

Another World 1331

Chapter 1331: Jumping Clowns

Yuan stood outside Zhao Hai's cave residence. He wanted to visit Zhao Hai but he was also afraid of disturbing his recovery. Therefore, he just stood on the entrance but didn't dare to go in.

At this time, Zhao Hai casually walked out of his cave residence. Seeing Zhao Hai come out, Yuan immediately approached him. He inspected Zhao Hai's well-being before he said, "Little Hai, how are you doing? I heard that you were injured."

Zhao Hai looked at Yuan and then smiled as he said, "Captain, I'm alright. You don't need to worry about me. But I was indeed injured. I have some medicine, so I will recover."

Yuan relaxed. He looked at Zhao Hai and then suddenly laughed, "Alright, good. You can escape from a Transcending Tribulation Expert, you really have some skills, kid. Hahaha. That made me feel great!"

Zhao Hai forced a smile and said, "What skills, I just managed to escape. It's not worth captain's praise. Right, Captain, how did you know what happened to me? Has the news spread so quickly?"

Yuan laughed once again, then he said, "Of course it spread quickly. This is a huge thing. Someone from the Machine Field actually managed to escape from a Transcending Tribulation Expert. To the people of the Machine Field, this was an unprecedented matter. How could those who know about it not show off? Now, the entire Six Realms Battlefield knows about this. But this also brought some trouble. People have begun to cause trouble in our partially controlled territory. I reckon these people came because of you."

Zhao Hai nodded and said, "That seems like it. They want to see how strong I am? Or do they want to take the opportunity to gain prestige now that I'm injured?"

Yuan smiled and said, "Both are possible. And there are people from all the other realms. Those from the Cultivation Realm and Devil Realm numbered the most."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "My injuries aren't that cumbersome. Maybe I'll head out to keep those jumping clowns from bothering me."

Naturally, he was aware of what Yuan said since he had seen it through the Space. Zhao Hai would know if there were slight disturbances in the Six Realms Battlefield, let alone those frolicking in his front yard. If he doesn't know, then wouldn't he be useless?

Zhao Hai decided to come out due to these people. These fellows wanted to use him to become famous. But they didn't expect Zhao Hai to do the same to them.

Although Zhao Hai was now well-known, his prestige in the Six Realms Battlefield was lacking. As long as he cleans these guys up and plays with the other realms, he would certainly gain prestige.

Once he gains a stable foothold in the Six realms Battlefield and becomes an existence like Yuan, then his future developments would certainly benefit. After all, the Six Realms Battlefield was heavily connected to the major powers.

Yuan looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Little Hai, this isn't a joke. I know that you're strong, but if you are injured, it's better if you don't get into a fight with other people. After all, there are dangers to fighting while injured. It may affect your future growth."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Captain, rest assured, I'm going to be fine. Right, Captain, how is the alliance going?"

As soon as Zhao Hai mentioned this, Yuan's mood immediately changed as he laughed and said, "Good, it's doing great. Although we were already united before the alliance was established, the higher-ups still looked at us like loose sand. A lot of people took liberties in treating us, but we can't do anything about it. After all, at that time, I can only represent my fort, not the others. But now, things are different. The members of the alliance can represent the entire mountain range. In this case, if we say something, the higher-ups would need to pay attention to it."

Zhao Hai smiled and said, "That's great. Alright, let's head back. I want to see how everyone is doing, I haven't seen them for a while."

The two proceeded to fly towards Yuan's fort. Zhao Hai's cave residence wasn't that far so the two arrived before long. Seeing the two approaching the fort, everyone livened up.

Zhao Hai belonged to Yuan's camp, so he knew everyone there. In the past, people only thought that Zhao Hai was strong. They didn't feel that he was special. But now it was different. Zhao Hai became famous because of his successful escape. This news quickly spread to the entire Six Realms Battlefield. So now, people looked at Zhao Hai differently.

Zhao Hai was immediately surrounded. Zhao Hai politely greeted them in return. He didn't change how he interacted with them.

After some time, people calmed down. Right now, the fort had 50 people stationed inside. Liu Zhen's group had already returned to their own fort so the population was much less than before.

Seeing everyone, Zhao Hai smiled and said, "Everyone, let me invite you all to drink. I brought a lot of good things from outside. Captain, what do you think?"

Yuan laughed and said, "If there's liquor, then why not? Alright, let me see what good things you brought."

Zhao Hai laughed as well, then he took out a lot of good food. Naturally, among these were the giant crabs. People were happy and the entire fort was soon plunged into a celebratory mood. Zhao Hai's attitude didn't change because of his fame. In fact, he was already used to this, so he got along with everyone. This made everyone's impression of him even better.

Although everyone enjoyed drinking, they didn't drink too much. Recently, the Lock Mountain Range hasn't been very peaceful. Everyone knew that if they drank too much, then other people might take it as an opportunity to act. When the time comes, they wouldn't even have the time to cry.

After drinking, everyone drank tea as they sat in the conference hall. This room wasn't small since it was used for meetings. It wasn't a problem if 50 people sat inside it.

As Yuan drank tea, he looked at everyone and said, "You all should know about the recent situation of the Lock Mountain Range. What do you think about it?"

Wu Yang placed his teacup down, then he coldly snorted and said, "Captain, I think we need to deal with those guys. They obviously came for Little Hai knowing that he's injured. They only want to get famous for cheap. I think we should mobilize everyone from the Lock Mountain Range to make them behave."

Yuan nodded but didn't comment on it. At this time, Xiong Li opened his mouth and said, "Those guys are certainly taking advantage of the opportunity. However, if we make a huge move, then wouldn't that escalate things? People from every realm are roaming our partially controlled territory. If we go too far, then the other realms might work together to attack us."

Xiong Li shared the thoughts of many, so a lot of people nodded. Wu Yang also knitted his brows. Just like Xiong Li said, it wouldn't be good if they offend everyone.

Zhao Hai looked at everyone as he smiled faintly and said, "Since those people came for me, then let me handle this."

Zhao Hai's words caused those present to stare. Then Xiong Li's complexion changed as he said, "Little Hai, you're injured. Moreover, there are a lot of experts this time. I think we should organize a team. It shouldn't be a problem if we don't beat them too hard."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Boss, you don't have to worry. I'm not afraid of those jumpin clowns. They want to use this Zhao Hai to raise their reputation? Hahaha. If they really think they can do that, then they're dreaming."

Hearing that Zhao Hai was full of confidence, everyone smiled. However, Yuan added, "You can go. But Little Hai, you need to be careful. Those guys aren't pushovers either. Take care of yourself."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Captain, you can rest assured. Alright, I just had a drink so I need some exercise." After he said that, he stood up and walked out. This caused everyone to be stunned. They didn't expect Zhao Hai to fight right now.

Zhao Hai didn't mind the others as he immediately left the fort as well as the Lock Mountain Range. The reason why Zhao Hai was anxious to leave was because Cai'er told him that a team of Machine Field experts had been blocked by Cultivators in the partially controlled territory. Both sides were clashing heavily. Moreover, the Machine Field's side had suffered losses.

There were about 30 people from the Machine Field who were surrounded. Zhao Hai was also able to recognize their team leader. Although this person wasn't among the 20 representatives of the alliance, he still gained a lot of votes during the election. If it weren't for the fact that the Lock Mountain Range only needed 20 representatives, then he might have been chosen. Therefore, Zhao Hai had quite a deep impression of this person.

This person was surnamed Bai with a given name of Yuan. He was nicknamed Fighting Demon. His name sounded domineering, but he was in fact a Mage. He was a Dark Mage specializing in summons. He was also very formidable. He ranked among the strongest in the Core Formation stage.

Moreover, this person liked to fight. He spent most of his time out of his fort since he hunted every day. In fact, he ventured out more frequently than Yuan. Naturally, his casualty rate was very high. But at the same time, his men were able to gain merit very quickly.

Before long, Zhao Hai arrived at the place where Bai Yuan and the Cultivators were fighting. Upon arriving, Zhao Hai quickly saw the losses that Bai Yuan suffered. Of the original 30 people, only 20 were left. On the other hand, there were only five Cultivators. However, these 5 people were actually at Nascent Soul stage. And only one of them made a move. If all of them attacked, then Bai Yuan's team might have been eradicated a long time ago.

Zhao Hai looked at the Cultivators, then he coldly snorted and said, "Good, Cultivators, good. Do you really think that you can bully the Machine Field? You actually ran to our territory to kill our people!"

Zhao Hai's voice caused the Nascent Soul Experts to notice him. Their complexion immediately changed. This was because they were only able to notice Zhao Hai's presence after he spoke!

Chapter 1332: A Slave Is A Servan

t

The divine sense of Nascent Soul Experts was very powerful. It was very easy for them to discover their enemies But Zhao Hai was actually able to get close to them without being detected. If he didn't talk, then they might not have noticed him. What did this mean? This meant that Zhao Hai could shield against their divine senses. This was very dangerous for Nascent Soul Experts.

Zhao Hai looked at their expressions, then he smiled faintly and said, "Everyone, I heard that you've been quite noisy in the Machine Field's territory. Hehe, interesting. Who gave you the courage? You think Nascent Soul Experts couldn't be killed?"

When Zhao Hai said this, the faces of the Cultivators changed. One of them looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Are you Zhao Hai? No wonder you talk so big. But do you really think that you can take our lives? Don't think that because you escaped from a Transcending Tribulation Expert, you are formidable. What kind of storms can you really cause?"

Although this statement was filled with strong words, this was just a strong cover to hide the weak inside. They didn't say that they could defeat Zhao Hai, but just that Zhao Hai couldn't make a huge storm. They were obviously afraid of Zhao Hai.

Nobody could blame them. Zhao Hai's arrival demonstrated his capability. They weren't able to see Zhao Hai arrive, so they naturally lack confidence in facing him.

Zhao Hai didn't mind them anymore as he turned to Bai Yuan and said, "Captain Bai, we meet again. How are you doing? How about gathering at Captain Yuan's fort after this?"

Seeing Zhao Hai's overbearing manner towards the Cultivators, Bai Yuan couldn't help but rejoice. He laughed and replied, "I've been doing very well. This one wanted to visit Mister Zhao Hai a long time ago, but I just couldn't find an opportunity. Now that you invited me over, I couldn't help but agree."

The conversation between the two completely neglected the existence of the Cultivators. This caused the Cultivators to be incensed. One of them quickly said, "Courting death!" Then he waved his hand and sent a flying sword towards Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai just smiled as he waved his hand. A huge form appeared before him. Then the figure roared before it swiped its claw towards the flying sword.

This figure was the Silverback Gold-winged Bug that Zhao Hai captured. Since he used it in a previous fight, he was no longer afraid of taking it out.

Actually, using beasts to fight wasn't something that was unique to Zhao Hai. In the Cultivation Realm, there was a sect called the Ten Thousand Beasts Sect. They specialized in using beasts to fight. A lot of unusual beasts were kept in that sect. Moreover, each one of them had formidable strength. In fact, the Ten Thousand Beasts Sect was among the top sects in the Cultivation Realm.

However, the bug race had yet to be tamed by the Cultivators. On the other hand, Zhao Hai was able to use the Silverback Gold-winged Bug as his own beast. Despite this, Cultivators were able to accept it. In their minds, Zhao Hai had a secret taming technique that allowed him to subdue the Silverback Gold-winged Bug. They could never think that Zhao Hai would have something as mysterious as the Space.

The Silverback Gold-winged bug could deal with two Nascent Soul Experts on its own. Therefore, upon seeing that Zhao Hai took out the bug, the Cultivators' expression immediately turned serious.

