

Another World 1631

Chapter 1631: Buddhist Realm Visits

Zhao Hai looked calmly at the Sea of Clouds in front of him. He's currently at Hidden Cloud Village. The scenery of the island was getting better and better. Right now, half the population of the island comprises people from the Hundred Treasures Realm. They were now accustomed to living on the island. If it weren't for their appearance, they could be considered to be cultivators of the Cloudsea Territory.

The other half of the population were the original Cloudsea Territory cultivators. These cultivators were now quite strong. After several upgrades to their cloud beasts, their cultivation increased. Now most of these people were in the Transcending Tribulation Stage.

They still do the missions every day. Some missions were in the Cloudsea Territory and some were in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. The Cloudsea Territory cultivators were now very familiar with the battlefield.

This time Zhao Hai came to the Cloudsea Territory to take a look. Although the island has already been mapped by the Space, he still wanted to come and see it for himself.

Mu Yu has gone out to practice. Although it was still in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield, Zhao Hai doesn't know where he went. This trial would be important for Mu Yu. His rise to the Immortal Stage depended on it.

Tang Jie was standing beside Zhao Hai. Although Hidden Cloud Village was handed to him for management, Tang Jie didn't stay in the village all the time. Because of this, he didn't know as much as Zhao Hai about the village.

It has been two years and Mu Yu was busy attacking the Immortal Stage. On the other hand, Zhao Hai studied the cultivation methods of the Divergent Race. Because of this, the errands of the Hundred Treasures Realm were handed over to Tang Jie. Tang Jie's progress was very obvious. This doesn't only include cultivation, his proud bearing had also mellowed down.

Tang Jie turned to Zhao Hai and said, "Brother Hai, you became even more famous. All the realms in the battlefield are now calling you the Hell King. Hahaha. I heard that this nickname has been taken from the World of Cultivation." Tang Jie admired Zhao Hai very much. Tang Jie was a witness to how Zhao Hai reached his position step by step. Moreover, he wasn't opportunistic. Everything was gained through Zhao Hai's own abilities.

Zhao Hai smiled bitterly as he nodded and said, "That's my nickname back in the World of Cultivation. I didn't expect it to reach here."

Tang Jie laughed and said, "Who asked you to be ruthless? Your extermination of the Lion Race hasn't been done before in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield."

Zhao Hai gave him a look and said, "If we don't destroy them, we'll only be making unnecessary trouble for ourselves. Now Halfbeast Island is very good. With the Fox Race managing the other beast races, they're behaving themselves. Moreover, I made the Fox Race chase down the surviving members of the Lion Race. I also told the other races that providing shelter to the Lion Race is a crime. Everyone helping the Lion Race will be killed. This way, we'll be able to completely destroy the Lion Race. They will be a lesson to everyone who wants to mess with the Hundred Treasures Realm."

Tang Jie nodded and said, "And you really taught them a lesson. Not only Halfbeast Island, even our subordinate realms have become more obedient. Brother Hai, you might not know this, but a lot of people in the realm now regard you as an idol."

Zhao Hai forced a smile and said, "That's fine with me. Once Brother Yu comes back, I'm afraid he'll be at the Immortal Stage. He'll be a hero of the Hundred Treasures Realm."

Tang Jie shook his head and said, "That's different. Brother Yu has been a key training genius since he was a child. He's talented and everyone admires him very much. But in the end, everyone will think that he was given a great environment. On the other hand, you ascended from the lower realms and reached your current situation with your own efforts. This is the reason everyone admires you the most."

Zhao Hai smiled and said, "Forget it. There's no use admiring me. There's no use in admiring me. In the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield, nobody can tell me what to do. In any case, I don't care about what anyone thinks about me."

Tang Jie laughed. He looked at Zhao Hai with a hint of admiration in his eyes. Then he said, "I heard that the Elders are planning to punish the other high-grade realms due to what happened with the Lion Race. What do you think about this?"

Zhao Hai thought about it and said, "Giving them a lesson is also good. Otherwise, those fellows wouldn't behave. The Hundred Treasures Realm is now much stronger compared to those guys. If we don't show our fangs, then those guys wouldn't know their place."

Tang Jie nodded, "Those guys don't know what's good for them. They should be thanking us for not making a move on them. But instead they provoked us. They should be taught a lesson."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Alright. Let's forget about this matter. Let's leave it to those above. As for the Cloudsea Territory, I think we should begin our expansion."

As he said that, a jade sword message flew in and stopped in front of Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai stared and then searched the jade sword message with his spiritual force. His expression quickly changed as he said, "I need to go back. It says here that there's an urgent matter. Maybe something happened."

Tang Jie nodded and said, "Alright. I still have to stay here for a few days. I haven't been here for a long time. Also, I like to stay here." Zhao Hai smiled faintly and then nodded before turning around and leaving.

When Zhao Hai returned to the Hundred Treasures Realm and arrived at the conference hall, he heard Zong Ze's voice saying, "Little Hai come in." Zhao Hai responded and then walked in.

Upon entering, Zhao Hai discovered two monks along with Zong Ze and the others. The monks were dressed in grey robes and had medium build. They looked ordinary but had golden skins. Their eyes were closed as though they were asleep.

After looking at the two monks, Zhao Hai turned his head to Zong Ze and the others and then gave them a salute. Zong Ze's expression wasn't attractive. He waved his hand and said, "Little Hai, these two Masters are High Monks from the Buddhist Realm. They're looking for you."

Zhao Hai stared, he cupped his fist towards the monks and said, "Zhao Hai has seen the Masters. May I ask the reason why you're looking for me?"

The older of the two monks opened his eyes. His gaze shot out towards Zhao Hai like electricity. Although this wasn't an attack, the gaze wasn't kind. Zhao Hai wasn't afraid of them but he was taken aback. He wondered when he offended the Buddhist Realm.

It must be known that the Buddhist Realm was one of the Five Great Realms and their strength was formidable. Zhao Hai had no intention of offending them. And even if he wanted to offend them, he didn't have any interactions with the Buddhist Realm. Moreover, the Buddhist Cultivators of the World of Cultivation and the Buddhist Realm seem to have no connections. So why was this monk looking at him this unkindly?

When the monk saw that Zhao Hai was unmoved by his faze, his eyes flickered. Then he said, "Benefactor Zhao Hai, we're seeking you to ask for two things."

Zhao Hai stared, "What do the Masters want from me?"

The monk replied, "We want your Buddhist Techniques and your artifacts."

Hearing the monk, Zong Ze's expression changed. Zong Ze and the others stared at the two monks. They don't know about Zhao Hai's Buddhist Techniques, but they knew how powerful his artifacts were. And now these two monks want them?

The smile on Zhao Hai's face didn't change. He looked at the two monks and said, "Those two are my properties, aren't they? I don't know why the Masters ask for it."

"Hmph!" The younger monk coldly snorted as he opened his eyes. Strangely, his eyes were red and teeming with killing intent. These eyes would only appear on demonic cultivators. It's amusing how it appeared on a monk.

"You practice our Buddhist Techniques and you also use the lost treasures of our realm. Is that enough of a reason?" The young monk's voice was sonorous and powerful.

Zhao Hai turned to the young monk and then gave him a smile as he said, "I practice your Buddhist methods? And you're saying that I'm using your lost Buddhist artifacts? What evidence do you have?"

“My words are the evidence. Zhao Hai, don’t you dare deny that you’re using our Buddhist Methods.” The young monk overbearingly replied.

Zhao Hai didn’t bother looking at the younger monk anymore as he replied, “The two Masters seem to have misunderstood. Actually, the Buddhist Realm is a branch of the World of Cultivation’s Buddhist Sect, a subordinate realm of the Hundred Treasures Realm. So the Buddhist Realm should submit to the Hundred Treasures Realm.”

The two monks’ expressions changed. The younger monk coldly snorted and replied, “You talk nonsense.”

Zhao Hai’s expression also turned cold as he replied, “Why do you say that? My words are the evidence. What makes you certain that you’re not cultivating our Buddhist Sect’s methods?”

When Zhao Hai said this, the two monks couldn’t speak for some time. Zhao Hai made it clear that they couldn’t just use their words to attack him.

The younger monk’s expression changed. He angrily shouted, “Good, you’re a thief with sharp tongue. Go die!” Then he sent a fist towards Zhao Hai.

The older monk was stunned, then he quickly shouted, “Junior Brother, don’t.” However it was too late. The fist energy of the young monk would soon reach Zhao Hai.

At this moment, Zhao Hai also sent a punch forward. Fist met fist. An explosion was heard before the younger monk’s expression changed. His wrist has been folded back.

The young monk’s face paled. But he was still able to pull back and then eat a pill.

The old monk looked at the younger monk’s hand and his expression changed. He was clear about his junior brother’s strength. Although he was impulsive, he was actually formidable. This was especially true for his fist. Even Immortal Experts wouldn’t dare meet his punch.

A trace of anger flashed through the eyes of the older monk. He looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Aren't you going too far? Why hurt my junior brother?"

Zhao Hai looked at the older monk. Then he laughed and said, "Unreasonable monks. Do you think that your Buddhist Realm is the master of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield? You can only attack others and they can't retaliate? You even dared to snatch another person's cultivation method and artifact. Let alone crippling his hand, even if I kill him, I wouldn't be wrong."

The older monk's expression was green. He looked at Zhao Hai and said, "The techniques you use are techniques of the Buddhist Realm. Moreover, your artifact belongs to us. We have evidence."

Hearing the old monk, Zhao Hai's expression changed, "Evidence? Where is it?"

The old monk coldly snorted and then handed a jade slip to Zhao Hai and said, "Take a look."

Zhao Hai received the jade slip and swept it with his spiritual force. Then with a strange expression on his face as he said, "This is the evidence you have?"

The older monk said, "Right, this is our evidence. It's a recorded history of the Buddhist Realm. As mentioned in the jade slip, you're using a supreme method of our realm, the Vajra Bodhi Divine Art. And your artifact is our Buddhist Realm's Ten-thousand Transformations Bowl."

Zhao Hai laughed out loudly as he said, "You don't even know the name of my technique and you dared to claim that it belongs to the Buddhist Realm. Shameless. Most importantly, my artifact was made by a genius of our World of Cultivation. Indeed shameless. I have seen shameless people, but this is the first time I saw someone as shameless as you. My eyes have been opened."

Zong Ze, who didn't make a noise until now, said, "Buddhist Realm friends, our Hundred Treasures Realm respect the Five Great Realms. We don't want to form any enmity with you. But to blackmail our Hundred Treasures Realm, do you really think that we won't dare fight you?" At the end, Zong Ze stood up. His expression was violent. It's clear that this gentle elder has been angered.

The old monk wasn't afraid of Zong Ze's words. Conversely, he sneered and said, "Who do you think you think you are? Zhao Hai's cultivation method belongs to the Buddhist Realm. His artifact also belongs to the Buddhist Realm. Others might be afraid of the Hundred Treasures Realm, but we are not. I forgot to tell you, on the way here, a cultivator from the Hundred Treasures Realm actually didn't give us a salute. So I took the chance to kill such a disrespectful cultivator. And those who are like him will suffer the same fate." After he said that, he took out a severed head.

When Zhao Hai saw the head that the old monk took out, his complexion explosively changed.

Chapter 1632: Mad From Hate

Mu Yu!

The head belonged to Mu Yu!

Zhao Hai could feel that the head wasn't fake. It was a true head, Mu Yu's true head!

Zhao Hai felt his head explode. He lost the ability to think. Mu Yu was Zhao Hai's first friend that was killed!

Mu Yu had been a good friend to Zhao Hai. To be honest, Zhao Hai might be gentle, but he was arrogant deep inside. He had no intention of bowing to anyone. He was a person who was soft outside but was hard inside.

Mu Yu was the opposite. He was someone who appeared strong on the outside, but he was someone who didn't like to kill. He also didn't want to make a lot of enemies. He was only impolite to enemies of the Hundred Treasures Realm.

Because of Mu Yu's character, he was able to blend in with Zhao Hai and become his good friend. Although Zhao Hai had thought of controlling the Hundred Treasures Realm, he also knew that Mu Yu would lead the Hundred Treasures Realm in the future. Zhao Hai believed in Mu Yu. He believed that Mu Yu would not make any moves on him once he gained power. By then, the Hundred Treasures Realm would still listen to Zhao Hai's words through Mu Yu.

