

Apocalypse 131

Chapter 131: Xia Lei's danger

Xia Lei was extremely emotional when she saw her husband.

This reconciliation gave her a feeling like she was dreaming.

But she frowned when she saw her bruised husband.

She was the best cop in the police force and got many awards. She had killed many so even though she was a woman, her temper wouldn't be that good.

She forced him to tell her what was going on but he hesitated as he felt that saying it out would mean that he would not have any face. He made Xia Lei so furious that she didn't want to bother with him.

But when she saw the spoiled husband consuming the food that she brought back and also drinking the cheap white wine that she got from the supermarket, her heart went soft.

She understood that her powerless husband found it really hard to survive in this world. She also found out that her father-in-law had turned into a zombie right at the start of the apocalypse so her husband lost the person he relied on the most.

"Little Lei, why didn't I realise that this food tastes so good in the past?" Qin Yu was full. He lay in the bed and burped.

Xia Lei cleaned up the house while acknowledging him. In her heart she thought about eating with the team, if her husband ate with them, he would even swallow his own tough. Imagining such an assuming scene made her smile.

Xia Lei was really beautiful and when she entered the police force she caused a huge commotion. Now that she was married, she stopped going on active duty which added to her maturity. During these few days with Ye Zhongming, she didn't have to worry about food and water. She looked really clean and she was a stark contrast to other women in the apocalypse.

Qin Yu lay on his bed and looked at his beautiful wife. He suddenly got up and hugged her from behind.

She was shocked and then found it amusing. She said gently, "You missed me?"

"Right, I miss you so much." Qin Yu's hands started to move about. He sniffed her body and instantly felt aroused.

But in the next second, he felt pain in his lower body. He let her go and then held his crotch before crying out in pain.

Xia Lei also squatted down to ask him what happened but she knew that he was probably hit by someone else.

That pain caused him to lose all interest. He went back to the bed and closed his eyes.

This was probably a really awkward moment for all guys.

Xia Lei wanted to console her husband when the room was kicked open. A guy in outdoor adventurer gear walked in with an annoyed expression.

“Qin Yu, did you treat my words as nonsense?”

After saying that, he noticed that Xia Lei was there. He glanced across her exquisite body and when he saw her face, he was shocked.

“Pan... Brother Pan...” Qin Yu jumped up and ran in front of the guy, “My wife came to find me so I forgot about it. I will wash clothes for you right away!”

“What are you doing?” Xia Lei was annoyed with his gaze and dragged her husband who wanted to leave.

In the few days she spent with Ye Zhongming, she learned how to differentiate evolved from other normal humans from that guy. Right away she knew that this person had consumed the evolution potion to evolve.

But things were like that. Although she wasn’t evolved, but she had a bottle in her bag and she could evolve at any moment. She spent time with evolved for so many days and killed level two mutated life forms so she didn’t respect evolved at all.

She couldn’t understand why the normal humans were so respectful to the evolved as she didn’t see those evolve killing and forcing normal humans to do what they wanted.

This Brother Pan looked at Xia Lei and laughed. He turned around to leave without saying anything, causing Qin Yu to be totally confused.

Xia Lei scoffed but she had a bad feeling deep down. She considered searching for Ye Zhongming to get a gun to protect herself.

Seeing the evolved he served leave, Qin Yu lay in bed in terror with his wife but he couldn’t fall asleep. He kept thinking about what was going to happen when he offended Brother Pan. Xia Lei lay down quietly and looked at the cowardly look of her husband. She wasn’t as excited as before and was just a little confused.

Not far away, two evolved were on the bed, allowing two young girls to rub around their bodies. On the side was a middle aged woman who was attending to them.

“Brother Pain, did you see that trash Qin Yu’s wife? How is she? Am I right, she is so beautiful.”

Brother Pan didn’t open his eyes, he just acknowledged it.

The other evolved opened his eyes and asked Brother Pan, “Is she really that beautiful?”

Brother Pan didn’t hold back and he opened his eyes, “Indeed, no, she is really sexy, a top beauty. I heard before that Qin Yu had a beautiful wife but I didn’t expect her to be more beautiful than the rumors.”

Hearing him say that, Da Dong sat up. The girl massaging him was unprepared and flipped onto the ground. Her head hit the wall and blood flowed out. She cried out in pain but she didn’t dare to make a sound.

It was as if Da Dong didn't see that she was injured. He smiled, "How does such a beautiful girl taste?"

Brother Pan sat up too and waved for the girl serving him to help the other girl. He then said, "I haven't slept with her so how would I know? But obviously, it would be good."

"Damn!" Da Dong stood up and shouted, "Then what are you waiting for? Let's go and get her!"

"Oi! Wait!" Brother Pan grabbed Da Dong, "What is the rush! Let me finish."

Da Dong was impatient and unhappy, "Are you hesitating? Didn't you do these things in the past?"

Brother Pan squinted his eyes and rage appeared on his face. He held back and smiled, "Da Dong, you really are too rash. Let me ask you, why did we come here? We were temporary workers, you were a mechanic. Why can we get two school flowers to massage us and they don't even dare to make a sound when they are injured?"

Da Dong was stunned and knew Brother Pan wanted to say something. He waved to the middle aged woman and told her to head out.

"Because we evolved!"

When the two of them were the only ones left here, Brother Pan lit a cigarette and said.

"We are far stronger than others and can kill zombies to get crystals to spin the wheel. That is why we can get our current status! But! Do you think that is enough?"

"Of course not!" Brother Pan gave the answer before Da Dong could reply, "You know the current situation of the base. We are surrounded by zombies and mutated monsters and can only head out from the water tunnels. Who knows when they will attack this place? So what if we are evolved? Can we deal with a thousand zombies? We can't even deal with a hundred before we will get scratched!"

Da Dong sat down and lit a cigarette, nodding his head in agreement. Evolved were just several times stronger than normal people but that didn't mean they were immune to zombies. If they were scratched, they would die.

"So we need to get stronger!"

"You are right but what does that have to do with Qin Yu's beautiful wife?"

Da Dong didn't understand. He was really impatient and wanted to have fun with that woman.

"Keke." Brother Pan was unaffected and continued with his train of thought, "We are all one star evolved so why Director Wang and Chef Jin can become leaders why we can't?"

"They know skills and also have zombie immunity. Their men have guns." Da Dong knew about that.

“Right, they have skills and are really strong, we aren’t their match.” Brother Pan said and closed his eyes. Smoke wrapped around him and made him look a little fake in front of Da Dong’s eyes.

“The base is in danger, if there are problems, they have the highest chance of surviving right?”

“En.”

“Most crystals are controlled in their hands. If the base noticed anything good, they would get it first. We can only eat what remains right?”

“This...”

“On the Black Spine Mountain, there is a wheel that is guarded by zombies and monsters with immunity potions and skill cards. The base is planning to head over.”

“I heard. Some people saw and even took photos of that place.”

“Chef Jin really likes women especially those with husbands right?”

“That is true.”

“If we give her to Chef Jin, he would be happy right? This woman is mature and beautiful. So when the base gets the gachapon, even if Chef Jin doesn’t give us the skill card, he could give us two immunity potions right? Once we are not afraid of being infected, we can go anywhere! Did you think about what we can get with that?”

