

Arceus 1001

Chapter 1001 The end of the white beard, the new era is called Hundred Beasts (Qianzhang Sahua)

Facing Keby who was blocking him, it was Uchimura's last restraint not to cut him directly.

"The cowards will get out of the way, and those who still have courage will continue to fight with me!"

At this moment, the voice of calling for help appeared in Keby's mind again.

"Major General Yuchimura, please stop and go rescue the wounded. These ordinary pirates are not the main target of the war at all. It is not worth the candle to sacrifice more soldiers for them."

"You are shaking the morale of the army."

The red-eyed Uchimura kicked Keby aside, the pain made him curl up into a ball, and Uchimura rejoined the fight.

At the same time, Bucky, holding a live phone bug, also became the focus on the battlefield.

While others were fighting to death, Bucky became the director and started shooting repeatedly.

"Look! That... that's the former crew member of One Piece, the man who made the red-haired Shanks a brother and brother. Even Whitebeard would choose to compromise in the face of him. He is our god! Captain Bucky!"

During the ridiculously awkward reading, Bucky walked into the camera and sneezed uncontrollably.

"Damn it, do it all over again!"

Looking at the unprofessional shooting skills and embarrassing acting skills, the reporters of Chambord Islands were so angry that they broke their pens. They didn't want to see this clown put on a show in front of them, they just wanted to know how far the war was going.

In the end, Kuzan's appearance saved these reporters.

"Ice Age!"

The cold current swept over Bucky's younger brothers, all of them were frozen into ice sculptures, only Bucky flew into the air by relying on the shattered fruit, avoiding being frozen into ice cubes.

"Green Pheasant?!"

"I'm not interested in you, Red Nose, but can you please hand over what you have? This war is getting more and more irritating."

The task of Shaina, Jhin, and Beckman is to find the phone bug. The navy will not leave this task to the pirates. Kuzan, who has not been in the center of the battlefield, received this order.

This is not a simple matter. On a battlefield with hundreds of thousands of people, it is not easy to find a pirate who hides and broadcasts live. Jhin and Shaina searched for a long time in the sky but did not see Bucky.

That is, Kuzan had better luck and found Bucky first.

It's just that he has no interest in Bucky, after all, the redhead has already expressed his attitude.

A mere 15 million Bailey pirates would not be able to disrupt the war that was about to end for him, and Kuzan also saw Beckman in the distance. At this time, the opponent's gun had already been aimed at his head. He didn't want to fight with Beckman at this time.

At this time, Jhin's figure flashed past Bucky, and the last video phone bug had changed hands to Jhin.

After losing the phone bug, no one cared about Bucky's existence, and returned to the final battlefield, but Bucky got a new round of pursuit.

After those pirates were unfrozen, they actually thought that Bucky gave up his chance of becoming famous in order to save them, and took the initiative to give the phone bug out. Bucky, who "saved" them twice in a row, became unshakable in their hearts. Savior.

Where Whitebeard and Kaido fight, their fighting style has also changed over time, from a skillful fight to a very simple brawl.

After entering the vibration mode, Whitebeard concentrated all the power of the vibration on one point. Coupled with the characteristics of the vibration, his fist almost achieved the effect of real injury.

Even Kaido, when hit by Whitebeard's fist, the body will be affected. No matter how strong the scale armor and armed color are, the body surface is protected. For this kind of attack that can penetrate the external attack to the internal attack, a single Defense is hard to be effective.

It's just that Kaido didn't care, even though blood was spilling from the corner of his mouth, his laughter didn't weaken in the slightest, and his opposite Whitebeard suffered even more serious injuries.

Kaido didn't eat the Zhenzhen Fruit, but his fists were not weaker than Whitebeard's. Whitebeard's body couldn't match Kaido's physique at all. Under Kaido's heavy blow, the white crescent mustache was dyed. There was a touch of blood red.

"Gu la la la, Kaido, you don't want to fight here for a few days and nights, do you?"

Although Whitebeard's physical strength is not as good as Kaido's, he is still a monster that surpasses humans. In his peak state, he can still fight the current Kaido for a few days.

But this is the headquarters of the Navy. Although there is no need to worry about the aftermath of the battle, it cannot be fought for days and nights like a duel.

"I don't care, I can accept no matter how many people come."

Kaido's answer was blocked by Whitebeard's next words. Looking at Kaido who was full of enthusiasm for fighting, Whitebeard realized that he was still wrong. He couldn't understand at all what was going on in Kaido's mind, so he still Speak your mind.

"That's enough, you're not interested in that kind of battle, right? One move, use the last move to decide the outcome. It just so happened that I realized something new."

Whitebeard doesn't mind fighting for a few days, but his subordinates are not good. The losses of both sides in this war are not small. If they evacuate in time, many people can be cured through treatment, but if they really fight for a few days and nights, those people will definitely die. Hopeless.

Not to mention that this is still the territory of the navy, it has been delayed for so long, and it is enough for the world government to invest in new troops, so White Beard just wants to solve it quickly.

"One trick? You are really confident, Newgate, let me see what you have learned."

Kaido felt that in terms of Whitebeard's character, it was definitely not for death.

Since Whitebeard dared to say this, he felt that this move could cause a lot of damage to him, and this is exactly what Kaido wanted to see.

"Forget it, since this is the case, I will use the strongest gesture to end the curtain on you."

"Gu la la la, you'd better get serious, or you'll die, brat."

Hum!

The power of the shock swept the audience, and Baibeard's whole body was once again wrapped in a milky white halo, and Cong Yunque, who had been inserted at the side, was pulled out again by Baibeard, but this time, Cong Yunque's blade came faintly. There was a whimper.

【I'm sorry, old man, I'm wronging you and me, old man, let's take the last leg. 】

Looking at the weapon that had been used for decades, White Beard felt a little apologetic in his heart, and Cong Yunque seemed to feel this feeling, and there was a touch of new determination in his mournful cry.

At the same time, Kaido also made a new movement, the bracelet on his right hand shone with colorful light, and then this light spread along Kaido's arm to his whole body, like a layer of colorful crystal carapace.

This is a detail that Yamato didn't notice. Originally, Kaido's bracelets were two ordinary metal thorn rings. After the birth of the slate radar, the radar replaced the position of one bracelet. Also turned into a transparent crystal bracelet.

That is not an ordinary bracelet, but a Taijing product.

Taijing itself is a special product of the Padia region. The locals even made Taijing into Taijing beads, which store Taijing energy. After Taijing is activated, the attributes of Pokémon will change.

Each use will deplete the energy in it, and you need to find a professional to replenish it.

In this sea, Arceus is the only one who can replenish the energy of Taijing, and its function is not only to change attributes.

Kaido is a human, not a Pokémon, and his own abilities have not been completely transformed.

Although he has the ability to learn Pokémon skills due to the power of Arceus, there is still a huge difference from Pokémon in essence.

Through the power of Taijing, he can further strengthen his body, so that he can use the power of Pokémon more perfectly, including some extremely rare moves.

Arceus gave Kaido a special crystal bracelet, which is naturally a dragon. After the crystal is transformed, Kaido will completely explode the power of the dragon.

At this time, he was already wrapped in a layer of crystal, but there were no strange decorations on his head.

Bai Zhai was held by Kaido again, and his physical strength and arrogance were continuously injected into Ba Zhai, the purple-red energy surrounded the mace, and the phantom of the dragon slowly emerged behind Kaido.

"Dragon Power."

This fuchsia energy is not a dragon dance, but the exclusive move of Reggie Duo Lago, the original Dragon Pillar Legion. Lago is exactly the expression of the collection of dragon attributes.

Using the Dragon Taijing specially created by Arceus, Kaido can also use Reggie Drago's exclusive moves, and develop its own application.

In the hands of Kaido, the mighty dragon is no longer a single light cannon, but has become a part of his gossip series.

"Hey, Newgate, take it, you are the first person to see this trick, this was originally a surprise for my silly daughter, Mobo Xun Dragon God Gossip!"

The flame cloud around him has been dyed purple by the energy spilled from Kaido's body. At this time, Kaido is like a dragon coming out of hell, rushing towards the white beard in front of him with a terrifying dragon shadow.

Seeing Kaido's new posture, Whitebeard remained silent. His body was under a strong shock force, and the domineering energy of his whole body was poured into Cong Yunque. Like the moon, he greeted the attacking Kaido.

Boom!

The power of vibration in Whitebeard's restrained body erupted at this moment. Even Marin Fanduo, who is an island, didn't persist. With Whitebeard and Kaido's foothold as the center, Marin Fandro showed a posture of falling apart.

Countless rocks and soil were annihilated under the power of Whitebeard, and there was a hideous bloodstain on Kaido's chest. The blood flowed out of Kaido's chest unstoppably, and a pool of blood accumulated under his feet.

"Hey hehehe, as expected of you, Newgate, can the vibration be used by you to such an extent?"

The power of the shaking fruit was compressed to a point by Whitebeard, which broke Kaido's defense, and even the shell of Taijing was broken by Whitebeard's blow.

"But unfortunately, I won, Newgate."

During the collision just now, both of them avoided each other's weapons by coincidence, and hit each other's body.

Whitebeard left Kaido with terrifying scars, and Whitebeard's chest became even more empty, as if he had been pierced by some terrifying beast.

