

Ancient GM 1911

Chapter 1911: Kun Sovereign

Although things were very difficult, but as the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, many gazes turned to a certain figure.

Qin Wentian sensed something and glanced over. After that, his gaze fell onto the Kun Sovereign.

The true form of the Kun Sovereign was a Kunpeng (Leviathan/roc). He is also known as the lord of the sky.

“Are you sure you want to go out?” The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign asked in a cold tone of voice. Qin Zheng actually implicated their Demon God Mountain and threatened them together. How dare he.

Qin Wentian glanced at Luoshen Chuan. Earlier, he didn't intend to go out. But after Qin Zheng's threat, he was hesitating. In truth, he could ignore the Luoshen Clan as it has once abandoned him, allowing Qin Zhong to hunt him down. Now that Luoshen Mu was the current Luoshen Clan Leader, he would never admit Qin Wentian as a part of the Luoshen Clan. Since this was the case, Qin Wentian could have easily ignored their blood relations. And as for the Qingcheng Realm, it actually didn't really have much of a connection with him. For example given the vast amount of territories the Qin Clan controlled, if he captured a place and used it to threaten them, would the Qin Clan really feel threatened?

However, Qin Zheng did so because he wanted Qin Wentian to know something. For everything that has a connection with him, Qin Zheng would use them as part of his threat. This basically didn't seem like something a heavenly deity would do, let alone the lofty Qin Clan Leader. But clearly, Qin Zheng's bottom line was much lower than what Qin Wentian had imagined.

As for Azure Mystic, it was still under the ban. It was unknown how determined Qin Zheng was, would he really dare to break the ban?

Hence, Qin Wentian could actually ignore Qin Zheng's threat and continue to cultivate in peace. So what even if the people outside used a divine formation to seal the area? He could stay here for thousands to ten of thousands of years. He doesn't believe those people would wait outside forever.

However, Qin Wentian was still Qin Wentian. As long as there was a solution, he didn't wish to implicate innocents. This was especially so for the world he grew up in, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded towards the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign.

"Kun, if you act. How confident are you?" The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign turned to the Kun Sovereign.

No one would be more suitable than the Kun Sovereign. Out of the five demon sovereigns, the dao of Kunpeng contained boundless might and could soar through the heavens, ignoring the restrictions of the heavenly dao.

"As long as we can break through the divine formation and poison world, none of those people will be able to catch up to me." The Kun Sovereign confidently spoke. Based on strength alone, he might not be able to win against those hegemony from the peak powers. But if based on speed, he was confident that even for sect and clan leaders like Qin Zheng, no one would be able to catch up to him.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. There were only five demon gods on the Demon God Mountain and they were known as the five demon sovereigns. Their strength ensured that the Demon God Mountain could become one of the peak powers in the Desolate Region. Back then, the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan gave in because he knew how fearsome the five demon sovereigns are.

Demonic beasts each had their own natural domains. Even for the dao they comprehended, also had something to do with the talent of their races.

"Since someone wants to act against our Demon God Mountain, let's give them a lesson that would make it hard for them to forget." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign icily spoke. "I will go out with you all."

"Add me into the group, the divine formation inscribed by the Che Clan isn't stable yet. They think they can do something to us now?" The Dragon Sovereign also stood out.

"Leave the divine formation to us." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign spoke, his eyes flickering with coldness. Wanting to use the Demon God Mountain to threaten them? These demon sovereigns could bear it no longer.

“I will go out with seniors.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Me as well.” Luoshen Chuan stated. In the outside world, there were many peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms waiting for them. Yet now, they were discussing plans to head out. Their guts were truly extraordinary.

“I’m already prepared.” The Kun Sovereign spoke. He reverted to his true form as a shiny luster shone from his body. The might of the great dao could be sensed, Qin Wentian felt that this was extremely strange.

The Dragon Sovereign transformed into a giant, his body was filled with explosive might, boundless golden light radiated as a violet-golden crown appeared on his head. Right now, he looked like a supreme dragon god. When he stretched out his palms, violet-golden claws could be seen as a sense of destruction radiated from him. They had to be prepared when inside the Heaven Vault so they could immediately unleash their greatest strength when they exit.

“Me and the old dragon will deal with the divine formation. You guys go on ahead.”

“Let me handle the poison qi in the area.” Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded. They long knew that the Qin Clan’s bloodline had the ability to purify all poison, rendering Qin Wentian effectively immune to the poison world. There were naturally no objections to his request. In any case, Qin Wentian now could already be considered as someone equal to the demon sovereigns, they no longer treated Qin Wentian as a junior.

Qin Wentian activated the strength of his bloodline, causing a radiance to emit from his body which enveloped the giant body of the Kunpeng, as well as the experts on the Kun Sovereign’s back. In addition, the bloodline force also seemed to contain a layer of formation light. It was like as long as Qin Wentian was willing, he could instantly enhance his defense.

“Senior Kun. Are you all ready?” Qin Wentian asked.

“We are done.” The Kun Sovereign replied.

“Then, let’s move out.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

The light radiating from the Kun Sovereign's body grew increasingly intense. With a flash, his speed was inconceivably quick as he dashed out, and at the very instant, the entrance to the Heaven Vault opened.

In the outside world, the eyes of everyone was still staring at the divine formation and towering poison qi. But at this moment, a slit opened up in the sky as a gigantic figure sped out from it.

"Huh?" The eyes of the experts flashed, stunned for an instant. After that, sharpness gleamed in their eyes.

The divine formation locking this area erupted with a shocking might. Boundless destructive beams of light shot directly into the Heaven Vault yet a draconic roar of anger answered the attack. Numerous dragon images manifested with a gigantic violet-golden divine dragon in the center. This dragon was like a dragon god, lofty and high-up, the lord of heaven and earth.

His palm transformed into claws as he swiped out. In an instant, a giant claw manifested and mirrored the movement, wanting to tear the world asunder. This attack was capable of ignoring distances and it landed directly on the divine formation. In an instant, the divine formation trembled unstably and after that, it actually started to collapse. Even the sky was trembling. The dragon images also rushed out and started to aid in the divine formation's destruction.

At the instant the Dragon Sovereign attacked, the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign transformed into his original form as a gigantic heaven devouring beast appeared. He opened his mouth and drew in a breath, the killing light from the divine formation was completely sucked in by him, swallowed into his stomach.

The heaven and earth trembled violently as cracks appeared on the divine formation. The boundless poison qi rushed out, making this world a world of poison, wanting to engulf everyone. However, the Kun Sovereign directly rushed into the depths of the poison world, ignoring the poison.

The terrifying miasma and poison qi rushed over yet everyone could see a layer of light around the Kun Sovereign that purified the poison.

But at this moment, those major characters also acted. Earlier, they had already set up the poison world and divine formation, they didn't expect Qin Wentian would really dare to come out. That was why they didn't react in time to rush inside the Heaven Vault. But since Qin Wentian's group dared to come out, it naturally wouldn't be so easy for them to leave.

Another divine formation appeared as heaven punishment light shone upon the Kun Sovereign and the figures on his back.

“KILL!” Qin Zheng didn’t hesitate. As the sound of his voice faded, the light of divine punishment fell from the sky. But at the same time, the Kun Sovereign directly arced through the sky and the beam of divine punishment light actually missed, slamming into the boundless sea instead. In the next moment, the boundless sea seemed to be penetrated through. A vacuum appeared, the water in the area was sucked away, directly leading to the bottom of the sea.

The Kun Sovereign once again shot into the void, his body transformed into something ethereal, shimmering in and out of existence, allowing him to ignore any other types of energy seeking to bind his movements.

Numerous figures acted at the same moment. A domain of thunder appeared, transformed into a world of thunder. The nine heavenly divine thunder blasted towards the Kun Sovereign. Even if the Kun Sovereign was in the void, he would not be able to escape.

Heavenly deities from the Prison God Clan also acted, sealing the area in the void where the Kun Sovereign was in, wanting to trap him.

The Dragon Sovereign, Luoshen Chuan, Qin Wentian and the others also unleashed their attacks, attempting to neutralize the attacks aimed at the Kun Sovereign. The gigantic body of the Kun Sovereign still shone with heavenly dao light. With every flap of his wings, dao might was generated, he sped out from the thunder domain and once again entered the void from another space. No spatial energy was able to trap him.

“What terrifying speed.” The eyes of everyone flashed. The body of the Kun Sovereign already vanished into the clouds. Even though they had created worlds and utilized the force of heavens and earth in their divine formations, they weren’t able to trap him.

The various hegemon characters pursued after him. Terrifying energy waves roiled about in the air, but very soon, the fluctuations ceased. After a short period of time, those hegemon characters who set off in pursuit all returned here with dark looks on their faces.

They were all from peak powers but despite their combined forces, they weren’t able to obstruct the Kun Sovereign. This was truly an embarrassing matter. As for ordinary heavenly deities, they didn’t even have the qualifications to try and stop the Kun Sovereign when speaking in terms of speed.

To many people, this was also the first time they fought against the Kun Sovereign. They also finally understood why although the Kun Sovereign wasn't at the peak-level of heavenly deities, but in terms of speed, most probably only a very few heavenly deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm could compare to him. In addition, what was truly terrifying was that the Kun Sovereign had combined his bloodline's innate talent with the dao he comprehended. When he flew through space, no spatial energy or world energy would be able to block him, he could pass through them directly. It was precisely because of this ability that none of the other peak characters had the confidence to block him.

"Bastard!" Qin Zheng coldly spoke. He summoned a meeting with all the experts from the peak powers and came up with the plan of using a divine formation and poison world to seal the Heaven Vault. He didn't expect Qin Wentian's group to actually waltz out directly and speed away just like that. Although they could continue to chase, they all understood that it was impossible to catch up after they saw the Kun Sovereign's speed.

At this moment, it was unknown how far the Kun Sovereign had traveled. Within the clouds, the Kun Sovereign finally slowed his speed. "No one is pursuing us."

"Kun, you are injured." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign spoke. Many bloody wounds could be seen on the gigantic body of the Kun Sovereign.

"Don't worry." The Kun Sovereign spoke in a low voice. At that time, there were too many violent attacks aimed at him. Although everyone on his back helped him to defend and neutralize some, it was inevitable for some of the other attacks to go through and injure him. But even so, it didn't affect his speed.

Now, the wide seas allowed the fish to leap about and the vast skies allowed the bird to fly. Since these people wanted to deal with their Demon God Mountain, they better prepare themselves to pay the price.

Chapter 1912: Great Changes to the Desolate Region

"Where should we go?" In the air, the Kun Sovereign who was flying through the clouds asked.

"Let's go to the Desolate Region." Qin Wentian spoke. After all, the Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Clan were both in the Desolate Region. That place would naturally be their first goal.

Naturally, other than the Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Clan there, there was also the Divine Ox Clan.

“Even if we went to the Desolate Region, it will no longer be as easy as before if we wish to bring people into the Heaven Vault. At the very least, it’s very difficult to do so temporarily.” Luoshen Chuan spoke in a heavy voice. Everyone understood this. Although they managed to barge out from the Heaven Vault, but if they wanted to return, the difficulty would surely be higher. The experts from the various powers all knew that they are outside now. How could they not guard the entrance even tighter?

“Mhm, that’s true. In any case, since those people have already threatened us once, there would surely be a second time.” The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign nodded.

“After returning, temporarily disband the Demon God Mountain first. After a suitable opportunity arrives, we will summon the various demons of the Desolate Region to the Heaven Vault directly. I believe at that time as long as we issue an announcement with the Heaven Vault’s name, all the demons would surely come back.” The Dragon Sovereign spoke. The eyes of the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign and Kun Sovereign gleamed. It seemed that there were no other solution. If they didn’t want the other demons at the Demon God Mountain to be threatened, they could only temporarily disband and give up on their old headquarters. If not, given that Qin Zheng has threatened them once, he would surely do so again.

“Grandfather, what about the Luoshen Clan?” Qin Wentian looked at Luoshen Chuan.

“As to the threats that were made earlier, I will let the elders of the Luoshen Clan know and get them to decide on their own. I have no way to control how they think.” Luoshen Chuan spoke. Many of those who chose to follow him, were already in the Heaven Vault. As for the others, they were all Luoshen Mu’s followers and didn’t wish to leave the Luoshen Mountain. But now, Qin Zheng has threatened Qin Wentian with the Luoshen Mountain, it meant that there was a possibility that the Qin Clan would attack the Luoshen Mountain.

Naturally, Luoshen Chuan would never allow Qin Wentian to directly war against the Qin Clan for the sake of the Luoshen Mountain, or make sacrifices to save it. Even if he was Qin Wentian’s grandfather, he had no reason to say such a thing. Back then when the Qin Clan wanted to act against Qin Wentian, the Luoshen Clan chose to step aside and abandon him. Qin Wentian departed alone and fought against the heavenly deity Qin Zhong. Not only did the Luoshen Clan not allow Luoshen Chuan to help Qin Wentian, they even blocked his path. Under such circumstances, now that Qin Wentian was willing to accept those people from the Luoshen Clan who chose to follow him, Luoshen Chuan already indicated that Qin Wentian has given enough consideration due to him having the same bloodline.