Then at this moment, a roar was heard from a distance before Jia Ding Shan's form was seen. Jia Ding Shan aiding Zhao Hai in his previous fight has already been known to the entire Six Realms Battlefield. Although the Demons didn't know why Jia Ding Shan suddenly became Zhao Hai's servant, this kind of thing wasn't anything to be crazy about. In fact, a lot of powerful people in the World of Cultivation had servants that were from different races. Some even have Ghost Cultivators as servants. People only felt off about Jia Ding Shan becoming Zhao Hai's servant and nothing else.

It can be said that there were too many strange things in the World of Cultivation. People saw and heard a lot of bizarre phenomena. Even if Zhao Hai did something that they didn't understand, this was still within their expectations.

When Jia Ding Shan arrived, he immediately went to Zhao Hai's side and then bowed as he said, "Young Master, I apologize for being late."

Zhao Hai just gave a nod and said, "Clean these people up. I still have something to talk about with Captain Bai."

Jia Ding Shan complied before throwing himself over towards the Cultivators. Zhao Hai slowly flew towards Bai Yuan's side before waving his hand and teleporting the corpses around them to his front. Then he turned to Bai Yuan and said, "Captain Bai, I'll leave these bodies to you."

Bai Yuan looked at the corpses and said, "Then I'll be taking them. I'll cremate them after heading back before sending their ashes back to their families."

Zhao Hai nodded. Then Bai Yuan received the bodies. At this time, the five Cultivators were fighting against Jia Ding Shan as well as the Silverback Gold-winged bug. Although there were five of them, they failed to gain any advantage.

Zhao Hai looked at the Cultivators before he turned to Bai Yuan and said, "Captain Bai, I'll help you deal with these jumping clowns." Bai Yuan nodded. He knew that Zhao Hai could face these Cultivators. If he wanted revenge, then he could only rely on Zhao Hai to make a move.

Zhao Hai waved his hand as a large number of Undead appeared and surrounded the five Cultivators. Then Zhao Hai used his sword art to control the fan of 100 silver swords that appeared behind him.

Zhao Hai looked at the five Cultivators, then the corners of his mouth turned into a sneer before he commanded, "Swimming fish formation!"

Just as his voice fell, the 100 swords behind him acted like a school of fish as they dashed towards the Cultivators.

The Cultivators were now beginning to feel pressure. It wasn't only the pressure that Zhao Hai exerted on them, it included the pressure exerted by the Undead surrounding them.

Although the Undead weren't very strong, the sheer number of them was enough to cause some pressure on their enemies.

Each Undead was once a living person. And there were more than ten thousand Undead present. Even if Zhao Hai didn't kill them, their death certainly had something to do with him.

One could see from this point how ruthless Zhao Hai was. In this case, will Zhao Hai just let them off easily? This was impossible. Zhao Hai had never been lenient in killing Cultivators.

While the Undead stayed put, Zhao Hai began his attack. Moreover, he released 100 swords. Much to the surprise of the Cultivators, the movement of these swords were very flexible.

One should know that a flying sword set was also used in some Sword Sects. However, those who use these sword sets use them as though they were a complete magic artifact set. Zhao Hai's way of controlling his flying swords was unique.

The Cultivators had already been pressured facing Jia Ding Shan as well as the Silverback Gold-winged bug. Now that Zhao Hai joined with his swords, even if they were Nascent Soul Experts, they were still thrown into chaos.

When Zhao Hai saw this, he strengthened his attacks. Meanwhile, he also paid attention to the situation around them. The battle with the Cultivators attracted the attention of some people in the partially controlled territory. With these people present, Zhao Hai needed to keep watch.

None of these people came with good intentions, and a lot of them were from the Cultivation Realm. He can have his Undead join, however, he couldn't let these Cultivators know that he could turn Cultivators into Undead while perfectly preserving their strength. Once this gets out, it would certainly cause panic to the entire World of Cultivation. When the time comes, it would be him who would be in trouble.

Therefore, even if he could use Undead Cultivators, he wouldn't use them in such an open place like the Six Realms Battlefield. Using Undead Cultivators was just announcing to everyone what he's capable with; which wouldn't be good for him. Therefore, he would rather use this method to deal with the Nascent Soul Cultivators.

Seeing that more and more people had come to see, Zhao Hai knew that it was time to end things. Zhao Hai made a move as a rotating disk appeared in his hand. Then he waved his hand as the ghost disk was sent towards a Cultivator. The Cultivator immediately used a bracelet-type magic artifact to defend against the disk.

However, the ghost disk wasn't easily blocked. After Zhao Hai released the disk, he took out a golden shuttle as well as other offensive magic artifacts. These were artifacts that Zhao Hai looted from his previous battles and had given them to the Undead to use. But since he couldn't release the Undead Cultivators right now, he could only take them out himself.

When Zhao Hai used these artifacts, the Cultivators felt even more pressure. Although they had a lot of artifacts in hand, it wasn't enough to combat Zhao Hai's 100 flying swords. They would have to use much more magic artifacts in order to counteract Zhao Hai. This was because Zhao Hai's flying sword set was different to the ones that Sword Cultivators use. When a Sword Cultivator uses multiple flying swords, they would have one flying sword as the main sword and the others would just follow it. Therefore, they only need to control the main sword, which would save them a lot of spiritual qi. To be honest, compared to Zhao Hai's control over his flying swords, the Sword Cultivators seemed lacking.

And because of their method of controlling flying swords, it was very easy to deal with a Sword Cultivator using multiple swords. As long as you block their main sword you can block the entire flying sword set.

On the other hand, Zhao Hai's 100 flying swords acted as though they were their own artifact. Even if you block the lead sword, the others could still follow through. Zhao Hai's control didn't have primary and secondary swords. Instead, it was like Zhao Hai was controlling all 100 swords at the same time. The Cultivators were surprised upon seeing this. This was because almost nobody in the Cultivation Realm could control this many artifacts. Even formidable Transcending Tribulation Experts couldn't do this.

And with Zhao Hai's powerful offense, the Cultivators were quickly put on their back foot. Then at this moment, a team of Undead attacked the Cultivator that was currently blocking Zhao Hai's ghost disk. When the Cultivator noticed the Undead, it was already too late. The Undead were now very close to him.

The offense of the Undead was very special. They seemed like a well-trained army when attacking the Cultivator. Their weapons constantly pounded towards the Cultivators' defensive artifact. This caused the Cultivator's defenses to shake.

The weapons of the Undead weren't ordinary artifacts. These weapons had weapon shattering on them. So each attack made by the Undead were very powerful.

The Undead's attack on the Cultivator's defenses caused the Cultivator to shift his attention towards them. He didn't expect these undead to be this formidable. At this time, his defensive artifact violently shook before it lost its shine and broke. Almost immediately, Zhao Hai's flying swords came flying like a swarm of bees.

The Cultivator made a strange groan before a set of armor appeared on his body. This was his final defensive measure. However, this armor couldn't save his life. One must know that Zhao Hai's flying swords also have weapon shattering on them. Moreover, weapon shattering was designed to break through armor. Therefore, after blocking five swords, the Cultivator's armor was immediately broken. It was also at that time that the Cultivator died.

The Cultivator's corpse immediately vanished, then the flying swords swam away and attacked the other Cultivators. The other Cultivators were already having problems, so it didn't take long for them to suffer under the attack of the flying swords.

At this time, one of the Cultivators suddenly shouted, "Mister Zhao Hai, please stop. I'm willing to swear on my heart's demon and become your servant. I will never betray you. Please spare my life!"

Not only Zhao Hai, but those who watched the battle were shocked upon hearing the Cultivator's words. This wasn't some Qi Refining Stage rogue cultivator. This was a Nascent Soul Expert. Such a person actually surrendered himself to be a servant? Was he crazy? Almost everyone had such an idea.

Zhao Hai stared for a moment, but he didn't stop his attacks. Instead, he said, "Stop resisting and I won't kill you. As long as you make an oath to your heart's demon, then I'll spare you!"

The Cultivator immediately stopped resisting. Zhao Hai's flying sword stopped at his throat and didn't proceed. Then the Cultivator loudly declared, "This Li Lin pledges to his heart's demon to willingly follow Mister Zhao Hai for a lifetime. For a slave is a servant, I will never betray him. If I disobey this oath, then may my heart's demon kill me!"

Li Lin's pledge caused the surroundings to turn quiet. They knew that Li Lin was serious. He really became Zhao Hai's servant!

Chapter 1333: I'm Leaving, No Need To Send Me Out!

A heart's demon oath was the most feared pledge of a Cultivator. The biggest enemy of a Cultivator was their own heart's demon. Once a Cultivator was invaded by their heart's demon, even if they survive, they would fall into the devil's control. Therefore, no Cultivator would easily make an oath, let alone a heart's demon oath.

Now that Li Lin made his heart's demon oath, he became Zhao Hai's servant. Nobody present expected a Nascent Soul Expert to resign themselves to become a servant. His later cultivation would now be very difficult.

What do people cultivate for? They want to be immortal. However, life and death were natural laws. Cultivators wanting to break this rule was akin to going against heaven's will. If one wanted to break through this restriction, then they would need to have vigorous fighting spirit. If this vigor was dulled, then their future progress will be hard.

Making yourself a servant was essentially extinguishing this vigor. When this happens, you would lose motivation in cultivating further.

However, when people thought about it, they could understand Li Lin's decision. Zhao Hai already killed one of them. Now, it would be easier for Zhao Hai to deal with the group. If Li Lin didn't swear to be Zhao Hai's servant, then he would be killed. Compared to being dead, being a servant was better. Not everyone was unafraid of death. In the face of death, a lot of people would rather choose to live.

Li Lin chose to live. Although this painted him as a coward and ruined his future, he was still alive in the end. There was always hope as long as one lived.

Li Lin's oath was like a spell, making the others in his group see another solution to their predicament; becoming a slave.

This was a difficult choice, especially to a Cultivator. While the three remaining Cultivators were hesitating, the Silverback Gold-winged Bug shattered a Cultivator's shield and killed them on the spot.

The Cultivator's body disappeared immediately. This became the straw that broke the camel's back. The remaining two Cultivators quickly said that they were willing to become Zhao Hai's servants. Then the two swore to their heart's demons.

After the two Cultivators swore to their heart's demon, Zhao Hai waved his hand to let them stand on the side. Then he received the Silverback Gold-winged bug as well as let Jia Ding Shan leave. After that, he glanced at those who came to watch the fight.

Those who came to watch didn't expect this result. Now that the three Nascent Soul Experts had become Zhao Hai's servants, Zhao Hai's strength increased rather than decreased. If they attack Zhao Hai now, then that would be equal to attacking a team of Nascent Soul Experts. This was something that they weren't willing to do.

Zhao Hai swept the surroundings with his gaze. These people were somewhat tense, afraid that Zhao Hai might attack them. Although they were hidden, they knew that Zhao Hai had already discovered them. Now, they want to see how Zhao Hai wanted to deal with them.

Zhao Hai looked at the surroundings, then he said, "Everyone, I'm leaving. There's no need to send me out." Then he turned his head to Bai Yuan and then said, "Captain Bai, let's continue our conversation in our fort."

Bai Yuan laughed and said, "Alright. Hahaha. Zhao Hai, I think you're the first one from the Machine Field to have Cultivator servants. Good, good!" After he said that, he followed Zhao Hai towards Yuan's fort. Meanwhile, the others in Bai Yuan's group couldn't help but straighten their backs. They felt proud as they looked at the people from the other realms.

