

Apocalypse 2511

Chapter 2511 Raising a Dreadful Army! III

Each of the trillions of quasars that made her felt like they were filled with boundless potential.

Her Aspects of Existence buzzed as they felt the unique authority coursing through them.

The same authority that nearly killed her.

The same authority that the moment it was being corrected...

[The 7th Boundary Layer of Ruin has been achieved.]

[The 8th Boundary Layer of Ruin has been achieved.]

Crimson gold words like these rose multiple times over as the tendrils of Ruin that had been wrecking her body all these years suddenly turned docile!

[The 9th Boundary Layer of Ruin has been achieved.]

[Enough understanding of Ruin by your Foundation still remains as it seeks your Extremity Meridians to progress even further.]

She felt it meld into her very soul as if she could control it to the finest threads!

As if her soul was meant just for this.

This...was her Innate Pellucid Hyperversal Foundation that nearly killed her!

It allowed her to absorb and turn the ruin that was killing her into pure understanding that only stopped at the 9th Boundary Layer because it couldn't go on any further.

This...was the ridiculous pace of progression she could make with her Foundation!

Her eyes fluttered with astonishment as she contained her nervousness when she gazed at the being who had made this change possible.

If she cultivated near him, or...did 'that' with him, her progression could go up to 1,000,000% faster!

Didn't this mean Extremity would be achieved in a ridiculously short period of time?

But when she thought about the action that would require such a thing, her stellar face reddened!

She may talk big and analyze things calmly, with her mind choosing the most opportune paths in dangerous scenarios, but her true timid nature that even her father had rarely seen was still there.

Since she fell from the high pedestal as a genius of the Quasarian Bloodline, she had resigned herself to death as never in her wildest dreams did she think a man like this would appear to solve everything.

He was nothing like the stellar knight in shining armor she always dreamed of. He was more like a celestial beast whose eyes clearly told her he wanted to possess everything about her entirely!

'Ah...'

She realized she had been blankly staring at him inches away while thinking all this as she collected herself an instant later and uttered out.

"It...seems that whatever Hyperversal Extremity is in contact with the Singularity Overseers wanted to get a hold of my Innate Pellucid Hyperversal Foundation. We can continue and see how much more powerful it'll be once I undergo Apexification!"

She didn't even mention the crimson gold words she saw as she chose to entirely move on for now.

He wouldn't have out anything about it anyway, right?

Before her figure, he smiled devilishly as his finger tapped out, authority flowing into her body as like many others- she was pushed towards Apexification!

This was Noah's goal as for such a thing...hours passed.

His authority of Dynamis of Extremity was utilized a great deal for the emergence of Apex Aeonian Lifeforms as the gains he made were far too valuable.

In a matter of hours, the changes that would occur in the Infinite Hyperversal Haven were so drastic that if someone said a genuine Hyperversal Extremity was the one responsible for such changes...they wouldn't be believed!

The first day before the promised Apex War of Annihilation was passing swiftly for some and strangely slow for others.

But some beings were above the bindings of space and time itself.

Within the Aeonian Haven of Dissolution, near a region filled with molten mountains in the skies and the earth, tendrils of a dark state of verisimilitude bursting from the mountain peaks as they seemed potent enough to burn the very Souls of Lifeforms.

The few regions of the Aeonian Haven of Dissolution occupied by Lernaean and Noblesse were filled with Ruin and Nullity across it, but this wasn't the case for many other regions of this Haven.

The unexplored regions held their own dangers and natural phenomena as the current region with molten mountains covering the skies and earth had a massively radiant black crack that seemed to be swallowing the very surrounding space constantly!

It was filled with Vacuous Hyperversal Authority.

If someone with sufficient power was able to enter this region, they would find that it was a specific zone of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority where in its very center, two figures could be seen floating freely without any concerns or care!

One sat in a meditative position as Vacuous Hyperversal Authority pulsed around his body, the other standing behind this being as dense and potent Hyperversal Extremity Authority of Destruction flowed from him freely.

It was the Hyperversal Extremity of Destruction and his Scion that had been giving chase to Aurelia and the other Lernaeanes!

"Do you feel any closer?"

The voice of the Hyperversal Extremity of Destruction rang out as his disciple shook his head with a sigh.

"The 17th Boundary Layer of Destruction seems further than ever. I feel like I am lacking in my soul, even after spending all these years surrounded by Vacuous Hyperversal Authority, it is still not sufficient."

Slight regret could be felt from this disciple as his Master laughed with a cognizant light, his Hyperversal Extremity Authority receding after he completed what many Hyperversal Extremities do for their Clans and Inheritances!

They bathed their Apex Aeonic Lifeforms with their unique Hyperversal Authority- with those having the support of truly powerful Extremities that could impart their power and time with ease being capable of reaching the upper Boundaries towards Extremity with relative ease.

"For you, it is not sufficient anymore to simply feel the end goal of Destruction from me. You need to experience a unique type of Destruction in order to advance to the 17th Boundary Layer. For me, it only came after I destroyed the Foundations of my Elder Brother who at the time already held the 17th Boundary Layer of Light. A once in a lifetime talent that nearly had an Absolute Seed of Extremity forged...and I snuffed his light just like that. I advanced the instant I did so."

"Destruction can come in many forms, my dear disciple, but the destruction of an existence that has forged an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity and dipped his fingers into Vacuous Hyperversal Authority even before Apexification...that is a type of Destruction that may take your Boundary Layer to the 17th level!"

WAA!

A glorious statement was made as the eyes of Ahpuch glittered with brilliance.

Chapter 2512 Raising a Dreadful Army! IV

"It will be a loss for the Seven Havens for such a being to die, yes, but it will be a win for you. And I won't lie...this would be a heavy ordeal for you as this Osmont is in no way simple, and the Adjudicator should be very inclined to him. There may even be a relationship there that we aren't aware of."

Dangerous words were said as these two beings floated serenely amidst dangerous Vacuous Hyperversal Authority.

"If you do succeed amidst the chaos though, you will incur her Wrath as even with my appearance, she will likely force you with multiple Obsidian Haven Albatrosses or a Crimson Haven Albatross after all, you are also a crucial being who has attained 'that' which even some Hyperversal Extremities do not have, Svetlana would never dare to even put her hands on you personally. There are no true losses you can incur so...head towards the little mice known as Noblesse. You and your Junior Brothers will fight on their side during this. Your goal will only be destruction- whatever form that may take."

BOOM!

The Vacuous Hyperversal Authority pulsed around them as the Hyperversal Extremity of Destruction made his will known towards his disciple- Ahpuch!

The seconds were like stellar dust that drifted into minutes.

Minutes turned into hours.

Different existences used this time in their own ways as some utilized it in a fashion that most wouldn't even be able to imagine.

Half the time before the Apex War of Annihilation that was being talked about with frequency had passed, with the chosen Apex Battlefield being filled with Legions of Noblesse led by Unequaled Dynamis of Extremity.

