Chapter 2051 - The Flying Sword is Hard To Forge, Someone Had Come To Seek Treatment

The man was infuriated, after seeing the Young Master being done in under his watch at an insignificant place by a weakling. However, he couldn't kill the other party right now. Putting aside whether what the other party had said was the truth or not, there would always be situations where one had no choice but to believe it. It was because if drastic measures were to be taken, the results would be irreversible.

"Although your strength isn't bad, you won't be able to kill me. However, it's extremely easy for me to kill you if I wanted to." Qing Shui looked at the middle-aged man and said coldly.

The middle-aged man had wanted to refute that, but the words couldn't come out from his mouth after he saw Qing Shui's gaze. This guy's gaze was too strange. It contained confidence and backing that made him feel a little hesitant. He knew that when such words were said between cultivators, it would only be when the other party was truly capable of such things. If he were to say that he didn't believe them, then there would only be two possible consequences. He would be either bluffing or only take a moment to finish off his opponent.

"You guys may leave. The seal will be removed by itself after three years. However, I hope that you won't appear in front of me in the future. Otherwise, you'll end up in a terrible plight. This is punishment for having thrashed up my restaurant." Qing Shui waved his hand and said.

Qing Shui didn't want to be in a tussle with these people for too long. They had an influence backing them up and that influence was definitely very powerful. If there were no accidents, it was likely that it was even stronger than the Zhan Clan. It should be a sect with strict regulations. Although Young Master Pan's status was very high, he no longer dared to create too much trouble.

"Help me get rid of the seal now and I'll pay back the things here in ten folds. No, 100 folds." Young Master Pan looked at Qing Shui and said calmly. He had also calmed down during this and could tell that there was no more feeling coming from his lower body part. If he weren't able to recover after three years, he'd be a goner. Moreover, even if he could recover after three years, how was he going to live on for these three years? He had already lowered his stand.

"Everyone must be responsible for their own actions. If you still refuse to leave, I don't mind making you into a cripple completely." Qing Shui didn't even take a look at Young Master Pan as he nodded toward Yu Xixuan, signaling her to leave.

Young Master Pan's eyes were filled with fury and a violent gleam as if he wanted to eat someone whole.

"Young Master!" The middle-aged man called out carefully.

The Junior Martial Brother Song was deep in thoughts as he looked at Qing Shui's departing figure. He felt pity for Young Master Pan as well. This martial senior of his loved women the most and leaving him as is was a fate worse than death. Three years... This was the most brutal punishment.

"Let's go!" Young Master Pan's cold and vicious gaze was like that of an ancient desolate beast.

"Did you really sealed up his Yang Meridian...?" Yu Xixuan asked in a soft voice,

"Yeah." Qing Shui replied.

"Can it really be resolved by itself after three years?" Yu Xixuan asked outright.

Qing Shui shook his head, "Of course not!"

Yu Xixuan looked at Qing Shui in surprise. "Didn't you say earlier that it'll be resolved by itself after three years?"

"Even a hoodlum would have their own principles. It's just like what his junior martial brother had said. It'd be fine if the women were willing or if he had paid a price in exchange. He can play around as much as he wishes then. However, someone like him doesn't have any principles at all. He can forget about being a man in this life."

When Yu Xixuan heard Qing Shui's words, she laughed, "You're actually pretty evil yourself."

"Get someone to clean up the mess. The damage isn't that great. You must also quickly send the news to the Ji Clan and get them to seek treatment as soon as possible." Qing Shui gave it some thought and said.

"I understand. You want to get the Ji Clan in as well. Not bad, not bad. If the Ji Clan found out, would they choose to stand by idly?" Yu Xixuan asked.

"You already said before that this expert is very important to the Ji Clan. Before I manage to heal this person, it's unlikely that they'll let other people lay their hands on me. Moreover, I have nothing to lose. If the Zhan Clan were to lay their hands on me, I'll show them a thing or two. I'm not to be trifled with either." Qing Shui said without a care.

That night, Qing Shui kept on cultivating in the Realm of the Violet Jade Immortal. The continuous combos and killing techniques were Qing Shui's most powerful attacks for now. He had actually always been holding back on his acupuncture hitting. Qing Shui could kill the two middle-aged men whom he had encountered in the day within a short period of time. His agility was great and in addition to the Gouging Strike, Dragon-capturing Hands, and the Buddha Bright Seal, Qing Shui could kill his opponents without allowing them any means of retaliation.

Qing Shui's strength wasn't very powerful, being less than a billion Dao force. However, his unique skills and Hitting A Cow Through A Mountain could neglect a certain amount of defense and strike the opponent at their weakest spot. Some areas were very concealed and could be just a single point on the body. The requirements were very high, and wouldn't allow one to hit the spots too many or too few times. However, the results achieved would be many times better than ordinary attacks.

He had yet to forge the flying sword but once he managed to do so, Qing Shui's abilities would increase qualitatively in leaps and bounds. It would be an indescribable increment and the flying sword's sharpness wouldn't lose out even to the Dragon Slaying Beast. Most importantly, the flying sword's speed would sky-rocket and can even be locked onto the opponent. Other than the fact that it had a high depletion rate, it was definitely an amazing weapon.

If he were to have his own flying sword and used it together with his Dragon-capturing Hands, Buddha Ultimate Art, and other techniques, he would be able to instantly kill opponents who were a lot stronger than himself.

This was something which Qing Shui could already pull off, but he would need to work together with the Dragon Slaying Beast. His continuous combos were very overwhelming but it would be a little hard to deal with such opponents if the difference in their powers were too great.

Qing Shui had already mastered the Nine Palace Steps to a high level. This amazing steps technique allowed Qing Shui to unleash his abilities to their greatest potential. This was especially so for the continuous combos. Without the Nine Palace Steps, it would probably be very hard to perform continuous combos.

Qing Shui still didn't know much about the Northern Blue Domain as of this moment. He only knew of the Ji Clan and the Zhan Clan and didn't know if the sect which Young Master Pan belonged to was one of the five great influences in the Northern Blue Domain. However, Qing Shui had the feeling that the influence behind Young Master Pan should be above that of the Zhan Clan. At the very least, they shouldn't be weaker than the five great influences in the Northern Blue Domain.

This time around, Qing Shui had completely fallen out with the sect which Young Master Pan belonged to. Young Master Pan wouldn't recover from his condition and would still remain a cripple after three years. Qing Shui wasn't sure if they could wait for three years. They might just return for him very soon.

There was also the Zhan Clan. Qing Shui wouldn't look down on the Northern Blue Domain's five great influences. This was the Azure Rainbow City, the weakest in the Northern Blue Domain. Therefore, the Zhan Clan was definitely a powerful influence.

This was why Qing Shui wanted to build up his influence as quickly as possible. It would make others rethink their moves before making their moves on him since it would bring harm to many experts' interests. Once that happened, no one would dare to lay their hands on him recklessly.

The Jade Fragrant Restaurant continued its operation as usual. Everyone knew that the offending group had left in a pathetic state. One of them had even lost all of his teeth. Many people had witnessed that and also managed to guess where these people were from. After all, they dared to offend the Jade Fragrant Restaurant. Right now, everyone knew that the greatest influence in the Azure Rainbow City was the Jade Fragrant Restaurant and the Imperial Cuisine Hall.

The peaceful days continued on. Big Tiger had already started to provide treatment for patients. However, Qing Shui would observe from the sides while Big Tiger assessed the patients' conditions, came up with the prescription and even provided plans for the treatment.

One day, a few travel-worn people appeared at the Imperial Cuisine Hall. These people didn't seem to be ordinary people. There were two men, a lady, and two younger men. The man in the lead had a strong and tall figure with thick brows and big eyes, exuding a dignified aura.

Qing Shui stood up and when that man saw Qing Shui, he quickly said, "We're looking for Miraculous Physician Qing!"

Chapter 2052 - The Power of the Miraculous Physician, The Beginning of the Path Leading to A Miraculous Physician

"We're looking for Miraculous Physician Qing!"

Qing Shui looked at them and greeted. "I'm Qing Shui. How may I help you?"

He already knew that these people were from the Ji Clan. There was also a man whose countenance looked pale and bore a resemblance to the man who spoke. That guy must be going through a lot of turmoil. The pain alone wasn't something that ordinary people could bear. He could only withstand it by using his power to suppress it.

A charming married lady with a poised appearance stood next to him. Her beautiful brows furrowed slightly as she occasionally looked toward the man next to her.

The two slightly young men seemed a little troubled too as they looked at Qing Shui with some doubt.

"We're here to seek treatment. We've heard that Miraculous Physician Qing can cure many different kinds of serious injuries and illnesses." The man in the lead looked at Qing Shui as he was speaking.

He also felt that Qing Shui was too young, resulting in him feeling a little disappointed when he had felt very hopeful to begin with. He felt that this whole trip was a disappointment, after traveling so far to see treatment. They had wanted to come when they heard that there was a Miraculous Physician in the Azure Rainbow City. After all, how amazing could a person in the Azure Rainbow City be? And now that they were here, they realized that it was someone so extremely young.

His men didn't want to come, but they also didn't wish to let any chances slip by, and thus made this trip. Even if the man leading was disappointed at the sight of Qing Shui, he didn't show any dissatisfaction. He was very polite and didn't appear dissatisfied or contempt.

Qing Shui nodded, feeling pleased with the way the man had reacted. If it was any other person, they would feel very disappointed in this scenario and show signs of being displeased. After all, they would feel that there wasn't much hope and their attitude would slowly change.

"Come this way please." Qing Shui got them to enter the Imperial Cuisine Hall.

"How do I address you?" Qing Shui didn't ask what the medical condition was right away.

"I'm called Ji Yixun. These are my younger brother Ji Yilie and his wife. The two juniors from our clan went by the names Ji Lang and Ji Nian. " The man in the lead, Ji Yixun, answered forwardly.

Qing Shui had already found out what the members of the Ji Clan were called and thus asked casually. The other party didn't hide anything either and even though it wouldn't be much if they were to hide anything, they would appear more sincere when they didn't.

After they took a seat, Qing Shui made a pot of tea and poured a cup for each of them.

After being done with the formalities, Qing Shui knew that they couldn't hold it in anymore. As expected, right after Qing Shui had finished pouring tea for each of them, that married lady said hurriedly, "Miraculous Physician, can you take a look at Yilie? He's in great pain."