Zhao Hai turned to look at Li Lin and the others before saying, "Follow me." Li Lin and the others had ugly expressions. However, they didn't say anything and just followed behind Zhao Hai. They made a heart's demon oath, so they had no choice but to follow Zhao Hai.

Back on earth, people make pledges as casually as drinking water or eating a meal, as if pledges were less valuable as toilet paper. But in the World of Cultivation, people needed to stand by their oaths.

This wasn't because the moral integrity of those from the World of Cultivation was high. In fact, immoral people were everywhere in this place. If you believed another person easily, then there would come a time where you wouldn't know how you died. The reason why people in the World of Cultivation took pledges very seriously was because of the existence of the heart's demon.

Nobody knew how heart's demon came to be, no one has yet to feel it as well. However, everyone knew that everyone had their own heart's demon and that it could cause damage to their body. Making a heart's demon oath was equal to awakening your heart's demon. You would then be monitored by this demon all the time. And once you violate your oath, this heart's demon would immediately invade; making you suffer a fate worse than death.

After Zhao Hai left, those who came to watch left as well. They understood what Zhao Hai wanted to tell them. Zhao Hai wanted them to leave, or else they would become the next Li Lin.

These people knew themselves well. Upon discovering that they couldn't compare to Zhao Hai's strength, they immediately left the Machine Field's partially controlled territory.

However, this didn't mean that their journey had been in vain. At the very least, they became aware of Zhao Hai's strength. Without a doubt, the next time someone wanted to deal with Zhao Hai, they would definitely send a Transcending Tribulation Expert.

Moreover, now that Li Lin and the others had joined Zhao Hai's side, Zhao Hai was able to increase his power. Even if he went to the Machine Field right now and established a small sect, nobody would say anything. After all, he had established himself to have strength to deal with a Nascent Soul Expert. This level of strength was enough to establish a sect in the Cultivation Realm. Even small sects in the Cultivation Realm don't have the same strength as Zhao Hai right now.

As these people left, all of them had the same idea in their minds. Zhao Hai was becoming harder and harder to deal with.

Zhao Hai and Bai Yuan's return caused a sensation in Yuan's fort. At the same time, Zhao Hai didn't let Li Lin and the others be treated as zoo animals to be looked at, so he sent them to his cave residence. His cave residence was large enough to allow them to stay in.

After Li Lin and the others were sent to the cave residence, Zhao Hai went to Yuan's fort. The fort's atmosphere lifted up once more. This was because, for the first time, someone from the Machine Field was able to get a Cultivator as a servant. Not only the Lock Mountain Range, the entire Machine Field exploded upon hearing this information.

Yuan personally reported this matter because of how important it was. Yuan never expected Cultivators to pledge themselves into becoming Zhao Hai's servants. When he heard the news, he thought that someone was joking with him. Who would have thought that this was actually true!

Yuan didn't know how this would impact the Cultivation Realm and the Machine Field. However, Yuan knew that the Six Realms Battlefield would be shaken by this news. At the same time, the Machine Field's partially controlled territory would now be more secure.

With the strength that Zhao Hai displayed, nobody would dare provoke someone from the Machine Field. This was good for the realm.

A lot of people were present at the fort when Zhao Hai returned. These people are from the nearby forts. They were here to inquire more about what happened. To be honest, when they heard about the news, they couldn't believe that it was real.

Zhao Hai was immediately surrounded when he arrived. All of them were inquiring about what happened with Li Lin and the others. Zhao Hai answered them all with a smile. He knew all of these people, so he was quite casual with them.

After mingling with everyone for several hours, those who came to Yuan's fort started to leave. Zhao Hai relaxed as he was invited over by Yuan for a drink.

While Zhao Hai was drinking with Yuan, the entire World of Cultivation was shaken by what happened. Naturally this only involved those in the higher echelon. After all, most people don't even know about the Six Realms Battlefield.

However, although it was only the higher echelons, their reactions represented their respective realms. Right now, Zhao Hai's name has been firmly cemented on everyone's minds.

One of the first to respond were the Machine Field's higher-ups. At this point, the higher-ups no longer had any ideas towards Zhao Hai. This was because they discovered that Zhao Hai had already established his own influence. Moreover, this influence wasn't small. It would be very hard for them to keep wanting to deal with Zhao Hai. Because of this, they decided to change their approach towards him. They decided to get on good terms with him.

Once this decision was made, the higher-ups immediately sent a delegation to see Zhao Hai. The Machine Field also knew that Zhao Hai doesn't really need any rewards. Therefore, this delegation would first give their regards to Zhao Hai and then ask if he needed anything. As long as Zhao Hai's request wasn't excessive, they would take care of it as soon as possible.

On the other hand, the response of the Cultivation Realm was somewhat strange. Upon hearing this information, the sects in the Cultivation Realm didn't have much of a reaction. However, there were rumors that the big sects had placed Zhao Hai at the top position on their kill order.

This so-called kill order was talked about in the Cultivation Realm only in hearsay. It was believed that the Cultivation Realm's Great Sects have a kill order wherein people's names were listed. This list included geniuses from other realms. As long as a person was on this list, the Cultivation Realm wouldn't hesitate to send people to kill them. This was to prevent these geniuses from developing and becoming a threat to the Cultivation Realm.

However, there was no proof of this kill order's existence. Nor did the Cultivation Realm confirm if it did. But one thing was for certain - the Cultivation Realm had its attention towards Zhao Hai. The next time they decide to deal with him, they certainly wouldn't send a Nascent Soul Expert.

Chapter 1334: Request

Zhao Hai was once again inside the conference room of Yuan's fort. Sitting with him were four people. The four people weren't that old, but they all had the aura of someone with a high position in society. However, despite this, they all had a cautious disposition towards Zhao Hai.

These four people were the delegates that were sent by the Machine Field's higher-ups. One of the reasons why they came was to see Li Lin and the others and confirm that Yuan's report was true. However, they already knew that Yuan didn't lie. After all, Yuan wasn't the only one who reported this matter. News from the other realms already confirmed that this matter was true. At the same time, they came in order to talk to Zhao Hai.

The Machine Field always rewarded those who achieved merit. If Zhao Hai doesn't get rewarded from such an accomplishment, then what about the others? Would people accept? Moreover, would the Lock Mountain Range just stay silent? With the establishment of the Lock Mountain Range Alliance, the higher-ups discovered that it was now impossible to treat the Lock Mountain Range like they did before.

The Machine Field's higher-ups felt odd about this. Those serving in the Lock Mountain Range were mostly locals of the realm and core members of Great Families. Normally, they would be loyal to their family. At the same time, these Great Families comprise those in the realm's higher ups. The establishment of the Lock Mountain Range Alliance was akin to treating the higher-ups as enemies. In normal situations, these people wouldn't do this. However, they actually did. Happily, in fact. This caused the higher-ups to be puzzled.

The Machine Field's higher-ups don't understand the concept of camaraderie. They haven't personally seen the Lock Mountain Range and don't know the exact situation. In their minds, the people killed in the battlefield were mere numbers. But for the people in the Lock Mountain Range, those who died were brothers, friends, comrades. In this case, it wasn't surprising for the Lock Mountain Range Alliance to appear.

Zhao Hai just made a large contribution. If the Machine Field doesn't reward him for it, then the Lock Mountain Range would certainly cause a fuss. Also, the higher-ups wanted to use this opportunity to fix their relationship with Zhao Hai. After all, they plotted against him in the past and Zhao Hai knew about it. They didn't hope Zhao Hai to be magnanimous and just forget about it. One must know that Zhao Hai has never been lenient on those who wanted to take his life.

Zhao Hai looked at the four people. He actually knew them from a casual interaction at a party once. Afterwards, he met them in the Void Arena along with other people with status. It seems like the Machine Field's higher-ups were intent on getting on his good side.

Zhao Hai looked at the four who looked somewhat restless and then smiled as he said, "It's been a while since we've seen each other. What have you been doing recently?"

His relaxed tone caused the other four to relax as well. Then one of them smiled and answered, "What else can we do? We don't have Brother Hai's skills. You don't know, but when those old fogies above heard about what you did, their eyes almost came out of their sockets. Then when they heard that we have a little relationship, they caught us in order to send us here. Damn, just I was preparing to pursue a female expert. When I head back, I'm afraid she'll have lost interest in me."

Naturally, these four weren't young patriarchs. However, their status was a little awkward. They weren't heirs to their family, so they would be dealt with if they show too much ability. Therefore, they had no other choice but to take it easy. Although it was impossible for them to inherit their entire family, they were still given ample stipends. Therefore, they could go everywhere to amuse themselves and act like silkpants.

At the same time, acting like this made people feel relieved. They were given tasks to complete once in a while and after succeeding on a couple of these missions, these four were able to become core members of their families. However, their playful attitudes hadn't disappeared.

It was because of this playfulness that they were able to mingle around and join the Ashley Family's party and know Zhao Hai. Moreover, they were able to get along well. Then when Zhao Hai was to compete in the Void Arena, they came to support him. This allowed their relationship to become better, to the point of being able to speak casually to each other.

When the others heard this, they all laughed. Zhao Hai laughed along with them. They stopped after a while. Then Zhao Hai looked at the four and said, "I understand what those old fogies are trying to do. To be honest, I really didn't intend to be rewarded when I headed out. This is because there's no need for it. With my current strength, I could just get what I want. Also, the things I could grab are better than any of their rewards. Hahaha."

The four laughed along. Because of their environment, they weren't so distant from the Machine Field's higher-ups. This allowed them to call them 'old fogies' normally.

After laughing at the situation, one of the four said, "Brother Hai, if you don't ask for something, then those guys might overthink. I think you should ask for a reward regardless."

Zhao Hai thought for a moment and said, "But I really don't need anything right now. Forget it, just tell them that I want them to swear that the last incident wouldn't happen again. What do you think?"

The four smiled, they understood what incident Zhao Hai meant. The one who spoke before replied, "Actually, you don't need to ask for that, Brother Hai. Those old guys already said that it would never happen in the future. And what happened was just a misunderstanding."

Zhao Hai nodded, "That's good. Right, since you brought it up, I do have something I'd like. I have already begun transforming my planet. Tell them that I'd want my planet to have some transmission formation connections to the realm's major planets. I also need them to allow me to move people to Yalei 2. Naturally, they don't need to forcefully move people. As long as they agree, then they can become residents of Yalei 2. This is my request."

The four nodded. To be honest, they didn't expect this request from Zhao Hai. In their opinion, Yalei 2 was an uninhabitable planet where birds don't even defecate in. but since they were only messengers for the higher-ups, they only need to relay it over. And since Zhao Hai's request wasn't too excessive, they believed that the higher-ups would agree.

The group chatted for a while. Zhao Hai also invited them over to a meal before sending them off. Then Zhao Hai resumed his focus towards the Six Realms Battlefield. He would also enter the Space from time to time.

At this time, the Space's monitor began receiving images from the planet where the Five Elements Sect resides. Zhao Hai has officially begun monitoring Lu Wei.

Zhao Hai was very meticulous when it came to Lu Wei. This was because Lu Wei knew the method of collecting Faith power. This was something that Zhao Hai needed.

Zhao Hai and the others made a lot of effort in order to arrive at the Five Elements Sect's planet. Flying over using liquid silver was naturally impossible. Instead, Zhao Hai released silver needles into the Cultivation Realm and had these needles wait in transmission formations. Once they discover someone from the sect, the needles would immediately attach themselves to the person. This way, they would reach the Five Elements Sect and begin monitoring it.

Moreover, using this method, Zhao Hai was able to receive most of the Cultivation Realm into his map. After all, the Cultivation Realm uses transmission formations more frequently than the other realms. This allowed Zhao Hai to easily map the realm.

