

Ancient GM 1821

Chapter 1821: Heaven's Son and Goddess

During these few days, Qin Wentian felt fluctuations in his state of heart. Because Qin Dangtian was about to arrive, this 'cousin' of his, the Heaven's Son, he couldn't help wondering what sort of character did he have.

Today, Qin Wentian received Luoshen Lei's voice transmission. "Elder bro, I heard that Qin Dangtian is about to make a trip to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy."

"Mhm, he will be here in a few days time." Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal and replied.

After he spoke, Luoshen Lei fell silent. Towards the enemy that crippled her father, Luoshen Lei must surely feel great hatred for him, right? However, what could she do? Most probably in this lifetime, she would never be able to catch up to Qin Dangtian. Only Qin Wentian had hope to do so. Her father claimed that Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian were fated to be enemies since their birth but right now, Qin Wentian still wasn't Qin Dangtian's opponent. After all, Qin Dangtian has already cultivated for several thousand years and was already a heavenly deity.

Below heavenly deities, everyone else were akin to mortals. This was the perspective of heavenly deities. They comprehended the power of heavenly daos and stood at a supreme peak.

"Elder brother, you have to be careful." A moment later, Luoshen Lei reminded. Qin Wentian knew she was worried for him, that he might be impulsive and expose his identity. If that was the case, the consequences could be well imagined.

"Don't worry." Qin Wentian replied. After that, he kept away his messaging crystal.

"Are you okay?" Mo Qingcheng walked over and asked softly, she could sense that Qin Wentian seemed to have some worries in his heart during these few days.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze over and stretched out with his hand to stroke her hair. He gently smiled, "I can settle it."

“Okay.” Mo Qingcheng smiled sweetly and didn’t inquire further. If Qin Wentian didn’t tell her, he must have his own reasons for not telling her.

Qin Wentian gently pulled Mo Qingcheng into his embrace. He naturally knew he has to be careful. Because, there wasn’t only him. He had too many responsibilities now. Qing`er and Qingcheng both needed him. His life didn’t belong to him alone, it also belonged to the people around him.

Mo Qingcheng could somewhat sense the unease in Qin Wentian’s heart. She softly lied in his embrace and didn’t say anything. Qing`er also quietly walked to his side, leaning against his arm. Qin Wentian turned his head and stared at her. Qing`er’s hair was still white but it did nothing to mask her beauty. Her personality was as cold as ever, quietly standing by him in silence, giving him a formless warmth. These two women who were deeply in love with him were both extremely sensitive. They naturally could sense the change to his emotions. Maybe, the pressure on him was too great.

Qin Wentian naturally felt pressure. He has never felt such great pressure before. Because, he knew what sort of opponent he would be facing. His destined enemy was a heavenly god and was known as Heaven’s Son. This wasn’t an ordinary genius but was a true supreme genius that stood at the peak whose fame shook the eight regions. His enemy was from a hegemonic power in the Heaven Region, the Qin Clan.

His father’s revenge, his uncle’s revenge, all these responsibilities were on his shoulders. And the enemy he would face, would be stronger than any he has ever faced before.

When he sensed the warmth transmitted to him by his wives, at this moment, Qin Wentian’s eyes that were akin to the stars, shone with an incomparable resolve.

Finally, the date where Heaven’s Son would arrive at the sacred academy was here.

Today, the Daoask Lodge had countless experts, many people gathered outside the sacred academy and Daoask City was packed to the brim. All of them were staring at the stairway leading up to the floating Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Today, a supreme character would come here to the sacred academy.

This wasn't an ordinary genius from a random region. He also wasn't somebody the rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings could be compared to. His title was Heaven's Son and had become a heavenly deity just after several years of cultivation, crippling the Skyorder Heavenly Deity during his first battle.

The news about him coming to the sacred academy has spread long ago, creating a huge commotion. The attention of the entire Mystic Realm, including the various major powers, were focused on the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Qin Dangtian, Heaven's Son, would surely be a future godking. He who stands at the peak of the thirty-three immortal realms, what sort of character would he be? Countless people were filled with anticipation.

Today, many people were waiting at the top of the stairway. These people were naturally students of the sacred academy. They also wished to see what sort of person this legendary character from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region was like.

Qin Wentian, Jun Mengchen and the others were among the crowd as well. Jun Mengchen stared at the bustling scene outside as he sighed with emotion, "When will I be as glorious as this too? Being the focus of attention everywhere I go. Senior brother, how strong do you think this Heaven's Son is?"

"You want to hear the truth?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"Naturally." Jun Mengchen nodded. His senior brother Qin Wentian was also a supreme character. In the future, Qin Wentian would surely stun all the geniuses of past and present. He wanted to know what evaluation Qin Wentian had of Qin Dangtian.

"He is someone I have to defeat in the future." Qin Wentian's eyes stared into the distance as he calmly spoke. Jun Mengchen's body trembled slightly but he soon also smiled. "This is my senior indeed. So what even if he is the Heaven's Son?"

"Arrogant." A calm voice drifted over. The person who spoke was a young man that was exuding an aura of sharpness. His entire person was like a supreme sword and was none other than the supreme genius of the Swordsaint Mountain that was also a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings – Jian Chen. He was none other than Jian Wuxin's uncle. Qin Wentian naturally has seen him around in the sacred academy before but no conflict occurred between them.

It was impossible for Jian Chen to make trouble for him just because his nephew lost face. That would be completely out of line with a world overlord's prestige.

But when he heard Qin Wentian saying he was going to defeat Heaven's Son, he truly felt that Qin Wentian was too brazen. Even for rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, they weren't qualified to be compared to the Heaven's Son at all. Saying that he was going to defeat the Heaven's Son would undoubtedly sound extremely arrogant to many people.

Qin Wentian glanced at Jian Chen and didn't continue to speak. So what if others thought that he was arrogant? This was his destiny. He had to defeat Qin Dangtian. There was no second path for him.

"He is here." At this moment from afar, a fluctuation could be felt as two figures suddenly appeared. They traveled vast amounts of distances with a few steps and a moment later, they directly appeared at the top of the Heavenly Dao Stairway.

When the two of them descended from the air, silence was everywhere. It was like there were only the two of them left in this world.

They were very young, and were a man and a woman. The young man exuded an imposing aura, his black hair fluttered in the wind while his dark eyes were immeasurably deep, resembling the starry space. The contours of his face were extremely clear and it was a face you wouldn't forget after glancing a single time at it. He had an extraordinary demeanor as expected of a heavenly deity. Just by standing there, he gave off the feeling that he was standing at a peak and peering down imperiously at the rest of the world.

This heavenly deity was extremely young, incredibly good-looking and extraordinary.

He was the future successor of the Qin Clan, Heaven's Son, whose fame shook the entire world and was the youngest heavenly deity in the Heaven Region.

For the other person, it was a young woman. Given Qin Dangtian's status, strength, talent and background, which woman would be worthy enough to match with him?

If there really was such a person in the Heaven Region, it would be none other than that young woman that was standing beside Qin Dangtian. Although she stood beside him, the brilliance of Qin Dangtian did nothing to mask her own radiance.

She was breathtakingly beautiful, so beautiful that it could stir the hearts and souls of people. It was like you just needed to take a single glance at her to be completely spellbound. There was no way to describe her beauty because there were simply no words in any language capable of describing it.

Qin Dangtian stood beside her, yet he was unable to cast a shadow on her light. In truth, there were even more gazes directed at her than at Qin Dangtian.

This was none other than the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

In the Heaven Region, only Goddess Nichang was worthy enough to be matched with Qin Dangtian. It was like they were naturally meant to be together, a couple designed by the heavens.

“The rumors are real. Nichang’s beauty can cause everything to lose their color. For her, I’m willing to give up everything in the world.” A world overlord of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy silently mused. The hearts of world overlords were extremely strong-willed, yet the beauty of this woman was able to cause a world overlord’s state of heart to waver so strongly. From this, one could very well imagine how beautiful Nichang was.

“There truly are no words sufficient enough to describe her beauty.” Someone sighed.

“How beautiful.” Jun Mengchen involuntarily praised.

Qin Wentian’s gaze was fixed on Qin Dangtian since the start and he only noticed Goddess Nichang now. At the instant he saw her, he also involuntarily fell into a daze. Although he had many beauties around him, regardless of Qingcheng, Qing`er or Ye Qianyu, who were all supreme beauties, Qin Wentian couldn’t help but to admit that they were a hair inferior to Nichang. Nichang was the most beautiful maiden he has ever seen, something that transcended the mortal world. She was like a true celestial maiden.

If one day, Qing`er and Qingcheng managed to reach her cultivation realm, only then might they be able to compare to her.

“Goddess Nichang.” Qin Wentian silently mused, instantly knowing who she was. He had seen her information before in the Heavenly Dao Library, how could he not be able to tell. Goddess Nichang was a true goddess. Her father was a heavenly deity, her grandfather was also a heavenly deity.

There was no need to doubt how high her talent is. If the Heaven Region has a ranking equal to the Heavenly Dao Ranking, Goddess Nichang would definitely be on it.

Heaven's Son and Goddess Nichang, irregardless of who appears, just one of them was sufficient to cause a gigantic amount of commotion. Countless people will pay attention to them. And now, the two of them actually showed up in the sacred academy together. It was like they were destined to be an immortal couple where others could only stare at in admiration.

“Qin Dangtian is here to pay a visit to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.” At this moment, Qin Dangtian spoke. His aura was extremely outstanding as his voice resounded out like thunder in this silence.

“I heard that Goddess Nichang's grandfather Deity Qu, had a very good relationship with heavenly deity Qin Ding? Seems like the rumors were true.” A voice rang out in the sacred academy. The Heaven's Son and Goddess Nichang, there always had been rumors about them being a couple. In the past, they might not be together. But, what about now?

Goddess Nichang's grandfather and Qin Dangtian's grandfather have an extremely close relationship and the two of them, who are juniors, are also supreme characters standing far above their peers. Could they really be as what everyone in the world was anticipating? Were they already together?

Chapter 1822: Seeking Guidance

Goddess Nichang was like a celestial maiden from the nine heavens as she stood there. Her robes fluttered in the wind but she didn't say anything. It was like she was here today as a spectator.

Qin Dangtian's black hair was like ink. His gaze was extremely deep as he stared in the direction of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, “The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has been transmitting the dao for countless years and people of the world are all in admiration of it. The sacred academy undoubtedly has an extraordinary view of the heavenly dao. Hence, the purpose of my visit today is to ask about the dao.”

“Please enter then.” A voice rang out from within the sacred academy. Qin Dangtian stepped forth, moving into the entrance. The experts in a row on the left and right of the sacred academy all stepped back, watching as these two extraordinary figures moved past them.

Qin Wentian was just standing at the side. This was the first time he was looking at Qin Dingtian at such a close distance. This destined enemy of his...At this moment, Qin Dingtian was truly exceptionally extraordinary and the radiance he exuded could rival that of the sun and moon.

Qin Dingtian simply walked past Qin Wentian directly. Qin Wentian felt some fluctuations to his state of heart as he drew in a deep breath to steady himself.

Goddess Nichang also passed by Qin Wentian. That breathtaking figure was truly stunning. Her holy and saint-like countenance had no expression on it yet they could do nothing to mask her supreme beauty. This was the number one beauty of the Heaven Region. Truly, her beauty was unrivalled.

At this moment, Qin Dingtian's steps suddenly halted. He actually turned back and cast a glance at Qin Wentian. Those deep eyes of his flashed with a soul-stirring light.

Qin Wentian narrowed his eyes as he stared at Qin Dingtian. Could it be that Qin Dingtian had sensed something unusual about him?

This was impossible. He currently no longer had any bloodline powers. It was impossible for the other party to sense it.

"Who are you?" Qin Dingtian asked. The instincts of heavenly deities are naturally incredibly sharp. He could feel that Qin Wentian's gaze towards him was different from the others. This feeling felt extremely strange, but he could clearly feel the difference.

"He is a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the Qingcheng Realmlord, Qin Wentian." The Divine Sound World Overlord stood by Qin Wentian's side. He was worried that Qin Wentian would feel great pressure from Qin Dingtian's aura and helped him to reply. After all, this Qin Dingtian was a true supreme genius, a heavenly deity character.

Qin Dingtian was expressionless. He has never heard of the Qingcheng Realmlord before. Although Qin Wentian's fame was great and many major powers took notice of him, this was only in the Mystic Region. Also, so what if he was famous? Who was the Heaven's Son? The Heaven's Son was a supreme heavenly deity, he would never pay attention to those weaker than him. Right now in his eyes, there were only those few others who similarly also stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Surnamed Qin?” Compared to the title of the Qingcheng Realmlord, he actually paid more attention to the fact that Qin Wentian was surnamed Qin. Because, they shared the same surname.

“Under the sky, how many people are worthy enough of the surname Qin?” Qin Dingtian calmly laughed and shifted his eyes away, continuing on his way. To him, Qin Wentian was merely an insignificant and minor character. They were simply on different levels, Qin Wentian wasn’t able to cause his state of heart to fluctuate.

