well.” Qin Wentian spoke. Huang Zhan was willing to follow him precisely because of this. He wouldn’t interfere too much and would allow Huang Zhan himself to handle everything.

“Concubine Lu, prepare to die.” Huang Zhan directly stepped out, moving towards Concubine Lu who had a pale look on her face. Before this, how imposing was she? She was the most beloved concubine of the Lifelong Realmlord and had great power in the harem. But now, since the Lifelong Realmlord has fallen, all his women would surely be in extremely dire straits.

Although Concubine Lu was also an empyrean, how would she be a match for the number one expert of the nine world palaces, Huang Zhan? She was directly killed. After she died, Huang Zhan walked towards Fairy Biyue. Staring at Huang Zhan, tears could be seen in the eyes of Fairy Biyue as she felt extremely complicated in her heart. This man before her was the person she loved most in the world. However, things were already different now. She only felt pain when she stared at him.

“Biyue, follow me in the future okay...?” Huang Zhan spoke. He was an empyrean and was naturally capable of getting as many women as he wanted. Although Biyue was already the Lifelong Realmlord’s woman and had bore a child for the Lifelong Realmlord, he didn’t mind it at all. From this, one could see that his feelings towards Biyue were true. If not, why would he have joined Qin Wentian in this rebellion?

Huang Zhan might be able to accept this, but Fairy Biyue couldn't. She kept shaking her head, she had no way to face everything. In the end, she could only turn around and walked towards the direction of the Lifelong Sainthall. Huang Zhan stared at her back as he sighed heavily.

“Reamlord Qin. Now that the Lifelong Reamlord has died, this Lifelong Realm would be under your control in the future. This subordinate suggests for Reamlord to change the name of the Realm when you ascend to the throne.” At this moment, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord bowed and suggested. The Lifelong Reamlord had governed the Lifelong Realm for many years. Now that the dynasty has changed, there was naturally a need for a new name. After all, this entire realm now belongs to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. There was indeed a need for a name change. He fell silent for a moment before he asked, “What suggestion does the Xuanyuan Palace Lord have?”

“I wonder if Reamlord has a title?” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord asked.

“Title?” Qin Wentian did have a title in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. His title was the Heaven Empyrean but it didn't seem to be suitable here.

The Lifelong Reamlord named this the Lifelong Realm because of his cultivation methods. What about him? Should he call himself the Radiance Conflagration Reamlord? It doesn't seem too nice. Also, he has yet to manifest his World Heart. Right now, his title would only just be a form of address.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze towards Little Rascal, Jun Mengchen and the others. After that, his gaze swept across Qing`er. Qing`er who has already broken through to the empyrean realm, also accompanied him in battle today and she was quietly standing at the side now. Today, he fought the Lifelong Reamlord for Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang. However, what did he give Qing`er and Qingcheng?

In addition, he had just announced not long ago that Ye Qianyu was his woman and Qing`er was at the side listening.

When he thought of this, Qin Wentian suddenly had a decision in his heart. Since he killed the Lifelong Realmlord for Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang. In that case, let the new name of the Lifelong Realm be named after Qing`er and Qingcheng.

He turned his gaze to the crowd and spoke, "From now onwards, the Lifelong Realm is no more. It shall be renamed as the Qingcheng Realm. My title shall be the Qingcheng Realmlord."

Qingcheng, the 'Qing' in Qingcheng, refers to the Qing in 'Evergreen Qing`er.' The 'Cheng' in Qingcheng, is the final character that made up Mo Qingcheng's name. He adopted a character from each of their names. From now on, he shall be known as the Qingcheng Realmlord, representing that he, Qing`er and Qingcheng, would always be together, as one entity, unable to be separated.

"Qingcheng Realmlord." Everyone mumbled. To the vast majority of people, they didn't know the meaning behind these two words. It didn't sound tyrannical at all. But for those who knew, they all understood Qin Wentian's intent. This name that didn't project a tyrannical air, actually exuded tenderness. This was especially so for people from the Azure Mystic Realm. They all knew that Qin Wentian gave up the tyrannical sounding title of the Heaven Empyrean and chose the name Qingcheng instead, for his title in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

This name shall accompany Qin Wentian for a very long time. In addition, nobody knew that this title would soon sweep through vast regions of territories and everyone would learn of it.

When Qing`er heard this title, her eyelashes fluttered as warmth appeared in her eyes.

"We pay our respects to the Qingcheng Realmlord." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord reacted quickly, bowing as he called out.

"We pay our respects to the Qingcheng Realmlord." Everyone bowed, their voices congregating together, forming an echo that reverberated through this entire space. Everyone below bowed. From today onwards, the Qingcheng Realmlord shall replace the Lifelong Realmlord, becoming the overlord of this entire realm.

Qin Wentian stared at everyone below as he continued, "The nine world palace lords are to facilitate the passing down of information, the Lifelong Realm no longer exists, it is replaced by the Qingcheng Realm. And now, it's time for me to appoint new world palace lords and change their names."

The Lifelong Realm changed name, some of the nine world palaces would also have a name change. For example, it was impossible for Qin Wentian to continue using the name 'Skyair' for one of the world palaces.

Qin Wentian's words caused many people to be filled with anticipation. Would new world palace lords appear? In the future, these people would be the ones governing the Qingcheng Realm on behalf of Qin Wentian.

"The Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace, Gemini Palace, will have no change to their palace lords or names. The Skyair Palace will be renamed Battle Saint Palace, Qi Yu will be the Battle Saint Palace Lord." The first command Qin Wentian gave after becoming the Realmlord was this and this palace will naturally be governed by people of the Battle Saint Tribe.

"The Dragonsaddle Palace will be renamed as the Southern Phoenix Palace, the Scarlet Origin Palace will be renamed Darknorth Palace, the Gengmetal Palace will be renamed as the Matriarch Ji Palace, the Kanwater Palace will be renamed as the Myriad Devil Palace and the Lifire Palace will be renamed to the Jialan Palace." Qin Wentian continued. These names were too familiar to people of Azure Mystic. Even if Qin Wentian didn't say anything, they also understood who would be the respective palace lords of these newly named palaces. For the first few palace lords, there was no suspense as to who would take the positions. And as for the Myriad Devil Palace Lord, this position naturally would be left to the younger sister of Qin Wentian whom he was the closest with, Bai Qing. And lastly, for the Jialan Palace, it would naturally be Jialan Jiangshan.

Also, there were many who followed Qin Wentian to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who had no positions of command yet there were only so many slots. They could only temporarily wait for other arrangements. The Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Jadestage Immortal Palace and Hundred Refinements Sect had already allied together as one entity back in Azure Mystic. In that case, he will allow them to govern the Darknorth Palace together. As for the name, it was naturally for the sake of Beiming Youhuang. For this point, he didn't care what other people would say. After all, the only person who came here to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms back then, was Beiming Youhuang. She had also almost sacrificed herself for him to the Lifelong Realmlord.

As for the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Jun Mengchen, Little Rascal, Purgatory, Bai Wuya and the others, Qin Wentian planned for them to stay in the Lifelong Sainthall. Naturally, the name of the hall has also been changed to the Qingcheng Sainthall, and Lifelong City was also renamed as Qingcheng City. The name of this city had a connection with the Evergreen Immortal Emperor's name. Since this was the case, he shall leave the governing of this city to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor.

The Lifelong Realm was renamed as the Qingcheng Realm. Six out of the nine world palaces were renamed as well, namely the Battle Saint Palace, Darknorth Palace, Southern Phoenix Palace, Matriarch Ji Palace, Myriad Devil Palace and Jialan Palace. From now on, the Lifelong Realm no longer existed, only the Qingcheng Realm stood tall in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms!

Also, there was a newly titled Reamlord in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. His name is none other than Qin Wentian, the Qingcheng Reamlord!

Chapter 1753: The Curtain is Drawn

The Lifelong Reamlord has died, the Qingcheng Reamlord took over. The nine world palaces were reorganized as the clouds and winds changed.

However, there were still many things that have yet to be settled. For example, those powers who were deeply loyal to the Lifelong Reamlord, as well as many things in the Lifelong Sainthall itself.

“Reamlord, how should we deal with these two? Also, there’s the matter about the Qingcheng Sainthall.” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord asked. His gaze stared at the two fairies who stood beside the Lifelong Reamlord earlier. Before this, their statuses were extremely lofty, accepting the worship of the masses along with the Lifelong Reamlord. How glorious was that? But now, they were the same as Concubine Lu who had died. Their statuses now were extremely awkward.

“Xuanyuan Palace Lord, what do you suggest?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Earlier, Lifelong was disrespectful to Madam Ye. Also, Reamlord you did suggest for these two to dance to the public instead earlier.” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord replied. The expressions of the two fairies instantly changed, becoming extremely unsightly. In the past, their statuses were transcendent, even the Xuanyuan Palace Lord had to bow to them when he saw them. But now, they were actually humiliated like this.

However, they also understood that the circumstances were no longer the same. Before this, their man insulted Qin Wentian’s woman. But now, Qin Wentian has already killed their man. What would their fates be?

Earlier, the Lifelong Reamlord did say that if he killed Qin Wentian, he would take ‘good care’ of Qin Wentian’s women.

Qin Wentian glanced at the Xuanyuan Palace Lord and didn't answer him. He then turned to the two fairies. "What do the two of you think? How should I deal with you?"

The expressions of the two fairies changed. They bit their lips and appeared extremely wronged, easily evoking pity in the hearts of those who saw them. They were extremely charming. One of them bowed, "I'm willing to serve at the side of the Qingcheng Realm Lord, be it as a slave or maid."

Now, what was important was to continue to live on. Pride had to be thrown aside. It wasn't anything much to wait upon Qin Wentian for them to survive. After all, this person was more outstanding than the Lifelong Realm Lord.

"I'm not as despicable as the Lifelong Realm Lord." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. It was impossible for him to really take the Lifelong Realm Lord's women as his own. Serving by his side as a slave or maid? He was very clear what she meant exactly.

"Huang Zhan, I'll give you a mission. Help me investigate clearly about the Lifelong Realm Lord's harem. See which women there were forced to become his concubines back then and free them all. As for those women who had followed him willingly, as well as his descendants, strip them of everything they own, cripple their cultivation bases and let them become commoners." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Those people below all nodded when they heard Qin Wentian's words.

Before their battle, the Lifelong Realm Lord's words to Qin Wentian were extremely malicious. However, after Qin Wentian killed him, he didn't really plan to do any sordid things to the Lifelong Realm Lord's harem for the sake of revenge. He would release those women who were forced, and cripple the cultivation bases of others. Although this was somewhat ruthless, it can already be considered as him being extremely kind, not choosing to slaughter them all. In a strength-oriented world, who didn't understand the logic of exterminating all roots of future trouble? If one wasn't ruthless enough to his enemies, he might even die in the future because of the mercy he had shown.

Qin Wentian wasn't bothered about revenge by these people. But what about his friends and family? It was unknown how many women and descendants the Lifelong Realm Lord had. If one of them matured and began to plot against his friends and family from the shadows, wouldn't he feel regret? Allowing them to be commoners can already be considered a show or mercy from him. If the Lifelong Realm Lord had won, he would definitely use even more sinister methods to deal with Qin Wentian's friends and family.

However, Qin Wentian didn't plan to intentionally kill them just for the sake of a possibility. If not, what difference would there be between him and the Lifelong Realm Lord?

“Your subordinate obeys.” Huang Zhan bowed.

Qin Wentian nodded his head. He then glanced at the crowd below and spoke, “Everyone can return for now. The atmosphere for the grand banquet this time around is already spoiled. However, I’ll make another announcement to the world that three months later, the first grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm shall be held. At that time, there will be even more competition and the rewards will be more generous compared to the past. All of you can come again then to attend the grand banquet.”