But what disappointed Zhao Hai was that the Five Element Sect's guardian formation could block the silver needles. It was impossible for Zhao Hai to monitor the sect's internal situation. He could only monitor the sect's transmission formations as well as its entrances. This required a lot of effort.

Nevertheless, Zhao Hai could only monitor the Five Elements Sect. This was the only way he could think of. Zhao Hai knew how much the Cultivators hated him. If he suddenly appeared in the realm, then he would definitely be attacked. But for the method of acquiring Faith Power, Zhao Hai must do this. Zhao Hai believed that the people in the Cultivation Realm still didn't expect him to be able to go in and out of their realm at any time.

.....

Back in the Pirate Paradise, the Yellow Daoist was currently inside a room with a gloomy expression on his face. Opposite him were several people. These were Cultivators that came with him in order to deal with Zhao Hai. Unfortunately for them, they failed. Moreover, when he realized that Li Lin and the others had become Zhao Hai's servants, the Yellow Daoist's complexion turned uglier.

The Nascent Soul Expert sitting across the Yellow Daoist carefully looked at his expression before saying, "Daoist, it's been confirmed that Zhao Hai has appeared in the Six Realms Battlefield. And he doesn't look like he suffers from a large wound. Moreover, the Machine Field has become more active in sending ships over here. The pirates are becoming afraid. They won't dare accommodate us."

The Yellow Daoist nodded and said, "I know. Seeing Zhao Hai's strength, those fellows from the Machine Field wanted to use him to get more benefits in the Six Realms Battlefield. Hmph. But they made a mistake. These pirates are afraid of siding with us, that's normal. So we should just return to the Cultivation Realm and see if we can get into the Six Realms Battlefield. I want to see who can protect Zhao Hai there. If he dared to run, then I will just slaughter everyone from the Machine Field."

Chapter 1335: Clever Pirate

The murderous aura that the Yellow Daoist was sending out caused the other Cultivators to be terrified. They believed that the Yellow Daoist wasn't joking. Zhao Hai truly angered him.

The Yellow Daoist looked at the others. Then he took a deep breath and said, "Let's go and leave this place. These pirates still have some uses, so we'll let them off for now." Then he stood up and led everyone out.

The place that the Yellow Daoist was in was actually a huge asteroid. This asteroid has been processed by the pirates. They even installed a protective shield around it, providing this asteroid with its own atmosphere. Even non-practitioners could live here.

There were also plenty of vegetation planted on this asteroid. Its environment was surprisingly good. This was where pirates received their high-level guests. Since the Yellow Daoist has a special status, naturally he was accommodated here.

The first time the Yellow Daoist and his team came here, a lot of people served them. But now, the pirates were terrified of meeting them. After all, this place was in the Machine Field. If the Machine Field decided to deal with them, then their days would not be great.

The Yellow Daoist went out of the asteroid and looked around. He sneered before leading his team to fly away. Just as they left, several small ships arrived at the asteroid. Inside one of these ships were a group of people wearing tight-fitting military uniforms. Their figures were very valiant.

One of these people let out a long breath and said, "Those fellows finally left. Otherwise, the Machine Field might target us."

Another person nodded and said, "We have to tell the Machine Field about this as soon as possible. But at the same time, we need to prepare to evacuate."

The others nodded. These people belong to the largest pirate groups in the Pirate Paradise. Although they were normally hostile to each other, they united with each other now that they were under pressure.

The person who spoke first said, "The Poison Bee Pirates sure are unlucky. To send people to assassinate Zhao Hai, I reckon the Machine Field wouldn't let them go."

The others nodded. One of them coldly snorted and said, "They brought this onto themselves. The Cultivators also asked me to assassinate Zhao Hai, but I didn't agree. Zhao Hai is too powerful for us to deal with. Those Poison Bee guys are truly insane to accept that mission. They deserved to be annihilated."

The others didn't speak. They were also offered missions to assassinate Zhao Hai. But before they could make a move, the Poison Bee pirates acted first. And after seeing Zhao Hai's methods, all of them were glad to be late in taking action. But to think that the Poison Bee Pirates would perish, they couldn't help but grieve.

Although they lived the life of piracy, they also wanted to live an ordinary life. They didn't want to stay in this place, but their desire couldn't be easily accomplished. They were branded as pirates the moment they were born. Even if they wanted to join a family in the Machine Field, they wouldn't necessarily be accepted. And even if they were accepted, they would also be guarded against. In the end, they might as well live in this asteroid field.

At this time, a spatial rift opened up in front of them. Then a person walked out from the rift, smiling at the pirates. It didn't take long for the pirates to recognize the person, they were dumbfounded. It was Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai had his silver needles map the Pirate Paradise. He was monitoring the Yellow Daoist, not to say the other pirates.

These pirates hadn't actually met Zhao Hai before, but they could recognize him from pictures and videos. Therefore, they knew it was him at a glance.

These pirates stared before their complexion changed. Although they also practiced and were quite strong, they were still much weaker compared to Zhao Hai. They didn't expect Zhao Hai to suddenly appear here.

Zhao Hai looked at everyone, then he smiled faintly and said, "Hello everyone, I'm Zhao Hai."

The pirates looked at each other and could see the despair in their eyes. They never wanted to meet Zhao Hai. But now, it was impossible for them to run. With such a close distance, they wouldn't be able to escape from Zhao Hai's attack.

They looked at one another and felt somewhat disheartened. However, they were still pirates after all. They always risked their lives without knowing if they would return. They calmed down soon before their leader gave a bow and said, "I have seen Mister Zhao Hai. This one is the head of the Crossed Sword Pirate Group, Louis. I didn't expect Mister Zhao Hai to visit."

Zhao Hai smiled and said, "So it's Commander Louis. I heard that the Crossed Sword Pirate Group is the largest group in the Pirate Paradise. You have about 10 thousand ships and 10 million people. It's an honor to see Commander Louis."

Louis didn't expect Zhao Hai would be this polite. He quickly replied, "Mister Zhao Hai is overpraising me. This Commander is just a simple pirate. I'm an ant compared to Mister. Now that I met Mister Zhao Hai, I can die with no regrets."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Commander Louis has misunderstood. I don't intend to kill you. In fact, if you want, I can plead on your behalf so that the Machine Field wouldn't act against you. Naturally, I don't know if this would work."

As soon as they heard Zhao Hai, Louis and the others couldn't help but stare. They couldn't understand what Zhao Hai wanted to do. Normally, Zhao Hai would deal with them. After all, they helped the Cultivators deal with the Ashley Family. Why was Zhao Hai so magnanimous?

Zhao Hai looked at their eyes, then he smiled faintly and said, "You must be wondering why I'm so generous? To be honest, at first, I really wanted to kill all of you and turn you into my Undead. But I could only give up. I realized that you're just people of circumstance. There's no reason for me to kill you."

Louis and the others relaxed when they heard this. But they looked at each other and couldn't help but be puzzled. They knew that Zhao Hai wasn't soft. So why was he so accommodating right now?

Zhao Hai smiled and said, "There's no need for you to worry. There's a reason why you still existed until now. Sometimes, there will be times when I can't act on my own, so maybe I'll need your help then."

Louis and the others felt relieved. However, Louis didn't show that he wanted to talk about conditions with Zhao Hai. He still respectfully answered, "Thank you for understanding. Rest assured, the Crossed Sword Pirate Group would definitely not touch any businesses related to Mister and the Ashley Family. And as long as Mister needs anything, our Pirate Group will give you five free services."

The other Commanders also expressed their willingness to serve like Louis. They vowed to not accept any tasks related to Zhao Hai and that they were willing to serve him five times for free.

This time, it was Zhao Hai's turn to be dazed. He came out this time in hopes of forming a connection with these pirates. Then he would find out whether some of them were willing to migrate to Yalei 2. He didn't expect Louis and the others to offer their services to him.

It must be said that these pirates weren't weak, especially the Crossed Sword Pirate Group. They have 10 thousand ships, of which 100 of them were high-level warships. Moreover, they can bring out nearly 100 thousand Mechs with pilots trained in magic or martial arts. Their combat power was more than a small family. If they were willing to serve Zhao Hai five times for free, that would be a great benefit for Zhao Hai. But why would they do this? Wasn't this too much for an apology?

After he said his offer, Louis and the others looked at Zhao Hai. They were a little bit uneasy. In fact, Louis' offer to serve Zhao Hai five times for free was for the sake of the Crossed Sword Pirate Group.

Because this was a meteorite region, large-scale fleets couldn't fly here. The pirates used this to their advantage in order to repel their enemies.

However, Zhao Hai was different compared to the rest in the Machine Field. Zhao Hai can use space magic to appear in any place, just like he did in the Pirate Paradise. Additionally, Zhao Hai has a lot of Undead. If Zhao Hai really wanted to deal with the pirates, he was fully capable of doing so. On the other hand, the pirate fleet couldn't do anything to Zhao Hai.

If they were against most practitioners, then these pirates wouldn't have been afraid. After all, they were practitioners themselves and they were also quite strong. However, Zhao Hai was different. In addition to his strength, he was extremely mobile. He can come and go as he wants. It can be said that they were more afraid of people like Zhao Hai than the Machine Field fleets.

Back when they were hired to deal with Zhao Hai, Louis and the others researched him. They knew that although Zhao Hai was vicious, one could maintain a good relationship with him as long as you don't offend him. He might even take good care of you.

These pirates were able to survive largely because they can understand people. Therefore, Louis took the initiative and offered Zhao Hai five free services. This was to draw Zhao Hai in and make him hesitate to deal with them.

However, Zhao Hai didn't know what Louis and the others were thinking. He looked at Louis and the others and discovered that they didn't have any negative expressions. They continued to stand respectfully opposite him. This caused Zhao Hai to be somewhat puzzled.

Zhao Hai looked at Louis and then said, "Commander Louis, you should know how much you'll lose out by offering me five free services."

Louis immediately replied, "This is our compensation for disrespecting Mister in the past. Mister, don't worry. Although we are pirates, we understand what we're talking about."

Zhao Hai looked at Louis, then he smiled faintly and said, "Alright. Then it seems like I'll be meeting you more in the future. Perhaps we can strengthen our relationship. Everyone should know what kind of person I am. Then, that's all for today, I'm taking my leave."

Zhao Hai gave everyone a salute before vanishing. Louis and the others' expressions couldn't help but turn ugly upon seeing Zhao Hai disappear. People like Zhao Hai who could appear and disappear at will were enemies that they liked to meet the least.

Louis let out a long breath, then he turned to everyone and said, "Everyone, what do we do now? Zhao Hai is too strong. Fortunately, he didn't come here to deal with us. Otherwise, we wouldn't be able to escape."

A Commander on the side replied, "Louis, why didn't Zhao Hai kill us? From the information we got, he's definitely not a generous person. It's impossible for him to pity us. He's a Dark Mage with countless undead in his hands. I don't believe that he's tired of killing."

Louis also knit his brows, "Zhao Hai's actions are truly strange. But from what I can see, he probably wants to cooperate with us. Moreover, it looks like it's a long-term cooperation. What does he want? What good is there in cooperating with us? With his present position, he has no need for our services. A word from him and the Machine Field would certainly send a fleet. The Machine Field can get whatever he wants. So what does he need from us?"

The others nodded as well. They also thought that the situation was somewhat strange. However, they couldn't understand what Zhao Hai wanted.

At this time, another Commander said, "Right, Louis, why did you offer Zhao Hai five free services? Like Zhao Hai said, we're losing a lot on this deal. If Zhao Hai makes us do something difficult, then our losses would be even greater."