There were many people in the world surnamed Qin. Just speaking of the number of experts outside the sacred academy now, maybe there would be many people with the surnamed Qin. However, Qin Dingtian actually said that how many people would be worthy enough of the surname Qin under the sky? How arrogant was this. However, as the Heaven’s Son, as the youngest heavenly deity in these immortal realms, he truly did have the qualifications to be arrogant.

Only the Qin Clan in the Heaven’s Region was the highest peak of every human who had the surname of Qin.

In this world, as long as someone mentioned the surname Qin, the first thing everyone would think of, was the Qin Clan in the Heaven Region.

Goddess Nichang didn’t turn her head back. It was like in this world, there was no one worthy of her casting a single glance at them. No matter where she went to, it was like the rest of the world was only worthy enough to serve as the background, further enhancing her radiance.

Qin Dingtian and Goddess Nichang walked into the sacred academy together. At the entrance area, the students of the sacred academy respectively followed behind them. They wanted to see what was Qin Dingtian’s purpose exactly for paying a visit to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Outside the academy, countless people felt a sense of frustration and disappointment at the instant where the silhouettes of Qin Dingtian and Goddess Nichang vanished from their visions. But even so, they didn’t leave and chose to wait outside. They wanted nothing more than to become a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy so they could go in to spectate.

After Qin Dingtian and Goddess Nichang entered the academy, they continued into the depths of the academy. There was a formless aura guiding them, they could sense the invitation of the other heavenly deities inside the sacred academy. Qin Dingtian naturally understood this.

The various students of the academy followed behind them. However, when they entered the depths of the sacred academy, this place was a place forbidden for ordinary students to enter. This region was known as the Divine Dao Platform Region. Heavenly deities would occasionally give dao lectures here, only the students of heavenly deities were qualified to enter.

“Senior brother, seems like I won’t be able to see it.” Jun Mengchen spoke in a low voice at the boundary of the Divine Dao Platform. Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang had already entered.

“I’ll tell you about it after I return.” Qin Wentian replied. As a student of Goddess Dugu, he naturally has the qualifications to enter. Divine Sound could enter as well. The vast majority of students had to stay outside. Their hearts were filled with anticipation, wanting to know what would happen in there exactly.

On the Divine Dao Platform, three figures sat there side by side. Goddess Dugu was there as well, she sat in the left-most position.

What this indicated was extremely clear. Qin Wentian understood that these three were the heavenly deities of the sacred academy. They were here together at the Divine Dao Platform to welcome Qin Dangtian and this was already far above the usual standards. From this, it could be seen how highly they regarded Qin Dangtian.

The youngest heavenly deity in the world, a character that defeated the Skyorder Heavenly Deity the moment he broke through. His title was Heaven’s Son, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy naturally had to regard him highly.

“The two of you came from afar, please be seated.” On the Divine Dao Platform, there were two seats opposite the three heavenly deities. Before heavenly deities, world overlord wouldn’t have any qualifications to sit. However, in view that Goddess Nichang had a unique identity as well as she was here together with Qin Dangtian as guests, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy also prepared a seat for her.

Qin Dangtian stepped onto the Divine Dao Platform and sat down before the three heavenly deities. Goddess Nichang didn’t step up the platform, she stood outside it and was extremely quiet, choosing to silently observe everything.

Today, Qin Dangtian was here to ask about the dao.

Qin Wentian and the others also stood outside the platform, staring at the scene on it. Qin Dangtian was facing the three heavenly deities of the sacred academy alone but his aura was the same, it didn't weaken at all and was as extraordinary as ever.

"We've long heard of the fame of Heaven's Son. Now that we've met, you are even more outstanding than what the rumors described." The heavenly deity seated in the center spoke. This was an old man dressed in robes of starry designs. He exuded a transcendent aura.

"I'm just a junior here to seek guidance from various seniors. I've long admired the name of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and wish to come here today to ask about the dao. Can seniors guide me on this? What is the heavenly dao?" Qin Dangtian appeared humble but his tone contained a lone arrogance, directly asking the heavenly deities of the sacred academy what the heavenly dao was.

"The heavenly dao is the divine dao. One can become a heavenly deity once you comprehend it. The heavenly dao is unfathomably profound, one can only sense it in their hearts, how can there be a way to describe it clearly?" The heavenly deity sitting in the center seat spoke.

"The myriad of creatures in the world have to follow the principle of the formless laws. The heavenly dao is merely a form of energy that they can also gain access to. If not, how can seniors have your accomplishments today? How can I be qualified enough to sit here and discuss dao with you? Since once can come in contact with and gain access to the power of the heavenly dao, what is so unfathomable about it? I'm not convinced by senior's words." Qin Dangtian directly spoke, doubting the words of the old man.

"The comprehension of the heavenly dao depends on one's heart. Even for heavenly deities of our sacred academy, each of us have a different understanding of it. It isn't strange that Heaven's Son doesn't agree with my words." The old man calmly spoke.

"No, no. It isn't that we have a differing view on this. It's that senior's words are simply ridiculous because they are wrong." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke, his tone containing extreme arrogance. This caused the eyes of the sacred academy's students to gleam sharply. This Heaven's Son wasn't polite at all. All of them were at the same level, what qualifications did he have to speak so arrogantly?

"Since this is the case, what is your understanding of the heavenly dao?" Goddess Dugu asked. She was as magnificent as ever, although her beauty was inferior to Goddess Nichang, her demeanor didn't lose out in the slightest at all. She was a true goddess.

“The heavenly dao is just the dao of humans. The will of humans can triumph over the heavens. I am God, my dao, is the heavenly dao. Why would I need to comprehend ‘heavenly dao’?” Qin Dangtian slowly spoke. “All my life when I was pursuing the dao, I was pursuing the limits of myself. Now that I am a heavenly deity, can’t my dao represent the so-called heavenly dao? Isn’t it true that my person itself is above the heavenly dao?”

The three heavenly deities mumbled silently to themselves, they weren’t angered because of Qin Dangtian’s arrogance, they were pondering over his words instead. They are all heavenly deities and couldn’t help but to admit that from a certain perspective, Qin Dangtian’s words weren’t wrong. For heavenly deities, their daos could really represent the heavenly dao.

“That might be true, all of us have different insights. If you feel that I’m wrong, I’m wrong then. But for me myself, I still feel that my insights are correct.” The old man spoke. The comprehension of everyone naturally would be different. This was especially true when they reached such a high level in cultivation. There was no absolute right or absolute wrong.

“The heavenly dao academy is known as a holy ground where they transmit the dao. However, the conversation between us today make me not dare to agree blindly. I feel that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy doesn’t deserve its reputation.” Qin Dangtian directly spoke. The three heavenly deities couldn’t help but frown when they heard that. Qin Dangtian’s words clearly wanted to humiliate and insult the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

“You proclaim yourself as a junior but aren’t your words too arrogant? You seem to have no regards for anyone.” The middle-aged heavenly deity sitting on the right spoke. His tone was filled with unhappiness. Although heavenly deities generally have good self-restraint, it didn’t mean that they wouldn’t be angered.

“Although I respectfully address you three as seniors, when exchanging ideas about the dao, my comprehension and insights might not be inferior to the three of you. Since our understanding of the dao is different, I think we can only prove who is right through an exchange of pointers. Please provide me with some guidance.” Qin Dangtian spoke, staring at the three heavenly deities.

As expected, the Heaven’s Son issued a challenge to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Today, it seems like he truly came here with unkind intentions. His purpose wasn’t as simple as to ask about the dao.

Everyone knows about Qin Dangtian’s visit to the sacred academy and they were all paying attention to this. Outside the sacred academy, countless people were speculating. Right now, Qin Dangtian wanted to use the pretext of exchanging pointers about their daos to challenge the sacred academy. Would the sacred academy agree to the challenge?

The three heavenly deities of the sacred academy stared at Qin Dangtian. A moment later, Goddess Dugu spoke, "Since Heaven's Son is keen to discuss about daos, in that case, I'm willing to experience the daos mastered by Heaven's Son."

Goddess Dugu actually agreed to the challenge.

Outside the Divine Dao Platform, the eyes of Qin Wentian and the others gleamed with sharpness. Today, they would personally witness a battle between heavenly deities who wanted an exchange about their daos.

Qin Wentian really wanted to see how powerful this destined enemy of his was exactly!

Chapter 1823: Sacred Academy Insulted

Seeing that Goddess Dugu agreed to his challenge, Qin Dangtian was as calm as ever. He came here today to ask about the dao, naturally, he also needed to defeat the heavenly deities of the sacred academy. There was no suspense to this at all.

"Please." Qin Dangtian spoke. Goddess Dugu stood up. At this moment, the Divine Dao Platform radiated a bright radiance, illuminating the heavens and earth. Goddess Dugu's silhouette flashed, soaring up into the air. In an instant, she appeared in the sky, in that boundlessly vast starry space.

At this moment, the Divine Dao Palace was sealed off. The people outside could see what was happening, but they could not enter the region. They wouldn't be affected by the aftershocks as well.

The three heavenly deities of the sacred academy didn't obstruct these students of the academy from witnessing the battle even if there was a possibility that they might lose.

Being able to witness a battle at the heavenly deity level would naturally be extremely beneficial to the students. This was also a method of transmitting the dao. This was an event that would rarely happen even in ten thousand years. It would be best to allow these outstanding students to spectate, allowing them to gain more ideas what the heavenly deity realm is about.

Qin Dingtian stood up. With a flash of his silhouette, he also flew up into the air and stood there in arrogance. At this moment, his black hair fluttered in the wind, exuding a sense of unexcelled imperiousness.

At this very moment, millions of Goddess Dugu appeared in the boundless starry space. Each of the clones created were the same as her, extremely beautiful. Because millions of Goddess Dugu appeared, their beauty actually caused the stars to lose their color.

Each clone of Goddess Dugu transformed into dao diagrams which shot towards Qin Dingtian with the speed of shooting stars. Each diagram contained the full power of Goddess Dugu's cultivation base as they erupted at the same instant, wanting to devastate the entire starry space and break the dome of the heavens.

Qin Dingtian stood as stable as a mountain. At this moment, boundless treasure light appeared in his surroundings. Countless ancient characters floated around him, each of them containing endless might. The light they radiated could penetrate through space and in addition, each of these ancient characters was different. Qin Dingtian was now like a heavenly god, extremely imposing and holy as the light generated protected his body.

The ancient characters around him all lit up as a bright golden light erupted forth, engulfing everything. At this moment, space seemed to have stilled. The countless diagrams were fixed at their original locations, completely unable to move.

And at the same instant, the power which was unleashed through the other ancient characters directly enveloped Goddess Dugu and launched their attacks. In a short few moments, the countless dao diagrams manifested by Goddess Dugu have all disappeared. Only her real self still remained standing in the starry space.

“What power is that?” Goddess Dugu asked.

“I've said it before. My dao is the heavenly dao. The power of the heavenly dao is merely something that is there for humans to control. Since I can do so, am I not god? I represent the heavenly dao in this entire area and each of the ancient characters around me possessed the might of a different kind of heavenly dao. To defeat you, there's no need for me to unleash too much of my strength.” Qin Dingtian calmly spoke. “I've also heard of Goddess Dugu's ability before. You are proficient in cloning abilities but sadly, you have no way to counter me.”

The three heavenly deities of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy sighed silently with emotions. Each ancient character represented the power of a different type of heavenly dao? If that was the case, who at the heavenly deity level would be able to defeat this Heaven's Son? Although back then the Skyorder Heavenly Deity was crippled upon his defeat to Qin Dangtian, not many people knew about the finer details of that battle.

Only now did they truly find out how powerful the Heaven's Son is.

Goddess Dugu sighed in her heart, she stared at the ancient characters around Qin Dangtian as she spoke, "I'm inferior to you."

She was a heavenly deity yet she admitted that she was inferior to Qin Dangtian.

Qin Wentian and the other students of the sacred academy felt shock in their hearts. Goddess Dugu has actually lost? The disparity between their strengths was pretty clear. Maybe, this wasn't Qin Dangtian's full might. What was Heaven's Son? This was precisely Heaven's Son. He was born extraordinary. Even for heavenly deities, he was superior to the vast majority of them.

"Your temperament is extraordinary seeing that you can calmly admit defeat. It's just that why have you not admitted that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has the wrong concept about the heavenly daos?" Qin Dangtian calmly asked.

"Even if she was defeated, she would naturally still believe in the dao she has comprehended. What you think might be right, might not be right for others." The old man replied. Qin Dangtian's words were simply too arrogant. He wanted all of them to admit that their conception of heavenly dao was wrong.

"Haha, how stubborn. Since senior feels this way, why don't the two remaining heavenly deities provide some guidance to me?" Qin Dangtian issued a challenge to the two other heavenly deities, asking them to provide guidance to him together. Did this mean that he wanted to fight against the two of them simultaneously?

"The two of us naturally won't fight you together. However, if we fight against you alone, I'm afraid our endings would be the same as Dugu and would be defeated by you. Since that's the case, there's no need for any battle any longer." The old man seated in the center calmly spoke. The students of the sacred academy felt their hearts trembling even more. They didn't understand how powerful Qin Dingtian was. However, was he really so powerful that three heavenly deities of the sacred academy were willing to admit defeat?

