

Ancient GM 1771

Chapter 1771: Cao Tian's Background

During the next few days, Qin Wentian didn't go out needlessly. His understanding of the Convention was already sufficient and he was quietly waiting for its commencement.

The date has finally almost arrived. In just three more days, the Convention shall commence. Also, during these three days, the people who came to Time City to attend the Convention also started to head there to the gathering point.

Dawn just arrived, the sun has yet to rise but right now, the atmosphere of the entire Time City was already extremely bustling. Countless experts were overwhelmed by emotions. Yet another convention was going to commence. After all, this convention was held only once every ten thousand years. They couldn't help but wonder what good fortune they might encounter this time around.

In the Ten Miles Inn, the atmosphere today was different than usual. There would be endless batches of people rising into the air, leaving the inn. The peace and quiet usually was now disrupted early in the morning.

Inside his own courtyard, Qin Wentian stared at the air. He could see countless experts soaring through, heading towards a certain direction. There were simply too many experts, including many world overlords. In addition, there would be an occasional few with extremely powerful auras.

They were all heading towards the same location. This location was named the Time Realm, it was the place where the Convention of the Myriad Realm would commence.

The commencement location naturally would have to be a space that was large enough to accommodate vast amounts of people. After all, many of the participants were all world overlords.

Inside Time City, there was a mysterious realm that existed since ancient times up until now. It was said that that realm was the realm the Time King had cultivated in when he was still alive. Right now, it was jointly governed and shared by the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region.

That location, was none other than the Time Realm.

The Time Realm was extremely wondrous. Inside there, the flow of time is often disordered, possessing a unique rhythm. Every ten thousand years, the rate of the flow of time would reach a peak. If you spent a year in there, only a day worth of time would pass on the outside.

Naturally, it was impossible to maintain this flow ratio forever. Only for a short period of time once every ten thousand years would this be possible. If one stayed in Time Realm for a long time, there might be periods where time spent inside the Time Realm is much shorter than time spent on the outside. Maybe a single day in Time Realm might be equal to a year of time outside.

Being able to change the flow of time, how heavenly-defying was that? From this, one could very well imagine how powerful the person named 'Time King' was.

"Brother Qin, when are you moving out?" At this moment, a figure came over. This was none other than the inn's boss, Ten Miles Springwind. He was the same as before and seemed extremely spirited. Below his white brows, his gaze had a look of joyfulness. Although this fellow was a little shameless, he seemed to be living a happy life everyday.

"We are just preparing to set off. What about you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Haha, let's go together. I'll call for them." Ten Miles Springwind laughed.

"No need." A voice drifted over as Cao Tian directly appeared.

"Brother Cao." Qin Wentian called out. During these days, he grew more and more familiar with this group of new friends. After all, they had robbed the Heaven Immortal Tower together. Their relationships would naturally be deeper after that.

"Mhm, old brother Qin, this is the first time you are attending the Convention, right? Things will surely be very interesting for you." Cao Tian laughed.

"Ai, I'm old now." Old Ghost mumbled. He suddenly appeared directly beside them. He was the oldest among this group of people and ever since he knew Qin Wentian reached this level within a thousand years of cultivation, his confidence had suffered a setback.

“You are indeed old now.” Phoenix also arrived. The five man party that looted the Heaven Immortal Manor all gathered here now. It was unknown if the Heaven Immortal Tower would be able to link this group of five to the robbery if they saw them.

“Do you want to bring your family and friends along?” Ten Miles Springwind asked.

“Mhm, since the Time Realm doesn’t prohibit that, I wish to bring them along with me and allow them to broaden their horizons.” Qin Wentian spoke. In truth, he was worried about leaving Qing`er and Qingcheng alone inside Time City.

“No problem, the Convention of the Myriad Realms will naturally make satisfactory arrangement for that. Many world overlords would bring their friends and family along as well.” Ten Miles Springwind explained and continued, “Since this is the case, should we head out now?”

“Sure.” Qin Wentian nodded. The others agreed as well. Qin Wentian gathered everyone and the group of them soared into the air, flying towards the direction of the Time Realm.

As the legendary place of Time City, the location of the Time Realm was in the central core location of Time City. There was an ancient building with its top touching the clouds, it exuded a sense of majesticness and although it was a little dilapidated, its original form was maintained and there was a stairway that led upwards. Legend has it that this place was the residence of the Time King, or better known as the Godking of Time. The entrance to the Time Realm existed right at the top of this ancient building.

At this moment, floods of people could be seen below. It was unknown how many had gathered here today. When they stared at the stairway, all of them had looks of anticipation on their faces, as though they hated the fact that they were not able to witness the splendor of the Time King personally and could only revere the place where he stayed in.

Among these people, the world overlords here were as common as clouds and there were also many transcendent-level world overlords. In fact, many existences were major characters who had a realm or numerous territories under them. Their statuses were extremely terrifying.

The crowd all gathered in different locations as they belonged to different camps. There were some people standing independently, not belonging to any group, and there were also many world overlords of the same level gathering together as they went to pay their respects to the major characters at the world overlord realm.

“The people from the Samsara Temple have arrived. At this moment, someone spoke out. Countless people stared in the air only to see experts from an immensely strong major power arriving. Each of them were dazzling in their own rights and had unfathomable auras. Their gazes all felt extremely fearsome as though they had the ability to see through the six cycles of samsara.

Countless people turned their eyes over. Qin Wentian, who have already arrived here, also turned to glance at them. Nanfeng Yaoyue’s beautiful eyes flashed as she asked in a low voice. “Are they the legendary powers responsible for the spreading of dao elements?”

In the Mystic Region, there are quite a few powers like this. They were responsible for spreading their dao elements to other locations, including lower worlds. Qin Wentian and the others have heard of this before and this Samsara Temple was precisely one of such powers. Other than the three hegemonic powers that ruled the Mystic Region, the Samsara Temple was second to none other.

“I wonder if the dao elements in the City of Ancient Emperors back in our Azure Mystic has something to do with them or not?” Qin Wentian silently mused.

At this moment, more exclamations could be heard from the crowd as their gazes turned to the horizons, staring at a group of figures who were soaring through the air.

“The Wuji Immortal Realms have arrived.”

“Mhm, it’s indeed the Wuji Immortal Realms.” Many people spoke.

“Mhm, they are indeed from the Wuji Heavens.” Many people spoke. This group had many imposing figures, there were many world overlords in there, and was clearly exuding an imposing aura.

“The Wuji Heavens, one of the four immortal realms controlled by the Mystic Region.” Qin Wentian mumbled.

“In any case, you wouldn’t care too much about it, right?” Ten Miles Springwind lightly laughed. Qin Wentian stared at his smile and speechlessly shook his head. “I’m just not used to following the commands of others.”

“I can tell.” Ten Miles Springwind laughed. “Look, they have arrived.”

As the sound of his voice faded, another group of powerful experts from a major power could be seen flying here from another direction. There were also plenty of world overlords in this group and the might they exuded was extremely terrifying. Although they were flying above the heads of many people, no one dared to say a thing.

In this group, Qin Wentian saw a familiar figure. It was none other than Donghuang Ying, the beautiful maiden who invited him to be her follower back then. The young man from before still followed beside her, as though he was a flower guardian.

“The Eastern Royal Heavens is here as well. It’s rumored that they sent a little princess to lead them. Could this little princess be this young woman in the lead?” Many people stared at Donghuang Ying as they speculated.

“How beautiful, and she has a heroic aura. Given her young age, she is already an empyrean. I heard that this little princess is truly extremely young.” Many people discussed. Donghuang Ying was naturally none other than the little princess of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms.

The Mystic Region controls four immortal realms. The Eastern Royal Heavens, Scarlet Sun Heavens, Wuji Heavens and Beginning Heavens. They were different from Azure Mystic, the overlords of each of the immortal realms had complete governance and authority yet they were also vassal forces under the three hegemon-level powers in the Mystic Region.

This was the same for the other Supreme Ancient Regions except for the Desolate Region.

“This lass has grown up.” Cao Tian stared at Donghuang Ying as he spoke. Qin Wentian’s heart trembled, he had never asked Cao Tian about his identity before but he actually referred to the Eastern Royal’s little princess as little lass? What is his background then? He should be on the same level as her at the very least or he wouldn’t dared to say that.

In that case, Ten Miles Springwind and the others staged the robbery because they truly had confidence? Even if something went wrong, they would instantly shred all pretense of cordiality and Cao Tian would reveal his identity. Once Cao Tian did so, not even the Dragon Pool Manor would dare to do anything.

“Hey, your clan members have arrived too.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke. From afar, another group of powerful experts could be seen flying over. Their bodies glowed with a dazzling divine glow and there were similarly many world overlords in this group, each of them seemingly extraordinary and unexcelled in the world.

“Cao Tian’s clan?” Qin Wentian mumbled. The people in the surroundings started to discuss, and after Qin Wentian heard their words, his heart trembled. He stared at Cao Tian, “Who would have thought that Big Brother Cao actually has such an impressive background.”

Cao Tian was actually from a clan that controls an immortal realm. His clan was actually the overlord of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms.

“Don’t mention it. My clan members don’t really like me.” Cao Tian spoke. “It’s still better to depend on myself.”

As the sound of Cao Tian’s voice faded, a sharp gaze from that group instantly turned over, as though that person heard Cao Tian’s words. The gaze was somewhat cold, Cao Tian wasn’t willing to be in the weaker position as he began to match gazes with that person. Their gazes collided in midair with such intensity that it seemed as though sparks would appear. Are they really clan members? This seemed like a meeting between two enemies. Qin Wentian was somewhat speechless when he saw this.

However, Cao Tian probably hasn’t severed all connections with his clan or Ten Miles Springwind and the others wouldn’t say that the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn’t dare to do anything once Cao Tian revealed his background.

There should probably be another story behind why Cao Tian chose to venture out and establish his own power.

“Big brother, you are here as well. Why don’t you come and join us?” A world overlord stared at Cao Tian. This man was extremely good-looking and had an impressive demeanor.

“Hmph.” Cao Tian coldly snorted. “I’m together with my friends.”

“Just a bunch of lowlifes, how can they be your friends?” The person who matched gaze with Cao Tian earlier coldly stared at Qin Wentian’s group as he spoke with disdain, not giving the slightest bit of face to Cao Tian.

Chapter 1772: Your surname is Qin?

Qin Wentian, Ten Miles Springwind and the others were a little speechless. How presumptuous of this person.

Old Ghost narrowed his eyes, he stared at them, “You guys best speak more politely.”

“What a great temper.” The middle-aged man who spoke swept his glance over to Old Ghost as a cold light flickered in his eyes.

“Although you are my elder, you can directly tell me if you are unhappy about anything. Why would you insult my friends? Such behavior is truly a disgrace to our Cao Clan.” Cao Tian domineeringly replied.

“I am a disgrace to the Cao Clan? Why don’t you talk about yourself instead?” It seems that this man was already used to Cao Tian’s attitude. He coldly continued, “As for I being your elder? I don’t have the honor to be your elder at all.”

Qin Wentian didn’t say anything. He was completely ignorant about the grudges between Cao Tian and his clan and it wasn’t his place to interfere. Both the tones of Cao Tian and the middle-aged man now were filled with unhappiness but as long as they didn’t completely sever their relationships, they were still considered kin.

“Brother Qin, your Big Brother Cao has a lot of bitterness in his heart.” Ten Miles Springwind transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian glanced at him, only to hear Ten Miles Springwind continue explaining, “Do you know why Old Cao fled from his clan and came out to establish his own power?”

Qin Wentian was speechless. Was this actually even a question? He naturally had no idea.

“Because he wanted to evade an arranged marriage.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke. “His Clan arranged a wedding for him and the background of his bride was extremely impressive as well. Both sides wished to be allied through marriage. His clan approved of this, the girl he was to marry had no objections as well because your big brother Cao can still be considered pretty charming. However, the problem lies here. Given Old Cao’s personality, how would he accept an arranged marriage? Although that woman he was supposed to marry can be considered quite beautiful, she was not a supreme beauty. Also, if he married her, it was probably impossible for him to take in concubines in the future, so how can he not escape? Now that he is alone out there, he can have as many beautiful women as he wants, how carefree is that? Old Cao is truly extremely courageous.”

Qin Wentian perspered. He didn't expect the reason to actually be fleeing from an arranged marriage. This was simply too contrived. Cao Tian's personality was too hard, no matter what your background is, he didn't want to marry means he didn't want to marry. At most, he would simply leave the clan and set up his own power.

The words exchanged by Cao Tian and his clan members had the note of unhappiness, it was clear they parted on bad terms. Both parties then shifted their gazes away. Cao Tian's clan went to greet the other major powers and chatted with them, as though they were very familiar with each other. They also went to greet the Donghuang Clan.

There were simply too many experts here today. Many of them were overlords of an entire area, those with similar statuses were all grouped together while the weaker world overlords paid respect to them. For powers like the Samsara Temple, Spatial Saint Hall, Donghuang Clan and Cao Clan, they naturally belonged to the peak-tier of powers. Only the three hegemon-level powers were above them.