Since the Luoshen Clan didn't want to acknowledge his existence back then, Qin Wentian naturally also didn't want to have any connection with the people on the Luoshen Mountain. He had no reason to fight for them. As his grandfather, Luoshen Chuan also wouldn't make such a request. At most, he could only inform those people on the mountain and let them decide what to do themselves. In addition, he could also do something in the outside world to threaten Qin Zheng and the others.

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. The Kun Sovereign continued to fly through the air, heading in the direction of the Desolate Region.

At this moment, on the main peak of Luoshen Mountain, many experts of the Luoshen Clan gathered together. Many of them had dark looks on their faces. For example, Luoshen Mu. His expression was currently the most unsightly one.

"This time, we are all implicated by Luoshen Chuan and that vile spawn." Luoshen Mu coldly spoke. From his point of view, they were implicated due to Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian. They first fragmented the Luoshen Clan and now, because of them, the Qin Clan wanted to use the Luoshen Mountain to threaten them.

"What's the point of saying all these now? What should we do next?" An old man spoke.

In truth, some of them could already feel their hearts wavering. Back then if they left with Luoshen Chuan, they would already be cultivating inside the Heaven Vault now. As long as they didn't exit there, they wouldn't face any danger.

"Everyone, what do you all feel about this?" Someone asked.

"Luoshen Chuan said that he will take some actions to warn the other powers, making them feel trepidation in their hearts. However, as to how great an effect this would wrought, we have no idea. As long as the Luoshen Mountain is here, the Qin Clan might truly attack. Also, once the Qin Clan joined forces with the other powers, what we have to face wouldn't merely be the Qin Clan alone. At that time, we might be completely annihilated. Hence, we have to act with the utmost precaution." An old man that was a heavenly deity stated.

Everyone had heavy looks on their faces. Some people were sighing. Actually, after Luoshen Mu became the clan leader, the Luoshen Clan has always been living in humiliation and were ridiculed by the other peak powers. Only the actions of Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian on the outside helped them to gain back some face. This included them killing Devilox and stopping the marriage between the two clans. And now, Qin Wentian even wanted to exchange Qin Cang for Luoshen Han and the ten world overlord hostages.

It was precisely so that many experts decided to follow Luoshen Chuan and entered the Heaven Vault. Currently, the Luoshen Clan on the Luoshen Mountain doesn't even have half of their original strength. They couldn't see any hope at all.

On the contrary, the young man who was forsaken by the Luoshen Clan then, Luoshen Qianxue's son Qin Wentian, has already grown to such a terrifying stage today. His name shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and he is also the controller of the Heaven Vault, capable of allowing people to cultivate in the nine heavenly layers. From him, they actually saw the hope they couldn't see. Right now, this young man was taking all the other peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as his enemy. How glorious was this? Back then, this was something even his father has never done before.

"In the past, the Divine Ox Clan once relocated their entire clan in order to avoid a calamity." Someone spoke. After that, the expressions on the faces of everyone sank even further. Relocating the clan...what a tragic decision.

"If we did so, would the Luoshen Clan still be the Luoshen Clan?"

"If we stay, we can at least still preserve our strength, it's better than the Luoshen Clan being disbanded. Or we could pretend like nothing has happened, and bet on the fact that the Qin Clan won't take any action against the Luoshen Clan." A person spoke, everyone was speechless.

"Or why don't we look for Luoshen Chuan? We can unite our strength once more, reverting to our peak strength." Another person suggested. After that, numerous cold glances shot towards that person. This was especially so for Luoshen Mu. Right now, most of those elders who remained on the Luoshen Mountain had all offended Luoshen Chuan deeply back then. To put it nicely, it's to look for Luoshen Chuan. To put it in ugly words, it's to surrender to Luoshen Chuan. How could those elders endure this?

After so many years of inner conflict, these elders finally gained control of the Luoshen Clan. Now, they were supposed to surrender to Luoshen Chuan?

"Let's not disband, we will stick together and relocate." Luoshen Mu coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, the hearts of everyone trembled.

Luoshen Mountain still had countless people staying here. When the other members heard this news, all of them were speechless. Had the Luoshen Clan declined to such a state?

Some people disagreed. They would rather look for Luoshen Chuan. It was better for the clan to co-exist chaotically together compared to being fragmented.

Some people sighed. If they knew this would happen, why did they still act as such back then. From now onwards, only Luoshen Chuan's faction could truly represent the Luoshen Clan. As for their faction on the Luoshen Mountain, they now only existed in name.

The Demon God Mountain made a different decision from the Luoshen Clan, deciding to disband temporarily. There were countless demonic beasts existing in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was very easy for them to mix into the other regions. Also, the five demon sovereigns believed that when they grew strong enough one day, they could just send out an announcement and all the demonic beasts would be back. Hence, they made this decision.

The Divine Ox Castle of the Desolate Region has as many experts as the clouds. They were one of the three hegemonic powers of the Desolate Region. Although the Divine Ox Clan was only considered average among the peak hegemonic powers, they were very ambitious and were always dreaming about the day they could conquer the Desolate Region. Once, they forced the Luoshen Clan to marry their maidens over. But in the next moment, another calamity occurred. Luoshen Chuan joined forces with the Demon God Mountain, even Devilox was killed and the dao bone was stolen.

But even so, the Divine Ox Clan still believed that they are still the strongest power in the Desolate Region and would unite the Desolate Region sooner or later.

At this moment, in the airspace above the Divine Ox Castle, violent winds gusted about. Black clouds littered the sky, and in the air, an incomparably gigantic figure that blotted out the sun could be seen flying towards the Divine Ox Castle. This gigantic avian figure flapped his wings, forming blades of wind that were incomparably sharp, causing this entire area to appear like one from an apocalypse.

“Kunpeng.” The experts of the Divine Ox Clan naturally recognized this form.

“Kun Sovereign.” A cold voice rang out. The few ox deities rose into the air, staring at the approaching figure.

“Seems like the Divine Ox Clan didn’t learn anything from the punishment resulting from the incidents that occurred back then. At the boundless sea region, your Ox Chieftain actually dared to incite the other peak powers against my Demon God Mountain. Since this is the case, I want to do something today that will let the Divine Ox Clan remember this forever.” The Kun Sovereign coldly spoke. After that, a few figures dismounted from the Kun Sovereign’s back. These figures were none other than the Dragon Sovereign, Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign and the other two sovereigns. All of them reverted to their true forms and their gigantic true forms radiated a shocking heavenly might.

Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan floated in the air with cold expressions. They shall use the Divine Ox Clan as an example then, warning the other peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms not to do anything rash.

The wings of the Kun Sovereign flapped and slashed out. In an instant, two gigantic blades of wind manifested, capable of tearing apart the earth. The Divine Ox Castle was sliced apart, numerous structures were damaged and countless experts of the Divine Ox Clan screamed in panic when they saw the gigantic figure in the air.

Currently, there are three powerful ox deities in the Divine Ox Clan. The other heavenly deities went with the Ox Chieftain to the Boundless Sea Region and have yet to return.

They were still fantasizing about entering the Heaven Vault, waiting there for Qin Wentian to return. However, Qin Wentian has already killed his way into their headquarters.

“Kill the three ox deities and use them as a warning.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. His targets were the heavenly deities of the Divine Ox Clan.

Only with a certain number of heavenly deities, could a power be considered a hegemonic power. The other people weren’t important. Leaving them alive would be better to spread fear.

The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign nodded, understanding Qin Wentian’s intention. Although their Demon God Mountain has disbanded, the other demons still existed. As long as they could instill fear in the Divine Ox Clan, there was no need to annihilate them completely. Leaving them alive was a warning to the Ox Chieftain. If the Ox Chieftain dared to do anything to target those disbanded demons, they would annihilate the entire Divine Ox Clan in the future.

With the five demon sovereigns acting against three ox deities, there was naturally no suspense. The three ox deities simply glanced at the five demon sovereigns. In the next moment, they immediately turned to flee.

“Can you all even escape?” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, his eyes turned extremely terrifying, like the eyes of heaven. The space ahead twisted chaotically, freezing everything there. A moment later, the area became a spacetime world of his own.

The expressions of the three ox deities turned ashen. Was this the legendary technique Qin Wentian used to effortlessly defeat the two powerful heavenly deities of the Qin Clan?

A single glance from him could create a world of space and time!

Chapter 1913: Nearing the Date of Marriage

At the boundless sea region, below the Heaven Vault, the experts there were still around, including the major characters from the hegemonic powers.

Although Qin Wentian and some people had exited the Heaven Vault, could it be they intended not to return forever? Clearly, that was impossible.

The Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan was here as well. But at this moment, a voice suddenly rang out in his mind, causing his aura to erupt forth as a look of wrath appeared on his face. “BASTARD!”

For a period of time, countless gazes turned to him as looks of bewilderment appeared on the faces of the others here.

“Chieftain, what’s going on?” Qin Zheng asked. The Ox Chieftain actually had such a great reaction.

“Qin Wentian, Luoshen Chuan and the five demon sovereigns actually went to my Divine Ox Castle.” The Ox Chieftain’s body trembled violently. However, he didn’t move from his spot. It was impossible for him to rush back in time. Right now, he could only pray.

But in reality, he understood in his heart that given the strength of Qin Wentian's group and the current power level of the heavenly deities who stayed behind to guard the Divine Ox Castle, Qin Wentian's group would easily be able to steamroll his subordinates. The ending would be extremely dire for his clan. When he thought of what might possibly happen, his heart pounded violently. He was truly afraid, although he was a heavenly deity, he felt true fear at this moment.

The Divine Ox Castle was the foundation of their Divine Ox Clan, all his descendants and juniors were there. Now, Qin Wentian's group was slaughtering their way into it. What would the fate of the Divine Ox Castle be?

The eyes of the major characters from the peak powers all flashed. Those experts who acted against the Heaven Vault felt worry in their hearts. Qin Wentian's group was doing this because of revenge, as well as a type of threat towards them.

Now, his group went to the Divine Ox Castle. But after that, would he go to the other powers?

"Seems like Qin Zheng's words had provoked Qin Wentian." Many people silently mused. Using a divine formation and poison world to seal the Heaven Vault and even wanting to act against places like the Luoshen Clan and Qingcheng Realm. This was why Qin Wentian's group took the risk to rush out and started their revenge.

"Chieftain please rest at ease. Most probably, they wouldn't really dare to annihilate the entire Divine Ox Clan. If not, can't you go and destroy the people connected to them?" Qin Zheng calmly spoke. In truth, he wanted nothing more than for the Ox Chieftain to do this. He wanted the Ox Chieftain to deal with the Luoshen Clan and conduct a massacre in the Qingcheng Realm. When that happened, the sin for all these crimes wouldn't be on him, Qin Zheng.

As for the Qin Clan, although he was a little worried, that was all to it. The Qin Clan wasn't something the Divine Ox Clan could be compared to. With Qin Ding there, if Qin Wentian really dared to go, he wouldn't be able to leave so easily.

The expression of the Ox Chieftain was ugly to the extreme. Waves of anger radiated from him. Qin Wentian didn't dare to act against the Qin Clan and decided to use his Divine Ox Clan as a warning. Did Qin Wentian think that his Divine Ox Clan was good to bully?

Everyone looked at him, waiting for more news.

Not long after, the Ox Chieftain howled in madness. He reverted back to his true form of a demonic kui ox as a terrifying aura blasted out from him.

“Qin Wentian, Luoshen Chuan. I’ll kill you two for sure!” The Ox Chieftain roared angrily. He already received news that the three ox deities guarding the Divine Ox Castle had fallen. Other than this, the Divine Ox Castle was completely destroyed and many experts in the Divine Ox Castle died from the aftershocks. Before they left, Qin Wentian’s group still told the survivors to send a message to the Ox Chieftain saying that they will stop the destruction today. But if the Divine Ox Clan still has the idea to act against the Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Clan, they wouldn’t be so polite next time around.

Qin Wentian’s group didn’t completely demolish the Divine Ox Castle because the Luoshen Clan, Demon God Mountain and Qingcheng Realm were still around. It wasn’t that they had no trepidations in their hearts. Hence, they only killed the three ox deities but left many others of the Divine Ox Clan alive, telling them to wake up their idea. Naturally, this can also be considered a warning to the other peak powers.

Qin Wentian’s group wanted to tell all the peak powers that if any of them did what Qin Zheng suggested, they best be prepared to suffer their flames of anger.

After that, more news circulated from the Desolate Region. Three ox deities from the Divine Ox Clan were killed, the Divine Ox Castle was heavily damaged and many ox demons died. Qin Wentian’s group even left a warning behind before they left.

At the same time, the Luoshen Clan on the Luoshen Mountain decided to relocate. It was unknown where they would go. Naturally, there were some who refused to leave and decided to stay. The Luoshen Clan under Luoshen Mu once again was fragmented. Right now, this Luoshen Clan existed only in name but was already dead in reality. Everyone understood that only Luoshen Chuan’s faction had the qualifications to represent the Luoshen Clan.

Not only for the Luoshen Mountain, in the span of a day, the countless demons of the Demon God Mountain also left the Demon God Mountain, mixing into other places. The Demon God Mountain was disbanded.

Right now, the three hegemonic powers of the Desolate Region were all shook by commotion.

The Luoshen Mountain’s Luoshen Clan relocated, the Demon God Mountain disbanded, the Divine Ox Clan was under attack, even their Divine Ox Castle was destroyed.

In an instant, the situation in the Desolate Region turned chaotic. Many powers saw their chance to rise up and started to expand. Many powerful characters exited in seclusion and went to vie for supremacy in the Desolate Region, preparing to rise up to a hegemon power.