Da Dong’s eyes lit up as he heard that. When Brother Pan was done, he stood up and it was as if his whole body was shining.

“Damn, your words resonate so much with me. That is settled, let’s go kidnap that woman!”

Chapter 132: Li Qiang

The east district was a relatively cleaner and more stable district in the new base, it formed a stark contrast to the chaotic north district.

The reason was that most of the evolved of the base stayed here.

But people who were familiar with the place knew that it was filled with the blood of normal people.

When Jia Ming brought Ye Zhongming over, it was already 3-4 pm. Before this, Ye Zhongming walked around the base to understand the structures as well as the guard situation.

Due to the gun unit, this place didn’t lack guns. The guards had a gun each and their ammo looked sufficient.

That alone meant that Ye Zhongming didn't dare to make a move recklessly. He was just a one star evolved. Before he was four star, normal guns could kill evolved. If he faced a squad, even four star or five star experts would have to retreat.

Only six star evolved would be resistant to the focus fire effects of the gun but they weren't totally immune. If they were targeted for a long time they would still be killed.

The east region had more guards than the other areas. The two of them bumped into three patrolling groups along the way and Jia Ming had to spend 500 grams of minced meat to get through.

"That person is called Li Qiang, he isn't evolved but he was a national shooting member. He got a gun in the apocalypse and even evolved didn't dare to get close to him. He is quite famous in the east district and has many men under him. He is not evolved but his firepower is really strong."

"I heard that his trading condition might be an evolution potion."

Jia Ming looked at Ye Zhongming's face and continued after he didn't see any expression, "Many people are interested in his recipe like the two leaders of the base, Director Wang and Chef Jin but I heard that Li Qiong's price is too high which was why the talks haven't succeeded."

"Why don't they fight for it?" Ye Zhongming asked. He saw that Jia Ming was a little stunned and then he continued, "Why don't Director Wang and Chef Jin snatch it? Li Qiang should be weaker than them right?"

Jia Ming hesitated, "Li Qiang is not weak and has over 200 men with 100 guns. They are one of the strongest private forces in the base. Moreover, Director Wang and Chef Jin are probably not... So united. They control a lot of people but in terms of actual soldiers, they don't have much more than Li Qiang. Whoever attacks Li Qiang might get swallowed up by the other."

"How do you know that?" Ye Zhongming smiled and asked.

"I, that, guess it." Jia Ming scratched his head and felt a little embarrassed.

Ye Zhongming didn't continue asking. The situation in the base wasn't too complicated. At least Ye Zhongming had seen such things in the past and it was just a matter of balance. Li Qiang found many guns from someplace and he was strong. He had good things in his hands but it wasn't so well such that Director Wang and Chef Jin would risk everything for them. So none of them chose to attack, at least they wouldn't attack because of a recipe."

Of course, this was only the case when their evolution levels were low. Once they were strong enough to kill Li Qiang, they wouldn't hesitate to do so.

Ocean Community was naturally not as famous as the government district that Director Wang and Chef Jin were, it was just a place with slightly better conditions. Ye Zhongming and Jia Ming noticed that there were people on guard, they held guns as they patrolled and there were even people cleaning up the area.

What shocked Ye Zhongming was that there was a long line at the entrance.

“Li Qiang is probably the only faction leader recruiting normal people in the new base. People who do normal work here would be able to exchange for food and drinks. Although it is tough to get chosen but at least there is some hope. This is why Li Qiang’s reputation in the base, especially in the east is really good. This is also one of the reasons why Director Wang and Chef Jin didn’t attack him.”

Jia Ming explained to Ye Zhongming. He had a complicated gaze in his eyes as he looked at those queueing, he might have queued in the past.

He told Ye Zhongming to wait before he went over to talk to the guards. His voice wasn’t loud but Ye Zhongming was able to hear it. The guard looked at Ye Zhongming and nodded before asking two guys to search his body. After he didn’t find anything, he released them, asking one of them to lead them into a villa.

Ye Zhongming paid attention to the environment just in case. This was already an instinct of his.

The defence of the villa was much stricter. Just one look and Ye Zhongming knew that the person was military trained. Li Qiang probably had capable men under him which was why he was able to survive even without being an evolved.

After he entered the villa, he saw a guy sitting on the sofa. He was holding a bottle of water and looking at them while the others stood at the side.

“Boss Li, we came...”

“I know.”

Li Qiang tossed the mineral water onto the table and interrupted Jia Ming’s words.

“What else can you be here for, it obviously is for that recipe. Let’s be direct, as long as you can pay, you can take it.”

“I need to take a look first.” Ye Zhongming didn’t say any nonsense and said out his request.

Li Qiang signaled and someone brought a computer over. Ye Zhongming squinted and saw there was a thick layer of skin at his joint. That was not left from hard work but from shooting regularly.

For there to be such a thick scab meant that he touched guns more times than even many special forces troops.

Ye Zhongming concluded that this person was extremely dangerous if you let him get his hands on a gun.

There was a short video on the computer and it recorded details of the scroll. Ye Zhongming took a look and he had a weird expression.

“Boss Li, state your price.” Ye Zhongming pushed the laptop to the side and looked at Li Qiang.

"I am a little unfamiliar, I didn't know that there was such a person in the base?" Li Qiang had been observing Ye Zhongming. He didn't say his price and just asked about this problem.

"I just entered."

Li Qiang looked at him and a few seconds later, he said, "Five one star evolution potions."

Ye Zhongming shook his head, "No wonder you are unable to sell it, it is unreasonably high."

"That is because my item is good!"

"If it is really good then why don't you learn it yourself?"

Li Qiang's expression changed and his men looked at Ye Zhongming with an unfriendly expression.

Ye Zhongming wasn't afraid at all and said calmly, "The recipe is too strict and you can't get the materials which are why you can only sell it right?"

Li Qiang scoffed, "If you can't afford it then scram."

Ye Zhongming squinted his eyes, "How about this, 100 level one crystals, what do you think?"

"Are you joking?" Li Qiang stood up and waved at his men. The meaning of which was extremely obvious.

"You control a wheel right?" Ye Zhongming didn't care about the soldiers that were walking up to Jia Ming and him. He shouted at Li Qiang who was walking towards the second floor.

"So what?" He turned around.

Ye Zhongming took out a handful of crystals and tossed them to Li Qiang, "These crystals should be enough for me to spin the wheel."

Chapter 133: New gun

The new base had three gachapons. Apart from level two wheels, Li Qiang controlled one of the level one wheels.

His recipe should have been from that wheel.

As for the reason why Chef Jin and Director Wang would allow him to control one, it was because after he had gotten the recipe, the wheel was no different from other level one wheels which were why it was not worth them clashing.

But for Ye Zhongming, this was perfect. He had the Beginner Elimination Technique so the more basic the wheel was, the higher the chance of getting an evolution potion.

Li Qiang thought about it before agreeing. Although he had guns but he didn't use them when he went out to hunt. He had a limited amount of bullets and they would run out. He had to leave some to defend against Director Wang and Chef Jin. He had to pay a big price to get more crystals. For him to get some by doing nothing was a proposition that he had no reason to reject.