In this final blow, Whitebeard also held the purpose of taking Kaido away, so as to reduce the danger his sons will encounter later.

Kaido also knew the purpose of Whitebeard, but he didn't complain, after all, both sides were fighting with the mentality of killing each other.

But in fact, Whitebeard failed.

"Kaido, you won"

The tenacious vitality prevented White Beard from dying immediately. Relying on Cong Yunqie in his hand, White Beard still maintained his standing posture.

At this time, Shaina and Jhin had already returned here with the phone bug.

"Let the times succumb to you Kaido, let me give you a gift at last..." nOvElUSb.Com

"Huh? What are you guys up to?"

"Gu la la la is not a gift for you, I just don't want to let the navy get what it wants"

A mouthful of blood gushed out of Whitebeard's mouth. Watching Jhin throw the phone bug in his hand in the direction of Warring States, Whitebeard also strengthened his heart.

Then Whitebeard shouted representative words with his last strength.

"ONEPIECE! IS REAL!"

After the words fell, Whitebeard left this world peacefully with his eyes closed. At the end, he didn't feel any resentment in his heart, but only worried about his children.

【Farewell, my children, thank you for spending the rest of my life with me, but you can only rely on yourselves in the future】

Memories of the past resurface in Whitebeard's mind like a revolving lantern, and his time is also frozen here.

So far, the captain of the Whitebeard Pirates, the strongest man in the world, Whitebeard-Edward Newgate ended his life at the age of 72.

In this battle, Whitebeard suffered a total of 127 knife wounds, 147 bullets, and 34 shells.

Magma burned seven places, laser wounded 11 places, blunt trauma 23 places, and one fatal injury.

But until his death, Whitebeard's body still did not fall down, and in his entire pirate career, there was no scar left on his back due to escape.

Bass!

A laser shot across the air, and the attack of the yellow ape directly destroyed the image phone bug, but it was too late. Although the picture of the spinning phone bug was unclear, Whitebeard's words had spread to all parts of the world.

After these words, Whitebeard's body also changed.

Just like the Broken Glass Man, his whole body was covered with cracks. As the cracks intensified, his body finally turned into powder, scattered on the entire battlefield with the wind, and even the weapons that had been with him for many years were overwhelmed and shattered into pieces. cut two pieces.

It is a huge burden to restrain the vibration in one's own body, and Kaido's last dragon * gossip put a lot of dragon power into Whitebeard's body, which finally led to this result.

"Dad!!"

Looking at the disappearing white beard, Ace was very excited, and even broke free from the pull of the people around him and wanted to rush back, but what he ushered in was Marco's fist.

Marco didn't keep his hand at all, this punch hit Ace in the face.

"Ace, listen to me! Everything today is because of you! This is Dad's own choice. From now on, your life is not yours alone, it is Dad, it is Oz, it is Everyone who died in battle will be exchanged for it!

Papa's request is to let the rest of the people go back alive, so no matter what, you have to give me alive!

Whether it's grief or remorse, you have to bear this sin, live! Down! go!

So no matter what, don't do stupid things that send you to death! "

Marco's eyes filled with tears, but he still pressed Ace under him.

Sorrow enveloped the group of the Whitebeard Pirates, and those captains who had never frowned in the face of swords and fires became sobbing at this time.

Even the careless Luffy chose to shut up and didn't say anything. If it was another occasion, he would definitely not watch his brother being beaten, but it is different now.

Being "kidnapped" Mr. 3 stared blankly. He never thought that he would still see such a big scene in his life.

However, among the crowd of onlookers, there was one person who was extremely special.

"Father, please, don't give that devil daddy anything new!"

Today's 8k update is over, so I can go to bed early.

Chapter 1002 The epiphany of Yamato, the end of Marin Fando

Yamato felt that she had discovered a blind spot. Before she had grown up, Kaido was a world away from her strength, so no matter how hard she tried, she was still in a stage of being beaten.

There is no way to do this, and with the accumulation of time, Yamato's strength has gradually increased. At this time, he is already a strong player at the same level as Kaido, but there is also a gap in strength at the same level.

In the level of monsters, Kaido means the ceiling. Yamato still has a long way to go to catch up with Kaido, but just now, she realized.

She herself is getting stronger, Kaido is not standing still, and is constantly working towards a stronger level, but due to gradually reaching the bottleneck, Kaido's speed is also gradually slowing down, if this continues, she will be able to catch up with Kaido sooner or later .

But Arceus has become an uncontrollable accidental factor. The power he bestows is enough for a person to achieve a qualitative change, and the stronger the person gets the power of Arceus, the stronger the expressiveness. Kaido is undoubtedly such an example.

Continuing to strengthen like this, her dream of overthrowing her father will turn into a dream.

She clearly heard Kaido's words 【This is for my silly daughter】 .

At this moment, she kind of wants to put incense on White Beard. Without this old man, she might have to take over Kaido's Mobo Xun·Dragon God Gossip for no reason.

The root of all this is Arceus, and she really wants to eliminate this problem from the root.

Although Arceus acquiesced to Kaido's training, this enhancement is really too much for her.

"Don't think about this crooked way, what your father has, you will have none of it, and even more.

But after all, whether he can live longer than you can make up for this time gap, you can only see yourself.

Work harder, the power in your body is one of the few powerful ones.

Maybe it's time for you to change the way of growth. This kind of growth doesn't seem to improve your heart. "

"It's really not possible. Why don't you come here, father, and don't let that old man interfere anymore. His training is really terrible."

If it is necessary to train, Yamato would rather let Arceus come, even if it is beaten, it is a completely different experience.

"Don't worry, you can't die. Although I don't like your father's methods, they are really effective."

No one participated in the conversation between Yamato and Arceus, and more people were watching the disappearing white beard. The end of the world's strongest man brought them a lot of shock.

That was the young Whitebeard. Although the scar on Kaido's chest was hideous and terrifying, he won after all. He was able to kill the peak state, and even broke through the self-whitebeard in the end. Kaido once again proved his strength.

Among this group of people, there is another person who has his own little mind.

【Speak up, louder! You guys look this way, Ms. Yamato said it all! Aren't you curious about the truth? ! 】

Quin's heart was roaring. Yamato's voice just now was not loud enough to be heard by people nearby, but he still had an expectation. What if the navy heard it?

In this way, he can lose his scapegoats. Although these scapegoats have given him a good reputation, the price of this reputation is really too high. If possible, he doesn't want this kind of thing.

It's a pity that Yamato is still not excited enough. If she was a little more excited, maybe someone would have heard it.

【Speaking of which, Lord Arceus has used his power to this extent, so there will be no one else who blames me, right? Those crazy people might think that it is some kind of super weapon? 】

Thinking of this, Quinn fell into worry again, but no one cared about him.

Whitebeard is dead, but Kaido is still alive, and the war outside is still going on, especially the last sentence of Whitebeard, which made the already failed war even worse.

"Kaido, it's time to end, how long do you want to stand?"

"Hey hehehe, remembering the old opponent, there is one less guy worth fighting, so the navy, does anyone want to fight again?"

Whitebeard's battle made him very happy, many things have been left behind by Kaido, if the navy wants to fight him again now, he will never refuse.noVelusB.com

Kaido's provocative gaze made many marines glared at him, but he was shocked by his terrifying strength, and for a while he just looked at him with his eyes, and did not take any new actions.

Even Akainu is not impulsive at this time. He hates pirates, but he is not without brains. Except for Kaido, there are far more than one person who can pose a threat behind him.

"The war. is over."

After a long time, Sengoku uttered the words of the end of the war with difficulty, putting an end to the top war.

Even though the voice of the Warring States Period spread throughout Marin Vanduo through the radio, the war did not stop immediately. In the end, the red-eyed soldiers stopped after countless generals scolded them, and devoted themselves to medical work and began to rescue the wounded.

The original timeline should have appeared in Marlin Vanduo, and Luo encountered an accident halfway. His Polar Diving was first hit by a natural disaster-like tsunami, and then was frozen by a strong cold current.

The successive accidents made him almost capsize, and finally missed the opportunity to come to the scene.

After the Warring States truce order was issued, Kaido picked up Cong Yunque, who had broken Whitebeard. At the end of the battle, Whitebeard had been in a state of strong shock, and the burden on himself and his weapons was very serious.

After being hit by the dragon * gossip, his body was overwhelmed and dissipated into the sky. Cong Yunque also ended his life and followed his master away. The broken handle of the knife became the only remains.

"Your father's relics can be collected by yourself, Newgate left a very wonderful last word, presumably the future era will be more interesting.

As for his death, I welcome you to come to me for revenge, if you are ready to die, then come. "

Putting the broken Cong Yunque in front of Marco, Kaido turned back into a blue dragon, and the Shiyuan and Beast belonged to all left Marin Fando under the pressure of Kaido's flame cloud, but Arceus seemed to say in mid-air What, so Kaido switched directions.

The rest of Marin Fando left here under the leadership of Red Hair and returned to the New World. Luffy also left here with the remnants of the Whitebeard Pirates, heading towards the Chambord Islands.

It's just that the impact of the war has not ended. Whitebeard's last words made the reporters another headline, and also caused a new uproar at sea.

The finishing work of the navy is very complicated. Marin Vanduo was destroyed, the headquarters of the navy was in ruins, and even the island became torn apart. If you want to rebuild the fort here, at least one reclamation must be carried out.

