

Arceus 1051

Chapter 1051 Congratulations, you can go to higher education

"Mr. Apu! There seems to be monsters in the sky!"

In mid-air, the running pirates wanted to cry but had no tears.

The cruelty of the new world is far beyond their imagination, with a more powerful navy, more terrifying pirates, a weirder climate, and even animals are extremely dangerous.

The leader of this pirate group is Apu. As a supernova of the extremely evil generation, he was relatively lucky after entering the new world. He did not encounter any too terrifying opponents and arrived on this island safely.

While they were replenishing supplies, the wild boars on the island attacked them.

Apu knocked down the wild boar, and it took a lot of his strength. He thought this wild boar was the beast king of the island, but it turned out that there were a group of wild boars exactly like it.

The previous luck turned into bad luck, and Apu and his party also began to be hunted down by wild boars.

They wanted to jump off a cliff to avoid these wild boars, but somehow ran into the air wall and started running in the sky.

Apu and the others didn't know where this heavenly road led or where it ended, but they had no choice but to run under the pressure of the wild boar.

The wild boars haven't given up hunting, and now something more terrifying has appeared.

"Mr. App! It's flying towards us! What should we do?!"

"You ask me who I ask! Who knows how a group of wild boars have something to do with that strange dragon!"

Apu and others had to stop. But at this time they found that the wild boar behind them also stopped.

These wild boars dared to chase and kill the pirates like Apu, but they were afraid when facing the eight-headed dragon with a more terrifying aura.

After thinking for a while, the wild boars immediately turned around and started running for their lives. Apu and others followed the wild boars and started running away. No matter how you look at it, the flying eight-headed dragon is more terrifying than those wild boars.

However, it is difficult to run faster than flying. The eight-headed dragons can't fly fast to see who they compare with. It can't catch up with Kaido and Yamato, and it's not difficult to catch up with these legs.

With the waving of its wings, the eight-headed evil dragon directly passed Apu and his party, and came to those wild boars. These large wild boars made him feel delicious, but after eating only one, the eight-headed evil dragon lost their respect for them. Interested.

It is usually pampered among the beasts. It eats either the special Pokémon rations made from tree fruits or the sea beasts roasted by the chef. The taste is much better than those wild boars.

Those boars can feed, but they don't have to.

But the wild boars didn't know what the eight-headed dragon was thinking, they just ran back desperately, trying to stay away from the monster in the sky.

After losing interest in wild boars, the Eight-Headed Dragons set their sights on Apu and the others.

It doesn't eat people, it just feels bored. Kaido and Yamato have been fighting for a long time, and it also wants to have some fun, such as scaring these tiny "bugs".

Kaido is warlike, but Yamato doesn't like fighting. Although it is classified as Kaido's mount, its creator obviously prefers Yamato. In this case, it must take Yamato's considerations into account, so it chooses to scare.

"Roar!"

The eight evil dragons turned around and came in front of Apu and others, and the eight heads roared at the same time.

It's just that the eight evil dragons underestimated their own deterrence. Kaido has always evaluated it as "cute". King Yanwu and Banjila also evaluated him as a cute younger brother, including Robin's evaluation is still similar .

Other people in Hundred Beasts also said that it was mighty and handsome, which caused the Eight-Headed Dragon's self-awareness to be unclear, and he always felt that he was not very scary, so he tried his best to appear fierce when he roared.

And the result of this is to make the person in front of him even more afraid, and even his legs lost the ability to escape because of too much fear.

"Asshole, is this monster eyeing us?"

It was also at this time that a broken iceberg flew from a distance and smashed towards Apu and his party.

Looking at the incoming attack, Apu immediately played his body.

Teeths become keys, arms become trumpets, chests become drumheads, and even jaws become cymbals. One person becomes an orchestra and begins to play his own music.

As he played his body, the body of the eight-headed dragon suddenly exploded, and the resulting shock wave knocked out the flying ice cubes halfway.

"Mr. App! This will anger that monster!"

"No way! Otherwise, you will be smashed to death! And that monster has already been eyeing us."

He is a superman with the ability of Yinyin Fruit. His body can be freely transformed into various musical instruments, and he can cause a slash or an explosion through a sound wave.

But this fruit has a fatal weakness. The attack range of the sound fruit depends on the hearing range of the target. Apu wants to attack others, but the premise is that the enemy can hear his music.

Even just plugging his ears can make his attack ineffective.

The ice cube has no life, and has no ability to hear, so his fruit naturally cannot take effect. In order to let the ice cube explode, Apu had to choose to cause an explosion on the eight-headed dragon.

Although he broke the ice, he also completely angered the eight-headed dragon.

If you just wanted to scare them, then the eight-headed dragons are going to do it for real now.

"Roar!"

"Ahem, daddy bastard! You are still so ruthless!"

During the eight-headed dragon battle, the battle between Yamato and Kaido was drawing to a close. Yamato originally wanted to learn Jack's bottom-sinking tactics and took Kaido directly into the sea.

Anyway, she can swim by herself, as long as she pulls Kaido into the bottom of the sea, she can win.

It's a pity that Kaido has been guarding against her hand. When he approached the sea, he turned into a beast form, and under the blessing of Dragon Dance, he burst out with a huge force, and pulled Yamato into the sea with his tail, causing her to choke on a big mouthful of water.

But at this time Kaido suddenly stopped, and stood directly on the ice floe made by Yamato.

"That's right, simple fights can't help you anymore, and if you continue, it will be difficult to control the intensity. Let's call it a day."

Yamato didn't speak, but clenched his weapon tightly. According to past experience, Kaido was probably cheating, and Kaido would critically attack her when she relaxed.

But this time Kaido actually canceled the transformation, and then put away his weapon.

"Do you remember what I said before? If you can persist for three days under my or your adoptive father's hands, no one will care about you in the future." novelUsb.com

"So there will be no such thing in the future?"

Yamato realized that three days had passed before she knew it. Although Kaido still had a lot of useless cards, she finally survived and was one step closer to her goal.

According to the original agreement, she has "graduated" now.

"Hmm, dreaming! It's just over for the time being. When I come back from the special training with your adoptive father, I will prepare a new course for you."

Yamato's fantasy was broken by Kaido. She has indeed graduated. At this time, her strength has been recognized by Kaido, and the growth of her mind has also satisfied Kaido a lot.

Although it is only a temporary trigger in combat, it is much better than nothing.

It's just that when she graduated, her studies were upgraded. She didn't enter the society, but entered a higher institution arranged by Kaido.

It's just that she can enjoy a very long vacation before the "start of school". After all, her private teacher also plans to enroll in an improvement class and start to further improve herself.

At this time, the eight evil dragons came to Kaido with the spoils of their captives.

is that group of familiar numbers=24

Chapter 1052 One in the Rabbit Bowl Private Room

"Hey hehehe, is this a prisoner you captured? It doesn't look very strong."

