

Another World 811

Chapter 811 - Showing A Movie?

When the Demon Dragon King heard what the Great Demon King said, he couldn't help but stare for a moment. But then, he finally understood what the Great Demon King meant. Just as what the Great Demon King said, the Demon God was just a fake, feeding off of the Demon Race's faith power. Moreover, the Demon God hadn't given them benefits in exchange for the faith.

On the other hand, Zhao Hai was providing them with a great place to live in, something much better compared to the Demon Realm. At the same time, Zhao Hai was a principled person. If they offer him their faith power, he certainly wouldn't treat them unfairly.

And most importantly, the Underworld had come creeping in. If they don't enter Zhao Hai's Space, then the Underworld would sooner or later clash with the Demon Realm, causing colossal losses to the Demon Race. If they enter the Space, then they would no longer worry about this crisis. For the Demons this was a very huge development.

The more the Demon Dragon King thought about it, the more he thought that it was a good deal. He turned to the Great Demon King and said, "Your Majesty, I also think that this is great for us. We should start our preparations. How does Your Majesty plan to proceed?"

The Great Demon King said, "I'll think about it after the Demon Vulture comes back with information. You take charge here first as I return back to the Demon Realm and arrange for the relocation. In any case, those left back in the Demon Realm had nothing else to do. You must pay attention and coordinate with Zhao Hai to deal with the Divine Race. Zhao Hai said that he wouldn't let the Divine Race off, we'll help him to prove our sincerity."

The Demon Dragon King nodded, "I can do it. But we have clashed with Zhao Hai several times in the past. Those with enmity might find it hard to accept it. Your Majesty need to take care of it."

The Great Demon King smiled and said, "I'll take care of that. As long as they enter the Space, that enmity should disappear into thin air."

The Demon Dragon King nodded, and after discussing further details, he asked to be excused. On the other hand, the Great Demon King looked at the Demons inside the Ark Continent before sighing in relief.

Zhao Hai wasn't aware about any of these, however, he was able to see Demon Vultures. He didn't care about it and just had them look at the Underworld's arrival. In any case, this would prove that he wasn't lying, he doesn't want any bad impressions to stick to him.

Zhao Hai was now ready to confront the Third Prince. It has already been four days after the Third Prince left the Radiant Empire. And in four days, they unexpectedly flew quickly towards the Accra Mountains. One must say that their speed was really quick.

In order for the Divine Race's advance to be quicker, Zhao Hai stopped the harassment. Although their current arrangement for the harassment had no damage to the Divine Race army, it still slowed them down. Zhao Hai stopped so that their speed would be faster.

Thunder Yun was quite uneasy and had repeatedly persuaded the Third Prince to slow down, but unfortunately for him, the Third Prince was at the peak of his ecstasy. The Third Prince had completely convinced himself that he was a wargod. His arrival actually pushed the Ark Continent's residents back. Therefore, how could Thunder Yun stop the Third Prince?

While he continued his futile attempts to stop their advance, Thunder Yun also did a good job as the rear army commander. He also added more people to guard their supply line. He never did think that Zhao Hai would plan to attack the Radiant Empire.

The Divine Race had fought in many battles and in many planes, and never did they need to worry about their base being attacked, nobody dared to do so. It was because of this that Thunder Yun made a fatal mistake.

While the army advanced, Thunder Yun sat on his mount, frowning. At this time, Cloud Ying arrived by his side, he was also frowning as he said, "General, what is Zhao Hai planning? Where are the Ark Continent's soldier? Have they been defeated by the Demons? Otherwise, how come nobody faced us?"

Thunder Yun was also confused, "I also don't know. But Zhao Hai had always given me a feeling of someone who isn't easily defeated. Otherwise, he would have already fallen long ago. Go back and inform everyone to prepare for a fight. Zhao Hai is surely planning something big."

Cloud Ying nodded before he turned around and left. When Cloud Ying left, Thunder Yun took out a beast skin scroll from his chest. On this scroll was the map of the Buddha Empire. This was something he acquired in the Radiant Empire before.

After looking at the map, Thunder Yun muttered, "We're quickly approaching Accra Mountains. Did Zhao Hai sacrifice the Buddha Empire? He wouldn't."

As he was thinking about this, the Third Prince's front army was now able to see the Accra Mountains. The Third Prince was currently sitting inside his sword carriage. The door of the carriage was opened, how was the Third Prince drinking wine on his table. He was alone, looking very free and unfettered.

At this time, a cavalry soldier arrived by his side and said, "Your Highness, the scouts sent a report over. The Ark Continent had made a very solid defense line along the Accra Mountains. Undead creatures were stood above the fortifications, it seems like they are preparing to stop us there."

The Third Prince stared before he laughed and said, "These cowardly Ark Continent people had finally decided to face us. Send this order, have the army accelerate, and break through the Accra Mountains in one go. I want to see where these Ark Continent residents hid themselves."

The cavalry soldier nodded before he passed the order down. Before long, the army's speed quickened as they dashed towards Accra Mountains.

These days, the Divine Race hadn't met a decent attack. This allowed them to feel proud. At this point, they were completely disregarding the people from the Ark Continent.

In their view, this line of defense would be easily broken through. All the proud Divine Race soldiers were rushing forward, turning their formation a bit messy.

Zhao Hai was currently inside the Space, looking at the action made by the Divine Race. He turned his head to Lizzy and said, "These fellows are too impatient, they want to die as soon as possible. Lizzy, is everything prepared?"

Lizzy smiled faintly and said, "Big Brother Hai, rest assured, everything is going according to plan. Look." Then Zhao Hai looked back at the monitor and saw a different angle to the operation.

Along the entire defense line were more than 2000 magic cannons with enough crystal stones to power them. There were also blood lightning javelins present. All of these were prepared in order to deal a heavy blow to the Divine Race.

At this time, in the Ark Space, while people were doing their own thing a voice was suddenly heard in the sky, "Brothers and Sisters from the Ark Continent, if you want to see Mister Zhao Hai's undead battle the Divine Race, then you can go to the center of your city. There, you can see the whole battle."

The voice disappeared after sounding out three times. After the people recovered from their blank stares, they immediately rushed over to their respective city squares. Most of them had only heard about the Divine Race. and now they were able to see them battle against the undead. Naturally, all of them were rushing over to spectate.

When the people had arrived in the city square, a transparent light ball suddenly appeared and then stretched into a rectangle shape. This bright rectangle slowly rose up before it stopped.

The bright rectangle showed the situation in the Accra Mountains. There were Undead and magic cannons everywhere.

At this time, the voice came once more, "In the past few days, the Divine Race reinforcements from the Radiant Empire had entered the Buddha Empire. At that time, Mister Zhao Hai didn't face them in battle, instead, he decided to prepared to meet them in the Accra Mountains. He dragged the army here so that his undead cavalry could attack the Radiant Empire. As you can see, the Divine Race army had come to attack the Accra Mountain."

This rectangular display was very big, with each side at least ten meters long.

The image slowly panned across the Accra Mountains, showing the whole defensive line to everyone. Then the voice came, "This is the defensive line we've built to block the advance of the Divine Race." This description elicited surprise in the crowd.

The Accra Mountain's defensive line looked like giant dragon that was lying down, once couldn't describe how magnificent it looked. At times, the voice would describe certain aspects of the defense as exclamation sounded out here and there.

At this time, the image changed as it panned to the distant horizon. On the image, figures were getting more and more. Before long, the crowd finally saw that these figures were in fact Divine Race soldiers.

These soldiers were full silver body armor while they held their weapons in their hands. They were in a formation as they charged towards the Accra Mountains. The imposing manner of the enemy army caused those watching to be speechless.

The scene of the Divine Race was indeed terrifying. When commoners who haven't seen the battlefield before saw this scene, they were frightened. It was at this point they realized that Zhao Hai had been fighting this army. Their sense of gratitude towards Zhao Hai had also increased.

At this time, the screen showed a red and white lights. These lights went straight towards the Divine Race army. When the red light hit the soldiers, a huge explosion appeared. In every corner of the Divine Race army, these same explosions happen, causing the Divine Race's formation to be in turmoil.

On the other hand, the white lights froze the Divine Race soldiers. Then as they fell to the ground, they shattered into tiny pieces. Upon seeing the damages caused by the red and white lights, the crowd inside the Ark Space had become breathless.

Chapter 812 - The Shocked Third Prince

The Third Prince was blankly looking out front. His hand slowly losing grip on his wine glass. The wine glass finally fell into the table and shattered. But even so, the Third Prince didn't notice it, his hand was still lifted, as though it still held the glass.

In the Third Prince's mind, the Accra Mountains should be as easy to break as paper. As long as they push one, then they would definitely break through. But now, it was obvious that they had underestimated the strength of the Ark Continent.

The red and white light came too fast that most of the Divine Race soldiers didn't even have the time to do protective measures. Sure enough, they were immediately killed.

And that wasn't the only thing, there were also javelins flying out of the defensive line. Naturally, these javelins weren't thrown by people, they were fired using ballistas.

There were more ballistas compared to magic cannons in the defense line. This was because ballistas were easier to make than magic cannons. Moreover, people of the continent were using it more. Thus, there were more ballistas already made compared to magic cannons.

In the past, ballistas deal no damage to the Divine Race. Their arrows were simply useless against the Divine Race's defense.

But now that the blood lightning javelins were made, these ballistas gained their deadly reputation once more. One must know that the ballistas from the Ark Continent were operated differently compared to those found on Earth. What Zhao Hai saw before were armed with one arrow and were pulled by about four to five people, it was quite troublesome to manage.

However, in the Ark Continent, people practice battle qi and magic. This made it possible for one person to use one ballista. Moreover, these ballistas don't only fire one arrow, they can launch five and it won't even affect the firing distance.

Since Zhao Hai's undead were 9th ranks, operating a ballista for them would be extremely easy. In addition to firing five ammunitions, these ammunitions were all blood lightning javelins. Each volley packed an extremely terrifying might.

The Divine Race soldiers who were about to flood the Accra Mountains were temporarily stunned by the attacks coming from the magic cannons and the ballistas. They can't help it, the firepower as well as the speed was something they haven't seen before.

These Divine Race soldiers were too stunned that many of them forgot to establish their Domains. They seem to just be standing there, accepting the baptism of fire.

It was only after some time that they had recovered. But at that point, a round of attacks had already been done. These attacks obliterated ten thousand people, most of them killed by the explosions made by the blood lightning javelins.

At this time, the Third Prince had also recovered. His face was pale as he loudly shouted, "Retreat, retreat, quickly! Everyone retreat! Get away from their firing distance!"

The Third Prince's frantic response was clearly seen by the people from the Ark Space. The explosions on the battlefield had numbed their hearing. This made those who haven't experienced it before have an overwhelmed expression.