Although they didn't want to admit this, they had no choice. This was reality.

Some people were born different from others. They could easily suppress opponents on the same level.

“You even have the courage to admit defeat, but why are you all so afraid to admit that you have the wrong conceptions of heavenly dao? Are you afraid because the ability of the sacred academy to transmit the dao would be doubted from now on?” Qin Dingtian turned things up a notch, his tone was extremely domineering. He and Goddess Dugu have already descended from the air and returned to their seats. The sealing of the Divine Dao Platform has also already been removed.

The three heavenly deities were actually forced to such an extent where they had no reply. Their strengths were inferior to Qin Dingtian. Naturally, their words also lacked the persuasive factor.

“The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has been transmitting the dao for countless years. How can their prestige be doubted because of a battle with you? How ridiculous is that.” At this moment, a voice rang out. Qin Dingtian turned his gaze over, staring at the area outside the Divine Dao Platform as his eyes landed on Qin Wentian.

“Is there anything else more persuasive than the results of my battle?” Qin Dingtian emotionlessly asked. He didn't place Qin Wentian's words in his heart at all.

“Just because you won a victory, you want others to say that their insights were wrong and agree with you. If you stand at a height above everyone, you want all of us to have the same thinking as you, our thoughts and opinions cannot be the slightest bit different? This isn't understanding the heavenly dao. This is being muddle-headed and tyrannical.”

Qin Dingtian upon seeing Qin Wentian continuing to speak, he directly asked, “Do you even know anything about the heavenly dao?”

Without waiting for Qin Wentian's reply, he continued, “Do I know the heavenly dao or do you know the heavenly dao? You are just an ant who has yet to even come in contact with the heavenly dao. What qualifications do you have to speak before me? Shut your mouth.”

These words absolutely could cause people to shut up. However, Qin Wentian's eyes were as resolute as ever. He stared at the deep eyes of Qin Dangtian as he calmly continued, "Just like what you said earlier, one's comprehension and insights about the dao might not be inferior to those who are more senior. When the various heavenly deities of the sacred academy started to transmit dao teachings, I'm afraid you weren't even born yet. However, you are actually this arrogant before them now. A thousand years later, I will make sure to tell you the same thing. At that time, we shall see if it is me who understands the heavenly dao, or if it is you."

"A thousand years?" A mocking light flashed through Qin Dangtian's eyes. During his path of cultivation, he has seen too many arrogant experts before. However, all of them were trampled by him eventually. This Qin Wentian would not be an exception either. He couldn't be bothered to bother with him. He turned his head, no longer casting another glance at Qin Wentian. He didn't know who this Qingcheng Realm Lord was, he has never heard of him before. As long as he is not a heavenly deity, Qin Dangtian couldn't be bothered to remember him.

"Is the headmaster not in the sacred academy?" Qin Dangtian suddenly asked.

The three heavenly deities glanced at each other. "Why are you asking this for?"

Could it be Qin Dangtian even wanted to challenge the headmaster?

Although his talent was strong, this was simply impossible. The current Qin Dangtian doesn't have this qualifications yet, leaving aside the future.

"Since seniors admit that you three are inferior to me. In that case, can I enter that place?" Qin Dangtian asked. A bright light gleamed in the eyes of all three heavenly deities as they stared at Qin Dangtian. Was this the true purpose of why he came here?

Qin Dangtian actually was extremely ambitions, wanting to enter that legendary location.

"You are the Heaven's Son and have already reached the heavenly deity realm. You are also not a student of the sacred academy, there's naturally no way for you to enter." The old man spoke.

"I've been pursuing the limits of dao my entire life. Now that I'm a heavenly deity, my insights are even deeper now, wouldn't it be more beneficial to me if I was to enter at my current level? Also, I came to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to ask about the dao, in a sense, I'm also seeking the dao. There shouldn't be a problem for me to become a student of the sacred academy as long as the academy permits, right?" Qin Dangtian calmly stared at them. "Since the three seniors all admit that you are inferior to me. May I ask is there anyone else that's more qualified than me to enter that legendary place?"

"You are twisting words." The old man spoke.

"Seems like the sacred academy is truly unworthy of their reputation. I will stay for three months at the Daoask Lodge and wait for all of you to seek the sacred academy's headmaster's opinion. If he permits it, I shall come here again. If he doesn't, everyone under the heavens would know that the slogan of the sacred academy is simply bullshit. Guiding everyone under the heavens irrespective of their backgrounds? Why would people wish to learn the wrong concepts?"

After speaking, Qin Dangtian stood up again. "Farewell."

After he spoke, he directly turned and left the Divine Dao Platform.

Goddess Nichang quietly watched everything and didn't mention a single word from the start until the end. Upon seeing Qin Dangtian leaving, she naturally left with him as well. The three heavenly deities stared at Qin Dangtian's back, and all of them didn't know what to say.

Today, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was humiliated because of one person.

As the saying goes, there would be supreme geniuses in every successive generation. The juniors are to be feared indeed.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, who could obstruct the rise of Heaven's Son? The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would truly be in trouble soon.

Qin Wentian stared at the departing back of Qin Dangtian. When Qin Dangtian left, he didn't even cast a glance at Qin Wentian. It was like in Qin Dangtian's eyes, Qin Wentian was merely an extremely insignificant character.

He was the Heaven's Son, the future lord of the Qin Clan. How could a world overlord be in his eyes? Qin Dangtian right now basically couldn't imagine that this particular world overlord would determine his fate in the future, becoming his greatest enemy destined by fate.

After Qin Dangtian exited the sacred academy, there were still countless people paying attention to him. The time taken for the dao discussion was too short. In truth, even if Qin Dangtian would stay for a long time at the sacred academy, they would all still be willing to wait. Only Qin Dangtian alone was worthy enough for them to wait for him like this. Also, many people were filled with the anticipation of seeing the beautiful Goddess Nichang again.

“Qin Dangtian actually came out so quickly? What happened inside the sacred academy?”
Countless people mused silently. However, Qin Dangtian simply left without stopping at all. Goddess Nichang also followed after him.

Qin Dangtian didn't really move far away. He stopped when he arrived at the Daoask Lodge that was not too far away from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Clearly, he was preparing to stay there. The lodge owner personally appeared to welcome him and brought him to the top level, preparing it for his lodgings.

Just when countless people were wondering what happened exactly in the sacred academy, the news finally spread out from the academy itself. The Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian, came to the academy to ask about the dao. He challenged the heavenly deities of the sacred academy and the three heavenly deities there all admitted that they were inferior to him.

When this news circulated out, Daoask City was shaken by an earthquake-level commotion. This news soon spread to the various locations of the Mystic Region, and soon after, to the other regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Heaven's Son's name, Qin Dangtian, once again spread through the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In fact, there were even voices saying that when Heaven's Son appeared, all heavenly deities would tremble. If godkings don't show up, who could contend for supremacy against the Heaven's Son?”

Qin Dangtian's name was like the sun in the sky. No one could stand against him.

The news of Qin Dangtian's victory in the sacred academy created a huge commotion through the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

After that, more insider news appeared. Qin Dangtian was going to stay in the Daoask Lodge because he was waiting for news from the sacred academy. His true purpose in going to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was because he wanted to enter that legendary place inside there.

Only that place contained attraction for a character like him, Heaven's Son. Given that the three heavenly deities of the sacred academy were inferior to him, would Qin Dangtian even need to enter there and ask them about the dao? Who would be able to teach him? Only he could teach the others.

However, for that legendary place, since ancient times to now, who had the qualifications to enter? Will the headmaster of the sacred academy allow Qin Dangtian to enter there?

If speaking of talent, Qin Dangtian had faintly reached that level. If he wasn't qualified, how many people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would have the qualifications to enter the legendary place?

There were also countless people who were bewildered. Is the rumor of that legendary place true? The sacred academy has the entrance to it? What sort of things would there be in the legendary place? How was it worthy enough for the Heaven's Son himself to come here and defeat the heavenly deities of the sacred academy, displaying his talent before he asked for the qualifications to enter?

The amount of people who really knew about the finer details of the legendary place was extremely minor in number.

After Qin Dangtian left, the three heavenly deities sank into deep thoughts. Goddess Dugu then turned and spoke to the people outside the Divine Dao Platform, "You guys can leave first."

"Yes." Qin Wentian and the others nodded. They bowed and departed from the area, yet their hearts weren't calm at all. Not only for Qin Wentian, each of them who had witnessed that battle felt great waves of emotions rocking their hearts.

They came to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to seek the dao because this was a holy ground for cultivation. This was a place everyone placed in high regards, a symbol of faith for many. However, Qin Dangtian instantly collapsed that faith through a battle. The three heavenly deities before the Heaven's Son, admitted that they were inferior. What was the heavenly dao? Qin Dangtian said that his dao, was the heavenly dao. His will, was also the heavenly dao. How tyrannical was this answer?

Could the heavenly deities of the sacred academy really be wrong?

Qin Wentian wasn't troubled about this matter. If Qin Dangtian wasn't strong, how would he have the title of Heaven's Son? If Qin Dangtian wasn't powerful, how could he have crippled his uncle? How could he be worthy enough to be the son of Qin Zheng, his father's greatest enemy? It was only logical that Qin Dangtian, the grandson of Qin Ding, was able to defeat heavenly deities.

He wasn't troubled but he could still feel the pressure from Qin Dangtian. Qin Dangtian was surrounded by so many ancient characters of power, each representing a different kind of heavenly dao. What overwhelming might was this?

After the students left, the old man in the center sighed, "I didn't expect the already powerful Qin Clan would have such a supreme expert at the third generation. Their glory is probably going to continue."

The power of the Qin Clan has already continued through three generations. From the first generation, Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding. The two of them displayed supreme talent, Qin Tiangang was undefeated despite fighting against so many heavenly deities but sadly, he died in a secret realm in the end. However, Qin Ding was still alive. For the second generation, Qin Zheng and Qin Yuanfeng became the successors of their father's glory. Sadly, the Qin Clan destroyed Qin Yuanfeng, taking everything away from him. These two generations, the father-and-son duo Qin Tiangang and Qin Yuanfeng, both had unfortunate fates, causing many to sigh with pity.

And now, at the third generation, the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, has appeared. His talent when compared to his father Qin Zheng, was in no way inferior and seemed even stronger.

"I'm sorry." Goddess Dugu softly spoke. She was defeated by Qin Dangtian.

"How can we blame you? I've already said that even for the two of us, neither of us are a match for Qin Dangtian if we fought him alone. The ending would be the same. Our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is now in a crisis because of his arrival." The old man sighed. The two other fell silent. Although it was just a single battle, they all understood the underlying meaning behind the defeat. This meant that the faith of many in their sacred academy would crumble. Three heavenly deities of the sacred academy admitted that they are inferior to Qin Dangtian, what would the people of the world think? For the countless people who wished to go to the sacred academy to seek the dao, what would they think?

Also, the influence of this battle wasn't just limited to these. The Heaven's Son was extremely domineering, even saying that he wants to enter that legendary place. Given how tyrannical he was, if the headmaster refused entry to him, another storm would surely erupt. However, given how arrogant Qin Dangtian's character was, how would the headmaster be willing to allow him entry? Qin Dangtian's character was too extreme, just like what Qin Wentian had said, everyone can only be allowed to have the same opinions as him. No one could go against his thoughts.

"Our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has existed prosperously for countless years and the headmaster has once said that we would face a calamity in the future. I wonder if this incident is the trigger point for the calamity the headmaster was speaking about." The middle-aged heavenly deity spoke. "Should we inform the headmaster about this matter?"

"Now that the commotion caused is so great, how can this be hidden from the headmaster?" Upon speaking of the headmaster, the old man in the center revealed a smile on his face. The other two heavenly deities also smiled and nodded. That's right, how could this matter be hidden from the eyes of the headmaster? He would have already known about it even without needing them to tell him.

Qin Wentian returned to his courtyard and summarized the battle for Jun Mengchen and the others. Everyone was shocked after they heard that, Jun Mengchen spoke, "I didn't expect the Heaven's Son to be so powerful. Even the heavenly deities of the sacred academy are inferior to him."

"It's fine. When Wentian becomes a heavenly deity in the future, wouldn't there then be a heavenly deity of the sacred academy capable of winning against him?" Little Rascal spoke in his adolescent voice. Qin Wentian rolled his eyes. Jun Mengchen laughed, "That's right. Senior brother said it before that you would surely defeat that person. It's just that I didn't expect Qin Dangtian to be so arrogant. His behavior is truly causing me to feel extremely unsatisfied. Is the beautiful maiden following behind him blind?"

"Why? Do you like her?" Qin Wentian laughed.

"Nope, it's just that she is truly too beautiful." Jun Mengchen replied. Qin Wentian nodded, he couldn't help but agree.

"That is the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang." Qin Wentian stated.

"Number one beauty of the Heaven Region? No wonder." Jun Mengchen mumbled.

“I have to properly cultivate as well. Maybe in the future, I would also be able to surpass the Heaven’s Son.” Jun Mengcheng laughed. “Senior brother, I’ll go off first.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. Little Rascal also followed Purgatory as they left this place.

