

Apocalypse 2561

Chapter 2561 A Path of No Return! III

The Apex Battlefield showed a hellish scene that left many wide-eyed and surprised at the sheer capabilities of an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity, but there were beings within the Apex Battlefield who didn't even feel like they were a part of it!

Like they didn't even need to be there, with some of them almost being in a sorry state had the abilities of Dr. Hall not befallen them as well.

These beings were the figures of Grand Primeval Elder Silas and the other Shadow Elders, as well as Roan and the few Apex Aeonis Lernaeanes who followed him!

They were in the periphery of the battlefield as they watched blankly, a sense of silent fear ever present that the terrifying titanic figures of Emperor and King Tier Thanatos Vassal would at any time turn their burning verdant sockets towards them!

And through the eyes of Primeval Elder Silas and the few Hyperversal Extremity Shadows who had set off and brought the core Apex Aeonis Lifeforms of their Cult of Endless Shadows in the Haven of Dissolution....everything that was occurring was also being shared towards those who remained in the Haven of Penumbra.

Frankly, many of the watching eyes were recording what was currently happening and transmitting it to other locations as for the time before the Culmination Step of Extremity Sanctification began...there was nothing more exciting and worthy of their time than observing this shocking battle that held Absolute Dynamis of Extremity flying around!

In the Aeonian Haven of Penumbra.

Within the domain surrounded by darkness and shadows, the figure of Extremity Gabriella no longer held a playful smile as she stared at the images of scenes being transmitted from multiple sources that fed into the ranks of the Cult of Endless Shadows.

It showed the unbelievable prowess that had Apex Elders of the Avernus Clan and the Singularity Overseers on the defensive as one by one- they slowly fell!

All by the hands of the forces of a single being.

"You kept me waiting because you were waiting to see the results of the Apex War. What hidden backing I had. Whether the Adjudicator of Dissolution would truly step in to save me as my Lineage was being decimated. You sent less than a dozen Apex Aeonian Lifeforms from your Cult of Endless Shadows to assist as how many thousands do you have? From all of these actions, do you think the Cult of Endless Shadows has shown me any sincerity?"

...!

The voice of the being she was containing in a Shadow Domain within the Shadow Fortress rang out as vibrant Hyperversal Extremity Authority of Shadows pulsed from Gabriella.

She stopped looking at the illusory screens before her and turned towards Noah as her eyes pulsed with countless unknown thoughts, but the most obvious ones were those of scrutiny and caution!

Cautioning this being before him that no matter how magnificent he was, the one standing before him was still a Hyperversal Extremity!

Extremity Gabriella portrayed this emotion clearly as Noah shook his head with a sigh.

"I know I'm supposed to feel some sort of reverence and watch myself under the allure of a Hyperversal Extremity, but the vast majority of the ones I've met so far have just been so...disappointing. I do not see the greatness and majesty you all should portray as in fact, the vast majority of you just seem...

so little."

WAA!

Arcs of interminable shadows instantly erupted as the surroundings seethed, Noah's face seeming like a lonely boat in a tumultuous sea as he didn't even bat an eye!

He instead rose up and placed his hands behind his back as his body became suffused with the glorious multicolored light of Quintessence.

He glimmered of stellar and celestial luster as he gazed at a Hyperversal Extremity calmly amidst Hyperversal Authority pulsing around him.

"I came here because of an Oath. I have fulfilled my end of the bargain as any more delays in this oath, and will call forth the Adjudicator that acted as the witness. I take your actions as representative of the Cult of Endless Shadows as even with your recent malfeasance, I shall be the bigger being and leave the door open for cooperation."

...!

As he spoke, he took steps towards Extremity Gabriella without fear as he continued!

"I warned the Avernus Clan and the Singularity Overseers but they did not listen. You can now see me butchering their Elders in high resolution as...

what is the Cult of Endless Shadows compared to something like the Avernus Clan? If I dare to make myself an enemy of one of the Seven Clans, do you truly think I would fear a Hyperversal Extremity of an Inheritance like this? You need to look past your pride and magnificent achievements and not gaze at me like some junior who is playing tricks or making outlandish claims. When I receive a gaze like that, I tend to return it right back. "

WAA!

"Now, what shall it be?"

Silence reigned as the grandeur of Quintessence bathed Noah's Clone.

He stared at a Hyperversal Extremity head-on as the Hyperversal Extremity Authority of Shadows began to die down and fade around him!

Extremity Gabriella stared forward wordlessly towards this entity as this whole time, this pristine existence did not say a word...

Who was he?

What magnificent Lineage did he come from? What grand Inheritance was he a part of?

He was Ahpuch- a genius of the Avernus Clan who moved directly under a Hyperversal Extremity!

Very few beings would ever be taken as Direct Disciples of a Hyperversal Extremity- their path already outlined as they only had to follow it.

Ahpuch had followed it.

He achieved Vacuous Hyperversal Authority just like his Master.

He crossed the Boundaries of Destruction just like his Master.

And just like his Master...he would attain Hyperversal Extremity Authority as the enemies he faced now would only be fuel towards his path!

This was but a given.

BOOOOM!

Luminous crimson locusts of destruction rotated around him as they ground down the bones of Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassal every moment, cylindrical flames of Destruction erupting from them ever so often as his surroundings were only filled with chaos.

He had been destroying these Undead Entities with Soul Values a bit more than a fourth of what he held as this whole time, he preserved his power.

He used the reality of the destruction around him to regenerate the lost Soul Values as it felt like after forever...

His soul cried out as the capability of [Domain Expansion] he couldn't call out this whole time had finally returned and could be employed again.

This capability took a great toll to call out as it drained over half of one's Soul Value, with Ahpuch paying a heavy price to regenerate enough to finally be able to call out to it again!

And this time, he wouldn't allow it to be taken away as his enemy with much lesser soul values...would in no way be able to do something as magnificent as that again!

And so for the second time, just as he saw the face of the First Commander appear behind a bellowing Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassal, Ahpuch called out grandly.

"Domain Expansion...Interminable Destruction!"

Chapter 2562 A Path of No Return! IV

Ahpuch called out this terrifying ability again as with it, he could senselessly call out waves of Destruction without a strain on his soul!

His enemy should in no way be able to afford the toll of erasing this domain like he did before, with Ahpuch's Absolute Dynamis of Extremity tightly wrapping around the erupting Domain Expansion as he wanted this to be the end of this War.

He would erase the countless Undead Entities running rampant and focus most of his Wrath on the caster!

The visage of the First Commander and the cackling Haven Lich was in his sights as Ahpuch felt the crimson flames of Destruction begin to proliferate out, dazzling Crimson pillars beginning to manifest and even battle for superiority with the mountains of bones as it seemed two Expanded Domains were about to be overlapped.

The stronger of the two would come out on top as Ahpuch was ready to lay his cards on the line!

He utilized the 9 Cycles of Destruction Modus Operandi as he felt all his 16 Boundaries of Destruction.

And he got ready to unleash it as...

'Huh?'

His perceptive eyes caught the visage of the First Commander who was looking towards his direction while shaking his head as if he was looking at a fool.

At the same time, the First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven raised his crystalline skull staff and nudged upwards as if he was telling Ahpuch to look up!

A foreboding sensation pulsed and raced within Ahpuch as his eyes and will turned up.

'Surely not...'

