Chapter 1761: Condensing A Demon God

The universe had always been composed of positive and negative sides. If there was light, then there would be darkness. If there was yin, there would be yang. If there was good, then there was evil. A cultivator should be able to control his own heart to do whatever he wants. However, there's no cultivator who could really do all he wants. So in the process of cultivation, calamities would appear and their demons would surface.

Cultivators have a lot of means to deal with their heart's demon. However, all of these methods were merely suppressing their demon. It was impossible to truly remove one's demons. The longer they practice, the more their demon accumulates. As they get stronger, their demon will also get stronger.

Many cultivators think that as their cultivation increases, their heart's demon would become dormant. However, this wasn't the case. Because if the demon was suppressed, it would become stronger as time passes.

Cultivators and Heavenly Demons have similarities in their cultivation. However, their cultivation methods were the direct opposite of each other. If cultivators practice good, Heavenly Demons practice evil.

Although Zhao Hai hasn't confirmed it, he believed that the reason for the Heavenly Demons' appearance was their cultivation of their heart's demon. From the beginning, they regarded themselves as demons. So as they grew up, they became demons.

Zhao Hai was currently sitting on an uninhabited planet inside the Space. He had a calm expression on his face. He was thinking of practicing the cultivation method of the Heavenly Demons and cultivating his heart's demon.

Cultivators were afraid of their heart's demon. This was because the heart's demon was impossible to guard against. Although Zhao Hai has the Space, he has no experience with his heart's demon. Fortunately, Zhao Hai hasn't encountered it before, otherwise he would be in danger.

However, after asking Cai'er, Zhao Hai became terrified. This was because his heart's demon was indeed present, but it was being suppressed by the Space. This was the reason he hadn't encountered it before.

This also reinforced Zhao Hai's idea. He needs to solve his heart's demon as soon as possible. The best method to do this was to make use of it. After greeting Laura and the others, Zhao Hai went to this peaceful planet. If he becomes successful, then he would be able to deal with the threat of the heart's demon.

Zhao Hai was confident in his success. Because of this Space, he didn't have to worry about his heart's demon. And with his 5-element killing formation to protect his soul as well as the various Buddhist Techniques, Zhao Hai was almost certain that he would be able to condense his demon god.

After making preparations, Zhao Hai was ready to search for his inner demon. He relaxed his mind bit by bit and slowly searched for the evil thoughts in his heart.

When Zhao Hai relaxed his mind, he felt that he had entered a golden ocean. Every drop in this ocean was a thought. It was as if he was watching what he's doing and he was thinking.

It was a wonderful feeling. It was as if he had entered a magical place. This place composed his past and present. Only by one, pictures about his life pass by.

Zhao Hai became addicted to this scene. At this moment, a strange fish appeared on the surface of the ocean. This strange fish had bone armor and looked hideous. Its entire body was black as it swam through the ocean. The fish seemed to be suppressed by something as it had difficulty swimming.

Zhao Hai knew that this fish must be a trace of his evil thoughts. He immediately used his spiritual force to probe into the strange fish. Sensing the spiritual force, instead of hiding, the fish greeted Zhao Hai instead, which surprised him.

Before long, Zhao Hai's spiritual force got in contact with the strange fish and felt the strange fish meld into his thoughts. Suddenly, Zhao Hai felt uncertain about his actions. He didn't know if this was good or bad. If he succeeds, then good, but if he fails, then he might form a split personality.

Thinking of this, Zhao Hai almost withdrew his spiritual force. As he was about to withdraw, Zhao Hai became startled. This was because he remembered that this kind of thinking belonged to his heart's demon!

Zhao Hai immediately realized that he was affected by his negative thoughts. The strange fish that he reached out to was a negative emotion, and that was hesitation!

Zhao Hai finally understood the power of the heart's demon. The heart's demon's attacks weren't from the outside, but the inside. It settles in your mind influencing your actions, causing you to unknowingly do actions you wouldn't normally do. This was dangerous. If he was fighting someone, and then he suddenly hesitates, the other party would naturally capitalize on the opportunity.

Zhao Hai calmed down as he defended against his thoughts. He turned himself into a bystander to his own thoughts, overlooking everything. At this time, Zhao Hai calmed down. There wasn't even a trace of emotion in his heart, only the basic form of reason.

The strange fish appeared once more and Zhao Hai began to pressure it slowly. But instead of struggling, the fish changed its shape.

In the end, it had pitch-black hair, snow white skin, blood-red eyes, black clothes, black long blade in its hand, and the appearance and form of Zhao Hai.

This was the demon god that Zhao Hai condensed. Naturally, he wouldn't doubt the person he admired the most, so he used his own image as his demon god. However, he would not create a demon god with blue skin and fangs, so he created a demon god that looks just like him.

The demon god was very small, but it didn't matter. As long as Zhao Hai fed this demon god with his evil thoughts, its size would slowly increase.

Zhao Hai's thoughts moved. Just as he was going to capture the demon god, the demon god's eyes opened and slashed the spiritual force with the blade in his hands.

Zhao Hai immediately felt that he had turned into the demon god. He could feel his heart's demon giving him a direction of where all of his evil thoughts were located. Zhao Hai faced a direction and flew towards it. Before long, he saw another black figure, this time it was a snake. With a single slash of his knife, the snake was killed. The snake became energy that blended into the demon god. Zhao Hai could feel the demon god becoming stronger and bigger. This feeling caused Zhao Hai to be intoxicated.

However, Zhao Hai immediately calmed himself down. He knew that he was currently in his heart's demon, so he needed to control it.

Zhao Hai calmed down and felt various negative feelings such as rage, killing intent, greed, and many others. Zhao Hai ignored them all as he maintained his calm. Before long, these negative inclinations disappeared as Zhao Hai resumed using his demon god to seek evil thoughts to kill.

It was only now that Zhao Hai discovered how many evil thoughts were inside his mind. As time passed by, Zhao Hai's demon god got stronger and stronger. Zhao Hai realized that his demon god wanted to destroy these evil thoughts. It wants to absorb these evil thoughts and become stronger. If it was defeated, then it would be the one who would be swallowed. Then the evil thought might be able to break free from the Space's suppression and possess Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai didn't understand the danger in his own mind until now. The reason why one's heart's demon becomes stronger over time was because they had been consuming weaker demons making themselves stronger and stronger.

The reason why it had been easy to absorb the snake from before was because the snake had been suppressed by the Space. Therefore, Zhao Hai was able to easily defeat it.

The more time passes, the more demons Zhao Hai came across, and the more strange their forms became. Zhao Hai still remembered his encounter with a group of corals and sea plants in his mind's ocean. He could clearly feel that those corals and sea plants were also evil thoughts. And the evil thought was temptation!

As the demon god got stronger and stronger, Zhao Hai became calmer and calmer. Although he can feel that his demon god was stronger now, it was a refreshing feeling. Throughout the process, Zhao Hai didn't forget his mission, and that was to clear his mind's ocean of all evil thoughts.

Who knows how long it passed or how many beings Zhao Hai killed, but Zhao Hai suddenly felt his mind becoming very clear. He knew that he succeeded.

Zhao Hai immediately withdrew from the demon god's body and retrieved his own thoughts. He looked inside him and realized that the avatar in his taizhong acupoint had changed. There were still stars as well as a taiji diagram. The dao lotus was also there. But now, the dao lotus has been divided into two, one white and one black.

On each part of the dao lotus was one avatar. One avatar wore white robes and had silver white hair as it sat on the white dao lotus. It had a dignified aura as though it held all of the mercy in the world.

The other avatar wore black robes. It had black skin and a long dark blade on his knees. Its body exuded an evil aura that was filled with evil intent.

Above these two avatars were spirit cubes which were also white and black.

Zhao Hai didn't expect this change. He didn't expect his demon god to move there.

While Zhao Hai was in a daze, the Space suddenly issued a prompt, "Warning, warning. Two extreme personalities have appeared on the host's body. Classified as dangerous, might cause a split personality to the host. Emergency measures required. The two personalities needed to be combined!"

Chapter 1762: A Good and Evil Body

The prompt caused Zhao Hai to stare, then his complexion changed. Before he could react, a burst of white light shone on the dao lotus. Seeing this, Zhao Hai knew that it was too late to stop this. So he couldn't help but bitterly smile.

After some time, the light vanished. Zhao Hai discovered that the eight trigrams pond below has changed. Vines grew out of the eyes of the yin and yang of the taiji symbol. Then the two vines merged together into a bigger vine which connected to the dao lotus. Above the dao lotus was a person wearing white robes who had black hair. He was fair-skinned and had a dignified buddhist image. However, behind this person was a long jet-black sword. This person looked like Zhao Hai, but his eyes were closed.

Zhao Hai stared for a moment. He thought that the demon god that he created would disappear. But this doesn't seem to be the case. Just as Zhao Hai felt that it was strange, he suddenly felt something enter his mind's ocean. Zhao Hai could feel something enter his body, making his body stronger.

At the same time, Zhao Hai felt his spirit becoming clearer and bright. Then information entered his soul, making him understand what was going on.

It turns out that his previous thinking was wrong. Humans have emotions, both good and bad. They were what makes someone human. If a person only has evil emotions left, then they could no longer be human.

Only when good and evil coexist would a Human be full. If Zhao Hai forcefully separated his good and evil sides, then his soul would be split in two.

Fortunately, the Space discovered this, so the two sides were merged. This resulted in the avatar in Zhao Hai's acupoint. This avatar can be said to be Zhao Hai. In the past, the Space has been suppressing these evil thoughts for Zhao Hai. But now, these evil thoughts can be utilized to increase Zhao Hai's strength. Zhao Hai can be said to be complete. His cultivation was now at least double compared to before.

What made Zhao Hai happy the most was when he condensed his demon god, he could now use the techniques of the Heavenly Demons. His original 360 dao avatars have been increased to 720.

Zhao Hai let out a long breath as he slowly opened his eyes. His pupils have become darker and more profound. At the same time, his temperament changed, making him seem more ordinary than before!

That's correct, he has become more ordinary. Zhao Hai couldn't help but force a smile. Other people's temperament would become more fierce as they cultivate. On the other hand, his aura became more ordinary as time passed by. He didn't know what he would turn into once he achieved more progress.

Zhao Hai released his main dao avatar. On the surface, there seems to be no change in the dao avatar. It was still a thousand hand guanyin. But this time, there were more arms connected to the avatar. Moreover, if one looks properly, the arms look more ferocious than before.

At this time, Zhao Hai made his dao avatar turn around. This time, the appearance of the avatar was different. This time, it was a demon avatar with a thousand arms. On each arm were demonic symbols.

Zhao Hai was aware that his dao avatar was now much stronger. At the same time, he has more control over it. He let out a long breath and relaxed.

After checking the changes to his body, Zhao Hai went to the vermillion bird space and called Mo Yu and the others over. Zhao Hai deliberately changed his temperament to that of a demon. Now, he had a cold and demonic energy covering his body, just like a demon.

When Mo Yu and the others appeared in front of Zhao Hai, they were stunned by the demonic aura around him. Then they immediately gave him a bow.

Zhao Hai waved his hand and said, "How are you doing?"

Mo Yu and the others were somewhat trembling as they looked at Zhao Hai. Mo Yu quickly answered, "Thank you for the care, Young Master. We've been getting familiar with the place."

Zhao Hai nodded and said, "That's good. After a period of time, I'll go catch more Heavenly Demons. Later on, Firegod City will be your place of living." Mo Yu and the others nodded. Zhao Hai gave them a nod before he vanished and returned to the Space.