“The official grand banquet will be organized three months later?” The eyes of many people flashed with sharpness. Today, they had truly witnessed an extremely shocking event. The change of a dynasty and the rise of a new Realmlord. Three months later, they would even be able to witness the first grand banquet held by the new Qingcheng Sainthall.

They understood the meaning of this banquet. Back then, Qin Wentian killed and replaced the Lifire Palace Lord but this time around, things were different. He had completely replaced the Lifelong Realmlord and had changed the name of the Realm.

The first grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm would only be more lively compared to the past. One could already very well imagine how magnificent the banquet would be.

“During these three months, all new palace lords are to reorganize your world palace’s inner structure and control the powers under you well. Also, help me to pass on the message. I have to trouble everyone then.” Qin Wentian glanced at the new palace lords as he spoke.

“We will naturally do our best.” Jialan Jiangshan bowed, he felt gratitude towards Qin Wentian. Given Qin Wentian’s current status and position, he could completely ignore Jialan Jiangshan. However, Qin Wentian didn’t make use of them this time around. He truly had them in his considerations and changed the name of the Lifire Palace to the Jialan Palace. The new palace lord would naturally be none other than him, Jialan Jiangshan, the controller of the Jialan Clan.

Also, Qin Wentian intentionally gave the Lifire Palace to them because the foundations of the Jialan Clan were in Lifire City. Since that was the case, they would find it easy to take over from Qin Wentian, there wouldn’t be any problems.

Jialan Yuntian and Jialan Yunhai glanced at each other. The Jialan Clan’s dream has finally been realized. From now onwards, the Jialan Clan would be one of the nine world palace lords, governing the vast stretch of territories under the Jialan World Palace. They could make use of this to properly train up some of their clan members.

“If it wasn’t for Qiuyue, we might have missed this opportunity again. We might have even stood on the Lifelong Reamlord’s side.” Jialan Yuntian silently mused, glancing at his granddaughter. However, he only saw the eyes of Jialan Qiuyue fixed on Qin Wentian. He could only helplessly shake his head. Regardless of Di Tian or Qin Wentian, both were too outstanding. There were no young ladies who wouldn’t have their hearts moved by them.

“Everyone, feel free to disperse.” Qin Wentian waved his hand. The crowd wished to continue on but since Qin Wentian had already spoke, they could only leave.

As the crowd gradually dispersed, Qin Wentian came to Yi’s side, “Senior, I took so long before I could come over. Sorry for the wait.”

Qin Wentian was still very respectful towards Yi. He has already heard of Yi’s legendary stories a few hundred years ago when he was merely at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm and gained the inheritance of God’s Hand. To Qin Wentian, no matter what his status or position might be, he would always be filled with respect towards Yi.

Yi smiled and shook his head. “I didn’t feel this earlier, but now, I suddenly felt that I’m truly old.”

Qin Wentian started. After that, he smiled wryly. After all, he was truly much too young when compared to Yi.

“Senior, don’t put it this way. I’ve came all the way till here listening to your legends.” Qin Wentian laughed.

“By saying this, I feel even older now.” Yi rolled his eyes. Qin Wentian’s face was filled with black lines, it seemed that he has said something wrong.

“Haha.” Seeing the awkward look on Qin Wentian’s face, Yi stretched his hands and patted Qin Wentian on his shoulders, “There are geniuses every generation. I’m truly very happy to witness a junior from Azure Mystic being able to have such achievements today. Because Azure Mystic was sealed for many years and had lost all connections with the outer world, in addition to scarce resources and a lack of guidance, this led a lack of truly powerful individuals being born despite the fact that they might have very good innate talents. You are a miracle and I’ve also seen that you’ve brought many people from our world to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I truly feel proud of you.”

“Senior praises me too much.” Qin Wentian knew in his heart that this wasn’t his credit alone. If it wasn’t for the ancient heavenly deities, he wouldn’t have such capabilities to bring out an army of empyreans.

“Go and be busy with your own stuff. There’s no need to bother about me. I’ll stay in the Qingcheng Realm for some days and three months later, I’ll come and find you for a drink.” Yi laughed.

“Right. That’s a deal then.” Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. Yi then walked towards Emperor Yu. A meeting of old friends was naturally filled with many emotions. However, now that Emperor Yu has chosen to follow Qin Wentian, he naturally wouldn’t follow Yi again. None of the others would do so too. This was a respect for Qin Wentian.

The people of the Gemini Palace and members of Battle Saint Tribe gathered together. Right now, their Battle Saint Tribe was in control of two world palaces – the Battle Saint Palace and Gemini Palace.

Qin Wentian brought everyone to the Lifelong Sainthall and restructured some of the things within. After that, he handed everything that needs to be done to the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord and Xuanyuan Palace Lord before he used the teleportation array to return back to the Lifire Palace. He didn’t like to handle these miscellaneous stuff, hence, he delegated it all to his subordinates.

Qin Wentian naturally also brought Ye Qianyu back to the Lifire Palace. This was the first time Ye Qianyu met with Qing`er and Qingcheng and their meeting wasn’t as awkward as Qin Wentian imagined. Ye Qianyu was very passionate towards Qing`er and Qingcheng. Also, what sort of characters were Qing`er and Qingcheng? Since Ye Qianyu was already Qin Wentian’s woman and had made so many sacrifices for him, they were naturally willing to accept her. Three women of unexcelled beauty, each with their own style, were soon on very good terms with one another. In fact, they even chased Qin Wentian out of the palace lord’s bed room in the Lifire Palace. This made Qin Wentian feel extremely depressed. No matter what, he was the Qingcheng Realmlord, right? Wouldn’t he lose a lot of face if others learned that he was forced out of the bedroom by his wives?

Mo Qingcheng had a satisfied smile on her face as she replied. Since this realm was named the Qingcheng Realm, doesn’t that means that the ones truly in control here was she and Qing`er? How would Qin Wentian dare to say that it was not the case? He could only silently sneak away, sighing in his heart that it was easier to establish an empire than to control a harem. Three women of different charms stayed together in the Lifire Palace Lord's bedroom while he was chased away. How miserable was this?

After the new palace lords returned to their palaces, they used iron-blooded methods to cleanse each palace. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the Darknorth Immortal Emperor now became the rulers of those powers under the respective world palaces. They were used to having such authority and there was no need to question their methods. Also, now that they were empyreans, Qin Wentian wasn't worried that they wouldn't be able to control their palaces.

After the restructuring, the change in name to the Qingcheng Realm and the changes in name to the six world palaces, soon spread across the realm. In the grand banquet held once every hundred years, the story of how the Qingcheng Realmlord killed the Lifelong Realmlord soon began to circulate around the world. Countless people were discussing this. Qin Wentian was truly a legendary character displaying his brilliance, rising up in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Very swiftly, the news about the upcoming grand banquet that would soon be organized by the Qingcheng Sainthall also spread. More and more people respectively headed towards Qingcheng City, wanting to see the legendary character who killed the Lifelong Realmlord. This was someone who used a mere hundred years to climb from the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm to the world overlord realm. He was originally a governor from the Lifire Palace and now, he inherited this entire realm, becoming the Qingcheng Realmlord.

There were people who claimed that this name lacked an air of tyranny, but they were soon shot down by those who knew of the finer details and mocked them for their ignorance. The name of the Qingcheng Realm was chosen because the words 'Qingcheng' were the characters of Qin Wentian's beloved first two wives. Such a beautiful story filled with emotions caused countless beautiful women in the world to feel extremely envious!

Chapter 1754: Grand Banquet of the Qingcheng Realm

The first grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm was about to commence. Today, experts gathered from all eight directions, everywhere outside the Qingcheng Sainthall was filled to the brim. There were even more people now compared to the previous grand banquet held by the Lifelong Sainthall.

Right now, Qin Wentian has already moved to the Qingcheng Sainthall. Everything here was already properly arranged by the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord and the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. The restructuring of the nine world palaces have also been completed, each of the new palace lords ascended to their thrones smoothly, gained their rightful authorities.

Outside the Qingcheng Sainthall, Qin Wentian sat on the throne above the stairway of ten thousand steps. There were four beautiful women beside him. Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er sat on his left and right, Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang sat in the seat next to Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er respectively.

Each of these four beauties had a different demeanor but all of them were undoubtedly incomparably radiant. Countless people stared at Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er. Now, everyone in the Qingcheng Realm already know that the two words of the Qingcheng Realm, 'Qingcheng,' were referring to Qin Wentian's wives. It was rumored that their feelings for each other were extremely deep and had been together for many years. They spent their teens together and shared life and death, enduring many difficulties before they arrived at this point today.

Hence, this was why they sat at the left and right of Qin Wentian, enjoying the worship of the masses. This was something Qin Wentian had once silently vowed. If one day he managed to gain control of an entire realm, he would definitely allow Qing`er and Qingcheng to be together with him as they enjoyed the respect of the crowd together.

The Qingcheng Reamlord has already publicly announced that Ye Qianyu was his woman. But even a woman so charming like Ye Qianyu was unable to replace the position of his first two wives in his heart. For this point, one would be able to infer it just from the seating arrangements.

As for Beiming Youhuang, everyone was filled with speculation. This was especially so given the position of her seating. However, since the Qingcheng Reamlord had announced before that there was nothing on going with him and Beiming Youhuang, there shouldn't be anything false about this. Given his status and position, there was basically no need for him to lie. Let alone, he had also said to the Lifelong Reamlord before that if she was his woman, how would he not dare to admit that?

However, even if there weren't any official relations of love between them, the crowd guessed that they must have suffered many things together and they might have feelings for each other in their hearts.

In the direction of the nine world palaces, many people smiled at the Darknorth Immortal Emperor. He has a chance to be the same like the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, becoming Qin Wentian's father-in-law. Naturally, this was only a possibility. No one could be sure of the exact relationship between Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang.

“Today is the day where the Qingcheng Realm’s grand banquet starts. Everyone taking their time to come here is considered a recognition to me. Three months ago, I’ve already said that the grand banquet this time around would be even more grand compared to the past ones in the Lifelong Realm. Everyone can enjoy the delicacies we prepared freely, I won’t be stingy at all. Also, for experts at the immortal-foundation realm and above, we will hold a competition for each cultivation realm on the gigantic platform. Anyone is allowed to participate, this isn’t limited only to people from the nine world palaces. People from the various powers, or even unaffiliated cultivators can join as well. For those who manage to place in the top ten, I will heavily reward them. They can either enter one of the nine world palaces to assume an official position or they can choose to be nurtured heavily. If any of the empyreans from the nine world palaces wants to, they can accept the top ten as disciples as well.”

Qin Wentian continued, “For the top three in each cultivation realm, I’ll allow the nine world palace lords themselves to accept them as personal disciples.”

When everyone heard this, their eyes gleamed with sharpness and anticipation. However, when they thought of how intense the competition would be, many people felt somewhat disappointed, knowing that they don’t stand a chance. However, the Qingcheng Realmlord did indeed open up the table and gave many geniuses a chance. Even creating a bout of good fortune where the top three of all the cultivation realms can choose to become a personal disciple under one of the world palace lords. Leaving aside the other rewards, just this alone was extremely attractive to many geniuses.

“We immortal-foundation experts have a chance as well.” Many juniors at the immortal-foundation realm clenched their fists tightly, feeling excitement. This time, they had to go all out. To many people, this was truly good fortune, capable of propelling them up into the heavens in a single step, directly becoming core characters of the Qingcheng Realm. Right now, all the world palace lords were the Qingcheng Realmlord’s trusted aides. As long as they became the disciples of the nine world palace lords, they would have the chance in the future to slowly come in contact with the Qingcheng Realmlord.