It can be said that Mu Yu was a very tolerant person. He can accept all of Zhao Hai's unique behaviors. He doesn't think much about Zhao Hai's actions, he was the best partner for Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai understood that two skilled people might not make a job easier. Sometimes the two would fight each other because of their pride. This pride would cause the job to become harder.

However, Mu Yu wasn't proud and he supported Zhao Hai. Therefore, Zhao Hai admired Mu Yu very much. He planned to make Mu Yu a longtime friend. And he might even reveal the Space to him in the future.

But all of these plans were turned into smoke. Mu Yu was killed. He was beheaded and his head was brought in front of Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai felt his brain shut down. The only thing in his eyes was Mu Yu's head. The head didn't have any painful expression. However, the head looked fierce. It was as if he was unwilling to meet his end.

At this time, a voice sounded out in Zhao Hai's head, "Brother Hai. Wake up! You need to avenge Brother Mu Yu!"

Zhao Hai's mind cleared. He closed his eyes and then opened them once again. His expression returned to normal. He looked at Mu Yu's head on the old monk's hand and then slowly raised his head. He stared deep into the old monk's eyes as he said, "Did you know how big of a mistake the Buddhist Realm just made? This mistake will cause the Buddhist Realm to lose its very existence."

The old monk looked at Zhao Hai's expression. He doesn't know why, but he suddenly felt his heart grow cold. Moreover, the coldness slowly filled his entire body. He began to feel like an ordinary person inside a cave, naked, amidst a winter storm.

Killing aura. The old monk was certain that this was killing aura. He wasn't a pacifist Buddhist who prayed to the Buddha all day. He was a monk that was aware of the world outside. He knew what killing aura meant. Among the people he knows, nobody was even a step lower than Zhao Hai's killing aura.

Zhao Hai stared intently into the two monks as he coldly said, "Since you are here, you will be the first and second casualty of the Buddhist Realm's destruction. I will turn you and everyone from the Buddhist Realm into Undead. This I promise.” After that, Zhao Hai waved his hand. The monks wanted to escape, but they suddenly realized that their hearts were exploding. They had already lost all means of resistance.

Zhao Hai turned the two monks into Undead. Then he interrogated them, “Where is the rest of Elder Brother Mu’s corpse?”

The undead monks revealed a location and then Zhao Hai disappeared immediately.

Once Zhao Hai vanished, Zong Ze and the others also responded. Mu Yu’s death was extremely sudden to them. Mu Yu was a talent that was fully nurtured by the Hundred Treasures Realm. Although Mu Yu wasn’t the only talent trained by the Hundred Treasures Realm, he was the most powerful ones. He was already titled as one of the future leaders of the Hundred Treasures Realm.

With such an identity, any realm would hesitate making a move on him. Even the high-grade realms wouldn’t dare make a move on such a person.

However, the Buddhist Realm actually dared to do so. They not only killed Mu Yu, they even dared to demonstrate his head before the Hundred Treasures Realm. What do they want to do? Do they think that the Hundred Treasures Realm was so easy to bully?

Zong Ze looked at everyone inside the hall and then said, “Tell Mu Yao about this, tell everyone from the Hundred Treasures Realm! Starting today, the Hundred Treasures Realm and the Buddhist Realm are at war. Only after one side perishes will this war end!”

His voice was cold and was akin to being an angry roar. The Hundred Treasures Realm will go into a life and death war with the Buddhist Realm.

The Buddhist Realm wouldn’t expect this. They had been one of the Five Great Realms for too long and they had been the most closed off realm among the five. They continued to live their lives unless something big happens, then they would know of it in advance. For example, when the Divergent Realm and the Sword Realm were about to deal with the Fireweavers, the Buddhist Realm was notified in advance, which gave them a lot of benefits.

This made the people of the Buddhist Realm think that they were the Big Brothers of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. They didn't need to head out yet others would send them benefits. The others have to kill each other while the Buddhist Realm can just receive benefits in comfort. If this wasn't being a Big Brother, then what is?

Because of this, when they heard that Zhao Hai had a unique Buddhist Technique as well as an artifact that can transform into other artifacts, naturally they wanted to get it for themselves. But at the same time, they cared about their face, so they fabricated historical data and then killed someone of status in the Hundred Treasures Realm in order to frighten them. In their opinion, they were the Big Brothers and the Hundred Treasures Realm should just bow down and send over what they want.

However, they made a mistake. They didn't know that they had just shaken the hornet's nest. A hornet's nest that would eat them up to the bones.

When Mu Yao heard the news that Mu Yu was killed by the Buddhist Realm, he immediately announced a full-on war with the Buddhist Realm. The whole Hundred Treasures Realm went crazy.

It must be said that the Hundred Treasures Realm had been on an upward progress lately. From their victory against the Giant Spirit Realm and the Fireweavers, destruction of the Ghost Spirit Realm, expedition to the Cloudsea Territory, destruction of the Fireweavers, and even the acquisition of Halfbeast Island, the people of the Hundred Treasures Realm were able to feel a sense of pride. The other high-grade realms went to the Cloudsea Territory and failed, but the Hundred Treasures Realm were able to expand and gain benefits. They were getting closer to the Five Great Realms.

Because of this, the people of the Hundred Treasures Realm had been holding their heads high. They were happy and proud of their realm. This was an invisible cohesive force that made everyone united in the Hundred Treasures Realm.

Then just as the Hundred Treasures Realm was feeling proud, the Buddhist Realm appeared and then slapped them hard in the face. They wanted Zhao Hai to hand his techniques and artifact over, they even killed Mu Yu to frighten the Hundred Treasures Realm. Did they really expect that the Hundred Treasures Realm would be afraid?

You can kill people if you want. But you just had to choose someone with a good reputation in the Hundred Treasures Realm. Moreover, Mu Yu was already seen as a future leader of the Hundred Treasures Realm. This wasn't as simple as slapping the realm's face. It was simply defecating on the Hundred Treasures Realm's face.

The Hundred Treasures Realm burned with hatred, even their subordinates were pulled over. All realms in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield became silent. They didn't dare make any noise. They knew that the Hundred Treasures Realm was going mad. If they dared to even show their face, they might risk being attacked by the crazed Hundred Treasures Realm.

At this time, the Buddhist Realm received the news. They were stunned at first. They were the Eldest Brothers of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Their younger brother has something they want. Not only did the younger brother decline, they also dared to kill their people. The younger brother even dared to declare war against them!

Hearing this, the Buddhist Realm was angered. They also declared war against the Hundred Treasures Realm. They began to recruit an army to send.

But before the Buddhist Realm could send their army, the Hundred Treasures Realm already set out. This time, they went all out against the Buddhist Realm. All of their weapons were taken out. Even the headquarters was left with the minimum amount of people needed to function. Everything they could bring, they brought. There was a 500 thousand-man army involving more than 50 thousand Immortal Experts.

An army this enormous would naturally be noticed by the people of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Everyone was silent. They could see that the Hundred Treasures Realm were going all out this time. They weren't going to spare anyone. It was clear that they had gone mad!

But what made everyone feel strange was the absence of Zhao Hai. He hasn't been seen for several days. He didn't even move together with the Hundred Treasures Realm army. Nobody knew where he was.

Although the other realms didn't know, the people of the Hundred Treasures Realm did. After fetching the rest of Mu Yu's body, Zhao Hai went to the Hundred Treasures Realm to bury his corpse. At the same time, he mourned beside Mu Yu's coffin. He plans to mourn for seven days before attacking the Buddhist Realm.

From the moment the Hundred Treasures Realm declared war against the Buddhist Realm to the moment they dispatched their troops, only five days had passed. In other words, when the Hundred Treasures Realm army set out, Zhao Hai was still mourning. It was normal that nobody saw him.

Chapter 1633: Kong Jian Buddhist

Zhao Hai sat before Mu Yu's grave. He changed his black robes into white ones. Laura and the others were also by his side. Mu Yu's grave was placed on Mu Yao's planet. Zhao Hai built a simple but beautiful tomb there.

Zhao Hai looked at Mu Yu's tombstone and said, "Brother Mu, it's already seven days. It's time for me to leave. Rest assured, I will send the entire Buddhist Realm to the afterlife to serve you." Then Zhao Hai took out three sticks of incense and burned them in front of the grave.

Laura looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Brother Hai, 100 large artifacts, 1000 Sword Shuttles, 500 million Undead with rifles, 1 billion Bugs, and 1 billion beasts have been prepared. The Immortal Undead are on standby, waiting to make a move at any time."

Zhao Hai nodded and said, "I've always made my moves in a low-key manner since I still don't know much about the Sky Tower. I also don't know the people behind the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. These are potential threats. If I'm too eye-catching, these guys might come to deal with us. I only showed little strength. But I didn't expect people to treat me as a pushover just because I'm too low-profile. They even dared to touch Brother Mu. It's my fault. From now on, I won't hold back. I'll kill everyone who dares cross me. Cai'er, how's our preparation for the Buddhist Realm?"

Cai'er replied, "It's been prepared. All subordinate realms of the Buddhist Realm as well as their headquarters have all been mapped. I also arranged silver needles in their realm. We can send people over there whenever we want."

Zhao Hai nodded and said, "Alright, remember, the transmission formations between the Buddhist Realm and their headquarters cannot be destroyed. I must let everyone know that even if they withdraw from the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield, they still wouldn't be safe."

Cai'er nodded. Zhao Hai turned his head to Mu Yu's grave. After a short pause, he said, "Let's go!" With Zhao Hai's order, the group vanished and then reappeared in the headquarters of the Buddhist Realm.

Appearing alongside Zhao Hai were 100 large artifacts, 1000 sword shuttles, and 500 million Undead. What kind of number was 500 million Undead? Even a strong power like the Hundred Treasures Realm could only muster up 500 thousand troops in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Compared to 500 million, 500 thousand was very small.

To put into perspective, even if there were 500 million ordinary people there, an Immortal Expert would still be unable to deal with them all without taking a rest. The number alone was enough to exhaust them. And now, Zhao Hai had 500 million Undead with rifles in their hands.

Zhao Hai had one goal. He wanted to build prestige. He wanted the entire Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield to know that he was someone they shouldn't mess with.

The Buddhist Realm naturally weren't prepared for Zhao Hai's sudden appearance. They transferred a lot of people in order to deal with the Hundred Treasures Realm. Although the Buddhist Realm treated themselves as the Eldest Brothers of the battlefield, they weren't idiots to think that one of their people equals ten of the others. The headquarters now had a lot of people who were preparing to attack the Hundred Treasures Realm.

Since the Hundred Treasures Realm was very far from the Buddhist Realm, and because they were attacking the Buddhist Realm, the other realms didn't help them, nor did they think of hindering the path of the Hundred Treasures Realm army. All the other high-grade realms were eager to watch the two fight to the death.

Because of this, the high-grade realms didn't make a move on the Hundred Treasures Realm. However, they also didn't permit the Hundred Treasures Realm to use their transmission formation. The Hundred Treasures Realm could only fly towards the Buddhist Realm.

The high-grade realms weren't willing to show their faces to the Hundred Treasures Realm. The Hundred Treasures Realm turned crazy because of the Buddhist Realm. If someone else dared to make a disturbance, the Hundred Treasures Realm might just attack them. No realm wanted to cause trouble for the Hundred Treasures Realm army at this time.

The Hundred Treasures Realm army was quick, but 500 thousand people can only move so fast, therefore the Buddhist Realm were aware of their movements. It was also because of this that they were still unprepared for battle when Zhao Hai appeared.

Zhao Hai attacked the headquarters of the Buddhist Realm with the troops he appeared with. As for the subordinate realms of the Buddhist Realm, the space's beasts were sent after them. He didn't eliminate these subordinate realms. He just had the Space's beasts occupy their transmission formations so that they would have no way to support the Buddhist Realm.

As for the Buddhist Realm itself, Zhao Hai sent out the 1 billion Bugs to attack it. The Bug Race had been the most effective race when it came to assault. Although they had been suppressed by the Space, this didn't mean that they were weak. In fact, the Bug Race had continued to fight each other inside the Space. Only Julie can make them listen. Zhao Hai also turned a blind eye to this infighting. In this way, the Bug Race could maintain their fighting strength.

