Chapter 1761: Characters from all Around

After Qin Wentian and his group left the Heaven Immortal Tower, their good mood was completely destroyed and naturally, they didn't have any feeling to continue touring Time City and chose to return to their inn.

Jin Zhi was at the empyrean level but she was imprisoned in a space bubble behind Qin Wentian and couldn't move at all. That terrifying pressure caused her to feel like breaking down. She understood that with a single thought, Qin Wentian could cause her to die instantly right now.

At this moment, she felt both rage and fear. Rage because Qin Wentian actually dared to act against her and used such a method to forcibly bring her away. He was so tyrannical that Old Huo and the other two world overlords didn't dare to protect her. She naturally understood what this meant, Old Huo felt that none of them were able to stop Qin Wentian. Or to simply put, the disparity in their strengths was too great. If not, since her boyfriend had given the order, how would Old Huo not do his best?

Hence, this was why she felt fear now. She was worried that Qin Wentian might really do something to her.

On their way back, many people glanced over at the imprisoned her. These included those customers from the Heaven Immortal Tower who followed them out to watch the drama. She felt that she was incomparably humiliated due to being paraded around like this in public.

"I'm the girlfriend of a genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor. Do you understand what you are doing? If you still don't release me, you and your woman both have to pay an unimaginable price." Jin Zhi spoke with anger, she wasn't able to endure the gazes from the crowd.

"I don't care whose woman are you. But since you've insulted my wife, you will be the one who pays a price for your words." Qin Wentian icily spoke. Ye Zi, who was at the side, felt her heart tremble when she heard that, she didn't expect Qin Wentian to be so domineering, directly bringing Jin Zhi away from the Heaven Immortal Tower, not giving face at all. In addition, he completely ignored the three other world overlords and none of them dared to stop him as well.

“What sort of power is the Dragon Pool Manor?” Qin Wentian asked Ye Zi. For Qingcheng, he didn’t mind creating trouble. But no matter what, he had to understand the strength of the major power he offended. He wouldn’t really lose all his rationale just because he was angered. By doing this, the most important reason was for Qingcheng. He wasn’t able to endure some things. That was his reverse scale. And as for the secondary reason behind his actions, it was naturally because of his confidence in himself.

Ye Zi had a face filled with black lines, she was completely speechless. Earlier, I’ve reminded you to take a step back. You don’t even know what sort of major power the Dragon Pool Manor is and you directly dared to stir up trouble?

Naturally, it was impossible for her to say such words. Hence, she simply shook her head and replied, “The Dragon Pool Manor is one of the peak powers in Time City. Their experts are as numerous as the clouds and they have several world overlords. The Dragon Pool Manor Lord is also the clan leader of the Dragon Pool Manor, he has long already entered the world overlord realm countless years ago and is now already at the peak of this cultivation realm. As to how strong he is, I’m not too sure either. After all, I’ve never met such a character, I’ve only heard rumors about him before.”

World Overlords cannot be classified into different tiers of cultivation, this was why it was very hard to describe one’s strength clearly. In any case, he should be very powerful or the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn’t be able to become a peak power.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian calmly nodded.

“Did you hear it yet? Quickly release me. If you release me now, maybe your punishment won’t be so heavy. If not, you won’t be able to imagine the consequences.” Jin Zhi, who was floating behind, coldly spoke.

Qin Wentian didn’t even glance at her. He only icily replied, “Do you truly have no idea about your current circumstances? As the girlfriend of one of the Dragon Pool Manor’s World Overlords, you are actually working as a serving girl in the Heaven Immortal Tower. It’s evident that you don’t have any impressive background. Could it be that you assume after such a huge matter has happened, after you had thrown all his face, that world overlord would still admit that you are his girlfriend? Does he not want face any more?”

Jin Zhi felt chills suddenly when she heard Qin Wentian’s words. She wasn’t a foolish person and in truth, she can be considered very intelligent. When Qin Wentian designed that little trick earlier causing her to use her hands to pass the dress over, she already knew that she had fallen into a trap. And now, with Qin Wentian's reminder, how could she not understand her current situation?

Just like what Qin Wentian has said, she was a serving girl in the Heaven Immortal Tower and from this, it was clear that she wasn't from any impressive background and wouldn't have any chance to enter the Dragon Pool Manor in the future. Also, now that such a thing happened today and she was forcibly brought away by Qin Wentian in public, this was truly an extremely embarrassing matter. She, whose status was originally already not high, still wished that she could be that world overlord's girlfriend? Even the Dragon Pool Manor couldn't afford to lose so much face, right? It was evident that the world overlord would break up with her. In fact, he might even not recognize her existence and would treat her as an ordinary serving girl from now on.

"Even so, your actions today have already offended him to the max." Jin Zhi's expression grew somewhat malevolent. Even if she wasn't going to be recognized as the world overlord's girlfriend, how could Qin Wentian have a good end?

"Ridiculous to the extreme." Qin Wentian mocked. "Do you really think that just for your sake alone, the entire Dragon Pool Manor would mobilize their forces? As for your so-called 'boyfriend,' although I've never met him before and don't know who he is, but seeing that he even wants a woman like you, the strength he possesses shouldn't be too great."

These words were an insult to Jin Zhi, and it was also a sign of his confidence.

The fear in Jin Zhi's heart grew even more intense. She suddenly felt regret. It was possible that she might have to pay a very high price for her earlier actions, even to the extent where all her earlier efforts in getting her into her current position were going to be wasted. Also, there were many beauties around Qin Wentian. Leaving aside their strength, none of their beauty was inferior to hers. No wonder he dared to say words such as 'seeing that he even wants a woman like you.' This was great contempt with regards to her.

Although she thought like this in her heart, she didn't want to admit it. She still held hope and her gaze turned even more venomous.

The gaze which Ye Zi used to look at Qin Wentian gradually changed. She discovered that she might have underestimated this outsider world overlord. His domineering behavior wasn't because of impulse, it was also because of his confidence.

The news of what happened in the Heaven Immortal Tower swiftly circulated out. Through the usage of messaging crystals, many people in Time City learned of this quickly. The circulation of the news was so swift that even the inn Qin Wentian was staying was discovered by these busybodies. The inn was a famous one named the Ten Miles Inn. The price of lodgings and food there was very high and only world overlords would usually be able to afford to stay there.

Hence, more and more people decided to gather around the Ten Miles Inn. They wanted to see how the Dragon Pool Manor would handle this.

At this moment, there were still many customers inside the Heaven Immortal Tower. There was a particular group of people who had very outstanding auras. The people in the lead was a young man and a maiden. The young man was extremely young but his cultivation was unfathomably deep, at the world overlord realm. The maiden was just an empyrean but there was a group of followers, all at the world overlord realm standing behind them. From this, one could very well imagine how high their status is.

“I’ve already investigated clearly, they are staying in the Ten Miles Inn.” The young man spoke to the maiden beside him. He was handsome and elegant and had an extraordinary appearance, with a magnificent bearing. The woman was even more striking, she had a sense of nobility and her beautiful eyes glowed with luster, sparkling like the stars. She also exuded an extraordinary demeanor.

“Little Princess, why are you suddenly so interested with regards to that world overlord?” The young man smiled and asked. They came to Time City and decided to head to the Heaven Immortal Tower because it was very famous. Who would have thought that they would witness the entire incident between the serving girl and Qin Wentian?

“Don’t you feel that it’s very interesting?” The maiden being addressed as ‘little princess,’ smiled brightly, causing the nearby people to be in a daze when they saw it.

“Don’t tell me that you felt it’s interesting because you saw that world overlord taking out 20,000 world stones for the sake of his wife? If little princess is fond of any treasures here, just let me know. I can take out 20,000 world stones too.” The young man smiled.

“Stop currying favor with me.” The maiden swept a glance at him, causing the young man to smile weakly. “I’d like to do so, sadly I don’t have such an opportunity. I would only have a chance to act so domineeringly for the sake of a beauty then if there truly is someone who dares to stare at little princess in disdain.”

A strange look appeared on the maiden’s face. Everytime she came out, her father would send some people out with her to protect her. It was very rare for others to view her with disdain and contempt.

“Didn’t you say that his world heart was extraordinary? He might be the same as you and have manifested a transcendent world heart. Just so coincidentally, he has already offended the Dragon Pool Manor. If he doesn’t have any background and only came here to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms, why don’t we try to recruit him?” The maiden calmly spoke.

“Princess truly loves talents. It’s just that little princess is still so young, why are you already so worried about things like this? You should just enjoy yourself and leave such troublesome matters to the elders to handle.” The young man speechlessly spoke.

“You don’t understand.” A look of deep contemplation appeared in the beautiful eyes of the maiden. Earlier after the news about the reappearance of the ancient battlefield of ancient Azure Mystic, rumors were rife but some of these rumors had great implications. She once heard her elders discussing that in the near future, it was very possible that a huge commotion would shake the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Right, I don’t understand.” The young man bitterly smiled and shook his head, staring at the maiden with a tender look along with unmasked admiration in his eyes.

“You don’t need to understand as well. Your talent lies in cultivation, you should just focus on that.” The maiden smiled brightly. She stared at the young man, “Let’s go to the Ten Miles Inn for a look.”

After that, the group of them left the Heaven Immortal Tower and headed in the direction of the Ten Miles Inn.

A serving girl of the Heaven Immortal Tower was forcibly brought away. Although this matter wasn’t really that big, it wasn’t that minor as well. This was equivalent to smacking the Heaven Immortal Tower’s face and there would surely be some troubles in the future. Not only for this group, several others made their way towards the Ten Miles Inn as well.

At this moment, the Ten Miles Inn suddenly became extremely bustling. Naturally before this, the atmosphere of the courtyard outside the inn was already considered very lively. A manor could be seen near it and this manor was the residence of a world overlord where many people would often come by to pay a visit. They were all willing to wait in the courtyard for long periods of time even though the manor’s master might not have any intentions to meet with them. What was even more terrifying was that of all these people who were waiting, they were all world overlords with no exceptions.

“What’s going on?” Why is there suddenly so many people in the inn’s surroundings?” Among the crowd, a world overlord suddenly frowned as he asked.

“Could it be that the news of Senior Absolute Beginning Overlord’s residence being here was leaked?” Someone murmured. The people in the surroundings all nodded their heads respectively. This should be the only possibility. If that was the case, given Senior Absolute Beginning’s temperament, he most probably wouldn’t meet with them even more!

Chapter 1762: Surnamed Donghuang

At this moment, Qin Wentian was enjoying delicacies in a pavilion. He chatted leisurely with his friends and exuded an extremely carefree air like nothing has ever happened.

Jin Zhi stood at the side and served them. Qin Wentian didn’t do anything to her, only telling her to serve tea and pour wine at the side. Before this, she refused to comply but Qin Wentian told her that if she didn’t want to obey or tried to escape, he would directly cripple her cultivation base. Just with that single sentence, Jin Zhi was so frightened that she didn’t dare to try anything funny and could only honestly obey his orders. However, her gaze when staring at them was extremely cold, like she was silently cursing them. She wanted to see how long Qin Wentian could enjoy life for.

“Senior brother, I feel extremely frustrated every time I see this woman. Why do you want to keep her here? Might as well cripple her cultivation directly.” Jun Mengchen coldly spoke, staring at Jin Zhi. This was especially so when he saw how venomous Jin Zhi’s gaze was. That truly spoiled the atmosphere and their mood. What sort of character was his senior brother? He had become the ruler of Azure Mystic with the title Heaven Empyrean. He stood high up in the air and had now even become the Qingcheng Realm Lord in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He even led all of them into the ancient battlefield and took on the ancient wills of heavenly deities as their masters.

This woman was just a lover of one of the world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor. She actually dared to insult and humiliate Qingcheng? To his senior brother’s wives, no one in the world would dare to show any disrespect. How dare this woman do so?

Honestly speaking, right now, the ancient will of heavenly deities still resided in some of their consciousness. Hence, Jun Mengchen didn’t feel too much trepidation or fear although their opponent was supposedly an extremely strong power, the Dragon Pool Manor. Although his cultivation now was slightly lower, so what of it? That was only because of time. A mere Dragon Pool Manor really dared to antagonize them? At most, he would wait a few hundred or a thousand years later before he came back and annihilated them.

Jun Mengchen's words truly scared Jin Zhi. She could clearly sense the unmasked disgust and loathing Jun Mengchen felt for her. Instantly, the venomous look in her eyes was retracted somewhat, it was as though she was frightened that Qin Wentian would really listen to Jun Mengchen and directly cripple her.

Jun Mengchen grimly watched the change in her expression. Seems like his senior brother was still too kind. He then coldly mocked, "I wonder which world overlord became blind, even wanting a cheap and despicable woman like this, overestimating herself, thinking that she's someone lofty."

Ye Zi also sat at the side. When she heard that, her heart trembled as she was filled with shock. She initially thought that Qin Wentian was already domineering enough. Who would have thought that this extremely handsome looking young man named Jun Mengchen would be also so tyrannical. Although his cultivation base was only at the empyrean realm, he had an imposingness to his tone like he didn't care about this matter that happened today. It was like although the power they had antagonized wasn't the Dragon Pool Manor. This was simply too crazy. Who were these people exactly? Could they be from some extremely powerful clans and sects?

How would they know that Qin Wentian and the others here had no backgrounds to speak of at all? If one really wanted to talk about backgrounds, they were enough to frighten everyone to death. After all, they had the ancient wills of heavenly deities in their consciousness.