Among Noah's Vassals, there seemed to be something all of them were singularly missing.

It wasn't due to their souls being weak or their Foundations being faulty.

They were among the most perfectly clean newly advanced Apex Aeonis Lifeforms there could be across the Havens of Extremity!

Yet it seemed like there was an impossible to overcome wall ahead of them whenever they even thought of forming an Absolute Seed of Extremity.

Noah's Wills gazed at the dozens of auras of Apex Aeonis Lifeforms around him as he knew the issue.

He knew it well as his gaze turned towards his left.

There, across the veils of emerald light, was the domain that Aurelia was contained in along with one of his bodies.

And her figure was a stunning one as it seemed to be dripping with pure gold liquid light that hugged her curves and blessings, her expression that of shock as she spoke in disbelief while opening her eyes to lock onto Noah.

She had returned to being an Apex Aeon Lifeform as in her body, the flash of 54 golden Extremity Meridians shone.

And every few seconds, they would flash with even greater brilliance as she couldn't help but look at the man responsible for this and say even more extreme words.

"I...I think I may actually be able to converge enough Boundaries to form a Seed. An Absolute Seed!"

Pure disbelief was all she felt as she breathed in once more.

And...

"Ah..."

She felt 24 essences course within her as some in particular seemed to be getting ever closer together with every breath.

She couldn't believe it.

She locked her eyes with the existence before her that had taught her this ridiculous breathing method not too long ago as she had no words.

Her golden hair danced wondrously on her bare fair shoulders while the rest of her dazzling figure was encased in liquified golden light, her calm eyes becoming more serious than ever before as she looked at the man before her while uttering out.

"Who...no, what are you, really?"

WAA!

She seemed to be asking out of pure curiosity and need as she continued.

"None of this is normal. Even in the bounds of abnormal, it is even more abnormal. Just..."

She didn't have any words.

And the being before her smiled as even though she should be immensely more powerful than him currently, she felt like she was gazing at an immovable force that was many times greater than her.

Such an outlook didn't make sense as her power now...was not something her past self could even fathom!

Yet this being before her still seemed as if he could snuff her out if he wished for it at any time.

And he looked at her with a stellar smile as he replied calmly.

"I am simply a man who moves with purpose. And my purpose for you...is Extremity."

...!

Extremity.

For her, not even for him.

'Why...'

Why did he want Extremity for her?

As if he could read her gaze, he continued.

"It is so that I can taste Extremity with my own lips as you head towards it and achieve it. I am basking in the Hyperversal Extremity Authority of an Esteemed Extremity right now, but I want to do more than bask in it. You can feel the beginnings of an Absolute Seed of Extremity, and your Fortune reached the 15th Boundary Layer after all these transformations, yes?"

His gaze was so deep that she swallowed while nodding blankly, her eyes opening wide as she finally understood some of this being's purpose.

"Good. Then I shall bring you ever closer to Extremity as we will focus on forming your Absolute Seed of Extremity first."

He called towards her.

Her golden hair flitted as she blinked a few times, her body finding itself going towards him instinctively as even now, she felt like she was floating towards an unfathomably powerful existence that held more mysteries than she could even imagine!

Chapter 2513 Alexander King's Apexification! I

His eyes were serene and yet filled with a powerful light as he stared at the figure of Aurelia.

Her exquisite figure was literally adorned in the molten authority of Loot as her golden hair danced on her fair shoulders, her eyes empty as she came forward due to his words.

The True Emperor of an Age long past his as she was an Ancestor of a whole Lineage!

He would elevate her to an even grander stature as he voiced out towards her while gazing at her stat panel.

"Don't already be dazed for this. I need you to be fully focused on what we're about to do."

[Name]:: Caterina Aurelia Dismukes

[Dynamis of Extremity]::Gilded, Redeemer, Auriferous, Languorous [Boundaries of Extremity]:: Fortune, Loot, Providence, Fate, Karma, Destiny...

Destiny...

Her achievements were already grand beforehand, and with Noah's Realm Reconstruction and Aspect Configuration...her values exploded to a ridiculous level as in terms of her Values, she currently exceeded all others in the Infinite Hyperversal Haven!

Of course, these values were already inflated as they were not the numbers of a newly risen Apex Aeonian Lifeform.

All of Aurelia's past achievements were utilized in her Reconstruction as her Realm was greatly advanced, along with a number of boosts from her Boundaries that had reached Layers past 10th!

And with her Foundation, it was now even easier to raise her Boundaries towards higher layers as by the time she consolidated her new boundaries and forged an Absolute Seed of Extremity, her foundation would be even more pristine as her Values would continue scaling upwards.

His words took her out of her stupor as her fair skin shone with a stellar radiance.

"You...can't you at least be subtle? For some of us, this is the first time going through these experiences."

...!

Her golden eyes danced with power as they actually felt wronged at this moment!

All the years she had lived, she secluded herself from others as with her Golden Forge, she had no need to ever step foot outside her domain to go on any adventures or anything of that nature.

The only man she ever had prolonged contact with was Genesis as even then, she found his demeanor and self hatred of his past actions to be too bland for her tastes.

Yet this unfathomable being before her...she didn't even know what to expect as towards her words, he smiled as if he had found something amusing to play with as his voice echoed out.

"There is nothing subtle in what we're about to do. During it though, try to keep your focus as best as you can on the Boundary of Fortune and the Absolute Seed of Extremity."

HOONG!

Stellar golden and verdant mist surged and covered everything in the surroundings as Aurelia snorted at this moment.

He may be unfathomable, but she could instinctively feel that she was stronger than him at this moment.

Would he really be the only one pushing her around, or could she teach him a lesson before one of his bodies underwent

Apexification?

Apexification!

To prepare for such a thing with his Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity that was Alexander King, Noah had spared no efforts in the past day and a half!

The eyes of Alexander turned towards the direction where one of his Clones was about to begin a different type of battle with Aurelia, this battle being something that Noah would truly benefit from with the appearance of Alexander as an Apex Aeonian Lifeform.

This was because his Boundaries would be able to continue climbing upwards as an Apex Aeonian Lifeform- the practice of Dual Cultivation being something that would be most useful in elevating his Boundaries if he were doing it with someone like Aurelia who had reached the 15th Boundary Layer, or an existence like Xiaomi who would make Noah's Boundaries relating to Sources of Chaos climb at such a rapid pace that they would leave behind even Quintessence!

But all of these things could only truly be savored when one of his bodies became an Apex Aeonian Lifeform.

When Alexander King took this step!

And he had achieved all his requirements.

Over 81 Boundaries were expanded towards Extremity as Noah added the Boundaries of Life, Esuriance, Impermanence, Archetypes, Chronos, Aether, Destruction, Slaughter, Fealty, and Annihilation.

Some Boundaries that were favored more than others were placed within the 81 Hyperversal Extremity Meridian Seeds while others were removed, with the appearance of Alexander now being ready to proceed forward with his Origin only saturated at the Third Aletheian Haven of Extremity!