With the abrupt assault of Zhao Hai, the Buddhist Realm weren't able to respond. Not to mention the other places, even the Buddhist Realm's headquarters weren't able to defend. There were 100 Giant Spirit Treasure Ships as well as 1000 sword shuttles. What kind of number was that? The large artifacts filled the airspace of the headquarters and then assaulted the headquarters.

This time, in order to deal with the Buddhist Realm, Zhao Hai used Faith Power in all of his large artifacts, making them more powerful. For a while, the Buddhist Realm's headquarters was overwhelmed by the large artifacts that were swimming like fish in water. Looking at the amount of large artifacts present, the people of the Buddhist Realm were dumbfounded. They sent Immortal Experts to deal with them but it was useless. Even the sword shuttles would need ten Immortal Experts to stop just one. As for the Giant Spirit Treasure Ships, it would take more than a hundred Immortal Experts to stop just one.

This doesn't mean that one Giant Spirit Treasure Ship was as strong as 100 Immortal Experts. This was a matter of size. Immortal Experts are strong, but they weren't as big as the Giant Spirit Treasure Ships. Size meant greater mass and in turn it meant greater impact strength.

Additionally, the Immortal Experts of the Buddhist Realm haven't faced Zhao Hai's large artifacts before. So even if 100 Immortal Experts tried to block a Giant Spirit Treasure Ship, they still wouldn't be able to stop its charge.

Only Zhao Hai's large artifacts could be this strong, large artifacts of other people wouldn't be able to be as strong as this. With the yin-yang lightning pond as well as Faith Power, Zhao Hai's large artifacts were unmatched.

However, the Buddhist Realm was also an established realm. Their resistance was quite fierce. Zhao Hai also released the giant turtle. And the Undead Prisonheart was on standby. With these two powerful existences, nobody from the Buddhist Realm could defend.

“Amitabha!” Seeing that the Buddhist Realm was about to fall, someone suddenly shouted Buddha’s name. The name alone carried enough power that it rang inside everyone’s head, causing their minds to be tranquil.

“May I ask who the benefactor is? Why come to the quiet Buddhist Realm and cause this heavy enmity!” As this voice was heard, an old Buddhist Monk walked out of the cave residence.

When Zhao Hai saw the old monk, his expression couldn’t help but change. This was because he could clearly sense a very dangerous aura around this person.

Zhao Hai waved his hand and stopped all of his large artifacts and Undead. However, the Undead still surrounded the Buddhist Realm’s headquarters.

Looking at the Undead blotting out the sky, the people in the Buddhist Realm’s headquarters couldn’t help but feel startled. Zhao Hai had only attacked the headquarters for two hours, yet he had already caused tens of thousands of people to die.

What made them afraid the most was that those who died stood up again and turned against their allies. And each one of these Undead were as powerful as when they were alive. This was what terrified the people of the Buddhist Realm the most.

Zhao Hai looked at the old monk and said, “Are you someone from the Buddhist Realm?”

The old monk replied, “Amitabha. This one is Lao Na, a supreme elder of the Buddhist Realm. I’m called Kong Jian Buddhist. I don’t know what hatred the benefactor has against the Buddhist Realm.”

Zhao Hai looked at the monk and laughed as he replied, “Old Monk. Your Buddhist Realm wants to snatch my Cultivation Method as well as my large artifacts. You even killed my good friend. If this isn’t counted as enmity, then what is? In the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield, strength is everything. We must be responsible for all that we do. Since you decided to make a move on me, then don’t blame me for taking revenge. If I wasn't strong, then my cultivation and artifacts would be stolen, my friends would be killed, and I wouldn't be able to do anything about it. But since I have the strength, then the Buddhist Realm cannot blame me for taking action. On the battlefield, we talk with our fists. There's no use talking." After he said that, Zhao Hai waved his hand. Then the Undead and the large artifacts moved once more.

The old monk saw that there was no possibility of stopping Zhao Hai. He hummed and then flew in the air. Soon after, a huge Buddhist image appeared in the air. The Buddha was sitting cross legged with a slightly opened eye. Then he lifted his arm and then pushed a palm forward.

The palm was very imposing. Looking at this, Zhao Hai's expression turned serious. He can feel that the monk was using Faith Power.

Zhao Hai was standing on the back of the turtle. He knew that the turtle could not take this attack. He flew up and then stood in the air before punching out towards the approaching attack.

When the old monk's palm hit Zhao Hai's fist, a large explosion was heard. The explosion blew Zhao Hai back.

Seeing Zhao Hai being pushed back, the people in the Buddhist Realm's headquarters cheered. But their happiness was short-lived. This was because they discovered that the Undead and the large artifacts haven't stopped!

Chapter 1634: Occupied Headquarters

Even if the people from the Buddhist Realm had been stupid until now, they still knew that these large artifacts and Undead were under Zhao Hai's control. As long as he was killed, these artifacts and Undead would disappear. The problem before was, they didn't have the ability to kill Zhao Hai.

When Zhao Hai was slapped by the monk, the people in the Buddhist Realm headquarters were very happy. Although these people didn't know who this Kong Jian Buddha was, they still cheered.

While they were waiting for things to end, they discovered that the large artifacts not only kept attacking, the Undead were attacking as well. Meanwhile, Zhao Hai flew back and stopped mid-air.

Kong Jian Buddhist couldn't help but stare. He didn't expect his powerful technique to be useless against Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai stood in the air as he looked at the huge Buddha in the air. The Buddha sat in place with its eyes slightly shut. One hand formed a seal while the other held a lotus. The Buddha was also sitting on a red lotus.

Zhao Hai was sure that this was a true Buddha, this might be the reason Lao Na was called the Kong Jian Buddha. But how did he do it? Why does Zhao Hai have no methods to release a Buddha from his body?

He knew that this wasn't due to Lao Na using Faith Power. It seems like they have a more clever use of Faith Power.

Seeing that the Buddha failed to deal with Zhao Hai with its first move, Lao Na immediately formed seals. The Buddha followed Lao Na's gestures on one hand while still holding the lotus on the other. The lotus on the Buddha's hand then flew up and tried to cover Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai hurriedly sent a punch over. However, the lotus was very tough. He failed to deal with the lotus with one blow and was immediately covered by it. The Buddha pressed on the lotus, trying to seal Zhao Hai inside.

Zhao Hai felt himself going to a strange place. Around him were constant mumbblings of Buddhist mantras. At the same time, the sounds were sending spiritual attacks towards him.

Zhao Hai stared and then couldn't help but smile. He understood that he was sealed, but he wasn't anxious. This kind of spiritual attack has no effect on him. Maybe it might do something if it were in the past, but after learning Prisonheart's method his spirit has become more powerful.

However, since he didn't know what was happening outside, Zhao Hai contacted Cai'er and the others to see if he could still talk to them.

Upon hearing Cai'er's response, Zhao Hai was relieved. Then he sneered as his body disappeared and reappeared outside the Buddhist Realm's headquarters.

Before he could let out a sigh of relief at sealing Zhao Hai, Lao Na saw Zhao Hai suddenly appearing in front of him. His pupils couldn't help but shrink. He quickly formed a knot with his hands. The Buddha's lotus opened when he chanted, "The void is empty, five-senses seal!"

Along with Lao Na's voice, Zhao Hai suddenly felt an unusual energy covering him up. Then he felt his eyesight, hearing, smell, taste, and sense of touch disappear.

Zhao Hai knew that this was the Five-senses Seal of the Buddhist Sect. The five senses were the sense of vision, hearing, smell, taste, and touch. Zhao Hai's five senses have been sealed.

Zhao Hai didn't expect this Kong Jiang Buddhist to be so strong. He even knows a lot of methods including this Five-senses Seal.

However, Zhao Hai wasn't startled. He immediately surrounded his body with Faith power in order to flush away the strange energy.

Faith Power poured out of Zhao Hai's body. When it met with the strange energy, it was like water dousing fire. As the Faith Power dissolved the sealing energy, Zhao Hai began to regain his five senses.

At this moment, Zhao Hai felt his body flying. The energy that surrounded him had been completely dissolved by the Faith Power. This made Zhao Hai realize that he was attacked when he lost his senses.

Fortunately, his body was different. It completely ignored Lao Na's attack. Zhao Hai's body shook and then stopped.

Zhao Hai looked at Lao Na and said, "You're strong, but it's time to stop." He waved his hand as his flying swords flew out and encircled Lao Na. The Ten-thousand Transformations Sword Formation immediately took form. Zhao Hai also poured Faith Power onto these swords. Then Zhao Hai flew towards Lao Na.

Zhao Hai used all his strength as well as his Faith Power and Buddhist Techniques. He wants to see if his techniques were more powerful than the ones the Buddhist Realm used.

As he used his Buddhist Techniques, he made sure to have the Ten-thousand Sword Transformations Formation on standby.

As Zhao Hai moved, copies of him began appearing in a row. These people used their own techniques to attack the Buddha.

Cloning Technique, this was the Cloning Technique. Zhao Hai was using the Cloning Technique included in his set of Buddhist Techniques. Once the clones combined their attacks, the effects became extraordinary.

Looking at Zhao Hai's attack, Lao Nao couldn't help but stare, then his expression changed. He made seals with his hands which the Buddha avatar behind him followed along. A layer of gold light appeared around the Buddha.

But just as that golden light appeared, the majority of it was absorbed by the Ten-thousand Transformations Sword Formation. Then Zhao Hai's attack arrived. A loud explosion was heard which caused the surrounding Buddhists to change their expression. A lot of them didn't know who Lao Na was, but some Immortal Experts knew about him. He was an expert from one or two generations ago. He accidentally obtained a method to extract Faith Power which allowed his cultivation to improve very swiftly. When he reached the Immortal Stage, he closed up. It has been hundreds of years since his retreat and he only appeared now.

Everyone in Lao Na's generation has already entered eternal rest. The reason the Buddhist Realm knew that he was alive was because Lao Na would open his cave once every 100 years in order to conduct a lecture to other Immortal Experts. Naturally, only a few people knew of this matter.

Regardless, the high-level personnel of the Buddhist Realm knew that a powerful ancestor was alive. This was also the biggest card that the Buddhist Realm had.

It was precisely because they knew Lao Na that the senior experts of the Buddhist Realm panicked when they saw that he couldn't do anything to Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai didn't stop as he kept attacking Lao Na. Although Lao Na wanted to resist, Zhao Hai was now using his Cloning Technique, making it hard for the Buddhist to block. As time went on, Zhao Hai's attacks became more and more powerful. The Buddha's golden shield began to be exhausted. In the end, it broke along with an explosion.

Lao Na didn't immediately die from Zhao Hai's attack. But his expression was ugly to look at. He didn't expect Zhao Hai to be this formidable. It would be too late for him to fight back.

It consumes a lot of Faith Power to reinforce Buddhist Technique. Unlike Zhao Hai, Lao Nao only has a small amount. Because of his previous actions, he already ran out of Faith Power. So even if he wanted to retaliate, Lao Na could no longer do so.

Zhao Hai kept sending attacks to the Buddha avatar. Before long, the avatar slowly disappeared.

The moment the Buddha avatar vanished, Lao Na vomited a mouthful of blood. With nothing left to resist Zhao Hai, Lao Nao was soon killed by the attacks sent by Zhao Hai and his clones.

After killing Lao Na, Zhao Hai immediately sent his corpse to the Space and turned him into an Undead. However, Zhao Hai didn't immediately release him to attack the Buddhist Realm headquarters. Instead, he stayed in the Space to record everything he knew.

The attack on the Buddhist Realm headquarters didn't stop. On the contrary, the offense strengthened. Although the Buddhist were still resisting, their resistance was short-lived.

Zong Ze and Mu Yao stood on the bow of a Giant Spirit Treasure Ship. This ship was refined by the Hundred Treasures Realm without Zhao Hai's help. Dozens of these ships flew right behind the main ship. This time, the Hundred Treasures Realm took out all of its wealth. Five hundred thousand troops were on the Giant Spirit Treasure Ships as they charged towards the Buddhist Realm's domain.