Needless to say, it would only take one look to see that the Third Prince was an important person in the Divine Race Army. At this moment, a voice came, "The person you see on the screen right now is the Third Prince of the Divine Race. He's currently the commander of the entire Divine Race Army."

People had gradually been used to this voice. They really didn't expect Zhao Hai's place to be this magical. Not only could they see the battle outside, they could even hear the sound and have someone provide them with context.

When the Divine Race army slowly retreated and reformed their army, the people from the Ark Space felt relief. Then gasps of shock echoed out from the crowd.

This was the first time that they've witnessed a fight in the battlefield this detailed. The intensity of the clash had exceeded their imagination. But no matter what, since Zhao Hai had repelled the Divine Race army, all of them were quite glad.

On the other hand, the Divine Race were feeling the exact opposite. The Third Prince looked at the Accra Mountain's direction before he roared towards his subordinates, "What was that!? Can someone tell me? What just happened!? How could their attacks be that strong?!"

Nobody present dared to speak. In fact, these people were also dumbfounded. The attacks of the Ark Continent were leagues higher than the attacks made from the previous days. Compared to this attack, the attacks days ago were just like a kid's prank.

The Third Prince kicked his table out of the sword carriage. Then with blood red eyes he turned to a cavalry soldier beside him and said, "Go and get me Thunder Yun. I want to ask him how all of this happened." The cavalry soldier nodded before he turned around and left.

Before long, Thunder Yun arrived by the sword carriage, he gave a bow to the Third Prince and said, "Your Highness, might I know why you have called this lowly official over?"

The Third Prince looked at Thunder Yun's expression and felt that he was being ridiculed. His face couldn't help but turn ugly, but since he needed to ask something, he chose to refrain from scolding Thunder Yun. He said, "Thunder Yun, I want to know why the Ark Continent's attacks suddenly became strong. What is this about?"

Thunder Yun looked at the Third Prince and then deeply sighed before giving a reply, "Your Highness, today's attacks are the normal attacks of the Ark Continent. This lowly official hadn't met those weak attacks in the past few days. If the Ark Continent had that kind of attack, then this one should've already conquered it long time ago."

Thunder Yun was telling the truth, but to the Third Prince, it sounded as if he was being scolded. It looks like Thunder Yun was ridiculing his actions.

The Third Prince's eyes turned red with anger as he frantically shouted at Thunder Yun, "Get lost! Take your face away from here! From now on, I don't want to see your face!"

Thunder Yun's expression darkened, he gave a small snort before he turned around and left. Thunder Yun was a decorated War General. His merits in the battlefield was too many that even the Taurus King would treat him politely. But now, this talentless Prince actually dared to shout at him.

The Third Prince looked at Thunder Yun's departing back as he clenched his jaws to the point that blue veins were starting to appear on his forehead. He turned towards his people and roared, "Send the order, attack the enemy. I don't believe that the Divine Race would be stopped by a measly mountain range. Everybody attack immediately! Attack!"

Along with the Third Prince command, the Divine Race army immediately started to attack the Accra Mountain. At the same time, the defenders of the Accra Mountains were also peppering the attacking Divine Race soldiers.

And due to the Third Prince's anger, he had failed to notice something peculiar. It can be seen that the Barbarians and the Winged Pegasus Cavalries weren't doing their best. At the same time, the defenses of the Ark Continent were also only sending them the minimum amount of attacks. It looked like the three were in a tacit understanding.

The Third Prince didn't take notice of this as he focused on ordering his army to go all out. The Accra Mountain's defense line was also something not to be trifled with. The defense's firepower was fierce, it had unexpectedly suppressed the advancing Divine Race.

When Thunder Yun went back to his rear army, Cloud Ying came to him and said, "General, what did the Third Prince call you for? Is the front army's attack not doing so well?"

Thunder Yun snorted but didn't reply, instead he closed his eyes. When Cloud Ying saw Thunder Yun's action, his mind couldn't help but turn blank. Then he turned to the guard that accompanied Thunder Yun and asked him in a low voice about what happened.

The guard told him what occurred after Thunder Yun and the Third Prince met. When Cloud Ying heard this, his complexion changed as he turned to Thunder Yun and said, "General, this is going too far! What status did you have? Even His Majesty the King would treat you politely. How could you let the Third Prince just scold you?"

Thunder Yun kept closing his eyes and kept silent. Cloud Ying took a deep breath before he added, "General, what is the Ark Continent planning to do? They were weakly attacking in the past few days, but now they actually turned serious."

Thunder Yun was still closing his eyes refusing to speak. Upon seeing Thunder Yun being unresponsive, Cloud Ying decided to turn silent. It was at this time that Silver Shuke and the others came. And just as the newcomers were about to open their mouths, they were stopped by Cloud Ying. Then Cloud Ying told them about what happened with the Third Prince. Naturally, Silver Shuke and the others also became angry.

Silver Shuke and the others had fought by Thunder Yun's side for a long time. Their respect for Thunder Yun was quite high, even higher compared to their regard for the King. For a trivial Third Prince to scold their general, it was no wonder that they were enraged.

However, these people didn't express their anger loudly. They knew that Thunder Yun was keeping silent because he was thinking hard about the situation.

Silver Shuke decided to stay quiet. At this point, Silver Shuke turned to Cloud Ying and said, "Cloud Ying, how come the Ark Continent suddenly went strong once more after attacking weakly in the past few days?"

Cloud Ying frowned and said, "I don't know. Their previous tactic was quite a headache, so it should have also worked this time, but they didn't use it. Instead, they fortified the Accra Mountains. It's quite confusing, if this is what they've done, then it can only be said that they were intending to drag us here."

It was at this point that Thunder Yun's eyes opened up, his complexion paled as he said, "Not good! Zhao Hai lured us in to restrain us here. He's going to attack the Radiant Empire!"

As soon as everyone present heard this, their complexion couldn't help but pale as well. Their expression showed their disbelief, then Silver Shuke said, "How is that possible? Is Zhao Hai so brave that he would dare attack our main camp?"

Chapter 813 - Anguish

Thunder Yun's expression was ugly as he said, "There's no reason not to. Don't forget, Zhao Hai's overall strength isn't that worse compared to us. Moreover, Zhao Hai is a bold person. We brought a lot of our soldiers this time and left too little. If Zhao Hai wanted to attack the Radiant Empire at this time, then it would surely be dangerous for us.'

The group's expression was quite ugly as well. They really hadn't thought of the possibility of Zhao Hai attacking the Radiant Empire. They thought Zhao Hai wouldn't have enough courage to do so.

However, after Thunder Yun presented his case, they were finally convinced of the possibility that Zhao Hai would attack the Radiant Empire. This result wasn't what they want.

Thunder Yun immediately said, "Quick, have someone be sent back to the Radiant Empire to see the situation. I'll immediately go and see the Third Prince. We need to withdraw the troops immediately." Cloud Ying and the others complied before they turned around and left. At the same time, Thunder Yun directly flew towards the sword carriage. He didn't care about the the Third Prince's anger right now. The Radiant Empire was currently in peril.

However, just before Thunder Yun reached the carriage, he was blocked off by the cavalry soldiers. Thunder Yun's expression turned ugly after seeing the blocking, he immediately said, "Give way, I need to see His Highness. I have an important matter to tell him.” The cavalry soldier disregarded his words and said with no emotion, “We’ll be unfair to General Thunder Yun. His Highness gave us an order to block you from seeing him. Please turn back.”

Thunder Yun roared, “Give way. I want to see the Third Prince. It’s related to the Divine Race army’s safety. Don’t blame me if you still dare to block.” The cavalry soldiers were still expressionless, “General Thunder Yun, please turn back. His Majesty doesn’t want to see you.”

Thunder Yun roared as he began to charge forward. But at this time, the cavalry soldiers actually held their spears and pointed at him.

Thunder Yun was shocked when he saw this, his face was flushed with red as he said, “You bastards, what are you doing? Are you planning a revolt?” The Cavalry disdainfully replied, “General Thunder Yun, we are responsible for His Majesty’s security. His Majesty doesn’t want to see you right now. For His Majesty’s security, we have no other choice but to block you. If you still dare to rush forward, then we will have to attack.”

Thunder Yun’s face was now pale white, he knew that the cavalry soldier wasn’t bluffing. They were special troops that answer only to the Taurus King. Even if those of higher status than Thunder Yun were present, these cavalry soldiers still wouldn’t bat an eye.”

Thunder Yun let out a long breath as he said, “Then I would have to ask you to tell His Majesty that I have an important report to tell. This concerns the safety of the Ark Continent’s conquest.” Naturally, the cavalry soldier was still aware of who Thunder Yun was, he hesitated for a moment before turning back to give a report. Before long, the cavalry soldier came back with a somewhat pale expression. He looked at Thunder Yun and said, “General, His Majesty said that he doesn’t want to see you. He wanted you to turn back. Also, the General needs to hand over his command token. By the order of His Highness, General Thunder Yun is no longer allowed to give command to any soldier in the Divine Race army.” Thunder Yun stared, color drained from his face. Then he looked straight at the cavalry soldier and said, “What did you say?”

The soldier said it once more, “The Third Prince asks the General to hand over his command token. Without any word from the Third Prince, the rear army isn’t allowed to make a move.”

Thunder Yun angrily glared at the cavalry soldier and said, “You bastards! Do you know what you are doing? Do you know the situation we are currently facing? Let me through, I need to see His Majesty.”

The cavalry soldier replied, "Please hand the command token over. Otherwise, we would be forced to make a move."

Thunder Yun roared, he was planning to rush out. He knew that going forward at this time would be courting death. So instead, he would quickly go back to his army and immediately lead them to return towards the Radiant Empire.

But unfortunately, Thunder Yun wasn't given the chance. The cavalry soldiers already knew about his plan. Before long other soldiers came in and blocked Thunder Yun's retreat. Thunder Yun wielded his wooden totem as he struggled to break away from the encirclement.

At this time, Thunder Yun suddenly felt an ominous air behind him. Luckily for him, his wooden totem was quick to block the incoming attack. But even so, the attack was quite heavy, Thunder Yun was shaken by the impact, blood started to flow.

But while he was disoriented by the attack, another spear attack came from behind him. This time, Thunder Yun was unable to block it, and establishing his Domain was already too late. The blunt attack from behind had caused Thunder Yun to lose consciousness.

Behind him was the cavalry soldier who he spoke to. This man was a captain of the division, and he had formidable God-rank strength as well. Because of this, Thunder Yun was rendered unconscious by his attack.

After Thunder Yun was knocked down, the captain waved his hand and immediately two cavalry soldiers held Thunder Yun up. The captain took Thunder Yun's command token away before sending him back to his army.

The cavalry captain also sent the Third Prince's order along with Thunder Yun. He waved his hand to the two cavalry soldiers before he turned and looked at the war in front.