"Roar"

The pirates of the Radio Pirates were thrown in front of Kaido by the eight evil dragons. Until then, the memories deep in some people's hearts were awakened.

"Mr. App, I seem to remember what this monster is. Kaido's mount, the dragon Hydra, has a bounty of 500 million Baileys."

People's memory is limited. Even if some things are remembered, they just stay in the depths of the memory, and they will only be remembered when they encounter related things.

First they were chased by wild boars, then ran in the sky inexplicably, and finally encountered eight evil dragons. They were so flustered that they didn't realize what the monster in front of them was.

But when they were brought to Kaido, everything was different.

The war on the top made Kaido's reputation unique for a while. Most pirates think that he is already the strongest monster in the new world. Even in this world prone to prosopagnosia, Kaido's face is also very iconic. sex.

"I thank you for thinking of this now." novel Usb.com

But Van Apu knew that this strange dragon was related to Kaido before, he would rather jump off a cliff and gamble his life than bombard the ice with a sonic boom.

"Mr. Apu, what should we do now, should we try to escape, they don't seem to care about us."

After the eight evil dragons flew here, they threw the group of them on the side of the iceberg created by Yamato. He was like a pet cat beside Kaido, and Yamato was also talking to Kaido, which seemed to be completely ignored. They are the same.

"Don't think about it, that monster can fly, even if it jumps into the sea, it won't be able to swim very far, let it be fate.

How can I say that I am also a supernova, so I should have some value."

"Mr. App, your reward is only 198 million Baileys, but his mount is worth 500 million."

"Shut up."

They couldn't hear what Kaido and Yamato were saying. If they could hear it, it would probably be more heartbreaking.

"Who is this group of people?"

"Roar"

"I don't know, father, wait a moment, I'll check the information."

The Eight-Headed Dragon brought this group of people back just because they were upset, and Kaido simply couldn't remember this kind of miscellaneous fish. It can be brought down with one stick.

Yamato is similar, but Kaido doesn't want to remember such meaningless things. Yamato has read it but didn't remember it. If Robin was there, he would be able to give an accurate answer.

Fortunately, Rotom was not considered damaged, so Yamato successfully found relevant information about Apu.

"Father, this year's supernova, the captain is called Apu, the long-handed family."

"Supernova, let's take it back to mine on the way. Babanuki recently complained that after the prisoners from Wano Country were released from prison, there was a shortage of manpower. I just wanted to add it."

Supernova privilege, there is a certain chance to directly enter the rabbit bowl mining field, and enter the core of beasts in disguise.

Supernovas generally have some skills. As long as they are full, their mining efficiency can reach dozens of them, which can be called a human excavator.

After the top war, the sea became more and more chaotic, and the demand for arms from all over the world is also rising. As the largest distributor of high-quality arms, Beasts' orders have been scheduled for several months. Correspondingly, Beasts also needs More ingredients.

Whether it is Hailoushi or Liquor Iron Mine, more production is required. Ordinary prisoners are released from prison, and captured pirates have to undertake heavier labor. Morality is for their own people. Pirates on Onijima have long since lost their human rights.

Under high-intensity labor, casualties gradually appeared, so Babanuki complained about the lack of manpower.

"Next, you are going to the kingdom of giants with that little girl, right?"

"This, in fact, the kingdom of giants is not in the original plan."

"Then it's up to you, I'm going back to Wano Country first, Hachi, take all those guys with me and go home!"

Said that Kaido directly turned into a blue dragon and flew into the sky. After the eight evil dragons brought their captives to keep up with Kaido, only Yamato remained alone.

"That **** dad really doesn't care?"

Yamato did not relax, but felt that there was some conspiracy. After a long time, after confirming that Kaido had really left, Yamato was still in an unbelievable state.

"Forget it, never mind, let me think about where to go next.

It would be best to find all the stone slabs of the adoptive father, and the condition is to let him stop strengthening that old man. I am really a genius. "

Rubbing his own face, Yamato finally decided that it would be better to catch up with Robin first, and it seems that a trip to the giant country is not bad.

As for when Kaido would find her again, she didn't think about it at all. Even if he made a new breakthrough, it would be a matter of later.

A few days later, Kaido returned to Wano Country again. He can fly freely in the sky and move much faster than ordinary pirates who have to rely on ships. The Rabbit Bowl Quarry also welcomed new guests.

"Babanuki, these guys are handed over to you, don't I need to teach you the rest?"

"Please rest assured, Master Kaido, we already have a set of proficient procedures. Is there anyone you want to recruit?"

"Those two supernovas are still a bit interesting, but first sharpen their temperament."

"Yes, I see."

After watching Kaido leave, Babanuki checked the new list of prisoners, and then arranged a new job.

"Have the cells been cleaned up? Bring a few more Hailoushi handcuffs. Our new guests don't seem very happy. We need to prepare some decorations for them!"

The Undersea Prison has a unique welcome ceremony, and the Rabbit Bowl Mining Field also has it, but they will not bathe others with boiling water, but will give them a punch, and estimate the strength of the opponent according to the impact of the punch, and then proceed to the prison cell. Grading.

"I said, is this unnecessary? Can I just surrender?"

Apu raised his hands high. He didn't want to be beaten for no reason. It was in his plan to join a certain force, but the eight evil dragons on the road didn't give him a chance to speak. He would choke as soon as he opened his mouth. belly wind.

"The rules are the rules. If you don't accept it, you can fight back if you have a chance in the future."

Saying that, Babanuki punched Apu in the stomach, watched his reaction, and assigned him a cell that belonged to him.

"Next, De. Drake? Why is it called such a name, bring me that red flag!"

Looking at the names on the list, Babanuki finally called out his code name, who made Drake, who pronounced the same pronunciation in Flower City, always feel awkward calling the name Babanuki directly, and a very special thought appeared in his mind idea.

"According to the order, she should borrow money from me this month."

Chapter 1053 Prison Break Backstab Alliance

One of the customs of beasts, a certain Sunlight family who borrowed money in a fancy way, recorded his current creditors and future creditors in a mysterious book, and followed a certain law of infinite reincarnation.

Every month at the beginning of the month, Onijima will definitely see Drake going around paying back the money. Correspondingly, as long as the middle of the month comes, you will definitely see her going around borrowing money. If she doesn't show up, she must be on a mission.

In a sense, Drake's behavior indirectly promoted the team building of internal cadres. Sometimes when she performed a task and made a windfall, which caused the loan date to be delayed, other people would find it strange.

When there are two people with the same name in a class, others will always add an additional title in their own way, and distinguish them by size, height, shortness, fatness, etc.

Here Babanuki is simpler, he directly gave up calling the other party by this name.

After Babanuki's simple distinction, Apu and Drake were thrown into the same cell. Although it has been emptied a lot recently, the only people who can live in a single cell here are very few people. this qualification.

