

Apocalypse 141

Chapter 141: Counter kill

After Ye Zhongming ran out of the east region, he realised that the entire base was in chaos. Many survivors thought that zombies had charged in and were running around like headless chickens. Many people started to rob other people of food and water and even stole crystals. Some even started to set fire and rape women.

Cries, shouts, roars, and various sounds sent the entire base into chaos.

The people he met were nervous and in despair as they ran around without a purpose. Some had torches or phones but they didn't illuminate the area much. Instead, when they were able to see what was going on around them, they felt even more uneasy.

Ye Zhongming slowed down. If he continued to run so quickly, there would be a higher chance of him being found out.

He didn't know how long the hellhound could fend off those hundred soldiers but what he knew was that if he wasn't found out by them then the soldiers wouldn't be able to catch him.

The chaotic crowd was his best cover.

A gunshot sounded out nearby and Ye Zhongming turned his head to see Chef Jin and the others nearby. But they faced the crowd and sunk into the group.

Evolved were used to doing whatever they liked in the base and seeing so many normal people blocking their way, some couldn't help but fire. It was as if they had stabbed a hornet nest, the chaotic scenes turned even more chaotic.

Ye Zhongming stopped and killing intent rose up in his eyes.

"Stupid!" Chef Jin stood there like a mountain. He knew that his men's firing had caused even more panic and made it even more chaotic. To find that person in this crowd was near impossible.

But Chef Jin and Director Wang didn't want to give up like this. Since things were already so chaotic... His gaze turned sharp and he raised his rod.

Ah!

A cry shocked him. He was very familiar with that voice, it was an evolved under him. Was that evolved hurt by a civilian?

He looked in that direction. Apart from heads, he didn't see anything else. He frowned and walked over.

With his strength, no one could stop him.

He took a few steps and picked up a blood scent and his heart sank. He punched the people around him and saw that his men were holding his chest and sitting on the ground. He had bled a large amount and his eyes were wide open when he died.

Chef Jin lowered his body and moved the hand away. He used a bit of light to see clearly that his man was stabbed in the heart. The wound was clean and just one look and one knew that it was a single stab kill. It was clean and it was done so without any hesitation.

Only an evolved could kill another evolved so cleanly.

Director Wang who had rushed over saw Chef Jin's negative expression. They looked at one another and then Director Wang said, "We lost our chance when we failed to capture him in the east. Now we might get hunted."

Chef Jin smiled bitterly. He didn't expect that person to be so bold. Not only did he not flee the area, he even attacked them.

How courageous and bold was he?

There were 7-8 evolved and hundreds of soldiers with guns!

"You! Ah!"

Another cry spread out from another direction. The two leaders of the new district base knew that another evolved was killed.

Chef Jin gave out a weird sound and he stood up. He took an assault rifle from a guard and fired toward that area.

People fell in groups.

Director Wang was stunned for a moment but he understood what Chef Jin was doing. He bit his teeth and pointed in that direction, "Clean it up! The rest of you, clear the area around us! Kill! Kill! Kill all those that don't move aside!"

In the life and death moment, the two leaders didn't care about anything else and started to mercilessly kill survivors.

"Seal: Flame Blade!"

The power of bullets helped them to clear an area around. Dozens of seconds and over three hundred innocent survivors were killed. This empty area was covered in ice cold corpses.

Chef Jin and Director Wang heaved a sigh.

They knew that they were safe and that killer in the darkness wouldn't sneak attack them in such a situation.

But the moment they relaxed, they heard someone shout from the retreating crowd.

A red blade light rose up from the darkness and descended on their heads.

Outside of the new base, in the luxurious sales center, the automatic door had shattered and the expensive crystal lamp was smashed on the ground. The sandalwood table was tossed at the corner and it was covered in dust.

There were two people in the hall looking at the new district base where there were dense gunshots and flames burning in random areas.

Using the small light, one could spot a familiar face.

Captain Ye.

The one star evolved that fled after he failed to sneak attack Ye Zhongming.

But a familiar person would notice that his face was ashen white and there was no blood on it. His eyes felt like there weren't any eyeballs and it was totally replaced by a thick black color. It gave him a really sinister and weird aura.

The person beside him was the same, they looked like ghosts that walked out from hell.

Many zombies and mutated lifeforms gathered around them and they were all level two. There was even one with a black crystal with ten green hands stretching out from its back. It was a hundred hand zombie!

These dozen high level evolved lifeforms stood beside them respectfully. They were abnormally stable.

"Delicious... They are... Inside." the ghost on the right said with a hoarse voice, it was as if each word took a lot of effort to speak.

"Sand... Sandbug, attack... Attack!"

Captain Ye raised his hand. That human arm was now black and a stump appeared at the tip. A smelly and sticky liquid flowed out from there.

Along with his orders, the evolved lifeforms all charged from different directions back toward their own groups. They roared and smacked their men before pointing them in the same direction.

The new district base.

Chapter 142: 2 star evolution

Ye Zhongming bumped into Little Tiger, Mo Ye and the others at the west district entrance. In the night sky, the white glow from Moon Edge was really apparent.

Ye Zhongming sensed killing intent on Liang Chuyin and Little Tiger's body. They probably met some trouble in the chaos and probably attacked. They saw blood and might have even killed someone.

Sometimes things were like that. Even if you didn't want to kill others, but other people wanted to kill you. They definitely had something that others were eyeing and if they didn't show their skills, they wouldn't be able to survive.

"Boss!"

Little Tiger was delighted when he saw Ye Zhongming. He held the blood stained Moon Edge and walked over.

"You caused trouble right!"

His tone was a gloating one.

Ye Zhongming stared at him.

“Go, let’s head back.”

What Ye Zhongming wanted to do most now was to inject the two star potion. Other things could wait.

Everyone hurried back. Ye Zhongming went to an empty room and told everyone to guard outside. He then ordered Little Tiger to call Jia Ming to wait for him.

He took out the prepared medicine and started to modify the two star potion.

The modification process didn’t take long and it wasn’t too complicated. But it was a precise job so any mistakes would turn it to waste.

Ye Zhongming did this many times in the past so he was very familiar with it.

The modified two star potion had a beautiful translucent green that made one enchanted. Even though Ye Zhongming had seen it many times in his last life but he was still in a trance.

But he knew that this thing was fatal. This small bottle would turn many people into corpses.

He pushed it into his body while biting onto a wooden rod that he had prepared beforehand.

