Chapter 24

“You guys should leave, no need to get involved in this, we can talk more later” Gu Qing Shan said as he walked out.

Anna immediately became sober.

“God damn he’s handsome” she whispered, a strange gleam in her eyes.

Feng Huo De spoke: “Your Highness, there are too many people here, we should leave now”

“Leave your ass, this is such a good chance” Anna’s face became serious, “Begin the evaluation”

Feng Huo De wryly laughs: “Evaluating his strength at a time like this really isn’t a good idea, if you’re found out, diplomatic relations can become very tense”

Anna still dead serious, looked at him and said: “Our mission right now is to find out why Impartial Goddess made a big deal out of all this, and Gu Qing Shan is without a doubt the star of the show”

She emphasized every word: “His Majesty is waiting for our answer”

“Yes”

Feng Huo De also became serious, quickly carried a small-sized machine from the bar storage room, placed it down on the ground and started to operate it.

“Gu Qing Shan’s biological signals recorded, unique features locked on, begin observation. Order: 270 observational drones and satellite, get to your positions”

“We’re in position” numerous voices rang from the communication device.

“Espionage Satellite in place” an electronic voice responded.

“Very good, comrades, this time’s mission is very crucial, ensure all monitor sensors are working properly”

“Roger that, Major”

“Good, then begin”, Feng Huo De pressed confirmed the order with a button.

“Professionalist Comprehensive Evaluation launched, the System will begin collecting data”

“April 27th 3091, 21:37 hour, Confederate citizen Gu Qing Shan, Male, 18 years old, potential evaluation begin”

A screen appeared in front of the two people, it was the scene of Gu Qing Shan walking out of the bar.

The area has already been evacuated, not a single person in sight on the large road.

The police siren sound was coming closer, on the sky, 4 police shuttles can be seen quickly approaching.

The shuttles are not yet here, but a voice had already rung across the whole block.

“Attention, person below, you are under suspicion of a crime, stand still and do not move, otherwise we will be forced to use violence”

Gu Qing Shan stood still and coldly stared at the shuttles.

Suddenly, a red light flashed from one of the shuttles and caught Gu Qing Shan’s attention.

“The laser pointer is active” Gu Qing Shan’s face tensed.

Sure enough, a second later, the small-sized arc canon attached under the shuttle fired a shot with a loud bang.

The blue light ripped across the sky, the arc canon shot hit the streets, blowing a deep hole in the ground.

The dust and rubble picked up by the wind obscured everyone’s vision.

In the sky, one of the shuttles questioned with a strict voice: “Police Shuttle 172033, why did you open fire, explain yourself”

“I received permission from above, please check your latest order, sir” the shuttle that fired answered without a care.

The shuttle from before was silent for a bit, then spoke again after a while: “Confirm scene, make sure to find the body”

All four shuttles slowly got closer.

The dust slowly cleared, showing the scene below.

There was nobody on the ground.

The murder suspect is standing on top of a streetlamp, his eyes coldly glancing towards them.

“Fuck, he’s still alive, prepare to open fire at once!”

But they didn’t have the chance.

Gu Qing Shan pulled the military bow’s string, his spirit energy flowed and shot 4 consecutive arrows.

All the policemen could see was an afterimage.

Boom!

All four small-sized police patrol shuttles caught on fire, struggling to safely land on the ground.

Their main engine was all shot by an arrow, if they do not land soon there’s risk of an explosion.

Anna whistled and spoke: “How professional”

Across from her and Feng Huo De, countless data was showing up on the screen of the Holo-Brain device as the evaluation system is quickly calculating.

Gu Qing Shan stood on top the streetlamp, his face calm.

He’s already a qi training stage 5 cultivator, even simple spirit energy infusion on the arrows have more power compared to before.

From the time he killed Xiong Hu, he's already more than twice as strong.

“Ha ha ha, Gu Qing Shan, you're a Confederate citizen, but not only did you resist arrest, you even attacked the police!”

From afar, a triumphant laugh can be heard.

Gu Qing Shan looked back, seeing Nie Yun standing on top of a building, together with his extravagant shuttle.

Behind him, more than a dozen burly men stood.

Nie Yun crossed his arms, making a regretful face: “Even though we were fellow students, but as an aristocrat of Chang Ning County, I have a duty to help the police catch criminals”

Gu Qing Shan looked at him, calmly asked: “You don't really have to keep clashing with me like this you know”

Nie Yun answered with spite: “You made me lose 20 million at the casino, and then killed my Steward, you think I'm easy to mess with don't you?”

Turning around, he spoke: “Go kill him, the one who gets his head gets 10 million”

As soon as the burly men hear that, they all looked at Gu Qing Shan.

A bounty worth 10 million!

Some jumped down, others climb the walls, but their target is only Gu Qing Shan.

Nie Yun lifted an elegant glass of red wine, laughing loudly: “30 genetically modified Martial Masters will kill you through number alone, this is the true power of a Noble!”

Gu Qing Shan looked at the crowd of Martial Masters approaching him, then silently raised his bow

His hands moved so fast it left afterimages as the military bow let out a dull sound every time.

Pew! Pew! Pew! Pew! Pew! Pew!

The face of the man who ran it first changed, his body shifted to one side

A grey shadow passed through where he stood before.

“Naïve”

The man’s face showed a cruel smile, but before he could say anything else, another arrow had already pierced his chest.

A large gaping hole in the middle of his body, large enough to see what’s behind.

The burly man fell on the ground, no longer moving.

In the sky, more and more arrows are flying, faster and faster, Gu Qing Shan’s face still as cold as before, both hands not stopping for even a second, almost like he became a human shooting machine!

As the rain of arrows fall, the martial artists all scurry to dodge, no longer having the leisure to move forward.

But very quickly, they found themselves unable to dodge at all.

Each grey shadow turned into their worst nightmare as it takes away their lives.

One of the Masters seeing the situation turning unfavorable took out a suitcase from behind, pressing a button on it.

An exoskeleton armor expanded from inside and quickly enveloped him.

Exoskeleton armors have quite the good defense, not only does it increase the user's strength, but also comes with a firearm system, a standard for frontline army soldiers.

He's a genetically modified Martial Master, essentially the same as taking steroids, even though his strength is that of a Master, his true skills aren't, so he doesn't care about using firearms.

A true Martial Master would rather use their bare hands to wrestle in a fight than to bother with these things.

Gu Qing Shan immediately noticed him, turned his aim towards the man and activated Rapid Fire.

Pssh pssh pssh pssh pssh!

After the sound of consecutive impacts mixed with the crackling of electricity, the martial artist spurt out a cloud of blood, fell on the ground and no longer moved.

On the exoskeleton was a deep hole.

This type of defense is a little bit stronger than a small-sized Mech's armor plating, but facing Gu Qing Shan's spirit energy infused arrows, it still isn't enough to make a difference.
