Chapter 1901 - Poison Dragon King, Sticky Problem

Boom boom boom!

The Nine Continents Mountain went smashing over with an overwhelming force. Its speed was even more terrifying than Qing Shui's as it was several times faster than him. Therefore, even the Grand State Master was unable to dodge it.

From the beginning, after getting his hands on this small amazing mountain, Qing Shui knew that it would be a small divine artifact. And after the Nine Continents Mountain's realm was increased, its prowess was really amazing. Most importantly, it was connected to the owner's abilities.

There was a connection between the Nine Continents Mountain and Qing Shui's ordinary attacks. If it was used together with Qing Shui's strongest attack, then the power increment of several folds from the Paragon Strike would be able to insta-kill the Grand State Master. Even now, the Grand State Master was already feeling despair.

Speed was power and as the Nine Continents Mountain first attacked with a strength of 10 million Dao Force and a speed that was multiple folds faster than the Grand State Master, plus that amazing Shield Attack. The Nine Continents Mountain managed to get the upper hand.

The Grand State Master was also waiting for an opportunity. His judgment was that the duration which Qing Shui could control the Nine Continents Mountain was definitely not too long and his Wind Trace Protection could still last for slightly over 15 minutes. For Qing Shui to be controlling that treasure with such a high frequency, he should be getting weak soon.

If he knew Qing Shui, then he would regret thinking this. Even if Qing Shui were to continue sending the Nine Continents Mountain smashing like this, a mere 30 minute won't cause his power to weaken.

The more Qing Shui fought, the more delighted he felt. And as the Nine Continents Mountain continued to attack, he would strike the Nine Continents Mountain to increase its prowess or to attack the Grand State Master directly.

The Grand State Master now had a physique that was as strong as diamond. Qing Shui had a powerful foundation with his Basic Sword Techniques and even if he were to fight with the Golden Battle Halberd, he would be able to do it with great mastery. Each time he attacked, he would be as unpredictable as a venomous snake.

Covered in diamond all over, but the exposed eyes was definitely a weakness. Therefore, Qing Shui's attacks could force the other party back to be on the defense.

Roar!

After 30 minutes, the Grand State Master realized that Qing Shui didn't seem to be tired at all. He knew that he mustn't drag this on any longer. Qing Shui's rustic mountain was extremely strange and he mustn't drag on the fight. Otherwise, he would really be a goner.

Right now, the Grand State Master no longer felt as relaxed as how he was in the beginning. He found a chance and called out his demonic beast.

A deafening roar rang out and a huge black demonic beast appeared.

Dragon!

It was a huge, pitch-black dragon that had a length of over 1,200 meters and a thickness of over ten meters. The black scales on its body glimmered with a cold light, and each of them was about the size of three adult men. A chilly aura instantly spread out in the area.

Poison Dragon King!

Qing Shui was taken by surprise. He stopped his movements and assessed the big creature before him.

Real dragons were a terrifying and powerful existence in this world. He himself had a golden dragon and Muyun Qingge's White Jade Dragon were also real dragons.

However, although he had seen real dragons before, they were distinguished by various grades and ranks. Primarily based on the concentration of the real dragon's blood they had in their body. Those fake dragons or demonic beasts which had some dragon traits on them only had a little bit of real dragon's blood in them. The more real dragon's blood a dragon had, the more powerful they would be. They would also have greater aptitude and progress.

The Poison Dragon King was naturally the king of all Poison Dragons. Poison Dragons were real dragons and the kings were the cream of the crop. Those that could become the kings would naturally have the power that the other Poison Dragons could only dream of.

Becoming the king relied not only on their prowess. Their blood lineage—the concentration of their real dragon's blood—was the most important. Without the powerful real dragon's blood, it would be hard to reach the level of a king. Therefore, kings were inseparable from blood lineage.

This was a matured Poison Dragon King. Qing Shui had no idea how strong it was as he couldn't sense it. Most importantly, it was a Poison Dragon King. Amongst all of the dragon kings, the Poison Dragon Kings were definitely ranked on the very top.

Even though Qing Shui had always thought that he had a body which no venom could erode, he had the feeling that he couldn't take this Poison Dragon King's poison.

Qing Shui had initially thought that the results of the battle were clear, but now, a new uncertain variable had been added in. Thinking about it, Qing Shui didn't find this strange. After all, it would be strange for experts who had reached the level of Grand State Master to have no aces up their sleeves. However, this trump card that the Grand State Master had seemed to be too powerful.

Roar!

The Poison Dragon King once again let out a powerful roar and then lashed out its huge tail toward the Nine Continents Mountain!

Boom!

The sound of crumbling mountains rang out as the Nine Continents Mountain was sent flying. Qing Shui was shocked. This power was too strong and even Qing Shui was a little apprehensive about it. However, Qing Shui had no idea what he could use to fend off the Poison Dragon King's attacks.

Qing Shui wasn't sure if his body could receive the attacks. If it was the attack from earlier, there shouldn't be any problems, but if there were more powerful techniques, would he still be able to withstand them? Although the Poison Dragon King had powerful techniques, Qing Shui had powerful techniques as well. The Paragon Golden Armor could fend off one lethal attack.

The woman's countenance was a little pale as she saw the gigantic Poison Dragon King.

She called out her Five-Colored Luan Phoenix. Although the Five-Colored Luan Phoenix's gap from the Poison Dragon King was huge, there was no other way now that things had come down to this. She looked at Qing Shui with a complicated expression. She had gotten him involved. She was the cause behind this event.

She wasn't afraid to die, but she just felt bad. She looked toward the man next to her who was now frowning as he looked at that Poison Dragon King, as if he was trying to think of a solution.

"I'm sorry, this is all because of me. I know that an apology isn't enough, but there's no more chance now. If I knew that this would happen, I would never have come to look for you." The woman said softly, her tone apologetic.

Qing Shui waited for her to finish her words before he turned to look at her, "Why, are you going to wait for death just like this? Look back and see. There are my women and children there. No matter what, I won't let anyone hurt them." Qing Shui exuded a fierce aura that seemed to materialize. It gave people the feeling of wanting to place their trust in him.

The lady was in admiration of Qing Shui's unbending aura. However, if there weren't any miracles, the result would not change.

"There's no need for struggle. Do you think that you can go up against a Poison Dragon King." The Grand State Master smirked as he said proudly.

"That may not be the case!" Qing Shui still wore a faint smile.

"Young man, to be honest, you have my admiration. I don't admire a lot of people, but I admire both your abilities and mentality. You're really a great talent. However, the Heavens tend to be jealous of great talents and you're unlucky to have encountered me. You should just be an ordinary person when you reincarnate into your next life. Beauties are also treasures and an innocent man tends to get into trouble because of his wealth. There are some things which aren't yours to enjoy." The Grand State Master appeared very calm now while revealing great arrogance. Earlier on, he had been very depressed. Therefore, even if he were to kill Qing Shui, he must give him a good talking before Qing Shui's death. It felt very good to do so.

Qing Shui was aware of this feeling. It was like in sex, women may say some lewd kinds of stuff and men would be willing for them to say those. It would spice things up. For example, the women may say that the men are very strong or that they are feeling very good. They may even say some vivid things, such as talking about the men's part below. These would bring about some auditory impact.

The reason the Grand State Master just said had a similar effect. Therefore, he must say it. Otherwise, how could he reveal the joy and pride he was feeling now?

Chapter 1902 - Grade Seven Nine Continents Mountain, A Turn for the Better?

After hearing what the Grand State Master said, Qing Shui smiled and said, "You're very pitiful!"

The lady also looked at Qing Shui curiously. She looked at this man who could still remain calm in such a situation, she did not know what backing him up that could let him remain so calm.

Encountering the Poison Dragon King was how player encountered another pay-for-win player in a game. The latter had stronger defense and attack, and there was no way the former would be able to defeat them. Just an attack from the latter would take away half of their health points. There was really no way to fight.

Despite so, it wasn't as if the victor was absolute. There were still other things to consider. For example, one could apply seals to lock the opponent's abilities. No matter how strong the opponents were, if they didn't have the chance to fight, there was a chance that they would eventually die in the end. However, this was very difficult to achieve and required a lot of effort.

"Then I'll show you right now who is the pitiful one!" The Grand State Master said with contempt.

The Poison Dragon King moved. Its body which was the size of a small mountain went sweeping toward Qing Shui. An attack like this would make an ordinary person feel as if a large truck had come crashing over.

Dodge!

There was no other way out. Qing Shui could only dodge. When he did this, he brought out his Emperor's Qi, Art of Pursuing, and other skills one after another.

Qing Shui's Parry Heavenly Fate Treasure Pagoda wasn't of much use when he was up against a powerful opponent like this. After all, Qing Shui's defense had only reached 40 million Dao Force and a few million Dao Force wouldn't make much of a difference. This was comparative to one's abilities. However, when Qing Shui got stronger in the future, the effect of this treasure would become stronger as well.

The Poison Dragon King was very powerful, but its attributes had been reduced a lot by Qing Shui. However, it was still stronger than what Qing Shui and the lady could deal with.

Boom!

When Qing Shui attempted to dodge once again, he was struck by the Poison Dragon King. The huge impact in that instant caused Qing Shui's mind to black out a little. Thankfully, he could still withstand such ordinary attacks. However, what the Poison Dragon King excelled in wasn't its physical attacks.

Roar!

Hu!

The black Qi around the Poison Dragon King suddenly increased tremendously. Then, a spurt of black mist shot out of its mouth. Like rain, it covered the entire area. The pitch-black fog brought with it a smelly and pungent scent that shot up to one's brain.