When everyone left, only Qingcheng, Qing`er, Ye Qianyu and Qin Wentian remained behind in the courtyard.

Seeing that Qin Wentian had a look of contemplation on his face, Qing`er quietly walked to the side of him. Her beautiful eyes stared at him as she softly spoke, “Were you acquainted with him before this?”

Qin Wentian started. He glanced at Qing`er with bewilderment only to see Qing`er looking straight at him. She stretched out her hand and gently interlocked fingers with him as she softly continued, “I’m your wife. No matter what you have to experience, I shall bear the pressure together with you.”

Qin Wentian stared at Qing`er as he sighed in his heart.

Right now with the appearance of Heaven’s Son, it should be time to inform them about some matters. As his women, they do have the qualifications to know the entire truth.

In the past, he didn’t tell them but it wasn’t because he was worried that they might expose it. If he couldn’t even trust them in this, how is it possible that they are together? His trust in them even surpassed the trust he had in himself. He knew that these women who were deeply in love with him, could give up everything for him, including their lives.

It was just that he didn’t want to subject them to the pressure too. However, the appearance of the Heaven’s Son has truly cause him to feel unrest in his heart. How could the meticulous Qing`er, Qingcheng and Ye Qianyu not be able to sense it?

Qin Wentian sealed this entire space off. He gently stroked Qing`er’s white hair and spoke softly, “You are very intelligent.”

“Qing`er, Qingcheng, Qianyu. I’ve never told you girls about the whole truth behind my origins. In reality, I already knew about it since a long time ago. It’s really about time now to tell this to you all.” Qin Wentian slowly spoke. “Before this during the convention of the myriad realms, Lei`er discovered Qingcheng due to her trying to search for a treasure. At that time, I believe Qing`er and Qingcheng should have already guessed that my mother has a connection to the Luoshen Clan. The truth is indeed as such. Luoshen Lei is my younger cousin, the daughter of my blood uncle. My mother is from the Luoshen Clan, and as for that Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian earlier, he came from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. He can be considered my older paternal cousin. My father originated from the Qin Clan in the Heaven Region however, the Qin Clan as well as the father of Qin Dangtian, used despicable methods to plunder everything which belonged to my father.”

The three maidens stared at him, feeling shock in their hearts. Although they guessed a little, they still felt extremely shocked when Qin Wentian revealed the truth. His background was actually so extraordinary.

Qin Wentian’s father came from the Qin Clan in the Heaven Region. As for his mother, she came from the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region. Both these clans were hegemonic powers that existed at the absolute peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Qin Dangtian, the first battle he fought after breaking through to the Heavenly Deity Realm was against my uncle, the Skyorder Heavenly Deity which is also Luoshen Lei’s father. My uncle went there to seek justice for my parents but ended up being crippled instead. My uncle said that me and Qin Dangtian were born to be fated enemies.” Qin Wentian smiled and spoke. His wives finally knew the reason why Qin Wentian wasn’t able to calm his emotions.

“He is someone I need to defeat.” Qin Wentian continued.

“I believe in you.” Mo Qingcheng gently smiled. “During these years, all these supposed enemies, didn’t you surpass all of them ultimately? Qin Dangtian is merely one of those.”

Qin Wentian started before he laughed, “Qingcheng, your words sound logical!”

Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian was going to be merely one of those he would surpass!

Chapter 1825: Storm in the Sacred Academy

Qin Dingtian would be staying at Daoask Lodge for three months to wait for the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy's decision. The moment this news was spread, everyone knew that Qin Dingtian wanted to enter the legendary place. But, would the sacred academy agree? The vast majority of peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were paying attention to this.

Today, a group of experts walked out from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Divine Sound World Overlord was the leader of this group as they went to the Daoask Lodge to pay a visit to Heaven's Son, Qin Dingtian.

Qin Dingtian didn't appear to welcome them. He stood at the top level and asked, "Has the sacred academy come to a decision?"

"Mhm." Divine Sound nodded. "Teacher asked me here to pass the message to you. Although Heaven's Son has outstanding talent, you are not suitable to enter the legendary place of the sacred academy."

The atmosphere turned silent for a moment. Right now, the surroundings of the Daoask Lodge were filled to the brim with experts. It was like they had already expected this ending. Qin Dingtian was so domineering and had insulted the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Although he has proven his immense strength and talent, it was clearly impossible for the sacred academy to lower their heads and invite him into that legendary place.

"Is this a rejection?" Qin Dingtian's voice rang out once more. "Has the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy thought clearly about the consequences?"

"This is just a message my teacher asked me to transmit." Divine Sound's expression didn't change as he calmly stated. Facing against the Heaven's Son who had defeated three heavenly deities from the sacred academy, as well as bringing a message of rejection, one naturally required some amount of courage at the very least. Qin Dingtian was in this group as well. Right now, he stood at the side of Divine Sound as Divine Sound passed the message on.

"The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is truly undeserving of their reputation." Qin Dingtian calmly continued. "The three heavenly deities were defeated when they discussed the dao with me yet they don't even dare to admit that they have no idea what the heavenly dao is. Not only so, they still want to speak about teaching the world about the dao? They are simply fooling the world and usurping a good name. Right now, experts of the sacred academy are as many as the clouds and their students proliferate the world. Although they say they wouldn't participate in worldly battles, in truth, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was accumulating their strength and building up their foundation. What is the difference between them and the other major powers?"

Divine Sound and the other world overlords all had unhappy looks on their faces. Qin Dangtian was publicly vilifying and humiliating the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and he was doing so at a location not far away from the sacred academy. This Daoask Lodge could be considered the sacred academy's territory yet he still spoke such a thing, daring to insult the academy by saying that the academy was fooling the world.

"Heaven's Son why must you use your thoughts to appraise others? Before teacher sent us here, she said that the Heaven's Son was too overly arrogant and had no regards for anything in his eyes except himself. He didn't permit others to disagree with his opinion, even for those who had comprehensions different from his regarding the heavenly dao. However, Heaven's Son's talent is truly supreme, but if the sacred academy was to permit you to enter the legendary place, that would be nothing but a calamity." Divine Sound also was no longer polite. If Qin Dangtian hadn't said anything, he naturally also wouldn't mention about these words.

A gaze seemingly penetrated through space, staring at the Divine Sound World Overlord as a fearsome pressure bore down on him. However, at the same time, a beam of light shot out from afar. In the direction of the sacred academy, a voice drifted over, "These words are what I told him to pass on. Given your status, you wouldn't make things difficult for them, right?"

"Haha!" Qin Dangtian laughed loudly. His voice booming like thunder, causing the earth to tremble, filled with a supreme arrogance.

He then continued, "The sacred academy that fooled the world actually still wants to propagate their teachings through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? This is simply preposterous, a true insult to the world. The academy shouldn't be allowed to exist any longer. Why doesn't it just disband?"

As the sound of this voice rang out, silence fell. What an arrogant Heaven's Son, he actually said that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy shouldn't exist and should disband.

Could it be the Heaven's Son was declaring war against the sacred academy?

He seemed to have such qualifications. Other than his own supreme strength and talent, the powerful Qin Clan of the Heaven Region was behind him.

Qin Dangtian's voice was like thunder from a clear sky, roaring throughout Daoask City. He was a heavenly deity. Heavenly deities don't make idle threats.

“Farewell. I shall pay a visit to the sacred academy in the future.” Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. After that at the heavenly lodge, a terrifying storm suddenly manifested, causing black clouds to fill the area as a heavy pressure bore down on everyone.

Divine Sound World overlord stood there and was speechless for a long time. After that he spoke, “Let us return.”

His expression was very heavy, it should be because of the words Qin Dangtian spoke earlier.

As their group left the Daoask Lodge, Divine Sound still kept his silence. Qin Wentian asked, “Senior brother, you seem to be very worried.”

“This matter will surely create an immense storm that has huge negative influence on our sacred academy. Also, although Qin Dangtian is extremely arrogant, he is still a heavenly deity. Heavenly deities wouldn’t say something randomly. Each of his words had a hidden meaning behind them.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed sharply. Qin Dangtian said that the sacred academy shouldn’t continue to exist and should disband. Could it be that the Qin Clan wanted to move against the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

Could it be that just for the sake of entering the legendary place in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, Qin Dangtian was willing to spare no expense and start a deity-level battle?

If that was the case, a shocking storm would definitely manifest.

“I seem to have heard the heavenly deities of our sacred academy mention before that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would face a calamity sooner or later. I wonder if this incident refers to that? During these days, teacher has been staying in the sacred academy and she seemed to be very worried.” Divine Sound sighed. Even heavenly deities were worried. From this, one could see that this matter was surely an extremely serious one of great import.

Qin Dangtian’s words swiftly spread throughout Daoask City, causing a commotion there. In the sacred academy, the hearts of everyone were also wavering, as they pondered over the implications of this matter. What would the future developments be?

Many peak powers are paying attention to this matter.

For the next period of time, news of this incident was circulated throughout the Mystic Region. The various peak powers including the hegemonic ones, long knew about it.

At this moment, one of the heavenly deities in the Ziwei Divine Court issued a statement. He said that he agreed with Qin Dangtian's words. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy didn't deserve its reputation and was fooling the world.

The moment this statement was issued, more commotions arose. The entire Mystic Region was shaking.

Was this the attitude of the Ziwei Divine Court? They are agreeing with the Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian?

As one of the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region, what did their attitude mean?

Seems like the Ziwei Divine Court doesn't wish to have a power like the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy existing in the Mystic Region. Could it be that those peak existences no longer wish to see the existence of the sacred academy?

For countless years, the influence of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy in the Mystic Region was extremely great. Although they couldn't be considered a usual hegemonic power, but if war really broke out, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would be able to erupt with terrifying strength. After all, they had students all over the world. In fact, their strength might even exceed some hegemonic powers.

The existence of such a power would undoubtedly be like a silent pressure pressing down on the hearts of existences like the Ziwei Divine Court. Back then during the convention of the myriad realms, if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy didn't exist, Qin Wentian's ending would definitely have been different. He would surely have joined the Ziwei Divine Court, how could he have chosen to keep a low profile and didn't act in any of the competitions until he was provoked? This led to him killing the Dragon Pool Manor Lord and this incident caused the Ziwei Divine Court to lose plenty of face.

This was the silent influence of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. The Ziwei Divine Court already had to share the pie with two others. They naturally didn't want the sacred academy around. Their influence was so great that even hegemonic powers feared them.

And during this tumultuous period, another heavenly deity from the Heavenly Deity Mountain also spoke, “The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is too rigid. Didn’t they say that they accept everyone regardless of their backgrounds? Since the Heaven’s Son has already proven his talent, why did they forbid him from entering the legendary place to cultivate? Ultimately, the heavenly deities only wanted to preserve the legendary place for themselves to strengthen their power. How many students cultivating in the sacred academy knew of the legendary place? And how many have entered before, if there are any?”

Such words were very fatal to the morale of people. Not only did the words heavily influence the ordinary crowd outside, even students inside the sacred academy were affected.

Many people who came here to seek the dao were geniuses from the various locations. Many of them had supreme talent, the successor of the Swordsaint Mountain, the successor of the Divine Ox Clan. Who among them are weak? Their talents were all supremely high as well yet why was it that none of them has entered the legendary place before?

In the past, they didn’t think about this. But now because of a single sentence from the Heavenly Deity Mountain, many people were pondering. They were thinking if it was only those who are willing to stay behind in the sacred academy and truly become a part of it before they are granted entry?

Right now, this matter already wasn’t so simple as Qin Dangtian insulting the sacred academy. Two out of the three hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region has also stepped out to issue their views. The attitudes of the Ziwei Divine Court and Heavenly Deity Mountain instantly caused the situation to become even more chaotic.

The majestic floating sacred academy constructed in Daoask City, that was a place to transmit the dao to people, was in a huge crisis. The incoming storm that was brewing now, occurred because of this holy location.

At this moment, inside the sacred academy, the hearts of many people were wavering. Qin Wentian learned some news from Divine Sound. During these days, he didn’t cultivate and could clearly sense the change in the sacred academy’s atmosphere. Many people were extremely restless, completely different from the past. Evidently, the attitudes of the Ziwei Divine Court and Heavenly Deity Mountain has influenced them.

“Senior Divine Sound, have you consulted teacher? What is happening exactly. This storm suddenly engulfed the sacred academy, there should be some other reason for it, right? How can it really be because of a single Qin Dangtian?" Qin Wentian felt some doubts. Was Qin Dangtian truly the source of this storm?

"This might have something to do with those rumors." Divine Sound replied. "Ancient Azure Mystic has reappeared. Right now, there are rumors saying that the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would undergo a huge transformation in the near future. I'm not sure if this matter implicates the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy."

"Ancient Azure Mystic." Qin Wentian spoke lightly. "The world-ending battle back then has already completely devastated Ancient Azure Mystic. Why would the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms undergo a huge transformation because of the reappearance of Ancient Azure Mystic. Is it because the hegemonic powers feared that existence?"

That existence he was referring to naturally was the one recorded in the ancient records of the Heavenly Dao Library – Grim Reaper.