For an Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity, Noah had already over prepared by doing all this.

His main body would continue doing its utmost to build an even more exemplary foundation as among many things in progress for the past day and a half, the elevation of his Boundaries from Golden Consummate had begun as Noah put to use the Light of Conquest gathered by the domination of the Lernaean Domains and his own elevated Soul Value in being capable of altering his Recorded History in the Aeonic Annals of Extremity.

His main body would take the reigns of building the most Quintessential Foundation before Apexification.

For the purposes of the upcoming war and domination of local Aeonic Inheritances of Extremity placing their fingers into the Haven of Dissolution, Alexander King's current foundation would be more than enough!

"Proceed."

WAA!

His main body commanded.

Apart from all the overpreparation, there was also an unmentioned sense of urgency that pushed Noah to seek Apexification as soon as possible for at least his clone- and this dealt with his own calculations and possibilities he had thought of in the illusory trillions of years within Vacuous Hyperversal Authority!

Chapter 2514 Alexander King's Apexification! II

Existence Dissociation that gave birth to the Absolute Vitalistic Clones of Extremity was one of the parts of the puzzles that guarded Noah and his Vassals from any real danger while facing Apex Aeonic Lifeforms.

But...it wasn't something that was enough for Hyperversal Extremity Authority!

Existences that had reached Extremity had terrifying ways of moving that Noah was only getting glimpses of through his Unrecorded Aeonic Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Foundation, and the things he was able to understand and see as his access into the Aeonic Annals of Extremity increased!

After the actions of Euryale and the repercussions they had, Noah did not just want to be reactive to what may possibly happen or not happen in the future as the Apexification of Alexander King was another method of protection.

Protection against existences that had even reached Extremity!

He wouldn't be inactive and simply believe that the Adjudicator of Dissolution would move to protect him if a Hyperversal Extremity attacked him whether hiddenly or in the open.

She had already failed to do so once as she could always do it again.

No. As always, one had to depend on themselves!

And one of Noah's solutions at keeping threats from even Hyperversal Extremities at bay...involved forging an Absolute Seed of Extremity geared towards areas that such beings were most adept at.

Ways of attacking that others couldn't even see coming!

Through Destiny, Fate, Providence, or any other similar concepts.

Through the Aeonic Annals of Extremity.

It was a task for Alexander King to design yet another Absolute Seed of Extremity apart from the one filled with devilish destruction and horrors that he had been experimenting with!

And the concepts for the aforementioned Seed of Extremity were already set in stone as things only had to be implemented.

And so...Alexander King moved forward.

"Come."

His voice was deep and resolute as it made a calling.

A calling to the dazzling 81 Hyperversal Extremity Meridian Seeds that were only waiting for such a call!

And...

BOOM!

An explosive shockwave emanated out as immense and utterly wild seas of authority began to rage around Alexander King like a torrential storm of majesty.

His body already held the seeds as the moment after he called them, they enlarged with a blinding light to become radiant stanchions of light that bloomed across his Aspects of Existence!

[The Hyperversal Extremity Meridian Seeds in your body are advancing to become Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians!]

The Process of Apexification fully began as 81 pillars of light began to appear and illuminate Noah's body.

Other beings would start with 1 or 9 and continue building up more, but Noah straight away achieved 81 Extremity Meridians in one sitting as this was what his Foundation boasted!

81 radiant Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians formed as his Aspects of Existence began to be drawn and devoured into them, even more prompts rising along the way.

[The Unrecorded Aeonic Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Foundation is burning with the light of Apexification.] [The Unrecorded Aeonic Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Foundation asks you to define yourself.]

The definition of Noah Osmont's will within the rising Alexander King.

It could be nothing else other than...

"Quintessential."

THUMP!

Like a beating heart, one of the Extremity Meridians pulsed and turned into an utterly bright pillar of light.

And it wasn't over.

Because the True Emperor of Quintessence...had only just begun to define himself with more concepts!

"Providence, Manadynamics, Loot, Blood, Body, Origin, Soul, Apocalypse, Impermanence..."

One word after another, multiple defining concepts were uttered out as an Extremity Meridian shone after every single utterance.

And as this process began, the part of Noah's soul contained within Alexander King began to go utterly wild as its Soul Values started to exponentially surge upwards!

And the moment this process began...

[The Process of Apexification is spurring Quintessential changes to your soul.]

[The Process of Apexification has spurred the remaining sliver of Convergence of your Dynamis of Extremity forward.]

The Convergence of his two Dynamis of Extremity!

They had reached 99.99% after being used so much these past few days as they didn't budge thereafter, with Noah waiting exactly for this time as he didn't even utilize any Loot to finish the last remaining percentage- not a single Bud of Convergence!

Such Loot was reserved for the quick Convergence of Dynamis that were about to form.

But at this glorious juncture...

[The Aletheian Dynamis of Extremity has reached 100%

Convergence.]

[The Vitalistic Dynamis of Extremity has reached 100%

Convergence.]

A heavy presence erupted from his main body as the changes of concepts like Dynamis were simultaneously expressed in Noah's Soul.

One runic seed that read [ALETHEIAN] and another that read [VITALISTIC] shone with splendor as they began to bloom a moment later!

[An Aletheian Perennial Yggdrasil of Extremity is blooming within your Soul!]

[A Vitalistic Perennial Yggdrasil of Extremity is blooming within your Soul!]

A black gold Yggdrasil and another of emerald grandeur sprouted within his soul and caused its Soul Values to be elevated to an even more ridiculous level, profound changes continuing to take place!

Each of the blooming trees had trunks as radiant as cylindrical Havens while their branches glimmered like black gold or emerald rivers of stellar Realities that stretched out across Noah's body.

[Due to the enhancements of your Foundation, every half a day, the Aletheian and Vitalistic Perennial Yggdrasil of Extremity will bud Aletheian and Vitalistic Fruits of Extremity equivalent to the number of concepts in their makeup.]

Across Noah's Aspects of Existence, the first established Indefatigable Perennial Yggdrasil dominantly stood as one could see 27 dazzling stellar cherry colored Singularity already formed at the tips of some of its branches.

27 Indefatigable Fruits of Extremity were already born during the past day and a half as now, Aletheian and Vitalistic would join the fray to add their own grandeur!

[All features under the banner of the Aletheian and Vitalistic Dynamis of Extremity are further enhanced.]

[The Aletheian and Vitalistic Absolute Planar Domains can now be cast.]

On a corner of his eyes, lines of golden prompts passed as they delved into the fantastical enhancements of the features of the elevated Dynamis of Extremity as well as even new ones, but Noah set these aside to look at later as he gazed at two final prompts before turning his gaze towards the process of Apexification!

[The Authority of the Aletheian and Vitalistic Dynamis of Extremity will flow across your Aspects of Existence to strengthen your Unrecorded Aeonic Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Foundation passively when utilizing your Quintessential Breath of Extremity Modus Operandi, granting an increase in all your Hyperversal Values unceasingly.]