“Everyone, don’t feel restrained, just enjoy the banquet to your utmost. Next, I will merely act the part of a silent spectator. Everything else shall be handed by the nine world palace lords.” Qin Wentian laughed. He originally was extremely young and handsome. The sound of his laughter gave people the feeling of enjoying a breeze in spring time. Many people silently mused that the Qingcheng Realmlord’s charisma was far above the Lifelong Realmlord.

The sound of his laughter instantly caused countless beauties here in the crowd to fall into a daze. Right now, many young misses of the various aristocrat clans and major powers were all present here. When they heard of how much value the Qingcheng Realmlord placed on emotions, and the fact that he was also young and handsome, they decided to come here for a look. After they saw him, they realized that the rumors did his appearance no justice. They were all filled with envy and admiration for Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng, able to accompany him by his side.

The Lifelong Realmlord had countless beauties in his harem. Yet now, as the Qingcheng Realmlord, Qin Wentian only had three women. If he was willing to, most probably all the beauties from the major powers wouldn't mind giving themselves to him.

After all, the rumors stated that Qin Wentian cultivated for less than a thousand years, and was even younger than many immortal kings. It was impossible to find another more outstanding person of the younger generation in the Qingcheng Realm.

The Red Dust Immortal Palace Mistress voluntarily led her dancers up to perform. This time, those who performed all did so willingly. Many of them envied Ye Qianyu, being able to be at the side of such a legendary character.

“Senior Yi, Wentian respectfully offers you a toast.” When the banquet commenced, Qin Wentian truly did act the part of a silent spectator. He no longer paid attention to the proceedings and turned his gaze towards World Overlord Yi who was seated not far away from him. By arranging Yi's seat to be on the same row as him, this was naturally a mark of his respect to Yi. Yi's existence also caused many people to feel admiration. Today, they actually could see two world overlords.

“Wentian, now that you've already reached my level, there's no need to call me senior. Just refer to me as Yi.” World Overlord Yi spoke.

“I've gotten used to that. After all in my heart, you are truly an esteemed senior from the elder generation.” Qin Wentian smiled.

“Alright, up to you then. You do really have a sweet tongue, causing the hearts of many to be moved. Seems like you really have the heart to nurture the juniors of the Qingcheng Realm.” Yi laughed.

“This world would never lack geniuses. If there are truly elites with surpassing-levels of talent, why don't we put our heart in nurturing them? In the future they would have a chance to become legendary characters as well.” Qin Wentian smiled.

“That’s only natural. In the past, Lifelong didn’t do this because he was selfish. He had too strong a desire towards power and wasn’t willing to see people of this realm exceed him.”

“He was still too narrow-minded. If he was truly magnanimous, so what if there are people who surpass him? They would still be respectful to him for guiding them and wouldn’t have thoughts of replacing him. After all, when one is in the world overlord realm, there are still many other things they can pursue.”

“That’s indeed true. Wentian, given your talent I’m sure you won’t be limited to here. Although the Qingcheng Realm is extremely vast, having endless stretches of territories, such a place was already sufficient for the ambition of the Lifelong Realmlord. But to you, I still feel that this place is too small. You should seek out a vaster stage.” Yi suggested.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded his head. This was only something natural.

“Today, although I’ve comprehended heavenheart mandates and gained the title of the Qingcheng Realmlord, senior should know that in reality, I’ve yet to fully enter the World Overlord Realm. Next, I’m prepared to put in more effort in cultivation until I can comprehend enough insights to manifest my world heart. At the same time, I also want to learn more about the general situation of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” Qin Wentian spoke, this was his plan. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was just too vast, he wouldn’t be unduly humble but he would also not be egotistical and arrogant.

In the ancient battlefield, Qin Wentian’s horizons were broadened, he had seen before many extremely powerful heavenheart mandates and naturally knew that the Lifelong Realmlord was just considered one of the weaker World Overlords. Right now, although he had sufficient strength to kill the Lifelong Realmlord, he was still too weak in the perspective of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If he encountered a world overlord who had comprehended supreme heavenheart mandates, he wouldn’t be their opponent.

For the World Overlord Realm, it wasn’t divided into smaller tiers. Because, the difference in strength between each world overlord could be extremely vast. So vast to the extend where there was basically no way to contain the difference in tiers.

“Good plan. But now that you would have to endure immense loneliness as you seek to improve via cultivation.” Yi laughed. Now that Qin Wentian was the Qingcheng Realmlord, he could do whatever he wanted and there was no need for him to feel any restraints at all, he could enjoy himself to the utmost if he so wanted, or he could go and roam his territories. After all, cultivation was a very boring and assiduous matter.

“To me, cultivation is also joy.” Qin Wentian smiled and replied. He turned his gaze towards the crowd. Right now, the Qingcheng Realm has already been established and as the Qingcheng Realmlord, it can be considered that he can already stand stably here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Next, he needed a period of time for his realm’s foundation to be stable first and nothing was more suitable than to use this time for cultivation.

There were still many places in the ancient battlefield where he wished to venture to. How would he feel that cultivation was dry and boring? Everyday would be extremely fascinating, he was prepared to use a very long period of time to fully explore each secret realm inside the ancient battlefield and truly step into the World Overlord Realm.

“Treating cultivation as a joyful matter is also a kind of heart state.” Yi shook his head and smiled. He wasn’t able to do so. No wonder his talent for cultivation wasn’t as good as Qin Wentian’s.

At this moment, Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed as a frown appeared on his face. He and Yi stared in the distance at the same time. From there, a group of experts could be seen flying through the air, gradually moving nearer. They then arrived here before Qin Wentian, and there were quite a few empyreans in the lead, clearly the leaders of this powerful group.

Countless people below stared in the air at this group of people. Today was the day the grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm commenced yet there were actually people who directly dared to fly through the air, barging in here uninvited? Who would be so audacious and rude?

“I pay my respects to the Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian.” The person standing in the frontmost row clasped his hands, expressing his attitude. However, his manner didn’t seem to be very respectful.

“Where are you all from?” Qin Wentian’s expression was calm as he stared at them.

“We all came from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. After we heard Realmlord Qin had killed the Lifelong Realmlord and ascended to the throne with the title of the Qingcheng Realmlord, the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord immediately specially arranged for us to come here to offer congratulations to you” That person laughed. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. The Heavenly Talisman Realm was the neighbouring Realm to the Qingcheng Realm. The news had spread very quickly indeed.

“Received. You guys can leave now.” Qin Wentian directly sent out a guest-expulsion order. The attitudes of these people from the Heavenly Talisman Realm weren’t that polite. Since that was the case, there was naturally no need for him to be polite too.

“Realmlord Qin and us can be considered as being in the same sect before, why is there a need to cast us so far aside? In any case, although Realmlord Qin is the Realmlord of an entire realm now, you can be considered my junior apprentice brother. Master, the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord intentionally asked us here to offer well wishes.” That person laughed loudly, instantly causing great shock to surface in the hearts of many people. The Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian was actually a disciple of the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord?

“Scram.” Qin Wentian only replied with a single word. That man coldly smiled, he opened his mouth, wanting to say something more but Qin Wentian then continued, “Speak another sentence and you shall be executed.”

The expression of that person instantly turned extremely ugly. He continued to smile coldly, staring at Qin Wentian, “Farewell.”

As he spoke, he directly led his group away. They came here simply to embarrass Qin Wentian. In the lower world, Qin Wentian had destroyed the Heavenly Talisman Realm’s plan and this incident clearly has already spread to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Everyone could see Qin Wentian’s attitude and instantly knew that there was much more to that story which they didn’t know. If not, why would Qin Wentian be so respectful to Yi, yet not respectful to his master? Many people felt curious about this but this wasn’t something they ought to be worrying themselves over. They might as well enjoy this grand banquet instead. In the future, there would still be opportunities to find out more.

“No need to care about them, let the banquet continue.” Qin Wentian waved his hand and spoke. Everyone nodded, the grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm continued to commence. What happened earlier was just a small ripple of disturbance, it didn’t disrupt the banquet in anyway.

Chapter 1755: Convention of the Myriad Realms

The grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm concluded perfectly, many geniuses appeared. Be it at the immortal emperor realm, immortal king realm or immortal-foundation realm, there were many individuals with outstanding talent that appeared. This was especially so for the immortal-foundation realm because the immortal-foundation realm could be separated into nine levels. Qin Wentian rewarded the top three of each level heavily, and there were even some who joined the nine world palaces, even taking on the palace lords as their master, becoming the subject of envy of countless others.

When the banquet ended, many people left with reluctance. They all stayed for a while more in the city before finally leaving. However, Qin Wentian's figure remained deeply etched in their minds. This was especially so for the younger juniors. They were filled with admiration, worship, respect and reverence for him. They all also longed to be like the Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian, exuding boundless magnificence, controlling endless stretches of territories, surrounded by beauties and enjoying the worship of everyone in the world. How glorious would that be?

After the Qingcheng grand banquet ended, Qin Wentian bade the various palace lords to continue with their restructuring of the various world palaces. Although the time of three months was sufficient for them to control the world palaces, it was impossible for them to sort out everything. There were still some territories under the various world palaces that were in chaos due to the death of their previous palace lords and the Lifelong Realmlord. An example was the many mines of the Qingcheng Realm. These mines were the foundation of the Qingcheng Realm, they were land of treasures and it was best to control them properly. After all, these mines could constantly provide the Qingcheng Realm with cultivation resources.

Now, Qin Wentian wasn't cultivating alone, he had many followers and he had to let them catch up to him in terms of their cultivation bases. Other than the guidance provided by the heavenly deities, cultivation resources cannot be lacking.

After everything was settled, Di Tian returned from the lower world and came to the Qingcheng Realm, taking control of this realm while the Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace, Jialan Clan and the other palace lords would help out by supporting him.

As for Qin Wentian, he brought his wives and friends and family back down to the lower world once more.

Back then, the things that happened at the grand banquet was just a minor disruption to Qin Wentian. It was impossible that he act against the Heavenly Talisman Realm just because the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord sent people here to embarrass him. That would be completely irrational. Before this, he has already spoken with World Overlord Yi. Now, it can be considered that he could stand stably in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. His top priority now was to completely break through to the World Overlord Realm. This was his only goal for now.

Right now, Azure Mystic was peaceful again. No one else dared to create trouble. The storm of commotion caused by the appearance of the ancient battlefield gradually ceased, it wasn't like before where waves of experts would come here in unending waves. However, there were still some characters with extraordinary identities who sought to enter but they were no longer as high-profile as before and were silently searching for their own good fortune.

The winds and clouds of the world were changing. Tens of years passed in the blink of an eye. Such a period of time can be considered extremely short in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Even to Azure Mystic, this period of time wasn't considered anything much.

During these tens of years, Qin Wentian and the others improved a lot.

Today, Qin Wentian exited from the World of Ten Thousand Laws and was shaking his head in a depressed manner. The shadow of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity appeared beside him and smiled, "What's the matter? Don't you feel very delighted?"

"Senior, don't tease me." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. The World of Ten Thousand Laws wasn't merely a place for one to comprehend insights, it was also a place for mock combat against those monument spirits who each comprehend a heavenheart mandate. For those who fought in the World of Ten Thousand Laws, they could clearly sense the exact details of the powers of each heavenheart mandate.