Louis looked at the Commander and said, "You don't understand why I did that? Then why did you also offer him five free services?"

The Commander smiled and said, "Since you made the offer, how could I not? I couldn't act special, or else I risk offending Zhao Hai."

As soon as Louis heard this, he couldn't help but roll his eyes. Then he said, "Just for this? Why don't think more? Zhao Hai can appear here without us knowing. Then doesn't that mean that he can appear anywhere else? What if he suddenly appeared in your room and asked for your life? Could you do anything? Giving him five free services isn't that much in comparison."

Chapter 1336: Preparing Full Power

Zhao Hai looked at Louis that was shown on the monitor. He watched the latest dialogue between the pirates. Zhao Hai didn't expect Louis to be this intelligent. He actually saw the most terrifying aspect of the Space.

Laura and the others were beside him. Upon hearing what Louis said, Laura smiled and said, "I didn't expect the pirates to have someone as smart as him. Brother Hai, how about having that person work for us?"

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "That would be difficult. Louis is the Pirate Paradise's most powerful Commander. It'll be difficult to subdue him."

Laura nodded, "We still don't know much about the situation in the Pirate Paradise. Once we have some understanding, we will try to deal with them. How are you planning to cooperate with the pirates?"

Zhao Hai replied, "Although they live a pirate's life, they still have some connections to families and sects of the Machine Field and the Cultivation Realm. After all, they need to sell off the things they robbed. They also need to buy living necessities. We can cooperate with them in this regard such as providing them with weapons or goods. We'll get close to them and we might slowly be able to pull some people towards Yalei 2."

Laura nodded, "That's a good method. We have plenty of goods in the Space. And we can't use them all up on our own. It would be good if we sell them to the pirates. At the same time, we could also acquire things from them."

Zhao Hai nodded. Then at this time Megan suddenly said, "Brother Hai, now is not the time to think about the pirates. We need to pay attention to the Yellow Daoist. That fellow wants to go to the Six Realms Battlefield to chase you down. If you don't act, then Captain Yuan and the others might suffer bad luck. If we let this be, then your influence would take a huge blow."

Zhao Hai's expression turned heavy. To be honest, if the Yellow Daoist really went to the Six Realms Battlefield, then he wouldn't be able to do anything else other than to face the battle head-on.

The situation with the Six Realms Battlefield was different to the Machine Field. If the Yellow Daoist attacks the Ashley Family's Dark Demon Planet, then the Machine Field would react. It would be then impossible for him to leave the Machine Field.

On the other hand, if the Yellow Daoist were to attack the Lock Mountain Range, nobody would say anything. Since it was the Six Realms Battlefield, any method was fair play.

This was where Zhao Hai felt a headache. At his current state, he wasn't the Yellow Daoist's opponent. Although there was a silent agreement in the Six Realms Battlefield to not attack using a Transcending Tribulation Expert, the current situation was different.

Zhao Hai's growth was too fast. And he has a grudge with the Yellow Daoist. Therefore, if the Yellow Daoist were to deal with the Machine Field, then the other realms would certainly be happy and wouldn't object. In the end, Zhao Hai would have to confront the Yellow Daoist directly.

Laura knit her brows, then he turned to Zhao Hai and said, "Brother Hai, we should tell Captain Yuan about this. We can't ignore this for long. We better make more yin lightning mines. As long as we use them in large quantities, even the Yellow Daoist would feel a headache."

Zhao Hai nodded, "Alright, then we'll make more yin lightning mines just in case. I'll go see Captain Yuan now. We aren't against normal experts this time. This is a Transcending Tribulation Expert. If we don't make preparations, we'll suffer a lot."

Laura nodded. Then Zhao Hai turned his head to Cai'er and said, "Cai'er, from now on, focus on fully equipping the Undead with weapons and armor. Also, install Machine Field cannons into the beast-shaped Undead."

Cai'er complied. The Space has prepared a lot of Machine Field cannons. These cannons were used on battleships, so their offensive strength was extraordinary. However, these cannons were extremely heavy. Therefore, they couldn't just be installed into the Undead. But since they were in a crisis at this time, they have no choice but to use these cannons.

In fact, Zhao Hai still had a lot of means to use. For example, he could make the Undead use a lot of yin lightning mines. He could also buy more Silverback Gold-winged Bugs from the Space's shop. The Silverback Gold-winged Bugs were strong. They could be used to fight the Yellow Daoist.

However, Zhao Hai quickly gave up on these ideas. He can make yin lightning mines, but if he used a massive amount of them, then everyone would know his strength. When the time comes, even the Machine Field would be afraid of him.

On the other hand, he also cannot release a large number of Silverback Gold-winged bugs. These bugs were obtained from Fabio Planet. If Zhao Hai released a large number of them, then he would attract the attention of the Cultivation Realm. One must know that the Cultivation Realm deeply dreaded the Bug Race.

On the other hand, releasing beast-shaped undead with magic cannons was still acceptable. Cannons were used in the Machine Field and there were plenty of them. Zhao Hai can get a large number of them from certain channels.

After he dealt with these things, Zhao Hai appeared inside Yuan's fort. The fort had been quite peaceful recently. Nobody went out to go hunting. After all, Zhao Hai just defeated a group of Cultivators and even received three servants. The people from the other realms all run away in fear. If they wanted to hunt, then they would have to go to the core battlefield. However, going there would be very dangerous and they would need to prepare a lot of things.

The people greeted Zhao Hai as soon as they saw him. Zhao Hai also greeted them with a smile before heading towards Yuan's room.

Since Yuan became the Lock Mountain Range Alliance's leader, the matters he needed to take care of has increased. And since the alliance has just been created, they still don't have a headquarters. Therefore, the representatives could only communicate through the computer.

Fortunately, all the computers here were connected to a network. In addition to the representatives of the alliance, the Captains of each camp were also connected. Even if they have their own headquarters, they might not stay there for a long time. Therefore, doing things this way was just right for them.

Yuan didn't expect to handle this much work. The Lock Mountain Range actually had so many issues. Weapons for a lot of forts have fallen into disrepair for many years. Energy blocks were also in short supply. If the enemies attacked these areas, then the people from those camps would die. For many years, the people from those camps sent requests only to be ignored. Now that the alliance has been established, the captains from these camps sent their reports to Yuan. Organizing these reports to send them to the higher-ups wasn't an easy task.

While Yuan was having a conference on his computer, he suddenly heard a knock on his door. He knit his brows slightly. He has given instructions to not disturb him unless something important happens. Yuan turned his head towards the other representatives and said, "It seems like the fort has something they need from me." The others didn't blame Yuan. After all, they were also captains of their own forts. There were plenty of things that they needed to do.

Yuan opened the door and saw that it was Zhao Hai. He couldn't help but stare, then he immediately said, "Little Hai, come in quickly." If it were any other person, Yuan would have only exchanged a few words. But he couldn't do that with Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai's strength and status was already great, he couldn't treat Zhao Hai like anybody else.

Zhao Hai entered the door and saw the other alliance representatives on the computer, then he bowed and said, "Zhao Hai has seen the Captains. I apologize for disturbing your meeting."

The other representatives said that they don't mind it. Although they were captains, they couldn't be impolite towards Zhao Hai. Yuan looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Little Hai, what did you come here for?"

Zhao Hai nodded and said, "Captain, I have something to tell you. I received information that Huang Daoran is returning to the Cultivation Realm. Moreover, he's prepared to immediately leave for the Six Realms Battlefield to deal with us."

Upon hearing this, Yuan's expression changed. He knew who Huang Daoran was. He was the Transcending Tribulation Expert that ambushed Zhao Hai. He never expected him to come to the Six Realms Battlefield. This was absolutely bad news.

Yuan looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Is this information accurate?"

Zhao Hai nodded, "It is. Huang Daoran just left the Pirate Paradise to return to the Cultivation Realm. I believe that once he arrives, he will immediately go to the Six Realms Battlefield as soon as possible. He will not let me off. And if I don't fight, he will attack the Lock Mountain Range."

Yuan nodded. Zhao Hai's words were also heard by the other captains. Yuan understood that these captains needed to hear this information as well. After all, defending the Lock Mountain Range needed everyone's help.

Yuan nodded, his expression was heavy as he sat in front of the computer and said, "Did everyone hear that? Immediately send the information to all camps. Make everyone prepare. We'll report this matter to the higher-ups. We need them to send weapons as soon as possible."

The others nodded. The information that Zhao Hai brought was very crucial for the Machine Field. A Transcending Tribulation Expert wanted to attack them. The consequences would be dreadful if they weren't prepared.

Chapter 1337: A Small Thing That Affects The Whole Situation

Yuan began to mobilize the entire Lock Mountain Range. Although everyone in the mountain range knew that Huang Daoran's reason for coming was to kill Zhao Hai, they didn't complain about working towards the upcoming fight. This was because Zhao Hai was part of the Lock Mountain Range.

The people in the Lock Mountain Range had always been united. If a fort were to experience trouble, the others would willingly come to help. People from the Machine Field fought against the other realms for so many years. Almost every day, people were reported to have been killed. The hatred caused by this has merged the hearts of the people in the Lock Mountain Range. Even those who just arrived at the battlefield would be infected by this sentiment in a short period of time.

Zhao Hai's cosmic rise brought the Machine Field's reputation to another level. This allowed those in the Lock Mountain Range to look at the other realms eye-to-eye. This caused those in the mountain range to look favorably upon Zhao Hai.

Additionally, Zhao Hai won against the Cultivation Realm time and time again. This caused the Machine Field to vent their frustrations towards the Cultivators. It didn't take long for the mountain range to treat Zhao Hai as one of them.

To the people in the Lock Mountain Range, Huang Daoran looking for trouble with Zhao Hai was the same as looking for trouble with them. Therefore, the entire mountain range moved as one to prepare the defensive line.

Once the gears of war started turning, Yuan led the other alliance representatives to leave the battlefield, designating their most capable men as their deputies. Then they flew with full power to report to the Machine Field's higher-ups.

When the higher-ups heard this information, they were very shocked. They immediately used all of their informants in the Cultivation Realm to inquire about the situation. At the same time, they gave Yuan and the others the weapons that they needed. This was the quickest handover of supplies that Yuan and the others experienced.

The Machine Field's higher-ups wanted to repair their relationship with Zhao Hai. This was because of Zhao Hai's huge potential. Huang Daoran's threat of attacking the Lock Mountain Range was equal to threatening the Machine Field's bottom line. The Machine Field's higher-ups couldn't do much in the Six Realms Battlefield. Those in the Lock Mountain Range rarely listened to their commands. But at the same time, they don't need to manage the mountain range too much.

For the Machine Field, those in the Lock Mountain Range were akin to disobedient subordinates. They will sometimes talk back to you, but since they had skill you're fine with it. Therefore, although the higher-ups were somewhat dissatisfied with the Lock Mountain Range, they would still give them some supplies, albeit lacking.

But this time, Huang Daoran wanted to attack Zhao Hai. This meant that he was also planning to attack the Lock Mountain Range, which poses a threat to the Machine Field's interests. The Machine Field couldn't just let this go. Therefore, with regards to Yuan's requests, they immediately handed it over. They even gave Yuan more than what they asked for.

Moreover, the Machine Field has ordered a mobilization order. As long as they confirm that Zhao Hai's information was accurate, retired soldiers of the Lock Mountain Range would be called over in preparation to reinforce the Lock Mountain Range.

The Machine Field's higher-ups were clearly aware of how weak their standing in the Six Realms Battlefield was. If this Yellow Daoist really intends to attack the Lock Mountain Range, then that wouldn't be good for them. The other realms might even take this chance to add oil to the fire. This matter doesn't only involve Zhao Hai, it might even affect the territory that the Machine Field held.