And Babanuki locked them together on purpose. As the warden of beasts, Babanuki's life is quite boring. He is not Magellan, and he spends a lot of time in the toilet every day.

In addition to ordinary entertainment, watching prisoners fight is also one of his sideshows.

"Isn't this Drake, you guy was actually sent in."

In the cell, Apu looked at Drake who was thrown in and taunted him. He is also a prisoner now, but this does not prevent these supernovas from dislike each other. They had verbal conflicts in the Chambord Islands.

"Heh, aren't you also a prisoner? What can I say?"

Rubbing his stomach, Drake felt that something was wrong. Logically speaking, his physique must be stronger than Apu, but now Apu looks like a normal person.

The problem should be in the strength. For some reason, Babanuki seemed to use more force to hit him.

Babanuki is not venting his resentment. Although Derek is addicted to borrowing money, he has always borrowed and repaid. His own character is also very popular in Pirates. He just simply thinks it is troublesome for two people to pronounce the same pronunciation.

Combined with the recent shortage of manpower and the pressure, seeing that he is unhappy makes him stronger. noveLuSb.com

Although it is very casual, it is not a problem for pirates.

"Don't be so angry, we are inmates next, why did you come in?"

Apu suddenly realized that there is no point in confronting Drake, it is better to have a good relationship with him temporarily, so as to find a way to use him.

"Didn't you start it first? That guy Hawkins has already joined Beasts. I was careless and let his ability be clouded."

"Hawkins? It's not surprising, that guy's abilities are weird, and the bounty is only lower than that **** Kidd."

The bounties of Luffy and his party were greatly cut, and Hawkins was already among the best bounties by virtue of his own ability, and in the first half, his ability to "die for death" was very incomprehensible, and many people were overwhelmed by him car.

"how about you?"

"Me? I met Kaido, lost after a wonderful battle, and was finally captured here by him."

"?"

Drake didn't believe Apu's words at all. If such a person could touch a monster like Kaido casually, then the navy would have calmed down the sea long ago.

"Ahem, don't pay attention to such details, anyway, that battle was really exciting."

Apu would never say that the battle was so exciting that Kaido didn't even look at him, and he didn't even know his name in the end.

The cell directly entered a state of silence. After a while, seeing that there were no guards watching them, Apu whispered his thoughts.

"Speaking of which, should we join hands? If we join forces, maybe we can escape from here."

"Do you have a plan?"

"Not yet, but the plan can come slowly"

A smile appeared on Apu's face, as long as Drake agrees to his request, he can backstab Drake during the prison break, testify against him as a tainted witness, and find a reason to join the gang.

He originally had the idea of finding a backer and planning other things later, and the current environment is not too bad.

Coincidentally, Drake thought so too.

Although he didn't join Hundred Beasts, being caught was considered another way to achieve his goal.

Moreover, Apu just offered to surrender but was not approved, which made Drake feel that Beasts didn't like such weak bones, and planned to

Be a bit tougher, and wait until you are forced to a certain level before surrendering.

In theory, it is not uncommon for pirates to recruit new subordinates from prisoners of war, and they still have a chance, as long as they report this person who wants to escape, they can get a chance.

The two people had different purposes, but made the same decision, and reached a prison escape agreement with their own ghosts.

But in the following days, Beasts did not recruit them, but kept forcing them to mine.

Babanuki misunderstood Kaido's order, thinking that Kaido meant that he would torture the two of them and wait for Kaido's order.

But what Kaido meant was to let him figure it out and inform him when it was about time, and Kaido was busy having fun and didn't take the two of them to heart at all. The mining career is still very long.

Drake is working silently. As an undercover target, he is very loyal until he is ordered to jump back. They are even more worried about problems with the undercover forces than ordinary subordinates.

But Apu was different, he couldn't stand the high-intensity work, but Drake was not active at all in terms of jailbreak, and let him plan first every time.

Just when Apu was thinking hard about what to do in the next days, his opportunity came.

Kaido didn't think of the two of them, and even left Ghost Island to start a new round of self-discipline, but Quinn came to the Rabbit Bowl mining field.

"Who is this man standing before you?"

"It's the almighty Queen! It's the handsome QUEEN!"

"Very well, thank you for my kindness, you scumbags have the opportunity to watch this uncle dance live!"

Quinn came here not to hang out, but to hold his exclusive concert.

Different from Uta and others who are active on the front stage, as a wanted criminal and comedian, and at the same time the person with the most divided word-of-mouth among the high-level cadres of Onishima, Quinn is not qualified to hold a banquet at will in Onishima, and can order banquets. Only Arceus and Kaido ordered.

In the entire Wano country, only the Rabbit Bowl mining farm can let him toss around at will.

The prisoners welcome him too, at least they don't have to work while Quinn dances.

As the music sounded, Quinn danced the familiar fat house dance, and this also made Apu's eyes shine, and he knew that his chance had come.

Chapter 1054 I have never seen such a brazen person

"This place is weird."

Looking at Quinn dancing on the temporary stage, Drake's face twitched a few times. Even though he was well-informed, he had never experienced such a weird thing.

"Yeah, this place is weird, but Drake, please make a sacrifice."

Apu picked up the pickaxe used for mining and smashed it at Drake, but his skill was not comparable to that of Drake. Not only did he miss Drake, but he was also hit by Drake with a backhand pole shoulders.

"What are you guys doing?"

"Ah ba ba ba ba, of course it is to carry out my plan, you can be my stepping stone honestly!"

Although he suffered a heavy burden, Apu was not discouraged. Whether he can win or not is not important, as long as it can cause riots is enough.

Watching the two fight, the prisoners around turned into birds and beasts, fearing that it would affect him, but before they ran away, a laser cannon had already blasted over.

"Who is bothering this uncle? Huh? You are wasting the opportunity that this uncle gave you!"

The weapon on Quinn's arm was still smoking. He was very angry at the interruption of the performance, and he didn't think about the consequences at all. Fortunately, Drake and Apu's skills are not bad, otherwise this blow would be enough to send them away up.

"Cough cough cough Master Quinn, I will report, this guy said you dance ugly! I refuted him, and he hit me!"

"I don't!"

Listening to Apu's nonsense, Drake's head was dripping with cold sweat. The first condition for him to be an undercover agent was that he should not die.

In case Quinn, who looks like a **** person, really makes a move.

Drake becomes apprehensive, but Quinn doesn't catch on.

"Are you an idiot for being my uncle? This kind of trick also wants to lie to me? Want to borrow a knife to kill someone? You two have no credibility with me, so why should I believe your words?"

“.”

The development of the plot was beyond Apu's expectation. This funny fat man was not as easy to fool as he thought.

"Pull them into the underground mine, and let them know the end of the fight in the mine."