Moreover, apart from getting the recipe, his luck was really bad and he didn't even get a single evolution potion. He was delighted as these crystals were enough for him to try his luck again.

He brought Ye Zhongming and Jia Ming to a next-door building. In the elevator that had stopped working was a standing wheel that lit up the area around it.

Li Qiang and his four men stepped back and freed up space around the wheel.

Jia Ming was excited and nervous. In the past, he could only look at the wheels from far away and this was the first time he came into contact with this magical thing.

Ye Zhongming took a look. The best recipe on the wheel had been obtained so he needed just six crystals to spin it. Apart from the one star evolution potion, there was nothing else that interested him.

Everyone looked as Ye Zhongming started to spin.

He had accumulated over a hundred level one crystals so that was enough for 20 spins. After using the Elimination Technique, the wheel flashed and spun. Rewards started to drop out one after another.

Everyone including Li Qiang was shocked. This was the first time they saw someone spin the wheel so many times consecutively.

Ye Zhongming was quite lucky today. 20 spins and he got 3 level one potions. On average, he got one potion every seven times.

A subordinate tugged Li Qiang's collar as he looked at Ye Zhongming's direction. Li Qiang hesitated. He thought about it but shook his head.

Although Li Qiang was not evolved but due to his background as a professional athlete, his foresight was vicious and accurate. He could sense some danger from this guy's body. He was not sure what would happen if they ended up clashing.

There was also another reason why he didn't attack. The twin guns that he was famous for were at the sides of his legs which meant that he could attack at any moment. But that young man would hide behind his partner to prevent him from shooting. Li Qiang had been trying to find a chance to attack since the first potion dropped out but he didn't get a chance. This made him realise that the guy was prepared and was defending against him. If he attacked and didn't hit him, then the outcome would be catastrophic.

Li Qiang was sure that even if Ye Zhongming was killed by his men, if anything happened to himself, that would be pointless.

He didn't attack as he didn't have absolute confidence.

When Ye Zhongming turned around and smiled at Li Qiang, that smile sent a chill down his spine. He was certain that the guy knew what his men and he were planning to do. He was prepared!

Ye Zhongming walked beside him and this caused Li Qiang's men to raise their guns nervously.

He had three bottles of evolution potions. The temptation caused Li Qiang to swallow his saliva.

Although it wasn't the five that he requested, but when the potions were right in front of him, he was still tempted.

He was actually very clear about the dangers that he was in. If he wasn't evolved, he couldn't continue his potion in the base. Thus, he reached out to the three potions.

Right, he agreed. These three potions were enough to trade.

But Ye Zhongming retracted his hand, taking two of the three bottles back.

"What do you mean?" Li Qiang stared at Ye Zhongming in annoyance.

"Nothing, I can only give you one bottle." Ye Zhongming looked at Li Qiang who was about to explode, he didn't give him a chance to speak, "And another good gun."

Good gun?

Li Qiang was a gun user and was obsessed with guns. When he heard gun, he was tempted.

But he realised that this fellow was lying to him so he laughed coldly, "What gun have I not seen before, good gun? Do you have a Barrett?"

"There are many things you haven't seen so don't be so confident." Ye Zhongming swept his hand across his waist and the gun that he had strengthened was taken out from the space crystal.

Li Qiang and the others were shocked. These two were searched before they came in so how did they even bring a gun in? This caused them to break out in cold sweat. If that person attacked, then...

But Li Qiang was immediately attracted by that gun.

The weird looking gun actually gave off a dim light.

Ye Zhongming placed a normal bullet in and then passed it to Li Qiang, "Test it out."

Li Qiang took the gun and fired toward a target.

After he fired, this professional shooter couldn't hide the shock on his face.

This gun was so powerful!

Li Qiang was certain that he had never seen a gun that was this strong in his dozens of years in this world. The bullet was the most basic bullet which meant that the reason for its strength was the gun.

"One potion and this gun. If you think that it is okay then let's trade, if not forget it."

"Trade!"

Li Qiang didn't hesitate. He grabbed the gun and potion tightly, afraid that Ye Zhongming would regret it.

Half a minute later, Li Qiang passed the hidden scroll to Ye Zhongming. Both sides were wary but they still managed to complete the trade.

Ye Zhongming couldn't control his smile when he got out of the east district.

The scroll had the name of the recipe on it: Beginner Puppet Skill.

Chapter 134: Beginner Puppet Skill

Comparing the evolution potion and the gun that Ye Zhongming modified, the potion was of less value. After all, it was easier to get while crafted items were in low supply.

If it was some other recipe, Ye Zhongming would rather pay more potions than use his modified gun.

But he was tempted the moment he saw the recipe and decided that it was worth a grey pistol.

The Beginner Puppet Skill was different from other recipes.

Strictly speaking, recipes were split into two, one was job recipes which were complementary with jobs. For example, the Warblade Moon Sand that Ye Zhongming got. The Long Distance Potion in Ye Zhongming's space crystal was also another one.

There was another type that didn't have any job demands and just needed materials. Anyone would be able to craft these as long as they satisfied the recipe demands.

This Beginner Puppet Technique was the latter.

Although the user requirements for this recipe were low, but the requirements of the material were really high. The required material value was often many times that of job recipes.

Using this Beginner Puppet Skill as an example, it required: 1. Near dead person. 2. 3000ml of zombie virus. 3. Blood Pond (250 kilogram of mutated animal blood). 5. Five demon crystals (2 star and above). 5. One one star potion.

Anyone would have a headache seeing such conditions in the current state. No wonder be it Li Qiang, Director Wang, or Chef Jin, none of them were interested in this recipe.

Just the five-level two crystals alone was something that normal one star evolved fear.

This was just the requirements of the iron zombie. If one wanted to create the higher level copper zombie puppet, it would need much more and rarer materials.

Ye Zhongming had heard of such a thing in his last life and even saw a silver zombie that was so strong that it sent chills down his spine when he was six star.

This was a reason why he wanted to use the modified gun to trade for it.

Although the requirements were strict but Ye Zhongming felt like he could do it.

He crushed the recipe and he felt that the strong puppet was already waving towards him.

.....

Ye Zhongming directly modified the potion after he returned and let Le Dayuan drink it. He was so touched that he actually cried. That was not surprising. He had been through hell at the factory which was why he craved power and strength. Now that someone was able to satisfy his wishes, it obviously made him emotional.

Jia Ming and Da Ming were really envious. They noticed that evolution potions that seemed difficult to obtain to others were something like a box of cigarettes in a shop to Ye Zhongming. He just had to walk into the shop to get it.

At the same time, they had a thought. If they could join this team, then...

The two of them looked toward Ye Zhongming with fervent gazes.

The dinner was really delicious. Ye Zhongming used Nurture on the white cabbage once more and they grew much taller. Although they were still really small, but the sweet taste of the cabbage in the soup was something that delighted everyone. Even Ye Zhongming ate more than usual.

During the night, when the base was in total darkness, Ye Zhongming could see a bright light in the east. The other regions only had a few small campfires.

The survivors all went to sleep early to save on energy. Under the situation of them not having enough food, they were able to hold out for longer.