As the admiral of the navy, Warring States did not preside over the overall situation at this time, but came to Mary Joya, and the five old stars were waiting for him in the conference room.

"Sengoku, do you have anything to say about this war?"

"No, didn't you mean the final truce?"

"That's right, the truce is what we meant, and you have no problem implementing the truce, but we didn't let you use Marin Fando as a ring and let Kaido and Whitebeard fight wantonly!"

Wu Laoxing's expression is not good-looking, and what Whitebeard said has a devastating impact on the sea

Chapter 1003: This marshal loves whoever he likes, I quit

The news hasn't spread yet, but Wu Laoxing can think of what kind of impact that sentence will have.

At the beginning, Roger's last words set off the era of great pirates, and countless powerful pirates appeared on the sea. After so many years, under the deterrence of the Four Emperors, this momentum has temporarily slowed down.

But Whitebeard's last words were to throw another barrel of gasoline into the fire pit.

The pirates believe in Whitebeard's faith, and don't think that Whitebeard will lie. They can predict what the sea will look like in the future.

"Then why don't you take action?"

"Sengoku, do you know what you're talking about?"

"I know very well, Whitebeard, Kaido, and Red Hair, these three monsters are concentrated in Marlin Vandro at the same time, and your request is a truce, what else can you do!

And the final attack was also arranged by you, right? Half of the casualties of junior naval soldiers were caused by the aftermath of this attack! You should also think about it! "

The position of Admiral of the Navy looks glamorous, but whoever sits knows, there are a bunch of thorny navies under his hands, and those who are strong are full of personality, and there will always be some problems when executing orders.

There are also unlucky Tianlongren and Wulaoxing pointing fingers on it, which makes him, the admiral of the navy, suffer from both ends.

"Zefa was killed in battle, Marin Fando was destroyed, soldiers suffered heavy casualties, all dragon troops were wiped out, and more than half of the pacifist troops were lost. Aren't these all because of your decisions!

Forcibly starting a war at an inappropriate time, isn't this the result! "

Warring States has always been an opponent of the war on the top, and he didn't continue to endure being labeled at this time.

"I am responsible for the loss of the navy. I will resign as admiral of the navy. As for the candidate for the new admiral, I recommend Kuzan."

Warring States came to resign this time. One person needs to be responsible for the failure of the navy. On the other hand, he doesn't want to be angry.

He wants to learn from Karp, and directly rejects the pick. This marshal will do whoever he likes, and he will quit anyway.

Zhan Guo's series of words and resignation application actually refuted what the five old stars hadn't said. If Zhan Guo continued to be the marshal, they would have reason to condemn each other, but Zhan Guo's direct resignation gave them no reason to reprimand.

But it is absolutely impossible for them to admit their mistakes. Anyway, Wu Laoxing himself will not be wrong, unless he says they are wrong.

Looking at Zhan Guo's resignation letter, although Wu Laoxing didn't admit it, he still slowed down his tone and started a new topic. It's better for people like Zhan Guo to stay in the Navy. It's not good for them if they are really in a hurry.

"Warring States, don't be so excited, but the candidate for the new marshal is yet to be discussed. You still have to be in charge of the navy during this time."NovelUSb.Com

The failure of the war definitely needs a responsible person, but Wu Laoxing didn't think so urgently, but Kuzan didn't meet their wishes.

"The situation in Marineford is not good, and the same is true in other regions. A large number of prisoners in the city of Advance have escaped, Judiciary Island has also been attacked by unknown weapons, and the world government is also very difficult to deal with."

"Isn't this the result of the deal you agreed to? If it weren't for that guy with Blackbeard, how could there be so many people running out of the city?"

"Things have already happened, we asked you to come to find out how to deal with this matter."

"I have asked Magellan to compile information on prison escapees, and the new reward will be released soon."

"No, we can't issue a reward, if we let the public know that so many prisoners have escaped, where is our face?"

Once so many dangerous criminals are exposed, it will cause panic. "

Issuing rewards has always been the most direct and effective way, but the Five Old Stars directly vetoed the idea of the Warring States Period. They don't care about the lives of the people, but only worry about the face of the world government.

Concealment will certainly bring misfortune to unsuspecting areas, but they would rather pay some casualties than causing mass panic.

"Not only can you not issue rewards, you also can't arrest those people with great fanfare. This matter must be done secretly, understand? Warring States period."

Sengoku didn't want to agree to this request, but he had no choice, and the navy couldn't disobey the orders issued by the world government. If he wanted to mobilize troops on a large scale, he couldn't do it without the orders of the world government, and individuals like Garp could act wantonly.

Even if the Warring States do not agree, the world government still has a way to restrict the actions of the navy.

The number of people who escaped this time is too large. If you don't mobilize heavy troops, it will be an extremely long task to catch them all back.

If it was before, he would still bite the bullet and say yes, but this time, Warring States did not give any response, but just protested silently.

"That's it for this matter, the next thing is about the beasts, there is no doubt that they are already the biggest threat on the sea.

That attack was indeed ours, but it was a pity that it was unsuccessful, but it also made us understand one thing, the beasts are the ones who can really threaten us. "

A screen appeared in the conference room, and the scene of the war on the top was reproduced again, and it was fixed on the Siyuan and Arceus.

"Arzeus, the deputy captain of the Beast Pirates, is also the so-called * in their religion.

Quin still has an inseparable relationship with the source of the beasts' technology, but it is certain that this man who calls himself a * has incomparably terrifying strength, that is, he has blocked our attack. "

They could still tell whether the attack was from a ship or a person, but what they said next was enough to make Quinn collapse.

"When formulating the reward for the beasts, let's count this part of the power on Quinn."

"Why?"

"Do you want to admit that someone can use their own strength to resist this kind of attack? Don't you know how serious this will be to the morale of the future navy?"

Different from before, Quinn's blame was unknown before, and the world government didn't know what it was.

This time they have the truth, but they don't want to tell the truth.

Some things are destined not to be made public, such as the handwriting of Arceus.

The enemy has mastered some kind of terrifying weapon, so there is still a way to check and balance, but the enemy itself can achieve the power of destroying the world, which will cause a devastating blow to morale, and a terrifying individual that cannot be countered can easily make people lose the ability to resist courage.

Even the current world government is unwilling to continue to provoke beasts. Fortunately, Arceus does not take much action on weekdays, which makes the world government feel that there is still a chance of delay.

Before Im wakes up, they don't plan to break out a new round of conflict with the beasts, maintaining the status quo is their plan.

Chapter 1004: Three institutions, none spared

"In addition, this is a video from Judiciary Island. It's not long, but you can watch it yourself."

The three major agencies of the world government, the Navy Headquarters, Judicial Island, and Advance City.

Now that the Navy Headquarters was destroyed in the war, the most serious prison escape incident in history occurred in the city of Advancement, and Judicial Island, one of the three major institutions, was not spared either.

This is a formal organization of the world government. Although it is called judicial, the island never talks about the law. As long as it is escorted to the judicial island, no matter what it does, the final result will be guilty.

The picture on the screen switched to Judicial Island. Judging from the picture, there is no problem here for the time being.

"This is when the war is not over, it probably happened shortly after the Navy headquarters experienced the tsunami, you can see for yourself."

As an important institution of the world government, Judicial Island has a complete video system that can record what happened on it, and this batch of videos just recorded the cause of Judicial Island's collapse.

A while ago.

After Regis received the order from Arceus to leave, he followed the warship and gradually approached Judicial Island.

On the way, Regice has been using the electromagnetic cannon to drive away the opponent, but he has not hit the warship.

This is the biggest disadvantage of the electromagnetic gun, the low hit rate.

In combat, it is usually necessary to cooperate with the locking skill to successfully hit the enemy.

If you don't need to lock, Regice may not be able to hit even if you aim at it, let alone it doesn't want to hit it at all.

But this also led to another embarrassing problem. After the electromagnetic gun was fired, the user was not sure whether the thing could hit it. When Regis missed the aim, it broke a mast of the warship instead. Almost wiped them out.

But after all, there was no danger, allowing them to return to Judicial Island smoothly.

"Be alert! Something is following us! It's a very dangerous monster!"

The soldiers who returned to Judiciary Island yelled anxiously. The soldiers in charge of guarding didn't know what happened, but seeing the panic of those people, they still pressed the switch in their hands.

Accompanied by the mechanical sound, the door of justice began to close, and as the door of justice closed, they also breathed a sigh of relief.

"Don't relax! Prepare heavy weapons, that thing can fly, it should be floating, anyway, there is a problem with that thing!"

The Gate of Justice cannot be bypassed by ordinary people, because the sea currents on both sides of the door are reverse eddies caused by eddies, and the power of the sea itself prevents other ships from moving forward.

This is the limiting device for the triangular ocean current, it doesn't have anything like a wall.

It is simply impossible to repair the guardrail around the entire maelstrom. Wang Duoyu couldn't invest in this project after seeing it.

After Arceus left for a while, the vortex also resumed, but it didn't work for Regice.

It is floating over, and the limitation of the ocean current does not affect it at all.

Not long after the soldier finished speaking, Regice had already floated over from the Gate of Justice, and came directly to the Bridge of Hesitation on Judicial Island.