Zhao Hai revealed his demonic qi in front of Mo Yu and the others to see their response. Sure enough, upon seeing Zhao Hai, Mo Yu and the others were shocked. It seems like Zhao Hai has gained a genuine demonic aura. If they didn't see Zhao Hai, they might assume that he was a true demon.

Zhao Hai returned to the villa. Laura and the others were still making the scenes for the jade token to record. Meanwhile, the map of the Heavenly Demon Realm became more and more complete as the silver needles traveled the land.

Seeing Laura and the others being busy, Zhao Hai couldn't help but bitterly smile. Laura and the others were too bored inside the Space. Therefore, their focus was entirely on the scenes to be recorded. Condensing his demon god took about a month of time. Even after such time had passed, Laura and the others were still full of enthusiasm.

Zhao Hai accompanied Laura and the others inside the Space for two days as he looked at the situation outside. Despite searching for nearly a month, Mo Lihe and the others have yet to discover any trail of Zhao Hai. They thought that Zhao Hai had left the area, so the main force returned to the sect leaving behind a small number of people to patrol the area where Zhao Hai fought against Mo Yan's group. This time, they were just performing a normal patrol and no longer searched under every rock to find Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai was glad to see this. Now that the majority of the Cloud Demon Sect's people had retreated, he can now begin to act. Firegod City still lacked people inside.

Although Zhao Hai already had Mo Yu and the others inside Firegod City to provide him with faith power, he didn't want to treat them badly. He regarded them as another race of people inside the Space. He even set up an exchange point in Firegod City, which was no different to other planets in the Space.

However, to populate Firegod City with the Heavenly Demon Race, Mo Yu and the others weren't enough. He needed more Heavenly Demons, including female ones.

Because of this, Zhao Hai began to take action. After accompanying Laura and the others, Zhao Hai came out of the Space and resumed his hunting of the Cloud Demon Sect.

Mo Zhao was an Inner Disciple of the Cloud Demon Sect. Although his nascent soul stage strength wasn't remarkable in the sect, he wasn't weak. He was at the middle power level among the inner disciples.

The Cloud Demon Sect has now returned to its calm since the cultivator was no longer spotted. Now, as long as they perform their regular patrols, they would be fine.

Mo Zhao was now bringing his fellow disciples to patrol the area around Zhao Hai and Mo Yan's battle. Then suddenly, they heard clashing sounds from the distance. It was clear that some people were fighting. Mo Zhao stared for a moment before he immediately commanded his team to go over.

When Mo Zhao and the others were heading towards the battle, they found two groups fighting. Seeing the dao avatar of one side, Mo Zhao became happy. This was because one side of the battle was using dao avatars of the Great World of Cultivation. He knew that the Cloud Demon Sect had been looking for the cultivator from the Great World of Cultivation. If he reported this to the sect, then he would certainly gain a huge merit.

Thinking of this, Mo Zhao sent out a message bat. Then he commanded his team to use their dao avatars to reinforce their allies in the battle.

But before Mo Zhao could arrive, the dao avatars of both sides suddenly turned and attacked them. These dao avatars were at the transcending tribulation stage. It didn't take long before Mo Zhao and the others were sent to the vermillion bird space.

The battle was staged by Zhao Hai using his demon avatars and dao avatars. Mo Zhao and the others had no chance to fight back as they were immediately captured. As for the message bat that Mo Zhao sent, Zhao Hai didn't care. He wanted to use this message bat to inform the Cloud Demon Sect that he has returned.

Mo Zhao wasn't the first group that Zhao Hai hunted. Before Mo Zhao, Zhao Hai already captured five patrol groups. Zhao Hai wanted to blow this event out of proportion because he has yet to see a female Heavenly Demon. This caused him to be worried.

After asking Mo Yu, Zhao Hai found out that female Heavenly Demons wouldn't come out of the Cloud Demon Sect. If he wanted to capture female Heavenly Demons, then he would need to attack the sect.

However, the experts in the Cloud Demon Sect were numerous. If Zhao Hai rashly attacked the sect, then he would just be courting death. Because of this, Zhao Hai wanted to make noise first to make the Cloud Demon Sect aware of his return. Then he would deal with multiple groups to make the sect send more people. Once the sect deploys most of their powerhouses, Zhao Hai would use the opportunity to enter the sect and capture the female Heavenly Demons. With this, the future population of Firegod City would no longer be an issue.

After dealing with Mo Zhao's group, Zhao Hai immediately looked for another target. Because he has the Space, looking for a target was very simple. But since Zhao Hai doesn't want the Cloud Demon Sect to know about his spatial ability, the targets he looked for were those who were nearby. So even if others came to inspect the scene, they wouldn't be able to find anything strange.

Chapter 1763: Defeating Mo Lihe

Mo Lihe had an ugly complexion as he saw in his flying iron centipede. He didn't expect the cultivator who stirred up a storm a month ago to reappear. Moreover, he began to capture dozens of Cloud Demon Sect disciples. This was something that he couldn't forgive.

Mo Lihe couldn't help but remember the loss of Mo Yu. Mo Yu was Mo Lihe's most well-regarded disciple. Losing Mo Yu had a huge impact on Mo Lihe. But then Zhao Hai just vanished for a month. Mo Lihe couldn't find Zhao Hai even if he wanted to.

Zhao Hai's return enraged Mo Lihe but also made him happy. As soon as he received information, he would immediately fly over. Along with him were his subordinates, including ten transcending tribulation experts.

Just as the flying iron centipede was flying, a black figure suddenly appeared in its path, causing the centipede to stop.

Mo Lihe immediately got word and he appeared on the centipede's head. As soon as he looked at what's in front of him, he couldn't help but take a deep breath. This was because what he saw was a huge fleet.

There's no mistake, it was a fleet of 100 ships. Each ship was gigantic. Putting 100 of them in one group was an astonishing sight.

With his great eyesight, Mo Lihe saw a person on the ship in front. It was a cultivator from the Great World of Cultivation. The cultivator had a calm expression on his face. Naturally, the cultivator saw him too. The cultivator smiled faintly and then cupped his fists.

Mo Lihe clenched his teeth in anger as he said, "Tell me your name. This Mo Lihe doesn't kill nameless people."

"Hahahaha" The cultivator laughed. Then he replied, "Zhao Hai has seen Elder Mo Lihe. I heard that Elder has been looking for me recently. However, I've been very busy. Forgive me for being disrespectful. I just had the time to accompany the Elder today."

Mo Lihe coldly snorted and said, "Accompany me, you? A criminal? Tell me, did you kill my disciple Mo Yu?"

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "That's right."

Mo Lihe roared, "Zhao Hai, you're dead. I will smash your body into a thousand pieces!" After he said that, Mo Lihe charged towards Zhao Hai. It was as if he wasn't fazed by the fleet of ships.

In fact, with Mo Lihe's strength, he really has no need to care about large artifacts. To him, large artifacts were mere decorations. They weren't useful against him.

When Mo Lihe charged over, he didn't release his dao avatar. Zhao Hai smiled faintly as he saw Mo Lihe coming over. Then he also flew out of the Hell King's Ship and charged towards Mo Lihe.

Mo Lihe didn't expect that Zhao Hai would dare to clash with him. This caused him to stare for a moment before his eyes lit up. Although Mo Lihe wasn't afraid of large artifacts, he would have to break through them to get to Zhao Hai. He might not care about them, but it was annoying. Zhao Hai rushing over just saved Mo Lihe a lot of trouble.

The two quickly approached each other. When they were very close to each other, Mo Lihe roared as he clawed towards Zhao Hai. At the same time, Zhao Hai raised his fists. The two quickly went into a brawl.

Heavenly Demons were very good at close-combat. And with their lifestyle, their bodies were much stronger compared to cultivators. Because of this, close-combat became their strongest point.

However, Mo Lihe quickly discovered that he wasn't able to capitalize on his advantages against Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai was also very strong, he was able to properly clash with Mo Lihe.

This greatly surprised Mo Lihe. He didn't expect the Great World of Cultivation to send such an expert to the Heavenly Demon Realm. If this was the case, the Heavenly Demon Realm wouldn't be in a good situation. Now he knew that Mo Yu's demise wasn't unjust.

At the same time, Mo Lihe expressed his killing intent. In his mind, such an expert cannot return to the Great World of Cultivation. He was a threat to the Heavenly Demon Realm.

The battle between the two was very intense. The other Cloud Demon Sect experts weren't able to help Mo Lihe.

As Zhao Hai and Mo Lihe were fighting, Zhao Hai's fleet attacked Mo Lihe's flying iron centipede. The Heavenly Demons that Mo Lihe brought with him could only fight the incoming large artifacts.

In the beginning, the Cloud Demon Sect's experts didn't treat the large artifacts seriously. This was because transcending tribulation experts could easily deal with large artifacts.

However, they soon found out that things weren't as easy as they thought. The large artifacts weren't ordinary. They weren't afraid of attacks from transcending tribulation experts.

The large artifacts were very fierce. At most, the attacks of the transcending tribulation experts would slow the large artifacts down. Now being able to deal with the large artifacts was a shock to the experts of the Cloud Demon Sect. They couldn't understand how such large artifacts could be so strong.

Actually, these large artifacts weren't strong in the beginning. But since Zhao Hai condensed his demon god and combined his good and evil sides, the large artifacts became more powerful.

The reason for this change was the transformation of the yin-yang lightning ponds. The yin-yang lightning ponds were sourced from the pond below Zhao Hai's dao lotus. With Zhao Hai's increase in strength, the dao lotus became more powerful which in turn increased the potency of the yin-yang lightning ponds.

The large artifacts swarmed around the flying iron centipede nonstop, giving the transcending tribulation experts a hard time. At this time, Cai'er and the others took control of the large artifacts. Moreover, the transcending tribulation experts inside the Space have been released. It didn't matter whether they be Undead or Heavenly Demons, they were all sent out.

Zhao Hai has a lot of transcending tribulation experts in the Space. However, the majority of them were Undead and Heavenly Demons. Seeing these experts come out, the Cloud Demon Sect's experts were stunned. Before long, the flying iron centipede was overwhelmed and then sent to the Space.

Once the flying iron centipede was sent to the Space, the experts went towards Zhao Hai and Mo Lihe.

Although Mo Lihe was fighting with Zhao Hai, he was also paying attention to the battlefield. He didn't think that his subordinates would be defeated. And with him being entangled with Zhao Hai, there was no way for him to head over and help. In the end, he could only look helplessly as his subordinates were eliminated.

Actually, the Heavenly Demons were still alive when they were sent to the Space. Naturally, those demons who resisted too violently were killed.

Also, seeing Mo Yu attacking his people caused Mo Lihe to be enraged. He thought that Mo Yu had been killed. He didn't expect Mo Yu to submit to Zhao Hai. This was a huge blow to Mo Lihe.

Heavenly Demons were warlike beings. At the same time, they regarded surrender after defeat as a shameful thing. Because of this, after so many years of sending people over, the Great World of Cultivation only subdued a very few number of Heavenly Demons. Similarly, most of the Heavenly Demons who surrendered to Zhao Hai were subdued by the Space. Those who surrendered to Zhao Hai on their own volition were very small.

Being who he was, Mo Lihe looked down on Heavenly Demons who surrendered. But he didn't expect his own disciple to surrender. Moreover, he surrendered to a human cultivator. This was very hard for Mo Lihe to accept.

At this moment, Zhao Hai no longer held back and had the other transcending tribulation experts make a move. This caused Mo Lihe to be on the defensive side. This caused him to release his dao avatar. However, Zhao Hai didn't allow him the opportunity. Zhao Hai also released his dao avatar. Then with the thousand-hand guanyin, he struck Mo Lihe down. With everyone attacking him, Mo Lihe was severely wounded. Then he was sent to the Space to be subdued and then healed.