Occasionally, one could hear some gunshots, some were even really intense. Those were the guards killing the mutated beings that were attacking the tunnel. But the people were used to this. As long as it didn't spread to the surface then it had nothing to do with them.

Ye Zhongming sat quietly and closed his eyes. He was planning to head to the level two gachapon. If he had the chance, he planned to try for the two star potion.

Qin Yu was a little nervous. He didn't know why Chef Jin would find him. He stood outside his door and rubbed his hands. The injuries on his body weren't painful anymore.

He thought back to his wife that came back and he sucked in a deep breath before knocking on the door.

"Come in."

A very merciful voice spread out from within. Qin Yu knew that this was Chef Jin's signature voice.

He pushed the door open and saw a white and fat guy sitting on a leather chair and smiling at him. He walked over and bowed, "Mr Jin."

"Hahaha what Mister, I am just a chef, just call me Chef Jin."

That fatty laughed. The fan caused the wind around him to whistle.

A lamp was lit beside him. In the entire base, only Director Wang and Chef Jin had the right to enjoy the light from generators.

"Mr. Jin, you, you called me over..." Qin Yu was really nervous, he was even more nervous than before when he met the governor. After all, the governor only affected his future but this fatty could take his life.

"I have heard of Secretary Qin's name. What a waste, he didn't manage to survive the zombie wave. What a waste." Chef Jin touched his short hair and exclaimed. But one couldn't see any sadness on that face.

Qin Yu smiled and didn't know how to continue.

"Little Qin, I heard that your wife came to the base to find you?" His tone changed and he talked about Xia Lei, "A woman that is able to cross the city filled with zombies to find you here, what a talent."

Qin Yu was stunned and he didn't know how Chef Jin found out about this news.

“I have also looked up to that famous cop for a long time. Little Qin, when can you bring her for me to take a look? We can get to know one another and get closer.”

Qin Yu had a bad feeling in his heart.

Since he evolved, Chef Jin hadn't talked to someone in such a manner. He was a little annoyed with it and he said, “Let me be obvious, I like your wife. When can you arrange for us to meet?”

No matter how stupid Qin Yu was, he knew what Chef Jin meant. He was so shocked that the color on his face was all lost.

This fatty was interested in Xia Lei?!

Chapter 135: Level two wheel

When the world lost all its order, humans lost their morals at values at a far quicker rate.

Qin Yu didn't think that there would be a day when a person would openly ask him to give up his wife.

At that moment, Qin Yu had the urge to charge forwards and crush his thick neck.

But he was an evolved which crushed his courage.

“If, if there is nothing then Mr Jin, I will, I will make my leave.”

Qin Yu could only express his view like this, he didn't even dare to reject him straight up.

“Get your ass back here!”

Chef Jin's merciful voice was gone and what replaced it was a cold roar.

Pa!

A bunch of photos were tossed out by Chef Jin that scattered all over the floor. Qin Yu lowered his head. It was actually photos of Xia Lei after they met up!

“I don't like to force people as that is not interesting at all. If not I wouldn't go through you and just find her myself. So I will give you a choice, either I will have a go of her right in front of you and then send both of you to your deaths. Or, you can convince her to spend a few nights with me, and I will give you... An evolution potion.”

Qin Yu's trembling body stopped. A while later, he looked towards Chef Jin with red eyes as well as the translucent potion that he tossed on the table like trash.

Evolution potion, one star potion. The potion would give one huge strength once injected. If one got it, one would have power and status!

Qin Yu had dreams that he could get such a potion one day but he had no way to get it. He was even willing to wash clothes and cook for an evolved to get the potion.

Now that a potion was placed right in front of him, he just needed to nod his head to get it. That tempted him.

But he knew what the price to pay for this was. It concerned many things. Pride, character, courage, even his soul...

"Dozens of people in the base would die every day to get the potion, sometimes hundreds would die. But even if they died, they won't get this thing." Chef Jin's voice was like a tempting demon that sent Qin Yu into a trance, "Do you know how many evolved are there in the base? There are just over ten of them. You can see clearly what kind of power they have and what kind of life they are enjoying."

"As long as you can convince your wife, you will become a supreme evolved. Your words will be law in this base. You will have food, weapon, women and everything you want. In the future, you can even evolve to a much higher level."

"Can you imagine what you will get at that time?" Chef Jin continued, "Maybe you have worries like morals but this is the apocalypse. Husband and wives are birds in the same forest so why are you even hesitating? Morals are useless in the apocalypse, it is not worth anything at all!"

"Isn't it just a woman? After you evolve what kind of women would you not have? Moreover, I just want her for a few nights. If she really loves you and thinks for you, she would agree, right? At most, after you evolve you can compensate her. What do you think?"

"It is still the same thing, if you agree, it is good for all of us and you get the most. If you don't then it will only be bad for you. You will lose the most too."

Qin Yu's body started to shake and his eyes felt sour but no tears flowed out. He wanted to turn and leave but his hands moved towards the table. His soul also moved towards the depths.

"After it is done, this is yours. Not now." Chef Jin grabbed the potion as he looked at the vicious-looking Qin Yu.

.....

When Ye Zhongming walked out of the building, no one noticed him.

He hid himself in the darkness. This was one of the rules of the apocalypse.

Based on the news that he got and the geography that he memorised, even in Darkness, Ye Zhongming was able to find the building where the level two gachapon was at.

Looking up from below, the level two gachapon shone brighter than the level one wheel and it was more apparent in the night sky.

The roof wasn't guarded but there were sentries below. Most of them were chatting but none of them were asleep.

Ye Zhongming looked at the time. It was just past midnight so he decided to wait until they were sleepy.

He wasn't afraid of them stopping him as he had many ways to get to the roof. But the light from spinning the wheel was too obvious. If possible, he didn't want to get noticed.

Time passed as he waited patiently. After an hour, those guards fell asleep.

The level two wheel was not as strictly guarded by the guards. After all, no one had the ability to spin such a wheel so there was no point in guarding it. But after all, people didn't understand the wheel that much which was why they guarded it just in case.

Ye Zhongming passed the guards and entered the building and reached the roof. The level two wheel appeared right in front of him.

This was the first time Ye Zhongming saw a level two wheel.

On the shining surface were ten areas. Ye Zhongming took a look and was slightly disappointed. There weren't lucky cards, without them then there weren't any skills. There weren't any scrolls or recipes too.

Six holes which was the amount of crystals needed. This meant that this was an average wheel.

Level two evolution potion... Immunity potion... Grey gauntlet...

Ye Zhongming looked at the valuable things on the wheel and suddenly he looked at the bottom left. A white stone was there. Due to the white light that the wheel gave off, Ye Zhongming didn't spot it right away.

His heart jumped.

He recognised it, it was a Stat Stone.

A stone that could be chiseled onto weapons and give it stats. This made his heart jump. It was not because of this but because of another function!

Chapter 136: Stat Stone

This thing could be eaten.

Speaking of which, the fact that the Stat Stone could be eaten was something that was figured out by total accident in his last life.

