

Ancient GM 1901

Chapter 1901: End of the Commotion

Qin Wentian was none other than that constellation. It's just that right now, he was surrounded by boundless astral light and resembled a true constellation. No one could see his figure clearly, all of them could only see the radiance he exuded.

At this moment, the final astral gate in his soul vanished. What replaced it, was a stretch of boundless starry space. Right now in his sea of consciousness in the depths of his soul, more and more constellations started to shine brightly. When the light of each constellation shone upon Qin Wentian from the outside world, his inner starry space would reflect it and form a similar constellation to the one outside.

“After waiting for countless years, there's finally someone who can inherit my unfinished regret. I hope that there would come a time where you can truly transcend the nine heavens and stare at the scenery out there. From now onwards, Godking Xi shall no longer exist within the nine heavens.” A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. As the sound of the voice faded, a formless light entered Qin Wentian's mind. Above the nine heavenly layers, the dark void that is the Gods Extinction Path seemed to be wavering as void ripples could be seen. At the same time, all the scenes within the Heaven Vault, as well as the Gods Extinction Path, became imprinted in Qin Wentian's mind.

At this moment, the ten stone pillars all froze. The stone statues on them would never come to life again. As for the blood sea, it gradually dried up, no more evil spirits existed. Even the ancient heaven vault pathway started to shimmer in and out of existence, like it would disappear very soon. Right now, in the dark void, only desolation, loneliness and many ancient corpses could be seen. But other than them, many living figures appeared as the Gods Extinction Path vanished.

“We are out.”

“Finally, we came out from there.”

Numerous voices rang out. Those heavenly deities drew in a huge breath as their eyes were filled with the vicissitudes of time. They, finally saw the nine heavenly layers again. They could sense that the space they were in was no longer that spacetime maze which they had been trapped within.

Qin Zheng's group was here too. Qin Zheng stood there and breathed heavily. The Gods Extinction Path finally disappeared?

"Father." Qin Dingtian, who was at the side, called out. "We finally exited that place."

"Mhm." Qin Zheng nodded. He looked at his wife and held her hand before glancing at the heavenly deities at the side. In the Gods Extinction Path, the Qin Clan lost two heavenly deities. After that, during the past several years, they were all extremely cautious but there was still one heavenly deity who was heavily injured and almost died within. Qin Zheng only managed to save him after expending great effort.

This was like a nightmare and now, the nightmare was finally over.

Not only to Qin Zheng's group, to the heavenly deities of the other peak powers, it was also a nightmare. The number one fairy of the nine heavens, the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, she was still as beautiful as ever but a hint of haggardness could be seen on her features. In fact, the hint of haggardness in her expression actually added to her charm in a different way.

"Hahaha! Heaven never seals off all the exits!" A heavenly deity shouted to vent his emotions. Even for heavenly deities, they also suffered and felt despair. However, since they are still alive, let's treat this experience as a nightmare.

All the heavenly deities sighed with emotions. All of a sudden, their hearts were filled with suspicions. Why did the Gods Extinction Path suddenly vanish?

Could it be that someone has obtained the secret within?

The people in the surroundings exchanged mutual glances at each other. Although this space was very large, it wasn't as large as the dark void that was the Gods Extinction Path. That place was a true stretch of chaotic spacetime. It was impossible for them all to be in the same spacetime after they entered.

"Qin Zheng, you are still alive." The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed loudly.

"You are not dead yet, how can I be dead?" Qin Zheng replied.

“Hahaha.” The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. After that he stepped out and moved towards the nine heavenly layers. “What a pity, I spent so many years in there but I didn’t obtain anything.”

The experts respectively departed and flew downwards to the nine heavenly layers.

“They’ve returned.” The people cultivating in the nine heavenly layers saw the heavenly deities flying down. The eyes of many people flashed with excitement. If these people were gone, wouldn’t the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms be too boring? All of them were heavenly deities, and many of them were from the various peak powers of the different regions.

Qin Wentian also knew that the heavenly deities have exited. Just like what his paternal grandfather had guessed, everything here was created by Godking Xi. The Gods Extinction Path should be formed by Godking Xi’s will. His will was able to engulf the nine heavens and even create the Gods Extinction Path. How terrifying was that? Even heavenly deities couldn’t find their way out and would die within.

Not only did Qin Wentian know that the heavenly deities have left the Gods Extinction Path, he could even see many people entering the Heaven Vault from the scenes imprinted in his mind. Right now, he felt like he could control the Heaven Vault completely. He also sensed the aura of an extremely terrifying existence. This man bore some resemblance to Qin Zheng but his aura was much more fearsome in comparison.

This caused Qin Wentian to instantly think of someone. Qin Zheng’s father, that character who had equal fame with his grandfather, Qin Ding of the Qin Clan.

He came here. Probably, he must have learned that his descendants were trapped inside the Heaven Vault which was why he rushed here.

This caused Qin Wentian to frown. Although right now he had already taken that crucial step, it didn’t mean that his strength would surge explosively and he was strong enough now to fight against Qin Ding. Cultivation has never been gaining accomplishments in a single leap. The transformation he underwent this time around would enable him to tread on a path no one had ever treaded before. But even so, he still needed time to properly comprehend things. During these two hundred years, his improvements were extremely great but he wasn’t arrogant enough to feel that he could surpass the peak heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms with just these two hundred plus years of cultivation.

After all, to heavenly deities, two hundred years of time was simply too short.

Today, Qin Zheng's family left the Gods Extinction Path. To Qin Wentian, Qin Ding's arrival was undoubtedly a troublesome matter. Although in the boundless starry space, Qin Ding might not be able to locate him for sure, but given how strong Qin Ding was, who knew if there would be something unexpected happening? In addition, he wasn't alone in the Heaven Vault now. Qing'er and his other loved ones were here cultivating in the starry space as well.

Luckily, he could control the Heaven Vault now. Since this is the case, these troubles wouldn't be so problematic to resolve.

With an intention of his will, even the ancient heaven vault path leading up to the nine heavenly layers started to turn illusory like it would vanish at any moment. In this instant, the gazes of many froze. What was going on?

"Mhm?" Qin Zheng and the other heavenly deities just arrived here. Their eyes flashed with a strange light when they notice the change to the ancient heaven vault pathway.

"What's going on?" Someone asked.

"Gods Extinction Road has disappeared, even the ancient heaven vault pathway seems to be vanishing soon. Can it be that the Heaven Vault is going to disappear?" Someone frowned as he spoke. The ancient pathway began to dim, parts of the pathway would occasionally vanished after turning illusory. This caused the hearts of everyone to clench. Seems like the ancient heaven vault pathway was truly going to disappear.

This ancient heaven vault pathway connected the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the nine heavenly layers, ignoring the impossibly vast actual distance in space, condensing everything onto a single ancient heaven vault pathway. When the ancient heaven vault pathway started to shimmer in and out of existence, everyone in the different heavenly layers could see it clearly.

At this moment, a thought flashed through the minds of many people. Should they leave?

They didn't want to leave. All of them had huge improvements during these two hundred years. Their cultivation bases advanced a thousand miles with a single day of effort, this place was undoubtedly a sacred ground for cultivators.

There were even some world overlords who managed to break through and become heavenly deities in here.

No one wanted to leave. How could there be any place more conducive for cultivation other than here?

Even heavenly deities didn't want to leave.

However, if they don't leave, when the heaven vault path disappears completely, would they be stuck here forever? It would be unknown when they would ever be able to return to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms again. Could it be that they were willing to float in the boundless starry space forever?

Some of the leaders from the peak powers immediately gave the orders to leave this place. For a period of time, many experts returned via the ancient heaven vault pathway, despite the fact that their hearts were filled with reluctance.

Not only so, the entrance to the Heaven Vault in the outside world also had some transformations. The entrance was trembling, the open slit of the 'heavenly eye' where the sea connects with the sky, seemed to be closing gradually. The hearts of many people trembled. Was the Heaven Vault going to be closed so soon?

Through history, the opening and closing of the Heaven Vault was always random, there were no fixed times for it. This time around, it seemed that the timing where Heaven Vault was closing has come.

The entire Heaven Vault was shuddering. Many people took out their messaging crystals and sent this news to the respective elders of their sects and clans who were cultivating within. Hence, the news unceasingly circulated, the experts in the nine heavenly layers all decisively stopped their cultivations and prepared to leave.

"Wentian, the Heaven Vault is about to close. Where are you now?" Luoshen Chuan's voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind.

"Grandfather, rest your heart at ease and just cultivate. There's no need to care about the Heaven Vault closing." Qin Wentian replied. Luoshen Chuan started after hearing Qin Wentian's words. After that, it seemed that he understood something as a faint smile appeared on his face. Hence, he closed his eyes and continued to focus on his cultivation. He was much more at ease compared to before. He knew that from now onwards, this secret realm that is the Heaven Vault, his grandson had full control of it.

“Wentian gege, should we exit?” Bai Qing’s voice rang out. After that, Qing`er, Nanfeng Yaoyue, Little Rascal and the others all sent voice transmissions to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian gave them the same answers, telling them to rest at ease and continue with their cultivations, there was no need to care about the changes to the Heaven Vault. Hence, all of his friends and family continued with what they were doing. Even for those among his friends who didn’t ask him, Qin Wentian also sent voice transmissions to them, telling them about this. Hence, right now, other than Qin Wentian’s friends and family, all the other experts had already begun to leave the Heaven Vault.

After Qin Ding came here, he discovered that the Heaven Vault was going to close. He turned his gaze up to the nine heavenly layers and a moment later, a voice transmission rang out in his mind, causing him to set his heart at ease. Qin Zheng and his group were still alive and they were currently making their way to the entrance. Not long after, Qin Ding saw his son and the others coming back. It was just that there were two heavenly deities missing.

“Father.” Qin Zheng walked over to Qin Ding, wanting to say something. There were many things he needed to inform his father about. He had met Qin Tiangang in the Gods Extinction Path.

“The Heaven Vault is about to close. Let’s return first and talk while we are moving.” Qin Ding spoke. Qin Zheng nodded. After that, their group flew out of the entrance. Qin Dangtian turned his head back and glanced at the nine heavenly layers, his eyes flashing with some longing. But eventually, he still chose to follow his father and grandfather out of the entrance as they departed.

Outside the Heaven Vault, in the Boundless Sea Region, experts flew out from the Heaven Vault’s entrance unceasingly. Everyone understood that the commotion caused by the opening of the Heaven Vault which has lasted for over two hundred years, was finally coming to an end!

Chapter 1902: Suspicion

The Heaven Vault shuddered, the experts in the vault grew increasingly fewer, all of them leaving it and gathering at the Boundless Sea Region.

Some of these people were from the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“That’s Qin Zheng. Qin Zheng’s clan members as well as the Heaven’s Son, Qin Dangtian. Who is that old man walking before them?”

“He is Qin Ding from the Qin Clan. In the past, he was a legendary character that could call the rain and summon the wind in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” The eyes of some people gleamed with sharpness.

“Even Qin Ding came?” Many people exclaimed.

“The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden also came out. How beautiful, her beauty is truly unrivalled in the world. Even the fairies of the Nine Mystical Palace are extremely beautiful.”

“The mystical maiden of the junior generations has also broken through to the Heavenly Deity Realm. How powerful. Look, there’s a young man beside her.”

“That is Lin Xiao, someone who wishes to woo the mystical maiden. He is the successor of the Qiankun Sect and has also broken through to the heavenly deity realm. This time around, seems like there are many geniuses who achieved a transformation during their visit to the Heaven Vault, managing to verify their daos. Next, in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, a glorious era is about to unfold.”

More and more experts continued to walk out from the Heaven Vault. The heavenly eye gradually closed bit by bit and it appeared that it was on the verge of closing completely.

Finally, when no more people walked out from the Heaven Vault, a thunderous rumbling sound rang out. The heavenly eye closed directly and the Heaven Vault seemed to vanish from the world. Right now in the airspace above the boundless sea region, there was only the sky, the Heaven Vault has disappeared.

“It vanished.” Many experts silently sighed. During these two hundred plus years, they had gained many insights. This time around, the Heaven Vault’s secret had been exposed to all and everyone knew that it connected the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the nine heavenly layers. Sadly, it only lasted for two hundred years. If not, the existence of the Heaven Vault would surely allow geniuses of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to grow even faster as more and more heavenly deities appeared.

Nobody knew when the next opening of the Heaven Vault would be.

After Qin Dangtian came out. He glanced at his surroundings. After that, he saw the figure he was looking for and instantly sped over there. Before him, a maiden as beautiful as a celestial appeared. This was none other than the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Nichang.

“Nichang, how has your cultivation been through these years?” Qin Dangtian asked.

It has been over two hundred years. When she saw Qin Dangtian again, Goddess Nichang’s expression was still as calm as ever. She nodded her head lightly.

Qin Ding glanced over in this direction. He then asked Qin Zheng, “Is this the granddaughter of Qu Shen who has a marriage engagement with Dang`er?”

“Mhm.” Qin Zheng nodded.

“Recently, there are some rumors that darken her reputation spreading around in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” Qin Ding calmly spoke.

