

Arceus 1031

Chapter 1031 Jhin who died first

Whether it is "Kaido" or Kaido, they are essentially pirates, and they are not interested in infrastructure construction.

In fact, no Kaido cares about the appearance of Wano country. As long as Wano country can continue to produce weapons, it doesn't matter what it looks like.

The difference between the two ghost islands is Heitan Orochi and Arceus. Arceus is an infrastructure enthusiast, and he doesn't want the place where he stays for a long time to become a heavily polluted area. Therefore, the pollution problem of the Rabbit Bowl Factory is covered by Alola Smelly Mud and Gaga Leer's double-bomb gas is a perfect solution.

And their control and development methods are also completely different. Arceus' purpose is to assimilate, and the purpose of Heitan Orochi is to destroy.

Kurotan Orochi is different. He only wants Wano Country to suffer, so he spares no effort to persecute everything here.

In Yamato's cognition, Wano Country should be a happy country. This too real Wano Country made her a little hard to accept for a while, and even the joy of beating "Kaido" was washed away.

【Look, this is the truth you like, what's so good about being too real? 】

【It's just appearances, not all countries are like this, the absolute ideal does not exist, the existence of the Lord makes it an ideal country, but what about the place where the Lord is not present?

Beauty is just a momentary feeling, only the truth is eternal, and the truth will never be beautiful, and she will never grow up without experiencing the truth. 】

【If you don't build your own ideals, you will be stagnant if you are bound by reality. 】

In the space of dragons, the two melon-eating dragons both received the information sent back from the consciousness residing in Yamato's body, so a new round of debate began. Since the split, this topic has never ended, and it is just a new round of debate at this time. Just a round of debate.

Meanwhile, another haunted island.

"Oh, this guy finally realized his long-cherished wish, he should be very happy now."

"Sister! You shouldn't have said that"

Ulti's wild words scared Peggy Wan, even though his voice was not loud, he looked towards Kaido with a little fear, but Kaido didn't care about this kind of thing, but was playing with his eight fists, as if Planning something new.

"Don't worry, Mr. Kaido is not interested in you now, but Yamato is not necessarily."

Now there are Robin and Olga in the crowd, as well as the two families of Zeraola and Mandelfish. Jhin and Shaina did not come, but they also watched all this from the high platform on the side. As for Quinn

Judging from the current situation, if no one stops him, he can dance for a day and a night.

"Speaking of which, no matter which world Quinn looks so needy, no, that one looks even worse."

Also holding a wine bottle in her hand, Shaina was comparing which Quinn deserved a beating more.

"I don't think there is any difference, but you. Is it really okay for you to drink that directly?"

"Huh? It's okay, I don't feel anything."

Rum and beer are the choices of most pirates, but at the ghost island banquet, there are many kinds of alcohol, in addition to common types, there are also alcohol that ordinary people don't drink at all, such as the bottle of 96 degrees in Shaina's hand distilled vodka.

It was originally used by the bartender to mix drinks, but Shaina took it directly, and she didn't seem to be drunk at all.

The resistance of the Lunaria people is indeed ridiculously high, but alcohol tolerance is a natural thing, at least Jhin is not as good as Shaina.

"Master Holy Beast really prepared something very special."

"Yeah, the power of the holy beast is recovering more and more. This time it is space. I hope it will be time next time. Look, there is also you over there. That ability should be the toothless wing that hasn't changed. Dragon."nOvELusb.coM

In the projected screen, "Jhin" also appeared beside Yamato. Shaina and Jhin were just spectators at first, but in the next second, Shaina's expression changed.

"Jin, promise me, don't be assimilated by that idiot Quinn."

After "Kaido" was knocked down by Yamato, "Jhin" also appeared on "Onijima", and waved his wings to catch up with Yamato who was observing Wano Country in the sky, and then

I saw him pulling his head back like a slingshot, shooting out a shock wave like a laser, and shouting a very strange sentence.

【Miao Zi Zun Huang! This is how the ancient pterosaurs hunted! 】

In Shaina's view, Jhin's own thinking logic is still normal, and that "Jhin" can make such weird moves must be infected by Quinn.

"I remember that there are several ancient islands in our territory. There should be pterosaurs living on them. If not, you can go and observe them."

"No, I won't use that embarrassing move. Absolutely not"

Looking at the other self, even through the mask, Jhin felt a little ashamed, but luckily Quinn wasn't there, otherwise he would have died in peace first.

If Quinn sees that, given Quinn's personality, even if he is beaten, he will always hold on to this matter.

And if this is the case, Jhin can't ridicule Quinn's weird wrist dragon snake to his heart's content. After all, it seems more shameful to use his face as a slingshot.

"This can be regarded as your black history, although it is not you, but it is another you."

"Perhaps. We were forced to do nothing. You know our racial characteristics. We have more than enough defense but not enough attack. The Blue Flame mode can't be developed without the help of the Holy Beast, and the Pteranodon doesn't have an intuitive damage bonus."

Jhin also helped "Jhin" think of some excuses, as if he wanted to win respect in front of Shaina.

He doesn't know what's going on with the others. Robin and Maria's expression management is very good, and they can't tell what they are thinking for the time being, but judging from Ulti's actions, his aloof personality is probably about to collapse. .

Jhin even wanted Arceus to send him there, so that he could have a good communication with him.

"You said that. It made me feel that you really thought about it."

"Don't talk about this, maybe another "you" will do even weirder behavior later."

Jhin wanted to get over this topic, so he chatted about other things.

"Haven't you seen it? The two worlds seem to be the same, but there is a world without the holy beast. The brachiosaurus of "Quinn" and the pterosaur of "You" are all given to the former by the holy beast. the power of.

If there is no Lord Saint Beast, I would be dead long ago. "

Jhin can't say that he didn't see anything, it's just that he doesn't want to believe it.

After all, they are all the same self over there, even some ways of thinking are the same, and if you are not careful, you will be completely brought into it.

Even if it is an ordinary movie, as long as the sense of substitution is sufficient, the death of a character will be regrettable, let alone this special experience.

Chapter 1032 High-end hunters must learn to trap themselves

"Ghost Island", Yamato swung a lightning bolt at "Jin"'s Diao Zizun Emperor, and after swallowing the impact fired by "Jin", the lightning did not dissipate, but struck Jin's head.

Even though he was still in defensive mode, the power of thunder and lightning poured into his limbs, and he almost couldn't keep flying.

"Jin is here too, right? How many more do you have here! Does Sister Shaina also have a pirated version?" Novelus.com

"Why do you know this name?"

Thunderbolt's attack was powerful, but it didn't make "Jin" lose the ability to move directly, but now this sentence has a much greater impact on "Jin" than the attack just now.

That was his name that was sealed in his memory and absolutely should not be known by outsiders, let alone mentioned.

And being able to say that name means that the other party knows his race.

"I see, are you the running dogs of the world government? It seems that you have discovered something, even Master Yamato's face can be impersonated? But how do you know about Master Yamato? You have never left Ghost Island She shouldn't be known by you."

“.What strange things are you talking about on your own!”

Jin's self-questioning and self-answering made Yamato's thinking even more confusing. At this time, a voice came from below.

"King! Get out of the way, this is my opponent!"

Kaido has not yet left the field, and he has rejoined the battle after recovering.

"Hey, the battle is not over yet! Jundali-Longshengjun!"