A soldier fought using a weapon with a Stat Stone. As it was too intense, the weapon was destroyed and the stone shattered, dropping onto the battlefield

A survivor who was about to starve to death couldn't find any food and it treated the small shattered Stat Stone as food. Who knew that he would actually survive and his body changed?

He became much stronger.

The stat he got was based on what stats the Stat Stone he ate had.

This news slowly spread to the world. Not only could the Stat Stone raise weapon stats, but after eating it, it allowed the human to have abilities related to the stone itself.

In the last life, this finding shocked the world. The prices were stable in the beginning and only smiths used it. But now its prices soared. Until Ye Zhongming's rebirth, the price had reached an unbelievable level, even a six star expert like Ye Zhongming couldn't afford it.

But now, the other use of this stone had not been found. If things proceeded as planned, it would be useless for another 4-5 years and people wouldn't know the true value of it.

Ye Zhongming felt more excited the more he thought about it. He felt like this was a chance for him. He could make use of this opportunity to stock up on Stat Stones.

Of course, that was just an idea. After all, even before people found out about its use, the price of a Stat Stone wasn't too low and there weren't many of them. Although the wheels dropped but the chance of bumping into one was low. Whether or not they could get one depended on luck.

The stat stone was really strong but it was restrictive and it depended on evolution.

After this body-strengthening effect was found, people started to study the stone. Survivors then found that the Stat Stones had different levels which had to do with the gachapons that you got them from.

This meant that all gachapon wheels dropped Stat Stones, the difference was that the level one wheel dropped a level one stone and the level nine one dropped a level nine stone with level nine stats.

The stones were useful for all humans but definitely, it was the most useful for normal people as they hadn't evolved yet and all their stats were relatively low. Once one aspect was increased, it would be very apparent. As for their use on evolved, survivors realised that the effect was based on a negative one theorem.

The level of the stat stone deducting the current evolved's star level, if it is not negative then the stat stone would be useful and the bigger the number, the bigger the effect of the stone.

For example, if a level one evolved ate the stone from a level one wheel, the result would be zero so the stone would still be useful. If a level two evolved ate it, the stone would not have an effect. Another example would be that if a level one evolved ate a stone from a level two wheel, the outcome is positive one so the effect he got would be much better than if he ate a level one stat stone.

This theory wasn't too difficult to understand and it was relevant in many other areas just that it was most apparent to describe the effect of the stat stone.

But although it was like that in theory, for example, if a level one evolved ate a level nine stone he would have the largest effect, but it was not like that in truth as it affected the balance of their body.

Think about it, if a one star evolved had the strength of a nine star evolved on one aspect, for example, getting a nine star evolved's strength, could he really use it? The toughness of his bone, firmness of his skin, and reaction of his brain would not be able to keep up. If he had that kind of strength, there would only be one outcome-- Death.

So normally speaking, people won't eat a stat stone that was two levels above his current level as it would be a waste and it was also really dangerous.

Apart from that, consumption also had some restrictions. Same stat stones could only be eaten once. If an evolved ate one that added speed, then even if he found a better stone in the future, he couldn't use anything else that added speed.

This also stopped the possibility of people using infinite stones to strengthen themselves.

Thoughts flashed across his mind regarding the stones which made him smile. He was one star evolved now and could at most use a three star stone. This level two wheel stone was also decent for him. One had to say that he was quite lucky.

On this wheel, the most valuable thing was the potion, after which was this unassuming stat stone. With the number of crystals he had, he could spin seven times. But as he had to make the puppet, he needed to keep at least five crystals so he could at most spin six times. If he got one of the two during those six tries then it would be really lucky.

He suppressed his nervousness and looked around warily. After noticing that there was nothing suspicious, he took out the level two crystals that he got from Gu Pan and started to spin.

With the energy, the level two wheel started to buzz and started its first spin since descending.

Ye Zhongming stared at it and hoped to get the potion or the stat stone.

Unfortunately, even with the Elimination Technique, the needle landed on a useless bucket of oil.

He pouted and he continued...

In the night sky, the level two wheel started to shine.

In the east district water tunnel, two people headed up. If Ye Zhongming was here, he would realise that these two were the ones that dragged that woman away, Yue Chao and Yang Shilong.

"Damn, that girl was so weak, I didn't have enough and she died, waste our effort to have to head out late at night to throw her body."

Yang Shilong slapped off the dirt on his shirt and was unhappy.

"No choice, the weather isn't cold now. If we tossed it in the base it might spread diseases and the spell might be so bad. If we toss it over the walls the zombies might go mad so we have no choice."

Yang Shilong agreed, he was just complaining about it. He scratched his lower body and wanted to suggest finding another person to have fun with. But the moment he was about to say that, his gaze was attracted by the light in the nearby building. He was stunned for five seconds before reacting. Thus one could hear his shouts ringing across the base.

"Someone is spinning the level two wheel!"

Chapter 137: Night of chaos

Xia Lei sat beside her bed and looked at the dark sky. The pitch-black surroundings were like her emotions.

She had never imagined that the guy that she tried so hard to find and spent so much effort to get to actually raised such a request.

Sleep with someone?

Xia Lei felt that all her hopes were crushed by those words.

Qin Yu sat by her side and looked at his cold wife. He was filled with regret.

Although his family was really famous, but he was the passive side in the marriage.

He was attracted by her beauty and aura when they first met. He used his family's status to design meetings for the two of them. He then made friends with those around Xia Lei and launched attack after attack.

Although his father wasn't very happy with her background but she was still very famous in the police force and she was someone that the force advertised. She was really reputable in the end which was why he didn't object.

Girls loved it when guys spent a lot of effort on them. Moreover, Qin Yu showed his best side. His knowledge, looks, work, all of them were above average. She slowly fell for him and became his girlfriend and then his wife.

Although he noticed some of his flaws like how he always relied on his father and he didn't have a view of his own, but she made her own choice. Qin Yu was also a little afraid of his wife who had claimed the lives of many thieves and criminals which was why he always listened to her words. This also made her satisfied with her identity.

What Xia Lei didn't expect was that when the apocalypse arrived, the husband and wife that should rely on one another ended up being the first person to betray her.

Qin Yu wanted to apologise but when he thought about the identity of an evolved, about the evolution potion that he thought about every day, the words that left his mouth ended up being him begging her.

"Ah Lei, I know that I am wrong here but you see the situation outside. If we aren't evolved then it is really tough, we will have no food and no water. In the end, either we die from hunger, or..." Qin Yu licked his lips and tried to find a reason for himself, "The outcome is the same, you, have to give up your... Give up something to survive. Since that is the case, why not... Jin... Mr Jin is really sincere and he can let me evolve. I think that it is worth it."

He saw her cold gaze and he didn't dare to look right into her eyes. He lowered his head and continued, "I promise that after I evolve, I would treat you much better. I won't look down on you, despise you. I will forget about what happened today and then we can have a good life. I will help you evolve, at that time we..."

"Look down on me?"

Xia Lei interrupted him before he finished.

"Look down on me?" She stood up and walked beside Qin Yu who was around the same height as her. She stared at the face that she thought was quite handsome in the past but was really disgusting now, "What rights do you have to look down on me?! Who gave you the right to do that!"

Her voice got louder and louder, the last sentence was actually shouted out.