In the dazzling verdant skies that were about to be overlapped with the crimson Interminable Destruction Domain Expansion, a gem-encrusted illusory golden hand formed again.

"..."

A hand similar to before and with just as much brilliance!

When he saw it again, Ahpuch's mind buzzed.

The most powerful Avernus Clan Elders who were giving orders and trying to mitigate as much damage as possible with the swarming Undead, Enders, and those adorned in the Quintessential Loot Seeker's Regalia Sets had their faces turn extremely sour as they had thought they would have some leeway to recover and go on the offensive if Ahpuch's domain could cover the battlefield again!

And yet reality seemed to hold an entirely different path in mind.

As he gazed at it, Ahpuch's thoughts were grave ones as he thought coldly.

'Fucking how?'

There were rules and common sense, and this applied even to existences reaching the 16th,17th, and ultimately the 18th Boundary Layer!

Domain Expansion was an ultimate move that drained one's reserves of Resources.

Forcefully nullifying a Domain Expansion...should cost even more to accomplish!

If the enemy Ahpuch faced was stronger than him and had reached a greater Boundary Layer, maybe it would be understandable.

But it was someone that Ahpuch felt at most had achieved the 13th Boundary Layer!

Someone weaker than him!

So how...

How was what he was currently seeing possible?!

BZZZ

The golden hand plucked.

And the Interminable Destruction Domain that was just laid out trembled before ridiculously...it began to disappear before it could even fully set!

Ahpuch was silent as he watched the jeweled hand begin to disappear just as quickly as it came, the Infinity Thanatos Domain in the surroundings only becoming more potent as even more droves of Thanatos Vassals rose.

As much as he hated to admit it, Ahpuch knew he was defeated in multiple areas against this being before him. And even though he didn't like this situation...he didn't turn fearful or ever begin to worry about his life as it was never in question.

After all, he was an Apex Aeonian Lifeform with an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity and had also attained Vacuous Hyperversal Authority!

He knew sooner or later, there would be an intervention.

And since the battlefield was getting increasingly chaotic, he knew exactly where to be before the interference by his Master or others came.

BZZZT!

His body pulsed and released tendrils of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority, the area around him beginning to melt away as a massive crack of nothingness appeared- a crack that seemingly held an endless pocket of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority!

Ahpuch slowly disappeared into it as he gazed with might and challenge towards the visage of the First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven.

As if to tell him...come if you dare!

[The Manifested Domain Expansion- Interminable Destruction, has been plundered for the second time.]

[The Recorded History of Domain Expansion has been entirely erased from the Plundered Target.]

[The Authority of Domain Expansion has been elevated.]

His soul experienced a wondrous euphoria.

As Legions of Different Tiers of Thanatos Vassals ran rampant, his enemy actually laid out his Domain Expansion once more under a very wrong assumption!

An assumption of logic and reasoning that he then applied to him.

The moment Ahpuch applied logic and reason to Noah, he lost!

No matter his greater power. No matter the more advanced Boundary Layers.

Lotra's wonder showed itself once more as befitting a Quintessential Absolute Dynamis of Extremity, the second time that Ahpuch's Domain Expansion was plundered, it was actually forever erased from his Recorded History as Noah's own Domain Expansion was made even grander!

In the surroundings, the massive bone mountains radiated a deathly crystalline sheen as the vertical cylindrical pillars erupting from their peaks began to change.

They became mobile as fantastically, they turned into multiple rivers of poisonous deathly light that now sought enemies from the earth and skies!

The Thanatos Vassals already on the field had their bones becoming larger and even stronger as they burned with furious flames.

All of this was just a part of the benefits as at this moment, the last set of prompts relating to the effects of [Hyperversal Plundering] cast for the second time unfolded.

The reason for his soul feeling euphoria.

[14 Boundary Layers of Destruction have begun to be deduced.]

[The Plundering of the Soul of the current target will allow for the deduction of more advanced Boundary Layers.]

...!

Traversing across the Boundary Layers towards Extremity was immensely hard.

With Lotra...Noah wanted to make it easy!

His eyes eagerly stared at the crack of nothingness and the pocket of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority that Ahpuch had carved out.

He thought he had entered a domain where he was the strongest in.

A domain for him to continue testing out Destruction against Noah as the only paths he saw were either him breaking to the 17th Boundary Layer, or the interference of Hyperversal Extremities to stop this War as no Apex Aeonc Lifeform with a hold of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority would ever be allowed to perish!

'Let me show you another pathway...'

Noah's eyes released a blinding radiance as his visage of Alexander King stepped towards the crack of nothingness.

Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassals followed him as on the Apex Battlefield, the Haven Lich Ra'Zan would be the one to finish off the struggles of the rest of the enemies!

Chapter 2563 Emperor Shao!

In the Aeonian Haven of Oceanus.

There was no earth or sky.

All around...there was only an endless stellar blue sea that filled everything.

Cerulean beauty and wonder was stretched throughout as in a small corner of this vast Haven known as Oceanus, there was a Plane of Existence that shone with a milky white hue.

The entire Plane was utterly empty and void of life except for a single being within it, and yet outside of it in the endless cerulean sea, millions of multicolored sea Beasts swam peacefully!

The single existence within this milky white plane was currently in a seated position as around him, streams of potent Hyperversal Extremity swirled with wonder, the auras of over 20 Absolute Dynamis of Extremity at the very minimum swimming around him as one never knew how many more were hidden within.

He was adorned in a simple white robe, his facial features handsome, but not exceedingly so as his extremely light caramel skin radiated purity and wonder.

His dark hair brilliantly stood with a light fade on the sides as he seemed like a distinguished man barely in his prime!

His pupils were constantly spinning with multicolored light as if a whole stellar system moved within, and a small sword lay on his lap that he was stroking calmly.

He was a man of many names, but the vast majority knew him as Emperor Shao.

At this moment, he stopped stroking the sword on his lap as his head turned to gaze towards a certain direction.

Thereafter, the over 20 auras of Absolute Dynamis of Extremity faded while his vibrant force of life became many times less than what was originally being given off!

Not too long after, the blaring aura of another Hyperversal Extremity bloomed as from the skies, purple flames that transformed into the figure of an exquisite woman formed.

Everything about her blazed purple with heat and regality as her fair figure descended onto the milky white plane of Existence gracefully, her gaze slightly somber as she approached the seated figure of Emperor Shao with a hint of caution.

Emperor Shao gazed towards this being calmly before he went back to stroking the sword on his lap, his voice ringing out first.

[Ariana of the Avernus Clan. Are you here representing yourself or your Clan?]

...!

Each of his words were filled with a profound sense of power and dominance as Extremity Ariana floated far away from him while she replied.

[I come representing the Avernus Clan. We are redeeming one of the two remaining favors.]

WAA!

Her words were straightforward and to the point as she pulled out a radiant Extremity Relic with the word [AVERNUS] etched on it, Emperor Shao nodding at her words as he spoke while putting the sword on his lap away.

[You know the drill.]

Extremity Ariana nodded at his words as from her, multiple bubbles of light flew out- each one occupied with memories accumulated from many beings as well as intelligence reports gathered from all of these memories!

As she handed them off, she began to speak.