Zhao Hai's goal was also considered to be achieved. He wanted to deal with one powerful expert of the Cloud Demon Sect to rattle them. Then the sect would send more experts to chase him down. Once they were busy, he would immediately attack the sect's headquarters.

His plan has been successful. Not only was Zhao Hai successful in his plan, he also gained more transcending tribulation experts as well the flying iron centipede. Later on, he would have more types of large artifacts he could refine.

After dealing with Mo Lihe, Zhao Hai immediately left the area after erasing some of his traces. He left behind the chaotic energy produced by the battle. This way, the sect would send more experts out.

Zhao Hai knew that his last blow had reached the level of a half-step Immortal Expert. The Cloud Demon Sect doesn't have a lot of such experts. Therefore, if the sect wanted to deal with him, then not only would they need to send more half-step immortal experts, they would also invite their immortal stage elder to take action. Once this happens, Zhao Hai would have his chance.

And just as Zhao Hai thought, the battle between Zhao Hai and Mo Li wasn't small, so the Cloud Demon Sect sent experts to inspect the scene. The results were then sent back to the sect. The Sect Master of the Cloud Demon Sect had to ask their Supreme Elder to deal with this matter.

A half-step immortal expert being killed was a huge matter. If the Great World of Cultivation sent a half-step immortal expert to the Heavenly Demon Sect to cause trouble, then the Cloud Demon Sect would suffer greatly. The strength of the sect would be greatly damaged. It might even risk the sect being annexed by another sect in the future.

One shouldn't think that the Heavenly Demon Realm was a unified entity. This was impossible. Like the Great World of Cultivation, the Heavenly Demon Realm also had an uncountable number of sects. And with how brutal Heavenly Demons were, the worries of the Cloud Demon Sect wasn't unwarranted. If they dared to ignore Zhao Hai's threat, then they would be gambling on the sect's rise and fall.

After receiving the report, the Cloud Demon Sect immediately sent more than ten flying iron centipedes led by the sect master. The Immortal Stage Supreme Elder was also among the congregation. All of them were heading towards the place where Zhao Hai and Mo Li fought.

When the flying iron centipedes arrived, the Sect Master and the Supreme Elder of the Cloud Demon Sect walked out. The appearance of the two were closer to a human. The Sect Master looked quite similar to Mo Lihe. He has a horn on his forehead and he wore a black robe. Besides his dark blue skin, all of his other aspects were similar to humans.

As for the Cloud Demon Sect's Supreme Elder, he looked even more like a human. Besides the horn on his head, he didn't have any difference compared to a human. Moreover, his horn was much shorter compared to the other Heavenly Demons.

As the two flew out of the flying iron centipede, the Supreme Elder of the Cloud Demon Sect felt the surrounding qi. Then he said, "It's indeed an expert. His final strike should have utilized his dao avatar. Mo Lihe also used his dao avatar, but he was unable to block the attack. Also, it seems like Mo Lihe wasn't able to use his complete strength. However, I can feel demonic qi on the attack of that person. Very strange."

Hearing this, the Sect Master of the Cloud Demon Sect frowned and said, "Elder, how strong is this person? Can I win against him? If he's too strong, our Cloud Demon Sect would be very unlucky."

The Supreme Elder nodded and said, "A very strong person. At most, you will be on even grounds against him. Such a person is a threat to our sect if he stays here. Sect Master, do you have any plans?" Although the position of a Supreme Elder was very honored, he generally wouldn't meddle with the affairs of the sect. The same was also true for the Great World of Cultivation. This was because the job of Supreme Elders was to maintain and increase their strength. The stronger they were, the longer they could live. Therefore, Supreme Elders would leave the sect to the Sect Masters to deal with.

The Cloud Demon Sect's Sect Leader frowned and said, "This isn't an easy matter to deal with. That fellow is very slippery. Although I want to ask the Supreme Elder to kill him, we still need to find him. Most importantly, we need the Supreme Elder to stand guard on the headquarters. Otherwise, we wouldn't be able to deal with incoming dangers. If that fellow runs to the headquarters to cause trouble, then we wouldn't have sufficient strength to deal with him."

The Supreme Elder nodded. At this time, a message bat stopped in front of the Sect Master. Upon receiving the information, the Sect Master's expression immediately changed.

Chapter 1764: Pursuit of an Immortal Expert

Zhao Hai had a calm expression as he looked at the screen. He was only looking at the Cloud Demon Sect's vicinity. As for the inner parts of the sect, Zhao Hai didn't dare probe too deeply.

Zhao Hai already learned about the situation of the Cloud Demon Sect from Mo Lihe and the others. Armed with this information, Zhao Hai was now more informed about the condition of the sect. This time, Zhao Hai's target was the Cloud Demon Sect's medicine garden.

The Heavenly Demon Sect also has medicine gardens. No matter where, sects need pills, the Cloud Demon Sect was the same. Although Heavenly Demons have formidable bodies, they would be at a disadvantage without the help of pills.

The reason why Zhao Hai chose the medicine garden was because it wasn't in the inner parts of the sect. Moreover, the people sent by the Cloud Demon Sect to take care of the medicinal herbs were female Heavenly Demons.

Zhao Hai already has a lot of male Heavenly Demons. Just inside Mo Lihe's flying iron centipede were several thousand male Heavenly Demons. Counting the Heavenly Demons captured before, Zhao Hai now had about ten thousand Heavenly Demons. All of which were male.

Therefore, Zhao Hai urgently needed female Heavenly Demons if he wanted the vermillion bird space to thrive in the future. Therefore, Zhao Hai chose to attack the medicine garden. The medicine garden was quite a distance away from the core of the sect. Even if the Immortal Expert of the Cloud Demon Sect were to head over, it would still require them some time to arrive.

Zhao Hai has yet to begin his move. This was because the Sect Master of the Cloud Demon Sect is still en route to the place Mo Lihe fought it. Once they arrive, Zhao Hai would begin his move.

Laura and the others were also looking at the screen. They knew that the Cloud Demon Sect has an Immortal Expert. With Zhao Hai's present strength, he still couldn't fight against an Immortal Expert. If he sees an Immortal Expert, he could only run away.

At this time, Cai'er said, "Young Master, it's time."

Zhao Hai understood what Cai'er meant. The Sect Master of the Cloud Demon Sect was about to arrive at the place where he and Mo Lihe fought. In an instant, Zhao Hai appeared outside. The place he appeared was a place near the medicine garden. Beside him was a flying iron centipede.

The flying iron centipede was a status symbol in the Cloud Demon Sect. Besides the top core disciples, only the elders and the Sect Master have one.

Because of this, as long as Zhao Hai uses the flying iron centipede, he would be able to go anywhere besides forbidden areas.

Zhao Hai entered the flying iron centipede and then controlled it to fly towards the medicine garden. Before long, he was outside the garden.

The medicine garden had quite some people inside, but it wasn't lively. Besides those who plant and manage the herbs, other Heavenly Demons rarely came here. Once in a while, female Heavenly Demons would come and collect medicinal materials to be sent back to the sect. Additionally, because the sect was afraid of people coming over to steal herbs, those without permission couldn't come to the medicinal garden.

Naturally, elders were an exception, especially elders on flying iron centipedes. Owners of flying iron centipedes had extraordinary status. They naturally had the qualifications to enter the medicinal garden.

Zhao Hai already investigated the inside and outside of the medicine garden. He knew that there's no threat present inside the garden. As long as he takes action, nobody would be able to escape.

Flying iron centipedes are fast, but Zhao Hai didn't use the centipede's maximum speed. He just flew forward slowly and leisurely. He didn't seem to be in a hurry. Showing little vigilance.

However, the huge flying iron centipede attracted the attention of those in the medicine garden. Seeing the flying iron centipede, the female Heavenly Demons bowed their heads. They didn't dare interrogate the person inside the centipede. Among the Heavenly Demons, divisions were strictly enforced. If you disrespect someone with a higher status than you, then you might be killed.

Female Heavenly Demons didn't have as high of a status in the Heavenly Demon Realm compared to their male counterparts. None of them dared to stop the flying iron centipede.

Before long, Zhao Hai was on top of the medicine garden. He also sealed the transmission formation of the medicine garden. The flying iron centipede looked like a large dragon as it floated in the sky. The female Heavenly Demons bowed deeply, their hearts somewhat uneasy. They didn't know why this elder came over.

At this time, a female Heavenly Demon discovered a large opening on the centipede. Soon after, large numbers of Heavenly Demons came out and charged towards them. Before they understood what was happening, most of them were already captured.

The female Heavenly Demons were somewhat stunned. They don't know what was going on. They even forgot to resist. At the same time, Zhao Hai sent out Mo Lihe and the others to uproot the entire medicine garden to be sent to the Space.

The entire process went by very fast. The female Heavenly Demons simply didn't rebel.

However, there were only more than a thousand female Heavenly Demons in the medicine garden. Zhao Hai still needed to capture more female Heavenly Demons. The vermilion bird space could accommodate hundreds of thousands of people. Zhao Hai can capture as many Heavenly Demons as he can.

After sweeping this medicine garden, Zhao Hai went to the next. With the Cloud Demon Sect's large domain, it was impossible for there to be only one medicine garden. The sect has more than 100 large and small medicine gardens.

Before long, Zhao Hai swept through five medicine gardens. But at this time, something went wrong. Just as Zhao Hai was sweeping his fifth medicine garden, a female Heavenly Demon who went to hand over the medicinal herbs found that she couldn't use the transmission formation to return. Zhao Hai sealed the transmission formations. Noticing something strange, the female Heavenly Demon reported the situation. The Cloud Demon Sect immediately sent people to check. As it turns out, the entire medicinal garden was gone, including the female Heavenly Demons.

The scout immediately reported back to the sect, causing the sect to shake. It must be known that although medicine gardens weren't located in the core of the sect, they were part of the foundations of the sect. If something happened to them, the Cloud Demon Sect would be affected. The sect immediately sent a message to the Sect Master.

After receiving the information, the Sect Master's complexion changed. He turned to the Supreme Elder and said, "Supreme Elder, something happened back in the sect. Medicinal gardens have disappeared along with the disciples in them. We have lost a lot of precious herbs."

The Supreme Elder wasn't stupid, as soon as he heard the Sect Master, his expression also changed as he said, "Someone attacked the sect? Could it be him?"

The 'him' that the Supreme Elder pointed to was naturally Zhao Hai. The Sect Master replied, "I'm unable to confirm it. However, we need to go back and look. If it is really him, then his attack on Mo Lihe is surely intentional."

The Supreme Elder gave a heavy nod as he said, "Alright, if it is really him, then his actions are deliberate. He wanted to shift our attention." The Sect Master nodded. They returned to the flying iron centipede and rushed back to the sect.

Zhao Hai was also aware that he had been discovered. However, since the Cloud Demon Sect has yet to arrive, he swept through two more medicinal gardens. As he was about to attack the eighth, he felt an overbearing aura coming down on him. Zhao Hai was stunned, then his expression changed. He knew that the powerhouses of the Cloud Demon Sect had arrived.

Zhao Hai knew that he was in danger. He used his quickest speed to capture the female Heavenly Demons and the medicinal garden. Then he used the flying iron centipede to run. He noticed a spiritual force locking onto him. If he escaped using the Space, then the other party would surely discover him. So instead of teleporting, Zhao Hai used the flying iron centipede to run away.