"Kaido" swung the mace in his hand at high speed, and the shadows of the stick hit Yamato in front of him one after another. Under the order of "Kaido", "Jhin" temporarily left the battlefield with doubts in his heart, and intervened in "Kaido" Kaido" battle is not a wise choice.

Facing the surprise attack of "Kaido", Yamato blocked everything, but at the next moment, she suddenly missed and was thrown into the inner sea below by Kaido.

After that, there was a huge ice floe in the inner sea, but Yamato did not continue to fight Kaido, the wings behind his shoulders shone with dazzling lightning, and then flew towards the outside of Wano country.

"Don't run! Do you want to be a coward in battle?"

Seeing the escaped Yamato, Kaido immediately turned into a giant dragon and chased after him. A few minutes later, Jhin also flew into the sky, chasing after Kaido. After Jhin left, a floe floated in the inner sea. As the ice shattered, Yamato also walked out from inside.

"Sure enough, that battle-crazed character will definitely catch up, and Brother Jin's habits will also follow, so it will be easy."

During the battle, Yamato's thoughts have always been sharp, and he can always quickly find a way to achieve his goals.

She is not stupid, but most of the time she does not need to use her brain. After triggering the passive in battle, it is not difficult to figure out some things.

And she has already discovered that this "Kaido" and Kaido have extremely similar personalities, even the moves, fighting ideas, and muscle reactions are exactly the same. If anyone knows Kaido best, then she must be among the best, so this plan was formulated .

During the battle with "Kaido" just now, an object called wisdom flashed through Yamato's mind, which gave her a lot of inspiration.

Before she came to this "ghost island", she was participating in a banquet, which was Kaido's and Arceus's banquet, and the big cadres had a lot of beasts. In this environment, no one can play tricks unless All this is made by Arceus and Kaido.

At present, she is sure that there are pirated versions of Kaido, Jhin, and Quinn, but there is no Arceus, and the reaction of "Jhin" to the name Shaina is also very strange.

She had some guesses, but she couldn't be sure, so she wanted to find more evidence.

Now she just wants to figure out what's going on with this "Wano Country". In this case, she can't keep fighting Kaido. According to her estimation, it would take a lot of time to completely defeat Kaido.

Although it was cool, she had done it once before, and it felt the same again.

So she deliberately sold her flaws and let "Kaido" smash herself into the sea. At that time, she used her energy to make a double, and let the double lure Kaido away, while she herself hid in the sea.

Since there is no Arceus in this world, it is an iron rule for capable people to be afraid of seawater. After hiding in the seabed, she restrained her aura. In order to deal with "Kaido"'s ability to predict the future, she deliberately held back her breath a while.

Even if Kaido can predict the future five minutes later, then she will not be discovered after waiting 10 minutes before coming out.

"Kaido" didn't expect that a person with abilities could hide in the sea, and he didn't think about it at all.

Besides, the avatar created by the stand-in is basically the same as the deity in other respects except that it lasts for a short time and is easy to be defeated. It has always been an excellent skill to lure the enemy.

That's why "Kaido" was attracted by Yamato's stand-in and chased after him outside.

"This should be a world without a foster father, and there are no Pokémon in the inner sea. It seems that everything related to the foster father does not exist.

"Jin"'s reaction is also very strange. But Forget it, let's see what this Wano country looks like first, and then"

After a moment of contemplation, Yamato grabbed his own horn and fell into confusion.

"Damn, so annoying. Don't you have a novice guide like Miss Sirona? At least tell me what to do, foster father! Are you there, foster father? Give me some hints!"

Yamato muttered a few words into the air, but did not get a response.

"See, this girl will never think of me when she has something to do, she is very dependent on you."

"Who told you to always plot against her when you meet?"

"Hey lol lol, I'm doing it for her own good. Weak people in this cruel world have no choice."

When Yamato was trying to find a novice guide, her novice guide was evaluating her every word and deed. After a while of thinking, Yamato also made a new decision.

"Theoretically, there should also be me here. She should be more familiar with this place than me, so I should let me help me."

After confirming that this matter is feasible, Yamato's goal temporarily becomes to find himself.

"The behavior of people here should not have changed much. Let me think about how to draw myself out"

As an excellent hunter, Yamato began to think about how to hunt himself.

"Well, if it were me, if I heard that someone beat up my father, I would definitely go to join in the fun immediately, so I don't need to do anything, just wait here. I should come over after such a long time."

The facts are exactly as she thought, and it didn't take long for Yamato to see a figure wearing a Prajna mask. Although he couldn't see the face, judging from the figure and hair color, it was another self.

Chapter 1033 You are you, not the shadow of others

"Jin" and "Kaido" were temporarily lured away by Yamato. Without the power of Arceus, this ghost island would not have an organized air force, and the others could only hide in other places and wait for the results.

Yamato and "Kaido" fought all the way from the house on Onijima to the beach. Because it was "Kaido" fighting, the others kept a safe distance and didn't dare to approach at all, so there are no other pirates to disturb for the time being.

"Sure enough, I still know myself very well."

Looking at the arrival of "Yamato", Yamato is feeling complacent, but she doesn't know that she will be severely slapped in the face soon.

"Stop looking! Come here!"

Looking at herself in a kimono and geta, Yamato waved at her. She didn't care about the problem of clothing, she just wore it, so there was no need to worry about it.

"Are you the one who fought Kaido just now?"

"Well, it's me, let me introduce myself, I'm Yamato, but I don't think it's necessary, after all"

"I am Kaido's son, Kozuki Oden, I heard you knocked Kaido down, that's great"

"Wait! Who do you say you are??? Kaido's son. Kozuki Oden???"

"Yamato" interrupted Yamato's words, which meant that Yamato couldn't understand what he said. Could it be that in this world, "Kaido" gave himself the name Kozuki Oden?

"You take off this broken thing first."

Yamato grabbed the other party's Prajna mask, judging from the voice, this is herself, but now she doubts what kind of face is under the mask.

Yamato was not relieved until he saw the exact same face as himself.

"Aren't you Yamato? What the **** is Kozuki Oden? He's been dead for almost 20 years."

While talking, Yamato took out the jewelry mirror in her bag. She was not interested in this thing, it was a gift from Maria. According to Maria, a girl must pay attention to her face.

"Look, although the hair accessories are different, our faces are exactly the same, at most I am taller, according to my guess, you are me in this world, so why are you that Oden? "

"Is it really the same, you say you are me in another world?"

"If I'm not mistaken, it is indeed so."

"But if you are me, you should understand why I am Oden."

"No, I don't understand at all. Can you explain to me why you are Kozuki Oden? And why are you Kaido's son?"

"Yamato" believed Yamato's words without much thought. After all, the faces and voices of the two were exactly the same, but in terms of development, Yamato developed better due to the influence of the external environment.

Just mention Kozuki Oden, then she will be interested.

"19 years ago, I saw that Oden's execution, and that hour was like a legend. Afterwards, I picked up Kozuki Oden's logbook in Kuri, and used it as my bible.

But when I told my father that I wanted to be Kozuki Oden, he just beat me up.

As for why it is a son, because Kozuki Mita is a man, and I want to be Mita, so I am also a man, you should understand me, right? "

"Yamato" quickly talked about her experience in a few minutes, and there was a look of expectation in her eyes. She wanted to get approval from herself and let others agree with her ideas.

"Although I can understand your current mood, unfortunately, I don't understand this idea."

"Huh? Why? That's a great samurai"

"No, he's just a naive fool, and you are you, and you should live for yourself, not in someone else's shadow, and that's the point.