Qin Wentian would frequently go for mock combat sessions in the World of Ten Thousand Laws. Right now, he has already comprehended quite a few heavenheart mandates and were all extraordinary ones. Ordinary world overlords wouldn't be his opponent but even so, he still lost several times in the World of Ten Thousand Laws. It was still fine at the start, but as he continued on, some immensely powerful heavenheart mandates would appear and he could only be abused by them. There was actually not much of a difference between now and then when he was at the empyrean realm, he instantly died upon encountering those immensely powerful heavenheart mandates.

"Haha, you've already improved a lot. Your talent is truly very rare seeing that you are able to comprehend so many heavenheart mandates in such a short time. Next, I'll wait for you to manifest your world heart." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity laughed. "How is the progress of that?"

"I'm still trying to comprehend some things, I have no idea when I would receive a breakthrough." Qin Wentian replied.

“Mhm, there’s no need to rush things. Given your talent, things will surely flow naturally when the time is right. I would rather you spend a longer period of time to manifest a stronger world heart. In that case, you would be able to save many years of cultivation in the future and would be many times stronger compared to those world overlords who have an ordinary world heart.” The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke. He wouldn’t have such high hopes on ordinary people but it was different for Qin Wentian. The Skybreak Heavenly Deity set a very high goal for Qin Wentian, an extremely high goal. He hoped that Qin Wentian’s world heart would be able to shock all his enemies in the future.

The Skybreak Heavenly Deity was filled with anticipation. It was fine now that Qin Wentian has yet to completely break through to the world overlord realm. But once he became one, he would immediately be able to insta-kill those ordinary world overlords.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. It was truly difficult to comprehend a world heart. Right now to him, it was much easier to comprehend heavenheart mandates. Naturally, if it wasn’t for Qin Wentian himself wanting to reach for a higher point or he could have already manifested an ordinary world heart and step into the world overlord realm. However, he wasn’t willing to settle for less.

“Oh, I have bad news for you. It’s said that Beiming Youhuang is already attempting to break through to the World Overlord Realm, she might enter that realm earlier than you.” The Skybreak Heavenly Deity smiled.

A strange look appeared on Qin Wentian’s face, before a smile appeared. He was naturally happy that Youhuang’s talent was good. Also, Beiming Youhuang’s ambitions weren’t as high as his. Beiming Youhuang, who had comprehended a heavenheart mandate, was already preparing to manifest a world heart from it, thereby officially entering the world overlord realm.

Just when they were speaking, in a place extremely faraway, an intense coldness suddenly radiated out. That entire space instantly transformed into a world of ice and snow, even the dome of heaven seemed to be frozen solid. Qin Wentian and the Skybreak Heavenly Deity turned their gaze over there only to see snowflakes drifting around randomly in the flawlessly pure white world that suddenly appeared.

A flawlessly beautiful silhouette appeared in the world of ice and snow, resembling a goddess. She gleamed with light and exuded the icy pureness of jade. This was naturally none other than Beiming Youhuang.

“I was just saying about that, to think that my words came true and she did break through before you.” The Skybreak Heavenly Deity laughed. Qin Wentian stared at that beautiful figure of Beiming Youhuang as a smile appeared on his eyes. He was naturally happy that Beiming Youhuang had broken through. Another world overlord appeared by his side. In the future, there would still be even more world overlords. For example, Qing`er, Mengchen, Little Rascal and the others. He was truly filled with anticipation for that.

“Go.” Qin Wentian’s figure flashed, flying towards the world of ice and snow. Not only him, many people had discovered the situation here and were all flying here as well. Not long after, many people appeared before Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang slowly descended from the air, her aura now actually had a few hints of holiness.

To think that back then, the Lifelong Realmlord wanted to take her as his concubine. How ridiculous was that? Given the Lifelong Realmlord’s talent, was he even worthy of her? Let alone taking her as a concubine.

Beside Beiming Youhuang, an ethereal silhouette could be seen. She simply stood there, exuding a saint-like holy aura akin to a true goddess. Even the ancient heavenly deities were all very respectful towards her and had never referred to her by her name before. Her title also remained unknown as no one would discuss about her. Qin Wentian only recently knew about this goddess from the Skybreak Heavenly Deity. It seems like the status of the ancient heavenly deity that was guiding Beiming Youhuang was somewhat extraordinary. This person was actually the daughter of the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

Qin Wentian was naturally very joyful that Youhuang was able to take such an esteemed character as her master. Youhuang initially obtained the Death Scripture inheritance from that crazy old freak, inheriting half of the inheritance from the Imperishable Heaven Lord. And now, the Imperishable Heaven Lord’s daughter was the one guiding her. Everything seemed to be fated.

“Youhuang, your cultivation base now is even higher than mine.” Qin Wentian smiled. Beiming Youhuang’s beautiful eyes turned to Qin Wentian. “If you want to break through, you can do so at any time.”

“But the fact remains that I still haven’t broken through yet. You don’t need to console me..., I won’t be jealous of you.” Qin Wentian joked.

“Youhuang.” The Darknorth Immortal Emperor rushed over. He was extremely happy when he saw his daughter. His daughter was already an existence at the world overlord realm.

“It’s all due to Master’s effort.” Beiming Youhuang glanced at the divine goddess beside her.

“If your comprehension abilities are lacking, it’s useless even if I guide you.” The goddess was extremely calm. She then continued, “However, don’t feel too self-satisfied. Stepping into the world overlord realm is merely the initial step. Next, you have to continue to transform your world heart and grow even stronger.”

“Mhm, I’ll obey the teachings of master.” Beiming Youhuang nodded.

“Go and mingle with your friends.” The divine goddess spoke and left. Many people teased Qin Wentian asking when would he break through. After all, Qin Wentian’s talent was the highest among them but Beiming Youhuang was the first to break through to the World Overlord Realm.

Qin Wentian could feel a great pressure.

Next, Beiming Youhuang naturally wanted to stabilize her foundation and condense her eighth astral soul. This was extremely important. After the gathering, everyone left respectively, no longer disturbing Beiming Youhuang from her cultivation.

Qin Wentian once again chose to enter seclusion to silently meditate. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Di Tian roamed through all the major mines in the Qingcheng Realm as both of them comprehended and gained insights simultaneously.

After cultivating for several years, unknowingly, much time had passed by once again. In total, a hundred years had actually passed by.

A hundred years was considered short in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but to Qin Wentian, it was an extremely long period of time. He had never been so focused, using a total of one hundred years solely for his cultivation. But, in order to complete his break through, he didn’t hesitate to do so. From this point, one could very well imagine how difficult it must be for Qin Wentian to try and comprehend an extraordinary world heart.

In the Qingcheng Sainthall, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord came by to meet with Di Tian, asking if Qin Wentian would return or not. After all, the second grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm would soon commence and the nine world palace lords would also have to bring the tributes they collected over.

In the hall, Qin Wentian appeared and granted an audience to the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. Not only was Qin Wentian there, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord also discovered that there were several other world palace lords present as well. This made the Xuanyuan Palace Lord sigh. Seems like these people were the true trusted aides of Qin Wentian. It was rumored that all of them had vanished for a long time since the last grand banquet. This made the Xuanyuan Palace Lord extremely curious at where they went. Did they go to the ancient battlefield to search for good fortune again?

However, he didn't dare to ask. Since Qin Wentian didn't voluntarily tell him, he knew that he shouldn't ask.

"I pay my respects to Realmlord." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord spoke. "I was still wondering if Realmlord would participate in the second grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm. Seems like I was worried for nothing."

"The organizing of the grand banquet this time will still be handed to you all. I'll just be a silent spectator. However, Xuanyuan Palace Lord, I just received an invitation some time earlier." Qin Wentian spoke.

"What invitation?" The Xuanyuan Realmlord asked.

"Take a look yourself." Qin Wentian waved his hand as an invitation letter with a resplendent seal flew towards the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. When he saw the words on the letter, his eyes narrowed as his heart involuntarily trembled.

On the invitation, there were only five words.

"Convention of the Myriad Realms!"

Chapter 1756: The Eight Regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms

Qin Wentian knew that the Xuanyuan Palace Lord knew about the Convention of the Myriad Realms from his reaction. He then asked, "Xuanyuan Palace Lord, what's your understanding about this?"

“I know a little, but this subordinate still doesn’t have the qualifications to come in contact with it. The convention of the myriad realms in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is considered the most grand and majestic of all events. This subordinate doesn’t even have the qualifications to participate.” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord shook his head and continued, “It has been a hundred years since Realmlord ascended to this throne, and this must have coincided with the next convention. To receive this invitation means those organizing this event regards Realmlord highly. This invitation is a confirmation of your strength and status.”

“Oh?” Qin Wentian glanced at the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. During these hundred years, other than his cultivation, he also gained an understanding of the situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. However, it was impossible for him to learn of everything and familiarize with every great event. He wasn’t that clear about this Convention of the Myriad Realms, this was why he asked the Xuanyuan Palace Lord.

“Tell me what you know.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“The Convention of the Myriad Realms is one of the most top-notch grand events in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only Realmlords who control endless territories and authority would have the qualifications to be invited. Naturally, there would also be some superpowers and aristocrat clans participating. It’s a gathering of the powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that are at the peak and this isn’t something our Qingcheng Grand Banquet can be compared to. The Convention of the Myriad Realms is on a much larger scale and consists of countless powers like the Qingcheng Realm.” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord explained.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed, gleaming with sharpness. This was actually one of the top-notch peak-level gatherings of the Mystic Region. Seems like now that he was the overlord of an entire realm, it can be considered that he has arrived at the edge of those who stands at the peak of this world and had the qualifications to come in contact with people at that level. Through his years of cultivation, he had participated in many grand events before and they had a profound effect on him.

But now, this invitation seemed to be for an event that would far exceed any of the past events he had participated in before.

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were too vast. The people here divided this world into a total of eight regions namely: Heaven, Earth, Mystic, Yellow, Universe, Eternity, Chaos and Desolate. The region the Qingcheng Realm was in, was known as the Mystic Region and known as the Supreme Ancient Mystic Region.

The vastness of the Mystic Region was unimaginable, capable of holding the territories of ten thousand realms.

“It’s those peak existences in the Mystic Region that issued the invitations?” Qin Wentian glanced at the Xuanyuan Palace Lord as he continued asking.

“Mhm, ever since ancient times, this convention was held once every ten thousand years. The Mystic Region will send the invitation out three years in advance, allowing people to prepare. I heard that previously, the Lifelong Realmlord has also participated in it before but he didn’t mention anything about it. Maybe, he no longer wanted to participate in it. But I naturally don’t know the full details.” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord continued.

Qin Wentian nodded, there might be many reasons why the Lifelong Realmlord didn’t mention anything about this event. But the largest possibility was that the Lifelong Realmlord didn’t even have a sense of existence when he went to this peak-level event as he was a negligible existence. Hence, he didn’t even wish to participate in it any more or he might have no longer received an invitation. But since the Lifelong Realmlord has already died, there was no way to verify the truth of this matter. Qin Wentian could only speculate.

However, Qin Wentian could imagine many things. This was a peak-level top-notch event of the Supreme Ancient Mystic Region, and all the ten thousand realms here would receive an invitation. The number of world overlords would naturally be a staggering amount. Given the Lifelong Realmlord’s puny strength, he would truly be an insignificant character among them even if he participated. It was only normal that he wouldn’t mention anything about this to his subordinates.

“This invitation is truly simple enough, there’s no mention of the date and location at all.” Qin Wentian laughed. There were only five words in the invitation letter ‘Convention of the Myriad Realms.’ However, this by itself was a sign of transcendent majesty. These five words were already sufficient to represent everything.

“The time for this event should be roughly about three years after since the moment Realmlord received the invitation.” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord spoke.

“Do you know any concrete details about the convention?” Qin Wentian asked.