"Who knows? The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is somehow engulfed in the storm, and the Heaven's Son domineering actions towards us might really be because he wishes to use this chance to ascend even higher and become a godking. His ambitions are truly very great." Divine Sound spoke. Qin Wentian nodded his head. As the Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian's attitude was truly immensely arrogant. His ambition would naturally be high as well. After all, his name was Qin Dangtian, he wanted to cause the entire world to tremble at his might!

Chapter 1826: Geniuses of the World Gather

Qin Dangtian's ambitions were extremely great, but was it not so also with regards to Qin Wentian? If Qin Dangtian wanted to verify his dao at the highest level at the legendary place and become a godking, Qin Wentian's aim was to defeat Qin Dangtian. Did this mean that his ambition exceeded Qin Dangtian's in scope?

"Senior Divine Sound, what sort of place is the legendary place of the sacred academy exactly? Why does Qin Dangtian want to enter there so badly?" Qin Wentian curiously asked.

"Since that is supposed to be a legendary place, how would I know? Although I've spent countless years cultivating in the sacred academy, in truth, I have never entered there before. That place is the greatest secret of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Most probably, only teacher and the other heavenly deities would know of the truth." Divine Sound replied. Qin Wentian silently mused at how mysterious this legendary place was, even his senior brother Divine Sound was completely ignorant about it. Most probably, the vast majority of the people in the sacred academy were the same as well.

After chatting for a few moments more, Qin Wentian bid farewell and left. For the next period of time, the students of the sacred academy could all sense the change in the atmosphere. The air seemed tense and many people were waiting for further developments of this matter. Clearly, this matter wasn't concluded yet.

Qin Dangtian said that the sacred academy should disband, the Ziwei Divine Court and Heavenly Deity Mountain also agreed with him. With so many powerful forces arrayed on one side, how could things be at an end?

As expected, not long after, the other hegemonic powers from other regions also issued statements saying that if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy wanted to prove themselves, the heavenly deities of the academy cannot hoard the legendary place for themselves. They should open the place up and allow characters from the various peak powers to enter there in cultivation.

Many hegemonic powers all agreed with this and their voices formed a formless storm that caused immense pressure to bore down on the sacred academy.

It was like if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy still refused to compromise, the various hegemonic powers would force them to disband, not allowing them to continue existing.

From the time of its establishment up until now, the sacred academy has never encountered such a huge storm before. Everyone knew that this holy ground in Daoask City would soon face an unprecedented crisis.

Right now, it seems that the sacred academy had to make a compromise no matter what.

Everyone in the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was paying attention to this. How would this storm develop? What would be the ending of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

And just when this storm was brewing, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy issued a statement of invitation, inviting the peak supreme geniuses of the various peak powers of the eight regions to gather at the sacred academy.

When news of this circulated, it caused a huge commotion. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has chosen to compromise?

Were they going to allow the supreme geniuses of the peak powers to enter the legendary place? If not, once the geniuses of the peak powers gathered here, how could they give up so easily? They would definitely force the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to open up the legendary place. If the sacred academy still refused then, wouldn't that be equivalent to them inviting wolves to their residences? They would be courting death.

In the internal situation of the sacred academy, there was a huge storm as well. Clearly, the students didn't expect that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would issue such a statement. They invited the supreme geniuses of the world to gather in the sacred academy? What was this force?

If that was the case, would the students themselves also have a chance to enter the legendary place?

When this news circulated out, Qin Wentian received a transmission from Luoshen Lei. She was asking Qin Wentian if he knew what the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was planning. Qin Wentian naturally had no idea.

Luoshen Lei told Qin Wentian that she would soon be making a trip with some experts from the Luoshen Clan to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Qin Wentian felt some joy after he heard that. He would soon be able to meet with Luoshen Lei again.

However, he was also extremely worried. The various supreme experts from the peak powers would gather in the sacred academy. What sort of storm was this? Even the Luoshen Clan was coming, the other hegemonic powers would also be sure to send their top geniuses to the sacred academy in the Mystic Region.

Undoubtedly, this was going to be an immensely gigantic storm.

Other than Luoshen Lei, who else in the Luoshen Clan would be coming? He would probably be able to meet with many of his mother's kin, right?

Naturally, there was also the Qin Clan. This matter started because of Qin Dangtian, he would naturally show up. Also, there should be many other peak characters from the Qin Clan coming here. Who would he be able to see? And for those people, what relationship would they have with his father?

This time around, it was true that the entire world was shook by this commotion. The hegemonic powers from the various regions were sending people to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

The Daoask Lodge was in a frenzy, countless people were filled with anticipation. Although the sacred academy was a holy ground for cultivation, there has never been something as grand as this incident before. The various experts from the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were going to gather at the sacred academy! How great the scope of commotion caused would be?

This time, how many peak supreme characters would they be able to see?

Countless people felt intense anticipation in their hearts.

Since the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was a power in the Mystic Region, the first peak powers to arrive at Daoask City was naturally none other than the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region. The Ziwei Divine Court arrived here the fastest and directly chose to stay in the Daoask Lodge. The Daoask Lodge was the best inn in the city, they would undoubtedly choose to stay there. The heavenly lodge at the top level was naturally given to the Ziwei Divine Court for their lodgings.

However, the Daoask Lodge also felt somewhat awkward. Because, later on, there would be various peak powers arriving, including some other hegemonic powers. However, they only had limited slots for the top levels. If they let the other hegemonic powers stay in the lower levels, what would they think?

This matter caused the management of the Daoask Lodge to have a splitting headache.

Among the experts who came here from the Ziwei Divine Court, the person in the lead was none other than a junior apprentice brother of a heavenly deity. This man was none other than that major character of the Ziwei Divine Court whom Qin Wentian met before in the convention. He was the martial uncle of Yue Changkong.

In the heavenly lodge, there were two figures staring in the direction of the academy. Other than Yue Changkong's martial uncle, the other figure, was none other than Yue Changkong.

At this moment, there was an extremely cold expression on Yue Changkong's face as he stared in the direction of the sacred academy. It's said that 'he,' right now, was cultivating in the sacred academy. That person who has stolen his glory and his everything. That person was the greatest mark of his shame, and although he could still stand here today, he had endured hellish pain and undergone many tests with only 10% chance of survival. If it wasn't for the fact that he passed all those tests, he would have already died.

After that day, the Ziwei Divine Court naturally knew that he was a fake. The heavenly deity was in a towering rage but because Yue Changkong's talent was truly excellent, the heavenly deity decided to give him a chance. The hellish pain and agony he had to suffer to pass all those tests was something he would never forget. All of this was brought to him by Qin Wentian. Right now, his strength was even stronger compared to the past. In fact, when he fought against that expert from the Ziwei Divine Court who was also a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, he wasn't in anyway inferior.

And now that he came to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he would soon meet Qin Wentian again.

"Changkong, it isn't easy for you to have survived." His martial uncle spoke. Yue Changkong fell silent and didn't reply. Right now, his entire personality has changed. He no longer had that hypocritical smile and became more silent and sinister. He was much more terrifying now.

"You should understand what you did, was essentially a death sentence. However, my senior brother still gave you a chance. Now that we came to the sacred academy, you might soon meet with the person you hate the most. I hope that for this journey to the sacred academy, you won't cause my senior brother disappointment." His martial uncle calmly spoke. Yue Changkong fooled everyone, including the Ziwei Divine Court as well as a heavenly deity. This was naturally a death sentence. Clearly, it was definitely not easy for him to be still alive.

"I understand." Yue Changkong calmly replied. There was no fluctuations to his expression.

He naturally understood that he had to prove to everyone to see. So what even if he wasn't the successor of the godking? Those who looked down on him would definitely regret it. Also, the Donghuang Clan actually dared to break the marriage agreement? He would definitely seek them out for this debt sooner or later.

After them, the people from the Great Devil Divine Palace arrived. However, they didn't stay in the Daoask Lodge. They knew that the top level of the Daoask Lodge was already occupied by the Ziwei Divine Court, how would they be willing to stay underneath the Ziwei Divine Court? Even if they fought for this, there would be no meaning. Hence, they'd rather choose not to stay in the Daoask Lodge.

After that, the Heavenly Deity Mountain arrived. The three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region came here first and other than them, many of the other major powers of the Mystic Region came as well. But these people understood that although they were from major powers, they most probably could only be spectators. Only the supreme geniuses from the hegemonic powers would have a chance.

And after that, the hegemonic powers of the Yellow Region arrived. Winged Deity Race, Wang Clan, and the other deity-ranked powers arrived.

Next, the major powers of the Heaven Region and Earth Region came. Countless supreme characters all gathered at Daoask City. For a period of time, the seemingly calm Daoask City was now the point of a brewing storm.

When has Daoask City ever been so lively before? The various peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gathered here.

The hegemonic powers from the Desolate Region also arrived. The Luoshen Clan, Divine Ox Clan and Demon God Mountain... Since the Luoshen Clan has arrived, it meant that Luoshen Lei came as well. Qin Wentian was the first to receive the news because after the Luoshen Clan arrived in Daoask City, she immediately sent a voice transmission over to Qin Wentian.

From the transmission sent by Luoshen Lei, Qin Wentian knew that not only was Luoshen Lei here, there were several world overlords with excellent talent from the Luoshen Clan who also came here. Their purpose was one and the same – the legendary place in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Naturally, Qin Wentian didn't go to meet with Luoshen Lei. The Qin Clan would arrive any time now and how could he show on the surface that he was very close with Luoshen Lei? That would definitely arouse some suspicions if the people of the Qin Clan were to see this.

And after sometime, the Qin Clan from the Heaven Region finally also arrived. Qin Dingtian wasn't among them. Those who came were all supremely talented world overlords. Although the Heaven's Son was the symbol of the Qin Clan, other than him, the various factions of the Qin Clan also gave birth to many characters of shocking talent. It was just that their radiance was overshadowed by Qin Dingtian.

In the western direction of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, from the Universe Region, a group of monks came by. Each of them had a transcendent aura and was from the land of western paradise. All of them were buddhist cultivators.

There was only a single hegemonic power in the Universe Region and even they have sent their people here.

The winds and clouds churned wildly in Daoask City. However, the vast majority of those who came here were all world overlords, not even a single heavenly deity has appeared. Naturally, everyone understood that since this commotion occurred because of heavenly deities, they were definitely in the shadows watching everything!

Within the academy, Qin Wentian received news everyday about the various powers who arrived. The entire sacred academy was under incomparable pressure. The sacred academy actually invited the true supreme geniuses from all over the world to gather here? Why did they do so exactly? This was definitely not something good for the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy!

Chapter 1827: Entering the Sacred Academy

Today, the three heavenly deities of the sacred academy gathered their students together. Qin Wentian was a student of Goddess Dugu. He was naturally present as well.

Before the Divine Dao Platform, the most elite world overlord students of the academy were all gathered here today.

Right now, experts of the entire world have gathered. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was going to be facing a storm of unprecedented magnitude. Most probably, the sacred academy's heavenly deities gathered them because they have some instructions.

“Many of you have cultivated for a very long time in the sacred academy. There are even some who have cultivated for so long that you yourself can't even remember how long it was. For those who have cultivated the least, they have spent at least several tens of years spent here. Right now, the sacred academy will be facing a crisis, we summoned you all here because we have some instructions.” At this moment, the oldest of the three heavenly deities spoke. His title was the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity.

The students listened quietly. Lifegovern Heavenly Deity continued, “You all should know that Qin Dangtian came to the sacred academy not long ago and challenged the three of us. He is very powerful and his purpose in coming here was for the legendary place in our academy. However, this legendary place isn’t what everyone in the world believes it to be, its entrance was barred to all, no one can enter casually. Also, when the entrance to that legendary place is opened to people of the world, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms will welcome immense transformations.”

The hearts of many people shuddered. The opening of the legendary place would actually cause huge changes in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? What sort of place was that exactly?

“Qin Dangtian, Heaven’s Son. Ziwei Divine Court, Heavenly Deity Mountain. All of them are pressuring our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. In fact, the other hegemonic powers from the other regions are also supporting them. Their intentions are obvious. Although our academy has many students, including some who originated from the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, our sacred academy has never really cared about their hidden identities at all. But I understand it is almost impossible to conceal this from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.”

The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity stared at everyone, “Hence, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would rather gather the supreme geniuses from all great regions. What will come, will come. We might as well take the initiative to face it. Since they wish to compete, our sacred academy might as well expand the scope and allow all the supreme geniuses to compete. In this case, those with unfathomable motives would probably find it harder to achieve their objectives. But of course, we really hoped that the ones who would have some accomplishments in the legendary place, would be none other than you all, our students.”

The hearts of everyone trembled. The Lifegovern Heaven Deity has broken their conceptions about the legendary place and was going to allow everyone to enter. The students were to compete with the various supreme geniuses of the different regions, the sacred academy was placing its hope on them.