Just after a short time, countless battles erupted in the Desolate Region.

And just when the Desolate Region was in chaos, the other regions sent news saying that there were experts who saw the Kun Sovereign in the Earth Region. The Kun Sovereign flew through the sky, blotting out the sun. This caused the major powers of the Earth Region to panic.

And during that day in the rumors when the Kun Sovereign appeared, a few experts from the Thunder Clan of the Earth Region also vanished, like they were abducted by someone. Many days later, they were found dead in random locations. It was rumored that this was done by Qin Wentian and the Kun Sovereign. However, they didn't launch any large-scaled attacks on the Thunder Clan. This was considered just a small warning.

The experts from the peak powers of the Earth Region respectively left the location of the Heaven Vault, only leaving behind one of two deities each to monitor the situation here. The other experts planned to return to deal with the danger. However, after they returned, everything was calm. Nothing happened at all. However, the seeds of threat have already been planted in their hearts.

And after that, people claimed that they saw the Kun Sovereign in the Eternity Region, and also the Chaos Region. In any case, those powers who acted against Qin Wentian and his group were all extremely worried, and sent people back, taking precautions.

With the Divine Ox Clan being made an example of, how would any of the peak powers dare to be careless?

In the boundless sea region, Qin Zheng's heart kept sinking when he saw the number of powers gathered here being gradually reduced daily. He felt extremely unhappy. He didn't expect Qin Wentian to use such a method to neutralize the trap he had set up. As for his threat against the Luoshen Clan, Qingcheng Realm and Demon God Mountain, right now, the Luoshen Clan has already relocated and the Demon God Mountain has disbanded. Qin Zheng didn't truly feel that the Qingcheng Realm was important enough to Qin Wentian to threaten him. That was merely a place Qin Wentian had conquered.

As for Azure Mystic, the ban order was still present. If he truly sent people in, no one knew what the consequences would be.

The days passed one by one, the people in the boundless sea region all understood that if they kept staying here, Qin Wentian would never walk into the trap. The only solution is that they send out heavenly deities to try and locate him. However, given the power of Qin Wentian's group, they most probably have to send out a team of extremely powerful deities or all those they sent out would surely die. And even if they sent out a team of extremely powerful deities that could deal with Qin Wentian's group, with the Kun Sovereign's speed, who could stop them from fleeing away?

This was too difficult. Their patience was slowly diminishing.

"Dangtian, your wedding date is getting nearer. Let's visit the Qu Residence and get Qu Shan and Nichang to make their preparations." Today, Qin Zheng spoke to Qin Dangtian. Back then, Qin Ding personally went there to set the wedding date and the date was already very close to arriving. As for the matter of the Heaven Vault, he could only temporarily put it aside for now.

"Mhm, father. For the marriage, I wish to invite the various peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Dangtian spoke. He was the Heaven's Son, his wedding with Goddess Nichang naturally couldn't be allowed to be an ordinary event and had to be the focus of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Right, let me and your mother handle this. We will make this wedding a grand occasion." Qin Zheng nodded. He had supreme talent but he only had one son. This son of his was so outstanding that he needn't have a second son. Hence, all his hopes were placed on Qin Dangtian.

As they spoke, they headed towards the Qu Residence. Qu Shen still went out to welcome them but his attitude didn't seem as good as before. Qin Zheng didn't really care about that.

"Nichang, a few days later will be the date of our wedding. For this wedding, I want all the females in the world to envy you." Qin Dangtian spoke with pride. He did have such qualifications. He was Heaven's Son, the future clan leader of the Qin Clan. Now that he was going to be marrying a wife, this occasion naturally must be as grand as it possibly can be.

Goddess Nichang was as cold as ever, she didn't say anything. Qin Dangtian was already used to her personality. It was precisely like this so he could enjoy the feeling of the hunt, pursuing her and slowly gaining her heart. After a few more days, this ice beauty, the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, would become his wife.

After the welcoming banquet, Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian departed.

“Nichang, have you thought about this clearly?” Qu Shen spoke to Goddess Nichang.

“What can I do?” Goddess Nichang replied softly. Breaking the marriage agreement? This was something her and her grandfather have agreed to. If they backed out now, there was no need to say how dire the consequences would be.

“If I knew this would happen, I would not have allowed you to choose back then and just decisively rejected them for you.” Qu Shen sighed, feeling somewhat helpless. Back then, he only wanted his granddaughter Nichang to have a good backing, hence he didn’t persuade her, allowing her to agree to the engagement with Qin Dangtian. He knew that his granddaughter Nichang would become the future mother of the Qin Clan after the marriage, and would have a better life.

However, after Qin Wentian’s appearance and the news he brought to them from Qu Mo, Qu Shen gradually changed his thinking.

But since he had already agreed, how can it be so easy to break the engagement?

Most probably, even if Qu Mo was present, there was no way for them to do so.

After Qin Zheng returned to the Qin Clan, he started to issue the wedding invitations inviting all peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The wedding was for Heaven’s Son, Qin Dangtian, and the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

As for Qin Wentian, he was now currently in the Heaven Region.

In addition, most probably no one knew about this. Qin Wentian was not only in the Heaven Region, he was even inside Qin City, the headquarters of the Qin Clan.

Since he was inside Qin City, he naturally received this news quickly. After he learned that Qin Dangtian and Nichang's wedding date was nearing, he could only sigh silently. Was there no way out from this?

Chapter 1914: Challenge Letter

Qin City. This was the first time Qin Wentian entered this ancient and majestic city. Most probably, even the people of the Qin Clan wouldn't expect that Qin Wentian actually dared to enter here.

Upon walking on the streets of Qin City, Qin Wentian could truly feel how prosperous this city was. Cultivators flooded the streets and the vast majority were actually world overlords. Since this was the headquarters of the hegemon power, the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region, one could very well imagine how majestic this city was.

"In here, there should be traces of my father, right?" Qin Wentian silently mused. His father was born in the Qin Clan and grew up there. When he was young, he must have frequently roamed the city. And now that Qin Wentian was here personally, he could sense the charm of this place.

Walking on a city street, his eyes turned towards the central area of the Qin Clan. Over there, he could see a Qin Palace so tall that the top touched the clouds. No matter where in Qin City you are, you would be able to see the towering Qin Palace as long as you inclined your head. This was because the Qin Palace was just too vast. It was said that the size of the Qin Palace alone, was larger than some territories owned by the Qin Clan. There were numerous castles within, all the branch bloodlines resided there.

At this moment, there was a saint beast flying through the air. Numerous figures stood atop the saint beast and the person in the lead was a young man and a young woman. The young man was incomparably handsome, exuding boundless magnificence. The young woman was also extremely beautiful, and would cause one's heart to pound the moment they saw her. However, no one in Qin City dared to profane her. Because, everyone in the city knew that this group of people were people from the Qin Palace.

"Qin Yan, Qin Lan. It's said that they went to send an invitation to the Nine Heavens Mystical Palace." Below, many passersby stared in the air. The Qin Clan has sent some of their members to give the invitations to the peak powers.

“Qin Yan and Qin Lan are both transcendent-level world overlords at their ages. It was unknown how many young men and women envied and adored them. This is especially so for Qin Lan. With her identity and beauty, most probably only the heaven chosen from the other peak powers could match up to her.” Someone sighed. For a young woman like Qin Lan, people like them could only look at her from afar. Even experts at the world overlord realm wouldn’t dare to profane her beauty.

“There are many people below discussing about you.” In the air, Qin Yan who stood on the back of the saint beast laughed.

Qin Lan’s beautiful eyes flashed with arrogance. She didn’t glance below. She has heard much of such words before. In addition, who said that a woman must marry for sure? Unless there was another absolute supreme character like her elder clan brother Qin Dangtian, her heart most probably wouldn’t be moved.

“We have already sent the invitation and we are also not in a hurry to go back. How about going to enjoy some delicious food?” Qin Yan laughed. The beautiful eyes of Qin Lan flashed. After that, she nodded. Delicious food was one of the things she liked most. It wasn’t a bad idea to indulge herself occasionally.

“Seems like they will be heading to the Culinary God Inn.” After hearing their conversation, someone mused silently. The Culinary God Inn was the number one inn in Qin City.

“Culinary God Inn.” Qin Wentian mumbled in a low voice. His divine sense spread out and after that, he started to walk in a certain direction.

As the largest inn in Qin City, the environment of the Culinary God Inn was naturally extremely good and it was also very spacious. Each table was located in a separate and independent pavillion, one could enjoy delicacies while enjoying the scenery. Also, those who came here were mostly world overlords. Ordinary people wouldn’t be able to afford the prices.

Many people instantly recognized Qin Yan and Qin Lan the moment they came. All of them clasped their hands “Young Master Qin Yan, Young Miss Qin Lan.”

The two of them nodded casually and sat down after selecting a good seat. Qin Wentian also arrived and chose a seat not far away from them. Earlier, the sounds of people chatting could still be heard, but now, the atmosphere was very quiet. Evidently, this was because of Qin Yan and Qin Lan’s arrival.

“All of you please be at ease. There’s no need to feel restrained.” Qin Yan stared at everyone and calmly spoke. The people here then nodded and smiled. A world overlord then asked, “I’ve long heard of Young Master Qin Yan and Young Miss Qin Lan’s name. Now that I’ve met you two personally, I can only say that both of you do live up to your reputations.”

Qin Yan smiled, he has also heard much of such fawning words before. There was no meaning to them. He was clear in his heart that he has only one target and his target was far above the other so-called geniuses.

“Miss Qin Lan’s beauty is flawless and incomparable. Although I have never met the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang before, I believe that Miss Qin’s beauty wouldn’t lose out to hers.” An exceptionally young world overlord praised. There was no woman who didn’t like people to praise their beauty. Qin Lan was no exception.

“You’ve never met her before, but I have. The number one beauty in the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang is much more beautiful than me.” Qin Lan calmly spoke. Although she was fond of people praising her, it didn’t mean that she would lose her head in self-satisfaction. She had once met Goddess Nichang before. In terms of beauty, it was true that Qin Lan was inferior.

“Miss Qin is too humble.” That person laughed. “However, news about the wedding between Heaven’s Son and Goddess Nichang has now circulated throughout the world. It’s truly a legendary story, they are like a celestial couple.”

“That’s only natural. Only Goddess Nichang is qualified enough to match up to my clan brother.” Qin Lan calmly spoke. Many people glanced at her side-profile. Her face was beautiful and her tone was gentle, causing many to feel adoration towards her.

“That’s right, Heavenly Deity Qin Dangtian is known as Heaven’s Son, his combat prowess is unrivalled and he immediately crippled the Skyorder Heavenly Deity the moment he broke through to the Heavenly Deity Realm. Now, his strength would undoubtedly be much more terrifying than before. He is like the Qin Clan Leader, possessing supreme talent and is destined to not suffer any defeat in his life and it’s extremely hard to find someone in the world who can match him.” A person spoke, his tone filled with reverence when he mentioned Qin Dangtian and Qin Zheng. This pair of father and son was truly unparalleled characters. In the Qin Clan, they were the symbol of conviction for many people, and their statuses were incomparably lofty.

“That’s only natural.” A faint smile appeared on Qin Lan’s face, causing her to be even more beautiful.

“But has the Qin Clan Leader really not suffer any defeat before?” At this moment, a calm voice rang out. The eyes of everyone flashed as they stared at the person who spoke. They only saw Qin Wentian quietly sitting there with his back facing Qin Yan and Qin Lan.

Qin Yan and Qin Lan turned their gazes to Qin Wentian. The two of them frowned, they could tell that this person’s cultivation base was unfathomable. However, how dared he refute her words.

“Naturally.” Qin Yan calmly added, his tone was filled with certainty.

Qin Wentian laughed mockingly, “But from what I know, Qin Zheng was once defeated by a certain person in the past.”

“Nonsense.” Qin Lan’s expression turned cold. This place was Qin City, to think that there was actually someone who dared to speak such things.

“If our Qin Clan Leader has suffered a defeat before, why haven’t I heard of it?” Qin Yan’s eyes gleamed with a cold light, his voice also turned colder by a few degrees.

“Oh? Don’t the people of the Qin Clan know of Qin Yuanfeng’s existence?” Qin Wentian replied. At this moment, the eyes of everyone in the inn narrowed as they stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Yuanfeng, this name was a taboo here in Qin City, no one dared to mention it. This was especially so before the members of the Qin Clan.

Yet this fellow actually dared to say Qin Yuanfeng’s name?

As expected, the expressions of Qin Yan and Qin Lan turned glacial.

“Just a traitor of our Qin Clan.” Qin Yan coldly spoke.

“But from my knowledge, the traitor you spoke about once killed his way into the Qin Clan and defeated Qin Zheng. Only after the many experts of the Qin Clan joined forces and ganged up on Qin Yuanfeng, did Qin Yuanfeng finally lose. In that case, I wonder where did you two get the courage to say that Qin Zheng has never been defeated before?” Qin Wentian’s voice was calm. Qin Yan radiated coldness, although he was still seated, it felt like he was prepared to act explosively at any moment.

“Who the hell are you?” Qin Lan turned her head and stared at Qin Wentian’s back. Qin Wentian’s back was still facing them but at this moment, he slowly turned around. At the moment when he turned, the lines on his face changed and swiftly after, the handsome appearance of a young man appeared.