“This subordinate truly has no idea as this event is too far away for me. Hence, I’ve never sought out information about this or tried to understand it deeper. I’ve only heard of the famous name of the Convention of the Myriad Realms.” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord bitterly smiled and shook his head. Even the Xuanyuan Palace Lord had no idea about this peak-level grand event of the Supreme

Ancient Mystic Region. From this, one could very well imagine how vast the Mystic Region is. There was simply too much news that had no way to be spread to the Qingcheng Realm.

“I understand.” Qin Wentian nodded. “You can leave now to prepare the grand banquet. I’ll still have to depend on you to do your best, organizing and managing the once per hundred year event.”

“Realmlord is too polite, this is something subordinate ought to do. I will naturally put in all my effort.” The Xuanyuan Palace Lord clasped his hands. “This subordinate shall take my leave.”

After that, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord left the area.

After the Xuanyuan Palace Lord departed, Qin Wentian mumbled to himself as he stared at the invitation in his hand. Should he attend this peak-level gathering of the Mystic Region?

He soon had a decision in his heart. This event would enable him to meet with characters from the various areas who stood at the peak, extremely powerful world overlords would surely be there. Since this was an event that occurs only once every ten thousand years, he mustn’t miss out on it.

He decided to go!

“What do you think?” At this moment, the voice of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity rang out.

“Senior, I decided to participate.” Qin Wentian replied.

“Mhm, right now since you have already reached this level and have completed your world heart, it’s indeed time for you to venture out and roam around a bit to take a look at the various peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Although you won’t be able to meet heavenly deities, there would surely be plenty of those world overlords in the major powers and junior generations. You might as well take this chance to see how outstanding the juniors nurtured by the major powers of these immortal realms are, and see if you can pry into how deep the foundations of these major powers are.” The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke. He naturally hoped for Qin Wentian to participate to broaden his horizons. Undoubtedly, he had very high hopes for Qin Wentian, wanting him to walk to the peak of this world.

“I’m also filled with anticipation.” Qin Wentian’s eyes were as bright as the stars. He had seen so many heavenly deities in the ancient battlefield and entered secret realms such as the World of the Ten Thousand Laws. However, what would those characters standing at the true peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms be like? It was impossible for him to come in contact with them if he stayed in the Qingcheng Realm. He would only be able to see them if he went for the Convention of the Myriad Realms.

It's just that in the Mystic Region of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there didn't seem to be any peak powers or any heavenly deity races that were surnamed Qin.

Where was the clan of his father and mother exactly? Would he be able to see some of his parents clan members at the convention?

Right now, he could already stand stably in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and has officially stepped into the world overlord level completely. In the depths of his heart, emotions began to stir especially when he recalled what he had seen in those memory fragments his father left behind for him. When he remembered how much his father had suffered, he suddenly felt an intense impulsiveness to destroy everything and kill those so-called clan members of his father who acted against him all those years ago.

If he didn't seek revenge for this, he wasn't fit enough to be called a son.

Also, he didn't really know much about his mother. He really wanted to know what sort of magnificent character his mother might be.

Right now, he finally has the qualifications to come in contact with people at a higher level. He would definitely be able to climb to the peak one day!

Chapter 1757: Time City

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was at the very top of the thirty-three immortal realms. It was divided into a total of eight regions namely: the Heaven, Earth, Mystic, Yellow, Universe, Eternity, Chaos and Desolate regions. The division of these eight regions had another deeper layer of meaning behind them. For each of the eight regions, they had control over different lower worlds.

Among the thirty-three immortal realms, other than the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were still thirty-two immortal realms which are otherwise also known as the lower worlds. The peak powers of each region in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had control over quite a few immortal realms, with one of the regions controlling three, the others four. Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was the only lower world yet to be controlled by any region or if not, just so nicely, each of the eight regions would control four lower worlds.

Naturally, this was an ideal number. If Azure Mystic hadn't been sealed away, it was unknown which region would have control over it.

Right now in the Mystic Region, there were a total of three hegemon-level powers. In their hands, they control a total of four lower worlds. From this, one could very well imagine how strong they are. Naturally, these hegemon powers also have many subordinate powers under them and their subordinate powers were also immensely powerful ones.

But from Qin Wentian's understanding of the general situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the Mystic Region wasn't the strongest. A very long time ago, he had already learned from the crazy old freak that there was a region in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that focused solely on the buddhist-path and they controlled a total of four lower worlds as well. The buddha religion was then spread throughout the four lower worlds as they gathered even more members than ever before.

Also, in the Universe Region in the western direction, the territories under the buddha sect's control also had the name of the Pure Land of Ultimate Bliss.

The location of the Convention of the Myriad Realms was always fixed. It was just that because the Qingcheng Realm was extremely far away but if one made some enquiries, they would learn that for this convention that occurs once every ten thousand years, the location was always at an ancient city that was a symbol to the Mystic Region. It was a place where gods rose. In the ancient era, during the time where the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were divided into eight regions by the first generations of heavenly deities, one of the eight heavenly deities originated precisely from this city. That was a legendary character that was given the title Time King, there were also others who referred to him as the Godking of Time.

In order to commemorate the city he was born in this city was renamed Time City.

And now, Qin Wentian arrived at this ancient and majestic city. It has been around two years plus since he received the invitation and the Convention of the Myriad Realms would soon commence in several months time inside this city. He came here a few months earlier in advance. He had to travel through several realms and spent a very long time before he arrived.

Naturally, Qin Wentian wasn't the only one who came. There were many people who followed him. Qing'er, Qingcheng, Beiming Youhuang, Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Nanfeng Yaoyue and the others all chose to come with him, preparing to take in the sights of the Convention of the Myriad Realms. Also, all of them possessed enough strength now and could wander about freely. In addition to the fact that he was already a world overlord, they needn't be as cautious as before when they roamed this world.

As for the Qingcheng Realm, everything there now has already been stabilized. With the passage of a hundred years, the nine world palace lords have finished their restructuring completely. There wouldn't be any chaos.

Little Rascal, who was currently in the form of a golden roc, soared through the air and descended on the ground. In this city, many majestic buildings were constructed so tall that their top would touch the clouds. Those traveling in the air needed to take note of this, and there would also be many powerful greater demons flying in the air frequently, consisting of dragons, phoenixes, kirins, taotie, qiongqi and some other powerful variation-type demon beasts.

"I realized that empyreans, who are considered rare in the Qingcheng Realm, cannot be counted as anything here." Jun Mengchen glanced at the experts in the surroundings as he spoke. In the past, the Lifelong Sainthall controlled Lifelong City extremely strictly. Ordinary characters wouldn't have the qualifications to stay in the Lifelong Sainthall, let alone an ancient legendary city like Time City.

"Senior brother, do you see any world overlords?" Jun Mengchen asked Qin Wentian. Even now, he still referred to Qin Wentian as senior brother.

"Mhm, there are quite a few." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Where are they?" Excitement flashed in Jun Mengchen's eyes. He hadn't met many world overlords before, only a few. Now that they've reached Time City, he naturally wanted to see how powerful the world overlords here are.

"You see the white-hair elder in front of you?" Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice to Jun Mengchen. Jun Mengchen started and stared ahead, there was indeed an old man with white hair there. He was currently hobbling slowly with a bent back, and looked extremely aged. Also, his dressing was very simple, his appearance couldn't be anything more ordinary.

"Senior, are you sure you are not lying to me?" Jun Mengchen blinked. When he spoke, the old man in front halted his steps and turned back to glance at Jun Mengchen. His eyes narrowed into slits as he smiled but at this moment, a terrifying beam of light suddenly shot out from the eyes of this old man. In just an instant, Jun Mengchen felt his own soul being confined as he fell into a daze.

“Who asked you to speak nonsense? Quickly apologize to this senior.” Qin Wentian laughed. When he spoke, a formless energy radiated from him, causing Jun Mengchen to feel much better. That old man also laughed as he glanced at Qin Wentian.

“Junior has overstepped my bounds. Please forgive me.” Jun Mengchen weakly laughed. At this moment, no more doubts filled his heart.

“No worries.” The old man laughed. He then spoke to Qin Wentian, “Young man, are you here to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms?”

“Mhm, is old sir participating as well?” Qin Wentian smiled and nodded.

“Yes.” That old man nodded. “To think that you brought all your family and friends with you. You juniors are truly interesting.

“We have never traveled so far before, since this is a rare to comeby opportunity, I naturally must bring them along with me to broaden our horizons.” Qin Wentian replied.

“I see.” The old man nodded. After that, he turned around and with a flash, he completely disappeared from this area. Jun Mengchen felt that there was something wrong with his eyes. The space which the old man occupied was now completely empty. Even his immortal sense wasn’t able to locate that old man.

“So fast.” Jun Mengchen exclaimed in admiration. Qin Wentian smiled at him, “Don’t speak randomly like that again, Time City has many crouching tigers and hidden dragons. Other than that old man, there was an extremely young-looking male on our left earlier. Did you notice him?”

“Mhm, he looks to be of roughly the same age as me.”

“That person is also an overlord.” Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. Jun Mengchen rolled his eyes, feeling somewhat speechless and depressed. He himself was still an empyrean, he didn’t have the capabilities to break through to the world overlord realm yet.

“Let’s find an inn to stay in first. We still have to be here for a period of time.” Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded in agreement. They had traveled long and far before finally arriving here. It was indeed time to take a break. During these few days, they haven’t eaten any food either. Since they are already here now, they also felt like trying out the delicacies of Time City.

Although stellar martial cultivators can survive without food and it wouldn’t affect them in any case, wanting to eat was a desire that everyone has. Also, the food in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms weren’t simply food, they were all heavenly ingredients and earthly treasures. While enjoying these delicacies, the food could also improve your physique although the effect was quite minute.

Not long after, they found an inn with a restaurant attached to it. In one of the pavilions, they ordered a great deal of food while enjoying the view of the city.

Little Rascal reverted to his puppy form. His appetite was extremely large and could be described as a ravenous wolf, devouring all his food whole. He had a look of intense enjoyment on his face. Jun Mengchen wasn’t better in anyway either, constantly stuffing food into his mouth. The beauties here were much more elegant in their table manners. Mo Qingcheng couldn’t help but to speak out in admiration, “The food here is truly made from extremely valuable ingredients. After eating them, I can feel that the energy flow in my body is automatically circulating around, providing a sense of comfort.”

Mo Qingcheng was only at the immortal emperor realm now and she could feel the positive effects from the food more clearly. But even for empyreans, they could also feel the positive effects although to a lesser degree.

“Sister-in-law, you have to look at the price they are charging us. We are paying in overlord-ranked world stones. This is simply too luxurious, senior brother is there really a need to spend so extravagantly?” Jun Mengchen speechlessly asked. The unit of currency spent here was world stones. Even a piece of world stone was priceless.

“It’s very rare for us to tour the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and we must naturally enjoy ourselves to the fullest.” Qin Wentian was feeling very good. It was very rare for everyone to be able to gather here like this, enjoying the delicacies. So what even if he had to spend more? Right now, he was already the Qingcheng Realm Lord, all the resources there belonged to him. Although world stones are extremely valuable, he didn’t lack them. Let alone the fact that he had brought many divine treasures out from the divine depositories in the ancient battlefield along with him.

“Sir, you must have come to Time City from afar, right?” A beautiful serving girl bringing the food dishes over smiled at Jun Mengchen. She belonged to those types of beauties that would cause one to feel comfortable the longer one looked at them. Her smile was filled with amiability. Yet, a beauty like her was only qualified to become a serving girl here. How could this city not be considered grand and majestic?

“Seems like you have guessed correctly.” Jun Mengchen grinned.