Qing Shui lifted his head to look at the married lady, then at Yilie. He suddenly tapped on Yilie's body a few times at a speed that was so fast that it was blurry. His technique was extremely profound as well, brushing past Yilie's Sanguan Heaven Acupoint and other parts. Qing Shui's hand almost became invisible during this.

Ji Yixun was taken by surprise and almost wanted to stop Qing Shui but he held it in. It took only the time for two breaths before Qing Shui came to a stop. "Are you still in pain?"

"It's not painful anymore!" Ji Yilie looked at Qing Shui in disbelief.

Qing Shui smiled and returned to filling up their teacups. Qing Shui didn't fill up their cups completely earlier, but they didn't drink the tea. After Qing Shui's second time of filling, the cups became almost full and they quickly picked up the cups, appearing a little awkward.

"Your condition is a little tricky. The time for the treatment will be a little long. I'll need to take ten days to treat your Dantian, ten days to treat your meridian channels, and then another ten days to help you condition and deal with your illness." Qing Shui drank the tea.

Ji Yixun shuddered, "Physician, please treat him."

"That will not be an issue." Qing Shui assured them.

Qing Shui actually knew that there had been some miraculous physicians in this world in the past. Before they took action, they would make things clear, such as getting the other party to help them deal with a matter or to owe them a favor if they were healed.

Doing this would allow them to build a lot of connections and there would always be people helping them out in all sorts of situations. There had been cases where someone didn't fulfill their promise after receiving the treatment and the miraculous physician got some other influences who had also owed him a favor to do something for him. That favor was to get rid of the influence who had gone back on their words.

After something like this had happened, no one would ever dare to go back on their words anymore. Although this miraculous physician didn't have a long life, he had been a prominent existence of his time and many powerful influences didn't dare to offend him. It was because if he was willing, he could cause those great influences to be instantly wiped out. This was the power of a great miraculous physician.

Qing Shui now felt that he could do the same as well. However, he was still against doing something like this. He hoped that the relationship could be more like between friends. He would be able to find it more acceptable like this.

However, Qing Shui soon found a problem. In his previous life, a doctor would ask for payment for his medical services. However, despite having so many patients, there were very few who could become friends with him. It was impossible to make all the patients his friends. A person with great medical skills probably had countless patients he had treated before and wouldn't recognize all of them. So how could he then become friends with all of them? There might not even be 1 in 10,000 who could become friends with the doctor.

Therefore, Qing Shui believed that the things miraculous physician had done in the past were correct.

"Before I provide the treatment, let's talk about the remuneration. If you agree, I'll start immediately."

"Miraculous Physician Qing, please go ahead and say them!"

"You guys should be from the Ji Clan, right?"

The other party nodded. Since they gave their names, they weren't afraid of being recognized.

"People with great power should have great responsibilities. How much I ask from my patients depends on who they are."

"We're willing to pay regardless of the amount." That married lady quickly said.

Qing Shui shook his head. "If I were to treat a poor person, even if the person is about to die, I can do so without asking for anything in return. I can sustain losses to help that person. You can ask around. I'm not doing this for reputation, but for a peace of mind." Qing Shui claimed Qing Shui's words made Ji Yixun reveal a look of admiration. There were few people that Ji Yixun respected, let alone a young man like Qing Shui.

"However, when I provide treatment for capable people, I won't ask for money. Instead, you will owe me a favor. In the future, you'll have to do something for me without asking for anything in return. This matter could be something very difficult or it could be something very simple. You might even not be required to do anything for the rest of your life." Qing Shui looked at Ji Yixun and spoke seriously.

"Does it still apply, regardless of what the matter is? Will it be something that will send the entire Ji Clan to their deaths?" At that moment, Ji Yilie asked.

"I can only say that it won't be something that goes against morals, nor will I ask for your people to sacrifice their lives needlessly. I can't give any other guarantees. I can give you time to consider this. Let me know your answer after you've thought it through." Qing Shui explained and heaved a sigh of relief. He had finally taken the first step.

"There's no need to consider. I will give you my word!" Ji Yixun said immediately.

"Eldest Brother!"

"Alright, I have the final say. Miraculous Physician Qing, I give you my word." Ji Yixun waved his hand and stopped Ji Yilie.

Ji Yixun had the feeling that this young man wasn't someone evil and he believed that Qing Shui could be trusted. This was why he decided to agree to this without any hesitation. If the other party was a physician who harbored evil intentions, he would give it more thought. However, there would be times when even if one knew that the other party harbored evil intentions, he still had to accept the condition.

Therefore, he felt very lucky in meeting Qing Shui.

Qing Shui didn't say much and started the treatment immediately. Qing Shui naturally had no problems in dealing with this case. If Qing Shui were to go all out, he would probably be able to let Ji Yilie completely recover within a week. However, Qing Shui didn't need to waste his Qi of the Ancient Strengthening Technique going all out like that. Therefore, he proceeded with the method he said earlier, one that would take a months' time.

With that, the members of the Ji Clan would have to stay here for a month. This was nothing to them. If Ji Yilie's condition could be treated, they would be willing to stay here, even if it took one year or even ten years.

Chapter 2053 - Zhan Clan, Everything Is Settled? It's New Year Again

The people of the Ji Clan had also managed to obtain a token from the Jade Fragrant Restaurant. Furthermore, the token, which they had gotten, was the best one so far. They were allowed to have one meal every day. With that happening, they could finally eat to their heart's content. There was a high chance that they might still come back here in the future even after Ji Yilie's was cured.

The Ji Clan was the first force Qing Shui encountered along his path in becoming a Miraculous Physician. He created a book and wrote down a series of words in it. There was a date recorded on it. Following on, the Ji Clan was mentioned. It was stated that he treated Ji Yilie.

Qing Shui spent the entire night to forge a token. There was a word carved on it.

Qing!

In the future, people with the token could get help from the forces which owed Qing Shui a favor as to repay him. This could apply to anyone as long as they had the token with them. Qing Shui was an exception. If he went to them personally, he wouldn't need the token.

"A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step". Qing Shui had already begun. The Ji Clan was qualified enough to be put on the list of people who owed him a favor. In the future, he would need some powers if he wanted to survive in the Nine Continents World. That was his own power. Later on, he would begin to look for more people who were qualified to be included on his lists.

Without realizing it, half a month passed. Qing Shui's Treasure Basin had achieved its third grade. Instead of 30%, its effect increased from the original 20% to 40%. Qing Shui was delighted to see that. From here, Qing Shui came up with the assumption that each of the increased effects should be double the amount of the previous grades.

The Treasure Basin would soon be able to double the abilities of a lot of his things. The only problem now was that he wasn't sure what was excluded from the list. So far, other than the objects with life fluctuations which he was unsure about, he could already confirm that living things couldn't be boosted.

Throughout this time, the strength of the Dragon Spider was gradually increasing and stabilizing itself. It received great benefits after absorbing the Origin Essence of the Huge Water Monster. This was a kind of absorption which resulted from mutated changes. Even though the Dragon Spider hadn't changed much in its appearance, a lot of its abilities had been modified.

The reason why Qing Shui could feel so secure was that he had the Dragon Spider. It was a unique existence. Once it unleashed its formidable spider thread, it could trap existences stronger than itself to death. Most importantly, it had the exceptional ability to face off against a large number of enemies at a time.

If the thread of the Dragon Spider was capable of trapping one person, it would naturally be able to bind multiple people at once as well. In addition to that, the Dragon Spider had a lot of servants. Among its fellow servants, quite a few of them were Eight-headed Dragon Spiders. They were the kinds that would explode if they committed suicide. The attacks unleashed with their lives as the price were formidable. Because of the Dragon Spider's increase in strength, among these servants, the most powerful ones were almost at the same level as the Ice Burst Demonic Bear. Of course, this was only taking into account of the Ice Burst Demonic Bear before its strength increased.

A lot of the Dragon Spider's servants were also able to shoot out threads. These sticky threads were like semi-liquid. They were like glues and were useless even if they were cut off. These things were very sticky and had the function of reducing one's speed and reactions. It also had a bit of component which could paralyze its opponents. When it was used in large numbers, it would turn out to be fearsome.

Thus, Qing Shui often had the feeling that having the Dragon Spider alone was like having a few more thousands of demonic beasts at once.

Today morning, Qing Shui just finished helping Ji Yilie with his treatment. By now, Ji Yilie had already fully recovered. Qing Shui had also begun nursing his body. His meridians and Dantian were fully healed.

To Ji Yilie, this was like a miracle. To think that such a formidable physician would exist in the Azure Rainbow City, and he was still so young!

After another half a month passed, Qing Shui had become more familiar with a few people from the Ji Clan. They were basically already living in here. They saw each other every day. Whenever Qing Shui was free, he would drink some teas and chit-chat with them. They could be considered acquaintances with each other. However, because of the conditions that were said from the start, it wouldn't be that easy for them to become close friends.

As soon as Qing Shui retrieved his needles, an uproar came through from the outside. It seemed like a lot of people had started coming to the Imperial Cuisine Hall.

Qing Shui knitted his brows and walked out. The things which went into his sights were the people of the Imperial Cuisine Hall getting captured. In addition to that, there was also a middle-aged man screaming angrily, "Hand over that Qing Shui!"

"I am Qing Shui! Let them go." Qing Shui looked at the screaming man and responded with a calm tone.

Qing Shui observed the people who came in. There were about twenty of them, and each of them had a decent strength. From here, he could only confirm these people's backgrounds. The Zhan Clan, they should be from the Zhan Clan of the Northern Blue Domain.

"So you are Qing Shui. You are the one who beat up Zhan Cheng?" The man glared at Qing Shui.

"I haven't heard of any Zhan Cheng so far. But I do know that I have beaten up a garbage with Zhan as a surname. What's wrong? Are you here to find justice for him?" Qing Shui slightly raised his brows.

"You are precisely the reason why I am here. You ignorant brat! You must have lived long enough to dare hurt the people of the Zhan Clan!" The eyes which the middle-aged man used when he was looking at Qing Shui was like he was already staring at a dead person.

“It seems that I may have overestimated the Zhan Clan all along. To think that you will fight for garbage like him! People of the Zhan Clan, aren’t you thinking a bit too highly of yourself!?” Qing Shui glared back at the middle-aged man with a disdainful look.

“Miraculous Physician Qing. If I am not mistaken, they must have come out of their own accords. For the Zhan Clan to be able to become one of the five great existences in the Northern Blue Domain, there must have been a few good things about them.” At this moment, Ji Yixun came to the area.