When Qin Lan saw his face, she was instantly stunned by Qin Wentian.

“I am Qin Wentian.” A calm voice rang out from Qin Wentian’s mouth. At this moment, the hearts of many people in the inn trembled fiercely. Qin Yuanfeng’s son, Qin Wentian.

He actually was audacious enough to come to Qin City alone. Also, when facing the Qin Clan’s experts, he didn’t hesitate and revealed his identity.

Qin Lan and Qin Yan instantly retreated, their hearts filled with wariness. The news from the Desolate Region has long reached here. Wherever the sightings of the Kun Sovereign are reported, the peak powers in that region would be on their guard. Now that Qin Wentian suddenly appeared in Qin City, Qin Yan and Qin Lan instantly thought that he was here to deal with the juniors of the Qin Clan.

“If any of you try to take out your messaging crystals, I guarantee that you won’t be able to live long enough to send a transmission.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Two of the experts who attempted to do so instantly stopped their actions. Qin Wentian’s current fame wasn’t weaker than that of Qin Dangtian. In the boundless sea region, Qin Wentian easily crushed two Qin Clan’s heavenly deities in a single battle.

The two heavenly deities couldn’t even withstand a single strike from him. And now, he actually appeared in the headquarters of the Qin Clan, Qin City.

Qin Lan’s heart trembled violently, her beautiful eyes staring at the handsome figure before her. She had always wanted to know what sort of person Qin Wentian was exactly. Today, she has seen it for herself. His magnificence didn’t lose out to Qin Dangtian. Just casually standing there, he gave off an incomparable pressure. He was still so young and was so good-looking.

Also, his surname was Qin too. The blood in his veins was the blood of the Qin Clan.

“Don’t worry, I didn’t come here to kill or to kidnap you all.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, a paper flew out with a wave of his hand. The paper shone with a bright light and floated before Qin Yan and Qin Lan.

“This is my challenge letter. Please pass this to the Qin Clan on my behalf. Qin Dangtian has the title of Heaven’s Son and he believes that he is unrivalled, living in his lofty arrogance. You two also claimed that he has never been defeated before, right? Since this is the case, I believe he wouldn’t not have the courage to fight me.” Qin Wentian calmly continued. As the sound of his voice faded, he took a step forward. Spatial energy flooded the area and Qin Wentian vanished in the next instant.

“A challenge letter.” The people in the inn felt their hearts trembling. Qin Wentian was issuing a challenge to Qin Dangtian.

Qin Yan and Qin Lan’s gaze turned to the challenge letter. Qin Wentian actually sent a challenge letter to the Heaven’s Son. And the date of the challenge was actually set on the wedding date of Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang.

Was this intentional?

“Let’s go back.” Qin Lan took the challenge letter and spoke. Their silhouettes flashed as they left the inn directly.

But since the people in the inn witnessed this scene, it naturally didn’t take long for this news to spread. Qin Yuanfeng’s son Qin Wentian, actually appeared in Qin City and personally delivered a challenge letter to the people of the Qin Clan, telling them to hand the letter to the Qin Clan on his behalf.

Qin Yuanfeng’s son Qin Wentian, officially challenged Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian.

Chapter 1915: Arrival

This challenge letter caused a huge commotion in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Countless people in Qin City of the Heaven Region were discussing about this matter.

Many people guessed that could it be there was really something going on between Qin Wentian and Goddess Nichang? If not, why would Qin Wentian do something so crazy?

In addition, the marriage date of Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang was nearing. Countless experts were rushing to Qin City of the Heaven Region to attend this grand occasion. How could they miss out on this?

Qin Dangtian was Heaven's Son, he would be marrying the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

Right now, Qin Wentian who was an existence whose fame didn't lose out to Qin Dangtian, actually would be challenging Qin Dangtian on the day of Qin Dangtian's wedding.

Also, Qin Wentian was none other than Qin Yuanfeng's son. Qin Yuanfeng was once the rival of Qin Zheng.

The grudge between the two of them seemed to be one that originated from fate. This would be played out in Qin City. How could people not rush over with their fastest speed after they heard that?

Right now, all the small and large inns in Qin City were filled with people. Countless people could be found discussing this matter on the streets. Everyone knew about this.

"Has this Qin Wentian gone mad? He actually dared to issue a challenge to Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. Could it be that he has enough confidence that he would be able to defeat Qin Dangtian?"

"Although Qin Wentian's name now can shake the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and he has proven his combat prowess at the battle of the boundless sea region, effortlessly dealing with Qin Li and Qin Cang, the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian has already been famous for many years. The first deity-level battle he fought when he broke through, was against the Skyorder Heavenly Deity. Back then, the Skyorder Heavenly Deity's fame was far more widespread compared to Qin Li and Qin Cang. Now, so many years have already passed. Qin Dangtian would only be stronger than ever."

"Seems like that battle at the boundless sea region caused Qin Wentian to be overconfident."

"Qin Wentian dealt with two heavenly deities one after another and is even the Heaven Vault's controller. Who knows, maybe he truly has shocking combat prowess and might be strong enough to fight against Qin Dangtian?"

Some people felt that Qin Wentian was strong enough to fight Qin Dangtian but the vast majority of people here all felt that the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian was stronger. After all, he was already extremely famous many years ago and even had the title Heaven's Son. He was the chosen of the heavens. It wouldn't be so easy for Qin Wentian to be victorious.

In addition, the vast majority of people here all felt that Qin Wentian was mad. Could it be he was doing this for the sake of a beauty, Goddess Nichang?

Even if Qin Wentian truly had the strength to contend against Qin Dangtian, so what of it? Could it be that the Qin Clan will simply stand aside and watch neutrally?

There was no problem even if Qin Dangtian accepted the challenge. But if Qin Dangtian was defeated, what would the Qin Clan do?

One must know that a previous example already existed in the past. Regarding the death of Qin Yuanfeng, some of the experts of the older generations still knew a thing or two about that.

The father and son seemed to have similar fates. Would Qin Wentian be able to change anything? It was most probably extremely difficult to do so.

The experts from the various peak powers also arrived. However, they didn't go to the Qin Clan straight away although the Qin Clan would receive them warmly if they headed there. Clearly, the people of the various peak powers loved to be more free and unrestrained. They wouldn't feel too at ease in the Qin Clan.

As the date of the wedding became nearer, the winds and clouds gathered in Qin City, like there would be a storm incoming. Naturally, this might be because of Qin Wentian. Qin Dangtian has already sent out a message saying he would first slay Qin Wentian before proceeding with the wedding.

Time flowed by, the wedding date finally arrived.

At the Qin Clan, the experts from the various powers gathered there. Countless people were staring at a location. Over there, Qin Dangtian and a few other heavenly deities could be seen leading a group of experts as they headed to Boundless City to receive the bride. There were saint beasts pulling the sedans and they set out in an imposing manner, attracting the attention of countless people.

The people of the Qin Clan understood that it was very possible for Qin Dangtian to become the future Qin Clan Leader. Also, the wife he would be marrying would become the future mother of the Qin Clan. This wedding would be a grand occasion so majestic that the likes of it haven't been seen in the Qin Clan for several years. The Qin Clan naturally treated this very seriously.

Also the groups of experts sent to escort the bride were all extremely powerful.

The thing that happened back then in the Desolate Region was naturally known by the Qin Clan. When Devilox of the Divine Ox Clan went to escort the three brides from the Luoshen Clan, they were ambushed halfway and the brides all fled. This matter was arranged by none other than Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian. Since there was a previous example, how could the Qin Clan not take precautions against that?

Although Qin Dangtian was a character Devilox couldn't compare to, but the strength of Qin Wentian's group was undoubtedly very powerful. Luoshen Chuan, Qin Wentian, and the five demon sovereigns definitely constituted them as a top-tier power. The Qin Clan naturally had to guard against underhanded methods by them.

The imposing group soared into the air. The hearts of countless people in Qin City were filled with anticipation.

And just like Qin City, the atmosphere of Boundless City right now was also extremely lively. This was especially so outside the Qu Residence, it was unknown how many experts gathered there. There were several geniuses who felt very disappointed. Their number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang, would be marrying someone today and become a wife. Although her husband-to-be was Qin Dangtian, they still couldn't help but to feel slightly disappointed.

After all, from today onwards, Goddess Nichang would become someone's wife.

This might be the last time they could see Goddess Nichang. After she marries into the Qin Clan, her status would instantly change. It would be as tough as ascending the heavens if they ever wanted to meet her again. Maybe, they wouldn't even have an opportunity despite waiting for an eternity.

But naturally, many people here approved of this marriage.

Compared to the liveliness on the outside, the atmosphere in the Qu Residence was silent. Qu Shen held his arms behind his back and stared into the distance. Behind him, Goddess Nichang quietly stood there, she alone was enough to cause the simple design of the residence to become more beautiful and charming. She didn't doll herself up but she was as beautiful as ever. There was no need for her to use any makeup or accessories to enhance her beauty. Even if she appeared in her wedding like this, no one would say anything.

In here, there were only the two of them. It was very quiet.

"Qin Dangtian is on his way and will arrive soon." Qu Shen calmly spoke, one couldn't hear any joy nor anger in his voice. After Goddess Nichang heard his words, her expression was very calm as well.

"Wentian chose to challenge Qin Dangtian today. Other than his fate, I'm afraid there's another reason for his challenge. Most probably, he doesn't hope that you would marry Qin Dangtian." Qu Shen spoke in a light voice. He naturally could tell this point. Qin Wentian always had a good relationship with him and also had some interactions with Nichang. Qin Wentian even met his son Qu Mo before. It was very normal that Qin Wentian didn't wish for Nichang to marry into the Qin Clan because once she did so, it would mean that they would be standing on opposite sides. At that time, what should Qin Wentian do?

Hence, Qin Wentian chose this day to challenge Qin Dangtian.

"I know." Goddess Nichang spoke in a soft voice. She lowered her head slightly but her expression didn't change. No one knew what she was thinking in her heart.

Qu Shen sighed silently, he also didn't say anything more. He has already said all that he wanted to say. Everything depended on Nichang's own decisions.

As they waited quietly, the clouds in the sky faraway started to shift. Colored-clouds appeared, like a sign of auspiciousness as a saint beast could be seen pulling two sedans through the air with heavenly deities acting as protectors. Qin Dangtian stood on his sedan, his long hair fluttered in the wind and he was incomparably handsome. His looks caused many females in the crowd to feel slightly dazzled. What a grand event this was, maybe only a woman like Goddess Nichang had the qualifications to enjoy such preferential treatment.

Even for heavenly deities, they could only act as protectors for this marriage escort.

“Nichang, I’ve arrived.” The sedans landed on the ground as Qin Dangtian walked out.

Goddess Nichang nodded lightly. After that, she stepped out and moved towards the second sedan and entered it. Qin Dangtian smiled and looked at Qu Shen, “Grandpa Qu, let’s go.”

“I won’t be going.” Qu Shen calmly shook his head. Qin Dangtian’s eyes flashed. He knew that his grandfather Qin Ding, had caused Qu Shen to feel a little unhappy with the domineering way he handled the marriage. But even so, he didn’t expect Qu Shen to not attend the marriage of his granddaughter.

But since both were heavenly deity characters, he wouldn’t try and persuade Qu Shen either. He simply nodded, “In that case, Grandpa Qu, please take care of yourself.”

After speaking, he turned and walked towards his own sedan. Under the gazes of countless people, the auspicious saint beast pulled the two sedans and soared into the air with heavenly deities acting as guards flying beside the sedans. This was like the beauty of a childhood fantasy.

They departed the area. They came in such an imposing manner yet they left so quickly. The people of Boundless City were deep in discussion. Deity Qu actually didn’t go with them. Could it be that Deity Qu was against this marriage?

In the Qu Residence, the atmosphere turned silent.

However in the Qin Clan of Qin City, the atmosphere grew more and more lively as the experts from the various powers arrived and went to offer their congratulations. Before the ceremonial stage of the Qin Clan, a grand banquet was laid out, it was unknown how many experts there were. Just the number of experts in the Qin Clan alone was countless.

And to the tables closest to the ceremonial stage, they belonged to the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They were able to view the wedding at a close distance.

Many people had smiles on their faces but different thoughts in their hearts. When would Qin Wentian appear?

In the air, the saint beast roared. Multi-colored light sparkled as the sedans arced through the skies. After that, Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang walked out from their respective sedans. Both of them were dazzling to the extreme, instantly attracting the attention of countless people.

Qin Zheng and his wife stood at the side of the ceremonial stage with smiles on their faces. Goddess Nichang was clad in simple-style clothing but even so, her simple clothes did nothing to mask her radiance.

“Congratulations to Clan Leader Qin.” Someone offered congratulations.

“Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang. They are truly a match made in heaven.” Everyone laughed. Qin Zheng smiled and clasped his hands in response.

Qin Dangtian looked at the beauty beside him. A smile could be seen on his handsome face. The two of them then walked up to the ceremonial stage together. After the ceremony, both of them would be wedded.

“BOOM!” As Qin Dangtian just stepped upon the stage, a trembling sound echoed as the ground trembled.

“BOOM, BOOM!” The ground continuously trembled along with the ceremonial stage. In an instant, numerous divine senses gushed out, as countless gazes turned to the direction outside the Qin Clan.

He’s here. Who could have thought that he would really dare to come today. This was simply crazy.