[The request this time deals with an Apex War in the Haven of Dissolution. We have to move soon to end the war without allowing our Elders to suffer too many casualties, and since we're doing so- we have agreed to use this opportunity to see which of the Inheritances and Clans have fallen under the influence of 'Them'. There is the possibility that the Adjudicator of Dissolution has reached the Zenith of Tier 3 Hyperversal Extremity as due to her and the difficulty of this venture, we seek your services to ensure utmost success.]

...!

The way she spoke towards him was uniquely indicative of the power that Emperor Shao held, with Extremity Ariana not even being able to put on any airs as she spoke!

Emperor Shao absorbed the droves of recollections placed before him as this was his first condition before agreeing to any request.

He had to gain all the background knowledge on it, who was involved, and what their goals were!

If he didn't have all of this information and more, he wouldn't make a move.

In the bundle of information he received, there was the history of what ushered forth this Apex War, who the Commanders on each side were, what their levels of power and Recorded Histories were, and who they were connected to!

As he scanned through everything, Emperor Shao's stare sharpened as he asked lightly.

[Is there any more information on this Noah Osmont? His Origins, any history that doesn't date back to just a few days?]

Extremity Ariana blinked at the questions as she shook her head while continuing her pulsing purple flames!

[The recollections of his movements within Dissolution and the Initiation Step are all included. This is all that was able to be gathered on him. But Emperor Shao, he is a minor part that will be taken care of by Destruction. We just need Svetlana to be reigned in while we save our forces and 'they' reveal themselves, and our Hyperversal Extremities will do the rest.]

Her words were sound, and yet when Emperor Shao heard them, he shook his head while gazing at Extremity Ariana with evident disappointment!

A stare that Extremity Ariana saw clearly as she continued to reign herself while Emperor Shao spoke.

[Your biggest obstacle this whole time has been this Osmont. One of your goals in this is to save the Apex Aeonic Lifeforms from your Clan and Singularity Overseers...you will fail in this as they should all be dead soon if they aren't already.]

WAA!

[You aren't worried too much about this Direct Disciple Ahpuch as saving him would be the easiest? This is also a wrong thought; it is likely he is also about to die. You all should have begun your movements the moment you saw the Apex War going south and dedicated to the Probe you want to conduct for 'them'.]

...!

Milky white light of purity and power burst out grandly as shocking words were carried with them!

Chapter 2564 Corpse Explosion!

[What are you...-] The words of Emperor Shao caused Extremity Ariana to turn somber as she had just begun when she was cut off, Emperor Shao raising his hand for her to stop as he continued!

[This is all for your redeemed favor- my services have already begun. If you want to ensure success as per your request, you need to follow every single thing I say. Pass this along to the others as well. Otherwise do not blame me if things do not go accordingly.]

His white-robed figure rose as he radiated immense grandeur that even other Hyperversal Extremities would pale in comparison to!

[You all have made many mistakes in this whole venture, but the biggest one is treating this unknown being who seems to only have Records of a few days in the Aeonian Annals of Extremity, and yet he has embroiled a Clan and a major Inheritance in a war as he has placed himself center of the Extremity Sanctification. Your goal to kill him by sending out Destruction...will also likely fail.]

BOOM!

Like a thunderclap of reality, his words came down.

Extremity Ariana looked at him incredulously as the spinning pupils of Emperor Shao flashed, a majestic light blooming with them as an moment later, a second figure that looked just like him appeared...and subsequently disappeared an instant later as it shot out towards the horizon!

[My clone will make its way towards Dissolution as the moment it arrives, you all can begin. If you want to save whatever remains of your forces in this War, especially this Ahpuch you all put a level of importance in- then make a move before I even get there. The number of Hyperversal Extremities you and your Allies were putting forth in this...you will need to double it at the very least. And have those coming later wait to move under my command]

...!

One command after another flew as if one looked at the two Hyperversal Extremities, they would think that one extremely powerful Lifeform was giving commands to another as it didn't seem like the two of them were on the same playing field at all.

Extremity Ariana was perplexed as she wanted to say this was excessive and over the top. That it would require too many of their hidden forces to move as the exposure would be too much.

But...she held it all back as she knew Emperor Shao's identity.

The Undefeated Extremity.

The Extremity of War.

The Extremity of Conquest.

These were just some of his titles.

He had never led them wrong in their last two requests as if he believed this was how they should move, she would pass this word along!

Her will had already passed along all commands as tendrils of authority leaked from her and surged towards Emperor Shao- establishing a connection to a communication channel filled with the Wills of specifically chosen beings as all of them could communicate seamlessly- no matter where they were in the Seven Havens!

The visage of Emperor Shao held a thoughtful look as he gazed up.

Past the milky white Plane he was in, he gazed into the endless cerulean sea.

As if he could see the very Records of everything there, he shook his head with a complex expression that seemed to hold a sense of appreciation and curiosity at the same time!

[Your objective of eliminating this Osmont who is pitting himself against your Avernus Clan is unlikely to succeed at this moment it seems. Very few traces of Records of him can be found in the Aeonian Annals of Extremity as he has likely structured an authority capable of masking himself. Killing him carries the same level of difficulty as killing a Hyperversal Extremity as one will have to get a hold of his body directly and see whether his Recorded History will be obtained through his body. Without scorching everything about him in the Aeonian Annals of Extremity, he will never truly die.]

A pristine assessment was given by a truly peculiar existence towards a being he had yet to meet!

On the True Throne of Quintessence in the center of the Apex Battlefield.

Noah's figure was surrounded by tendrils of light as even though he didn't make any moves personally, he constantly monitored everything as the Oraculum Absolute Dynamis of Extremity pulsed around him powerfully!

Everything was flowing in a somewhat expected path as he had arrived at the edge of his victory.

At the peak where a few moves were all that were required for a magnificent conclusion!

And yet an moment later, he felt droves of his Quintessential Hyperversal Mana Value burn along with a portion of his Soul Values as [Adumbrative Viewpoint] was passively activated.

The ability stemming from the Oraculum Absolute Dynamis of Extremity that could be triggered passively when any unfavorable or important Unrecorded History pertaining to Noah or his people unfolded!

Within the depths of his soul, Innumerable Records flowed.

A golden book rose as its pages fluttered!

A heavy record then began to unfold as Noah's eyes flashed, his soul buzzing with brilliance as a moment later, his Will buzzed in the minds of all his forces.

In the mind of his Son and the Squadron he led.

In the minds of Aurelia, Orion, and even the Enders led by a roaring Draconic Elephantine beast!

In the mind of the Chthonian Sinners of Thanatos who didn't really get a chance to shine and the Haven Lich Ra'Zan.

"Wrap it up."

BZZT!

Three words.

But they sufficiently conveyed the will of the True Emperor of Quintessence!

The bodies of Henry and all others began to suffuse with astonishing brilliance as all their Soul Values were drained to unleash everything they held, while the Haven Lich Ra'Zan...

Its skeletal figure was enshrouded in a deathly light as an aurora of verdant black wings expanded behind its back, the flames within its sockets dancing as it released the bone staff in its right hand.

The bony skeletal hands beside it then came together as their digits intertwined in front of its bony chest, a surge of authority erupting at this moment as two words emanated from the Haven Lich!

Words directed towards the corpses within the battlefield.

Words directed to the Prince, King, and Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassals!

Words granting the Ultimate Form of death for even the Thanatos Vassals as their authority even caused the myriad of bony mountains to crack and splinter as if they were ready for their last eruption.