Although they were still far from the Buddhist Realm's headquarters, the Giant Spirit Treasure Ships were moving at their fastest speed. Since people were on shifts in inputting their energy, the ships managed to maintain their peak speed.

Both Zong Ze and Mu Yao had heavy expressions. The Buddhist Realm enraged them this time. Mu Yao was even more angry and mad. The disciple he was most proud of has been killed, how could he not be angry.

At this time, Tang Jie who was behind the two of them said, "Uncle Master, it's the seventh day. I'm afraid Brother Hai has made his move. Do you think he has rushed to the Buddhist Realm headquarters to take revenge?"

Hearing what Tang Jie said, Mu Yao couldn't help but stare, then his expression changed as he said, "That's quite possible. I'm afraid the one most angered by this is Little Hai. He might think that Little Yu was implicated by him. He also has a very good relationship with Little Yu. How can he not be mad?"

Zong Ze sighed and said, "Who would have thought that something like this would happen. Mu Yao, do you think that someone planned for this to happen? They didn't like how the Hundred Treasures Realm were doing, so they sent the Buddhist Realm to deal with us. Otherwise, why would the Buddhist Realm deliberately make such a move? Little Hai's strength has been known for a long time. They should have made a move a long time ago."

Mu Yao nodded and said, "It is indeed strange. But I think it wouldn't take long before we find out. The Hundred Treasures Realm are now fully committed to attacking the Buddhist Realm. We left our headquarters almost empty. If someone wants to deal with us, they will certainly seize this opportunity."

Zong Ze's expression changed, "Then isn't the headquarters in danger? Will people really make a move on us?" Mu Yao let out a deep sigh as he said, "It depends if there's someone orchestrating everything or not. If there is, then the headquarters will definitely be attacked. This can be considered as the greatest crisis of the Hundred Treasures Realm. If the Buddhist Realm was pushed by someone to deal with us, then the headquarters will be attacked. Then they will give us a hard time in going back."

Zong Ze turned to Mu Yao and said, "Mu Yao, you're not a reckless person, so why did you agree to allow the realm to dispatch all of its troops?" Mu Yao replied, "It's because I'm confident in the Hundred Treasures Realm. I believe that we would still have the strength to take our headquarters back after attacking the Buddhist Realm. At the same time, we have to pull out the person behind everything. It's dangerous for us if they keep being in the dark." Zong Ze sighed. Although he agrees with Mu Yao, he thought that Mu Yao's approach was very risky. He didn't take into account the possibility of the Hundred Treasures Realm being defeated by the Buddhist Realm.

However, Zong Ze understood Mu Yao. Anyone would be mad if their disciple was killed. Mu Yao was already doing very well given his circumstances.

Mu Yao also understood Zong Ze's thoughts. The reason why he agreed to go all out was partly because he wanted to see if someone was behind this matter. The other half was for revenge. He wanted to avenge Mu Yu.

At this time, a jade sword message appeared in front of Mu Yao. Mu Yao immediately received the jade sword message and scanned it with his spiritual force. His expression changed as he gave a cold snort. A trace of cruelty flashed through his face.

Mu Yao gave the impression of being mild-tempered. This was the first time that a fierce expression appeared on his face. This caused Zong Ze to stare. He received the jade sword message that Mu Yao handed over and searched it with his spiritual force. Soon enough, his expression changed as well. His expression was no worse than Mu Yao's.

Tang Jie looked at the two and then was afraid. But he collected himself and asked, "Uncle Master, what happened?"

Mu Yao coldly snorted and said, "The report said that the high-grade realms around us have sent troops to occupy our headquarters. Our subordinate realms have already surrendered. I already made preparations for this. I told them to surrender immediately if someone attacks our territory, but they need to give us news about what happened. And the news came." Tang Jie heard Mu Yao and his expression changed. Then he angrily cursed, "Scum! Those bastards! They want to use the fire to rob the house! I'll kill them all."

Mu Yao coldly snorted and said, "Just wait, let them jump around for some time. When we go back, we'll see how they act." After he said that, another jade sword message stopped in front of him. Mu Yao received the sword and scanned it with his spiritual force.

Chapter 1635: Returning to the Headquarters

Mu Yao's expression turned bright. But the contents of the jade sword message caused him to feel conflicted. The jade sword message was sent by Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai told him that there's no longer need to worry about the Buddhist Realm. The enmity has been taken care of.

Mu Yao didn't think that Zhao Hai would send the message this soon. Moreover, he even stated that the enmity has been quenched!

If he didn't know Zhao Hai, Mu Yao might think that Zhao Hai was making a joke. But this was impossible.

Seeing Mu Yao's silly expression as he stood there motionlessly, Zong Ze thought that he received bad news. He couldn't help but ask, "What's wrong?" As he said that, he received the jade sword message from Mu Yao's hand and then scanned it with his spiritual force.

After reading the contents inside the jade sword, Zong Ze was also stunned. He looked at Mu Yao and said, "Is this real? How did that kid do it?"

Mu Yao smiled bitterly and said, "Who knows what methods that kid has. It seems like he hasn't shown his real strength before. The Buddhist Realm really provoked him. But I must say, the kid is strong. I also know how he did it."

Zong Ze smiled bitterly and said, "Alright, let's stop talking about that. Let's think about what we do next."

Mu Yao sneered and said, "What else should we do? We'll go deal with those who dared to rob our Hundred Treasures Realm. I think they have lived long enough. Since Little Hai says so, then the Buddhist Realm will be dealt with soon. When the time comes, even if they want to cry, they wouldn't be able to."

Zong Ze's eyes lit up, "This is a good opportunity. Even if we can't deal with the Five Great Realms, we can at least deal with the smaller realms. At that time, the only people left in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield will be the new Great Realms."

Mu Yao actually wasn't feeling very good deep inside. His disciple has been killed. Mu Yu was like a son to him. But in the end, Mu Yao was someone who went through a lot of storms. Moreover, he had the same attitude as Mu Yu, placing the Hundred Treasures Realm first. It can be said that Mu Yu was heavily influenced by Mu Yao.

It was because of this personality that Mu Yao was able to make the proper decisions for the realm. So after thinking for a moment, he nodded and said, "This is a good opportunity. Little Hai will not joke about these things. Since he said that there's no need to worry about the Buddhist Realm, then we no longer need to worry about them. Let's arrange 100 thousand people to meet Little Hai, the rest will immediately go back to the headquarters."

Zong Ze nodded and said, "Alright, I'll take care of it." Soon after, the fleet was divided into two. The majority went back to the headquarters while the other half continued on.

The Buddhist Realm has been basically dealt with. With Lao Na's death, there's nothing the Buddhist Realm can do against Zhao Hai. The situation in the Buddhist Realm itself was much worse. The people were faced with terrifying bugs that didn't know fear. They didn't even have the chance to resist.

However, Zhao Hai didn't allow the bugs to eat the people of the Buddhist Realm. Although he wanted to do it, he didn't. This wasn't to say that he pitied them. In fact, Zhao Hai has no pity for these people. The reason he didn't let the bugs eat the Buddhists was because he wanted to leave their bodies as a lesson to other people. Corpses were more shocking than being eaten by the bug race. These bugs were ravenous, they wouldn't leave anything behind, not even bone shards would be left.

Naturally, Zhao Hai wasn't polite. All those with strength in the Buddhist Realm were killed. The Buddhist Realm would soon become part of the Hundred Treasures Realm. He can make others go take a look, but they would occupy it later on.

Looking at the people in the Buddhist Realm headquarters putting up a last-ditch effort, Zhao Hai let out a long breath. He knew clearly that after this, nobody in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield would dare annoy him. Not just him, nobody would offend the Hundred Treasures Realm.

Zhao Hai didn't know what the people of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield would think after seeing his action. But one thing was for certain, after seeing his strength, these people wouldn't be able to sit still.

Zhao Hai also knows what was happening to the Hundred Treasures Realm headquarters. However, he wasn't worried. In his opinion, these high-grade realms were jumping clowns, simply not worth being treated seriously. After dealing with the Buddhist Realm, he can just directly swallow them.

Zhao Hai was also aware of Mu Yao and Zong Ze saying that the Hundred Treasures Realm would become one of the Five Great Realms. However, they seem to have no ambition of unifying the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Zhao Hai could understand this. In fact, Zhao Hai no longer has any interest in the battlefield. The level of the battlefield was now quite low for him. There's nothing there that could help him become stronger. Now he wanted to know if there was another realm outside the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield.

As for the group from the Hundred Treasures Realm that were heading over, Zhao Hai wasn't worried about them. Besides the Buddhist Realm headquarters, the other places have been attacked by beasts. After clashing with the beasts, the subordinate realms found that they couldn't do anything and gave up. They understood that these beasts were controlled by someone and weren't wild beasts. This meant that someone was targeting the Buddhist Realm.

These subordinate realms also wanted to see who the people that attacked the Buddhist Realm were. Therefore, thoughts of rebelling slowly disappeared from their minds. To these subordinate realms, loyalty was merely a word. Their highest priority was still their own realms.

Zhao Hai took two days to take care of the Buddhist Realm. In other words, he took two days to completely eliminate the Buddhist Realm. Nothing remained.

Regarding this matter, Zhao Hai wasn't bothered at all. This wasn't the first time he did something like this.

Two days later, the group from the Hundred Treasures Realm also arrived at the headquarters of the Buddhist Realm. But when they arrived, they discovered that the headquarters was completely empty.

The one at the lead was an Immortal Elder. Zhao Hai saw this person before. He was nicknamed Mourning Soul Nail, due to his nail weapons. His nail artifact contains deadly poison that could directly paralyze Severed Soul Experts.

Since he's at the Immortal Stage, his strength was naturally formidable. His reputation was quite resounding in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield.

In the past, this Immortal Elder was quite arrogant. But after seeing Zhao Hai, he became humble. This was because Zhao Hai was the only person in sight. He was sitting in the headquarters of the Buddhist Realm. Even a ghost was nowhere in sight.

The surroundings were so silent that people could hear their heartbeat. Fortunately, there were a lot of people in this group. Although they were disturbed, they were also excited.

The Buddhist Realm was one of the Five Great Realms of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. For many years, realms like the Hundred Treasures Realm had to lower their heads in front of these Five Great Realms. The people of the Five Great Realms always carried themselves with arrogance, looking at the others as though they were lower-class people.

This kind of mentality doesn't only involve the Five Great Realms, it includes the people from the Land of Chaos. The cultivators in the Land of Chaos always lowered themselves when they encountered people from the Five Great Realms. This was also the reason why the Buddhist Realm decided to take action against Mu Yu.

Because of the status quo, the people from the Buddhist Realm treated the Hundred Treasures Realm as a lower realm. In their minds, the Great Realms control the lower realms. If the lower realms don't want to hand something over, then the Five Great Realms can kill their people in order to scare them. They simply didn't expect that the Hundred Treasures Realm was different from the past.

The Hundred Treasures Realm have been doing very well lately. Therefore, the mentality of the people of the Hundred Treasures Realm has changed. Nevertheless, they could still feel some pressure when faced against the Five Great Realms.

But now? These people from the lower realms stood in the headquarters of a Great Realm. And this headquarters has been completely destroyed. Not a single living being could be seen. This caused the cultivators of the Hundred Treasures Realm to feel good deep inside.

Although these people knew that something happened back at the headquarters, they didn't worry too much. Zhao Hai was able to deal with the Buddhist Realm, these high-grade realms were nothing. Even the people from the subordinate realms who were with the group had no intentions to return. On the contrary, they became more confident in the Hundred Treasures Realm.

Mourning Soul Nail went to see Zhao Hai alone. When he flew towards the headquarters, he saw Zhao Hai sitting down with two jars of wine in front of him. Zhao Hai held a glass of wine in his hand and then poured some liquor on the ground.

Mourning Soul Nail couldn't help but sigh. Everyone in the Hundred Treasures Realm knew that Zhao Hai and Mu Yu were good friends. But because of Zhao Hai's matter, Mu Yu was killed. It's natural that Zhao Hai was feeling very badly about the situation. Mourning Soul Nail couldn't help but comfort him. "Little Hai, don't take it too hard. There's still a lot of things to do."