“What rumors?” Qin Zheng was puzzled. He was trapped inside the Gods Extinction Path and didn’t know about matters in the external world.

Qin Ding then revealed the rumors about Qin Wentian and Nichang. Qin Zheng’s expression grew extremely unsightly. This was a heavy blow to the reputation of their Qin Clan. Qin Dangtian seemed to have sensed something and glanced over in their direction. After that, he spoke to Nichang, “Nichang, my grandpa is here. Let’s go and pay our respects to him, alright?”

Goddess Nichang glanced at Qin Ding. After that, she followed Qin Dangtian and went over to Qin Ding’s side. She didn’t say anything. Qin Ding’s gaze was filled with an imposing might, he stared at Goddess Nichang as he spoke, “Nichang, I’m a very old friend of your grandfather. I’m sure you have heard of the rumors about you circulating recently in the immortal realms. Back then, did Qin Wentian do anything to you?”

Goddess Nichang turned pale upon hearing Qin Ding’s questions, her expression grew unsightly. She inclined her head and stared at Qin Ding as she icily replied. “No.”

Qin Ding stared at her eyes before nodding, "It's good then. Let's find a time for your wedding with Dang'er. I will go and discuss with your grandpa now. Let's go together."

Their figures flashed as they sped away. Qin Zheng and his wife both were frowning.

"Qin Wentian, how did he leave the Gods Extinction Path?" Qin Zheng couldn't understand this. The recent rumors between Qin Wentian and Nichang in the outside world were after they had entered the Gods Extinction Path. Since this is the case, it meant that Qin Wentian had left the dark void earlier than them."

"It might be because of Qin Tiangang?" Qin Ding calmly spoke. His younger brother had been in the Gods Extinction Path for so many years. It wasn't surprising that he might have found an exit.

Qin Zheng's eyes flashed. This was possible indeed. Although the probability wasn't high, but if one was to tell him that Qin Wentian depended on himself to leave the Gods Extinction Path, he wouldn't believe it.

The countless people in the Boundless Sea Region gradually dispersed as they left the area.

Now, in amidst the starry space of the nine heavenly layers in the Heaven Vault, the atmosphere had turned completely silent. Qin Wentian walked out and arrived at the ancient heaven vault path. This pathway that was supposed to have vanished, now became extremely clear and solid again. There were no signs that it was going to disappear.

"Wentian." Luoshen Chuan's figure sped over. He then asked, "Right now, you are already in complete control of Heaven Vault?"

"Yes, grandfather. In the future, all of you can set your hearts at ease and cultivate here. Without my permission, no outsiders can venture in." Qin Wentian smiled. Numerous figures appeared and flew over, all of them were Qin Wentian's friends and family. They listened to Qin Wentian's words and didn't exit but they did notice that everyone else had left. At this moment, they all crowded around Qin Wentian, not understanding what had happened.

"Wentian gege, why did the vanishing heaven vault path became stable again?" Bai Qing asked.

Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and ruffled her hair, he gently laughed, "This heaven vault path is already under my control."

A bright light flashed in Bai Qing's beautiful eyes, "In that case, doesn't that mean that we can cultivate in here forever? In addition, Wentian gege, you are the one who decides who can enter?"

Qin Wentian nodded, the hearts of everyone trembled. Even Luoshen Chuan was shocked. He knew what this implied. It meant that in the future, Qin Wentian was able to create peak-tier experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It was too terrifying.

For example, if Qin Wentian permits the experts of the Luoshen Clan to enter. In the future, how terrifying would the Luoshen Clan's development be? Most probably their strength would soon surpass the Divine Ox Clan. As long as they have enough time, they would surely be able to attain their past glory once more.

"In that case, the members of the Battle Saint Tribe can also come here to cultivate in the future?" Qi Yu exclaimed.

"That's only natural."

"Wentian, the people of my Southern Phoenix Clan would like to come here as well." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch laughed.

"Yaoyue, since you have spoken, there naturally won't be a problem." Qin Wentian smiled. His eyes flashed. In the future, his friends, family and followers all can cultivate in the Heaven Vault.

"Grandfather, didn't you say that there are many people in the Luoshen Clan who wish to follow you? In the past, you didn't want to further fragment the Luoshen Clan. You were also worried because if you have a fixed base, enemies might attack it and it wasn't convenient for too many people from the Luoshen Clan to follow you. But now, this problem is solved. You can slowly contact those loyal to you and get them to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. I'm sure the Luoshen Clan would rise up once again." Qin Wentian spoke. The Luoshen Clan was his mother's clan, the heartblood of his grandfather. In addition, they were already considered quite a strong force. Qin Wentian naturally wanted to nurture the experts from the Luoshen Clan properly and produce peak-tier combatants.

"Right." Luoshen Chuan didn't reject. With such good cultivating conditions, he naturally hoped that the people of the Luoshen Clan would be able to enjoy it.

After Qin Ding's group left Heaven Vault, they headed towards Qu Shen's residence in Boundless City and were discussing about the marriage between Qin Dingtian and Nichang. There were rumors saying that Qu Shen was very unhappy about something and didn't wish to fix a date so fast, it was unknown what his intentions were. But Qin Ding's attitude was like iron, he directly set a date and left with Qin Zheng and the others, returning back to the Qin Clan.

Naturally, no one knew of the true details. There was someone who said that after the Qin Clan left, Deity Qu was incomparably enraged. Both he and Goddess Nichang didn't step out of their residence at all after that. This couple that was proclaimed as an immortal couple in the past seemed to have a shadow cast on their relationship now. Maybe, it was due to the rumors between Goddess Nichang and Qin Wentian back then.

In any case, currently, Qin Wentian still had the name of the number one shameless heavenly deity in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

After Qin Zheng returned to the Qin Clan, the more he thought about it, the more he felt something was fishy regarding the closure of the Heaven Vault.

In a majestic ancient hall within the Qin Clan, his brows were furrowed as he heard the news brought to him by his subordinate. Although they left the Heaven Vault, they had stationed people there until the Heaven Vault closed completely. But even so, they didn't see Qin Wentian or Luoshen Chuan leaving the place. At that time, as long as either one of them appeared, Qin Zheng would instantly head back to capture them. However, they didn't come out at all. Both Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan seemed like they had already left the Heaven Vault long ago.

Those informants sent to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms stated that during the past two hundred plus years, Qin Wentian had returned numerous times and even brought some people from Azure Mystic away. It was unknown if they were heading towards the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but the chances are high that it was so. Qin Wentian should be bringing them to the Heaven Vault.

Also, Qin Wentian had managed to leave the Gods Extinction Path earlier than them. The Gods Extinction Path had vanished before the Heaven Vault's closure. Qin Zheng kept feeling that something was wrong somewhere.

This was especially so when he recalled some matters of the past. Qin Yuanfeng had obtained that mysterious treasure which seemed to have been given to him by Qin Tiangang who obtained it from the Heaven Vault. What was the reason why the Qin Clan has always been trying to force Qin Yuanfeng out? It was the same reason why they wanted to capture Qin Wentian alive.

He frowned as he silently mused, could it be that supreme treasure has already been passed on by Qin Yuanfeng to Qin Wentian?

And Qin Wentian, depending on that treasure, managed to solve the mystery of Heaven Vault and cause the Gods Extinction Path to disappear and the Heaven Vault to close?

One couldn't help but say that Qin Zheng's conjecture was the truth. But this was just speculation on his part after all. He couldn't ignore the unease in his heart, hence he gave an order, "Send people to monitor the area around Heaven Vault and Azure Mystic. The people at the Heaven Vault's area need not be strong, just pretend that they are cultivating in the boundless sea region."

"Yes." A subordinate bowed and went to execute his order. Qin Zheng stood up as coldness flickered in his eyes. If his speculations are true, Qin Yuanfeng's son, Qin Wentian, might have just accomplished something his father had never accomplished before!

Chapter 1903: A Stone Causing a Thousand-layered Wave

Other than Qin Zheng, there was still one more person observing the area around the Heaven Vault. This person was none other than Yue Changkong. Through these two hundred plus years, he had been trapped inside the Gods Extinction Path but he had improved greatly. Now, on the path of heavenly deities, it can be said that he was climbing higher and higher. But after he exited, he heard about the news regarding Qin Wentian. This meant that Qin Wentian could easily leave the Gods Extinction Path while everyone was trapped.

After he exited the Heaven Vault, Yue Changkong didn't leave immediately. He was waiting for Qin Wentian to appear but Qin Wentian didn't show up despite him waiting for a long time. Since this is the case, there were only two possibilities. Firstly, Qin Wentian had left the Heaven Vault long ago. Secondly, he hasn't exited from there.

With regards to Qin Wentian, Yue Changkong has always viewed him as a mortal enemy. It was like Qin Wentian was the jinx destined to cause setbacks to him in his life. He also truly believed that Qin Wentian had some outstanding characteristics, and even if Qin Wentian really was the one who solved the Heaven Vault's secret and exited way before any of them from the Gods Extinction Path, Yue Changkong didn't feel that it would be strange. This was because Qin Wentian was the one who made him take this path of eternal condemnation.

He hated Qin Wentian but he also admired this opponent of his. Just like how Qin Wentian viewed Qin Dingtian as his destined enemy, Yue Changkong also viewed Qin Wentian as his destined enemy. Killing Qin Wentian was his strongest obsession.

Right now, in the boundless sea region where waves continuously surged, there was an expert currently sitting in a boat, appearing as though he was cultivating. His cultivation level wasn't high.

This lonely boat simply floated quietly through the sea.

All of a sudden, a head bobbed out from the churning waves, this wasn't a human head but was the head of a demon living in the sea. Its demonic eyes glanced at the boat, before glancing at the area in the sky where the Heaven Vault had vanished, a moment later, it dove back into the sea and vanished from sight.

In the boundless sea region, the sound of waves crashing could be heard along with the roaring wind. But in the air space above the sea region, everything seemed so quiet. It was very hard to imagine that not long ago, this place was the source of a commotion that shook the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, causing experts from all eight great regions to gather here.

During these days, everything seemed normal. Qin Wentian was also worried people might discover the secret of somebody controlling the Heaven Vault. Hence, he didn't come out and chose to cultivate in the starry space of the nine heavenly layers. He wanted to wait until the news of the Heaven Vault's closure completely subsided before he came out. Things would be much safer then.

But Qin Wentian had a feeling that this secret was very tough to conceal. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would never lack of curious people and the Heaven Vault was a place that could even attract heavenly deities. It was undoubtedly the best place to cultivate as of now in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If such a place was controlled by him, and if the news of this was leaked, how could the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms not try to seize it from him?

Naturally, even if it was discovered, the Heaven Vault can still be considered a safe location. Other than him, no one could enter here.

Many days later, in the airspace above the boundless sea region, a tiny slit in the sky appeared. After that, two figures walked out from the slit. These two were none other than Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan. The moment they came out, the slit that was the entrance to the Heaven Vault, immediately closed. This opening lasted for an extremely short instant, if someone didn't stare with their complete attention at that particular spot, they wouldn't notice anything.

In any case, it was impossible for Qin Wentian's group to remain inside the Heaven Vault forever. Although they knew there was a danger in being exposed, they still chose to come out. But, for the sake of safety, only the two most powerful heavenly deities among them which are Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan exited first. The moment they appeared, their silhouettes flashed as they left immediately. They only appeared here for a very short moment.

There was no one currently here in the sea domain. However, below the sea, there was a school of fish swimming around. The eyes of one fish demon flashed with a cold light, after that, the fish demon actually spat out a messaging crystal and sent its demon sense into it, sending out a message.

Abruptly, a terrifying heavenly might bore down on it. That fish demon was greatly shocked, the waters around it churned wildly and flowed in reverse, shooting up into the sky. A white-robed figure stood in the air with a cold expression, this was a true heavenly deity. With a wave of his hand, lives in this particular area were completely exterminated. The fishes below were all killed, their blood dying the water red. But as the currents from the sea flowed back in, the blood was gradually washed away.

"There was no one above the sea, I didn't expect there to be a messenger hiding in the sea." Luoshen Chuan walked over. The one who acted earlier was none other than Qin Wentian.

"Seems like this secret can no longer be concealed." Qin Wentian softly spoke. Although he was already prepared in his heart and didn't feel that this secret could be kept forever, he still didn't expect this moment would come so fast. After the commotion of the Heaven Vault's closing faded, there were already people paying attention to the area around it? How unexpected. He also didn't know who wanted to find him so badly. Was it the Qin Clan? But most probably, he would soon have the answer.

"Grandfather, let's leave." Qin Wentian spoke. The two of them flew to Boundless City. Qin Wentian then spoke to Luoshen Chuan, "Grandfather, you have to be careful about this trip of yours to the Desolate Region this time around. If the Qin Clan is there, other than me, they would surely target you."

“I know, you be careful as well.” Luoshen Chuan nodded.

“Don’t worry grandfather. Right now, I believe I have the strength to protect myself.” Qin Wentian confidently replied. Luoshen Chuan nodded. After two hundred plus years of cultivation, the Qin Wentian now couldn’t be compared to the past. His grandson now can be considered as a truly powerful heavenly deity.