This is the prison of Beasts, and it is also the most unreasonable place for the entire Beasts Pirates. Quinn has no interest in why they fight. As both sides of the fight, he has no intention of letting go of any of them.

No matter who it is, it is a sin to disturb his dance, unless he can't afford to mess with this person.

"Wait! Lord Quinn, the little one has something to say!"

Drake looked disdainful at this time, standing aside coldly, as if he was setting up a character who would not give in easily, but Apu was the complete opposite of him, and immediately knelt on the ground and began to beg for mercy.

Seeing that Quinn didn't want to pay attention to him, the jailer next to him also came over, and he hurriedly shouted: "Your dancing posture is very beautiful, and your singing voice is also unique, but you lack excellent partners!"

"Partner?"

"Your subordinates are not professional enough, they can't grasp the rhythm of the music well, the connection of the songs is too bad, and they don't cooperate well with you, let me come, if I come to be a DJ, it will definitely make your performance even better floors."

"Interesting, come here, bring him to me."

Apu successfully aroused Quinn's interest, and Quinn waved at the younger brother beside him, and Apu was held in front of Quinn by them.

"Boy, I will give you a chance to prove yourself. If you can do it, then I will take you out of here. If you dare to lie to me, you will be executed."

What kind of equipment do you need? Tell them that the music equipment in my hands is the world's top, you only have one chance, if you fail, don't complain about the equipment. "

"No need, I am the ability user of Yinyin fruit, and I can be a band by myself, as long as you open the Hailoushi handcuffs for me."

"Babanuki, get the key."

"But Master Quinn."

"It's okay, my uncle is here, can this kid still run? Bring the collar along the way, so that I don't have to kill him."

Under Quinn's order, Babanuki happily brought the key and collar, and Quinn also showed the particularity of the collar.

"See, kid, there are extremely sharp blades inside this collar, and it has the same principle as the slave collar of the Celestial Dragons. If you try to destroy it, the blade will cut off your neck directly."

Of course, if you lie to me or dissatisfy me, then you will end up too. "

"Actually, I think it's better for my crew to cooperate"

The sub-profession of the captain will also affect the behavior of the younger brothers. Luo's crew can act as nurses, Hawkins' crew can also be a magic stick, and Apu's crew can form a small band.

Seeing Quinn like this, Apu felt that it would be better to be on the safe side.

"Bring people here, if I am not satisfied, you can go to Huangquan to reunite together."

"Please rest assured, please give me 20 minutes, I will prove myself"

"Okay, my uncle promises, even if you die, you will die, Babanuki, start timing, and you must not miss a second."

Under Quinn's order, the entire quarry stopped, and countless eyes were fixed on the members of the Radio Pirates, and they also formed a circle, listening to Apu's lecture.

"Little ones, success or failure depends on one stroke, do this first and then do this again, everything is under my arrangement, understand?"

"Mr. App. Is it really all right?"

"No problem, I can't fight, but I am an expert in this area, Lord Quinn! We are ready!" novelusb.com

"Then let me see your skills."

"Lights! Music!"

Apu commanded his little brother to start the action, followed by an impromptu rap, the content of the rap was very simple and clear, and the words for a few minutes were all flattering to Quinn.

Not to mention Drake, even Babanuki was dumbfounded. He never thought that a person can be so thick-skinned that Apu can't roll his tongue when he sings such a word.

However, Quinn just likes this. In addition to the impromptu rap lyrics, Apu's control of the rhythm of the music is also in line with Quinn's wishes. In the end, he even performed a performance on the same stage with Quinn.

"Mhahahaha, not bad, very good, I am optimistic about you, and you will follow me from now on."

"It's all about your talent, Mr. Quinn, and your small talents add luster to you."

"Hmph, don't think that this will make this uncle break the rules. Now you leave Ghost Island and work with Hawkins first. When you pass the qualification, you will naturally be able to follow this uncle. Take advantage of this opportunity."

It is within Quinn's authority to release Apu, but the assessment cannot be avoided. The rules of the beasts are set by Arceus. If Quinn dares to take the lead in violating the rules, Shaina's red chain will be seen on the next day. on his neck.

Chapter 1055 What do you need if you have no talent

Under Drake's slightly dull eyes, the broadcast pirates directly took off the chains and were taken out of the rabbit bowl by Quinn.

When Quinn spoke, Babanuki naturally wouldn't stop him, and he didn't worry about any safety issues. Wano Country was full of eyeliners and agencies, and Quinn himself followed.

If Quinn let these people run away from his hands, then he will probably be directly removed by Kaido because he is too embarrassing.

As for Drake.

Compared with Hawkins, who can tell fortunes, and Apu, who can sing rap and be a DJ, his value to Quinn is negligible, and he cannot be taken seriously at all. The only good news is that no one pursued the problem of the fight just now, and he returned An unremarkable mining career.

【Marshal of the Warring States Period, you seem to have sent the wrong person.】

Looking at the current situation of Beasts, an ability user of the ancient species is not as good as a talented and fun person. Without special skills, he didn't know how to continue the task for a while.

In other words, before Kaido remembered him, he had no chance to carry out his mission.

After Apu and others followed Quinn and left the Rabbit Bowl mining field, Quinn began to contact other people, but the content of the call made Apu dizzy for a while.

"Hawkins."

"Master Quinn, what do you want?"

"A newcomer will be arranged for you in a few days, and you have passed the assessment. Then, I will help Scoci."

"Yes, I understand."

Until here, the content of Quinn's communication was still within the range that Apu could understand, but the next moment, Quinn began to become abnormal.

"How about that?"

"Master Quinn, you are really embarrassing me. There is a limit to the ability of divination, and I have no ability to change the future."

"Forget it, how are you doing recently?"

"You've been safe recently, and you won't be hit by blood for a while, it's just a little Mercury retrograde."

Mercury retrograde and safety are somewhat contradictory in theory, but it is very suitable for Quinn. For him, if his life is not in danger and he will not be beaten, he is considered safe.

"Let me think about it, Brother Kaito has gone out, Miss Yamato hasn't come back, and Shaina and Jhin are not here. Indeed, as long as I don't leave Wano Country now, I'm safe. What do you guys think? Honestly follow superior."

Sitting on his own pig cart, Quinn saw a suspicious look on Apu's face, and immediately threw a fruit core on his head.

"Take care of your eyes. Although I got you out, you are not yet a full member of us. If you see something you shouldn't see, hehe, you will know how powerful I am."

Quinn was simply threatening them. There are indeed many things that should not be seen here, but if Apu really saw those things, Quinn, who was in charge of leading the way, would be the first person responsible.

"Well, Lord Quinn, where are we going?"

"Go to the backup dancers of my uncle, let you get to know each other first."

The pig cart was galloping on the roads of Wano Country. Although he saw a lot of strange creatures along the way, Apu didn't say anything, for fear of getting burned, until a mansion appeared in front of them.