Zhao Hai turned his head and said, "Elder Li, don't worry, I'm fine. Did the realm send any orders?"

Elder Li immediately replied, "The headquarters is being occupied. Elder Mu and Elder Zong returned upon receiving your message. They sent us over to support you. But now it seems like we're not needed here. I'll prepare some people to defend this place while the rest will return to help the headquarters."

Zhao Hai thought for a moment and said, "Elder Li, to be honest, there's no point leaving people here. Leave the headquarters to me. Instead of defending this place, you should just go around and absorb the Buddhist Realm's subordinates. Don't leave people here to defend. Have the other realms come and see this place."

Chapter 1636: Wild Ambition

After hearing Zhao Hai, Elder Li immediately understood what he meant. He turned his head to the Buddhist Realm's transmission formation before saying, "Little Hai, what about the Buddhist Realm itself?"

Zhao Hai sneered and said, "Nobody can just kill my friend and be left off. I said that I will break their dao. If I don't pay them a visit, I'm afraid they won't know the consequences of killing."

Although Zhao Hai said this in a calm tone, the Elder Li couldn't help but coldly sweat. Zhao Hai looked at him and no longer spoke, but he said, "Go to the subordinate realms, I reckon they would surrender immediately. This domain is already under the control of my beasts. They wouldn't attack you. But if those people won't surrender, then there's no need for you to be polite."

Even if Elder Li didn't know what was going on, he nodded and said, "Don't worry, you can leave this matter to me. You should go back to the headquarters. People actually had ideas to go against us. I want them dealt with."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Rest assured, they won't be able to escape." After he said that, he waved his hand and received the giant turtle. Then his body moved and disappeared.

Looking at the place Zhao Hai disappeared from, Mourning Soul Nail Li couldn't help but sigh as he said, "Those idiots. It's better for Little Hai to deal with them." After he said that, he returned to the Giant Spirit Treasure Ship. Then they went out of the Buddhist Realm headquarters.

In the next moment, Zhao Hai's figure appeared in the Hundred Treasures Realm's headquarters. Meanwhile, Mu Yao and the others were heading back. They were more anxious in their return compared to their departure. This was because their home was being attacked. And since they were more anxious, they were faster this time around. They actually managed to return faster than Zhao Hai. They already clashed with the other high-grade realms.

When Zhao Hai appeared, he immediately released his Giant Spirit Treasure Ships and Sword Shuttles. There was also the giant turtle and the Undead. This time, he didn't release the bug race because there was no need for it. What he took out was enough to deal with the high-grade realms.

Seeing that Zhao Hai's display was fiercer compared to the Hundred Treasures Realm, the high-grade realms were immediately frightened. These fellows had either fought with or against Zhao Hai before. Because of this, they knew how powerful Zhao Hai's large artifacts were. It's natural for them to become timid.

In addition, the people of the Hundred Treasures Realm were mad about the situation. It took a while before the high-grade realms could no longer withstand it. They couldn't understand why the Hundred Treasures Realm came back so soon. It's like they no longer want to take revenge.

When Zhao Hai appeared and his Undead blotted out the sky, everyone from the other realms couldn't help but feel a headache. Additionally, although they formed an alliance, it was a very fragile one. They wouldn't allow themselves to lose too much. So after Zhao Hai arrived, the alliance soon crumbled.

The Hundred Treasures Realm smoothly recaptured their headquarters and then released their army. Those who settled their domain also ran away, so the Hundred Treasures Realm were able to get everything back in an instant.

Although everything looks like a farce, it was in fact not the case. It can be said that the high-grade realms had a good plan, but they had the wrong timing. They didn't expect a monster like Zhao Hai to exist. They shouldn't have messed with the Hundred Treasures Realm while Zhao Hai was angry, their plan was doomed to fail.

Once the Hundred Treasures Realm was stabilized, Mu Yao and the others entered the conference hall with Zhao Hai. Once inside, Mu Yao turned to Zhao Hai and said, "Little Hai, what's the situation with the Buddhist Realm?"

Zhao Hai replied, "They're completely destroyed, their headquarters as well as their realm. As long as someone investigates, they'll find that there's no living survivors left. I didn't destroy their transmission formations so the other people should find out about it soon. They can even go to the Buddhist Realm to see."

Mu Yao and Zong Ze were both old ghosts who had seen everything. Naturally, they understood what Zhao Hai said. Both of their expressions changed. They didn't expect Zhao Hai's revenge to extend so far.

Mu Yao looked at Zhao Hai and asked, "What do you plan to do next?"

Zhao Hai replied, "I'll attack the high-grade realms and then swallow the entire Land of Chaos. In the future, there would only be four Great Realms in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. If possible, swallow the rest of the Great Realms and unify the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Then with the entire battlefield's strength, attack the Cloudsea Territory."

Zong Ze and Mu Yao stared at Zhao Hai as though he was a crazy man. To be honest, they were frightened by Zhao Hai's crazy plan.

However, they have to recognize that Zhao Hai's plan might succeed. After all, it was Zhao Hai who said it. They might doubt it if it were other people, but this was Zhao Hai. With his strength, he has the right to say such words.

The two looked at each other and didn't know what to say. After being silent for some time, Mu Yao turned to Zhao Hai and said, "Little Hai, I know that Little Yu's death has been very hard for you, but you have to think about what you're planning to do. If this matter isn't handled properly, things might get troublesome."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Elder doesn't need to worry. I have a reason why I'm moving this way. I will try my best to achieve this goal."

Mu Yao nodded and said, "When do you plan to attack the other realms?"

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "In a couple of days. Once information about what happened to the Buddhist Realm spreads, we will immediately make a move on the high-grade realms. When the time comes, we might get an unexpected result."

Mu Yao looked at Zhao Hai and let out a sigh. Then he nodded and said, "Alright. Then you should take a rest. We definitely won't let the other high-grade realms off. After we deal with them, we'll go get the Buddhist Realm's domain. I believe the Divergent Realm and the others wouldn't dare get the land for themselves."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "They wouldn't."

Jinu was a cultivator of the Divergent Realm. His ability was both special and very useful. Within a distance of 10 meters, he can move his body through any obstacle. Moreover, the obstructions wouldn't have any disturbances once he was inside them. Even if one uses their spiritual force, they still wouldn't detect him.

Because of his ability, Jinu became one of the best scouts of the Divergent Realm. His technique allows him to evade almost all surveillance.

Jinu was very proud of his status. Although he was only at the Severed Soul Stage and a scout, nobody in the Divergent Realm dared to underestimate him. This was because the realm needed him to scout certain locations.

Jinu was now hiding in a place not far from the Buddhist Realm's headquarters. He felt strange how there were no sounds coming from the Buddhist Realm. Their protective shield was still up, so he couldn't see clearly inside. He has been hiding for two hours yet he hasn't seen anyone come out yet. This was quite strange.

Jinu was very confident in his technique. Therefore, he didn't hide in the same place as the other scouts. As he looked at the Buddhist Realm's headquarters, he stood upright on top of a tree. He knew clearly that if the Buddhist Realm could detect his technique, then even if he found a place to hide in, it would still be useless.

At this point, Jinu was getting impatient. It has been more than two hours but he couldn't spot anyone from the Buddhist Realm. This was completely abnormal. But if he rushed to the Buddhist Realm's headquarters as is, he was afraid that he would be caught and found out.

He can pass through walls, but defensive shields were another thing. He can still pass through them, but the shield would fluctuate. This was the reason why he stayed and waited for people from the Buddhist Realm to come out so that he could sneak in. Although it would cause fluctuations, nobody would care.

Jinu was among the first wave of scouts sent to the Buddhist Realm headquarters. He just came back from the Hundred Treasures Realm headquarters which was attacked by the other high-grade realms. The reason he departed last was because he didn't dare arrive too early. If he appeared while the Hundred Treasures Realm and the Buddhist Realm were fighting, then he might be implicated. Moreover, the Divergent Realm ordered him to delay his travel. After all, the Divergent Realm was an ally of the Hundred Treasures Realm. If Jinu was discovered by the Hundred Treasures Realm, then things might get awkward. Moreover, they didn't need to know what happened in the war, they just wanted the result.

Because of this, Jinu missed the most important part of the fight. Naturally, this also allowed him to save his little life. If he came too early and was discovered by Zhao Hai, he would certainly be slaughtered.

After waiting for another two hours, Jinu could no longer wait. He felt that something must have happened to the Buddhist Realm. Otherwise they wouldn't have been so quiet. He slowly flew towards the headquarters. He flew slowly and didn't make a sound. When he finally reached the defensive shield, he took out a stone and then threw it forward.

This was just a piece of stone that can be found anywhere. Cultivators simply wouldn't spare it a glance. However, this was part of Jinu's methods. He carried these stones with him all the time. If he went on a scouting mission and he wasn't sure if the path ahead was dangerous or not, he would throw a stone in his path. What happens next would dictate his next move.

After the stone got in contact with the shield, it immediately disappeared. Jinu couldn't help but stare. This was because defensive shields were divided into several types. The strongest ones could block things like the Giant Spirit Treasure Ship while the weakest one would allow people to see inside. At this time, the Buddhist Realm's protective shield was in a weak state, anybody can go in.

Chapter 1637: Though Far Away, Must Be Punished

Jinu blankly stared at the Buddhist Realm's protective shield. In his mind, this was too unusual. Although the Hundred Treasures Realm have withdrawn, the Buddhist Realm shouldn't have lowered their guard down this quickly.

He soon recovered his thoughts. If there were people in the Buddhist Realm headquarters, they would have reacted when the stone was thrown. Then someone would come out to check. However, there was nothing, which was strange.

Jinu carefully flew to the Buddhist Realm's headquarters. When he entered the headquarters, he was terrified. In front of him was a stretch of ruins. The Buddhist Realm headquarters had been destroyed!

Jinu's brain couldn't process the information in front of him for a while. He couldn't comprehend what happened to the Buddhist Realm. He couldn't fathom how it could be destroyed. Even if the other Great Realms join hands, they still wouldn't be able to reduce the Buddhist Realm to this state. What really happened?

Jinu cleared his thoughts and swept the headquarters with his spiritual force. He wasn't able to see anyone alive. Not only people, the entire Buddhist Realm had no living creatures inside.

The hair on Jinu's body couldn't help but stand up. He felt that the emptiness of the Buddhist Realm's headquarters was a giant beast staring at him. It was as if he was treated as food, and he couldn't do anything about it.

Jinu doesn't understand this feeling, but he can feel that it exists.

Jinu flew forward. Discovering that there was really nobody, he began to fly faster and faster. It was as though he was being chased.

Before long, Jinu was breathing heavily. He wasn't tired but his spirit was exhausted. When he calmed down, he discovered why he was so affected. It was because the Buddhist Realm's headquarters was too static.

No mistake, the Buddhist Realm's headquarters was too quiet, it was as empty as a jet black night. It was like staying inside a room with no light or sound. Although you know that you're alone, the quietness of the surroundings would still cause you to be unconsciously scared. You might even experience hallucinations.

Jinu felt that he wasn't under a spiritual nor material attack. The Buddhist Realm was just too quiet. Basic instincts would tell you that something was wrong. Being a Severed Soul Expert, this feeling was more apparent for Jinu.

Jinu calmed his mood. He was no longer nervous. But his fear was replaced by shock.

The Buddhist Realm wasn't a weak realm. It was one of the top existences in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. But now their headquarters was like a ghost town. This only meant that something happened to the Buddhist Realm. And nobody was clear about the situation.

Thinking of this, Jinu couldn't help but worry. He wanted to know what really happened. He continued searching the headquarters but failed to discover any clues.

However, something strange showed itself to Jinu. The damage to the headquarters was quite critical. But there's something that quite didn't match the surroundings.

Jinu stopped and slowly recalled the layout of the Buddhist Realm's headquarters. He wanted to remember what caused him to feel strange.

Suddenly, an image flashed inside his mind. Amidst the stretch of ruins, the Buddhist Realm's transmission formations were perfectly preserved. It looked completely different to its surroundings.

When he thought of this, Jinu's body couldn't help but shake. This was because he could think of another similar matter. An insane news just swept through the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield recently. The news was about Halfbeast Island's Lion Race.