The two of them split up at Boundless City as the destinations they were heading to were different. Luoshen Chuan directly sped away, while Qin Wentian entered Boundless City. He paid a visit to Deity Qu. Firstly, this was because of courtesy. After all, Qu Mo and Nichang had helped him out before. Secondly, he wanted to know if Qin Zheng had spoken to Qu Shen about the marriage after they came out. Although he had conveyed Nichang’s father, Qu Mo’s attitude to them, it wasn’t going to be so easy to reject the Qin Clan.

After all, the Qin Clan was a peak power of the Heaven Region.

After arriving at the Qu Residence, the atmosphere was somewhat quiet. A smile appeared on Qu Shen’s face when he saw Qin Wentian arriving.

“Grandpa Qu,” Qin Wentian called out.

“Wentian, thanks for visiting.” Qu Shen nodded lightly. If Qin Zheng or Qin Dangtian could show him true respect like Qin Wentian, maybe he wouldn’t want to reject the marriage engagement.

“Nichang, Wentian is here. Why don’t you come out?” Qu Shen called. A moment later, Goddess Nichang came here. She was still as beautiful as ever but her expression was somewhat cold when she stared at Qin Wentian, filled with a hint of bitter resentment. Qin Wentian could only smile bitterly.

“There’s no need to trouble Nichang. I just came to see if everything is well. I will be leaving soon.” Qin Wentian shifted his gaze away as he smiled.

“Since you already came, just take a seat and rest a little. I will get someone to prepare a banquet.” Qu Shen spoke. He then continued, “You can accompany me for a chat. The waves at the back of the river would always catch up with the waves in the front. I didn’t expect you to become a heavenly deity at such a young age. The junior generations are truly to be feared.”

Qin Wentian was helpless and could only agree to stay. The banquet was soon prepared. Goddess Nichang sat beside Qu Shen but she didn't say anything at all. From the start to the end, Qin Wentian and Qu Shen were the ones chatting. As they chatted, their topic soon moved to the Heaven Vault and to the Qin Clan. Upon hearing of the Qin Clan, Qu Shen's expression turned cold. Qin Wentian could sense his attitude and felt somewhat puzzled. Qu Shen then explained, "After the Heaven Vault closed, Qin Ding and Qin Zheng came by to look for me."

"Mhm?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Could it be the cold look on Qu Shen's face has something to do with this?

Qin Ding actually came by personally.

"Back then, some rumors were spread about you and Nichang. In truth, I hoped that the Qin Clan would cancel this marriage engagement out of their own will. In that case, even if I lose face, I can at least face up to her father, Qu Mo. However, Qin Ding took the initiative to ask if you have done anything to Nichang. After Nichang said no, Qin Ding directly set the date for the marriage. I wanted to delay this but Qin Ding's attitude was extremely overbearing. Although I'm acquainted with him since a long time ago, right now our statuses are not equal. He wouldn't give me face just because we are old acquaintances."

Qu Shen calmly spoke. Qin Wentian sighed in his heart. This, might be the cruel reality of the cultivation world.

He glanced at Goddess Nichang. But when she heard that they were speaking about her marriage, she kept her head lowered.

"In her heart, what does Nichang feel? Is she willing though?" Qin Wentian asked. He also didn't know if he should direct this question to Nichang or Qu Shen. If Goddess Nichang was willing, there was nothing he could say. Although he naturally didn't hope that she, as his benefactor who helped him before would marry his fated enemy.

"Nichang, Wentian isn't an outsider. You can tell him your thoughts." Qu Shen spoke to his granddaughter.

Not an outsider?

Qin Wentian felt warmth in his heart. Qu Shen truly treated him as how Qu Shen would treat a junior of his own clan.

Goddess Nichang inclined her head. Her beautiful eyes glanced at Qu Shen before glancing at Qin Wentian. She was as cold and calm as ever, no one could tell what she was thinking about in her heart.

“I don’t really have any thoughts about this.” Goddess Nichang stood up. She didn’t say anything else and simply turned to leave, causing Qin Wentian to start.

When he saw this scene, Qu Shen’s eyes gleamed. He then softly spoke, “I actually know what she is thinking in her heart.”

“Grandpa Qu, what do you mean?” Qin Wentian asked.

“She is unwilling too.” Qu Shen calmly spoke, his words causing Qin Wentian’s gaze to grow sharp.

“It’s just that she is worried. Given the Qin Clan’s current might, if she disagrees...” Qu Shen sighed, hating that he wasn’t strong enough. It was one thing even if his strength was far from Qin Ding. He still had hidden injuries on his body. Now that they had already agreed to the marriage engagement, it wasn’t going to be so easy to break their word.

Nichang also understood this. Hence, even if she wasn’t willing, she wouldn’t say anything. Because, she had to consider this useless old fellow which was him.

Qin Wentian’s emotions felt somewhat heavy after he left the Qu Residence. Qu Mo’s words have been passed on by him but has this marriage already become something unobstructable?

After he left, he naturally prepared to head back to Azure Mystic.

And just when he arrived in Azure Mystic, shocking news erupted in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Heaven Vault actually wasn’t truly closed. The secret of the Heaven Vault had been obtained by somebody and the Heaven Vault now was in someone’s control.

A tiny stone caused a thousand-layered wave to rise. An earthquake-level commotion once again shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

How could the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm forget a cultivation holy ground like the Heaven Vault?

Now that there was news saying that the Heaven Vault has fallen into someone's control, another formless storm was currently brewing!

Chapter 1904: His Name Today

The strange thing was that this news didn't circulate from the Heaven Region but came from the Mystic Region instead.

After that, the identity of the Heaven Vault's current controller was exposed as well. It was actually none other than the number one shameless deity of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Qin Wentian.

There were news saying that many peak characters of the major powers including the Qin Clan, Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, had all entered and were trapped inside the Gods Extinction Path. No one managed to break out from there save for one person and that person was Qin Wentian. He brought his grandfather Luoshen Chuan out with him, safe and sound, way ahead compared to any of the other heavenly deities. It was only after the Gods Extinction Path had vanished did the other heavenly deities manage to return.

There was more news saying that several days after the Heaven Vault had closed, someone personally saw Qin Wentian exiting the Heaven Vault.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, many people believed in this news, including many of the peak character. Because, they all had gone inside the Gods Extinction Path before and knew that unless one managed to obtain the secret of Heaven Vault, they would surely not be able to leave the dark void.

Hence, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms which had originally calmed down, was seized by another commotion again. Countless experts rushed from the eight regions to Boundless City. Their target was still the Heaven Vault.

After some time, the experts gathered outside the Heaven Vault were as common as the clouds. Although the number couldn't be compared to back then, many of the people here today were still from the peak powers of the eight regions. All of them wanted to meet Qin Wentian. If the rumours were real, they wanted Qin Wentian to open the Heaven Vault and allow them to go back in for cultivation.

The Qin Wentian now has already returned to Azure Mystic and he was preparing to bring his friends and family here to the Heaven Vault for cultivation. Being in such close contact with the various constellations, Heaven Vault was undoubtedly the most suitable place for cultivators to comprehend insights.

Although he had returned to Azure Mystic, he soon received the news from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. As expected, the news has spread. Several people messaged Qin Wentian, including some people from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

But this was fine too. Since the secret was out, he actually felt more at ease as he didn't have to hide anything. He directly told those who sent the news to him that the rumours are true. He was now the person controlling the Heaven Vault.

The news inadvertently leaked. For a period of time, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was shaken by an earthquake again. Even more experts headed towards the area of the Heaven Vault. So, everyone was fooled by Qin Wentian. The Heaven Vault didn't close by itself. It was controlled to close by Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's name once again shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, ringing even louder.

After that, even more news spread out saying that back then in the world of reincarnation of the sacred academy, Qin Wentian was the person who entered the true legendary place. He was then the true chosen of the heavens and was much more outstanding than Qin Dingtian. In the future, he would take revenge on the Qin Clan for sure. Qin Dingtian was named Heaven's Son? What a joke. Even his woman was played by Qin Wentian before.

This news was somewhat malicious and had the intent to humiliate the Qin Clan. Also, it made many experts from the Qin Clan and other peak powers wary of Qin Wentian.

He is the son of the traitor of the Qin Clan, Qin Yuanfeng, and the Goddess of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Qianxue. Now, he was already a heavenly deity and can control the Heaven Vault. Not only so, he also abducted Qin Dangtian's woman and even entered the true legendary place of the sacred academy before. All of this caused the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to treat him as a supreme character. Qin Wentian had unknowingly rose up and was now already standing at a very high peak.

In the Pureland of Bliss of the Universe Region, within a buddha sect, a reverend pressed his palms together and faced the west.

“Seven Abstinences.” At this moment, a voice drifted over. Behind the reverend, the illusory image of a buddha arhat appeared, shining resplendently.

Reverend Seven Abstinences turned and bowed towards the ancient buddha.

“A storm has manifested in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. You should enter the mortal world.” The buddha spoke. Seven Abstinences nodded. After that, he turned and directly left the mountain. Back then, there were so many geniuses from the different peak powers who went to the world of reincarnation. However, the one who entered the true legendary place in the end wasn't him. That person was now already creating a storm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In the Che Clan, golden light filled the sky. As the number one artificer clan of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Chen Clan was like a huge golden-color metal world. It shone resplendently, akin to a divine formation, able to emit shocking might at any moment.

Within the Che Clan, Che Ying stood inside a majestic ancient hall. Now, he has already become a heavenly deity, verifying his dao in the Heaven Vault. However, there was news saying that the young man who once narrowly lost his life in the world of reincarnation, was then the true person who entered the legendary place. Also, that young man now was the controller of the Heaven Vault.

Che Ying decided to set off again, heading towards the Heaven Region.

And in the Heaven Region, within the Qiankun Sect. Lin Xiao also turned his gaze to the horizons. He thought back to the young man who went crazy in the world of reincarnation when Luoshen Lei died. He didn't expect the person who entered the true legendary place to actually be him. Also, Qin Wentian was the current controller of the Heaven Vault. Things were too interesting.

Desolate Region, Divine Ox Castle. Recently, the ox chieftain would often fly into a rage. There were many rumors regarding Qin Wentian. Some guessed that Devilox of the Divine Ox Clan had precisely died to Qin Wentian's hand. The Battle Saint Bone already landed in Qin Wentian's hand and now, Qin Wentian was the controller of the Heaven Vault and had already broken through to become a heavenly deity.

Also in the Desolate Region, within the Devil God Mountain, the five demon sovereigns gathered together. Luoshen Chuan was here as well. The Kun Sovereign spoke in a somewhat depressed tone. “That little fellow is faithless. We taught him so many years yet he didn’t inform us when he snuck over into the Heaven Vault to cultivate. Even when we told him to come back, he didn’t reply.”

“Kun Sovereign, you should know that Little Rascal has been following my grandson around since they were very young. Their relationship is exceptionally deep and you should know what would happen if this secret was exposed. Now, you have already seen the situation, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is shaken. It’s only normal that Little Rascal chose to temporarily keep the news from all of you.” Luoshen Chuan spoke.

“He has no conscience. We have nurtured him for nothing.” The Kun Sovereign angrily spoke. “Luoshen Chuan, your Luoshen Clan and our Demon God Mountain are allies. What is Qin Wentian’s attitude regarding the Heaven Vault? Can experts from our Demon God Mountain enter there to cultivate?”

Who didn’t wish to enter the Heaven Vault?

Luoshen Clan and the Demon God Mountain always had a good relationship with Qin Wentian. This was their advantage. Now that the secret was exposed, that fellow Qin Wentian wouldn’t not allow their people to go there to cultivate, right? If Qin Wentian refused, then there would be no meaning of being allies any more.

“I will have to consult him for his opinion.” Luoshen Chuan spoke. The Kun Sovereign nodded. The gazes of the five demon sovereigns were filled with anticipation. If the experts from their Demon God Mountain could enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation, they would surely improve very quickly. In the future, there might not be five, but ten demon sovereigns of their Demon God Mountain instead.

All the experts of the various powers had different thoughts but there was one undoubtable point. Qin Wentian’s name had already spread throughout the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm.

There were now many experts outside the Heaven Vault. Qin Wentian naturally wouldn’t show himself easily, and he had not appeared in public for several years already. He wanted to see how long these people could wait for. After all, even if he wasn't inside the Heaven Vault, he could still cultivate.

In fact, no one knew that in truth, Qin Wentian has actually already arrived at the boundless sea region. It was just that he was disguised and no one could recognize him.

As time passed, the number of people outside the Heaven Vault wasn't as much as before. This was especially so for powerful heavenly deities. It was impossible for them to waste their time and wait here forever for Qin Wentian to appear. Because they knew that Qin Wentian would surely not show himself easily.

Today, a group of experts appeared in the boundless sea region. They headed forward in batches and came to the location below the Heaven Vault, mixing into the crowd. Although currently, the number of people outside Heaven Vault wasn't as much as before, there were still plenty of them. A few batches of people mixing into the crowd wasn't too conspicuous. This was especially so that their cultivation bases weren't high.

These batches of people were from Azure Mystic. After several years, Qin Wentian noticed the crowd outside Heaven Vault had lessened. This was why he silently brought them here.