"Sir. What arrogant words." Some others from another pavilion stared over, smiling at Jun Mengchen's group. "Earlier, we heard that someone created trouble at the Heavenly Immortal Tower and abducted a serving girl. Right now, many people are rushing to this inn. Most probably, that deed was done by you all, right? How audacious."

"It wasn't us creating trouble in the Heaven Immortal Tower, it was just that this serving girl was too impudent yet the Heaven Immortal Tower actually still wants to protect her. Could it be that you all think that the Heaven Immortal Tower's actions are logical?" Jun Mengchen stared back and spoke.

"We've already heard what happened. However, this world isn't something that logic holds sway over. Strength is everything. From your words, I guess that you guys have no understanding of the Dragon Pool Manor, right?" A person from that pavilion laughed.

"Sir, what do you want to say?" Qin Wentian glanced at the person who spoke as he asked.

“Nothing much. Since we are staying at the same inn, this can also be considered fate. Most probably, you guys came from outside to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms, right? We are the same as well. However, we reached here earlier than you, and have already been here for a few years. I have a pretty good understanding of the various major powers in Time City. I’m afraid you guys won’t have a good ending after offending the Heaven Immortal Tower but I can point out a path of light for you all to follow. If the owner of this Ten Miles Inn is willing to shield you, there might still be some hope.” That person laughed.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. Seems like the owner of the Ten Miles Inn wasn’t a simple character.

“Naturally, did you guys notice that there are plenty of world overlords gathered outside the inn? From what I know, in the manor near the outside courtyard, a major character resides there. This man is a transcendent-level world overlord and everyone views him with respect. You all can pay a visit to him and if you are lucky enough, he might deign to meet with you. Maybe, the Dragon Pool Manor won’t pursue this after that.” That person laughed.

“Thanks for your kind intentions but there’s no need for you to worry about this matter.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

“Haha, sure. Just treat it like I spoke too much.” That person smiled. He wanted to see how Qin Wentian would deal with the Dragon Pool Manor.

“Senior brother, there are truly more and more people in the surroundings. They must be here to watch the drama. The news truly spread swiftly indeed. We returned right away after that incident yet the name of the inn we are staying in has already been spread.” Jun Mengchen spoke.

“This place is Time City. This is normal.” Qin Wentian replied. This was the central core region of the Xuan Region, he wouldn’t feel shocked by anything that happened.

Not long after, another group of experts arrived at the inn. After that, they walked towards the pavilions. These people all had outstanding auras and a young man and woman were in the lead. They were none other than the group in the Heaven Immortal Tower earlier. When they arrived here, they directly walked towards Qin Wentian.

“People from the Dragon Pool Manor? They don’t seem like it.” Someone mumbled.

“If they aren’t from the Dragon Pool Manor, they should be disciples or descendants of an extremely strong power seeing that they have so many world overlord followers.” Someone felt that this was getting more and more interesting. The young man and woman in the lead were extremely outstanding. Naturally, the auras from Qin Wentian, Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang and the others weren't in anyway inferior as well. It was just that since these two had so many world overlords following them, their status was clearly extraordinary.

Qin Wentian had a look of puzzlement on his face when he saw the young man and woman in the lead walking towards him. Before this in the Heaven Immortal Tower, he knew that this group was in there too but he didn't pay any attention to them. Now that he was observing closely, he could tell that these people were truly extraordinary. The young woman in the lead had a cultivation base at the empyrean level. Her beauty and strength were both outstanding, and wasn't someone Jin Zhi could compare to. Also, her aura was very strong. As for that handsome young man beside her, he was a world overlord. That casual smile on his face also radiated a sense of pride that was carved deep in his bones.

The young maiden also surveyed Qin Wentian and his group. She suddenly laughed, she who was originally extremely beautiful, could topple a kingdom completely at this instant. Even Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er and the other beauties here couldn't help but to admire her. This was purely admiration for her beauty.

“Sir, you have encountered trouble. Not long ago, the Heaven Immortal Tower sent out news that if someone can capture you all back to the Heaven Immortal Tower, they can choose any treasures from the Heaven Immortal Tower save for their ultimate treasures as a reward.” The young maiden smiled. This is the latest news. When many people heard that, their eyes gleamed with a bright light. As expected of a Heaven Immortal Tower, what a heavy reward. Although they didn't offer their ultimate treasures, there were many powerful treasures in there still which are extremely valuable. Even world overlords would feel their hearts stirred by greed.

Just when everyone thought the Dragon Pool Manor would personally act, they suddenly used this strategy instead. There was simply no need for them to act, they could just use wealth to crush Qin Wentian. This was the power of wealth and cultivation resources. They most probably felt that if they were to act personally, it would be a loss of face to them.

The face they had lost then, naturally had to be recovered.

Naturally, for Jin Zhi's identity, there would naturally be no one mentioning the fact that she was the girlfriend of one of the world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor.

“Many thanks for the warning of young miss.” Qin Wentian smiled, conveying his gratitude.

“Are you not worried? This promise by them would surely attract many to act. Right now, there are many experts here to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms. With the reward being so valuable, even I might feel inclined to act.” That young maiden laughed.

“Indeed. Miss, you are telling me all of this because of what? What do you want to say?” Qin Wentian asked.

“My surname is Donghuang. I wonder how do I address sir?” The maiden asked.

“My surname is Qin, you can refer to me as the Qingcheng Realmlord.” Qin Wentian replied.

“Qingcheng Realmlord, that should be a title, right? Could it be that you are someone who controls a realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?” The maiden asked.

Qin Wentian nodded. These few words exchanged had revealed his identity somewhat but there was nothing for him to hide. In any case, she has already told him her surname.

It was just that this surname was somewhat special. He had recently heard of it and it's truly from an impressive background. Right now, seeing the demeanor of this woman as well as the number of powerful followers behind her, could it be that...?

“Although the territories of a realm can provide plenty of cultivation resources, it's ultimately still a side-path. Those who cultivate all seek to attain a higher realm, and to do so, they would have to travel to the core-most locations in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Qingcheng Realmlord has such outstanding talent and is also so young. How could you be willing to just be the overlord of a realm? If you join us, the troubling matters from the Dragon Pool Manor will be reduced to nothing at all.” The young woman casually spoke, her words tinged with arrogance. It was like she didn't place the Dragon Pool Manor in any regard at all.

However, no one felt that she was boasting. Many world overlords had looks of contemplation when they heard her surname. Could it be just a coincidence?

“This is recruitment. She is trying to recruit the Qingcheng Realmlord.” The eyes of everyone flashed sharply. Who would have thought that there would be someone admiring the Qingcheng Realmlord so quickly and was willing to help him to resolve this matter.

“The Donghuang surname, what does it refer to?” Qin Wentian asked in a low voice.

“It’s just like what you are thinking.” The young woman calmly spoke. A single sentence caused waves to rise in the hearts of everyone. The people in the surroundings all had changed expressions, even world overlords were shocked. What a climax, the changes of the wind and clouds. Donghuang... they were actually willing to help this young world overlord settle his troubles. If Qin Wentian really agreed, this trouble would be no trouble at all.

“This is our little princess.” The young man beside her suddenly smiled and spoke, causing the trembling of the hearts of the people in the surroundings to become even more intense.

Surnamed Donghuang, little princess. Her identity was as clear as day.

No wonder she exuded such magnificence. To think that she had such a high status. Everyone instantly stood up, including world overlord characters, to show their respect. Someone then spoke, “It’s my fortune to be able to meet the little princess here.”

“Little Princess’s magnificence knows no bounds yet she is still so friendly and approachable.” Another person spoke. At this moment, Jin Zhi also felt her heart trembling. Staring at this beautiful maiden, her eyes flashed with an unmasked admiration. This was a true chosen of the heavens. Compared to her, she was truly extremely insignificant!

Chapter 1763: What is the transcendent-level?

This maiden, who was being addressed as little princess, was named Donghuang Ying. Upon seeing several world overlords paying their respects, she smiled and nodded slightly but she didn’t say anything. Given her status, she truly didn’t need to say anything even when facing world overlord existences.

Her beautiful gaze turned to Qin Wentian again, waiting for his reply.

Qin Wentian was also very astonished when he learned of her identity. He smiled and nodded at her, “Thank you for the grace little princess has shown me. It’s just that I’m long used to being unaffiliated and prefer to be the overlord of my realm. Although my realm is located in quite a remote location, I feel at ease and carefree.”

This was a clear rejection. Everyone stared at Qin Wentian. This Qingcheng Realmlord actually rejected the little princess's invitation.

Given Donghuang Ying's identity, by personally inviting him to join her was already considered giving him a lot of face. Also, she brought news that was extremely disadvantageous to him. But even in such circumstances, he still chose to reject, causing everyone else to be very curious. What sort of character was this Qingcheng Realmlord exactly. Was he really so mesmerized with the authority of the realm he controlled? But even so, it wouldn't be so easy for him to pass this 'trial' before his eyes, right?

Jin Zhi, who was at the side, felt extremely shocked in her heart. Earlier, as long as Qin Wentian agreed to it, he would be a subordinate of the Donghuang Clan. The Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't dare to touch him then. With the status he would gain before him, he actually rejected it with no hesitation. From this, one could see how proud Qin Wentian was. No wonder he would be so angered with regards to her insulting his woman. Jin Zhi started to regret her actions, why did she have to insult Mo Qingcheng then? Could it be that she was jealous of her and Qing'er's beauty?

Donghuang Ying had a look of surprise on her face. The young man beside her also stared at Qin Wentian with interest. Donghuang Ying smiled, "Since this is the case, I won't force you then. It's just that I feel it's a pity."

Nobody knew whether the pity she spoke of was referring to her failure to recruit Qin Wentian or the fact that Qin Wentian wouldn't be able to pass this 'trial' of the Heaven Immortal Tower.

Qin Wentian nodded to her. After that, Donghuang Ying sat down in one of the nearby pavilions and decided to remain here. She wanted to see what would happen later.

The Heaven Immortal Tower made a promise that if someone brought Qin Wentian and his group to the Heaven Immortal Tower, they would be able to select almost any treasure from the Heaven Immortal Tower. Such a tempting condition would definitely cause many to feel greed. Naturally, those who had investigated the commotion in the Heaven Immortal Tower also knew that it was most probably impossible for ordinary world overlords to succeed. Earlier, Old Huo and two other world overlords failed to stop Qin Wentian. From this, one could tell that the person the Heaven Immortal Tower wants to capture wasn't somebody easy to handle.

But even so, greed was the best source of motivation. There would surely be people brave enough to try for the sake of the heavy reward. Also, since the Convention of the Myriad Realms was about to start, Time City naturally has no lack of experts, even for experts that are at the world overlord realm.

Hence, some of these bounty hunters soon arrived at the inn. The first to come was a man and a woman. The man exuded an evil aura and was a world overlord. As for the woman, she had charming features and dressed provocatively, revealing her long fair legs and deep cleavage, exuding a seductive aura. Her smile contained the power to mesmerize the hearts of men. Similarly, she was also at the world overlord realm.

The two of them seemed very close to each other. The woman leaned on the man and the man would openly stroke her soft and supple skin, not fearing outsiders were looking at all.

“It’s them.” Someone spoke in a low voice, most people instantly recognized this couple when they saw them. Even for those who had never seen them before, world overlords with such personalities were extremely rare. They were two terrifying overlords from Time City and were rumored to be husband and wife. Both of them had an evil aura and their cultivation method was very unique and powerful. This was especially so when the two of them joined forces, they would surely be even more terrifying.

They giggled and their gazes roamed around the crowd. When they noticed Donghuang Ying, they had a strange expression on their face. They could tell that this beautiful woman, who was only at the empyrean realm, was definitely someone not good to antagonize. From the number of world overlord followers behind her, they could already tell that she was someone extraordinary. Also, in an area near this inn, there was also a number of world overlords gathered, they should all be very powerful characters too.

But they didn’t feel too much worry as they knew who their target was. Their gazes continued to roam about, and very swiftly, their eyes locked on to Qin Wentian. An evil glint of light could then be seen gleaming in their eyes.

“It’s agreed that the treasure this time around, will be given to me as a present.” The woman charmingly smiled at the man with an evil aura beside her.

“Sure.” That man laughed. The two of them pressed their faces closer and kissed wildly in the public’s eyes, not reserved at all.

“Haha, you two freaks of nature can go back now. This time around, the treasure from the Heaven Immortal Tower shall be mine. I’m going to get it.” A carefree voice thundered out. A bright beam of light flashed in the air and after that, the crowd saw an imposing figure descending through the air like a heavenly god descending to the mortal world.

This was a middle-aged man with a startling aura. He stood there and resembled a towering ancient mountain that was immovable, brimming with strength. It felt like the moment he raised his hand, he could even make heaven and earth tremble.

Yet another powerful world overlord has appeared. All of them came here for the Heaven Immortal Tower's promise of treasure. So many overlords had already come here to hunt for the bounty when this news was just released. Later on, there would definitely be even more experts.

"Guhua, do you want a fight with us first?" That evil-looking man sinisterly spoke.

"Would I be afraid of you two?" The middle-aged man tyrannically replied.

"Don't waste time, there should be more bounty hunters coming later. Since you've already arrived, let's see which of us can capture him. This man shall belong to whoever succeeds first. How about it?" The charming woman laughed.

"This idea is not bad." The Guhua Reamlord nodded. He glanced at Qin Wentian, "In any case, you won't be able to escape. Why don't you leave with me obediently? If you fall into the hands of these two freaks whose names are Xie Sha and Yin Sha, your ending would surely be extremely dire."