"Master Quinn, does that one live here?"

"No, at this time, it should just be playing here."

"Live in this kind of place. You must be a big man."

Before he officially joined, he could meet other important people. Apu felt that his status was not that low, but the reality was always so cruel.

"What stupid things are you talking about? This house is actually a dog house. The person I want to take you to find is not a person, but a Kappa."

"Dog House?!"

Looking at the villa-like building, Apu felt that his three views had been severely damaged again.

"Yes, the owner of this house is the first person to surrender to us. He has changed from a down-and-out businessman to the richest man in Wano Country. He has been loyal all these years. Lord Arceus and Lord Kaido are very satisfied with him.

All in all, working for us will not treat you badly, but if you play tricks, the mine will be your forever home. "

As soon as the voice fell, the door opened inside, and the wind speed dog and Lotte Kappa ran out from inside, as well as the fur tribes such as Miao Na, Wolf and Bebo.

Xiaoka's room is nominally a dog kennel, but it is a three-story villa with a total area of over 1,000 square meters. The facilities are very complete, and due to racial characteristics, some facilities specially made for wind speed dogs are suitable for fur people. A meeting place for fur tribe youth.

However, Quinn's goal is only Lotte Kappa. Due to their racial characteristics, Lotte Kappa, who likes to dance to beats, and Quinn get along inexplicably.

"Have all the animals in this place become smart?"

"More than that, the stones in the mine can move, and it's normal for animals to talk.

If you can build such a big house for pets, then it is reasonable to buy some clothes, maybe this is the new world."

"Shut up! In addition to controlling your eyes, control your mouths too! You have arrived in the new world, why don't you have any knowledge at all? Haven't you heard of the fur tribe?"

As he spoke, Quinn took out a brochure and threw it to Apu.

"Take your people to write down the contents. There are some things you don't need to understand, but you don't even know the common sense of the sea. It's too embarrassing to say it."

"Literacy Manual?" novelusb.c0m

"The people of Wano country are closed to the outside world. The murlocs, mermaids, fur tribes, and long-handed tribes are all monsters in their eyes. This is the teaching material for those old-fashioned people. Who knew that you people are so ignorant.

Read the contents inside for me, so as not to offend others because of this. "

Quinn is not kind-hearted, but rather reluctant to part with this DJ team. It is rare to have talents who come to your door. It would be a pity if they disappear due to inexplicable reasons.

"Uncle Quinn? Are you coming to play games too Hiccup?"

"No, I'm just here to find Lotte Kappa, wait, have you two been drinking?"

Both Miaona and Wolf inherited Setsuna's pure white fur, and their cheeks were slightly red at this time. At first, Quinn thought it was the traces left by them fighting, but Miaona's tone of voice made him aware of the abnormality.

"No, it's just juice."

"Yes, just juice."

"Don't use my nose as a display, it's easy for your mother to think that I took you to drink! You drank after all. Well, I know what's going on."

No matter what happens, Quinn's priority must be himself, and what he fears is that he will be inexplicably more troublesome. After all, according to Hawkins, he is not in danger, but he has committed Mercury retrograde.

Just when he was going to trace the source, he saw a turtle-like Pokémon crawling out of it, which also gave Quinn an answer in his heart.

Chapter 1056 Kettle brewer, increasingly serious paranoia

"The juice in this jug has been fermented for too long, don't you two think the taste is a bit irritating?"

Pot There are still some differences between a pot and a turtle. Its body is a soft-bodied creature, both its limbs and head and neck are very flexible.

The outside is a hard shell used to protect the body. Most of it is red, and a few individuals are lavender. There are several holes reserved on the shell. Apart from the holes for the limbs, the rest are also very useful.

For example, if the fruit is stuffed inside, there is a large reserved space in the shell of the pot, and this part of the space will be used by them to store the fruit.

As time goes by, the berries will gradually mix with the body fluids in the pot after being fermented inside, turning into a sticky and delicious juice unconsciously.

Moreover, the type of juice will also vary with the fermentation time and the type of tree fruit. Once a certain time limit is exceeded, the liquid in their body will change from juice to fruit wine. The degree is not high, but the stamina is too strong.

If you continue to ferment it after it has fermented into wine, it will become a liquid that can corrode rocks, which is how they survive in the wild.

In order to avoid being attacked, wild jugs spend most of their time hiding under rocks without moving until they eat up the berries stored in their bodies.

The liquid in their bodies is the ability they evolved to build nests on rocks more conveniently.

"Is there? We put a spicy cherry fruit, so it is alcohol?"

Wolf didn't take Quinn's words to heart, but picked up the jug of juice and continued to drink, and then performed a fire-breathing performance, obviously drunk.

"Little devil is really headstrong, you two will be 10 years old soon, don't make such a mistake like a child, and you two! Don't you think it's strange that they can't tell each other apart!"

Seeing that Miaona and Worf were obviously drunk and couldn't listen to him, Quinn turned his attention to Beppo and Garrott.

"sorry"

"I don't want you to apologize! Can you have a bit of backbone with a bear fur? Don't you have muscles under your bear fur? Don't just apologize casually!"

"Yes, I'm sorry, ah, shouldn't I say sorry"

"You bear is doomed"

Beppo's personality hasn't changed much, and his first reaction is to apologize if something happens, so Quinn focused his attention on the last rabbit.

"Actually, this kind of thing has nothing to do with me, but when your lord duke comes back from get off work, be sure to tell her that this matter has nothing to do with me."

If it weren't for Hawkins' Mercury retrograde, Quinn wouldn't have thought so much, but after being divined, the more he thought about it, the more he felt something was wrong. He seemed to appear in the wrong place at the wrong time.

The two children who were drunk for the first time probably couldn't figure out the situation themselves. If they remembered meeting themselves, they might have another layer of ashes on their bodies.

"I recently cultivated a batch of fruit carrots, and I will show them to you for a taste. I don't have any other requirements, just don't talk nonsense."

In order to prevent unnecessary misunderstandings, Quinn even directly used the food buying policy.

"No problem, Uncle Quinn, I will truthfully report to the Duke, including what you said."

Hearing the carrot, Garrett's ears immediately stood up. Quinn has different positions in the minds of different people, such as the blame man, the sandbag, the slut, the name is not worthy of the name, etc., but in the eyes of most fur people, they are just I think the fruit he made is delicious.

Garlott didn't intend to say anything nonsense. Quinn's conditions were simply given away for nothing.

"You don't need to talk about the previous things in such detail. Hey, hey! Don't use the pot as a molar stick! Be careful not to break your teeth!"

People will never know what outrageous things they can do when they are drunk. Some people will marry a lamppost while drinking, and some people will go directly to the mountain to fight a tiger to prove themselves.

And Miao Na seemed to think of something strange, and actually bit the shell of the pot.