“Mhm, in Time City, enjoying food delicacies are considered more ordinary, it cannot be considered extravagant. You have yet to visit the treasure transaction market. The prices there are truly what the word ‘extravagant’ means. If Sir wants to buy a robe or if these beautiful fairies or wishes to buy accessories, the cost might range from a thousand to ten thousand world stones and the grade of these stones cannot be of the inferior quality ones.” The serving girl warmly smiled but she didn’t give off any feeling of looking down or ridiculing them.

“What clothings and accessories are that?” Jun Mengchen was stunned.

“They are naturally overlord-ranked treasures manufactured by powerful grand masters. A piece of clothing or a single accessory might not be so conspicuous but they all might be extremely powerful, providing either a boost to your attack or heightening your defense. They are the combination of fashion and practicality.” The serving girl smiled.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed, he glanced at the serving girl. Her words seemed to be spoken to Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er. This beautiful serving girl was truly extremely intelligent, using such a method to introduce these things to them.

“I do feel like taking a tour. Are you willing to guide us around? I will naturally pay you some compensation.” Qin Wentian laughed. He did indeed need a guide around here so as to better understand Time City as well as the Convention of the Myriad Realms.

“If sir really needs a guide, I’m happy to serve. It’s just that Sir can also see that I’m very busy today. I can only accept this appointment tomorrow.” The serving girl bowed.

“Sure.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“Ye Zi shall wait for Sir here at this place tomorrow.” The serving girl bowed again to Qin Wentian before she retreated.

“Senior brother, are you planning to buy some accessories for the sisters-in-law?” Jun Mengchen blinked. He then continued, “I felt that the serving girl is purposely hinting for sisters-in-law to go shopping.”

“That’s her intention exactly but we might as well take the chance to tour the city and broaden our horizons. Even if we don’t shop for accessories, we should take a look to see if there are any places of interest here. So, how can we lack a guide?” Qin Wentian smiled. Jun Mengchen nodded his head. Nanfeng Yaoyue and the others smiled as they glanced at Qin Wentian. This fellow truly doted on Qing`er and Qingcheng a lot, he didn’t mind spending huge amounts of capital on them!

Chapter 1758: Heaven Immortal Tower

During the second day, Ye Zi truly did show up and brought Qin Wentian and his group out of the inn.

This beautiful serving girl from the inn had a cultivation base at the immortal emperor realm and was very young too. If she was in Azure Mystic, she would definitely be an extremely dazzling character but in Time City, she actually was only a serving girl. This was the difference in worlds, the disparity was so great that one doesn’t dare to imagine. Even the Southern Phoenix Matriarch felt somewhat surreal. When they had chosen to follow Qin Wentian then, they were only at the immortal emperor realm as well.

“Sir Qin, where do you wish to tour?” Ye Zi smiled at Qin Wentian. From the start to the end, she gave off a sense of amicability. Although her beauty could not be compared to Qing`er, Qingcheng, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the others, she still looked really nice when she smiled.

“Yesterday, didn’t you tempt me purposely? Hinting at the divine weapons and accessories?” Qin Wentian smiled at Ye Zi.

“Oops, my intentions are exposed.” Ye Zi revealed a mischievous smile. “Sir Qin, the vast majority of those who could bear to spend overlord-ranked world stones to enjoy a feast in the inn are usually outsiders who came here to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms and they are people who are more willing to spend. When I saw so many beautiful fairies around Sir Qin, I instantly thought that Sir Qin might have needs in these aspects so I intentionally said that. Doing so will enable me to earn some small commission as a guide as well. After all, Ye Zi isn’t a cultivator with an impressive background, I can only depend on myself to earn cultivation resources. Sir Qin, please don’t blame Ye Zi, alright?”

“If I blame you for that, I wouldn’t have come today.” Qin Wentian smiled. The people behind him all silently sighed. Seems like it wasn’t so easy to be an immortal emperor here. Ye Zi was only doing this so she could continue to advance in her martial path.

“Many thanks Sir Qin for your understanding. You can find all sorts of divine weapons belonging to different ranks here in Time City. For the beautiful fairies, what you all need should be overlord-ranked weapons, right?”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. Although Di Tian was proficient in weaponsmithing, he still didn’t have the capabilities to forge overlord-ranked special treasures such as clothing and accessories. Only world overlords who had immersed themselves in weaponsmithing for long periods of time would be able to do so.

“In that case, let me bring you guys to the Heaven Immortal Tower. There are many beautiful and exquisite divine weapons and treasures there.” Ye Zi spoke.

“Just lead the way then.” Qin Wentian nodded. He then asked, “Ye Zi, how many world overlords will there be participating in the Convention of the Myriad Realms?”

He was filled with anticipation for this. Ye Zi was a cultivator that has lived here for quite a long time and would surely know of much information. She should be much more familiar with the Convention than him.

“For the Convention of the Myriad Realms, they would issue invitations to the ten thousand realms under the heavens. The heavens naturally refers to the four lower worlds controlled by the Mystic Region. The experts from the four lower worlds would all come. In addition, world overlords from all the other realms inside the Mystic Region would also participate, and there are often many unaffiliated cultivators as well. Not only them, those experts from major powers or those who control endless territories would be here too. The number of living things in the Mystic Region is so numerous that they are countless. Ye Zi also has no way to imagine how many experts would be participating in the convention.”

Ye Zi’s tone turned solemn. Qin Wentian could understand why as well. Just a single Qingcheng Realm already contained so many territories under it, with a countless number of living things. How vast would the Mystic Region be? How vast would the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms be? This was simply unimaginable.

“The four lower worlds controlled by the Mystic Region would participate as well?” Qin Wentian mumbled.

“Mhm, the Eastern Royal Heavens, Scarlet Sun Heavens, Wuji Heavens and Beginning Heavens. These four immortal realms are under the control of the three supreme hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region. Their positions are very high, even higher than many of the subordinate forces under the three hegemonic powers, and they are very strong as well, nurturing many experts. After the passage of so many years, all those talented individuals are directly absorbed into the major powers in the Mystic Region to cultivate. They naturally would come and participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms.” Ye Zi spoke.

“In that case, what about the experts from the other seven regions? Will they send people here to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms of the Mystic Region?” Qin Wentian casually asked.

“Ordinary world overlords wouldn’t come. But some of the more powerful world overlords from the other regions might come to take a look at the strength of overlords in the Mystic Region. After all, the Convention of the Myriad Realms is a rare opportunity.” Ye Zi continued to explain. Qin Wentian nodded his head. After all, world overlords were the strongest existences below heavenly deities.

Existences at the heavenly deity level stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and it was a given that they were a minority. Despite the vastness of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and the countless number of living beings, there weren’t too many heavenly deities. World Overlords were the backbone of each respective region.

As they traveled, Qin Wentian asked many questions. Ye Zi naturally satisfied his curiosity the best she could, gradually allowing Qin Wentian to have a deeper understanding of the Convention of the Myriad Realms. This was one of the reasons why he hired Ye Zi as a guide. He needed to know this information. Asking from someone who knew them was the simplest method for him to learn the info.

Qin Wentian wanted to know too many things. And unknowingly, a long time passed and they had arrived at their target destination, the Heaven Immortal Tower.

To gain entry into the Heaven Immortal Tower, one has to pay an ordinary world stone first for each person that entered. This was to guarantee that not everyone can enter freely. There were simply too many people in Time City. If there were no restrictions, a place like the Heaven Immortal Tower would be packed to the brim, how would they do any business then? The vast majority of people would only be here to window-shop.

Only those who could disregard the cost of one world stone would have the ability to transact in the Heaven Immortal Tower.

After Qin Wentian entered the Heaven Immortal Tower, he was swiftly shocked by the dazzling lineup. Only the word 'luxurious' could describe this place and it was extremely gigantic, with all sorts of treasures. In addition, all these treasures were specially designed for women.

There were different styles of immortal dresses, all of them extremely beautiful. Qing`er, Mo Qingcheng and the other females usually wouldn't admire these. But now, they were all attracted by these clothes and accessories. After all, which female didn't like to be more beautiful?

"This necklace is so pretty." Mo Qingcheng walked towards a divine treasure in the form of a necklace as she spoke to Qing`er. "If sister Qing`er wears this, she would surely be even more beautiful."

"I won't wear it." Qing`er simply replied, feeling somewhat shy at all the attention. It was true that she has never worn any accessories. Her natural beauty was more than enough, she was beautiful even without needing the aid of rouge and powder.

"What uses does this necklace have?" Qin Wentian asked the serving girl at the counter. This necklace was really pretty, it was formed from crystals of a sky-blue color and exuded a sense of pureness.

"This necklace is named 'Ocean's Heart.' Ocean waves would manifest once this is activated, protecting the wearer, capable of withstanding strikes from ordinary world overlords without being shattered. It can be used until the energy within has completely drained away." The maiden smiled as she introduced.

"I feel that this Ocean's Heart is more suitable for Youhuang given her demeanor." Qin Wentian smiled. Beiming Youhuang froze, casting a glance at Qin Wentian. When she saw many people looking at her, she couldn't help but blush and lower her head. Qin Wentian actually said this accessory suited her in front of so many people? What would these people think?

Qin Wentian did indeed feel that the Ocean's Heart was more compatible to Youhuang's beauty. In addition, it also had defensive properties and could compliment Youhuang's world overlord cultivation realm. In the future, she would have another defensive item to use during combat, there were no other thoughts in it. However, Beiming Youhuang's reactions caused Qin Wentian to feel somewhat awkward. He could only glance at everyone else, "What does everyone else think?"

"I also feel this is quite suitable for Youhuang." Nanfeng Yaoyue smiled as she saw this scene, speaking out to diffuse the awkwardness.

"Mhm, now thinking about it, I also feel this is more suitable for sister Youhuang compared to sister Qing'er." Mo Qingcheng smiled at Qin Wentian. When Qin Wentian saw the smile on Mo Qingcheng's face, he suddenly felt a little guilty in his heart for some reason. But truthfully, he really didn't think too much about his earlier words, he really felt that it was more suitable for Youhuang.

"What's the price for this?" Mo Qingcheng directly asked.

"Three hundred ordinary world stones. If you have extraordinary-grade world stones, there would be another price." The serving girl smiled. Mo Qingcheng glanced at Qin Wentian, "You should be able to afford it, right?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded, he did have many world stones with him.

"Alright then, we want this necklace." Mo Qingcheng smiled, directly confirming the purchase. Those people at the back glanced at Mo Qingcheng, their gazes filled with admiration. With a maiden of her character, no wonder Qin Wentian would love her so deeply.

After buying it, Qin Wentian gifted the necklace to Youhuang, causing Beiming Youhuang to feel a little embarrassed. However, she eventually accepted it and wore it. As they continued walking, she kept her head lowered, no longer having the mood to admire the treasures in the Heaven Immortal Tower.

"Qingcheng, Qing'er, do you guys see anything you like?" Qin Wentian asked. This time around, Ye Qianyu didn't come with them. After all, someone needed to stay behind to manage the Qingcheng Sainthall.

"I don't need anything." Qing'er shook her head.

“No way, how about that dress over there?” Mo Qingcheng pulled Qing`er ahead, staring at a dress floating in the air. The threads of this dress seemed incredibly soft and light, it radiated a faint jade-green luster, and was extremely beautiful.

“These two fairies have good judgement. This is known as the divine concealment dress, possessing the ability to allow the user to hide away and would greatly increase one’s defense. If it isn’t destroyed, one can use this repeatedly with no problems.” The serving girl introduced.

“How beautiful, how many world stones does this cost?” Mo Qingcheng directly asked.