Only that could help her vent the rage and humiliation that she felt.

She could accept her man being weak and timid. She could allow her man for panicking and being irresponsible, for him to not work hard and be useless, but she couldn't allow her husband to betray her.

Xia Lei felt like she was blind. She didn't understand how she fell for such a shameless person!

"You are asking me, your wife, to sleep with another guy and then you tell me that you won't look down on me? How are you even saying such words?"

She cursed many times. She was not a gentle and weak girl but a cop that used guns and knives to kill! She definitely had rage and violence in her personality. Even when she was moved to a clerical job, even if she hadn't killed for a long time, but that didn't hide the fact that she was a law enforcer!

The aura that she gave off when she was angry caused Qin Yu to take a few steps back. He looked aside and didn't say a word.

"Coward! Trash! Rubbish!"

Xia Lei shouted out words that allowed her to vent to try to make herself feel better. But even then, she still felt wronged and tears flowed out.

No matter how strong she was, she was still a woman. In her heart, she relied on her guy.

But her husband's actions froze her heart.

She turned around and picked up her bag to leave. Qin Yu was anxious and pulled her, "Ah Lei, where are you going?"

"Anywhere is good, better than being beside you. You disgust me."

"You can't leave!"

"Don't go and allow you to send me to that Mr Jin? Scram!"

Xia Lei twisted the elbow of the hand that was on her. She wanted to teach him a lesson but she couldn't bring herself to and just pushed her to the side.

She only wanted to leave, leave this despicable guy and go anywhere.

But before she touched the handle, the door opened itself. At the door was a 150 kilogram fatty that was looking at her with a perverted gaze.

"Qin Yu, seems like your words are not useful. I have to do so myself in the end."

Qin Yu's expression changed when he saw the person at the door. He stammered and couldn't complete a full sentence, "Jin, Mr Jin..."

Xia Lei understood right away. This was the person that wanted to sleep with her. She could finally vent her rage. She twisted and kicked his neck.

If normal people faced that kick, it would be amazing if they could raise their hand to block. After all, Xia Lei was professionally trained and she was an outstanding cop. That kick was both fast and attacked at perfect timing.

But she was facing an evolved. To an evolved, the kick looked good and beautiful too but it was too soft, it was also... Too slow.

Chef Jin casually reached out to grab her ankle. He laughed, "I like your style!"

Xia Lei was held onto but she punched his eye. Her reaction was quick and her movement was fluid such that even Chef Jin was shocked.

But he was evolved. Right when that fist was about to hit his face, he retracted his neck and his head sunk down. The fist that was about to hit his eye smashed into the oily forehead.

The pain made Xia Lei cry out. That hand started to go numb and she lost some feeling in that arm.

Chef Jin tossed her ankle and threw her right onto the bed.

"Since you won't do it nicely then I shall change my taste, let me force you!" Chef Jin squeezed through the door and he stared at the sexy Xia Lei like he was staring at a delicious steak on a plate.

Qin Yu jumped beside Xia Lei and shouted at Chef Jin, "Mr Jin, come over. I will hold her down. Don't, don't forget the evolution potion you promised me."

Chef Jin and Xia Lei were both stunned but after a short moment, their expressions were totally different. Chef Jin laughed and was about to tear up from laughing. Xia Lei was laughing and she also did tear up. But her tears were from the death of her heart.

This guy was actually so shameless.

Xia Lei got up and knocked Qin Yu aside. This female cop ripped open her bag and grabbed a potion.

"You want this? This right!" Xia Lei roared, "You betrayed your own woman to sleep with this fatty for this? Open your eyes, is it this?"

The sudden change stunned both Chef Jin and Qin Yu. When they saw the potion, their expressions changed.

Chef Jin was confused. He didn't understand how the wife of such a trash had an evolution potion? The weird thing was that Qin Yu didn't know. What were these two doing?

Qin Yu was first delighted but then his expression was dead as ash.

He was filled with regret. He thought back to Xia Lei telling him that she had a gift for him when they just met! He saw her red cheeks and thought that she wanted to sleep with him at night. But thinking about it now, she was referring to the potion.

But he... Didn't even think about that. He even betrayed his wife for this thing.

Qin Yu was filled with regret but he knew that things were irreversible. What he did totally destroyed the chance of her giving the potion to him.

Thinking about how he could have gotten the item that he dreamt of but now it was all gone, his heart was filled with an unwillingness to accept it all

He started to shout at Xia Lei. His face which was swollen from being hit had totally deformed due to his shouting.

“You bitch, you had the potion so why didn’t you say it? Why didn’t you? You didn’t want to give it to me right? Then why did you take it out? Did you even treat me as your husband? You ordered me around in the past and now you want to hide a potion from me? I was wrong about you! You, you, you bitch!”

Xia Lei laughed. She had nothing to say to this shameless guy, “You are really hopeless.”

She stabbed the potion into her arm. Although her heart broke, but she was mentally tough. She knew that if she didn’t evolve, she wouldn’t be able to escape.

Chef Jin saw that she was about to use the potion so he definitely wouldn’t allow her to.

When she took it out, he knew that he was really lucky. Not only was he going to get a beautiful woman, but he would also get a potion for free. Such a thing was not an everyday occurrence.

His huge body was really quick and in just a blink he was by her side. He grabbed the potion. He was confident that even if she dodged, he could restrict her in a few seconds.

But at that moment, there was a loud shout from outside.

“Someone is spinning the level two wheel!”

That sentence was like thunder that shocked Chef Jin.

Someone was spinning the level two wheel?!

Two star potion, two star evolved, more strength, danger, control of base... Such thoughts entered his mind. He realised that this was huge!

Compared to that, this was a small matter!

He roared and smashed into the window nearby. After landing, his usually smiling face shouted.

“Gather! All of you gather! Go to the level two wheel! All guards head over there! Grab whoever is spinning the wheel!”

The entire base was awakened by the furious shouts. The voice was like thunder that shook the entire base.

Ye Zhongming naturally heard those shouts. He cursed and knew that he wasn’t too lucky as he got found. But he didn’t move. His gaze was firm. He had to spin it all.

If he left now, he believed that there was just a small chance of being noticed. But he knew that after he missed this chance, the place would be tightly guarded. Unless he controlled the entire base, if not it would be impossible to spin again.

He used the Elimination Technique and the wheel continued to spin. The light also continued to flicker which caused Director Wang and Chef Jin who were rushing over to be very nervous.

They were clear that a really strong person had come to the base. If he got the two-star potion, even if they could kill that person, they would have to pay a huge price.

“Ding!”

Ye Zhongming’s eyes lit up. He grabbed the reward, it was a white stone.

He finally got the Stat Stone.

Dense footsteps could be heard from the stairs. A lamp opened near the ‘wall’ close to the area which shone over to this side. Ye Zhongming could even hear the sound of guns being armed.

But he had one more chance.

“Don’t move!”

The first person to charge held up a gun. Ye Zhongming also placed the final crystal on it.

The wheel started to spin...

Chapter 138: Two star potion

The needle passed over many rewards and started to slow down. It actually looked like it was spinning towards the two star potion.

Ye Zhongming even heard his heart beating quickly.