Seemingly Sealed Shut!

Qing Shui then took out two gold needles and pierced into his and the lady's Lingtai acupoint.

Nine Continents Mountain!

Sizzle...

A loud corroding sound kept ringing out, causing even Qing Shui to feel apprehensive. Would it really destroy his Nine Continents Mountain? In the future, the Nine Continents Mountain's prowess would definitely be above that of Qing Shui's. It was something that was many times stronger than Qing Shui and was his shield and weapon. After all, the Nine Continents Mountain had an attacking prowess that was already stronger than Qing Shui and the grade hadn't maxed out yet.

Qing Shui's heart ached to hear those terrible sounds. He only hoped that the Nine Continents Mountain wouldn't be destroyed.

There were generally two types of poison attacks. The first type was the five elements' poison Qi typed, one that attacked the spirit. The other type would be the material poison such as venom or other types of poison that attacked the body directly. Sometimes, poison Qi could be seen in the form of fog. They weren't considered to have a material form. After all, although they could be seen, it wasn't really there.

The surrounding area was in a horrible state. The flat stone pavement was now filled with holes and there were many deep craters that one couldn't see the bottom of. It went to show how corrosive the poison was.

After the venom stopped, Qing Shui jumped out immediately to check the state of the Nine Continents Mountain. He noticed that there were small holes that were the size of beans and his heart ached. Although it could still be used, he had no idea if its effect would be greatly discounted and if its future advancement would be affected.

However, although there were some small holes, it went to show that the Nine Continents Mountain could still withstand the Poison Dragon King's venom.

But then, Qing Shui was stunned. It was because he noticed that those small holes were recovering at a rate that could be seen by the naked eye. After a few breaths' time, it recovered to its smooth state...

"What a powerful recovery ability!" Qing Shui was shocked, but was pleasantly surprised.

After the Nine Continents Mountain recovered, a thought entered Qing Shui's mind, causing him to be extremely surprised.

Its grade had increased! After being attacked by the venom, its grade had increased...

A Grade Seven Nine Continents Mountain!

Qing Shui soon saw the abilities of the current Nine Continents Mountain. It was five times stronger than his own attack, accompanied by an Absolute Shield Attack. No matter how strong the opponent was, it would not be struck back. However, in such a situation, it would deplete the owner's Qi two times faster.

Five times his own attack, which meant it was close to 20 million Dao Force. Although it wasn't enough, it wasn't bad. Right now, it was at this level as his attacking prowess was a far cry from his opponent's. If both parties were on the same level, then the Nine Continents Mountain would be able to kill the enemy with a single smash...

As for the Absolute Shield Attack, even if the depletion were to increase, he would be able to take it. That was Qing Shui's specialty, he definitely had enough Qi that the Ancient Strengthening Technique stored up and his recovery ability was also very terrifying. Therefore, it was fine even if the depletion were to double, or even triple what it was before.

Amongst Qing Shui's treasures, he had things which could reduce his depletion by 20% and even if his depletion were to double, it would still be less than what it would cost the others. Being able to sustain oneself to the very end was an ability itself.

Therefore, double the rate of depletion was nothing for Qing Shui's Absolute Shield Attack... This was the Nine Continents Mountain's unique trait. With this, he won't have to back off even if he were to face this Poison Dragon King.

The Grade Seven Nine Continents Mountain was much more powerful than when it was at Grade Six. This was a great gap and Qing Shui didn't find it surprising. Amongst his many martial techniques and realms, there were often great gaps between even three tiers. The groups would be differentiated into first to the third tier, fourth to sixth tier, seventh to the ninth tier... At the seventh tier, it would already be considered to be top notch and would have a qualitative difference from the sixth tier.

Qing Shui stood there. The Nine Continents Mountain was floating above Qing Shui and he felt very confident right now.

"To think that it can withstand the Poison Dragon King's venom. It's really a great treasure. It'll belong to me very soon. And those women with you... Quite a number of them are still virgins. I'm really lucky." The Grand State Master smirked evilly again, he was trying to agitate Qing Shui.

Qing Shui frowned. He knew that the other party was trying to agitate him, feeling unthreatened by the fact that he had the Poison Dragon King on his side.

Qing Shui looked at the Grand State Master. Although the Nine Continents Mountain was unable to deal any damage to the Poison Dragon King, at least not a tremendous damage, the same couldn't be said for the Grand State Master. The attack that was about 20 million Dao Force plus the might of Absolute Shield Attack was something that the Grand State Master would not be able to fend off.

"I wonder if this huge poison snake would be affected if I were to kill you." Qing Shui smiled and looked at the Grand State Master.

Roar roar!

The Grand State Master didn't say anything but the Poison Dragon King bellowed out. It could be because Qing Shui had called it a huge poison snake. However, it didn't attack.

The Grand State Master hadn't expected that Qing Shui would still be able to say such words in this situation. He stared at Qing Shui seriously, not knowing if this man still had an ace up his sleeves or was just trying to bluff.

The duration for the Grand State Master's Wind Trace Protection was going to end soon, but after calling out his Poison Dragon King, he was afraid of nothing anymore. The Poison Dragon King was strong. Dragons had powerful attacks, terrifying defenses, and their ability to withstand damages were definitely ranked amongst the very top. The Poison Dragon King was also ranked amongst the top few dragon types in terms of its prowess. There were many varieties of dragons, and the powerful ones included the Divine Dragon, Golden Dragon, Azure Dragon, White Jade Dragon, Fire Dragon, Water Dragon, Earth Dragon...

Amongst each of the varieties, there was a further differentiation in terms of the number of claws they had on each foot. For many dragons, their blood lineage was determined from the very beginning. Some dragons were born with two, three or four claws on each foot from the moment they were born, and it was only when they attained a breakthrough and became more powerful would their number of claws increased. It was said that the strongest one of them all was the Divine Dragon with nine claws.

Chapter 1903 - Instant Kill?

Hell Nightmare Beast!

Gold Dragon!

Dragon Slaying Beast!

Golden Scaled Dragon Elephant!

Qing Shui instantly summoned out all the demonic beasts that could be put to battle, especially the Dragon Slaying Beast. The moment it appeared, Qing Shui noticed that the Poison Dragon King trembled a little and he couldn't help but smile.

The relationship between Dragon Slaying Beasts and dragons were like cats and mice. No matter how big the mice were, even if they could hit cats, they would still feel afraid. This was what it means to be natural enemies, just like how people would feel if they were to see a ghost. The terror was beyond control. They wouldn't want to encounter any and if they did, they would want to run...

The lady had only called out her Five-Colored Luan Phoenix and hadn't expected that Qing Shui would have so many powerful demonic beasts. Although they were slightly inferior to her Five-Colored Luan Phoenix, she knew that if these few demonic beasts were to join forces, they would probably be able to kill her Five-Colored Luan Phoenix very quickly.

Qing Shui also called out his Thunderous Beast. The growth this demonic beast had gone through over the years was unrivaled. This was also why Qing Shui would dare to call it out in this situation. The primary reason was that other than the Hell Nightmare Beast, the Dragon Slaying Beast, and his Nine Continents Mountain, he still had the Thunderous Beast and his own battle techniques.

The Gold Dragon had yet to mature. Otherwise, with its precious blood lineage, it would definitely be very strong. The Thunderous Beast was a control-type demonic beast and as long as it could stand its ground and that there was sufficient time, the opponent would be given a tough beating no matter how powerful they were.

The time for the Grand State Master's Wind Trace Protection was almost up and the Dragon Slaying Beast took the lead to charge out toward the Poison Dragon King. Before the Poison Dragon King, the Dragon Slaying Beast was like an ant before an elephant. Right now, although the Dragon Slaying Beast was a lot bigger than its initial size, it was still about the size of an elephant now. However, when compared to the 1,000 meter Poison Dragon King, it was still too small.

Despite it being such a small existence, the Poison Dragon King didn't dare to let down its guard. It opened its mouth and spewed out dragon's breath.

A thick black fog was thrown out.

The Dragon Slaying Beast only had to meet the Poison Dragon King to weaken its power by 20%. Moreover, its attacks had an enhanced impact on dragons. Even dragons' powerful scales wouldn't be able to withstand the Dragon Slaying Beast's tearing.

The Dragon Slaying Beast could destroy through everything in its path, wasn't afraid of poison, water, or fire. This was only the theory. For example, although Qing Shui could be said to have a body which no poison could penetrate, if the venom had high enough level of toxicity, his body won't be able to take it.

Roar!

The Dragon Slaying Beast let out a fierce roar and a space that was like a passageway was created through the black dragon's breath. The Dragon Slaying Beasts body was like an arrow that was released from a bow, pouncing toward the Poison Dragon King.

As expected of the Poison Dragon King's natural foe. Before the powerful Poison Dragon King, the Dragon Slaying Beast was still as it always was. However, he knew that the Dragon Slaying Beast wouldn't be able to harm the Poison Dragon King. At this moment, Qing Shui let the Thunderous Beast work together with the Dragon Slaying Beast.

Violet Lightning Strike!

The Thunderous Beast's used its absolute control battle technique to let its target feel dizziness. However, the duration of the dizziness was unknown.

Pa pa!

There was no way that the Violet Lightning Strike could be dodged, and the number of times it could be used in a day was limited. Qing Shui let the Thunderous Beast used it consecutively.

Boom!

The Poison Dragon King stretched out a powerful dragon claw and slapped it fiercely onto the Dragon Slaying Beast.