Therefore, the Machine Field's higher-ups invested a lot of capital in order to defend the Lock Mountain Range and repel Huang Daoran. And if some people wanted to take advantage of the situation, they needed to be taught a lesson.

The Six Realms Battlefield just had too many precious resources. There were even things that could only be obtained there. The Machine Field wouldn't just let these things go easily. If the Machine Field was truly defeated in the Six Realms Battlefield, then it would be much harder for it to defend against the other realms in the future.

The Machine Field's higher-ups don't blame Zhao Hai for this trouble. After all, this wasn't something that Zhao Hai did intentionally. Although the old fogies of the Machine Field suppressed people internally, they were still aware that the real threat were the other realms.

They suppressed people internally because of interests. But resisting the other realms was for their greater interests. The Machine Field's higher-ups knew clearly that the World of Cultivation was ruled by the Cultivators. The only people they could suppress were those in the Machine Field since they were weaker. As for the other realms, they could only resist.

Because of these reasons, the Machine Field's higher ups acted fast, which was rare. Reinforcements were being transported en masse to prepare for action.

To say that the other realms were unaware of the huge movement of the Machine Field was impossible. The other realms looked at the Machine Field with unease, so they also mobilized their people.

The Yellow Daoist didn't expect this development. He just wanted to take revenge, but he ended up causing a huge movement. The atmosphere in the Six Realms Battlefield turned tense in no time. People who went hunting in the core battlefield had basically disappeared.

Zhao Hai was also surprised when he saw the reaction of the Machine Field and the other realms. He didn't expect this matter to blow to these proportions. If this continues, then the entire Six Realms Battlefield would turn into a hopeless mess. But it was already impossible for him to stop things from happening. The Machine Field has mobilized their people, the same was true for the other realms. Even if the Machine Field stopped, the other realms would just use this opportunity to steal the Machine Field's domain in the Six Realms Battlefield.

Zhao Hai sat inside the Space as he bitterly smiled. Then he turned to Cai'er and said, "Cai'er, buy some Silverback Gold-winged Bugs from the Space's shop. Accelerate their growth so that they can mature as soon as possible. Once this situation goes out of control, we need the strength to survive."

Cai'er nodded. Then Zhao Hai continued, "From now on, focus the Space's production into making potions. Give cultivation potions to Jia Ding Shan and the Undead. We need them to increase their strength. We also need to increase the output of our healing potions."

Cai'er complied. These things weren't too difficult to accomplish. In fact, the Space already had a lot of potions in stock. The Space could make them easily. Therefore, it wasn't difficult to increase their production.

However, one could see how anxious Zhao Hai was from the order that he gave. He was basically getting ready for war.

Laura looked at the monitor and could see that the entire Six Realms Battlefield has turned into a huge gunpowder keg. It might be quiet now, but it would only take a spark for this keg to explode. When that time comes, the heavens and the earth would certainly be overturned.

This matter was ultimately related to Zhao Hai. And with Zhao Hai's character, he can't just ignore the Machine Field. Even if he reveals his strength, he would still go all out to fight the other realms.

With this thought in mind, Laura turned to Zhao Hai and said, "Brother Hai, don't forget about the yellowsand worms of Yellowsand Planet. Those fellows aren't weak. Also, we should catch some astral beasts. This could improve our strength in a short time. Moreover, we can send those astral beasts to our evil qi planet to cultivate. As long as these beasts succeed, their fighting strength would certainly increase by a lot."

Zhao Hai thought about it before nodding, "Good. Since everyone is preparing, we can go to the Yellowsand Planet and act like we're there to practice. Nobody should suspect us."

Lizzy frowned and said, "Brother Hai, how about going to Fabio Planet to catch some bugs?"

Without waiting for Zhao Hai to speak, Cai'er interjected, "I'm afraid that wouldn't be good. Fabio Planet is somewhat special. The bugs in that planet were very fierce. Moreover, the Cultivators stationed people there. If we go to Fabio Planet, we would certainly be discovered by the Cultivators. That wouldn't be good."

Zhao Hai nodded and said, "Also, if we go to Fabio Planet, we still can't catch bugs that are stronger than the Silverback Gold-winged bugs. By the way, Cai'er, don't decrease our monitoring of the Five Gates Sect. Once Lu Wei heads out, even if it's on the sect's planet, I would still catch him."

Cai'er complied, "Young Master can rest assured. As long as the planet is in the Space's map, I can monitor it all the time."

Zhao Hai nodded, then he let out a long breath. Watching this matter unfold, he understood how a small thing can affect a whole situation. Now, the Six Realms Battlefield has turned into a mess.

What's more depressing for Zhao Hai was that the other protagonist of this situation, Huang Daoran, hasn't even arrived in the Cultivation Realm. It can be said that Huan Daoran hasn't even made a move, yet the reaction was already there. If people knew this, they would certainly be speechless.

When he thought of this, Zhao Hai could only sigh. He couldn't blame the Machine Field for reacting this intensely, causing this whole situation in the Six Realms Battlefield. This was the sorrow of a weak power, they need to react intensely. Otherwise they would be at a disadvantage, which would be even more disadvantageous for them.

Chapter 1338

Yellowsand Planet has been rather peaceful recently. The people from the other realms rarely come to this planet anymore because of the recent developments.

However, Yellowsand Planet was different today. A large number of Undead suddenly appeared along with some yellowsand worms. After the worms arrived, they immediately led the Undead to sweep the planet and catch astral beasts. Upon being captured, the beasts disappeared.

Yellowsand Planet wasn't a simple place. The astral beasts here were very powerful, some were even comparable to Transcending Tribulation Experts. And even if a Transcending Tribulation Expert came, they couldn't necessarily face an astral wind beast. This was because the attacks of these beasts carry astral qi.

The Undead who captured astral beasts were naturally sent by Zhao Hai. He needed these astral wind beasts. If he raised them inside the Space, then his fighting strength would increase.

The Space was also arming a large number of beast-shaped Undead. These Undead were now wearing full body armors as well as massive cannons. It can be said that Zhao Hai had equipped them very well.

Compared to Zhao Hai who had Cai'er to manage everything as well as the processing machine to make materials, the Machine Field was different. The things that the realm needed to prepare were much more complicated.

Currently, the main fighting strength of the Machine Field were the battleships and mechs. Needless to say, disassembling a battleship and bringing it over to the Six Realms Battlefield was impossible. Moreover, the consumption of a single battleship was huge. In the Six Realms Battlefield, where energy supplies couldn't even support a planet, battleships would suffer a drop in ability.

Mechs could be brought to the Six Realms Battlefield. However, the issue lies on a mech's similarly massive need for energy. Moreover, a mech's short operating time was fatal. This weakness wasn't too obvious in the World of Cultivation since mechs operate alongside battleships which could act as supply points.

Without battleships, transport and supplying mechs has been limited. In fact, the Machine Field worked extremely hard in order to gain a domain in the Six Realms Battlefield. They constructed a lot of supply points for these mechs to use.

However, it was still very difficult to see mechs fighting in the Six Realms Battlefield. Although the Machine Field has supply points, these supply points were only located on the realm's domain. In other words, Mechs in the Six Realms Battlefield could only defend. It was impossible for them to attack.

Normally, the Lock Mountain Range was a very well-guarded place. Therefore, the Machine Field's higher-ups wouldn't send them mechs. There was no need for them. However, they would still send people to perform maintenance on the supply points just in case a war happens.

This time the Machine Field sent a large number of mechs to the Six Realms Battlefield. The supply points had also been activated. At the same time, combatants with spatial items entered the battlefield with supplies. These supplies didn't only include things for mechs, but also commodities. Large numbers of non-combatants also entered the supply points in order to handle the logistics.

The difference between mechs and regular soldiers was that maintenance for mechs was indispensable. Otherwise, it would affect the performance of the mechs. These logistics staff handle this matter.

The mechs and supply points formed a huge defensive network between the Lock Mountain Range and the Iron Bridge Fort. Even if the Lock Mountain Range were to be broken through, the enemies would still have a hard time advancing through the Machine Field's territory.

Besides mechs, practitioners were also sent to the Six Realms Battlefield. The Machine Field stated their stance on the Six Realms Battlefield with this action.

After several days of reconnaissance, the people from the other realms finally understood the reason why the Machine Field suddenly began to act. It was actually because of Huang Daoran.

Zhao Hai's escape from Huang Daoran made the other realms curious. Huang Daoran was quite famous, and Zhao Hai managed to escape from his ambush. This was truly surprising.

The information the other realms received was that the Machine Field began to take action once Huang Daoran left the Machine Field for the Cultivation Realm. It was said that Huang Daoran threatened to enter the Six Realms Battlefield in order to chase Zhao Hai down. No wonder the Machine Field exploded into action.

Hearing this information, the other realms didn't know whether to laugh or cry. They didn't expect the Machine Field to move just because of a threat from Huang Daoran. Originally, they thought that the Machine Field planned to use this opportunity while the realm was still feeling the vigor from Zhao Hai's achievement. Now, it seems like it was a completely different matter.

The other realms immediately stopped their mobilization towards the Six Realms Battlefield. This was because there was no longer any need for it. After all, the Six Realms Battlefield wasn't their only source of income, other places needed the manpower. In the past, they thought that the Machine Field was planning to launch a war. Now that things had been clarified, there was no longer any need to be vigilant.

However, they didn't bring back the people who had already returned to the Six Realms Battlefield. Right now, the people from the other realms were waiting to see the result. If Huang Daoran succeeds and the Lock Mountain Range turns to chaos, then they can profit for cheap.

Since they were getting things for cheap, they didn't need too much troops. Their current strength in the Six Realms Battlefield was already enough. Right now, the other realms were in a wait-and-see approach.

The attitude of the other realms reflected what they felt inside. They weren't optimistic about Huang Daoran's attack. No mistake, Huang Daoran was a Transcending Tribulation Expert, and the Machine Field didn't have a Transcending Tribulation Expert. But at the same time, the other realms didn't have as many practitioners as the Machine Field. They also didn't have as many mechs and battleships. The human wave attacks from the Machine Field were considered a headache by the other realms.

The reason why the Machine Field was able to have a firm foundation in the World of Cultivation was because of its effort in going all out and their bravery when faced with death. Their people were unafraid of death. In order to kill ten people, the Machine Field was willing to trade dozens. Such desperate action was dreaded by the other realms. After all, the other realms weren't unified. Moreover, their relationship was not good.

Because of this information, the Six Realms Battlefield's atmosphere suddenly relaxed. Zhao Hai didn't expect this to happen. Before, the other realms seemed to be aggressive. Zhao Hai thought that a war was inevitable. Now it seems like he was overthinking.

Zhao Hai was currently inside the Space, looking at the people hunting in the core battlefield. He doesn't know if he would laugh or cry. He turned his head to Laura and said, "I didn't expect the other realms to be this spontaneous. Isn't it strange? A single information can get them anxious but another could relax them immediately. Aren't they afraid of getting a heart attack?"

Laura and the others laughed. Then Laura said, "I think it's because of their mutual reservations against each other. They aren't ready to go all out on a single thing. After all, in the World of Cultivation, only the Cultivation Realm has rich resources, the other realms were living in bad conditions. Compared to the Machine Field, the other realms were more concerned about the Cultivation Realm. The other realms knew that if the Machine Field were to launch a large-scale attack in the Six Realms Battlefield, they wouldn't attack the Cultivation Realm. Doing so would be courting death. Therefore, the other realms took action and prepared for war. And after the Cultivation Realm saw what the other realms were doing, they also mobilized their forces. The Cultivation Realm was afraid that the other realms would unify against them. As a result, the Six Realms Battlefield became tense. It can be said that if the Machine Field really sent troops to attack, then the entire Six Realms Battlefield would turn into a huge boiling pot of chaos."