At this moment among the crowd, another group of experts finally arrived here. This group of people came from the other Regions and the person in the lead was a beautiful young woman. Although she was very young, her cultivation base was already at the world overlord realm. She instantly drew plenty of attention from the crowd. Similarly, her group also consisted of many world overlord experts.

“We finally arrived.” The young woman mumbled.

“Young miss, are you sure that the person you are looking for is among the crowd who is here for the Convention of the Myriad Realms?” An old man beside her asked.

“My instinct tells me so. No worries, even if we cannot find the person, we can just attend the convention this time around.” The young woman softly spoke. This was none other than the young woman who detected something was wrong when the pendant formed a connection with Mo Qingcheng. She brought her group and rushed here and finally arrived now.

“You guys don't seem familiar, which major power of the Mystic Region do you all belong to?” At this moment, the handsome and extraordinary-looking young man from the Cao Clan of Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms glanced at the young woman as he asked. Given the Cao Clan's judgement, they naturally could tell that this young woman had an impressive origin. However, they were familiar with the majority of major powers in the Mystic Region and even if they weren't familiar, they should be able to tell where this group was from. However, they seemed to have never seen these people before.

"The Convention of Myriad Realms held in the Mystic Regions wouldn't prohibit people from the other Regions attending it, right?" The young woman stared at the young man as she asked.

Upon hearing her words, many people turned their gazes over. This group of people actually came from the other Regions.

"So you guys are valued guests from other Regions. I'm someone from the Cao Clan of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms. I wonder where does young miss and your entourage originate from?" The young man gently smiled, causing many people to feel comfortable when they saw him. However, the identity of this young woman was extremely extraordinary. She has naturally seen plenty of talented geniuses from the various major powers before. She merely calmly replied, "Those who came from afar are guests, there's no need for you to inquire so much."

The young man started but he soon smiled and nodded his head. "Since this is the case, I won't disturb miss then."

At this moment, Qin Wentian was also staring at this young woman. Her aura was extremely outstanding and her beauty was truly supreme, capable of even shaming the moon and flowers. Also, she exuded a sense of nobility and holiness that does not allow anyone to profane her. But not only so, Qin Wentian actually sensed a familiar aura from her. He didn't know where this sense of familiarity came from but he could clearly feel it in his bones.

The young woman seemed to have sensed something. Her beautiful eyes turned over to Qin Wentian as she frowned. This young man was staring at her with an intensity that she found disrespectful.

"My name is Qin Wentian, may I ask for the name of young miss?" Qin Wentian spoke. He didn't know why he spoke as well. Earlier, this young woman has just rejected a young world overlord from the Cao Clan yet he chose now to ask the young woman for her name. Most probably, she wouldn't answer. But even so, the sense of familiarity he was feeling still caused him to ask the question.

"Your surname is Qin?" The young woman frowned. She glanced at the women around Qin Wentian and noted that they were all extremely beautiful. She naturally thought that Qin Wentian also had designs on her and hence, her gaze towards him was somewhat unfriendly. She icily replied, “None of the people surnamed Qin are good characters.”

Qin Wentian’s face was filled with black lines. He was completely speechless. Her response to him was much worse compared to her response to the young world overlord earlier. He was directly cursed at.

However, he truly had no designs on her, he only wanted to know why he would feel a sense of familiarity towards her.

But now, she actually implicated everyone with the surname Qin. What does this mean? Could it be that in the past, there were people surnamed Qin who had offended her before?

There are so many people under the heavens, countless people would share the same surname. The young woman completely scolded everyone with the surname Qin. How much resentment does she actually feel for people with the surname of Qin?

Bitterly smiling while shaking his head, Qin Wentian had nothing more to say.

Below the stairway, more and more experts rushed here. At this moment, another extraordinary group arrived. There were many young world overlords with extraordinary auras. The instant they appeared, many in the crowd immediately focused on them.

The person leading this group was an old man wearing a robe with star designs. His aura was transcendent and his eyes were full of spirit. Many people went to pay their respects, including some realm lords who were extremely powerful individuals in their own right. In addition, Qin Wentian also knew where this group came from.

These people were from a legendary location that was worthy of respect, where the dao was transmitted. They were from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

In the past, he visited the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy for the sake of returning to Azure Mystic and he left soon after that. Now that they saw the people of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy here, Qin Wentian and his group involuntarily walked forward, moving towards the old man in the lead as they bowed, “Qin Wentian, a student of the sacred academy, pays my respect to senior.”

The old man glanced at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was young and exuded an extraordinary aura and proclaimed that he was a student from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy when greeting him. Seems like he truly must have received some benefits from the academy before.

“Where are you from?” The old man asked.

“Junior is from a lower world named the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. I was once a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy there, cultivating within and attending the dao lectures.” Qin Wentian politely replied.

“Azure Mystic.” A strange light light appeared in the old man’s eyes. Azure Mystic was considered a special place, unique among the thirty-three heavens. This young man was from Azure Mystic yet he actually has such accomplishments today. It was truly extremely difficult and rare.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others also came by to pay their respects as they were all considered students of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy as well.

“He is the Qingcheng Reamlord.” Someone spoke out, causing quite a few people to turn to Qin Wentian. The grudge between the Qingcheng Reamlord and Heaven Immortal Tower might not be considered a major incident in Time City but it still generated quite a large deal of commotion. One was a transcendent-level world overlord, everyone initially thought that he would have some impressive background. Nobody expected that he came from the inconspicuous and weak Azure Mystic.

The people of the Dragon Pool Manor also naturally arrived today. They also stared at Qin Wentian. Although they wouldn’t start something with Qin Wentian now at this location, they still had unfriendly looks when they stared at him. This was especially so for Longyuan Haoyu, his gaze was ice-cold.

“Let’s ascend the stairway. The entrance is about to open.” An expert from the Donghuang Clan spoke, causing the gazes of everyone to turn to the stairway. This stairway had the name of the Stairway of Time, it was the only way to head to the Time Realm’s entrance.

Many people nodded their heads respectively. After that, the Donghuang Clan, Cao Clan of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms and Samsara Temple, these peak powers were the first to step on the stairway, followed by the famous reamlords. Naturally, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy also received respect from plenty of people here. Many people gave way for them to proceed first.

The countless experts all began to head up the stairway, towards the ancient palace at the peak that was in the clouds.

Far below, many who came here to spectate had looks of envy in their eyes. Although the number of experts attending the convention here was countless in number, there were even more spectators who came here because they wanted to catch a glimpse of the major characters. These spectators didn't have the qualifications to attend the convention. Only world overlords and their friends and family were qualified to enter the Time Realm.

At the peak of the stairway, there was a time gate. Many world overlords were outside this gate, guarding the entrance. These people were sent here by the three hegemonic powers.

Although the convention was organized by the three hegemon powers, they wouldn't directly appear here and would only operate from behind the scenes. Naturally, there would also be junior world overlords from their side that attended.

"Everyone, it has been tough on all of you." The leader of the guards spoke politely to everyone. He represented the three hegemonic powers and didn't dare to show any disrespect to the guests.

"The entrance to the Time Realm is now opened." A person calmly spoke. After that, the crowd nodded as they started to enter the gate, stepping into the Time Realm.

More and more experts poured in, these people were from all locations in the Mystic Region and there were even experts from the other Regions coming here to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms.

Today, the location where the convention would be held, the entrance to the Time Realm had opened.

Qin Wentian was among the crowd, he and his group of people had finally arrived before the time gate.

"Convention of the Myriad Realms, how fascinating would it be?" Qin Wentian mused in a soft voice. After that, he nodded to the people around him and pulled Qing'er and Mo Qingcheng with him, stepping through the time gate, arriving at the Time Realm!

The Time Realm was like an entire world all by itself.

When Qin Wentian entered the Time Realm, he instantly knew that the Time Realm was a boundlessly vast world. His immortal sense swept out and he discovered numerous majestic palaces standing tall in the Time Realm, exuding an aura of imposingness.

“Brother Qin.” Ten Miles Springwind, who entered just before him, called out. Qin Wentian turned and stared at him only to hear Ten Miles Springwind saying, “This is the first time you are attending the Convention of the Myriad Realms. You should have some understanding of the convention through your own sources during these days, right? Right now, you can choose any one of the palaces to stay in and the palace you choose would be your residence here. Your family and friends can stay in there and as long as they don’t exit, it’s absolutely safe.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. He knew that there were many palaces in the Time Realm that were used to host world overlords who came to attend the convention. This grand event occurred only once every ten thousand years and wouldn’t be concluded so quickly in a day or two. The convention would last for a period of time.

“Let’s move in the same direction.” Phoenix spoke. “At the very least, we can take care of each other.”

“Phoenix, why don’t you stay in the same palace as me? Things wouldn’t be boring then.” Ten Miles Springwind smiled.

“Scram.” Phoenix spoke. Ten Miles Springwind had a wryly smile on his face.

Up ahead, many world overlords already started to move, searching for a palace to stay in. Behind them, more and more experts continued to enter.

Ten Miles Springwind’s group and Qin Wentian’s group traveled in the same direction.

“We are the first batch to enter, should we select a good location?” Ten Miles Springwind asked.

“Naturally we have to select the palaces in the central area.” Cao Tian stated. This wasn’t the first time they attended the Convention of the Myriad Realms. They were very familiar with things here.

“Are you not worried that someone might snatch them from us? At that time, we may lose face.” Phoenix laughed.

“Who would dare to snatch a palace I claim for my own?” Cao Tian arrogantly spoke. Although he ventured out from his clan and established a separate power, his combat prowess individually was extremely high. Also, he had the status of someone from the Cao Clan, those transcendent-level world overlords would still give him some face no matter what and wouldn’t act to seize the palace he chose. After all, there were plenty of good locations in the Time Realm.

“Didn’t you say that the palace is very safe? We are not allowed to fight inside the palaces, right?” Qin Wentian then continued, “Why would there be cases of people seizing the palaces?”

“You are too naive.” Phoenix spoke. “If you chose a palace that is in a good location and an extremely powerful expert came by saying that he wants this palace instead, telling you to choose another one. He naturally wouldn’t act against you in there, but would you allow him to take the palace for himself or not?”

Qin Wentian’s face was filled with black lines after he heard this. What else would he do? This world was a place dictated by strength, there is no absolute fairness here. For powerful characters, they would have special treatment wherever they went to.

“Since this is the case, I think it’s better for me to casually choose a place to stay instead.” Qin Wentian smiled. This time, it was unknown how many supreme experts would enter the Time Realm. There were those supreme world overlords of the older generation, the talented world overlords of the young generation as well. All heroes of the Mystic Region would be present. There was no need to stir up trouble just for the sake of a residence. It was fine to casually select one.

“Up to you then.” Ten Miles Springwind didn’t say anything more. The group of them still continued traveling in the same direction. There were some major characters who already chose their territories, their residences were all ancient palaces in the central locations that occupied the best spot. They had such confidence to do so, and these major characters were all from peak powers like the Samsara Temple, Eastern Royal Immortal Realms, Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms, etc.

Other than them, those famous Realmlords also picked extremely good palaces for their own families. This was only logical.

Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the others all chose their own palaces respectively. Their locations were considered very good, and it seemed that they were truly not afraid of trouble. As for Qin Wentian, the palace he picked could be considered quite remote and was some distance away from them. But even so, the palace was big enough. There were many rooms available for his family and friends. In any case, world overlords from major powers would often bring many people for the convention, the residences prepared here naturally must be large enough.

“Youhuang, given your cultivation base you should be able to choose a palace for yourself. Do you want to stay together with everyone or otherwise?” Qin Wentian stood in the airspace above the palace, speaking to Beiming Youhuang as he stared at the beautiful scenery here.

“I will stay with everyone.” Beiming Youhuang softly spoke. Qin Wentian nodded, “Alright then, the Convention will soon commence.”

“Mhm, this feels like a dream. To think that we are actually able to gather here together with the various major characters of the Mystic Region. All of those major characters would be extremely difficult to meet with usually. Some of them are extremely lofty and even if you are a world overlord paying a visit to them, they might not deign to meet with you.” Qin Wentian mumbled softly. He recalled the scene where those world overlords were paying a visit to the Absolute Beginning Overlord and all of those world overlords were waiting in the courtyard.

Everyone was a world overlord but because of the disparity in their strength, it leads to the disparity in their statuses.

RUMBLE~

At this moment, a thunderous boom rang out as though the heavens and earth were trembling. Qin Wentian stood on the roof of the palace, trying to stabilize his steps. The tremors were so great that even the buildings were affected.

In the air, a beam of light cascaded down. Over there was an ancient gigantic mountain that glowed with light. Its walls were like gigantic mirrors, able to reflect the brilliant colors of the world.

“BOOM!” The earth trembled violently. The ancient gigantic mountain had descended in the central location of the Time Realm.

“What is that?” Mo Qingcheng asked.

“Heavenheart Mirror.” Qin Wentian replied. He still had some understanding of the Convention of the Myriad Realms and hence, he knew that right before the commencement of the Time Realm, the Heavenheart Mirror Mountain would appear in the Time Realm. This Heavenheart Mirror was able to reflect any world overlord’s heavenheart mandate to everywhere in the Time Realm, allowing everyone to see it.