The Dragon Slaying Beast, which appeared very tiny before the Poison Dragon King, was sent flying.

Qing Shui knew that the Thunderous Beast's Violet Lightning Strike would only be able to cast a moment of dizziness onto the Poison Dragon King. That was less than the time taken for the blink of an eye. After all, their abilities were extremely vast and even if there was control, there was no way for it to be heaven-defying. If it was a fight between two demonic beasts of the same level, the Thunderous Beast would definitely be a heaven-defying existence.

Thunderbolt!

With no other way out, Qing Shui let the Thunderous Beast use Thunderbolt and attack the Poison Dragon King from afar while the Dragon Slaying Beast would move around and hold back the Poison Dragon King. The Gold Dragon, Hell Nightmare Beast, the Five-Colored Luan Phoenix, and the Golden Scaled Dragon Elephant joined in as well. At this moment, it no longer mattered that their opponent was the Poison Dragon King.

The Poison Dragon King seemed to know that the Thunderous Beast's attacks would slowly cause its movements to slow down. However, it would still require a very long period of time and thus it wasn't especially anxious. Right now, what it feared was the Dragon Slaying Beast. Although this creature wasn't big in size, if the Poison Dragon King wasn't careful, it would be a lethal situation if its vital parts were to be attacked.

The Poison Dragon King was feeling very unhappy. It would only be able to send the Dragon Slaying Beast flying with its abilities and won't be able to kill it. If the Dragon Slaying Beast could be confined and soaked in the Poison Dragon King's blood for a few months, there might be a chance to kill it.

The black-colored golden armor of the Grand State Master kept on flashing. After it attacked a few times and sent the Golden Dragon and Dragon Slaying Beast flying twice, it returned to its original state.

Qing Shui knew that it was now his chance, his chance to kill the Grand State Master.

The Hell Nightmare Beast advanced fiercely and its body that was like a small mountain stood between the Grand State Master and the Poison Dragon King.

The Dragon Slaying Beast continued to move around in the sky, staring at the Poison Dragon King dangerously. It seemed as if it had a chance, it would pierce through the great creature's body.

With a wave of his hand, several tens of Coldsteel Needles floated before Qing Shui. These extremely toxic needles were in no way weaker than the Poison Dragon Daggers which Qing Shui and the lady had.

"Sister Dongfang, you attack him from the left later. Bring out your strongest attack, but there's no need to risk your life. Just use your most powerful attack. He won't clash with you." Qing Shui said, not even turning his head.

The lady was speechless. Sister Dongfang...

However, she still nodded and answered.

The several tens of Coldsteel Needles seemed as if they had a spiritual intelligence, glimmering with a brilliant and demonic glow. A glow like this made them appear extremely toxic. They formed a conical shape, in which there was one needle at the very front, and a circle that slowly expanded toward the end. This was a cone formed by the Coldsteel Needles.

Seal of Xuantian!

"Sister Dongfang, do it!"

The Seal of Xuantian appeared above the Grand State Master. This was an elusive ability of the Seal of Xuantian. Its intense glow encompassed the Grand State Master, causing his speed to slow down a little.

Violet Lightning Strike!

Several consecutive Violet Lightning Strikes struck onto the Grand State Master.

Nine Continents Mountain!

At this moment, the lady made her move as well. A glamorous sword shadow pierced out toward the Grand State Master.

Qing Shui was also taken by surprise by this sword attack. Not only was it beautiful, but its prowess was also very strong. However, by the look of it, her mastery of it was still lacking. Despite so, its prowess was already very strong.

Initially, Qing Shui didn't have high expectations of what the lady could do. However, he now knew that this sword attack might be enough.

The lady's sword attack had the same direction as Qing Shui's poison needles. At this moment, the Nine Continents Mountain had already gone smashing down, sealing up the Grand State Master's road of retreat. However, the Seal of Xuantian, the lady, and the poison needles had surrounded the Grand State Master. Therefore, if the Grand State Master didn't wish to face the poison needles or the lady, the only direction it could face was the Nine Continents Mountain.

The Grand State Master had already understood the Nine Continents Mountain's prowess from before, but he could first send the Nine Continents Mountain flying before dodging the lethal attacks coming toward him. By then, it would be easier to deal with them. He believed that Qing Shui and the lady wouldn't be able to keep up with such attacks for that many times.

Everything happened in just an instant. The Grand State Master decisively chose to send the Nine Continents Mountain flying. His figure and that dominating duo blade dance formed into something like a spinning tornado, slashing out toward the Nine Continents Mountain.

Qing Shui smiled a little coldly, "You've lost the gamble. You don't have another chance now!"

Boom!

The Nine Continents Mountain's dominating attack--Absolute Shield Attack. Moreover, right now, it was stronger than even the Grand State Master with a strength of about 20 million Dao Force. After its grade increased, the Nine Continents Mountains, sent the Grand State Master flying back with its Absolute Shield Attack.

Getting injured was for sure, but it was probably not considered a serious injury. However, after the Shield Attack, the moment of dizziness was lethal. The Grand State Master spurted out a mouthful of fresh blood, feeling a little better after doing so. If he didn't, he would probably suffer from greater injuries.

His body flew backwards uncontrollably and he felt a little dizzy. A hint of pain spread out from his neck and then a sword was thrust into his body.

His body was considered strong, but at the moment he felt dizzy, his body's functions had been lowered by a lot. Moreover, he sensed that the sword had a mysterious poison that could break through the body he was so proud of.

Very soon, his body showed signs of getting paralyzed and he was overwhelmed with fear.

Poison... He had been using poison for his entire life. Was he still going to die in the hands of poison at the very end...?

Chapter 1904 - Enticing the Poison Dragon King

The lady hadn't expected to be able to thrust the sword into the Grand State Master's body just like that. To be exact, it was the Grand State Master who had come smashing into her sword. Very soon, she saw that the Grand State Master was in a state that was worse than death.

Qing Shui knew well that the Grand State Master's life had reached its brink. If he wanted to save the Grand State Master, he could do so, but why would he want to? Only then did Qing Shui turn his gaze onto the Poison Dragon King. Demonic beasts would regain their freedom once again after the death of their owners.

Right now, Qing Shui didn't have the plans to kill the Poison Dragon King. Instead, he planned on taming it. It was too much of a pity to kill a powerful demonic beast like this. He would be able to get his hands on a lot of venomous substances after killing it, which could then be used to refine many poisonous medicines. However, an act like this would be the equivalent to kill a chicken to get the eggs. Between this and raising chickens that could lay eggs, of course, the latter option would be able to bring a higher value.

The Poison Dragon King, after regained its freedom, knew that the Grand State Master had died. However, there was nothing to feel sad about. The Grand State Master had used shady means to tame it. Demonic beasts couldn't go against their owner's orders. However, as long as they weren't tamed by some kind of unique talismans, the demonic beasts would be able to regain their freedom after the death of their owners and wouldn't die along with them.

Contracted demonic beasts were differentiated by contracts where life and death were involved and those which weren't.

Life and death contracts were something which demonic beasts spurned the most. It was because both parties would die at the same time and it was also the most dominating one of them all. There was no consideration for the demonic beast's willingness, even if the order given by the owner was for them to die. Of course, few people would do this since with the deaths of the demonic beasts, the owners would also die.

This was the fairest type of a life and death contract. Demonic beasts weren't the only ones that didn't like them. The owners didn't either. After all, if the demonic beasts were to die, they would also die.

There was also another type of life and death contract whereby if the owner were to die, the demonic beast would follow. However, if the situation was to be reversed, the owner would be fine. Most people liked this pact the most.

Another type of contract was the kind that didn't have a life and death relationship. There wouldn't be a case where one party would be affected if the other were to die. However, a contract was a contract and under normal circumstances, demonic beasts would be unable to go against their owner's will. In most cases, after the deaths of their owners, the demonic beasts would regain their freedom. After all, demonic beasts had a longer lifespan as compared to the humans.

This situation was used commonly by the demonic beast which chose to take on the contract in order to repay some people. It was also the method which most people in this world used. After all, there were too many cultivators with demonic beasts such as for rides. However, Beast Tamers were considered to have a lot if they were to have three demonic beasts.

Such a contract required the involvement of feelings. Otherwise, in a life and death situation, the demonic beasts would choose to escape if given the option. They would choose to betray their owners. There would be punishments for their betrayals, and in extremely serious situations, they may die. However, as compared to die immediately, some demonic beasts would choose to escape. After all, they may still have a chance to survive if they did so.

In such situations, owners would also be able to dissolve the contracts. This way, the demonic beasts wouldn't be in any danger even if they were to choose to escape.

The Poison Dragon King didn't choose to submit to the Grand State Master willingly. After all, the Grand State Master wasn't as strong as the Poison Dragon King. However, the Grand State Master was an expert in poison, and being a Poison Master, he had encountered something that was similar to a Marionette Fruit by accident. Although it wasn't one that was the most dominating one, it was enough. Therefore, he had duped the Poison Dragon King into forming a contract with him. This allowed his overall abilities to increase tremendously.

Right now, Qing Shui's gaze was the same as how the Grand State Master had been in the past. This caused the Poison Dragon King to feel uncomfortable. It had just regained its freedom and hadn't expected this person to be having his eyes on it. It knew how precious freedom was.

The Dragon Slaying Beast kept on flying back by the Poison Dragon King's attacks, but it didn't seem to know what fatigue was despite the multiple setbacks. The Golden Dragon, Five-Colored Luan Phoenix, the Golden Scaled Dragon Elephant, and the Thunderous Beast could only circle around. The actual one that had attacked the most was still the Hell Nightmare Beast and the one that posed the greatest threat to the Poison Dragon King was the Dragon Slaying Beast.