Halfbeast Island has been under the Divergent Realm's control for many years. Although they weren't able to completely take control of the island, the Divergent Realm was still clear about the island's matters. Then they handed the island off to the Hundred Treasures Realm in order to let go of the burden.

When Zhao Hai returned to the Hundred Treasures Realm, the method they used to deal with Halfbeast Island surprised the Divergent Realm. They allowed autonomy of the island and they also destroyed the Lion Race who wanted to be treated equal to the Hundred Treasures Realm. It was even said that the Lion Race's den itself wasn't spared.

The Buddhist Realm's headquarters had traces of the Lion Race's fate. The Lion Race's headquarters have been devastated yet their transmission formation was left intact.

Jinu immediately flew towards the transmission formations. He then discovered that there was only one coordinate registered on the formations. It was a coordinate that Jinu hadn't seen before.

Jinu stood in front of the transmission formation. After hesitating for a long time, he clenched his teeth and entered. After a flash of light, he disappeared.

The next moment, Jinu found himself on a strange planet. He appeared on a large transmission formation square. From the architectural style, it seems like the place he appeared in was a very huge temple.

Jinu looked around him and discovered that it was just like the Buddhist Realm's headquarters. The place was also eerily silent. Jinu flew around and saw nothing, he could only smell blood.

Jinu followed the scent of blood and soon arrived in a pagoda forest. After a high monk dies, their relics would be put in this place. This was a true sacred land of the Buddhist Realm.

What shocked Jinu was that on each pagoda there was a dead person. That person's blood flowed down, causing the land beneath to be crimson. The amount of corpses in this place made it a corpse forest.

In the deepest part of the pagoda forest were ten large pagodas. According to legend, these pagodas hold the relics of the Buddhist Realm's Ten Saints.

According to legend, these Ten Saints were the founders of Buddhism in the Buddhist Realm. These ten people worshipped the same master and treated each other as brothers. After finding their path, they cultivated and eventually established the Buddhist Realm. According to legend, the Ten Saints' lifespan exceeded a million years. In the end, they took their eternal rest together and left ten relics. As a tribute to the Ten Saints these ten pagodas were built. In the entire Buddhist Realm, there were only ten of such pagodas. This showed how much respect the Buddhist Realm had for their founders.

But now, across these ten pagodas, a message was written in blood: "No matter how far, everyone who angers the Hundred Treasures Realm will be punished!" The bloody message exuded a murderous aura.

Looking at the huge characters, Jinu's body couldn't help but shake in terror. This was the Buddhist Realm, one of the Five Great Realms, among the most powerful existences in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. And yet they had been completely exterminated. There seems to be no survivors left. Moreover, such characters were written across their sacred land.

Jinu knew that these characters weren't written for Buddhist Realm cultivators. After all, they wouldn't be able to see it. These words were for Jinu and the others. They were written for the other realms who would come to check on what happened to the Buddhist Realm.

Jinu felt a cold air pass through his back. A shiver went through his entire body as though he was inside an ice cave.

There was no longer any need for further scouting, so Jinu turned around and ran. He needs to tell Hawkins and the Divergent Realm the news as soon as possible.

Jinu felt strange because there was a lack of corpses in the headquarters. But after seeing the characters, he knew that they had already become part of Zhao Hai's Undead army.

Zhao Hai had a lot of Undead, this was something everyone in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield knew. Because of this, Zhao Hai gained the nickname of 'Hell King'. If Jinu didn't know where the corpses of the Buddhist Realm went, then he would be an idiot.

Jinu used the transmission formation to return to the Buddhist Realm's headquarters in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. He didn't stop flying and proceeded to rush out at his fastest speed. It was as if he was being chased by man-eating beasts.

Jinu didn't dare use the Buddhist Realm's transmission formation to return to the Divergent Realm. He was afraid that he might destroy the transmission formation. Jinu knew that the reason these transmission formations were intact was because it would let others see what happened to the Buddhist Realm. Jinu was afraid of being hunted down by the Hundred Treasures Realm if he were to ruin anything.

After reaching an area far away from the Buddhist Realm's headquarters, Jinu let out a long breath. Then he turned to the Buddhist Realm's direction one last time before leaving.

Shortly after Jinu left, shadows began appearing around the Buddhist Realm's headquarters. They were similarly observing the Buddhist Realm. And after experiencing what Jinu experienced, they also scattered like rabbits being chased by wolves.

When the Hundred Treasures Realm backed out from attacking the Buddhist Realm in order to reclaim their headquarters, there were some criticisms thrown at them. To the others, the Hundred Treasures Realm had been improving too quickly and it was time for them to be disgraced. The other realms were happy to see them suffer.

The high-grade realms that had been driven away were also unconvinced. They were prepared to ally with the Buddhist Realm in order to deal with the Hundred Treasures Realm.

But after the scouts returned, the entire Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield had turned quiet. They all collectively lost their ability to speak.

Then news arrived that all of the subordinate realms under the Buddhist Realm had surrendered to the Hundred Treasures Realm. The Hundred Treasures Realm didn't send a lot of people, only a small team. Yet, this small team was able to move unhindered in the Buddhist Realm's territory. Nobody dared to make a move on them.

This information immediately spread to the smaller realms in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Some of these realms had yet to know about what happened to the Buddhist Realm. Their strength wasn't enough to send scouts to find out the situation. So when news that the Hundred Treasures Realm had occupied the Buddhist Realm's territory, the smaller realms were shocked.

Amidst all of this, the Hundred Treasures Realm had been silent. It was as if what they did was as simple as drinking water. This caused the realms in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield to feel terror.

The high-grade realms who were prepared to attack the Hundred Treasures Realm once more immediately panicked when they got the news. They didn't expect the Hundred Treasures Realm to be this powerful. They were now regretting their decisions. They kept sending people to the Hundred Treasures Realm to discuss matters. But unfortunately, they were sent back.

The more the Hundred Treasures Realm was like this, the more terrified the high-grade realms were. So as they kept sending envoys to meet Zong Ze and Mu Yao, they also made preparations for war.

However, how could such movements be hidden from Zhao Hai? He knew every single action these realms were making. He also thinks that it was time. So he went to the headquarters and asked to see Zong Ze and Mu Yao.

Because the Hundred Treasures Realm was currently in an important state, A Ten Elders Assembly can happen at any time. Naturally, Mu Yao was a leader of an Elder's Assembly. The Hundred Treasures Realm were moving in an orderly and efficient manner. However, everyone in the Hundred Treasures Realm had lost their smiles. One of the reasons was Mu Yu's death, and the other was the occupation of their headquarters.

Although they were able to swiftly retake their headquarters, the fact that it has been taken was shameful. They were constantly thinking of taking revenge. Because of this, how could they have the time to smile?

Zhao Hai directly entered the conference hall without any announcement. By this time, Zhao Hai was one of the few who had the privilege to enter the conference hall whenever he wanted.

After entering the hall, Mu Yao and the others turned their heads to him. Seeing Zhao Hai arrive, a rare smile appeared on Mu Yao's face as he asked, "Little Hai, take a seat. Why did you visit? Are you prepared to deal with those fellows?"

Zhao Hai nodded. After giving the Elders a salute, he replied, "Right, it should be the right time to make a move. We've already established our reputation, it's time to deal with them."

Mu Yao smiled and said, "No rush. The other realms are beginning to have weak knees. Let's drag things out for a while to see. It would be best if we could deal with them without using force."

Zhao Hai frowned and said, "Elder, I don't think that would be a better decision. Those high-grade realms will not surrender easily. They had been our equals, so even if they surrender to us, I don't see any way they would listen to us. If they make trouble in the future, it would be more troublesome for us. I think we should just drive them out of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield and have our subordinate realms manage their territory. Only in this way can we become one of the Great Realms of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Maybe even the biggest Great Realm."

Chapter 1638: The Buddhist Dhamma[1]

Mu Yao knit his brows and said, "Little Hai, I understand what you're saying. But you also need to know that we're now under a very bright light. If we deal with the other high-grade realms, it's likely that the Divergent Realm, Sword Realm, and Primal Chaos Realm would move against us. Do you think that they would just let us become the biggest realm without doing anything?"

Zhao Hai's frown deepened. He knew that the high-grade realms had reached out to the Great Realms. Moreover, those guys have become smarter. Every time they have a discussion, they would always set up a formation. Because of this, Zhao Hai could hardly get any information.

Zhao Hai nodded and said, "So Elder's plan is?" Mu Yao smiled faintly and said, "We're going to form an alliance with those guys. Then we can suppress them by being the alliance leader. We will use this time to digest the Buddhist Realm's domain. Once we have enough strength, we can deal with them slowly.

Naturally, this is under the condition that everything goes smoothly. If they don't comply, we can only resort to violence."

Zhao Hai nodded. Mu Yao's method was also acceptable. It was using lukewarm water to boil the frog. This plan was neither good nor bad. Those high-grade realms weren't fools, and they wouldn't let Mu Yao suppress them easily. But Zhao Hai didn't say anything. In any case, with his current strength, even if the entire Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield worked together, they still wouldn't be able to do anything.

Zhao Hai might not be strong in the past, but it was different this time. He now has the entire Buddhist Realm under his control. So his confidence was much bigger.

Mu Yao looked at Zhao Hai and said, "You should take a good rest. Little Hai, people cannot be resurrected after death. Although Little Yu is gone, we are cultivators in the end, we have faced death multiple times. Don't take it too hard. How many days have you been frowning?"

Looking at Mu Yao's smile, Zhao Hai still couldn't expel the sadness in his heart. He replied, "I can't smile. Brother Yu died because of me."

Mu Yao waved his hand and said, "It doesn't matter if you're the reason or not. We're living in a world where the strong prey on the weak. Also, Little Hai, you haven't spent too much time in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield."

Zhao Hai stared at Mu Yao in confusion. Mu Yao waved his hand and said, "You're too strong. I reckon you have gained the Sky Tower's attention. You should prepare yourself." Zhao Hai nodded. The reason he didn't pay too much attention to the other realms was because he put most of his energy on the Sky Tower. He found that Luo Ying had increased the amount of jade sword messages he sent out. Although he didn't know where he was sending it, Zhao Hai believed that a storm was about to arrive.

Zhao Hai bid Mu Yao and the others farewell before returning to his residence. When he entered the Space, he didn't immediately go to the villa. He went to an open area and then closed his eyes. Shortly after, a large projection of a 100-meter tall Buddha appeared. Its body was shrouded with golden light, looking very dignified.

This Buddha was the same Buddha that Kong Jian projected before. Zhao Hai learned Kong Jian's technique. Just like what he predicted, it was a Buddhist Dhamma Technique!

This Dhamma technique was something that only someone with Faith Power can use. Those with Faith Power can have their own Dhamma Avatar. How much of the Dhamma one can comprehend depends on their strength. Naturally, the stronger a person's Faith Power, the stronger their Dhamma Avatar would be.

A person's Dhamma can be used to attack the enemy and improve a cultivator's strength. The stronger the Faith Power, the stronger their Dhamma Technique. In fact, the reason Kong Jian wasn't able to study the technique deeply was because his Faith Power wasn't enough. According to the cultivation method that Zhao Hai managed to get from Kong Jian, the Dhamma avatar could move like a real person. The monk only needs to stay still and the Dhamma avatar can move like a monk and fight in the same way. Naturally, the Dhamma avatar was much more powerful compared to other cultivators. This was the reason Kong Jian was able to fight against Zhao Hai for so long.

This Dhamma technique was a secret that the Buddhist Realm didn't reveal. According to hearsay, the Buddhist Realm acquired it by chance. Although only Kong Jian Buddhist was able to make use of it, the Buddhist Realm was still able to reap a lot of benefits from it.

Each generation of the Buddhist Realm would select talented monks in order to learn the Dhamma. But because Faith Power was so scarce, each generation could only generate one Supreme Elder. These Supreme Elders were also called Dhamma Elders. And only these Dhamma Elders could get the name of Buddha in their name, thus explaining Kong Jian Buddhist's name.

Upon acquiring this method, Zhao Hai knew that it was merely a technique to produce a projection of a Buddha. Even so, such a method was already powerful. The existence of such a technique meant that there was more to the Buddhist Realm's Dhamma. However, since he didn't have time, Zhao Hai could only learn its basics.