Injecting normal evolution potions was a process of enjoyment. One would feel warmth, comfort, joy no different from sex. But the modified potion would cause pain. This pain was really intense and people without a strong sense of will wouldn’t be able to handle it.

As the potion spread in his body, the heart-wrenching pain arrived. Ye Zhongming’s body started to shake. He knelt on the ground and scratched the hard cement. He bit down on the wooden rod and sweat flowed down his body. One could even see some blood in the sweat.

He cried out like a wild beast and with a crack, the wooden rod was broken. His hands even left blood marks on the ground from all the scratching.

A few minutes later, Ye Zhongming was fully drenched but he finally relaxed. He laid on the ground in satisfaction.

Evolved.

In less than half a month, he reached two star.

This wasn’t a fake two star like Wang Ding but an actual two star, moreover, he was a modified two star!

Ye Zhongming used modified potions for both his one star and two star evolutions. As the evolution was built on the past, Ye Zhongming’s body was stronger than normal two star evolved. He was not certain of the exact number but he guessed that he was at least 20% stronger than them.

Based on this speed, Ye Zhongming felt that he would be two times stronger than evolved of the same grade when he reached six star.

What did that mean?

He laughed.

That meant that he was invincible to those of the same level.

His sharp senses picked up the movement on the outside and he jumped up. This difficult motion in the past was really easy now.

He dragged his wet clothes down and washed his body using the prepared bucket of water. Only after he changed his clothes did he walk out.

“Boss, we found Jia Ming, I....” Little Tiger saw Ye Zhongming walk out. He walked out like usual but he was stunned. That was because he felt really unfamiliar.

Little Tiger looked at Ye Zhongming closely. Still that face and still the same person but he felt like a mountain that couldn’t be crossed. That calm gaze actually made him feel really uneasy, causing his knees to go soft.

Ye Zhongming laughed. He knew that this was because of the evolution aura left on his body after he just evolved which was why it influenced Little Tiger’s thoughts. This wasn’t a big thing and would go away in a while.

“Zhongming, you look different.”

Ye Zhongming nodded toward Mo Ye and didn’t say anything. He said to Jia Ming, “I have something to discuss with you, let’s sit and talk.”

Jia Ming didn’t know what he wanted to say so he could only nod.

Everyone found a place to sit down. The chaos outside continued and it looked like it was going to get more and more intense. Many places were in flames and half of the base was dyed red.

“Do you want to own this base?”

Ye Zhongming’s sudden words not only stunned Jia Ming but everyone else.

Own... This base?

What did that mean? Da Ming was beside Jia Ming and he scratched his head, “Boss Ye, what do you mean? Are you joking?”

Ye Zhongming shook his head while looking at the chaotic base, “I have killed the two who were in charge and now this base has no master. If this continues, they will kill until no one is left. Either the zombies get in and they become their food. There is no third option.”

“You killed Chef Jin and Director Wang?” Jia Ming felt that he was always calm and people always praised him for being mature. But when he heard the news, he was so shocked that his mind went blank.

Although the new district base was built only a few days ago, but Chef Jin and Director Wang’s strength was something etched in their hearts. Their strength caused them to not dare to fight back. Along with the dozens of evolved and thousands of soldiers, it was obvious that they became the leaders of the base.

Even Jia Ming felt that Chef Jin and Director Wang were invincible.

But now a young man said that he killed both of them. Even a calm person would be shocked.

“I need a stable base and I need this place to have a new master. Are you, willing?” Ye Zhongming walked to his side and asked solemnly.

Chapter 143: Give me instructions

It was as if the noise outside had totally disappeared. Only Ye Zhongming’s question rang out in Jia Ming’s mind.

Own this base?

Honestly, this was a thought that Jia Ming didn’t even dream about.

But he knew that this guy was not joining with him. He said that he had killed Chef Jin and Director Wang so the past owners of this base were probably already dead.

“But, but I, am not even evolved.”

“I can let you evolve.”

“I, I, don’t have so many men.”

“Our country does not lack people.”

“But I don’t have management experience.”

“One does not need management experience in the apocalypse, just killing experience.”

Jia Ming still wanted to say something but he noticed that things that seemed so complicated to him were not a problem to Ye Zhongming at all.

“Why did you choose me?”

Jia Ming finally asked what he was most concerned about.

“Right, I think I can do so too.” Da Ming said so casually and that made everyone roll their eyes at him.

“Because I want to.”

Jia Ming opened his mouth and didn’t know what to say while Da Ming was shaking his head. Damn, this guy was so amazing. I want to choose you so I chose you.

Jia Ming took in a deep breath and stood up, his gaze became more and more firm.

“Okay, I agree. Then what, after I become the master of this place, what do I have to do for you?”

Admiration flashed in Ye Zhongming’s eyes. He was right about this Jia Ming, he was a person that knew when to advance and retreat.

“Naturally I have something that needs your help but that would wait until you take control of the entire base.” Ye Zhongming patted him, “Now let’s go see another person. With his support, it will make things easier.”

.....

Ocean Community District was the only peaceful region in the new district base.

Li Qiang led his men to patrol the area. Any place connected to the other districts were tightly guarded and anyone who dared to charge in was shot.

Many lucky ones were stationed at the entrance. They looked around at the base that was covered in flames and deep down they felt really fortunate.

If they had not entered this community, they might have ended up fleeing like those people. Those unlucky ones would have been trampled to death.

Li Qiang was standing on the sandbags used for defence and looked out with a complicated expression.

He wanted to let people in but he knew that if a breach was opened up, the crowd would surge in like a flood. This would turn the district into the same as the outside. He didn’t want the faction that he had run for so many days to be destroyed in just a moment.

Which was why he ordered to shoot. Those people ran away after seeing dozens of corpses and they didn’t dare to come back.

“Brother Qiang if this continues the base will collapse. Look there, that is the tunnel towards the outside. Many people are there and they have started to fight one another.” A person pointed into the distance.

Li Qiang naturally saw it too but there was nothing he could do. His men, their guns, it was barely sufficient to guard their district and he had no strength to care about anything else.

He was really worried. It wasn’t easy to find a place to survive in the apocalypse. If not for the base, Li Qiang didn’t have the confidence of surviving on the outside even though he had evolved.

He had seen how strong the mutated lifeforms outside were and he was certain that humans couldn’t stop them.

Li Qiang felt powerless against the chaos outside. He started to consider the way out. He looked at the tunnel going towards the outside and was hesitating about whether to lead people there to break out.