The Poison Dragon King realized that it seemed to be unable to deal with these creatures who were weaker than itself. If this were to drag on, the situation wouldn't be favorable to it.

"Are you thinking of running?" At this moment, Qing Shui smiled and said. After killing the Grand State Master, he was in an extremely good mood. Moreover, he was also bent on getting his hands on this Poison Dragon King.

"I know that you can understand my words and that you can also speak." Qing Shui continued to say. The old turtle he had met in the past had been able to talk, but in its case, the old turtle's words would directly ring in one's mind and couldn't be heard by the ear.

"If I were to run, you guys won't be able to stop me." The Poison Dragon King's voice rang out. It was also a metallic sound but sounded cold and arrogant.

"There's no need to put up an arrogant act before me. Dragons seem to be able to do anything. What was that saying again? If you want to act like a whore, then don't expect to have a monument for your chastity. What do you think?" Qing Shui said directly.

The lady was speechless. Sometimes this man was very upright, but sometimes, he would also seem to be bad. For example, right now, he seemed like a bad person who was trying to dupe a young child.

"What are you talking so much for? I'm leaving. We dragons have unique means of leaving." The Poison Dragon King was in no hurry. Although it said that it was going to leave, it didn't really do so. It knew that since the man was talking to it, then there must be something he wanted to discuss. Otherwise, he would have taken action immediately. It was good for there to be a room for negotiation, it might be able to get something good out of it.

Dragons were greedy by nature. However, Qing Shui felt that humans were even greedier as compared to dragons.

"Let's have a discussion. It'll definitely be beneficial to you." Qing Shui said seriously.

"What benefits? I'll make things clear, if there aren't any benefits, I won't promise you anything." The Poison Dragon King said immediately.

Dragons were greedy, but as long as they agreed to something, they would definitely not go back on their words. Therefore, the Poison Dragon King made things very clear.

"What are the most important things to you?" Qing Shui asked.

"Power, female dragons, golds, and treasures..."

Qing Shui immediately signaled it to stop, wearing a faint smile. It seemed that dragons weren't that much different from humans. They placed power in the highest regard, followed by women and money. Money was ranked the last since with power one would be able to collect money. With money, they would naturally enjoy life and women would be an absolute necessity. Therefore, money was a means and it was very normal for women to be ranked before money. Power provided security and was the very foundation.

Since that was the case, Qing Shui knew that there was no way for the Poison Dragon King to escape.

Qing Shui cut to the chase and took out two Ancient Demonic Fruits. This item had a deadly attraction to the demonic beasts. He also took out various kinds of medicinal pills which demonic beasts required. They were new medicinal pills which Qing Shui had refined in the recent years and was definitely a great help for powerful demonic beasts.

The Demonic Beast Constitution Nurturing Gold Pill was primarily for demonic beasts to nurture their constitution. There was also the Fortune Golden Pellet from the past, which was about the same as the Nine Revolution Golden Pellet. However, the Fortune Golden Pellets were meant for demonic beasts while the Nine Revolution Golden Pellets were for humans.

"100 years, and these will be yours. In this 100 years, your abilities will also soar tremendously. I'm an Alchemist and at the very least, there's currently no one who is stronger than me in Alchemy. I won't force you. You should know very well how much stronger these things can make you." Qing Shui smiled and looked at the Poison Dragon King.

The Poison Dragon King had lived too long a life and could naturally sense how precious the things in Qing Shui's hand were. They had a lethal attraction to it. 100 years... To its long life, it really wasn't much. It had been with the Grand State Master for over 100 years.

Qing Shui didn't say anything. He could see from the Poison Dragon King's expression.

"100 years... What do you want me to do? To follow you?" the Poison Dragon King gave it some thought and said.

"Not follow me, but to protect them and this place. You'll need to form a contract with her as well. Don't worry, it's not a life and death contract and it won't be an endless contract. We won't force you to do anything either. You just have to protect them and sometimes fight alongside them." Qing Shui saw the Poison Dragon King's hesitation and continued.

Chapter 1905 - Taming the Sunset Golden Crow, Things Weren't Over Yet

100 years were really nothing to dragons. The Poison Dragon King's concern was about Qing Shui. It was afraid that Qing Shui would try any tricks. Alchemists were very scary. However, the things Qing Shui brought out were really too enticing.

"I know what your concerns are. I'll be blunt, in another 100 years, you'll be nothing to me. I can be sure that 100 years later I'll be many times stronger than you." Qing Shui smiled and said.

"Alright, I promise you." After hearing Qing Shui's words, the Poison Dragon King said decisively.

"Alright, don't worry. You'll not lose out." Qing Shui handed a medicinal pill to Qing Hanye.

"Ye`er, feed it this."

"Me?" Qing Hanye was stunned.

"That's right, what are you in a daze for?" Qing Shui placed the medicinal pill in her hands.

Yiye Jiange had the Nine-Headed Crystal Beast and its power was very scary now. Tantai Lingyan had the old turtle, which was old to begin with, but had attained a breakthrough time and time again. Its lifespan, which was terrifying to begin with, was even more terrifying now.

Muyun Qingge had the White Jade Dragon while Qin Qing had her huge green dragon. Qing Shui had no idea if it was a Green Dragon, but it was stronger than Muyun Qingge's White Jade Dragon.

As a Mermaid, the Sunset Palace Mistress Luo Qingcheng had received the Sunset Inheritance. It was only later that Qing Shui knew that she had a demonic beast as well but had never called it out. She probably hadn't called it out before other people before, and it was something she had received together with the legacy she inherited.

Sunset Golden Crow!

It looked like a golden colored big bird but appeared even more dignified and ferocious than an eagle. Its domineering aura didn't make it any less beautiful, but its power had been stuck for very long. It was only at a later time when Qing Shui said that he would find her a suitable demonic beast then Luo Qingcheng said that she had one.

Qing Shui then got to see the Sunset Golden Crow. It was only about three meters in size back then, but when Qing Shui sensed the terrifying power of its blood lineage, he knew that Luo Qingcheng probably didn't get this powerful demonic beast to go through the Blood Awakening. Having his Heavenly Vision Technique and unique abilities, Qing Shui naturally knew what to do.

After Qing Shui used his medicinal pills as well as let Luo Qingcheng stimulate the Sunset Golden Crow's blood lineage with her own blood, the Sunset Golden Crow became several tens of times bigger, it became a real demonic beast. The Sunset Golden Crow was said to be no weaker than even the real top-notch phoenixes. This was what the legendary bird of the sun, who could spew out flames that were strong enough to destroy the sun.

Of course, there wasn't a need to look too much into these. Right now, the Sunset Golden Crow was a little stronger than Luo Qingcheng and had amazing speed both in the ocean and in the sky.

Therefore, Qing Shui eventually made the decision to let Qing Hanye tame the Poison Dragon King. Qing Hanye also had a demonic beast, but it could only be counted as a ride with her current power.

Although the agreement with the Poison Dragon King was a duration of 100 years, Qing Shui knew that after the 100 years were up, there would be no way that he could drive this creature away. Moreover, although the beast taming pellet which Qing Shui let it take wasn't the one that killed the demonic beast once the owner died, as long as the owner was alive, the demonic beast wouldn't betray them.

This wasn't an act of deception since Qing Shui could remove this effect 100 years later. What this could do was to ensure the Poison Dragon King's absolute loyalty.

The Poison Dragon King didn't think much about it and ate the medicinal pill which Qing Hanye gave. A mysterious talisman appeared on the Poison Dragon King's forehead, which was then reflected onto Qing Hanye's forehead before it disappeared.

To Qing Shui, this wasn't a form of contract, but a control using medicinal pills. It could connect the hearts between humans and demonic beasts, and could also be used to control the demonic beast's consciousness. Although it could be used to get the demonic beast to move as the owner's wishes, it wasn't an absolute control.

Qing Hanye felt very happy as well. With such a powerful demonic beast, she got a lot stronger as well. This was a Poison Dragon King and even if a person was stronger than the Poison Dragon King, they wouldn't want to fight against it. After all, not everyone would end up in Qing Shui's current situation after they had lost.

The Poison Dragon King wasn't sure if it was considered lucky or not to have encountered an existence like Qing Shui. In terms of power, it felt that it would be able to kill Qing Shui with a single slap, but it ended up only having the option of escape. Moreover, it might not necessarily succeed in escaping.

In the end, the temptation of the amazing fruits which the other party had brought out, was even more irresistible.

This might not be bad after all. If it wished to stay in this prosperous world, which had a lot of human and many other species, it was very normal for it to be attached to a strong expert. Although dragons had a high status, many of them would still choose to follow humans. However, most of them would tend to choose a contract that had a duration of time tied to them, or one that gave them more freedom. They would definitely not submit to a life and death contract. Even if they were to die, the pride and honor of dragons weren't to be trampled on.

The Poison Dragon King's huge body instantly became that of a mature middle-aged man, he appeared before everyone. Its clothes appeared very lewd and it exuded an effeminate aura. It threw a glance at everyone before bowing toward Qing Hanye with his deep and profound eyes which seemed as if it had been through a lot of things in life. "Miss!"

Qing Shui smiled, feeling satisfied.

"In the future, I'll call you Uncle!" Qing Hanye smiled and said.

The Poison Dragon King hesitated for a moment before breaking out into a hint of a smile, "Seems like the owner I'm with this time isn't bad."