“Uncle Ji.....” The middle-aged man froze in shock as soon as he saw Ji Yixun.

“My Ji Clan owes a great debt to Miraculous Physician Qing. Just go back and stop staining the names of the Zhan Clan. If Old Man Zhan learned about what you guys have been doing, I wonder if he will slaughter all of you himself.” Ji Yixun shook his head.

“Uncle Ji, we will leave immediately and never come back again. Uncle Ji, let’s enjoy some teas together next time.” The middle-aged man put down everyone and left quickly.

Initially, Qing Shui was ready to make his move and was about to engage in a huge fight with the Zhan Clan. However, he never expected that things would be solved so easily. Thus, deep down, he still felt very happy. After all, this was a crucial moment for him. It would be best if he didn’t make enemies everywhere. By the time he developed his name, no one would dare to make enemies with him.

The Ji Clan didn’t say anything.

Very quickly, yet another few days passed. Ji Yilie had fully recovered. Ji Yixun and the others bid their farewells to Qing Shui, “Mister Qing, send us a letter whenever you need us. We will try our best to help.”

After seeing Ji Yilie’s sincere and honest eyes, Qing Shui nodded and sent them off.

Lives would still have to go on. This world wouldn’t be less exciting just because a person or two passed away. Thus, Qing Shui must live his life with happiness.

The following six months passed peacefully. Qing Shui didn’t leave the Imperial Cuisine Hall. Throughout this past six months, he had cured two existences that could qualify to be on his lists. There were two more debts of gratitude added to the Beast Parchment. People owed it to him. This was a kind of wealth which didn’t take any form.

Two debts of gratitude was a small amount. Indeed, with Qing Shui’s current medical skills, it wasn’t a big deal. For the time being, Qing Shui had yet to establish his reputation across the Nine Continents World. A few ordinary existences had asked to be included on Qing Shui’s lists only to be rejected by him. They weren’t qualified enough.

It was the New Year. Yu Xixuan returned home to celebrate it with her family. She tried inviting Qing Shui to come along but Qing Shui refused. At the moment, he had viewed the Imperial Cuisine Hall as his own home.

Both Big Tiger and his mother were present. At the moment, Big Tiger was already a well-known physician. Qing Shui taught him the Meridians Knocking Soul Pulling. As long as he could diagnose what illnesses the patients had, he would be able to prescribe effective medicines for them. Basically, it was not a problem for him to cure the majority of illnesses that weren't serious.

At the moment, he had already begun studying Qing Shui's Acupuncture Technique. Because there were some limitations, he could only learn the surface of Qing Shui's Acupuncture Technique, even if Qing Shui was the one teaching him. However, what he managed to master was already enough for him to be a physician in the Imperial Cuisine Hall. Furthermore, he would also be quite a decent physician.

Qing Shui had decided that he would stay for a long time here. Thus, Big Tiger would have the opportunity to learn many kinds of stuff. He was very thankful to Qing Shui. Deep down, he wanted to ask to be Qing Shui's apprentice, but he knew that he was not qualified enough to do so and thus, he became uncertain of himself. As long as Qing Shui didn't suggest, he wouldn't dare to mention it.

However, before the New Year, Big Tiger had finally confessed what he wanted, "I am looking for a master. Actually, deep down, I have already viewed you as my own master, but I fear that I will embarrass you and thus, I didn't dare to ask you if I can be your apprentice. I fear that I will bring disgrace to your name in the future..."

Big Tiger was kneeling down in front of Qing Shui. Initially, he couldn't gather up his courage to do so. It was Yu Xixuan who taught him everything and told him that she would help him convince Qing Shui about it.

"Qing Shui, accept Big Tiger as your disciple. Look at him, he is so hardworking and serious about the things that he does. By now, he can also be considered to be a well-known physician. It's not that easy for you to find a disciple here. Furthermore, even if you find one, you will still have to start all over again and nurture him from the basics." Yu Xixuan gave Qing Shui some advice.

Qing Shui finally accepted the Big Tiger and thus, that made him Qing Shui's third disciple.

The New Year was approaching. Yu Xixuan had returned home. Qing Shui could feel that the atmosphere of New Year was getting heavier and heavier. Deep down, he was starting to miss home. He missed his father, mother, his women, and his children...

Chapter 2054 - The Eldest Mistress Had Come to Celebrate New Year Together

The atmosphere of the New Year was becoming heavier and heavier. This place was just like many other places. When a year ended, they would also prepare themselves to celebrate the New Year. They would do so by hanging lanterns, lighting up firecrackers and fireworks. Those who could go home would do so as soon as possible so that they could celebrate the New Year together with their families.

Qing Shui had lost count of the times he celebrated the New Year alone while away from his home. Ever since he became an adult, he rarely celebrated the New Year at home.

While walking outside the street, Qing Shui observed the friendly and noisy scenes around him. A lot of adults were having fun with their children. When they saw any tiny objects or food, they would buy it for their children. From time to time, loud and clear noises of children's laughter could be heard.

A lot of young men and women could be seen holding hands while strolling around the street. They enjoyed their times together. Shy smiles could be seen hanging on their faces. The scenes of young men and women together made a lot of people feel reminiscent of themselves in the past. They would smile happily.

This reminded Qing Shui of Shi Qingzhuang. He also started thinking about his own past. There were some things which he could only think about. The shy feeling which he used to have before was gone, but now, he got himself an intimate wife, and it gave him a sense of warmth in his heart.

Suddenly, Qing Shui saw a woman walking towards him from far away. It was Shen Huang. She actually came at a time like this. She should be here to look for him.

Like usual, she was still stunningly beautiful to the point one could only look at her from below. This elegant woman had caught the attention of many people. Merely having the opportunity to look at her was already a fortunate thing to them. It was similar to the feeling when he traveled to certain beautiful sceneries in his previous incarnation. The feeling was hard to describe in words.

She was dressed in a snow-white dress with a phoenix pattern sewed on it. Her clear and exquisite pupils, as well as her aura which felt untainted by even a speck of dust, everytime Qing Shui looked at her, he would start to lose control over himself and become distracted. Yet, at the same time, he also wouldn't come up with any dirty thoughts. While in front of her, he would feel very shameful and insecure about himself. As a matter of fact, very few men would actually feel stimulated while they were in front of her.

It was not the case of her being not beautiful enough. On the contrary, she was too beautiful, beautiful to the point that many people would feel pressured looking at her. Men would turn into clowns while standing in front of her. It felt as though no matter how they tried to hide it, they would still feel a sense of inferiority to her.

Qing Shui could already be considered as an experienced man. He dared to admit that he possessed quite a decent mindset. But whenever he was in front of her, he still couldn't help but feel inferior to her and as a result, this caused him to be unable to come up with the thought to conquer her. He kept having the feeling that he wasn't good enough for her. Just by the fact that he had already gotten multiple wives, he already felt that he wasn't good enough for her. What else could he expect from her if he was unable to even dedicate to her with his complete love?

"Eldest mistress, Happy New Year!"

It was the last day before the New Year. Qing Shui never thought that he would meet Shen Huang.

"I am here to celebrate the New Year with you. Do you welcome me here?" Shen Huang smiled and looked at Qing Shui. She walked over to him. They were very close to each other. To the point, Qing Shui could smell a bit of her perfume,

"I do! Of course, I do! I was just about to complain that I feel a bit lonely celebrating the New Year alone." Qing Shui chuckled.

Qing Shui unintentionally made Shen Huang blushed with his words. He froze temporarily knowing that there was a bit of ambiguity in his words. However, he never thought that the goddess-like woman would start to think so much, thus, he quickly said, "You are thinking too much. I don't mean it that way."

“What way?”

“Well, I don’t mean that I want to do anything to you. I just want to celebrate the New Year with you.” Qing Shui chuckled.

“You naughty boy, In your dreams! Of course, we are just going to celebrate the New Year together. Do not start having wild thoughts about me.” Shen Huang shot a glare at Qing Shui. She seemed to be very relaxed.

“Actually, you wouldn’t know it even if I harbor any dirty thoughts about you.” When Qing Shui was saying this, he noticed Shen Huang’s upright breasts. They were both shaped really well, causing Qing Shui to start imagining things on her snow white and perfectly round balls. They were so perfectly upright that they were like two bamboo shoots, bulged up and pointy. While thinking about all that, he started imagining the sensations if he were touched them.

“I can sense whoever that harbors evil or dirty thoughts on me within an area of ten feet. I never expected you to be so vulgar.” At this moment, Shen Huang blushed. She shot a glare at Qing Shui.

Qing Shui was stunned. He gave Shen Huang a silly look. At the moment, he felt as if he was fully naked standing in front of her.

“I can also be very vulgar...”

It seemed that she knew what he was thinking. Any dirty or evil thoughts within an area of ten feet... The intentions which he harbored before could definitely be considered as a threat. Her ability was too fearsome. In battles, given that her opponents were close enough, she would be able to figure out how they planned to deal with her. This could be viewed as a sort of mind-reading ability.

“Well... By nature, we desire food and sex. Eldest mistress, I wouldn’t have been put in such an embarrassing situation if you had told me earlier.” At the moment, Qing Shui was feeling quite embarrassed. This was no different from taking a peek at her during bathing and being caught red-handed.

In response to that, Shen Huang chuckled, “You have always followed your rules strictly. In the past, you refused to touch me even when I was poisoned by those kinds of aphrodisiac. It made me think that you might really have no feelings for me. I was even depressed for a long time because of that.”

Qing Shui gave Shen Huang a blank look before muttering a few words, “Well... A goddess is still a woman...”

“I am very happy. Accompany me to stroll around the street.” Sheng Huang smiled and looked at Qing Shui.

By now, Qing Shui was no longer able to see through her. He didn’t have the slightest idea on what this woman was thinking. He knew that the filthy thoughts, which he had before, had helped them get even closer with each other. What kind of a situation was this? Could it be that this woman really liked naughty men?

Qing Shui felt that the biggest reason behind her interest towards him was because of his refusal to touch her even when he had the best opportunity to do it. At that time, he had already made his way deep into her heart. She knew that he was a righteous man.

“I have told you before that I truly regretted it. If I was given another chance, I would definitely go for the easiest method.” Qing Shui said in a regretful tone.

“Do not ever say that again.”

Shen Huang and Qing Shui were walking shoulder to shoulder by the street. They were just like a pair of young couples except that this couple attracted a lot of the people’s eyes. Shen Huang looked way too beautiful and Qing Shui could also be considered as a handsome and elegant man. When they walked together, they became the target that was admired by many. However, unlike other guys and girls, they weren’t holding hands.