The Divine Race's state in the battle was very disadvantageous. They had already been pushed on several times, but to no avail. They weren't even able to come close to the defensive line. Each wave of attacks from the magic cannons and javelins would reap thousands of soldier's lives.

The Third Prince had never expected their losses to be this much. However, this only made him more determined to push through the Accra Mountains. He decided that once they take the Accra Mountains, they would kill every single Ark Continent resident they would see. Not even chickens and dogs would survive.

At this time, on the rear army, the two cavalry soldiers carrying Thunder Yun had delivered him to his army. This caused the rear army to go into an uproar. Thunder Yun's status in this army was very high. Thunder Yun just went to see the Third Prince, but now he came back unconscious.

Cloud Ying and the others had ugly expressions on their faces as they surrounded the two cavalry soldiers. Cloud Yin looked at the fainted Thunder Yun and angrily said, "What is going on? Who dared to hit the General?"

The two cavalry soldiers were fearless. With a loud and deep voice, they declared, "The Third Prince has confiscated General Thunder Yun's command token. Not only did General Thunder Yun neglect the order, he also tried to rebel. Therefore, the Third Prince's guards had no choice but to knock him unconscious. Additionally, without the Third Prince's order, the rear army cannot take independent action. Martial Law has been established!" Then after the two said that, they rode their mounts as they dropped Thunder Yun's body mid air.

Although the soldiers in the surroundings were angry, they also knew of the status of these two people. Therefore, nobody dared to block them, they were allowed passage as they left.

Cloud Yin and the others looked at the departing backs of the cavalry soldiers with blood red eyes. Cloud Ying quickly went to Thunder Yun and slowly guided his body down to the ground. Cloud Ying held Thunder Yun and called out, "General? General, wake up!"

Thunder Yun fainted due to a shallow force, so when Cloud Ying called out, he immediately recovered his senses. He turned to look at Cloud Ying before looking for the command token. Thunder Yun's face turned beet red when he noticed that the token was gone. He couldn't help but shout, "He wants to kill the Divine Race!!" After saying that, Thunder Yun fainted once more due to excessive anger.

Cloud Ying and the others were very frightened. Cloud Ying immediately took a piece of wet cloth and wiped the sweat away from Thunder Yun's face.

After some time, Thunder Yun woke up and looked at the clouds in the sky as he said, "Cloud Ying, have everyone help the Third Prince in breaking through the Accra Mountains. As long as we can break their defensive line, we can quickly seize the entire continent. At that point, Zhao Hai would certainly stop being a threat to us."

Cloud Ying looked at Thunder Yun and said, "General, your wound?"

Thunder Yun shook his head and said, "I'll be fine. Go and prepare the troops." Cloud Ying complied, then he turned around and left. Thunder Yun slowly sat down and casted light element magic on his body. Then he stood up and looked at the battlefield in the distance, with a cold voice he said, "Zhao Hai, good. You're really daring. You think you can block the Divine Race army with your defensive line?"

Thunder Yun understood that there was no time left for them to turn back and return to the Radiant Empire. Moreover, Zhao Hai would surely not let them retreat easily. Because of this, Thunder Yun decided to break the Accra Mountains' defensive line and then use the Ark Continent's residents as a threat towards Zhao Hai.

Up until now, Thunder Yun still didn't believe that Zhao Hai had moved. For him, it was a totally impossible thing. Because of this, although the Third Prince had taken his command token, Thunder Yun thought of another way. That was to break through the Accra Mountains in the quickest time. Then they would kill the Ark Continent's residents so that Zhao Hai would be the one to turn back.

If Zhao Hai doesn't turn back to help his people, then they can also use the Ark Continent's residents as a bargaining chip to negotiate with Zhao Hai.

Thunder Yun was clear that if Zhao Hai doesn't take care of the people of the Ark Continent, then his position would be in trouble. When Zhao Hai is faced with this situation, he would surely have a hard time going forward with his plans.

Because of this thought, Thunder Yun shifted to another gear. He had Cloud Ying lead the troops to support the Third Prince.

Thunder Yun also knew that with the losses the Third Prince had incurred, he would surely ask for reinforcement soon. If no reinforcements come, then breaking through the defensive line would be slower, and Thunder Yun wouldn't want that.

In the past, Thunder Yun certainly wouldn't attack the Accra Mountains with this method. But now, he had no other choice. If they cannot break through, then the Radiant Empire would be placed in peril.

Chapter 814 - Heart of Earth Fire

Zhao Hai was also aware of Thunder Yun's plan, but he wasn't worried even for a bit. The defenses of the Accra Mountains has been arranged for a long time. Although the people of the Ark continent had moved, the defenses still stayed there. As long as an army was there to operate it, then there would be no problem.

At this time, Zhao Hai was directing his undead to attack the Radiant Empire. When Thunder Yun went on with his action, there were no concealment magics applied, so Zhao Hai was able to witness all of it.

The changes to Thunder Yun's plan went along with what Zhao Hai wanted. The longer the Divine Race engages in battle, the better it would be for Zhao Hai.

The undead were already prepared to attack the Radiant Empire. They had also planned the best direction their attack would come from.

There were several places to choose from, but in the end, Zhao Hai chose to attack from the sea.

The Radiant Church was originally the Ocean Waves Dynasty, a nation surrounded by water on three sides and by the Buddha Empire on one. It can be said that compared to land attacks, it would be much better to approach by sea.

Many of Zhao Hai's undead were marine beasts. Moreover, moving by sea was more convenient compared to land.

Besides this reason, Zhao Hai also wanted to visit Inferno Island to take a look. Inferno Island was one of the Ark Continents Five Forbidden Places. It was some distance away from the shore and was extremely hot. It was also densely covered with volcanoes that housed special fire magic beasts and plants. Moreover, the island also had a special lifeform, Flame Demons!

These Flame Demons were like the Flame Demons found in the Demon Realm. They were advanced magic beasts that didn't fear fire as it was their means of sustenance.

Countless experts of the Ark Continent ended up having the island as their cemetery. There were countless explorers who went there and never came back.

But the main reason why Zhao Hai wanted to visit the island was to try and get some fire element crystals.

In the war against the Divine Race, fire element crystals were the most convenient to use. Since the northern icefield had an abundant number of ice crystals, Zhao Hai doesn't believe that Inferno Island wouldn't have some.

Originally, Zhao Hai wanted to visit the island after he returned from the Northern Icefield. However, he didn't expect that a lot of things would happen. In the end, his plan needed to be placed on the side.

Now, Zhao Hai wanted to use this opportunity to take a look at Inferno Island. Then after he dealt with the Divine Race, Zhao Hai would talk with the Great Demon King.

Zhao Hai took his blood ghost staff out and had it fly towards the direction of Inferno Island. They appeared at sea, so the island wasn't that far off.

The reason they weren't able to move that fast was because they needed to go around the Radiant Empire while also taking care not to be discovered by the Divine Race. The Divine Race were quite sensitive, any small disturbance would immediately urge them to take action.

Zhao Hai was currently looking at the blood ghost staff. Lizzy and Megan were taking charge of the battle with the Divine Race, so Zhao Hai had the opportunity to pay attention to other things.

The staff's range was limited, therefore Zhao Hai didn't wait as he turned to Lizzy and Megan and said, "I'll be heading out, I'll leave the battle to you two."

Lizzy and Megan just gave a nod, they didn't even take their eyes off of the monitor. After seeing their reaction, Zhao Hai smiled faintly before his body flashed out of the Space. At this time, the staff transformed into a flying sword and was stepped on by Zhao Hai.

While standing on his staff, Zhao Hai's eyes were plastered out front. Not far away were pillars of smoke shooting up from a certain place. One could see that it was an undersea volcano belching smoke. Zhao Hai believed that he should be near Inferno Island.

Before long, a hot red island appeared in Zhao Hai's vision. The island wasn't small and was as big as the Ocean Waves Dynasty. The entire island, no matter soil or rock, were all red. It even included the plants, the color added more uniqueness to the place.

In the south of the island was a volcano spurting hot lava, but it can be seen that it was about to be done judging by the smoke it released. Below that volcano, Zhao Hai can see rivers of lava flowing down.

What made Zhao Hai feel strange was the fact that he hadn't seen any magic beasts nor flame demons. If the volcanoes were excluded, the island was deathly still.

Zhao Hai stopped caring about this as he immediately took a round trip around the island. By looking at the surface, the island looked quite simple. There were volcanoes upon volcanoes, it was basically an island made entirely out of interconnecting volcanoes.

After Zhao Hai looked at the island's terrain, he returned back into the Space. The battle in the Accra Mountains was still going on. Everybody had lost count on how many clashes had happened between the Divine Race and the undead. But time and time again, the undead were able to push the enemy back. Moreover, they also caused massive casualties each time.

But what angered the Third Prince and the Divine Race the most was seeing their own allies dying in battle and the suddenly being swallowed up by a spatial rift, only to turn into an undead fighting against them. The eyes of the Divine Race couldn't help but turn blood red.

For the Divine Race, this was an insult, a blatant insult. Their blood red eyes gazed at the undead in the defensive line, seeing their former allies manning the enemy's weapons and attacking the Divine Race.

After seeing that there was nothing to worry about, Zhao Hai went to his room and opened a small monitor. Then he started to look at the interior of Inferno Island. He wanted to see if the island had any crystal lodes or not.

After looking at the monitor, Zhao Hai finally understood why there were no magic beasts nor flame demons present. The volcanoes were spurting lava at this time, so all of the island's inhabitants had hidden themselves.

The places where the flame demons and magic beasts were quite peculiar as well. They were in other craters far away from the erupting volcanoes. In those craters, the numbers of magic beasts and flame demons were astonishing.

Zhao Hai ignored the flame demons and magic beasts as he made the Space scan the island. Upon scanning the island, Zhao Hai couldn't help but be surprised. Right below the layer of rock, ash, and soil, about ten meters below the surface, everything was filled with fire element crystal stones. Zhao Hai couldn't help but wipe the saliva on the edge of his mouth.

Zhao Hai immediately moved his body as it appeared on the island. Then he drilled underground and started to frantically take crystal stones into the Space.

The number of crystal stones was too much, Zhao Hai lost count of how much he had already absorbed into the space. However, he still kept absorbing more and more.

No other thing can match the Space in absorbing resources, its speed was something far from what people can imagine. Zhao Hai doesn't know how long he has been collecting crystals, but as soon as he felt that nothing was left, he stopped.

Zhao Hai looked all around and saw how hollowed out the underground of Inferno Island had become. But he didn't care, in any case nobody else was here. If the flame demons and magic beasts die, then that wouldn't be much of a problem.

After seeing that there were no fire element crystals left, Zhao Hai went along and drilled deeper. He believed that there should be more crystals further down. Zhao Hai continued to dig and each 20 meters he would take fire element crystals on that layer.

After about nine layers, the quality of fire element crystals were getting better. Not only were the crystals getting bigger, the energy inside them were also becoming stronger and the color became a deeper shade of red.