These people consisted of experts from the Battle Saint Tribe, Southern Phoenix Clan and Myriad Devil Islands. Naturally, not everyone was here, only those with a higher cultivation base relative to the people of Azure Mystic. Qin Wentian didn't intend to bring everyone here in a single trip or that would have been too eye-catching.

These people gradually moved towards each other and gathered together. After that, an intense spatial storm engulfed them.

"Huh?" Many people frowned, staring over. After that, they only saw a spatial storm above the sea region and in an instant, at the point where the sky connected with the sea, a thin slit appeared.

The Heaven Vault had opened.

"Go." Numerous figures soared into the air and flew towards there. But at this moment, that spatial storm engulfing the groups of people earlier brought them into the slit and at the same time, a terrifying heaven might bore down on everyone else, obstructing them from advancing forward. In just an instant, the slit that was the entrance, closed again as a white-robed figure stood in the air, staring at everyone else.

“Qin Wentian.” Many people stared at the handsome young man whose true features were changing to his original appearance. Their eyes gleamed with sharpness as several terrifying auras gushed forth. These terrifying auras all belonged to heavenly deities. Clearly, there had been some heavenly deities hiding in the shadows here.

“Everyone, what can I do for you?” Qin Wentian stared at them as he calmly spoke. Since the secret of the Heaven Vault has been exposed, he didn’t really care anymore.

“Qin Wentian, you are actually in control of the Heaven Vault. You should allow everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to peruse it. What do you intend by occupying it for your own?” A person coldly spoke. That person was a world overlord from a peak power.

Qin Wentian calmly glanced at him before speaking with cold disdain, “Do you have the qualifications to talk to me?”

That expert’s expression froze before turning extremely unsightly. One of the heavenly deities spoke, “Qin Wentian, the Heaven Vault cannot be something you possess alone, it belongs to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Are you really intending to not share with everyone and occupy it yourself?”

“I’m the inheritor of the Heaven Vault, I naturally have the power to decide who can enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. In any case, which of the peak powers are you from?” Qin Wentian calmly asked.

“Heavenly Deity Mountain.” That heavenly deity replied.

“The Heavenly Deity Mountain originally also belonged to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but it is now occupied by you experts from the Heavenly Deity Mountain Sect. Why can you all possess it alone then? If one day I bring some people over to cultivate there, would all of you welcome everyone who wants to use the resources of the Heavenly Deity Mountain with open arms?” Qin Wentian coldly replied.

“You are distorting logic.” That heavenly deity angrily spoke. Another heavenly deity then spoke, “Qin Wentian, experts from the various peak powers from the eight regions are here today. If you want to occupy the Heaven Vault alone, that would be tantamount to declaring war against all the experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Are you trying to threaten me?” Qin Wentian’s eyes flickered with coldness, staring at that heavenly deity. When that heavenly deity matched his gaze, that heavenly deity actually felt a sense of pressure!

Chapter 1905: Announcement

The expression of that heavenly deity turned cold. It was said that Qin Wentian recently attained his dao about two hundred years before this, during the time when the Heaven Vault opened. How strong would he be?

As a heavenly deity, he naturally has his own pride and imposingness. He stared at Qin Wentian and coldly spoke, “This isn’t me threatening you, I’m just stating facts. Right now, everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms knows that you are the controller of the Heaven Vault. I want to ask if you have the face to occupy the Heaven Vault yourself? Do you really think you are strong enough to take on all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as your enemy?”

All the experts below stared up at Qin Wentian. The secret of the Heaven Vault was too extraordinary, everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were paying attention to it. Qin Wentian wanted to monopolize the Heaven Vault? This was absolutely impossible.

Qin Wentian calmly stared at everyone below. It was not impossible for him to allow the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to enter there and cultivate. However, the prerequisite was that he had to truly have enough strength to look down imperiously on all the other powers from a height above like the mysterious white-robed young man in the world of reincarnation. When one stood at the absolute peak, they naturally hoped for the junior generations being able to grow in strength as well.

But now, he can’t do this yet. It wasn’t because he was selfish. Rather, it was because the human heart was unfathomable. If he allowed everyone to enter the Heaven Vault and everyone knew that he was the controller, how could they not act against him? Could they not try and seize the authority of control from him? What was the reason why the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms launched a war against the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms back then, causing the loss of countless lives? Naturally, it was because of authority of control as well as cultivation resources.

Treasures were always the source for conflict. Let alone the control authority of a supreme treasure such as the Heaven Vault. It would definitely attract the killing intent of everyone. By allowing people from the other peak powers to enter, it would only be dangerous for him. In addition, he still had powerful enemies like the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan.

“If you obtain a treasure, would you take it out and share with everyone in the world?” Qin Wentian coldly laughed. After he obtained the inheritance of Godking Xi, he naturally gained control of the Heaven Vault. In that case, he clearly became the one to decide who could enter Heaven Vault, he shouldn’t be forced or pressured by others.

If one was to say that the Heaven Vault should belong to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, that would be a joke. When one obtained a treasure, did that person really have to take it out and share with everyone else?

“Qin Wentian, this decision isn’t up to you. Those people earlier were allowed into the Heaven Vault by you, they should be your friends or family, right? This means that you are already starting to take preventive measures, you clearly understand what the Heaven Vault means to everyone. Have you thought about the consequences of being stubborn?” That heavenly deity coldly spoke, he naturally wouldn’t argue about logic with Qin Wentian.

“Haha, threatening me?” Qin Wentian suddenly laughed. “Fine then, I will wait outside the Heaven Vault for everyone in the world. I want to see exactly what the consequences would be.”

His voice thundered through the air as he simply stood above the sea region, allowing the ocean breeze to set his clothes aflutter while exuding an air of boundless magnificence.

As long as he entered the Heaven Vault, what could anyone do to him? However, he didn’t enter the Heaven Vault, he simply stood there and seemed to be calmly waiting to see what people could do to him.

Many people took out their messaging crystals and sent out information to their own respective powers.

Qin Wentian’s appearance, the reopening of the Heaven Vault as well as Qin Wentian sending some people into it soon began to circulate around. In Boundless City that was closest to the boundless sea region, a storm of commotion occurred as experts from the city flew towards the sea region endlessly.

For a time, the dissipated commotion rose up again as a storm manifested.

The Qin Clan always had someone here monitoring the Heaven Vault. Currently in Boundless City, two powerful heavenly deities of the Qin Clan were stationed there. When they received the news, they instantly set off, flying towards the direction of the Heaven Vault.

In the Qu Residence, Qu Shen called his granddaughter Goddess Nichang over. He stared at her and softly spoke, "Earlier, I received the news that Wentian has appeared once more and his location is at the Heaven Vault. He just sent in a batch of people to cultivate in there. During these years, I'm sure you also know about the news circulating around the outside world."

"Mhm." Goddess Nichang nodded her head lightly. Qin Wentian created such a huge commotion, it would be difficult even if she didn't wish to know.

"Do you still remember back then when Wentian came to our residence, I once asked you what are your thoughts?" Qu Shen suddenly asked. Goddess Nichang started before nodding her head. Her grandfather had asked her what are her thoughts regarding the marriage engagement with Qin Dangtian.

"Maybe at that time, he wanted to say something. Maybe if you said you don't agree with the marriage engagement, he would have revealed the fact that he controls the Heaven Vault and you can hide in there. However, you didn't express your true feelings." Qu Shen bitterly smiled. "Grandpa knows what you are thinking about. If you truly don't want to marry to Qin Dangtian, don't force yourself. This is your father's wish as well. Although the Heaven Vault became a place everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm are lusting over, it's very safe in there. Most probably other than Qin Wentian, no one else would be able to enter.

Goddess Nichang's beautiful gaze froze as she stared at her grandpa, she naturally understood the thoughts in his heart.

"I will go to the boundless sea region to take a look first." Goddess Nichang softly spoke. Qu Shen smiled and nodded his head lightly. He had no choice but to act like this due to the personality of his granddaughter. His granddaughter was always so cold to everyone else. Most probably, this was because her parents weren't around when she was growing up. Because of this, Qu Shen also felt some guilt.

Goddess Nichang then departed. Although her back view was beautiful, one could sense that she radiated a sense of loneliness.

In Boundless City, endless waves of experts flew into the air with lightning speed, radiating terrifying auras as they rushed towards the boundless sea region.

These people were clearly here for the Heaven Vault. Because Qin Wentian didn't appear for several years, they left the boundless sea region and waited in Boundless City instead. Now, the news of Qin Wentian's appearance finally came.

One could say that for those peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the vast majority of them had sent people to wait at Boundless City.

Because of Qin Wentian's appearance, they rushed out at the same time, heading towards the sea region. In fact, quite a few deity-level auras engulfing the entire city could be felt. Other than the several deities, there were also many powerful world overlords.

The people of Boundless city felt their hearts shaking. If Qin Wentian didn't appear, they would basically never imagine so many powerful existences were hiding in their city.

Currently at the location of the Heaven Vault above the sea region, more and more experts came by. Those who arrived first weren't in a hurry to do anything to Qin Wentian. Just like what the first heavenly deity had said, by monopolizing the Heaven Vault, the whole Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would treat Qin Wentian as his enemy.

Qin Wentian wouldn't give up his control of the Heaven Vault. The number of people who wished to deal with him was almost countless. Hence, no one felt hurried.

More and more experts arrived. Other than those from the major powers, there were also many bystanders who came to watch the drama. Their eyes were fixed on the white-robed young man standing in the air. Qin Wentian had his eyes closed and seemed incomparably calm. Many people silently sighed in admiration. Even at this moment, he was still so calm, as expected of a character that could cause a storm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Lin Xiao also arrived. He came here with the mystical maiden, it was like he would be everywhere with her until he successfully wooed her. His gaze turned to Qin Wentian. Back then, the person in the world of reincarnation who went crazy due to Luoshen Lei's death, was actually so imposing now.

Goddess Nichang also came. Her beautiful eyes stared at the figure in the air but there was no expression on her face.

“Goddess Nichang!” Her appearance instantly caused a minor commotion.

“Her eyes don’t seem to contain any hatred when she looks at Qin Wentian.” Many people discussed. Back then, the incident of Qin Wentian abducting Nichang created huge waves in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. By right, Goddess Nichang should have some reaction when staring at him, right? Could it be something really happened?

Many people were still waiting. It was like no one was in a hurry to make things difficult for Qin Wentian.

After some time, the two heavenly deities of the Qin Clan finally walked out. Their expressions were cold as they spoke, “This brat Qin Wentian has immense ambitions, actually wanting to monopolize the Heaven Vault. Everyone, why is there a need to waste time? We should capture him directly and force the controlling mechanism out from him.”

Qin Wentian opened his eyes and stared at the two heavenly deities from the Qin Clan.

“Qin Wentian, say it for yourself. Are you willing to open the Heaven Vault to let everyone enter?” Someone asked.

Qin Wentian didn’t say anything. The experts in the crowd frowned as their expressions turned cold. Another person questioned, “Since he is unwilling to express his stance, why bother wasting words?”

Such voices rang out consecutively, all of them wanting to capture Qin Wentian and seize the secret of controlling the Heaven Vault from him. For a time, Qin Wentian was the target for a multitude of arrows.

Qin Wentian opened his eyes and stared at the countless experts here. He would have to face them sooner or later. In that case, he might as well make things clear in one go. If someone wants to be enemies with him, he was fine with it.

“Today, I won’t lie to everyone. The Heaven Vault was left behind by an ancient expert and I’ve inherited it. This means that the Heaven Vault now belongs to me. I waited for all of you here because I want to tell the world that this Heaven Vault is mine and mine alone. If I want to allow people to enter, they can enter but if someone wishes to threaten me and be my enemy, I, Qin Wentian, shall accept no matter who or how many powers want to come at me.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke, his gaze sweeping through the area. The wind here fluttered his robes, causing flapping sounds in the air.

He stood there and announced to everyone that the Heaven Vault belongs to him. It was his choice whether or not to let someone enter it.

Also, for those who wished to threaten him and become his enemy, he shall accept it no matter who or how many powers came at him!

Chapter 1906: Domineering

Suave!

The hearts of many involuntarily praised in admiration. When facing the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Qin Wentian was still able to give such a domineering reply. The Heaven Vault belonged to me, I will let whoever I want to enter it. Such grace and charm he exuded was like indicating he didn't give a damn about the threats spoken by the heavenly deity earlier at all.

However, it was one thing to be suave. But could he really endure the fires of rage from all the experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

Let alone Qin Wentian, even if the strongest peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms obtained Heaven Vault, they need not dream about monopolizing it alone. Things wouldn't be easy for them either.

"Everyone, I believe you all have heard his words." After a moment of silence, a heavenly deity spoke, his voice filled with a heavy mocking tone.

Indeed, now that the Heaven Vault was inherited by Qin Wentian, he should naturally be its controller by logic. But, does he have the strength to support this? He made that announcement before all the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm. How arrogant and ridiculous was that? He simply didn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth despite the fact that he was already a heavenly deity.

Qin Wentian gracefully smiled. He calmly spoke, "Since this is the case, for those who wish to threaten me to handover the Heaven Vault, just stand before me."