“20,000 ordinary world stones.” The serving girl smiled. Mo Qingcheng’s eyes widened in shock, she then weakly glanced at Qin Wentian.

“Let us go.” Qing`er softly spoke. The price was too terrifying.

Mo Qingcheng felt a little reluctance. She stretched out her hands, wanting to touch the dress a little.

“Don’t touch it!” The smile on the serving girl’s face suddenly vanished as she berated. This caused Mo Qingcheng to tremble as her hand froze in the air.

“My apologies, the merchandise here is all for sale and cannot be touched casually in case they are damaged.” The serving girl smiled. However, the tyrannical aura she radiated earlier had frightened Mo Qingcheng. To think that this serving girl was actually at the empyrean realm. At that instant, an overwhelming might had crushed down on her.

Also, Mo Qingcheng could feel that the smile of this serving girl now had a hint of disdain in it. After all, she was only at the immortal emperor realm, no wonder the serving girl would display such an attitude to her.

“Sorry.” Mo Qingcheng retracted her hands and apologized.

“Miss Qingcheng, are you alright?” Ye Zi hurriedly ran over. The tyrannical shout earlier from that serving girl here had startled many people, causing many gazes to turn over. Qin Wentian walked over, his gaze was somewhat cold when he stared at the serving girl. As an empyrean, the serving girl could easily prevent Mo Qingcheng from touching the dress, she could also use gentler methods or just tell her nicely. By berating her so loudly in public, it was clearly an act of rudeness. Although there was a smile on the serving girl's face after that, Qin Wentian could see a hint of disdain in it. Most probably, Qingcheng could sense the same thing as well.

During his journey, he had always protected Qingcheng very carefully. Although her cultivation realm wasn't able to catch up to him, he didn't mind that at all and still loved her deeply. Even when he was here to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms, he even brought her together with him. Who would have thought that she would actually be berated by someone here!

Chapter 1759: Making trouble?

Right now, Qin Wentian's gaze was extremely cold. The serving girl naturally saw it as well but she continued to maintain a professional-looking smile. Although this wasn't sincere at all, it was hard for anyone to pinpoint anything wrong with it.

She naturally could sense that this young man before her was a world overlord but she didn't care at all. She has worked here for such a long time, were world overlords really very rare? She could see such existences every day. After all, the customers of the Heaven Immortal Tower were mostly world overlords.

In addition, because the treasures she was selling were priced above 10,000 world stones, the world overlords she came in contact with were all extraordinary characters. There was no way an ordinary world overlord would be able to afford them.

Hence, to her, although world overlords are seniors, she didn't really fear or respect them as she had seen them too frequently. Also, the background of the Heaven Immortal Tower was immensely powerful. Just here alone, there were quite a few world overlords managing things.

"What do you mean by that?" Qin Wentian coldly asked.

"Senior what are you referring to?" The serving girl smiled in reply, pretending what happened earlier didn't happen at all.

"What do you think?" Qin Wentian's voice grew even colder.

“Senior are you referring to that incident earlier?” The serving girl smiled. “I apologize. This dress truly cannot be touched, if it’s even damaged the slightest, it might affect the desire of other customers to purchase it. This is a rule of our shop. Senior, please don’t take offense.”

“If customers are not allowed to touch it, you could have told her so. Given your cultivation base, there are so many gentler methods you could employ yet you resorted to scolding a customer? Is this an attitude the employees here ought to have?” Qin Wentian questioned.

“Under the urgency of the moment, I could only do what I have done. Earlier, I’ve already apologized.” The serving girl was still smiling.

“Is this the attitude you should have when apologizing?” Qin Wentian stared at her.

“Senior, what do you want me to do then?” The serving girl was also beginning to get angry. She inclined her head and directly matched gazes with Qin Wentian.

Many people gathered here. Ye Zi, who was at the side, felt panic when she saw this scene. She didn’t expect a conflict to occur, this was something she didn’t want to see the most. She naturally could already feel that although Qin Wentian was amiable and approachable, he was in reality a very proud person that also values sentimental emotions. She could sense he loved his wives deeply and the people around him all treated him extremely respectfully. For such a character, he would surely be the overlord of a region somewhere and had an extremely high status. Since his wife was being berated by someone, how would he not ask for an explanation?

However, the Heaven Immortal Tower wasn’t an ordinary place. It was fine if this serving girl apologized sincerely but seeing her attitude, it didn’t seem like she was going to apologize. Ye Zi was also worried that this serving girl might have an impressive background which is why she was arranged to work here in the Heaven Immortal Tower. After all, the employees here all have terrifying backgrounds, it was impossible for ordinary characters to work here in a place envied by all.

If this was the case, this matter would surely be blown out of proportion since neither wants to compromise. Although Qin Wentian had logic and reason on his side, this matter wasn’t something that could be brushed off just like that.

“Bow and apologize to my wife. This matter shall be considered concluded then.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

“I’m sorry but I can’t comply with senior’s request.” The serving girl replied in a domineering manner.

A heavy pressure radiated from Qin Wentian, boring down on the serving girl. The serving girl only felt like a mountain was crushing her, her expression instantly became extremely ugly. “I’m merely doing my job in accordance to the rules. Why must senior bully me like this? Are you intentionally trying to create trouble here?”

She suddenly counter-attacked verbally, saying that Qin Wentian came here for the purpose of creating trouble. Also, given that Qin Wentian was at the World Overlord Realm and she was just a woman at the empyrean realm, it did look like Qin Wentian was being too tyrannical and was bullying her.

“Esteemed customer, what are you doing?” A voice rang out. With a flash of light, a middle-aged man in black appeared. There were two others behind him and all of them were staring at Qin Wentian. The man in black was one of the managers from the Heaven Immortal Tower that was responsible for maintaining discipline and order. Usually, there wouldn’t be any disturbance in the Heaven Immortal Tower and he would normally be in meditation. It was just that since there was a disturbance that he came out today.

“Three world overlords.” Qin Wentian glanced over, he could instantly tell that these three were characters at the world overlord realm. This was especially so for the middle-aged man in black, he gave off an extraordinary feeling and should be pretty powerful. If not, although the Heaven Immortal Tower has a powerful background, there might occasionally be troublesome matters and they would need experts strong enough to handle such things.

“Old Huo, earlier this miss here tried to touch the divine dress and was stopped by me verbally in a gentle manner. This senior then came over to question me about it and even wanted me to bow and apologize.” The serving girl spoke. Old Huo nodded his head. “Esteemed customer, there are indeed some valuable treasures in our Heaven Immortal Tower which are forbidden for the customers to touch them. Hopefully sir would be able to understand this.”

“Stopped verbally in a gentle manner? That’s clearly berating her, you even exuded your aura, how impressive is that? Yet, you are speaking like you are the one who is wronged now.” Mo Qingcheng’s matter was supposedly handled by Qin Wentian. But right now, Jun Mengchen could no longer stand this girl. This person truly knew how to act.

“What’s going on?” Old Huo asked the serving girl.

“I didn’t do that on purpose, I only shouted out because of the urgency of the situation, hence the volume of my voice is somewhat higher. But I’ve already apologized.” The serving girl continued. No matter what, she was still an empyrean, she naturally wouldn’t be foolish enough to use words to insult Mo Qingcheng. However, in her heart and in her gaze, Qin Wentian and everyone else could feel contempt in them.

“She was indeed in the wrong but since she has already apologized, I hope that sir won’t be calculative about this matter. If this has spoiled esteemed customer’s mood, I’ll beg for your forgiveness.” Old Huo nodded at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was also a world overlord, although the Heaven Immortal Tower didn’t really care about this, they wouldn’t intentionally offend a paying customer as well. If not, their reputation would surely suffer damage if word of this incident spread out. Hence, some polite words still had to be said on the surface.

“In that case, you mean that she berating my wife and even exuding her aura to scare my wife can all be settled with just an apology? Also, when she was apologizing, she still held her head up high with a smile on her face. Is that the attitude she should have when apologizing?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Sir, please forgive us for that. After this, I shall properly teach her so she will change her attitude.” Old Huo replied. But he might as well not have said anything. His underlying meaning was that you should stop pursuing this matter and I will discipline her properly in the future. However, who knows what would happen if Qin Wentian stops pursuing this matter?

“Wentian, forget it.” Qingcheng pulled Qin Wentian’s sleeve and spoke in a low voice. She knew what sort of place this was. The experts here in Time City were as numerous as the clouds. World Overlords could be seen everywhere.

The Heaven Immortal Tower could take out so many treasures to transact, it was clear that their foundations were extremely deep. She naturally didn’t wish for Qin Wentian to get into trouble for the sake of her.

Qin Wentian turned and gazed tenderly at Qingcheng as he softly spoke, “Let me handle this.”

Mo Qingcheng started, she felt a warm current flowing through her heart and no longer said anything more.

“So, you mean that this matter should be settled just like this?” Qin Wentian glanced at Old Huo. Upon seeing that Qin Wentian was bent on this matter, Old Huo’s brows began to furrow. There were many experts gathered here now and this wasn’t a good influence to their Heaven Immortal

Tower's reputation. He then spoke, "Sir, why must you act like this to affect my Heaven Immortal Tower's business?"

"Seems like I was wrong." Qin Wentian suddenly gave a self-mocking laugh. After that, he took out an interspatial ring of treasures and handed it over to Old Huo. "Take a look and check if the treasures within are worth 20,000 world stones."

Old Huo started. Qin Wentian's attitude suddenly seemed to have undergone a complete change. However, he still received the interspatial ring and with a check of his immortal sense, he soon nodded, "This should be enough at first glance, I will get someone to count it properly."

"There's no need to. As for that concealment divine dress, I'm buying it now." Qin Wentian pointed to the divine dress floating in the air. This scene caused many people to have a look of interest on their faces. What an imposing showing of wealth, directly tossing out 20,000 world stones to buy this for his woman.

Even the expression of that serving girl changed slightly, this has truly caused her to be taken aback. Before this when Qing'er and Mo Qingcheng heard the price, they directly said that they should leave. At that time, she thought that it was because they were frightened away by the high price. Who would have thought that this young man could really afford it?

"Why are you not bringing it to me yet?" Qin Wentian glanced at the serving girl. The serving girl smiled. Qin Wentian was using such a method to gain back some face? In any case, she did make quite a lot from the commission of selling this dress. She smiled and took the divine dress, wanting to pass it over to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian didn't stretch his hand out to receive it. His ice-cold eyes stared at the serving girl, "Did I say you could use your hands to touch it before passing it over to me?"

The serving girl started. After that, her expression changed as though she realized something. However, before she could react, she only saw a palm smacking towards her.

"Pa...!"

A clear sound rang out as the serving girl was directly flung through the air, slamming into a wall. Her face, which was originally extremely beautiful, instantly turned red as an imprint of a palm and five fingers could be seen. And that divine concealment dress in her hands had already reached Qin Wentian's hands.

“Sir, how dare you. You actually dared to create trouble in my Heaven Immortal Tower.” Old Huo coldly spoke. Qin Wentian also unleashed his aura, causing the area to be cloaked in brilliant light. He stood before the three world overlords, enduring their pressure while he replied, “You must be joking, right? Before this, the divine concealment dress belonged to the Heaven Immortal Tower and my wife was berated just because she stretched her hand out, wanting to touch it and was pressured by the serving girl’s aura. Now that this treasured dress belongs to me, that woman actually used her hands to touch it? I also reacted due to the urgency of the situation and accidentally taught her a lesson. Or could it be that the status of a serving girl of the Heaven Immortal Tower is even higher than that of a customer?”