Lizzly smiled and said, "They were scared about the Machine Field's actions. But after knowing the reason, they felt relieved. Moreover, they don't suspect that the information was fake. After all, Transcending Tribulation Experts have some freedom in the Cultivation Realm."

Megan also nodded and said, "Perhaps the other realms were waiting to see the Machine Field make a fool of themselves. At the same time, they wanted to gain benefits for cheap. They wouldn't go all out just for the Machine Field. Besides the Cultivation Realm, the other realms rarely fight a fierce battle. Otherwise, they would be taken advantage of by the others."

Zhao Hai let out a long breath, then he said, "To put it bluntly, besides the Cultivation Realm, the other realms were still too poor. With their complicated relationship with each other, it was impossible for them to unite. Otherwise, they wouldn't have been suppressed by the Cultivation Realm."

Laura nodded and said, "Although there won't be a massive war in the Six Realms Battlefield, the crisis of the Machine Field still exists. After all, that Huang Daoran has just returned to the Cultivation Realm. Nobody knows when he would enter the Six Realms Battlefield. And if he doesn't enter the Six Realms Battlefield, we would be in trouble."

Zhao Hai agreed, "I didn't expect the Machine Field's response to be this huge. But everything has already happened, so there's no need to talk about it. Now I want to see if Huan Daroan dares to come to the Six Realms Battlefield."

Margaret, who was silent, said, "He will certainly come. Brother Hai, it's well known that the Machine Field is weak. You're a Nascent Soul Expert that managed to escape from Huan Daoran. With how arrogant Cultivators were, this would be a great shame for him. Only by killing you would he cleanse this shame."

Zhao Hai nodded. He knew how important face was to Cultivators. Even if Zhao Hai was as strong as Huang Daoran, he would still go to the Six Realms Battlefield. There's only one way for Cultivators to throw away their face, and that was to be like Li Lin and the others or by death.

Zhao Hai coldly snorted and said, "Let's see if he really dares to fight against the Machine Field."

The Machine Field was no longer increasing its troops in the Six Realms Battlefield. In the past, they kept sending troops into the battlefield because they were wary of the other realms. But now that the other realms had stopped, it acted as a signal for the Machine Field to stop sending troops. Otherwise, things would get troublesome.

The Machine Field's higher-ups weren't in their positions for a day or two. They could understand the meaning just by looking at the slight actions of the other parties. Therefore, they stopped increasing their troops. The defenses of the battlefield have been completed. Even if Huang Daoran attacks the Lock Mountain Range, the Machine Field could still hold out.

Although Huang Daoran was a Transcending Tribulation Expert, the Machine Field has experience in dealing with people like him. One should know that it was impossible for the Cultivation Realm to not send a Transcending Tribulation Expert during their battles against the Machine Field. The Machine Field fought a Transcending Tribulation Expert for more than one or two times. The price paid by the Machine Field was huge, but because of this they were able to exist independently. This meant that those Transcending Tribulation Experts were still unable to take on the entire Machine Field.

Regardless of what the Machine Field was preparing, Zhao Hai has only one thing to do. He would do all he can to block Huang Daoran. Otherwise, the Machine Field would be sacrificing a lot of people. Zhao Hai doesn't like such a result.

Zhao Hai patiently waited. Yuan and the others patiently waited. The Machine Field patiently waited. The other realms patiently waited. They were all waiting for Huang Daoran's response. Because of this, Zhao Hai was now convinced that Huang Daoran would go to the Six Realms Battlefield. At this point, even if Huang Daoran doesn't go, the Cultivation Realm would force him to.

The fact that Huang Daoran was going to chase Zhao Hai down in the Six Realms Battlefield was known by everyone in the Cultivation Realm. If Huang Daoran didn't go, then others would think that he's afraid of the Machine Field's preparations. It was precisely because of this that Huang Daoran would definitely attack Zhao Hai. This matter was related to the face of the entire Cultivation Realm.

Chapter 1339

Huang Daoran's life hasn't been great recently. Although he's a guest elder of the Pink Clouds Pavillion, his status in the Cultivation Realm was much worse compared to those in Great Sects. In the end, he's still a Rogue Transcending Tribulation Expert. In the eyes of Great Sects, he was just like any other expert. The reason why Huang Daoran agreed to deal with Zhao Hai was because he was offered benefits upon completion. At the same time, those people from the Great Sects sent him strict orders. He had no choice but to go.

Huang Daoran wouldn't have thought that instead of doing a meritorious service, he would instead let Zhao Hai escape. This was a huge stain on his reputation.

Originally, Huang Daoran plans to ask for entry to the Six Realms Battlefield once he returns. But what he didn't expect was that even before he returned to the Cultivation Realm, everyone already knew about his intentions. This made him puzzled. He only told those who traveled with him. Even the pirates didn't know. His teammates returned to the Cultivation Realm with him. So how did this news spread in advance?

Of course, the main issue wasn't the fact that the news has spread so easily. Because of the move that the Machine Field made, the Six Realms Battlefield turned tense. This greatly increased the attention towards this matter. Now, even if he doesn't want to, he would still have to enter the Six Realms Battlefield.

Although Huang Daoran wanted to enter the Six Realms Battlefield in order to chase Zhao Hai's down, he didn't want to do so under the command of other people. This made him feel uncomfortable.

Also, the Great Sects reminded him indirectly that he can only succeed this time. There was no room for failure. If he were to get defeated, then the Great Sects would certainly not let him off.

Such words weren't merely reminders, they were more like an ultimatum. This caused Huang Daoran to feel uncomfortable. However, he couldn't do anything about it. Even if he was a Transcending Tribulation Expert, it was still impossible for him to resist the Great Sects.

However, this was also a good thing for him. Just like the Machine Field, not everyone can go to the Six Realms Battlefield. This quota was generally determined by the Great Sects. Before he could go to the Six Realms Battlefield, then he would need to be given a spot by the Great Sects. Seeing the increase in his cultivation speed while in the Six Realms Battlefield, Huang Daoran thought that the journey was worth it.

Every several years, the Great Sects would select a talented rogue cultivator to enter the Six Realms Battlefield. This wasn't necessarily to train the rogue cultivator. It's possible that they were intending to make the rogue cultivator act as a cannon fodder.

Huang Daoran was also a famous talent in the past. However, he wasn't willing to enter the Great Sects to practice. Therefore, he should have no qualifications to enter the Six Realms Battlefield. But after becoming an elder in the Pink Clouds Pavilion, the Pavilion paid a big price for him to get inside. Then when he entered the Six Realms Battlefield, he was fortunate enough to succeed in his tribulation and become a Transcending Tribulation Expert. Because of this, he had always been an elder in the Pavilion.

However, he didn't have any opportunity to enter the Six Realms Battlefield ever since he became a Transcending Tribulation Expert. The Six Realms Battlefield was treated as a private property of the Great Sects. They wouldn't just allow others to take a piece of the pie.

Because of this, Huang Daoran expected to pay a lot of money in order to enter the Six Realms Battlefield. But now that this matter has been blown out of proportions, those Great Sects wanted him to repair the face of the Cultivation Realm. They also want him to remove the Zhao Hai, so that he could no longer enter the Six Realms Battlefield.

At this time, Huang Daoran has yet to enter the Six Realms Battlefield. He's currently resting in the Pink Cloud Pavilion. Opposite him was a very pretty woman. This female Cultivator might not look special, but she has a noble temperament. This temperament could provoke a man to conquer her. She had eyebrows that curve like the mountains, black shining eyes and pearly white teeth. Her face was tender like a peach. Her waist was as slender as a willow. Her twin peaks weren't large, but they weren't small either. She was a combination of angelic and devilish.

However, Huang Daoran didn't dare to pay attention to the beauty of this woman. In fact, there weren't many people who dared have any ideas on this woman in the Cultivation Realm. This was because this woman had a reputation, she was the master of the Pink Cloud Pavilion, a Cultivator in Nascent Soul Stage and half-step into Transcending Tribulation. Such identity earned her the nickname Pink Cloud Phoenix. This was to point out her identity as the Pavilion Master of the Pink Cloud Pavilion. And the weapon she used was named Golden Phoenix Scarf.

Huang Daoran looked at this woman, then he said, "Pavilion Master, I'm afraid this wouldn't be easy to handle. That Zhao Hai is very hard to deal with. The last time I faced him, he was able to easily escape despite being injured."

The Pavilion Master knit her brows and said, "Uncle Huang, those Great Sects didn't put pressure on you. I'm under pressure as well. I'm afraid you have to go through with this. Zhen Ling is incompetent and can only let Uncle Huang take the risk."

Huang Daoran replied, "Pavilion Master, there's no need to apologize. This is something this old man started. Naturally, I'll have to end it myself. Moreover, entering the Six Realms Battlefield isn't that dangerous. I'm dealing with Zhao Hai, not the entire Machine Field. I will act within my means. Pavilion Master doesn't need to worry."

Zhen Ling sighed and said, "I'm afraid that Zhao Hai will avoid fighting you. If that's the case, then things would be very troublesome for you. Uncle Huang, remember that you can't be enemies with the entire Machine Field. It'll be bad for the Pink Clouds Pavilion and even the Cultivation Realm."

Huang Daoran nodded and said, "Pavilion Lord can rest assured. I know what to do."

Zhen Ling nodded, then she sighed and asked, "Do you have anything you need? If so, I'll prepare them for you."

Huang Daoran smiled faintly and said, "There's no need. I'm just dealing with Zhao Hai. Pavilion Master, I'll enter the Six Realms Battlefield three days later. I won't be seeing Pavilion Master in the next few days."

Zhen Ling nodded, then she stood up and said, "Alright, but if Uncle Huang needs something, immediately inform me." Huang Daoran nodded.

Although Zhen Ling was the Pavilion Master and Huang Daoran was just a seated guest elder, she still needed to be polite to him because of his strength. It can be said that Huang Daoran's position in the Pink Clouds Pavilion was quite high.

Huang Daoran's situation didn't only affect himself, it had an impact on the Pink Clouds Pavilion as well. Although Huang Daoran wasn't the only Transcending Tribulation Expert of the Pavilion, his relationship with the Pavilion was the most intimate. This was because he could only reach his current strength due to the Pavilion's help. This caused Huang Daoran to be deeply grateful towards the Pavilion. Therefore, this matter caused the Pavilion to be anxious.

The Pink Clouds Pavilion was a strong influence. However, they also have a weak point; they were only a merchant group not a sect. Moreover, being a merchant group, the Pavilion was composed of several Cultivator Clans. The Zhen Family was only one of the major shareholders of the group. The reason why Zhen Ling became the Pavilion Master was because of her skills in doing business. But to say that she could make major decisions for the Pavilion was very hard.

Huang Daoran's relationship with the Zhen Family was the best. His entry to the Six Realms Battlefield in the past was given to him by the Zhen Family. Therefore, Huang Daoran's matter affected them the most.

The Zhen Family and Huang Daoran could no longer deal with this matter in a low-key manner. This was because the Great Sects had intervened. If the Zhen Family and Huang Daoran couldn't handle this matter well, then those Great Sects would certainly blame them.

The Pavilion wasn't weak and they had several Transcending Tribulation Elders. But if the Zhen Family and Huang Daoran offend the Great Sects, then the others would immediately cut them off to save the Pavilion. After all, the Pink Cloud Pavilion doesn't have any power to get the last word against the Great Sects.