No matter who it is, even if he is really a genius, you will not be him! "

The debate between the two did not decide the winner, which was expected by Yamato. She knew that she was very stubborn, and it was normal that she could not convince "Yamato" after such a few words.

"Isn't this just an ordinary logbook? Why are you obsessed?"

In order to prove the greatness of "Oden", "Yamato" shared her invaluable navigation log, but Yamato didn't see any information that was too brilliant.

"This is a great adventure. Overcoming so many difficulties and reaching so many interesting islands, isn't such a person worthy of respect?"

Since I was 8 years old, I have been imprisoned on this island. This pair of handcuffs restricts my movement. I also want to go outside, and I want to be as free as Oden!

Can you understand this feeling? If you are me, you can always understand this! "

"Well, I can still understand, but you should look at this first." Novelusb.com

Yamato didn't say anything, just took out Rotom's mobile phone from her satchel. She tried to use Rotom to contact Robin for off-field assistance.

Although the communication system has failed, other functions can still be used.

"What's this?"

"My logbook is also my treasure. It can record my past life in it. It's a pity that Rotom was not born when I sailed for the first time, so I don't have that video.

Rotom, please edit the highlights for her to watch. "

"Lotor, understand."

Compared to boring text, vivid pictures have stronger expressive power. Rotom is extremely intelligent, and quickly edited a wonderful short film from the stored voyage data.

The steel-clad crow flying in the sky and the sky island above the clouds, the carp king's army overturning the upside-down mountain, the hovering thousand-year-old dragon and the mysterious dragon island.

The murloc island under the 10,000-meter deep sea and the giant marsh monster working, the big milk pot rolling in the countryside, and the wind fairy flying around under the blowing of the sea breeze.

The great blacksmith who wields a sledgehammer to make weapons, the commander who sharpens his own blade, the onion duck who competes on the lake, the elephant master who goes straight into the sky and the passionate fur tribe.

The Squirrel basking in the sun in the fire station, the busy lucky egg in the Pokémon Center, and the shy snow hat monster on the Fuji Mountain.

Novelty islands, magical Pokémon, and countless pictures flooded "Yamato"'s eyes.

"Look, everyone has their own adventure, and you should find your own adventure, not become another person."

Yamato never thought that one day she would give lessons to others, and the object of the lessons would still be herself.

While talking, the screen played by Rotom changed again, and the perspective was pulled back to Ghost Island.

Looking at the banner above, it was her eighteenth birthday party. Of course, the elders usually don't participate in this kind of party, so all the people who appear are peers.

Jack brought a giant cake made by the custard fairies without saying a word, Maria was arranging her hair, and Ulti handed her a handmade hair accessory with a proud face.

Gifts are not luxurious, and Yamato does not lack material things. In the picture that Rotom has not recorded, the gifts for her have piled up into a hill.

This is still something given by the cadres who are qualified to give her gifts. If there is no such restriction, then the gifts she receives may fill several rooms.

As a few lucky eggs and Robin popped the paper fireworks in their hands, Yamato's birthday party also began.

Lively and warm, the video is full of laughter and blessings, watching the final frame of the "Yamato" expression is full of envy.

Chapter 1034 I really want to beat "myself".

"Actually, my father and adoptive father also came here at the beginning, but they left after just a glance. After all, if they are here, we can't let go. What's wrong with you?"

"Ulti would actually give gifts to people other than Peggy Wan. That guy Jack still has a gentle side. If you are really me, then the gap between us is too big.

I only remember that my father locked me up that year, and a man was executed because he violated his rules and wanted to give me food.

He's a **** for going to a birthday party."

When it comes to sailing, "Yamato" is just envious. Trapped on the ghost island, she has always yearned for freedom, but the other party's living environment and harmonious interpersonal relationship are enough to make "Yamato" jealous.

The same person in the two worlds leads very different lives.

"I still agree with the sentence that Kaido is a bastard. That **** father's brain is not normal. It seems that you are a little worse than me."

"Yes, yes, sure enough, you also think that guy is an asshole."

The way to establish friendship is to find a common enemy first. On the matter of Kaido being an asshole, the two people surprisingly reached a consensus, and this consensus also quickly heated up their relationship.

"Now you can see that it's just an ordinary logbook. Everyone has their own voyage. You can't abandon your existence just because of a few words. You should look for your own adventure, not for that. What Mita bet on himself.

You look like you have been brainwashed, why don't I think that diary has such magic power? "

"But... Oden is the freest person on this sea, he can go out and sail by himself, but I can only be trapped here."

I am Kozuki Oden. This idea has existed in the mind of "Yamato" for 19 years, and it will not change just because of a few words.

If it weren't for the fact that the person in front of her was "myself", she probably wouldn't even be able to listen to these words.

Although Yamato proved to her with practical actions that everyone has their own life, the concept is not so easy to change.

"He is free not because he is Oden, but because he has some strength. If you can defeat "Kaido", won't you be able to find your own freedom?"

The problem is not the Oden, but strength, strength! "

At this moment, Yamato even understood Kaido a little bit. When one thing cannot be explained anyway, it takes far less effort to move the stick than to use the brain.

Looking at Mi Tian's mind, Yamato actually had the urge to beat him up.

"Let me tell you, if it weren't for you, I would have burned that diary of yours directly, so let me just say this, don't look at me like that."

Looking at the vigilant expression of "Yamato", Yamato signaled the other party not to be so nervous.

Although she thinks being brainwashed by a diary is an outrageous thing, she understands herself. If something she cherishes is destroyed like this, she will feel very uncomfortable. She wants to make herself aware of the gap, but not in such a brutal way.

"Really, why does it feel like I've become a parent all of a sudden, don't you want to take risks? I'll take you out, experience the sea yourself, and then think about this kind of thing.

You want Wano to be founded, which I agree with, but you should do it as the second-generation captain of Beasts after defeating Kaido, not as Oden.

And all of this requires strength. Do you have any objections when you come back to do this after you become stronger? "

"Can you get me out of here? But these handcuffs. I told you, these are the handcuffs that **** father put on me, and they will explode as soon as I leave Ghost Island"

"It's just a broken handcuff, wait, I'll break it for you."

Grabbing "Yamato"'s hands, Yamato directly condensed the cold air into a key, and easily opened the handcuffs of "Yamato".

This is the convenience of Bing, she doesn't need to violently dismantle it, she can directly create a key that belongs to her.

"Wow, thank you, this **** has restricted me for 19 years! Speaking of it, my father doesn't seem to be that ruthless, isn't this thing not blown up?"

"Give me some inspiration! It didn't explode because I made the key, as for it itself."

Yamato grabbed the pair of handcuffs and threw them into the sky, and then the pair of handcuffs exploded violently, turning into flames in midair.

"Remember, don't trust Kaido, that guy is all about torture, but if he says threats or something, it will definitely come true."

Yamato shared her experience with Kaido to "Yamato", but "Yamato" didn't seem to listen, and her three views were reshaped again.

"That bastard! This minotaur gorilla really wants to kill me!"

"Calm down, it shouldn't kill you, but it's definitely enough for you to drink a pot."

Ulti lay on Peggy Wan's back, trying her best to control her laughter, but judging from the ups and downs of her upper body, she failed.

"Pfft hahaha. No way, Xiaopei, I can't help it anymore. Have you heard that this guy Yamato has actually made his brain brighter? It's so funny. When she comes back, I must ask her what she thinks."