"Don't listen to his nonsense. If you fall into my hands, I will definitely let you have a taste of paradise on earth." Yin Sha charmingly winked. Her gaze sent out a formless energy that entered Qin Wentian's mind, wanting him to be mesmerized.

"Scram."

Qin Wentian continued sitting there. Even now, he still didn't stand up and simply coldly replied.

"What a temper. I like him. How about handing him to me after we succeed in capturing him?" Yin Sha stared at Xie Sha.

"Sure, but I want all his women." Xie Sha spoke.

"Did you hear that? If you follow me, I can at least protect all of you until we reach the Heaven Immortal Tower. At that time, the situation might change. But if you land in their hands, your fate would truly be extremely miserable." The Guhua Reamlord spoke.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. His eyes were icy to the extreme, peering through the distance as they stared at Xie Sha.

“Since this is the case, none of you needs to leave.” Qin Wentian stood up. He didn’t make any actions and only flew up in the air. Wanting to use him to exchange for treasures? The Heaven Immortal Tower gave out such a promise because they wanted him to have endless trouble. Since this is the case, let’s get this done once and for all.

“What arrogance.” Yin Sha laughed. “Let’s fight higher up in the air then.”

There were many people with extraordinary statuses in the inn and the owner of the inn itself was also an extraordinary character. Given how large the aftershocks of an overlord-ranked battle would be, it was very easy to damage the inn or disturb others. Yin Sha was also somewhat worried about offending these people.

“No need for so much trouble.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

“How arrogant, no wonder you dared to abduct a serving girl from the Heaven Immortal Tower. Since this is the case, I can only ask you for guidance.” As the Guhua Realmlord spoke, he released his world heart. In an instant, everything around him slowed down. The people in the inn could feel their movements slowing as well. They wanted to lift their hands but they felt that it was extremely difficult to do so. They needed to struggle just to make any motion at all.

“What world heart energy is this?” Everyone felt their hearts trembling. Under the power of this world heart, how can his opponent fight? This Guhua Realmlord was truly powerful, no wonder he was so arrogant.

“Since you three have come, I assume that you all should also know the price of failure, right?” Qin Wentian was as though he didn’t sense the power of his opponents. As the sound of his voice faded, his own world heart was released. When his heart domain enveloped the Guhua Realmlord and Yin Sha and Xie Sha, the three world overlords suddenly trembled as their countenances paled.

At the moment the power of this world heart enveloped the three of them, they could feel the flow of space around them slowing down as a supremely terrifying energy suppressed everything. Shock could be seen in the Guhua Realmlord’s eyes. Under the power of his world heart, Qin Wentian could actually retaliate and used a similar method to suppress him. Right now, he felt as though his body didn't belong to him. His reactions had slowed down extremely, and the power of his heavenheart mandate was under absolute suppression.

“Just with your puny abilities, you guys dared to be bounty hunters?” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Although they were a little stronger than Old Huo, there was no difference to him.

Qin Wentian slowly stepped through the air. The three world overlords actually didn't dare to move at all. They could only stare at Qin Wentian as their expressions changed. Where did all their earlier arrogance go to?

Sometimes, when a world heart was released, those at the same level could instantly know who was stronger and who was weaker. If the disparity in strength wasn't that great, the two combatants naturally could still fight. But if the disparity was extremely large, there would be a feeling of absolute suppression. How would the weaker ones have any courage to fight?

“We were only joking with you earlier. Please pardon us.” Xie Sha stared at Qin Wentian and bowed.

Qin Wentian cast a glacial glance at him, like how he was looking at a dead man.

“Today, there's actually someone who still dares to show disrespect to my wives.” Qin Wentian was truly angered. He stared at the three world overlords in the air as he icily continued, “Those who come and make trouble for me, shall all be killed without mercy. Die!”

As the sound of the word 'die' rang out, a supreme might manifested from the void. The expressions of the three world overlords turned ashen when they felt the heavenly might boring down on them. Other than terror and panic, despair could also be seen in their eyes.

A formless killing light appeared in the air. Everywhere it passed by, only destruction existed. The three world overlords struggled with agony but their bodies were disintegrating rapidly. Soon after, Yin Sha transformed into nothingness and vanished from this world. Her partner Xie Sha followed behind her.

“No...” At the end, Guhua Realmlord was the last one. He roared loudly but he had no way to obstruct death from approaching.

In just an instant, silence filled the atmosphere. The gazes of everyone were all focused on the floating figure in the air as their hearts pounded violently!

Chapter 1764: Interesting People, Interesting Matters

Qin Wentian floated in the air. At this moment, only now did everyone understand why the little princess of the Donghuang Clan came to the inn to personally issue an invitation. The answer was because, this man was a transcendent-level world overlord.

Three powerful world overlords were insta-killed, they didn't even have the strength to resist. In fact, two of them didn't even have the chance to display the power of their world hearts. Before this Qingcheng Realmlord, they were killed in a single strike. How tyrannical was that?

"It's rumored that back then in the Heaven Immortal Tower, the three overlords there didn't dare to obstruct him from bringing the serving girl away. Most probably at that time, those three world overlords had already sensed the suppression brought on by the pressure of his world heart." The experts in the surrounding silently mused. That Xie Sha, Yin Sha and Guhua Realmlord felt that they were very strong, even stronger than the three world overlords of the Heaven Immortal Tower. Also, it was true that they were very famous. When Xie Sha and Yin Sha joined forces, they could use many kinds of heavenheart mandates, allowing them to complement each other, greatly boosting their combat proficiency, easily enabling them to subdue their enemies.

But precisely because they were too confident in their own strength, they chose to come here to hunt Qin Wentian. However, it was evident that they have completely underestimated Qin Wentian. Their cooperation was strong? They basically didn't have a chance to join forces at all. They were completely suppressed by Qin Wentian's world heart. The difference in strength resulted in them being insta-killed.

Donghuang Ying's beautiful eyes shone resplendently, staring at Qin Wentian. Although she sensed something, but because the strength of Qin Wentian's world heart was directed at the three overlords, she couldn't sense it clearly enough. For world overlords, their control over their power was perfect, they could use it as their heart desired.

Jin Zhi also stared at Qin Wentian, she was dumbfounded with shock. Only now did she realize that the woman whom she held in disdain, was actually the woman of such a powerful world overlord. This time around, she has truly created trouble.

Numerous figures sped over, there were still experts coming here, including the world overlords who were originally around in this area. They naturally saw the battle in the air between the four world overlords. It was impossible even if they didn't want to notice it.

The people of the inn felt their hearts trembling, as expected of the convening of the Convention. There were so many experts hidden here. Just a random world overlord staying in this inn was actually a transcendent-level one, capable of insta-killing three world overlords. His world heart should have been formed from a fusion of three source origins, right? He should also have added his insights and comprehensions of innate techniques and secret arts within.

As for the people who just arrived, many of them came here with the intention of hunting Qin Wentian due to the reward promised by the Heaven Immortal Tower. However, after they came here, they immediately saw three world overlords being annihilated. As of now, none of them dared to make any reckless moves.

Qin Wentian coldly swept his gaze at the world overlords who just arrived. There was an unmasked threat in his gaze.

He didn't have any mortal grudges with the three world overlords but those who are kind would always be bullied. Sometimes, one had to act more decisively and ruthlessly. These people wanted to bring him and his friends away just for the promise of treasure? Did they even once think about the fact that they might die? After they captured them, if the Heaven Immortal Tower wanted to kill Qin Wentian and his group, would these bounty hunters feel any pity or show mercy? In addition, Qin Wentian knew that if he didn't act domineeringly enough, there would be endless trouble. There would constantly be people coming to bother him, wanting to hunt his group. He didn't have the mood to deal with them every time they showed up.

Although it was difficult for them to cultivate to the world overlord realm, they should still pay a price for their actions. Since they treated his life as nothing, why should Qin Wentian show mercy?

The death of the three world overlords clearly was a show of force. Nobody dared to make any reckless moves.

In the air, resplendent light flashed. A new world overlord appeared in the Ten Miles Inn. However, this person was stunned when he noticed the tense atmosphere. Why were things so quiet?

He swept their gazes over and soon discovered Qin Wentian, and Jin Zhi who was below him. These people should be their targets, right?

“Seems like everyone came here for the same objective?” This new world overlord who just arrived stared at the other world overlords in the area as he smiled. Right now, the three world overlords who fought with Qin Wentian earlier have all disintegrated into dust, their souls dispersed. This world overlord who just arrived had no idea that a combat just occurred. When everyone heard his words, all of them turned and stared at him with interest. From their gazes, this world overlord could feel a strange sensation. It seems that something was wrong?

Qin Wentian icily stared at that world overlord as he spoke. “Those who want to stay in the inn go look for the waiter. Those who wish to drink wine find your own seats. If there are still people looking at me, I will assume that you guys are here to act against me. I won’t show any mercy. If you guys came here for the purpose of the bounty, all of you can scam now.”

Qin Wentian’s domineering voice spread through this entire region. After that, he returned to his seat and sat down. How tyrannical was this? But he really did have the capabilities to act like this.

“What’s the situation?” That newly arrived world overlord was stunned. So arrogant?

Also, the other world overlords in the air actually didn’t even dare to let out a fart, as though all of them were silently agreeing with Qin Wentian’s words. No one dared to question him at all. This newly arrived world overlord instantly realized that something must have happened earlier or such a scene wouldn’t be playing out now.

Could it be that none of the world overlords in the surroundings had the qualifications to antagonize this target?

He found a world overlord that was here earlier and transmitted his voice over to ask. The other party just replied with a single sentence, saying that he could try his luck if he wanted to die. After speaking, that world overlord who had answered instantly turned and left, not wanting to be any part of this. The Heaven Immortal Tower clearly had malicious intentions, how was it possible to earn their treasures so easily. Given how difficult it was to become a world overlord, the treasures might be valuable but how could it compared to his life?

At this moment, at the courtyard where many world overlords had gathered, an extraordinary figure walked out from the residence. He was wearing a green robe and appeared to be a middle-aged man that seemed imposing without being angry. His gaze then casually swept across the world overlords gathered in the courtyard.

“Paying our respects to Senior Absolute Beginning.”

“We pay our respects to the Absolute Beginning Overlord.” Seeing that this person appeared, many world overlords started, and turned their gazes over to him.

This Absolute Beginning Overlord was a world overlord that has been famous in the Mystic Region since a very long time ago. He was a legend among world overlords. Also, he rose to fame in Time City and he could be considered someone extremely dazzling in the once in ten thousand years Convention of the Myriad Realms. It was rumored that in one of the previous Conventions, the Absolute Beginning Overlord had stirred up some trouble in Time City and antagonized a powerful major clan here. That major clan had deep foundations in Time City and had many world overlords under them. Hence, they were naturally extremely arrogant and wanted the Absolute Beginning Overlord to go over and kneel and bow to them to settle things.

And the ending was that the Absolute Beginning Overlord did go over. After a fierce battle, he slaughtered all their world overlords and exterminated that clan. From then onwards, his name shook Time City and he could be considered a famous character among the world overlords invited here for the Convention. From then on, before the Convention of Myriad Realms commenced, there would be plenty of world overlords paying visit to him on account of his reputation.

Although he didn't come out, everything that happened outside couldn't escape his senses. He had clearly seen that this young world overlord had supreme talent and an extraordinary world heart, he was someone worth nurturing. Also, offending a major power like that the moment the young world overlord came to Time City also reminded Absolute Beginning of his own story back then.

“Little friend, your strength is extraordinary and you have a truly powerful world heart. Why don't you come over to my place and we can have fun sharing our insights?” The Absolute Beginning Overlord stood there but his voice directly rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. Also, his silhouette was also branded in Qin Wentian's eyes.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed as he stared in a certain location. Although he couldn't see anything in his eyes, everything around the Absolute Beginning Overlord was imprinted in his mind, there was no difference from personally seeing it with his eyes. Not only that, they also didn't face any barriers when conversing.

This person who spoke to him had an extraordinary demeanor, it was the extraordinary character that expert from the other pavilion reminded him about before, saying that if Qin Wentian can gain his support, the Dragon Pool Manor most likely would forget about the commotion he caused.

However, he wasn't acquainted with that extraordinary character, how would he be able to gain his support? That was truly a useless suggestion.

"Mister, your aura is extraordinary as well. It's just that I'm currently enjoying food and wine with my family and friends. I won't be going over then, please understand." Qin Wentian replied.

"Why? Does little friend look down on me?" The Absolute Beginning Overlord felt somewhat taken aback, he was actually rejected. There were so many world overlords who came to visit him but he ignored them all. Earlier, he saw that Qin Wentian's world heart was extraordinary hence he actively chose to reach out to Qin Wentian, telling him to come over to his residence so they could exchange insights.

"I don't have any such intentions." Qin Wentian smiled. It was true that he didn't look down on the other party. It was just that today, his mood wasn't that good anymore. The matter with the Dragon Pool Manor has yet to conclude and he didn't know how Mo Qingcheng was currently feeling. He naturally wanted to be by her side and spend more time with her. How would he be interested to drink and make merry with other world overlords now? In ordinary times, he might have accepted the invitation. After all, since there were so many other world overlords paying a visit to this character, this character should be extraordinary.

"Since little friend doesn't have any intentions to look down on me. Just come and join me. I'm very curious about you." The Absolute Beginning Overlord laughed.

"Everyone has their own cultivation paths, why is there a need to be curious about me? I'll pay a visit to mister once I'm free but I won't go over now." Qin Wentian smiled and replied. He felt that the other party might be an extraordinary character but why was this person so prideful? He truly didn't have any intentions to look down on this person but does that mean that he had to go over? This caused him to feel baffled.