Qin Wentian explained to Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng’s beautiful eyes flashed with a strange light, “In that case, does this mean that some powerful world overlords could use this to display their heavenheart mandates, showcasing their prowess to everyone in the Time Realm?”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded.

Mo Qingcheng smiled at him, “In that case, do you want to go and display your abilities?”

“Me? Forget it. I’m afraid for the following period of time, many people would display their heavenheart mandates to prove that their talent levels are shockingly high. There is most probably many who are more outstanding than me.” Although Qin Wentian had pride in his abilities, he wasn’t egoistical.

At the instant the Heavenheart Mirror landed in the Time Realm, there were indeed many transcendent-level world overlords heading in that direction. However, the vast majority were world overlords who were attending the convention for the first time. Those who participated before clearly knew that if you displayed your heavenheart mandates and were not outstanding enough compared to the others, your heart would suffer a grievous setback and your face would feel as though it was smacked. This was something that they had experienced before through the previous conventions.

Naturally, since no one took the lead, many people still kept a low profile. Before the first person displayed his heavenheart mandate to the world in Time Realm, everyone else was content to wait and watch. The first person to display his heavenheart mandate had to have courage. Although this was something that would happen sooner or later.

There was also another reason. The attendants for the convention haven’t all arrived yet. For the next three days, they would still be allowed to enter the Time Realm. There should be more batches of people coming in the next few days.

Qin Wentian was currently paying attention to the Heavenheart Mirror but at this moment, a figure flew over in the space above their palace, staring down at Qin Wentian and the others.

This person had an extraordinary aura and exuded a formless pressure. He seemed to be a world overlord that has already been at this realm for a long time.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with some puzzlement. He wasn't acquainted with this world overlord at all.

"Sir, do you have anything you need of me?" Qin Wentian saw that the world overlord kept surveying them, standing in the air with an air of arrogance. The world overlord spoke, "I like this palace. You guys best search for another palace to stay."

"Mhm?" Qin Wentian felt somewhat speechless. This was the exact same scenario mentioned by Ten Miles Springwind. To think that he actually encountered it.

However, this palace wasn't in the central location and was considered somewhat remote. Yet, there's actually somebody who wished to seize it?

"I brought many family members and friends with me. It's inconvenient for us to move about too much. I will have to disappoint you. Why don't you take a look around and see if there are any palaces you like?" Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"There's no need to. I've been looking on my way here, I only feel that this place is good." The other party continued speaking, as though he wanted to seize Qin Wentian's palace no matter what. It didn't seem that he came here because he wanted the palace. It seemed as though he came here specifically with the intent of creating trouble.

Qin Wentian stared at him and smiled, "I'm also fond of this place too. I'm afraid I won't be able to give it up to you."

"Are you sure?" The other party frowned as a powerful aura radiated forth from him.

"I don't wish to repeat myself. Please leave." Qin Wentian issued the expulsion order. He didn't believe that this world overlord would really dare to attack here.

“Fine, since you don’t want to give me face, I will remember this.” The other party threatened and left. After that, Qin Wentian furrowed his brows, his gaze was a little cold.

After the world overlord departed the area, he headed to a faraway place in the central region. He entered one of the excellent palaces here and before him, a handsome young man stood there. This handsome young man was none other than Longyuan Haoyu and this excellent location was the residence of the Dragon Pool Manor.

“How was it?” Longyuan Haoyu asked.

“Just like what you expected, his attitude is extremely tyrannical.” The other party laughed.

“It’s normal.” Longyuan Haoyu nodded his head. Back then he personally went over wanting Qin Wentian to compromise and take a step back. Qin Wentian didn’t agree. But Qin Wentian immediately released Jin Zhi after he left. Wasn’t this smacking his face?

Before this, the Heaven Immortal Tower’s robbery caused the Dragon Pool Manor to be extremely chaotic. Now, the commotion has already died down. Although they didn’t find out who the culprits were and have gradually forgotten about this matter, Longyuan Haoyu still clearly remembered about Qin Wentian.

Daring to make a move against his woman? Although that woman was just someone he casually played with, in addition to the fact that Qin Wentian smacked his face by rejecting his compromise offer despite him personally paying a visit, Longyuan Haoyu could only use other methods to handle this grudge. Since Qin Wentian dared to bring his family and friends into the Time Realm, he best be prepared to suffer the Dragon Pool Manor’s anger!

Chapter 1774: To Seize

Although Qin Wentian was filled with suspicion about this matter, he wouldn’t directly assume that this was connected to Longyuan Haoyu, he also didn’t think that Longyuan Yuhao was thinking of how to deal with him.

Naturally, even if Longyuan Haoyu wanted to deal with him, he wasn’t afraid at all. Longyuan Haoyu wasn’t able to mobilize the full force of the Dragon Pool Manor against him.

After everyone was settled in the palace, Qin Wentian stood at the tallest point as he stared at the Heavenheart Mirror in the distance. There are finally people before the Heavenheart Mirror and they were releasing their heavenheart mandates before it, causing the scenes to be reflected and transmitted to the entire Time Realm. Everyone here could see the projection in the sky.

“This man isn’t bad. He looked very young but he has actually comprehended three heavenheart mandates. He can be considered to be an elite-level world overlord.” Beiming Youhuang was beside Qin Wentian. She was filled with anticipation for the Convention of the Myriad Realms. After all, she was also a world overlord now. Naturally currently, she still only comprehended a single heavenheart mandate up to date.

“There are hidden dragons and crouching tigers everywhere. The geniuses here are as common as clouds, this is only the beginning.” Qin Wentian laughed. Beiming Youhuang nodded, acknowledging it. To many world overlords attending the convention, let alone three heavenheart mandates, there might even be some comprehending six or seven kinds of heavenheart mandates. The main point was still whether their heavenheart mandates were powerful or not? And was their world heart powerful or not. Quality was of the essence, not quantity.

Between different heavenheart mandates, the disparity in power could be extremely great.

With the first cultivator leading the way, there were continuously more people using the Heavenheart Mirror to display their brilliance. For the next three days, various world overlords displayed the power of their heavenheart mandates. Naturally, the majority of these were young overlords. For those famous ones or those from major powers, they didn’t bother to display anything at all.

Today, the entrance to Time Realm closed. Those who came here for the convention have finally all arrived. For this period of time, countless experts were in the Time Realm. Any of the experts staying in the resident palaces might be major characters of the Mystic Region.

At this moment in the air, a few earth-shattering auras descended in the Time Realm. For a period of time, countless people inclined their heads. They saw three mystical thrones of laws appear in the air. An illusory figure could be seen seated on one of the thrones. They were clearly there yet they gave off an ethereal feeling.

Three figures on the thrones occupied three directions, like they were supreme lords of heaven. They would be the witnesses of the commencement of the Convention of the Myriad Realms.

“Today, the Convention of the Myriad Realms will commence. All the heroes in the Mystic Region from the various realms are here to attend this convention. Everyone, you all have to do your best and display your glory, allowing others to remember you.” An ethereal voice drifted over, from one of the figures on a throne of laws.

“The convention naturally has its own rules. We will be monitoring everything from the shadows.” Another ethereal voice rang out. The people inside the Time Realm all seriously listened.

“The Heavenheart Mirror has already descended upon the Time Realm. Everyone can display your heavenheart mandates before the mirror to verify and confirm your heavenhearts.”

In the air, the figures on the three thrones have all spoken. Qin Wentian glanced upwards. Did these three represent the three hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region?

After the sound of their voices faded, the thrones of laws remained but the ethereal human figures gradually faded away. At this moment, countless people from various locations in the Time Realm began to rush towards the Heavenheart Mirror.

Not long after, Ten Miles Springwind also sent a message via a messaging crystal.

“Brother Qin, let’s go take a walk around the Heavenheart Mirror. There should be some extraordinary characters showcasing their abilities soon. Let’s go and check out the excitement.” Ten Miles Springwind laughed.

Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal and smiled, “Are you so preparing to display your heavenheart mandates?”

“This is the Convention of the Myriad Realms, could it be that you are intending to stay in your palace forever? What’s the point of coming here then? If I’m as young as you and have your cultivation base, I would have long went over to show off my abilities. Who knows, after the convention is over, a heavenly deity might favor me and accept me as his disciple? At that time, I would have no regards even for a place like the Heavenly Immortal Tower.” Ten Miles Springwind spoke in a joking manner.

“Alright, let’s gather at the Heavenheart Mirror.” Qin Wentian replied. He then relayed the suggestion to the others. Youhuang was also a world overlord, she would go with him while the others remained in the palace.

The Heavenheart Mirror was an incomparably mystical gigantic mountain. In the surroundings, the experts here were as common as clouds, extraordinary characters could be seen everywhere. Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang came over and he went to look for Ten Miles Springwind and the others. The other four in their group stayed in palaces whose locations were closer to here. Hence, they arrived here before Qin Wentian.

“Brother Qin.” Ten Miles Springwind called out after he saw Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian moved over while staring at the surging crowd of experts. These people here were all world overlords and all the famous heroes in the Mystic Region would surely turn up. Qin Wentian naturally saw some familiar faces in the crowd. An example was Donghuang Ying, as well as the young woman who seemed to hold those with the surname Qin in contempt, Longyuan Haoyu of the Dragon Pool Manor, as well as a person Qin Wentian never expected to see here. In the past, he has only seen the statue of this person but now, he could see this person in the flesh. This person was none other than the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord.

For the Convention of the Myriad Realms, the various Realmlords would receive invitations. It wasn't anything surprising that the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord would appear here. He sensed someone staring at him and turned over, his gaze landing on Qin Wentian. He was initially stunned but a look of interest soon appeared on his face. Clearly, he has seen Qin Wentian's image before. He knew who Qin Wentian was.

The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord exuded an imposing aura. He was clad in long robes and he stared at Qin Wentian, “This is the first time you met with Master, why are you not coming over to pay your respects?”

Qin Wentian glanced over and furrowed his brows. The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord seemed to have a strong dislike of him. He actually provoked him in public.

Naturally, this was because the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord came to Time City later. He had no idea about the conflict between the Qingcheng Realmlord and the Heavenly Immortal Tower.

“Are you even worthy?” Qin Wentian calmly glanced at him. The expression of the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord turned cold, “After becoming the Qingcheng Realmlord, it seems that your wings have hardened. You even dare to insult your Master?”

Qin Wentian coldly glanced at him before shifting his eyes away, directly disregarding the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord.

“He is your master?” Ten Miles Springwind had a look of interest on his face. Given Qin Wentian’s age and talent, his master should be a major character, right? So it was this world overlord?

“He’s nothing but a trickster, trying to fool the world under a false title? Back then, he opened up a realm in the lower world of Azure Mystic and recruited people from there. Those who joined had to treat him like their master. In truth, he only wanted to make use of them to control Azure Mystic. After that, I spoiled his plan. This is also the first time I met him.” Qin Wentian casually spoke.

“I see. That fellow doesn’t even have the slightest bit of self-awareness.” Ten Miles Springwind mockingly laughed.

“Look, there’s someone from the Donghuang Clan heading over.” At this moment, Phoenix spoke. A young world overlord from the Donghuang Clan could be seen walking over to the Heavenheart Mirror. He released his own heavenheart mandate and continuously displayed five different types. One of them was actually extremely powerful and caused exclamations of admiration. Many powerful world overlords were praising it.

“Although having more heavenheart mandates is not assurance of victory, as their quality is the most important, it’s actually also considered already very difficult to be able to comprehend five heavenheart mandates. Given how young he is, that’s indeed a rare achievement.” Someone praised. The people of the Donghuang Clan all felt pride when they heard that. Donghuang Ying then stared at the young man beside her. “When are you going up to show off a little?”

“Me? I don’t have the mood now.” That young man shrugged. Donghuang Ying rolled her eyes at him.

“How many heavenheart mandates have you comprehended?” Ten Miles Springwind asked Qin Wentian.

“Me?” Qin Wentian shrugged and smiled, “I’ve forgotten.”

Ten Miles Springwind rolled his eyes. How could someone forget how many heavenheart mandates they have comprehended? This fellow should have comprehended at least four to five, right?

Following this, many talented world overlords stepped forth, displaying their brilliance.

At this moment, Longyuan Haoyu turned his gaze at Qin Wentian while a cold smile flashed in his eyes.

Just when the area around the Heavenheart Mirror was extremely lively, the world palace lord that wanted Qin Wentian's residence three days ago, went there again. Right now, he stood in the air as his immortal sense enveloped the entire palace.

Upon sensing the pressure, numerous figures appeared, all of them staring at the world overlord in the air.

"What do you mean by this?" Jun Mengchen stared at the world overlord in the air as he coldly spoke.

"Where is he?" The other party asked.

"He went to the Heavenheart Mirror. Senior, if you have something to look for him for, I will inform him to rush back." Mo Qingcheng spoke, her tone was extremely gentle. She knew at this time, it was best that no conflicts occur. None of them would be able to contend against a world overlord.

"No need. Just get him to find me. You can come with me first, wait for him to come and get you back." As the sound of his voice faded, a powerful energy directly locked onto Mo Qingcheng as a formless pressure bore down on her, forcing her to float in the air towards that world overlord.