Even if Robin covered his mouth, the scene just now was really unbearable.

This was originally just a broadcast, but inexplicably turned into an execution scene.

"Kaido" was beaten up, and was coaxed by Yamato with a double.

Jin's Diao Zizunhuang also lost a lot of self-esteem, and became the first person to be publicly executed.

As for Quinn?

A person who has already played the role of a comedian and lost his face a long time ago will not care about such things at all, and besides the ability, there is almost no difference between the two Quinn, whether it is face or behavior, they are almost the same. 1:1 replica.

At this time, many people are expecting one thing, that is, they must not show up there, so as not to damage their face due to inexplicable reasons, and eventually lead to their own death.

"Such a loud explosion will definitely attract other pirates. After they find out, "Kaido" and King will definitely come back soon. Let's go quickly."

"Wait, I feel like I forgot something, what am I looking for you for?"

After preaching, Yamato achieved certain results, but forgot some very important things.NOVELUSb.COM

"Oh, by the way, I want to see what the Wano country has become, so I want you to take me on a tour, but you have been trapped on the ghost island, and you have never been to the mainland of the Wano country, have you? "

"Ah, it seems to be true."

"Forget it, never mind, you go with me to Wano Country, and then I will take you out of here, even if "Kaido" comes back, I can deal with him, is there any problem with this condition?"

"No!"

"Very good, but remember, you are not allowed to say that you are Kozuki Oden! Otherwise, you can continue to stay here and suffer!"

Chapter 1035 Ssangyong's disgust, the gap between the two sides

"Ke Ke I'm good, if I don't say it, I won't say it."

Facing Yamato's aggressive eyes, "Yamato" finally chose to compromise. The temptation to leave Wano Country was too great for her.

If she couldn't beat "Kaido" and was put on the explosive handcuffs again, she would have run away long ago.

The unrestricted "Kaido" has caused "Yamato" serious rebellion with his own education method, coupled with the influence of a mysterious Horcruz, "Yamato"'s thinking is difficult to change, just a few words I want her to recognize Self is impossible.

It's just that Yamato knows herself very well. She knows how to deal with "herself" best. Twisting is not acceptable. You have to be tempted. For the current "Yamato", there is nothing more tempting than leaving.

Reminiscent of herself, she even thought of the horrible days when Kaido took the initiative to train her in order to sail.

"That's right, when you go out, you will understand that Oden's flight is just one of several pirates, and the veteran crew members of the Whitebeard Pirates and Roger Pirates will have less experience than him.

Including your **** father, his voyage should also be very exciting, but judging by the way you are, I guess there is not much opportunity to communicate.

When I find time, I will get you a new logbook, which is guaranteed to be more exciting than that of Oden. "

Kozuki Oden has never sailed alone. He first left Wano Country with the Whitebeard Pirates, and was picked up by Roger. Before that, he had never left Wano Country.

That is to say, no matter how it is written, his logbook is just a summary of part of the voyage of the Whitebeard Pirates and Roger Pirates.

The experience of those legendary pirates is no worse than Mitian.

It's just that Kozuki Oden has preconceived advantages, Yamato now wants to change "Yamato" to another idol, and slowly get rid of the residual poison in this body.

If it was someone else, it would be difficult to replace Oden, but Yamato is different because she is her.

The other self is living a leisurely life and enjoying a happy life. It is impossible for "Yamato" not to be envious. Yamato saw the way her eyes were shining just now.

"Kaido"'s weird education method, the brainwashing of the diary, the influence of the closed environment, the "Yamato" here has become like this is the result of many factors. Yamato intends to let her see the colorful world outside, and then slowly give her She broke it back.

She didn't believe it. A "poor kid who has been living in the mountains" has not changed at all after seeing the feasting and feasting on the sea.

"Okay, now let's take a look at this Wano country."

Yamato moved her body a bit and planned to take "Yamato" away from the ghost island, but for some reason, she suddenly found that she was more familiar with Zekrom's power.

Where she couldn't see, the argument between Zekrom and Lacey Ram continued, but the two dragons changed directions at the same time.

"See, Lacey Ram, this is what she looks like without ideals. Without ideals, she will become that kind of idiot."

"What nonsense are you talking about? Zekrom, this is not real. She is too unrealistic to fall into that completely fictional ideal!"

Facing Yamato, Ssangyong just had different opinions, but facing "Yamato", Ssangyong had already given up treatment, and even wanted to push her into the other party's command, so as to prove that he was right.

Because of that too empty and unrealistic dream, Zekrom's sense of identification with Yamato rose, and even Lacey Ram began to think about himself.

Some things are afraid of comparison, and with a worse one, Yamato's status will rise instead.

"Why can your God Dakou fly? And does God Dakou still use electricity?"

"Oh, Dakou Zhenshen can't fly, but my ability is fused with the power of Kyurem. My foster father helped me get it. Thunderbolt is also a test given by my foster father."

“.”

"Yamato" didn't speak, but showed envious eyes. At this time, Yamato also added to the fire.

"By the way, my fruit is not afraid of water, I can swim."

She still has a certain obsession with swimming. In order not to be disgusted by the sea, she didn't even want to eat this fruit. It was after Arceus removed the negative effects and transformed it that she obtained this ability.

According to "Yamato", she ate the fruit because she was so hungry that she couldn't help it, so she must have regrets about it.

And the fact is the same as what Yamato guessed, "Yamato" started to grab her own corner and complain in frustration, this is exactly her reaction of envying others, and it is also her act of acting like a baby with Arceus.

Most of the situations can be satisfied, the only failure is to make Arceus stop strengthening Kaido.

"Okay, there will be something you envy later, it's time to go and see the Wano country here."

"ha???"

Yamato's heart-wrenching speech made "Yamato" feel a little sick, but at this time, a group of pirates ran over from the side.

Crab hands with wolf heads and insects on the lower body, these are considered normal, and there are even some weird animals with their heads turned into buttocks.

"What the **** are these"

""Kaido" was given to the Giver Legion, don't you have it?"

"We don't care about this kind of strange things called endowers, these are defective products that are sold."

The two worlds have completely different definitions of givers. Arceus despises the inferior version for sale, but it is the treasure that "Kaido" cherishes, and he has built his own animal army based on it.

However, there is almost no comparison between the hundreds of man-made animal army and the benefactor army. A dozen or so benefactors are enough to deal with this group of degraded ability users.

"Really, it's better on your side."

"Of course, if it was on my side, it would be impossible to wait so long, someone should have come here long ago.

Don't say we've been chatting for so long, I'll be discovered as soon as I get out of the water, you don't know, Uncle Quinn's persecution paranoia is very serious, and the "Quinne" here has no sense of crisis at all. "

"If you say Queen, he seems to be here too."

"Yamato" stretched out his finger and pointed aside, and Quinn also walked towards this side holding a torch.

The morning sun has not completely risen, and there are still many places in Guidao that are in darkness.

The construction of the ghost island here is very primitive, there is no circuit laid, and there is no electric generator of the Warcraft version, so the lighting still stays on the ancient torches.

"Really, let them calm down for a while. Guys like "Kaido" are quite troublesome. It's better to let my double attract them for a while. You shouldn't be afraid of the cold, right?"

"Okay, what are you going to do?" NovELusb.com

"Of course it's the people who get in the way, Frozen World!"