Qin Wentian’s words completely stunned Old Huo, he had no way to rebut although he felt the logic was a little warped. Could it be that a serving girl of your shop can do what she wanted but I cannot?

This was telling Old Huo that since you don’t discipline your people, let me help you to discipline them then. It’s just that using 20,000 world stones just to teach a serving girl a lesson was truly extravagant to the extreme.

Ye Zi, who was at the side, felt her heart pounding rapidly. This fellow Qin Wentian was truly too crazy. This place was the Heaven Immortal Tower. She felt panic in her heart. If this matter was blown out of proportion, it would be extremely disadvantageous to Qin Wentian. Now, she felt some regret at bringing Qin Wentian’s group here.

“That slut naturally cannot be compared to me.” That serving girl stood up. Her expression was like ice as fearsome flames flickered in her gaze. She was actually slapped in public by someone. What a great humiliation was this? Since she was humiliated so badly, she couldn’t care less about rationale any longer!

Chapter 1760: Transcendent-level World Overlord?

This man was just a world overlord. Although she was a serving girl, she was indeed from an impressive background just like what Ye Zi had guessed. Since she was able to work in the Heaven Immortal Tower, she would naturally have an extraordinary background.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were many major powers that were half-clan and half-sect. They treated their clan as the core but they wouldn’t neglect accepting disciples with great talent. They had subordinates, disciples and even servants. After the passage of countless years, these would all evolve into major powers.

The major power behind the Heaven Immortal Tower was precisely like that. It was an extremely famous power named the Dragon Pool Manor and the experts within were as common as clouds. They even had several experts at the world overlord realm. The Dragon Pool Manor Lord was also the clan leader of the Dragon Pool Manor with the surname Longyuan. Their authority was immense, everyone in Time City knew of the Dragon Pool Manor.

This serving girl was named Jin Zhi, from the idiom 'golden branch, jade leaves' which denoted a peerless beauty. She was indeed beautiful but originally, she didn't have an impressive background. However, by using some methods and depending on her beauty, she got acquainted with the Dragon Pool Manor which was the power behind the Heaven Immortal Tower. Right now, her status was the girlfriend of one of the younger and extremely talented world overlords of the Dragon Pool Manor. This was the reason why she, who only had an ordinary background, could work in a place like this and earn high wages for the sake of her own cultivation.

Naturally, although it was said that she was the world overlord's girlfriend, in reality she also understood that that world overlord was treating her so nicely because right now, he was still infatuated with her. As for her joining the Dragon Pool Manor, that was only a fantasy. For those females who can marry into the Dragon Pool Manor, they had to be from extraordinary backgrounds. For her, she could at most only become a concubine.

But even so, she was still considered the girlfriend of a genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor. Even Old Huo from the management of the Heaven Immortal Tower had to give that world overlord some face. This was why he spoke to Qin Wentian earlier and didn't make the serving girl apologize.

However, she was actually slapped by Qin Wentian in the view of the public. What sort of humiliation was this? This was why she scolded Mo Qingcheng as a 'slut,' how could Mo Qingcheng be able to be compared to her? Mo Qingcheng was only the woman of an ordinary world overlord, how could she be comparable to her, a woman of a young genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor?

And her words...what would Qin Wentian feel after he heard this?

In an instant, a terrifying pressure enveloped the vast Heaven Immortal Tower. Qin Wentian icily stared at Jin Zhi. At this instant, killing intent could be seen in his eyes. An expert at the world overlord realm, at the instant he unleashed killing intent, no matter how arrogant Jin Zhi was, she also couldn't help but to tremble. However, she still held a hint of stubbornness in her gaze as she stared at Qin Wentian. At the corner of her mouth, blood was still flowing from the force of that slap.

Old Huo also sensed Qin Wentian's killing intent. His silhouette flashed as he appeared before Qin Wentian, blocking Jin Zhi from him. He then spoke to Qin Wentian, "Sir, you went too overboard."

"Her life, is it for sale?" Qin Wentian stared at Old Huo as he coldly asked. In an instant, the entire atmosphere of the tower turned extremely tense. Qin Wentian wanted to buy the life of this serving girl?

Even for Old Huo, he felt a sense of pressure when he saw Qin Wentian's gaze. He then spoke, "The Heaven Immortal Tower doesn't wish to quarrel with our customers, but we hope that Sir can be more respectful."

Right now, he was silently cursing at Jin Zhi in his heart. For no good reason at all, why did she have to berate a customer? Now that such a commotion was caused, although their Heaven Immortal Tower didn't fear anything, they didn't want to face such matters at all. Even though this customer was an outsider world overlord and couldn't be compared to the Dragon Pool Manor, he isn't someone Jin Zhi, who was just an empyrean, could afford to offend. Eventually, the person who had to settle this, was still him.

Also, from the aura this young world overlord was exuding, Old Huo could sense that this young man was someone extraordinary.

"Respect?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. "Did you not hear her words earlier?"

At this moment, Jin Zhi's expression turned extremely ugly to behold. She took out her messaging crystal and sent her immortal sense in, "In the Heaven Immortal Tower, there's a world overlord who has humiliated me due to his woman, wanting to buy my life."

"Understood." A calm voice rang out in her mind. After that, Old Huo suddenly frowned because the same voice that rang out in the girl's mind, rang out in his just a moment later. "Old Huo, settle the incident at the Heaven Immortal Tower."

"Right." Old Huo replied, cursing Jin Zhi in his heart. This matter still fell to him to settle.

After keeping his messaging crystal, Old Huo looked at Qin Wentian, “Sir, you are the one who first injured her. This is why she cursed due to a fit of anger. If you want to trace who is wrong or right, you are the one who made the first move. But in any case, I no longer wish to pursue who is right and who is wrong in this matter. Let’s just forget about it. Sir, please leave.”

This sentence was clearly wanting to expel Qin Wentian from the premises. Also, Old Huo’s tone had clearly turned more domineering.

Qin Wentian stared at Old Huo. Earlier, that serving girl took out a messaging crystal to send a message and after that Old Huo also took out his messaging crystal to receive a message. How could he not understand what was going on? Evidently, the serving girl’s background was able to influence Old Huo. No wonder it was so difficult when he wanted the serving girl to apologize properly earlier. This must be the reason why this serving girl dared to be so arrogant towards him with only an empyrean-level cultivation base and said sorry just for the sake of saying sorry.

Ye Zi panicked when she saw this scene. If trouble truly occurred, the one at a disadvantage would definitely be Qin Wentian. Hence, she transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian, “Sir Qin, I shouldn’t have brought you guys here. The power behind the Heaven Immortal Tower is known as the Dragon Pool Manor. This manager Old Huo is someone from there and he clearly has received orders from them earlier. Also, this woman should also have a connection with them too. Sir Qin, you came from afar, it’s extremely tough to deal with the Dragon Pool Manor...why don’t we retreat temporarily and head to some other places to make Miss Qingcheng feel better?”

This was her trying to persuade Qin Wentian tactfully to give up. She believed that Qin Wentian would understand her worlds.

After all, there are no fools among world overlords.

But would Qin Wentian leave?

He brought Qingcheng with him to tour Time City. Originally, his mood was excellent but now that they encountered such a thing, what would he feel?

Qingcheng had always accompanied him on his journey. The hundreds of years of time they shared together, from their particle world to Azure Mystic to now, the feelings he had for Qingcheng were still as blazingly hot as ever.

How difficult was this? The heavens and earth might have changed but the emotions they had for each other would never change. Through this period of time, he had never lost his temper at this woman whom he loved before, she was the apple of his eye. But now, his woman was first viewed with contempt by the serving girl and was even scolded as a slut? What was Qin Wentian feeling now?

What did he cultivate for?

He had cultivated up until this level and seeing that his wife was being insulted so badly by someone today, Ye Zi actually wanted him to leave?

Even if he came back in the future and obtained revenge, what meaning would there be? The scar of this wound would still remain in Qingcheng's heart.

If someone insulted him, he could close one eye. But this implicated his wives, in that case, there was no room for negotiation.

“Are you chasing me away?” Qin Wentian stared at Old Huo.

“You made trouble in the Heaven Immortal Tower and even injured one of the employees here. I should have thrown you out originally. But because you are an esteemed customer, I decided to take one step back to compromise. Sir, if you continue to act like this, things won't be too good for both sides. Let me repeat one last time, the Heaven Immortal Tower doesn't wish to quarrel with our customers but if you continue to be stubborn...” Old Huo's gaze turned cold. Jin Zhi has already informed that young master and that young master had also gave him a command to settle this. Old Huo right now only wanted Qin Wentian to leave here.

“You are threatening me now, right?” Qin Wentian stared at Old Huo. “I'll also say this one last time. I initially came to the Heaven Immortal Tower to shop for items yet I actually encountered such a thing. I had no intention to create trouble here, but for that serving girl who insulted my wife, I have to bring her away.”

“Sir, this means that you are intent on creating trouble?” Old Huo's aura at the world overlord realm erupted forth. The other two world overlords on his side did so as well. Their pressure instantly enveloped the entire Heaven Immortal Tower. Those in the surroundings who were watching all had expressions of interest on their faces and there should be quite a few world overlords among them too. Who would have thought that this young man would be so audacious to really create trouble in the Heaven Immortal Tower for the sake of a woman? Ordinary characters wouldn't have his courage.

Or could it be that this young man didn't know about the Heaven Immortal Tower's background? But even if he didn't know, he should be able to speculate something since he is a realmlord. How could an ordinary power be able to control a place like the Heaven Immortal Tower?

Qin Wentian no longer glanced at Old Huo. His gaze turned to Jin Zhi and he spoke, "I don't care who you are or what your identity is. I won't kill you as well. However, you have to pay a price for the words you spoke earlier."

After speaking, he took a step forward. Old Huo and the two other world overlords released their world hearts and for a period of time, three sources of fearsome pressure permeated the atmosphere at the same time. Almost simultaneously, Qin Wentian's world heart was also released. In just an instant, the faces of Old Huo and the other two overlords all changed. A strange sense appeared in their hearts. At this moment, they actually didn't dare to make any reckless moves.

Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and grabbed Jin Zhi through the air. After that, Jin Zhi seemed to be imprisoned in a sealed space and slowly flew towards Qin Wentian. Her expression drastically changed as she screamed at him, "YOU DARE TO TOUCH ME?!"

Qin Wentian only calmly glanced at her. After that, he turned and departed. He spoke to Mo Qingcheng and the others, "Let's leave."

As he spoke, he directly turned and walked away. Jin Zhi was floating in the air and her body was imprisoned by a terrifying formless energy, floating after Qin Wentian.

"This..." Everyone felt a little dazed when they saw this scene. What ability was this?

What was Old Huo and the two other world overlords doing? They actually didn't stop him?

Ye Zi's expression revealed anxiousness. Qin Wentian actually chose to act. She had no way to stop Qin Wentian. Earlier, she had already said what she needed to say but Qin Wentian was still so domineering, deciding to bring Jin Zhi away in front of the face of these three world overlords.

But what made her shocked was that these three overlords actually didn't obstruct him any further? Even the powerful Old Huo didn't move.

Jun Mengchen and the others turned their heads back and coldly glanced at the three world overlords. After that, their group actually departed the Heaven Immortal Tower just like that, causing the people in the surroundings to stare at this scene dumbfoundedly.

Old Huo and the two other world overlords still stood at their original location as their expressions constantly changed.

“What was that world heart ability?” That immense surge of formless energy had finally dissipated. Old Huo heaved a sigh of relief as he transmitted a question to the two others.

“No idea, but that was truly terrifying.” The expressions of the two other world overlords turned ashen. Things were getting troublesome. The woman Jin Zhi insulted might be the woman of a transcendent-level world overlord!