The Poison Dragon King had been tamed by the Grand State Master using schemes. Although the Grand State Master would also act very politely toward it at times, there were also times where he showed the Poison Dragon King a very bad attitude. He had no care for the Poison Dragon King's pride, but as the Poison Dragon King had been tamed by the Grand State Master, it wasn't able to harm him even if it wished to do so. It couldn't even harbor such thoughts as it could be restricted. However, on the contrary, it would be easy for the owner that wished to kill it.

"I'm not your owner. We're friends. Although I took the medicinal pills together with you earlier and it isn't fair to you, I'll still treat you as a friend no matter what."

"Miss, I understand. I would do the same even if I were you. We Poison Dragons are also dragons. Since we've given our promise, we won't ever go back on our words." The Poison Dragon King said seriously.

By this time, Qing Shui had already kept the Grand State Master's Interspatial Silk Sachet. He had even taken his Wind Trace Protection. Using his Heavenly Vision Technique, Qing Shui could tell easily how amazing this item was and understood how the Grand State Master could escape from his Bloodthirsty Demonic Vines.

This was definitely a good item. Not only could it allow the user's speed to double, but it could also allow the user to get out of confinement for one time.

There wasn't a need to harp on the importance of speed at this point. Before absolute speed, everything else was insignificant. Even if one didn't have absolute speed, as long as they were much faster compared to their opponents, they wouldn't lose.

Qing Shui didn't take a look at the Grand State Master's Interspatial Silk Sachet, but he knew that a strong cultivator like the Grand State Master would definitely have good items in his Interspatial Silk Sachet. It just wasn't the time to look at the things yet.

Qing Shui wouldn't have an easy time killing the Grand State Master, but he knew that it was a right decision. However, this person was from the Five Poison Immortal Palace and definitely was one who had a high status there. This meant that Qing Shui had made enemies out of the Five Poison Immortal Palace. There was also the Great Confucian Empire. He had killed the Great Confucian Empire's Grand State Master and the Great Confucian Empire would definitely come looking for trouble.

After wiping off the traces here, the group returned to the Imperial Cuisine Hall. Qing Shui wore a relaxed expression, but the few ladies who knew him well knew that things were a little troublesome. However, none of them said anything.

The lady's expression didn't seem to be too pleasantly surprised, but she was worried for Qing Shui. She didn't wish to implicate this man, but since she had already done so, there was no other way around it. One can't always have what they wished for in this world.

Chapter 1906 - Preparations, Swaying Beauty

No matter how they killed the Great State Master, the situation would still improve. It was a better alternative to being killed by him. Qing Shui and everyone made the food personally after returning to the Imperial Cuisine Hall, he wanted everyone to have a good meal and also eat more. After all, no one could be sure that they were out of trouble.

The woman had stood along with the rest of the people, she wanted to go to the Heavenly Chess Immortal Palace to ask for help. Unfortunately, that would take too long and she wasn't sure whether they would arrive in time.

There was one other thing. After the Poison Dragon King had eaten the Ancient Demonic Fruit and the Fortune Golden Pellet, his strength increased a lot. Before this happened, he was already the strongest out of the group and now he was even stronger with his 40 million Dao Force. It must be known that if the strength didn't improve much at the early stage, it would be even harder for it to improve in the future.

Another thing that needs to be mentioned was that the Poison Dragon King's blood and foundation were solidified many times. Although his strength didn't increase much, it was still around 10 million Dao Force, which was already very scary. Overall, his actual battle strength and toxicity increased many times.

This made the Poison Dragon King very happy and he also felt the strength of this young man. It made him satisfied with this new master. He didn't to always fight for him, so he was able to live normally and being treated as though he were a guest.

Another thing was that he wasn't alone with such privileges, there were also his new colleagues. A large man, a cool person dressed in black, a half-aged old man, and a teenage girl. These were the Golden Scaled Dragon Elephant, Dark Phoenix, Old Turtle Sucking Pearl, and Dragon Spider.

They normally didn't talk much, unless the conversation was directed towards them. But Qing Shui and the rest would never forget to consider their views, especially the one of the Old Turtle Sucking Pearl since he was experienced, knowledgeable, and with a rich history.

When the table was filled with food, the Poison Dragon King was astonished. Firstly it was because of how nice it smelled, then it was because the food was made by his master, Qing Hanye was the one cooking.

The Dark Phoenix, Dragon Spider, and the Golden Scaled Dragon Elephant all ate a lot. It wasn't the first time they ate, especially the Dragon Spider. After all, she still had the mind of a teenager and was staring at the food on the table. Qing Shui immediately gave her a dish since there were no guests this time. He patted her head and smiled.

When the woman saw Qing Shui's smile she was stunned, especially to how he treated the Dragon Spider, he treated her as if she was his own child. It made her feel that this man had some sort of charisma, which was especially comforting.

He took out his best wine. The Plum Blossom Wine and Tiger Bone Liquor, he put it across the table.

"The events of today have passed and we'll talk about it later. Let us feast! Don't hold back!" Qing Shui took up the wine in front of him.

The woman filled her jade cup. The scene of her snow-white jade hands and the shiny jade cup, along with the jade-like wine, it was all so charming and extraordinary. She was capable of toppling cities over. All the women near her were already drunk and the wine complemented the aroma of the food.

This time the Poison Dragon King's two eyes lit up. He was astonished again after he put down his glass and reached for the food. The dragons loved food and wine as much as their treasure troves, but the meal for the night was enough to make him surrender. It wasn't that his will was too weak, but the food was just too good. Otherwise, he wouldn't eat that much and would look after his image first.

The wine wasn't just good, it also increased the strength and cleansed the body. The Poison Dragon King wasn't the only one that felt this, the woman also did. It was the first time that they had seen wine with this kind of effect and they weren't even sure whether it could be called as a wine. It was worth a lot, so priceless that even money couldn't buy it. Just one whiff was enough to tell that it had been stored for over a few thousand years, which was very rare even for the normal wine.

Qing Shui originally wanted to eat a lot, but with the three monsters here, all the food had gone into their bellies and there was nothing left at the end of the meal. The few women barely ate and just drank some wine, but they drank a lot.

The woman didn't eat a lot even though she wanted to, but she just couldn't compete with the few monsters.

After not completely expressed himself, the Poison Dragon King put down the plate in his hand. That move was quite comical and made him look like a great man. Precisely, a mature and charismatic man, if they put aside the view of him gobbling up all the food, which stunned people at the start. Actually, in the end, he was also a little embarrassed, then he smiled, "It's too good, much better than the top restaurants. This is what an actual imperial cuisine tastes like. Before this, I thought that this place was a rumor or even more like a hospital. I didn't think that it'd be like this."

"It's also not that late and we can't eat too much good food, if we eat too much even the best food would taste revolting to us. I was wondering whether the food here is always this good or does this only happen once in a while. Because even the most ordinary dish tonight tasted good and produced such a good effect.”

As a martial artist of this stature, not eating for months wasn't much of a problem.

“This is also true, but I can be sure that even if I ate this every day I wouldn't get sick of it...”

What they talked about next, was naturally about other things.

“Brother Shui, I've already told the Heavenly Chess Immortal Palace, but it would take them a while to come here,” the woman said lightly.

“Alright, there's no need to be like this. I didn't want to trouble you. I am not averse to business and it's too peaceful now, I'm not too used to it,” Qing Shui smiled.

“We'll leave the Five Poison Immortal Palace alone for. I estimated that they wouldn't be a trouble for now. The main problem now is the Great Confucian Empire,” the Poison Dragon King said this time.

“Brother Dragon, you've been at the Great Confucian Empire for many years, do you have a good understanding of them?” Qing Shui asked.

“Qing Shui you bastard,” Qing Hanye shot Qing Shui a look.

Qing Shui was stunned, “What is it?”

“You know I call him uncle, but you called him brother, aren't you doing that on purpose...” Qinghan Ye said.

Qing Shui smiled when he heard it, “Is that not good, he's younger now.”

“You really are a bastard.”

The rest just watched and smiled. This light atmosphere made everyone happy easily, much better than the serious atmosphere of before.

“The Great Confucian Empire was able to eat up other neighboring empires, this means that it possesses a good amount of strength. The Great State Master that you killed actually doesn't count as one of the strongest. Only because of his poison that he could be called as one of the Great State Masters. There are many great state teachers and many of them are stronger than the one you killed,” the Poison Dragon King was worried as he said this.

“Are you afraid? If you want to leave I can let you leave. Don't worry, I'm not trying to make a joke, nor would I do anything malicious. I have never swallowed my own words,” Qing Shui said peacefully.

The Poison Dragon King didn't know what Qing Shui meant, neither did the women. Only Qing Shui himself knew that he could feel the fluctuation of emotions from the people in front of him with his spiritual sense. No matter how well they prepared against it, he would still be able to tell their true feelings.

Qing Shui just wanted to know whether the Poison Dragon King kept his promises like the dragons from the lore.

“You don’t need to test me, even if what you said is true. I would still follow through with what I said even if I die. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have accepted it, there’s no reason for you to be afraid of this. Although my clan isn’t accepted within the dragon clan, the blood that flows through me is still that of a true dragon,” the Poison Dragon King said solemnly.

Qing Shui smiled, “With you here, it’s not like we don’t have backing.”

This time he didn’t think that Qing Shui was fibbing. After all, he had seen his strength before and what he could do was outstanding.

“At this time, everyone was here, so we can make our move quietly and see how the opponent would react. I’ll go out and arrange it.”