Zhao Hai looked around once more and then dug down after seeing that no more fire element crystals were left. And while he was digging, he suddenly felt a wave of heat. It seems like he had come across a river of magma.

He avoided the magma as he went further down. But just as he passed by the magma river, Zhao Hai became stunned. At the bottom of the magma river was something he hadn't seen before. There was a layer of golden sand on the floor of the river.

When he saw the sand, Zhao Hai waved his hand and absorbed some of them inside the Space. Then he waited for a prompt.

The Space didn't disappoint him, before long, a prompt came in, "Pure golden sand detected. Golden Sand is an item from the cultivation world. Host's level is too low, Space is currently unable to use it. Hoping for the Host to level up quickly."

When he heard this prompt, Zhao Hai couldn't help but laugh. He didn't expect to come across something used in the cultivation world. Moreover, it seems like the item was too special that the Space's current level wasn't able to use it. The sand was surely something good.

However, the golden sand was under magma, so gathering it won't be easy. Zhao Hai looked around before he clenched his teeth and linked the magma river to the Space.

Compared to the one present in the northern icefield, this magma river was much bigger. It's good that Zhao Hai already had experience in handling sea water. This time, he opened the Space to absorb the magma river, and along with it was the golden sand.

There was no response from the Space after the magma entered. Zhao Hai stored the magma inside the warehouse for now, he wouldn't dare to release it in the Space.

When the entire river entered the Space, all of the golden sand were absorbed as well. But since magma wasn't as runny as water, absorbing all of it took quite some time.

But after receiving the magma, Zhao Hai suddenly discovered that its source was actually a very small flame!

A flame as small as this was actually the source of the magma river? When Zhao Hai saw this, he initially thought that he was seeing things. But soon enough, he was able to ascertain that the flame was indeed the source of the magma. This was because Zhao Hai recalled something else he had acquired before.

Zhao Hai once got ahold of a crystal bottle with a flame quite similar to this one. Presently, that flame was acting as the Space's sun.

Zhao Hai inspected the small flame carefully. He discovered that at the center of the flame was a hint of magma, bubbling due to the intense heat. After looking at it for some time and not seeing anything else, Zhao Hai threw the flame inside the Space.

Just as the flame entered the Space, a prompt came, "Heart of Earth Fire detected. Can produce fire element crystals, magma, golden sand, and heat energy. Space has levelled up to level 80. Host may now purchase 10 magic world backgrounds as well as 20 ordinary backgrounds."

Zhao Hai clenched his fist and said, "Yes!"

This was truly a great thing for Zhao Hai. This heart of earth fire actually had a lot of uses, moreover, it also upgraded the Space. This was extremely good news.

Then Zhao Hai looked at the surroundings of the heart of earth fire. All around it were high energy fire element crystals. Naturally, Zhao Hai wasn't polite and absorbed all of them into the Space.

It has been a long time after Zhao Hai left to collect crystal stones. After digging some more and seeing that nothing else was left, Zhao Hai returned to the Space.

As soon as he entered the Space, Zhao Hai immediately placed the heart of earth fire on the ground and also released the magma river. Upon taking the magma river out, the Space issued a prompt, "River of earth fire detected. Can be refined as a weapon and can also be used for attack."

Zhao Hai gawked, he didn't expect the magma river to have this use. However, Zhao Hai waved his hand, separating the magma from the golden sand before storing the magma back to the warehouse. In any case, the heart of earth fire has been placed underground, it can produce magma at any time. Since the magma river had uses, Zhao Hai decided to store it in the meantime.

Zhao Hai inventoried the fruits of his trip to Inferno Island. His harvest this time was truly huge. From what he saw in the warehouse, the fire element crystals had reached hundreds of millions. What Zhao Hai was surprised about was the Space automatically categorizing the crystals by grade. There was low grade, mid grade, high grade, and top grade crystals. Naturally, the top grade crystals were the rarest, there were less than a million of them. High grade crystals numbered to about ten million, mid grade about 100 million while low grade reached a billion pieces.

After looking at these numbers, Zhao Hai couldn't help but be startled. He didn't think that he would gain this much crystal stones. This was surely an unbelievable haul!

Chapter 815 - Prepared

Although there was no way to trade with the crystals, Zhao Hai still regarded them as more important than either gold or silver.

These crystals were too useful for Zhao Hai, especially now as he battled against the Divine Race. Because of this, Zhao Hai was more than happy to see his harvests in Inferno Island.

At this time, his only use for the crystals was as ammunition for the magic cannons. But Zhao Hai believed that he would be able to find ways to use them for other things in the future.

While Zhao Hai was inside the Space looking at his loot, he didn't neglect his work outside. At this moment, the blood ghost staff was flying towards the Radiant Empire, this way, there would be no delays in his operation.

At this time, Laura came. Laura looked at Zhao Hai and said, "Brother Hai, what happened? We heard the prompts."

Lizzy and Megan were commanding the war against the Divine Race, so they couldn't just leave. However, Laura had nothing significant to do, so when she heard the prompts, she immediately went to see Zhao Hai.

Zhao Hai smiled and said, "I got a lot of good things. Take a look." Then he turned to the page on the warehouse showing the amount of crystals that they currently had. Zhao Hai had a lot of things stored inside the Space's warehouse, this caused the warehouse to have a lot of pages.

However, it was great that the warehouse arranged the items inside according to the time it was stored. Because of this, those stored earlier appeared on the earlier pages while those recently stored appeared at the back.

When Laura looked at the page, they were immediately surprised. River of earth fire, crystal stones, golden sand. Not to say about the river of earth fire and the golden sand, the amount of crystals alone was enough to stun anyone.

Laura looked at the crystals and said, "So there's classifications with crystals. Brother Hai, what kinds of crystals have we been using so far?"

Zhao Hai forced a smile, "The low grade ones." Then Laura looked at the 1 billion low grade crystals on the page, she was caught speechless.

Then Zhao Hai said, "Besides the crystals, there are also the river of earth fire and the golden sand. At this point, I don't know how to use them. I wanted to but it seems like the Space's level isn't high enough."

Laura stared at Zhao Hai and said, "Brother Hai, you really don't know? The Space is already had a high level, yet it still can't find a way?"

Zhao Hai bitterly smiled and said, "Right, it's still insufficient. But now we can buy ten magic backgrounds as well as 20 ordinary backgrounds. I think we should hold back in buying more, we're still quite short on resources."

Laura nodded, she knew what Zhao Hai meant. When Zhao Hai made the Ark Space, he had almost used up all of his money. Therefore, it's quite unintuitive for them to buy more backgrounds.

After closing the warehouse interface, Zhao Hai lead Laura back to the living room, while they were walking he said, "I've already absorbed everything there is to acquire in Inferno Island. We don't need to return there in the future. Moreover, the crystals that we have in our hands is more than enough to deal with the Divine Race."

Laura nodded, then Zhao Hai continued, "Most importantly, I acquired the heart of earth fire. I've placed it underground so that in the future we would be able to produce crystals for ourselves. There might also be more river of earth fire and golden sand for us to harvest."

Laura smiled and said, "That's good. Right, Brother Hai, if we sell those crystals to the Space I reckon they would fetch quite a price."

Zhao Hai shook his head and said, "Forget it. The Space will not take any losses. If we sell our crystals and end up wanting to use them in the future, then the Space would sell it to us with a higher price compared to when we sold it. In any case, our current resources are enough. There's no need to sell the crystals."

Laura nodded. As they were talking, they had already reached the living room. Lizzy and Megan were present inside, taking charge in fighting against the Divine Race. At this time, Lizzy was working while Megan rested on the side.

Zhao Hai was aware that commanding a battle would be taxing to the brain. If one were to take charge over everything, then they would definitely be exhausted sooner or later. It was good that there were two of them, one could command while the other rests.

Zhao Hai didn't disturb them and returned to his own room to look at the monitor. He estimated the time before they reach the Radiant Church.

What Zhao Hai wasn't aware of was the scene happening in the Ark Space. Besides the soldiers, most of these people had never witnessed a battle before. Even the soldiers present haven't been in one with this large of a scale. They had battle against the Demons and the Divine Race, but participating in a siege of this big was something they haven't done before.

While looking at the battle, the population was burning with pride. One could hear people cheering and applauding here and there everytime the Divine Race gets repelled.

However, there were also some people who looked at this scene with heavy expressions. This was because they can see how strong the Divine Race was. Although they had been repelled by the undead many times, those inquisitive enough could count that the Divine Race had been doing this for more than 40 times.

They had failed forty times, and with heavy casualties in each attack. Nevertheless, the Divine Race still pushed on with the same tenacity as before.

Although this was only a small thing, those in the know understood how fierce the Divine Race's soldiers actually were.

In the battlefield, the pressure of the fight had a large impact on the fighting strength of a soldier. Facing repetitive failures under unending attacks from the enemies, seeing your allies die in front of you, these weren't something that an average soldier could bear.

However, the Divine Race's soldiers actually managed to harden their hearts. They seem to be unable to comprehend their losses. They still charged, time and time again. If they were faced with any other army, then they would've already broken through.

Upon recognizing the quality of soldiers that the Divine Race had, these people couldn't help but feel terrible.

They initially thought that Zhao Hai was being extra when he made them move to the Space. Some of them even felt uncomfortable. After all, the Space belonged to Zhao Hai. His status inside this place was incomparably high. Even the Rosen Emperor was uncomfortable with this decision.

They had seen the battle with the Demon Race. And now that they had witnessed the battle with the Divine race, their sense of unwillingness immediately vanished.

The Divine Race was just too strong, they surpassed what these people imagined. The Rosen Emperor let out a long sigh. Randolph who stood beside him asked, "Your Majesty, what's wrong?"

The Rosen Emperor forced a smile and said, "I didn't think the Divine Race would be this strong. No wonder Little Hai urged us to enter the Space. If we disagreed at that time, then I'm afraid we would be in grave danger."

Randolph nodded, he sighed and said, "I didn't expect the Divine Race's soldiers to be this aggressive."

Both of them made another sigh before turning around and returned to the Imperial Palace. They were people of status after all, they had a lot of things to do. They didn't have the time to stay and watch everything.

Zhao Hai was unaware of all of these since he was poised to attack the Radiant Empire. The magic staff had already arrived on the southeast side of the Radiant Empire, this was where Zhao Hai and the others thought to be the best place to stage their attack.

The Radiant Empire's southwest side was where the Divine Race's descended land had landed on. Zhao Hai didn't want to attack that new land for now, if he did, then it was possible that the Divine Race would send forces directly from the Divine Realm.

Because of this, Zhao Hai decided to attack from the southeast then heading towards the northwest, diagonally sweeping the Radiant Empire. With this, he would avoid the new land while sweeping the most number of magic cannons and Goblins along the way.