The Haven Lich Ra'Zan called out...

[Corpse Explosion].

...!

The voice rang out at the same time as in the skies, out of nowhere and with utmost brilliance- multiple Hyperversal Extremity Authorities blazed with glorious horror!

Chapter 2565 A Flicker of Brilliance! I

Moments before an utterly irrevocable History played out.

In an isolated Domain, a marbled golden floor could be seen forming the earth as the skies were tinged stellar white.

Within this domain, the aura of two beings could be felt as one was a Hyperversal Extremity, and the other...radiated Quintessence!

"I was looking forward to seeing how the Hyperversal Extremities of the Genesis Institute of Extremity came to an entirely different potion...but why isolate us from all the others?"

Noah's voice rang out as when he had sent this Will forward, it had initially been brought into a space with the auras of multiple Hyperversal Extremities.

Yet now, they were in a separate domain by themselves as the Hyperversal Extremity before Noah smiled while replying.

[Some things need fewer audiences. Especially what I have to say.]

"Oh?"

Noah's brows rose at the words of Extremity Marcellus as this being's eyes seemed to hold endless light.

His aged visage seemed like an ancient being full of Vitality and contained power as he spoke in a somewhat pondering tone.

[Your curiosity as to why the forces of the Genesis Institute of Extremity pulled out at the last moment can be satiated very simply. It was partly because I had learned about you much more than others...it was because you were Scouted as a possible Candidate.]

...!

Cryptic words rang out as they came with many questions, Noah's Will about to delve into what exactly this being meant by him being apparently scouted as a candidate- none of this information appearing from the myriad of pages he read in the past day!

He was about to.

But this was when his eyes became sharp as his Main Body relieved a flow of heavy information from Adumbrative Viewpoint.

This was when...

BZZZT!

The cries of multiple Hyperversal Extremity Authorities cried out gloriously and with wild abandon as before him, the figure of Extremity Marcellus sighed while his body began to suffice with white gold light!

[They truly chose this path in the end...]

...!

The white gold light radiating from him caused a grandiose change as on his face, a mask that was half white and half gold appeared as on the right side, the numerals [III] could be seen gloriously.

And just as this mask and change appeared, the aura that Extremity Marcellus portrayed completely faded as it felt like he wasn't even there.

His voice came out again, but this time it seemed to be a mixture of voices of young and old as one wouldn't be able to make out his identity at all!

[I shall be back. Be careful for the next few moments.]

WAA!

Even his body proportions had changed to become a slender and tall male visage as the moment he finished speaking, his figure disappeared!

[Corpse Explosion]!

The words were enough to cause an immense force of terror to rise within the minds of the already dwindling enemies, with the remaining Avernus Clan Elders and Singularity Overseers grouping together and pulsing with defensive reality altering skills to survive what was coming.

Ever so briefly, their souls flashed with happiness as they felt the auras of Hyperversal Extremities blare above them.

The thought that finally, they wouldn't be stuck in this horrid domain of death and Undead as their masters and Protectors of their Clan and Inheritance wouldn't allow them to continue being killed in this insignificant war!

And this moment was when the effects of [Corpse Explosion] activated.

The effect of this ability from the Haven Lich Ra'Zan was quite simple.

For the sacrifice of the chosen Quintessential Undead Thanatos Vassals to forever return to the embrace of death, their bodies would release one last final radiance of Damage Values that were equivalent to 3x their Vitality Values!

Simple.

And yet extremely deadly!

The distance covered was vast per Thanatos Vassals as there were already thousands of Prince Tier Thanatos Vassals and a few hundred King and Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassals.

Their bones pulsed and radiated instability as an instant later, they were akin to collapsed singularities that pulled into themselves...before exploding out with a horrific force of nature.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOOOM!

The sounds of explosions danced wildly as it soon became a maddening symphony, turning into a wave of green obsidian light that expanded to eradicate all enemies on the battlefield!

The leading Avernus and Singularity Overseer Commanders turned ashen as their souls released their most protective abilities and wondrous planar domains..

And yet when the waves of explosive light passed over them..

-20,997!

-20,997!

-20,997!

The statistical values that only the True Emperor of Quintessence could see flashed as their Planar Domains were shredded along with their bodies!

All of this unfolded just as the terrifying auras of Hyperversal Extremities unfolded above.

[You!]

An angry voice erupted out at the surprising actions taken as many observant eyes were made to watch in real time as dozens of Apex Aeonic Elders were forever swallowed by death!

As if the one who had taken these actions knew they were coming!

The voice that rang out carried with it authority that pressed towards the Apex Battlefield at shockingly fast speeds.

At the same moment in time, in the center of the battlefield that held the crack of nothingness leading to an isolated pocket of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority.

"Chaos must have started out there."

Outside the scope of time and space, Ahpuch's voice rang out calmly as he observed the approaching figure of Alexander King.

He had felt traces of Hyperversal Extremity Authority from the traces of his will he left behind as he knew everything was about to be over!

He saw the figure of Alexander King being entirely unphased by the Vacuous Hyperversal Authority around him as it seemed there were two geniuses who grasped the same authority among his enemies.

"I'm inquisitive about the secret behind you and the Emperor you serve attaining the capability to use Vacuous Hyperversal Authority, and how you forged multiple Absolute Dynamis of Extremity. If you are forthcoming enough...I will ask my Master to save you to live another da-"

BZZT!

As he was speaking, he amazingly felt dozens of Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassal becoming painted with a cherry colored light of an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity that had yet to be shown!

And their bodies were already shaking with instability as the voice of Alexander came out to cut off Ahpuch.

"Even outside the scope of space and time...I still do not have time to waste on the likes of you!"

WAA!

Chapter 2566 A Flicker of Brilliance! II

Even outside the scope of time, he wouldn't waste any time on Ahpuch!

These words caused this Direct Disciple to burn with rage and power as he didn't expect this being to not even bat an eye at the appearance of Hyperversal Extremities.

Did he already expect death, and this was why he was rushing without care?!

The answer didn't matter as Ahpuch radiated the power of multiple 16 Boundary Layers and the Interminable Absolute Dynamis of Extremity, his figure also pulling out the lifesaving measure his Master had granted him for use only in the most dire situations!

Something an Elder Scion like him with so many achievements would always carry.

SHIING!

A one time use Quasi-Extremity Relic of utmost Rarity.

It looked like an illusory white wing that released an influx of light- it was a Relic known as The Embrace of the Widowed Fairy Queen!

It could absorb up to ten times the Vitality Values of the user in terms of Damage Values as with his power, Ahpuch expected to be able to contain over 200,000 Apex Aeonis Damage Values!

The Embrace of the Widowed Fairy Queen flashed as a brilliant wing of protection appeared above his head, a pure white light of fortification covering him.

This should be enough as within the next moments, his Master would arrive as the anomaly before them would have to be studied later!

Waves of Destruction formed into roaring serpentine flaming snakes as they got ready to intertwine and break down the nearing Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassals, but this was when their ballooning instability became worse as a moment later...

BOOM! BOOM!

Their bodies exploded with massive force all around him!

A force that simultaneously threw out over 20,000 Thanatos Damage Values as to his shock, Ahpuch felt the Embrace of the Widowed Fairy Queen waver when over 10 of such explosions shook his surroundings!

At the same time...

[Hyperversal Plundering].

WAA!