"Release her!" Jun Mengchen soared up into the air. A powerful energy radiated from the world overlord, manifesting a screen of light around him. When Jun Mengchen came in contact with the screen of light, his body was directly forced backwards.

"Let's go." After capturing Mo Qingcheng, he didn't stop at all and directly departed the area, leaving behind only after-images. Many people tried to chase after him but how could they catch up with him? They could only take out their messaging crystals and send a message to Qin Wentian.

At the instant when Qin Wentian, who was watching the heavenheart mandates being displayed, received the news; his countenance instantly turned incredibly unsightly. He transformed into a beam of light and soared through the sky, radiating an extremely fearsome killing intent.

"What's wrong?" Ten Miles Springwind was still in a daze.

“What just happened?” Cao Tian was also stunned, not understanding why Qin Wentian suddenly left so quickly.

Beiming Youhuang quickly flew after Qin Wentian.

“Something must have happened. Let’s go and take a look.” Phoenix spoke. After that, the few of them shot out with lightning speed, chasing after Qin Wentian.

“Mhm?” Longyuan Haoyu started when he saw this scene as a look of suspicion flashed in his eyes. After Qin Wentian left, Ten Miles Springwind and Cao Tian actually followed after him? What did this mean?

Chapter 1775: Might of the Divine Phoenix

Longyuan Haoyu was acquainted with Ten Miles Springwind. This boss of the Ten Miles Inn was quite famous among world overlords in Time City. He was a transcendent-level world overlord.

Cao Tian, was someone from the Cao Clan of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms. Their Dragon Pool Manor naturally had to be familiar with descendants of such major powers.

He was even acquainted Old Ghost and Phoenix. The two of them, although they are not from Time City, they both had extraordinary performances before in the previous Convention of the Myriad Realm. These four were all transcendent-level world overlords. And right now, when Qin Wentian left, they actually followed after him and if he left Beiming Youhuang aside...

At this instant, it was like a bolt of lightning went off in Longyuan Haoyu’s head. He suddenly had a bold conjecture and when he thought about it, his eyes instantly narrowed.

Five people, five transcendent-level world overlords. If it wasn’t for the earlier scene, he wouldn’t have noticed this detail at all. After all, there are too many major powers here today and it wasn’t rare that five world overlords would gather together. However, his attention had been on Qin Wentian since the very beginning because he sent someone to bring Qin Wentian’s woman away. This was how he managed to notice this detail.

He could take revenge on Qin Wentian and since that was the case, was it possible for Qin Wentian to take revenge on him?

If Qin Wentian had the ability to, it wasn't completely impossible that he would rob the Heavenly Immortal Tower for revenge, right?

Naturally, this was merely a guess and he had no proof to verify it. However, a look of extreme sharpness flickered in his eyes.

In another location, Mo Qingcheng was abducted by the powerful world overlord. Given her cultivation base, there was basically no way for her to resist. Her entire person was forced to follow the world overlord, the cold wind constantly blew in her face as her black hair fluttered in the wind.

"Stop." Mo Qingcheng called out.

The world overlord turned and coldly smiled, "You are truly a rare beauty. What a pity."

Since Longyuan Haoyu wanted this woman, her ending wouldn't be too good in any case.

Only to see Mo Qingcheng closing her eyes as her heart pounded. All of a sudden, her body began glowing resplendently. At this instant, her entire person seemingly exuded an extremely holy aura.

At her neck area, the imprint of a pendant could be seen. In the next instant, she radiated boundless brilliance as the phoenix gown she was wearing shimmered in and out of existence. A holy aura radiated from her and when the world overlord saw this, lightning flashed in his eyes. The next moment, an ancient phoenix suddenly manifested, protectively enveloping Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng's movements were no longer controlled by the world overlord.

This ancient phoenix icily stared at the world overlord, causing the world overlord to frown. A demonic beast? Where did it come from? To think that it was actually a divine phoenix.

At this moment, at the location of the Heavenheart Mirror, the expression of that extremely beautiful young woman who came from a Region other than the Mystic Region instantly changed. She immediately stared in Mo Qingcheng's direction. Her body then transformed into lightning as she rushed over with her greatest speed. Naturally, Mo Qingcheng had no idea that such a beautiful young woman would exist and the fact that the young woman was able to sense it when the divine ancient phoenix was summoned.

“Why are you doing this?” Mo Qingcheng stared at the world overlord before her eyes. Her expression was extremely frosty. Was it really because Qin Wentian didn’t give the residential palace up to him?

For those who came to the convention, there were experts of all levels. Although there were cases of powerful characters wanting to seize a palace, one has to know that the palace Qin Wentian had chosen was in quite a remote location. Yet even so, this world overlord still wanted it. One could only say that this world overlord clearly had other intentions. She knew that him abducting her was in reality because there was someone who wanted to act against Qin Wentian.

That world overlord stared at the phoenix and when he sensed the phoenix’s powerful aura, his expression instantly changed. Clearly, he didn’t expect such a thing would happen.

“Qingcheng, are you okay?” At this moment, Qin Wentian’s worried voice rang out in Qingcheng’s mind.

“I’m fine, I summoned the ancient phoenix to protect me.” Mo Qingcheng took out her messaging crystal and replied.

“Good, I’ll be there soon. Just delay him for me.” Qin Wentian spoke. Mo Qingcheng nodded. Seems like this matter was just as what she has speculated, there should be another story behind this.

Since this world overlord has clearly targeted her, Qin Wentian would clearly want to know the reason behind this or he wouldn’t be able to feel at ease.

The world overlord saw Mo Qingcheng taking out her messaging crystal and naturally knew what she wanted to do. At this moment, he was considering whether to flee or not. The aura of this ancient phoenix that was protecting Mo Qingcheng was extremely terrifying. What level was its strength at exactly?

“Senior, can you bind his movements?” Mo Qingcheng asked.

“Sure.” The divine phoenix agreed. A bright and clear musical note rang out from her beak. In an instant, the entire sky changed color as a corporeal domain appeared. This domain then transformed into the form of a demon and was incomparably gigantic. If one observed it closely, they would be able to discover that this was the shadow of a phoenix.

That world overlord was actually trapped in the shadow of a phoenix.

“Bzz~” When the world overlord sensed this terrifying might, he no longer hesitated and directly sought to flee.

“Ash Incineration!”

The eyes of the divine phoenix flashed red, and an instant later, a red light directly shone upon the world overlord’s arm. He screamed in pain, the powerful fire energy directly ignored his defense and burned one of his arms into nothingness. In fact, one couldn’t even tell how it vanished, it simply disappeared.

In the corporeal domain, motes of this red light floated about. That world overlord’s countenance was as pale as paper. How could this be. This woman who only had a cultivation base at the immortal emperor realm actually was able to summon such a powerful divine phoenix that could insta-kill him if the phoenix felt like it?

“Why did you do this?” Mo Qingcheng coldly asked. Was this person really acting against her? Or was his true purpose acting against Qin Wentian?

That world overlord turned even paler. He stared at Mo Qingcheng, “Back then I felt that I have lost all face after your husband rejected me and I simply want revenge for that. I apologize for my deeds. Can you let me go? I will definitely never return again.”

Mo Qingcheng stared at the world overlord, she felt that this person wasn’t speaking the truth.

“Since this is the case, didn’t you want to meet with him earlier? Let’s wait for him here then.” Mo Qingcheng icily spoke, how was it possible for her to release this world overlord?

Not long after, spatial fluctuations rocked the area as a figure stepped out from the void. The expression of this figure was ice-cold and his entire person radiated an intense killing intent. It was none other than Qin Wentian.

After Qin Wentian, quite a few other figures rushed here with lightning speed. They were Ten Miles Springwind and the others who had followed him here. When they saw the scene before their eyes, all of them were stunned. They instantly guessed at something. Someone must have wanted to take action against Qin Wentian's wife.

"Qingcheng." Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he arrived at Mo Qingcheng's side. His heart finally calmed down when he saw that Mo Qingcheng was completely fine.

"Many thanks, senior." Qin Wentian thanked the divine phoenix.

"Listening to my spirit lord's orders are something I ought to do." The divine phoenix replied.

Qin Wentian didn't say anything else. He turned his gaze to that world overlord as cold fury flickered in his eyes.

"Who are you?" Qin Wentian asked in a glacial tone.

"Sir, I apologize for my actions. I had no intention to harm your wife, I just wanted to gain back some face after you rejected me." The world overlord spoke to Qin Wentian, he still didn't reveal the truth.

"What do the rest of you think?" Qin Wentian glanced at Ten Miles Springwind and the others.

"Since he dared to make a move against your woman, how can we spare him? Break an arm and two legs first before crippling his cultivation. We shall slowly question him after that." Old Ghost sinisterly spoke, his tone causing that world overlord to turn pale.

"I've already apologized and I also said I truly had no intentions to harm her. Why must you all be so ruthless." That world overlord started to panic.

"If it was me, and if someone dared to act against my woman, I would even cripple his 'third leg,' making him live a life worse than death," Cao Tian directly spoke. That world overlord was so frightened that he trembled uncontrollably.

“Right.” Qin Wentian nodded and turned back to the world overlord. “I will give you a chance to speak. Don’t tell me something so stupid like you have no ill intents. You should know what I want to know. You only have a single chance, and don’t bother negotiating for conditions or to speak nonsense.”

The expression of the world overlord kept changing. Qin Wentian was only giving him a single chance to speak. If his words weren’t to Qin Wentian’s satisfaction, his consequences would be extremely dire indeed.

“My patience is limited.” Qin Wentian spoke again.

“Longyuan Haoyu is the one who told me to do this. I’m merely following orders, this matter has nothing to do with me and I didn’t want to participate initially. However, since Longyuan Haoyu has given the command, I have no way to reject it.” The other party spoke. He knew that if he didn’t reveal the truth, his ending would be extremely miserable.

“Longyuan Haoyu.” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed with an incomparably intense killing intent. It was that young world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor who wanted him to compromise and send Jin Zhi back to the Heavenly Immortal Tower first back then?

No wonder Longyuan Haoyu intentionally stared at him earlier. So this was the reason why.

“Qingcheng, did you leave the palace?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Nope, he directly entered the palace and captured me.” Mo Qingcheng spoke.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze to Ten Miles Springwind and asked, “Didn’t the Convention have a rule? Within the palace, absolute safety was guaranteed?”

With regards to this point, Ten Miles Springwind has told him before.

“Someone clearly knew about this but still chose to break the rules.” Ten Miles Springwind coldly spoke. His eyes also flickered with killing intent. If everyone acted like Longyuan Haoyu, ignoring the rules, the Time Realm would surely be in chaos. At that time, which world overlord would dare to bring their family and friends here?

“Go. Let’s go and find Longyuan Haoyu. Bring him along.” Cao Tian pointed to that world overlord as he spoke. “Let’s cripple him first.”

That world overlord instantly paled, “How can you all do this?”

Cao Tian’s figure flashed, moving with lightning speed as he appeared once more before the world overlord. With a single smack, he directly attacked the world overlord’s body. That person screamed and coughed out blood. His aura instantly weakened, as his features aged.

“Not crippling your ‘third leg’ is already showing kindness to you. Since you are willing to be the lackey of others, you should be prepared to be slayed at any time.” Cao Tian’s voice was tyrannical, the thing he hated the most was this kind of character who would act against the family and friends of others. This was especially so if those vile characters that tried to act against women. Cao Tian might have done many wrong things before and was often tyrannical and illogical, but he would never break this bottom line of his.

That world overlord’s expression turned ashen. He felt as though he was living in a life where he might as well be dead. Longyuan Haoyu’s plot had inadvertently harmed him!

Chapter 1776: Luoshen Clan

Qin Wentian stared at Cao Tian as he asked, “Big Brother Cao. Longyuan Haoyu has broken the rules of the Time Realm. In that case, who will be the one administering his punishment?”

“The vassal forces under the three hegemonic powers, like the four immortal realms or the various saint halls and sacred temples, all have the qualifications to administer the punishment as they can represent the three hegemonic powers to some extent. However, I’m afraid you still have to handle this matter yourself. The Dragon Pool Manor has very close relationships with some of the peak powers. In addition, Longyuan Haoyu can simply choose not to admit it later on. Although I know you would feel extremely angered about this matter, but to the entire Time Realm, this matter isn’t of a huge impact. Maybe, no one would care about you.” Cao Tian directly spoke.

Qin Wentian coldly laughed, this was saying that he didn’t have enough authority to speak. No one would pay attention to an inconsequential world overlord. After all, this place was the Convention of the Myriad Realms and there are too many world overlords. Mo Qingcheng wasn’t injured at all as well. The other party also didn’t dare to start an act of slaughter when his friends and family were in the palace or he would truly be extremely dumb. Hence, although this matter might be very important to Qin Wentian, to the Time Realm as a whole, it was insignificant.

“I’ll bring him over for the confrontation.” A wave of energy surrounded the crippled world overlord. Qin Wentian then stepped out, moving towards the direction of the Heavenheart Mirror again.

His gaze was extremely cold. Luckily Mo Qingcheng received the ‘Kiss of the Demon God’ through a series of good fortune, allowing her to summon a divine phoenix in times of need. If not, the consequences might be unimaginable.