“What is Boss Li looking at?”

A voice rang out from behind him that caused his hair to stand on its ends. He suppressed his fear and turned around slowly to see the young man who had traded the recipe scroll with him standing five meters from him and smiling at him.

Even if he was stupid he knew what this short distance meant.

Li Qiang's men panicked and all turned their guns towards Ye Zhongming. They were filled with disbelief. They didn't know how he was just standing there without a sign. The closest person to Ye Zhongming was just two meters and even he didn't sense a thing.

Ye Zhongming squinted his eyes and Li Qiang was like a scared rabbit. He shouted, "Put your guns down."

They looked at one another and slowly placed their guns down.

It should be Ye Zhongming who felt relaxed when no guns were pointing at him but on the contrary, Li Qiang was the one that felt relaxed.

In that short moment, he felt the god of death descends on his head. He knew that if one of his men tried to make a move, maybe Ye Zhongming might die but he was definitely dead.

This was one of his 'abilities'.

He learned how to shoot when young and that cultivated his calm state. His coach used a disk-throwing machine to train his shooting and he was often hit in the face by these disks until he didn't feel afraid of them and didn't dodge them.

While training his mental state, this also made him really sharp to danger. Through the training process, the moment the disks flew out, he could predict whether or not they would hit him.

This ability to predict danger was helpful for him to survive in the apocalypse.

That ability told him that death was right in front of him.

"Boss Li really has some skill."

If others said that, he would definitely scoff and kick them aside. But now he was relaxed and knew that this person was not going to kill him.

"Our trade is done so why are you here?" Li Qiang tried to straighten his body and look calm.

"I have something that I need your help with." Ye Zhongming smiled before he flashed right in front of Li Qiang. Their two faces were so close to one another.

Li Qiang's face was dead as ash. He understood that this guy could kill him as easily as an ant. What he didn't know was that how did his strength change so much? He was not so strong in the day when they had met and that was just a few hours ago.

Suddenly, he recalled the cause of the chaos, it was because someone had spun the level two wheel.

He swallowed his saliva and a possibility rose up in his mind.

This person was a two star evolved.

He finally knew why this young teen would be so strong.

Li Qiang's voice was hoarse and he lowered his head, "Brother give me your instructions."

Chapter 144: Another wave

Jia Ming, his family as well as those he had some interactions with gathered together and form a few dozen strong team. Surrounding them were evolved like Mo Ye, Little Tiger etc. They looked towards the east and were waiting for something.

Many fleeing survivors noticed this weird team but when they saw that person holding a white weapon, they were filled with fear.

Suddenly, a signal flare shot up from the east. The group was already ready and they made their move.

Little Tiger, Mo Ye, Liang Chuyin held their guns and fired into the sky. The sudden gunshot caused people around to shout. They instinctively ran away from the gunshot. This scattered crowd was forced together once more.

They fled towards a building where a giant bonfire was lit up. The flames burnt really strongly and lit this area up.

Da Ming stood in front of a window on the second floor and found a speaker which he used to shout into.

“Hear my orders, stop!”

His voice made those people slow down. The light from the bonfire helped to chase away some of their panics.

Then, Jia Ming led the people he found and all of them shouted the same thing. They held everything that could shine so that the people around stopped.

Little Tiger and the other evolved played a crucial part too. They placed their guns forwards and immediately many people stopped.

The chaotic night was exactly like that, if there was chaos, everyone would join in.

But the moment there was light and someone giving orders, people would quickly stabilise once more.

First was a few dozen that stopped running, then were a few hundred, then a few thousand. Bit by bit, the western region started to calm down.

Jia Ming took the speaker and told everyone to return to their homes. He also told everyone that the base was safe and there were no zombies inside. Along with Da Ming and Little Tiger’s help, the situation stabilised. They even organised some small groups to extinguish the flames.

Of course, there were some that didn’t want the peace. The chaos brought them many benefits. Not only did they get food, they even tasted some women.

They didn’t show any politeness towards these people. The few women beat them up such that they couldn’t move but people like Little Tiger and Liang Chuyin were more merciless, directly killing them.

Such vicious methods were extremely useful to calm down the chaos.

The East was similar too. Li Qiang led people out from the Ocean Community District and evacuated the crowd, chasing them from the sides of a building into the building. The east region didn't have many people and they had sufficient manpower so things were much smoother than the west.

Ye Zhongming naturally helped too. After all, the East was where the evolved lived. Those people who fled from Ye Zhongming's attack and their relatives were people who were used to living lawlessly in the area. They weren't happy to be managed. But Ye Zhongming suppressed them and they yielded.

This process caused Li Qiang's eyes to open wide. Although Ye Zhongming didn't show his strength, but Li Qiang was still terrified of how this young man could kill evolved like he was drinking water. He was fortunate that he knew his place and agreed to stand out to stabilize the bases.

The east and the west were stable now so the chaos in the remaining two districts didn't last for much longer. The people entered the two districts and calmed down the people there.

When the entire base was calm, the sky started to light up. Ye Zhongming, Li Qiang, Jia Ming, Little Tiger etc gathered at the center of the base and discussed some problems.

Many people died last night. As long as it was in a more central area, one could see corpses. The weather was quite high so the corpses had to be cleared.

"I am planning to send out a recruitment message to hire people to clear the base. This is all thanks to the food that Chef Jin and Director Wang left. With this food as payment, I think many people would be willing to do this job."

Li Qiang was asked by Ye Zhongming to occupy the food storage. He fought with the guards there and after paying a small price they occupied that area and also obtained a large amount of food.

"This method can be used in many ways like strengthening the base, clearing trash, cleaning, expanding etc, also..."

Ye Zhongming listened to Jia Ming talk to the people and was filled with admiration for him. This young man was not bad, he did everything in an orderly manner.

But he frowned subsequently. He looked around and didn't notice anything weird. He lowered his body and stuck his ear to the ground to listen closely.

Although Ye Zhongming was not standing with them, but be it Jia Ming who just adapted to his role as the leader, or people that respect him like Li Qiang, they were all paying a bit of attention to him. They understood that this person was the true ruler now.

Seeing his actions, they stopped talking and moved over.

"Boss, what happened?"

Ye Zhongming waved and told everyone to calm down. He listened for a few seconds and his expression turned even darker. He stood up and said to Jia Ming, "Arrange people to evacuate the south!"

"Why..."

"Quick!"

Jia Ming wanted to ask but Ye Zhongming interrupted him. Jia Ming stopped and went to arrange for people right away.