At this moment, Qing Shui had a bit of desire to hold her hand. For now, he didn’t have the intention to own her. It was just a simple feeling of comfort which he was looking for. His thought, for the time being, was still quite pure.

When Qing Shui felt a sense of warmth appearing on his palm, he gently grabbed on the pale hand. He had forgotten that the woman could sense what he was thinking. Even though what he was thinking might not be such a huge threat, but merely his thought of holding her hand was already a signal of a potential danger later on.

Thus, she was able to sense Qing Shui’s thought. Maybe because she knew that Qing Shui didn’t harbor any dirty intentions in his mind and he really only wanted something to comfort his lonely heart, the woman immediately extended her hand so that he could grab it.

It was so soft to the point it felt like it was boneless. It was warm and smooth like jade. Qing Shui was able to feel a lot of comfort from the faint warmth which he felt. He happily held her hand and continued walking, “Thank you!”

“Thank me for what?” Shen Huang slightly raised the corner of her mouth. She raised it just at the right angle and as a result, it made her look very attractive. Even she herself didn’t know how fatal that smile of hers was.

“What do you want me to thank you for?” Qing Shui smiled and asked.

“You don’t sound sincere at all!” Shen Huang and Qing Shui were both walking very slowly on the side of the road.

The sky was getting cold. However, it wasn’t really a problem as the people here had great constitutions. Even an ordinary person wouldn’t have to wear thick clothes in a world of ice and snow. After all, they were different when compared to the people in his previous incarnation. The majority of people whom he knew from his previous incarnations suffered from sub-health conditions.

“I can assure you that I am asking you very sincerely.”

“I don’t believe you!”

At this moment, snowflakes could be seen floating through the sky. The New year would soon arrive. It was welcomed with snowflakes in the sky. Such a world, a world with snowflakes floating in it, was very, very beautiful.

“Saw that? I told you I was being very sincere. You are doing injustice by thinking of me that way. Even God is unable to sit still and watch. See, it has started snowing.” Qing Shui smiled and said.

“How does this have to do with snows?”

“There is a story back from where I came from. Let me tell you about it. After that, you will understand how they relate to each other.”

As Qing Shui was speaking, he started telling the story about .

Chapter 2055 - Do You Feel Anything While I Am Grabbing Your Hand?

“Cut the nonsense about me doing injustice. It’s winter now, not June!” Shen Huang shot a glare at Qing Shui.

“How many men managed to hold your hand before me?” Qing Shui changed the topic.

“Are you looking for a beating? I am not someone so random. It’s because I took pity of you and by taking into consideration that you are the person who saved my life, I decided to repay you this way.” Shen Huang said with a calm tone.

Naturally, Qing Shui was able to figure out that he was the first man to ever walk so close to her. He was just trying to tease her.

“Big brother, would you like to buy your wife a stalk of flower? She looks so beautiful.”

Qing Shui moved his sight onto the girl who was carrying a basket of flowers. It wasn’t his first time seeing girls like her. In fact, there were quite a lot of them across the streets. There were a lot of people living in this world. Naturally, there would be a lot of poor people, young men, and women. Under this kind of circumstances, people, no matter good or bad, generous or stingy, would buy these flowers.

“Does my wife really look beautiful?” Qing Shui squatted down and said with a smile. The little girl was only about six to seven. She might not look that pretty, but she was very cute. She had a pinkish skin and her hair was tied in a pigtail which made her look indescribably cute. In Qing Shui’s eyes, she was very good-looking and pretty like an angel.

“Yes, she is very beautiful. She may be the most beautiful woman I have ever seen. Big brother, you are very lucky to have her.” The little girl said happily.

Qing Shui rubbed her head and immediately bought the entire basket of flower from her. This cash might mean nothing to Qing Shui, but to the little girl, it was enough for her to head home and spent her New Year with her family. If it wasn’t because she needed money, she wouldn’t have come out to sell flowers at a time like this.

“Why didn’t you give her more money? I can tell that you have only given her a bit more than what the flowers originally costed. You don’t seem to be short in money!” Shen Huang smiled and said.

“She is just an ordinary girl. I don’t wish to change her lifestyle. Besides, giving her too much will only do harm to her. There are just as many good guys as there are bad guys. She will be robbed. If she is lucky, that’s the only thing that will happen. In the worst case scenario, she may even lose her life thanks to it.” Qing Shui shook his head and turned around to give her the flower, “This is for you.”

“Why shall I accept your flower?” Shen Huang didn’t take it. But deep down, she felt very happy. This man was very generous and smart. She liked seeing the previous look of the man when he was talking to the little girl. There was a kind of kindness which words couldn’t describe. It felt as if he was treating her like his own daughter.

“You have seen that yourself. The little girl told me to give it to you.”

“It is such a colorful flower, yet it won’t take long until it wilts.” Shen Huang took over Qing Shui’s bright and colorful flowers and started observing them.

“But at least it was once bright and colorful. Nothing lasts forever in this world.’

“It’s the New Year, let’s stop talking about this. We must make sure to celebrate our New Year happily.” Shen Huang smiled and said.

“Sure, I am also quite lonely here. I feel very warm seeing you here with me. In any case, we are still friends, in this sea of people, it is very difficult for fate to bring us together. It takes a lot of effort to have a brief encounter between two people. Answer me, how much effort did I have to spend to have this moment with you?” Qing Shui smiled and held her hand very tightly.

“You talkative brat.” When Shen Huang was speaking, a gentle and warm smile could be seen on her face.

Since it was the New Year, it was natural for the street to be lively. There were a lot of noisy scenes across the street. For example, some people would perform acrobatics, some would do story-telling whereas some would sing or sell some snacks which they made themselves. While walking among the crowds, the relaxed atmosphere around the place gave Qing Shui a temporary sense of peace in his heart.

“Be a bit happier and treat me as your best friend. Even though I may harbor some dirty thoughts on you, those are just thoughts. It’s not like you will lose anything from that. Rest assured, I won’t do anything to you. It doesn’t matter if they are good or bad things, you can share all of them with me. Regardless of whether you live your life happily or in sorrow, you only get to live once, why not make it worthwhile by staying happy?”

“I understand what you mean. But what shall I do in order to be happy? Can you tell me why you are so happy?” Shen Huang asked in a serious tone.

“That’s the simplest question. It’s because I am holding your hand now that I am happy.” Qing Shui lifted up her hand that he was holding.

“Why would you feel happy just by holding my hand?” Shen Huang was a bit confused and asked.

“It is natural for human beings to take fancy for beauties. Eldest mistress, you are born with an elegant and attractive look. How can I not be happy after holding your hand?” Qing Shui smiled and asked.

“But why don’t I have that kind of feelings while I am holding your hand?” Just like before, Shen Huang was still asking her questions very seriously.

At the moment, Qing Shui felt a bit hurt. He rubbed his nose with his other hand and proceeded to say, “Do you hate men?”

“I don’t know. There are a lot of men whom I hate. However, there are some who I hate a bit less, for example, you.”

Qing Shui was really speechless. What did she mean by a bit less? What she meant by her words just now was that she still hated him, but her hatred for him was lesser compared to other men.

“Do you feel anything when I am grabbing your hand?” Qing Shui looked at Shen Huang and mumbled a few words.

“I don’t know!” Shen Huang responded in a straightforward way.

“Well then, do you like women instead?”

“Go away!” Shen Huang shot Qing Shui a glare.

Qing Shui chuckled as he continued holding her hand and walked along the street, “You are quite normal. The only problem is that you seem a bit cold generally. However, I still was able to sense something. Back when I was holding your hand, deep down, you were also feeling nervous.

“Why do you ask if you already know about it?” Shen Huang blushed. But she seemed to be really happy after hearing what he said.

“Let’s buy some stuff so that we can use it tonight when we are celebrating the New Year!” Qing Shui said while looking at the sides of the road.

“What do you want to buy?”

“A few firecrackers and fireworks. Also, we will buy some food to eat.

Following on, Qing Shui and Shen Huang bought quite a few stuff nearby. They only went back in the afternoon right before dawn approached. At the moment, he was the only person looking after the Imperial Cuisine Hall whereas the others got to celebrate their New Year with their families. In a while, the only patient would also leave. With that, the Imperial Cuisine Hall was finally able to close the day. However, if a person was to be infected with an emergency illness or anything, that person could still knock on the door of the Imperial Cuisine Hall.

Big Tiger and his mother were in the Imperial Cuisine Hall along with some servants that were hired to work in it. There were also a few more servants in the restaurant. By now, the entire manor was already decorated prosperously.

Without realizing it, the sky had turned dark. People had already started lighting up some fireworks. The bright fireworks soared up into the sky and at the instant it burst, the sky became really bright and colorful.

“Eldest mistress, let’s prepare the New Year Eve’s dinner together,” Qing Shui smiled and held her hand in a natural way.

“It seems you have really gotten used to holding my hand.” Shen Huang said in a grumpy tone.

“Today is the last day before New Year, let me hold your hand and welcome the coming of the New Year with you.” Qing Shui smiled and said.

Qing Shui had always been living in this manor.

Qing Shui bought some vegetables and meat. He had his own seafood and wine. Qing Shui prepared his meal very slowly this time. His main purpose wasn’t to eat them, but to enjoy the fun of cooking. Furthermore, Qing Shui also felt that he must make this woman, who was unable to cook, to get her hands on it.

“Qing Shui, I don’t know how to do it.”

“Let me teach you!”

“Alright!”

Qing Shui taught her how to pick up the edible parts of the vegetables and the proper ways to cut them. He also told her about the shapes she should cut them into and how big they should be. After that, they began to cook.

Qing Shui left most of the work to the woman while he helped out from the side. Though that was his intention, it was no different from Qing Shui doing the majority of the work before he handed it over to her.

In any case, he had his ingredients with him. Actually, the woman also had the same ingredients. Qing Shui had at one point given them to her. However, the dishes that were prepared this time were slightly more complex, thus, Qing Shui had to teach her step by step on how to cook them. Eventually, Shen Huang also managed to learn it.

She looked very beautiful when she was preparing the dishes. It was a kind of beauty which couldn’t be described in words. Even when she was standing in the kitchen preparing some dishes, it still didn’t affect her otherworldly look. It was a very strange feeling. If she was a famous chef now, could she possibly make herself look so otherworldly? She looked very beautiful, but at the same time, she didn’t look too harmonious with what she was doing. It was precisely because she was still able to look so beautiful despite the lack of harmonious feeling which shocked Qing Shui.