Longyuan Haoyu has already touched his reverse scale.

The group of them flew with great speed. However, before they could reach the Heavenheart Mirror’s location, they were obstructed by a group of experts. When Qin Wentian saw these people, he frowned and stared at the young woman in the lead. “Miss, even if you don’t like people who are surnamed Qin, there’s no need to block my path, right?”

The person who was blocking them was none other than the extremely beautiful young woman who hated those with the Qin surname.

“Where is the ‘Kiss of the Demon God’? Who has it now?” At this moment, the beautiful young woman’s eyes turned extremely sharp as she swept her gaze over everyone. Not long ago the aura of the phoenix vanished in this direction and after she rushed over, she coincidentally met with Qin Wentian and the others. There should be no mistake then, the treasure she was looking for was with one of these people.

Qin Wentian’s eyes narrowed. This young woman knew of the ‘Kiss of the Demon God’?

Mo Qingcheng also started. Could it be that the ‘Kiss of the Demon God’ was an item with an owner?

“As expected.” The changes to Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng’s micro expressions were clearly seen by the young woman. When she was speaking, she took note of their reactions.

“The ‘Kiss of the Demon God’ belongs to me. Return it to me, I can give you other treasures to compensate you.” The young woman spoke.

Qin Wentian knew that there was no way they could hide this from this young woman any longer. “You say that the ‘Kiss of the Demon God’ belongs to you? Why would it be with me then?”

He was also puzzled. Who was this young woman exactly? Why did he feel a sense of familiarity to her? In addition, she said that the ‘Kiss of the Demon God’ belonged to her. But that treasure was only activated because of the phoenix gown his mother gave Uncle Black to pass on to Mo Qingcheng. And also, from the words spoken by that divine phoenix, the ‘Kiss of the Demon God’ might have a connection with his mother.

Since that was the case, he naturally wanted to find out the young woman’s identity.

“Back then because of some reasons, I could only abandon this treasure out there in the world. But this is really a treasure that belongs to me or I wouldn’t be able to sense its existence. Give it back to me, you can state whatever price you want.” The young woman spoke, her words causing a strange look to appear on Ten Miles Springwind’s face. What imposing words, they could name any price they wanted to? Seems like this group of people had an extraordinary origin.

Indeed, this beautiful young woman who was already a world overlord, had plenty of world overlords behind her. She was definitely from the young generation of a super power.

“Since you have already abandoned it and now that it is in my hands, this treasure naturally belongs to me. For something you thrown away, how can you take it back just because you want to?” Qin Wentian spoke. Earlier, the ‘Kiss of the Demon God’ saved Mo Qingcheng and the divine phoenix in it has already acknowledged Mo Qingcheng as her spirit lord. How could he return this back to the young woman just from her words? Let alone the fact that it was very possible for this item to have a connection with his mother.

Since this landed in his hands and Qingcheng coincidentally activated it. This naturally belongs to Qingcheng now.

“The ‘Kiss of the Demon God’ is a treasure of my clan. Sir, why must you take the belonging of others? My young miss has already spoken, you can raise any conditions, we are willing to use other treasures to exchange for it.” An old man beside the young woman spoke out.

“I’m not exchanging.” Qin Wentian directly rejected, there was no room for negotiation.

Upon hearing his words, an extremely terrifying aura gushed forth from the old man. The other world overlords in their group also stepped forth as pressure radiated from them. Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the others also moved forward. In an instant, one could feel the palpable violence in the air as the atmosphere grew incredibly tense. Once a fight broke out, it would surely be a heaven-shaking one.

“Fine, let’s temporarily not talk about that. I’ll ask you this first. How did you all activate the ‘Kiss of the Demon God?’” The beautiful young woman asked. This was something that caused her to feel extremely puzzled. It was impossible for people not of her clan to activate this treasure. If the treasure really was in the hands of this young man surnamed Qin and he had activated it, what did this mean?

“I also wish to ask you a question. Since you say that this treasure belongs to you, where do you come from?” Qin Wentian didn’t answer, he asked another question which he wanted to know.

The beautiful eyes of the young woman stared at Qin Wentian. After that, her ruby red lips parted, “Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region.”

Ten Miles Springwind felt his body turn stiff, he stared at this young woman before him in astonishment and with his mouth wide open. “I…”

Just when the word ‘I’ came out, he didn’t know what he was going to say. Cao Tian’s eyes also widened as he stared at this group of people, waves of emotions were also rocking his heart.

What was this situation? They actually met descendants of the legendary Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region here in the Mystic Region?

Old Ghost’s eyes narrowed into slits. Phoenix’s beautiful eyes surveyed the young woman in curiosity. Clearly, they were no stranger to this clan’s name since they have lived for so long in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This was especially so after the young woman said the words ‘Desolate Region.’ In that case, the weightage her clan represents, was something everyone would have to carefully consider.

“Brother Qin, I think it’s better to give her that treasure and bring up some other conditions. There’s no need to be polite, it’s fine even if you suggest very outrageous conditions.” Ten Miles Springwind transmitted back a reply. Qin Wentian started, usually given Ten Miles Springwind’s carefree character, he usually wouldn’t fear anyone or he wouldn’t have brought up the suggestion to rob the Heavenly Immortal Tower. However, after the young woman revealed the name of her clan, he actually suggested that he should exchange the treasure with the young woman. This wasn't like his usual personality.

Could it be that the Luoshen Clan was a very famous one?

"What's going on?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to ask.

"Desolate Region, Luoshen Clan...Have you never heard of them before?" Ten Miles Springwind speechlessly replied. "For this young woman before you, even if she kills you right now in the Time Realm, no one would seek revenge for you. You have to give in even if you don't want to give in. The Luoshen Clan isn't something the Dragon Pool Manor can be compared to."

"Luoshen Clan." Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. How long has it been since he came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? He was still familiar with the peak powers of the Mystic Region but as for the Desolate Region, he wasn't familiar with them at all. Hence, this was the reason why he has never heard of the Luoshen Clan and why he didn't understand the true meaning represented by the Luoshen Clan.

"Now, can you answer my question?" The beautiful young woman stared at Qin Wentian. Not only was Qin Wentian curious about her, she was also very curious about him. Why would he be able to activate the 'Kiss of the Demon God'? In addition, this young man was actually surnamed Qin.

Qin Wentian looked at her, feeling some hesitation. Should he say it or not?

If he said it, what would be the consequences?

However, if he wanted to verify the speculations in his heart, this young woman was the key.

"The 'Kiss of the Demon God' belongs to the Luoshen Clan?" Qin Wentian seriously asked.

"Why should I lie to you?" The young woman stared at Qin Wentian.

"In that case, tell me first what is the condition to activate the 'Kiss of the Demon God'? As long as you answer, I will tell you what you want to know." Qin Wentian replied.

“There’s a spirit body inside the ‘Kiss of the Demon God,’ it is a treasure forged from the spirit body’s blood. If there’s a resonant treasure that came in contact with the ‘Kiss of the Demon God,’ it would be activated. For treasures forged using spirit bodies, only my clan has them. Why would you have it?” The young woman transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian. This sentence had cleared up Qin Wentian’s speculations by one step.

“During my wedding, my mother once gifted a phoenix gown to my wife. My wife has always been wearing it.” Qin Wentian also transmitted his voice to her. The young woman’s body trembled as though she was struck by electricity. Her beautiful eyes stared fixedly at Qin Wentian.

“Who is your mother?” The young woman asked.

“I truly have no idea.” Qin Wentian spoke. Before this, he was hesitating but he still chose to say it. He didn’t know what would await him in the future from him saying such words. Would there be a calamity waiting for him?

He stared at the beautiful young woman before him, looking at her beautiful face, not wanting to miss any details. He wanted to see clearly her expressions to deduce some things. Since he decided to reveal some truth, it was best for him to be prepared.

The beautiful young woman’s breathing actually became urgent. She was also looking carefully at Qin Wentian.

After a moment, she suddenly turned and left, no longer pursuing about the ‘Kiss of the Demon God.’ This caused everyone here to feel strange, no one understood what had just happened.

“What’s going on?” Ten Miles Springwind asked.

“I have no idea too.” Qin Wentian glanced at the departing back of the young woman as he drew in a deep breath. What would he be facing in the future? He has no way to anticipate it.

“Let’s go, we will head to the Heavenheart Mirror. The incident of Longyuan Haoyu hasn’t been settled yet.” Qin Wentian spoke. Ten Miles Springwind and the others nodded. Qin Wentian evidently didn’t want to continue talking about this matter. Seems like there should be some of his personal secrets within. However, they didn’t continue asking too. Who wouldn’t have a few secrets?

As for that beautiful young woman, as she was flying away, she suddenly increased her speed and went back to her residential palace. Even now, she hasn't calm down yet. Her mind was in a whirl.

"Miss, what's wrong?" The old man followed behind her and asked. He didn't understand why she gave up on obtaining the 'Kiss of the Demon God' and suddenly acted so strangely.

"I wish to be on my own for a while." She then returned to her room and sat there in a daze, thinking of some matters. As she thought about things, a tear suddenly flowed down from the corner of one of her eyes. His surname was Qin, his mother gave his wife a phoenix gown. In that case, it was obvious what his identity truly was.

Did 'she' actually have a son? And her son was already a world overlord now!

Chapter 1777: Can you top that?

Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region. This name was branded in Qin Wentian's mind.

But right now, he had to temporarily place this aside. At the Heavenheart Mirror's region, Qin Wentian brought that crippled world overlord there. His eyes were cold to the extreme as he directly headed for Longyuan Haoyu's direction.

Longyuan Haoyu naturally saw Qin Wentian. He also saw that world overlord whose cultivation base was crippled, and Mo Qingcheng who was safe and sound beside Qin Wentian.

His eyes narrowed, flashing with coldness. His plan actually failed, what a trash that pathetic world overlord was? There was no other world overlord in Qin Wentian's residential palace, yet this lackey of his still failed and was even captured? Now seeing how Qin Wentian was rushing over to him, it was clear that his lackey has already betrayed him.

At this moment, a world overlord walked towards the Heavenheart Mirror and was prepared to display his world heart. Qin Wentian's gaze turned over and spoke in a clear voice, "Sir, can you wait for a moment? I have something I want to say."

"Mhm?" That world overlord glanced at Qin Wentian before he nodded, "Sure."

“Many thanks.” Qin Wentian nodded to express his gratitude. After that, he turned and faced the crowd, “I’m the Qingcheng Realmlord of the Mystic Region and came here to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms due to receiving an invitation. I heard that world overlords can bring their family and friends to the Time Realm and there wouldn’t be any danger. If they stay in the residential palace, no one would disturb them but today, there was actually someone who went to the residential palace I picked and forcibly abducted my wife. If it wasn’t for the fact that my wife has a protective treasure on her, the consequences would surely be dire. Right now in the surroundings, there are many seniors present. Junior wishes to ask what would the punishment of the one who broke the convention’s rules be?”

The eyes of many people gleamed with sharpness as they stared at the crippled world overlord behind him. An expert from a major power then spoke, “Isn’t his cultivation base already crippled? Since he was captured by you, you have the right to punish him as you see fit.”

“Many thanks senior. This junior will naturally handle things well. It’s just that this man was acting on orders of someone else.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Oh?” Somebody saw that Qin Wentian was facing the direction where the people of the Dragon Pool Manor were at. Was it somebody from the Dragon Pool Manor?

The Qingcheng Realmlord, the Dragon Pool Manor.

Those who knew about the grudge between the Heaven Immortal Tower and the Qingcheng Realmlord instantly understood some things. Seems like someone in the Dragon Pool Manor was unhappy about the Qingcheng Realmlord and wanted to punish him.

“Who is it?” That person asked.

“Just speak freely.” Qin Wentian glanced at the crippled world overlord. That world overlord’s aura was clearly extremely weak. He stared at Longyuan Haoyu as his eyes flashed with a venomous light. It was none other than Longyuan Haoyu who gave the order, causing him to be in this situation now. To a lofty and arrogant world overlord, what did it mean now that he has lost his cultivation base? He was clearly already a cripple.

“Longyuan Haoyu, why did you ask me to do that?” The crippled world overlord had a glacial expression on his face. Longyuan Haoyu merely calmly glanced at him and replied quietly, “Do we know each other?”

His words caused Qin Wentian's expression to freeze. After that, Longyuan Haoyu glanced at him and spoke, "He was the one who broke the rules. It's fine that you have crippled him but why are you using this opportunity to frame me?"

Clearly, Longyuan Haoyu wouldn't admit this. He had already thought of the consequences when he did this. It was fine if everything worked out, Qin Wentian's woman would be in his hand and this lackey would naturally not dare to disclose anything. But if things didn't work out, he would simply claim that he doesn't know anything.

"You..." That world overlord turned pale, his finger that was pointing at Longyuan Haoyu was shaking in anger. But right now, he had no aura had all, he was just like a decrepit old man that was about to die.