The Absolute Beginning Overlord frowned, feeling somewhat unhappy. He invited Qin Wentian twice but was rejected both times.

"Hmph." He coldly snorted. The Absolute Beginning Overlord flicked his sleeves as though he was angered that Qin Wentian didn't give him face. He returned to his own residence in a huff of anger. Qin Wentian felt extremely baffled but he couldn't be bothered about what the Absolute Beginning Overlord was feeling as he needed to consider the people around him. Although you might be an extraordinary character, there's no reason why I should go over just because you wanted it, right?

If I don't go over to pay you a visit, can't you come and find me for a drink instead?

Clearly, that expert felt that because he was extraordinary, he wanted everyone to give him face.

Donghuang Ying, who was at the side, giggled out loud. Seems like the personality of this Qingcheng Realm Lord was like that, he wouldn't give face no matter who the other party was. Not long ago, he just rejected her invitation and now, he rejected an extraordinary world overlord.

"This fellow..." The overlords crowding around the Absolute Beginning Overlord's courtyard felt somewhat speechless. It was difficult for them even if they wanted to meet him once, yet this Qingcheng Realm Lord actually rejected when the Absolute Beginning Overlord invited him personally. Many people started mumbling to themselves. When Qin Wentian heard them, he was extremely unhappy, and lost his appetite.

But at this moment, another beautiful serving girl brought up more delicacies and wine. Qin Wentian was somewhat taken aback and he stated, "We still have some dishes not served yet?"

"Sir, you are mistaken. This is free-of-charge, by courtesy of our boss. In addition, in the future, all your lodgings and food here would be on the house, you can stay as long as you want to." The serving girl smiled. Qin Wentian had a bewildered look on his face. There was actually such an interesting person? There are truly many interesting things here and at the very least, his mood now was slightly better!

Chapter 1765: Play All the Way Until the End

The fragrance of the newly served wine permeated the atmosphere, it was clearly of a better grade compared to the previous wines he ordered. After drinking it, a feeling of warmth rose from his stomach and transformed into a cool current of energy that circulated his entire body, causing him to feel extremely comfortable.

Qin Wentian and the others only took a small sip and involuntarily praise it. "Good wine."

"This wine is truly so fragrant. It must be from the inn's boss's private stash." Jun Mengchen laughed. Little Rascal drank bowls after bowls of the wine, appearing extremely adorable.

"The boss of this inn is truly an interesting man." Qin Wentian laughed. The price of the food and drinks here were measured in world stones, yet the boss of this place actually waived the fees for them? What would the other customers think? Clearly, the boss didn't give a damn.

Before this, there was someone saying that he should look for either the inn's boss or that Absolute Beginning Overlord to resolve this issue. And now, both of them have already expressed their attitude. The Absolute Beginning Overlord was too proud and had a very lofty view of himself. Compared to him, the inn's boss made Qin Wentian feel more comfortable. It was because the boss had given him some benefits. The wine and food might be good but what was truly important was the meaning behind his actions. All these were just minor things but they were capable of expressing the boss's attitude. Comparing the inn's boss and the Absolute Beginning Overlord, Qin Wentian preferred the inn's boss more.

The group of them continued to enjoy the food. There were many world overlords who came to the Ten Miles Inn and left after that. The name Qingcheng Realmlord soon began to spread through Time City. Right now, outside the inn, there were many people discussing about Qin Wentian. This man forcefully abducted the serving girl from the Heaven Immortal Tower, rejected the invitation by the Donghuang little princess, not wanting to rely on her for protection. Clearly, this person was somewhat prideful. But after that, he slayed three world overlords in a single battle, rendering the Heaven Immortal Tower's plan useless. And no one actually dared to challenge him again.

Who knew how powerful this transcendent-level world overlord was exactly? His victory over the three world overlords wasn't just a simple victory, he insta-killed them tyrannically. He wanted to tell others that for the sake of a treasure, they might even lose their lives and it wasn't worth it to take the risk. After knowing this, the would-be bounty hunters also didn't feel that the temptation of the Heaven Immortal Tower's treasure was too great as they understood that their target would be a transcendent-level world overlord.

In addition, it was said that the Absolute Beginning Overlord was also residing in the Ten Miles Inn. He personally invited Qin Wentian to join him to dine but was rejected by Qin Wentian, causing the Absolute Beginning Overlord to be in a bad mood. But after that, the inn's boss actually sent up more delicacies free-of-charge for Qin Wentian to enjoy? This matter soon circulated around causing the name of Qingcheng Realmlord to rise sharply in fame in Time City.

Naturally, the people of Time City weren't too bothered about this. To them, this was nothing new. Before the commencement of each Convention, there would always be people rising to fame and there was no exception this time as well. The Qingcheng Realmlord wouldn't be the only one. Right now in another location inside Time City, another matter occurred and a world overlord had also displayed his brilliance.

However, Time City would only pay attention to those who could truly leave their names in history after they became famous. Each of these legendary characters had a shocking story behind their rise. A new person like the Qingcheng Realmlord was still nothing now, he was someone walking on that path of glory. No one knew what his future heights would be.

Many people were paying attention to the movements of the Dragon Pool Manor. The Heaven Immortal Tower's plan was neutralized by that battle. In that case, what actions would they take to resolve this matter?

Could it be that the Dragon Pool Manor would send out domineering experts at the world overlord realm of their own to suppress this Qingcheng Reamlord?

At this moment, in a courtyard inside the Dragon Pool Manor, a young world overlord stood there with his hands behind his back. He had an extraordinary aura and radiated a formless pressure.

His name was Longyuan Haoyu and was a genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor that had an extraordinary status. Jin Zhi was one of his many women. Given a character like him, it was extremely normal for him to be surrounded by beauties. All humans would have desire and world overlords were no exception as well. He wasn't married but does it mean that he would abstain from women? It was naturally not possible.

Also, women to him weren't considered overly important. Back then, Jin Zhi tempted him and he didn't resist. After that, he arranged Jin Zhi to work in the Heaven Immortal Tower and only a minority knew that Jin Zhi was his woman. He naturally wouldn't make public such information as Jin Zhi wasn't qualified to be the woman he married in the future. He didn't really have any deep emotions to Jin Zhi, everything was just for fun to him.

But even so, there was naturally no way he would allow any tom, dick or harry to humiliate his woman, let alone forcibly bringing her away. It was one thing that he didn't want to admit his relationship with Jin Zhi, but it was also the truth that the Qingcheng Reamlord had smacked his face and caused damage to the Heaven Immortal Tower's reputation. Hence, he asked an elder in the clan who was responsible for the Heaven Immortal Tower to give out the command, tempting bounty hunters to act for him.

But even so, he wasn't really bothered about this. To him, this was just a very minor matter. As long as he captured Qin Wentian, he would surely humiliate him badly to repair some reputation of the Heaven Immortal Tower while also helping him to vent his emotions. However, the problem now was that this minor matter wasn't settled at all and this incident has spread even further. The only reason was because the person the Heaven Immortal Tower wanted to deal with was actually a transcendent-level world overlord who could insta-kill three powerful existences at the world overlord realm.

This matter has circulated all over Time City and caused a huge commotion. That Qingcheng Realmlord used the Heaven Immortal Tower to boost his own fame. Many people were waiting for the Heaven Immortal Tower, nay, the Dragon Pool Manor's attitude. They wanted to see how the Dragon Pool Manor would react.

"Haoyu." A voice rang out. Longyuan Haoyu's eyes flashed as he replied through the air, "Uncle."

"Next, what do you plan to do? How do you plan to settle this matter? Right now, your father has already learned about this but he hasn't questioned you yet. After all, this is something stirred up by you. That serving girl is your woman, right?" A voice rang out in Longyuan Haoyu's mind. Since such a major commotion has happened, it was naturally impossible to hide this from the clan's elders.

"I will pay a visit to the Qingcheng Realmlord." Longyuan Haoyu spoke.

"Good." The other party replied and there was no more communication. Longyuan Haoyu might be his junior but was also a world overlord existence. Naturally, there was no need for the elder to interfere in everything. In any case, the matters of the clan would always be handed over to juniors of the latter generations to resolve, helping them to mature faster.

They didn't send anyone to domineeringly suppress Qin Wentian because although their Dragon Pool Manor might be able to do that, they were considered a major power in Time City. How could they truly go all out to suppress a transcendent-level world overlord who came here for the Convention of the Myriad Realms for the sake of a single serving girl? Would that improve their reputation? Would that be able to repair the Heaven Immortal Tower's face? Most probably, there would be even more gossip in the future, feeling that the Dragon Pool Manor had no principles when doing this. One mustn't forget that the start of all of this was because of that serving girl first insulting the other party's wife.

The wife of a transcendent-level world overlord, is she someone a serving girl of your Heaven Immortal Tower could casually insult? Could it be that just because the Heaven Immortal Tower belonged to the Dragon Pool Manor, the serving girl could act so tyrannically?

If the Dragon Pool Manor really did so, they would even suffer more damage to their reputation and be denounced by others.

Hence, for the next few days, there were no movements from the Heaven Immortal Tower. The Dragon Pool Manor also seemed very calm as though they had already forgotten about this matter. Some people even thought that this was already concluded and both sides decided to treat it that this matter has never happened and wouldn't pursue it any longer. After all, a serving girl was captured because she insulted a transcendent-level world overlord? Of course there was nothing anyone could say about it. Could it be that transcendent-level world overlords have no temper?

Jin Zhi, who initially thought that Qin Wentian would be in trouble, actually found him leading peaceful days. She no longer had any temper and was now taking the role of a servant, serving the needs of Qin Wentian's group. She was already filled with despair. Did her boyfriend give her up just like that?

Today, Qin Wentian was in his courtyard. All of a sudden, he furrowed his brows and asked, "Who is it?"

"Longyuan Haoyu." A voice rang out. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, someone from the Dragon Pool Manor has arrived?

"Come in." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, a young-looking figure appeared before him and this was none other than Longyuan Haoyu.

Another figure then sped over. Jin Zhi was filled with joy when she saw the person who came and she called out with excitement, "Haoyu!"

Longyuan Haoyu merely coldly glanced at her before shifting his eyes away. With that single gaze, it caused Jin Zhi to feel chills all over her body as though she had fallen into a freezer.

Jun Mengchen and the others walked over, staring at this uninvited guest with some trepidation in their eyes. The aura of this young man was very strong and he had the surname Longyuan. Clearly, he was from the Dragon Pool Manor. During these days, they had heard the name of the Dragon Pool Manor many times.

"Qingcheng Realm Lord." Longyuan Haoyu stared at Qin Wentian. "Recently, Sir's fame has been shooting up in Time City."

"Just speak directly." Qin Wentian stared at Longyuan Haoyu.

"Alright." Longyuan Haoyu nodded. "You forcefully brought away a serving girl of my Heaven Immortal Tower, causing my Dragon Pool Manor to have no good way to react. Why don't we each take a step back? You send the serving girl back to the Heaven Immortal Tower and we will allow you to choose a divine weapon of your choice so that both sides would have a method to step down. How about it?”

Qin Wentian stared at Longyuan Haoyu while coldly laughing in his heart. Wanting him to first send the serving girl back meant that they wanted him to take the first step to make the compromise. After that, the Heaven Immortal Tower would then allow him to pick a divine weapon to reward him?

“Why is it not the Heaven Immortal Tower first bring a treasure here to apologize before I send the serving girl back? In any case, this matter was caused by this woman. But back then if the Heaven Immortal Tower made her apologize, I wouldn’t have pursued the matter any further.” Qin Wentian replied. He didn’t have any objections that Longyuan Haoyu wanted a way where both sides could step down and resolve this peacefully. However, there was no logic for him to be the first to compromise.

The one who did so first and the one who did so later, the meaning behind it was completely different.

“Sir, why must you act like this? Our Dragon Pool Manor has been here in Time City for many years and is still considered somewhat famous.” Longyuan Haoyu spoke.

“So, because the Dragon Pool Manor is a major power, I should be the one who first take a step back?” Qin Wentian laughed. “In truth, there’s no need for so much trouble. I’ve already said this before in the Heavenly Immortal Tower that I have no intentions to go against the Heaven Immortal Tower and the Dragon Pool Manor. The one who insulted my wife is this woman, this is the reason why I captured her as she should pay a price for her actions. As for the loss of face caused to the Heaven Immortal Tower, wasn’t the Heaven Immortal Tower the one who first tried to tempt bounty hunters to come after me? I can treat this matter as though it didn’t happen before.”

“In that case, you are not planning to step a step back then?” Longyuan Haoyu frowned. He had already personally made a trip here, but this Qingcheng Realmlord still maintained his attitude.

“If you came here for the sake of making me take a step back for you to save face, you can return now.” Qin Wentian impolitely replied. He has already made things very clear, he wouldn’t pursue the fact that the Heaven Immortal Tower offered a reward to tempt bounty hunters to hunt him. This was the compromise that he was willing to make. It also wasn’t that he wanted to blow this matter up but from what he was hearing now, this Longyuan Haoyu actually wanted him to take the first step and release the woman who had insulted Qingcheng.

This was the attitude of the Dragon Pool Manor?

Since this was the case, he shall play all the way until the end with them!

Chapter 1766: Shameless Overlords

Longyuan Haoyu stared at Qin Wentian, his countenance was extremely sharp. Qin Wentian had issued an expulsion order, truly not giving him face at all.

He was already willing to compromise and no longer sought trouble with Qin Wentian. As long as Qin Wentian sent Jin Zhi back, the Heaven Immortal Tower was willing to express their good will and this matter will be concluded just like this. However, Qin Wentian felt that it should be the Heaven Immortal Tower apologizing first before he would release his hostage.