This was originally the only way for the prisoner to be escorted from Judicial Island, but Regice, who invaded in reverse, directly broke into the hinterland of Judicial Island. Seeing the enemy's flag hanging on the Tower of Judiciary, Regice understood that he You have come to the right place.

"Reggie."

The light spots on his face flashed in turn. Regice thought he had found the "mastermind behind the scenes", and then he ruthlessly destroyed Judicial Island.

Regice didn't do anything at first, it just stood on the land of Judicial Island, and then the extreme cold overflowed from its body, and the ice began to spread on Judicial Island.

The defenders here tried to bomb Regice with artillery, but the explosive shells couldn't hurt Regice's ice crystal body at all.

Whether it's the dog-riding dog squad on Judiciary Island, or the guilty jury wielding a huge chain hammer, they all seem very powerless in the face of Regis.

Boom!

The iron ball of the guilty jury hit Regice, but the cold current spread along the iron chain to the man's hand, turning it into an ice sculpture.

And Regice's arms also began to release freezing light to the surroundings, instantly turning Judiciary Island into a snow hell, and anyone who approached Regice would be mercilessly frozen by it.

Looking at the tall ice block, the soldiers of Judiciary Island became helpless. In the end, the two giants who were in charge of guarding the front gate were also sent over.

They used to be a member of the giant soldier pirates, but they were deceived by the world government.

Due to the duel, Dongli and Broki entered a state of losing contact. The world government seized this opportunity and lied to them that their leader had been imprisoned by the government. As long as they worked for the world government for 100 years, they would be released. leader.

Under the deception of lies, these two giants became the gatekeepers of Judicial Island, responsible for guarding the gate.

In order to get back their leader, even if the opponent was an unknown creature, they took up weapons and chose to fight, but it was of no use. It just added two larger ice sculptures to the island.noVelusB.com

When Regice left, there was nothing on Judiciary Island but ice.

"The unknown object destroyed all the buildings on the island and almost razed Judiciary Island to the ground, and it had a strong purpose. Whether it was the two giants or ordinary soldiers, they were still alive after the thaw.

But the officials in the Tower of Justice were all killed by its bombing. According to intelligence, this thing is also directly related to the beasts.

Of course, this matter should not be spread to the outside world. If the news that the three major institutions were destroyed by the pirates at the same time is revealed, the world government will lose all face.

This video can be shown to the top of the Navy, but it does not need to be popularized. "

Judicial Island and the Navy Headquarters are two independent organizations. The Advancing City is managed by the Navy most of the time, but the Judicial Island is managed and controlled by the CP agency, so the Sengoku did not know this news before.

"I see. In addition, Blackbeard in the Qiwuhai died at the hands of Jhin after his betrayal, Moonlight Moria was missing and suspected to be dead, and the Qiwuhai's vacancy.

"Fill it up as soon as possible, the position of Qiwuhai cannot be vacant, and you can report if there are suitable pirates.

As for the loss of the navy, you don't have to worry about it. The world government will soon carry out a new round of conscription all over the world. The vacancies will be filled as soon as possible, and the pension will be paid soon. "

In this regard, the world government has never delayed. They are very clear about the status of the navy in the sea. This organization plays an extremely important role in the rule of the world government.

Bringing the new order, Sengoku left Marie Gioia, and the new reward order spread across the sea with the newsbirds, and within the Beast Pirates, Arceus' bounty surpassed that of Kaido for the first time

Chapter 1005 Exaggerated rewards, extra thoughts

"President! President! Calm down, bring the tranquilizer!"

At the headquarters of the World Economic News Agency, the reporters inside were once again in a mess because their president had a new situation.

Before the war on the top started, Morgans fell into a state of madness because he had a premonition of the upcoming grand war. He was so excited that he couldn't sleep, so he took some sleeping pills.

But after the top war started, Morgans received a series of big news. In order to stabilize Morgans, others gave him some sedative drugs.

After the top war ended, Morgans became aware of more major events. At this time, the side effects of sleeping and sedative drugs appeared at the same time, making Morgans unable to concentrate on his work.

He simply took some stimulants again. As the old saying goes, drugs should not be taken indiscriminately.

After taking the stimulant, Morgans saw even more shocking news. After doing this, his nerves completely entered a hyperactive state. If his brain is regarded as an independent world, then the cells in it are now jumping. Di, or the disco after taking drugs.

"Can it work? The president is just taking too much medicine to become like this. If you get another injection..."

"Otherwise, maybe you go talk to the president about lying down!"

da da da da!

A group of reporters fell to the ground in an instant. At the same time, a series of bullets pierced through the glass, and the documents on the table were scattered in all directions. Morgans was laughing wildly while shooting wildly with Gatling.

This is the headquarters of the news agency, but this world is too dangerous. As a reporter and one of the giants of the underground world, it is reasonable for Morgans to hide some arms here.

Besides, in this sea, it is impossible to be a reporter without special skills. Fighting, stealth tracking, disguise, you have to know something to get big news, so Morgans' men can be regarded as Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon.

A reporter picked up the sedative needle as a dart and forced it into Morgans' body, making Morgans stop his crazy behavior.

Taking advantage of this time, other reporters hurriedly put away all the weapons Morgans could touch, but within three minutes, Morgans stood up again.

"No way, the dose of sedative is enough for an elephant to sleep for a day."

"Hey! Do you want to kill the president? What do you want to do with that dose!"

"Aren't I afraid that it won't work, and it seems that the dosage is still small."

Several reporters also searched through boxes and boxes to find a few ropes, trying to control Morgans, but Morgans did not fall into madness this time.

"Go and prepare the manuscript for me! What are you doing standing here?"

"President... are you okay?"

"I'm the big news Morgans! I'm sure I won't fall down before I see this big news being announced, and work for me right now! Wait a minute, who punched this hole? What if it ruined the photo? manage?"

Morgans picked up the document bag in front of him, which contained drafted newspaper documents, but now there were a few more bullet holes on it, Morgans seemed to not remember what happened before, and asked his own reporter instead.

Seeing that no one answered, he didn't continue to struggle, but looked at the reward order in front of him and let out a weird laugh.

"The rewards offered by these guys are really special"

Governor of the Beasts Pirates - Kaido the Beasts - has a bounty of 5,511,100,000 Baileys.

These conscientious photographers were not idle even in the war, and Kaido's photo was replaced with a picture of him and Whitebeard after the decisive battle in the Top War.

At that time, there was a hideous scar on his chest, but the smile on his face could not be concealed.

After defeating Whitebeard, Kaido's reputation as the strongest creature is completely confirmed, and his reward naturally exceeds that of Whitebeard before.

Onihime-Yamato-A bounty of 2.863 billion Baileys is offered.

Yamato's bounty increase is not particularly large, and there is even a bonus factor of Kaido's daughter. Although she is Kaido's daughter, Yamato's behavior style is not very harmful to the outside world.

This is obtained after comparing with other pirates. Compared with them, Yamato is simply a good boy.

Fire Calamity-Jin-A bounty of 2.3 billion Baileys is offered.

Flaming Blood - Shaina - A bounty of 1.9 billion Baileys is offered.

Jhin has been fighting with the navy recently, and the bounty has been increased several times in succession. Due to her own style of behavior, Shaina still has not caught up with Jhin in the bounty.

Dragon-Hydra-a bounty of 500 million Baileys.

As Kaido's mount, the price of the Eight-Headed Dragon has also risen. This is the first batch of reward orders updated by the Navy. When are the other pirates waiting? And in this earliest reward order, there are two very Special reward order.

Plague - Quinn - A bounty of 3.2 billion Baileys is offered.

He didn't take the blame this time. The World Government saw some things clearly, but it only gave Quinn a hat for influencing the issue, so his bounty was only increased by 500 million.

This is not a small amount, but it is already very friendly when placed on Quinn.

Of course, there are still bold characters on the reward order - only-alivenovelusb.com

It is not so easy for Quinn to win this honor.

Under Quinn, Arceus' reward order can be regarded as breaking the rules.

Vice Captain of Beast Pirates

Punisher Arceus

Bounty - 6 billion 16 million Baileys.

Arceus' bounty doubled directly, and directly exceeded Kaido's bounty.

Even if the world government doesn't want to admit it verbally, they also know what a terrifying monster it is. It is completely against the common sense to fight back that attack with their own power. Even the most random ability in history dare not say do this kind of thing.

Although they didn't make it clear, they still used this method to remind the navy below to be careful about the strength of this monster.

In addition to this, they also have additional ideas, hoping to use rewards to cause conflicts among the beasts.

There is an unspoken rule for bounty offerings. The leader of a faction must be the one with the highest bounty in this faction, whether it is the revolutionary army, gangsters, or pirates.

No matter how powerful the subordinate is, his reward will not be higher than that of the boss.

In other words, a strong person will not be willing to work for the weak, so the rewards offered by his subordinates cannot exceed that of his boss.

The world government doesn't believe that there is no contradiction between the two monsters of Hundred Beasts.

Now that the deputy captain's bounty has become higher than that of the captain, there must be something wrong. Even though they knew it was impossible, they still made this bounty with the attitude of giving it a try.

It is not certain that this will make some ordinary cadres of Beasts think badly and stir up some anger. If Beasts can split because of this, it will undoubtedly be a great thing for the World Government.