[The combination of your Quintessential Breath of Extremity Modus Operandi, Unrecorded Aeonic Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Foundation, and the authority of the Indefatigable, Aletheian, and Vitalistic Absolute Dynamis of Extremity coursing through you has caused the strengthening and strengthening of your Aspects of Existence to reach an even more abnormal level, granting you an increase of +2.5 Hyperversal Soul Values, +2.5 Hyperversal Damage Values, +7.5 Hyperversal Defense Values, and +7.5 Hyperversal Vitality Values daily.]

Pristine beauty displayed itself as other beings would truly cry just at seeing it be a reality.

And yet it was there as the authority of three fully converged Absolute Dynamis of Extremity granted him massive enhancements to his power in addition to not yet quantified changes brought about due to the full Convergence of all Boundaries- his Aspects of Existence currently all being strengthened!

But...Noah had to bring his attention onto the visage of Alexander.

He had to because the 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians budding within his body had blazed with a shocking message the moment that he finished defining himself with all 81 concepts.

[The Boundary Layers of all Concepts of Extremity placed within the 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians will be determined by the highest Boundary Layer you have achieved in any single Concept of Extremity up to the 17th Boundary Layer.] ...!

BOOM!

Chapter 2515 Alexander King's Apexification! III

[The Boundary Layers of all Concepts of Extremity placed within the 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians will be determined by the highest Boundary Layer you have achieved in any single Concept of Extremity up to the 17th Boundary Layer.] ...!

Oh!

An utterly broken prompt unfolded before Noah's will whole the 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity swallowed everything about his old body.

They remained floating serenely in the verdant space as they pulsed with utmost dominance, his people inadvertently coming out of their traces to watch the grandeur.

The grandeur that commenced with two Dynamis of Extremity reaching full Convergence and continued with a single prompt that truly proved what the Unrecorded Aeon Quintessential

Hyperversal Extremity Foundation was about!

When the Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity that was Alexander was forged, it had access to Noah's Concepts of Extremity and the authority of Dynamis that were branded on their collective soul.

The utilization and authority of these Authorities was one of the few things that could be shared and employed by both main body and Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity through the shared soul and it was why the process of Apexification spurred the Dynamis of Extremity Alexander had access to as Noah's Main Body was able to gain this benefit simultaneously!

It meant that when new Dynamis of Extremity were formed by one portion of Noah's soul within Alexander...his main body would be able to get strengthened by an obscene amount as it pulled upon the authorities of these newly forged Dynamis- forcefully expanding his soul within the main body and building an ever grander foundation before it underwent Apexification.

The only limitation was that whatever high Soul Values the portion of soul contained in Alexander came out to be in the near future, Noah couldn't simply take or display this same power unless he chose to assimilate with the Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity then he would attain everything.

Even in this broken reality he was enacting, there was still some semblance of balance.

But then, there was the prompt that utterly gave a middle finger to all other existences working hard to expand even a few boundaries towards the Extremity Layer.

It proposed that all of his Boundaries...would have their Layers reflect whatever his highest Layer was in any of the other Boundaries within the 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians!

This meant that if Quintessence reached the 13th Boundary Layer, all the 80 other Boundaries would also reach the 13th Boundary Layer.

If Quintessence was brought up to the 17th Layer, all the 80 other Boundaries would also reach the 17th Boundary Layer!

It was a dreadful feature that slightly dimmed the authority that Noah's Main Body had been attaining when his Vassals underwent Apexification and achieved their own 10th Boundary Layers.

But when it truly came to just how such a ridiculous feature could be abused...it had to be with what single Boundary Noah could raise the fastest.

At this point in time, it actually wasn't Quintessence!

It was any one of the Sources of Chaos boosted by the range of 10,000% to 100,000% increased rate of progression that could be gained through Xiaomi!

He just had to proceed rapidly in one while he focused his Indefatigable, Vitalistic, Aletheian, and any other Fruits of Extremity that he would receive from the multiple Perennial Yggdrasil of Extremity into a single Boundary and ascend at a speed even Hyperversal Extremities could fathom.

And there were many sources of such Loot as within the Vein of Dissolution, Noah's Reified Sources along with other Scions had pierced into the more dangerous lands over the past day and a half as their hands were beginning to be filled with all sorts of treasures.

Treasures that could aid in the Convergence of Dynamis of Extremity, and those that aided in the advancement of Boundaries towards Extremity!

And profoundly connected to all of this...was something else deeply entrenched in Noah's Soul.

No matter the division between him and Alexander King.

He and those he granted access to could only enter it through his Soul!

It was none other than Infinite Forge of Extremity where at its very core...lay a Relic that had one of its main purposes being the multiplication of Loot.

BOOOM!

The 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians released a multicolored pulse as from it, a new form of life began to bloom.

[The Culmination of all the accomplishments of the Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity are being utilized to forge an Apex Aeonic Lifeform.]

A body commenced to be built with the 81 Quintessential

Hyperversal Extremity Meridians as the skeletal support.

Since its Soul Values already exceeded what a newly advanced Apex Aeonic Lifeform would have even before undergoing

Apexification...just how inflated would they be when this process was complete?!

HOONG!

New Aspects of Existence took shape.

And with them, a portion of Noah's soul experienced the most ridiculous explosion of strength yet.

Alongside it...

[The 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians illuminate the Concepts contained within them.]

[The 10th Boundary Layer of Quintessence has been achieved.] [The 10th Boundary Layer of Loot has been achieved.]

[The 10th Boundary Layer of Manadynamics has been achieved...] 81 blazing golden prompts.

One after another, they came as with each one, the newly forming visage of Alexander became ever more magisterial!

Since the Meridian Seeds became Extremity Meridians, the 10th Boundary Layer could be supported by the soul taking the identity of Alexander, but Noah's Main Body wouldn't be able to express the authorities of these layers until he formed Extremity Meridians of his own.

But Alexander King could display all of it as with every Boundary attaining a new layer, brilliance overflowed along with abundant information for each new layer!

Until...

[The transforming soul of the Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity is resonating with the construct of the Infinite System accessible within its very depths.]

...!

[A Quintessential amount of authority has begun flowing into the Infinite System and its constructs.]

Fantastical and all around change bloomed as many things were altered!

Chapter 2516 Alexander King's Apexification! IV

A Relic floated in the midst of radiant white gold brilliance as it was in a humanoid form.

It shone with crimson and gold light while bathing in waves of profound Loot Light, the air it gave off putting most Apex Aeonic Relics to shame as it had been refined and elevated by endless Loot Light within the Infinite Forge over the past days!

Amidst the liquefied essences flowing around it and the stellar infinity symbols covering dense rotating Loot that seemed like stellar bodies around her, one could barely see a raised smile on the lips of this Relic as its will thought finally...it could be of use to its Master once more.

But then...

HOOONG!