The pot was not angry, but patted Miao Na's head helplessly.

This kind of biting does not feel at all, just like Quinn said, the shell of the pot is enough to break her teeth.

The race value of this kind of Pokémon is very special. They focus all their limited abilities on dual defense.

The speed is very slow, the blood bar is extremely short, and the attack is insignificant, but it is hard enough.

"Mr. App, you recognize that the boss seems to be quite gentle."

"Yeah, he actually coaxed the children to play there, we shouldn't be too sad in the future."

Quinn who was fighting with Meowna and Worf gave them an illusion that this person is easy to get along with. Who told them that they had never come into contact with Quinn, and the first time they met was to watch Quinn dance.

Coupled with the literacy manual that Quinn threw to them in order to prevent them from getting burned, they felt that Quinn was a person who cared about his subordinates.

"Don't be stupid, that guy is a plague, a super monster with a reward of 3.2 billion, he will bring us out just because he thinks we are useful, if he wants to survive in the world of pirates, he has to show his value.

Go back and practice all the scores I gave you. It is best to let this one rely on us. fantasy. "

Compared to the naive subordinates, Apu is more sober. The two little fur tribes are obviously able to make Quinn show this attitude because of their parents, and Apu doesn't think he has the qualifications.

While Apu was educating his men, Quinn had "bribed" Beppo and Garrot with honey and carrots, and left there with Juhu and Lotte Kappa.

After letting Apu and others see the dancing posture of Lotte Kappa, they shipped them to Hawkins, and he began to study new drugs.

The ability of pots and pots is not only for brewing wine and juice, but the space inside their shells is also a very special pharmaceutical place. With Tianxi's decomposition ability, Quinn just researched a new formula and planned to make his upgraded version of the plague bomb .

The mysterious attack of the war on the top made him feel a more serious sense of crisis. The weapons he made were toys in front of that kind of thing.

But as soon as he entered the laboratory, he was hit with a water cannon.

"Quinn! You **** has not been here for a week, and you still can't read the news summarized here!"

The prickly ammonite beast patted the document on the side and questioned Quinn. There was no major event in it, otherwise it would have gone to inform others.

But it is troublesome to pile up files all the time, it is just a phone bug, but it has to sort out files every day, which is beyond its scope of work.

"Quinn? Quinn, you won't be beaten stupid, right? You shouldn't be. Haven't you already become resistant to water cannons?"

"Mhahahaha, I understand. It turns out that Mercury retrograde means this, so I can feel at ease now! Good job, wait until I give you extra meals with tree fruits."

Looking at Quinn who was laughing rather than getting angry, the spiny ammonite slapped itself with its tentacles in confusion.

"It's over. I'm afraid this guy is completely crazy."NOvelusb.coM

Chapter 1057 The entrusted dream, the earning power of technical talents

"Well, these herbs and berries are mixed and fermented in pots, and the medicinal liquid obtained is more effective."

In the laboratory on Onijima, Naiqin also made some new varieties of medicines with the cooperation of Kehu, and recorded the formula and process in detail.

Quinn's insanity was not taken seriously, and no one in Guidao believed that something was wrong with him.

No one can match Quinn's life-saving degree, and only Yamato can compete in psychological endurance and stress resistance. In the eyes of other cadres, Quinn's weird behavior is just his daily routine, but Naiqin is still prepared. A calming potion.

She had already bid farewell, but after that, she received a temporary notice from her partner that the stronghold was discovered and the assembly time was postponed, so she has not left yet.

She wanted to leave because of the agreement made by her partners back then, but after nearly 30 years of getting along, she also has friendship with the people here, so she wants to use her ability to do something before leaving.

Naiqin knew very well that Beasts would not care about the fighting power of her old woman, and the only thing she could use was the knowledge in her mind.

Although due to the change of mentality, she is not as old as in the original timeline, but is similar to Xia Qi in the Chambord Islands, maintaining a middle-aged state.

This is also the characteristic of this world, idealism, as long as the energy in the heart is still there, the strength and appearance will not collapse seriously, but when a person runs counter to the original dream, the body will become old, and the strength will also be broken. become unstable.

"Aunt Naiqin, are you leaving?"

"Well, I'm really leaving this time. The new news from Binjack has arrived. This is the prescription I compiled. You can ask Quinn how to use it. He can still figure out the dosage.

I really envy your ability. After so many years, you still look so young. "

Looking at Olga at the door, Naiqin sighed at the speed of her and Assie's development. After so many years, Olga looked only eighteen years old, and she couldn't tell that she was an adult at all, or more than two hundred years old. Old monster.NOVELSDB.COM

"This is actually a curse. But Aunt Naiqin, do you really want to leave? There is no stronger force than us in the sea right now. If you officially join, no one will object."

"Olga, when joining a pirate group, the dream is handed over to the captain. The captain's goal is our new direction of struggle. Now that Captain Wald has come out, I will definitely go to him. You You won't betray Kaido-san, will you?"

"Do you want me to take you? The nearest sea is not safe."

"No need, Mr. Arceus lent me a fast dragon. It's okay if you just go on the road. This is my phone bug number. See you later."

Leaving all the beasts' exclusive items in her own room, Naiqin picked up her luggage and left Ghost Island. With the flying of the fast dragon's wings, she gradually disappeared on the sea level.

"Dad, don't look at it, you don't come to see off everyone, Aunt Naiqin asked where you were before."

"Ahem, some things are better not seen."

"It's been so many years, why don't you understand what you have to say? If you had explained it to me back then, I wouldn't have hated you in those years. It's the same now, holding back is fruitless."

"Well, after all, I am your father, so you don't have to teach me this kind of thing, but now Olga, come and train me!"

"You won't be bewildered by something inexplicable like Uncle Quinn."

Looking at Assie who suddenly awakened, Olga didn't know what to say. The fighting power of her father can only be said to be a little stronger than ordinary pirate soldiers, no matter how you classify it, she is high-level cannon fodder.

"No, I'm serious, I think I can also try to master domineering."

"You better be serious."

Seeing Assier's request, Olga didn't refuse him, but Assier only persisted for 30 minutes.

"It can't be done, I'd better go to Brother Quinn to see if there is any useful equipment for my old waist."

"It's been able to last for 30 minutes. It seems that Dad hasn't made any progress. After leaving Elizabeth, it's time to go out for a stroll."

Throwing down the wooden stick in her hand, Olga left the ghost island with her own Elizabeth, and started her own random hunting. The sea is now unstable, and even the gang of human traffickers has become active.

Doflamingo gave up the human business in the Chambord Islands, but human trafficking did not disappear because of this, and was soon replaced by others, and even became more extreme.

After a while, Hive Island-Hachinos, after being put nearby by Kuailong, Naiqin got a boat and came here.