Kong Jian's method wasn't hard to study. It was divided into three parts. The first part was learning about the true meaning of the Buddhist Dhamma by seeing the Buddha. It was akin to reaching the Immortal Stage and feeling the laws of heaven and the earth.

The second part teaches about how to condense Faith Power. Zhao Hai studied the applications of Faith Power in the past. For example, it could aid one's cultivation or make a weapon stronger. In the Dhamma Technique Zhao Hai acquired, Faith Power was used to project a Dhamma avatar. This way of utilizing Faith Power was different to the ones Zhao Hai knew about before.

The third part was a cultivation method. But in Zhao Hai's view, the technique heavily relied on one's Faith Power. Once you have enough Faith Power, one could command the Buddhist Dhamma whenever they want.

This was also the reason why it was hard to use. If you lacked Faith Power like Kong Jiang Buddhist Lao Na, then your Dhamma avatar would be limited in movement and could only use common attacking methods.

Despite being limited to using simple attacks, the Dhamma Avatar was still ten times more powerful compared to most Immortal Experts. After all, it was able to blow Zhao Hai back. If not for Zhao Hai's special body and his defensive methods, he would have been severely injured in his fight against Lao Na.

Because of this, Zhao Hai wanted to study this new technique. Once he studied it, he might gain a deeper understanding of the universe's laws.

In its weakest form, the Dhamma Avatar could only do simple actions and use simple techniques. Because of the lack of Faith Power, this Dhamma Avatar was classified as wood-level. It was the lowest level of avatar. A Dhamma Avatar that can do complex actions and techniques was gold-level. The highest level of Dhamma Avatar can move like a person and can use any technique. This Dhamma Avatar was at the Buddha-level.

The level of Dhamma Avatar was mainly determined by Faith Power. The less Faith Power one has, the weaker their Dhamma Avatar would be. Take a wood-level avatar for example, it could be further divided into three levels. The lowest level was merely an immobile projection of a Buddha. It could only use aura techniques. A medium-level wood avatar was the one Lao Na used. This avatar could not open its eyes and could only use its two hands. A high-level wood avatar can open its eyes and is more flexible with its hands. Its offensive strength was also much better.

A Gold-level and Buddha-level avatar was also further divided into three levels. The low-level gold avatar can move its body more. At the medium-level, the gold avatar would be able to stand up and use its feet. At the high-level, the gold avatar can perform some movement techniques. It's just that the moves would be stiff. It would look like a puppet being controlled by its master.

As for a low-level Buddha Avatar, the movements would be more smooth. It could even move its head. On the medium-level Buddha Avatar, the torso would move. On a high-level Buddha Avatar, it would be comparable to a human being. Whatever a cultivator could do, it could do as well.

What Zhao Hai condensed was naturally a high-level Buddha Avatar. When he projected the Buddha, it might be sitting and had eyes closed. But when it comes to battle, it would be able to move freely, just like a normal cultivator.

Zhao Hai was now aware of how terrifying the technique was. It practically produced a giant monk who was not only big, it also had much more spiritual force and offensive power. Using this method, Zhao Hai's Buddhist Techniques would become even more earth-shattering.

However, Zhao Hai was still not satisfied. He was currently studying Buddhist Techniques, mainly the 18 Buddhist Techniques. He hopes that he can understand these even more. And once he's able to completely understand the 18 techniques, Zhao Hai believed that his strength would tremendously increase.

- Dhamma, or Dharma, is a word of infinite meaning. (Note: Maybe a Buddhist version of the Dao.)

Chapter 1639: Luo Ying's Arrival

Sitting under the Hundred Spirits Tree, Zhao Hai flipped through the Buddhist scripture in front of him. He got this scripture from the Space.

Zhao Hai's Space came from the earth. And since he can currently buy backgrounds, Zhao Hai was able to create many worlds inside the Space. Some of them were high-technology worlds while some were cultivation worlds. Some of the worlds were like Earth, of which Buddhist Scriptures exist.

This also made Zhao Hai feel strange. There were no cultivators on Earth. And yet, in the universe that Zhao Hai transmigrated into, it has Daoism, Buddhism, Body Cultivation, and even Science and Technology. These were things that existed on Earth, which was bizarre.

The Buddhists on Earth had no cultivation methods. For Buddhists, scriptures were just reading material. Perhaps some virtuous monks might cultivate some Buddhist power. However, this Buddhist power has no offensive capability. Moreover, Buddhist scriptures weren't kept a secret on Earth.

However, these scriptures were very useful for Zhao Hai at this time. Moreover, some of the ancient books on Earth could aid in cultivation.

Zhao Hai also discovered that these Dao Techniques needed these ancient books. In fact, it was crucial to comprehend them.

Zhao Hai has now condensed his Dhamma body, which greatly increased his strength. He was now condensing more avatars.

Zhao Hai was now very powerful. In the past, his usage of Faith Power was considered crude. Now that he has Kong Jian's method, Zhao Hai felt that a door had opened up before him.

When Zhao Hai was cultivating the Buddhist Avatar, he understood what Dhamma actually was. To put it bluntly, it was comprehension over a profound meaning. When a cultivator reached the Immortal Stage, they would use their second soul to comprehend the Dao. Some people might comprehend the meaning of the mountains, making their attacks have a feeling of heaviness. Some people might comprehend fire and have more aggressive attacks.

The Buddhist Dhamma was also a flexible and powerful type of comprehension that involved Faith Power. There's also a Dhamma of Water or Dhamma of Fire. Naturally, these were Zhao Hai's theories. However, Zhao Hai was almost sure that this was truly the case.

In the past, Zhao Hai only learned about the existence of the Dhamma without comprehending it. But after studying Kong Jian's technique, he was able to expand his thinking. He was preparing to use the 18 Buddhist Techniques as an experiment. He wanted to see if he had the proper understanding regarding the Dhamma.

Because of this, Zhao Hai can affirm that his path was not wrong. Therefore, he was reading ancient Buddhist Scriptures in order to comprehend the Dhamma.

The reason Zhao Hai has to comprehend a lot of Dhamma definitions was because of his Cloning Technique, one of the 18 Buddhist Techniques. If he used the Cloning Technique, then he can have his clones project a Dhamma Avatar. What would this look like? He can form a squad of Dhamma Avatars.

As he read the Buddhist Scriptures, the peace in Zhao Hai's heart gradually returned. In the past, because of Mu Yu's death, his heart was filled with killing intent. He was filled with self-blame. But all of these disappeared as his mood calmed down. Now his heart and mind was like an ancient well, incomparably calm.

This caused Zhao Hai to develop a new temperament, an extremely gentle temperament. Just like a Taoist or a High Monk, he was able to maintain a peaceful and neutral mentality.

Zhao Hai spent three months inside the Space. In these three months, he hardly left the Space as he continued to comprehend the Dhamma.

Meanwhile, the Ten-thousand Realm battlefield was the opposite of calm. This was because the Hundred Treasures Realm had once more entered the limelight.

The Hundred Treasures Realm began sending envoys to the other realms with the purpose of forming an alliance. After the alliance was established, the Hundred Treasures Realm would be able to face the other Great Realms.

Moreover, the Hundred Treasures Realm was using this time to completely digest the Buddhist Realm's domain, making it their own.

After a month of negotiations, the Hundred Treasures Realm finally reached an agreement with the other high-grade realms. Naturally, the Hundred Treasures Realm would become the alliance leader. The other high-grade realms didn't say anything about this. But everything had gone smoothly. Now that the Hundred Treasures Realm wouldn't make a move on the high-grade realms, the high-grade realms were able to relax.

The high-grade realms weren't really expecting that the Hundred Treasures Realm would attack them. Although they occupied their headquarters, they didn't injure a lot of people. At the most, they just slapped the face of the Hundred Treasures Realm. And now they admitted defeat to the Hundred Treasures Realm. In their minds, although the Hundred Treasures Realm has occupied the Buddhist Realm's domain, they believed that the Buddhist Realm's subordinates wouldn't easily surrender. Therefore, the Hundred Treasures Realm would find their strength restricted.

However, this wasn't what Zhao Hai cared about. He was waiting for information coming from the Sky Tower. Mu Yao told him last time to prepare. It's been three months but there was no movement from the Sky Tower, which felt strange to Zhao Hai.

However, Zhao Hai believed that it wouldn't take long. Although he was continuously practicing inside the Space, he was still aware of the outside world, especially the Sky Tower. After Mu Yao said those words, Zhao Hai put more attention there.

Naturally, Zhao Hai didn't focus too much on these things. He was preoccupied with the scriptures and see if he could comprehend more of the Dhamma.

Zhao Hai was now used to sitting under the Hundred Spirits Tree every day. He sat on a transforming cloud with a small table and a cup of tea as he read the scriptures.

The more scriptures he read, the more interested Zhao Hai became. At this time, Cai'er approached him and said, "Young Master, Luo Ying has come out. He's heading towards the transmission formation. I think he's going to the Hundred Treasures Realm."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "I think so too. The Sky Tower is really patient. Pay attention to him. If he really comes to the Hundred Treasures Realm, he would probably come to see me."

Cai'er nodded. The Hundred Treasures Realm has become extraordinary. In addition to their own domain, they had also begun to immigrate to the Buddhist Realm on a large scale. The Buddhist Realm was no smaller than the Hundred Treasures Realm. It might even be bigger. Moreover, it had more resources so immigrating wasn't uncomfortable at all.

As for the Buddhist Realm's headquarters, it has undergone reconstruction. And because the territory to be managed was larger, the Hundred Treasures Realm had to send more people over. The Hundred Treasures Realm even has the intention of moving there in the future.

However, since the Hundred Treasures Realm itself was closer to the headquarters, the Elders stayed behind.

The transmission formation of the Hundred Treasures Realm had been very busy. At any moment, someone would go in and out of the transmission formations. The square was very lively.

At present, the realms in the Land of Chaos have formed an alliance with the Hundred Treasures Realm at the lead. Being the leader, the Hundred Treasures Realm's communication with the other Great Realms increased.

Luo Ying's appearance on the Hundred Treasures Realm's transmission formation was immediately brought to the attention of the guards. They hadn't seen Luo Ying before. Moreover, Luo Ying's appearance was unordinary. The guard didn't dare neglect him, he immediately stepped forward and said, "Mister, may I ask where you're from? What are you doing in the Hundred Treasures Realm?"

Luo Ying looked at the guard and then he smiled faintly and said, "This old man is named Luo Ying. Young brother, please help me send a message. Tang Yaoen is an old friend of mine. I believe he knows what to do when he hears my name."

The guard could feel Luo Ying's extraordinary aura and didn't dare ask any more. He quickly replied, "Mister, please come with me and take a rest in the lounge. I will pass the message right away."

After settling Luo Ying down, the guard immediately went to the conference hall and said, "Song Gang asks to see the Elders."

Zong Ze's voice was heard, "Come in." The guard Song Gang walked in and gave the Elders a salute before reporting, "Reporting to the Elders, there's an old man named Luo Ying outside. He said that he's an old friend of Elder Tang Yaoen."

Tang Yaoen was also a member of the Ten-Elder Assembly. When he heard Song Gang, his expression couldn't help but change. He looked at Zong Ze and Mu Yao and said, "Come with me."

Tang Yaoen didn't explain further. However, both Zong Ze and Mu Yao understood what it meant. It's clear that the person who arrived was from the Sky Tower. And the Sky Tower has only one purpose, and that was Zhao Hai.

Mu Yao pondered for a while before saying, "We have no choice but to meet him. The three of us will see this Mister Luo Ying. Let's send word to Little Hai." Tang Yaoen nodded and took a jade sword message out to send a message to Zhao Hai. After sending the message, the three left the conference hall and went to the lounge.

The lounge of the headquarters was made according to Zhao Hai's plans. It was rarely used in the past, but now there were a lot of people inside. These people were from the other realms who came to visit.

But in general, guests would spend a short time in the lounge before being called to the conference hall. An event where three Elders went out of the conference hall in order to meet someone in the lounge never happened before. Song Gang couldn't help but make guesses about Luo Ying's status.