The Immortal Expert of the Cloud Demon Sect also discovered Zhao Hai's escape. He quickly pursued him. Zhao Hai didn't dare neglect his opponent as he drove the centipede with all of its speed.

It must be known that although both sides were using flying iron centipedes, one of them had a yin-yang lightning pond inside. Zhao Hai's centipede was faster than the other centipedes.

However, Zhao Hai still underestimated the Immortal Experts' strength. The Heavenly Demon who was chasing him was able to follow behind. The expert's speed was beyond Zhao Hai's expectation. As time went by, he was able to close his distance with Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai also felt this, his expression couldn't help but change. He immediately commanded the Undead of the Space to pour spiritual force into the centipede. Wanting to throw off the immortal expert was merely a dream. However, he could cause the immortal expert to chase him for some time.

Despite his situation, Zhao Hai wasn't startled. Instead, he said, "Cai'er, calculate how long it would take him to catch up to me. Choose a route that would take me the farthest from the Cloud Demon Sect." Cai'er nodded and began the calculations.

Chapter 1765: Clashing With An Immortal-stage Expert

Zhao Hai calmly controlled the flying iron centipede to fly forward. The centipede was flying at its fastest speed. Now the centipede was no longer swinging like a snake, it was flying like a sharp arrow.

Mo Guan stared straight ahead of him with a calm face. However, his heart wasn't calm at all. As the Supreme Elder of the Cloud Demon Sect, Mo Guan hasn't made a move for many years. This was his first action after a long time.

Mo Guan didn't expect a cultivator from the Great World of Cultivation to cause this much trouble in the Heavenly Demon Realm. When this cultivator caused trouble in the Cloud Demon Sect, Mo Guan didn't care about it at that time. He has lived for thousands of years and has experienced a lot of things. He knew that the juniors of the Great World of Cultivation would undergo a trial in the Heavenly Demon Realm. Because of this, he was used to ignoring this matter.

As Zhao Hai's actions became bigger and bigger, Mo Guan began to think that something wasn't right. Finally, once Mo Lihe was reported to have fallen, Mo Guan treated the matter seriously.

Mo Guan didn't expect Zhao Hai to be so courageous. He actually attacked the Cloud Demon Sect.

While he was thinking about this, he used his spiritual force to scan the entire Cloud Demon Sect. He found a flying iron centipede that was capturing female Heavenly Demons. He felt that this was Zhao Hai, so he ran after him immediately.

However, Mo Guan didn't expect Zhao Hai's flying iron centipede to be so fast. But this also cemented his plan to completely destroy Zhao Hai. In addition to the flying iron centipede, Mo Guan also sensed several Heavenly Demons serving Zhao Hai. And among those Heavenly Demons was Mo Lihe.

He certainly knew what it meant for a Heavenly Demon to serve a human. The Heavenly Demon has fully surrendered. This wasn't good news for him.

It has been years since a Heavenly Demon surrendered to a cultivator. If other sects knew that the disciples of the Cloud Demon Sect surrendered to a cultivator, then the reputation of the sect would be dragged to the mud. Everyone would look down on the Cloud Demon Sect. Moreover, among those who surrendered was an expert on Mo Lihe's level.

Naturally, there's another point that Mo Guan thought about, and that was Zhao Hai used a technique to subdue the Heavenly Demons. If this was the case, then Zhao Hai was even more dangerous. He was the enemy of the entire Heavenly Demon Race. If Zhao Hai has a technique to subdue Heavenly Demons, then he would be able to dominate the Heavenly Demon Realm.

Mo Guan also got news from the top figures of the Heavenly Demon Realm about the invaders of the Great Demon Realm. Their plan had always been to send their younger generations to fight the invaders. This way, they would gain experience in fighting the cultivators.

But this time, the top figures of the Heavenly Demon Realm decided to wipe out all the cultivators from the Great World of Cultivation. This was certainly unusual. It can be said that the Heavenly Demon Realm was planning to make a huge move against the Great World of Cultivation.

If Mo Guan's guess was right, then this meant that the Heavenly Demon Realm and the Great Realm of Cultivation would have a large war. If the Great World of Cultivation has this technique in their hands, then they would be able to subdue Heavenly Demons on a large scale. This would doom the entire Heavenly Demon Race.

Because of this, Mo Guan decided to chase Zhao Hai no matter what. He would kill Zhao Hai and search his soul to see whether there was indeed a technique to subdue Heavenly Demons.

Zhao Hai was now in a very serene state. He knew that in a few minutes, Mo Guan would be able to catch up to him. Zhao Hai has now chosen a direction to go to, which was the buffer zone between the Cloud Demon Sect and another sect. Usually, nobody would be there, so even if he and Mo Guan turned the place upside-down, nobody would notice.

Before long, Zhao Hai arrived at the place he chose. As soon as he arrived, Zhao Hai waved his hand and received the flying iron centipede. Zhao Hai stood in the air as he looked at Mo Guan who was fast approaching.

Seeing the flying iron centipede disappear, Mo Guan was stunned. However, he didn't stop until he was a hundred meters away from Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai looked at Mo Guan with a calm expression. Then he smiled faintly and said, "This one is Zhao Hai. You must be the Supreme Elder of the Cloud Demon Sect. Forgive me for being rude."

Seeing Zhao Hai being polite, Mo Guan couldn't help but be stunned. Then his expression changed as he coldly snorted and said, "Don't get familiar with me, Zhao Hai. You dare run wild in our Cloud Demon Sect. I'll make sure that you suffer a bad end today!"

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Elder, the Great World of Cultivation and the Heavenly Demon Realm share a great enmity. Even if I didn't do anything, the Cloud Demon Sect still wouldn't let me go. Saying such things is useless. If you want my life, then take it."

Mo Guan sneered, "Kid, you're too arrogant for your level of strength. This world has a lot of people who are stronger than you. Today I'll make you experience the gap in our strength!" Then he waved his hand as he sent a large palm towards Zhao Hai.

Seeing this palm, Zhao Hai's expression changed. Although palm attacks were among the most common attacks that cultivators use, Zhao Hai could feel how strong this particular palm was.

Zhao Hai immediately slashed the palm with his sword. Zhao Hai used the Brightsword technique this time. The Brightsword Technique sent very quick swords towards the enemy. The faster the swords, the more powerful the technique was.

The Brightsword Technique was indeed very quick and its offensive strength wasn't any inferior to other techniques. The Brightsword Technique was like a machine gun as it sent sword after sword. But in terms of strength during long ranged combat, the technique wasn't comparable to cannons. Therefore, Zhao Hai rarely used this technique.

But now, Zhao Hai was more inclined to use it. After successive increases in strength, the Brightsword Technique was now quite good. Additionally, with Zhao Hai's recent acquisition of tribulation lightning, the sword qi sent by the technique carried the might of the tribulation lightning. Therefore, although Zhao Hai didn't use all of his strength, his counter-attack was still very strong.

Moreover, as Zhao Hai released sword qi, his body also retreated. So the amount of sword qi heading towards Mo Guan's palm kept increasing.

It took more than 50 sword qi before Zhao Hai defeated Mo Guan's palm. Mo Guan couldn't help but be stunned when he saw this. He could clearly feel that Zhao Hai was just at the transcending tribulation stage. But he didn't expect Zhao Hai to have such strength. It was practically impossible for a transcending tribulation expert to defeat his palm attack.

Mo Guan coldly snorted and said, "I admit you have skill. No wonder you're able to deal with Mo Lihe. However, you'll have to die today!" After he said that, Mo Guan clenched his fist and sent a punch towards Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai could feel the intense amount of energy coming towards him.

Seeing Mo Guan's fist attack, Zhao Hai immediately released his dao avatar. The upper half of the avatar moved and released all kinds of abilities to counter Mo Guan's fist.

Boom! The fist qi and Zhao Hai's attacks collided with each other. The demon fist qi immediately vanished. Meanwhile, Zhao Hai's attack still has some leftover strength which went towards Mo Guan.

Mo Guan's expression changed. Then he coldly snorted and released a burst of energy, which erased the residual energy of Zhao Hai's attack. Then he looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Good, but this ends here!" Mo Guan roared and then a huge dao avatar appeared behind his body.

The dao avatar was enormous, about ten times larger than Zhao Hai's dao avatar. When the dao avatar appeared, it immediately clawed Zhao Hai. With its size, it looks as if it was just picking up an apple.

Zhao Hai immediately reacted. All of the arms of the dao avatar faced upwards and then released a combined energy attack to meet the claw that was coming towards him.

Bang! There was a loud noise, then Zhao Hai's dao avatar swayed a couple of times. Zhao Hai's complexion changed. Mo Guan's attack exceeded his expectations. He didn't expect an Immortal Expert's attack to be so terrifying. His previous estimates were wrong. He thought that his full-strength attack was comparable to an Immortal Stage Expert. However, he realized that he was mistaken.

Actually, Zhao Hai's thinking was wrong. His guess was right. His combined energy attack was indeed comparable to an Immortal Stage Expert. However, Mo Guan wasn't an ordinary Immortal Stage Expert.

In fact, Mo Guan was on the top level of Immortal Experts in the Cloud Demon Sect. His attacks weren't simple. Even most Immortal Experts wouldn't be able to block it. For Zhao Hai to be able to disperse the attack was truly a surprise.

But at the same time, this result also reinforced Mo Guan's intention of killing Zhao Hai. This time, his left claw attacked. His eyes were now red. It seemed like he wouldn't stop until Zhao Hai was killed.

Chapter 1766: Surrounding

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Mo Guan's dao avatar continually attacked. Zhao Hai didn't dare meet the attacks of the enemy. He repeatedly dodged to the side. Mo Guan's attacks caused violent explosions which explained the sounds.

Zhao Hai was very fast and he also used the Cosmos Technique. This movement technique was truly a high-rank Buddhist Technique. Under Mo Guan's endless attacks, Zhao Hai was able to dodge every time.

Seeing that he kept missing Zhao Hai, Mo Guan was angered. He roared as his dao avatar reduced in size. But at the same time, it looked more solid. Finally, it became the same size as Zhao Hai's dao avatar. At this moment, Mo Guan's dao avatar already looked like a real being. It looks like it wasn't a dao avatar at all.

When Mo Guan's dao avatar shrank, its speed also increased. Its strength was also greater than before. The explosions that were once rumbles were now full-blown explosions.

Zhao Hai's expression couldn't help but change when he saw this. He hid his dao avatar as he kept dodging the attacks. However, Zhao Hai's hands weren't idle. He also sent attacks towards Mo Guan.

Seeing Zhao Hai's actions, Mo Guan couldn't help but sneer. Without his dao avatar, Zhao Hai was now smaller. However, this also meant that his defenses were much weaker. Once he was hit, that would be over for him.

Moreover, without his dao avatar, Zhao Hai's supply of spiritual qi was smaller. He wouldn't be able to last in battle for long. In this case, it would be more difficult for Zhao Hai to defeat Mo Guan.

Zhao Hai was also aware of his present situation. His expression was difficult to look at. Then a stone stamp appeared in his hand. Zhao Hai threw the stamp over and before long a huge city came out of the stamp. The city proceeded to fall towards Mo Guan.

Mo Guan paid close attention to Zhao Hai's actions. Seeing Zhao Hai take out a stamp, he immediately became vigilant. He knew that whatever Zhao Hai takes out at this time wouldn't be simple.

While Mo Guan was being vigilant, he suddenly saw a huge city crashing down on him. Mo Guan's expression changed. Then he quickly dodged to the side.

But this time, the city suddenly became bigger. Then the city ignited with sky-high flames. Mo Guan has no other way other than to defend.