Chapter 2056 - Black Ice Poison, Black Ice Divine Worm, Blaze Moth

The dinner this time was very sumptuous. There were about nine dishes. Four of them were vegetarians whereas the other five consisted of meats. There were also two sets of soups, the fishball soup and tortoise soup.

“Don’t you think that we may have prepared a bit more than what we can eat? Do you think that we can finish them all by ourselves?” Shen Huang was staring at the dishes on the table while asking the question.

To her, this was the only genuine time when she actually cooked. She felt great. Maybe because Qing Shui was there with her and they both cooked together, she felt that the dishes that she prepared just now were the best. From Shen Huang's perspective, this was the most delicious food which she had ever prepared. They tasted great.

"We can finish it. A year is about to come to an end. We must make sure that we fill our stomach so that we can be prosperous and receive the things that we want in the new year.

As Qing Shui was speaking, he took out a Plum Blossom Wine. This was one of the best wine which Qing Shui had stored so far. At the instant he opened its seal, a kind of fragrance already started spreading across the entire room. One could be intoxicated by this fragrance. A person who had yet to smell it would never expect for a wine to smell so good. This was one kind of a fragrance

"It's a great wine!" Shen Huang's eyes turned bright.

Qing Shui took out two jade cups that had the same size as teacups. He then poured the wine into each of the cups.

"Actually, there is a lot of happiness which one can seek while they are alive. For example, a person can enjoy teas and wines with their friends while reminiscing about their pasts and compare it to now. They could also share about the futures that they sought. Isn't this already considered a kind of happiness?" Qing Shui put down the altar of wine.

"That's true. I am feeling very happy at the moment. In fact, I rarely feel this way, but I enjoy it when I do. For this kind of feeling, cheers." Shen Huang held up her wine cup.

Qing Shui toasted with her before he finished the cup of wine in one go.

Shen Huang, on the other hand, drank very slowly. In the end, she still managed to finish it. Both of her eyes immediately turned bright, "This is indeed a good quality wine. I have never gotten to drink something this delicious."

"I have given you a few in the past. It's just that they weren't as old as this one." Qing Shui smiled and said.

"Oh! So you mean to tell me that you are reluctant to give me the good ones!" Shen Huang smiled and said.

Qing Shui shook his head. Actually, the ones which he gave her back then were the best ones yet. It was because Qing Shui had the Realm of the Violet Jade Immortal. Furthermore, the altar which he took out had been raised in quality by 40% thanks to the Treasure Basin. Thus naturally, it would be better than the wines which he gave her in the past.

"The wine helps to clear one's mind and relaxes their spirit. It also has the function of helping a person cleanse his tendons and meridians. Furthermore, it also was capable of strengthening one's base and helping them strengthen their perception. This in turns raises their realm and increases their ability to comprehend new things. This wine is unbelievable! Were you the one who brewed this?" Shen Huang left her mouth opened slightly. Her look when she was amazed was quite attractive.

Qing Shui only found out after drinking the wine; the quality of the wine had become a lot better after it got boosted by the Treasure Basin. He revealed a bitter smile, "To be honest with you, actually, I also just realized it right now. The reason why the wine has this kind of effect is that it has been boosted by the Treasure Basin after it collected enough qi. You should also know how the original one was. The effect wasn't as strong."

"The Treasure Basin? I can already tell that it is something great just by its name. However, this wine itself is the best. Putting other things aside, even after the effects of the other wines were boosted by the Treasure Basin, it didn't necessarily mean that they would share the same effect as the wine which they were drinking.

"I have got quite a few of them stored here. Let me give some to you later." Qing Shui smiled and said.

Very quickly, they managed to finish an altar of wine. Qing Shui proceeded to take out another one only to be stopped by Shen Huang from opening it, "We must control ourselves even if we are enjoying the good stuff."

Qing Shui stopped opening it. The two were also almost done eating, "Would you like to go and enjoy the fireworks in the sky with me?"

"Sure!" Shen Huang said in joy.

Qing Shui used to be the only owner of the courtyard. But now, they were both living here. The two were enjoying the fireworks in the sky at the moment. The fireworks could be seen filling up the entire sky, and in addition to that, the noises of firecrackers exploding could also be heard from time to time.

Qing Shui took out the fireworks and firecrackers which they bought themselves. First, he placed the firecrackers on a spot far away from them. It was very long. After lighting up the firecrackers, he immediately ran back here.

He then took out the fireworks and arranged a few of them in the shape of a plum blossom. After that, he lit all of them at the same time. Each of the fireworks shot out rays of bright light as it soared into the sky. The moment they burst, they formed gorgeous light shaped like flowers. The lights scattered all over the area.

"Does it look good?" Qing Shui looked at Shen Huang and asked with a smile.

"Yes, it does. But it lasts for only a short period of time. Beautiful women tend to have fragile lives. No matter how beautiful a firework is, it will still be moments until it gets cold." Shen Huang smile, but she seemed very lonely.

Qing Shui grabbed her hand, "What's wrong?"

"I am fine, I really am." Shen Huang said softly.

"Why is your body so cold?" Qing Shui could feel Shen Huang's body slowly getting cold. It was freezing. From here, he could already sense that something was not right.

Shen Huang gently put her arms around Qing Shui's neck, "Please hug me. I don't have much longer left until I leave this world. I will be like the firework in the sky which disappears not long after it is released."

Qing Shui was dumbfounded. How did he not manage to sense the condition of her body up until now? He was hugging her tightly in his arms. By now, Shen Huang's body was already freezing. It was just like ice. Qing Shui then right away figured something out and quickly revolved his Nine Yang Force. As he did so, Shen Huang's body was instantly warmed up.

"It's useless. Let go of me. Nothing can stop me from turning into an ice statue." Shen Huang said softly.

"Then I will just keep on embracing you." Qing Shui said slowly while examining her body at the same time.

"How were you inflicted with the Black Ice Poison?" Qing Shui asked in shock.

"I got it when I was trying to tame a Black Ice Divine Worm. While I was looking for it, I noticed a Black Ice Divine Worm which has yet to reach its adulthood, but I never expected that it would be a mutated species. Even though I managed to escape from it. In the end, I still got inflicted by its poison." Shen Huang explained gently. She didn't seem depressed with what happened.

She felt that she was at her limit and thus, she wanted to spend her final moments celebrating the New Year with Qing Shui. However, before the New Year approached, she had come to the realization that she might not be able to hang on any longer.

Even though Qing Shui might be a miraculous physician, the Black Ice Poison was an unusual poison. Nothing except for the core of a Blaze Moth could cure it. The Blaze Moth might not sound intimidating, but it was the name of a species of worms which lived in the Blazing Fire Domain. It was a place that burned all year long and all of the things which existed there had fire attributes. That place was dangerous, and going there with their current strength was suicide. Furthermore, the Blaze Moth also possessed the bloodline of the Fire Phoenix, and just like the Black Ice Divine Worm, they were quite rare. It was another reason why Shen Huang didn't have much hope of getting the Blaze Moth.

"Why didn't you tell me about it earlier?" Qing Shui knitted his brows. The body that was in his arms at the moment was delicate and exquisite, but yet at this moment, Qing Shui was totally not in the mood to feel it.

"I want to spend a happy New Year with you. At least by the time I am gone, I can still recall back to the joyful times we spent together.

"I am a miraculous physician. With me here, I can assure you that I will cure you of your illness so that you can stay alive." Qing Shui said in a firm tone.

"I am aware that you are a miraculous physician. But I also know that other than the core of the Blaze Moth, there was no other thing which could nullify the Black Ice Poison. Both the Blaze Moths and Black Ice Divine Worm were very rare beings. Even if you were to head to the Blazing Fire Domain, there is no guarantee that you will run into a Blaze Moth." Shen Huang shook her head.

As Shen Huang felt that her body was no longer as cold as before, she gently pushed away Qing Shui, "This has been a happy New Year to me."

"We will head off to the Blazing Fire Domain immediately after New Year." Qing Shui said after thinking for a while.

“Qing Shui, listen to me. That place is full of dangers, and the chance of you finding the Blaze Moth there is vivid. I am already supposed to be at the end of my life. But I never thought that you would have the Nine Yang Body, and thus, I can live for an extra fifteen days while I am beside you. However, your body is only able to warm me up from the outside. There is nothing that can cure it anymore. When the time comes, my heart is the first thing that will turn into ice.” Shen Huang said in a firm voice.

“Be a good girl and listen to me just this once.”

Shen Huang shook her head.

Pa!

Qing Shui landed his palm on the well-rounded buttocks of hers. Shen Huang blushed immediately as soon as she felt the numb sensation from her butt. Meanwhile, Qing Shui felt that his hand had become soft. Even though she was wearing the Luan Phoenix Dress, it didn't affect the sensation when he interacted with her butt.

“You... You are crossing the line.” Shen Huang lowered down her head slightly.

“Sorry. Can you please listen to me and don't give up until the last moment?” Qing Shui regretted slapping her butt.

Chapter 2057 - The Blazing Fire Domain

“I am sorry. Can you please listen to me and don't give up until the last moment?” Qing Shui regretted hitting her butt just now. He had been too careless.

He also didn't know why he would suddenly do that. After all, their relationship had yet to develop to the point where he could do that. What he did was rude. It might have to do with the time when Shen Huang embraced Qing Shui or let him hold her hand.

“I don't blame you. No one has ever dared to do that to me. Since my life is about to end, this might be the closest interaction that I have ever had with a man.” Shen Huang blushed. She said it very softly.

Qing Shui's heart shook. He had even begun to think that he wanted to make Shen Huang his own woman. However, he knew that he mustn't take advantage of other people's misfortune. Shen Huang might not reject it if Qing Shui was to suggest something that was over the line. However, Qing Shui was unable to get himself to do that. Doing so would just make him unhappy for the rest of his life.

The bell for the New Year has rung. It was like the great ball across heaven and earth. The ring from the bell marked that the previous year had ended and a New Year was about to begin.

“Eldest Mistress, let's make some preparations to head off to the Blazing Fire Domain.” Qing Shui said in a firm tone.

“Qing Shui!” Shen Huang was about to say something but stopped halfway.

“Why are you so good to me? Our relationship isn't worth for you risk your life like this.” Shen Huang looked at Qing Shui.