After hearing Qin Wentian's words, the airspace above the Heaven Region fell silent once more. Qin Wentian already said that he would accept it no matter who or how many wanted to be his enemies. Now, he wanted those who would be his enemies to stand before him. Clearly, he wasn't running away. Since this is the case, who among them should take the lead?

Seeing everyone remain silent, Qin Wentian laughed. "No matter what, everyone is at least someone from one of the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There are even several heavenly deities here. If you all only dare to make a commotion while hiding in the crowd, it would be better for you to shut up so as not to embarrass yourselves."

His words were already filled with the hint of provocation.

"Arrogant." Lin Xiao laughed in a low voice after he heard that. The mystical maiden also felt speechless. This Qin Wentian, not only did he attempt to avoid the pressure from the peak powers, he actually voluntarily welcomed the pressure? This was truly arrogance and not arrogance of an ordinary level.

"Vile spawn." A cold voice rang out. The two heavenly deities from the Qin Clan walked out, their eyes flashing with coldness as they stared at Qin Wentian. One of them spoke, "Qin Wentian, although your father was a traitor of the Qin Clan, the blood that flows in your veins ultimately is that of the Qin Clan as well. If you are willing to apologize on behalf of your father and beg the clan leader for forgiveness and gift the Heaven Vault to our Qin Clan, the Qin Clan might be magnanimous enough to forgive the crimes you and your father committed."

"Gift the Heaven Vault to the Qin Clan? Apologize? Beg for forgiveness?" Qin Wentian stared at the heavenly deity from the Qin Clan who spoke. Such shameless words, yet this heavenly deity spoke like justice was on his side. Could it be that the higher one's cultivation was, the thicker their skin would be?

"I have never been someone from the Qin Clan. My father also feels shame that he was born as part of the Qin Clan. As for all of you, who the hell do you think you are? How can your skins be so thick? Do you even still want face?" Qin Wentian mocked. The eyes of the two heavenly deities narrowed as their expressions froze. Their auras gushed out, causing heavenly might to crackle. A terrifying power erupted forth in the airspace above the sea region.

"As expected of a vile spawn. Since this is the case, we can only forcibly capture you back to the Qin Clan." Another one of the heavenly deities spoke in a righteous manner. Capturing Qin Wentian back to the Qin Clan? The other experts here would definitely not agree. So, the purpose of the two heavenly deities saying all of this was because they wanted to bring Qin Wentian away. After all, capturing Qin Wentian means obtaining the Heaven Vault. How can they allow the plans of the Qin Clan to succeed?

However, since the Qin Clan was willing to take the lead in this situation, they didn't mind watching for now. But if the Qin Clan wanted to bring Qin Wentian away, this was clearly impossible.

"Foolishly stubborn." The heavenly deity from the Qin Clan coldly spoke. A vertical slit appeared in the center of his brows, opening to reveal an eye. This eye was terrifying to the extreme and shot out heavenly might. In an instant, the area ahead was engulfed by the power of his eye, including the body of Qin Wentian.

"Qin Li's eye of control." The heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were all famous individuals. The moment this heavenly deity acted, even for those juniors who haven't seen him before, would all know who he was based on the attacks he used. Qin Li, a heavenly deity of the Qin Clan. He depended on Qin Clan's bloodline art to attain his heavenly dao and formed an eye of control that contained heavenly might. It was able to control the movements of people and even seize everything from its target.

Qin Wentian stiffened when he felt the controlling might boring down on him. For a time, his entire body felt ice-cold. Was it this kind of power that plundered all the energy from his father back then?

In the past, his father encountered the joint attacks by many of the elders from the Qin Clan. He also had no idea what agony his father faced. But now, as a heavenly deity, when he sensed the power of the eye of control, he could faintly sense that it was a similar power. Likely it was this eye of control that seized everything from his father after he was heavily injured when he was being ganged up on.

This surge of heavenly might was extremely fearsome and tyrannical, enveloping a complete area. Directly trying to invade Qin Wentian's body.

But right now, there was only coldness in Qin Wentian's gaze.

The other party frowned, the power of his eye of control descended, wanting to control everything in the world. However, Qin Wentian actually simply stood there in a stable manner. Qin Li could sense the existence of a layer of sealing energy in Qin Wentian's body protecting him from any invasion of outside energy.

Qin Wentian took a step forward and crossed the space, appearing before Qin Li. This amount of distance was simply too short to heavenly deities, let alone Qin Wentian who was proficient in the laws of space and time. A single step was all he needed.

Qin Wentian glanced at Qin Li, similarly casting a glance at him. In an instant, Qin Li felt an entire spacetime being created by Qin Wentian's gaze, completely enveloping him. His body directly sank into the world created by Qin Wentian's gaze, he could do nothing to resist that tyrannical power.

His eye at the center of his brow began to glow with a terrifying luster. In the air, a manifestation of Qin Li's eye of control appeared, locking down on this created world. However, to his horror, Qin Li discovered everything in this world was under Qin Wentian's control. This included his own dao as well.

A beam of light radiated forth from an ancient word, moving with incredible speed, resembling a sword of the heavenly dao. Qin Li's eyes were filled with fear. He sensed that sword was moving too fast, so fast that he had no way to evade. It wasn't the sword that was fast. Rather, in this spacetime, he was simply too slow. Everything here was under Qin Wentian's control. Fast or slow depended on his desire.

He cursed in rage. A beam of extremely bright light shot out from his third eye, but when it came in contact with the power of the ancient word, the beam of control light directly shattered. The ancient word contained Qin Wentian's dao, his Spacetime Sword Dao.

"ARGH!" A scream of misery rang out. Qin Li's third eye was directly pierced through as fresh blood flowed. He covered his third eye with his hand as a look of incomparable agony appeared on his face.

However, people in the surroundings were all staring at this scene in shock. Because, the current Qin Li wasn't in the same spacetime as them, he was sealed in another world created by Qin Wentian.

"From today onwards, you will be trapped in that world forever." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. A beam of light shot out from his eyes and the sealed spacetime he created earlier vanished, like it never existed before. No one knew where that world had gone to. It disappeared alongside with Qin Li.

It wasn't difficult for a heavenly deity to create a world. However, after creating it, Qin Wentian sealed the world away completely with Qin Li being trapped within. As long as Qin Li couldn't break through the seals, he would never be able to exit from there. Also, it was clear that Qin Li who was trapped by a single gaze wouldn't have enough strength to break the world he was sealed in.

A heavenly deity was going to vanish just like that?

This was like a play, a heavenly deity had vanished with the effort of a single gaze.

Everyone knew the difference in strength with regards to each cultivation realm. The higher one climbed, the greater the disparity would be. At the heavenly deity level, the disparity in strength between different heavenly deities could reach a terrifying extent. At this moment, all the people here clearly saw this.

Qin Wentian and Qin Li were both heavenly deities but the disparity in their strength wasn't just a little bit. Qin Wentian could completely dominate his opponent. Before Qin Wentian, there was no difference between Qin Li and a world overlord. However, everyone knew that Qin Li was a heavenly deity and he had become one since countless years ago.

Comparing the two of them, Qin Wentian had just broken through to the heavenly deity realm roughly about two hundred years back.

However, the strength and weakness of heavenly deities were never measured by the amount of time they spent in this realm.

The other heavenly deity of the Qin Clan was named Qin Cang. When he saw the fight that ended in an instant, his expression turned extremely pale. His strength was roughly equal to Qin Li. If he fought against Qin Wentian now, the ending could very well be imagined.

Qin Yuanfeng's son was already so powerful to this extent?

He involuntarily thought of Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. When Qin Dangtian had just been a heavenly deity for two hundred years, was he as powerful as Qin Wentian?

To his shock, he realized that the Qin Dangtian then, couldn't be compared to the current Qin Wentian.

The talent of Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian was acknowledged by everyone in the Qin Clan. In the future, he would surpass Qin Zheng and might be the strongest person ever to be born in the Qin Clan. However, when he compared Qin Dangtian and Qin Wentian, he actually didn't have the absolute confidence to say that Qin Dangtian's talent was higher. What did this indicate?

This indicated that as long as this traitor's son had enough time, Qin Wentian might be able to surpass everyone in the Qin Clan, including Qin Dangtian. In that case, what would the situation for their Qin Clan be like?

"During these years, there are plenty of rumors floating around about me. As a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan, you should have heard the rumors, right?" Qin Wentian stared at Qin Cang as he asked.

Qin Cang's expression turned ugly. He had naturally heard the rumors regarding Qin Wentian before.

"In that case, have you not heard that Qin Zhong's death was caused by me alone?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Qin Cang turned pale. In the past if Qin Wentian said this, he would doubt this. But now, he actually believed it.

"When I was at the world overlord realm, I could already kill a heavenly deity of your Qin Clan. Now, with my current level of power, the two of you want to bring me back there?" Qin Wentian mockingly spoke, the hearts of everyone trembled when they heard that. They were like Qin Cang. At this moment, no one doubted Qin Wentian. Back then, Qin Zhong was killed by him alone, when Qin Wentian was still a mere world overlord.

"Don't worry. I won't kill you but I won't let you go either." Qin Wentian calmly continued. It was like the fate of this heavenly deity before him was already in his control, no one would be able to do anything. If he wanted Qin Cang to die, Qin Cang wouldn't be able to live.

"There's one more heavenly deity from the Luoshen Clan being detained in the Qin Clan now, right? Just as well, get them to use him to exchange for you. You better pray that nothing has happened to him. If not, I will make sure you experience whatever he experienced." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. A single sentence has determined Qin Cang's fate, the fate of a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan!

Chapter 1907: Friends and Enemies

After Qin Cang heard Qin Wentian's words, he directly turned and sped away.

A heavenly deity from the powerful Qin Clan actually chose to flee.

This seemed somewhat mocking. Not long ago, Qin Li and Qin Cang still publicly proclaimed that they would capture Qin Wentian back to the Qin Clan to apologize and force the secret of the Heaven Vault out, handing control to the Qin Clan. But now, Qin Cang as a respectable heavenly deity, actually chose to run away instead of fighting.

Although this felt extremely mocking, it was also normal. The strengths of Qin Li and Qin Cang were relatively on the same level. Since Qin Wentian could easily handle Qin Li, it naturally wouldn't be difficult for him to deal with Qin Cang.

How difficult was it for one to cultivate to the level of a heavenly deity? They would naturally treasure their lives.

"Wanting to leave now? Isn't it a little too late?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke. With a glance, the time and space there seemed to twist. His gaze was extremely terrifying, shooting out beams of heavenly dao light. With a single glance, the area ahead was completely engulfed by his pressure. The space there churned wildly, as the laws of time and space revolved rapidly.

At this moment, the experts in the boundless sea region all saw Qin Wentian's eyes. His eyes were like the heavenly dao, representing the law order of heaven and earth.

When Qin Cang sensed the spacetime twisting, his expression turned ashen. He punched out, causing heaven and earth to rumble. This fist of his seemed capable of penetrating everything, yet it failed to break apart the twisting space and time. The pressure produced by the twist bore down on him, pulling him in, and tethered him to Qin Wentian.

"If I don't let you leave, can you leave?" Qin Wentian spoke arrogantly. "Since you want to enter the Heaven Vault so much, I will grant you your wish."

Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, the wave of twisted space time flew into the sky. A slit opened up and Qin Cang was sent inside it. Qin Wentian believed that even a heavenly deity wouldn't be able to break free from his twisted spacetime imbued with the power of the sealing laws.

“Wasn’t that a powerful heavenly deity character?” Many world overlords felt their hearts shaking. Today, the battle they had witnessed overturned all their knowledge. A powerful heavenly deity was actually as weak as an ant, captured so easily without any chance to fight back.

In truth, they had never seen this before because it was very rare for deity-level battles to erupt in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The implications of a deity-level battle was too great. The various powers all had trepidations in their hearts. However, between Qin Wentian and the Qin Clan, they were originally already mortal enemies. So, which party would have trepidation in using heavenly deities?

Back then in the Heaven Vault, the Qin Clan already forced Qin Wentian into the Gods Extinction Path. Hence, towards the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan, Qin Wentian naturally wouldn’t be polite. This was why the deity-level battle they saw today was different from their imaginations. To those peak characters of the peak powers, other than feeling shock at Qin Wentian’s strength, they didn’t feel too much of a surprise with regards to there being such a large disparity in power between heavenly deities.

But, wasn’t this Qin Wentian a little too monstrous?

He seemed to have effortlessly settled the two heavenly deities of the Qin Clan. Most probably, other than those few extremely strong heavenly deities in the Qin Clan, no other heavenly deities would be a match for Qin Wentian.

Was this the source of his confidence of why he dared to take everyone in the world as his enemy? He was so powerful that ordinary deities could only stare up at him in awe.

Qin Wentian still stood in the air space above the sea region. The ocean breeze gusted by, but the gazes of everyone staring at him had changed. They no longer felt Qin Wentian was arrogant or a fool that could easily be trampled on. At this moment, they truly realized that the fact that the fame of the arrogant and handsome-looking young man in the air could resound through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wasn’t a fluke. He had enough strength to depend on. He was currently writing his own legend.