How tyrannical.

“Farewell.” He coldly spoke before flicking his sleeves and departing, feeling extremely angry.

Qin Wentian stared at Longyuan Haoyu’s vanishing silhouette with no expression on his face. As expected of a world overlord from a major power, that pride was innate in his bones as though it was only logical that Qin Wentian had to compromise first.

Seeing Longyuan Haoyu simply leaving like this, the beautiful eyes of Jin Zhi stared straight ahead blankly. He was going to leave just like that?

Her man personally came. Qin Wentian still refused to free her. At this moment, boundless sorrow filled her heart.

“This is the source of your reliance. You felt that you are a lofty individual because of your relationship with that world overlord. However, he didn’t even spare you a single glance.” Qin Wentian had his back facing to Jin Zhi as he calmly spoke. His voice was like swords stabbing into Jin Zhi’s heart. That was right, what was she considered as? Just a woman who could be abandoned anytime. Right now, Longyuan Haoyu probably didn’t want to have anything to do with her any longer.

“Pitiful woman, scram.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Jin Zhi started, she stared at Qin Wentian but there was some disbelief on her face. “You are going to release me?”

“I just wanted you to see clearly what situation you are in. This can be considered the price you have to pay for your actions. What’s the purpose of me making you stay? I disdain to kill you.” Qin Wentian still didn’t look at Jin Zhi. He felt no sympathy. Pitiful humans would always have their own detestable points.

Jin Zhi stared dumbly at Qin Wentian. Longyuan Haoyu personally came by but Qin Wentian domineeringly replied saying that the Heaven Immortal Tower had to apologize first. But after Longyuan Haoyu left, Qin Wentian actually was going to release her?

This was the Qingcheng Realmlord’s attitude? The Dragon Pool Manor couldn’t get him to compromise. He would release her simply because he felt like it. This was his attitude because he had his own pride.

Jin Zhi cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian before leaving this place. She would no longer return to the Heaven Immortal Tower or go to find Longyuan Haoyu again. Their relationship has ended. Even if she really went to find Longyuan Haoyu now, the other party most probably wouldn’t want to see her. She would only feel even more sorrowful.

After Jin Zhi left, Qin Wentian glanced at the empty space. “Sir, have you seen enough?”

“Oh, I’m discovered.” A low voice rang out. After that, a man in white robes walked out from the void. He was entirely dressed in white, unstained by dust completely. In fact, he even had a pair of white brows. Only his black eyes were full of spirit.

“How interesting, the Dragon Pool Manor came by wanting you to free the serving girl but you refused to compromise. After that, you freed her because you felt that she had already paid the price for her actions? What a wondrous person you are.” The white-browed man laughed.

“Sir, it isn’t too good for you to hide and spy on me, right?” Qin Wentian stared at him.

“This...” His brows twitched but he soon smiled. “I saw that Longyuan Haoyu was here, hence I came over for a look in case he creates trouble.”

“Even if he creates trouble, what does that have to do with you?” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Naturally it would have something to do with me. I’m the boss of this inn.” The white-browed man spoke like it should be as such. Qin Wentian started, the white-browed man before his eyes was actually the boss of the Ten Miles Inn? He was that interesting person who allowed him free food and lodging here?

“Even if you are the inn’s boss, you should spectate openly if you want to spectate. Why must you intentionally use your world heart’s ability to hide in the void? That’s truly lacking in manners.” Qin Wentian laughed.

“Who knew that I would be discovered?” The white-browed man depressedly mumbled. After that, he laughed, “Also, this inn belongs to me, what’s the problem if I come here to take a look. Don’t forget that I was the one who allowed you to wine, dine and lodge here for free. So please don’t take it to heart about such a minor matter of me hiding in the shadows okay...?”

Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines, he didn’t expect the boss of this inn to be such a weirdo. This logic caused him to be somewhat speechless and he actually didn’t know how to reply. It’s true that this inn belonged to this man and they were dining and lodging for free. He didn’t need to pay a single cent.

“Seems like it is still better for me to pay up.” Qin Wentian speechlessly replied.

“Haha, I was just joking. I’m a very straightforward person. The purpose for me showing up is to invite you for a drink. You should have come here for the purpose of attending the Convention of the Myriad Realms, right? I have a few buddies who love to drink too and they would also be participating in the convention. Are you interested to get acquainted with them?” The white-browed man then continued, “Oh, I forgot to introduce myself. My name is a little strange, I’m called Ten Miles Springwind, you can directly refer to me as Ten Miles. Such a poetic name like this can also be considered very rare in the world. It should be very easy to remember.”

“Mhm, I can tell.” Qin Wentian’s face was still filled with black lines. He really could tell...he could tell that this inn’s boss seemed to be extremely narcissistic. Earlier, he chose to stay in the shadows to peek yet he still claimed that he was a straightforward person and even praised his own name. How utterly shameless.

“Everyone says that. Although Qingcheng Realmlord is somewhat tacky, your strength isn’t too bad. Although the elegance of our names is very far apart, it’s quite easy to remember too.” Ten Miles Springwind seriously spoke. Jun Mengchen and the others, who were behind Qin Wentian, all had their eyes wide open as they stared dumbfoundedly at this world overlord before them. Today, it can be considered that their horizons were broadened. So there were such shameless individuals among world overlords as well.

“Let’s go, let’s go. If we go there late, those drunkards would force me to give them even more alcohol.” Ten Miles Springwind hurried Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian glanced at the people behind him, “Do you all want to join us?”

“It’s fine, we will just stay here.” They smiled. Although this inn’s boss didn’t seem to put on any airs at all, he was truly somewhat shameless. However, it was also clear that he wasn’t someone ordinary. Qin Wentian might have the qualifications to sit with them but this doesn’t mean that the rest of them were qualified. There was no meaning even if they went.

Qin Wentian nodded, he stared at Ten Miles Springwind, “Let’s go then.”

“Alright, don’t worry. The location is in my inn itself, you will be able to see the situation here, nothing bad will happen to your friends and family.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke. After all, this was his inn. He did have this bit of confidence.

Qin Wentian followed Ten Miles Springwind. Jun Mengchen felt a sense of defeat as he stared at their backs. “No, this can’t continue. I’m going to enter closed-door seclusion. In this Time City where there are world overlords everywhere, I truly feel a sense of inferiority.”

“If you directly use your comprehensions of heavenheart mandates to manifest a world heart, you could have long already entered the world overlord realm. Who asked you to follow Wentian’s example? Hmph.” Little Rascal mumbled. Jun Mengchen directly turned around and rapped his head. “Senior can do this, why can’t I? If you are not happy, why don’t we fight right here and now?”

After hearing his words, Little Rascal shrank back as he whispered in a low voice. “Violent brute...”

Ten Miles Springwind led Qin Wentian to a separate pavillion. This was the best location in the entire inn, one could see magnificent scenery here and there were trees with shade-giving foliage. The atmosphere here was extremely peaceful and it was naturally a wonderful thing to be able to enjoy alcohol here.

When Qin Wentian arrived, he noticed three others already sitting in the pavilion. It was an old man, a middle-aged man and a woman. These three completely different people were actually gathered here. In addition to Ten Miles Springwind, the four of them had four completely different types of personalities.

The first person Qin Wentian glanced at was that old man. This was because he met this old man before. In the past, when they were travelling to Time City, this was the old man whom Jun Mengchen doubted. Who could have thought that this old man was a friend of Ten Miles Springwind and he could encounter him again here. The old man narrowed his eyes into slits as he surveyed Qin Wentian as well.

The middle-aged man was clad in robes that were blood-red in color, and was extremely conspicuous. He had a beard and thick brows with big eyes, as well as shoulder-length hair. With a single glance, one could instantly feel how imposing he was. Such an aura was akin to that of emperors, extraordinary to the extreme.

The woman looked very young. She was clad in a long dress that accentuated her perfect figure. Her beauty was comparable to Jin Zhi but she had a heroic air to her.

“Little white-brows, where did you go to for such a long time? Did you go to prepare more good alcohol for us?” The old man narrowed his eyes, smiling at Ten Miles Springwind. The gaze of this old man seemed extremely shameless.

“If you refer to me like that again, you won’t have any alcohol to drink today.” Ten Miles Springwind replied in anger. His earlier boastings to Qin Wentian was completely unraveled.

“Okay, okay. The young and handsome Springwind Overlord, what good alcohol have you prepared?” The old man was simply like a drunkard, he kept asking Ten Miles Springwind for alcohol.

“This address is much more appropriate.” Ten Miles Springwind nodded with a smile. He brought Qin Wentian to the front of the pavilion and took out a jar of wine. “This is the alcohol today.”

“Just so little?” The old man spoke depressedly. “This amount of alcohol isn’t even enough to fill the gaps between my teeth. Are you a stinking beggar?”

“Since there’s a new friend today, why don’t you take out another jar?” Ten Miles Springwind then took out another jar of wine.

“When Phoenix joined us that year, you weren’t so stingy. Are you looking down on our new friend?” The old man laughed.

“Cough, cough...” Ten Miles Springwind coughed, he then hurriedly replied, “Am I such a person? I was naturally just kidding around with you guys. I only have three jars of wine left. Old ghost, you should know how difficult it is to obtain such wine. Each of you can have one jar. I only have so much.”

“Phoenix, he is looking down on you.” The old man spoke to the woman. Back then when Phoenix first joined them, he only added two jars of wine.

“So boring. I shall leave then. Don’t call me for another gathering in the future.” The woman turned and was really preparing to leave.

“Wait. I will add two more jars as an apology.” Ten Miles Springwind didn’t expect that these fellows were such frauds. They didn’t meet each other for ten thousand years and were actually so shameless the moment they met?

“Brother Cao, I can be considered loyal enough to our brotherhood now, right?” Ten Miles Springwind stared at the middle-aged man.

“I control endless stretches of territories, what would I be lacking? Good food, good wine and beauties, I can have them anytime I want. Only in your place do I find that it’s so difficult just wanting to drink some good wine. Also, this is a gathering that only occurs once every ten thousand years. What is there still to talk about?” The middle-aged man calmly spoke, his voice was filled with an imposingness to it.

“Consider yourselves ruthless.” Ten Miles Springwind took out another eight jars of wine and placed an interspatial ring on the table. “Take a look for yourselves. It’s already empty.”

“This is the Brother Ten Miles we know. Straightforward indeed.” The middle-aged man’s imposingness melted away as he smiled. Each of their expressions changed faster than flipping the pages of a book.

“Alright, it’s time to introduce this new friend.” The old man smiled at Qin Wentian. “Recently, your fame is truly not low. You even dare to antagonize the Dragon Pool Manor.”

“Seems like old sir already knows about everything.” Qin Wentian smiled.

“Staying in this lousy inn, it’s tough even if we didn’t want to know about it.” Phoenix laughed as she stared at Qin Wentian.

Chapter 1767: Guts as Great as the Heavens

Ten Miles Springwind smiled, “You guys are all great saints. It’s been hard for all of you having to stay at my diaplilated inn.”

“That’s true.” The middle-aged man seriously nodded.

“I know your origins are great and I’m not qualified to serve you. If you have the capabilities to do so, don’t drink the jar of wine I gave you.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke in rage.

“I still have to drink the wine no matter what.” The middle-aged man ignored him, causing Ten Miles Springwind to be somewhat speechless. He then turned to Qin Wentian, “Seems like they all already know of you. Since this is the case, let me introduce them to you. This beautiful young woman is named Phoenix. She isn’t a demon, but just has this name. As for this middle-aged fellow who has no regard for anything in his eyes, his name is tyrannical to the extreme. He is named Cao Tian, jeering at the heavens. I wonder why his parents gave him such a name.”

“If you dare to speak this sentence before them, I guarantee that you won’t be able to survive even for one second.” Cao Tian coldly snorted.

“Yes, your background is so impressive.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke in contempt. He then continued, “As for this shameless old man, you can just refer to him as Old Ghost.”

After speaking, Ten Miles Springwind took out five cups and started pouring wine for everyone. “Okay, enough talking. We met each other by chance and now that Brother Qin is able to come here, after we drink this wine, everyone will be brothers. Come, let’s toast.”

“On account of this little friend, I won’t be calculative with you.” The old man coldly glanced at Ten Miles Springwind as he toasted to Qin Wentian.

“Brother Qin, my personality is somewhat prideful and people might not be happy to interact with me. In the future, please pardon me when we interact.” Cao Tian directly spoke and toasted Qin Wentian as well.

Phoenix also smiled at Qin Wentian. The group was very friendly, but when Qin Wentian noticed their gazes, he couldn't help but feel that some conspiracy was underfoot. However, seeing everyone was toasting him, he could only lift his cup back in response. The five of them then finished drinking their cups of wine. As the wine entered his belly, Qin Wentian felt a wondrous sense of comfort circulating within his body. It was like even his state of heart has cleared up. His perception also grew clearer. This feeling was too amazing.

“Good wine.” Qin Wentian praised.

“This fellow has always been stingy. We can only drink this wine once every ten thousand years so how can this wine not be good? Every droplet of wine cannot be exchanged even with gold. It's able to make one's heart state clear and strengthen their perception. It also has the added benefits of tempering one's body. You will sense all of this as long as you continue to drink. It's even useful to world overlords like us.” Old Ghost wasn't stingy with his praise of the wine. Qin Wentian nodded his head, seems like this wine was even more precious compared to those medicinal pills. He also wanted to get a few jars so Qingcheng and Qing'er could taste it. But since this wine was so valuable, it wasn't too good for him to ask for it.