Suddenly, everyone felt the ground shake.

This time everyone was able to feel it. They looked at one another but they didn't know what happened.

"Damn, we are too late!"

Ye Zhongming cursed in annoyance and pulled out Moon Edge, "Jia Ming, arrange people to the south and get them to evacuate. Da Mng, lead Boss Li and his men to set up obstacles from the south towards the other districts. Once the survivors are mostly evacuated or if the situation is bad then seal the roads!"

"The rest of you follow me!" Ye Zhongming's eyes were filled with killing intent, "Whether or not we can protect the base depends on us!"

Chapter 145: Sand Worm

Li Qiang wanted to ask something but he saw the others follow Ye Zhongming right away so he just silently followed.

His questions only lasted a few seconds. When they entered the south district, the trembling of the ground continued.

As an evolved, he could clearly sense that the shaking came from ahead which was where the team was heading.

"The Sand Worms are coming!"

Ye Zhongming was ice cold. He ran while explaining to the people around him.

"They only have one ability. Apart from their own body's strength, their only skill is digging. The shaking is because they are destroying the foundations of the south district walls."

"What?"

Li Qiang lost his voice, "Doesn't that mean, doesn't that mean..."

Ye Zhongming nodded, "The foundations aren't enough to block the sandworms. The cement and stone pieces added between the buildings have no foundations so they probably will collapse soon."

"Then you..."

Li Qiang didn't finish but everyone knew what he meant.

If the walls collapsed then those thousands of zombies and monsters would charge in. Wouldn't it be impossible for the few of them to block them?

What was the difference between charging to their deaths!?

The others didn't say anything but they thought the same thing. But they were just used to listening to Ye Zhongming so they didn't raise it up.

“That is because we are the only people in the base that can stop all this.”

Little Tiger didn't show any fear at all and even teased Ye Zhongming, “Boss, when did you become so kind-hearted?”

Ye Zhongming laughed and didn't bother about Little Tiger, “Of course I am not kind, I need this base still so I can't see it collapse.”

He paused and felt the strong shaking beneath his feet. He explained, “The Sandworm broke the foundations and the buildings will collapse. Listen, they will collapse, after they collapse they will turn into ruins that can still block the zombies. What we need to do is just to kill the worms. When they aren't causing trouble, we can strengthen the ruins so this base can still be guarded.”

Everyone heard what Ye Zhongming said and they finally relaxed. If not, if they were asked to face such an ocean of zombies, anyone would lose courage.

“Hong!”

There was a giant explosion from ahead. Everyone looked as if the wall made of stone and cement had collapsed. Along with the explosion, an entire part of the wall fell to the ground and caused dust to billow.

A black figure dashed across but it was hidden in the dust.

The wall was over ten meters tall but it was less than half now, around 2-3 stories tall. Maybe it was due to the reduction in height but one could hear the shouts of the zombies much more clearly now.

The people who had calmed down in the south panicked once more. This time they weren't totally confused like at night but they personally saw the wall collapse. They couldn't suppress their fears and started to run deeper into the base.

“Fire!”

Ye Zhongming ordered coldly and also raised his Moon Edge.

The survivors were charging at them and if they didn't stop them, they would get stuck there. Then, the zombies would really charge in.

The people with guns hesitated for a moment. Only after Ye Zhongming shouted once more did they fire.

Those headless chickens split to the sides to give some space for the team.

Ye Zhongming led the way and charged up the ruins.

A giant bug had drilled out from behind the ruins. It had a giant body, over 15 meters long and 2 meters wide that made it look like a giant centipede.

The only difference was that it didn't have that many legs. It only had a pair of thick limbs in three different parts of its body.

The most obvious one was its head. It was sharp and had a spiral pattern, like a giant drill. It gave off a metallic glow. Beneath its spike head was a huge mouth that was eating the dirt and stone. It passed through its long body and went to its tail! After it passed through, it turned into sand bits.

This was the sandworm, a monster siege weapon. Many survivor bases were destroyed due to these worms.

These worms could drill holes in the ground. Even the tough stone couldn't block their sharp heads. Moreover, they had a special ability. Which was that their intestines were a weird digestive tool. Stone, bricks, cement, and even normal steel would turn into bits that got excreted.

Human structures were like paper to them.

Ye Zhongming came here by pure accident and only entered to get some things. But when he saw the zombies and mutated monsters around, especially since he knew about the two star gachapon, his thoughts changed. He wanted to use this base to do something.

This thing needed a perfect base, a base that wasn't broken through.

Now these sandworms had disrupted his plan so what he had to do was to kill them.

Ye Zhongming had just evolved and his body was at its peak. He held Moon Edge and locked onto the sandworm that was chewing on stone. This level two mutated life form didn't realise that its death was coming.

Only when Ye Zhongming stabbed its body did it see its enemy?

Sandworm not being very sharp was one of its weakness.

Moon Edge's sharpness allowed Ye Zhongming to have an advantage once more. The strength of a two star evolved gave him enough confidence. He slashed twice and sliced off the legs of the sandworm before dodging the black liquid that spurted out.

"Slice off the legs in the middle to restrict its movement. Then stab that armor two meters away from its tail, below it is its heart!"

Ye Zhongming's voice spread into their ears and he taught them how to deal with the sandworm.

While speaking, Ye Zhongming's body didn't stop. He jumped on the body of the sandworm and dashed to its tail. It slashed with Moon Edge and stabbed into this part of the armor that was lighter in color.

"Dodge its blood, it is a neural toxin and it will turn your body stiff for many days."

Ye Zhongming retreated after pulling his blade out to complete the demonstration of how to kill them.

This sandworm trembled and after giving out two cries, it died.

The people who charged up the ruins wanted to heave a sigh of relief but they felt the ruins beneath them shaking. A few seconds later, numerous places had stones flying about as many black figures appeared on the surface.

5 sandworms surrounded everyone within.

Chapter 146: Fighting above his level

"I will only deal with three, the rest are yours." Ye Zhongming held his blade and he started to run, "Kill them or get killed."

Little Tiger, Mo Ye, Liang Chuyin, Park Xiuying and Li Qiang, the five of them, five one star evolved had to deal with three level two sandworms!

These were level two sandworms and not level one ones so they had to fight above their level.

Li Qiang's breathing was rushed when he heard that. He just evolved today and hadn't even killed a level one mutated life form. Now he had to fight a level two one? He looked at the white crystal on the worm's forehead and felt that his hand was shaking.