“Are you suspecting that I might be thirsting for your body to the point I can even throw away my own life?” Qing Shui smiled and asked.

“You aren’t someone like that. I believe in you.” Shen Huang said in a serious tone.

“If I tell you that I am seeking to get your heart and make you fall for me, will you believe me?” Qing Shui smiled and said.

“Then do you love me?”

Qing Shui shook his head, “I don’t!”

“You are a player. You have many wives, and every one of them is beauties that can topple over cities. But for some reason, I just can’t get myself to hate you. Even as a woman, I don’t have any friends, not to mention men. I can’t help but feel that I am a failure?” Shen Huang laughed as she made fun of herself.

Qing Shui felt that Shen Huang was a very lonely person. She had no relatives and friends. He couldn’t imagine how she lived her life. The only thing she had left was her subordinates. There were many things which she could get others to do for her. It was not that she didn’t try to interact with anyone, nor was it that there was no one who wanted to be her friends. The problem was the people, who got close to her, had agendas. Thus, she never viewed them as real friends.

“Who said that you are alone? Don’t you consider me as a friend of yours?”

“Yes. You are my friend. I have already treated you as one since a long time ago. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have come looking for you to celebrate my New Year, and I also wouldn’t have found you at a time like this.” Shen Huang muttered a few words.

“Alright, let’s head off to the Blazing Fire Domain.” Qing Shui told Big Tiger that he would be leaving for a while and requested him to say hi to Yu Xixuan on his account after New Year. He also said that he would be back within a month.

After packing some stuff, Qing Shui gazed at the fireworks in the sky before he grabbed Shen Huang and vanished immediately. The Nine Continents Step!

Qing Shui used the Nine Continents Step a few times in a row. From the map, he could tell that the Blazing Fire Domain was located very far away from the Northern Blue Domain. If he was to rush his way there, it would take quite a long time even with the Nine Continents Step. Shen Huang had less than a few days left to live, thus, Qing Shui immediately marked a location close to the Blazing Fire Domain with his Five Elements Space.

Moving on, Qing Shui brought Shen Huang along and instantly arrived at that place.

They were standing in mid-air and they could already see the Blazing Fire Domain from there.

Shen Huang gave Qing Shui a blank look. She didn’t know how this man managed to pull it off. To think that he was able to arrive at the edge of the Blazing Fire Domain immediately... Despite all of that, she didn’t question him about it. There were too many mysteries in this world, she didn’t find it to be too unacceptable.

The Blazing Fire Domain was a symbolic place. Just like the Northern Blue Domain, the Blazing Fire Domain was also a location. The temperature here was very high, even higher than the deserts in his previous incarnation. However, there were still a huge amount of people who had gotten used to living here. Added on that the people here had great physiques, it was not likely for them to feel unwell.

The environment here was beautiful. A lot of the trees here were like the maple leaves from his previous incarnation except they looked more red and fresh. Their daytime was longer than usual, and the sun was unusually hot. But the good thing was, it rained quite often around this place. There was no way they could stand three days without rain. There would be drizzles every day.

Both Qing Shui and Shen Huang appeared inside the Blazing Fire Domain. Qing Shui didn't know what city in the Blazing Fire Domain he was in, but he could see that the place was drizzling with rain at the moment.

By now, they were still high up in the air. Qing Shui immediately summoned Little Rin. For the time being, Little Rin was the fastest demonic beast in Qing Shui's arsenal. Thus, he rode on Little Rin along with Shen Huang as they made their way to the Blazing Fire Domain.

The closer they got to the Blazing Fire Domain, the higher the air temperature became. This was very obvious.

Shen Huang's expression looked heavy. It was the Blazing Fire Domain they were talking about, which was significantly more dangerous than Northern Blue Domain. Furthermore, this place was already inside the True Nine Continents World. The Blazing Fire Domain, in particular, was the habitat for a lot of strong demonic beasts. The Blaze Moth was just one of them. Though the Blaze Moth was a rare species, it was undeniably a powerful Spiritual Beast.

The Blazing Fire Domain was distanced quite far away from here. Even with Little Rin's speed, it would take about half a day for them to only arrive at the border of the Blazing Fire Domain.

The Blazing Fire Domain might be a dangerous place, but it was a heaven for adventurers. A lot of people would travel there to explore the area. They would either end up on the edge of the border or go deeper into it. Given that it was an adventure, it meant that the people were putting their own life on the line. There were a lot of explorers in this world, and many also managed to earn their fortunes from it. It applied to everyone, which included even the most ordinary people, they would also have the desire to take risks.

Some people might run into lucky encounters and skyrocket their ranks ever since, but even more people died before they even managed to come across that. There was a popular saying 'If one often walks by the riverside, there is bound to be a time when he will get his shoes wet'. Thus, some people died on their first adventure while there were some who might perish only after a year, ten, or a hundred years. Of course, there would also be people who spent their entire life going on adventures yet still managed to survive.

As he got closer to the Blazing Fire Domain, he noticed that the flying beasts across the sky were also gradually increasing. There were a lot of people in groups traveling back and forth the sky on their Flying Beasts. But most of them would choose to turn back as soon as they saw Qing Shui's Little Rin. A lot of people would be shocked just by looking at it.

Qing Shui didn't know if this was a wise idea. Maybe it wouldn't be long until people discovered that a man and a woman had appeared in the sky riding on a fearsome demonic beast.

However, Qing Shui was reluctant to switch to another mount as it would slow down his speed. He feared that doing so might cause Shen Huang to lose her best opportunity to get her illness cured. If that really happened, he would regret it for life.

Qing Shui didn't know why he felt that way about Shen Huang. He was willing to risk everything to save her. Previously, there was a time when he had rescued her before. In that sense, he could be considered the person who gave her a second chance to live. Now, he was reluctant to see her disappear right in front of him. He had a feeling that her life, or even her entire character, might be closely related to himself, and that he would feel depressed if she was to vanish like that.

Men were bound to go through a lot of sufferings in their entire life. It was indescribably painful to part ways with the people whom you loved dearly. One would naturally feel very painful seeing the person whom they were familiar with dying and exited from their life permanently. Qing Shui was a formidable physician. All along, he had often thought that there were no diseases which he couldn't cure. However, the Black Ice Poison was too violent. Until now, Qing Shui could only come up with two methods, the first one was to look for the cores of Blaze Moths and suppressed the poison in her body with the heart of fire. With Qing Shui's medical skills, this method had a 100% success rate.

Another method was to look for the Black Ice Divine Worms and counter poisons with poisons. However, the success rate for this method was only 50%.

Actually, there was still another method which Qing Shui hadn't suggested. It was just that he wouldn't want to use it unless the situation was really urgent and he needed a last resort. Since Qing Shui possessed the Nine Yang Body, he could actually help Shen Huang nullify her poison by making love to her. Furthermore, there was a high chance that this might actually happen. However, this was a method which Qing Shui would only reserve as a last resort.

"Eldest Mistress, you know that I possess the Nine Yang Body, but how much do you actually know about it?"

Chapter 2058 - Fire Manor, Huo Lei, This Is My Husband

"Eldest Mistress, you know that I possess the Nine Yang Body, but how much do you actually know about it?" Qing Shui asked casually.

Shen Huang was stunned. She blushed and shot a glare at Qing Shui, "No, I don't!"

Qing Shui's face turned red. He could tell that she obviously knew what he was thinking just by looking at her expression. Besides, she also had the ability to read people's mind. He had gotten careless yet again. She would immediately know it the moment he started thinking about things like that. He rubbed his nose awkwardly, "Don't worry about it. I will definitely find the Blaze Moth for you."

Shen Huang trembled. Her body had started to feel cold once again. Even though she was at the Blazing Fire Domain and right above the place with high air temperature, it still didn't stop her from feeling cold. Furthermore, this kind of coldness passed through her body very quickly. It was just like an ordinary man who was rolling on the frozen ground naked in a world of ice and snow. Just the thoughts of it were already unbearable.

At the moment, Qing Shui was like a bonfire to her. She would only feel a bit better once she got closer to him. The kind of cold she was experiencing caused the internal part of her body to go through excruciating pain and even numbed her body. The beautiful face of hers had also started to turn pale. She was very cold, but yet a layer of thin, cold sweat could be seen dripping off her face.

She looked at Qing Shui, "I am feeling so cold... Please let me hug you..."

Qing Shui quickly embraced her in his arms and revolved his Nine Yang Golden Body. As he looked at the woman who was in pain, there was some pity in his eyes. Reluctant to see the attractive face which would make him depressed, he lifted his head.

Shen Huang only lifted her head after a while. The Ice Poison had been suppressed for the time being. She slowly moved away from Qing Shui's arms and straightened her back, "Thank you!" said Shen Huang.

Qing Shui shook his head, "Is this a proper way of thanking someone? We must enter the Blazing Fire Domain as soon as possible. I hope that we will be lucky and find the Blaze Moth as soon as possible."

"Don't have your hopes up. It has been many years since a person run into a Blaze Moth."

"Think positive! There is always another way even if we don't manage to find the Blaze Moth." Qing Shui suggested after thinking for a while.

"Don't you dare to even think about that..." said Shen Huang in a grumpy tone.

Actually, Qing Shui didn't really mean it that way. He wasn't trying to tell her that he would use his Nine Yang Physiques against her, it was her who was overthinking it. While looking at her blushing face, he went blank for a moment and forgot to correct himself.

Her beauty was enough to topple over cities. It was magnanimous and extraordinary, but yet it also looked exquisite and fine. Her kind of beauty was solitary. It wasn't Qing Shui's first time seeing her. Even though they hadn't seen each other that many times, each time they met, quite a lot of things would happen between them. Thus, he could sense a familiar feeling from her.

"Are you done looking?" Shen Huang called Qing Shui, seeing as he was looking at her and didn't seem like he would come to his senses anytime soon.

"You look great. There is not a single part of you which doesn't look good." Qing Shui came back to his senses and said with a smile.

"Little by little, you are starting to cross the line." Shen Huang said softly.

"Am I? Do you really want me to be like an idiot and not pay any attention to you like you are nothing? Besides, it's because of my instinct that I am looking at you like that. To be honest with you, I think that I have been doing a great job so far." Qing Shui flaunted himself.

Shen Huang knew that Qing Shui was right. Even though a gangster might not be good, being an idiot was even worse. There were two scenarios which could lead to this circumstance, and the first one was acting. People tend to hate hypocrites like these. The other one was a genuine idiot.