The forge trembled an instant later as the infinity symbols spinning and releasing waves of loot light trembled, a dominant authority being infused into them as they instantly doubled in size while their brilliance became even more potent!

And it didn't stop there as they still seemed to be expanding, torrential waves of Loot Light beginning to flow down from them as the sentient relic at the very center was alarmed to find seas of Loot Light even more potent than what it had been bathing in this whole tike behind to swarm towards her on all sides!

It was Ruination experiencing an even more profound baptism and elevation due to the Apexification of a portion of Noah's soul!

Ancient groves of trees floated in space, their roots sinking and melding into stellar space as they seemed connected with the very reality of this region.

They shone in pronounced colors of stellar obsidian light as they were composed of layers of cosmos, clusters of such groves of trees stretched throughout this region that didn't seem to have a sky or earth.

In one area, a destroyed grove could be seen along with a massive body of a Prion Armadillo split open, the visage of the ever so radiant Reified Source of Quintessence being seen next to this dead Leviathan of Dissolution as from the grove of trees, he plucked out a Crimson gold hyphae herb that shone with brilliance!

[Blazing Hyphae of Extremity]:: An Aeonic Treasure of Extremity that is conducive in aiding the progression of Boundaries geared towards heat and flames. The potent light of Extremity within it seems capable of aiding one up to the 13th Boundary Layer...

Such treasures were the ones Noah and many others were finding as they roamed the Extremity Vein of Dissolution, with Noah's Quintessential Emperor of Extremity form remaining in this area briefly after attaining the artifact as a subtle brilliance could be seen on his stellar skin.

The reason for this was none other than the fact that Quintessence had reached the 10th Boundary Layer with a portion of Noah's soul!

For the reified source, it felt as if it had attained an even grander stage, and at the same time not as the portion of Noah's soul it stemmed from could not express the authority of the 10th

Boundary Layer.

It was delving into this incongruity when an instant later...

"Oh? Osmont!"

The booming voice of Erikson was heard as this wild being appeared from the side.

His tan visage seemed to glow with strength as he had grasped his own Extremity Foundation, his beach shirt radiating stellar radiance as he held his slippers in his hands instead of his feet.

Further behind him, Scions who had also achieved their own Extremity Foundation followed him, each one adorned in sleek suits as it seemed Erikson had rejoined with his forces.

He came beside Noah's Reified Source of Quintessence freely while whistling out at the sheer aura he radiated, his voice echoing out.

"My people tell me some inconsequential Lineage sought an Apex War with you and your people as a few dredges of Inheritances are standing beside them. Do you want me to send out an Obsidian Sima Legion or two to stand beside your Lineage? I have enough power to mobilize them."

...!

Obsidian Sima Legions!

One of the core forces of the Sima Clan as they stood just below the Crimson Sima Legions and above the Golden Sima Legions.

Within a single Obsidian Sima Legion...24 Apex Aeon Lifeforms were at the lead! For Erikson to have the power of mobilizing multiple of such forces, his identity was not a simple one!

Towards his words, Noah stretched his neck while replying.

"No. I want all my enemies to myself. And any Inheritances supporting my enemies...are only setting themselves to be ruined groups that will no longer be able to call themselves Inheritances in the very near future."

WAA!

His will could be felt radiantly in his words as in the distance, the eyes of Erikson's underlings shook with brilliance!

Erikson smiled as if he expected this answer, his eyes wildly gazing into the distance as his words continued.

"You are a hard one to understand. But let me know of anything that I can do in order to bring you over to the Sima Clan. We do more than quarrel about power and standing as we know the real threat out there. Fostering and supporting unique existences like you is only our duty."

...!

A heavy sense of responsibility raged with his words, giving a stark contrast to the carefree way he dressed and moved!

He didn't stay long as after watching the river of stellar black blood leaking from the Prion Armadillo before Noah, he shouted out into the distance while leaving one last resonant message.

"I received word from a Hyperversal Extremity of Foreordination of the Sima Clan that the Initiation Step of Extremity Sanctification we're in will be abnormally short, even possibly ending over the next few days as the Culmination Step will be ushered in with a surge of even more chaos."

A communication standing by itself as it was only directed towards Noah while Erikson disappeared, his retinue following behind him as Noah only smiled at such a message.

Of course the Initiation Step of Extremity Sanctification was ending in an abnormally short period of time.

After all, his Reified Sources of Extremity were sweeping away enormous numbers of treasures like the [Blazing Hyphae of Extremity] across the endless area of the Vein of Dissolution!

And in the Culmination Step to come where Apex Aeonic Lifeforms joined the fray...he would be even more ready for such a stage as a part of him was finishing up the process of Apexification!

Chapter 2517 Obscene Values! I

An extended banquet table filled with trays pulsing with the aura of EPOCH Relics could be seen, vibrant and mouth watering meats from ancient Beasts cooked under the flames of Boundaries seen filling these radiant trays.

The laughter of Apex Aeonic Lifeforms could be heard as on seats that looked like thrones, the figures of Apex Aeonic Lifeforms from the Singularity Overseers, Genesis Institute of Extremity, and Noblesse could be seen mingling and enjoying a grand feast.

Noblesse Reverend Emperors with pristine beauty, men and women alike, could be seen moving around the stellar banquet table and constantly refilling drinks and foods that shimmered with the aura of Aeonic Treasures of Extremity.

Everyone here were Allies in the upcoming war as they cordially got together to discuss everything to do with this war and the ongoing Extremity Sanctification of the Aeonic Haven of Dissolution!

At this moment, a burst of boisterous laughter rang out from one side of the table that showed a scowling Singularity Elder beside Zeitgeist speaking.

"Haha, so it really seems this genius has condemned his whole Bloodline to death. So what if he attained an Absolute Seed of Extremity? The weight of all that blood on his shoulders would be more than enough to prevent him from even reaching the 17th Boundary Layer!"

A light of jealousy and distaste could be felt within his words and eyes as those around him laughed ruefully.

Each of them dearly wished for an Absolute Seed of Extremity, but most felt that it would be forever outside their grasp as they couldn't help but lament!

When knowing that a Mutated Entity who could attain such a thing even before Apexification existed, they couldn't help but envy!

"Didn't I hear rumors that the Singularity Overseers welcomed another Hyperversal Extremity not too long ago with an Absolute Seed of Extremity? Comparing that to a being who..."

Discussions continued with harmony as these Lifeforms talked about their Inheritances and any pertinent issues.

Towards the center of the table, Commander Vladic sat beside Grand Genesis Elder Meiyong as his expression was visibly dark and he wasn't participating in any of the festivities!

How could he when much of it involved disparaging the one being he could not kill in this Apex War?

Even now, his mind buzzed with possibilities as he sought for a way in what seemed like an impossible situation!

Meiyong saw this as she sighed while speaking to him mentally.

"Sometimes, the powers that be make it impossible for things you consider fair to occur. You will simply need to let it go and allow the Annihilation of his Lineage to serve as a recompense, otherwise-"

BOOM!