There was no doubt that the future Qin Wentian would surely be able to leave behind a stroke in the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Countless gazes stared at Qin Wentian, including those familiar with him. Goddess Nichang also didn't expect that the young man who once almost sank into mara in the world of reincarnation, was actually so powerful now to this extent. No wonder he was the one who got chosen to enter the true legendary place. It was rumored that one could view heavenly fate there.

Qin Wentian was the focus of all the attention. His gaze was still as calm as water. He displayed his strength earlier because he wanted to shock everyone to prevent people from fishing in troubled waters. If they wanted to force him to open the Heaven Vault, they better be prepared.

A high enough level of strength was undoubtedly the best threat.

After that battle, the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, other than those from the peak powers, definitely wouldn't dare to provoke him. If not, they would simply be overestimating their strengths.

"Is there still anyone who wishes to threaten me? Please step forward now. I can consider it and might send you into the Heaven Vault as well." Qin Wentian calmly smiled. Send them into Heaven Vault and suffer the same fate as Qin Cang?

If their strength wasn't comparable to Qin Wentian, what could they do when they entered the Heaven Vault? They would only become the fish in the net of a fisherman and their fates would be in Qin Wentian's control.

This time, everyone shut up. Those arrogant heavenly deities earlier also tactfully fell silent.

Given the situation now, ordinary heavenly deities would no longer dare to threaten Qin Wentian, that would truly be not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth. Qin Wentian clearly wanted to depend on his advantage of the Heaven Vault to fight against the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If he wasn't strong enough, things were fine as he could be captured. But now, they all knew Qin Wentian's strength was enough to destroy them. Who would still dare to easily step out? Did they feel that their lives are too long?

"Why? Wasn't there many people threatening I, Qin, earlier? Now, why have you all fallen silent?" Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. After that, he waved his hand as a gap appeared in the sky. Within the gap of space, the Heaven Vault could be seen.

"Who wishes to enter?" Qin Wentian calmly asked. "Maybe, I won't obstruct those who wish to enter."

The Heaven Vault was now in plain sight. As long as someone wanted to, it seemed that they could simply enter it. Not long ago, all of them were in a frenzy due to it and wanted to enter. But now that the Heaven Vault appeared, no one dared to make any reckless moves. If they entered the Heaven Vault, how can they fight against Qin Wentian?

Wouldn't Qin Wentian be able to do whatever he wanted to with them?

"No one?" Qin Wentian coldly smiled.

"Me." At this moment, a voice drifted over. After that, a person stepped out. His clothes were simple, he stood there and his entire being was like a sharp sword. He stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "If you are agreeable, I feel like entering the Heaven Vault to cultivate."

Qin Wentian glanced at the person. He smiled, "Since senior is interested, this junior naturally welcomes you. Please feel free to enter."

He had seen this person before. But this was the first time he had a conversation with him. This man in simple clothes was none other than Sword Monarch Jian Junlai.

Jian Junlai nodded lightly to Qin Wentian. After that, his figure flashed and transformed into a beam of sword light, directly entering Heaven Vault before the eyes of everyone.

"When I don't allow people to enter, you guys wished to threaten me. But when I allow people to go in, no one dares to enter? How ridiculous." Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. His figure flashed as he entered Heaven Vault as well. After he entered, the Heaven Vault closed once again.

Qin Wentian's voice still echoed through the airspace above the sea region. The expressions of those people turned extremely ugly. After some time, some people spoke, "That's right, Qin Wentian earlier already said that he might allow people to enter. Why didn't I step out together with the Sword Monarch?"

"We missed an opportunity." Lin Xiao clapped his hand to his forehead as he depressedly spoke. Who said that entering the Heaven Vault means becoming an enemy of Qin Wentian?

Earlier, Qin Wentian was only so domineering before people who had threatened him. But when he took the initiative to issue the invitation of entering, if it wasn't for the hearts of these people being filled with doubts, most probably nothing would happen to them even if they entered the Heaven Vault. Could it be Qin Wentian would really kill everyone who entered the Heaven Vault?

After thinking about it, many people felt regret, as though they missed out on a heaven-sent opportunity. There were some who coldly snorted. Maybe Qin Wentian didn't obstruct the person in simple clothes because that person was the Sword Monarch. Who could guarantee that Qin Wentian would really allow them to enter?

Truly, no one could be certain of that. When they thought of this, many people suddenly felt more relieved.

However, many of the experts gathered here felt as though they had been played by Qin Wentian. But even with so many experts, no one could do anything to Qin Wentian who was a newly ascended heavenly deity. When he opened the Heaven Vault, everyone didn't dare to enter. What an irony.

After that battle in the boundless sea region, Qin Wentian's name once again resounded through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The son of the past Qin Clan's traitor Qin Yuanfeng, was already so strong to this extent, he even dared to publicly challenge the Qin Clan now and effortlessly dealt with two heavenly deities from the Qin Clan. One was deported by Qin Wentian into an unknown space. The other was trapped within the Heaven Vault.

After that, news circulated around the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Qin Wentian told the Qin Clan to bring the heavenly deity and ten world overlords of the Luoshen Clan imprisoned in the Qin Clan to come to him and exchange for the hostage.

After the Qin Clan received this news, they were shaking in anger.

Including Qin Li and Qin Cang, ever since the Heaven Vault opened, the Qin Clan has already lost a total of four heavenly deities. Two died in the Gods Extinction Path, one of them was killed by Qin Tiangang while the other died to the dangers of the dark void. And now, Qin Li was trapped in a sealed world while Qin Cang was captured by Qin Wentian.

Even though the Qin Clan was one of the top three peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and had several heavenly deities, the loss of four heavenly deities was enough to damage the foundation of the Qin Clan.

In addition, Qin Zhong who died before the opening of Heaven Vault hasn't been counted into the list of casualties yet. In total, the Qin Clan has already lost five heavenly deities.

This was an irony because all five of the heavenly deities had one point in common. That point was Qin Wentian.

A person who was once disregarded by Qin Dangtian, the son of the Qin Clan's traitor, has actually caused the powerful Qin Clan to lose face again and again. Unknowingly, there were already five heavenly deities who fell to Qin Wentian. How terrifying. Was this the steps of his revenge?

Boundless City once again attracted the attention of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Countless experts rushed there, including powerful heavenly deities from the peak powers. They were prepared to negotiate with Qin Wentian. Since Qin Wentian had allowed Sword Monarch Jian Junlai to enter, why couldn't he allow them to?

But no matter how fierce the commotion raged in the outside world, it seemed as though the commotion had nothing to do with Qin Wentian. He was currently cultivating in the Heaven Vault. But naturally, there were people who were still communicating with him via voice transmissions.

"Ah, back then I could already see that you would become someone that can dominate the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. That was why I became friends with you and treated you to wine. Seems like my judgement is very precise, I can't help but be impressed by myself. Brother Qin, now that your name is so famous, you wouldn't forget the brothers who braved dangers with you in the past, right? The four of us are together now and are planning to throw in our lot with you." The voice of Ten Miles Springwind rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. Qin Wentian couldn't help but smile, this Ten Miles Springwind was as shameless as ever.

"Bring some good wine over. But don't blame me for not warning you guys. If you all enter Heaven Vault with the identity of being my friends, this news would be leaked sooner or later. In the future after you exit the vault..." Qin Wentian stated. Ten Miles Springwind naturally could understand this. Qin Wentian was the controller of the Heaven Vault, his friends naturally could enter and cultivate. But if this was made known, there might be extremely powerful heavenly deities acting against them in a bid to force Qin Wentian to open the Heaven Vault. Ten Miles Springwind understood all this.

“Can it be that we are not friends? Is our relationship not good enough to weather through this storm with you? Don’t tell me you are planning to forget our friendships now that you are a heavenly deity?” Ten Miles Springwind spoke with a straight face. Qin Wentian laughed. Since his friends wanted to come despite knowing all of this, he would naturally welcome them!

Chapter 1908: Ambition

Outside the Heaven Vault, the wind and clouds gathered. The experts in Boundless City were as common as the clouds. Even Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian personally arrived but when they came here, the Heaven Vault had already closed and they could only wait it out in Boundless City, discussing how exactly should they deal with Qin Wentian.

Right now, their Qin Clan still had one heavenly deity named Qin Cang in Qin Wentian’s hands.

As long as Qin Wentian hides in the Heaven Vault and doesn’t exit, they would never be able to enter. For the Heaven Vault’s entrance, no one else other than Qin Wentian could open it.

Given Qin Wentian’s current level of power, even Qin Zheng felt a hint of threat. It was very troublesome. If things continued on, Qin Wentian might really grow to the point where he could threaten the Qin Clan. They had to find a chance to exterminate Qin Wentian before that.

And as for the situation within the Heaven Vault currently, the scene was completely different.

Back then, those good friends Qin Wentian made when he attended the convention of the myriad realms, Ten Miles Springwind, Old Ghost, Phoenix and Cao Tian, have already entered the Heaven Vault. Many people personally saw them entering but the Heaven Vault closed in an instant. No one dared to rush into it despite there being enough time for some of the more powerful people. With Qin Wentian’s strength as a deterrence, no one dared to move recklessly.

In the Heaven Vault, amidst the stars, a group of figures sat there. In the center of them, there was a constellation stone table with jars of wine placed on it. The fragrance permeated the area and these wines were naturally brought here by Ten Miles Springwind.

At this moment, Cao Tian took out his messaging crystal seemingly busy with something.

“Cao Tian, it isn’t easy for us to gather together. How would you have so much stuff to be busy about?” Ten Miles Springwind asked.

“You can only say that the Heaven Vault is too popular. We just entered and news about it has already circulated. My clansmen are all asking me about it.” Cao Tian spoke.

“Haha, why have you ever cared about your clan?” Ten Miles Springwind laughed. Cao Tian kept his messaging crystal, “Very well. I shall ignore them, they would influence my mood. Come, let us drink!”

“Practical.” Phoenix laughed.

“Cao Tian, you should feel proud instead. Most probably, the unwelcomed you has now become a blazingly popular figure in your Cao Clan.” Ten Miles Springwind continued to tease Cao Tian. After that, he turned his eyes to Qin Wentian. “Although back then I already knew Wentian would have great accomplishments in the future, I didn’t expect you to become so strong so fast. Even heavenly deities cannot withstand a blow from you. Qin Cang of the Qin Clan was even captured by you, right?”

“I didn’t expect you would be the same as Junlai, leaping up to the heavens in a single leap. There are truly countless wondrous things in the world.” Old Ghost drank his wine. Not only were they here, the Sword Monarch Jian Junlai was sitting at the side and drinking wine with them too.

“So it turns out that the reason why old ghost was familiar with Jian Junlai’s matter was because he was acquainted with him since a long time ago. Back then when they participated in the same convention years ago, they were already friends. After that, Jian Junlai became a character whose name shook the Mystic Region and gained the title of Sword Monarch, the number one sword in the Mystic Region.”

“Old Ghost, you are really good at becoming the foil to enhance the light of others.” Phoenix laughed. They also felt somewhat taken aback that Old Ghost actually knew Jian Junlai personally. In fact, their relationship seemed to be extremely good as well.

Many years ago when he and Jian Junlai participated in the convention, he became the foil to enhance Jian Junlai’s radiance. Now, he was a foil to enhance Qin Wentian’s radiance.

In truth, Qin Wentian's current fame was not weaker but in fact stronger, when compared to the Sword Monarch. The Sword Monarch could summon the rain and call the wind in the Mystic Region but Qin Wentian could invoke storms in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"This can also be considered fate. Old Ghost has participated in two conventions where the time stone monument appears. I and Qin Wentian both received the guidance of the Time King and now, we even have a chance to sit and drink wine together." Jian Junlai spoke. He was a man of few words, the sharpness that always emanated from him seemed to have disappeared. He seemed more ordinary and didn't exude any signs of imposingness or tyranny.

"Let us toast for the sake of fate." Qin Wentian smiled as he lifted his wine cup. Everyone toasted but at this moment, a voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. His gaze flashed and he took out his messaging crystal before selecting a strand of immortal sense.

"What's the matter?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"My grandpa came. He is arriving here very soon, I'll go out to bring him in." Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded. So it turned out that Qin Wentian's grandfather was none other than the original clan leader of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Chuan.

Back then, when Qin Wentian's name resounded through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Ten Miles Springwind and the rest were all badly shocked. To think that Qin Wentian was the son of Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue.

At the same time, in the airspace above the boundless sea region, a terrifying gigantic bird could be seen soaring through the air. The wingspan of this bird was at least a million miles, and with a single flap of its wings, typhoons would be generated, causing the waves below to churn wildly. This bird was truly terrifying to the extreme. Its speed was exceptionally quick, traveling a countless amount of distance with each flap.

This giant bird was none other than the Kun Sovereign. In the span of a few breaths of time, he has already arrived at the location of the Heaven Vault.

When all the experts in the surroundings saw the Kun Sovereign arriving, the eyes of many people flashed dazzlingly.

“Kun Sovereign.”