Boom! A loud sound was heard as Mo Guan's dao avatar shook. It looked as if the dao avatar would shatter at any time. Mo Guan's face paled, he looked at Zhao Hai with an expression of fear.

Zhao Hai didn't expect Firegod City to be this formidable. It was able to cause an Immortal-stage Heavenly Demon to pale upon blocking it. It must be known that this wasn't the full-strength blow of the city.

But upon seeing that Firegod City was effective, Zhao Hai no longer held back. He planned to drop Firegod City once more. At the same time, he sighed in secret. He lamented his low strength. If he was strong, then he could decompose Firegod City and then create more of them using the Space. When that happens, let alone Mo Guan, even if he was against the entire Cloud Demon Sect or all of the Heavenly Demon Realm, he could just drop Firegod Cities on top of them.

Mo Guan paled as he blocked Zhao Hai's attacks. At the same time, he retreated. Naturally, Zhao Hai chased after him, using Firegod City to attack him one more time.

Mo Guan's retreat was very fast. At the same time, he defended with all of his strength. Boom! Boom! Boom! Zhao Hai attacked Mo Guan again and again. Mo Guan wasn't able to dodge, so he could only repeatedly defend against the attacks.

After three consecutive attacks, Mo Guan's dao avatar was on the verge of being destroyed. Mo Guan had a trickle of blood coming out of his mouth. Then at this moment, Zhao Hai felt another powerful aura coming from the Cloud Demon Sect. Zhao Hai estimated that it would be impossible for him to deal with Mo Guan before that Immortal Expert arrived. If he stayed, then he would be under the attack of two Immortal Experts. Then he would be in greater danger.

Thinking of this, Zhao Hai immediately received Firegod City as well as the vermillion bird stamp. He looked at Mo Guan and then coldly snorted as he said, "I'll let you off this time. We will meet again." After he said that, he retreated and then disappeared a distance away from Mo Guan. Although Mo Guan wanted to chase, he suddenly felt a burst of pain from his meridians. He knew that he had been injured, so he calmed his spiritual qi down. He has no choice other than to look at Zhao Hai leaving.

Mo Guan was so angry that he gritted his teeth. But there was nothing he could do. After a while, a figure appeared next to him. The man looked at Mo Guan and said, "Second, how are you? You look like you're injured."

Mo Guan looked at the man and said, "First Brother, fortunately you arrived quickly. Otherwise, you won't be seeing me today."

The First Brother's expression couldn't help but change. Then he said, "What happened? Is it a powerhouse from the Great World of Cultivation? From what the other sects said, although the people that the Great World of Cultivation sent were strong, they weren't a threat. How could they injure you?"

Mo Guan smiled bitterly and said, "That person is different from the rest of them. He has a formidable artifact that looks like a huge city. It is tough and very powerful. I can only block three attacks from it with my strength. If he didn't sense that you were coming, I'm afraid I wouldn't be able to survive."

The First Brother replied, "We cannot let him survive for long. It would be bad for the Heavenly Demon Realm if he stays alive. I think we should report this matter and let the other sects make a unified effort with us to deal with him. We can allow the other people from the Great World of Cultivation to go. But we cannot let this person to escape."

Mo Guan nodded and said, "He cannot live." The First Brother nodded and then took Mo Guan back to the Cloud Demon Sect.

Zhao Hai was currently inside the Space looking at the conversation between the two. Hearing them, Zhao Hai snorted and said, "The Cloud Demon Sect hasn't learned their lesson. I won't hold back next time."

Laura smiled faintly and said, "We cannot let the Cloud Demon Sect to take a breather. But if they really group up to deal with you, then I think it would be better for you to stay inside the Space."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "I don't think so. The more I go out, the more they want to surround me. And they need people to surround and suppress me. If that happens, I would appear in their sects and loot it. I have to cause great disturbance to the sects of the Heavenly Demon Realm."

Julie, who rarely spoke, smiled faintly and said, "Brother Hai, if you want, you can unleash a few Bug Mother Nests. That would be enough to cause them some trouble."

Hearing Julie, Zhao Hai's eyes shone as he said, "That's a great idea. The dark element energy in the Heavenly Demon Realm is just suited for the Bug Race. Alright, we'll put some mother nests here."

Julie smiled faintly and said, "Let them absorb some genes of the Heavenly Demon Race. Then they would be more difficult to deal with."

Zhao Hai laughed and said, "Good. Cai'er, immediately make the preparations. We won't release too many, five mother nests are enough." Cai'er nodded.

Zhao Hai relaxed in the next few days. He didn't attack the Cloud Demon Sect. This was because the sect's defenses had increased. Several Immortal Experts were paying attention to the entire sect. Zhao Hai wasn't able to find any opportunity to go out.

And because Mo Guan was able to come back alive, it became known that Zhao Hai had acquired a flying iron centipede. Therefore, all of the sect's flying iron centipedes had been grounded. Mo Lihe becoming a traitor to the sect has also been reported. So if Zhao Hai wanted to raid the Cloud Demon Sect, then he would have to use the Space.

However, Zhao Hai has no plans to use the Space too much. These Immortal Experts were too strong. If they discover the Space, then that would be bad news.

Because of the Cloud Demon Sect's increased vigilance, Zhao Hai could only stay inside the Space. He put a temporary stop to his plans of raiding the sect.

But this doesn't mean that Zhao Hai had been idle. He used this time to monitor the other sects around the Cloud Demon Sect. This was because Zhao Hai knew that Mo Guan and the others would definitely invite more experts of the Heavenly Demon Realm. Their plan of surrounding Zhao Hai wasn't just talk. There would definitely be an accompanying action.

Sure enough, the sects around the Cloud Demon Sect sent a large army to surround the place where Zhao Hai and Mo Guan fought. At the same time, they carried out a carpet search on all places that they suspected Zhao Hai would be.

The Cloud Demon Sect was also coordinating with other sects to search the borders. The cave that Zhao Hai hid inside before has also been found.

Seeing this, Zhao Hai couldn't help but smile. He knows that the moment he appears, the sects would immediately surround him. The surrounding sects have already been mapped by the Space. Once he made sure that he was clear, he would immediately attack.

Now that the surrounding sects have sent their troops to the Cloud Demon Sect, Zhao Hai decided that it was time to move. His first target was the sect northeast of the Cloud Demon Sect. This sect was a bit worse in strength compared to the Cloud Demon Sect. Zhao Hai doesn't know if the sect has any Immortal Experts or not. He just knew that he would be safer if he attacked this sect.

The sect that Zhao Hai decided to attack was known as the Violent Demon Sect. The Violent Demon Sect has been very receptive of the news. The Sect Master personally led the experts of the sect to participate. Because of this, there weren't many experts left in the sect. It was because of this that Zhao Hai chose this sect. From the conversations he heard, there were two Immortal Experts left behind to guard the sect.

However, Zhao Hai wasn't worried about this. He just wanted to attack the sect one time and then leave. He wouldn't give the Violent Demon Sect any chance to attack.

Naturally, this time, he could only depend on the Space. But since he doesn't have to face any Immortal Experts, Zhao Hai wasn't worried. Zhao Hai was also preparing to put a mother nest in the Violent Demon Sect. These bugs would be a headache to the sect.

The Violent Demon Sect could only be regarded as a lower middle grade sect. Any treasures of the Heavenly Demon Realm wouldn't fall into the hands of such a sect. It was because of this that the sect was so eager to participate in surrounding Zhao Hai. They were hoping to get benefits from this operation.

In the mind of the Sect Master, if they perform well during this operation, then those big sects would take notice of them. The Sect Master knew that they couldn't contend against those large sects. It was good enough that they entered the eyes of those sects. It would be great if they gain a backing from this operation. Therefore, this operation was very important for the sect.

It wasn't easy for a small sect to survive in the Heavenly Demon Realm. They could be destroyed by the large sects at any time. But if they find a large sect that could support them, then they wouldn't need to worry about their survival. For a small sect, being subordinated to a large sect wasn't a loss of face. It was a strategy for survival.

But at the same time, the Violent Demon Sect weren't fools. From the information they received, it seems like the Cloud Demon Sect suffered a huge loss under Zhao Hai. This was the reason they wanted to act with the other sects to deal with Zhao Hai. Although the Sect Master also wanted to capture Zhao Hai and get his secrets, he didn't want to steal a chicken but instead lose the rice.

Although the Sect Master took away most of the sect's experts, he still left two Immortal Stage Elders to guard the sect. No matter what happens to the sect, the two Elders could still react immediately. If Zhao Hai dared to cause trouble in their sect, those two elders would be able to deal with him. Even if they cannot deal with Zhao Hai, they could still hold him back with enough time for the others to arrive.

Naturally, this was just the Violent Demon Sect's idea. They didn't know Zhao Hai's true capabilities. In Zhao Hai's eyes, the Violent Demon Sect was a fat piece of meat, waiting for him to take a huge bite out of.

After his previous raid of the Cloud Demon Sect, the ratio between male and female Heavenly Demons inside the vermilion bird space has reached a normal ratio. So even if he no longer captured Heavenly Demons, the vermilion bird space would still form a civilization before long.

Last time when he fought against Mo Guan, Zhao Hai transferred the Heavenly Demons of Firegod City to the Space. Although the faith power of the Heavenly Demons could provide a huge boost to Firegod City, they would also suffer losses if used to fight against an Immortal Expert. Zhao Hai didn't want to sacrifice the Heavenly Demons, so he transferred them out before he fought.

Chapter 1767: Badly Battered

The headquarters of the Violent Demon Sect was located on the Crossing Mountains. It was a sect that lasted for tens of thousands of years. Although they weren't a powerful sect, most sects wouldn't cause them trouble. This was because the Violent Demon Sect never failed to produce an Immortal Expert every generation. This became a guarantee for the survival of the sect.

Actually, there's another reason why the Violent Demon Sect was able to pass down their inheritance for so long. And this was their location, the Crossing Mountains. The Crossing Mountains wasn't a good location. Its spiritual qi density was poor and it doesn't have a lot of resources. It was considered a bad location.

Because of this, nobody bothered to attack the sect. Big sects wouldn't bother looking at the sect while smaller sects couldn't attack a sect with poor resources. Therefore, the Violent Demon Sect was able to survive for a very long time.

However, the current generation of the Violent Demon Sect was discontented of their current state. In their opinion, it was time for the sect to become more powerful. They also needed a bigger territory. They couldn't always stay in the Crossing Mountains. Therefore, the current generation plans to hug the leg of a powerful sect. So when news about dealing with Zhao Hai spread out, the Sect Master immediately took the sect's most elite force in order to participate.

But the Sect Master of the Violent Demon Sect wasn't a fool. He still left behind two Immortal Experts to guard the sect. He also activated the sect's mountain guarding formation.

Zhao Hai was currently watching the main hall of the Violent Demon Sect. Zhao Hai has no good impressions of the main hall. In fact, he was here to destroy it.

Zhao Hai was also aware that there were two Immortal Experts inside the sect. He only has one chance to strike before he needs to leave. Therefore, Zhao Hai waited for the perfect opportunity to attack.

A day passed, two days, three days. But Zhao Hai didn't make a move. He was patient while waiting for any holes in the Violent Demon Sect's defense.

It takes a thousand days to become a thief, but more than a thousand days to prevent a thief. This was true. The various sects used a lot of effort to look for Zhao Hai. But until now, they only found his old hideout. This caused them to begin slacking off. They suspected that Zhao Hai might have already left.

The surrounding sects were now aware of Zhao Hai's name. This was because Zhao Hai introduced himself when he fought against Mo Guan. And since Mo Guan survived, he naturally revealed everything he knew. Both Zhao Hai's image and name has been spread out.