Yamato re-entered the human-beast form, and snowflakes began to fall in the sky. The extremely cold shock wave centered on Yamato and quickly spread to the entire Ghost Island.

Chapter 1036 Heaven and Purgatory, a firm goal

"Master Queen! I found two young masters!"

"What? Two??"

"Quinn" was attracted by the explosion sound of the explosive bracelet. The "ghost island" here is not without surveillance measures, but the surveillance here is made of small animals. They wander around the ghost island on weekdays. And put the information together through a special device on the face. NOVELusb.com

Although they are machines, they retain the habits of animals. Under the influence of the aftermath of the previous battle, they were already scared away.

Here, "Kaido" and "Jin" are the few reliable players. After "Quinn" saw both of them chasing after them, he thought it was all right, but a new disturbance occurred here.

When he arrived with the Giver Legion, what he saw were two Yamatos talking, and one of them made a hands-on gesture.

Most of the bestowers made by inferior artificial devil fruits have superficial appearances and look scary, but they don't have the exaggerated expressiveness of the bestowers under Arceus, especially when facing enemies whose strength is far superior to their own, they don't play much effect.

All places affected by the cold air were frozen at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the Giver Legion, which was still sprinting forward just now, had now become a vivid ice sculpture.

"Quinn" is no exception. Although he is big enough, he does not have the ability to be immune to Kyurem's frozen power. The emperor of the sea is a huge threshold.

When the strength breaks through to this point, there is no power to contend with ordinary disasters.

A few seconds later, a bigger ice sculpture appeared on the ghost island, and the cold current did not stop. The whole ghost island was finally frozen by the power of Yamato, and everything on the island fell into silence.

"Is it possible to do this with only ice?"

"Being forced and helpless, although I am much more free than you, but in some places we are actually the same."

He patted "Yamato" on the shoulder, and Yamato's face showed a rare look of helplessness. If you want to ask her why she is so strong, she must be forced. shadow.

So Yamato is full of sympathy for herself here. It is hard for her to imagine how she survived the days without Arceus.

"Your life is obviously very happy."

"How should I put it? Will you record your daily abuse? I want to forget that kind of thing, but I can't forget. Those painful memories remind me all the time, don't beat up that **** old man, Don't even think about stopping my life."

Saying that, Yamato released his transformation, and looked at the frozen Onijima with a slightly proud expression.

"Phew, I've actually wanted to do this for a long time. It's much more comfortable to fight without scruples."

"Scruples?"

"The adoptive father will be angry if he breaks the house, but that **** dad doesn't care about the occasion, so it's very troublesome anyway."

"So. You don't care if you fight here?"

"Well, you don't care about such things, do you?"

"I don't care anymore, it would be better if that bull-headed gorilla was **** off!"

When he discovered that the bracelet would really explode, and the explosion was extremely powerful, "Yamato"'s last illusion about Kaido was also shattered, so "Yamato" would not think there was a problem with what Yamato did.

The premise is to remember to take her away, otherwise she will go away, and when "Kaido" comes back, I may suffer again.

"Ahem, you should work **** that kind of thing yourself, okay, I've wasted so much time, it's time to get down to business, let's go to Baiwu first."

Yamato pulled "Yamato" away from Onijima, and went to Wano Country here.

White Dance is the entrance to the diving port. Although it is not located in the center like the Capital of Flowers, it is very important to Arceus.

A monastery, hospital, fire station, family area, and a large number of Pokémon-related facilities are arranged here, and Shaina is the actual manager, coordinating the development of this area.

The capital of flowers seems to be prosperous, but Baiwu and Jiuli are the real centers of beasts, only Baiwu here.

When she was far away, all Yamato saw were countless chimneys emitting black smoke. Only when she really came here did she see what it was like here.

The area that should have been the farmland has long been abandoned, and the dirty pipes are flowing out with foul-smelling wastewater. Although there are still fish living in the inland river, it looks like it has mutated, and the pupils emit a strange light.

"This place makes me sick"

Yamato saw a few civilians with hungry faces, but after seeing them, those people ran away far away. This has something to do with the pattern on her clothes. The flags of beasts made those people flinch.

If it was in the Wano country managed by Arceus, those people would have come up to greet her with a smile, and they might still be holding the freshly picked melons and fruits in the field.

"I heard from other pirates on the island that most of the areas are like this, only the area of flowers is different, because it is the residence of the black charcoal snake, but if you don't have money, you will be kicked out from there."

"It's really realistic to go and see other areas."

Although she didn't like it, Yamato didn't change the meaning here. This is not her world. According to her understanding of Arceus, it is impossible for the other party to leave her here and ignore her, and she will definitely leave soon.

Let's leave the matter here to her. Right now, she just wants to confirm some things.

Relying on the flying power provided by Zekrom, the two Yamatos quickly explored the entire Wano country.

The Tuwan area has become a heavily polluted area. Without treatment, quarries and munitions factories have caused irreparable damage to the environment. Although the mountains and forests in Jiuli are dense, the entire area is full of poverty.

The barren hills of Nozomi have become more barren, and even exposed remains can be seen. The Flower Capital seems to be prosperous, but there is nothing attractive about it.

Soon the two came to the last Linghou area. Like other areas, there were dilapidated houses and deserted streets. Yamato grabbed a handful of snow, and after the body temperature melted it, it was full of black snow water.

The seemingly pure white snowflakes are all illusions, and the inside has long been eroded by pollution.

It is clearly Wano country, but it shows the two extremes of heaven and purgatory.

"You see, this is my Wano country here, so I imagined... and wanted to liberate Wano country."

She originally wanted to say like Mita, but then remembered Yamato's warning, so she changed her words.

"I saw it, so if there is no adoptive father, this place will become like this. Sure enough, I don't agree with my father's ideas at all."

At first, she thought that without Arceus, Kaido would be more irritable, but now it seems that she still underestimated Kaido, this kind of rule is exactly the type she hates.

The "real" Wano country made Yamato firm in his ideas, defeated Kaido, and led the beasts to take a completely different path.

After all, Arceus said that he would not intervene in the battle between father and daughter, which means that one day in the future, if Arceus loses interest in this, Kaido, who has no restrictions, may make something happen.

Yamato didn't want the situation here to happen to her, so she became more obsessed with defeating Kaido, whether it was for herself or for others, she couldn't lose.

Today two Ming four

Chapter 1037 From being fooled to being fooled

"Okay, let's make sure first, your goal is to "defeat" Kaido, and then liberate Wano Country."

At the beach after Ling, the two Yamatos were sitting on the shore discussing plans for the future, mainly because of Yamato's psychological counseling to "Yamato". She couldn't bear to see her other self turn into such a ghost here.

Even if she is just passing by in this world, she still wants to do something.

At this time, she was trying to remember how Arceus taught herself when she had an idea when she was a child.

As for why you don't think about Kaido's approach

Kaido is either swinging a stick or using domineering arrogance. Even if he doesn't make a move, he is thinking about the way to do it in a different way, which is not operable at all.

The existence of "Yamato" has been confirmed. According to the final result of the teaching method of "Kaido", now Yamato just wants to use his own efforts to break her back a little.

"Exactly!"

"Then what are you going to do first?"

"Um"

"It's okay, speak out boldly!"

That's how Arceus encouraged her back then, regardless of whether her thoughts were right or wrong, she had to speak out first.

Seeing "Yamato" hesitate to speak, Yamato conveyed encouragement to her with his eyes, but at the next moment, she felt that she had grown up.