“Earlier, I’ve already said that this event that has happened to the sacred academy, wouldn’t be able to be concealed from people of the world. Even if you guys entered, the experts from the various regions would still come by. Qin Dangtian and the others would never give up. This is one of the reasons.” Lifegovern Heavenly Deity continued, “As for a more important reason, is that this was an instruction from the headmaster. Since this is the case, this decision is definitely the correct one. After you guys enter, you all should understand. I’m not very sure as the three of us have never entered the legendary place of the sacred academy before.”

“Even the three heavenly deities didn’t enter?” The hearts of everyone shook.

“The rumors spreading outside are just to create doubt that our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is selfish and holding on to the legendary place just for the heavenly deities, even elite students of the sacred academy are forbidden entry. This is simply ridiculous. The truth is that even us, as heavenly deities, have no idea what the legendary place is like.” Goddess Dugu calmly spoke. Some among the students felt shame in their hearts. It was true that when the malicious rumors circulated around the world, some of the students had thoughts about forsaking the academy.

“Dugu, forget it.” Lifegovern Heavenly Deity spoke. “The others can think what they want to, why bother with them? In any case, we gathered you students here today because we have an important thing to inform you all. This is something the headmaster himself has instructed me. He said that after you guys enter the legendary place, no matter what you encounter, remember to guard your heart. Do not forget yourself. If not, you would be embarking on a path of condemnation with no hope of reprieve.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. Seems like the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy wasn’t something like what many have imagined. It wasn’t some holy grounds for cultivation where one could attain the dao the moment they entered. The legendary place might be a location filled with immense danger. If not, the headmaster wouldn’t have intentionally asked the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity to remind them.

Everyone nodded their heads, taking note of this. The headmaster’s words would naturally have a deeper meaning behind them. They had to be careful and remember this.

“Okay, you guys can leave for now.” The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity waved his hand in dismissal.

Not long after, news circulated out saying that the reason why the sacred academy gathered the supreme geniuses of the world, was to allow everyone to enter the legendary place. This news caused another earthquake-level commotion. Qin Dangtian said that the sacred academy was selfish, keeping the legendary place for themselves while still under the pretext of transmitting the dao. Since that was the case, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy seemed to want to use their actions to reply to him. What was transmitting the dao? Since you guys wish to enter, let every supreme genius here in the world enter then.

As expected, after this news was sent out, the various powers gathered at Daoask City all prepared to enter the sacred academy.

Today, in the surroundings of the Heavenly Dao Stairway, there were even more people gathered here compared to the time when Qin Dangtian came. But even so, the path leading directly to the stairway was still clear. No one dared to stand near there as only characters from the hegemonic powers would have the qualifications to ascend the stairway today.

Today, the sacred academy's students were all gathered at the top of the stairway, watching as the experts from the various regions gathered here.

"They are here." Someone spoke. From afar, droves of experts could be seen moving in this direction, each from different factions. All of them were extremely powerful and each group was led by a heavenly deity. Other than the heavenly deities, everyone else were world overlords. Those heavenly deities who usually didn't show up also appeared here today. How could they miss out on this grand event given their identities as heavenly deities?

"The Ziwei Divine Court has arrived." Countless people glanced at the experts from the Ziwei Divine Court. The person in the lead was a heavenly deity. Those behind him were clad in starry robes, exuding a majestic presence. They were a hegemon in the Mystic Region. With just a stomp of their foot, the entire Mystic Region would tremble.

Qin Wentian stared at the people from the Ziwei Divine Court. He actually saw Yue Changkong as well as Yue Changkong's martial uncle. He felt somewhat curious, when he exposed Yue Changkong's identity that time, he thought that the Ziwei Divine Court and the Donghuang Clan most probably wouldn't spare Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong even dared to fool a heavenly deity, this was truly a great crime.

However, Yue Changkong was actually still in the Ziwei Divine Court and hasn't died. Also, he stood behind that heavenly deity, clearly showing that his status in the Ziwei Divine Court was still extraordinary.

Yue Changkong also saw Qin Wentian with a single glance. Compared to Qin Wentian's surprise, he had a look of intense vengeance in his eyes, and his gaze flickered with killing intent. Although he was still alive, the hellish agony and pain he had to experience was something Qin Wentian wouldn't understand. He wanted Qin Wentian to die.

Staring at the unmasked killing intent in Yue Changkong's eyes, Qin Wentian felt that this Yue Changkong was more direct compared to the past. However, Yue Changkong who was exposed by him actually hated him so much? How ridiculous was this? Back then he fooled everyone saying that he was the godking of time's successor and even wanted to kill Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian couldn't expose him?

“The experts from the Great Devil Divine Palace is here.” A voice suddenly rang out. A group of experts exuding tyrannical devilish aura appeared here. The person in the lead was naturally also a heavenly deity.

After that, the experts from the various locations appeared one after another. These people were all peak characters of the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and were gathered here today for the sake of entering the legendary place in the sacred academy. From this, one could see how attractive the legendary place was. Qin Wentian silently mused that although the heavenly deities from the sacred academy have never entered the legendary place before, the various hegemonic powers would surely know of some secrets in the legendary place. If not, why would they all gather here today just because of an invitation by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

It was unknown how many experts were here today. Everyone stared at these supreme experts from the peak powers. Qin Wentian glanced at the Luoshen Clan. Luoshen Lei also cast a glance in his direction and revealed a mischievous smile to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian surveyed the people beside the Luoshen Clan. The Luoshen Clan was led by an old man who was a heavenly deity. Qin Wentian didn't know if this old man has any relationship with him.

Other than the Luoshen Clan, Qin Wentian also paid attention to the Qin Clan. The heavenly deity leading the Qin Clan was naturally none other than Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. Although he was young, his status was transcendent.

The three heavenly deities from the sacred academy walked forward, they came to the stairway and stared at everyone below. “Since everyone could gather here at the sacred academy, this is truly an honor for us.”

“The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is renowned throughout the world. It's a place where the dao is transmitted. This monk and my fellow colleagues have always been impressed. Since the sacred academy has issued an invitation, how can we not show up?” A monk in a kasaya pressed his palms together and spoke humbly. He was a heavenly deity and whether his humble attitude was real or fake, nobody knew.

“The purpose of the sacred academy gathering the supreme geniuses of the world here...is it because of the legendary place? Seems like the sacred academy has thought things through and is planning to allow the geniuses to enter.” A heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court spoke directly, lazy to beat around the bushes.

“Dao friend Ziwei, why so impatient?” Lifegovern Heavenly Deity laughed. “Since everyone cannot wait any more, please enter the sacred academy then.”

These words undoubtedly confirmed the hopes of everyone. The various experts then walked up the Heavenly Dao Stairway and moved towards the sacred academy.

The experts from the sacred academy led them in. These peak characters all respectively entered, walking into the depths of the academy. Outside, countless other experts inclined their heads and stared up. Today, the supreme geniuses of the world gathered here and were preparing to enter the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. What sort of great waves would be created this time around?!

Chapter 1828: The Legendary Place

In the sacred academy, in a location covered with dust, this was clearly a place where no people come to normally. Right now, this dust-covered pathway opened up, the three heavenly deities of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy led the various experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms into it.

Before them, there was a wave of supreme might from the great dao permeating the atmosphere. It felt like a tribulation of the heavenly dao. The wind and clouds churned as lightning and thunder flared, this was like a scene from the apocalypse. However, within this apocalyptic scene, at the very end of the path, one could faintly see a holy ground there. However, it was so far away like it would never be reached.

“Is that the legendary place?” The heavenly deities leading the various groups stared at it. Although they were heavenly deities, they have only heard rumors about the legendary place and didn’t have a chance to enter there before. Although before this, they intentionally spread the rumor that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was selfish and keeping the legendary place for the heavenly deities of the sacred academy for their sole use, they knew that the heavenly deities of the sacred academy have also never entered there before. But now, the headmaster of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was actually willing to let so many people enter that legendary place?

It’s said that it was very difficult to reach the other end of this legendary place. It is also rumored that within the legendary place, there are many supremely terrifying existences sealed within.

The history of the legendary place even exceeds the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

“That is the entrance to the legendary place. If you guys wish to enter, please feel free to go ahead. Since the world claims that our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is selfish and unfit to transmit the dao, today, we shall open the sacred gates to the legendary place to all.” The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity spoke. “It’s just that I have to remind everyone that even for the three of us, we have never entered there before. The headmaster once warned us that although the three of us are heavenly deities, if we entered the legendary place, our dao hearts might grow unstable and our foundation might crumble, leading to grievous harm. If you guys want to enter, feel free to do so. But you will bear your own consequences.”

“Since the sacred gate is opened, the three of you are heavenly deities, how can you three not enter?” The heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court spoke with a sharp expression.

“Dao friend Ziwei must be joking. The three of us never had any intention of entering the legendary place. Today, it’s the Ziwei Divine Court and the various hegemonic powers domineeringly forcing our academy to open the sacred gate. And now, our academy has done so. Could it be you still want us to accompany you in?” The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly laughed.

The eyes of the heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court glinted with coldness. A wary expression could be seen in his eyes. “Since this is the case, we shall let the students of the sacred academy enter first.”

“You guys forced us because you all want to enter the legendary place. But now, you are acting as cowardly as a mouse? What an insult to the prestige of heavenly deities.” The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly laughed. His eyes turned to the students of the sacred academy, “You guys can enter now. No matter what happens in there, don’t be too shocked. Remember what I said to you all before.”

“Yes.” Everyone nodded respectively as the students of the academy advanced forward. Qin Wentian, Divine Sound, Jian Chen, DeviloX and the other supreme geniuses of the sacred academy were among this group. They walked towards the legendary location. The terrifying dao’s might permeating the region bore down on them as an unblockable energy directly penetrated through them. That was the mysterious power of the dao’s might, there was no way to block this.

Qin Wentian could feel a supreme energy pressing down on him, destroying his everything. It was like he was experiencing a baptism. He wanted to struggle but he was helpless to do so. A voice from the ancient era entered his mind. After that, his body was swallowed up by the void and vanished completely.

“There’s no way our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would harm our own students, right? You guys can feel free to enter now. But let me warn you all. No matter what happens, those who enter have to bear their own consequences. In the future, don’t blame any casualties on our sacred academy. Although the heavenly deities here have already attained a heavenly dao, I still have to remind you all to be more cautious. It is best not to enter.” Lifegovern Heavenly Deity spoke.

“I want to see what is in there exactly.” Qin Dingtian stepped out. His long robes fluttered as halo of lights appeared around him. These sources of light were ancient characters that contained unexcelled might from the great dao.

The people from the Qin Clan followed behind him as they entered the region where the dao’s might permeated. In an instant as they entered, a wave of might from the great dao bore down on Qin Dingtian. Qin Dingtian flew up into the sky as the ancient characters around him flickered, brimming with power.

However, the dao’s might permeating the region could engulf everything. The ancient characters around Qin Dingtian were destroyed one by one, ignoring the attacks from them. The power of the dao’s might in this region then penetrated through Qin Dingtian. At this moment, Qin Dingtian’s expression drastically changed as he roared, “You want to cripple my dao?!”

He did his utmost to struggle, unleashing the power of his bloodline and dao bone. In an instant, his dao grew stronger as the numerous ancient characters fused into one, wanting to protect him. At the same time, an immensely gigantic ancient character that stood for the word ‘slaughter,’ manifested and blasted towards the heavens. It was like Qin Dingtian wanted to kill the heavenly dao here.

As for the other members of the Qin Clan, they had long lost all power to resist. Their bodies have completely vanished. Only Qin Dingtian was still standing alone arrogantly in the air, fighting against the heavenly dao. The scene was extremely shocking, the hearts of many world overlords trembled at Qin Dingtian’s might. Even the other heavenly deities were silently in awe.

But even so, it was useless. An incomparably profound surge of dao’s might churned wildly as though the heavens and earth were angered. A powerful beam of light directly blasted the gigantic ancient character ‘slaughter,’ into pieces and continued shooting towards Qin Dingtian. A terrifying light radiated forth, it was as though everything in the region was going to be destroyed. In the next moment, the crowd only saw Qin Dingtian retreating as his aura fluctuated wildly. However, there was a look of disdain in his eyes as he stared ahead.

“The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy designed this scheme to harm everyone in the immortal realms. We have to raze this place to the ground today.” Qin Dangtian coldly spoke, staring at the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity.

“Ridiculous, it was you who originally wanted to enter. Now, our sacred academy opened the gate to welcome you yet you didn’t dare to do so and even turned around to threaten us? Although the Qin Clan is powerful, but if you want to destroy the sacred academy, I’m afraid the members of the Qin Clan wouldn’t know peace from today onwards.” The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly spoke. Qin Dangtian snorted coldly. In the past, he really wanted to enter the legendary place. But now when the sacred academy allowed everyone to go in, he suddenly felt wariness in his heart. The power in that region leading to the legendary place earlier actually wanted to destroy his dao.

In that case, he will choose to observe for now to see if anything happens to those who entered before making a decision.

For heavenly deities, they have already succeeded in their daos. They naturally wouldn’t want to take risks unnecessarily. All the other heavenly deities upon seeing Qin Dangtian hesitating, also decided not to enter. The forces under them respectively moved forward one by one, all of their hearts were filled with trepidation. As they entered the region, their bodies all vanished a few moments after.