Since the battle on Accra Mountains was still underway, Zhao Hai took command of the undead this time. The undead he used were Barbarians and Winged Pegasus people. All in all, the army numbered to near 20 million.

Zhao Hai didn't have these undead participate in the defense of Accra Mountain, This was because he had discovered how discontent the Barbarians and the Winged Pegasus were towards the Divine Race. If he dispatched these troops, then Zhao Hai's hard work on bringing those two on his side would go to waste, it might even arouse anger in the two groups' heart. If those two armies joined the Divine Race in attacking the Accra Mountains, then that would not be good.

Chapter 816 - Attack!

Zhao Hai stood on his blood ghost staff transformed into a flying sword. Behind him was his near 20 million undead army. However, these undead were in their zombie form. The Barbarians were in the center while the Winged Pegasus flanked them.

Zhao Hai didn't use the cube formation this time. Although the cube formation had great advantages in attack and defense, its downside was its slow movement. Also, maintaining a cube formation needed some mental energy.

Because of this, Zhao Hai chose his current formation. He wasn't planning to wage a large scale battle, he only needed to kill and then plunder, speed was key in this operation. If he was tied down by the Divine Race, then even if he wasn't in danger he wouldn't be able to get a lot of benefits.

Zhao Hai looked at the undead before said, "Remember, the Winged Pegasus are tasked with getting the Goblins. Me and the Barbarians will take care of the cities as well as the magic cannons."

Zhao Hai wasn't commanding a Human Army, so after saying this, he didn't have to repeat his words. For the undead, Zhao Hai's words were gospel. There was no need to think about nonsense, they will execute it no matter what.

After saying his words, Zhao Hai waved his arm and said, "Depart!" Then he took the lead as he flew towards the Radiant Empire.

When Zhao Hai departed, another monitor appeared on the cities of the Ark Space. The people who saw the image displayed was stunned, they were afraid that Zhao Hai would be injured by the enemy's defense.

Although they were now inside the Space, they were still concerned about the war going on outside. After all, they were inside Zhao Hai's Space, and Zhao Hai was personally taking charge of the battle.

Before panic ensued, a voice came, "Please calm down. Mister Zhao Hai planned to entangle the Divine Race army in the Accra Mountain in order to execute his plan; attacking the Radiant Empire!"

Along with this voice, a map appeared showing the Accra Mountain's defensive line. Red dots on the map represented the undead army, green represented the Divine Race. Along with the map and dots, arrows also appeared, explaining the plan.

Before long, the population calmed down as they looked at the monitor. The map's activity looked just like an overhead view of the situation. There were mountains and rivers as well as cities of the Buddha Empire that were very well depicted.

There were green arrows showing the route of the Divine Race, red arrows showed Zhao Hai's movement.

The people could see a large green arrow plowing through the Buddha Empire with little to no resistance. After reaching the Accra Mountain, this arrow stopped since they were blocked by small red arrows. These small arrows were naturally the undead manning the defensive line.

The arrows moved while the voice explained what was happening. Even ordinary illiterate farmers were able to understand the simple explanation.

Then the monitor changed its display to the Radiant Empire. The voice then said, "While the undead in Accra Mountains detained the Divine Race, mister Zhao Hai amassed another undead army to attack the Radiant Empire. He would kill his way across the entire Divine Race camp!" At the same time, the screen showed a red arrow quickly moving diagonally across the map, killing from the southeast to the northwest.

After the explanation, the map vanished. Then the display showed Zhao Hai's attack on the Radiant Empire. "Mister Zhao Hai had already started his attack."

The monitor showed a close up look of Zhao Hai. He was currently wearing his black robe as he rode on his flying sword. The wind was making his robe and belt wave, making the people look in awe.

Zhao Hai was calm as he paid attention to his front. They had entered the Radiant Empire and the Divine Race shouldn't be expecting them to attack. Because of this, there was simply no defensive force on the Radiant Empire's coastline.

However, Zhao Hai didn't become careless. The entire Radiant Empire had become a large magic formation. Although this formation was used to break the Ark Continent's barrier, who knows if it had any other uses, so Zhao Hai was being careful.

Zhao Hai was also aware that his actions were currently being broadcasted to the Ark Space. Cai'er already told him about it. This was what they agreed beforehand, its purpose was to improve Zhao Hai's positive image.

While Zhao Hai advanced, he noticed that there were Divine Race soldiers stationed in a place not far from him. It was only a small town, so there weren't a lot of people there. On the other hand, there were many Goblins working the field.

Zhao Hai wasn't polite as he waved his hand, leading his army to kill. On the monitor, Zhao Hai's army looked like an arrow as it overran the town that the Divine Race had occupied.

Everyone couldn't help but hold their breath as they looked at the happenings on the screen. When the Divine Race soldiers stationed in the town noticed Zhao Hai's army, they couldn't help but panic.

They had no other choice, they were in a small town with little to no defensive strength. There weren't even any magic cannons on the walls. In fact this place was only a slave town specifically set up by the Divine Race to manage their slaves. Additionally, the Divine Race didn't expect anyone to attack their base, therefore they didn't bother placing defensive measures on this town.

Zhao Hai went forward and led the Barbarians to kill into the city while the Winged Pegasus cavalry were going through the Goblins outside the city. Each and every Goblin were startled when the Winged Pegasus picked them up.

These Goblins were unaware that these cavalry soldiers had been turned into undead. They haven't studied magic nor battle qi, therefore they weren't so keen on things like these.

Although they were scared of the Winged Pegasus, they still didn't dare to run. They knew they couldn't escape no matter what they did. And if they dared to run, then the Divine Race would surely kill them.

All of the undead Winged Pegasus were 9th ranks, they didn't even need to expend any effort in abducting the Goblins. They simply swept over the Goblins and threw them into the Space. The place where the Goblins were transported to was an ordinary background different from the Ark Continent and the Demons' Space.

Naturally, the people from the Ark Continent didn't see this on the monitor. What they were looking at was Zhao Hai and the Barbarians battling against the Divine Race.

The weapon that the Barbarians were currently equipped with were the javelins. Zhao Hai believed that of all the people in his control, the Barbarians would be the ones who can use the javelins at their full potential.

This was simply because the Barbarians were too strong, letting them use bows and arrows would be a complete waste. However, if they use javelins, their attacks would be stronger and more savage compared to before. If he wasn't afraid of angering the Barbarian Race, then Zhao Hai would've already used the undead Barbarians to deal with the Divine Race.

But using them at this time was also good. The undead Barbarians followed Zhao Hai as they attacked the Divine Race's town. At this time, in the skies of that town were several Divine Race soldiers establishing their Domain.

However, their strength was simply negligible in front of Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai waved his hand as he sent his flying sword to kill the Divine Race soldiers.

The blood red sword was very fast, to the point that only a red streak can be seen. Domains were broken while bloodstains appeared on the chests of the Divine Race soldiers. The bloodstains were getting bigger and bigger. When the Divine Race soldiers looked at their chests, they were shocked. Zhao Hai's sword just punctured through their bodies, slicing their hearts into pieces. Naturally, it was impossible for them to survive this damage.

When the Divine Race soldiers died, Zhao Hai took them into the Space and then released them in Accra Mountain in order to help in the battle.

The entire process went too fast, those who winked managed to miss it. However, the voice went on to replay and explain what just happened. They even slowed the footage down so that everyone could see the attack.

After seeing Zhao Hai kill the Divine Race soldiers with a wave of his hand, the people couldn't help but clap their hands. Then after that, they saw the rain of javelins blotting out the sky. It was needless to say but the Divine Race soldiers in the town was obliterated in an instant.

Upon killing the Divine Race, Zhao Hai didn't leave. Instead, he went to look for detained Goblins and released them.

Additionally, Zhao Hai was also looking through the place. He wanted to retrieve the dried up bodies of the people who were used as a sacrifice by the Divine Race.

Chapter 817 - Letting Matters Drift

Zhao Hai didn't do these things for no reason. He found the Goblins in order to let the people from the Ark Continent know how the Divine Race treated those that they had enslaved. At the same time, Zhao Hai looked for the bodies of the Radiant Empire citizens in order to show the people what the Divine Race did in the Radiant Empire.

All of this was for Zhao Hai to get a good reception among the populace. He wanted the people to think of him well.

Not only would he make himself look good, he would also turn the Divine Race into the evil ones. Only then would the people from the Ark Continent understand what Zhao Hai did for them. In the end, they would worship Zhao Hai and may even think of him as a god.

This was just a part of a long-term plan. But with the Space, Zhao Hai believed that the goal should be reached soon. This was because the Space had an effect on the minds of people.

While Zhao Hai rescued the Goblins, he was also carefully inspecting them. The expressions of these Goblins were neither happy nor sad, even sorrow was absent. They were numb to the surroundings, they had dull and lifeless expressions. All of the people from the Ark Continent who saw this felt their heart tremble.

Especially after they saw the eyes of the Goblins. Their eyes were completely devoid of life, the look on their eyes were quite similar to those that belonged to Zhao Hai's undead. They simply weren't the eyes of someone who thought of living.

The Goblins were very short, even shorter than the Dwarves. Because of this, they looked very much like children when standing right next to Zhao Hai. However, they were very malnourished. They looked like figures with large heads and skinny bodies. Comparing them to radishes wouldn't be too far off.

Upon seeing the Goblins, the people from the Ark Continent couldn't help but think about their children. If the Ark Continent was conquered by the Divine Race, then the children might look very much like the Goblins; slim bodies with big heads.

After thinking about this, the people couldn't help but shiver in fright. They immediately stopped thinking about this dreadful outcome. At this point, they couldn't help but feel grateful towards Zhao Hai. Not only was Zhao Hai fighting the Demons and the Divine Race, he also provided them with safety inside the Space.

After taking the Goblins to the Space, Zhao Hai flew outside the town. The people from the Ark Continent didn't know what Zhao Hai was doing up until they saw a ravine in the mountain. Inside that ravine was a pile of dead bodies.

Seeing the dried up corpses made the people in the Ark Space call out in alarm. Those with little courage turned their heads away, unable to look directly at the scene.

At this time, the voice came, "Everyone, these corpses that you see belonged to the citizens of the Radiant Empire, the Ocean Waves Dynasty. In order to reach the Ark Continent, the Divine Race used them to carry a blood sacrifice. Not one person in the Ocean Waves Dynasty survived. After the Divine Race arrived, they threw these bodies away as though they were outlaws. You can see the bodies, they were almost all kneeling, praying to their Empire, to the Radiant Church. They prayed that the Radiant God would give them a happy life. But they didn't expect that they wouldn't be given a happy life, instead, they were sacrificed!"

When those less courageous heard this, they opened their eyes to look at the kneeling corpses.

The people of the Ark Continent became angry. But this image didn't stay still for a long time. Zhao Hai used magic to bury the ravine. Then after giving a bow to the dead, he turned around and lead the undead to their next target.