"Are you going to become Mita first?" ηoVελuεb.Com

Boom!

Linghou's beach is not soft sand like Jiuli, but is covered with hard rocks. Hearing the words of "Yamato", Yamato didn't suppress the fire for a while, and smashed a large piece of it with his fist to the ground. reef.

【Father, you have worked hard, I should be angry with you for being ignorant when I was young】

"You can't live with this word, right?! Why do you have to have this guy!"

She was reflecting on herself in her heart, but in reality she fell into a state of rage.

"You told me to say it. Don't go back on your word. You agreed to take me out of here."

Just now "Yamato" was entangled, because Yamato didn't let her mention this name before, she was not entangled in other things, but whether it would affect her voyage after saying it.

"If you insist on saying that, as Oden, shouldn't you defeat "Kaido" first and then go sailing? Should I just leave you alone?"

"It seems that this is not right! It is agreed to take me away. But this does not seem to be right."

With a few words, Yamato managed to get "Yamato" in, which caused her to struggle.

"It seems that she is not only smart when facing me, but also smart when fooling herself."

On the other side, Kaido's expression also became complicated. Yamato's victory over her enemy by force could no longer cause Kaido to be shocked. If she couldn't beat her, it would be contrary to common sense. Her opponent in the sea today has long been Not many left.

But this time she actually crushed her opponent intellectually. Although the one crushed was herself in a sense, it was enough to make people sigh.

It's just that when he was sighing, what Kaido was holding was not a wine bottle, but a mace. Regarding the exclusive title of "Bastard Kaido", he planned to have a good chat after Yamato came back.

After all, when a child grows up, he has to find some excuses for doing something. It is not appropriate to always use the same reason every time.

"Her brain is not bad, it's just not used where it should be used."

Looking at Yamato's actions in the picture, Arceus also gave his own evaluation.

At this time, Yamato had already pulled out a notebook from his pocket, and then began to write and draw, explaining his logic to "Yamato" with pictures and texts.

"First of all, Oden has never fought "Kaido". You agree with this matter."

"Um."

"And you need to defeat Kaido to achieve your goal. It seems that you can do without defeating him. If I remember correctly, that **** dad seemed to want me to be the general of Wano country at first.

He doesn't care about things, and he doesn't care how you mess around. "

"No! I don't want to listen to that bull-headed gorilla's arrangement!"

Speaking of this, "Yamato" had a serious rebellious psychology in his heart, and directly gave up this relatively stable path.

"Forget it, I don't like this either. In short, let me summarize for you. The actual manager of "Wono Country" is Heitan Orochi, and the force behind the scenes is Kaido. As long as they are solved, then "Wono Country" will naturally The land will be liberated, isn't that the truth?"

"Exactly."

"Very well, then you only need to become stronger. Oden didn't defeat "Kaido", so you can't defeat "Kaido" even if you become him.

And I can defeat "Kaido", as long as you work hard according to my line, you can defeat "Kaido" by yourself. "

Put a big cross on the word Mi Tian, and Yamato focused on becoming stronger.

"Why do I feel something is wrong"

"What's wrong? The current "Kaido" is stronger than ten years ago, and I am a little stronger than him. Rounding off, I am much stronger than that Oden.

And I showed you the HNA log, isn't it more exciting than that diary? "

Taking aside time to talk about strength, the degree of playing hooligans is comparable to talking about toxicity without measuring. According to Yamato's algorithm, Olga is an enemy that cannot be defeated by the combination of Shichibukai and the Four Emperors.

But this logic is enough to fool "Yamato". In front of the role model of "myself", some changes occurred in her heart.

The CG edited by Rotom from Yamato's more than ten years of sailing experience is far more exciting than Mita's diary. Before Yamato had a battle with "Kaido" and gained an advantage, then he froze the entire ghost island.

Judy is in the front, even if Oden Diary has an extraordinary influence on "Yamato", "Yamato" is still a little shaken at this time.

Looking at the shaken "self", Yamato understands that the fire has come. She was in this state when she was fooled by Kaido in the past, so she decided to add another fire at the end.

"Do you know what the ideal Wano country should look like? It is different from this dilapidated Wano country. Everyone in Wano country where I live is very happy. Let me find it for you."

Yamato's fingers quickly slid on the screen of Rotom. Since she was in the rear of the ring at this time, she planned to find the video of the area behind the ring first, but she watched herself marching towards victory, and she still achieved a rare verbal success. She got a little carried away.

Didn't see the specific list of the video clearly, and opened it directly after seeing the two words after Ling.

In Rotom's programming, buttons are a control method with a higher priority than voice. Rotom didn't have time to stop her, which eventually led to some strange pictures in front of "Yamato".

I saw a more robust Kaido holding a snowball with a diameter of one meter in his hand, adding arrogance and throwing it towards Yamato

"Is this... a happy life?"

"Cough cough, that **** old man called this entertaining and entertaining, and he tricked me by using snowball fights as an excuse. Normal people focus on snow, but his focus is on fighting.

Don't pay attention to this detail, I'll look for it later. Well, it's right this time. "

This time Yamato read the list carefully, and Rotom finally clicked on the show after confirming that the content was correct.

"Uncle Quinn built a laboratory in Linghou's place, and the others are like processing factories. Those little black guys are called big charcoal carts, which transport coal for the winter. They are very popular Pokémon.

And the snow over there is all white, and it's okay to boil it and drink it directly. Unlike this place, it's all polluted black snow. "

"That's true, but I have another question, why did you keep the image just now?"

The previous record can still be said to be a good memory, but the scene of the snowball hitting someone is not like a good memory.

Although it is a snowball, under Kaido's grip, the loose snow has already been crushed into a hockey puck. With the addition of domineering, this thing is enough to compete with the cannonball.

"This. I remember that I wanted to sue my adoptive father at the beginning, but then it seemed that something happened, and it ended up being nothing, and then there were too many videos, so I forgot to delete it.

Don't focus on that! What I showed you is Wano Country! Rotom, help me find some suitable scenes! "

"Understood, Lotto."

Rotom began to search for suitable videos in the database, but according to its logic, he finally found the teaching plan of Wano Country Elementary School.

The first lesson of Wano Country Enrollment - the beautiful Wano Country under the governance of King Huguo Ming and Lord Arceus (aerial photography).

This is one of the brainwashing projects of Beasts, and it is also a compulsory course in Wano Country today. The main content is the daily life of Wano Country photographed from various angles.

The angle of view falls from a high altitude, starting from the temple on the top of Fujiyama, overlooking the entire Wano Kingdom from the perspective of God.

The content after Ling had already been screened just now, so it was automatically skipped by Rotom.

The display started directly from Ximei's pasture. In order to make the effect better, Rotom also put a comparison picture taken when he was just wandering around.

The workers took the giant Tanabata blue bird to go to Xiaokong Island to work, the shuttlecock cotton flew high into the sky under the blowing of the monsoon, King Yanwu lay lazily on the grass and basked in the sun, surrounded by groups of baili guided by electric dragons sheep.

At the junction of Jiuli, Kento's group is running wildly, and some big milk cans are playing rolling games on the hillside. Even the most polluted rabbit bowl, the double-bomb gas is also absorbing exhaust gas, and the smelly Mud is used to purify waste water in river courses.

The capital of flowers is still prosperous, but under the prosperity, there is a little more fireworks.