Before Grand Genesis Elder Meiying could finish her words, their surroundings buzzed as the illusory dome above them cracked to reveal stellar bodies littered in the distance, the forms of 5 Apex Aeonian Lifeforms floating above the cracks of the domain!

The number was very low compared to all the Apex Aeonian

Lifeforms here, but their auras were simply maddening to feel especially the red robed being at the lead of this force.

His body rhythmically with a heavy force of haki that made even Grand Singularity Elder Zeitgeist and Grand Genesis Elder Meiying change their gazes and become entirely somber.

His aura alone let them know he was many times more powerful than them!

His eyes were sharp as within them, Destruction danced freely.

As he saw the Apex Aeonian Lifeforms below him rise and their Dynamis surge out protectively, Ahpuch smiled and spoke calmly.

"Why hello there, friends. I don't suppose you would deny any extra help for this Apex War of Annihilation? Since the quality of Lifeforms here seems really lackluster!"

WAA!

The gazes of most of the Apex Aeoncic Lifeforms here changed at his provocative words.

Most.

Commander Vladic's heart pulsed with joy as when he felt the oppressive aura of this being that seemed many times more suffocating than Meiyng, he rose up to welcome him happily as it felt like his prayers were getting answered!

[The Tenth Boundary Layer of Quintessence]:: An important threshold has been crossed as with it comes the stage of a new life.

The closer you get towards Extremity, the more that Quintessence has to live up to its distinction. The 10th Boundary Layer is one such distinction as any Concept of Extremity you personally begin expanding will instantly be elevated to the 9th Boundary Layer.

Upto 81 Boundaries can now be deemed Quintessential, with the limitation of the Quintessential Apocryphal Layers being applied only to the highest Boundary Layer that Quintessence itself has reached being abolished. Now, any Concepts of Extremity deemed Quintessential will also be afforded the authority to expand from the 10th and into the 11th Boundary Layer at no cost to the user...] [...Your standing as a Quintessential Aeoncic Curator is further strengthened as you can now alter your Recorded History of Extremity, including but not limited to the editing of the usage of Boundary Layers of any concept apart from Quintessence. You can now peer into the Aeoncic Annals of Extremity of other existences with lesser soul values, and you can edit their own Recorded History at the cost of your Soul Values. At this new stage, Quintessence also ponders to you a question. After Golden, Obsidian, and Consummate Boundaries, is the next stage truly only limited to Extremity Boundaries?]

Before Noah's eyes, there was a group of too much information.

Information about the body being forged from the 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians.

Information about the 10th Boundary Layers of 81 Boundaries!

There was an excess of such information as Noah sorted through all of it while pulling up the Boundary Layer of Quintessence first!

This was now a Crimson Consummate Boundary as its abilities became even more obscene, with something as ridiculous as the fact that due to Quintessence...any concept that Noah expanded from now on would instantly be raised to the 9th Boundary Layer.

"..."

No need for any Aeonic Treasures of Extremity.

No need for Sources of Complete Crimson III Aeonic Pearls of Extremity.

No need to ponder or spend years like others!

He could choose a concept and expand it towards Extremity with a beckoning of his soul as moments after, it would attain the highest that Boundary Expansion Realm experts could attain before Apexification.

This was Quintessence.

This was a distinguished 10th Boundary Layer!

Chapter 2518 Obscene Values! II

The effects of the 10th Boundary Layer of Quintessence were astounding, but Noah knew they were only this obscene for him as the same Layer expanded by his Vassals...would in no way grant the same boons.

Apart from automatically taking any concept Noah expanded as a Boundary to the 9th Layer, Quintessence alone made it so that 81 concepts could be deemed Quintessential as they would even be taken to the 11th Boundary Layer through this!

Noah simply had to express this authority for Quintessence itself and any other Boundary deemed Quintessential as when the 11th Boundary Layer was attained for one...the effects of the 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians would kick in and take the rest of the boundaries to this Layer as well.

It was simply an obscene reality for any other beings to watch.

The description of the 10th Boundary Layer of Quintessence even ended with a question as it seemed to indicate that after Crimson Consummate Boundaries and before a Boundary reached

Extremity...there should still be something grand that Noah could attain as the answer may just lie with Quintessence!

Only time would tell.

But for now...Noah continued perusing the dazzling swathes of information regarding Boundaries while the Apexification of a part of him continued!

The overbearing pressure of Dissolution and Penumbra mixed in to clutter everything in the surroundings.

It would even make breathing difficult if one didn't have a Dynamis of Extremity or a form of even greater authority backing them up!

A figure of another one of Noah's body was in such a region that consisted of cracks between Havens, where he had traversed far enough that currently, the authority of Dissolution and Penumbra were the two most pressing ones here.

But he and Grand Primeval Elder Silas did not move too much further in the past day as they were being located by someone much more powerful than them, and at this moment...

SHIING!

A runestone pulsed within the body of Grand Primeval Elder Silas as his eyes quickly opened with respect, gazing above them as the overbearing authority which seemed like it could crush Reverends parted ways like nothing, a bright shadow filled with stellar light coming in as it materialized into a figure pulsing with thick authority of a Hyperversal Extremity!

"Esteemed Shadow Extremity..."

Even before the figure was unveiled, Silas rose and bowed down with utmost reverence while a peal of clear laughter rang out along with a serene feminine voice.

[At ease, Silas. We're here for a happy occasion after all.] ...!

The voice caused him to become shocked as Silas bowed down even further, his eyes burning with a light of intense respect and even a hint of fanaticism as he called out.

"Extremity Gabriella...I thought Master was the one making his way here."

Hyperversal Extremity of Shadows, Gabriella!

For Grand Primeval Elder Silas to be acting like this, it was only because this was the being who had singularly changed the fate of the Cult of Endless Shadows by locating and obtaining one of the 81 Armaments of Extremity hidden across history by the Hyperversal Extremity of Steel- the Shadow Sword!

For her to come here just to fetch them...he didn't think they were worthy of such an honor.

[I told your master to rest his old bones so I could come see the hotshot causing a buzz and putting himself in the center of the storm of an extremely chaotic Extremity Sanctification. Noah Osmont, was it?]

Her figure fully unveiled itself as Noah gazed at her descending from above.

A glowing black gold silk armament wrapped around her visage as thick Hyperversal Extremity Authority spilled out from it constantly in the form of Shadows, her face being the first Hyperversal Extremity Noah to see revealed as...

'Ridiculous...'

It seemed to break all bounds of realistic standards- as if all the authority of this being reaching Extremity had gone towards making her exceedingly beautiful and of majestic standing!

Bountiful dark hair cascaded way past her shoulders as it seemed to turn into stellar shadows below her, with her fair skin radiating power as on her forehead, a dark three pointed star was etched gloriously.

Her eyes held confidence and grandeur as her pupils infinitely swirled with darkness, with an existence like Silas not even daring to meet her eyes lest he be lost in them for the years to come!