A shooter appeared from the stairs and he was also attracted by the needle. Although his gun was pointed at Ye Zhongming but his eyes chased the needle.

Chef Jin and Director Wang charged out from the entrance and behind them were their loyal evolved. On the walls and buildings around, torches and light etc tools were all facing over to this direction.

At this moment, everyone in the base that could see this location focused their eyes on the level two wheel which was something not attainable for them.

Ding!

A loud reward sound rang out and that caused the eyes of everyone to light up.

Ye Zhongming reached out to the reward box and grabbed the item inside.

“Two star potion!”

Yang Shilong saw an unbelievable thing and he shouted. As he was excited, his voice even went off pitch and became really screechy.

Evolved was a very common phrase in the new district base. That was because in a place where there were zombies and mutated life forms all around, that represented surviving and surviving better.

After witnessing the powers that evolved had, all survivors wanted to become evolved. It became a firm will. That will would become even more crazy as the apocalypse developed.

As for those who had already evolved, they would become addicted to the power that surged from their bodies. They tasted the benefits that the power brought them and thus they craved it more than others.

When the two star potion appeared, their eyes turned red. They only had one thought-- Snatch!

“Kill him!”

Chef Jin and Director Wang said that at the same time. The soldiers around also pulled the trigger.

A metal storm swept the building at that moment.

Ye Zhongming was excited like the rest but he had seen such things before which was why he didn't delay at all. He grabbed it and then jumped behind the wheel.

This made him come to the edge of the building before the gunshots fired.

The wheel wouldn't get damaged. At least nothing could in his past life so naturally these bullets wouldn't do much.

But Ye Zhongming knew that he was in some danger. Those soldiers would find other angles to shoot so he had to deal with them.

Thus, he jumped right down.

Chef Jin and Director Wang had guns. They looked down and it was pitch black. But with their vision, they could see that the person didn't drop down. They realised that the person had used a certain method to enter the building.

“Search, search! We have to find him!”

Their faces weren't good. Their excitement was far less than their fear. They were clear that if that person used the two star potion, their positions in the base would be in danger. Even their lives would be in danger.

Although the rest were crazy about it but if they didn't get it, it would just be a chance lost. But it was different for the two of them. They had to get it, if not no one else could get it.

The entire base was shocked because of the dense gunshots. People came out of their homes and looked toward the gunshots. They were terrified. They didn't know if it was because the base was broken into by zombies or if some riot was starting.

Mo Ye, Liang Chuyin, Park Xiuying, Little Tiger, Le Dayuan etc naturally woke up. They realised that Ye Zhongming was gone and linked the shots to him. They grabbed their weapons and ran down the building, rushing toward the sound of the gunshots.

After Ye Zhongming jumped off, Moon Edge appeared in his hand. He stuck it into the wall and controlled himself. Using an open window to enter the building.

He quickly ran down the stairs. He needed to find a secluded area to modify the two star potion and then use it. As long as he became a two star evolved, everything would be solved.

But this was still the base. Chef Jin and Director Wang had hundreds and thousands of warriors. Even if they couldn't all rush over, but there were at least a few hundred nearby. The moment Ye Zhongming rushed out of the room, he started to bump into the soldiers that gathered there.

The battle was unavoidable.

If it was a wide space, if these soldiers focused the shots, Ye Zhongming would definitely die. But this was a narrow and dark alleyway. As a one star evolved and a strong one at that, he had the advantage. He didn't hold back and started to slice through those who blocked him. Blood splattered all over.

When he killed a dozen of floors worth of people, the soldiers broke down. They used the torchlight to see that they were facing off against a grim reaper. A god of death holding a white blade. Their courage disappeared after seeing ally after ally dying.

At that moment, there was no more justice or glory. It was only slaughter.

If you are strong then you kill others. If you are weak then you are the one that got killed.

This was the apocalypse, there were no rules and only the strong could survive.

When Ye Zhongming charged out, it was just three minutes since he jumped off the roof.

The light on the wall swept his figure and the machine gun didn't hold back.

Ye Zhongming who was killing people like flies was now in a spot.

Fortunately, it was late at night and the spotlight couldn't keep up with his movement. So many times, the gunman was firing blindly. It was difficult for him to hit Ye Zhongming who was moving quickly. But many bullets landed above or below him, causing the shattered cement to hit his body. There was even a bullet that grazed his shoulder and left a bloody wound. If not for his evolution, a piece of meat would have disappeared.

The machine gun shots were far louder than that of rifles. Not now only were the survivors awakened, the zombies were shocked too. They started to roar and shout. Their sounds started to reverberate in the sky.

Chapter 139: Flame ripples

The room was abnormally silent, forming a stark contrast with the noise on the outside.

Qin Yu squatted there while holding his stomach and his eyes were filled with grievances.

He wanted to snatch the potion but his wife who could only move one hand... Or rather ex wife, kicked him aside.

Xia Lei looked at the potion and her mind was filled with the process that it took for her to get it.

That young guy who she always looked down on, whom she felt had a black heart had given it to her.

She did help that guy but her conditions were just to send her to the new base. This potion was totally free.

Xia Lei felt that this matter was really ironic. A guy who had no relationship to her at all, a guy who just traded with her could give her an evolution potion for free. But the guy whom she married, who should be her husband who looks out for her, sold her to some other guy just for a potion.

Things made one so furious when there was a stark comparison.

Xia Lei heard the gunshots and movement outside. She closed her eyes and slowly injected the potion into her body.

Qin Yu stood at the side, his eyes were about to pop out of their sockets.

To him, this potion should be his.

An indescribable feeling started to spread across her body. Her arm was numb was now perfectly fine and it was filled with power. The entire world became clear. Xia Lei could even hear that the people outside were shouting because someone spun the level two gachapon. Moreover, that person was being chased.

The evolution process was fast and stable. When she opened her eyes, she knew that she had become a one star evolved.

Her improved vision allowed her to see the fleeing figure in the night sky. She couldn't help but smile.

In the past, she felt that this guy was bad, he was really cold blooded and even when he was eating he was cold.

But now, she recalled what the guy told her and fully agreed with what he said.

Maybe people were like this. Only after getting taught a lesson would they recall the wise words that others had said.

Qin Yu watched as the potion got injected into her body. He knew that he didn't have a chance. His political acumen made him consider what to do next.

Since the potion was gone, could he get his wife who was now evolved to do things for him?

He stood up while bearing the pain in his stomach. He smiled in what he felt was the most charming way and he called out Xia Lei's name.

In the past when he made her angry, as long as he did this, she would forgive him.

But before he was able to say anything, what he got was a crisp slap.

Xia Lei didn't use any strength but it still caused his swollen face to swell even more.

"From today onwards we have nothing to do with one another. If you talk any more nonsense to me, I will kill you."

Qin Yu held his face and was stunned.

"You, where are you going?"

Seeing his wife walk out, he couldn't help but ask.

Xia Lei smiled coldly, "I suddenly realised that some people are worthier of following than you."

.....

Ye Zhongming hid at the back of a building and calmed himself down.

Even if he was evolved, the intense fighting and high speed running for ten minutes made him feel a lack of stamina.