"Did you see it? This is the ideal Wano country. Even if Mita is still alive, he can't do this kind of thing. This is the goal you should work hard for. Let that Mita die honestly."

"I'm even more envious of you having an adoptive father, why wouldn't that bull-headed gorilla find such a person!"

"Yamato" is not really stupid, the two Kaidos are of the same virtue, the gap between them is Arceus, and Yamato never leaves Arceus during the conversation.

【Sent by my adoptive father, reformed by my adoptive father, agreed by my adoptive father. 】

She couldn't help but start to imagine what life would be like if she also had an adoptive father.

"Speaking of which, you said that you are stronger than "Kaido", is that true?"

"Yeah, what's the matter?"

"Do you want to consider helping me defeat Kaido?"

"No, that's what you have to do, not what I should do."

In fairness, if you really want to liberate this Wano country, then this is indeed the easiest way, but that's the case. "Yamato" has not changed in essence.

And such a "Yamato" is incapable of protecting the country of Wano.

"This sea is not so stable, even if it is on my side, people will stay in Wano Country to guard it in the end.

This is not my world, how do you want to protect Wano Country after I leave? "

The countries in the new world are not safe. If you don't have the status of a member country, you can survive on your own. The management of "Kaido" is more tyrannical, but it can deter some pirates. Much stronger than Lawless.

"That's right, it's better to rely on yourself for this kind of thing."

"I still don't understand why my foster father asked me to come here, maybe he wanted me to see what the Wano country looks like here.

Anyway, I have determined my future goals, and we should go too, after we solve a little trouble. "

"Little trouble?"

"Yeah, that guy's reaction is not too slow, he has already chased him back."

The double is not the real body after all, Yamato felt it just now, his double has disappeared, and at this time, the dragon-formed "Kaido" has flown back again.

"Want to fight? I can help you deal with King."

"No need, your body should be strong enough?"

"Should be. Not bad."

"Then get ready, it will be very exciting later."

The Thunder Wings appeared behind Yamato again. With the sound of a turbine spinning, a weak electric current flashed through Yamato's body, and was finally absorbed by the wings.

"Leave that guy as your future opponent. Now, it's time to take you on a new adventure, Speed Engine!"

Sudden speed, a common skill, has a very high priority. As the name suggests, this is a skill that wins with speed.

Speed is power. When moving at a high speed, Pokémon's body can emit super explosive power. According to some scholars' research, it is possible that Wind Speed Dog can run at extremely fast speeds because it has mastered this skill.nOvelUsb.coM

Yamato's super-speed engine is the ability to fly at high speed derived from the combination of super-speed and Zekrom's ability. Its biggest drawback is that it is not very convenient to turn, and it is not very friendly to passengers.

If you have no strength, you may die directly from the wind pressure if you are flying with her.

However, although this "Yamato" is not as good as her, he was hammered out by "Kaido" after all. This little wind can't help her. With the slightly excited cry of "Yamato", "Kaido" can only helplessly. Watching the two Yamatos run away from under his nose.

"Bastard, with this kind of strength, you can actually play such tricks. You bastard!"

Clouds spread all around, and the mood of "Kaido" can be said to have dropped to the bottom. His own son was abducted by his "daughter" who looked exactly like him, and that "daughter" obviously had the strength to fight him head-on, but she chose to play tricks, first using a substitute to deceive herself, and finally avoiding fighting, which made her He had nowhere to vent his anger.

Chapter 1039 will be a restricted screen

After a while, Yamato didn't know where he flew to, but the distance was enough to get rid of "Kaido", and she landed on a nearby island.

"Yo Ho! I finally got out of that **** place, but why did you do that?"

"Hmph, you still don't understand, a creature like "Kaido" is useless in fighting, even if you beat him down, he will laugh happily, that guy is not a normal person.

But if you run away when he wants to fight, you will definitely **** him off. I think it's funny to think of that expression. "

"It seems so."

"Right, right, you also think what I said makes sense."

The two big and rare reached a consensus, and then laughed with their shoulders crossed.

"Did you do the same on your side?"

"This...not at all, I can't outrun that **** father for the time being."

The "Kaido" here doesn't have acceleration means, but the Kaido over there does. Yamato's plan was implemented, but in the end it caused very painful memories.

She is different from "Yamato", she still has a little affection with Kaido, so she always wants to go home.

She tried to use this method to tease Kaido once, but Kaido didn't chase after him, but prepared some new tricks for her.

Yamato never expected that Kaido used his belly drum directly at the beginning, and first smashed himself until he vomited two mouthfuls of old blood.

This is a side effect of abdominal distension. Using this ability requires a lot of physical strength. Before the battle begins, a lot of physical strength will be lost. In the Pirate World, where protracted battles often break out, this negative buff has a great impact.

It's just that the increase in belly drum is equally terrifying. Although there is no speed buff, it can directly fill up the attack, which is the fastest way to deal high-intensity burst damage.

She will never forget the battle that day. If Arceus hadn't returned, maybe what would have happened, so she has been making new plans against Kaido, but there has been no perfect plan.

Kaido's hard power is too strong, and he has no taboos. It is impossible to threaten or force him.

With Kaido's character, it's useless even if he takes a hostage. He will only choose to send the murderer to be buried with him, and he will never choose to compromise.

So if you want to deal with Kaido, you can only defeat him in hard power, and Yamato can only find a sense of presence in the low-end version, or the normal version of "Kaido".

"That's right, it seems that it is not easy for you, but you are still better than me"

"Yeah, wait, your clothes."

"Huh? What's wrong?"

"You're almost gone!"

The kimono of "Yamato" has already suffered serious slipping under high-speed flight. If you change to a different world, you should give benefits at this time.

"It's nothing, I don't care."

"No! Your new life starts now, I have to change your clothes first, let this suit say goodbye to your imprisoned life!"

Looking at the "Yamato" in front of him, Yamato dragged it into the woods of the island, and then started his own big business of changing clothes.

"What are these things? Change them. Clogs are not as comfortable as these shoes. And loincloth?? Let this thing disappear, try this, it is much more comfortable than yours."

Yamato has a lot of old clothes in her bag, and those clothes that are one size smaller are just right for "Yamato". As for underwear, her new underwear is very elastic, so there is no problem for Yamato to wear.

Ten minutes later, the two Yamatos came out of the woods. Looking at "Yamato" who had changed into a different set of clothes, Yamato felt that she suddenly became pleasing to the eye.

"Huh, this is the right way, look, how handsome it is."

Using ice to make a full-length mirror, Yamato began to tidy up her appearance. She also changed her clothes just now, and deliberately found clothes without the Pirate Flag logo.

She just discovered a problem.

Although she is a wanted criminal over there, the navy here knows nothing about "Yamato".

"What's wrong? Is it awkward?"

"It's okay, those boxers are quite comfortable"

When the two Yamatos were discussing clothing issues, Arceus had already cut off the live broadcast signal.

"Okay, don't hang around here, the banquet is not over yet, go do your own thing."

The live broadcast will be a change of clothes, which is easy to attract people, and Yamato has already left Wano Country, so there is no need to continue some things.

The public execution is over for the time being, and the people who eat melons are also looking for new fun.

Yamato's performance is not much different from usual, but the existence of "Yamato" let them know how terrible the lower limit of Yamato's self-development is.

The Fei Liubao set up by "Kaido" is still fighting outside, which allows them to avoid the possibility of social death. If the most serious social death is actually Jhin.