Qing Shui took out something else, the formation. Now the Imperial Cuisine hall was clearer than anything else and no one else was coming, so Qing Shui planned to lock the formation up. If they couldn’t beat the enemy they could still hide in the Imperial Cuisine Hall. They could then escape using the Nine Continents Steps.

So Qing Shui wasn’t too worried, other people might not be able to escape, but he didn’t have a problem. The Nine Continents were vast beyond comparison, if he wanted to leave they couldn’t really obstruct him.

Nine Palace Eight Trigrams Formation!

Qing Shui adorned the place with one of his best formations. It implied the Eight Trigram Door and everything was done with the best spirit stones with the addition of the Formation Eye Stone which increased the power of the formation by many times.

The formation eye stone was already at the fifth level now. It was increasing the formation’s power, stamina, and defense by five times.

This was something that the opponents didn’t have, so even if someone else had the same proficiency in formation as Qing Shui, they wouldn’t be able to face it without the Formation Eye Stone. Some people might get lucky to get something like the Formation Eye Stone. It was good things, but the odds are too small, even in hundreds of millions of people there wasn’t one to be seen.

There were many living creatures on the continent, so there was still a chance, but being able to find a stone like this was too hard.

This formation took Qing Shui about four hours to set up. He hadn’t activated the formation because he didn’t need to. All he had to do, was to will it and it would appear. Qing Shui also told everyone else the escape points of the formation, so that they could enter and exit at will.

Just like this, the sky turned dark and thus the day passed. It led into the day that made Qing Shui the most nervous.

While hugging Yiye Jiange’s beautiful and lovable body, the two quickly became one. Qing Shui frantically kissed all over the snow white body and Yiye Jiange also reciprocates his feelings. She even rode him once.

Watching this outstanding woman around his body, with that snow white body going up and down. This sight would make Qing Shui ask for more.

Chapter 1907 - The Collision of the Nine Yang and Nine Yin

Qing Shui and Yiye Jiange were already married and had Qing Xiu as a child. Although they weren't together very much, it also wasn't little. Especially these few days together. Pretty much every night Qing Shui would do something with this wonderful woman.

But each time it was a completely new thing, that fresh sensation had never diminished. As said before, even the most delicious of food would become revolting and there was always someone that wouldn't like the most beautiful women. Qing Shui knew that it wasn't an absolute rule, or at least it didn't feel that way now.

Yiye Jiange was always reactive in the sheets and only per Qing Shui's request would she be more active. That beautiful body, that elegant and regal voice was shouting out the strongest urge, this was something that Qing Shui could not free himself from.

Qing Shui could imagine why people said that beautiful women are a source of calamity. Actually, what it really meant was that some men couldn't handle it. If a man couldn't control himself and was drowned in their woman for the entire day, it'd be weird if they could survive for long. Beautiful women were better than any medicine, they were hard to resist up until their body became a wreck, this was why they were romantic even after death.

The house quieted down. Yiye Jiange's beautiful face was a little red and along with her talented aura, she was curling up in Qing Shui's bosom. That filled Qing Shui with an unparalleled rush of happiness.

"Isn't what happened this time very intractable," Yiye Jiange said lightly without raising her head. She could feel it.

"Don't mention it, not even a little. It isn't that easy for anyone to swallow me up, my body is full of spikes and if you don't have a good stomach you wouldn't be able to be that lucky," Qing Shui smiled relaxedly.

Yiye Jiange knew that what he said was true, but she knew even more that he didn't want to worry her, therefore, she didn't ask more. Watching their child in deep sleep, her heart was fulfilled. She felt that she had already fulfilled everything she wanted to do in this life, there was nothing more she wanted. If she couldn't pass this time then it was her fate, but as long as her child and her man were able to survive then all was fulfilled.

As Qing Shui felt what Yiye Jiange was thinking, he slapped her snow-white butt. It was an exquisite feeling, its flexibility was astonishing and that made her gasp and shoot him a look.

At this time Qing Shui almost turned over and was stopped by Yiye Jiange, "You're a reckless bull."

Qing Shui kissed her once, "Don't worry, I'm the type that likes to gamble right? Just relax, I'm the type of person that wouldn't die and even then I wouldn't go quietly. If I don't win I'll run away with you. They don't know this, but I'm sure you know that I'm pretty good at escaping."

Qing Shui seemed to have a godly aura around him when he was talking about escaping. At this moment, Yiye Jiange laughed. This man is so cute, even making something as degrading as escape sound so good.

Qing Shui was a little confused at the reason why she was laughing, this woman was the cream of the crop and this was all a part of her enticing charm.

After Yiye Jiange slept, Qing Shui got up and went out. He wanted to go into the Realm of the Violet Jade Immortal, he had another thing that he had to check. These few days they needed to be on high alert and he didn't want anyone here to lose anything.

After checking the formation, Qing Shui went back into his room.

But as he entered, he felt something off. There were people inside and a sweet smell emanating from it. He knew whose smell that was and saw Qing Hanye standing near the window. She was looking back at Qing Shui.

Her long body, snow-white sleeping gown, and luscious hair flowed behind her. Her nightgown was a little large, it was covering her whole body and only a small part of her hands was showing.

The other things that showed were her jade feet. The jade feet were stepping on top of the carpet. They were intricate and white under the soft light through the window.

Although she was wrapped tightly, she had an unparalleled charm about her. Her body was arousing, the breasts in front of her were especially outstanding, her waist was small and in the middle of her back was an arc, which made that round butt look absolutely stunning.

Her relaxed nightgown didn't block her body, in fact, it made it look even better.

Splash!

Qing Shui let out a sudden devouring sound, making Qing Hanye's face turn a shade of red, but also turned into a beautiful smile. Her most beautiful peach blossom eyes were also pervading like fog, as though the water was about to come out.

"In this endless night, are you also unable to sleep, miss?" Qing Shui smiled awkwardly, going into the room.

Qing Shui wasn't one who was easily embarrassed. He just felt a little off, like a man being captivated by a beautiful woman. Being a little awkward in front of a woman like this was normal, actually, it praised her.

Of course, there was the precondition that she had to like him. Otherwise, it would only creep her out.

Hearing Qing Shui's words, Qing Hanye smiled. She was stunning Qing Shui with her blossoming eyelashes, her beautiful peach blossom eyes had an indescribable captivating feeling. Nine Ying types normally attracted Nine Yang types extremely well. Of course, the opposite was true also.

Qing Hanye watched the man that she liked. After she confessed to him but didn't get accepted, fate had brought them together once more. At that time she had a feeling that the two of them would be together.

She knew that their types were perfect for each other and felt the change in him this time.

As she was thinking about this, she felt the aura of a man come over. She raised her head to see Qing Shui standing in front of her without blinking.

“Qing Shui, tonight I want to be your woman...”

Qing Hanye’s words were fiercer than the strongest Spring Medicine. She actually didn’t want to hand herself over to Qing Shui. She was always worried that Qing Shui’s Nine Yang Body wasn’t strong enough, even though she still relied on him.

Now she also felt the things that had happened were very intractable. She didn’t care anymore, nothing mattered as long as she could be his woman and it also lessened her regret.

Qing Shui hugged that nimble jade body in one swoop, along with the nightgown on her, but still felt that satiny skin and also a soft and flexible feeling.

Qing Shui kissed her sexy lips. One hand on her small waist, another on her shoulders. He was feeling her surprising bounciness.

Qing Hanye gasped softly, the wing of her nose made a soft sound that continuously excited Qing Shui’s senses. He hugged her tightly so that she could feel the change in his body, as though he wanted to pull her into himself.

In a short amount of time, Qing Shui was no longer satisfied with the clothes on her body and quickly untied her knots with one hand. Qing Shui was well trained with removing clothes and quickly Qing Hanye’s snow-white body was in front of him, especially the shape of her breasts, which were like silver cups put on backwards, the emergence of the tall and prideful appearance in front of him was given his full attention, not a part left out and absolutely outstanding.

The red peaks were unparalleled concentration takers, goading Qing Shui to quickly occupy it and frantically start devouring...

When Qing Shui entered the moist flower path, he went through a barrier and Qing Hanye’s body shrunk a little. Although she was strong, there was still a little pain, but it wasn’t really much.

Qing Shui stopped and looked at Qing Hanye tenderly, but at this time a power rose from within their bodies, moving them.

The Power of the Nine Yang!

Qing Shui knew that it was the Power of the Nine Yang in him and the Power of the Nine Yin in Qing Hanye.

Qing Shui almost forgot his and Qinghan Ye’s constitutions. Qinghan Ye had a strong Yin energy in her, when Qing Shui entered her before he could feel it. If he wasn’t the Nine Yang type, most likely he would have been stuck there and would have been lost forever.

Then, the Nine Yang energy in Qing Shui's body grew stronger and stronger and so did the Nine Yin energy in Qing Hanye's body. They were rushing at each other.

Qing Shui was stunned, the strength of the Nine Yin power concerned him and he didn't know whether he could take it...

Boom!

This was what Qing Shui felt in his sea of consciousness. Their collision was like two mountains crashing into one another, the Yin Yang Image in the sea of consciousness exploded with a bright light.

The large Yin-Yang Image increased in size by one time again, which was especially weird in the great sea of consciousness. That simple light wasn't very bright, but it was still blinding.

Bang!

At this time, the Nine-Nine Divine Nebula Formation exploded. The brightest of them all the golden stars and the surroundings lit up with many other stars. Qing Shui saw that there were exactly eight, including the one in the center, nine, which was the brightest.