Their attack was focused on speed. And since there weren't much Divine Race soldiers left, Zhao Hai's advance went very fast. Every city he met was broken through immediately. He took all the Goblins and magic cannons he came across while eliminating every Divine Race soldier. Zhao Hai also looked for the corpses outside each city and buried them.

After attacking two cities, the broadcast showing Zhao Hai stopped. Now, the people of the Ark Space were back to looking at the Accra Mountains.

Although the battle was still lively, the feelings of the people from the Ark Continent were now heavier, they weren't as enthusiastic to see the fight as before.

As for what the people of the Ark Space was thinking? Zhao Hai didn't know. At this point, he was breaking through cities in the Radiant Church and taking everything that can be taken. Nothing was left for the Divine Race.

All the Goblins have been taken away, none of them were left behind. This can be regarded to be damaging towards the Divine Race. After all, without the Goblins, the army would have nothing to eat.

This was also the reason why Zhao Hai cut the broadcast of his actions short. He didn't want the people of the continent to see him plundering the Radiant Empire. They might see him as a greedy person.

Zhao Hai's movement was very fast. Although he was met with occasional resistance, they were all reduced to nothing in the face of the blood lightning javelins.

The magic cannons of the Divine Race can only be described as fine. Compared to the crystals used by the Ark Continent, their ammunition was actually worse.

The Divine Race naturally didn't expect people to attack them. Because of this, their response has been very slow. Moreover, dealing with Zhao Hai's 20 million army was quite hard. Their only choice would be either asking for reinforcements from the Divine Realm or to make the Third Prince come back.

However, the Third Prince was currently entangled in the Accra Mountains. Even if his army was quick to go back, rescue was still impossible. At this point, asking for reinforcements from the Divine Realm was a more feasible action.

But then again, by the time the reinforcements had arrived, Zhao Hai was already done and had returned to the Space.

Zhao Hai's action took two days and one night of continuous battles.

After the attack, Zhao Hai had captured about 50 million Goblins, 3200 magic cannons, and various other commodities.

After arranging the Goblins to an ordinary background and counting the inventory, Zhao Hai went to visit the Goblins.

The spirit of the Goblins seem to have gotten better after entering the Space. Their numb expression loosened up. These Goblins weren't stupid, they were also able to discover that this strange place had a much better environment compared to the Ark Continent, it might even be better than the Divine Realm. Moreover, they couldn't see any Divine Race around them, only other Goblins.

At this point, the Goblins were already aware that they have been abducted by the people from the Ark Continent. Before coming here, the Divine Race already told them about the Ark Continent. After all, the existence of the Ark Continent wasn't a secret since the continent's ascendants always appear in the Divine Realm.

The Goblins didn't expect that the people from the Ark Continent would be this powerful. They can actually cause trouble to the Divine Race. This was something that the Goblins wouldn't even dream of doing.

Two days and one night passed by after the first Goblin arrived in the Space. Upon arriving, they were very scared, so they didn't dare to walk around too much. But after two days, they began to get hungry. Naturally, they would have to look for food. It's fortunate for them that Zhao Hai had a lot of bread trees planted in this background. After the Goblins discovered that the bread fruits were edible, they immediately ate it until they were full.

These Goblins didn't know what it felt to be full. Since childhood, they had always eaten little to no food. After the Goblins felt their stomachs bulge up, some of them couldn't stop themselves from crying.

During the time when they were being pursued by the Divine Race, they hid themselves in the untamed mountains and rivers of the Divine Realm. And since the Divine Realm was somewhat better than the Ark continent, the Goblins were still able to eat. However, ever since they've been captured, they had always been eating minimally.

In the background, there were plenty of bread fruits. Zhao Hai hardly used these fruits to feed the people of the Ark Space. This was because the people already had an excess of food while also growing their own. At this point, Zhao Hai doesn't need to worry about their sustenance.

And if Zhao Hai were to sell these bread fruits to the Space, he would just get a pitifully low amount of gold coins. So even if they were eaten by the Goblins, Zhao Hai didn't really care.

The bodies of the Goblins weren't very big and since they had been starved for so long, their stomachs have contracted. They weren't able to eat a lot so each bread fruit was enough to feed three Goblins.

When Zhao Hai appeared inside the Space, the Goblins were in the process of collecting bread fruits. Upon seeing Zhao Hai appear, the Goblins immediately knelt to the ground.

Zhao Hai looked at the Goblins and said, "You're going to live here from now on. The Divine Race cannot enter this place. However, since this place is mine I shall be your master. I won't treat you like slaves but I need you to comply to my orders. As long as you do your job, you can have anything you want."

Zhao Hai knew that these Goblins weren't just enslaved for one or two years. If you speak with them as equals right now, then their minds would surely turn blank. Speaking to them in a superior position was the only way for now.

Sure enough, the Goblins immediately accepted Zhao Hai's condition. Not only were they not disappointed, each and every one of their expressions was showing glee.

The Space's environment was already very good and since Zhao Hai didn't have any gold coins right now, he couldn't make any structures for these Goblins. He only gave an instruction, "As you can see, there are bread trees in this place. You can use those trees to eat and build houses with. I will also place some low ranked magic beasts in this place for you to catch. And if you have anything else you want, you can trade them for the meat and fruits here." Then Zhao Hai pointed to a place not far away. The ground on that place rumbled before a church like building rose up.

This building wasn't very big, but it looked very stylish. Zhao Hai looked at the Goblins and then said, "This will be your Divine Palace. If you need something, you can take the bread fruits or your meat there to trade. As long as bread fruits and meat enters that place and you say what you need, it will appear. Understood?" The Goblins nodded, some even gave a shout.

Zhao Hai nodded before his body flashed as it disappeared. He didn't want to manage the Goblins. Later on when he goes to the Divine Realm, more and more Goblins would arrive. When that time comes, Zhao Hai wanted to see how they develop by themselves.

After the Goblins saw Zhao Hai leave, they immediately stood up. There were several of them who led other goblins and organized parties in order to gather bread fruits.

In any group, there would always be people who will assume the role of a leader. The Goblins weren't an exception. Some Goblins were born with the talent to lead but since they were enslaved by the Divine Race, they weren't able to let that talent bloom. But now that they had the opportunity, these Goblins went on to manage their fellow kin. Everyone went on to gather bread fruits then prepared to trade them for other items inside the church.

In fact, factions had already formed. Zhao Hai took a hands-off approach towards the Goblins. This was because the Goblins had their entire civilization and history wiped out. If he were to give them direction, then they wouldn't be able to regain their original state. Letting them drift on their own was the correct choice.

Chapter 818 - Response of the Demon Race

The situation between the Goblins and the residents of the Ark Continent was different. In the case of the Ark Continent's people, their civilization was completely copied into the Ark Space, allowing perfect preservation of their lifestyles.

On the other hand, the Goblins had a high foundation regarding magical-mechanical civilization. It might even be possible that they were stronger than the Ark Continent. However, that civilization had become useless, it had been destroyed. It may even exist only in tales. In this case, it was almost impossible for Zhao Hai to teach the Goblins about how to regain their civilization.

The reason Zhao Hai gave them the church was to make it clear to the Goblins that even if the Space was convenient, they still needed to work. If they want something, then they would need to exchange it with something else.

It wasn't that Zhao Hai was stingy, he just didn't want the Goblins to just eat and sleep. He would have them know that working hard was the way to gain the most.

The church was something that Zhao Hai asked Cai'er to make. In fact, it was just a relay for items to be sent in. As long as the Goblins ask for it, then they would receive the item that they want. No matter what they wanted, Zhao Hai would provide.

Naturally, asking for things would come at a price. For example, if the Goblins wanted an ordinary iron axe, then they would need to trade about a hundred jin of bread fruit,

This price was based on the Space's shop. Even if the price on the Ark Continent fluctuated, the Space's shop would never change. Also, Zhao Hai wasn't afraid that the Goblins would ask for advanced items. In their present location, there wasn't anything they could trade for it.

The most abundant item in the Goblins' background were the bread fruits, and these fruits were very cheap. Even if they trade the bread fruits of the entire background, the Goblins still wouldn't be able to exchange for a single crystal stone.

After taking care of the Goblins, Zhao Hai turned his attention towards the battle in the Accra mountains. The fight was still going on and Thunder Yun was still clueless that the Radiant Empire had already been ravaged.

At this point, it was already impossible for Zhao Hai to attack the Radiant Empire for the second time. This was because reinforcements from the Divine Realm had arrived. Now they were ready to face Zhao Hai's attack.

Also, Zhao Hai was faced with the problem of manpower . Although he had still had a lot of undead, the formidable ones like the Barbarians and the Winged Pegasus were unable to be used. If they were used in the battle, then Zhao Hai might anger the Barbarians and Winged Pegasus people.

Zhao Hai had a deep grudge towards the Divine Race, but he held no hatred towards the Barbarians and the Winged Pegasus. To be honest, Zhao Hai was even feeling pity towards these two races. It was precisely because of this that when Zhao Hai discovered a peculiarity with the internal command of the Divine Race army, he immediately sent word to only send the minimum amount of troops towards the Barbarians and the Winged Pegasus army. Zhao Hai wanted to send a signal that the Ark Continent didn't have a grudge against them.

It can be said that Zhao Hai had done a successful job. The elite Barbarians and Winged Pegasus hardly made an effort in the battles which made the defense of Accra Mountains much easier.

But because of this action, Zhao Hai didn't have enough troops to defend against the Divine Race. The people from the Ark Continent had already settled in the Ark Space. If he let the soldiers from the Ark Space help in the battle, then he might incur resentment from their families.

This dilemma caused Zhao Hai to have a headache. But just as he was thinking of ways to solve this problem, a sound came in from his messenger fish. After taking the messenger fish out, Zhao Hai discovered that it was from the Great Demon King. Zhao Hai stared for a moment before he slowly smiled.

After the Great Demon King reached an agreement with the Demon Dragon King, he immediately prepared to leave for the Demon Realm. But before he left, the Great Demon King had something to do first, and that was to wait for the Demon Vultures to come back. As long as they bring back information, then his plan would proceed to the next step.

It didn't take too long before the Demon Vultures came back to Demon City. Upon arriving, they immediately went to ask for an audience with the Great Demon King. Naturally, the Great Demon King was expecting them, so he summoned one of them to give the report. He also invited the leaders of the other races present in the Demon Army.

After everyone arrived, the Great Demon King let the Demon vulture in. The Demon Vulture had a weary face but he still gave a salute. The Great Demon King nodded and said, "Alright, tell me what you saw."

The Demon Vulture nodded, and replied, "Your Majesty. When I departed, I started from Demon City, then passed through the Accra Mountains before entering the Lyon Empire. Then after that, I arrived at the Rosen Empire then to Aksu Empire. In all of those places, not a single person can be spotted. Everyone seemed to have moved. And in the Beastman Prairie we managed to see the dark mist of the Underworld. There were also undead frolicking inside the mist."