"We have a witness here. Many people already know of the grudge between the Qingcheng Realmlord and Longyuan Haoyu. Back then, Qin Wentian brought a serving girl away from the Heaven Immortal Tower and that serving girl was one of Longyuan Haoyu's women who was arranged to work in the Heaven Immortal Tower. This is Longyuan Haoyu's motive for revenge. I can be a witness for the Qingcheng Realmlord. How should we punish Longyuan Haoyu? Can everyone give some suggestions?" Cao Tian already knew Longyuan Haoyu would deny this before he came but he still stepped out to speak.

"Haha." Longyuan Haoyu laughed loudly. He stared at Cao Tian, "Senior Cao Tian's relationship is so good with the Qingcheng Realmlord. In addition to senior Old Ghost, Ten Miles Inn's boss and Phoenix. Just nice, there are a total of five of you. Before this, the robbery of my Heaven Immortal Tower was done by you all, right? I believe it should be so. Most probably, you guys targeted my tower for the sake of helping Qin Wentian to take revenge, right?"

Cao Tian and the other four started, they didn't expect Longyuan Haoyu to actually manage to guess it. Seems like they were too careless.

His gaze stared straight at Longyuan Haoyu as Cao Tian spat out a single word. "Right."

Cao Tian didn't deny it, he instantly admitted to the fact.

"Brother Qin is my brother. The Heaven Immortal Tower is too brazen when it does things, insulting a valuable customer. Can't we even teach a serving girl a lesson? To think that the Heaven Immortal Tower actually gave out a promise using a treasure to tempt bounty hunters to capture Brother Qin. I naturally have to help him vent out these unhappy emotions. Hence, I suggested to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower. I dare to admit what I've done. What about you?" Cao Tian stared at Longyuan Haoyu.

"Senior Cao is as expected of someone from the Cao Clan, directly admitting that you are a bandit with no trepidation at all, robbing my Heaven Immortal Tower." Longyuan Haoyu coldly laughed. "As for what you said, my reply is this. If I was the one who suggested this, I would admit it too. But I truly don't know who this crippled world overlord is."

"As expected of a world overlord. What good endurance." Qin Wentian coldly stared at Longyuan Haoyu. Although Longyuan Haoyu now knew that they were the ones behind the robbery, he was still so calm and refused to admit what he has done.

"Brother Cao. You guys have to give a reply to us regarding the robbing of our Heaven Immortal Tower." An elder of Longyuan Haoyu spoke. Although the treasures in the Heaven Immortal Tower were only a small portion of the Dragon Pool Manor's wealth, this act was equivalent to smacking their faces. In addition, Cao Tian even admitted in public that he was the one behind it. Did he even have their Dragon Pool Manor in his eyes?

"What reply?" Cao Tian coldly spoke. "Just with the things your Heaven Immortal Tower has done, so what even if I rob it? Don't tell me you want me to cut my head off? In fact, your Dragon Pool Manor should properly discipline the junior generations. How embarrassing, daring to do something yet having no guts to admit it."

"How tyrannical." Many people had expressions of interest on their faces when they saw this conflict. As expected of Cao Tian from the Cao Clan. So I robbed your Heaven Immortal Tower but what can you do to me? He was the robber yet he spoke so boldly and confidently as though justice was on his side. Where would you be able to find such a bandit? And his reasoning behind it was for the sake of venting unhappiness for his brother, as though his actions were backed by righteousness.

"A reply does indeed need to be given." At this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly spoke, his words causing Cao Tian to start. Has this fellow become silly, he Cao Tian, has already taken responsibility for the robbery but Qin Wentian wanted to admit to it too?

Only to see Qin Wentian staring at Longyuan Haoyu as he continued, "I did participate in the robbery as well, but it's true that your tower did cause bounty hunters to capture me. Now, you even sent someone to act against my wife. Since this is the case, seeing that the convention is about world overlords contending against each other, displaying their prowess, why don't you Longyuan Haoyu have a life-and-death battle against me to settle the grudge? Do you dare to?"

“Interesting.” The surrounding experts all laughed. Qin Wentian actually publicly challenged the young genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, Longyuan Haoyu. Also, he requested for a life-and-death battle.

In that case, would Longyuan Haoyu accept the challenge?

The fact that the Qingcheng Reallord was a transcendent-level world overlord has already been proven. He could effortlessly insta-kill three world overlords. But since Longyuan Haoyu was known as a young genius of the Dragon Pool Manor, how would he be weak?

In addition, just like what Qin Wentian has said, although the convention wasn't a direct competition between world overlords, the purpose of it was truly to let them contend against each other so the major characters could see the world overlord's talent. At the end, there would be people obtaining heaven-defying fortune and would be able to join peak powers of the Mystic Region. There would also be people obtaining treasures or even having a chance to study under a heavenly deity.

In the convention, conflict was inevitable. Right now, this Qingcheng Reallord took the initiative to challenge Longyuan Haoyu. If Longyuan Haoyu refused, that would be equivalent to smacking the Dragon Pool Manor's face.

Others would mock him, saying that the young genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor has always been arrogant yet he didn't even dare to accept the challenge of a random world overlord who came from elsewhere?

A transcendent-level world overlord naturally was a fearsome opponent, and Qin Wentian did insta-kill three world overlords in a battle before. Longyuan Haoyu himself was hesitating but when he saw countless gazes of major characters staring at him, he knew that he had to accept this challenge no matter what.

“You have courage!” Cao Tian silently praised Qin Wentian. Leaving aside victory or defeat, by Qin Wentian wanting to take Longyuan Haoyu's life by means of a challenge battle, was already something extremely courageous. He wanted to kill Longyuan Haoyu in the face of the Dragon Pool manor.

“I accept your challenge.” Longyuan Haoyu coldly spoke, accepting the challenge.

Qin Wentian soared into the air, Longyuan Haoyu also walked out. The eyes of the world overlords and major characters in the surroundings all focused on them, including the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord. He was somewhat surprised, Qin Wentian actually dared to challenge the Dragon Pool Manor? Although Qin Wentian killed the Lifelong Realmlord, but he has just become a world overlord recently, right? How strong could he be?

“Right now, since the two of you want to battle, why don’t you two fight in the zone of the Heavenheart Mirror where its reflection could shine on the two of you? You guys can display your heavenheart mandates and display your talent.” In the air, an immensely powerful world overlord from a major power calmly spoke. Longyuan Haoyu nodded, “Right.”

It was clear that the person who spoke had an extraordinary status.

His silhouette flashed and entered the reflection zone of the Heavenheart Mirror. Qin Wentian entered there as well. At the peak of this resplendent mountain, the two of them faced each other. This would be the first battle in the Convention of the Myriad Realms. Also, everyone in the Time Realm would be able to witness this battle.

With an intention of his will, Longyuan Haoyu caused the colors of the sky to change. Incomparably terrifying ripples manifested around him, they then transformed into rings of light that enveloped him protectively. In an instant, it felt as though this entire piece of sky became his protector and at this moment, a bright beam of light shot out from the Heavenheart Mirror.

“A defensive-type heavenheart mandate.” Everyone silently mused when they saw this scene.

Longyuan Haoyu stretched out his hand again and grabbed out in the air. A supremely strong power descended, crushing everything. Another beam of light shot out from the Heavenheart Mirror, like a bolt of lightning arcing through the Time Realm.

However, things weren’t concluded yet. Longyuan Haoyu continued to display the power of his heavenheart mandates until the fifth beam of light shot out from the Heavenheart Mirror. This caused the eyes of many people to involuntarily narrow. As expected of a young genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor.

“Can you top that?” Longyuan Haoyu coldly spoke, staring at Qin Wentian. Although the number of heavenheart mandates one comprehended couldn’t represent one’s strength, it could still be a representation of one’s comprehension abilities. If he comprehended more heavenheart mandates compared to Qin Wentian, he would naturally feel much more confident about their challenge battle!

Chapter 1778: Is it very difficult?

“Can you top that?”

Longyuan Haoyu’s words were filled with an intense provocation. Qin Wentian calmly stared at him, there was only coldness in his deep eyes.

“When was the strength of a world overlord ever determined by the number of heavenheart mandates they comprehended?” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Laughable. The strength of a world overlord naturally cannot be determined by the number of heavenheart mandates they comprehended but why were countless people are stuck at the empyrean realm unable to break through to the world overlord realm? It’s naturally because they had no way to comprehend heavenheart mandates, not even a single type. The number of heavenheart mandates comprehended can directly tell a world overlord’s comprehension abilities. If you don’t even have quantity, why talk about quality?” Longyuan Haoyu arrogantly spoke.

“Longyuan Haoyu’s words are right.” Although the vast majority of attendants of the Convention are world overlords, one must know that they are gathered from the upper echelons of the entirety of major powers in the Mystic Region. Maybe, there would only be a single world overlord out of a billion humans. From this, one can tell how difficult it is to comprehend a heavenheart mandate.”

A major character slowly spoke, standing in the air. He then continued, “Being able to comprehend a single type of heavenheart mandate means that this person would surely be the most ordinary world overlord. It is already considered not bad to be able to comprehend two heavenheart mandates, and it is extremely difficult to comprehend three. As for four to five types of heavenheart mandates, only those with great talent can do so. The two of you cannot be considered to have cultivated for a long time. Since Longyuan Haoyu was able to comprehend five heavenheart mandates, it proves that his talent is extraordinary.”

“These words are true. Given Longyuan Haoyu’s age, it’s truly not easy.” Another person spoke. Longyuan Haoyu smiled coldly, his gaze was filled with a mocking light as he stared at Qin Wentian.

“Seniors, all of you are right. Seems like junior has said it incorrectly earlier.” Qin Wentian spoke to the experts who were speaking for Longyuan Haoyu. But at this moment, there was a disdainful smile on his face. Qin Wentian then continued, "It's just that, is it really very difficult to comprehend many heavenheart mandates?"

"What big words." The people of the Dragon Pool Manor berated.

"Hehe, it's naturally very difficult. This is especially so for five types of heavenheart mandates." Someone in the air spoke.

"Ah, I see." Qin Wentian nodded. After that, a beam of light radiated from him. This was the power of his Radiance Conflagration heavenheart mandate. As his heavenheart mandate was unleashed, the Heavenheart Mirror shot out a beam of light, indicating that Qin Wentian had released one heavenheart mandate.

After that, Qin Wentian's figure turned illusory as he faded away into the void before instantly reappearing. This continued on for some time. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out a second beam of light, reflecting Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate to the Time Realm.

"This Qingcheng Realmlord is a transcendent-level world overlord. Although he might not be able to comprehend five heavenheart mandates, four shouldn't be a problem for him. I just wonder if he is able to come to a draw with Longyuan Haoyu." Many people knew that Qin Wentian was a transcendent-level world overlord. This indicated that it was possible for a single heavenheart mandate of Qin Wentian to be formed from a fusion of three source origins. For the three source origins, if he fused two of them each separately, he would end up with a total of three heavenheart mandates. That, in addition to the heavenheart mandate that is formed from a fusion of three source origins, it would be a total of four types.

However, if a world overlord placed all his experience just fusing the same three source origins, his comprehension abilities would clearly be much inferior. Hence, it shouldn't be so easy for him to comprehend a fifth type of heavenheart mandate.

Just like what the crowd anticipated, Qin Wentian continuously released four types of heavenheart mandates. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out four beams of light. Longyuan Haoyu narrowed his eyes, staring at Qin Wentian. Would Qin Wentian still have more heavenheart mandates to display?

Qin Wentian's actions slowly stopped. At this instant, countless gazes were focused on him. Even Longyuan Haoyu felt slightly nervous, his gaze was fixed on Qin Wentian.

Only to see Qin Wentian's hand gently waving as an ethereal energy gushed forth. The energy transformed into a fearsome might that instantly enveloped Longyuan Haoyu but it dissipated before it did anything. A moment later, a fifth beam of light shot out from the Heavenheart Mirror.

Qin Wentian released a total of five heavenheart mandates and he did so in an extremely casual and carefree manner.

“Before I comprehended my world heart, I've already comprehended several heavenheart mandates. Although my cultivation time is short and the period of time I spent in the world overlord realm is also not long, is it really that difficult to comprehend heavenheart mandates?”

Qin Wentian calmly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, resplendent streams of light flew towards him. At this instant, the divine weapons and treasures of the world overlords in the surroundings started to tremble, emitting a humming noise as they sought to free themselves from their owner's control.

“This...” The world overlords narrowed their eyes, staring at Qin Wentian in shock. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out the sixth beam of light. Right now, Qin Wentian's number of heavenheart mandates have already surpassed Longyuan Haoyu.

In an instant, Longyuan Haoyu felt the burning sensation of shame on his face. His face was smacked in public. And as for those seniors who spoke out for Longyuan Haoyu earlier, all of them now had no choice but to shut up. They stared at Qin Wentian and didn't know what to say.

Was it very difficult to comprehend heavenheart mandates?

Qin Wentian meant that although the amount of time he spent in the world overlord realm was short, it wasn't too much of a pressure for him to comprehend heavenheart mandates. In fact, before he had even comprehend his world heart, it seemed that he has already gained comprehension of quite a few heavenheart mandates. This meant that his world heart wasn't formed from an extension of his heavenheart mandates. He was taking reference from his comprehension of many different heavenheart mandates to truly manifest a unique world heart. He was a true transcendent-level world overlord.