Unfortunately, none of them were able to find Zhao Hai. It was naturally impossible for them to be on high alert all the time, so they began to relax. And once they relax, Zhao Hai's opportunity would arrive.

Mo Yang was an inner disciple of the Violent Demon Sect. He wasn't very strong. Unlike the majority of Heavenly Demons, Mo Yang was very timid. It was because of this that he was called Mo Yang(Mo Sheep).

Mo Yang didn't follow the Sect Master to search for Zhao Hai. He stayed in the sect to guard it. However, Mo Yang believed that nothing would happen to the sect.

On this day, Mo Yang was working as usual as he inspected the periphery of the sect. Then he returned to his cave residence to prepare to cultivate. Then at this moment, he suddenly felt a powerful aura coming down on the Violent Demon Sect. Mo Yang was stunned. He immediately went out of his residence. As soon as he went out, he was immediately stunned.

The sky above the main hall has disappeared. Instead, there was an enormous city above him. No mistake, it was an enormous city. How the city appeared was not important at this time, this was because the city was currently falling towards the main hall!

Mo Yang couldn't even make a sound as the giant city fell into the main hall. Before long, the Violent Demon Sect's main hall has been flattened into a pancake. All those in the main hall were also crushed.

Right after falling down, the enormous city disappeared. Nobody survived in the main hall. Even those who were inside their cave residences weren't saved as their cave residences were also crushed.

Naturally, this was Zhao Hai's doing. Zhao Hai used the people of the Violent Demon Sect to bring a silver needle into the sect's center. With this, he could appear in the sect's main hall. However, Zhao Hai didn't appear personally. Instead, he released Firegod City to slam into the main hall. Then he received Firegod City right after. Nobody would find his traces no matter what.

Just as Zhao Hai received Firegod City, two powerful auras rushed towards the Violent Demon Sect's main hall. Naturally, they appeared too late.

The two auras wandered around the main hall in anger. Then they expanded their scope of searching, but they still found nothing. This caused them to be even more angry. They searched more frantically but it was no use.

After dealing with the Violent Demon Sect, Zhao Hai turned his attention to the other sects. He already decided that he wouldn't capture Heavenly Demons in the meantime. He was going to kill as many Heavenly Demons as he could. He wanted to see what else the Heavenly Demons could do to him.

In the next few days, except the Cloud Demon Sect, all sects who participated in the alliance to capture Zhao Hai were attacked to varying degrees. What's common among these attacks was that there were no living witnesses that survived.

Moreover, the cause of death of these Heavenly Demons were strange. Some of them were burnt to death, some were flattened to paste, while some succumbed to fire poison. There were all kinds of death that the Heavenly Demons could witness.

When the sects who joined the operation heard what happened to their sects, they immediately knew who did it. However, until now, they weren't able to find Zhao Hai.

Then something happened that caused all the sects to feel a headache. A new type of insect appeared in their sects. These insects were in strange shapes. But all of these insects were very powerful. They have underground nests that could isolate spiritual force. This made them even more difficult to deal with.

Most importantly, these new insects could eat anything. Whether it be medicinal herbs or ores, they were all consumed. As long as it was there, it was eaten. They were like locusts who caused desolation to anything they passed through.

Moreover, these new insects weren't afraid of death. They only knew to consume and slaughter. Even if they were killed, they would do their hardest to eat their opponent.

Before long, the various sects could no longer sit still. They had to send their troops back to exterminate these insects. Although they managed to beat these insects back to their nests, it became almost impossible to eradicate them all.

Moreover, as they were dealing with these insects, the sects lost a lot of troops. To the surprise of the sects, when their people died and were consumed, the insects became stronger. As the battles proceeded, the sects discovered that the insects were becoming more and more difficult to fight.

Because of this, the sects could no longer focus fully on dealing with Zhao Hai. As they focused more and more on these insects, Zhao Hai was put in the back of their minds.

In contrast to the sects, Zhao Hai was very relaxed and calm in this period of time. While sitting in the Space watching the sects fight, he dealt with groups of Heavenly Demons from time to time. He also captured some of them for the vermilion bird space. As for the Heavenly Demons who were killed, Zhao Hai didn't bother reviving them.

The reason Zhao Hai didn't turn the Heavenly Demons into Undead wasn't because he respected them. Instead, he wanted to use their deaths to shock the sects.

As Zhao Hai caused endless troubles to the sects, his name slowly became known throughout the Heavenly Demon Realm. The great sects of the realm have no choice but to pay attention to Zhao Hai.

The great sects of the Heavenly Demon Sect naturally have a lot of Immortal Experts to guard themselves. However, there were also several sects like the Cloud Demon Sect that sent Immortal Experts to deal with Zhao Hai. However, they failed in their plans. Instead, Zhao Hai was able to wound Immortal Experts. This caused the Heavenly Demons to have a headache.

If Immortal Experts couldn't do anything to Zhao Hai, then how do they deal with him?

However, the Heavenly Demons were also more intent in hunting Zhao Hai down. Firstly, Zhao Hai was a cultivator of the Great World of Cultivation. If Zhao Hai wasn't removed, then he would be a huge threat to the Heavenly Demon Realm in the future. Secondly, they wanted to kill Zhao Hai for Firegod City.

Mo Guan had no intentions of deceiving people. He said he was wounded by Zhao Hai because he has a formidable artifact. The artifact was a huge city that could injure even Immortal Experts.

Because of this information, the big sects decided to kill Zhao Hai and snatch his artifact. This wasn't a magic artifact, but a magic treasure instead.

Although magic artifact and magic treasure differ in one word, the meaning became completely different. Magic treasures were believed to only exist in legends. Magic artifacts were what people generally use.

Legend tells about ancient sects having magic treasures. Each of these treasures held earth-shattering power. If a low-level cultivator used a magic treasure, they would be able to defeat cultivators more powerful than them. Because of this, everyone wanted to get their hands on a magic treasure.

Unfortunately, it has been many years since news about magic treasures appeared in the Heavenly Demon Realm. In the end, people regarded these treasures as mere myth. Only a few people believed that they really existed.

Now, Zhao Hai's Firegod City caused people to immediately think about magic treasures. To confirm their ideas, Zhao Hai needed to die!

Chapter 1768: Mastery

Any large sect wanted to get their hands on a magic treasure. Because once they have one, nobody would be their opponent in the Heavenly Demon Realm. And the day where they dominate the entire realm wouldn't be far. But at the same time, these large sects were having a headache, they couldn't find Zhao Hai at all! They don't know where Zhao Hai was hiding. So even if they were eager, they couldn't deal with Zhao Hai.

By this point, the people of the Heavenly Demon Realm suspected that Zhao Hai was a spatial ability user. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to appear and disappear without leaving any traces.

The large sects were also convinced by this suspicion. But at the same time, the large sects were having a hard time. Zhao Hai was a spatial ability user with the ability to block attacks from an Immortal Expert. How could they deal with this person? Only once they get an accurate grasp of his trail would they be able to kill him. Otherwise, they wouldn't be able to do anything.

However, getting the traces of a spatial ability user was extremely difficult. In addition, Zhao Hai wasn't in a fixed location. Nobody knew where his next target was.

Zhao Hai was currently inside the Space as he was looking at the actions of the sects in the Heavenly Demon Realm. He knew that he had truly annoyed them this time. He plans to relax for some time inside the Space. At the same time, he would research Firegod City.

Zhao Hai didn't know that it was precisely because of his actions that he escaped the pursuit of the experts of the Heavenly Demon Realm. Although the Heavenly Demons were unable to find Zhao Hai, after repeated deliberation, they came to a conclusion that Zhao Hai hasn't left the area of the Cloud Demon Sect. Therefore, the Heavenly Demons sent their experts to the Cloud Demon Sect's region and conducted a search for Zhao Hai. Once they found Zhao Hai, they naturally wouldn't be polite.

Moreover, none of the experts came by transmission formations, nor did they coordinate with the other sects. All of them communicated to their own sects through message bats.

Because of this, Zhao Hai has no clear idea about how many experts were currently en route towards the Cloud Demon Sect. Moreover, he didn't know how many Immortal Experts there were.

And just like what the sects guessed, although Zhao Hai already mapped a lot of places in the Heavenly Demon Realm, he would still appear in the Cloud Demon Sect's region. He was most familiar with this area. But if he did appear, then he would definitely be discovered.

Unfortunately for the Heavenly Demons, Zhao Hai decided to hide in the Space. He was studying the Firegod City as well as his own dao avatar.

Zhao Hai already felt that his dao avatar has changed a lot due to the unity of his good and evil sides. Some of the moves of the original dao avatar were no longer suitable for the new dao avatar. Both Buddhist Techniques and Demonic Techniques were no longer efficient. Now, Zhao Hai was wondering what techniques would be compatible for him.

Zhao Hai wanted to integrate all of the techniques he knew. This way, his strength would be consolidated.

It has now been four months since Zhao Hai entered the Great World of Cultivation. In seven months he would be returning. And before he returns, he needs to increase his strength.

Don't forget, Zhao Hai still has enemies in the Great World of Cultivation, especially the Myriad Demons Sect. They now had their eyes on the Black Tiger Gang. If the Myriad Demons Sect decides to deal with the Black Tiger Gang, then Zhao Hai wouldn't just stand on the sidelines and watch. When the time comes, he would have to face the experts of the Myriad Demons Sect. However, the Myriad Demons Sect have been the kings of the Northern Divergent Province for many years. It was still unknown how many experts on Hu Shan's level they have. Therefore, Zhao Hai wants to increase his strength as much as possible to guarantee the survival of the Black Tiger Gang.

Naturally, Zhao Hai doesn't only need to guarantee the Black Tiger Gang's survival. He also needs to consider its future expansion. The suppression of the Myriad Demons Sect could be considered an opportunity. If the Black Tiger Gang was able to grow despite the suppression of the Myriad Demons Sect, then they wouldn't be afraid of anyone in the future.

Therefore, Zhao Hai needed to increase his own strength. He discovered that his combat methods were all over the place. He has close-combat techniques, long-range techniques, and formations. He would just use whichever was appropriate to his current situation. He needs a system to use these methods together.

Zhao Hai wanted to use this period of time to consolidate his fighting methods and make a system to use it. With the power of the universal scanner and the Space, Zhao Hai would design an attacking technique that was most suitable for him. Long-range, close-range, he needs a set of fighting techniques to maximize the usage of his strength.

This wasn't easy. This was equal to creating his own technique. Moreover, Zhao Hai's cultivation was mixed. Creating a set of techniques for his special cultivation wasn't simple.

However, Zhao Hai decided to push through it. In his opinion, this was the most urgent matter that needed to be dealt with.

For Zhao Hai, whatever happens in the Heavenly Demon Realm wasn't important. He was going to wait until he could leave the Heavenly Demon Realm. He was preparing for what would happen once he returned. Other things weren't as important.

The Heavenly Demon Realm was currently busy dealing with the bug race. The few mother nests that were released by Julie have turned the world upside-down for the sects surrounding the Cloud Demon Sect. These sects already suffered heavy losses.

In the end, these sects had their Immortal Experts take action. Only then did they wipe out the mother nests. However, with how damage these sects suffered, they would have to recover for a long time.

But at the same time, the corpses of the bug race brought the attention of the sects. These beasts haven't been seen before. It's possible that they were completely unrelated to cultivators. After all, the Heavenly Demon Race was very big. Seeing one or two new beasts wasn't strange.

However, for the Immortal Experts who have lived for a very long time, they had seen all kinds of things that the Heavenly Demon Realm could offer. Seeing the bug race caused them to have suspicions.