Li Qiang was afraid but everyone else's eyes lit up. That included the gentle Park Xiuying.

These people had spent such a long time with Ye Zhongming and their fear of zombies had become really weak. This wasn't hard to imagine. Anyone who had seen someone kill dozens of level two monsters when he was just level one would have a different thought against these monsters.

Moreover, Mo Ye, Liang Chuyin, Little Tiger etc used modified guns and the land geography to kill many level two boars.

This was why they didn't fear level two lifeforms and they didn't feel that they were very much special. If there was something they had to pay attention to, it would be that they were huge and a little tougher than those boars.

Ye Zhongming's words were obviously a test for them so all of them were tempted.

Their expressions made Li Qiang think that they were all crazy.

He didn't understand where did their confidence come from.

"Xiuying!" Mo Ye was a police captain and in the past, she was in charge of arranging attacks. She was obviously in charge when Ye Zhongming was not around.

She did several hand signs that Little Tiger understood. Park Xiuying and Liang Chuyin learned many of these simple things from Mo Ye during these few days.

They understood what Mo Ye meant.

Mo Ye was protected by Park Xiuying as she dealt with two sandworms while the others quickly killed the other one!

"Boss Li, I heard your shooting is good? You also have a gun from Ye Zhongming?"

Mo Ye nodded towards Li Qiang. He was first stunned and then immediately understood what he had to do.

Everyone was smart. Li Qiang understood that he didn't belong to this team and people were giving him face and didn't order him around. What he had to do was to do what he was best at-- shooting, to attack the monsters.

Mo Ye completed all that in just a few seconds. After she told Li Qiang what he needed to do, she charged in front of the sandworm on the left. She shot a bullet from further away before taking out her blade to slice it.

Right away, this woman was able to attack a level two mutated life form while she was just a level one evolved.

Li Qiang scolded her for being insane before turning his gun toward his target.

Little Tiger and Liang Chuyin's weapons landed on the sandworm at the same time. Their bodies were also surrounded by the Diamond Shield.

The two of them didn't fire. Their armor piercing bullets were used up during the battle against the boar king and without materials to make new bullets, these guns weren't that effective against level two lifeforms.

Liang Chuyin's whip wrapped the pointy head of the sandworm. This didn't cause much damage but it allowed her to use it as a springboard to jump onto its body.

Her snow white skin was in stark contrast to the sand worm's dark skin.

She jumped on its body and followed its long body down towards its tail and she headed towards its heart.

The Sandworm reacted a little slowly but after it realised that someone had jumped onto its back, it raged. It started to twist itself to try to fling this human off.

"I am your opponent!" Little Tiger wouldn't let it attack Liang Chuyin. This kid ignored Ye Zhongming's instructions on slicing its legs in the middle of its body and he just sliced towards the legs near its head.

Moon Edge gave off a metallic sound which caused the sandworm's body to stop. It then gave out a loud roar.

Little Tiger's blade sliced into one leg, slicing its joint and nearly breaking it.

If it was the Moon Edge that had ghost metal infused in it, or if Ye Zhongming used Little Tiger's Moon Edge as a two star evolved, then this blade was enough to slice off the leg. Unfortunately, Little Tiger didn't have the ability to do so.

But this caused the sandworm's body to tilt to the side and it allowed Liang Chuyin to stabilise herself.

Sandworm was hit and naturally, it didn't allow itself to be defeated like that. It turned its body to flip its stomach upwards. That flung Liang Chuyin off and into mid air.

Little Tiger had to dodge and avoid being squashed.

Although its body flipped but its attacks didn't stop. Its sharp head swept the ground and knocked toward Little Tiger.

"Peng! Peng! Peng!"

Heavy sounds spread as Li Qiang finally fired. His target was the devolved but still prominent eyes.

The size of the target at this distance seemed easy to hit but Little Tiger knew how tough that shot was.

The sandworm was moving and pistols had a limited range which affected precision. Moreover, the sandworm was moving its head to hit Little Tiger so Li Qiang's position was not a good one. However, he did manage to hit.

That pistol was modified by Ye Zhongming and it was really powerful. If it had an armor piercing bullet, those few shots would be enough to kill the sandworm. But the problem was that Ye Zhongming didn't give him any special bullets.

Three shots and the eyes of the sandworm were bloodied but it was still alive.

But that created a chance for Little Tiger. He roared and stabbed into the brain of the sandworm through its eyes.

Intense pain spread across its body and caused it to flip its body once more. Little Tiger was flung into the air before he could pull Moon Edge out. He didn't panic and just held tightly onto the handle.

"Blade!"

Liang Chuyin shouted. Little Tiger glanced and understood right away. He twisted his body and stepped down onto its head to pull Moon Edge out.

He lost his support and fell from mid air but during that process, he shouted and tossed Moon Edge towards Liang Chuyin.

Chapter 147: I need half an hour

Liang Chuyin's whip wrapped a giant stone on the ruins and she jumped into mid air. Moon Edge was tossed over to her and she grabbed it. She released the whip and held the blade with two hands as she stabbed into the heart of the sandworm.

Puchi!

Moon Edge stabbed into the heart of the worm and black blood spurted out, covering her entire face. The beautiful influencer turned totally black.

"Ah!"

She screamed. Women all loved to be clean and she was no exception. The black liquid made her feel really disgusting.

But she just screamed and after pulling the blade out she jumped off the corpse. She knew that Mo Ye was still holding on and she couldn't waste time here.

Mo Ye was indeed finding it tough.

She dodged the attack of one as she slashed with her blade at the other worm. The strength from the worm nearly caused her to drop the blade.

Fortunately, she learned techniques of how to use strength. She adapted these techniques into the way she used the blade, moving her arm to reduce the momentum.

The Diamond Shield around her broke once more. She ran forwards and avoid with her momentum to dodge the attack of the injured sandworm.

The power of the head of this monster was too strong and it was really tough such that Mo Ye was only able to leave a white mark on it.

This was already the 4th Diamond Shield that broke. Park Xiuying's mental energy had dropped to a very dangerous level.

“Captain we are here!”

Fortunately, Little Tiger and the others had killed their worm and rushed over to help.

“I will hold it down!”

Liang Chuyin’s Diamond Shield was still up and she took on one worm.

Mo Ye didn’t say anything, coordinating with Little Tiger to attack a single worm.