Thus, for someone like Qing Shui who might seem really bad at times, but yet didn't actually do anything evil, she felt that he was at the perfect level. It was only now when she realized that this man was an emotional person and also had a good personality. It was no wonder that so many women would fall for him.

"It would have been great if I could meet you a bit earlier." Shen Huang smiled and suddenly said something which made Qing Shui very confused.

When Qing Shui was about to ask her what she meant, a few huge flying beasts appeared in front of them. They were the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagles. Each of them had a huge dragon's head and a body as small as a fly. When they spread both of their wings, they seemed to have the size of at least a hundred meters. The jet-black dragon's head of theirs was the head of a poisonous dragon.

There were four people standing on the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle that was leading the group. All four of them were men. Behind them were three huge demonic beasts which looked like the Fire Birds. As for what exactly they were, Qing Shui wasn't interested. The gap between them and the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle was too big.

It required a bit of luck for a person to choose a decent demonic beast mount. Some people might not be strong, but the mounts and demonic beasts which they had with them might be a lot stronger than themselves. Thus, Qing Shui briefly probed the people on top of the beasts.

There was one person on each of the Fire Birds. Out of the three people, one of them was a woman. The woman had a tall and sexy figure. She also had a decent look and she was dressed in a fiery-red dress. She had a very hot body but when it came to her look, she was naturally unable to compare to Shen Huang.

Qing Shui intended to avoid the people, but he wasn't sure if they were intentionally standing in his path.

The strength of the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle was almost equal to Little Rin. Both of them also had fire attributes. At the moment, it seemed like both demonic beasts had their eyes fixed on each other. If it wasn't because Qing Shui stopped Little Rin from acting, it was likely that it would have leaped forward by now.

Qing Shui was here for the Blaze Moth. He didn't intend to fight anyone and thus, he tried his best to not look for any troubles. When both parties came to a stop, Qing Shui let Little Rin turned around to take a different path. However, at this moment, the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle stood in his path yet again.

"Friends, What do you mean by this?" Qing Shui looked at the four men opposite him and asked.

By now, Qing Shui could already confirm that these people were looking for troubles. They had all their eyes fixed on Shen Huang. Shen Huang was standing beside Qing Shui. Thus, she lacked her usual aura which gave people the impression that she was not that sociable. Added on the fact that the people opposite of them were also quite strong, it was a given that they wanted to hit on Shen Huang.

This caused Qing Shui to be upset. He instinctively knitted his brows.

“Haha, all four of us are from the Fire Manor. You can call me Huo Lei. I would like to become friends with the two of you. Young lass, how shall I address you? Your beauty is enough to topple over cities. I almost mistook you as a fairy who came down from heaven. I hope that you won’t mind becoming friends with me.” The man thought that he looked handsome and said with a smile.

Qing Shui knew that this man had taken a liking on Shen Huang. As for himself, he had already been totally thrown off at the side. The only time when their eyes met was during the first time they started talking to each other. After that, the person had his eyes fixed only on Shen Huang.

“There are still some things that we need to do. This is my husband.” Shen Huang didn’t even bother to lift her head. She let out her arm and immediately held Qing Shui’s hand.

Huo Lei’s expression looked unsightly. He was an experienced playboy. Thus, he was naturally able to tell that Shen Huang was a virgin. However, when he saw Qing Shui holding her hand, he felt intense jealousy. The Fire Manor was one of the top ranking existences in Blazing Fire Domain. Everyone would give faces to him while they were here. There was no way a woman, whom he, Huo Lei, had taken a liking on, could ever run away from him.

“Young lass, I suppose you guys aren’t from here. What’s the purpose of your visit to the Blazing Fire Domain?” The man looked at Qing Shui and Shen Huang while asking.

“You can save your effort. I don’t think there is a need for you guys to know about this.” Qing Shui opened his mouth and said.

“Hehe, as long as you are in the Blazing Fire Domain, I have enough privileges to know about what you are doing. It is all for the safety of our land.” The man said in a calm tone.

Qing Shui knitted his brows upon hearing what he said. This person was purposely looking for troubles. Furthermore, this person must have quite a high status in the Blazing Fire Domain. If Qing Shui was to face off against him now, it would mean that he was making enemies with a lot of forces across the entire Blazing Fire Domain. What a sinister man this guy was.

There was a high chance that the person wouldn’t have cared about Qing Shui if it wasn’t for Shen Huang. At the moment, he was precisely demanding Qing Shui to do as he told.

“Hey you, you don’t seem to have any sense of shame at all. We are all adults here. I don’t feel that there is any need for further discussions. She is my woman. If you ever dare to hit on her again, I can assure you that I will give you a good beating.” Qing Shui knitted his brows.

“Give me a good beating? Is that really what you just said? Haha, did you guys hear it? He actually said that he wanted to hurt me! As if I, Huo Lei, is someone who will be bullied by the likes of you!” The man laughed. He was laughing very loudly.

Chapter 2059 - The More Beautiful A Woman, The Bigger The Calamity She Would Bring Upon

Qing Shui didn't make any move, but instead, he looked at his opponent quietly. He was no longer as impulsive as he was before. This situation was caused by the femme fatale beside him. It was not him who was looking for trouble, the woman beside him looked too outstanding, which was why she tended to cause troubles wherever she went.

Be it in his previous incarnation or the World of the Nine Continents. It wasn't necessarily a good thing for a woman to be too beautiful. After all, she would be at the center of attention. A lot of people would want to lay their hands on her and bring her into their rooms. A beautiful woman who had no family background nor strength would immediately be in tragedy.

This was what people meant by a femme fatale's calamity. It was not that the woman wanted to bring misfortune to others. It was like a principle that was formed over time.

At the moment, Qing Shui was feeling the particularly strong pressure. It was as if he immediately ran into situations like this as soon as he set foot on the Blazing Fire Domain. Things like this wouldn't have happened if Shen Huang didn't look so beautiful. For someone like Huo Lei, ordinary women wouldn't catch his attention.

The others also stared at Qing Shui with entertaining looks. One of the men who was standing on the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle said, "Brother Lei, it seems that this man may not have heard about you. But the woman beside him is truly gorgeous. Haven't you always been saying that you couldn't find a woman good enough to be your wife? I can tell you that she definitely fulfilled all the requirements to be one!"

"That's enough! I have never seen a woman who looks as beautiful as her. I, Huo Lei, vow that I will definitely make her my wife." Huo Lei looked at Shen Huang. His eyes were filled with fire as he was saying it.

"How do you plan on dealing with this man? He is the husband of the woman." Another man beside him asked.

"Huo Bao, my eyes are telling me that this woman is a virgin. She is just using that man as an excuse. We will confirm his identity later. If he happens to be the woman's brother, we can spare his life. If they don't share any blood relations, kill him immediately." Huo Lei said with a smile on his face.

Qing Shui knitted his brows. The opponents didn't have the intentions to hide what they were discussing from Shen Huang and him. Thus, both of them managed to hear them clearly. It seemed that the incident today wouldn't be settled peacefully just like he thought.

Hou!

Little Rin let out an intimidating roar. After that, it soared up high into the sky under Qing Shui's guidance before charging forward.

As if Huo Lei would let Qing Shui and Shen Huang escape from him. The Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle continued to stand in Qing Shui's way.

Art of Pursuing!

Emperor's Qi!

“Little Rin! Let’s go!” shouted Qing Shui energetically.

Qing Shui rode on Little Rin and immediately charged forward. Meanwhile, he formed a seal with both of his hands. The Buddha Light Seal.

Pa!

Qing Shui landed his palm on Huo Lei’s mouth, “You have a filthy mouth. Consider this a lesson for you. If there is ever a next time, I will make sure you die like a pauper.”

Immediately after he slapped him, Qing Shui grabbed his neck and tossed him away, “I can kill you with no effort at all. Make sure that this is the first and also the last time. Since I dare to say it, I will definitely be able to do it.”

All of this happened swiftly. Meanwhile, the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle had also started facing off against Little Rin. After getting half of its speed and 20% of its overall strength reduced, the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle was inferior to Little Rin. Little Rin’s strength became even more terrifying after attaining the Four Phases Firecloud.

The Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle got blown backward by just a reckless clash against Little Rin.

Qing Shui immediately got onto Little Rin and left. He didn’t kill anyone. The strength of the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle was supposed to be the same, or maybe even superior to Little Rin’s. Unfortunately, thanks to Qing Shui, it became weaker than Little Rin. Its speed was totally unable to be compared to Little Rin’s. Up to an extent, one’s speed could overwhelm the strength of the opponents.

As Huo Lei looked at Qing Shui disappearing far away in the distance, he had an unsightly expression on his face. What a terrifying young man. Before this, he had already known that his opponent’s strength was superior to his and that Qing Shui could have killed him without breaking a sweat. However, he never thought that even the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle would be defeated by his beast. He and his mates had been relying on the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagles simply because they were significantly stronger than all of them combined. Not only was the Blazing Fire Dragon Eagle an outstanding mount, but it was also a terrifying battle beast. It was very fast, had good endurance and specialized in fire attribute attacks and poisons.

“Brother Lei, who is he?” Huo Bao was a bit confused with what happened.

“We will head back for now! I can assure you that this isn’t the end! That brat must die!” Huo Lei spat out a tooth from his mouth. His eyes were flashing with a sinister look.

The grudge of getting slapped in the face wasn’t something which he would let go easily.

“Qing Shui, you were so reckless just now.” Shen Huang said softly.

“Did that garbage seriously just tried to hit on you? Does he check his mirror before leaving his room? I am already being very generous for not killing him.” Qing Shui chuckled.

“We must be careful. I have a feeling that our opponents won’t let things go so easily. The Fire Manor is one of the most powerful existence in the Blazing Fire Land. In this huge world, it is a clan that has been survived since ancient times. Legend has it that they are the servants of the Fire God and they specialize in fire attributed martial techniques.” Shen Huang seemed to know about the Blazing Fire Land quite well.

“A barefooted person wouldn’t fear a person wearing shoes. No one can stop me if I want to leave. If they piss me off, I will make sure that the Fire Manor would never be able to live a peaceful life.” Qing Shui didn’t show much concern towards this matter. He didn’t want to make Shen Huang worried.

Blazing Fire Domain!