The Heavenly Demons analyzed the corpses of the bug race. In the end, they found that the bug race corpses were very useful. Although they were inedible, their bodies could be used to refine artifacts. This was a pleasant surprise for the Heavenly Demons.

The sects who lost a lot because of these bugs were able to get some compensation for their losses.

However, the sects were still not happy. This was because they were unable to find Zhao Hai. They haven't heard of him for a long time. It was as if he vanished from the Heavenly Demon Realm.

In fact, Zhao Hai was indeed not in the Heavenly Demon Realm. However, nobody knows this. The sects still believed that Zhao Hai had hidden himself somewhere. Therefore, the entire Heavenly Demon Realm were all looking out for Zhao Hai. This eased the pressure on the other cultivators of the Great World of Cultivation.

Of the initial 900 cultivators, only 100 of them remained. The rest had been killed by the Heavenly Demons.

The cultivators also discovered something wrong. No matter where they hid, the Heavenly Demons would always find them. They were almost chased down and killed. And whenever they move, they would always be careful of falling into the enemy's trap. It almost drove the cultivators mad.

Although these cultivators were very strong and had experienced multiple battles, they haven't experienced what they currently faced in the Heavenly Demon Realm. Their nerves were too taut and were close to collapsing. But if they relaxed slightly, they would be found and killed. This caused them to be exhausted all the time.

They had been like this for months. If they can't relax, then they would turn crazy sooner or later. Even if they don't become mad, they would turn into madmen who only knew how to fight.

But now that the sects were focused on hunting Zhao Hai, the pursuit of the other cultivators has decreased. The cultivators were given a rare chance to relax and take a rest.

In the following months, the sects continued to search for Zhao Hai but to no avail. Most of the sects already gave up. They were convinced that the person named Zhao Hai wouldn't appear once again.

In these months, Zhao Hai researched his combat methods to the point of neglecting meals and sleep. Therefore, he has no mood to pay attention to the activities of the Heavenly Demon Realm.

Naturally, Zhao Hai's harvests during this time were very good. Now, he has consolidated his techniques. With the help of the universal scanner, Zhao Hai was able to make five sets of techniques that were suitable for him. The first set was called the Hundred Beast Fist. Since Zhao Hai has a lot of beast dao avatars, his understanding of beasts was very good. And with the martial arts he remembered from Earth, he was able to create the technique. The Hundred Beast Fist was a set of fist techniques. If he wants to be ferocious, he could be ferocious. If he wanted to be stealthy, then then would be stealthy. It was an unforgiving technique.

The second set of cultivation techniques was called the Guanyin Palm. It was a set of palm techniques that wasn't any less lethal compared to the Hundred Beast Fists. This was a set of palm techniques that was based on the Buddhist Techniques. But because of Buddhism's merciful nature, the technique was more powerful when defending. However, this doesn't mean that its offense was weak. It could kill if required.

The third set of cultivation techniques was called the Heavenly Demon Claw. It was a claw technique that aligned with the nature of Heavenly Demons. It was based on the techniques Zhao Hai saw on movies back on earth like the eagle claw. The technique was very vicious and was also very lethal.

The fourth set of techniques was called the Heavenly Demon Seven Killing Blades. Just by the name, one would know that it was a set of blade moves. Once a blade was drawn, it would need to draw blood. This shows the strong killing intent coming from the technique. Zhao Hai decided to use this technique conservatively in the future.

The fifth set of techniques was a set of movement techniques. It was called the Cosmic Stars Technique. It was based on the unusual movements of the Cosmos Technique combined with formations. When using the Cosmic Stars Technique, Zhao Hai would continuously absorb the energy of the stars in the formation. Then this energy would be integrated into his body. This movement technique was suitable for long-distance travel and ranged combat.

These five techniques were enough for Zhao Hai for now. Although these techniques were heavily focused on close-combat, it didn't matter to Zhao Hai. Most of Zhao Hai's enemies in his current level would fight in close-combat. This was because long-range attacks were no longer useful to these strong experts. Of the long-range attacks of Zhao Hai, only Firegod City was useful.

Especially now where battles include the use of dao avatars. Most dao avatars were close-combat fighters. Because of this, the set of techniques that Zhao Hai created were focused on close-combat.

Besides these techniques, Zhao Hai also handled another matter, and that was his dao avatar. Zhao Hai's original dao avatar was his thousand-arm guanyin. Then it was combined with his demon avatar. Now, Zhao Hai's dao avatar looked contrasting in nature.

Zhao Hai didn't like the state of his dao avatar. This was because the dao avatar revealed a lot of things about him. Take the thousand-arm guanyin for example, it was a blatant reveal that he was using Buddhist Techniques. There's no need to mention his demon avatars, it was clearly the dao avatar of Heavenly Demons.

Revealing his current dao avatar was troublesome. After all, Zhao Hai has always shown that he has a beast avatar. If he suddenly revealed that he has a strange dao avatar, then people would be suspicious.

Zhao Hai doesn't want to undergo such trouble. Therefore, he wanted a dao avatar that wasn't too conspicuous. In the end, Zhao Hai decided to use his own image to create a dao avatar.

Having a dao avatar of your own image wasn't uncommon in the Great World of Cultivation. Cultivators who have beast avatars when they were weak would change their dao avatars once they become stronger. Plenty of them would use their own image as a dao avatar. Therefore, it wouldn't be strange for Zhao Hai if his dao avatar were to change.

However, Zhao Hai wouldn't completely use his own image. He decided to copy the avatar inside his body but without the dao lotus.

After multiple experiments, Zhao Hai was able to finally succeed. Now his dao avatar resembled the avatar in his taizhong acupoint. His dao avatar was a person wearing cultivator robes who was forming a seal with his hands. There was also a long black blade behind him.

When Zhao Hai's new dao avatar was condensed, there's only one month left before the one year period ends. Despite this, Zhao Hai wasn't intending to go out. He needed to familiarize with his new dao avatar as soon as possible.

Chapter 1769: The Issue

The jade marrow monument flew up once more as dark fog appeared underneath it. Standing on the side of the monument were nine elders from the nine super sects. They wanted to know who would walk out of the dark fog.

Time passed, but nobody came out of the dark fog. This caused the nine elders to change their expressions. They immediately thought that something had gone wrong.

But not long after that, someone finally walked out. Seeing this person, the nine elders relaxed. It was good that someone survived. They were beginning to think that everyone had been wiped out.

After that, people came out one after another. Before long, more than 50 people came out of the dark fog.

However, the expressions of the nine elders turned ugly once more. They knew that not a lot of people would be returning from now on.

The reason they have this idea was because of the speed at which the cultivators appeared. The frequency of return has decreased after the 50 or so people appeared. These more than 50 people took more than an hour to arrive. This confused the elders. This could only mean that the danger in the Heavenly Demon Realm has increased.

Lin Zhendong and Hu Wushang were among the more than 50 people that returned. As for Zhao Hai, he has yet to appear. But just as the jade marrow monument was about to fall down, a figure was seen appearing from the dark fog. And this figure was Zhao Hai.

Before Zhao Hai entered the dark fog, Zhao Hai discovered that the Heavenly Demons had sent people to guard the locations where the dark fog appeared. But what's surprising was that the Heavenly Demons allowed the cultivators to enter the dark fog. They weren't attacked.

Zhao Hai was somewhat confused. When he appeared near the dark fog, Zhao Hai immediately knew why the others weren't attacked, these experts were waiting for him. So as soon as he appeared, the Heavenly Demons immediately attacked. Zhao Hai didn't have any plans to attack them, so he just dodged towards the dark fog.

After Zhao Hai came out, he immediately went to the Myriad Demons Sect Elder and cupped his fist as he said, "I have seen the Elder."

Seeing Zhao Hai return safely, the elder didn't say anything and just nodded. It disappointed him that Zhao Hai was able to survive. However, he wouldn't reveal it.

At this moment, the jade marrow monument finally fell down and the dark fog disappeared. The Heaven Sect elder walked out and said, "The Heavenly Demon Trial has concluded. The sects can now take their disciples back. But before you leave, you need to leave your jade tokens behind. We will evaluate your standing and rewards from your achievements in the Heavenly Demon Realm."

The disciples have been shaken with the cruelty of the world, so not a lot of them were polite. After the Heaven Sect elder finished speaking, the elder of the Myriad Demons Sect turned to Zhao Hai and said, "Give me your jade token."

Zhao Hai didn't say anything as he took out his jade token and handed it over to the Myriad Demons Sect elder. The elder looked into Zhao Hai's identity token and a contemptuous expression flashed on his face for a moment. However, he quickly returned to normal and then turned to get the jade tokens of the others, especially Lin Zhendong. Seeing Lin Zhendong's record, the elder had a satisfied expression. He could see that Lin Zhendong has performed well.

In fact, everyone who came out of the Heavenly Demon Trial has done very well. This was because they had been fighting nonstop the moment they appeared in the Heavenly Demon Realm. This explains their stellar scores. It might be said that Zhao Hai had the worst record among those the elder saw.

Lin Zhendong's jade token had a kill count of more than 300. Meanwhile, the other cultivators had more than 200 kills. It was only Zhao Hai who had around 100 kills, the worst among those in the Northern Divergent Province.

In the mind of the Myriad Demons Sect Elder, Zhao Hai didn't dare battle the Heavenly Demons. He just escaped using his spatial ability. Otherwise, his kill count wouldn't have been very bad.

Actually, Zhao Hai didn't have the least kills among everyone who entered the Heavenly Demon Realm. Zhao Hai deliberately planned his kill count. Those who survived the Heavenly Demon Trial numbered 57. If ranked, Zhao Hai placed 33rd among everyone. He wasn't the last, but he wasn't the best either.

Zhao Hai didn't want to get the attention of the Myriad Demons Sect for now. If he performed very well, then the Myriad Demons Sect might have plans for him. It would be a bad idea if the Myriad Demons Sect didn't allow him to return to the Black Tiger Gang.

After the Myriad Demons Sect elder received the identity tokens, he brought everyone to the transmission formation. And once Zhao Hai and the others arrived at the Myriad Demons Sect, they separated and returned to their own sects. Although the Myriad Demons Sect invited everyone for a small gathering, nobody accepted the invitation. They knew clearly that they might not survive if they stayed in the sect for long.

Don't think that sects like the Myriad Demons Sect doesn't do assassinations. In fact, these super sects liked assassinations the most. As long as nobody has evidence, nobody would accuse them. Even if the sect wanted to avenge their disciple, they couldn't do it.

Zhao Hai used the transmission formation to return to the Black Tiger Gang. When Tie Zhantian heard that Zhao Hai returned, he immediately summoned him to his study. Hu Liangchen and the other senior members of the sect were also present.

Tie Zhantian looked Zhao Hai up and down before he laughed and said, "Good, good. I didn't expect that you would cross your tribulation during the trial. That's fantastic! Hahaha. My Black Tiger Gang now has a new expert. It seems like you had great harvests in the Heavenly Demon Trial."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "I had great harvests. But compared to my tribulation, there's another bigger harvest. We now have more understanding regarding the Heavenly Demon Realm. Gang Leader, we need to make preparations. It seems like the Heavenly Demons are planning something big."

Hearing Zhao Hai, Tie Zhantian couldn't help but stare. Then his complexion changed as he asked, "What do you mean? Are they going to invade?"