Li Qiang was finding a chance to fire. The three of them worked together to kill this worm in just half a minute. Little Tiger was hit by the worm before it died so although he had the Diamond Shield to protect him, the power still flung him out. When he fell, blood seeped at the corner of his mouth and he was injured.

He bit his teeth and stood up. The battle was not over so he couldn’t collapse.

But when he stood up, he realised that the sand worm was already killed. Ye Zhongming stood on the corpse of the sandworm and pulled out his Moon Edge.

He looked at the other side and the two worms that Ye Zhongming was dealing with were already dead. Even the crystals on their foreheads were dug out.

Little Tiger bit his teeth. Boss really was the boss, he was so strong.

“No time.” Seeing everyone ask him the reason why he attacked, he said solemnly.

Thousands of zombies were already surrounding the area. Some mutated life forms were among them and they didn’t look like they were going to attack at all.

At the breach caused by the sand worm that was dozens of meters large, there were zombies. Even if they were really slow, they would arrive where they were at in just a minute or two.

Everyone had a solemn expression. They knew that it was too late to ask people to strengthen the ruins. Ye Zhongming’s idea of fortification wasn’t possible.

“They, how are they so quick? It is as if they had planned it.”

Liang Chuyin used her sleeves to wipe the blood of the sandworm from her face. She looked at the zombie hoard and her voice was shaking.

She wasn’t afraid of fighting level two life forms but she was afraid of fighting endless amounts of zombies.

“Right, there are so many sandworms attacking the same place. Moreover, the zombies are all gathering here, if not there wouldn’t be so many of them here.”

Little Tiger was healed by Cleansing Dew and was pretty much fine. He pointed at the sides of the ruins and there were very few zombies there. They have gathered ahead of the ruins like they knew that the area would collapse.

Ye Zhongming’s expression was a little ugly. He had his guesses but he didn’t want to say them out.

If his guesses were true, then he didn’t have much hope to guard this base.

“I have an idea to block these.”

A voice spread from beneath the ruins. Everyone turned their heads and saw Xia Lei dragging a small cart. On it were many squares.

“Sister Lei!”

Mo Ye cheered and charged down the ruins. She hugged Xia Lei and had a shocked expression on her face.

“Sister Lei you evolved?”

Xia Lei smiled at her junior sister before turning towards Ye Zhongming.

“Do you see the two buildings there?” Xia Lei pointed at the two high towers, “If we bomb them and make them collapse together, then we can block the other entrances from the south district. The other districts would have time to reorganise their defence.”

Ye Zhongming took a look. There were two buildings that were a little cut off from the other buildings. Based on what Xia Lei said, if they fell together, it would cut off the south district from the entire base.

“I found some explosives in the east. Give me some time and I can do it.”

Xia Lei raised her head. Her mature face shone brightly under the sun. But for some reason, Xia Ye felt like her eyes were a little swollen like she had cried.

Ye Zhongming looked at Mo Ye and she nodded, “Xia Lei is as good as a professional explosives expert. This isn’t too difficult for her.”

“How long do you need?”

Ye Zhongming took a few seconds of silence before he made a choice. Although he had a bad feeling that his luck wasn’t too good, but he still wanted to give it a try.

Xia Lei smiled and she knew what that meant. She had returned to this team and gained the trust of the most important person.

“Half an hour, I need just half an hour.” Xia Lei pointed at Mo Ye and Little Tiger, “I need their help!”

Ye Zhongming bit his teeth and looked at the hoard that charged in. The crystals on their foreheads were like devilish women tempting him at every moment.

High risk high reward, take a gamble!

“Okay, I will try to buy half an hour for you. I hope you won’t disappoint me.”

Chapter 148: The apocalypse is no exception

A person who had never personally battled zombies would never know how terrifying they were.

They might be slow, their bodies might be stiff and they might have many weakness. If you were not afraid of them, you could even play with individuals and then stab your knife into their eyes.

But once there was a large group of them, you would see how terrifying they were. You don't know where a black decomposing hand would appear to scratch you. You wouldn't know when a leg covered in thick pus would step onto you. You wouldn't know when a mouth with sharp smelly teeth would rip off a piece of your meat.

Moreover, the zombie's terrifying virus would shroud over you like dark clouds in the sky.

In the apocalypse, the most terrifying thing wasn't the darkness that you could see. It wasn't monsters whose evolution levels terrified humans. It was the zombie wave and the beast waves.

Be it humans or monsters, in front of those waves, they were as weak as a three year old kid.

Especially when most of the zombies evolved and their strength increased. They would become a group of death gods. They would wave their black scythes and threaten any race on the planet.

In his last life, Ye Zhongming experienced how terrifying it was. After a few close shaves, he had a phobia towards them. But now he knew that if he wanted to get rich and get more, he had to face these monsters.

He sucked in a deep breath and looked at the dozens of meters of zombies, he shouted loudly, "Fire!"

Li Qiang's men and also a few base defenders who weren't willing to come here started to fire.

Gunshots rang out in the sky above the base.

Scenes of blood and flesh spilling all over would cause people who were looking at it for the first time to vomit. Even Park Xiuying and Liang Chuyin who had followed Ye Zhongming for so long felt their stomachs churn.

But they knew that if they wanted to survive in the apocalypse, they would see such things often. So although they felt bad, they still looked on and waited for their chance to strike.

If not for the chaos last night, then with the organised defence of the base, they would be able to hold on for 10 hours.

But after the chaos, after Chef Jin and Director Wang was killed by Ye Zhongming, there was no more order in the base. No one was leading so it was tough to gather people here. Along with Li Qiang only have a hundred men, although they had guns but they didn't have enough ammo so this couldn't last.

"Stop!"

Ye Zhongming shouted and waved his arm. He tried to let the warriors fighting see him and hear his orders.

It was normal for these people to be unable to maintain a calm heart when facing these zombies so naturally they would miss. The zombies were close so they could maintain some accuracy but if they were far away, the bullets would fly far. After killing a bunch of them, Ye Zhongming told them to stop. While saving bullets, it also bought them some room to breathe.

Pulling the trigger seemed easy but in an intense fight, the nervousness would also consume large amounts of stamina and energy.

Jia Ming was holding Little Tiger's gun. He fought while learning from Ye Zhongming's actions.

In the space beneath the ruins, arms, legs, heads, blood of the zombies covered the area. Any normal human would feel uncomfortable when they saw such a scene. At least visually it was like that.

But this couldn't stop the zombies. They didn't care about the deaths of others. What they cared about was tasting fresh blood.