Outside the Qin Clan, there were countless experts here. These people didn’t have enough qualifications to enter the Qin Clan and could only stand outside. But at the moment as the ground trembled, their hearts shuddered along as well. The masses of people actually stepped aside involuntarily, creating an open path. From afar, a figure slowly walked over. He calmly regarded everything ahead inside the ancient Qin Clan. Every step he landed on the ground would cause the ground to tremble.

“Qin Wentian came alone.” The crowd stared at the figure moving over as their hearts and souls trembled.

Too mad, too crazy. He actually came like this to the Qin Clan.

Only to see that at this moment, Qin Wentian waved his hand. An instant later, a challenge letter flew into the depths of the Qin Clan, flying straight for the ceremonial stage and landed before Qin Dangtian!

Chapter 1916: Battle of Destiny Continues

Countless gazes in the Qin Clan stared outside. Their eyes directly penetrated through the distance and landed on Qin Wentian, staring at the figure making his way through the crowd.

At this moment, everyone could feel how outstanding Qin Wentian was, and also how lonely his figure seemed.

This place was the Qin Clan, one of the three hegemonic powers in the Heaven Region. Qin Wentian actually came here alone. In the view of many people, this was no different from courting death. Even if he was strong enough to deal with Qin Dangtian, how could he be strong enough to deal with the entire Qin Clan?

Also, who knows? Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian might have enough strength alone to end his life.

At this moment, Qin Dangtian was staring at the challenge letter floating before his eyes. His gaze then turned towards the distance and gleamed sharply, more terrifying compared to sword light.

Qin Wentian came. He wanted to challenge him on his wedding day.

This battle would be witnessed by everyone in the world. He had to kill Qin Wentian without any help at all or he wouldn't have the qualifications to the title of Heaven's Son.

Beside Qin Dangtian, Goddess Nichang's beautiful eyes also stared into the distance. Many people turned their gazes onto her as though they had seen something from her gaze. After all, Qin Wentian chose today to challenge Qin Dangtian. Although Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian's hatred lasted since the last generation, there were still many people who felt that Qin Wentian was challenging Qin Dangtian because of her.

What exactly had happened between Qin Wentian and Nichang before?

Right now, there were all sorts of rumors floating around the immortal realms, nobody knew if they could verify those rumors today or not. However, they weren't able to read anything from Goddess Nichang's gaze. She was always like this and wouldn't show her emotions, resembling a beauty made of ice. Even during her wedding, her personality was still the same. It was also said that no one in the world has ever seen Goddess Nichang smile before. Most probably, Qin Dangtian didn't as well. All of them couldn't help but wonder how much more beautiful Goddess Nichang would be if she smiled.

Qin Zheng and his wife also stared outside. Qin Zheng stood with his arms behind his back. His expression was like ice. Since Qin Wentian came, there was no need for him to leave. He had no idea what gave Qin Wentian the courage to actually come here to the Qin Clan's headquarters.

"BOOM!" Another tremor manifested. Finally, Qin Wentian's steps stopped. He stood outside the Qin Clan and glanced at the majestic Qin Palace before him. Countless people around him all stepped aside, opening up a pathway for him as they retreated to the back, giving him space.

From Qin Wentian, a faint pressure gushed forth. Similarly, on the ceremonial stage, Qin Dangtian also radiated a sense of pressure. The two of them stared at each other through the air. The battle of destiny couldn't be avoided after all.

There were many experts outside the Qin Clan staring at Qin Wentian with cold looks in their eyes. But at this moment, Qin Zheng spoke, "Let him enter."

Naturally those people also wouldn't be able to block Qin Wentian even if they wanted to.

The experts stepped back, creating a path for Qin Wentian to walk straight towards the Qin Clan's ceremonial stage. Everyone knew that Qin Wentian issued a challenge letter to Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian and he specified that today would be the day. Qin Dangtian had to fight even if he didn't want to. At the very least, the Qin Clan wouldn't act before Qin Dangtian was defeated. After all, the Qin Clan wouldn't be able to lose this much face.

Qin Dangtian has already accepted the challenge later. Since this is the case, this battle belonged to Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian.

However, Qin Wentian didn't enter the Qin Clan. He continued to stand outside. He then spoke, "Qin Zheng, back then my father defeated you here. The Qin Clan was despicable and got many experts to gang up on him, before managing to kill him. I believe that the Qin Clan should still remember this matter, right?"

Qin Zheng's expression turned cold. He didn't reply to Qin Wentian's words. As the Qin Clan Leader and under the vision of all these experts who gathered here today, he wouldn't lower his status to argue with Qin Wentian.

"He was a traitor of the Qin Clan. Qin Yuanfeng deserved his death." A heavenly deity from the Qin Clan spoke. "Qin Wentian, you are a traitor's son but the blood that flows in you belongs to our clan. Today, we shall strip everything from you."

"Oh, just like what you all did back then?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. "Qin Clan, I won't enter. That place is a place of shame and it would only dirty my feet. One day, when I finally step into the Qin Clan, that day would be the day where the Qin Clan vanishes."

"Brazen."

"You don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth. Talk about it again after you survive today." Many experts from the Qin Clan revealed expressions of rage on their faces. Qin Wentian was too arrogant, simply talking nonsense. He already came here and was still thinking that he could leave? This was nothing but a fool's dream.

The powerful Qin Clan that has existed in the Heaven Region for countless years, never had their position been shaken before. They had always been lofty and high up, residing in Qin City. How could someone like Qin Wentian who was a traitor's son do anything to them?

"Once, Qin Zheng was defeated by my father and the Qin Clan ganged up on him. Today, I sent a challenge letter to Qin Dangtian. After he is defeated, would the Qin Clan act like how they did in the past and gang up on me?" Qin Wentian calmly asked.

"Will I be defeated?" Qin Dangtian spoke. He exuded boundless magnificence as his black hair fluttered in the wind. His eyes which were like stars, stared straight at Qin Wentian. He would never lose.

"Since you are so confident, how about this? Our battle won't be concluded until one of us dies or is crippled." Qin Wentian coldly laughed.

"I will grant you your wish." Qin Dangtian replied, confident in himself to the extreme.

“Although I know your words are useless, at the instant you are defeated, the people of the Qin Clan would surely do something desperate like ganging up on me, I still decided to say things out clearly now and allowed the people of the world to see the ugliness of the Qin Clan.” Qin Wentian continued, “Today, since so many experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are gathered here, you guys can all be the witnesses.”

In front of the ceremonial stage, the experts from the peak powers looked at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian’s words contained an unfathomably high amount of confidence, like he would be able to defeat Qin Dangtian for sure.

“Interesting.” The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. “Since this is the case, my Qiankun Sect will be a witness. I believe that Heaven’s Son, Qin Dangtian, would be able to defeat Qin Wentian for sure. If Qin Dangtian is defeated, I believe the other experts of the Qin Clan won’t act. As one of the peak hegemonic powers in the Heaven Region, the Qin Clan would naturally have their own pride.”

The eyes of everyone flashed when they heard the Qiankun Sect Leader’s words. Although the vast majority of people felt that Qin Dangtian would win, but what if Qin Dangtian somehow lost?

The Qin Clan didn’t say it for themselves that they wouldn’t interfere if Qin Dangtian lost. The Qiankun Sect Leader was just a guest today, although his earlier words sounded supportive to Qin Dangtian, that was only in the circumstances if Qin Dangtian won. If not...

Many people silently laughed in their hearts as they stared at Qin Wentian. Seems like the Qiankun Sect Leader wanted to capture Qin Wentian for himself. Not only him, given that Qin Wentian was the controller of the Heaven Vault, who wouldn’t want to capture Qin Wentian?

And it was precisely because of this that Qin Wentian chose today to challenge Qin Dangtian. To the people of the world, this was undoubtedly a crazy act, no different from courting death.

“The Qiankun Sect Leader is correct. If Qin Dangtian is defeated today, given the Qin Clan’s status, they naturally would not do anything. The Qin Clan wouldn’t be able to afford to lose so much face.” An expert from the Che Clan clearly supported the Qiankun Sect Leader’s words. Although the possibility of Qin Dangtian being defeated was very low, but what if it really happened?

At that time, it was impossible for these peak powers to allow the Qin Clan to use any excuse and capture Qin Wentian. If Qin Wentian was captured by the Qin Clan, the other peak powers needn’t even dream about obtaining the Heaven Vault ever again.

Qin Zheng coldly snorted but he didn't reply. The coldness from Qin Dingtian engulfed the area around him. Even before fighting, people were already speaking about what if he was defeated? It felt like the people here today are all waiting for him to lose.

However, was it even possible for him, Qin Dingtian, to lose?

"Nichang, I will return soon. Wait for me." Qin Dingtian looked at the beautiful maiden beside him as his eyes flashed with tenderness. After this battle, he would return and complete the marriage ceremony. From then on, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region would become his wife.

Heaven's Son and the number one beauty of the Heaven Region should originally already be together. This was something arranged by destiny.

After speaking, Qin Dingtian stepped out and walked towards the entrance of the Qin Clan.

Outside the Qin Clan, the experts there all stepped back. Qin Dingtian finally came before Qin Wentian. The two figures stood in opposition to each other.

"Once, I didn't have you in my eyes. In my world, you never even existed even though you are Qin Yuanfeng's son." Qin Dingtian's voice was filled with arrogance as he coldly spoke. "However, I didn't expect you to be able to reach such a stage today and can stand before me. I'm impressed by your courage but your destiny is already fixed, it would never change."

The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan acted, creating a huge defensive screen of light that surrounded the Qin Clan. If not, the aftershocks of the battle might enter the clan and devastate the weaker clan members in the Qin Palace.

Qin Wentian calmly glanced ahead before turning his gaze to Qin Dingtian. His body soared into the air, flying into the sky.

Qin Dingtian did the same as well. Around him, resplendent halos from ancient words revolved, and in an instant, the glow of the numerous ancient words intensified, causing Qin Dingtian to appear like a reincarnated godking. Each of the ancient words contained an unfathomable amount of power, brimming with heavenly might.

Back then during their fight, Qin Dingtian precisely used such a method of attack. Qin Wentian experienced it before.

Qin Wentian's face was calm. With a wave of his hand, a light screen formed from the glow of ancient words also enveloped Qin Wentian. Numerous ancient words revolved around him, flowing with different laws, bearing a high degree of similarity with Qin Dangtian.

This scene caused Qin Dangtian to furrow his brows. After that, he coldly laughed, "Copying my method to cultivate? However, how can you ever comprehend the true essence of that?"

The eyes of many experts gleamed when they saw the scene in the sky. Both Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian had the blood of the Qin Clan flowing in their veins. After the battle in the Heaven Vault those years ago, Qin Wentian actually took a leaf from Qin Dangtian's book and cultivated the power of ancient words which contained dao within them? However, since Qin Wentian learned this from Qin Dangtian, how could he ever surpass him?

"Copying you?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. His dao art of ancient words was something he gained insights into after the mysterious white-robed young man, in the true legendary place in the world of reincarnation, shared the dao with him. A world in a flower petal...Qin Dangtian said that Qin Wentian was copying him? Could it be that the white-robed young man was also copying Qin Dangtian?

Was Qin Dangtian even qualified?

If Qin Dangtian knew about this, most probably he himself wouldn't have the courage to say such words.

"Today, everyone will see the truth. The title of Heaven's Son is nothing but a joke." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, he waved his hands as the ancient words revolving around him blasted forth!

Chapter 1917: Heaven's Son?

"Their battle has started."

Countless gazes stared up at the sky. Qin Wentian took the initiative to attack.

"Overestimating yourself." Qin Dangtian's black hair fluttered in the wind. He lifted his hand as an ancient word blasted out. The two of them seemed to be using the same kind of attacking methods.

Right now, it only depended on who is stronger.

Two streams of ancient words clashed together. Qin Wentian's ancient words transformed into a screen of swordlight containing his spacetime sword dao. It was like a sword river of the nine heavens, capable of devouring and lacerating everything. Heavenly might brimmed, the entire space transformed into a world of swords. Countless people who were spectating inclined their heads but above them was no longer the white clouds and the blue sky. It was an extremely vast spacetime sword river that had submerged the skies.

For heavenly deities, they can produce enough power to destroy heaven and earth with the lift of a hand. Today, these people actually managed to witness a rarely seen deity-level battle.

For battles between heavenly deities, they were extremely rare even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only during chaotic times would such battles erupt. In normal days, heavenly deities would all be very cautious and usually wouldn't clash with each other. Even if they did, they wouldn't do so before the eyes of the people of the world. A chance to spectate such a battle could truly be said that it was extremely rare, maybe only once in a thousand years.

Qin Dangtian's ancient words also erupted forth with heavenly might. They coalesced together and transformed into a boundlessly vast 'lock' character that spanned through the skies, wanting to lock down heaven. It clashed with the sword river of the nine heavens. Two different streams of heavenly dao might collided into each other.

Only to see that the sword river of the nine heavens started to turn ethereal. It was like the sword of the heavens wanting to lacerate everything. The 'lock' ancient word wanted to lock this space down but it was completely submerged by the sword river. The power of the spacetime sword might then blasted towards Qin Dangtian.

Evidently, in this first clash of ancient words, Qin Wentian was slightly superior.

This scene caused the eyes of many people to widen in shock. Qin Wentian seemed to be stronger than what they had expected. His technique of ancient words, was it really inspired by Qin Dangtian and copied from him?