“Lei`er, are you really going to enter?” An elder spoke to Luoshen Lei.

“Mhm.” Luoshen Lei nodded her head, her eyes gleamed with resolution. Although her cultivation was slightly shallow when compared to the other world overlords, this was an opportunity she couldn’t miss. The person who crippled her father was already so powerful. Luoshen Lei didn’t want to always depend on others. Hence, she needed to try her luck and enter the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

The supreme experts of the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all gathered here. Other than heavenly deities, everyone else were genius world overlords. They didn’t know what sort of place the legendary place of the sacred academy was exactly and what would be waiting for them in there.

After Qin Wentian entered the region where the dao’s might permeated, he felt an uncontrollable energy surrounding him. At this moment, everything of his seemed to be stripped clean. His cultivation, his innate techniques, his power all completely vanished. And in the next instant, he felt himself entering into another world. Over here, many memories suddenly filled his mind. The memories told him that he was born here and grew up here in this world.

This place, was a world of reincarnation.

Within the world of reincarnation, on the top of a majestic palace, Qin Wentian stood there with his arms crossed before his chest. He was the same as before, in fact, all his memories from the real world were in his mind too. It's just that he had no cultivations now, and also no astral souls. In the world of reincarnation, he could sense the existence of many attribute powers. There seemed to be no need to depend on astral souls here.

From the time he was 'born' until now, the time taken seemed to be only an instant. However, the memories in his mind were clearly there. It was like he had over tens of years of memories the moment he arrived in this world.

Qin Wentian's name was still Qin Wentian in this world. He was born into the Qin Clan. This Qin Clan was split into two factions and they functioned as rivals.

"What is going on? What sort of place is this legendary place exactly?" Qin Wentian silently mused. Although the heavenly deities of the sacred academy did warn them not to be shocked no matter what happened, but how could he not be shocked? He clearly entered the legendary place but all of a sudden, he was brought here and memories of many years living in this world appeared in his mind.

Could this world of reincarnation be the legendary place?

"You should have many questions on your mind now, right?" At this moment, a voice suddenly rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. His eyes gleamed with sharpness as he stared into the void, "Who are you?"

"This place is the world of reincarnation. I'm a divinity that was sealed here. Right now, since the world of reincarnation has opened, many of you people have entered from the outside. Next, all of you have to seize all opportunities to mature as fast as possible, eliminating your opponents in the world of reincarnations. You are born in the dual-faction Qin Clan and would enjoy exceptional advantages. Do you need me to help you?" This voice had a bewitching tone to it.

Qin Wentian frowned, a divinity that was sealed in this world of reincarnation?

The legendary place was this world of reincarnation? There was actually a divinity sealed here?

“How can you help me?” Qin Wentian asked.

“I can transmit you a dao to cultivate.” The ethereal voice rang out once more in Qin Wentian’s mind.

“What dao?” Qin Wentian asked again. After that, a formless energy directly entered his mind. Qin Wentian frowned. This dao was actually a dao that requires the union of male and female. The person practicing this has to use the bodies of females to raise their own cultivation level. Qin Wentian shook his head, “I will not cultivate this dao.”

“Haha, you don’t need to decide so early. I know that there are several supreme beauties that have entered the world of reincarnation as well. Could it be that your heart isn’t moved by their beauty?” That voice grew somewhat sinister as the bewitching tone grew stronger. “In any case, the method is already in your mind. When you cultivate it in the future, I shall appear again.”

Qin Wentian furrowed his brows. This evil existence in the world of reincarnation actually knew the identities of all those who entered here? If that was the case, wouldn’t it be able to seek out others as well?

If he didn’t cultivate this, there would definitely be others who did so. Also, there might still be other existences sealed in this world.

“Young master, young master...” At this moment, an agitated voice rang out. A serving girl rushed over with a look of anxiousness on her face.

“Autumn Rain, what’s going on?” Qin Wentian asked. In his memories, this serving girl was named Autumn Rain and has been serving him for some years.

“Young master, Nichang, Miss Nichang is here.” Autumn Rain agitatedly called out. Qin Wentian’s expression froze. Nichang? Goddess Nichang?

In the world of reincarnation, he would actually be able to meet with people he knew? If it was truly the Goddess Nichang, what sort of role would she play in the world of reincarnation?

Chapter 1829: In the World of Reincarnation

Qin Wentian followed the serving girl Autumn Rain to a great hall outside. There were people chatting idly in there. The person seated in the host seat was a middle-aged man named Qin Ruhai, he was Qin Wentian's father in this world of reincarnation.

In fact, in Qin Wentian's heart, he was surprised to feel a sense of kinship to Qin Ruhai. He knew that this was the result of the memories he had in his mind. Having those memories meant that he had already lived in the reincarnation world for tens of years and grew up here.

Below the host seat, there were two guests. One of them exuded boundless magnificence, so beautiful that it caused people to feel stifled. When Qin Wentian saw her, his gaze couldn't help but to freeze.

Goddess Nichang. It was actually Goddess Nichang.

Goddess Nichang also saw Qin Wentian, however her eyes were calm. At this moment, Qin Ruhai spoke, "Wentian, quickly come and meet with your Uncle Qu."

Qin Wentian felt some hesitation, but when he thought that he was already in the world of reincarnation, he should accept this. He would simply treat this as a tempering exercise in this world. He walked forth and greeted the middle-aged man, "Uncle Qu."

"Not bad." The middle-aged man nodded and smiled. "This is Nichang. Her age is comparable to Wentian. What do you think of her appearance?"

Qin Wentian glanced at Goddess Nichang, he felt somewhat bizarre but he still replied, "Her beauty can awe the world."

"This sentence isn't an exaggeration. But sadly, Nichang is the same as you. Even up until now, she cannot cultivate." The middle-aged man sighed in pity. "Nichang, why don't you go for a walk with Wentian. It has been many years since I last met with your Uncle Qin. We have plenty of things to chat about."

Goddess Nichang stood up, she calmly glanced at Qin Wentian and walked outside. Qin Wentian followed after her. The serving girl, who was standing outside, had a smile on her face upon seeing Qin Wentian and Nichang walking out together. She didn't disturb them.

The two of them came to an empty area where a gentle wind was blowing. They didn't say anything. Regardless of Qin Wentian or Goddess Nichang, both were still adapting to their current identities.

"My original name is Qu Nichang." Goddess Nichang suddenly spoke. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian, flashing with curiosity, "Why would you be born inside the dual-faction Qin Clan of this world?"

"How do I know?" Qin Wentian replied. This sentence confirmed his thoughts. Goddess Nichang was the same as him, she was the real Nichang who came from the outside into this world of reincarnation.

"The dual-faction Qin Clan shares the same amount of fame. Their ancestors are a pair of brothers. If this world of reincarnation is connected by fate with the real world, in that case, one of the Qin Clan's factions would represent the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. And just so coincidentally, my grandfather is acquainted with people of the Qin Clan. If the two worlds are linked, that means..." The beautiful eyes of Nichang flashed with a bright light. Qin Wentian was born in the dual-faction Qin Clan of this world...?

"Maybe everything is just an illusion. I might have been born here because I also have the surname of 'Qin.'" Qin Wentian replied. However, in truth, great waves of emotions rose in his heart after he heard Goddess Nichang's words. The world of reincarnation was connected with the real world?

Goddess Nichang glanced at Qin Wentian when she heard his words. After that, she turned and left. Maybe it was a coincidence. Towards Qin Wentian, she didn't have too deep of an impression. She only knew that he was from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Qin Wentian glanced at Goddess Nichang's back as a look of contemplation appeared on his face. If things were truly connected by fate, wouldn't that person who created this world of reincarnation be too terrifying? He could even calculate fate and knew that his origins was from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region?

He started to think about the cultivation system of this world. He could clearly sense the different types of energy in this world. The energy from the different laws felt extremely rich, this was especially so for the attributes he had cultivated in the outside world. They were like dots of light floating around him. This meant that he should be able to swiftly form a connection with them and start his cultivation.

According to his memories, the martial path of the world of reincarnation is different when compared to the outside world. There are only three realms here – Houtian Realm, Xiantian Realm and God Realm.

As for the dual-faction Qin Clan, they are a god-ranked power.

“If the world of reincarnation is a test, this means that I have to upgrade my strength here in this world.” Qin Wentian silently mused. After that, he headed to the library in the Qin Clan. Although he had tens of years of memories, only a small part of those memories had something to do with cultivation. He had to find ways to cultivate as soon as possible to upgrade himself.

Qin Wentian arrived at the library and started to browse through the books while starting to cultivate.

Three months later, in the Qin Clan, Qin Wentian was in the training grounds. His entire body glowed with light as faint strands of law energies descended on him. The energy of heaven and earth formed a resonance with his body, and a law body actually manifested. This law body seemed to be made from indestructible gold as the light radiating from it towered up into the sky. This strange phenomenon startled the people in the clan. Many figures instantly rushed here and when they saw Qin Wentian’s body forming a resonance with the power of the world, all of them had shocked looks on their faces.

“My son has unrivalled talent!” Qin Ruhai’s voice trembled.

“Young master comprehended the dao in a single day, directly bypassing the Houtian Realm and has entered the Xiantian Realm.” The serving girl Autumn Rain was in a daze. Before this, such a feat only existed in the legends. She never imagined that this scene would occur before her eyes, she felt a sense of surrealism.

Qin Wentian opened his eyes. He sensed the energy in his body as well as his connection with the power of heaven and earth. His expression was as calm as ever. The Xiantian Realm was equivalent to the immortal-foundation and immortal-king realm. He believed that many people would be able to accomplish this. The energy in the world of reincarnation was very wondrous and it was completely different from the outside world. It could directly transform his body, there was no need for him to cultivate it step by step.

It felt like an energy transformation process. All his comprehensions in the outside world were transformed into energy here in the world of reincarnation.

The news about Qin Wentian becoming a Xiantian in a single step soon circulated to the other faction in the dual-faction Qin Clan. In three other Qin Clans, there were three who came to the world of reincarnation from the external world, all of them naturally originated from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. They have already been in this world for months and naturally heard of Qin Wentian's name. They couldn't help but to feel some dissatisfaction in their hearts. Although Qin Wentian was somewhat famous from the convention in the Mystic Region, why was he qualified to be born in the dual-faction Qin Clan like them?

In addition, they have also seen Goddess Nichang. Goddess Nichang's father had brought her to the Qin Clan for a visit before.

In the outside world, for the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang, they could only stare up at her in admiration. Maybe only the Heaven's Son, Qin Dingtian of their clan, was qualified enough to match up with her. The rest of them didn't dare to have any profane thoughts. But in this world, the Heaven's Son didn't exist. The three of them were considered the core members of the dual-faction Qin Clan. Hence, they felt desire towards her in their hearts.

The three of them also knew the importance of cultivation. They soon comprehended the method to cultivate here and similar to Qin Wentian, they entered the Xiantian Realm in one shot, causing great shock to the dual-faction Qin Aristocrat Clan.

Today, the three of them met together. They kept suggesting to their elders, wanting to destroy the other faction of the Qin Clan.

In the dual-faction Qin Clan, the other faction was extremely powerful as well. The two factions long had conflicts with each other. After hearing the suggestions by the juniors, the other faction naturally agreed. Hence, Qin Wentian who was still quietly cultivating, suddenly felt a sense of doomsday approaching one day.

"Elder brother, what do you mean by this?" Qin Wentian's father in this world, Qin Ruhai, soared up into the air and coldly spoke. At this moment, his entire faction was surrounded by the faction his elder brother controlled.

“Qin Ruhai, the name ‘dual-faction Qin Clan’ isn’t too nice to listen to. You guys can chose to join my faction and in the future, there would only be a single faction in the Qin Clan.” An expert peered downwards and coldly spoke. Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling. The history was actually so shockingly similar to that of the real world. Would what happen then happen here now?

“Elder brother, are you not going too far by doing this?” Qin Ruhai loudly questioned. The experts in the air had emotionless looks on their faces. Coldness flashed in their eyes, Qin Ruhai’s elder brother waved his hand as an army of experts descended downwards. The internal warfare between the two factions of the Qin Clan hence occurred.

Qin Wentian had an indescribable feeling in his heart. He didn’t expect history would repeat itself in this world of reincarnation. In the air, the three experts from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region coldly stared at Qin Wentian. After that, their silhouettes flashed as they rushed him.

Although Qin Wentian wanted to protect his faction, he understood that his current cultivation base was simply insufficient. His body flashed and departed the area with the speed of a great roc.

Behind him, screams of agony and pain rang out. Although Qin Wentian didn’t feel too deep a feeling towards the family of this world, he still felt coldness in his heart as killing intent flickered in his eyes. The world overlords from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region were actually directly planning to kill him.

“Bzz~” A gigantic figure resembling a mountain appeared before Qin Wentian, blocking his pursuers. This figure was actually Qin Ruhai. He nodded to his son, “Wentian, leave quickly!”

Qin Wentian stared at that imposing backview as emotions stirred in his heart. He clenched his fists tightly, producing crackling sounds.