Zhao Hai smiled bitterly and said, "Although I hope that they won't, I reckon it will come to that. After I arrived at the Heavenly Demon Realm, I was immediately surrounded. It seems like they knew that I would appear in that place. At that time, they sent two transcending tribulation stage Heavenly Demons as well as dozens of nascent soul and core formation demons. Luckily I was able to run away quickly. But that wasn't the end. It seems like the Heavenly Demons knew where I was all the time. No matter where I hid, they would always find me."

Hearing Zhao Hai, Tie Zhantian's expression turned serious. He looked towards Hu Liangchen. Hu Liangchen looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Little Hai, you mean the Heavenly Demons have a method to track you down?"

Zhao Hai nodded, "That might be the case. Otherwise, they wouldn't have been so accurate. I felt like a rat always running away while inside the trial. They didn't let me relax for a moment. Fortunately, I was able to cross my tribulation and increase my strength. There are only 57 people who survived the trial, all of them were at the transcending tribulation stage. None of the nascent soul or core formation experts came back."

Everyone in the room turned serious. They were surprised at the losses in the Heavenly Demon Trial. This was because the previous trials have at least more than 400 survivors. There were trials where only more than 100 people returned, but that was very rare. This was the first time where less than 100 people survived.

Zhao Hai looked at everyone and then forced a smile as he said, "There's something worse. The place I appeared in is the territory of a sect called the Cloud Demon Sect. In the Heavenly Demon Realm, it is only regarded as a medium-grade sect. It should have similar status as the Black Tiger Gang. However, the sect has at least two Immortal Experts. I was discovered by one of them and almost died. I had just crossed my tribulation at that time. But I was able to escape using my ability. The Cloud Demon sect is stronger compared to the Black Tiger Gang.”

Tie Zhantian’s expression turned uglier. He knew clearly that Zhao Hai was being polite in saying that the Cloud Demon Sect was stronger than the Black Tiger Gang. In reality, the Black Tiger Gang simply couldn’t compare to the Cloud Demon Sect.

Hu Liangchen looked at Zhao Hai and said, “Little Hai, why do you think the Heavenly Demon Realm would attack the Great World of Cultivation?”

Zhao Hai replied, “Before going to the Heavenly Demon Trial, I looked through the records of the previous ones. According to our sect’s records, when the Great World of Cultivation sends young masters to the Heavenly Demon Realm, the Heavenly Demon Realm would also send their young masters to fight. This way, both sides would get some training. Therefore, although the Great Demon Realm suffered losses, it didn’t reach such a critical point like this time. So in my opinion, the actions of the Heavenly Demons are too unusual. Before this, they haven’t gone so far as to kill and pursue the people from the Great World of Cultivation.”

Hu Liangchen and the others nodded. They approved of Zhao Hai’s thoughts in this matter. Zhao Hai looked at everyone and said, “After so many years, both parties were already aware of how the other would act. But this time, the Heavenly Demons camped the area where we would appear and then immediately hunted us down. This means that they didn’t want cultivators to enter the Heavenly Demon Realm. And why was this? This is the issue!”

Chapter 1770: Handing Over

“They don’t want the Great World of Cultivation to know what they’re doing?” Hu Liangchen and Zhang Feng said almost at the same time.

Zhao Hai nodded and said, “Correct. They attacked us because they’re afraid that we would find something out. And why would they be afraid? Then it must be because they’re plotting against the Great World of Cultivation.”

Tie Zhantian paled, he looked at Zhao Hai and the others and said, “If that is the case, then it would indeed be trouble. We need to relay this information to the nine super sects. If we can’t gather the strength of the Great World of Cultivation, then I'm afraid we wouldn't be able to deal with the Heavenly Demons."

At this time, Zhao Hai shook his head. Hu Liangchen shook his head as well. Tie Zhantian was puzzled at their reactions. Hu Liangchen looked at Tie Zhantian, then he smiled bitterly and said, "Gang Leader, let's not mention if they'll believe you first, even if they believe you and begin preparing, how would they prepare? The Heavenly Demons have prepared for many years. Would they allow us to prepare? Also, will those super sects really believe your words? It's more likely that they would treat you like a lunatic."

Zhao Hai also added, "Let's wait and see how the nine super sects react to the result of the Heavenly Demon Trial. If they discover something strange about the trial, then they would definitely send news to everyone. But if the super sects don't find something, even with our reminder, they wouldn't do anything. We simply have no way to reach the sect masters of those sects."

When he heard Zhao Hai, Tie Zhantian sighed. He knew that Zhao Hai was right. Although Tie Zhantian was the Gang Leader of the Black Tiger Gang, his status was far lower compared to the sect masters of the super sects. He was unqualified to have a discussion with them.

Hu Liangchen said, "In the meantime, it would be better if we make our own preparations."

Tie Zhantian nodded, "Alright, then we'll prepare with our full power."

Zhao Hai shook his head and said, "Gang Leader, I think we shouldn't make any moves without explicit instructions from the nine super sects. If we prepare right now, the Myriad Demons Sect might think that we're preparing for an expansion. When the time comes, we don't even need to wait for the Heavenly Demons, the Myriad Demons Sect would attack us. Therefore, even if we prepare, we need to do it quietly. We cannot do it with our full power."

"Bang!" Tie Zhantian pounded his table as he stood up. His face was red with anger. Naturally, he wasn't angry at Zhao Hai. He was enraged by what Zhao Hai said. The Myriad Demons Sect had already shown their intent of suppressing the Black Tiger Gang. If they discover that the Black Tiger Gang was preparing something, then the consequences wouldn't be good.

After some time, Tie Zhantian looked at Zhao Hai and said, "What do you think we should do next?"

Everyone present was shocked. They didn't expect Tie Zhantian to ask Zhao Hai for advice. It must be known that Hu Liangchen was known as the brain of the Black Tiger Gang. However, Tie Zhantian didn't ask Hu Liangchen but Zhao Hai instead. Although Zhao Hai had been joining the major meetings of the sect, nobody expected that his status would be high enough to offer advice.

Tie Zhantian's question indicated that Zhao Hai's status in the Black Tiger Gang was no longer simple. He was now one of the decision-makers of the sect.

Zhao Hai looked at Tie Zhantian and said, "Gang Leader, if you trust me, I will handle the preparations. Moreover, beginning today, the refining base would be a forbidden area. Everyone needs to leave and nobody is allowed to enter. I'm going to transform the valley."

Tie Zhantian looked deep into Zhao Hai's eyes. Zhao Hai also looked at Tie Zhantian in a calm manner. After some time, Tie Zhantian laughed and said, "Alright. I will immediately order everyone to get out of Inferno Valley. I'll hand the valley over to you."

Zhao Hai cupped his fist and said, "Thank you for trusting me, Gang Leader."

The eyes of everyone in the room were now looking at Zhao Hai differently. It must be known that the Inferno Valley was a pillar of the sect's industry. Zhao Hai said that he wanted it and Tie Zhantian agreed. It seems like Tie Zhantian really valued Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai looked at the people in the room and said, "Everyone, be rest assured. Although I'm going to restrict access to the refining base, the refining output wouldn't change. If you want to refine an artifact, you can still hand it over. However, you cannot go there. You can place your materials and your request on the transmission formation and send it."

Tie Zhantian nodded and said, "Alright, I'll leave this matter to you. And if you have any requests, just say it. But remember, what we want is a base that we can attack from and retreat to."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Gang Leader can rest assured."

Tie Zhantian laughed and said, "Good, I'll place my trust in you. Make your preparations." Zhao Hai nodded, then he turned around and left.

Tie Zhantian looked at Hu Liangchen and said, "Old Hu, he is the hope of the Black Tiger Gang. How could a person chosen by the Supreme Elder be simple? Zhao Hai isn't only powerful, he also has special abilities. I think the kid still has other abilities we don't know about. However, he couldn't reveal it to us. This time, I want to see what he could do. No matter what ability he has, as long as he's loyal to the Black Tiger Gang, I would agree to his requests."

Hu Liangchen nodded. He doesn't dislike Tie Zhantian's decision. He also saw Zhao Hai's capabilities. To be honest, he no longer knows how strong Zhao Hai really is. This caused Hu Liangchen to also be curious about what Zhao Hai could do.

Tie Zhantian no longer continued the topic. He turned to the others and said, "In the following days, we also need to make secret preparations. We also have to pay attention to the movement of the Myriad Demons Sect. We can't just think about the Heavenly Demons, we need to be defensive towards the Myriad Demons Sect as well."

Everyone responded in unison. Naturally, they wouldn't forget about the Myriad Demons Sect. During the year that Zhao Hai entered the Heavenly Demon Trial, the Myriad Demon Sect suppressed the Black Tiger Gang quite a bit. The suppression caused the economy of the sect to tank. Its sales of pills and artifacts were severely affected.

Although the suppression caused some damage to the Black Tiger Gang, the effects weren't tragic. This was because the Black Tiger Gang has a secret money making method, and that was the rejuvenation pills.

The rejuvenation pills were now extremely famous in the Great World of Cultivation. Female cultivators were basically crazy for them. Male cultivators want to buy them as well. This was because there were male cultivators who didn't want to see themselves turn old.

The craze for the rejuvenation pills has long been expected by Zhao Hai. He knew clearly that, given the choice, nobody would resist the temptation of beauty. Later, he made two types of rejuvenation pills, one for males and one for females. There's no need to mention the beauty effects of the female pills. But the male pills also had the added effect of restoring one's vigor.

One shouldn't think that if a male cultivator was formidable, then they were also formidable mates. In fact, the bodies of older cultivators had lost their male capabilities. They no longer had the spiritual qi to sustain their intimate actions. There were some things that couldn't be solved by an increase in spiritual qi. Because of the added effect, the male rejuvenation pills were very popular among older male cultivators. By this point, rejuvenation pills became priceless in the Great World of Cultivation.

However, what made the people of the Great World of Cultivation wonder was the fact that the source of the rejuvenation pills was unknown. Moreover, despite deep analysis, nobody knew what herbs were used in making the pill. It can be said that the pills mysteriously appeared. Nobody was able to trace them back to their origins.

Several sects in the Great World of Cultivation wanted to use their strength to find the source of the pills. However, they didn't expect that as soon as the pills were seen at an auction house, all of them were immediately sold.

This caused the sects to be unable to acquire any rejuvenation pills. And nobody wanted to sell their own pills. Despite pressure from the sects, the cultivators who acquired the pills didn't budge. In the end, the sects gave up.

Because of this secret income source, the Black Tiger Gang wasn't afraid of the Myriad Demon Sect's suppression. However, another issue came up. The Myriad Demons Sect suppressed the Black Tiger Gang in other aspects. First of all, the Black Tiger Gang was excluded in most foreign trials. They also set bounties secretly for cultivators of the Black Tiger Gang. Each kill on a Black Tiger Gang cultivator would be secretly rewarded by the Myriad Demons Sect.

One had to admit that this move was really vicious. The sects were afraid of the Myriad Demons Sect, but they weren't afraid of the Black Tiger Gang. Because of this, the disciples of the Black Tiger Gang suffered a lot in this period. This was especially true for the disciples who operate out of the sect. They had suffered heavy losses.

After Tie Zhantian and the others found out about this. They knew that it was the doing of the Myriad Demons Sect. Although they were angry, they didn't dare retaliate. However, Tie Zhantian thought of another way. He had the elites of the sect scour the periphery of the sect. As long as someone from another sect was spotted, no matter which sect they came from, all of them were executed.

It was a crazy revenge tactic, but its effects were very good. The attacking sects were afraid of the Black Tiger Gang turning crazy and attacking them. The suppression plan of the Myriad Demons Sect failed once more. After two suppressions, a year passed and Zhao Hai returned to the Black Tiger Gang. He also brought back news about the Heavenly Demon Sect.