The ancient words behind Qin Dangtian started to revolve. After that, numerous halos shone resplendently as the ancient words flew towards the sky. In an instant, the sword river's momentum was halted, it had no way to advance. The sword river was completely 'locked,' and after that, it gradually dissipated.

Although Qin Dangtian seemed weaker during the first exchange, his expression didn't change. He was Heaven's Son, how could he allow an exchange of moves to affect his state of heart? At most, Qin Wentian only cause him to feel shock. Seems like Qin Wentian hasn't wasted those years in the Heaven Vault but even so, the ending would still remain the same.

Behind Qin Wentian, numerous ancient words shot out, wanting to engulf the space around Qin Dangtian. When the power of these ancient words erupted forth, the space around Qin Dangtian seemed to be sealed. This terrifying sealing power continued flowing towards Qin Dangtian, wanting to seal his heavenly dao away.

"During these years, you have indeed improved a lot and learned many techniques." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, the halos around him intensified and blasted out with their might, penetrating everything. Between him and Qin Wentian, there was no longer any type of energy that obstructed him. As for the terrifying might that permeated his surroundings, Qin Dangtian completely ignored that.

"However, even so, it can at most give you the qualifications to struggle one more time. In the battle back then, you had to flee for your life. But today, there is no Gods Extinction Path for you to flee into." Qin Dangtian spoke. A moment later, his Absolute Beginning Astral Soul materialized. For a time, the light around him was incomparably resplendent as the heavenly dao in his astral soul continued to generate the strongest power.

After so many years, Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Sword Dao was naturally stronger than before. It contained unfathomable levels of might that could destroy the heavens and earth.

When the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul was unleashed to the max, the absolute beginning light from it enveloped everything. Even the ancient words revolving around Qin Wentian were also branded into the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul. After that, the astral soul seemed to be able to absorb the power from the ancient words and underwent an evolution. From within the astral soul, Qin Wentian could sense traces of his own spacetime sword dao.

"Mhm?" Qin Wentian frowned. Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Dao Might was much stronger than the past. He combined the ability of his divine barrier art into the Absolute Beginning Dao, allowing him to absorb all types of power in heaven and earth for his own usage, he could even evolve them into something stronger. This was truly a terrifying dao. As Qin Dangtian grows stronger, he would be more and more terrifying until he became invincible in the world.

“What a strong dao. Absolute Beginning, the origin of heaven and earth. Qin Dangtian wants to use this to trace the source back to ancient times, to the first ever dao that had appeared. His ambitions are exceedingly vast.” Many people mused silently. The various powerful characters from the peak powers felt wariness in their hearts. Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian was truly an impressive character. They had to be careful of him. His future would surely be extremely terrifying.

“The spacetime sword dao you cultivate isn’t bad at all. But if I used it to defeat you, how would you feel?” Qin Dangtian spoke. Behind him, his astral soul transformed into the dao. A spacetime storm manifested and was terrifying to the extreme.

Qin Wentian stared ahead, his spacetime sword dao had evolved after inputs from Qin Dangtian’s absolute beginning dao. This was truly very powerful. Although they were fated to be mortal enemies, Qin Wentian had to admit that Qin Dangtian was truly impressive.

If Qin Dangtian wasn’t strong, how could he gain the title of Heaven’s Son?

Qin Zheng and his wife, as well as the other experts of the Qin Clan all had confident looks on their faces. Qin Dangtian would be the victor of this battle for sure, there would be no suspense. Qin Wentian actually dared to underestimate Heaven’s Son after he won against Qin Cang and Qin Li in the battle at the boundless sea region? Qin Wentian would pay a painful price for this.

“Go.” Qin Dangtian pointed his finger towards Qin Wentian. The might from the spacetime sword dao burst forth from his finger and instantly caused the skies to darken, resembling a scene from the apocalypse. Spacetime engulfed the heavens, wanting to bury Qin Wentian here, completely engulfing Qin Wentian inside the spacetime storm. This power ignored time and space because it was originally the spacetime sword dao.

“Using Qin Wentian’s dao to deal with Qin Wentian. Heaven’s Son is truly unrivalled in the world.” The people of the world sighed in admiration as they saw the spacetime sword dao burying Qin Wentian. How would Qin Wentian break this?

“Using my dao against me?” Qin Wentian stared at the attack but his expression was as calm as ever. He gently stretched out his hand and in an instant, his palm manifested a blackhole that grew larger and larger. This blackhole devoured everything, the sword might frenziedly surged forth but everything was absorbed by the blackhole in Qin Wentian’s palm and then sealed inside there. It was like Qin Wentian’s palm contained boundless space.

In the space before Qin Wentian’s palm, terrifying dao might crackled. An intense absorption might radiated forth, absorbing everything within the space of his palm.

When the spacetime dao Qin Dingtian used vanished, Qin Wentian calmly stood there and retracted his palm. The spectators below were all dumbfounded, like they didn't dare to believe their eyes.

Qin Dingtian used the Absolute Beginning Dao to absorb Qin Wentian's spacetime sword dao and further evolved it. However, Qin Wentian merely stretched out his hand casually, allowing him to gain absolute control over everything, directly absorbing the terrifying energy into the blackhole in his palm.

What sort of terrifying method was this?

The hearts of many people pounded. This blackhole appeared simplistic but within it, the laws of space, sealing and devouring, as well as many other attributes could be sensed.

Also, the might it displayed was mainly that of devouring. This indicated that Qin Wentian was also proficient in devouring laws. But in the rumors, there has never been any mention of this before. Everyone only knew that he was proficient in time, space, sword and seals. Why would he be proficient in the devouring laws? Something seemed off somehow.

"You want to defeat me with such a pathetic technique?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke as he stared at Qin Dingtian. "You want to use my dao against me. However, if I control ten thousand daos, how many can you absorb and evolve?"

"What a boast." Qin Dingtian coldly replied. "In this world, who would dare to say that they control ten thousand daos? I possess the Absolute Beginning Dao and can absorb and evolve everything. My astral soul then is the root of ten thousand daos."

"Is that so?" Qin Wentian coldly smiled. "You feel that your Absolute Beginning Dao is unique and unrivalled in the world?"

"Can you guess then what my ninth astral soul is?" Qin Wentian spoke.

"I have no interest." Qin Dingtian coldly replied.

“Watch carefully.” Qin Wentian stated. Behind him, an astral soul appeared. Instantly, Qin Dangtian’s gaze froze. Not only for him, the experts in the Qin Clan and the other spectators all froze when they looked at that astral soul.

This astral soul was actually the same as the astral soul behind Qin Dangtian, be it in terms of aura or luster. The two astral souls were both condensed from the Absolute Beginning Constellation in the ninth heavenly layer.

Qin Dangtian’s expression stiffened. He stared at Qin Wentian and laughed coldly, “Not only did you copy my ancient words, you even copied my astral soul. Don’t tell me you are someone who cannot comprehend things for yourself?”

Everyone also had strange looks on their faces. Qin Wentian copied Qin Dangtian to this extent. In that case, how would he surpass him?

“Copying you?” Qin Wentian laughed. After that, numerous astral souls appeared behind him. Out of the nine astral souls that he revealed, eight of them was from the eighth heavenly layer and one from the ninth heavenly layer. Their radiance instantly illuminated the area resplendently.

When everyone saw the nine astral souls, their hearts couldn’t help but tremble. Such an astral soul combination was truly unrivalled in the world. Although many supreme characters had astral souls from the ninth heavenly layer for their final astral souls, it was impossible for them to have all their first eight astral souls from the eighth heavenly layer. This was like something impossible to achieve yet reality was right before their eyes.

“Open your eyes and watch clearly.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, his nine astral souls vanished.

However, a moment later, another astral soul appeared behind him. The eyes of countless people froze there, like they had just seen something incredible.

“Have you forgotten about my laws of devouring so fast?” Qin wentian calmly spoke. This astral soul was in the form of a blackhole, it contained the dao of devouring and was from the ninth heavenly layer.

Only now did everyone realize that Qin Wentian just displayed the laws of devouring. It was just that everyone was stunned when he revealed his astral souls earlier and had forgotten about it.

“The tenth astral soul...? How can this be possible?!” The hearts of everyone trembled. It was impossible for a stellar martial cultivator to have ten astral souls, right?

“How can this be possible?” Qin Dangtian silently mused. He stared at Qin Wentian’s astral soul, could this be a trick?

“Are you shocked? Let me intensify your shock.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. His devouring astral soul vanished but an instant later, another astral soul appeared, causing the hearts of everyone to fiercely tremble once more.

It was a completely different astral soul from the earlier ten he showed. This was his eleventh astral soul.

“Qin Dangtian. If you are Heaven’s Son, the chosen of the heavens, what am I then?” Qin Wentian calmly stated, his voice resounding through the air, entering the ears of the crowd. Heaven’s Son? Who exactly was the chosen of the heavens between them?!

Chapter 1918: Clash of the Supreme

Today, the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gathered. The people from the many peak powers as well as experts of the Qin Clan, all saw this scene.

Qin Wentian displayed astral souls that were out of their common logic. For stellar martial cultivators, from the start to the heavenly deity realm, they would only have a limit of nine astral souls. This was an iron-clad rule. But today, someone actually displayed eleven astral souls.

He stood there and asked Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian. If you are the chosen of the heavens, what am I?

If you really are Heaven’s Son, why would I, Qin Wentian, have eleven astral souls?

Qin Dangtian had nothing to say. The people of the world were speechless as they stared at this scene.

For experts of the Qin Clan, all of them felt extremely complicated in their hearts. A descendant of their Qin Clan actually managed to possess eleven astral souls. However, he was already standing in opposition to the Qin Clan since long ago. The grudge between them would never be settled unless one party died.

Right now, the people of the Qin Clan were even doubting if Qin Dangtian could gain victory.

If Qin Dangtian lost, what sort of situation would that be?

“No wonder you can control the Heaven Vault, seems like you must have truly understood all its secrets. Back then, the treasure your father found in the Heaven Vault must have been passed to you, right?” Qin Dangtian coldly spoke. This was also his father’s conjecture.

“Back then, the Qin Clan spared no expenses to pursue my father, not willing to spare him. Is it all because of the treasure he obtained in the Heaven Vault?” Qin Wentian replied. “Sadly, although my ancestors were from the Qin Clan, we were unable to hide from the greed of the Qin Clan. You are correct. That treasure already belongs to me. Hence, I can control the Heaven Vault.”

Right now to Qin Wentian, all his secrets on him were already not considered secrets. He monopolized the Heaven Vault and all of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wanted to deal with him. What was divulging one more secret? What was the worst that could happen?

When Qin Zheng and the other experts from the Qin Clan heard Qin Wentian’s confirmation, their eyes gleamed with sharpness. Seems like Qin Wentian had to be captured today no matter what. He must not be allowed to leave.

“Despicable clan, because one of the descendants of the Qin Clan had a miraculous encounter and obtained a treasure, this despicable clan actually spared no expense to get it. Today in this battle, I will allow everyone in the Qin Clan to see clearly. I want to make you feel regret for everything you have done in the past. The Qin Clan will ultimately head towards the path of destruction.”

Qin Wentian slowly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, another astral soul appeared behind him, causing the expressions of everyone to freeze again.

This was the twelfth astral soul.

How many astral souls did Qin Wentian have exactly?

“Countless?” A thought flashed through the minds of everyone. But even they themselves felt that it was ridiculous. How could this be possible?

In truth, Qin Wentian’s astral souls weren’t countless in number. He only had seventeen astral souls. After his two true-selves merged back as one, he had a total of sixteen astral souls then. After that, he formed an innate connection with the countless number of constellations in the nine heavenly layers and condensed their essences, binding them together, which allowed the tiny astral-being to transform into his seventeenth astral soul.

This was why Qin Wentian only had seventeen astral souls.

But, there was one special characteristic about the astral soul the tiny astral-being transformed into. It was able to connect with the countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers and was like a world of its own, with its own starry space and constellations within. It could transform into any constellation Qin Wentian had a connection with, and manifest an astral soul.

In other words, Qin Wentian’s seventeenth astral soul was able to transform into any type of astral souls he wanted at any moment.

This was Qin Wentian’s seventeenth astral soul, the tiny astral-being. It can be considered as one astral soul, but also billions of astral souls, containing the ability of countless transformations. Just this alone was something that was much more brilliant compared to Qin Dingtian’s Absolute Beginning Astral Soul.

At this moment, another astral soul appeared behind his back, instantly enveloping the entire world and the heavens. A terrifying blackhole that were immeasurably deep appeared. There seemed to be another dimension within.

Astral soul transforming into the dao... Evidently, Qin Wentian has fused the power of his dao with his astral soul, this was something only heavenly deities could do. Also, this astral soul was from the ninth heavenly layer, it was condensed from an extremely powerful constellation.

That time when Qin Wentian was perceiving this constellation, he stepped upon it directly and actually gained insights into the laws of different dimensions. He instantly attempted to form a connection with this and comprehend the dao.

There were simply too many extraordinary constellations in the nine heavenly layers. For example for the time-attributed astral soul in the form of the river of time he had condensed, as well as Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Astral Soul. The higher the heavenly layer, the more powerful the constellations in it would naturally be.

When Qin Wentian was gaining insights, he infused his own dao into it, creating an extremely powerful heavenly dao. It was the Dimensional Spacetime Dao.