It must be known that the Hundred Treasures Realm was different compared to the past. The Hundred Treasures Realm was now one of the strongest realms in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Moreover, nobody dared to contend for their territory. Because of this, the Hundred Treasures Realm has reached a very high position in everyone's eyes. Even people from the Great Realms would have to enter the conference hall to meet the Elders. But now, Mu Yao and the others actually came out in order to meet Luo Ying. It's natural that Song Gang was curious.

Chapter 1640: Battle Slave?

Luo Ying looked at Mu Yao and Zong Ze walking along with Tang Yaoen. Luo Ying was very familiar with the two. This was because he had seen images of them. To be honest, these two were talents in their own right. Unfortunately, people like them were very common in the Sky Tower.

Those who guarded their small plot of land would never know how huge the world is. Luo Ying thought like this. For Luo Ying, Mu Yao and Zong Ze belong to those who guarded their small lands. Meanwhile, Zhao Hai was someone who can open his eyes to the world.

Luo Ying's heart wasn't as calm as his expression. If Zhao Hai was truly a candidate, then his position would be elevated. Actually, Luo Ying's strength wasn't any higher than Mu Yao and the others. It was impossible for him to become many times stronger compared to other Immortal Experts.

At this time, a voice was heard, "Hundred Treasures Realm's Elder Zong Ze, Elder Mu Yao, and Elder Tang Yaoen has arrived!"

Luo Ying immediately stood up and looked at the entrance. The three were walking shoulder to shoulder. Zong Ze cupped his fist and said, "Zong Ze has seen Mister Luo Ying" Zong Ze was currently the Managing Elder of the Hundred Treasures Realm. The reason he discussed with Mu Yao was because of Mu Yao's insights, and the other was because of Zhao Hai.

The relationship between Zhao Hai and Mu Yu was very good, which extended to Mu Yao. If something happens to Mu Yao, Zhao Hai would certainly lend his hand. Everyone was aware of Zhao Hai's strength. If Zhao Hai was truly sent to kill, then a lot of people would suffer the consequences.

Because of this, although Zong Ze was the one currently managing the Hundred Treasures Realm, the decisions were actually made after Mu Yao's advice. Zhao Hai was just too strong, he needed to be considered in every decision the realm makes.

Luo Ying wasn't very familiar with the Hundred Treasures Realm's matters, so he greeted Zong Ze first. Naturally, Mu Yao didn't mind it. After the group sat down, Zong Ze said, "Mister Luo, may I ask the reason why you came to the Hundred Treasures Realm?"

Luo Ying looked at Zong Ze. He knew that Zong Ze was pretending to have no idea. But he still cupped his fist and said "This Luo Ying came this time to see Mister Zhao Hai. If Mister Zhao Hai is here, I would like to meet him."

Although he has long known about this answer, Zong Ze's head buzzed when he heard Luo Ying. It was needless to say how important Zhao Hai was to the Hundred Treasures Realm. He was akin to a nuclear weapon back on Earth. It was impossible for the Hundred Treasures Realm to let go of Zhao Hai. They might as well cut their arms off than let Zhao Hai go.

However, Zong Ze and the others knew that Luo Ying came with a purpose. So Zong Ze looked at Luo Ying and said, "Mister Luo, Little Hai is still not out. I ask Mister to wait until he comes out."

Looking at Zong Ze's expression, Luo Ying sneered and said, "I'm afraid that it's not that Zhao Hai hasn't come out, but Mister seems to want him to close up. Mister should be aware that the Sky Tower has rules. After the five stages and six calamities, the higher realms can be reached through the Sky Tower. But going through isn't easy. Do you think Little Hai will be able to do it on his own?"

Zong Ze's main goal was to prevent Zhao Hai from succeeding. He knew clearly that if Zhao Hai becomes stronger, it doesn't mean that the Hundred Treasures Realm would benefit from it.

Luo Ying looked at Zong Ze and said "Elder Zong Ze, I hope you can see my seriousness."

At this time, Zhao Hai's voice was heard, "What reason might Elder have to look for me?" Then his figure appeared on the entrance of the lounge.

Luo Ying turned his head and saw Zhao Hai slowly walking in. After Zhao Hai arrived in front of him, Luo Ying laughed as he cupped his fist and said, "Luo Ying has seen friend Zhao Hai."

This address shouldn't be taken lightly. Luo Ying's words were chosen carefully in order to show Zhao Hai's status. This also meant that Zhao Hai was now protected in the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield.

Naturally, this law wasn't known by everyone, only those in the higher positions knew of it. But those who knew understood that something significant was about to happen.

Zhao Hai wasn't flattered by Luo Ying's address. To be honest, he was surprised to see Luo Ying being polite. It might be because he was aware of Zhao Hai's strength that he had become polite.

Zhao Hai asked once more, "May I know the reason for Mister's visit?"

Luo Ying looked at Zhao Hai and said, "My superiors are inviting Mister Zhao Hai to the Tower. I ask Mister to provide an answer as soon as possible."

Zhao Hai looked at Luo Ying and said, "Mister Luo can rest assured. I will definitely go." Hearing this, Luo Ying showed a smile.

Zhao Hai turned his head to Mu Yao and Zong Ze and said, "Elder Mu, Elder Zong, I'll be taking my leave today. Rest assured, this place is Zhao Hai's home."

Mu Yao and Zong Ze couldn't help but stare when they heard Zhao Hai. But then they immediately understood that Zhao Hai was already aware of what was going on. It was precisely because the two knew that they didn't dare tell Zhao Hai. This was because they wanted Zhao Hai to take a rest. And they were also afraid for Zhao Hai.

Because of their position, Mu Yao and Zong Ze knew about top-level secrets of the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. It's been said that experts invited over by the Sky Tower have never come back.

These top-level figures knew that the Sky Tower would take away talents, therefore they would do their best to prevent it. This was the same reason why Mu Yao and the others wouldn't tell Zhao Hai that he might be taken by the Sky Tower.

Luo Ying looked at Zhao Hai and gave a slight smile. Although he didn't know what happened to the Hundred Treasures Realm, he had a deep impression of Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai was the first person to talk to him and smile comfortably. Zhao Hai even gave him a jar of wine. Although it might seem like nothing, it made Luo Ying deeply remember Zhao Hai.

Luo Ying knew where Zhao Hai would be going. In his opinion, it wouldn't be bad for Zhao Hai to go there. He was aware of how strong Zhao Hai was. Entering that place would be a good opportunity for Zhao Hai.

However, Luo Ying didn't say anything because he knew that if he said something out of place, then he might disappear the next day.

When Zhao Hai stood up, Mu Yao and Zong Ze had complex expressions. However, they still reminded him to take care. Zhao Hai gave them a nod before turning to Luo Ying and saying, "Mister Luo, please."

Luo Ying looked at Zhao Hai, then he smiled and said, "Mister Zhao Hai is truly a wise person. I will tell you that your decision wouldn't be disadvantageous at all. Elder Mu Yao, Elder Zong Ze, Elder Tang Yaoen, we'll be taking our leave." After speaking, he cupped his fist towards the three and then walked out.

Zhao Hai didn't know where Luo Ying would take him. But he knew one thing, that place would have more information regarding the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield. Zhao Hai has been waiting for this opportunity for a long time. He was wondering about the background of the battlefield.

The two quickly arrived at the transmission formation square. Naturally, the ordinary cultivators of the Hundred Treasures Realm had no idea where Zhao Hai was heading to. This also included people who weren't from the realm.

Luo Ying took the transmission formation with Zhao Hai directly to the Sky Tower. Looking up at the tower, Luo Ying turned to Zhao Hai and said, "Do you think that the tower looks majestic?"

Zhao Hai didn't understand where Luo Ying was going, but he nodded and said, "It's very grand. It's impossible to know how many levels there are just by looking at it."

Luo Ying sighed and said, "To the people guarding the tower, its like a cage that traps people inside. They aren't as free as people like you."

Zhao Hai couldn't understand what Luo Ying was saying, so he couldn't connect the dots. Luo Ying continued, "Come with me." After he said that, the two entered the first level of the Sky Tower. The moment he entered, Zhao Hai saw that the first level wasn't the same as the one he encountered before. Now the first floor of the Sky Tower was a small room containing a transmission formation.

Looking at Zhao Hai's expression, Luo Ying said, "There's no need to be curious. The Sky Tower is an artifact made by a predecessor. He used endless techniques and a large amount of energy to make it. Even guardians like me didn't know a tenth of its functions." Then he walked to the transmission formation after he said that. Zhao Hai didn't say anything as he followed along. Luo Ying fiddled with the formation a few times before a white flash took the two to a different place.

When Zhao Hai's vision cleared up, he discovered that they were now on an enormous transmission formation plaza. This plaza was very large, ten times larger than the Hundred Treasures Realm's. There were both large and small-scale formations in this plaza. White light flashed from time to time as people appeared and disappeared from the transmission formations.

As Zhao Hai was looking around him, he heard Luo Ying, "Come with me." Then the two flew outside the plaza. Luo Ying arrived before another cultivator. This cultivator looked to be over 20 years old. He had black hair while wearing white cultivation robes. The person's eyes had a glint showing that he was quite arrogant.

Luo Ying bowed towards this cultivator and said, "I greet the envoy. This one is Luo Ying, a guardian of the 23rd Sky Tower. I brought Zhao Hai over since he has been invited over."

Although Zhao Hai has no idea what was going on, Zhao Hai knew that Luo Ying was an Immortal Expert that has Faith Power. Meanwhile, the other party was just a Severed Soul Expert. Zhao Hai didn't know whether he had Faith Power or not, but Luo Ying didn't need to be polite to him. Despite this, Luo Ying was very respectful. It seems like this person has a backing that couldn't be offended.

Most importantly, Zhao Hai heard Luo Ying said that he was a guardian of the 23rd Sky Tower. If he could infer something, then this meant that there were at least 23 Sky Towers!

If it was the same as what Zhao Hai thought, then what concept was that? In other words, there were 22 other Towers. And it seemed like there were more battlefields like the Ten-thousand Realm Battlefield.

Back when he was observing the surroundings, Zhao Hai couldn't help but feel strange. The cultivators going in and out of the transmission formation plaza weren't that strong. Some were at the Transcending Tribulation Stage while the others were at the Severed Soul Stage. There were a lot of Immortal Experts present.

Zhao Hai couldn't help but be curious. He didn't understand what warranted Luo Ying to be careful in this place.

However, just to be sure, Zhao Hai didn't say anything and also gave a salute to the Severed Soul Expert. As if he didn't see anything unusual about it.

The Severed Soul Expert swept Zhao Hai with his gaze as he sneered and said, "Luo Ying, you really shamed the 23rd Sky Tower. I remember the last time you sent someone here. Was it 50 years ago? That time, you brought an Immortal Expert but this time it's just a Severed Soul Expert. Are there no experts in the 23rd Sky Tower?" When this person spoke, he looked Zhao Hai up and down. It was clear that he was looking down on Zhao Hai.

Luo Ying didn't show any anger in his expression, he just smiled faintly and said, "Zhao Hai has the most potential in the 23rd Sky Tower. This Luo Ying wouldn't dare shame himself on this."

The envoy looked at Zhao Hai and then suddenly waved his hand, sending a sword qi flying towards Zhao Hai. This sword qi was different to what Zhao Hai had seen. It was silver-white in color, looking very much like a real flying sword.

Zhao Hai stared for a moment, but he didn't remain motionless. He sent an invisible sword qi out to meet the incoming attack. When the two sword qi met in the air, they two completely cancelled each other out.

The envoy stared for a moment before his expression changed. He understood that Zhao Hai was letting him off. The cultivation of two cultivators couldn't be exactly the same. Since this was the case, attacks sent by the two couldn't just cancel each other out.

Canceling each other meant that when the two attacks met each other, they disappeared at the same time. There would be no fluctuations nor any remaining energy from the two attacks.

Doing something like this was quite impossible, but it actually happened. This only explained one thing. Zhao Hai calculated the exact amount of strength to use in his attack in order to cancel the opponent's move. This not only confirmed how strong Zhao Hai was, it also showed how powerful he was compared to the envoy.

The envoy coldly snorted and said, "A little capable. Luo Ying, the battle slave you brought this time has some skill. I hope he can give benefits to the group." After he said that, he turned around and left.

Zhao Hai was stunned. What did that person say? A battle slave? What was this all about?