However, was everything concluded?

Of course not. Qin Wentian waved his hand again and released another beam of resplendent light. This light transformed into a thin ray and curved around, it was a fusion of darkness and light and brimmed with supreme destructive might. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out a seven beam of light.

This meant that the number of heavenheart mandates Qin Wentian had comprehended, had already reached seven types.

“Do you still want to see?” Qin Wentian stared at Longyuan Haoyu as a look of contempt appeared on his face. At this moment, Longyuan Haoyu’s countenance was like dead ashes. His pride was completely stomped.

“Since you are able to comprehend many types of heavenheart mandates and the convention is about to commence, why don’t you show us all of them? After all, this ought to be a stage for geniuses, you can use it to display your brilliance.” An old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy spoke out.

“Senior is right. Before this, junior thought that there was no need for this. But now, I can only hope that the various seniors here won’t ridicule me.” Qin Wentian bowed towards the old senior from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and spoke in a humble manner. But at the instant he inclined his head, a bright light flickered in his eyes, seemingly capable of affecting the hearts of people. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out an eighth beam of light. This single look shot out by Qin Wentian was also the power of a heavenheart mandate.

Next, the ninth and tenth beam of light shot out from the heavenheart Mirror. Boundless radiance was reflected, and ten halos revolved around Qin Wentian, proving his magnificence beyond a doubt. Nobody spoke, silence was in the air. Regardless of young world overlords or old, all of them were staring at Qin Wentian in awe.

Ten types of heavenheart mandates, this was twice the amount of what Longyuan Haoyu has comprehended. Longyuan Haoyu’s face has been completely smacked swollen.

At this instant, not only those around the Heavenheart Mirror saw it, the experts in the entire Time Realm also saw the supreme figure of Qin Wentian that was radiating boundless magnificence.

In a certain palace, an old man froze when he saw this. After that, he spoke out towards a certain direction, “Young miss, quickly come out and take a look.”

“I told you not to disturb me, right?” A voice rang out from within the palace.

“It’s that young fellow surnamed Qin. He is currently displaying his heavenheart mandates before the Heavenheart Mirror.” The old man spoke. Although he had no idea what happened earlier that caused his young miss to act so strangely, it should have something to do with this young man surnamed Qin.

A silhouette flashed as a beautiful woman appeared. Her eyes stared into the horizons and saw the reflection projected by the Heavenheart Mirror. Qin Wentian was like a god king imperiously staring down at everything in the world, radiating boundless magnificence.

“He is competing with a young genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor and has already displayed ten heavenheart mandates. This man is extremely young, his talent is truly terrifying.” The old man spoke. The beautiful young woman was in a daze as she stared at Qin Wentian’s figure. Her heart stirred slightly. Ten heavenheart mandates...?

But then again, how could his talent not be high?

“He is still releasing heavenheart mandates. This is already the eleventh type.” The old man exclaimed in shock. When the Heavenheart Mirror shot out the eleventh beam of light, the entire Time Realm seemed to freeze.

In the next instant, another beam of light shot out, this was already the twelfth heavenheart mandate. The old man felt his heart shuddering, turning somewhat numb. He has already been a world overlord for countless years and can be considered a major character among world overlords, having comprehended quite a number of heavenheart mandates himself. But even so, what was he compared to this young man? Naturally, what he sought for now wasn’t quantity, but quality instead.

But even so, given how young Qin Wentian was, he should have just recently broken through to the world overlord realm and he could already display twelve heavenheart mandates. This meant that comprehending heavenheart mandates were truly of no difficulty to him. In that case, how high would his accomplishments be in the future?

The eyes of the beautiful young woman turned red, they were slightly wet around the rims. She sighed softly in her heart, “Father, what were all your actions for? Right now, someone has returned.”

In the Heavenheart Mirror's surroundings, many experts and major characters from the various peak powers were all staring at Qin Wentian as waves of emotions rocked their hearts.

Transcendent-level world overlord? Truly transcendent indeed. In fact, his talent already couldn't be described with the word 'transcendent-level.' With twelve halos revolving around him, wasn't he making it so that no one else would want to display their heavenheart mandates after him? Who would be able to surpass him? Most probably, only a few major characters could do so. But was there any meaning in them competing with a young junior like Qin Wentian?

The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord's face turned completely dark, he found it hard to accept this. How could Qin Wentian have such talent? This was someone who once belonged to his Heavenly Talisman Realm and can be considered a junior to him. How was he able to comprehend twelve heavenheart mandates? No one could be clearer than him that a few hundred years ago, Qin Wentian was merely a minor and insignificant character.

The people of the Dragon Pool Manor felt their hearts trembling as their expressions were all incredibly ugly to behold. This time around, the fact that Longyuan Haoyu accepted Qin Wentian's challenge, would prove to be a calamity to him

To Longyuan Haoyu, right now he completely had no more confidence in combat. Before this, after he displayed five types of heavenheart mandates, he basked in the glory and was exceedingly confident and arrogant, showing off to everyone. But now when he saw the twelve halos of light revolving around Qin Wentian, his arrogance, pride and confidence had completely shattered. His heart was trembling violently.

Everyone instantly recalled what Qin Wentian said earlier. Is it really very difficult to comprehend many heavenheart mandates?

They initially thought Qin Wentian was just bragging. But, what about now?

Twelve halos were revolving around him. Was this very difficult?

Chapter 1779: Qin Wentian's World Heart

To Qin Wentian, the comprehension of heavenheart mandates were difficult at the start. But after the gate to that was pushed open, it was no longer a problem.

He once cultivated in the World of Ten Thousand Laws for many years. Which heavenheart mandates would he not have seen before? After experiencing that secret realm, he had gained insights into countless powerful heavenheart mandates, wanting to use them as a reference for him to manifest a world heart. To him, heavenheart mandates were powers that were extremely easy to comprehend. Naturally, this only referred to ordinary heavenheart mandates that were formed from the fusion of two source origins. As for extraordinary heavenheart mandates, they wouldn't be so easy to comprehend. One would need even higher comprehension abilities and much more time if they wanted to do so.

Before this, he truly had no intentions to display his brilliance here but considering what Longyuan Haoyu did, changed his mind. Longyuan Haoyu actually broke the rules of the convention and directly sent a lackey to his residential palace to capture Mo Qingcheng? What was Longyuan Haoyu depending on? Naturally, it was his strong background. Qin Wentian was just an outsider world overlord, for world overlords like him who had no backgrounds to speak off, you can find any number of them in the crowd who came here for the convention.

Hence, Qin Wentian knew what he needed to do. He needed to let everyone attending the convention, including the major characters of the peak powers to know of his existence.

This was why this scene occurred. The twelve halos revolving around his body all came from the Heavenheart Mirror. This meant that he has displayed twelve different types of heavenheart mandates.

“Being able to comprehend twelve heavenheart mandates is sufficient to prove that your comprehension abilities are extraordinary. But there was one point you said earlier that is right. The strength of a world overlord is never determined by the quantity of the heavenheart mandates he comprehended. You spent so much time on comprehending heavenheart mandates but have wasted time with regards to pursuing a truly powerful one. This is simply neglecting fundamentals to concentrate on the minor useless details.” That expert who spoke out for Longyuan Haoyu earlier spoke out again now. It was like he felt a loss of face when Qin Wentian displayed so many heavenheart mandates.

Before this, he once said how difficult it was to comprehend heavenheart mandates and felt that Longyuan Haoyu's talent was extraordinary because he could comprehend five. But after Qin Wentian displayed twelve, his face was completely smacked.

Qin Wentian coldly laughed in his heart. Longyuan Haoyu was praised by this man simply because he had five heavenheart mandates. As for him who had displayed twelve, this man instantly changed his words.

However, no matter how brazen Qin Wentian was, he wouldn't be foolish enough to contend directly against these major characters. After all, he only wanted to deal with a single person right now at this instant and that person was Longyuan Haoyu. He wanted to temporarily steer clear of other troubles for now.

“Senior's teaching is right. Junior will solemnly remember this advice and reflect on this seriously.” Qin Wentian's attitude was as humble as ever, and extremely courteous. No one could pick on him because of it.

His gaze slowly turned towards Longyuan Haoyu. Earlier, it was just displaying heavenheart mandates. In truth, that was just a prelude to the life-and-death battle between him and Longyuan Haoyu.

“Are you prepared?” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Longyuan Haoyu's expression sank, his confidence was completely gone. After seeing the twelve heavenheart mandates, it was impossible for his state of heart to remain unaffected.

“Next, it's time for our battle to start.” As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, the wind and clouds changed color as a terrifying energy manifested, directly boring down on this space.

World overlords were above empyreans. A single thought from them could become laws. Their wills were heaven's will.

At the instant Qin Wentian released his world heart, with him and Longyuan Haoyu in the center, the vast area around here became a world that belonged to him. This world generated his heart domain, and was the origin of his strength.

At this moment, Longyuan Haoyu's expression was like dead ashes. If one were to say that he had lost all confidence after seeing the twelve heavenheart mandates Qin Wentian displayed earlier. Right now, after Qin Wentian released his world heart, despair was the only thing in his heart.

Because, Longyuan Haoyu felt that his body was completely out of his control. This entire world seemed to have become a zone that was under the absolute control of Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was the controller of this world, the god of this world.

Longyuan Haoyu released his own world heart but he felt that the world heart which he has always been so proud of, was now under absolute suppression. This was due to a difference between the levels of world heart. Right now, his world heart and the heavenheart mandates he comprehended all seemed completely useless in this zone. Inside this heart domain, Qin Wentian was the controller of everything.

In the Heavenheart Mirror, a thirteenth beam of resplendent light shot out. This indicated that a new heavenheart mandate was displayed. This was Qin Wentian's innate heavenheart mandate, which meant that this heavenheart mandate was born from his world heart and could directly fuse with it. His heart domain was the source of this heavenheart mandate.

Qin Wentian stepped out. Longyuan Haoyu stared at his figure as his expression was ugly to the extreme. At this moment, he felt that Qin Wentian was like an invincible heavenly deity standing high up in the heavens, staring down imperiously at him.

He was a genius of the Dragon Pool Manor but right now, he felt as lowly as an ant. He felt as though he was trampled by Qin Wentian, and was viewed with contempt. This feeling was extremely strong. He knew that it was impossible for him to win against this man before him.

Longyuan Haoyu started to regret. Why did he choose to accept the challenge? He had no chance of victory at all. Or to put it in other words, he had already lost. The two of them were completely on different levels.

Qin Wentian's world heart made him feel despair.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian moving closer and closer to him as well as seeing the killing intent in Qin Wentian's eyes, Longyuan Haoyu hurriedly spoke, "I give up on this battle. This battle has concluded."

At the instant his voice rang out, many people felt astonished. Giving up on the battle? Running away?

Longyuan Haoyu earlier agreed to the challenge before everyone. What did him giving up mean?

This meant that he has abandoned his pride, his arrogance, and had lost without even needing to battle. He felt terror, and didn't even have the courage to fight. This was even more shameful than an actual defeat.

However, if he was truly defeated, death was his ending. Hence, he'd rather chose to give up on his dignity.

"Laughable. This is the convention of the myriad realms and before the eyes of so many seniors and major characters of the peak powers, how can you go back on your words like that?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. His killing intent flared even more as he continued walking towards Longyuan Haoyu. Longyuan Haoyu felt as though a god of death was moving closer and closer to him.

"I concede, is that okay then?" Longyuan Haoyu spoke.

"Naturally." Qin Wentian coldly laughed. As the sound of his voice faded, his body vanished from the spot. In the next instant, he reappeared before Longyuan Haoyu and grabbed out with his hand. Longyuan Haoyu wanted to evade but Qin Wentian's strength was too high. In this absolute zone, Qin Wentian was like a god. There was no way Longyuan Haoyu could evade.

His body was directly grabbed. There seemed to be an ethereal hand holding his body, slowly lifting him up into the air.

"What are you doing?" Longyuan Haoyu roared in rage, his expression was one of malevolence and terror.

"Since it is a life-and-death battle, conceding means death." The killing intent in Qin Wentian's eyes towered up into the sky. How could he spare someone who dared to act against Mo Qingcheng?

"Stay your hand!" A thunderous roar rang out from the direction of the Dragon Pool Manor. They naturally wanted to stop Qin Wentian from killing Longyuan Haoyu.

"Die."

As the thunderous roar faded, the word 'die' punctured the air. After that, everyone only saw Longyuan Haoyu's body directly disintegrating as his soul dispersed. He didn't even have the time to beg for mercy and was domineeringly killed. In fact, Qin Wentian didn't even make any other movements. Just a single word from him has determined Longyuan Haoyu's death.

Many people felt their hearts shaking. The person who died wasn't an ordinary world overlord but was a genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, Longyuan Haoyu.

But, he actually died like that? In such a simple manner? There was no battle at all, nor were there any exchanges of moves. He died due to the overwhelming disparity in their strengths.

What was a genius?

A true genius always needed to be contrasted against other geniuses. And Longyuan Haoyu who was a genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor, had undoubtedly become the foil that allowed Qin Wentian to shine brighter. However, the price he paid was truly extremely great. He died to do that.