After having hundreds of their kind getting killed, those who were still alive continued to charge.

Anyone who saw such a thing would feel a sense of despair.

They couldn't kill them all. That feeling was just so annoying.

“Fight!”

Ye Zhongming ordered again and the guns fired. Bullets formed a net that scattered into the zombies below the ruins.

The zombies instantly fell like a bunch of wheat.

But this only lasted for dozens of seconds before the gunshots started to thin out. A moment later, the sound of guns disappeared.

They had used up their bullets.

During peacetime, naturally there wasn't a huge storage of bullets. Even if the base tried to save up they still spent a large amount of them. Moreover, these people were all gathered here haphazardly and they brought bullets that they could find. After they finished them, there was no more bullets.

“Those who aren't willing to stay to fight the zombies can go. Those who are willing to stay, I promise that if you are still alive, you will get an evolution potion.”

Ye Zhongming glanced at the hundred or so people on the ruins and made his promise.

People started to struggle.

Everyone wanted to evolve. Many people were willing to give up many things to get an evolution potion. Apart from their lives. If they died then what was the use?

But this was also the closest many of them got to an evolution potion.

After all, they were promised.

Time paused at that moment and everyone started to have their own internal fight regarding their destiny.

Many people retreated. They didn't want to die here but there were many who remained. They were planning to gamble.

Half a minute later, only 30 of them remained on the ruins.

Ye Zhongming pulled out Moon Edge and his gaze landed on the zombie hoard that were close. He was calm and after sucking in a deep breath, he slashed and it left a gap in the hoard.

“Attack, let's see if we are lucky or not!”

Seeing that person charge into the hoard, many of the others on the ruins roared and followed suit.

When humans were forced into despair, many people would accept their lives, closing their eyes to die. Some would be stunned, closing their minds and waiting for destiny.

Some people would be unwilling to accept. Their hearts would be filled with rage and hope and they would choose to face it and fight back. Maybe such a battle would end in defeat, maybe others felt like the resistance was stupid. But such qualities were what allowed humans to survive from all sorts of dangers.

No matter the time, courage was the hope of mankind.

The apocalypse was the same.

Chapter 149: Minion Zombie

Liang Chuyin was the second person who charged into the zombie hoard.

Although her talents weren't as good as Little Tiger, Xia Lei, Mo Ye etc but she was determined. She only listened to Ye Zhongming and that earned the respect of everyone in the team.

Not everyone could adapt to the apocalypse as quickly as she did.

This influencer was like a furious leopard, she charged into the ugly and disgusting monsters and used Shadow Dance.

The Wind Dancer's AOE skill reached its best effect since she had gotten the job.

Whips slashed down and the heads of the zombies around exploded. The smacking sounds caused Ye Zhongming to turn around in shock.

Just one move killed dozens of zombies!

This outcome stunned those who had followed her into battle and that followed with immense joy! Their doubt about Ye Zhongming's promise to give them evolution potions had disappeared.

Look at that fellow, even his members were so strong so how would he go against his words?

These people who swore to fight to the death had really high morale now. They used the various weapons in their hands to smash into the heads of the zombies.

Ye Zhongming didn't want to lose out. He held his arm shield to block an attack before waving the blade to his right. The sharp blade light slashed across the zombies to slice their heads off. This blade killed a dozen zombies just like that.

Maybe Ye Zhongming wasn't as cool as Liang Chuyin's skill but he had silently killed dozens of zombies which filled many people with envy.

Although there were just a few of them, but Ye Zhongming and Liang Chuyin led them out and raised their morale. They pushed a few meters forwards and turned this area beneath the ruins into a sort of forbidden zone.

"Pay attention to maintain some distance between others, don't charge too far in. If you end up surrounded then you are in danger."

"Apart from hands, you have legs too. When attacking, you can use your legs to push the zombies back! But pay attention to the angle that you kick!"

“Try to be lethal and don’t waste stamina for no reason!”

Ye Zhongming fought and shouted out the things they needed to pay attention to. Although this was sort of a haphazard commanding, but his words managed to save the lives of many inexperienced people.

These people instantly looked at him differently. They went from aimlessly charging into battle to listening to his teachings.

Even Liang Chuyin who had been in many battles had gained a lot of knowledge.

After all, these things looked simple but it was what Ye Zhongming learned over ten years. Each pointer that he mentioned was a result of a death.

“15 more minutes!”

Park Xiuying didn’t charge into the hoard and reported the remaining time as she stood behind everyone.

Someone was unhappy about this woman that was hiding behind and wanted to scold her for being timid but the moment she turned her head, she saw the woman wave at him.

He was confused and didn’t understand but then he noticed a translucent shield that appeared beside him that was dancing around him. A zombie picked an opportunity to stretch its claws towards his neck and in the next moment, the black fingernails would pierce into him. The shield continued to fly and it blocked right in front of his neck to block that lethal hit.

The shield flashed and its brightness reduced but it still protected him.

Even if he was stupid, he would know that this beautiful girl saved his life and also gave him a shield that could defend against zombies.

“Thank you beautiful, I will treat you to a meal when we get back.”

Park Xiuying who was running out of energy pouted and thought to herself that she was only eating mutated animal meat, two star meat. You treat me? You can’t even pay up even if you sold your underwear.

She spat out just thinking about it as she felt like Liang Chuyin had led her astray.

The smoothness of everything made everyone relax a little.

The desperate situation actually seemed hopeful with these twenty people fighting.

“Ah!”

But the light disappeared with that scream.

Ye Zhongming looked and saw a small bent-over body riding on a human that fell. The small claws retracted from that person’s chest and a heart that was still beating was pulled out.

“Minion Zombie!”

Ye Zhongming clenched his blade tightly.

This one meter tall zombie was probably an infected kid. After they turned into a zombie they became really agile and cunning. They would hide behind other zombies and sneak attack when the humans weren't paying attention. As they were quick and had palms that were sharp like blades, they could attack the lethal parts and catch one off guard.

Moreover, the biggest difference between this and the other zombies was that other zombie's bodies would show changes. Like iron arms, Zombie Ape, Hundred Hands etc. Minion Zombie was one of the few that could mutate the body part of another zombie.

To a certain extent, it was a way that they created their own weapons just that the material was the body part of another zombie.

Ye Zhongming thought about it and then he saw that this Minion Zombie was carrying the head of a female zombie. It had an ashen white face and black eyes and the area where it was connected to the neck was empty. It hung low along with parts of the human anatomy that occasionally dripped some black blood.