“The Kun Sovereign of the Demon God Mountain also came to Heaven Vault. Who is on his back?” The eyes of everyone gleamed sharply. The Kun Sovereign was none other than one of the five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain.

“There seems to be plenty of people with him.” The eyes of everyone gleamed. The Kun Sovereign reverted into his true demonic form, a Kunpeng. His body was gigantic to the extreme, every feather of his was larger than a human. Within the tiny gaps of his feathers on his back, people could sit there. At this moment, there were several silhouettes on his back.

“Luoshen Chuan!” The eyes of someone narrowed. Near one of the feathers on the Kun Sovereign’s back, Luoshen Chuan could be seen standing there. However, because of the giant body the Kun Sovereign had, Luoshen Chuan appeared extremely tiny but even so, divine sense could still sense him.

When they thought about the relationship between Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan, their gazes froze as they stared in the air. A thought flashed through their minds. The Kun Sovereign and Luoshen Chuan were clearly heading towards the Heaven Vault. Does this mean that the Heaven Vault was about to open again?

Their divine sense swept out, wanting to see clearly who the others are. However, the Kun Sovereign can be said that he was the king of the skies. His speed was incomparable and akin to lightning. He dashed straight towards a location in the air and in that instant, a slit opened up and the Kun Sovereign entered it. At the next moment, the slit immediately closed. The opening and closing of the Heaven Vault was almost instantaneous.

“I think I saw many people on the back of the Kun Sovereign.” Someone exclaimed.

“In the Desolate Region, Luoshen Chuan and the Demon God Mountain joined forces to deal with the Divine Ox Clan, they are already in an alliance. Seems like because of this relationship, Qin Wentian permitted the people of the Demon God Mountain to enter the Heaven Vault to cultivate.” Everyone quickly managed to guess at some things. Earlier, it was unknown how many people were on the Kun Sovereign’s back. His speed was so fast that normal vision wasn’t able to track him. Divine sense scans also only lasted a single instant before the Kun Sovereign vanished completely. No one was able to see the identities of the people on his back clearly.

Within the Heaven Vault, the Kun Sovereign continued flying ahead and arrived at the ancient heaven vault path. Up ahead, Qin Wentian appeared. After that, the Kun Sovereign landed and dipped his wings downwards, aiming at the ground. At this moment, numerous figures walked down from his back. It was exactly like what the people on the outside guessed, there were thousands upon thousands of people here.

The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign also walked out, including the other three demon sovereigns. The five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain all appeared here today. Not only that, there were also plenty of people from the Luoshen Clan. They were staring at the young man up ahead as thousands of emotions filled their hearts. These people were people from the Luoshen Clan that chose to follow Luoshen Chuan. Today, they came together with the Kun Sovereign to the Heaven Vault.

Once, the young man whom the Luoshen Clan held in disdain, was now the Heaven Vault's controller. This was something all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wanted. Also, Qin Wentian himself was already a heavenly deity expert. Ordinary deities couldn't even withstand a single blow from him. He captured Qin Cang from the Qin Clan and wanted to use Qin Cang to trade with the captives of the Luoshen Clan imprisoned in the Qin Clan, helping their Luoshen Clan to wash clean the shame of the past.

When they thought about how the Luoshen Clan had treated Qin Wentian back then, many people felt guilt and shame. This was also part of the reasons why they chose to follow Luoshen Chuan now.

“Seniors, how have you all been?” Qin Wentian smiled.

“Brat, you are already so strong now. Why are you still referring to us as seniors.” The large eyes of the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign stared at Qin Wentian. He didn't expect this. In just a few hundred years, Qin Wentian already had such accomplishments. His talent was just too shocking.

Qin Wentian smiled. “You are all my seniors, it's only normal for me to address you all as such. Now that seniors have all arrived in the Heaven Vault, you can cultivate anywhere you want in the starry skies. In fact, all of you can even choose demon-type constellations that have a connection with you and treat them as Demon God Mountains.”

“Treating a constellation as a Demon God Mountain?” The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign mumbled. After that, he laughed uproariously. “Tyrannical! In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there shouldn't be any peak powers that are so majestic that they are built upon a constellation, right?"

"In the boundless starry skies, seniors can claim as many constellations as you want to for you to cultivate there." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Nice." The Kun Sovereign calmly spoke. After that, he swept his eyes towards the constellations in the starry skies. Qin Wentian does have the qualifications to say such a thing. Now that the Heaven Vault was in his control, the countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers could all become cultivation grounds. It was impossible for any place in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to have such good conditions for cultivation as this place.

"Awesome." The Dragon Sovereign laughed. "I'm prepared to select demon dragon constellations for the dragons of my race. Haha."

"In that case, I will take roc-type constellations then." The Kun Sovereign laughed.

"What about me then?" Anger flashed in the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign's eyes. After some time, he spoke, "Fine then. Me and Little Rascal will occupy the same constellation together."

Everyone laughed. There was no choice, after all, heaven devouring beasts are all exceedingly rare.

"Seniors, please feel free to make yourselves at home." Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded and began to ascend to the nine heavenly layers through the ancient pathway.

Qin Wentian followed behind them. He stared at the boundless starry space. Right now, the number of people in the Heaven Vault gradually increased. In the future, courtyards and residences could be constructed on the ancient pathway. The Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Clan could use this as their base. He believed that one day, the strength of his Heaven Vault would be able to overwhelm everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. All he needed was time!

Chapter 1909: Rejection of the Goddess

In an inn inside Boundless City, the area around it was now being controlled. Many experts guarded this area and the cultivation bases of those guards were shockingly high, all of them were at the world overlord realm. In addition, they all had different symbols on their clothes. It was clear that they belonged to different powers.

But at this moment, these world overlords only had the qualifications to stand guard outside.

And at a place extremely far away from the inn, many experts gathered around wanting to know what those people in the inn were talking about in exact detail. Because, they knew what statuses those people who were currently sitting inside the inn had. Just a few sentences from them could cause the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to tremble.

Today, the Qin Clan Leader Qin Zheng, was hosting a banquet in the inn for people from the peak powers. This wasn't a huge secret, everyone in Boundless City knew about it.

As for the topic of discussion, everyone could guess that it naturally had something to do with the Heaven Vault.

At this moment, everyone seated within the inn was from a peak power. For ordinary deities, they could only stand. Those seated were people like the Qin Clan Leader Qin Zheng, Qiankun Sect Leader, Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, Che Clan Leader, Lei Clan Leader, Five Elements Sect Leader, the Poison God of God Destruction Palace, etc... Every one of them was a hegemon in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Most probably only the Qin Clan had enough prestige to invite all these people to gather together. Ordinary heavenly deities wouldn't be able to do so.

"Today, I invited everyone here for a purpose. I believe all of you should have already guessed what I want to say. The Heaven Vault is a secret realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that is the most suitable for cultivation. It can connect the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the nine heavenly layers, allowing people to cultivate among the stars. I believe that since all of you showed up, you all should have interest in the Heaven Vault, right?" Qin Zheng spoke.

"Qin Zheng, just go straight to the point." The Qiankun Sect Leader calmly spoke. They weren't here to listen to Qin Zheng speak nonsense. Why exactly did he gather all of them here?

"Right." Qin Zheng nodded. "For a secret realm like the Heaven Vault, if any power obtained it, they would probably find it hard to monopolize it. If any of us were the controller, we would surely share it with the rest to maintain a basic level of fairness in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

Everyone naturally understands that with the Heaven Vault, it would mean that a particular power would be able to create more heavenly deities. The controller of the Heaven Vault would eventually control the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms eternally, unless some internal conflict occurred in that power.

Currently, the controller of the Heaven Vault is none other than the traitor of your Qin Clan. He hides himself within and refuses to come out. Also, he summoned the experts of the Luoshen Clan and Demon God Mountain and allowed them to enter. If they choose to hide in there for a thousand or ten thousand years, what can you do? What's the point of discussing about control of the Heaven Vault now?" The Che Clan Leader calmly spoke. Everyone glanced at Qin Zheng. Since he gathered all of them here, he should have some plan up his sleeves.

"Qin Wentian wants me to use the hostages of the Luoshen Clan to exchange for Qin Cang. But if he wishes to make the trade, the Heaven Vault naturally has to open up for him to exit." Qin Zheng spoke. The eyes of everyone flashed, this was true indeed. News about this has long circulated, Qin Cang was captured alive precisely to be used in a trade for hostages.

"Given the methods all of you have at your disposal, if you make your preparations, even if the Heaven Vault only opens for an instant of time, you would also be able to enter, right?" Qin Zheng spoke. "And as long as all of us enter together while sending people of our powers to surround the Heaven Vault from the outside, where can Qin Wentian flee to?"

The eyes of everyone gleamed brightly. Qin Zheng's words were truly a solution. If the Qin Clan did this alone, they might not succeed. After all, Qin Wentian's current power was already very strong and he even had the five demon sovereigns and heavenly deities of the Luoshen Clan helping him. This plan could only succeed if all of them allied together and seized control of the Heaven Vault in a single move.

The peak experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were discussing about the plan here. As for Qin Wentian, he was currently isolated from the outside world and naturally had no idea about this.

At this moment, Qin Wentian who was cultivating, suddenly received a voice transmission from Qu Shen. He took out his messaging crystal and replied, "Grandpa Qu?"

"Wentian, not long ago Qin Zheng summoned the experts of the peak powers and they had a meeting in a certain inn. I guessed that they must be discussing plans about how to deal with you. You should be more careful." Qu Shen reminded. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Has the day finally come?

As expected, since the Heaven Vault was under his control, the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would never accept this.

“Many thanks Grandpa Qu.” Qin Wentian spoke with gratitude. “By the way, Grandpa Qu, do you and Nichang want to come in here to cultivate?”

Actually, Qin Wentian had always wanted to invite them but it wasn't convenient for him to do so. Qu Shen was an expert at the heavenly deity realm and had his own pride. As for Goddess Nichang, she was the number one beauty in the Heaven Region. He wanted them to enter the Heaven Vault because there was another layer of meaning behind this. He wanted them to avoid the marriage engagement with the Qin Clan. Although he doesn't hope for Nichang to be with Qin Dangtian, he didn't have the qualifications to interfere. Also, if he invited them and news of this circulated, their reputations would surely suffer damage. This was especially so considering the fact that there were rumors about him and Nichang. Hence, he kept hesitating.

Now that Qu Shen informed him about this, Qin Wentian naturally understood what Qu Shen was thinking about. If he really wanted to be in-laws with the Qin Clan, why would he inform him about this?

Hence, Qin Wentian took advantage of the situation and decided to still invite them.

“Let me ask Nichang for her opinion.” Qu Shen laughed. After so many years, his pride has long been discarded. Right now, he only hoped that his granddaughter would be able to live a good life. Hence, as long as Nichang was agreeable, he wouldn't care about his face at all. Hence, he didn't feel anything about Qin Wentian's invitation, he also didn't feel that Qin Wentian had slighted him by inviting him to the Heaven Vault.

After he found his granddaughter, he stared gently at her and softly asked, “Nichang, Wentian wishes to invite us to cultivate in the Heaven Realm. What do you feel about this?”

Goddess Nichang inclined her head, her beautiful eyes looking at her grandfather. She naturally understood the meaning behind this invitation.

She fell silent for a period of time, as she contemplated this. But finally, she shook her head.

“Nichang, can you talk to grandpa about your feelings?” Qu Shen stared at his granddaughter. He knew that his granddaughter's heart had wavered slightly back then when Qin Wentian brought her back. Now, Qin Wentian issued his invitation to them, he wanted to know what she felt about all of it.

“What qualifications do I have to enter the Heaven Vault?” Goddess Nichang calmly replied. After that, she turned, “Grandpa, I will go and cultivate.”

Qu Shen started, he stared at his granddaughter’s back before smiling bitterly. He didn’t know how to reply.

That’s true. He could ignore his pride and face, but what about his granddaughter? She had extraordinary talent and was also known as the number one beauty in the Heaven Region. She had her own pride. What qualifications does she have to enter the Heaven Vault?

Breaking the marriage engagement and seeking Qin Wentian’s protection? How would people of the world view her? Qin Wentian and Nichang had no official relationship, there were only rumors floating about them. If she agrees to enter the Heaven Vault to avoid the marriage under such a situation, her name would surely be dragged through the mud.

Naturally, maybe Goddess Nichang could ignore what others said about her. But then again, what qualifications does she have to enter the Heaven Vault? Qu Shen had no answer for that.

He took out his messaging crystal and replied Qin Wentian, “Wentian, Nichang said what qualifications does she have to enter the Heaven Vault.”

After Qin Wentian heard this, he could only smile bitterly. This was also the reason why he was hesitant to invite them before.

“Grandpa Qu, if you two encounter any troubles, you must remember to tell me about it.” Qin Wentian spoke. The gratitude the Qu Clan has shown him...he would surely remember it.

At the boundless sea region, countless experts from the peak powers arrived. Qin Zheng led the experts of the Qin Clan along with the hostages they took from the Luoshen Clan here, namely Luoshen Han and the ten world overlords. Qin Dangtian came as well. His gaze was extremely cold as he stared at the sky.