But he was still being chased,

At least, temporarily he was unable to get free of them.

If both sides started at the same point, Ye Zhongming would have ditched them far away. But this was him deep in enemy lies. He was surrounded by enemies who were armed. Their firepower net crossed and that forced him away before he even got close to any of them.

At this moment, Ye Zhongming thought back to the equipment that could block guns.

Bulletproof Shirt, Ice Shield, Bulletproof Pendant, Space Twisting Ring etc.

If he had any of those items, he could tank those bullets and kill all the enemies.

Or rather, if he had ten minutes, he could spend half the time to modify the two star potion and then use five minutes to evolve.

After all, two star and one star was very much different. The higher level it was, the longer time needed to evolve. When Ye Zhongming evolved to six star, he took a full day.

He tossed these impractical thoughts out of his head and he started to search for a way to break through.

More and more soldiers appeared around him. He had to find a way to break out. If he was surrounded, he would definitely die.

He observed and he chose a direction. He took out a card from his space crystal. While running out, he tossed the card in another direction.

Hell Hound Summoning Card!

He got this from Pearl Lake.

Summoning Card was a very popular card to increase one's strength and it was one of the most liked items. It could instantly increase a survivor's strength. Be it fighting or keeping alive, attack or defence, it was really useful.

Naturally, there were pros and cons but that was based on what the life summoned was.

For example, the most basic summoning card that could summon a golem. Apart from it being slightly stronger, its skin was really thick so it was mainly used for defence. There was a card that could summon mythical beasts like Fire Qilins and Serpents etc, those were the most valuable items in the apocalypse and were worth a lot.

This Hell Hound Card wasn't of a high level and was just a bit better than normal golem cards. The main reason was that Hell Hound was a lowly presence among hell monsters.

But, even a low level hell monster still gave off a terrifying aura.

A two meter tall three meter long giant dog appeared in mid air. It had horns and there was a bone necklace around its neck. Its red fur had layers of flames stuck to it. Its tail was like a whip that wagged in mid air. It swung left and right and sparks were flung all around.

Its red eyes were like boiling magma and only the center of it was black. Inside it was a desire for blood.

The moment it appeared, it raised its head and roared. Its voice was like a tiger and a lion and that suppressed the noise in the base. It stepped forwards and a ring of fire spread from its body, forming flame ripples that represented death!

Chapter 140: Have to die

Hell beings were mostly fire elements. Although the Hell Hound was a weaker one but it also inherited this element.

The flame ripples spread outwards. They didn't look quick but in truth, they were even faster than the speed of humans running.

The soldiers chasing Ye Zhongming were shocked when they saw a monster covered in flames appearing. When they saw it charging at them, they hesitated as they waited for orders and that meant that they lost the chance to escape.

The flame ripples spread past those soldiers that didn't escape. Their bodies lit up. The flames were the terrifying red color like the ones on the body of the hound.

Cries rang out. Those people who were lucky to flee understood the pain that those burnt were feeling.

Those cries didn't last for too long, only a few seconds. No one could last for too long under such flames and they turned into ash, it was as if they didn't exist in this world.

There were originally 200 people who came to stop Ye Zhongming but the flame ripple burnt over 30 right away.

The sudden attack caused many soldiers to retreat in terror. They clearly saw that an evolved wasn't able to dodge and was burnt to death.

Even an evolved couldn't take it so what about them? The group that tried to surround Ye Zhongming spread out because of that.

Ye Zhongming didn't remain here as he knew that the Hell Hound couldn't last for too long. He didn't even bother to see what the effects of the hell hound's flames were. He dashed beside a withering tree and pointed to summon a giant treant that charged mercilessly towards soldiers at the side.

But this wasn't over. Ye Zhongming also pointed at a lamp and a metal monster appeared which charged in another direction.

Ye Zhongming ran while turning stone, metal, trees into summoned monsters to help him block bullets and attract attention.

Ye Zhongming paid little mental energy to summon them, the least required to give life to them. Their durability was around 5 and after being hit by a bullet, they disappeared.

But these monsters still terrified the soldiers nearby. They aimed their guns toward those monsters instead of Ye Zhongming.

He naturally wouldn't give up such a good chance, running out of their encirclement and disappearing into the darkness.

On this side, the hell hound had burnt many people and blocked those chasing Ye Zhongming. Its eyes looked around as if it was looking down on the world.

But the humans' attacks didn't stop. The mental storm gathered on this hound's body. No choice, it was like a lamp in the night sky due to the flames and was more eye catching as compared to the level two wheel. Its body was really huge too so over half of the bullets hit its body.

Although their life forms had much higher defence towards guns than humans, but when it was focused fired by hundreds of guns, the hell hound was still knocked back. One of its horns was even broken and from within there was a red liquid that flowed out from inside.

The hell hound roared in rage and started to pick up speed before jumping right into the crowd.

Even when it was injured, it was far quicker than the humans.

"Kill it, kill it!" Chef Jin and Director Wang were in the crowd. They had different weapons. Chef Jin held a thick rod with a grey glow. Director Wang held a chain that was also a grey weapon.

The two of them chased with the other evolved but bumped into this hound. They realised that the person with the two star potion had disappeared. If they couldn't kill this terrifying monster right away, they would lose the chance to catch him.

Their eyes were red, they led the evolved to battle the hell hound.

If one had to pinpoint the hell hound's level, it was between one star and two star evolved. But because of its flame element, it wouldn't suffer much when it fought a two star evolved.

In terms of strength alone, if either Chef Jin or Director Wang met the hell hound, even if they weren't eaten, they would be forced to flee.

But now that they worked together and had other evolved to help, the other soldiers were able to injure the hound. Under such a situation, they had an advantage.

The Hell Hound charged into the crowd. Like the flame ripple, it caused the humans to dodge and scream. But they slowly realised that as long as they didn't touch its body, those flames wouldn't hurt them.

Thus, they got more and more bold. With evolved blocking in front of them, people would get close to the fire. They attacked the crucial joints and other areas like eyes, ears and stomach. This caused the hound to pay a heavy price. In the end, it was caught off guard and was hit on the head by Chef Jin with the rod.

The hound finally ran out of energy and fell to the ground. It struggled but was unable to get up.

An evolved saw the chance and used its spear made from a steel rod to stab into its eyes, sticking it right into its head.

The Hell Hound's body shook and the flames started to dim. That evolved smiled in glee. Although Director Wang and Chef Jin who had grey weapons were always at the front but it was an honor to get the final hit and he would be able to brag about it.

But he suddenly felt that the atmosphere was off. He glanced and saw people retreating. They were shouting something but he couldn't hear it.

He looked around in terror and then he realised that a flame line had spread beneath his feet and had lit up his body!

Only when it died did he realise that it wasn't that the others weren't making a sound, he was being burnt so badly that he had lost feeling.

Seeing his men die one after another, Director Wang's expression was really bad. The evolved that was burnt to death by the flame ripple was his men, this one was too which reduced his strength. Including himself, his side only had three evolved.

Chef Jin didn't show any more arrogance as he knew that they were facing a common enemy. He looked at Director Wang and nodded as they continued to chase towards where Ye Zhongming fled.

One of them had to die today.