Upon seeing this astral soul and sensing the dao might from it, Qin Zheng had a deep frown on his face. The feeling Qin Wentian gave off now was completely different from back then when Qin Wentian first broke through to the heavenly deity realm. The Qin Wentian now felt completely transformed, he was in control of his destiny and was a supreme character that seemed like the lord of all heavenly daos.

His confidence with regards to Qin Dangtian's victory also started to waver slightly.

Right now, all that was left was to see if Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Dao might could subdue Qin Wentian or not.

During these years of cultivation, Qin Dangtian also didn't waste time. His strongest attacking method was using his Absolute Beginning Dao. It was much stronger compared to back then when he fought Qin Wentian inside the Heaven Vault. Qin Zheng once sparred against his son Qin Dangtian. Qin Zheng knew that even some more years, his son would surely surpass him.

The eyes of everyone shone with excitement, this was then a true face-off.

Before this, everyone felt that the situation would be without suspense, Qin Dangtian would surely dominate Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was simply too impulsive. But now, they understood that Qin Wentian truly had the ability to fight against Qin Dangtian. The two most outstanding individuals of the younger generation in this era were now having a showdown in the Qin Clan.

Qin Dangtian didn't say anything more. Right now, only victory could prove everything. Although Qin Wentian had a miraculous encounter and had more than nine astral souls, it proved nothing. The victor in this battle would still be him. Everything Qin Yuanfeng experienced back then would be experienced by Qin Wentian again.

This cycle of history wouldn't be changed.

Numerous ancient words flew towards the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and started to transform. A moment later, an immensely gigantic ancient word appeared. It penetrated through space and flew towards the sky. A moment later, everyone could see this boundlessly vast ancient word representing the character 'lock.' Its power slammed into the dimensional world created by Qin Wentian, wanting to lock it in place, not allowing the dimensional blackhole to revolve anymore, causing the fearsome spatial storm to stop.

"The Absolute Beginning Dao contains evolutions." Everyone silently mused. It was able to strengthen any kind of dao. Most probably, ordinary heavenly deities wouldn't even last a single strike before Qin Dangtian.

Some heavenly deities here could only sigh at their inferiority. They could sense that if either of the two combatants were to fight them, their situations would be extremely dire. Between heavenly deities, the disparity in strength could be boundlessly great. No one knew how these two had cultivated.

The space Qin Wentian was in kept twisting. The ancient word 'lock' also began to warp as its dao might diminished before fading to nothing.

"Does the Absolute Beginning Dao only have this bit of strength?" Qin Wentian mocked. Qin Dangtian's expression was very calm. He folded gestures and even more ancient words manifested before him. After that, they flew into his Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and underwent countless evolutions, causing their power to grow increasingly stronger. A fearsome might radiated forth, Qin Dangtian appeared to be like a supreme god of battle.

He pointed his finger forward and in an instant, countless ancient words blasted out like divine seals, slamming into the dimensional blackhole, causing it to crumble. The Absolute Beginning Dao can cause all daos to return to their origin.

The divine seals blasted forth and exploded frenziedly causing the sky to shake. Everything reverted back to their original states, even the dimensional energy had to follow this law as well. It transformed back into nothingness.

In addition, these divine seals also brimmed with their own resplendent light, they were connected to the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and had endless energy.

Qin Wentian ignored the divine seals. He stared right at Qin Dingtian and pointed his finger. In an instant, the space around Qin Wentian started to contort. His body appeared in front of Qin Dingtian and he unleashed a sword attack. This was a dimensional spacetime sword strike, capable of slicing through everything. The connection between the divine seals and Qin Dingtian was easily severed.

A terrifying blackhole appeared in Qin Wentian's outstretched palm. This dimensional blackhole was able to devour everything. Qin Dingtian could feel a fearsome absorption wanting to draw him in.

The Absolute Beginning Astral Soul seemed to absorb some of the law energy that existed in Qin Wentian's palm. Behind Qin Dingtian, the astral light screen formed from his astral soul actually manifested many palms with blackholes in them, wanting to devour everything in the world.

"You are copying me now?" Qin Wentian mockingly laughed, using Qin Dingtian's earlier words against him. Qin Dingtian earlier had said that Qin Wentian was copying him but the truth has proven that Qin Wentian had so many techniques and methods. Why would he ever need to copy Qin Dingtian?

"You don't have my astral souls or my law attributes, how can you copy me?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. After that, an endless flood of dimensional energy rushed into the screen of astral light behind Qin Dingtian, surging into the blackholes. He wanted to see how Qin Dingtian can endure this violent rush of energy.

Although the Absolute Beginning Dao contains countless evolutions, this was something that only existed in theory. Maybe, this would be true if Qin Dingtian's cultivation level could reach an extreme peak. But at the very least as of now, Qin Dingtian wasn't able to do it. If not, Qin Zheng definitely wouldn't be Qin Dingtian's opponent.

The Absolute Beginning Dao could truly allow one to walk all the way to the end. However, it wasn't without its flaws.

As the boundless energy flooded into the blackholes, the astral soul behind Qin Dingtian started to tremble, like it wasn't so stable. Clearly, he didn't have the ability to truly absorb and evolve everything!

But at this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with an extremely cold light. "This is enough to deal with you?"

As the sound of his voice faded, even more energy from him flooded into the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul as though Qin Wentian wanted to shatter it!

Chapter 1919: Defeat of Heaven's Son

Qin Dangtian's astral soul trembled, like it was enduring against an unlimited pressure. His Absolute Beginning Astral Soul had the power to evolve all laws, he could even absorb the attacks of others. However, when Qin Wentian's attack was so strong that it exceeded a certain limit, even if Qin Dangtian had the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul, it was still tough for him to bear the burden.

Earlier, Qin Dangtian used the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul to manifest the dimensional blackhole. He was the same as Qin Wentian and used that to absorb energy. However, his was after all not the original source and he didn't have a connection with the particular dimensional constellation. Hence, he couldn't digest it fully and could only use his Absolute Beginning Astral Soul to manifest some of the characteristics.

The Absolute Beginning Astral Soul blotted out the sky, mini explosions seemed to occur within it. The astral soul seemed to be on the verge of crumbling apart. Qin Dangtian's black hair fluttered in the wind as he attempted to assimilate that energy fully. His black eyes stared at Qin Wentian, cold to the extreme.

He was Heaven's Son, how would he lose? How could he lose?

Today, was the day of his wedding. This battle was observed by everyone in the world. He couldn't afford to lose and he wouldn't lose.

"So what even if you had a miraculous encounter? The Absolute Beginning Dao is the strongest dao art under the heavens, the ultimate dao." Qin Dangtian arrogantly spoke. He was filled with immense confidence with regards to the Absolute Beginning Dao he comprehended.

As the sound of his voice faded, within the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul, the power from Qin Wentian's attack actually rebounded back to Qin Wentian. In addition, this rebound power also contained Qin Dangtian's own dao within. Everyone only saw streaks of apocalyptic beams shooting through the skies. Everywhere they passed by, destruction ran rampant. No sort of powers could block this.

In the Qin Clan, countless people inclined their heads and stared at the sky. The scene up there was simply too terrifying. The sun was blotted out and the pressure in the air was unbelievably heavy. Although Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian fought at a very high vantage point, those below could feel the waves of heavenly might radiating off them very clearly.

Qin Wentian naturally could sense the power in Qin Dangtian's retaliation. However, his expression was as calm as ever. He who had once fought with Qin Dangtian before, understood that the Qin Dangtian now was naturally stronger than before. Also, he sensed the potential of the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and wasn't surprised by this.

However, despite Qin Dangtian giving his all, ignoring self-injury to unleash this strike, Qin Dangtian most probably wouldn't be able to get his wish of victory.

Because, the surroundings have already transformed into a world that belonged to his dao.

With a wave of his hand, an immensely gigantic dimensional blackhole appeared before him. The rebound attack from Qin Dangtian instantly blasted into the blackhole, entering a dimension he created.

In addition, this surroundings were originally something he created at the start using his dimensional laws.

Inside here, he could control everything.

"Reverse." Qin Wentian finally uttered a single word. As the sound of his voice faded, Qin Dangtian's heart trembled. Around him, numerous dimensional storms appeared, and after that, the apocalyptic beams of light from his attacks actually fused into these dimensional storms and reversed their trajectories, shooting right back at him.

The force of Qin Wentian's earlier attacks which he assimilated and evolved into the apocalyptic beams of light to attack Qin Wentian with, was actually countered so easily. Qin Wentian used his dao of dimensions to twist the space here, forming a reverse point of connection with him at the end.

In just an instant, Qin Dingtian was engulfed by countless attacks. He had already endured an immensely powerful attack which caused his astral soul to be on the verge of crumbling earlier. Now, another wave of powerful attacks bore down on him. Could Qin Dingtian still endure this?

“Dang`er!” In the Qin Clan, Qin Dingtian’s mother called out. Her beautiful eyes flashed with worry as she involuntarily moved forward.

Not only for her, at this moment, Qin Zheng also involuntarily moved forward, wanting to soar into the sky. This battle has already surpassed his expectations, Qin Wentian’s strength also surpassed his imagination.

Qin Dingtian caused his divine barrier to appear. Ancient words revolved around it, blocking all the attacks. His body was seemingly going to be submerged by the power of the attacks. The entire area was trembling, including the heavens.

A hint of killing intent flickered in Qin Wentian’s eyes. Between him and the Qin Clan, there was no need to show mercy. If there was a chance to, Qin Dingtian would never spare him. Similarly, if he had the chance, he also wouldn’t spare Qin Dingtian. This man was the son of Qin Zheng, and also the person who crippled his uncle, Luoshen Yu.

In addition, if Qin Dingtian died, this wedding would end before it concludes. The wedding would have no more meaning. This was one of the reasons why he chose to challenge Qin Dingtian today. As long as Goddess Nichang has yet to become Qin Dingtian’s wife, the person he killed wouldn’t be her husband, there was no need for him to become enemies with her. He didn’t wish for a day when he faced off against Qin Dingtian, he had to face off against Goddess Nichang as well.

“DIE!” A dimensional sword manifested before Qin Wentian, it shot through the air, ignoring distance and slashed towards Qin Dingtian.

At this moment, an incomparably bright light erupted from Qin Dingtian’s body. Treasure light covered his body, and the source of this light was from a treasured armor. This was a supreme treasure from the Qin Clan, the myriad laws armor. Within it, the daos of the Qin Clan’s ancestors were contained. At this moment, it blocked the killing blow from Qin Wentian. With a thunderous bang, Qin Dingtian was sent flying but the myriad laws armor still floated before him, negating a large portion of the force behind the attack.

“Myriad laws armor. Qin Zheng actually passed this treasure to Qin Dingtian.” The eyes of everyone flashed. Many experts from the peak powers all knew about this supreme treasure of the Qin Clan.

Qin Wentian also saw this before. Back then in the Gods Extinction Path, when his grandfather Qin Tiangang appeared and dealt with Qin Zheng's group, Qin Zheng used this supreme treasure to aid in his escape. The defensive prowess of this treasure was unimaginably high. Who could have thought that Qin Zheng would pass this armor to Qin Dingtian.

The heavenly dao might from Qin Wentian erupted forth again. He wanted to continue attacking but at this moment, the light of divine punishment flashed through the skies. After that, boundless divine punishment force locked onto the dimensional world he was in. Qin Wentian naturally knew who had acted. He glanced below and saw Qin Zheng flying over. Qin Zheng's wife also followed behind him, including the other heavenly deities of the Qin Clan. All of them flew into the air and surrounded Qin Wentian.

Just like what the people of the world had anticipated, if Qin Dingtian was truly defeated, it was impossible for the Qin Clan to remain neutral. Qin Dingtian was the future king of the Qin Clan, the Heaven's Son. His talent was supreme, how could the Qin Clan allow Qin Dingtian to die?

Although interfering was a very embarrassing matter, especially so under the eyes of everyone, but was face more important compared to Qin Dingtian's life?

There was basically no need for them to ponder over it. Qin Wentian also understood that it was impossible for him to use this chance to mount a one-hit kill on Qin Dingtian. Even without these Qin Clan's experts, he wouldn't be able to do that with the myriad laws armor protecting Qin Dingtian.

In just a very short instant, Qin Wentian was completely surrounded. All the heavenly deities began to unleash their auras, causing the sky to shake.

Qin Wentian smiled, his smile was extremely glacial and mocking. He stared at Qin Dingtian only to see the long black hair of Qin Dingtian covering his face. Qin Dingtian had his head lowered, no longer as imposing as before. As the Heaven's Son, he was actually defeated.

His Absolute Beginning Dao lost to Qin Wentian's dao.

He became a heavenly deity long before Qin Wentian. In the sacred academy, he disdained Qin Wentian and told him that he didn't know what heavenly daos are. But today, he was actually defeated by Qin Wentian before the eyes of everyone, on the day of his wedding. The Qin Dingtian now felt as though there were knives stabbing into his heart. He has never felt such an utter sense of defeat. In this life, how glorious and imposing was he? He was born unrivalled, chosen among the chosen, the Heaven's Son who crippled the Skyorder Heavenly Deity the moment he entered the heavenly deity realm.

However, everything was shattered at this moment. All his pride and glory collapsed in this battle.

He, Qin Dangtian, was defeated.