His soul vibrated as he saw the visage of Alexander appear above him, an illusory bejeweled hand that had caused him the most problems appearing for the third time as the target this time...seemed to be directly him!

The fact that the Wills of Hyperversal Extremities were descending was entirely ignored by this being as he seemed intent on Devouring a single thing before him, and that was Ahpuch!

The word came with a blazing authority that brought everything to a halt.

The expanding explosive waves of the Corpse Explosion.

The cycling of Boundary Essence and authority in everyone's bodies.

It felt like everything was brought to a halt as just before this Hyperversal Extremity Authority fully descended...

HOONG!

A dazzling black light erupted and nearly blinded the wills of those watching.

A black light.

It carried utmost majesty and authority with it as the moment it appeared, the multiple descending Hyperversal Wills had their advancement stopped!

This black light bloomed as the visage of the Adjudicator of Dissolution appeared in three skies, her body radiating this brilliant light even as the skies were darkening and turning murky!

She was akin to a flicker of a blinding brilliance that no others could match as her will pervasively overpowered all the defending wills.

Her veiled figure expressed immense disappointment and anger as in the skies, she gazed at 5 Hyperversal Extremities veiling themselves tightly with authority appearing.

They appeared to interfere with the Apex War of Annihilation as she stood against them all fearlessly, with her might seeming indomitable as if she could take them all on.

She was the Adjudicator of Dissolution!

SHIING!

Her body began to cry out with unfolding authority as it seemed she was about to establish her might and show all those here that the rules could not be so easily broken, but an instant later...a crack in space bloomed as from it, a massive milky white gold finger descended.

A single finger!

And yet it carried with it obscene Hyperversal Extremity Authority as the veiled figure of Svetlana revealed a trace of shock, all of her authority being released forced to focus on this descending finger as if she didn't fully deal with it, it would utterly eviscerate everything below.

This single move forcefully grabbed all of her attention as the 5 Hyperversal Extremities moved in sequence the moment it appeared- seemingly knowing it would come as their authorities bypassed the Adjudicator of Dissolution.

Two moved with veiled crimson radiance as they surged towards the isolated pocket of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority where Ahpuch and the First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven were.

The three other Hyperversal Extremities continued to extend their authority towards the Apex Battlefield as they reached out to the remaining Avernus Clan Elders and Singularity Overseers!

This sudden progression of events was utterly shocking as it caused all beings to rise in shock and cry out, the scene of the Adjudicator of Dissolution being occupied by an immensely potent authority of an Unknown Hyperversal Extremity while 5 other Hyperversal Extremities appeared to interfere with the battle being imprinted in all minds.

Noah watched all of this occur as he remained seated on his throne.

Reality was never fair.

He didn't expect to have a fair fight by any account, and so he prepared!

His Vassals all had clones representing them here as they couldn't be traced even in death. And he himself was unkillable as he could leave at any time!

He just did all this because he wanted to expose these grand Clans and Inheritances for what they ultimately were.

Beings that moved with their own goals and ideals- ideals they would achieve no matter what rules lay before them.

He depended on his own power to get past even the interference of these beings as the two Hyperversal Extremities- one of them undoubtedly being Destruction, would at most arrive to find Ahpuch halfway through being Plundered!

And the vast majority of Avernus and Singularity Overseer Elders were nearly torn to pieces under the grandeur of his forces.

So let them interfere.

Because in all this, it seemed he would get to see a reality play out that revealed much more of the Seven Havens!

Events were playing out extremely quickly as just as it seemed the interference of the veiled Avernus and Singularity Overseer Extremities would succeed...

SHAA!

The auras of multiple more Hyperversal Extremity Authorities bloomed.

One bloomed right before the crack of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority as it was a humanoid visage adorned in a white robe, their face covered by a half-white and half-gold conceal that carried the inscription [III]!

This Entity stood against the coming figures of Extremities veiled in a Crimson light as tendrils of a Unique Absolute Dynamis of Extremity erupted from him.

Before the grandeur of the three other Hyperversal Extremities who were going towards the Battlefield, 3 more beings adorned in half-white and half-gold masks appeared to stop their advancement!

Their masks were inscribed with the numerals [II]!

...!

Their appearance was an unbelievable sight as nobody truly understood what was going on at this moment!

Above the Apex Battlefield.

Emperor Shao released his authority in the form of a single illusory finger that forced the Adjudicator of Dissolution's attention on only this.

This was how potent he was.

Powerful enough to alone rival an Adjudicator of Dissolution!

As he saw the scene unfolding below, he sighed while his voice rang out only for him to hear.

[The ones who barely leave traces across History, the beings exceeding the bounds of Lineages and Factions and act independently to maintain the order of the Seven Havens...]

...!

[You wasted one of the last few favors collected from me for this? To probe and see which Inheritances have fallen under their influence? How useless.]

His words were callous as they thought of a memory in the past.

Memories of beings in the same half gold half white masks that entirely erased their identities and existence appearing before him as they offered inclusion into their secretive organization that spanned across the most powerful factions within the Seven Havens.

He had denied them then, and he would even refuse them now if they were to appear before him once again!

This was not his path.

And now, he could be considered to be moving against them even though he was only keeping up his end of the bargain after the Avernus Clan paid heavy costs to gather favors from him!

Fate could be so fickle.

Emperor Shao shook his head as seeing the advancements of the battlefield, it correlated with the reality that the Avernus and Singularity Overseer Hyperversal Extremities would lose if they only sent forth this number of pieces.

It was why he had told them to double it at the very least as after these 5 were deployed, his Will stretched out to 10 other Hyperversal Wills that Extremity Ariana had connected him to.

They tried to conceal their identities within the Aeonian Annals of Extremity, but Emperor Shao could easily tell who they were the instant he connected to their Hyperversal Wills!

Extremities from the Havenly Church, the Caecilii Clan, and surprisingly- even some Extremities from the Plum Sword of Extremity were among the reserves waiting for the commands of Emperor Shao.

It showed off the machinations and alliances formed behind the scenes as Emperor Shao paid attention to all of them before his Will commandingly spread out!

Chapter 2567 The Incursion of Dissolution! I

Shock!

This was the emotion that many of the watchers felt as for some, rousing anger exploded forth!

In the far distance, the figure of Erikson rose up with tendrils of grandeur pulsing around him as he stared at the veiled Hyperversal Extremities invading the Apex Battlefield- as well as the unknown Extremities adorned in half gold half white masks whose identities could not be made out.

They were all powerhouses of the Seven Havens as their actions represented the Wills of major factions and powers whenever they moved!

For them to move like this now...

Erikson's soul buzzed as either a somber gaze, he sent out a message.

"Uncle, we cannot remain idle as this situation unfolds..."

His words traversed into the mind of one of the Sima Clan Extremities in this Haven as the scene he saw was something that breached everything they stood for!

Those with more power very clearly committing wrongs regardless simply because it served their best interests.

Even though it wouldn't make any difference, Erikson had already grabbed his slippers and held them tightly into his hands as if he would jump into the battle himself, but what could a recently advanced Apex Aeonic Lifeform who was merely distorting probability to converge his first Dynamis of Extremity do against the grandeur of Hyperversal Extremities?

As his eyes buzzed with brilliance, he received a reply.

[Be at ease, Young Master. I have already made a move.]

...!

The words were unexpected ones as Erikson's eyes flashed with brilliance.