Chapter 1006: Kaido's New Ambition

In addition to Kaido's photo being updated, Arceus' photo has also been replaced. Those photographers who dare to be active on the battlefield can be said to be brave enough.

At this time, the photo of Arceus' reward order has been replaced with a photo of standing on the bow of the ship to counteract the attack.

However, it was not taken during the offset, but the image left when the light curtain protecting the Siyuan gradually dissipated after the attack was over.

It's not that I didn't take pictures before, but I didn't take pictures.

While others were trying to find cover, the photographer was frantically pressing the shutter, but the equipment in his hand was not working, and the photo could not see anything under strong light. It was the same as not opening the lens cap, so it couldn't be used as a reward at all. .

Finally selected this one as a new photo. Although it was blocked by a light curtain, people couldn't see what Arceus looked like, but the world government didn't take it seriously at all.

The update bounty was their last insistence. Wu Laoxing never thought that any bounty hunter or pirate could handle Arceus. If these people could do this kind of thing, the five of them would not have to wait for Im to wake up.

The only one with a different style of painting is Yamato. Her new photo just happens to be a picture of crushing the ice spear made by Kuzan and eating it as a snack, but it looks a little cute.

"President, the matching reward orders are almost summarized, but tomorrow's front page. Which one do you use?"

News is time-sensitive. If a news is released after a few days, it is not news.

Usually one of these things would be considered big news, but now that they are put together, the editors of the newspaper office don't know what to do.

"Which article to use? Of course, use all of them. This time, it's better to publish it directly in the journal. Each of these news articles is worth occupying a separate page. I really don't know how to give up."

Morgans looked at the news in his hands. Except for the large number of felons who escaped from the Infinity Hell in Advance City, he had almost all the breaking points of the war in his hands, even the news about the destruction of Judicial Island.

As for how this message came about Well, Spandam sells it.

Not all big events happen, there are reporters nearby. In order to collect more news information, Morgans has been giving big bonuses to those who provide the best news.

Due to the deaths of two elite agents, Rob Lucci and Kaku, Spandam was also affected a lot. Thanks to Spandam's efforts, he was not dismissed and held accountable, but the economic situation became not optimistic. .

Regice's main purpose was not to kill people, so Spandam survived by chance and sold the photos of Judiciary Island to Morgans for a lot of money.

Under Morgans' decision, the newsbirds have worked a lot, because the thickness of the newspapers issued this time is five times that of usual, and there is a limit to their load. In order to deliver the newspapers, the newsbirds ran a lot. less trips.

With the activities of Newsbird and the efforts of newspapers around the world, information on the top war has also been sent to all parts of the world.

【White Beard's last words, ONEPIECE is real! 】

【The strongest in the world - Beast Kaido! The future ruler of the sea】

【Is the unknown weapon of the world government irresponsible for the lives of the people】

【Judicial Island is destroyed! 】

This time Morgans did not use an exaggerated title, because just stating the facts is enough to attract the attention of the world.

Among them, the news about Judiciary Island is a bit special, because Regiece has not been offered a reward, and the world government can't tell what the iceberg is.

They put a reward on the Eight-Headed Dragon because it was Kaido's mount, but they really didn't know how to put a reward on something that they couldn't be sure whether it was a living body or not.

After all, this thing is more like a weapon than a creature. The world government will not give a weapon an additional reward, such as Charlotte Lingling's Zeus and Prometheus. This type of reward will be aggregated to the owner.

Moreover, Judiciary Island's external caliber encountered an extremely cold air current that has never happened in eight hundred years, so it became like this.

Chambord Islands, on the Shiyuan, the new reward order has arrived here with the news bird.

After leaving Marin Vador before, the Siwon stopped by Judiciary Island to pick up Regice.

The icicle slab has also returned to Arceus' body, and Regice's strength has also weakened a lot.

When owning the icicle slab, Regice is equivalent to having an endless energy, and there is no need to consider consumption when doing things.

But with the return of the slate, Regice's battle will also consume its physical energy, but this will not affect his strength.

"Father, six billion, so strong, this is the highest reward I have ever seen."

Seeing Arceus' terrifying reward offer, Yamato expressed his sincere admiration.

"Hey hehehe, those guys' eyes finally worked once, they are taller than me, it's really interesting."

Kaido didn't have any dissatisfaction, but felt that the world government's brain finally worked for once. He didn't care about this kind of thing at all. Anyway, he was one of his own, so it didn't matter if the reward was higher, and now Kaido already has a new one. idea.

"I said, that attack is not your full strength."

"No, what's wrong?"

"I'm still too weak, I can't take that kind of attack once or twice."

Kaido recalled the previous attack, and became very interested in its power. After hitting Whitebeard before, Kaido was even a little disappointed, because no opponent stronger than Whitebeard in his peak period could be found in this sea. There are a few.

He has defeated Whitebeard, which means that it will be difficult for him to meet stronger opponents in the future, but the attack above the sky gives Kaido a new target.

"That attack... I have to find a way to fight it back. I will use it as a new target in the future."

Shaking his neck, Kaido made his own decision. NOVELUS.B.COM

"After going back this time, come and give me special training for a period of time, others will not be able to use that kind of attack anymore"

"Wait! Father, you are already strong enough, you should rest for a while, don't trouble your adoptive father with such things, right?"

Listening to Kaido's words, Yamato's expression became extremely nervous. If Kaido also mastered that kind of attack. Yamato couldn't imagine what it would be like to be traveling outside and suddenly be targeted by an attack from the sky.

"Really? Maybe what you said makes sense. It's really not good to trouble your adoptive father."

"Very good"

"Then it will start with you. After returning to Ghost Island, you will be a training partner for a month."

"Huh?"

Before Yamato finished speaking, he was dragged back to * by Kaido.

"What? If you don't want to, then I will"

"No! Father, let me do it! Leave it to me!"

After thinking for a while, Yamato discovered a painful fact. If Arceus is allowed to come, assuming that Kaido really breaks through himself, then she will definitely be unlucky, so she has to find a way to prevent this situation, such as doing it by herself.

Although this will take a month of tossing, it can guarantee the future.

【Damn it, this old man tricked me again! 】

After reacting, Yamato smiled, but he was thinking about something else entirely.

【Heh heh heh heh, the silly girl is so foolish. I said let her come, but I didn't say that Arceus wouldn't come. 】

Warm up Yamato for a month before fighting Arceus. This is the idea from Kaido. In terms of brainpower, he is still one level ahead of Yamato.

Chapter 1007 Change flag, red hair affected

Fight, become stronger, find stronger people to fight, become stronger, Kaido has been repeating this process.

Since he was a soldier of the kingdom, he has been fighting constantly.

From becoming a wanted criminal for the first time, to becoming a trainee on the Rocks ship, and now the emperor of the sea, Kaido's goals have never stopped.

The war on the top made him see stronger weapons, and naturally he had more goals for the future.

In order to let Yamato be willing to be a partner, he prepared this conspiracy for Yamato. Although Yamato saw through this conspiracy, he had no choice, let alone what Kaido would think about it later.

"Uncle Quinn, why are you crying?"

Yamato gave up arguing with Kaido, it was meaningless anyway, if she took the initiative, Arceus would not choose to fish her. Instead, it was Quinn who was crying that attracted Yamato's attention.

"I'm touched. Those * from the world government finally became human this time, and the bounty has only increased by 500 million."

This amount is within Quinn's acceptable range, and the resurrection grass that restores Whitebeard's youth, and the attack that prevents unknown moves are not placed on him.

The reports of the attack were vague, and the issue of the resurrection herb became a matter for the medical department of Beast Fruit, and the original smoke bomb still played a role.

The nonexistent genius medical team managed to share Quinn's pressure.

Due to being persecuted too much, the degree of persecution was a little lighter this time, which made Quinn feel a lot more comfortable.

"You trash is really easy to satisfy, can this satisfy you?"

"What are you talking about, torture pervert? Oh, I understand, you are jealous that my uncle's reward is higher than yours, right?"

"Heh, Quinn, you'd better know how your bounty came about. If you really refuse to accept it, I don't mind fighting with you."

Looking at the shy Quinn, Jhin simply and neatly pulled out Yan Mo, and blocked Quinn's mouth with force.

The quarrel among the subordinates did not disturb Kaido's mood, and the Siwon also began to dive after reaching the predetermined position, and they were going to Fishman Island.

Due to their own ability to fly and the ability to fly with ships, Kaido and Arceus almost never go to Murloc Island when they travel, but this time it is different.

Whitebeard's death is just the beginning, and there will be many chain reactions due to site problems.

Before, due to Neptune's entanglement, Murloc Island had been flying the flag of Whitebeard, but now times have changed.

After Whitebeard died, his deterrence plummeted.

The dead Whitebeard did not have enough prestige to protect the island with a flag, so for Murloc Island, changing the flag became the only choice.

For Murloc Island, there is also good news, that is, the pirate flag of Beasts is ready-made. Through Tiger's relationship and previous business contacts, Neptune is ready to change the flag.

This time, he just sent an invitation to Kaido as the king, intending to let him participate in the banquet on Murloc Island, to get acquainted. After all, the relationship between Kaido and Nipton is better than that of Whitebeard.

When the Dingshang war happened, Neptune also learned enough about the war through the word of the people from Beast Mining.

Although Whitebeard died in the hands of Kaido, it can be said that Whitebeard has no regrets, and as a king, he cannot mix too much personal feelings at the national level. It is most beneficial to Murloc Island to completely hang the banner of beasts choose.