The change in the sea of consciousness. The skies had grown larger than before. It was already large after pushing the limit so many times, but the change in size was so drastic this time that it was obvious and its power increased by a lot.

The formation increased from four times power to the nine times now and Qing Shui also knew that it could do something more. It could shoot out Nebula Lightning!

Nebula lightning, in an instant the Nine-Nine Divine Nebula Formation could attack its target with a lightning attack.

It was easy to introduce and its strength was unknown, but Qing Shui was very happy. All in all, the formation hadn't changed much. This time not only the Yin-Yang Image had reached a new stage, but the Nine-Nine Divine Nebula Formation also did.

This just started because the Power of the Nine Yin was continually being absorbed by his body.

A single Yin and single Yang don't live for long but together they conquered the heavens and earth.

At this time, Qing Shui finally understood the meaning of this. As the result of Qing Shui's increased strength, his bones, blood vessels, blood, tendons, and all were going through little changes.

Qing Hanye was going through the same thing. Her strength was continually breaking through, something that she didn't think could happen and even so with the fact that she was with her closest person.

Chapter 1908 - Extreme Increases, Horrifying Strength

At this time, Qing Hanye seemed to forget how embarrassed she was. Just as she saw the two of them tangled together, her face turned red, but the inner energy between the two of them continuously surged, circling, and growing in each other.

But the situation this time was a little out of control. The Nine Yang and Nine Yin energy was circling on its own, so after a while Qing Shui was a little restless and saw the woman under him, charming as water, lightly move.

Mm~

When Qing Shui moved Qinghan Ye felt it and made a sound that made her blush, Qing Shui lowered his head to kiss her, kiss her red lips and suck in her infatuating body fluids.

Qinghan Ye was lying down, but her tall breasts were up, full and erect, Qing Shui could stare into her beautiful eyes while sucking on her red nipples, they were less than three inches apart, because Qinghan Ye was sleeping on a fluffy pillow, so the height of her head was about the same as her breasts.

Watching this man sucking on her private parts, she embarrassedly closed her beautiful peach blossom eyes, her red jade face moving him in some indescribable way.

“Good, open your eyes, let me see my little Ye Ye’s beautiful eyes,” Qing Shui bit lightly on her nipple.

At this Qinghan Ye’s beautiful body shivered, releasing a light gasp that moved him, but she still opened her foggy eyes, but she also was slightly avoiding Qing Shui’s eyes.

Using one hand Qing Shui stroked the other side, on one side gazing into her eyes and lightly kissing her pride, his skill allowing Qinghan Ye to shiver continuously.

Qing Shui’s tongue pierced into her body, he especially liked the atmosphere at this time, watching that beautifully shy and shameful face he was moved indescribably, that resisting gaze let Qing Shui continue.

Also that light and mellow gasp gave Qing Shui a rush of strength like an enchantment, also the restriction of the waves of rules made it even stronger, rushing into his head, and that tailbone rushed straight towards the head.

Qinghan Ye hugged Qing Shui tightly, her body was continuously shivering, it was the third time that this happened, and she couldn’t control her voice anymore, as though she had forgotten how to. Or maybe she just didn’t want to, so now her voice was much higher, but here in the room the sound insulation was very strong.

Qing Shui already adorned the room with insulation, so even if they were loud it was alright.

When she controlled her voice at the start it wasn’t because she was afraid that someone else would hear, it was because hearing herself made her blush to no end.

This time Qing Shui also did his best to release, tightly hugging Qinghan Ye’s tender body, feeling the shivering body of the woman in his bosom.

“You’re so full of ecstasy when you yell,” Qing Shui watched the pair of fulfilled eyes, at this time the beautiful peach blossom eyes lit up.

“You’re still talking, scoundrel.”

“This wasn’t me being a scoundrel, it could be a protection of luck,” Qing Shui moved a little with a smile, making her make a sound.

“You don’t get to talk!” Qinghan Ye covered Qing Shui’s mouth as she was embarrassed, then covered his eyes with her other arm.

Seeing her cute side like this made Qing Shui very happy, and he slapped her butt to put her into his bosom.

At this time the strong Nine Yang and Nine Yin had already rested, Qing Shui smiled: “Little Ye is so beautiful!”

Qinghan Ye hugged Qing Shui’s arm with a smile, even the most beautiful women enjoyed being praised by men. Seeing her being so happy, Qing Shui was also fulfilled.

The day came and Qing Shui woke up. He saw Qinghan Ye watching him: it seemed that she woke up even earlier, both of them were asleep together.

Watching Qing Shui wake up, Qinghan Ye said happily: “Qing Shui, my strength increased a lot, it feels even more stable than before.”

After hearing her say this, Qing Shui thought a little and laughed: “This is the strength inside our own bodies, it should be this way. It’s good that your strength increased, but how much did it?”

“My strength now is close to 7000000 Dao,” Qinghan Ye didn’t really believe what she said.

Qing Shui was also surprised, he didn’t think that the combination with the Nine Yang would increase her strength by that much. But he wanted to know his own, and he wasn’t as surprised, because his strength was even more than hers.

His innate strength increased to 7500000 Yang, which was 0.075 Dao, the Nine-Nine Divine Nebula Formation didn’t change much after increasing to the nine times now, but the substance of his inner organs went through a lot of change, if they were like wood before, they were like steel now, although wood was very strong, it paled in comparison to steel.

Qing Shui’s strength now already reached past 25000000 Dao, this was more than six times what it used to be, and was Qing Shui’s attack power. Before he had about 4000000 Dao attack, but now it was 25000000 Dao.

The next thing that he couldn’t believe was that his own Nine Continents Mountain could get to a power level of 75000000 Dao, and his defense got to 200000000 Dao.

The target for the Divine grade was 10000 Dao, Qing Shui’s was 200000000 Dao, a great improvement.

Because Qing Shui’s sea of consciousness belonged to the Golden Battle God Inheritance’s consciousness it allowed him to understand the target strength of these levels.

Before he had 400000000 Dao defense, now it was 200000000 Dao.

Qing Shui was stunned at his defense now, of course there was his own output, the Nine Continents Mountain's attack was horrifying, his Paragon Strike even more so, although he could only use it once a day, but using it just once would be enough to kill the Poison Dragon King.

Qing Shui previously thought that if he and Qinghan Ye combined their strength would improve a lot, but he didn't think that it would improve this much, and it scared him a little.

Now at this booth, Qing Shui knew why Qinghan Ye came to his room, even more so the intractable events that had happened with them crossing this last threshold, but he didn't think that this much change would occur, and made his confidence grow much more.

This increase in strength also increased the stability of his foundations, this was an improvement of substance, this was the foundation. This explosively increasing power also increased their ability to handle it, there would be no problem and they wouldn't be unable to control it.

In a while this whole thing seemed much simpler, Qing Shui happily hugged Qinghan Ye and kissed her a few times, and pushed her onto the ground. After that, a sweet sound came from that room until the sky brightened.

Up until they got up Qing Shui was happily looking at Qinghan Ye, she had an indescribable tenderness and beauty, which was something that could only be obtained through experience. Although she was outstanding before, now there was a certain sexiness to her.

Chapter 1909 - Taichi, Divine Calamity

It took a while before Qinghan Ye could put her clothes on, as she looked happily at Qing Shui. While she was putting them on, Qing Shui rubbed his hands all over her, although they had already done it, He couldn't stop himself. This was where her outstanding sexiness was, and why a life would be shortened by ten years after meeting a beautiful woman.

The sky lit up, and Qinghan Ye went back into her room after dressing. All in all she had only had her nightgown on when she came back. Now, the outside was very quiet. If she waited until everyone was awake she wouldn't know how to get back into her own room.

Qing Shui only let her go after kissing her a bunch. Their lips and teeth were like sweetness, allowing Qing Shui to feel it for a long time.

Heaven really never barred one's way. Before Qing Shui felt that he could only run, but he didn't think that the combination of the Nine Yang and Nine Yin would change him this much. This was the most he'd ever improved in a single go. Even in the future he doubted that this would ever happen again.

Qing Shui's aura and temperament had gone through a little change. The Divine power in him had changed some. Before it was the most masculine strength, but now it was different: the sudden power increase could conquer every obstacle. But if the rear strength wasn't enough, it could easily hurt the user, and most people wouldn't even be able to handle this strong power.

But with the Power of the Nine Yin, or after combining with it, Qing Shui's Divine energy went from fierce to gentle and continuously unending, as though it was a water ripple. This was truly strength and gentleness together.

Qing Shui washed up, dressed, and went into the backyard to practice. This was a habit that he never changed, and he was still practicing the Taichi Fist.

But this time Qing Shui felt that it was different because of his new increase in strength. Before he felt that it would be hard for him to improve, but now he felt that that was absolutely incorrect.

There was no limit to martial prowess. Qing Shui understood this saying, but he admitted that was affected by one's life. He had never seen anyone stronger in Taichi or even a few grades behind, so he always knew that he wasn't at the top, but he was close to it.

But now as he practiced, he felt that it had changed from before. Now he knew that the way he used to do it was barely scratching the surface, or even less than that.

Qing Shui struck out, watching his steady arm, but he saw that it brought out a cruel shadow, which crept up slowly like his fist. This was the part that was strange to other people, but this gentle hand was able to cut through air.

Realm, this was really a new realm!

Qing Shui's shadow slowly shifted, the feet under him moving in unpredictable circles. His strikes were aimed towards the front, but in the blink of an eye, the surroundings were filled with his strikes. It was quiet, like Qing Shui had become one with the heavens and the earth.