His Uncle had already made a move.

It meant that he was one of the Hyperversal Extremities on the battlefield as Erikson's heart didn't waver on which side he would have been standing on, his intuition ringing as he came to focus on the figures of the three Extremities wearing masks that had the inscriptions of [II]!

Beside him, the form of Ayame had the same look as her main body in the domain with her Grandfather had already turned to him, only for her to see his body divide in two as another one adorned in a white robe and carrying a white gold mask with an inscription of [III] on it!

[I've told you before that you will be officiated and begin missions after you become an Apex Aeon Lifeform. You haven't been officiated yet, but you can observe how we move and why we move now. Because reality is not black and white, because the Seven Havens are not perfect Vaults of peace and prosperity as they may seem on the surface.]

WAA!

Her grandfather's face was filled with an age and interminable power at the same time as he adorned the white gold mask on his face, everything about him changing and becoming different as he turned into a man of short stature with a bulky build- where if she hadn't seen this body of his change before her, she wouldn't have known it was him!

Her expression was grim as her grandfather continued.

[It is not yet time for me to move yet, because if the words of Guardian Recorder are true, they have yet to fully reveal themselves.]

...!

Words of mystery and wonder erupted out as some of the prominent Scions saw what was happening and didn't sit still, reaching out to those above them to make a difference.

But it didn't always play out the same way for all.

Besides Erikson and Ayame's Soul Clones, the Soul Clone of Atlas of the Plum Sword of Extremity also reached out to those above him when he saw the shocking scene unfolding and remembering the favor he owed Osmont from the Initiation Step.

He waited for a reply as when he got one...

BZZT!

His body buzzed and stumbled back on the throne he was just sitting on as shock flashed across his face.

Shock that was replaced by outrage as when he turned back on the ever changing battlefield, it turned out that those above him...were on the side of the veiled Extremities attacking!

It was a devastating reality for him to affirm as the Apex Aeonid Lifeforms gazing in the surroundings tried their best to follow what was happening before them.

HOONG!

When Hyperversal Extremities fought, the Havens cried and were torn to pieces.

On this day, the skies of Dissolution fractured as the widespread Hyperversal Extremity Authority bearing down felt as if these very skies were weeping!

The Son of Destiny looked at this scene coldly as even in the face of this might, he was unphased.

"What is written will only come to pass...no matter who tries to interfere with it."

...!

He had already seen a glimpse of destiny through his Destined Absolute Dynamis of Extremity as he gazed at the clashing Hyperversal Extremities around him, his calm demeanor and Noah's unphased form of the True Throne of Quintessence filling those around them with confidence as they weren't broken down in their wills!

[Wilful ignorance of decorum!]

BOOOM!

At this time, the crying skies shuddered as the booming voice of none other than the Adjudicator of Dissolution rang out, her hands pointing up as an instant later...

CRACK!

The skies quite literally shattered.

As if they had been cleaved, a horizontal fracture spread out as the authority of the white gold finger descending was obliterated, with the form of the Adjudicator of Dissolution pointing out again as the other half of the shattered Haven was forcefully pulled down- its immense weight pressing on selected targets here with utmost scrutiny!

[Intentful violation of the Investiture of Extremity!]

Her voice buzzed out again as thereafter, she brought her hands close to her bountiful chest.

Her veiled chest that she pressed on to feel her beating heart as she coldly voiced out.

[Hyperversal Extremity Expansion.]

An utterly dreadful voice seeping of tyranny and grandeur.

An action that caused even some of the veiled Hyperversal Extremities to be shocked as they didn't expect her to call out such a thing here- with so many lives in the distance having the chance of being affected!

But she finished her words with immensity.

[Adjudication!]

WAA!

Hyperversal Extremity Expansion- Adjudication!

For words were uttered, and yet in the next moment, everything turned dark.

As of whatever was lighting up the Aeonic Haven of Dissolution was turned off.

As if reality itself closed its eyes the moment that the Hyperversal Extremity Expansion- Adjudication was called out!

Chapter 2568 The Incursion of Dissolution! II

Immense darkness descended as if reality itself was closing its eyes!

And in this darkness, a white light shone as dazzling round scales rose.

Scales.

Scales that seemed to be there to weigh and judge the weight of the actions of all beings here!

In addition to this, a massive white gavel radiating pure white radiance appeared above this scale- a gavel that was seemingly there to pass down judgment.

It was the Extremity Expansion of Adjudication!

Without so much as a delay, the white gavel swung down with immense authority and pressure as very few could actually wrap their minds on what would happen with the advantage of this Extremity Expansion!

In the pocket of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority.

Over 200,000 Thanatos Damage Values erupted from all around Ahpuch as they shredded apart the one time use Quasi-Extremity Relic- The Embrace of the Widowed Fairy Queen!

The wing disappeared from Ahpuch's visage as he bellowed out with torrential flames of Destruction that absorbed the remaining tens of thousands of Damage Values, but in the midst of these flames...

SAA!

The formed bejeweled hand had come ever closer and appeared right above his head as it actually minimized itself, Ahpuch raging out even more flames as he saw the figure of Alexander appear before him to superimpose itself- his hand reaching out as it overlapped with the bejeweled golden hand that was appearing for the third time!

The Corpse Explosion of Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassals made the way.

The torrential flames around Ahpuch continued to be annihilated by the deathly force of nature until...

TSS!

The bejeweled illusory golden hand entirely became superimposed on the right hand of Alexander King as a tight-fitting glove that came to land on Ahpuch's face.

His glaring eyes of destruction felt blinding brilliance after that as his body surged with Interminable Absolute Dynamis of Extremity, but the authority descending was above it as Lotra roared out with utter fervor!

Hyperversal Plundering.

It could Plunder anything as at this moment, it sought to plunder Ahpuch himself.

His soul.

His very existence!

[Hyperversal Plundering of the target Aspects of Existence has begun!]

[The 13th Boundary Layer of Destruction has been obtained.]

[The 13th Boundary Layer of the Barbarian has been obtained.]

...!

When Noah had plundered the Domain Expansion of Ahpuch for the second time, he had begun to deduct the first 14 Boundary Layers of Destruction!

Now as he plundered the very soul of this being, the subsequent Layers were obtained as...

"HOOO!"

Ahpuch bellowed out as he felt like core parts of him were being pulled out.

And his defenses, Vitality Values, and everything were at their absolute lowest as he couldn't resist!

...!

15th!

The further one went, the more obscene and hard it was to climb across the Boundary Layers as all the boons Noah had obtained were only viable to bring him to the 13th Boundary Layer for his 81 Boundaries coursing in his Meridians!

After Devouring the Fruits of Extremity from his Yggdrasil of Extremity, he had begun to make some progress towards the 14th Boundary Layer of Quintessence as he didn't manage to reach it.

And yet now...

The Plundering of a single being had granted him both the 14th and 15th Boundary Layers of Destruction as the moment Noah was able to include this Boundary as part of the concepts that defined him in his Hyperversal Extremity Meridians...80 more concepts would reach this level as well!

The only ordeal here was the inclusion of a different concept to define oneself.

The concept or concepts that one defined himself with were set in stone as the ones with the strongest connection in their meridians!

This was why what one defined himself with was likely the concept to be taken to Extremity.

It was an ordeal for others...but was it really the same for Noah? Could he really not do anything with the 81 Boundaries making up his Meridians?!