The scenes were terrifying but Ye Zhongming knew that the worst thing was the ability of the skull that the Minion Zombie had mutated.

The level two Minion Zombie swallowed the heart in just one mouth and blood splattered across its face. The beautiful taste delighted it. It swallowed while laughing.

A human who was close to the one that died cried out in pain and started to stab his bulletless rifle at the small zombie.

The Minion Zombie saw that someone was attacking so it roared towards this human. Pieces of the heart and its yellow saliva shot out. It then grabbed the head of the female zombie and shook it in front of the human.

The black lips of the female zombie head opened out. It shot out a red mist that caught the human off guard.

"Ah ah ah!"

The human tossed his gun to the ground and he knelt down in pain while scratching his face and body. It was as if there was something he couldn't resist. His skin looked like it was cooked, as he scratched, bit by bit was being ripped off and one could even see the bone!

But this person couldn't feel it and continued to scratch. In just a moment, the area from his face to his chest was left with white bones. One could see the organs in his chest cavity.

Argh! Argh!

That person cried out twice in pain before falling to the ground and dying.

Chapter 150: Solo defence

It was as if this person's death has started a sequence as the higher level zombies finally attacked.

Not far from the Minion Zombie was a short but strong zombie with a giant head that charged out.

The giant head zombie looked really weird. The circular head that was a third of its body was really shiny. The human's features were gone and it looked similar to a yoga ball.

The human in front of it was scared back by the weird fellow. He thrust the fruit knife that was welded to an iron rod forward to kill this monster. But when the blade hit the green head, it just rang out but didn't stab in. The huge strength even caused the fruit knife to fall off the iron rod.

The giant head suddenly turned upwards to reveal the face hidden below. It didn't have ears, nose and brows and there were just two soya bean sized eyes. It looked so weird on the giant head.

But it had a giant mouth and when it was closed it was a meter long and was in the middle of the ball head.

After the mouth appeared, the corners curled up like it was about to smile. But a second later, it opened and dozens of black meat rods with sharp drill shaped teeth at the tip appeared.

These meat rods stretched out from this giant head and as it got close to the human, the ten of them found a target and stabbed into that human.

That human couldn't dodge. He lowered his head and saw the meat rods in his body. He could sense that they were sucking his flesh away. He opened his mouth and wanted to shout but he had no strength at all. He felt his world shake and he had lost his life.

The giant head zombie pulled out the meat rods and its small eyes were filled with excitement. It was obvious that one human was not enough so it chased a new goal...

Apart from level two zombies, mutated animals bared their fangs too. These birds ran over and jumped up from among the zombies. The humans couldn't block their pecks and the moment they were hit, it would leave a giant hole. In just a short moment, three people fell to the ground and their bodies were ripped apart.

The defence line that was originally quite complete had a breach right away.

Such a breach was lethal.

That was because it meant that the zombies and mutated animals could attack the survivors from all directions.

The number of human deaths started to increase by the second.

"All come to me!"

Ye Zhongming shouted and slashed the body of the mutated rooster that attacked him. He couldn't bother about the fresh blood that spurted out and he started to expand his attack range.

"How long?"

"11 minutes!"

The time that Park Xiuying reported sent everyone into despair. The dozen normal people had ashen white faces like they had seen what was going to happen to them.

"Don't be afraid, follow me and retreat slowly!"

With Liang Chuyin's help, Ye Zhongming gathered the remaining people beside him. Liang Chuyin stood by his side and the two of them were in charge of most enemies. The rest had to deal with just a small angle which reduced the pressure of the situation.

Moreover, as they were retreating slowly, everyone felt more hopeful.

“Li Qiang!”

Ye Zhongming shouted and this shooter that was hiding on the ruins fired once more.

This was his final bullet case and it was given to him after that beautiful mature woman tossed it to Ye Zhongming and he passed it to him.

Li Qiang pulled the trigger. A long legged jumping zombie just leaped into mid air before it was hit between its eyes. The attack on the fatal area instantly killed the zombie.

The second bullet was fired and a zombie’s head exploded. The survivor who had closed his eyes and waited to die was saved.

“Boss Ye!”

Li Qiang started to call Ye Zhongming that like Little Tiger, “I think I see some people behind the zombies!”

At the life and death moment, Li Qiang suddenly shouted to Ye Zhongming.

“Are they within range?”

“No!”

Ye Zhongming’s expression didn’t change. If Li Qiang was right then his previous guess was correct. The new base was attacked because of this terrifying thing.

“Don’t bother about them! Chuyin attack!”

Liang Chuyin charged out and used Shadow Dance once more to clear some areas.

Ye Zhongming dashed to her side the moment her skill ended and grabbed the influencer that was in a state of weakness before tossing her backward.

“Teacher grab her.”

Park Xiuying who had used up most of her mental energy hugged Liang Chuyin and the two of them ran backwards.

They weren’t of much use anymore.

“Retreat to the ruins!”

Ye Zhongming slashed around him with Moon Edge and the zombies were sliced into two. They didn’t die as their heads were hit but half their bodies fell to the ground as they continued climbing. They grabbed everything they could reach and that meant that other zombies were slowed down. Some were even dragged down to the ground.

This gave the survivors some chance to run onto the ruins.

In a blink of an eye, half the people were dead. Those who managed to arrive here felt like they had survived death. But after amassing a huge amount of fear, those who survived worried less. They didn’t flee and started to pick up stones, bricks etc. Some even threw weapons at the zombies. Although it wouldn’t kill them but it was good to slow them down.

With no more humans around him, Ye Zhongming was finally able to go all out. He even used some skills that he learned from Mo Ye to maximise his strength.

These skills were learned from generations of improvements from kungfu masters. In his last life, even if people knew about this they wouldn't teach it to you unless you paid a huge price. But Ye Zhongming spent most of his money on job scrolls and the green gun so even if he met such a person, he didn't have anything extra to learn it.

Now that he had Mo Ye who learned from the most professional system and who picked up skills from kungfu grandmasters, Ye Zhongming definitely wouldn't give up that chance.

Ye Zhongming had grasped the simple skills of fighting during life and death. Now that he knew how to control his body and even his muscles, he was like a tiger with wings. He cleared out the mutated lifeforms around him.

The strength of a two star evolved was on full display. Even the same-level giant head zombie was sliced in one blade.

One person blocked the wave of zombies alone below the ruins. The survivors on the ruins were stunned. Their eyes and heart were filled with respect towards this guy.