“You guys speak of this in such a relaxed manner. Everytime we meet, you all only know how to beg me for this wine yet all of you has no idea how hard it is for me to obtain them. I'm not like Brother Cao who is from an impressive background. Why don't you guys tell him to get us some good wine instead?” Ten Miles Springwind spoke.

“You should know about his circumstances, why must you put it this way.” Phoenix calmly spoke. When she saw the bewildered look on Qin Wentian's face, she explained, “Brother Cao's identity is somewhat special. But he established his own power that is separated from his background and became an overlord of a realm.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded, he didn't probe any further. After all, this was the first time they were meeting. It wasn't too good to ask questions about one's origins.

But from what he has heard, Cao Tian should have originated from a very powerful background. Maybe he had a conflict with his clan and decided to set up his own power.

“These are all old matters, they aren’t worthy of being mentioned.” Cao Tian took a jar of wine and poured a cup for Qin Wentian. “At this moment, we should only be discussing about this beautiful wine.”

After speaking, he directly lifted up the jar of wine and gulped it all down, causing Qin Wentian to be extremely dumbfounded.

“You...” Ten Miles Springwind was completely speechless when he saw this. Old Ghost also sneakily took a jar of wine and gulped it down as though fearing that he might be at a disadvantage if he didn’t do so.

After that, Phoenix followed as well. A sexy woman like her was also snatching wine to drink. Such a scene caused Qin Wentian to be speechless. These people were all world overlords with extraordinary statuses, they were truly extremely ‘outrageous’ indeed.

But in any case, since they said that all of them are already brothers, how could he lose out? Hence, Qin Wentian also took up a jar and drained it right down. Ten Miles Springwind howled in grief but he could only follow what the others did. Just like that, several jars of wine were soon emptied. How could this be called wine tasting? This was simply wine snatching. This was the first time Qin Wentian saw people drinking like this.

“Are you satisfied now?” Ten Miles Springwind stared at everyone in rage. What a waste of heavenly treasures and ingredients, shouldn’t beautiful wine be slowly sipped in enjoyment instead?

“Ten Miles, you have always been outspoken and straightforward. Since it’s a rare event today as Brother Qin has joined our little group, why don’t you take more jars out to celebrate?” Old Ghost spoke to Ten Miles Springwind.

“Scram.” Ten Miles Springwind’s face was completely red from suppressed anger. How can he be fooled again? Even if he still had some wine left, he would resolutely refuse to take them out. He stared at the people before him and spoke, “Drinking with you guys? No kick at all.”

Qin Wentian weakly smiled. He managed to snatch quite a few jars of wine. Right now, he could feel the transformation inside his body. A powerful force was slowly tempering all parts of his body and this feeling was extremely comfortable. He almost couldn’t bear drinking all of them and he initially wanted to sneak some away. However, the wine was simply too good.

“Alright, since the wine has been drank, it’s time to discuss official matters.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed as he stared at Ten Miles Springwind. Official matters?

“Now that Brother Qin has joined us, we are naturally all brothers. During these days, a commotion was caused in Time City and I believed all of you already know about it, right? This Heaven Immortal Tower has gone too far and the Dragon Pool Manor doesn’t seem to have any intentions to apologize at all. They even gave out rewards, wanting to tempt bounty hunters to hunt down Brother Qin and after he killed the three world overlord bounty hunters, the Dragon Pool Manor finally made a move, sending a world overlord over to talk to him. But that world overlord’s attitude was extremely domineering, they most probably are planning to cause trouble for Brother Qin again.”

Ten Miles Springwind spoke, Qin Wentian felt somewhat puzzled. Why did they started talking about his matter all of a sudden.

“That’s true. The Heaven Immortal Tower went overboard.” Old Ghost narrowed his eyes as though he felt the same hatred towards them.

“We definitely have to vent these unhappy emotions out for Brother Qin. In addition, let’s give the Dragon Pool Manor some trouble so they won’t have time to make things difficult for Brother Qin.” Ten Miles Springwind continued.

“I have no objections, do you guys have any objections?” Phoenix asked.

All of them echoed one another, Qin Wentian felt that these people were putting on a play for him to watch. Why did it seem that everything was pre-planned out before they intentionally invited him over for a drink.

“Let’s rob the Heaven Immortal Tower.” Ten Miles Springwind’s next sentence caused Qin Wentian to be completely stunned.

Rob the Heaven Immortal Tower?

The major power behind the Heaven Immortal Tower was the Dragon Pool Manor. Wasn’t robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower the same as declaring war against the Dragon Pool Manor?

This was completely different from him forcefully capturing a servant girl. The weight of a serving girl wasn't enough to shake the Dragon Pool Manor. But robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower was a completely different matter altogether. It was definitely a declaration of war.

Were these few fellows crazy?

“For Brother Qin.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke with a straight face. Qin Wentian's countenance was filled with black lines, he was completely speechless. Only a ghost would believe Ten Miles Springwind's words.

This was the first time they met. For his sake, they wanted to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower? What joke was this? This was conspiracy, definitely a conspiracy.

“Good idea.” Cao Tian nodded. “Old Ghost, what do you think?”

“I have no objections.” Old Ghost laughed loudly.

“The treasures in the Heaven Immortal Tower are mostly designed for female usage. Over here, I'm the only female. When the time comes, I definitely have to be the one who chooses the loot first.” Phoenix stared at the others and spoke as her eyes gleamed with light. This was the Heaven Immortal Tower they were talking about and she has naturally been there before. The treasures there would cause one's heart to be stirred by greed and there were many different kinds. She was fond of several divine treasures there.

“As it should be.” Ten Miles Springwind nodded his head.

“Brother Qin, what do you think? Your brothers shall vent these unhappy emotions for you. There's no need to thank us. Before this, I've already said that after we drank wine together, we are all already considered brothers.” Ten Miles Springwind patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder. Qin Wentian's horizons were further broadened at how shameless and how thick the skin of this person was.

“Wait, speak clearly about this matter. I have no wish to be sold by you four.” Qin Wentian spoke. “The Dragon Pool Manor is a peak power here in Time City, you guys can contend against them?”

“Why do we need to contend against the Dragon Pool Manor when we are merely robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower?” Ten Miles Springwind stared at Qin Wentian as he asked. “It's not like you have never been to the Heaven Immortal Tower before. The Dragon Pool Manor is extremely confident and they only sent three world overlords to guard the tower, feeling that no one would dare to rob them. As long as we control the three world overlords, wouldn't we already be able to control the entire Heaven Immortal Tower? We will use the shortest amount of time to seize all the treasures away. No one would know we did this. The Dragon Pool Manor can take their time to investigate and at that time, where would they be free enough to cause trouble for Brother Qin?"

"You guys have already discussed everything before this, right? Why did you all include me?" Qin Wentian could clearly tell that all this was already planned out.

"Of course the reason is because of Brother Qin's charisma." Ten Miles Springwind spoke with a straight face.

"Scram." Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines.

Ten Miles Springwind smiled awkwardly. He patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder, "Since Brother Qin wishes to know, I will tell you honestly. It's true that the Heaven Immortal Tower has always been unfair when they do things and it's also true that they sent people to make trouble for you. Such overbearing behavior, why can't we touch them? There are plenty of good treasures in the Heaven Immortal Tower. What we are doing can be described by a saying. 'A gentleman has his own way to attain his monetary aspirations.'"

"Since this is the case, you guys can go ahead and carry out the plan. Why is there a need to include me? If the Dragon Pool Manor discovers this, wouldn't I become the scapegoat then?" Qin Wentian stared at Ten Miles Springwind. He had to make things clear. Such a major matter cannot be joked about.

If the Dragon Pool Manor learned of the identities of those who robbed the Heavenly Immortal Tower? What would they do? They would surely take crazy revenge.

"Brother Qin, I reside in Time City and have an inn under me. Brother Cao's foundation is even deeper and he would have no reason to run away. Could it be that you think if something really happens, we can just pat our buttocks and run away so simply?" Ten Miles Springwind spoke. "Don't worry, even if something happens, Brother Cao can simply step out at that time. We will then say that our actions are just to help Brother Qin vent out the negative emotions, I want to see what the Dragon Pool Manor can do then exactly. Now, do you understand why we must involve you?"

"Shameless."

Qin Wentian was completely speechless as he stared at Ten Miles Springwind. So it turned out that they needed an excuse in case they were caught. But if they were really caught, it sounded like Cao Tian could handle everything?

In that case, Cao Tian's background could suppress the Dragon Pool Manor?

Qin Wentian glanced at the people before him. These people were truly one of a kind.

“Brother Qin, we are doing this for you. Just tell us if you want to do it or not. Even if you don't want to do it, given the attitude of that young world overlord who left after meeting you, they would definitely knock on your doors again. It's best to act first to suppress them. If you cannot set your heart at ease, you can investigate about Brother Cao's background first and you will understand that I didn't lie to you.” Ten Miles Springwind asked as he looked at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's heart pounded, robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower?

Chapter 1768: Robbery

When Qin Wentian first came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the first thing he did was to loot a mine. And now that he was already a Realmlord of a region, controlling endless territories, was he really about to go back to robbery again and become a grand bandit at the world overlord realm?

Given his personality, he naturally wished to do it. After all, the Heaven Immortal Tower has issued orders to capture him, his family and friends. If he had enough strength, he would long have demolished the Heaven Immortal Tower and not simply just killed the three overlord-level bounty hunters. Those three people were merely people tempted by the promise of treasure. The one who issued the order was ultimately the Heaven Immortal Tower.

But when he thought about the risk involved, it made him hesitate.

“A great man always acts straightforwardly in any circumstances. Since the Heaven Immortal Tower was not benevolent to you in the first place, why are you still considering? You should just directly take revenge. Naturally, if you are worried about our intentions and are afraid that we are cheating you to harm you, you can directly reject. We won't force you too." Cao Tian directly spoke. Just like what he has said, his personality was as such, he was extremely direct.

Ten Miles Springwind and the others stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed brightly and he replied, "I agree."

"Good." Cao Tian nodded. "We didn't waste the wine, from now onwards, we are all brothers. Because I'm older than you, I'm okay if you want to address me as big brother Cao. Naturally, Brother Cao would also do, just call me what you want to."

"Since Brother Qin has agreed, when do the rest of you think would be a good time to carry out the plan?" Ten Miles Springwind smiled brightly. Their target location was the Heavenly Immortal Tower, filled with a multitude of treasures. For every sale of a single treasure, the profit was unimaginably high, their earnings were definitely much higher compared to his inn, there was no way to compare at all.

"Why waste time. Let's make it tonight." Cao Tian directly spoke.

"I agree." Old Ghost's eyes narrowed into slits as he nodded.

"I have no objections as well." Phoenix laughed.

"Since this is the case, let's make it tonight then. We will act during the time when many people are touring the Heaven Immortal Tower. Let's discuss the plan first. We must be sure to leave immediately once we succeed, no delays are permitted. If not, the strength of the Dragon Pool Manor isn't weak, let's try our best not to fight head-on with them. But if there really is a conflict, fight with retreat in mind. But if worst comes to worst and there's nothing we can do, Brother Cao we will have to depend on you to carry this crime for us." Ten Miles Springwind spoke.

Cao Tian nodded his head, the group of them then finished discussing the plan and left respectively. When night arrived, Ten Miles Springwind gathered everyone again. The five of them sneakily left the inn, heading in the direction of the Heaven Immortal Tower.

Today, the atmosphere at the Heavenly Immortal Tower was extremely bustling. Lights lit up the entire place, and it was as bright as day inside it.

Since the Convention was about to commence, the Heaven Immortal Tower would naturally not lack customers. This place was exceedingly popular with females, and as for those major characters, they were naturally willing to spend on lavish gifts for their own women. This was also a method to satisfy one's vanity.

As for Qin Wentian and the four others, they had already arrived in the Heaven Immortal Tower. Naturally, they entered using different means and had concealed their original appearances and auras. There were simply too many methods world overlords could use, such an easy disguise was nothing to them. And as for Qin Wentian, it was even more simple.

The plan today was for Qin Wentian, Phoenix and Cao Tian to control the three world overlords here, not allowing them to make any movements. The essential point naturally was to ensure that they didn't use their messaging crystals. Next, Old Ghost was responsible for controlling the Heaven Immortal Tower, including all the guests here. Among the guests, there would surely be several world overlords. Old Ghost naturally wouldn't offend them for no rhyme or reason, he would just create a distraction and let them watch the drama. His main purpose was to stop people who were from the Dragon Pool Manor acting in disguise among the crowd.

And for the final part of the plan, seizing treasures, Ten Miles Springwind would be the one responsible for it. Each of them knew very well what they should do.

At this moment, Qin Wentian had already concealed his appearance. He acted like a customer and walked around leisurely inside the Heaven Immortal Tower. At the same time, his immortal sense was locked on to four of his comrades and they would frequently exchange information.

"The three world overlords are in three different locations. I'll control Old Huo. Brother Qin, you control the one on the left, Phoenix you control the one on the right." Cao Tian's voice rang out in Qin Wentian and Phoenix's mind. Qin Wentian nodded and headed towards the left direction in the Heaven Immortal Tower.

The Heaven Immortal Tower was very large but no matter how large it is, how can it be larger than the scope of a world overlord's immortal sense? In a luxurious room on the left, a world overlord was resting inside. In addition, there were currently two beauties serving him and he had a face filled with enjoyment. These two beauties were both serving girls of the Heaven Immortal Tower and they were arranged to be here with him to conduct some unclean transactions.