But Noah...

His body pulsed with the grandeur of a being with an Unrecorded Aeonic Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Foundation as he gazed at her eyes calmly while nodding.

"Yes. I didn't expect the reception of the Cult of Endless Shadows to be so welcoming."

[Mmm...for you to speak so freely towards me- it seems you're really special. Alright, let's go.]

BZZZT!

Their surroundings seethed as all authority here was instantly replaced with a sparkling darkness of shadows.

Silas showed reverence at this pristine authority while Noah...his eyes became sharper as he felt how his current self wasn't able to do too much against such an authority!

It wrapped around them fully as the dreadful pressure of

Dissolution and Penumbra around them seemed to all but disappear, the very space around them shifting and being displaced as before even a second passed...

Everything calmed again.

Noah gazed at their surroundings as the glowing darkness receded, and he saw that they were no longer in the cracks between Havens.

Behind them, massive churning tendrils of darkness rose up infinitely to form a wall they couldn't see the ends of, the space around them filled with dredges of broken stellar bodies and even split Planes of Existence that were unrecognizable.

With a single move, Extremity Gabriella had taken them within the cracks of Havens and into a brand new land.

[This should be your first time here, so let me welcome you...to the Aeonian Haven of Penumbra.]

Roiling dark clouds appeared below their feet as they were wrapped in Hyperversal Extremity Authority, their figures being pulled forward at a rapid speed as when Noah's will spread out, he found a stunning scene!

Extremely far in the distance...he could see that the skies and earth were filled with billowing darkness as across them...a crystalline Vein seemed to have risen from the earth below as it weaved across the skies endlessly, insanity-inducing power stemming from it as it was the Extremity Vein of Penumbra!

It had risen from whatever Abyssal Sanctimonious Lands it stemmed from as this was a Haven...that had long since been in the Extremity Step of Extremity Sanctification.

Noah's first arrival here was hastened by the arrival of a Hyperversal Extremity- an existence that had her will examining him ever since she appeared as she spoke with a smile while they barreled deeper into this Haven.

[In this Haven, there are countless shadows and darkness that reveal one's true heart. Osmont...what darkness hides behind your heart? Why did you wrap Silas here in an Oath as you now stand on the precipice of an Apex War?]

The words of a Hyperversal Extremity flowed freely as even though she was smiling, Noah could feel a feral sense of danger that caused his soul to burn fiercely with tyranny and Quintessence.

He didn't reply to her question as his soul sent messages to spur the portion undergoing Apexification at this very moment.

He sent a message to spur Alexander King to begin making the Absolute Dynamis of Extremity that would even mask and protect him from Hyperversal Extremities as a meeting with another one whose intentions could not be easily discerned made him move even faster!

Chapter 2519 Obscene Values! III

Her eyes fluttered open.

And how could they not when she felt his will become focused on her?

Her surroundings were filled with bright golden seas of Loot Light as far, far above her, she could see 81 infinity symbols shining with a myriad of different colors of light.

Each of them acted like a conduit as they released rivers of liquified golden Loot light- light that had the vast majority of it concentrated on her all this time as even now, it continued to flow into her and made her ever more pristine!

Her eyes had fluttered open amidst all of this as she felt the Will of the one being she wanted to always be of use to- her Crimson gold pupils coming to see his manifested form before her floating with a light smile.

"Are you ready?"

His gaze was far reaching as his words seemed to be asking her about many things.

Was she ready to step back into the limelight? Was she ready to bear the weight of all things to come?
Was she ready to act at this very moment?!

She knew with surety what the answer was.

"Yes, Master."

Ruination replied with confidence as one of the first things Noah was doing simultaneously at this moment included Ruination playing a big part!

After the grand authority of Apexification coursed through Noah's Infinite Forge of Extremity, she was worthy of playing many big parts.

Noah knew this very well as he stared at the Entity before him.

[Name]:: Ruination(Ruined Blade of Quintessential Extremity) [Lineage]:: Hyperversal Apex I Relic

[Titles]:: Ruination, Multiplier, Emperor's Armament...

[Ruined Hyperversal Apex Mana Value]:: 1,000

[Ruined Hyperversal Apex Durability Value]:: Infinite

[Ruined Hyperversal Apex Soul Value]:: 1,000

[Ruined Hyperversal Apex Defense Value]:: 1,000

[Ruined Hyperversal Apex Damage Value]:: 1,000

[Features]:: Hyperversal Proliferation, Hyperversal Armament Replication, Hyperversal Outburst...

[Miscellaneous]:: A unique relic that supercedes normal Apex Relics by a large margin. As a Hyperversal Apex Relic, it is already setting its sights to become an Armament of Extremity...

His weapon alone that benefitted from the Apexification of half of his soul...it held the capabilities to unleash 1,000 Ruined Hyperversal Apex Damage Values with every swing!

And not just that. It held Infinite Durability.

It was a weapon that could not be broken!

It held a great deal of profound wonders to peruse through, but Noah's soul urged for him to complete his task as he focused on a single one of her features.

Hyperversal Proliferation.

Without a word, his hands waved out as before him, 9 vibrant buds that shone like singularities bloomed.

He currently held 9 Buds of Convergence that aided in the Convergence of Dynamis of Extremity.

For an Absolute Seed of Extremity, a single Bud of Convergence only granted 1% towards the rate of Convergence.

This was not enough for Noah to instantly achieve 100%

Convergence on a Dynamis he hadn't repeatedly used the characteristics of like Indefatigable, Aletheian, and Vitalistic!

And one of the answers to this was Ruination.

The moment she saw the 9 Buds of Convergence, she smiled and waved her hands towards them as they came to swirl around her majestically.

Her body was suffused by a vibrant glow as her authority erupted out and wrapped around the Buds of Convergence, Noah watching with his own eyes as while the 9 Singularities whirled around her in one moment...9 more appeared soon after.

18 of such dazzling Loot had appeared and continued to swim around her as another instant later, the 18 pulsed and became 36!

HOONG!

An astonishing light gathered around her as her expression became stern, her Crimson gold figure radiating pure grandeur as she brought her hands together and clasped her palms before her blessed chest.

"YAA!"

A valiant cry echoed out from her as another 36 blinding Buds of Convergence appeared!

And the intensity of authority around her only became more concentrated as her figure blazed with halcyon crimson light, yet another 36 Buds of Convergence blooming as a total of 108 now whirled around her.

"Haa..." She breathed out a sigh of triumph as she gazed towards Noah with an innocent smile- a smile of a being looking to get praised for what she had done as Noah appeared in front of her and patted her head.

The terrifying Loot of Buds of Convergence were multiplied 12 times as it showed off the capability of [Hyperversal Proliferation] that Ruination could now do!

Something distinctive with this feature was that the factor by which a targeted Loot was multiplied by wasn't always the same- with this number varying depending on the type of Loot and its tier as the factor could be much greater...or much lower.