The move of "Emperor Diao Zizun" almost killed the character set he had accumulated over the years. The only good news is that not many people saw it.

When the live broadcast event ended, Quinn had just finished his first round of dancing, and was holding a bucket of rice cake and red bean soup to replenish his energy by the side of the stage.

Seeing Jhin and others coming down from the upper floor like the end of the movie, his face was full of puzzlement.

"What have you guys been doing?"

"I saw something interesting. By the way, Quinn, I realized that I misunderstood you. You have worked hard enough to make it this far."

"Yeah, you've worked hard enough, you just got off to a bad start."

"???"

Shaina and Jhin passed by and said something that Quinn couldn't understand. He didn't know that after losing the pressure brought by the scapegoat, his strength and scientific research ability in another world had seriously regressed.

Compared to that Queen, Quinn is a real genius.

"You let that girl see what you want to see, right? When are you going to let her come back?"

Everyone dispersed, and only Kaido and Arceus were left here.

When Yamato will come back can only be decided by Arceus, and all Kaido can do is wait.
www.NoVelusb.Com

"In a few days, let her relax and see what she can teach herself."

"That's fine, I'll go prepare, and she will understand what a surprise is."

Then Kaido also picked up the wine jar and left here. After all, drinking alone was a bit boring. He went down to find a few lucky guys and started drinking.

Yamato didn't know what happened in her home, she was taking another self on a new voyage, this time she didn't sail as a pirate, but became a bounty hunter, and was active in the new world with "Yamato"

Chapter 1040 Unexpected person, promise before leaving

If it weren't for the origin of Hundred Beasts, Yamato might not have been wanted. Now that her identity is rarely cleared, she certainly wouldn't be wanted again.

Now she is also living the life of an old lady. "Yamato" restricted by "Kaido" lacks understanding of the outside world, and has little knowledge of navigation. She is teaching the other party some common sense.

Through a few days of precepts and deeds, "Yamato"'s Mita syndrome has also been alleviated to a certain extent.

At this time, they are more like sisters traveling.

"Look, this is the record pointer. The New World record pointer has three balls, and the one with the least shaking of the pointer is the safest route. You can use this to determine the route.

Fighting is still needed. After all, fighting can make you stronger, but if you feel something is wrong, remember to run quickly, otherwise your dream will not come true.

By the way, if you see some people wearing bubble helmets, remember to bear with it for a while, those **** do deserve a beating, but you can't afford to beat them up. "

Yamato suddenly realized that there are annoying Tianlong people in this world, and if she doesn't give them some advice, she really doesn't feel at ease.

"Okay, I remembered."

Under Yamato's exaggeration, "Yamato" began to write her own diary, but she still kept Mita's diary with her, and she hadn't completely given up on it.

She herself is not a quiet type, but with the ultimate goal of defeating "Kaido", she doesn't want to fail halfway.

"Bastard, where did you two women come from! Lao Tzu's dream was ruined by you!"

Beside the two Yamatos, there are a group of pirates lying all over the place. Their current identities are bounty hunters. It is very reasonable to catch pirates.

It's just that before the Yamato fight was over, they picked up the record pointer of the opponent's navigator and started preaching, which made these pirates feel insulted.

"I forgot to say, such scum abounds in the sea, and they will bring misfortune to others when they go out to sea, so it's good to just deal with it neatly.

If a dream is to be built on the suffering of countless people, then this dream should be completely destroyed. "

As he said that, he hit the pirate with a stick, which made this sea less of a dangerous pirate group.

In the following days, Yamato and "Yamato" sailed on the sea like sisters, living a happy life as a bounty hunter.

It didn't take long for them to make some names as sisters.

And when they came to an island to rest, they met a Yamato unexpected person.

"Admiral Kuzan"

"Ala God, aren't these twin sisters who have become famous recently? Your news is outdated, and I am no longer an admiral.

Don't say you are bounty hunters, even if you are pirates, it doesn't matter to me. Do you need to be so nervous? "

"Are the generals quitting?"

Yamato did not let down her vigilance. She was not afraid of Kuzan, but the other "Yamato" was different. She couldn't say what kind of feelings she had for this stupid self.

Maybe it's unwillingness, maybe it's sympathy, in short, I just want to take care of her for a while.

"Yeah, didn't the newspaper say it? If you're interested, I don't mind talking about it."

The time here is exactly 1521, and the Top War has ended for a year. The deaths of Whitebeard and Ace have enabled the Navy to achieve good results, but also paid a lot of losses.

Not long ago, Kuzan and Sakasky started a war because of the position of marshal, and Kuzan was defeated in the end.

Due to years of colleagues, Sakalski did not kill him in the end, but Kuzan also left the Navy and started his aimless journey.

Now he is completely casual, as long as he is interested, he doesn't mind chatting.

The two Yamatos are also fighting against pirate forces, and Kuzan's first impression is quite good.

"This guy is an admiral...or a former admiral, and he is also a monster. Since he has left his post, it is also a good thing for you to establish some friendship with him."

Yamato whispered in "Yamato"'s ear, telling her what he knew.

Kuzan also talked about the previous things.

"What did that guy say, it's quite hot to fight each other during the same period, and he doesn't even think about it, he himself is magma, can he not be **** hot?"

"Akainu. Is that the navy that killed Ace?"

"You're right to say that, Fire Fist blocked Sakaski's fist with his body in order to protect his younger brother, what, are you familiar with those two brothers?"

Yamato: "I'm not very familiar with it, I just heard about it."

At this time, she found that without the war of beasts, the result seemed to be completely different. The black beard had already become the Four Emperors.

"That's right, that's right, the Straw Hat Kid is quite a guy, very few people can do that kind of thing."

Kuzan chatted a little about this, but the topic was quickly brought back by Yamato.

"What happened later? What was the result of your battle?"

"Well, as you can see, that guy broke one of my legs, and now I can only use my own ability to make prosthetics, which is quite troublesome."

"It feels pretty cool."

"Hahaha, this lady is really interesting, you are the first to say that." NOvel?Usb.cOm

The evaluation of "Yamato" made Kuzan at a loss for what to say. It is not a glorious thing to break a leg. Fortunately, there is a Yamato with a relatively higher EQ.

"Then what happened next?"

"Later? That's it. He succeeded the marshal, and I left the navy, but he was also injured all over in that battle. Little sister, you still don't know how to hide yourself. If you have nothing to do, learn from your sister."

Kuzan then chatted a lot with the two Yamatos, and they didn't part ways until night fell.

Yamato and "Yamato" returned to the temporary place as usual, but Yamato's footsteps suddenly stopped.

""Yamato" I'm leaving."

"Where are you going? Don't you take me with you?"

"This time. I'm going back to my world. My foster father sent me a message."

"Is that so"

The tone of "Yamato" was a little low. She had no friends or kind relatives in Onishima. Although she only got along with Yamato for half a month, she was very happy during this half month.

The way of thinking of the two people is relatively similar, and Yamato has taught her a lot of outside knowledge. Hearing that Yamato is leaving, she is full of reluctance.

But she didn't mean to dissuade her. After being imprisoned for 19 years, she knows the value of freedom very well.

"Don't forget me, you spent some time with another self.

I should have caused you a lot of trouble, thank you for taking care of me during this time. "

"I won't forget. We are friends, aren't we? Let's make a promise. I will come again in the future. You have to work hard to become stronger. When the time comes, use your own identity and "Yamato" instead of that Oden's name to achieve your goals!"