Under the influence of Arceus' power, the sea parted to both sides, a special water staircase appeared on the sea surface, and the pirates of all beasts also went to the fish-man island smoothly.

Coating is too time-consuming, Arceus and Kaido don't have three days to waste here, so Arceus directly used his own power.

In the Chambord Islands, there are still some people waiting for coating, such as the remnants of the Whitebeard Pirates.

They gathered near the Chambord Islands, ready to return to the New World.novelusb.com

It's just that they need coating. After all, they are not driving submarines, even Shanks is no exception. Coating is a one-time thing, and sometimes it is very inconvenient.

But looking at the new reward order, Shanks' expression was very complicated.

The people of Beasts raised their rewards, he can understand that Kaido and the others have turned the top war upside down, so it is strange that the rewards are not raised.

The same is true for the remnants of the Whitebeard Pirates. Although Whitebeard is dead, these remnants still have some strength, and the increase in bounty has become an unavoidable thing.

But the redhead didn't understand why his bounty had increased.

The leader of the red-haired pirates-red-haired Shanks-4.3489 billion berry.

"Strange, I didn't do anything"

In a sense, the redhead didn't really do anything, but it was such a coincidence that he appeared.

Appearing before the final battle between Whitebeard and Kaido, just as agreed.

Beasts also listened to his proposal to end the war. There were rumors that the red-haired Shanks ran at both ends, but no one knew what he did, and there were even rumors of the Three Emperors Alliance.

The world government is a little suspicious now. In fact, Red Hair and Kaido reached an agreement with the purpose of getting White Beard out of the game, which led to the increase of Shanks' bounty.

Now that Whitebeard is dead, Dahai is not qualified to fill this vacancy at all. Now even the five old stars of the world government are beginning to doubt Shanks' purpose. Let the era of the four emperors return to the era of the three emperors. Nothing good.

"Shanks, long time no see, you have become the emperor of the sea."

While the red hair was struggling, Raleigh appeared behind him.

"Mr. Raleigh? Do you still live here?"

"Yeah, I'm used to living here, and if I don't, I won't be able to see these juniors. Do you have any arrangements for them?"

"No, Mr. Raleigh."

"That kid Luffy came to me before, hoping that I could train him, and I promised him."

Raleigh mentioned that not long after Luffy and the others arrived in the Chambord Islands, Luffy saw cruelty in the war and realized his own lack of strength.

Not to mention domineering, even the physique and skills are far behind the pirates in the new world. He can't protect his companions like this, so he wants to stay and practice.

Through the relationship of the straw hat, Raleigh agreed to this matter, and as a world-renowned mediocre teacher, he started his teaching work.

"I see, what about Ace?"

"He hasn't come out yet, Whitebeard's death has had a great impact on him."

Ace has been doing nothing these days. The death of Whitebeard has dealt a big blow to him, especially what Marco said when he beat him, it was engraved into his body

Chapter 1008 Luffy and Ace, the Shiyuan on Murloc Island

Not all the remaining pirates of the Whitebeard Pirates are concentrated in the Chambord Islands. As the Four Emperors of the New World, at least they were once a big pirate group of the Four Emperors level. They have skilled coating craftsmen on board, and they can complete the coating by themselves.

Moreover, the Shampoo Land is always under the eyes of the Navy, so gathering too many people is not a good thing.

It's just that the current navy is overwhelmed by the situation at sea, and Whitebeard's final announcement is like a deep-sea bomb thrown into the sea, causing an uproar in the sea.

In addition, the navy has deployed elite troops from all over the world, and the elite generals have also been concentrated in the navy headquarters. Some other places can't take care of them. Now the navy in the headquarters is frantically fighting the fire.

Knowing that Kaido and Red Hair might not have left yet, they didn't want to provoke them at this time, and turned a blind eye to the people who stayed in the Chambord Islands, pretending they didn't see them.

Even the garrison in Chambord hid back to the naval base, turning a deaf ear to everything that happened outside.

The party involved in one of the top wars - Fire Fist Ace is sitting lonely by the sea at this time.

"Mr. Raleigh, don't you want to say something? He is the son of Captain Roger after all."

"There is nothing to say, some things have to come out by themselves, besides, isn't his brother there.

It's you, don't you go and see the boy who asked you to deliver the straw hat? "

"I have seen it, at least now he understands that the new world is too early for him."

"Really, by the way, where is Bucky? I think he also appeared in the top war."

"I invited him, but he said he had his own goals, so we parted ways after leaving Marin Fandor."

Shanks and Rayleigh just looked at the two brothers from a distance, and did not disturb their getting along, but talked about some past events.

The previous encounters only let Luffy see the tip of the iceberg of strength, and the war on top let him know how cruel the world is. Starting from the city of advancement, he encountered countless powerful enemies.

The generals and officers on the battlefield can pose a great threat to him. If you just enter the new world like this, it will be no different from dying, so Luffy understands that they need to practice.

And now there is still a problem, how to notify the companion who was shot by the bear. Luffy didn't think of a way for a while, so he handed over this task to Hero, and he himself went to talk to Ace.

"Daddy"

Looking at the sea in front of him, Ace's heart is not peaceful.

Except for Marco who gave him a lecture in Marlin Vandor, the rest of the Whitebeard Pirates didn't say much, but Ace could see that they still had negative emotions about it.

When Ace was captured, members of the Whitebeard Pirates were willing to risk their lives to save him, but after Ace was rescued, they also complained about Ace who caused the outbreak of the war.

This attitude is not contradictory. To save him is because he is a family member and a member of the Whitebeard Pirates.

Blame him, also because his impulsiveness led to today's consequences.

Therefore, there are not many people from the Whitebeard Pirates to comfort Ace, and many people themselves don't know what attitude they should use to face Ace.

Although Blackbeard caused this incident, Ace, who insisted on chasing and killing Blackbeard, is also responsible, and Ace himself cannot forgive himself without mentioning others.

"Ace, in fact, when the white beard uncle died, he was very happy."

"Luffy, what are you talking about?"

"I want to say... the white beard uncle left without regret, his laughter came from the heart.

He wanted to save you, and he saved you in the end, and he had a lot of fun fighting with that Kaido. I'm not good at this kind of stuff! "

While talking, Lu Fei rubbed his head with a headache, and asked him to comfort others, which is really a bit embarrassing.

"All in all, isn't the last order of the white beard uncle to let you all live? Then you live well, isn't it the feedback to the white beard uncle!"

"Really, is it your turn to teach me a lesson?"

Ace can see that Luffy spent a lot of thought in sorting out these words, and he understands the truth of what Luffy said, but there are some things that can't be let go just by understanding.

"Speaking of which, Luffy, when your practice is over, do you want to join us?"

After pondering for a long time, Ace suddenly said this to Luffy.

"Huh? What did you say?"

"I mean join the Whitebeard Pirates."

"But the white beard uncle has already"

"Papa is gone, but the Whitebeard Pirates are still there. This is the family that Papa values most. I want to keep it going, if everyone is willing to accept me."

"I definitely will, but I still won't join you. I have my own journey and my own goals!"NOVELUS.B.COM

While Whitebeard's remnants were still waiting in the Chambord Islands, the Beasts had already arrived at Fishman Island.

The way to divide the sea is much more convenient than coating, and there is no need to worry about the crisis under the sea surface. In this way, the Shiyuan arrived at the Fishman Island along the channel opened by Arceus.

"Father, it seems that this is the first time you have come to Murloc Island."

By the light provided by Yangshu Eve, Yamato admired the scenery of the seabed, but suddenly remembered something, Arceus seemed to have never been to the bottom of the sea.

"For the first time, I'm not very interested in underwater."

With the ability of electromagnetic levitation, Arceus has always taken a boat to fly directly over the red earth continent when going out, which is much more convenient than diving.

Actually, not only Arceus, but even Kaido has not been underwater for a long time. Ever since he became a capable person, he relied on the flame cloud to fly for everything.

If it weren't for the strategic location of the Murloc Island and the significance of the existence of the Murlocs today, plus the fact that there is an ancient weapon in the Murloc Island, and they would still be on their way after the war, Kaido might not have accepted Neptune's invitation. It is enough to send a cadre casually.

The kings of a country are nothing more than the sea emperors of the new world. For most kingdoms, only one Shichibukai is enough to change their fate.

Compared to the relaxation of the Beast Pirates, Neptune was much more nervous. He didn't even ask his son to greet him, but came to the entrance of the Fishman Island and waited in person.

Now they have business dealings with Beasts, but this does not mean that they will be able to maintain a proper relationship in the future. In the environment of Murloc Island, without the protection of the Four Emperors Flag, the impact will be almost devastating.

"It's really a shocking appearance."

Looking at the parting sea outside Murloc Island, Neptune became nervous again.

"Don't be so nervous, it's the Lord's handwriting, and the Lord has always been very easy-going."

On Neptune's shoulder, Mana Fei patted his shoulder to signal him to relax.

Chapter 1009 Do you know this flag?

Manafei, who has been staying in the deep sea for a long time, also received an invitation from Neptune.

Because he is very familiar with Shirahoshi and has a good relationship with this family, he can sit on Neptune's shoulders.