But the formed Buds were more than enough for Noah's purposes right now as they disappeared from the Infinite Forge.

Outside of the Forge hidden within the depths of Noah's soul, the visage of Alexander King could be seen with his musculature being formed by the 81 Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians.

Even before all parts of him fully formed to finish Apexification, his right hand rose and pressed towards his chest where a multicolored organ was forming.

And as it did so...a pulse erupted out as it thumped, oceans of essence rushing as the chest expanded because he had taken a Quintessential Breath!

He took a breath as many essences coursed through the body of a forming Apex Aeonc Lifeform as if it was coursing through paved roads.

Faster.

Stronger.

And much more inclined towards Extremity!

"Providence and Destiny..."

Alexander began to call out specific Boundaries as their authorities were brought close together, a halcyon light beginning to radiate from him as close by, Henry's figure observed intently!

After Providence and Destiny, the authorities of Pathfinder, Moirai, Fate, Karma, Fortune, Kismet, Wisdom, and Quintessence followed as they became like glowing lines that coursed through the forming body of an Apex Aeonc Lifeform- intent on forming an Absolute Seed of Extremity even before the process of Apexification fully finished!

Chapter 2520 Obscene Values! IV

Around the same time Noah enacted a new Dynamis of Extremity with a portion of his soul.

Within the Quasarian Lands, the figure of Grand Singularity Elder Zeitgeist returned from a banquet that just had powerful Apex Aeonc Lifeforms join.

Others returned to their abodes to prepare while he moved into what used to be the hidden domain where a young woman used to be.

In this hidden domain, the sea of abundant treasures filled with lifeforce still remained as currently, there was a maddeningly powerful aura floating at its very center!

It was the aura of a Hyperversal Extremity- and it was none other than Hyperversal Extremity Kabul who was dispatched here by the Hyperversal Extremity of Devouring yo ensure success in achieving the being with the Innate Pellucid Extremity Foundation!

"Brother Kabul."

Zeitgeist called out with reservation as he had already sent back the intelligence of all that occurred in the banquet between the Inheritances.

The Hyperversal Extremity before him only nodded without even turning back as he spoke out serenely while gazing at the sea below him brimming with lifeforce.

[Zeitgeist, do you know the first thing that happens when a being attains Extremity?]

WAA!

He began with a question as Zeitgeist nearly rolled his eyes, knowing the tendency of this older brother of his to ask questions that he didn't really want answers to as he continued himself soon after..

[Their very existence- the records of their achievements and their very being become their own for them to manipulate. Their records become things that are erased from the Aeonian Annals of Extremity where other beings can freely access. But those who haven't...traces of their Existence will be found everywhere. And such traces can be utilized to do many things...]

As he spoke, Kabul's Hyperversal Extremity Authority seethed and spilled out from him, Zeitgeist becoming shocked as he asked to clarify.

"Brother Kabul, are you...are you moving to act against this being personally? I thought Master agreed with thr method of the Apex War and-"

[Zeitgeist.]

HUUM!

A single word stopped him in his tracks.

[The Methodology of this Apex War is muddy. Too many ambiguities can occur as it is best to make a move before all of it unfolds.]

Zeitgeist had many thoughts crossing his mind as he pondered just what this Older Brother of his was thinking.

"Wouldn't something like this affect you adversely? The Adjudicator of Dissolution would be able to find out that it was the work of a Hyperversal Extremity as this could even ignite a conflict between her and Master. This is..."

He shouldn't have spoken. He didn't want to speak against it.

But...there seemed to be too many things at stake as Hyperversal Extremity Kabul smiled at the worry he showed, statung shocking words thereafter.

[These are actually the commands of Master. It seems the oh so great Adjudicator of Dissolution had long since sowed dissatisfaction amongst others. For someone of lesser blood to hold such a distinction and her actions in the past...it seems others are planning on using this opportunity as a chance to shake the pillars that support her.]

WAA!

Shocking words left his mouth as his authority continued to spill over!

[But...you don't need to know too much about this right now. Just watch and learn what can be done with Hyperversal Extremity Authority as right now...I shall find histories of this Osmont and be able to track him down- a single shockwave of my soul being enough to cause the extinction of him and all records surrounding him. But of course...we shall talk first.]

Kabul.

He was decorated in a black Armament that was littered with three flat rotating planes of Existence. His dark hair was nicely trimmed with a fade as his eyes danced with wildness and age, his will diving into the Aeonian Annals of Extremity at this moment while focused on a single being!

While focused on Noah Osmont!

Before his eyes, countless lights bloomed as if a database holding the histories of all living beings was blooming before his eyes.

But his authority focused on a single being as the vastness of the Records was reduced, his will seeing trillions of Quintillions of bubbles of lights unfolding before him.

Each one represented someone's records.

Most shone with a white light as they seemed like clustered stars in a far away space, their size small and insignificant to show their worth and achievements in their Recorded History.

Some were darkening and disappearing even as Hyperversal Extremity Kabul watched at this very moment!

And all this...was just focused on the Recorded Histories pertinent to the Aeonian Haven of Dissolution!

Kabul had seen scenes like this too many times as his authority burned ever brighter, his will using it to hone in on the identity that was Noah Osmont.

His vision fluttered across many white points of history as he was pulled ever deeper into the Aeonian Annals of Extremity.

'Hmm?'

This surprised him as it meant the accomplishments of this being were a bit more than above average, where the deeper in Kabul went...the sizes of the bubbles of light increased gradually until some that even shone with a radiant blue could be seen!

HOONG!

His Hyperversal Extremity Authority pulsed at this moment as it told him to gaze a certain direction, his target being right there as the nearby bubbles of light disappeared from his sight while he delved into a certain direction.

When the scene changed, the light around this region of the Aeonian Annals of Extremity had changed as Hyperversal Extremity Kabul felt a glow of crimson and gold light in the surroundings.

This should mean he was deep in the Annals as...

'Where...'

His brows frowned as he didn't see a dense cluster of bubbles before him.

It seemed that only the aurora of crimson and gold light could be seen ahead as when Kabul expanded his will and looked up...

....!

His mind buzzed.

He realized why he couldn't see any other bubbles of recorded history!

He hadn't arrived in the deepest parts of the Aeonian Annals of Extremity that radiated crimson and gold light as when he gazed up, he saw the far away edge of a massive bubble that shone with a glorious crimson gold light!

Its size was utterly massive.

Incomparable to any of the Recorded Histories he had seen in his lifetime.

As Kabul's will expanded outwards, he was able to capture it more with its entirety as he saw the scene of an immeasurably huge halcyon crimson bubble, dense blue and gold bubbles swimming around it as it occupied a region where trillions of other Recorded Histories could be!

And as Hyperversal Extremity Kabul stared and focused on it, his Will roared out in surprise as he felt the massive bubble of Recorded History before him fluctuate.

As if it had sensed something.

As Kabul stared towards this incandescent history...he felt as if he was staring into an endless abyss.

And the abyss...was staring back at him!