“Leave! Remember to avenge me!” Qin Ruhao roared in anger. Qin Wentian decisively turned and sped away. Behind him, countless screams continued to ring out. The place where he grew up in, in this world, was completely destroyed, razed to levelled ground.

Everything felt like a dream. He could truly sense the cruelty of the world of reincarnation. The descendants of the Qin Clan of the Heaven’s Region actually wanted his death. These people shared the same blood as him!

The internal warfare in the world of reincarnation inside the dual-faction Qin Clan led to one faction being obliterated. This incident shocked the entire world. Although Qin Wentian was fleeing, he could feel torment in his heart. He actually fled just like that? Was it because he didn't truly treat the people here as his kin? However, their feelings for him were real. Qin Wentian felt extremely agonized in his heart. In Qin Wentian's mind, the image of the three figures from the Qin Clan appeared as killing intent gleamed in his eyes.

Qin Wentian had extraordinary experiences in the world of reincarnation. But there were people who experienced even worse things than him.

Yue Changkong, after he entered the world of reincarnation, his identity was a disciple of the Moon God Hall. However, because he couldn't cultivate, he was driven out and suffered all sorts of humiliations on the street. In fact, even beggars despised him and would frequently beat him up.

When Yue Changkong was in the Ziwei Divine Court, he had experienced all of these before. He endured everything and silently contemplated the energy of heaven and earth.

Until one day, when night had fallen, a group of beggars returned. When they saw Yue Changkong sitting there, they spat saliva at him and some even kicked out at him while cursing out loud, "Trash."

Yue Changkong opened his eyes. At this moment, his eyes were like dead ashes, and were cold to the extreme. His gaze instantly caused the beggars to feel their hearts trembling. After that, Yue Changkong opened his mouth and drew in a deep breath. A terrifying devouring might was generated, causing all the beggars to feel extreme fear. Their vitality was all actually absorbed by Yue Changkong. Their figures became extremely emaciated and finally, they dried up and became a pile of bones!

Chapter 1830: Each With Their Lives

Yue Changkong returned to the Moon God Hall. This was the place he grew up in, in the world of reincarnation and he naturally has the memories about this place as well.

Upon his father learning that he comprehended the dao in a single day, stepping into the Xiantian Realm, he accepted Yue Changkong into the family again and sighed and spoke to him, “Changkong, those years ago I was forced to send you away. You should understand very clearly what sort of place the Moon God Hall is. You, who had no cultivation then, would only be the butt of endless humiliation here.”

“Your child understands.” Yue Changkong respectfully replied as a warm smile appeared on his face. A reunion of father and son, things were naturally extremely joyful.

There were four people from the Ziwei Divine Court who entered the world of reincarnation. Other than Yue Changkong, one was his martial uncle and the other two were rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings of the Mystic Region. In the world of reincarnation, they originated from the same power – Moon God Hall. Everything seemed destined. This world of reincarnation was seemingly able to sense their fate.

At this moment, the four experts from the Ziwei Divine Court gathered together. Yue Changkong’s martial uncle spoke, “The Moon God Hall in here, seems to represent the Ziwei Divine Court in the outside world. The cultivation system here is completely different from the external world, yet there are points of similarity. Are we supposed to comprehend a different dao here in the world of reincarnation?”

“But, where is that holy place? Could the world of reincarnation be that holy and legendary place? Our lifetime here is supposed to be the test?”

“Since the world of reincarnation and the outside world are connected, we have to grow stronger as soon as possible so we can trample the experts from other powers down beneath our feet.” A ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings spoke.

“Martial uncle and two senior brothers have supreme talent. We will naturally be able to do this.” Yue Changkong bowed.

“You can’t put it this way. There are no weaklings among those who entered the world of reincarnation, all of them are extremely powerful. Changkong, since you are reaccepted into the Moon God Hall, your strength now must definitely be extraordinary. Come and spar with me.” Yue Changkong’s martial uncle spoke.

“How can Changkong be a match for martial uncle?” Yue Changkong bowed.

“If we don’t try, how would we know?” His martial uncle took a step forward as a powerful law body appeared behind him. The energy in the surroundings was absorbed by the law body as a desolate and cold streak of saber light flashed past. Yue Changkong gave a shout, summoning his strength to resist. However, with a thunderous explosion, Yue Changkong was directly sent flying by the force of that saber light. Wounds appeared as blood flowed from his body. He was slammed into the ground and he could only climb up with difficulty. “The insights martial uncle gained in this world of reincarnation is as extraordinary as the outside world.”

“Being able to block one of my strikes, you are considered not too bad.” His martial uncle laughed. “You can leave.”

“Yes, Changkong will take my leave.” Yue Changkong bowed and departed. The other two who were rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings stared at Yue Changkong’s back. Their eyes were filled with contempt, “I heard that he was abandoned by his family in this world and had become a beggar, forced to endure all sorts of humiliation.”

“He is such a despicable person, he even fooled the world and gained the approval of the Ziwei Divine Court. If I was the decision maker, I would have killed him. Why would our master spare him?”

“Despicable characters have their own uses. To become stronger, he is willing to use all methods no matter how vile. You guys have to guard against him.” The martial uncle laughed.

After Yue Changkong left, he spent his time in quiet cultivation. One day, he told his father of this world where he encountered a miraculous bout of good fortune in a secret realm when he was cultivating outside and hence, he wanted to lead everyone to explore the secret realm. They came to a desolate ancient mountain and his father looked at him, “Changkong, where is the secret realm you were talking about?”

“Father, you once said that you were forced to expel me from the family because you were helpless, right? In that case, today, I’m also forced to do this as I’m helpless.” As Yue Changkong spoke, his hands turned into claws and directly penetrated his father’s back. A terrifying devouring might frenziedly began to absorb all the energy in his father’s body.

“VILE BEAST!” The experts in the surroundings roared. However, a cold malevolent smile appeared on Yue Changkong’s face. Father? Ridiculous, wanting him to call this man as his father? There was naturally a price to be paid for this.

The fearsome devouring might intensified as a heretic devil law body appeared behind Yue Changkong, absorbing everything. Very swiftly, only piles of bones were left here. Yue Changkong took out the messaging crystal in this world and spoke through it, "Martial uncle, I discover a divine depository but there's an evil creature guarding it. My father and the rest of my family have all died."

"Where is it? How strong is that evil creature?" His martial uncle asked.

"I can lead the way for senior brothers. The evil creature might have strength on par with martial uncle. In order to play it safe, it's best that martial uncle brings a group of experts over. This divine depository might contain extraordinary treasures." An intense emotional fluctuation could be heard in Yue Changkong's voice, filled with sorrow and agitation like he has completely lost his calm.

"Okay, wait for me." His martial uncle replied. Yue Changkong kept his messaging crystal and sat cross-legged while a demonic glint flashed in his eyes.

After a long time, his martial uncle and two senior brothers who were rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings finally arrived. They didn't bring anyone else with them. In fact, this was something Yue Changkong had anticipated.

Upon seeing Yue Changkong and piles of bones around him, his martial uncle frowned, "Where is the divine depository and the evil creature?"

"Martial uncle, have you heard that this world of reincarnation is connected to our real world. If you die in here, it would be a true death." Yue Changkong calmly spoke.

"I know of this." His martial uncle nodded, staring at Yue Changkong.

"It's good that martial uncle understands this. Since the various geniuses came to this world of reincarnation, this is like a test of life and death. In that case, no matter how cruel or brutal I must be, I will make sure to walk this path all the way until the end. Those who compete with me all have to die. The legendary place, the legendary character, shall be me and me alone. Martial uncle, thanks for granting me my wish."

As the sound of Yue Changkong's voice faded, his law body manifested. That terrifying heretic devil was extremely malevolent, exuding a vile and disgustingly evil aura.

The expressions of the three people changed. His martial uncle coldly spoke, “Have you fallen so low and accepted the deal with the evil spirits? Choosing to cultivate an evil art?”

“What is an evil art?” Yue Changkong calmly spoke. “There are rumors saying that if the sacred academy opened the sacred gate to the legendary place, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would undergo immense changes. Since everyone unscrupulously forced the sacred academy and managed to enter here, I naturally have to become the strongest here. So what even if the two of you are rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings? After this, all your power shall become mine. All your insights will belong to me!”

As the sound of his voice faded, grey hands manifested from the devil law body behind his back, covering this entire space. The expressions of the three of them drastically changed. They used the entirety of their strength gained from their insights of this world to resist but it was useless. Their bodies were penetrated through by the grey hands as the energy within their bodies flowed out rapidly, infusing Yue Changkong. The Yue Changkong now has completely become a devil.

“I’m your martial uncle. If you kill me, will my senior brother spare you when you exit?” His martial uncle spoke in fear.

“If this evil power is also considered a dao, I can naturally bring back what I comprehend here to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In that case, if there is an opportunity, I will definitely repay him double everything he caused me to endure.” Yue Changkong sinisterly spoke. After that, he devoured all the energy in his martial uncle’s body, as well as the two rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings from the Ziwei Divine Court. All three of them died in the world of reincarnation.

Yue Changkong drew in a deep breath, feeling satisfied in his heart. His gaze contained a serenity that was extremely terrifying.

“You say that you are sealed in the world of reincarnation? In that case, who was the one who sealed you? Who is the master of this world? Is he the creator of the legendary place?” Yue Changkong mumbled to himself, there was no one in his surroundings.

“There’s no need for you to know this. In any case, his power isn’t something you can imagine at your current level. What you need to do now is to continue to grow stronger and stronger. If you can obtain everything in the world of reincarnation, the future you might have a chance to learn of his identity.” A voice rang out in Yue Changkong’s mind.

“Oh.” Yue Changkong coldly smiled, not asking any more. Right now, a person flashed through his mind.

Qin Wentian, where was he in this world of reincarnation? He truly hoped Qin Wentian would be stronger, so it would be more nutritious to consume him.

For the monks from Western Paradise Buddha Sect of the Universe Region, they were also in this world of reincarnation. Now, they were inside a buddha sect as well and the temple they were in was known as the Vajra Temple. There were many eminent monks here and all of them believed in the legends of a Western Paradise.

Reverend Seven Abstinences, his title came from the Seven Abstinences in Buddhism. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he was widely respected and was an eminent monk. But now in the world of reincarnation, he was just an ordinary novice monk who could not cultivate. But even so, the temple treated him very well.

“Seven Abstinences, during these days you have already finished reading all the buddha arts in our Vajra Temple. Now that you are bidding farewell to me, do you have some thoughts in your mind?” The abbot spoke to the young novice monk, Seven Abstinences.

“Disciple wishes to head towards the western paradise to seek the truth of buddhism.” Seven Abstinences pressed his palms together and bowed.

“You must have read the ancient records and desire to reach the borders of Western Paradise. There will be countless tribulations before you can reach there. You have to have an original body and after you arrive at the holy place, you have to kowtow with every step you take. No one in my Vajra Temple has succeeded before, but you still wish to go there?” The abbot asked, the original body in his speech referred to a body that has not cultivated before.

“No matter how dangerous the journey is, I’m willing to undertake this journey.” Seven Abstinences nodded. Right now, he could already comprehend the buddhist dao in this world but he didn’t choose to do so. Since there was also a Western Paradise in this world, he wanted to go there to see for himself and seek his dao there.

“Good, having the aspirations to seek buddha at the Western Paradise. You have to first perform the seven abstinences and ten acts of kindness. I only have a high cultivation base but I don’t have your aspiration. Since this is the case, let all my cultivation transform into a sarira to protect you on your journey there.” The abbot smiled.

Seven Abstinenes pressed his palms and bowed in silence. The abbot of the Vajra Temple transferred all his cultivation into a buddha bead. His appearance instantly aged, resembling a dried up oil lamp as he took a string and threaded through the bead before hanging the bead around Seven Abstinenes's neck.

"Go on." The abbot spoke.

Seven Abstinenes stood up and started on his journey towards the Western Paradise of this world. He had no distractions in his heart, and experienced everything fate wanted to throw at him. He maintained his principles of seven abstinenes and ten kindness, the experiences he underwent was extremely arduous and he was covered in dust. But even so, he didn't forget his original heart.

This world of reincarnation was an opportunity for him. Since opportunity has arrived, he must naturally grab it. As a true eminent monk in the outside world, his state of heart was naturally as resolute as iron.

On his journey, some monks from the Vajra Temple sought him out and told him that the abbot won't be able to make it and was about to die soon. They hoped that Seven Abstinenes could make a trip back to the temple to see the abbot for the final time. Seven Abstinenes didn't turn back, he simply continued forward. Some monks in the temple claimed that Seven Abstinenes had an evil and ungrateful personality but there were also some who believed that Seven Abstinenes had already gained insight into the true essence of Buddhism.

In the world of reincarnation, every expert from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have a different identities here. Through their lives in this world, they started to comprehend the dao here using different angles and gradually gained more insights. This would undoubtedly prove to aid their cultivation immensely when they exited this world. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were those truly supreme existences who gave up on everything to enter reincarnation, only hoping to have a second life and revised the choices they made before so they could pursue the ultimate dao. Now, these experts also had such an opportunity in this world of reincarnation. They naturally would cherish it!