Whether it is Neptune or Otohime, they are very aware of the terrifying power hidden in Manafei's seemingly small body. The ability is comparable to that of the sea king, and even the sea kings will give it a face.

Tiger and Jinbe also came here at the same time. When the top war ended, Jinbe left there, and Tiger was already in Fishman Island.

In the days when there is no Shiping, he is the person responsible for safeguarding the safety of Murloc Island. As for New Murloc Island, he is entrusted to Mandelfish and Nereus.

At this time, Jinbei and Tiger are also accompanying people, waiting here.

"King Neptune, don't worry, there will be no accidents, the Lord will not interfere with such matters.

Even when we were flying the Whitebeard banner, the beasts gave us protection, not to mention now. "

"I hope so."

Actually, Neptune thought more about it. He and Whitebeard were friends. It was because of this relationship that Murloc Island was able to get Whitebeard's flag in the first place.

Whitebeard died at the hands of Kaido in the duel. This is also the choice made by Whitebeard. Neptune can't say anything, but Whitebeard's last declaration made Neptune feel very complicated.

That sentence will inevitably lead to more pirates appearing on the sea, and the increase in the number of pirates will have an impact on Murloc Island.

He can guess that Whitebeard has some special ideas. From a personal point of view, he can understand Whitebeard, but from the king's point of view, he cannot accept it.

"coming."

Manafei suddenly said something to himself, then left Neptune's shoulder, took out a section of bubble coral, and flew towards the source.

"My lord, it's been a long time no see, it's a bit cold on board."

Manafei, who came to the Siyuan, suddenly felt a chill, and then saw Regice in a semi-dormant state.

After returning to the Siyuan, Regice became tired and went to a corner to play iceberg simulation.

Most of the cold air was taken back into its body by it, but even so, Regis was still a large air conditioner.

Yamato didn't care about this, but Peggy Wan and Ulti were different. Their physical instincts made their siblings come to the farthest place in Regice.

For example, Peggy Wan was watching the fish in the deep sea at the stern, as if he was thinking about the chances of the air force fishing, and Ulti came to rest in the cabin room, and they didn't return until Manafei boarded the Shiyuan. The position of the bow.

"Long time no see, Manafei, does Neptune have any other ideas?"

"No, he just doesn't feel very worried about the future of Murloc Island, so he held a banquet and wanted to get the flag done as soon as possible."

"He's still a somewhat responsible king."

"Master, please come this way, Neptune has been waiting for a long time."

Under the guidance of Manafei, Arceus and his party followed Neptune to Dragon Palace City. In the banquet hall of Dragon Palace City, Otohime had already waited here with her children.

Kaido didn't care about the mess, but just focused on the spirits brewed on Murloc Island.

The wine born in the deep sea has a very special flavor, and the process is not complicated. After drinking, Kaido quickly made a promise to lend the flag.

And the Dragon Palace Kingdom has already prepared Kaido's flag.

It is not difficult to draw a pirate flag. As long as you are a painter with sound limbs, it takes a few minutes to draw a pirate flag, but flying the pirate flag requires the approval of others.

If you rashly use someone else's flag without getting an answer, the owner of the flag will take revenge afterwards.

And Neptune also talked about other things.

"In addition to the original mining share, Murloc Island can also provide desserts. This is also a specialty of our Murloc Island, and it has a good sales volume in the market."

The island where the flag is hung is the vassal state of the sea emperors, and they have to offer offerings every year to obtain asylum, but the beasts don't care much about desserts.

They are not Charlotte Lingling, who are obsessed with eating. The Murloc Mining Company is the interest of letting the beasts lend the flag.

But Beasts didn't refuse the tribute from Murloc Island, but they didn't ask Murloc Island to expand the food processing factory like Charlotte Lingling did. It was enough for them to maintain the original state.

In Dragon Palace City, the mermaid dancer showed off her graceful figure and danced gracefully in the hall. Quinn was completely fascinated by it.

Kaido wiped out the wine inventory of Murloc Island. Half of the spirits in this banquet were consumed by Kaido. When singing and dancing here, and the peace was peaceful, the left and right ministers of the Dragon Palace Kingdom had already held a hundred The beast's pirate flag came to the entrance.

"Be careful! Put away Whitebeard's flag first!"

The flag provided the Murloc Island with shelter for a long time after all. Although Whitebeard was dead, they also decided to change the flag for the safety of the Murloc Island, but that kindness has not been forgotten.

So the people of Fishman Island still solemnly put it away.

But before they hang up the flag of beasts, a group of new uninvited guests have already arrived on Murloc Island.

Some members of the pirates who just entered the fishman island suddenly launched an attack and wanted to attack the residents of the fishman island.

This is the purpose of their coming here. After hearing the news of Whitebeard's death, many pirates are eyeing Whitebeard's original territory.

There are not a few people who are eyeing on the Fishman Island. Rare things are more expensive. The mermaids on the market have been extinct for many years. If you can take this opportunity to catch a few mermaids and put them up for auction, then you don't have to worry about their future economic problems. .

However, the right minister of the sea horse led the sea king army to stop them in time, and the two sides fell into a confrontation.

Nowadays, people with high military strength in Murloc Island hold banquets in Dragon Palace City, and only ordinary Neptune troops stay outside, so the right minister did not act rashly.

"Humans, do you know what you are doing?" noVeluSB.cOM

The right minister came to the front, angrily questioning the pirate in front of him.

"What to do? Of course to catch slaves! The guy with the white beard is dead! That human traitor can no longer protect you!"

Profits will prompt people to do crazy things, and the price of mermaids has always been high, especially in the past few years. Fishman Island has undergone tremendous changes, and there have been no incidents of mermaids being trafficked for several years in a row.

Cami didn't count that time, the process of her being abducted was too outrageous.

Whitebeard's banner made many people dare not act rashly. Now that the news of Whitebeard's death came, these people naturally rekindled their greed.

"You are a seahorse, right? Although it is a man, it is also a novel species. It should be able to sell for a high price. Forget about that catfish. Normal people would not be interested in this kind of mermaid."

Looking at the dark-faced catfish and mermaid Minister Zuo, the leading pirate gave a disgusted look.

The riot here also attracted the attention of other nearby pirates, and some people also began to move around, but within a minute, their attitudes changed.

The left minister who was rejected was not angry, but silently picked up the things behind him and inserted them in their original positions.

Due to the special environment, there will also be wind in Murloc Island. Since the wind generated here is inseparable from Yangshu, it is generally called tree wind.

At this time, under the blowing of the tree wind, the flag of Pirates of Beasts fluttered in the wind, and the new skull flag also showed its ferocious smile.

"I'm really sorry for being a catfish and a mermaid, but you should know this flag, right?"

Minister Zuo tidied up his clothes, pointed to the new flag, and put on a more embarrassing look.

"It's really embarrassing, there are still many people who are willing to provide us with shelter, not all human beings are like you, with such a dirty heart."

"Hundreds of beasts?!"

Today two Ming four

Chapter 1010 Such a good opportunity, of course, stepping on your dead bodies

Whitebeard's flag failed to put an end to human trafficking on Murloc Island, but it deterred many youngsters. Many people were afraid of Whitebeard's power, so they gave up their inner thoughts.

Money touches people's hearts, but it also has life. Although when Whitebeard was alive, some people were still driven by interests and ambitions to violate Whitebeard's bottom line, but most of them became honest.

It wasn't until the day of Whitebeard's death that they dared to really jump out.

But as soon as their ambitions emerged, they were thrown a basin of ice water head-on.

It is true that Whitebeard died, and Murloc Island also lost his protection, but in the blink of an eye, Murloc Island was hung with the banner of a hundred beasts.

Moreover, thanks to Bucky's efforts, a large number of precious images have been circulated during the Dingshang War.

Kaido proved himself in front of reporters all over the world with his own strength. Even the young Whitebeard is no longer his opponent in the deathmatch.

More importantly, compared to the last strongest man, Kaido, the strongest creature, has a much more irritable behavior style. Offending him, the end is even worse than offending Whitebeard.

"Captain, what to do."

Didn't do anything, just a flag made these people hesitate. They knew the horror of the Four Emperors, so White Beard didn't dare to invade here when he was alive.

It is precisely because they know how terrifying pirates at this level are that they become timid.

"It's fake, it must be fake. Not long after the war ended, how could Murloc Island get in touch with Beast so quickly? It's impossible, absolutely impossible!"

The pirate headed by him repeatedly denied the words of Minister Zuo Zuo. It is not so much that he is persuading others, but that he is deceiving himself.

"Stop joking, you stinky murlocs, how can you get online with so many monsters!"

"Boss, that ship seems to be a ship of beasts"

When a pirate group becomes famous, not only their members, but even the ships they belong to will become more eye-catching.

Although the King of Beasts is Kaido's ship, he is rarely seen on that ship. Kaido relies on his own ability to fly around most of the time, and only in a few cases does he travel by boat.

The King of Beasts is now more of a transport ship. Seeing it in the New World means that reinforcements from Beasts have arrived.

Although the actions of Arceus were relatively secretive, the Siyuan also made a splash through the top war. Now this ship has become an iconic ship like Whitebeard's Moby Dick.

The people on the boat were all participating in the banquet in Dragon Palace City, and the boat naturally stopped in the harbor of Fishman Island. The group of pirates didn't pay attention to the boat just now, and they didn't know why it happened until Minister Zuo hoisted the flag of beasts. A ship will appear on Murloc Island.