It was said that long ago, a burning meteorite crashed down on this land. Since then, it continued burning for so long that it formed the entire Blazing Fire Domain. From time to time, some parts of the Blazing Fire Domain would start burning all of a sudden and the flame lasted for a long time. The Blazing Fire Land got its name from the Blazing Fire Domain. Other than that, it was also thanks to the Blazing Fire Domain that the Blazing Fire Land was so hot.

At this moment, a lot of people could be seen going in and out of the Blazing Fire Domain. This place was an enormous valley entrance. The huge Blazing Fire Mountain separated the entire Blazing Fire Domain from this land. Upon entering the valley entrance, one would be considered to have stepped into the Blazing Fire Domain.

The majority of the Blazing Fire Mountain was bald. It was a dark red mountain with poor vegetations. The same thing could be seen from the Blazing Fire Domain. The temperature around here was very high and Qing Shui felt that plants played a prominent role in the food chains. Without it, the chain would be broken.

Qing Shui did some researches along the way. They were mainly about the Blazing Fire Domain and Blaze Moth. The Blaze Moth was a species of worm. It had another name, the Blaze Demonic Moth. It was huge and possessed fearsome strength. Other than its fire-attributed attacks which could cause fatal damages, its best feature was its enormous wings. When it flapped its wings, they would disperse powder-like poisonous mists. The mist contained a mixture of ordinary poisons, anesthesia, fire-toxin and so on. Most importantly, ordinary Poison Avoidance Pill was ineffective against it. Most of the time, one wouldn’t even know if they had intruded the Holy Land of the Blaze Moth. By the time they were inflicted with its poisons, everything would have been too late.

They made their way deeper into the Blazing Fire Domain. The deeper he explored, the more he started to notice that the plants were becoming more and more abundant. The plants here all had fire attributes. Flame Flower Tree, Fire Tree, Flame Maple, and even the Blazing Flame Grass...

Even the majority of the beasts which they ran into were fire attributed. The Flame Cow, Fire Wolves and also the Fire Wild Chickens...

“Eldest mistress, do you know where the Blaze Moth is likely to show up the most?” Qing Shui looked around and asked.

“There is a chance that it might appear in areas with flowers. The more precious the flowers are, the higher the chance we will be able to find it. Furthermore, there has to be a great number of flowers to attract the Blaze Moths.” Shen Huang responded after thinking for a while.

“Is there any place with flowers in the Blazing Fire Domain? At least a place with more flowers than usual?”

“The flower ocean. If the Blaze Moths really exist, the only place we can bet on will be the flower ocean.” Shen Huang said helplessly.

“The flower ocean. Alright, let’s make our way to the flower ocean immediately. We might be able to find the Blaze Moths in a day or two.”

The Flame Flower Ocean was a very popular place in the Blazing Fire Domain. At the same time, it was also the most dangerous area to explore. It was located at the center of the Blazing Fire Domain. The place was filled with a boundless sea of flowers and its air was abundant with aromas. Despite how it looked, the place was dangerous with its poisonous flowers and demonic worms. Of course, it was also the best place to search for decent stuff at the grade of Sacred Medicines and Sacred Grass.

Chapter 2060 - She Actually Grabbed That Part...

The flower ocean!

Qing Shui and Shen Huang only managed to find the flower ocean after searching for about half a day. This was still under the circumstances when he had the Nine Continents Step in use.

Qing Shui had the Five Elements Divine Flag and the Nine Continents Step. Thanks to them, he managed to accomplish something which could only be done in a month within two days.

He observed the boundless flower ocean that was currently in front of him. There were a lot of flowers and trees among them. Some of them were also very tall. This place was abundant with flowers’ aroma. It was a piece of colorful land and many butterflies, birds, hummingbirds, and even demonic beasts in the form of flowers could be seen in the air.

Qing Shui could see a lot of bees that were at least the size of a small cow. It was not unusual for the bees and butterflies in this world to grow to this size. Qing Shui also saw a lot of moths that were fiery red in color, but those weren’t the Blaze Moth. The most unique feature about the Blaze Moth was its body that was burning with fire. That was the fire from its core. Just like a passive battle technique, it didn’t consume any of its energy.

Other than that, the Blaze Moth was supposed to be huge, at least the size of a small mountain top. Thus, it would be quite easy to recognize it. However, it was impossible for there to be a Blaze Moth in this place. The flowers and trees here couldn’t withstand the flame on the Blaze Moth’s body.

Shen Huang blushed as she once again put her arms around Qing Shui’s neck. Her body had started trembling.

Qing Shui quickly embraced her. As he looked at her pale face which had a bit of redness on it, he warmed her up with his body. He was the only person who could do that. If it had been someone else, she would have frozen into an ice sculpture.

This had happened quite a few times throughout the entire journey. Even though Qing Shui had told her that she could hug him whenever she was feeling cold, she would wait until the moment when she was no longer able to hold it to do so. Slowly, she had gotten used to it and had also familiarized herself with the movements of hugging Qing Shui.

Usually, Qing Shui would have to hug her for about an hour to temporarily clear away the cold poisons across her body.

The two were standing at the border of the ocean of flowers as they quietly embraced each other. From outsider's perspectives, they were like a couple who loved each other and were admired by a lot of people. For the time being, Qing Shui had a soft and tender body in his arms. He was able to feel the exquisite and bulging parts of her body clearly.

In the beginning, since her body was freezing cold, Qing Shui wouldn't think too much about it. However, after a while, Shen Huang's body would start to warm up, and after that, a refreshing feeling would pass into his body which made him comfortable. Towards the end, her body would become so warm to the point it felt like a warm jade. Without realizing it, his body had begun reacting to hers.

"What's that?" Shen Huang felt that there seemed to be something pushing against her tummy. She then extended her hand to touch it.

The moment she extended her hand, Qing Shui took a deep breath. It seemed he might have been touched by her in that part.

"What's that? It seems to know how to jump." The thing which she was grabbing felt very hot. But for the time being, she would very much appreciate a bit of hotness.

This was the Nine Yang Root of the Nine Yang Body. Thus, it would naturally be hot. Particularly to Shen Huang who had been inflicted with the Black Ice Poison, and whose symptoms were breaking out, grabbing this thing could help temporarily clear her poison.

The moment she looked down and saw what she was holding, she became stunned and abruptly let go of it. Her face looked even redder than the sun. For a moment, she didn't know what to do except stand in front of Qing Shui.

"Erm... I don't mean to harass you or anything... It just so happened to be my body's instinct... I also never thought that things would turn out like this. Before I manage to move away from you, you are already holding it..." Qing Shui said awkwardly. At the moment, that thing was still standing proudly. It pushed his cloth up and made it seem like a tent that had been set up.

"You bastard... Stop it....." At the moment, Shen Huang was feeling very embarrassed. If there was a hole beside her, she would have drilled her head and buried herself into it.

"Let's go in there!" Qing Shui could tell that Shen Huang was feeling very confused and automatically knew that it was time for him to change the topic.

"Alright!"

This time, Qing Shui took the lead and entered the place. He went into the boundless ocean of flowers. Maybe because they were at the border, there were a lot of paths connecting to the deeper parts of the area. Thus, they were able to move forward by following the path. Shen Huang was behind Qing Shui. As she looked at the man in front of her, for a moment, she found herself at a loss.

Before this, she had never lost her composure even when being hugged by Qing Shui. But now, for the first time, she was starting to feel a bit at a loss. She felt that her heart, which had often stood still and tall, might have begun falling for him. This kind of feeling couldn't be described in words. Basically, she wasn't able to calm her mind like she used to. In the past, it was easy for her to clear up her mind. Furthermore, there also wouldn't be a lot of fluctuations in her heart, making it very easy for her to control her emotions.

But now, she would start paying attention to this man from time to time. Occasionally, she would think about the things which she had experienced with him. She knew that this wasn't a good situation as it could hinder her cultivations.

However, there were some situations which couldn't be controlled. Otherwise, her heart wouldn't have trembled from it.

Qing Shui could sense when Shen Huang was looking at him from behind. Furthermore, she had her eyes fixed on him for quite some time. He then turned around a bit confused, and it just so happened that their eyes met at the same time. Shen Huang got so nervous that she immediately looked the other way and blushed.

This caused Qing Shui's heart to tremble. In the past, this woman wouldn't act like this. There was no way she would reveal an expression like that nor tried to avoid contact with his eyes.

"Eldest Mistress, let me tell you about a joke." Qing Shui grabbed her hand and continued moving forward.

"Sure!" Shen Huang nodded.

"There was once a man who liked a woman a lot, but he never dared to tell her about it. Soon, the woman got married and had her own children. One day, the man came across the woman again and at that time, she happened to be breastfeeding her babies. The man then walked up to her and pressed her breasts with both of his hands. He then said to the baby, 'Say "uncle". If you don't, you won't get to drink the milk.'"

"Is it not funny? Alright then, let me tell you another one. This will definitely make you laugh." Qing Shui noticed that Shen Huang didn't smile, but she also didn't seem to feel unhappy about it. Thus, he continued on saying.

"Do not say anything that's too vulgar." Shen Huang said quickly.

Qing Shui started frowning and looked worried, "If even this is considered vulgar to you, you are just going to end up making things difficult for me. Let's see... Ah! I got it! This will definitely make you laugh!"

"There was a snail and a turtle who once lived together in the same house. One day, the snail accidentally cut open a wound on itself and started bleeding heavily. Thus, it quickly went to the turtle and then it told the turtle to look for a physician as soon as possible. The turtle left, but it didn't return even after half a day had passed. Thus, the snail was no longer able to hold any longer and yelled, 'For fuck sake, if you don't come back now! I am going to bleed to death!' Soon, the voice of the turtle came through from outside, 'Damn it, can't you see me running? If you continue to yell at me like that, I will just come back in and stay home.'"

This time, Shen Huang reacted just like the way she did before. But a faint smiling expression could be seen on her face. This man was the first person to say "Fuck" and "Damn it" in front of her. Even though these were only meant to be jokes, she knew very well that he might be the only person who could say it out so naturally in front of her.

"Qing Shui, I am fine. Your joke is very funny." Shen Huang said softly.

"It's good that you are fine. I am scared that you might have taken things too hard or even start robbing me with a knife." Qing Shui let out a sigh and said.

"What kind of nonsense are you saying? Why would I want to rob you?" She knew what Qing Shui meant by her robbing him; she could sense Qing Shui's thoughts. It was the first time she hated the ability which enabled her to read the minds of other people.

Qing Shui chuckled as he grabbed her and increased his speed. For a moment, the wind whistling noises could be heard passing by their ears.