Right now, his grudge with Qin Wentian wasn't merely the hatred from the previous generations. The young man he looked upon in disdain at the sacred academy back then, had already grown powerful enough to talk terms with the Qin Clan.

"I've already returned your messaging crystal to you. Now, you can contact Luoshen Chuan. Tell him to tell Qin Wentian that we are here for the exchange." Qin Zheng coldly spoke to Luoshen Han. He had no way to send a message directly into the Heaven Vault, hence he could only use Luoshen Chuan as the point of contact.

Luoshen Han took out his messaging crystal and sent a message to Luoshen Chuan. In the Qin Clan, he had to endure countless humiliations. Now, he finally saw hope. It was just that he didn't expect the new clan leader of the Luoshen Clan back then, Luoshen Mu, would betray him and the one who was going to save him now, was the young man the Luoshen Clan had given up on, Qin Wentian. When Qin Zhong hunted Qin Wentian, the Luoshen Clan sat on the fence and simply watched. This matter was truly a shameful one that haunted his thoughts.

Within the Heaven Vault, Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian soon received the news. They were currently flying towards the Heaven Vault's entrance. Naturally, Qin Wentian who received Qu Shen's warning, already knew that there was a sinister trap set by Qin Zheng waiting for him outside.

The area outside of the Heaven Vault's entrance was completely locked down. With an intention of his will, as the controller of the vault, Qin Wentian was able to see the situation outside. In his vision, he could see many experts gathered, including some familiar faces. These were all experts from the peak powers. For example, he saw the Qiankun Sect Leader, Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, etc. All of these people were just too outstanding, he could recognize them with a single glance.

His divine sense swept out. After that, the scene outside was shown on a light screen, allowing Luoshen Chuan to see the situation.

"Qin Zheng has gathered the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms before bringing the hostages for exchange. Grandfather, they wish to make a move to seize the Heaven Vault." Qin Wentian spoke.

“It’s true that they brought Luoshen Han here, but they also came prepared. Wentian, what do you plan to do?” Luoshen Chuan asked. Unknowingly, the status of Qin Wentian in the hearts of everyone had already changed. Right now, even Luoshen Chuan would consult him on things. If this was in the past, such a thing would be impossible.

“Grandfather, help me inform Grandpa Han to tell Qin Zheng that there can only be experts from the Qin Clan outside the Heaven Vault before we will agree to an exchange.” Qin Wentian spoke. Luoshen Chuan then sent a message to Luoshen Han who informed Qin Zheng. After learning of Qin Wentian’s words, Qin Zheng’s expression turned to ice as he regarded the sky above. This fellow was truly cautious. Could it be that he could see the scenes outside from within the Heaven Vault? Was the Heaven Vault truly a sealed dimension or not?!

Chapter 1910: Threaten

Qin Wentian wanted the others to leave. In the sea region below the Heaven Vault, only experts from the Qin Clan can remain here. If that’s the case, Qin Zheng’s plan might not be able to succeed so easily.

“How can I control the various powers here?” Qin Zheng coldly spoke as he stared at the sky. Luoshen Han directly conveyed the words to Luoshen Chuan.

“Since this is the case, let’s change the timing for the exchange. I will inform you again.” Qin Wentian replied as Luoshen Chuan conveyed the words to Luoshen Han.

Upon hearing Luoshen Chuan’s words, Luoshen Han sighed silently in his heart. Could it be that he still wouldn’t be able to gain his freedom today and still has to wait some more? However, Luoshen Chuan’s voice rang out in his mind a few moments later saying that as long as the Qin Clan dared to use any methods on him, they would do the same to Qin Cang. Luoshen Chuan wanted him to convey this to Qin Zheng.

Qin Wentian and Qin Zheng conversed with each other through Luoshen Chuan and Luoshen Han. Qin Zheng’s expression grew colder and colder. Seems like Qin Wentian has already seen through that this is a trap. Hence, he rejected making the deal.

“I can don’t do anything to Luoshen Han. However, a faction of the Luoshen Clan still exists on the Luoshen Mountain. Other than that, what about the Qingcheng Realm and Azure Mystic Immortal Realms? How many people can you protect?” Qin Zheng crossed his arms and spoke coldly, intending to threaten Qin Wentian.

When everyone heard Qin Zheng's words, they were extremely shocked. Qin Zheng was a powerful heavenly deity in his own right and was also the Qin Clan's clan leader. Given his status, he shouldn't have said such words, using the lives of innocents to threaten Qin Wentian. This was truly an underhanded method that would be looked down upon by everyone. When a heavenly deity did such a thing, it was only even more shameful.

But even so, Qin Zheng still said this. From this, one could see his determination. Although he would lose face, he didn't care about it, wanting Qin Wentian to come out from the Heaven Vault at all cost. Not only did he want to seize control of the Heaven Vault, he also wanted Qin Wentian's life.

Luoshen Han conveyed the words. When Qin Wentian heard that, his expression grew extremely ugly. Even Luoshen Chuan was stunned. Qin Zheng was a lofty heavenly deity, yet he used such a method to threaten them.

For the Luoshen Clan's side, although Luoshen Mu was the one currently in control there, Luoshen Chuan naturally still had sentiments for the Luoshen Clan.

As for the Qingcheng Realm, although Qin Wentian already moved his family and friends away, the people remaining there were still his subordinates as well as the other innocents. All these were lives, yet Qin Zheng wanted to use the lives of these innocents to threaten him.

As for Azure Mystic, he naturally couldn't give it up as well.

It was like Qin Wentian could see the scenes of how the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms invaded Ancient Azure Mystic back then, causing a world-destroying battle to occur. So, this was the true character of the lofty heavenly deity, the Qin Clan Leader, Qin Zheng.

Also, today was different from the past. If Qin Zheng really wants to do something so despicable, Qin Wentian had no way to resist. Because, the opponents who wanted to deal with him weren't Qin Zheng alone. All the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were eyeing the Heaven Vault. Once he goes out from the vault, the situation would instantly become complex.

"The Clan is the number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and is exceptionally proficient with regards to formations. I believe that the Chen Clan wouldn't have a problem creating a divine formation in this location, right? Also as for the God Destroying Palace, you all can transform the area outside Heaven Vault to become a poisonous world. Everyone would die if they go near it. From now on, as long as anyone comes out from the Heaven Vault, only a path of death would be waiting for them. Since they don't want to come out, let us see how long they can stay in there." Qin Zheng coldly spoke. Evidently, they didn't only discuss the plan of forcing Qin Wentian out of the Heaven Vault during their meeting. They also had made plans in case their first plan failed.

These words were soon conveyed to Qin Wentian. His expression grew heavier and heavier and his eyes flashed with an extremely cold light.

This was forcing him to come out. Getting the Che Clan to create a divine formation and the God Destroying Palace to establish a poison world? Wasn't this sealing the Heaven Vault completely? When the Heaven Vault was sealed, they would act against the Luoshen Clan, Qingcheng Realm and Azure Mystic in the outside world. When that happens, they wanted to see if Qin Wentian would still stay inside the Heaven Vault or not?

The lofty heavenly deities could actually stoop so low to deal with Qin Wentian.

But at this moment, no one blamed Qin Zheng. After all, everyone wanted to enter the Heaven Vault.

However, to many people, this was nothing but a dream. Even if the Heaven Vault was opened and Qin Zheng and co. gained control, these peak powers definitely wouldn't allow everyone to enter. In fact, after the Heaven Vault falls into their control, friction might even occur within their alliance.

Right now inside Heaven Vault, Jian Junlai calmly spoke. "I didn't expect Qin Zheng to be capable of uttering such words."

Although Qin Wentian was the Qingcheng Reamlord, in truth, the Qingcheng Realm didn't really have too major a connection with him. The people there didn't have any direct relationship with him and are all innocents yet Qin Zheng wanted to use them to threaten Qin Wentian. How despicable. Such character truly would cause one to look down on Qin Zheng. However, in such a situation, those peak powers didn't blame Qin Zheng at all. The looks on their faces were calm, as though this ought to be the case.

"Since he still refuse to come out. The Che Clan and God Destroying Palace, please act now." Qin Zheng calmly spoke. Several heavenly deities from the Che Clan and God Destroying Palace stepped out, radiating terrifying auras. The experts from the Che Clan started to inscribe runes to create the formation while the experts from the God Destroying Palace started to establish a poison world, causing miasma to permeate the area.

In the future, even if Qin Wentian wanted to come out or bring people away, that would be nothing but a fool's dream.

The expressions of the people inside the Heaven Vault all drastically changed. This not only affected Qin Wentian, it affected everyone cultivating in the Heaven Vault. When they exited this place, they had to face the divine formation from the Che Clan and poison world established by the God Destroying Palace.

"Those bastards." The five demon sovereigns had heavy looks on their faces when they saw what was happening outside as demonic qi radiated from them.

"I heard that the five demon sovereigns are in the Heaven Vault as well. If they are willing to act against Qin Wentian, we might have a chance to capture Qin Wentian." At this moment, the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan spoke. The eyes of everyone flashed as they stared at the chieftain. They all knew about the conflict between the Divine Ox Clan and Luoshen Chuan. Seems like the Ox Chieftain wanted to use this opportunity to deal with his enemies.

Qin Zheng also understood the Ox Chieftain's intent. But he still nodded and spoke to Luoshen Han beside him. "Convey this to the five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain. The Demon God Mountain has allied with Qin Wentian, wanting to monopolize the Heaven Vault. Does this mean that they intend to forsake the other demons on the Demon God Mountain?"

This sentence was clearly a threat. When the five demon sovereigns heard this, their demonic qi surged wildly. Qin Zheng even implicated them in this, what nonsense was this?

It was impossible for the Kun Sovereign to bring ALL the demons on the Demon God Mountain with him here. This time around, the demons he brought here with him were those with better strength and higher talents. But the Demon God Mountain was their headquarters. Earlier, they weren't afraid of the Divine Ox Clan because the five sovereigns were present. But if they were not there, the Divine Ox Clan would surely be able to trample the Demon God Mountain with ease. Now, given the current situation, the Divine Ox Clan's Ox Chieftain purposely used this to threaten them.

In the outside world, the Che Clan's experts were still inscribing the divine formation. Astral light unceasingly cascaded down as the might from the great dao infused the divine formation. Gradually, an incomparably resplendent light screen appeared, locking down this area. Multi-colored light radiated within, capable of destroying all existence. It was like as long as the Heaven Vault was here, the power of the divine formation would flood inside it, killing everyone in there currently.

“How terrifying.”

Everyone inclined their heads and stared at the sky. This divine formation had a range of tens of thousands of miles. The divine light flowing from the formation was terrifying to the extreme, having the power to destroy the world.

Also, the Che Clan’s experts didn’t cease their movements, they continued to perfect the formation. After all, the people they wanted to deal with weren’t ordinary characters, they were heavenly deities too. Qin Wentian, Luoshen Chuan... most of the deities in there are extremely powerful ones.

The experts of the God Destroying Palace weren’t idle as well. The poison world was gradually established, poison qi permeated the atmosphere around the Heaven Vault. They wanted those inside to be in a death situation the moment they came out. Since they don’t want to come out now, we will make sure you die when you come out in the future.

“Che Clan, God Destroying Palace.” Qin Wentian’s expression was like ice. He personally saw everything that they were doing. He would remember this grudge deep in his heart.

He once said that he would accept all enemies who wanted to seize the Heaven Vault from him. Now, the Che Clan and God Destroying Palace clearly have allied with the Qin Clan. Qin Wentian naturally would remember them.

“Elder brother, what should we do now?” In Heaven Vault, Luoshen Lei asked. This situation was very bad for them. It was fine if the other party merely created a divine formation to lock down this area, but the other party even used the lives of the Luoshen Clan, Qingcheng Realm and Azure Mystic to threaten Qin Wentian. Now, it was truly difficult for Qin Wentian to advance or retreat. If he decided to stay and cultivate for many years in the Heaven Vault and only exit after his cultivation base became extremely powerful, many people would undoubtedly die in the outside world. Since Qin Zheng could be shameless enough to say those words, he would definitely make sure to follow through as well. If Qin Wentian doesn’t exit, he would absolutely do what he said.

“Let’s exit.” Qin Wentian spoke. “We have to think of a method to leave after exiting.”

Luoshen Chuan nodded lightly, this was what he thought as well. It was impossible for him to watch on passively as the Luoshen Clan got destroyed.

And for Qin Wentian, he remembered all his memories about the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Although there was a ban order on Azure Mystic, what would happen if Qin Zheng decided to ignore the ban?

After all, this time around, the Heaven Vault was at stake. All the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would join forces. It's very possible that Qin Zheng would do this.

"There are so many experts waiting for you, elder brother, to exit." Luoshen Lei had a worried look on her face. Should they really exit? Qin Zheng could toss aside his face and shamelessly threaten Qin Wentian. What was the reason for this? The reason was naturally because he wanted Qin Wentian to exit.

If Qin Wentian exits the Heaven Vault, Qin Zheng's objective would be accomplished.

"Once we exit, we have to flee directly and make it so that they will be unable to catch up." Qin Wentian spoke. Outside here, there were many powerful enemy heavenly deities. It wouldn't be so easy to do this.