The flying flags, the ships of the beasts, the simultaneous appearance of these two things on Murloc Island means that it is needless to say, the leading pirate has already had a very ominous premonition.

The only good news is that they haven't acted yet, the behavior just now was just a joke, and in a sense, there is still time to redeem it.

"Actually, this is just a joke, this is one of our programs.

The sea today is too dangerous. For the safety of Murloc Island, we hope you will have more sense of crisis, that's why we say this. "

How arrogant he was just now, and how humble he is now. At this time, the pirate leader was all smiles, hoping to get over the matter in front of him.

Unfortunately, the reality is always extremely cruel.

"Boss! We caught a few mermaids, why are you still here?"

This was their plan before they entered Fishman Island. After landing, they would split into two groups. As the captain, he would lead some of them to attract the attention of the guards of Fishman Island, while the other men would go to the island to capture mermaid.

Now it seems that the plan was successful, but it was not at the right time. For the first time, the pirate leader was disgusted by the high efficiency of his subordinates.

And they had more trouble.

Because there were mermaids in their hands, the Neptune Army just surrounded them, but other pirates also targeted them.

The pirates who landed on Murloc Island were not the only pirate group, and they all had various purposes, but none of them took any action. Now their group of early birds gave other pirates a chance to make trouble.

The pirates watching the excitement around them all took out their weapons at this time, with dangerous eyes in their eyes.

"What are you doing?!"

"What are you doing? I can't understand you guys, so I want to kill you!"

"That's right, that's right, it's a shame to actually arrive at Chambord at the same time as you scum!"

Things can no longer go on, and the pirate leader has recovered his essence.

"Don't pretend to be arrogant! Don't you guys come here with this purpose?!"

Seeing the righteous look of the captains of the two pirate groups next to them, the pirates who were already on the cusp of the storm immediately exposed their old background.

"Don't think that I don't know what you two are thinking! Want to step on Lao Tzu and join Hundred Beasts? Stop dreaming! Hundred Beasts don't look down on trash like you!"

And don't get me wrong, I'm not your kind of rookie. "noVeluSB.cOM"

The pirate who wants to attack him is also a newcomer this year, but under the cover of the halo of the extremely evil generation, the navy and the world government pay very little attention to them. From the navy's point of view, this kind of pirate can't enter the new world. How long will it become cannon fodder.

The pirate who wants to kidnap the mermaid is different. He has been in the great route for a while. After entering the new world, he was broken by the cruelty of the new world and fled back to the first half of the great route. The strictness of recruiting subordinates.

A person like this who has no skills and no principles in doing things will not be able to pass the recruiting auditions from Beasts.

"I advise you two not to think about such crooked thoughts, and rush out with Lao Tzu while there are no beasts here, so that you can get a share of the pie. This is the most beneficial thing for you."

After the war on the top, the reputation of Beasts was completely established, and the number of pirates who wanted to join them also began to surge. When these two people stood up at this time, the leader of the pirates could of course guess what they wanted to do.

It is nothing more than wanting to use myself to please the beasts, so as to obtain the qualification to hang the flag of the beasts.

He is not afraid of this kind of pirate, but he doesn't want to be entangled here. As long as he escapes far enough, the beasts may not find him, but if he is dragged here, he is really finished.

Beasts just took over Murloc Island, and he kidnapped the mermaid here. If caught, he will definitely use his head to show off.

"Don't take us for fools, we don't know if you will share the money, but if you are caught, the people of beasts can't kill us, right? No matter how bad it is, they can exchange money with you."

"Yeah, do you still want to drag us into the water? Compared with a coward who dare not enter the new world and the emperor of the sea, you are obviously easier to deal with."

There are also smart pirates, and these two rookies are not easy to fool. The pirate leader saw that his deception was ineffective, and the right minister of the sea horse quietly said something to the soldiers around him, and then he also made a broken pot. A broken plan.

"Take those mermaids as hostages! Get out!"

"Give up that idea, this is the deep sea, you can't escape from here, let our citizens go first, other things can be discussed."

"Bah! You also said that this is the deep sea. When I return to the surface, these people will naturally be released. Get out of the way now! Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!"

Because of the hostages, the Sea King's Army was really difficult to act for a while, and the main Murloc Island didn't expect that some people would be unable to bear the loneliness so soon.

People like Jinbe and Tiger who are strong enough to solve troubles are all in Dragon Palace City. Even if the right minister ordered the soldiers to call, it would take a while for them to come.

They were not sure about rescuing the hostages from the hands of the pirates. In order to ensure the safety of the hostages, the Neptune Army also knew that they had temporarily backed down.

Those two pirate groups didn't have so many scruples, but they were not the opponents of this pirate leader.

Although he was scared off by the new world, he also survived for a long time in the first half, and he can be regarded as a pirate with some skills.

The two pirates whose rewards were only around 30 million were easily dealt with. Seeing that the person in the way had been dealt with, and the people on Fishman Island were wary again, he felt that he would be safe soon, but at this moment, he A new voice rang in my ears.

"Give up, today you will not succeed."

On the reef beside him, Hawkins was sitting on it playing with his own tarot cards, divining the fate of the pirate leader.

"Unfortunately, the probability that you can see the sun on the sea again is zero."

Before in the Chambord Islands, Hawkins was shocked by an unforeseen fate, and then led his men to the New World.

But when he arrived at Fishman Island, he chose to stay here, because the result of divination told him that it would be easier to achieve his goal if he stayed here, so Hawkins did not immediately go to the New World, but stayed in Fishman Island for a while.

The reason for him to go to sea is very simple. The result of divination told him that going to sea is the best choice. In Hawkins' view, the person who can even twist his fate will definitely be the winner of the era. At that moment, he has a new life. idea.

At this time, I found my own opportunity.

"The success rate is 78.6%, can you please catch it without a fight? You have no future. To be precise, you have a 98% possibility of ruining your last chance by yourself.

And you, the Minister of Murloc Island, you should seize this opportunity. "

Withdrawing the tarot cards used for divination, Hawkins looked at the pirate in front of him coldly, and said some strange words to the right minister of the seahorse.

"Get out!"

Facing Hawkins who blocked him, the pirate leader didn't talk nonsense, but swung several knives at Hawkins one after another.

Bass! bass! bass!

Hawkins' body was slashed by the sword energy, but not a drop of blood flowed from his body, and several severed scarecrows crawled out of his body.

"ah!"

Screams came from behind the pirate leader, and he just turned around when he found several hostage-taking younger brothers all fell to the ground, and a lot of blood spurted out.

A mermaid who was afraid of blood even fainted from fright, which was not what the pirate leader paid attention to. He was surprised to find that the wound on his little brother was exactly the same as the one where he attacked Hawkins.

The pirate who controlled the hostages fell, and the nearby Neptune Army rushed up immediately and temporarily sheltered the hostages in a safe place. Only then did the right minister understand what Hawkins said.

"I said, you will bury yourself.

Now you have a dead face on your face. "

"Basil Hawkins. I haven't offended you, have I?"

The hostages were rescued, which meant that the Neptune Army had no scruples. Once they were held back by them, the only thing waiting for them was death.

"No, but you can be my stepping stone to success. If I kill you myself, it will increase the success rate of my plan by another 7%."

Hawkins fiddled with his cards again, but the anger of the pirate leader had reached the extreme. He swung his knife and flashed past Hawkins, and the blade directly scratched Hawkins' neck.

"Too much nonsense, so what if you are a supernova? Have you never seen such domineering power?"

At this moment, the weapon in his hand was dyed black by a layer of arrogance. He thought it would be able to hurt Hawkins, but the result was the same as before. A scarecrow whose head was cut off fell from Hawkins' body. Correspondingly, the heads of his subordinates were also chopped off.

Domineering can touch the entity of the capable person, but cannot make the ability of the capable person disappear.

Hawkins is a superman with the ability of Straw Fruit.

You can fight through the spirits, and the spirits will use the voodoo doll to transfer the damage to others to counteract the attack.

His slash did hit Hawkins and caused damage, but the damage was diverted in the end.

When the scarecrow is still stored in Hawkins' body, it is extremely difficult to kill him, unless it is effective to attack the parts where he cannot transfer the damage.

"It's true that I haven't seen it, and I died again this time."

Hawkins pulled out the weapon at his waist, but as the weapon was unsheathed, what appeared in the eyes of everyone was not an ordinary blade, but a twisted and growing straw.

"The Straw Knife."

Holding the handle of the knife and stabbing forward, the twisted straw showed extraordinary hardness, directly piercing the body of the pirate in front of him.

At the same time, the pirate in front of him also pierced Hawkins' chest with a knife, but it still didn't produce any effect. Instead, there was another hole in his own heart.

Hawkins' substitute death is his ability to use the fruit of the straw to host himself in other people's bodies, and he needs to be prepared before he can appoint a substitute. This method is not complicated, and only contact is enough.

When he was watching a play before, he used the extended straw to complete the boarding, and when he was just fighting, he even boarded directly into the opponent's body in front of him.

He has a bit of armed fur, but it is far from offsetting the ability.

"The audience is here, your fate can end."

At this moment, Hawkins saw Quinn's figure from the corner of his eye, and he could safely kill the enemy in front of him.