This island also has a lot of legends. It is considered the largest lawless place in the New World. Many years ago, this was the territory of Lockes. After Lockes was defeated in the Valley of the Gods, his king directly took over the island. .

Then Wang Zhi fell into the hands of Kaido, and the Hive Island once again became a land without an owner, and changed owners several times.

According to the original timeline, this place will become Blackbeard's territory, but Blackbeard has already been beaten to ashes at this time, so Hive Island did not get its own master, and was jointly occupied by several big pirates living in the sea between the emperor.

And this has also become the meeting place chosen by the cadres of the Walder Pirates.

The old Binjack, the blind murloc-giant hybrid Sebastian, the cube fruit power user Gailam, and Naiqin who just rushed over, these are the existing cadres of the Walder Pirates.

"Guys, it's been almost 30 years, and everyone is reunited again. It seems that you have had a good time these years."

Holding the bottle in his hand, Binjack stood on the table, and as the think tank of the Walder Pirates, he was going to arrange the next plan.

"Wald must have escaped, but now he seems to be entangled in some trouble, he will definitely come to us and make peace."

Before that, we need a new pirate ship, it shouldn't be easy for everyone these years, I guess they don't have much savings, so."

"Well, I still have some savings."

When Bin Jack was planning to plan a big money-making plan, Naiqin interrupted him loudly.
"how many?"

"This... saved about 1.5 billion Baileys. This is the gold card from Du Field, which can be exchanged on the black market"

"1.5 billion?!"

Naiqin's wealth stunned the other three cadres, which is why her annual salary has not increased.

Because she didn't officially join, Naiqin's salary has been stuck at 150 million a year.

Although the salary is high, it is only a small part compared to the profits she brings to Beast.

Chapter 1058 The sea racing family, the new giant soldier pirate group

After the fame of the Department of Medicine of Beast Fruit was established, some medicines made by Naiqin were mass-produced and sold all over the country. The good efficacy of the medicine made Baishou Fruit no need to rely entirely on health medicines and special medicines made from tree fruits.

Also seized the market for other drugs. As a technical talent, Naiqin can make money much faster than the few of them who rely on bounties offered by other pirates.

This is a real income, and there is no need to be plundered by middlemen in the black market who find the navy for pirates in exchange for bounties.

She has also spent a lot of expenses these years, but she still saves half of her income.

"A lot of things are now more convenient, thank you Naiqin, it's a great help."

The vast majority of pirates make money by plundering, but in order to reduce trouble, they will also choose to spend money to buy them when they can trade them, especially when they are rare.

Breaking the rules will be blocked by the entire underground world. They are truly isolated and helpless, and they are not easy to provoke the forces behind some people. Problems that can be solved with money are not problems.

"Yeah, now we can buy materials to build ships!"

"Sebastian! Your voice is too loud!"

Choose Hive Island as the meeting point because of the convenient transportation here, no matter which faction pirates have a course to go here, the permanent pointer is also very easy to get, and there is no need to worry about the navy.

If you find an island at random, it will be too difficult to get the permanent pointer, and it may not be possible to rendezvous for a year or a half.

But the biggest disadvantage here is also other pirates. There are no rules on Hive Island, and it is a paradise for pirates to fight wantonly. Showing money here will only lead to trouble.

"The funding problem has been resolved, and everyone has already met. Let's leave here first."

"It's late, Binjack, those pirates have already surrounded us."

Looking at the approaching pirates, Gailam picked up his own hammer, and Sebastian also picked up two meteor hammers from under the table.

"It's been a long time, we haven't fought side by side for almost thirty years."

"Quick battle, I don't know how many of them there are in total. Before meeting with Wald, there can be no more problems."

"Then let me handle it, and remember to hold your breath when I do it."

Seeing that Jack Bin didn't intend to fight here, Naiqin took out a smoke bomb-like thing from his arms.

She has already left rations such as Rotom mobile phones on Ghost Island, but she still took away some developed weapons, such as this smoke bomb that Quinn researched based on the scale powder of the poisonous mealy moth, which can not only block the vision, can also release a large amount of hypnotic scale powder.

If you accidentally inhale it, you will fall asleep quickly.

Boom!

As Naiqin pulled the ring of the smoke grenade, the Walder Pirates also rushed out of the pirates' encirclement, and with the assistance of Sebastian, they moved towards another destination.

At the same time, on the other side of the sea, someone was racing on the sea.

The power of ice has frozen a smooth path on the sea surface, and it continues to spread forward as the wheels roll.

This is not a Kuzan, and the wheels are not bicycles, but motorcycle lizards.

Even the rolling of the wheels is an illusion. For ordinary motorcycle lizards, they still rely on their own limbs to move. The double wheels formed by the chest and tail only make them more convenient when they are running.

On the back of the motorcycle lizard, Yamato is wearing sunglasses enjoying the joy of drag racing.

She was going to find Robin, but on the way, she happened to meet Gulan Tezolo of Tezolo, and borrowed a motorcycle lizard of suitable size from him.

As for this way of moving, she learned it from Kuzan. It is definitely not as fast as her in terms of speed, but it is not fun.noVeLUSB.com

Snapped!

The motor lizard's tail suddenly pulled towards the sea surface, and a sea fish was thrown into the air by it, and swallowed in one gulp.

No fuel is required, energy saving and emission reduction, and it can also forage for itself, with a speed of 120 kilometers per hour, which is a must-have prop for travel.

"Go a little to the left, Robin should be on the island in front, hold on, let's take a good rest when we get there."

"Roar"

The motorcycle lizard shook its head and accelerated its speed. This race loves to run by nature, and living together with humans has been a thing since ancient times. This distance is nothing at all.

"If you are not tired, you should take a proper rest. Since you are so energetic, let's sprint at full speed!"

Waving forward with one hand, an icy path led directly to the island in front, and the motorcycle lizard also started running at full speed.

"Did something run past us just now?"

On the nearby sea area, a pirate lookout rubbed his eyes. He seemed to see something, but in a blink of an eye, there were only ice cubes left on the sea surface.

Somewhat suspicious of himself, he rubbed his eyes and handed the binoculars to his companion.

"No, let the captain tell them to be careful. This is a new world after all, and there are all kinds of strange things."

Yamato's drag racing behavior caused some unserious consequences, but it has nothing to do with her

"Robin, here I come again!"

"You are not wearing a bandage, it seems that you have become a lot stronger."

"No, it's just that the injury has healed a long time ago, so I just took off the bandage. I'm ready when I leave for the giant country."

"Roar~"

The motorcycle lizard that landed also stood up again, and showed off its muscle lines, indicating that Robin could also sit up together.

This is a large motorcycle lizard selected by Yamato according to his own size, and it can be said that it is a breeze for Robin to ride.

"The plan has changed, and I may not be able to go soon."

"Is something wrong?"

"Elbaf is carrying out some activities, and outsiders are temporarily denied entry."