“What world heart is that? How terrifying.” Many people silently mused.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. He stared at the expert from the Dragon Pool Manor who told him to stay his hand as he spoke, “Is there a problem?”

That expert's countenance darkened, an intense anger could be felt radiating from him. Earlier, Qin Wentian clearly disregarded his words and disregarded the existence of the Dragon Pool Manor, killing Longyuan Haoyu with no hesitation before everyone's eyes.

Now that Longyuan Haoyu was already dead, what else could he say?

A life-and-death challenge, this was something everyone could be a witness to. Even if he hated Qin Wentian extremely much at this moment, he wouldn't be able to say anything with regards to Longyuan Haoyu's death.

“Your methods are so ruthless. Killing a person of my Dragon Pool Manor just because of a grudge. In that case, your robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower should be accounted for now, right?” That expert icily spoke. Cao Tian was here, they would simply not kill Cao Tian but they had to deal with Qin Wentian.

“The robbery was done by me. I will take responsibility for everything. Whatever your Dragon Pool Manor wants to do, I will bear it all.” Cao Tian tyrannically spoke.

“Why don’t both parties temporarily set aside the grudges they have for now?” At this moment, a voice rang out. The expressions of the experts from the Dragon Pool Manor froze, staring at the person who spoke. It was actually someone from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.”

“The world heart you manifested is extremely unique. What is your world heart’s power?” The expert from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy asked Qin Wentian. For some people, the world hearts they comprehended were unique and extremely special. Qin Wentian’s world heart was of this category. Although the power of his world heart only enveloped the zone he and Longyuan Haoyu were in earlier, the surrounding experts could all feel the existence of that special heavenheart mandate he used.

“Replying to senior, this world heart was formed from my understandings of various heavenheart mandates as well as my comprehension, innate techniques and secret arts. After that, my innate heavenheart mandate was born from the world heart. When both my world heart and innate heavenheart mandate are released, the entire surroundings here would be under my absolute control, both my opponent’s world heart and their heavenheart mandates would be completely suppressed. I have not named my world heart yet as I don’t dare to do so. In any case, a name isn’t important.” Qin Wentian spoke. In truth, the power of his world heart wasn’t as simple as he described.

“In that case for world overlords fighting against you, as long as you employ the power of your world heart, you can directly control everything? You are the god of the zone you created, your will is equal to heaven’s fate and you can determine their life and death with a single word. No wonder Longyuan Haoyu couldn’t even fight back.” That expert nodded his head. “Why don’t you name your world heart the Heaven’s Fate World Heart?”

Chapter 1780: Invitation Once Again

“Heavenly Fate World Heart,” Qin Wentian mumbled. The old man spoke again, “Naturally, this is only a suggestion. For the world heart you comprehended, if you have a name you want to use more, it will naturally follow your opinion.”

Qin Wentian smiled. It can be said that he was fated with the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and can be considered half of a disciple. The sentence spoken by the old man interrupted the aggression the Dragon Pool Manor had shown, and was considered to have helped him resolve the situation somewhat. Right now, he even helped him to name his world heart. Qin Wentian naturally understood that the old man admired his talent. Also, this name sounded quite apt as well. How would he reject and not give the old man face?

“Since senior is willing to suggest a name for junior, this student feels only incomparable gratitude. My world heart shall be named as the Heavenly Fate World Heart from now on.” Qin Wentian nodded. The old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy smiled and stroked his beard. Clearly, Qin Wentian’s personality was very much to his taste.

Having strong talent, exuding boundless radiance, with an excellent comprehension ability and innately had a source of pride in his bones. Even for a world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor, Qin Wentian killed him while disregarding his background, yet he wasn’t blindly arrogant at all and was still so humble and polite towards him, a random old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Also, Qin Wentian had attended dao lectures in the academy before and had fate with it. With so many reasons, there were no reasons why the old man shouldn’t feel closeness to him.

“Today, you have displayed your heavenheart mandates, resulting in thirteen halos around you. I wonder if there would be any people willing to display their heavenheart mandates after that.” The old man shook his head and smiled. With such a dazzling example like Qin Wentian, those world overlords who only comprehended two to three kinds of heavenheart mandates probably would no longer have any face to display their heavenheart mandates.

This was indeed the thoughts of many world overlords. With Qin Wentian here, there was no meaning in them displaying their heavenheart mandates.

Great waves of emotions rose in the heart of the Heavenly Talisman Realm Lord as he stared at the figure in the air. Never in his wildest dreams did he think that this young man who once had a close connection with him, would actually display such glory. Right now, he was thinking whether Qin Wentian would find him for revenge or not?

If Qin Wentian wanted to deal with him, he wouldn’t even be able to retaliate. The power of that world heart named ‘Heavenly Fate,’ Longyuan Haoyu wasn’t able to resist it and was insta-killed, neither would he be able to.

In a residential palace that was extremely faraway, the beautiful young woman who came from the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region, personally witnessed Qin Wentian’s battle. Her heart was filled with restlessness. The old man beside her spoke in a low voice, “This young man’s talent is extraordinary high. From his appearance, I don’t think he is very old.”

As he spoke, he cast a glance at the young woman. He was guessing that this young man surely had a connection with his young miss. If not, she wouldn’t act so strangely now and even abandon her pursuit of the ‘Kiss of the Demon God.’ It seemed like she no longer had any intentions of wanting it back.

The young woman's beautiful eyes stared into the distance fixedly. The old man wasn't able to guess what was in her heart.

At this moment, at the area of the Heavenheart Mirror, a figure suddenly stepped out. This person gave off an extremely outstanding feeling and was extremely young and good looking. What was most terrifying was his pair of eyes, they were as deep as the abyss and could feel how fearsome they were despite looking at him from a distance. When you looked at his eyes for too long, you would fall into an illusion. The pupils in that pair of eyes seemed to be revolving, as though it was automatically manifesting a world formed from an eye-technique.

The eyes of many in the surroundings flashed with sharpness. Just after the old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy spoke, someone walked out instantly after that? Wasn't that considered a forceful reply?

Evidently, because all the peak powers of the Mystic Region would gather for the convention, how can their top geniuses be willing to allow Qin Wentian to hog the limelight alone?

This person who walked out was clearly from a peak power, he was from the Samsara Temple, one of the strongest powers below the three hegemonic powers.

This young man was none other than a supreme genius there, the representative of their younger generation. His talent was extremely rare and outstanding, he wasn't somebody a genius from the Dragon Pool Manor, Longyuan Haoyu, could compare to.

"It's Bai Qingfeng, a supreme character from Samsara Temple." At this moment, the hearts of many people trembled. Clearly, this young man was extremely famous in the Mystic Region and many in the Time Realm knew of his name.

The young genius world overlord of the Samsara Temple, Bai Qingfeng. It was rumored that out of those world overlords who fought with him before, none of them were able to walk out from this world heart's power with no exceptions. He had already spent several thousand years in the world overlord realm and had no records of being defeated at all. This was his first time participating in the convention.

"Today, will we finally be able to see Bai Qingfeng's world heart and heavenheart mandate personally?" Many people mused. After that, they soon saw Bai Qingfeng unleashing the power of his world heart and heavenheart mandate before the Heavenheart Mirror. In an instant, those who were looking at him all fell into an illusion. Not only for those in the surroundings, those looking at the reflections from the Heavenheart Mirror experienced the same thing as well. Their thoughts were not of their own control and they fell into a samsara cycle illusion, experiencing scenes they had never experienced before.

“This...” Their hearts trembled, wanting to struggle free but the vast majority of people failed to do so until Bai Qingfeng retracted the power of his world heart. After he retracted it, things went back to normal. Those affected had experienced countless scenes in just an instant.

“How powerful.” Many people were shocked. Bai Qingfeng simply displayed a single heavenheart mandate, which was his innate heavenheart mandate that came from his world heart’s power. After that, his figure flashed and he disappeared from the Heavenheart Mirror.

He didn’t compete with Qin Wentian in terms of quantity. In truth, Qin Wentian’s words were logical. Although the quantity of heavenheart mandates can prove one’s comprehension ability, it wasn’t able to determine the strength level of world overlords. The true determinant factor was the power of one’s world heart and innate heavenheart mandate.

“Is that Bai Qingfeng’s World Samsara World Heart?” Many people silently mused. Bai Qingfeng’s world heart was named ‘World Samsara,’ although he had only unleashed his innate heavenheart mandate, who would dare to doubt his prowess?

The expressions of the experts from the Samsara Temple were calm as they silently watched this scene. In another direction, the people from another peak power stared at a young man in their own ranks. This was also a transcendent-level young world overlord who was participating in the convention for the first time.

The young man stepped out, exuding grace and carefreeness, instantly arriving at the inner area of the Heavenheart Mirror.

“Clearsky God Mountain.” This young man was also from a peak power below the three hegemonic powers. This power was named as the Clearsky God Mountain and can be considered a super power capable of transmitting dao elements to the lower realms.

The Clearsky God Mountain dared to use the name ‘God Mountain’ because it once had an incomparable history and belonged to a true heavenly deity-tier power. Even after that heavenly deity died, he left behind his inheritance that was named ‘Force of the World.’

This young man was named Li Xiao, his strength was extremely strong and was also very famous in the Mystic Region. He started to release his world heart and power of his heavenheart mandate, causing his surroundings to manifest numerous world gates that released resplendent light and color. Each world gate brimmed with immense energy and when everyone felt the vastness of his strength that seemed endless, all of them felt breathless from the stifling pressure.

In Qin Wentian's residential palace, Jun Mengchen and the others were here. After Qin Wentian found Mo Qingcheng, he naturally sent back a voice transmission to inform them. Right now, they were all looking at the situation of the Heavenheart Mirror from the reflections. Before this, they naturally saw Qin Wentian displaying his brilliance. And now, when they saw Li Xiao releasing his power, Jun Mengchen felt a sense of great familiarity to it.

"Force of the World?" Jun Mengchen mumbled silently. He had to break through to the world overlord realm as quickly as possible or he would be too useless. Before this, a world overlord abducted Mo Qingcheng before his eyes and he was helpless to do anything. It felt truly humiliating.

"Seems like senior brother has caused many true geniuses to step out." Jun Mengchen mused. Next, there were many genius world overlords who came out respectively and they were all incredibly famous in the Mystic Region and this was their first time participating in the convention. As for the major characters who had participated in the convention before, there wasn't much meaning to them displaying their heavenheart mandates again.

"The Mystic Region is a place filled with crouching tigers and hidden dragons." Qin Wentian silently mused. After him, several powerful world overlords showed up, as though they were all drawn out by him. And after this group of people, those world overlords with more ordinary-level of talents felt embarrassed to display their heavenheart mandates.

After observing for a long time, Qin Wentian decided to bring Mo Qingcheng with him and leave. He bid farewell to that senior from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. That old man seeing that Qin Wentian took the initiative to bid farewell, smiled at him, "When you have the time to, you can come and find me. We can do an exchange of dao insights between the world overlords of the academy."

"If Junior has the chance, I will definitely head over to seek guidance." Qin Wentian nodded and left. Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the others also left with him, as they were worried about the retaliations by the Dragon Pool Manor. Qin Wentian had killed Longyuan Haoyu and their deed of robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower was exposed. It shouldn't be so easy for this matter to reach a conclusion.

As for Qin Wentian, it was clear that the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't spare him so easily.

As expected, after Qin Wentian left, the people of the Dragon Pool Manor also silently left the Heavens Mirror. Many intelligent people naturally knew that they wouldn't give up just because of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Things weren't that simple.

Among the crowd, the little princess of the Donghuang Clan, which was the ruler of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms, had been observing the situation. Upon seeing the Dragon Pool Manor leaving, her silhouette flashed as she chased after the direction where Qin Wentian had left. The experts from the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms naturally followed after her.

Donghuang Ying bade a powerful world overlord of her clan to bring her along, increasing her speed. She soon caught up to Qin Wentian. After that, Donghuang Ying spoke, "Qingcheng Realmlord, please hold on for a moment."

Qin Wentian halted his steps, he turned and stared at Donghuang Ying, "Little Princess, is there anything I can do for you?"

"You publicly killed a genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, they would definitely not spare you. My offer is still the same, I wish to invite you to join my Eastern Royal Immortal Realms and I'll give you the best cultivation conditions. Also, I won't restrict your freedom and will give you the title of a guest elder. How about it?" Donghuang Ying spoke. After seeing Qin Wentian displaying his talent, she was even more keen to recruit him.

"I, Qin, am filled with endless gratitude at little princess's persistence of inviting me two times. However, I, Qin truly don't like joining other powers for self-protection. I hope little princess can understand." Qin Wentian rejected the invitation again. A smile appeared in Donghuang Ying's beautiful eyes, she wasn't disappointed. "Since this is the case, it shouldn't be a problem for us to become friends, right?"

As she spoke, she even winked at Qin Wentian and had a mischievous smile on her face. She who was already originally very beautiful, was even more enchanting now. Ten Miles Springwind who was at the side, silently marveled at this young woman. She was so young and was only an empyrean but she already understood how to use all sorts of advantages like her beauty and background.