BZZT!

His eyes pulsed with tendrils of radiance as the Roars of Ahpuch were ignored, great resistance coming from him as he felt like a core part of himself was about to be stripped away.

The accomplishments of the 16th Boundary Layer!

If this was lost, he would have utterly noth-

BOOOM!

At such a crucial juncture, the Vacuous Hyperversal Authority surrounding them seethed.

[My, I hate whenever that guy is right.]

A voice filled with shocking power erupted out along with an enormous Hyperversal Extremity Authority that caused a Singularity to bloom between Ahpuch and Alexander King, Noah's will cold at this development as the moment the Singularity bloomed, a heavy impact erupted that canceled out the dazzling bejeweled golden hand!

[Hyperversal Plundering was forcefully canceled by a type of Hyperversal Extremity Authority.]

[Further Plundering of the target has failed!]

...!

Reality truly was never fair throughout history.

The good lived and died in poverty, while the ruthless and selfish beings enjoyed riches and wealth.

Set rules were violated by those more powerful as they didn't worry about the consequences, with the current reality showing a Hyperversal Extremity actually bypassing the shocking actions of the Adjudicator of Dissolution outside as after she separated Ahpuch and Noah's figure, her Hyperversal Extremity Authority turned into a purple flaming claw that sought to grab Alexander King!

Noah's will gazed at this shocking attack with apathetic eyes his Absolute Dynamis of Extremity raged around him.

And right before the moment of impact...

[Not today.]

Crimson radiance unfolded in front of Noah.

Another Hyperversal Extremity Authority showed itself as in the next instant, a short and stout figure adorned in a white gold mask with the inscription of [III] appeared as his visage seemed filled with limitless brilliance.

Before the figure of Ahpuch, a woman bathed in purple flames appeared as she blazed with scorching brilliance.

Her flames reached out to stabilize a ragged Ahpuch whose eyes bulged with boundless anger and a trace of fear as the two sides looked at each other without a word!

And an instant later...

BOOM!

The figures of the two Hyperversal Extremities moved to confrontation with each other!

It was a sequence of unfathomable chaos as in the midst of all this, Noah counted his gains that were stopped before he attained the grandest prize.

He couldn't plunder the 16th Boundary Layer from his enemy after the interruption of the Hyperversal Extremity, but he still plundered the 15th Boundary Layer of Destruction!

It meant that he could do many more things.

It meant that he could put the Boundary Layers of 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th Boundaries of Quintessence to use as his power increased another level even amidst this chaos!

Chapter 2569 The Incursion of Dissolution! III

Emperor Shao gazed at the devastating battlefield.

Battles with Hyperversal Extremities were always unique as in their stage, it didn't matter too much in terms of statistical values when accounting for who was stronger.

A lot of the time, it was the concepts that one took to Extremity that were determinants of power- and whether one could win against another!

Of course, unique concepts taken to Extremity also greatly altered one's Soul and granted them a tremendous Hyperversal Extremity Authority that would make other beings feel weak in their knees.

The concept of Adjudication...was something all 7 Adjudicators of the Seven Havens held as one of the tools under their belt- something they were granted when they were elected to the position of Adjudicator!

[Why would one ever seek this thankless job?]

His body was covered by profound layers of authority in the hidden folding of space as he looked at the Extremity Expansion that Svetlana had released.

Truly powerful Extremity Expansions released a domain that rejected any other Extremity Expansion from being expanded in that region, with Adjudication being one of the concepts that was especially deadly as it made Adjudicators at their peak of power at Tier 3 Hyperversal Extremity!

Even with this as a boon, Emperor Shao never saw the appeal of becoming an Adjudicator.

[A glorified position that if you take seriously, you only make enemies that make plans to hunt you. If you turn the other way, a stream of Extremity Treasures flow to your side as you forge connections across the Seven Havens.]

...!

It could be seen which path Svetlana had taken by the actions today as there were many hidden pieces here today!

One was the fact that somehow, the Avernus Clan and others had found out or theorized that the Adjudicator of Dissolution was influenced by the faction behind the Extremities adorned in white gold masks, and they already planned to smoke out just how far the reach of these beings extended past an Adjudicator!

This Apex War just became a perfect chance to do so as many audiences from multiple factions were here, and they would achieve their goals of saving their disciples as the ruse behind it if any were caught or questioned.

And the consequences of this incursion into Dissolution today would be the names of multiple factions having been verified or suspected of having their Extremities connected to the veiled organization moving for their own gains...

these suspected factions would face scrutiny and begin to be ostracized ever so slowly!

Isolation, growing conflicts, more enemies than Allies, until ultimately...a faction begins to dissolve as its core powerhouses are picked off one after another.

The Seven Clans had been established for eons, but a few had changed names over the vast Recorded History.

The Aeonic Inheritances of Extremity were numerous, but some giants had risen and fallen in the past!

Because the Seven Havens were never short of conflict and conflicting goals.

And the beings that stood at the peak of power...constantly played games of life and death that granted the winner even more pieces of Extremity!

[But this isn't the way to go.] Emperor Shao shook his head and sighed.

He didn't block the expansion of Svetlana's Extremity Expansion as with its emergence, he moved multiple pieces into the Battlefield for them to achieve their secondary aims.

One was into the pocket of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority where a supposed genius Avernus Scion was under the threat of death, and the other was the remnants of the Avernus and Singularity Overseers on the battlefield being whisked away from the deathly authority spreading across the battlefield!

It was a calculated move that also caused more of the selective existences on white gold masks to come out as they achieved their goal of probing, but this would come at a cost.

The Extremity Expansion of Adjudication was not something to take lightly, especially when cast from a Zenith Tier 3 Hyperversal Extremity!

Someone was bound to feel some pain as Emperor Shao would only make a move to clash against it when their goals were accomplished, using it as the chance to have them pull out their forces entirely away from Dissolution after that.

[Let's see, who shall be the unlucky piece...]

His eyes spun endlessly with grandeur as even though others couldn't see anything in the Extremity Expansion below them, his eyes covered by layers of Unique Absolute Dynamis of Extremity saw too many things.

And at this moment, they flashed to see one of the attacking Extremities covered by a Crimson light forcefully be shifted across space as they appeared on one of the two massive golden scales meant to judge others!

The veiled Extremity was none other than Destruction as the voice of Svetlana thundered out.

[Did you think this meager disguise would mask you? When I gave you a warning not too long ago?!]

The thundered out as shockingly, the massive golden gavel above the two scales swung down.

As of the decision on the Extremity on the scales was already decided!

...!

Thereafter, shockingly potent Hyperversal Extremity Authority converged on all sides of the Scale Destruction was on as the further down the gavel swung, the deadlier the power would be exerted as escaping this would not be something done lightly!

The figure of The Hyperversal Extremity of Destruction swayed with a gloomy light as shocking brilliance erupted from him to withstand someone he already knew he wasn't a match for!

Uniquely, he would be one of those who paid a heavy cost for this incursion...

Zeitgeist had half of his body eradicated as his soul barely hung by a thread, a few dozen Singularity Overseers around him having used their Astral Leviathans as sacrifices to save themselves as the laughing of a Lich could still be heard in this darkness that gave them a sense of fear!