This was a headache for Zhen Ling. She wasn't the kind of woman who's clueless. She has been controlling the Pink Clouds Pavilion all these years. Although she can't make major decisions on behalf of the Pavilion, nobody disrespected her. The other families were even satisfied with her leadership. This shows how much skill she had in business.

And in recent years, due to her extremely accurate eye for business, she was able to expand the Pink Cloud Pavilion's business. This allowed her to steadily hold the position of Pavilion Master. But at the same time, Zhen Ling knew that this matter would have a huge effect on her and the Zhen Family's position in the Pink Clouds Pavilion. Therefore, she couldn't help but worry.

The Pavilion was already under her control, but this doesn't mean that the other families had given up. She also needed to make some secret moves in order to hold her position, this was also part of her talent. And in addition to Huang Daoran's presence, she was able to lead the Pavilion. But if this matter couldn't be completed, then she might have to let go of her position of Pavilion Master.

Upon thinking of this, Zhen Ling couldn't help but feel her head ache. At the same time, she became more curious about Zhao Hai. When Huang Daoran went to deal with Zhao Hai, Zhen Ling started to collect information about him. Remembering all that information, Zhen Ling couldn't help but think that it was all fake. Zhao Hai was able to achieve all of it just a short time after ascending. This was something that practically never happened before.

She felt that Zhao Hai's strength was something that she wasn't able to fathom. This strength allowed Zhao Hai to grow continuously without stopping. Moreover, Zhen Ling was sure that if Zhao Hai was allowed to grow further, then he would become an extremely powerful expert in the World of Cultivation. It might even be possible for Zhao Hai to challenge the Cultivation Realm. Naturally, all of this was based on the premise that he passes through his current crisis!

Chapter 1340: Feng Baiming

Huang Daoran stood calmly in front of a transmission formation. Zheng Ling was also there along with her maidservant. Besides there three, there was also another Cultivator present. Normally, those manning the transmission formations were Qi Condensation Stage Cultivators. But right now, the one standing before the transmission formation was a Nascent Soul Expert. This Nascent Soul Expert bowed and said, "I have seen Daoist Huang Daoran. Daoist, please."

Huang Daoran nodded before standing on the transmission formation. The Nascent Soul Cultivator made some hand signals before activating the formation. A white light flashed before Huang Daoran vanished.

Zhen Ling looked at the transmission formation, then she sighed as she muttered, "I hope everything goes well." Then she turned to the Nascent Soul Cultivator and smiled faintly as she said, "Thanks for controlling the transmission formation. This is a small gift, please accept it.” Then she handed over a spatial bag to the cultivator.

This person wasn’t an officer, he was truly the person in charge of the transmission formation. It was just that this transmission formation led to the Six Realms Battlefield. Therefore, his status was quite different.

The Nascent Soul Expert operating the transmission formation had quite the strength. Normally, he was arrogant to people. But faced with Zhen Ling, he couldn’t only act politely. He knew how high this woman’s position was. He quickly accepted the bag and said, “Thank you, Pavilion Master.”

Zhen Ling smiled faintly and said, “There’s no need to be polite. This little girl still has something to do, so I will say goodbye first.”

The cultivator immediately said, “Then I’ll see Pavilion Master off.” Zhen Ling gave a salute before leading her maidservant to leave.

.....

A white light flashed as Huang Daoran appeared in the middle of a transmission formation. Outside the formation were several Nascent Soul Experts. When these people saw Huang Daoran, they immediately saluted and said, “We have seen Daoist Huang Daoran.”

Huang Daoran nodded and said, “I’ve troubled everyone.”

The Cultivators immediately bowed and said, “We won’t dare. Daoist, your cave mansion has been prepared. Please follow us.” Huang Daoran nodded before following behind the group.

The Cultivation realm’s transmission formation to the Six Realms Battlefield was also in a room. As soon as they went out of the room, Huang Daoran was met with a large building. This whole building was made out of red stone. His red stone was a special kind of stone present in the Six Realms Battlefield. It’s characteristic was its hardness. The place where Huang Daoran appeared was the Cultivation Realm’s most important fortress in the Six Realms Battlefield, the Bloodstone Fort.

Huang Daoran wasn't anxious to leave. He stood outside the transmission formation's room and looked at the fort. Then he sighed and said, "Bloodstone Fort, I didn't expect that I would return. This Huang Daoran has fond memories of it."

A Cultivator beside him smiled and said, "I heard that Daoist succeeded his tribulation in the Bloodstone Fort. I really envy Daoist."

Hearing this, Huang Daoran couldn't help but feel proud. He chuckled and said, "Dozens of years passed by in a blink of an eye. Yet the Bloodstone Fort remains unchanged."

A Nascent Soul Expert smiled, "The Bloodstone Fort cannot expand nor can we increase our people here. We're already the strongest in the Six Realms Battlefield. If we increase our strength, then the other realms would feel uneasy. When that time comes, they might unite and act against us."

Huang Daoran nodded, "The situation in the Six Realms Battlefield is very complex. It's good that we aren't increasing our troops. Alright, let's go."

The other Cultivators nodded. Then they flew towards the Bloodstone Fort. The place where Huang Daoran would live wasn't in the fort but on a mountain beside it. The concentration of spiritual qi in the mountain was much stronger compared to in the fort. Residences on the mountain were reserved for Transcending Tribulation Experts. The Cultivation Realm stationed 10 Transcending Tribulation Experts in the Six Realms Battlefield all year round. However, these experts could only stay in their residence because it was impossible for them to enter battle. Transcending Tribulation Experts could only make the battlefield bloodier, and the six realms couldn't handle this much bloodshed. Therefore, the realms reached an agreement that only when their territory was attacked could Transcending Tribulation Experts make a move.

Among the Six Realms, only the Machine Field don't have any Transcending Tribulation Experts. However, nobody dared to underestimate them. This was because the nuclear bombs of the Machine Field were headaches to Transcending Tribulation Experts.

Nuclear bombs and Battleships were the trump cards of the Machine Field. There's nothing else to say about Battleships, they simply were flying fortresses.

On the other hand, Nuclear bombs were divided into many types in the Machine Field. There were large-scale nuclear bombs where one bomb was enough to destroy a planet. There were also smaller nuclear bombs, the same ones that Eric used to attack Zha o Hai. These smaller nuclear bombs weren't big, one could be held in a person's hand.

There were also nuclear bombs in the Six Realms Battlefield. However, these weren't used under normal circumstances. This was because it was almost impossible for a nuclear bomb to harm a Transcending Tribulation Expert.

The lethality of a nuclear bomb might be greater than a Transcending Tribulation Expert, but in the end it was just a dead object. Once a nuclear bomb was fired, a Transcending Tribulation Expert could just escape before it explodes. And with magic artifacts added, it was very hard for a nuclear bomb to hit a cultivator.

The reason why the Machine Field had nuclear bombs in the battlefield was because they intend to use it as deterrents. If a cultivator like Huang Daoran went to the Machine Field's territory to kill people, then the Machine Field could launch a nuclear bomb. However, the target of this nuclear bomb wasn't the Transcending Tribulation Expert. Instead, the bomb would be aimed towards the Cultivation Realm's territory. This kind of situation would no doubt hurt both sides.

Afraid of compelling the Machine Field to act desperately, the other realms didn't dare push them too hard. At the same time, the Machine Field wouldn't use these bombs unless necessary. The might of a nuclear bomb was absolutely devastating. Firing one would cause great losses to the Cultivation Realm. Launching a nuclear bomb was akin to waging war against the Cultivation Realm.

The Machine Field doesn't want to go into a full war against the Cultivation Realm. Moreover, the matter between Huang Daoran and Zhao Hai could be said to be a grievance between two people. Therefore, the Machine Field could only send troops to the Six Realms Battlefield. If a fight truly happens, then the other realms would certainly take advantage of it. The Machine Field also wouldn't be able to launch nuclear bombs. This was equal to offending the other realms. When the time comes, they might unite against the Machine Field.

With this in consideration, the other realms gained some ideas. They knew that the Machine Field wouldn't offend so many people.

The other realms' Transcending Tribulation Experts also assumed command over the Six Realms Battlefield. And just like the Cultivation Realm, they cannot move at will.

Huang Daoran's matter was an exception. He had grievances with Zhao Hai. Therefore, it was understandable for him to come here and make a move.

The ones suffering heavy losses this time would be the Machine Field. At present, they don't have a Transcending Tribulation Expert. Therefore, they could only use nuclear bombs as a deterrent. Moreover, they didn't have the flexibility that a Transcending Tribulation Expert can provide.

Huang Daoran entered the mountain beside Bloodstone Fort and went towards his cave mansion. His residence was very good. It was wide inside and it even had an alchemy room, crafting room, refining room, and other rooms. Each room also had ample space inside them.

Because of these rooms, the mountain could only have 18 mansions. Ten of these mansions were taken up by Transcending Tribulation Experts while the remaining eight were for special guests like Huang Daoran.

After Huang Daoran entered the cave mansion, the Nascent Soul Experts retreated. They knew that Transcending Tribulation Experts disliked being disturbed. Since this was the case, staying for long would just be inviting trouble.

As the Nascent Soul Cultivators retreated, a blue figure suddenly came out of the cave mansions. This cultivator was wearing dark-blue clothing. He looked 40 years old. He also had three strands of hair fluttering as though drifting naturally in the wind.

The man looked at Huang Daoran and then smiled faintly as he said, "Muclehead, you came. Hehe." Then he flew towards Huang Daoran's cave and said, "Old Friend, long time no see."

Muclehead, this was a derogatory term in the Cultivation Realm that describes those who only pursue strength. And Huang Daoran's nickname happens to be Strength Daoist.

However, this person's tone in speaking was filled with intimacy. When Huang Daoran heard this voice, he quickly went to the entrance of his mansion. Then upon seeing the man, he laughed and said, "I was wondering who it was. So it's you, Blacksmith. How did you end up in the Six Realms Battlefield?"

'Blacksmith' laughed and said, "You're really the Huang Daoran I know. I call you Musclehead and you call me Blacksmith. Hahaha. Only Huang Daoran would dare call this Feng Baiming that name."

Huang Daoran laughed and said, "You're a Great Elder of the Profound Clear Sect. Naturally nobody would dare call you Blacksmith. However, I'm not afraid of you. Haha. Come in, let's chat." Then the two walked shoulder-to-shoulder towards the cave mansion.

It must be said that not too many people call Feng Baiming by his nickname 'Blacksmith'. After all, not a lot of people know about his nickname nor its origin. Feng Baiming originated from the Rogue Cultivator Family. When he began cultivating, he didn't even have spiritual stones to use. He can only use wind spells in a refining room in order to heat people's fires. It was at that time that the two knew each other. Therefore, Huang Daoran can call Feng Baiming his nickname.

However, Feng Baiming was different from Huang Daoran. Huang Daoran was a Rogue Cultivator that ended up in the Pink Clouds Pavilion and became a guest elder. On the other hand, due to some accident, Feng Baiming ended up joining the Profound Clear Sect. Right now, he was able to become the sect's Great Elder.

Such status was extraordinary. This was because the Profound Clear Sect was a famous Great Sect in the Cultivation Realm. Their strength was formidable and nobody dared offend their disciples. One could imagine how high Feng Baiming's position was.

However, Feng Baiming was someone who kept old friendships close to his heart. His relationship with Huang Daoran was very good and it has been quite some time since the two met. Feng Baiming had just been stationed at the Six Realms Battlefield. He didn't expect Huang Daoran to end up here as well!