"Who?" At this moment, the world overlord suddenly opened his eyes. The immortal sense of someone actually landed on him, causing wariness to rise in his heart.

A figure directly stepped out from the void and appeared before him. His expression instantly changed and he immediately released his aura. But at this moment, an intense sense of danger appeared in his heart.

His surroundings instantly changed. This place no longer seemed to be his room, but a separate dimension instead. It was something formed from the power of a heavenheart mandate that has something to do with illusions.

“You are not my opponent. Let me urge you first not to make any reckless moves. If not, you will die.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Right now, his true face and aura were concealed, he naturally didn’t use his world heart too. After all, this man had felt the power from his world heart before and he might be able to recognize it. In any case, just using one of his heavenheart mandates was sufficient to suppress this world overlord.

“Who are you?” He stared at the eyes of Qin Wentian. There seemed to be some devilish power at work, easily causing those who matched stares with him to fall into the illusion. The sense of crisis in his heart couldn’t be faked though, he knew that if he truly made a move now, he would be killed instantly.

“You don’t have to care about my identity. Today, I came to the Heaven Immortal Tower to do something, just stay here in this separate dimension and cooperate with me. I won’t kill you if you don’t try anything, but if you do, just die.” When Qin Wentian spoke, an overwhelming pressure from his heavenheart mandate engulfed the other world overlord. That world overlord trembled and didn’t dare to make any moves after he felt how the great disparity between their strengths.

World overlords were extremely sensitive to the disparity in each other’s strengths. There was no way to mitigate the difference in strength.

As for the two serving girls, Qin Wentian naturally caused them to fall into their own illusions easily with a single thought. There was no way they would be able to break free.

And during the time when Qin Wentian acted, Cao Tian and Phoenix also made their moves. The two of them used their absolute strength to control the two other world overlords. In an instant, all three world overlords from the Heaven Immortal Tower were completely controlled.

Inside the tower, numerous pair of eyes among the crowd gleamed sharply.

There were three powerful heavenheart mandates being deployed in three directions. To world overlords who were extremely sensitive to such energies, they naturally managed to sense it. As their immortal senses gushed forth wanting to investigate what had happened, Old Ghost actually unleashed the power of his heavenheart mandate at this moment, engulfing the entire Heaven Immortal Tower in an instant.

This was a heavenheart mandate Old Ghost recently comprehended and he has never used this before. Hence, no one would be able to tell that it was him.

When this heavenheart mandate was released, flowing dark-purple lines filled each level of the Heaven Immortal Tower completely. World overlords could sense an overwhelming destructive might from each of the lines. It was as though the controller just has to will it and those who came in contact with the lines would immediately die.

Many people in the Heaven Immortal Tower instantly stopped. Their eyes gleamed sharply, especially for the world overlords in the crowd.

“Everyone just stand here and don’t move. My group is here to do some things in the Heaven Immortal Tower and we wish for no implications. We won’t kill innocents if no one tries to stop us. But if someone dares to act recklessly and takes out their messaging crystal, I shall kill all of them and show no mercy.” A voice thundered through the Heaven Immortal Tower.

When he was speaking, in certain locations inside the Heaven Immortal Tower, a few empyreans employees hurriedly wanted to hide some treasures away. But at this moment, a figure walked out from the void and grabbed everything with a wave of his hand. At the same time, a purple light penetrated through these empyreans. The immortal senses of the people here clearly saw that those empyreans froze and disintegrated completely a moment later when the purple lines touched them.

“What a fearsome heavenheart mandate.” Everyone felt their hearts trembling. The air was filled with floating dark-purple lines, they were the manifestations of Old Ghost’s heavenheart mandate. One would die instantly if they came in contact with them.

“Bandits? That world overlord walking in the void must be currently plundering the treasures.” They could see someone walking in the void that was constantly plundering the treasures inside the tower, moving with incredible speed. At this instant, the hearts of many people trembled. No wonder the Heaven Immortal Tower must be controlled not allowing anyone to make reckless moves. So it turned out that these people wanted to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower.

In Time City, before the Convention of the Myriad Realms started, there actually were people wanting to rob the Heaven Immortal Power that was backed by the Dragon Pool Manor? There were many hidden dragons and crouching tigers who came here for the convention. Could it be that some world overlord-level bandits are mixed within them?

But even so, these people even dared to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower that was controlled by the Dragon Pool Manor? Wasn't their guts a little too great? This was something that has never happened before. It's equivalent to a declaration of war on the Dragon Pool Manor.

At this moment outside the Heaven Immortal Tower, there were some people who wanted to go there for shopping. From afar, when they saw the dark purplish energy surrounding the Heaven Immortal Tower and sensed the might radiating from it, all of them could feel how fearsome that was.

"What's happening?" Someone exclaimed in shock.

"Something seems to be happening in the Heaven Immortal Tower." Someone spoke. More experts arrived but when they sensed the energy enveloping the tower, their expressions all drastically changed. They took out their messaging crystals and instantly sent a message, "Someone is acting against the Heaven Immortal Tower."

Each of their voices were like shocking thunder in the middle of the night, causing a great deal of commotion as everyone also started to circulate what they heard. Also, all of this happened in an extremely short span of time and while this was going on, the robbery in the tower was still continuing. Old Ghost then directly transmitted his voice to the rest of them, "No more time, this incident is sure to be exposed. We should retreat now."

"Alright, retreat." Even Ten Miles Springwind, who was still frenziedly plundering, has stopped his action. The five of them then soared through the air with lightning speed and directly departed from the Heaven Immortal Tower. Thunderous explosions rang out as they left, while the entire Heaven Immortal Tower collapsed into pieces!

Chapter 1769: Mysterious Treasure

The speed of their departure was extremely quick. They knew that after the Dragon Pool Manor received news, they would definitely send reinforcements within the shortest period of time. How strong was the immortal sense of a world overlord? It was able to cover an extremely vast amount of land. But naturally, Time City was extremely vast. Just this city alone was even larger compared to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. From this, one could very well imagine how terrifying the size of main cities in the Mystic Region are.

If not, given some extremely strong major powers who had developed for countless years with their populations in the billions, where would they be able to stay?

The powers here in Time City all controlled a large area of territories. For example, a power like the Dragon Pool Manor can be considered a supreme empire.

How fast is the speed of world overlords? They could travel a million miles in an instant. After the five of them came out of the tower, they sped towards a certain direction and entered the heart domain of Ten Miles Springwind. This was like a unique space in the void, allowing one to travel through endless distance in an instant. After a few moments, Qin Wentian soon felt that they were moving out of the void, appearing in a courtyard.

“Hu...” Ten Miles Springwind drew in a deep breath. With a wave of his hand, he sealed the space in the void and smiled, “Awesome, but it was a little dangerous. There seemed to be a world overlord hunting the void outside my unique space trying to lock on to me. Luckily I was fast enough and shook him off.”

“We are back at the inn now?” Qin Wentian started as he asked.

“Naturally, what did you expect?” Ten Miles Springwind had a strange look on his face as he looked at Qin Wentian.

“This...” Qin Wentian was actually speechless to reply. Wasn’t that speed a little too terrifying? This was the power of Ten Miles Springwind’s world heart, truly unfathomable.

“You guys return first. I will temporarily store the treasures away and we will split the loot tomorrow. I’m afraid the investigation of the Dragon Pool Manor will soon lead them here.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke. The others nodded. Old Ghost then stated, “Let’s disperse.”

After speaking, his silhouette disappeared with a flash of light. He naturally wouldn’t feel that it was safe because they had returned to the inn.

Qin Wentian instantly understood after he thought about it a little. He returned to the place where he stayed in before. Although he has stepped into the World Overlord Realm, it was true that he was still unfamiliar with how world overlords do things and he was still thinking through things with his perspective in the past. However, things were different now. He is already a world overlord and the major powers he come in contact with are all extremely strong ones. For example a power like the Dragon Pool Manor, they would be able to carry out investigations in places they can investigate, in an extremely short period of time. As for those other major powers that are even larger and stronger than them, Qin Wentian's group naturally wouldn't even try to offend such powers.

As expected, not long after, a powerful immortal sense swept through the Ten Miles Inn. Ten Miles Springwind's figure soared up and appeared in the air as he spoke with some unhappiness in his tone, "Sir, what do you mean by this?"

The customers who were staying in the inn were all shocked. All of them walked out and had unhappy looks on their faces as they stared into the air.

"I apologize for disturbing all of you. Today, my Heaven Immortal Tower was robbed and we are now currently investigating. Please pardon us."

"That is your business, what does it have to do with my inn? How dare you disturb my inn's business. Scram." Ten Miles Springwind coldly spoke, sounding extremely domineering. That world overlord furrowed his brows but after that, he still clasped his hands, "I've disturbed everyone. Farewell then."

Even for people of the Dragon Pool Manor, it was impossible for them to offend all the world overlords here. During this time, Time City had many crouching tigers and hidden dragons and those who stayed in the inn might be from superpowers in the Mystic Region. It was naturally not too good to lose all cordiality with them.

This night was destined not to be calm. When the Dragon Pool Manor investigated Time City, a commotion was caused throughout the city. The news of the Heaven Immortal Tower being plundered circulated everywhere swiftly.

To think that there would actually be people who were so crazy, daring to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower. This was simply too audacious. It was rumored that this robbery happened in a very short span of time. The bandits controlled the three world overlords of the Heaven Immortal Tower. The other world overlords who were shopping in the Heaven Immortal Tower also didn't dare to make any reckless moves as they were being controlled. For those outside the tower, it was possible that they didn't even notice it when the robbery started and only discovered something was wrong some time later.

Tonight, many major characters exploded in anger, angrily reacting to the probes by the people of the Dragon Pool Manor. They naturally didn't feel good when there were immortal senses spying on them. In fact, there were some world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor that were forcefully captured. The Dragon Pool Manor had to provide a proper explanation before their world overlords were released. After all, those major characters also didn't want to offend the Dragon Pool Manor thoroughly. This was something understandable.

But despite the fast reaction speed of the Dragon Pool Manor, they found no clues when they launched their investigations. The bandits fled too quickly, vanishing into the void instantly with no traces they could follow. Everyone could guess that they had definitely mingled into the crowd but what could the Dragon Pool Manor do? Now, there are so many world lords in Time City, who could be sure who the culprit was?

Many people guessed that since they failed to capture anyone at the initial investigation, it would be even tougher for them to find the culprits in the future. After all, for experts strong enough to plunder the Heaven Immortal Tower, they would definitely not be ordinary people. How could they give you a second chance to catch them?

The commotion this caused lingered for a period of time. Qin Wentian and the others received their split of loot secretly.

The robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower was a major event. The Dragon Pool Manor naturally was no longer free to find trouble for Qin Wentian. Right now, they were trying to trace the culprits from Old Huo and the two world overlord's descriptions of the heavenheart mandates used against them. After all, it was impossible to change the power of their heavenheart mandates but the people from the Dragon Pool Manor soon discovered that they could find no clues at all.

Several days later in the Ten Miles Inn, Qin Wentian just came back after drinking with Ten Miles Springwind and the others. Back then, Ten Miles Springwind said that he had already ran out of that alcohol but for the next few days, he was able to produce several jars of that wine every day. Also, he would always say that he had already ran out, but the reality wasn't as such. Qin Wentian finally understood one thing. Ten Miles Springwind's words clearly couldn't be trusted. This was especially so when it came to matters of wine.

In the room, only Qing'er and Qingcheng were currently beside him. Before them, there were a dazzling lineup of accessory-type treasures. Only then did they know that the robbery of the Heaven

Immortal Tower that shook the entirety of Time City was actually done by Qin Wentian and his group of newly acquainted friends.

“Wentian, don’t do such a dangerous thing in the future.” Qingcheng softly spoke. It was because of her that Qin Wentian had a grudge with the Heaven Immortal Tower.

“How would there be danger?” Qin Wentian smiled. He searched through the pile to find treasures suitable for Qing`er and Qingcheng. But since these were loot from the Heaven Immortal Tower, it was naturally not appropriate for them to wear it out in Time City as it was inconvenient. But even so, they could keep some of the treasures by their side first.

“Come and take your pick. Although these are loot, they are from the Heaven Immortal Tower. There’s no need to feel guilty.” Qin Wentian smiled. Mo Qingcheng nodded and smiled too. Just a single treasure from the Heaven Immortal Tower would cause many to be filled with envy, causing bounty hunters to hunt them. She naturally was very clear of what the consequences would be if they are really captured. But now, Qin Wentian has actually plundered the Heaven Immortal Tower instead and obtained so many treasures.

Qingcheng chose a few extremely exquisite accessory-type treasures, she also helped Qing`er to choose, “Elder sis Qing`er, these are very suitable for you. If you wear this phoenix crown, you would surely cause this fellow to be extremely mesmerized.”

“I don’t want.” Qing`er felt a little shy as she shook her head.

“No way, after we return to the Qingcheng Sainthall, I will definitely make you wear it.” Mo Qingcheng giggled. At this moment, her gaze landed on a pendant among the pile of treasures. This pendant was actually glowing resplendently, drawing her attention. Qin Wentian and Qing`er also stared at the pendant in bewilderment. Qin Wentian spoke, “This pendant is a little strange, I wonder what sort of treasure it is.”

Mo Qingcheng stretched her hand out and placed the pendant on her neck. At the moment the pendant came in contact with Mo Qingcheng, the glow it radiated suddenly intensified and illuminated the entire room. Also, the energy fluctuations from it began to seep out. With a wave of his hand, a formless and powerful might enveloped the energy fluctuations, wanting to stop the seepage.