Upon hearing this, the Demon present couldn't help but go into a buzz. They didn't expect the Ark Continent's people to have actually moved. Moreover, there was also the presence of the Underworld.

The Demons were generally fearless. But when it came to the Underworld, they couldn't help but feel a deep sense of dread. This was because the underworld's creatures were the bane of the Demon Race.

The Great Demon King looked at those present and said, "Silence!"

The room immediately turned quiet, not a single Demon dared to let out a sound. One could see the Great Demon King's influence here. These people wouldn't dare to disrespect the Great Demon King.

Seeing that the room had turned silent, the Great Demon King turned to the Demon Vulture and said, "Good job. Now go take a rest." The Demon Vulture gave a bow before turning around to leave.

The Great Demon King looked at those present and said, "It seems like Mister Zhao Hai didn't lie to us. I had a long discussion with mister Zhao Hai. He was very sincere when he took me to the place where the people of the Ark Continent migrated to. To be honest, when I went there I thought mister Zhao Hai had deceived me. The place was exactly the same as the Ark Continent. The people lived there peacefully, there were no wars that happened."

The people looked at the Great Demon King, they didn't know where he was going with this talk. The Great Demon King continued, "Mister Zhao Hai told me that he didn't have any hatred towards us, the Demons. He said that we only invaded the Ark Continent because we wanted to live a good life, so he couldn't hate us. Also, since we didn't destroy anything in the Ark Continent, he had a good impression towards our lifestyle. Later on, he took me to a place, it was a very good place, much better compared to the Ark Continent. Mister Zhao Hai said that if we are willing, then we can move and live there.”

Although the Great Demon King issued an order for silence, the Demons present couldn’t help but issue a sound of surprise. What the Great Demon King said was too astonishing.

The Great Demon King opened his mouth once more, “You must think why mister Zhao Hai would do this? I’ll explain it to you. The Space actually belongs to mister Zhao Hai, it is his divergent ability. He can open a few spaces of his own and in those spaces he would be a god. That is to say, if the Demons live inside his Space, then we would need to follow him. Do you understand?”

When the group heard the Great Demon King, all of them collectively lost their voice. They didn’t expect things would be like this, all of them were looking at the Great Demon King in shock.

The Great Demon King saw their reactions and said, “Mister Zhao Hai gave me a promise that if the Demons enter the Space, then he wouldn’t suppress us for no reason. He also promised to not interfere with how we do things. He just pitied the state of the Demons and didn’t want us to succumb to the Underworld.”

After saying this, the Great Demon King sighed and said, “In the past, the Demons and the Underworld had some encounters. And each time it was us who suffered greatly. At that time, the battle occurred in the Demon Realm, so we can just seal the rift. However, the Underworld connected to the Ark Continent this time. Moreover, the entrance to the Demon Realm had been completely opened, it would be difficult to seal it. This means that the Demon Realm will forever be connected to the Underworld.”

The Great Demon King looked at everyone present in the eye and said, “We managed to repel the Underworld because of the Demon Realm’s barrier. But now that the barrier to the Ark Continent was broken, the Underworld would surely be able to constantly connect to the Demon Realm. For the Demon Race this is truly a great disaster.”

The Demons present weren’t fools, they completely understood what the Great Demon King was saying. If they didn’t migrate, then they would sooner or later be swallowed by the underworld.

The Great Demon King said, "If we enter mister Zhao Hai's Space, then we wouldn't need to worry about the Underworld. Moreover, mister Zhao Hai inviting us over isn't fully because of good intention. The Demons can also provide him with good benefits."

Chapter 819 - Hatred!

The Demons calmed down. Actually, they weren't that worried about entering the Space. Just like Berry said, the Demons would do anything in order to live in a better environment.

What they were afraid of was having no use to Zhao Hai. If they didn't have leverage, then that wouldn't be very good.

If the Demons had no use, then would Zhao Hai still want them to migrate to his Space? That's impossible, nobody would do that. The Demons would be less than herded magic beasts, they were utterly useless.

So when they heard from the Great Demon King that they could bring benefits to Zhao Hai, they couldn't help but be moved.

The Great Demon King looked at the group and said, "Everyone should be aware of Mister Zhao Hai's strength. I'll be honest to everyone, even if I use my Devil War Chariot, I still can't be confident in beating him. Moreover, I need to tell everyone that the Demon Realm isn't the highest ranked plane there could be. There is still a much higher plane in existence."

Upon hearing the Great Demon King, the other Demons couldn't help but feel excitement. They were aware that the Ark Continent was a lower plane since it cannot accommodate God-ranks. After someone from the Ark Continent becomes God-rank then they would ascend to the Divine Realm.

They previously thought that the Demon Realm and the Divine Realm were the highest planes since these planes can have God-ranked experts. But now, after listening to the Great Demon King, it seems like there was a higher plane to the Demon Realm. With the Demons unable to sit still, the room immediately buzzed into discussion.

The Demon Dragon King already knew what was coming, so he looked at the other Demons and said, "Silence!"

His voice calmed the other Demons down. The Great Demon King then said, "I already knew some things about the higher realm, however, I didn't tell you because it is too unbelievable."

The Demons listened. The Great Demon King had done a lot for the Demons all these years and they knew that he wouldn't lie to them. Because of this, they eagerly waited for what he would say next.

The Great Demon King looked at the other Demons and said, "The Demon god we believed in is actually a person from that higher realm and he doesn't even look like the Demon God that we worship. He looked just like this." Then he took out the illustration that Zhao Hai printed.

The others hadn't seen this before including the Demon Dragon King. Now they were curious about the image that the Great Demon King took out.

After the group saw the image, the Great Demon King said, "Besides Demon Dragon, nobody in the Demon Realm knew that I had the Eyes of Truth. Upon becoming the Great Demon King, the Demon God appeared for the ceremony. At that time, the Demon God I saw wasn't the same as the one depicted in our records. His true body was actually this. He turned into the Demon God so that we would worship him. Later on, I started to investigate matters myself. In the end, I discovered that the Demon God statue had a magic formation to collect faith power."

Everyone blankly stood in place when they heard the Great Demon King. These matters were beyond their understanding. They don't know what to say.

The Great Demon King sighed and said, "There weren't a lot of people who knew about this, but there were quite a number who did. In addition to Demon Dragon, the high level God ranks were also aware of it. After we came to know about this matter, the only thing in our minds was how to get rid of this person's control."

After speaking this, the Great Demon King's tone changed, "What had the Demon God given us after all these years? Mister Zhao Hai's place is incomparably better than the Demon Realm. In the Demon Realm, we would need to wage war with each other just to survive. In this case, why do we still give the Demon God our faith power? We had already given him so much, yet what did he give in return?"

The words of the Great Demon King spoke directly into the minds of the Demons. These Demons had long suffered in the Demon Realm's environment. Now that they heard the Great Demon King, a great resentment erupted deep within them. Everyone was breathing heavily, their eyes were red!

Demons were unafraid of death. Although they believed in the Demon God, their belief wasn't so strong because of their constant struggles. They believed in themselves more than the Demon God.

Upon seeing the reaction of his fellow Demons, the Great Demon King knew that this was the crucial time, so he said, "To be honest, my decision to invade the Ark Continent was rooted to the purpose of getting away from this person's control. However, I didn't think that after discussing with Mister Zhao Hai, he actually had an encounter with this person!" Then the Great Demon King retold how Zhao Hai met Lu Wei and the process Zhao Hai did to defeat him.

Then the Great Demon King added, "Because of this, I decided that we should move to Mister Zhao Hai's Space. Mister Zhao Hai is strong and in the future he would definitely become stronger. When the time comes, Mister Zhao Hai would ascend to the higher plane and possibly meet with that person. This person had deceived the Demons for many years, this is something we cannot allow. If Mister Zhao Hai ascends while taking us with him using his Space, then we can personally take our revenge!"

Upon hearing the Great Demon King, the killing aura of the Demons present had immediately soared. Demons hated cowards, but they hate people deceiving them the most. So after knowing about Lu Wei, the Demons immediately placed him on their kill list. If they can take revenge personally, then they would be happy.

The Great Demon King looked at everyone and said, "Does anyone have anything to say? If you don't want to enter Mister Zhao Hai's Space, then I won't stop you, you can decide for yourself. Mister Zhao Hai also said that even if you go to the Space and don't worship him, then it would be fine, everyone can make a decision for themselves."

After the Great Demon King said this, a Demon stood up and said, "Your Majesty, there's no need to ask that, we need to enter the Space. Not only is the environment good, we can also get revenge in the future."

Along with him, the other Demons also agreed to enter the Space.

The Great Demon King looked at them and said, "Good, then I will immediately contact mister Zhao Hai. But before entering the Space, we need to help mister Zhao Hai deal with the Divine Race!"

As soon as they heard this, the Demons gave a cheer. Nobody opposed to it. In their opinion, the Divine Race was Lu Wei's most faithful dogs. Since they couldn't hit Lu Wei now, dealing with the Divine Race was the next best thing.

The Great Demon King waved his hand and then said, "Alright, everyone should go back. I'll prepare things here before I go back to the Demon Realm to prepare our people to move to the Space first. All of you shall listen to Demon Dragon and help mister Zhao Hai deal with the Divine Race, understood?"

The group said in one voice, "Yes, Your Majesty!" The Great Demon King nodded as he waved his hand once more, making the other Demons leave. However, he had Demon Dragon King stay behind.

When the other Demons left, the Great Demon King turned to the Demon Dragon King and said, "Demon Dragon, I'll be leaving everything here to you. I'll contact Mister Zhao Hai and tell him to contact you as well."

The Demon Dragon King complied, then the Great Demon King took Zhao Hai's messenger fish out. The Demon Dragon King looked at the messenger fish curiously. The fish had no redeeming value, it was just a small fish swimming inside a bottle filled with water.

The Demon Dragon King turned to look at the Great Demon King, he didn't know what the purpose of this fish was. The Great Demon King looked at him and smiled before he turned to the small fish and said, "Mister Zhao Hai, Mister Zhao Hai, can you hear me?"

The Demon Dragon King looked blankly, he actually suspected the Great Demon King to be crazy. Otherwise, why would he shout Zhao Hai's name to a fish.

While the Demon Dragon King was confused, Zhao Hai's voice suddenly came, "Your Majesty, I didn't think you'd contact me this quickly. I hope you have good news for me."

The Demon Dragon King looked blankly at the fish. It was still swimming inside the bottle, but Zhao Hai's voice was actually coming out of it.

The Great Demon King responded, "It's good news, mister. The Demons have agreed to enter mister's Space. Can Mister take them in now?"