At such a critical junction, he felt the warm aura of his Master actually appear as the Hyperversal Extremity of Devouring passed over this region- his authority descending to wrap around the remaining Singularity Overseers as they disappeared from the battlefield.

Amidst the cover of darkness of Adjudication, he moved and swiped any Avernus Scions he also came across as the battlefield was rapidly being cleared- with those who had made critical moves today beginning to achieve their aims!

Their plans came at the expense of ruining the golden path of the True Emperor of Quintessence as he was also covered by the immense darkness of the Extremity Expansion of Adjudication, his gaze luminous as his will sent out multiple commands!

Chapter 2570 The Incursion of Dissolution! IV

[The Eleventh Boundary Layer of Quintessence]:: The strength of the True Emperor of Quintessence is not set in stone as it can be interchangeable within his Aspects of Existence. This Layer allows you to alter three statistical Values- being able to move up to 75% of your Vitality and Defense Values to become a part of your Soul Values, or vice versa. Do not be restricted by the bounds of logic of others on what your strength can or cannot do, instead, let them experience a new reality through your own hands!

[The Twelfth Boundary Layer of Quintessence]:: Quintessence disdains being restricted to the Crimson Consummate Tier as it opens a pathway to an ever greater type of ranking that will stand to make a concept truly grasping Extremity. With enough authority, it is now possible to bypass the Crimson Consummate Tier of a Boundary and achieve the Quintessential Zenith Tier. Boundaries of such ranking far exceed others as their difficulty in achieving Extremity is even greater, but when an existence achieves Extremity with Quintessential Zenith Tier Concepts, his standing as a Hyperversal Extremity can't help but stand at the very Zenith!

[The Thirteenth Boundary Layer of Quintessence]:: Just as your values are interchangeable, the concepts that you define yourself with are even more so. At the cost of 50% of your current Soul Values, you can change one of the 81 Concepts that define you within the Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians. The defined concepts taken out of your Meridians retain their Boundary Layers as they cannot be placed back as defining concepts thereafter- a limitation that can easily be resolved when Quintessence becomes ever closer to Extremity. A truly Quintessential being is changeable and adapts to the ever-changing landscape, always seeking more definitions for themselves!

Yes!

Quintessence always showed the path forward as Noah could truly put the means of the 13th Boundary Layer of Quintessence to use at this moment!

There were also the grand achievements of being able to alter his statistical values that he already utilized before this battle began to be skewed as much as possible with his Soul Value- and there was also the wonder that was the ranking past Crimson Consummate Tier.

Quintessential Zenith!

It was an arduous task to overcome, but it was merely an inevitability for Noah.

At this very moment, his Will expressed through Alexander watched as a clash unfolded between two Hyperversal Extremities, the figure of Ahpuch seemingly getting further away from him as if he had more strength, he could have overpowered this being even before any Hyperversal Extremity appeared to save him!

And so, strength he would attain.

His will buzzed as the shocking reality of two Extremities fighting with their Hyperversal Extremity Authority was tuned out.

His commands then thundered out within his mind.

'Replace the Boundaries of the Sword and Essensology with Destruction and Infinity'

...!

Destruction was deduced and reforged under Noah's Quintessential Banner- Ahpuch's understanding being entirely plundered and reforged under Noah up to the 15th Boundary Layer!

With its inclusion as a defined concept in his Quintessential Hyperversal Extremity Meridians, it would allow all the other 80 Boundaries to also climb towards this highest 15th Layer.

This would include Quintessence.

This would include Infinity!

This would include the Boundaries that made up his Dynamis of Extremity.

Whenever Boundaries went ever closer to Extremity, their Dynamis would become even more powerful as he could look forward to the fantastical upgrades of their features!

His strength would grow by another level as if was ever in front of an enemy that he could plunder the Boundary Layers and very existence, he would ensure that everything was plundered.

It was uncertain if he would get the chance with Ahpuch again with Hyperversal Extremities appearing- but however this war concluded and its consequences thereafter...there were still an Innumerable number of Apex Aeonc Lifeforms from the Seven Havens that were converging on Dissolution.

Some were Direct Disciples of Hyperversal Extremities like Ahpuch.

Others exceeded him in strength as they were already at the 17th Boundary Layer!

These would be his nutrients in addition to the boons that were yet to be uncovered in the Culmination Step of Extremity Sanctification.

As these thoughts passed and his Foundation buzzed at new changes, the reality around him also changed as the power of Hyperversal Extremities was shown.

[Haha, my purpose isn't here to fight, you old dredge!]

Blinding purple flames in the form of Hyperversal Authority erupted and formed into blooming flowers of singularities, the veiled woman standing before Ahpuch placing her hands on his weakened and rage full figure as this Direct Disciple disappeared!

"..."

The Hyperversal Extremity moved quickly as she didn't grant even the possibilities of second chances.

She seemed to know the difference in strength between her and this being before her as she didn't erupt in a life and death battle, her authority forming into an incandescent wall as she quickly began her retreat the moment her aims were achieved!

It was precise, quick, and some might say that it even showed traces of cowardice.

But this being had thought of the larger picture and what they were here to do as she decisively made her moves!

The short and stout figure with the white gold mask was radiating a crimson gold aurora of light that caused the purple flames to fade the moment they neared, his gaze piercing as he didn't chase.

He knew that the moment he did so, this genius behind him would be targeted by another Hyperversal Extremity as his actions would be for naught!

[The one you follow was targeted by the veiled Destruction as he is being taken care of by the Adjudicator. Since our aim is to currently protect, we are restricted somewhat, and I know this may be a disappointing result for what you all envisioned in this War.]

The short and stout Hyperversal Extremity spoke lightly as the purple flames faded, Noah not saying anything at this moment as he watched this being turn around and face him.

Was he just the tiniest bit disappointed? Yes. But he had attained booms that took others millions or billions of years in the span of minutes!

The 14th and 15th Boundary Layers alone were enough to make this war a tremendous success as it didn't just mean getting a single Boundary to the 15th Layer for him.

It meant getting 81 Boundaries to the 15th Layer!

A ridiculous reality that any beings who learned of it would cry out unfairness!

And then, there was the fact that Haven Lich Ra'Zan and his Vassals had eradicated over 80% of all the forces of the Avernus Clan and the Singularity Overseers.

The prompts for all of their Loot...they were enough for him to scroll through for hours!

As he took on the gaze of the Hyperversal Extremity before him, Noah's voice came out calmly as Alexander King.

"This war is far from over. It is an Apex War of Annihilation as at this very moment...the Infinite Hyperversal Haven has not achieved the complete Annihilation of all of its participants!"

...!

WAA!

His words carried a terrific Will that caused this Extremity before him who was seeking a type of Infinity to state with Innumerable thoughts.

"When the Avernus Clan and Singularity Overseers are reduced to nothing but rubble and bones like the Noblesse, then...they have our authorization to consider this War done."

...!

Alexander's skeletal Armaments shone with a profound luster as he waved his staff, the few remaining Emperor Tier Thanatos Vassals crying out with bony jaws as outside of this pocket of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority, shocking events continued to unfold!

Events that were flowing in a certain direction because of one person's commands as his appearance changed many possible paths today!

One of these paths was a particular Hyperversal Extremity.

Even though his Direct Disciple was saved, Destruction himself had landed in a dangerous dilemma as he was coercively placed on the Scales of Adjudication while the Gavel of Adjudication continued to press down!