His gaze turned to Mo Qingcheng only to see that at this moment, Mo Qingcheng’s body was also glowing. A phoenix gown shimmered in and out of existence, draped around her body. Phoenix wings also manifested behind her back, causing Mo Qingcheng to hover in the air. As for the pendant, it actually seemingly sank into her body, as though it wanted to fuse together with her. A complicated-looking diagram then manifested, resembling an immensely powerful formation that was brimming with light. In an instant, a huge burst of power gushed forth from the pendant, frenziedly seeping into Mo Qingcheng's body.

"Ah..." Mo Qingcheng cried in shock, as though she had no way to endure this terrifying burst of power. A look of agony could be seen on her face as her expression drastically changed.

"Qingcheng!" Shock filled Qin Wentian's features. With a flash of his silhouette, he wanted to hug Mo Qingcheng but a formless terrifying might burst out from her and directly forced him back. Right now, he was a world overlord existence but the power radiating from the pendant was actually able to force him back. This was simply unimaginable.

His countenance turned as pale as paper as he rushed forward once more. This time, he exerted even greater force and he finally broke through the forcefield and managed to hug Mo Qingcheng. Right now, Mo Qingcheng was in extreme pain. Qing'er who was at the side, had also turned pale with fright. She wanted to rush forward but her body basically couldn't even get near.

"What's going on?" Qin Wentian didn't understand. How would an accessory radiate such fearsome powers? What sort of treasure was this exactly? The phoenix gown was a gift from his mother, brought by Uncle Black for Qingcheng and has long fused as one with Mo Qingcheng's body. Right now, why did it take the initiative to appear? Was it for protecting Mo Qingcheng?

At this moment, Qin Wentian was afraid. It was very rare for him to be afraid like this, while feeling so helpless at the same time. He didn't know what he should do.

"I'm fine." Mo Qingcheng gritted her teeth and spoke when she saw how worried Qin Wentian was.

"Qingcheng." Qin Wentian hugged her tightly. Nothing must happen to Qingcheng!

At this moment in the Xuan Region, at a location extremely faraway from Time City, there was a group of experts currently rushing to somewhere. But at this moment, the woman in the lead halted her steps. After that, the people behind her halted as well.

This woman exuded boundless magnificence. She looked very young, roughly about the age of twenty. She also had an extremely beautiful face that would cause the world to stare at her in awe. Her body was covered by a layer of holy divine light but her cultivation base was very terrifying, at the world overlord realm.

“Miss, what’s wrong?” An old man beside her asked.

“Why?” The woman mumbled, a doubting tone could clearly be heard in her voice, causing people in the surroundings to feel puzzled.

“There’s definitely nothing wrong with my senses. That item is really in Time City. However, why is there someone else that can activate it? That item should belong to me by right.” The young woman mumbled. The old man beside her trembled suddenly. That treasure was activated? How can this be possible?

After that, he smiled bitterly. Back then, his young miss tossed the item away willfully. She most probably didn’t expect that this would happen!

Chapter 1770: Kiss of the Demon God

In the Ten Miles Inn, Qin Wentian was still hugging Mo Qingcheng. The pain persisted on for a long time and Mo Qingcheng had already fainted into unconsciousness. As for that brilliant glow, it also faded away. Only the pendant around her neck was still shimmering weakly but it no longer radiated any aura, making it seem as though it was just an ordinary pendant.

“What is this exactly?” Qin Wentian stared at the pendant. This was an accessory from the Heaven Immortal Tower but why would it form a resonance with Mo Qingcheng? What has she experienced through the ordeal exactly?

In addition, the phoenix gown earlier had appeared. Was it protecting Mo Qingcheng? And also, what was going on with the resplendent diagram that seemed like a formation? He had no idea about any of this but luckily, all of that has already passed. Mo Qingcheng had only fainted and there didn’t seem to be any major injury to her. After she woke up, Qin Wentian should be able to understand more.

Qing`er quietly stayed at the side, both of them had been waiting for Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng only awoke during the second day. Her beautiful eyes flashed with a strange light, her entire person seemed to be covered by a layer of light.

“Qingcheng.” Qin Wentian called out when he saw that she was awake.

Mo Qingcheng smiled gently, “I’m fine now.”

“Mhm, that’s good then. Qin Wentian’s worried heart was finally set at ease. His hand gently caressed her face and stared at her tenderly. Qingcheng also smiled radiantly back at him.

“Qingcheng, what happened earlier?” Qing`er walked over and softly spoke.

A bizarre look flashed in Mo Qingcheng’s eyes. She sat up and glanced at the pendant around her neck and with a single thought, the pendant directly entered her skin and left behind a mark there. A wondrous diagram appeared from her body and her entire person suddenly seemed different.

“Kiss of the Demon God.” Mo Qingcheng mumbled.

“Kiss of the Demon God?” Qin Wentian started. Mo Qingcheng smiled, “This pendant is named ‘Kiss of the Demon God.’”

“You have already formed a connection with it, what sort of treasure is this exactly?” Qin Wentian felt very curious. This pendant wasn’t considered an ultimate treasure of the Heaven Immortal Tower and was somewhat ordinary in the dazzling lineup of loot he obtained. It was just that it suddenly activated when Mo Qingcheng wore it? And there seemed to be some unusual effects.

Mo Qingcheng closed her eyes. In the next instant, the glow from her body began to glow brighter and brighter, illuminating the entire room. Countless law formations appeared, also enveloping Qin Wentian and Qing`er. The glow they exuded was so resplendent that even the heavens and earth would lose their color.

In the center of the formation, a faint shadow slowly appeared behind Mo Qingcheng. Or more accurately, the formations all surrounded her.

That faint shadow was that of an immensely large phoenix. Her eyes were sharp and bright, like it was alive. There was no doubt that this was a true phoenix. Currently, a hint of disdain could be seen in her eyes as she stared at Qin Wentian and Qing`er. This phoenix was like a true demon god.

“This...” Qin Wentian’s heart pounded. The phoenix gave him a feeling that this pendant could be used to summon it. How could such a majestic and ancient true phoenix actually be summoned from the pendant?

“Who are you all?” The ancient phoenix asked, speaking in the human tongue. Qin Wentian, Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er felt huge waves in their hearts again.

This phoenix was truly alive and it actually has the ability to think. It actually asked them who they were.

“What treasure is this pendant? Why can it be activated by my wife?” Qin Wentian counter-asked, his eyes gleaming with sharpness as he stared at the phoenix.

“Your wife?” The phoenix glanced at the beautiful maiden she was supposed to protect. “The gown she is wearing is created from the energy of my bloodline. This is the reason why she can summon me, forming a resonance between us. Where did she get the gown from?”

Qin Wentian’s heart trembled again. So it turned out that the reason for activation was actually because of the phoenix gown.

“This is a gift from my mother.” Qin Wentian replied.

The phoenix coldly glanced at Qin Wentian. An immense surge of energy radiated from her, enveloping this room, boring down on Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian frowned. He released his powerful world heart, completely isolating this space. He stared at the phoenix and coldly spoke, “I have no reason to lie to you.”

“You don’t have the bloodline?” The phoenix also replied back in a domineering manner, coldly staring at Qin Wentian. Her words seemed a little vague but Qin Wentian instantly thought about something. Could this have something to do with the mother whom he has never seen before?

“I died once and my soul was almost scattered. Upon reviving, I lost my bloodline powers.” Qin Wentian spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, he revealed his astral souls. The phoenix glanced at his astral souls and the might radiating from her dissipated a little. Clearly, she began to trust Qin Wentian. If one hasn’t died once, it was impossible for a person to have such powerful astral souls, not even if the person had reincarnated.

“Where is your mother? Who is she?” The phoenix asked again.

“I don’t know, I’ve never met her before. I grew up in a particle world and initially thought that I was an orphan. I only learnt that I have parents after that. I also have no idea where she is, whether she is alive or dead. My purpose in coming to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is precisely because I wish to investigate this matter.” If it was others asking him, he wouldn’t explain so clearly. But this phoenix seemed to have a connection with his mother. This was why he told the phoenix so much.

“Seems like your wife is truly fortunate.” The phoenix spoke in a low voice. She gradually trusted Qin Wentian more and more. Sadly, it seemed that the spirit lord of this generation was going to be somewhat weak.

Qin Wentian frowned, his tone was cold, “If you are unwilling, I won’t force you to. You can remove the connection between the pendant and my wife.”

“What do you mean?” The phoenix stared at Qin Wentian.

At this moment, a bright light flashed as the Skybreak Heavenly Deity appeared. This caused the phoenix to glance at the Skybreak Heavenly Deity. From his body, she could feel an unknown sense of pressure.

“Just a weapon spirit. How dare you be so arrogant? Since she has become your spirit lord, that is your fortune. What qualifications do you have to say that she is fortunate?” The Skybreak Heavenly Deity coldly spoke.

“Who are you?” The phoenix stared at the Skybreak Heavenly Deity.

“Skybreak Heavenly Deity.” The Skybreak Heavenly Deity coldly replied. “Note your attitude when speaking to me.”

The phoenix suddenly laughed. She stared at Qin Wentian, “Seems like you are really not simple and have had extraordinary encounters before.

“Are you willing to stay or not? If you are not, I’ve already said that I wouldn’t force you. You can remove the connection between you and my wife.” Qin Wentian spoke. He had no wish for a weapon spirit that was disrespectful to Qingcheng to remain. He wouldn’t allow anyone or anything to show disrespect to her.

“How arrogant, as expected of a descendant of that clan. Fine, I’m willing to stay and treat her as my spirit lord, obeying her summons.”

A smile then appeared on Qin Wentian’s face. “Alright, since this is the case. Thank you, senior.”

His character was always like this, if the other party was disrespectful, he wouldn’t fear them. But if the other party was respectful, he would naturally return the respect, no matter who the other party was.

“Senior, what I said before is the truth. I really have no idea who my mother is. Earlier, when senior said the phrase ‘as expected of a descendant from that clan,’ which clan are you referring to?” Qin Wentian inquired. He didn’t expect that this robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower would actually bring about such a coincidence, allowing him to meet a treasure from his mother’s clan and even formed a resonance with Mo Qingcheng due to a series of coincidences.

He felt that he was gradually getting closer to his mother’s clan.

“There is no need for me to tell you this. In the near future, you will naturally learn of it.” The phoenix calmly spoke. “Earlier, you were not polite at all. And although I have acknowledge your wife to be the spirit lord, I don’t need to listen to your commands.”

Qin Wentian awkwardly smiled. Mo Qingcheng then asked, “In that case, senior, can I ask on behalf of him?”

“No. You are clearly tricking me. Hmph.” The phoenix spoke. “I’m leaving, if you have need of me in the future, just summon me.”

As the sound of her voice faded, the light dimmed as the phoenix returned to the pendant around Mo Qingcheng's neck. After that, the pendant sank back inside Mo Qingcheng's skin, leaving behind just a mark there.

"To think that there actually is such a mystical treasure." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice.

"Seems like your origins are extraordinary." Although the Skybreak Heavenly Deity was very domineering earlier, when he looked at Qin Wentian now, a small look of surprise could be seen on his face.

"Even until now, I don't know what my origins are. I only know that my parents have a death grudge as deep as an ocean of blood with their clans. I have to avenge them no matter what." Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with a terrifying light.

"If you can become an existence like the Imperishable Heaven Lord, you would have the capability to pay all your enemies back." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity calmly spoke. "It's time for me to sleep. If you need me, just wake me up again."

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. The manifested will of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity then vanished.

In the room, only Qin Wentian, Qing'er and Mo Qingcheng were left.

"Qingcheng, do you feel that anything is different?" He could sense that something has changed with Mo Qingcheng.

"Mhm...there seems to be a mysterious energy that is constantly tempering my body." Mo Qingcheng nodded her head. "This is especially so in the location of my heart. My heartbeat has become much quicker."

Qin Wentian stretched his hand out and placed it on her chest, feeling the beat of her heart. As expected, her heart was pounding with more force than usual, there seemed to be a mysterious energy circulating through it.

"This should be an effect after the Kiss of the Demon God is activated. This treasure is extraordinary, maybe, its function isn't as simple as merely summoning a spirit phoenix body." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice but as of now, he had no way to verify his guess.

“Mhm.” Mo Qingcheng nodded, she also felt the same.

“Seems like this is an opportunity mother-in-law has bestowed on me. Wentian, do you think that mother-in-law is in the shadows, silently watching you grow?” Qingcheng suddenly spoke. Qin Wentian’s gaze turned somewhat ethereal. Was his mother really still alive?

What about his father? How was he now? He had lived two lifetimes, and now during his second life, was he doing good?

“If my mother is still alive, she would surely feel very proud of me after seeing you two.” Qin Wentian stretched his hands out and embraced Qing`er and Qingcheng as he tenderly spoke.

...

The commotion of the Heaven Immortal Tower being robbed still hasn’t faded away. Time passed by, the bandits seemed to have all evaporated into thin air, there was simply no way to find them. Most probably, never in their wildest dreams would the Dragon Pool Manor expect that one of the bandits would actually be Qin Wentian, that person who forcefully took Jin Zhi away. They initially wanted to use the price of one treasure to capture Qin Wentian but now, in Qin Wentian’s hands, there are several treasures of their Heaven Immortal Tower instead.

As time continued to pass, the commencement date of the Convention of the Myriad Realms got nearer and nearer. The atmosphere of Time City naturally also surged up and got livelier!