Zhao Hai's voice came in, "Hahaha, of course, of course they can come anytime. But Your Majesty needs to head back to the Demon Realm to organize your people. I'll be dealing with the Divine Race so I'm quite busy. After you had things prepared in the Demon Realm, then I shall head there and take your people to the Space."

Chapter 820 - The Demons Want To Send Their Troops

When he heard Zhao Hai, the Great Demon King's eyes shone as he said, "Mister is fighting the Divine Race? How is it?"

The Demon Dragon King also raised his ear, Zhao Hai laughed and said, "It's doing very well. I just went to the Radiant Empire and ransacked it. Haha. I'm focusing on the Accra Mountain's defensive line right now. I want to surround them and eliminate them."

The Great Demon King's eyes went brighter, he said, "Can mister have the Demons dispatch our own troops?"

Zhao Hai turned silent. This made the Great Demon King and Demon Dragon king anxiously look at the small fish. After some time Zhao Hai replied, "I'll be honest to your Majesty. I'm presently low in manpower. At present, I have 20 million strong undead in reserve. However, these undead belonged to the Barbarian and Winged Pegasus clan. Those two races weren't born from the Divine Realm, they were just like people from the Ark Continent who were conquered by the Divine Race. At first, the Divine Race baited me to attack them in order to draw their elite troops. I didn't know about this before, but now that I do, I decided to refrain from angering them. Moreover, those two races have a grudge with the Divine Race. At this moment, they weren't giving their all in attacking my defensive line. This allowed the Accra Mountains to stay put even with the lack of manpower. But even then, I cannot have the Demons send their troops. I believe Your Majesty had taken great efforts to convince the other Demons to enter the Space. If Your Majesty decided to have them send their men, then it's possible that Your Majesty would be placed in an awkward position. I'll just hold out and wait for an opportune time to contact the Barbarian and Winged Pegasus armies, I'll try to get them to our side and gang up on the Divine Race."

Although Zhao Hai said a lot, he was retelling what he did and the decisions that came with. This made the Great Demon King and Demon Dragon King stare. At the same time, they were also moved. They didn't think Zhao Hai would think about them this far.

The Great Demon King gave a short laugh before he said, "I thank mister for the consideration. But we Demons have a grudge against the Divine Race. Because of this, we would be happy to send our troops over to fight. We will not have any resentment if mister agrees to send us." Upon hearing the Great Demon King, Zhao Hai replied, "The Demons and the Divine Race had a grudge? Why didn't I know this? Your Majesty, you really don't need to send your people. If we can't deal with the Divine Race now, then it won't matter. In any case, I'm planning to go to the Divine Realm. "

Then the Great Demon King smiled and expressed his thoughts to Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai couldn't help but smile upon hearing this. He finally understood what the Great Demon King meant by their grudge against the Divine Race. Zhao Hai replied, "That's true. But you should know about the strength of the Divine Race, this time they had sent their elite troops. To be honest, the Demons would lose against them. But if you really want to deal some damage to the Divine Race, then I would have to ask the Demon Army to come to the Space first and get some weapons for the battle. I have some lethal items that can help. I'm sure you have seen them before."

The Great Demon King nodded and said, "Alright, you have my gratitude. However, since I need to return to the Demon Realm, I'll be leaving the army in the hands of Demon Dragon. If you need something, you can just talk to him." Zhao Hai smiled and said, "Alright, I will open a spatial rift near Demon City tomorrow. I'll ask the Demon Dragon King to organize the army and enter the Space. After going in, I will hand the weapons over. What do you think?"

The Great Demon King nodded and said, "Good, then that's settled. Demon Dragon, say a few words."

Demon Dragon King got close to the messenger fish and said, "Mister can rest assured, everything will be ready by tomorrow."

Zhao Hai smiled faintly and said, "Demon Dragon King, we're old friends, so you have my utmost trust. By noon tomorrow, I will open the spatial rift. At that time, I'll ask you to send the Demons in."

Demon Dragon King nodded and assured him once more that they would be waiting. After Zhao Hai left the conversation, the Great Demon King turned to the Demon Dragon King and said, "Alright, this matter is settled. I will not stay here for longer. Demon Dragon, go find the others and tell them our arrangement. Tomorrow, you will be the first Demons to enter the Space. Also, remember that you're fighting against the Divine Race. Make sure to send the elites, anyone less talented will stay inside the Space. Be familiar with the environment, after all that place will be our future home.”

The Demon Dragon Kin felt uplifted as he gave a nod. Then he asked the leaders of the Demon groups over to the hall.

These people were confused, they just left the hall but then they were called back in. The Great Demon King looked at everyone present and said, “I just talked to Mister Zhao Hai. At this time, he is fighting with the Divine Race. We didn’t have to but I asked Mister Zhao Hai to allow the Demons to fight and deal with the Divine Race. I will be handing the army over to Demon Dragon, does anyone have anything to say?” The Demons immediately became excited when they heard this. A Demon Ogre loudly replied, “I want to see how strong those Divine Race bastards really are. I can’t wait to see their expressions when they see us. Your Majesty, when do we fight?” The others had the same thoughts.

The Great Demon King smiled and said, “Mister said that just sending troops over wouldn’t be good. The Divine Race are all powerful. It would be difficult for our current state to deal with them. Because of this, mister said that if we want to fight the Divine Race, then we would need equipment. Mister Zhao Hai will provide them for us. When the time comes we can use those weapons to deal with the Divine Race.”

The people present all cheered. A Demon Ogre’s loud voice can be heard, “Those javelins from before are quite strong. If we have those, then our power would certainly increase.”

Among the Demons present here, most of them had fought with Zhao Hai. Zhao Hai’s previous actions had caused so much damage that these Demons had become somewhat afraid of him.

The Great Demon King smiled and said, “Tomorrow at noon Mister will open a spatial rift outside Demon City. You will enter that rift and arrive at the place Mister Zhao Hai allocated for the Demon Race. Not only are you going to retrieve weapons there, you should also get accustomed to the place. I already told Demon Dragon to send only the elites to help deal with the Divine Race. The others need to behave inside the Space. Get used to the place, that is where we will live in the future.”

There was no need for the Great Demon King to say anything more, the Demons were already excited. Although they had heard that Zhao Hai would provide them with a place to live, they still haven’t seen the place so some of them had reservations. Being able to see it tomorrow was good news for them.

The Great Demon King looked at their excitement and gave out a cough. This caused the hall to turn silent, then the Great Demon King nodded, "In the meantime, I shall return to the Demon Realm and prepare the other Demons to move. I want you to remember two things, look at Mister Zhao Hai's attitude towards us. If he acts very arrogant, then we will not enter his Space. We are Demons, we won't stoop to a point that people will look down on us."

The Demons nodded, then the Great Demon King said, "Second thing, if Mister Zhao Hai treated you properly, then you need to help him deal with the Divine Race. We are against the Divine Race, and this fight will reflect on our reputation. If you lose face for the Demons, then I'll deal with you personally!"

The Demons gave a loud grunt. Demons were concerned about their face. If they lost face in front of Zhao Hai, then the entire Demon Race would be affected. The Great Demon King might not even need to make a move, the other Demons would immediately deal with the culprit.

The Great Demon King looked at the others and said, "Alright, you prepare for your departure. Remember, I'll leave everything to Demon Dragon. If there's anyone who dared to disobey his orders then I'll give them a good pounding. Especially the Demon Ogres, I have my eyes on you."

The Demon Ogres didn't care, they just stood there with smiles on their faces. The Great Demon King couldn't help but feel at loss, these Demon Ogres were completely hopeless.

The Great Demon King stared at the group before he stood up. Then he turned to the Demon Dragon King and then to the others and said, "Remember, this will be the greatest change that the Demon Race will undergo in our countless years of existence. You cannot make a single mistake. Otherwise, you and I will become the biggest sinners of our race. This is a great opportunity for the Demons to change our lives. Understood?"

The group all gave their assurance. The Great Demon King nodded before he walked out and got into his chariot. Then he took a hundred thousand people with him to return to the Demon Realm.

The reason the Great Demon King brought this many people was to quell any troubles that would arise in the Demon Realm. Naturally, these troubles didn't refer to the Demon Race. Instead, it meant the magic beasts of the Demon Realm.

Magic beasts of the Demon realm were also very strong. Once in a while they would attack a Demon and would prompt the Demon race to amass an army just to deal with it.

After the Great Demon King left, the Demon Dragon King immediately gave an order, “Get the supplies ready and prepare to move to Mister Zhao Hai’s Space tomorrow.” Then he looked at the busy atmosphere outside, he knew that this would be a sleepless evening.

Zhao Hai stored his messenger fish and smiled. He was worried about manpower, but he didn’t expect the Demons to actually offer their services.

The Accra Mountains were still standing, the Divine Race wouldn’t be able to take it for a while. Also, it would be quite hard for the Radiant Empire to send reports to the Divine Race army. Because of this, Zhao Hai decided to send the Demons two days later.

Zhao Hai went downstairs and looked at Lizzy and Megan. In the past few days, the two were working very hard. The Divine Race had turned into maniacs, endlessly attacking the Accra Mountain. Even if they were rotating between shifts, the two still couldn’t help but get tired.

There were several occasions where the Divine Race punctured the defensive line. However, Lizzy and Megan still managed to drive them back.

At this time, Thunder Yun was looking at the Accra Mountains with blood red eyes. He was more and more astonished by the strength of the undead army. Withstanding the Divine Race assault for this many days wasn’t something that an average army could do.

Although the Divine Race were comprised of God-ranks, they can’t possibly fight for so many days in a row, they also need to rest. Because of this, Thunder Yun had arranged a rotation regiment for his troops in order to maximize their fighting potential.

However, the constant fighting wasn’t the one that made Thunder Yun depressed. He had already clashed against the Divine Race twice. But in those two fights, he wasn’t even able to see Zhao Hai’s shadow. This undead army belonged to Zhao Hai and the Ark Continent’s strongest person was Zhao Hai. If he wasn’t even able to see Zhao Hai in those two battles, then this would only mean one thing; The Ark Continent had yet to use its full force. This was definitely a huge blow for the Divine Race’s pride.

At this point, Thunder Yun was about to lose his mind. He looked like a gambler who lost big. His only desire right now was to break through the Accra Mountains' defensive line.

At the same time, the Third Prince was also driven silly. He sat in his sword carriage and looked blankly at the defensive line. He didn't say a word, he just looked straight at the mountains as if he had gone crazy.

In the past, the Third Prince expected the Ark Continent to fall in one blow. But now it looks like the opposite was happening. The Ark Continent's undead were very powerful. They weren't any less than a Divine Race soldiers. The difference between his expectations and reality was the same difference as the heavens and the earth.

In the past few days, the Third Prince had continuously looked at the repeated rushing of the Divine Race soldiers. He also continuously saw them being driven back. This was a huge blow to his ego, he almost lost all ability to think.