The spectators were also staring at Qin Dangtian who had his head lowered, as well as that young man who defeated him, who was standing proud and tall. Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, the supreme genius of the Qin Clan. When everyone in the world thought that he would be the victor, he was actually defeated by Qin Wentian. He, Qin Zheng's son, actually lost to someone who recently became a heavenly deity around two hundred years ago.

Qin Wentian's name already resounded through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but many people felt that he didn't match up to his reputation. After all, the reason for his infamy was due to Goddess Nichang and the Heaven Vault. But now, everyone understood that even without Nichang or the Heaven Vault, an existence like Qin Wentian was destined to be as bright as the sun in the sky. Nothing could mask his radiance. His name was destined to resound throughout the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't know what the people of the world were thinking. He was now staring at the experts surrounding him.

"What a familiar scene. I believe the people of the Qin Clan aren't unfamiliar with this scene, right?" Qin Wentian's voice was low and heavy, cold to the extreme. Because, his father had once encountered this exact scene. After he defeated Qin Zheng, the elders of the Qin Clan surrounded him. At the very end, his father died in the Qin Clan.

Now, it seemed that a cycle has been completed. After he defeated Qin Dangtian, the same scene awaited him. Would his ending be the same as his father?

"Qin Wentian, back then your father obtained an ultimate treasure but he wanted to monopolize it for himself, and was unwilling to hand that to the clan. In fact, he didn't even care to burn the relationships between the clan and him as he acted for self-benefit. Today, your father has passed everything to you, including his hatred. Since this is the case, our clan can only choose to act together to clean up this unsavory bit of dirt in our clan." Qin Zheng coldly spoke. Qin Dangtian was already defeated, what else could he say? No matter what reasons he gave, the people of the world would surely gossip about this. However, the Qin Clan had to act no matter what.

“HAHAH!” Qin Wentian started laughing uproariously. “As the clan leader of the Qin Clan, you actually had the face to say such shameless words. In addition, this is before everyone from the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that’s gathered here today.

The treasure his father obtained had to be handed over to the clan? In that case, who should his father hand the treasure to? To Qin Zheng and his son?

How ridiculous was this?

“Qin Zheng, doing so would insult the good name and reputation of the Qin Clan.” At this moment, a faint voice rang out. The eyes of everyone flashed, staring at the person who spoke. It was none other than the Qiankun Sect Leader.

As expected, the Qiankun Sect Leader couldn’t bear it and was the first to speak out. Evidently, he wouldn’t allow Qin Wentian to fall into the hands of the Qin Clan so easily.

However, this place was the Qin Clan’s headquarters. Could it be that the Qiankun Sect Leader wanted to go to war with the Qin Clan?

Chapter 1920: The Qin Clan, Humiliated

Seeing the Qiankun Sect Leader intending to interfere, Qin Zheng coldly looked at him. “This is an inner matter of my Qin Clan. The Qiankun Sect wants to interfere in this?”

“Haha, earlier Qin Wentian challenged Qin Dangtian. He sent a challenge letter and your son has accepted it. Now that he is defeated, the experts from the Qin Clan actually surrounded Qin Wentian before the eyes of everyone in the crowd. Qin Zheng, are you not afraid of incurring the world’s ridicule?” The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. “As for your clan’s inner matters, back then Qin Yuanfeng is said to have betrayed your clan and was killed by the Qin Clan. Today, Qin Wentian has also said that he feels his origin from the Qin Clan is a shameful matter, he has no connection with the Qin Clan. So, what inner clan matter are you talking about?”

“In that case, you mean you are interfering in my clan’s business for sure today, right?” Qin Zheng calmly asked, his tone filled with maliciousness. They had to capture Qin Wentian at all cost, he had the supreme treasure from Qin Yuanfeng and the people of the Qin Clan had also seen the miraculous effects generated by that supreme treasure. Not long ago, Qin Wentian unleashed a total of twelve astral souls and he grew so fast, using only two hundred years to rival Heaven's Son. How could the Qin Clan let him go?

"Qin Dangtian is already defeated. If the Qin Clan still cares about their reputation, they shouldn't act at all. Just let the wedding between Qin Dangtian and Nichang continue. As for Qin Wentian, he is the controller of the Heaven Vault, how can we allow the Qin Clan to bring him away?" The Qiankun Sect Leader smiled. Below, many experts walked out respectively, belonging to different powers. After they saw Qin Wentian displaying his strength, they were not only keen on obtaining the Heaven Vault, they wanted to know all of Qin Wentian's secrets as well.

For the matter of twelve astral souls, how had Qin Wentian accomplished that?

As for the fact that today was supposed to be the joyous date of Qin Dangtian's wedding, at this moment, no one paid any attention to this. The flawlessly beautiful bride, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang, was ignored as she stood on the ceremonial stage. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian who was completely surrounded as waves of emotions rocked her heart.

Under such a dangerous situation, why did he choose to appear? Why did he pick today to challenge Qin Dangtian? Also, it was evident he tried to kill Qin Dangtian earlier. Was it to prevent this marriage?

Qin Wentian's white robes fluttered in the wind. He calmly stood in the air, from the moment he arrived, he already knew he would face such a situation. This was something his father faced before and was incomparably familiar to him. He naturally wouldn't doubt the shamelessness of the Qin Clan. Choosing between Qin Dangtian's life and face, there was no doubt what choice the Qin Clan would make.

"Qin Dangtian. From today onwards, what face do you have to establish yourself in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? What face do you have to proclaim yourself as Heaven's Son? Are you even worthy?" Qin Wentian stared at Qin Dangtian who lowered his head. Qin Dangtian's body trembled. The more lofty a genius thought of himself, after defeat, the heavier the impact of his fall would be. Qin Wentian's words caused his heart to waver.

"Dang`er, it is just a defeat. Don't let your original heart be affected. In the future, just put in more effort in cultivation and you will stand at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The people of the world would only stare up at your glory. You will become a legend and even for your past defeats, they would only serve to let you grow stronger." Qin Zheng spoke. He was once in the same position as Qin Dingtian, after he got defeated by Qin Yuanfeng. But now, he was standing at the peak. As the Qin Clan Leader, the people of the world could only stare up at him. Who would remember his past?

Qin Wentian wanted to make Qin Dingtian's dao heart waver. How could Qin Zheng allow this? At this moment, even though Qin Dingtian was a heavenly deity, he still decided to say some words of encouragement to his son.

Qin Dingtian slowly lifted his head. The gaze he used to look at Qin Wentian with once again became determined. His black eyes and black hair, every inch of his body radiated a steely resolve. Although his heart wavered a little earlier, but after that, he was still the Heaven's Son of before. How could he, Qin Dingtian, give up on himself so easily? He, Qin Dingtian, was the future of the Qin Clan.

Qin Wentian stared at the look in Qin Dingtian's eyes and knew that Qin Dingtian's mental state had recovered somewhat. As expected of someone named the Heaven's Son. Qin Dingtian did have his outstanding characteristics. However, there was still a slight disdain on his face.

"Although I'm defeated today, I didn't lose in terms of the dao. The Absolute Beginning Dao is the ultimate dao of the heavens and earth. If I cultivate this all the way till the end, all other daos will surely be beneath mine." Qin Dingtian slowly spoke, his wavering dao heart no longer wavered. He still had absolute confidence in his Absolute Beginning Dao.

"You borrowed the power of a secret treasure you obtained that allowed you to break through the limits of nine astral souls, comprehending unique powers. Although you have defeated me, it doesn't represent that I have lost. At the very end, I shall be the one who surpasses you!" Qin Dingtian continued. As the sound of his voice faded, the resolve in his eyes grew stronger.

"Oh? I will wait for that day then. But the prerequisite is that can you tell your father and people of the Qin Clan to scram first?" Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. Qin Dingtian's eyes flashed. He stared at Qin Zheng but didn't say anything. The contempt in Qin Wentian's eyes grew stronger. He coldly continued, "Lying to yourself and others. A defeat means a defeat, why speak so much nonsense? After you lost, your father and clan members immediately surrounded me. You still have the face to speak about surpassing me? Can it be after your clan members take me down and after I died, you would finally surpass me? This is the Heaven's Son?"

"Time will prove everything." Qin Dingtian spoke. His silhouette flashed as he left this area, moving towards the ceremonial stage. His eyes shone with resolution yet he felt dispirited in his heart. He stared at the beautiful features of his fiancée and his tensed heart began to ease up somewhat. He stretched out his hand, wanting to hold her hand. This woman would soon become his wife. Holding her hands naturally wouldn't be too over the top.

However, Goddess Nichang didn't extend her hand out. In fact, she took a small step back.

Qin Dangtian frowned, "Nichang?"

Goddess Nichang inclined her head, her beautiful eyes stared at the Qin Wentian in the air as she asked, "Did you challenge Qin Dangtian today for my sake?"

Qin Wentian started after hearing her words but he soon smiled at her as he nodded, "That's right."

He could have chosen whenever he wanted to challenge Qin Dangtian but he purposely chose today. Clearly, he didn't wish to see Goddess Nichang being married to Qin Dangtian. But if this was useless, he could only sigh. At the very least, he tried his best and would have no regrets.

The gazes of countless people froze as they stared with shock at Qin Wentian and Goddess Nichang. The rumors about them existed since a long time ago. And now, Goddess Nichang actually personally asked if Qin Wentian came here for her and Qin Wentian honestly replied to her. This...

Those rumors seemed to receive verifications. In such a scene, under the observation of people of the world, how face-smacking was this? How should the Qin Clan handle this. Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, where should he put his face?

At this moment, even the people of Qin Clan seemed to have forgotten about Qin Wentian. They stared at Goddess Nichang as unsightly expressions appeared on their faces. This was especially so for Qin Zheng and his wife. They were both frowning.

"Nichang, you are the future mother of the Qin Clan, how can you speak to this vile spawn? Please note your identity." Qin Zheng's wife spoke, reminding Nichang. She was worried that Nichang might say something she shouldn't say.

"I understand." Goddess Nichang calmly replied. She bowed to the experts of the Qin Clan and spoke. "I've let the Qin Clan down."

The expressions of everyone froze. The frowns on the faces of experts from the Qin Clan deepened. Qin Dangtian clenched his fist as the feeling of unease in his heart intensified.

“Back then when I was cultivating in the Heaven Vault, I got abducted by Qin Wentian and experienced some things. Hence, he came here for me today. I know I have let the Qin Clan down. I’m sorry. Let’s forget all about this wedding.” Goddess Nichang calmly spoke. Kacha~ Qin Dangtian’s fists were clenched as his veins throbbed. His expression contorted, he just suffered a defeat causing his dao heart to waver but after he recovered, he met with another even greater setback.

Before the faces of everyone, on the date of his wedding, Goddess Nichang actually said that when Qin Wentian abducted her, she experienced some things which was why Qin Wentian came here to look for her now and challenged Qin Dangtian. What are those some things?

Was there anything else that could cause a man to suffer any greater setback?

Not only for Qin Dangtian, the countless people of the Qin Clan also felt great humiliation, their expressions all turned extremely unsightly. Today, their Qin Clan invited the various peak powers here for the grand wedding, but no one would have expected the situation would turn into something so contrived.

Those who came from the various peak powers to offer congratulations were struck dumb. This... Goddess Nichang was already Qin Wentian’s woman? This...?

“Awesome.” Lin Xiao praised, his eyes filled with awe as he looked at Qin Wentian, there was also a hint of reverence in there. Things could also be done like this?

He glanced at the mystical maiden from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace. The mystical maiden seemed to have sensed something and ruthlessly glared at Lin Xiao. This rascal actually dared to have such thoughts?

Lin Xiao smiled. He had always thought of himself as a gutsy individual but now, he knew that he was far inferior compared to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was the number one representative of brave men in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Is this for the sake of revenge against the Qin Clan?” Everyone silently mused. At that time, Goddess Nichang was already Qin Dangtian’s fiancée. Qin Wentian actually forced himself on her?!

Hatred, jealousy, respect. All sorts of emotions rose in their hearts as the experts here stared at Qin Wentian. However, the Qin Wentian at this moment also felt somewhat depressed. This was being blamed for a crime he didn't commit.

However, he was also shocked in his heart. He didn't expect Goddess Nichang to be able to say such a thing. She destroyed her reputation herself and her purpose for doing so was to cancel the wedding. She was actually so determined.

After saying all these, the Qin Clan wouldn't allow Qin Dangtian to marry her already, right?

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled, he also didn't know what Goddess Nichang was thinking.

"Nichang, tell me this isn't real." Qin Dangtian stared fixedly at the beautiful maiden before him. The number one beauty of the Heaven Region, a woman that was about to become his wife, actually told such a huge joke?

"If you hate me, you can kill me." Goddess Nichang calmly spoke. Many cold looks from the Qin Clan's experts turned to her. Some people truly wanted to kill her. This was a humiliation the Qin Clan would never be able to wipe away. Today, the Qin Clan suffered humiliation twice.

"Scram." From within the Qin Clan, an icy voice rang out. If they killed Goddess Nichang, it would only cause the Qin Clan to lose more face. On the surface, the Qin Clan and Deity Qu were friends, Goddess Nichang was nothing more but a victim of Qin Wentian. If they killed Goddess Nichang? What does it count for?

Qin Wentian!

When they thought of this, numerous terrifying auras once again bore down on Qin Wentian. The debt of hatred intensified more and more!