Suddenly the air was filled with thunderbolts. Qing Shui seemed to not know why, but his body was surrounded by a surge of Divine strength.

The rest of the people in the Imperial Cuisine Hall were awake now, and were stunned at the sudden appearance of lightning in the backyard because it wasn't a normal type of lightning. They came down and saw Qing Shui practicing.

Divine Calamity!

Divine Calamity was very interesting, because it wasn't something that could be obtained once one got to the power level required. It was something that occurred by chance. Take for example, Qinghan Ye, who had the required strength but didn't have this ability.

The appearance of Divine Calamity required a certain combination. For example it could be the feeling of the Heavenly Dao. Having this skill had great benefits. If two Divines fought, but with one of them had the Divine Calamity, then it would be easier for him to defeat the other.

At this time, Qing Shui didn't enter the Realm of Selfishness. He was very happy, and knew that he improved a lot this time. Although his foundation were a little stronger, his movements were much faster than before.

Besides, Qing Shui knew that he would be able to get the Divine Calamity even without practicing his Taichi Fist. The most important thing was that the Divine Calamity of today wouldn't increase his strength by an obvious amount. Another way of saying it is that his strength wouldn't change, but his constitution would improve a lot, as well as the all-important foundation.

Hong!

A bolt of lightning shot down onto Qing Shui, enveloping his entire body. It felt as though his body had become mush, and the lightning was like water. The lightning that came down before was barely anything, and was completely absorbed by Qing Shui.

After that came the second, which was almost the same as the first.

Then third, and fourth...

The lightning that came down became thicker and thicker, and more and more continued to rain down at an increasing frequency.

Qing Shui still refused to give up. His strong body was seen in extreme brilliance, and no matter how strong the Divine Calamity lightning was, he still absorbed it completely.

The lightning surged through his body and muscles, and this increase was extremely obvious.

Time passed little by little, and Qing Shui's strong body held the lightning in the air without concern. This was fortunate for him because even though his strength had increased a lot, there was no danger to him.

The clouds and fog dispersed.

The lightning in the air disappeared, and the sky returned to what it was like before. Although it was rare for Linhai City to have a sunny day, today was marked by a bright sun.

Qing Shui pulled back, the clothes on his body already wrecked. As he raised his head to see the few women along with Lan Lingfeng, he smiled, "I'm going to clean up a bit then eat with you all."

Qing Shui quickly washed up and changed into a new purple gown.

Qing Shui changed a lot over the course of the night. Now he looked even more mature than before. Looking at him, he didn't seem to be feminine or masculine, but it was as though both were present. In addition it blended together, his gestures releasing a type of dignity, atmosphere, and presence.

Qing Shui didn't know that his charm had increased by a lot.

Qinghan Ye was also there, and as he saw her looking away embarrassedly, he found that her embarrassed look was still stunning. It was written all over her face that she knew what had actually happened, and they shared a smile.

Yu Niang was experienced, Tantai Lingyan and Yiye Jiange were also experienced, but Tantai Lingyan wasn't much different from people that were inexperienced. Yiye Jiange could tell immediately.

The few women were a little uneasy. Normally they were happy together since they knew that they were all going to be Qing Shui's women, so they didn't think much of it.

Luo Qingcheng looked at Qing Shui with bitterness, which made him a little embarrassed.

Luo Qingcheng had previously blocked a fatal attack for Qing Shui without caring for her own life. Qing Shui then went to the Sacred Mountain to look for a lifesaving medicine, changing her fate. At that time she had accepted him. She knew that she was his woman, but Qinghan Ye didn't acknowledge it. Still, she knew that she could only be his woman. She would marry no other.

Chapter 1910 - Brother Shui, Tantai Lingyan's Loss of Self Control

"Little Ye is so beautiful today!" Luo Qingcheng laughed a little, and looked at Qing Shui as she said this.

Qinghan Ye was a little embarrassed by that, when she came out and saw how she was dressed and groomed she found many changes with herself. Perhaps she had finally become a woman? She originally didn't want to come down, but she couldn't hide anymore.

At that time Qing Shui praised her for having the smell of a woman, no matter what that was still the case. So Qinghan Ye came out proudly, the people there being people she knew anyways, except for the State teacher.

Once Luo Qingcheng mentioned that everyone else laughed about it a little, all in all they knew what had happened. Lan Lingfeng extended her thumb at Qing Shui covertly, making him unable to speak.

"Brother Shui, your strength has increased quite a lot," she said with a smile

The woman who had a strong atmosphere made Qing Shui have a special feeling whenever she spoke. He enjoyed this type of feeling. In a previous life he saw someone like that on television, just that she was called Yin Xiong

The woman could feel the change in Qing Shui's strength, but she didn't know how much her own changed. Still, she could feel that it had.

What she said made all the other people a little surprised, all in all they were very happy that Qing Shui's strength increased, and were happily looking at him when she said something else.

"Miss Qing's strength has also increased a lot, besides, they both have a similar aura," she said curiously.

After saying this she didn't feel as though it was sufficient, and continued: "Brother Shui also has the aura on Miss Qing, how weird."

Qing Shui was a little embarrassed, but not as much as Qinghan Ye, the woman seemed to be heartless, but once they thought about it a little they knew what was going on. Qing Shui rubbed his nose before changing the topic to food.

Qing Shui didn't have much to say, he wasn't sure whether this woman really didn't know, or was doing it on purpose. But Qing Shui thought that she seemed to be more on the clueless side. Besides there was really no reason she would be like this, and she wasn't the type to do so either.

But there was a point. This woman cared more about strength than most people, or else she wouldn't have been so boastful.

Qinghan Ye's strength was comparable to this woman's, it was only with Qing Shui's help that this woman was able to pass 10000000 Dao. Without it she was about the same as Qinghan Ye.

This was also a surprising thing about the woman. Over the course of the night, Qing Shui improved a lot, and she felt that he had greatly surpassed herself. Even if Qinghan Ye's strength was comparable to her, it was only about half before.

Seeing the atmosphere, she seemed to understand what had happened. After catching sight of Qinghan Ye, who was a little embarrassed, but also a little peculiar, she suddenly understood, and her face grew red. She then said apologetically to Qinghan Ye: "It wasn't on purpose."

"Miss Dongfang, everyone here is family, there's no need to be so courteous. As long as you're alright with it, I'll call you Sister Dongfang."

"I'm very happy about that, Sister Ye," the woman said happily.

Qing Shui felt that this woman didn't have many friends, well, she didn't have many true friends. And coming here she found out that no one cared about her rank, but was also welcoming, which made her feel more genuine.

The conversation between Qinghan Ye and the woman was actually representative of everyone. Since she was sisters with the rest of them, and she called her Sister Dongfang, it naturally meant that she was also a part of the family, and friends.

Qinghan Ye did this knowing that the woman wasn't like others, at least it seemed to be. The Great Confucian Empire seemed to turn the other way to her, even making steps against her, and she was in good standing with the Imperial Cuisine Hall.

Qing Shui had already closed off the formation during the daytime, it was also a hazy day, which was normal weather for Linhai City, as well as what occurred the most. But even though it was hazy it was still very fresh, full of spiritual energy, much stronger than the enchanting scenery of the previous age.

The carefree Qing Shui was killing time at the Imperial Cuisine Hall, which was very quiet without business. But Qing Shui also didn't really feel anything, everything was temporary now, and the Imperial Cuisine Hall would start business again, this time even stronger than before.

Turning around he saw Tantai Lingyan walking over with a sword in her hand after practising. She looked at Qing Shui with a smile on her face, and didn't say anything.

This cold woman smiled a lot more now, but even her smile was the distant type, as though she were a lone snow lotus.

Qing Shui smiled and held the hand without a sword in it: "Little Yan Yan, come walk with me."

As he said that he already started pulling her with him.

Tantai Lingyan went with it grudgingly, she was already numb to Qing Shui's call, although she was a little embarrassed, there was nothing she could do, if she resisted she thought that he would do something else, but it was only this man that could make her feel unable to do anything, and only he would dare do this.

Tantai Lingyan followed the man holding her around the Imperial Cuisine Palace.

The Imperial Cuisine Hall was pretty big, having expanded from its original land many times, so trying to walk around slowly did take some time, this place also had a long small tree-lined path, the heavy trees with the same width as a grown person, straight and plenty, on each side were also many bamboos, and a little river through it, and the weeping willow-like trees were on each side of the river, which had an arch bridge further up. Along the river was a long pathway.

The water rushed, but with a clear surface that many small fish swam under. Every now and then there'd be a three foot long fish. Qing Shui felt at peace, his heart was serene, and turning his head he looked at the beautiful woman beside him.

"Is there something up?" Tantai Lingyan ended up asking.

"Nothing much, as a matter of fact I feel really good today."

"It must be because of last night then!" Tantai Lingyan stunned herself with what she said. She became a little embarrassed as well as uneasy.

Qing Shui was stunned, what could have happened? This woman was jealous! Even she could get jealous!

Qing Shui couldn't believe that she would say something like this. She then jerked a little as though she was trying to leave, but Qing Shui wouldn't let her do that, grasping her hair he said: "Little Yan Yan, I am really happy, even you know how to say such things."

"What do you mean, don't think like that," Tantai Lingyan stopped trying to escape.

"I'm very happy right now, turns out even my cold beauty thinks of me," Qing Shui joked around with a smile, but what he said was true.

"Alright, don't think too much about that, isn't dealing with the Great Confucian Empire enough of a bother? If we wait a few more days, I'm thinking that the Five Poison Immortal Palace would come too," Tantai Lingyan said urgently.