I confirmed with Sauro, there is indeed this event, but Sauro miscalculated the date. "

Robin explained the new reason and looked for a more suitable place on the map, but Yamato found something wrong.

"Wait, how do you know? This place is still far away from the giant country."

"I met a few new friends here. They went hunting on the island and should be back soon."

Just as he was talking, there was a shock from the center of the island, and four men, one woman, and five giants came out dragging a dinosaur.

"they are"

"The new generation of warriors of Elbaf, known as the New Giant Soldier Pirates, they just left Elbaf not long ago and wanted to find a place to earn money and fight the enemy."

Didn't you say before that the outside staff is quite tight, I think they are very suitable, after all, they are giants. "

Chapter 1059 Missy's Olive Branch (x) Mace (v)

Giant Soldier Pirates, a powerful pirate group that was once famous all over the world, the crew from top to bottom are all giants from Elbaf, Yaluru and Yoruru, Dongli and Broki were all members of this pirate group the captain.

Because of the little girl's words, Dongli and Broki had a duel on the ancient island in order to prove whose prey was bigger. The other members of the giant soldier pirates were captured by the navy and sentenced to death.

During this process, the original Carmelite nuns and the Navy jointly performed a play, pardoning the pirates of the Giant Soldier Pirates, and at the same time created a wave of friendship with the Giants. The Navy began to have a stable source of giant soldiers.

But the giant soldier pirates still have a legendary color in Elbaf, and many young giants are also affected by this name.

"I remember seeing it in a book, but how did you know them, Robin?"

"Their record pointer broke and I sold them a new one.

But it will take some time to fully store the magnetic power of this island, and you will get used to it once you come and go. These giants are quite simple, and you should be able to get along with them. "

"Why do I think there are other meanings in your words?"

"This shows that you are making progress, which is a good thing. By the way, don't you plan to recruit them? I asked them, and they seem to want to join Bucky Express. This organization has developed rapidly recently, but it has recruited a lot manpower."

"Sounds good, but I haven't recruited people"

She is still very interested in Robin's proposal. As the future successor of the "enterprise" of Beasts, she has not done anything. It has nothing to do with her.

She is also aware of her abilities, as long as she doesn't get involved in the specific operations, no matter how much she loses her family, she won't lose just this towering tree.

She wanted to do meaningful things like recruiting people, but she had no idea.

"This is simple, you just need to defeat them."

"is this okay."

"It's nothing bad, didn't I say it, the goal of these giants is to revive the glory of the giant soldier pirates, and completely revive the giant soldier pirates.

Their ambitions are also great, and they even want to unify the entire giant family and integrate several giant countries including Elbaf. The giant at the head is called Holding, and his goal is the king of giants.

And all of this requires strength. They want to join Bucky Express just to earn commissions and hone their strength in battle.

We can give everything that Bucky Express can give, why let this big fish run into other people's pockets.

Speaking of which, I remember that Mr. Kaido is also interested in the strength of the giants, and this is an opportunity. "

Robin told her reasons, but she did this more because the waiting process was too boring and she wanted to find something to do.

"Sounds pretty good."

"That's right, and they pay more attention to fighting, but they don't care about commissions. Anyway, they are also recruiting people recently. It's a pity to do nothing with such a suitable candidate right in front of them.

I remember you know Elbaf's gun, the effect should be better. "

While Robin was talking with Yamato, several giants had already returned to the temporary camp here.

"Robin, is this the friend you are waiting for? Just try my craft, I am very good at roasting dinosaurs."

A chubby giant put down the prey in his hands, with a very simple and honest smile on his face: "I'm Goldebagu, the chef of the new Giant Pirates, hello."

"Hello, my name is Yamato. I heard that you plan to become mercenaries. Do you want to join us? The salary can be negotiated."

"It's really straightforward, Holding! What do you think? I think they are better than that Bucky who has never seen before."

Yamato's straight-to-the-top solicitation did not cause these giants any displeasure, but instead made them seriously consider this matter.

"A hundred beasts"

Elbaf did not close the country. Although the giant country is mysterious to the outside world, the giants living there also have enough understanding of the outside world and know the names of all the beasts.

It is not without reason that they decided to join Bucky Express. Compared with other established forces, Bucky Express is not very strong, and it does not have a luxurious personal record. It relies more on numbers to gain a foothold in the sea.

But as an emerging force, Bucky Express has an advantage, that is, the quality of the personnel under Bucky is uneven, and there is an urgent need for fresh blood.

In the old forces, Haierding and others may not be able to get attention quickly. For the emperor of the sea, a single giant is of little significance. Only when they form a legion can they exert their racial power.

But in a new force, they can get what they want more easily.

In order not to bring trouble to the Giant Kingdom, they chose to join other forces as mercenaries and slowly temper themselves.

In terms of the choice of forces, instead of taking the initiative to be the tail of the phoenix, it is better to be the head of the chicken.

But taking the initiative to join is not the same as being recruited. If the eldest lady of this force personally recruits, maybe the prospects will be better. In this case, the stable tree of Beast is naturally much stronger than the seedling of Bucky Express. up.novelUsb.com

"Goldebagu, you go to deal with the food first, let's discuss it."

As they spoke, several giants gathered in a circle and had a simple meeting. Anyway, there were only five of them in total, so they just raised their hands and voted if they had something to do.

After getting the response from his companions, Holding came out.

"We are willing to accept your solicitation, but we want to see the strength of the overseas people, Your Excellency Guiji."

"Robin is really right, I have no problem, if you are ready, I can start at any time."

"Go ahead, this beach should be wide enough."

As they spoke, the two put on a duel pose on the beach. It was just the development of the duel, which was a bit too simple.

"The Spear of Elbaf!"

Seeing Yamato's KO of Hayerdin, Robin helplessly covered her eyes. She did indicate that Yamato could use Elbaf's gun to lighten her wrist, but what she meant was to frighten people with two empty swings. enough.

Yamato's stick hit Holding directly, and he almost sent him away.

"Ahem, don't worry, our eldest lady is still sensible. He shouldn't be seriously injured. Miss Gertz, you can help him heal."

Gertz is the only female giant among the five, and she is also the ship's doctor of the New Giant Soldier Pirates. Like the other giants, she was dumbfounded by Yamato's blow, but she was shocked not only by this blow power.

"This style of play is Lingling? Are you also related to Lingling?"

There is an event in the comment area. With everyone's support, I entered the top 100 monthly ticket list last month, so I have operating funds, so I can participate in getting some coins

Chapter 1060 Enemy of Giants and the Singing Skeleton

Gertz was muttering to himself, and Robin didn't know what she was talking about. For a giant seventeen meters tall, Robin was too small. If Robin didn't use his ability, it would be regarded as a shot of Gertz. She couldn't feel her feet either.

"Goltz? Gertz? What's wrong with you?"

The giant next to her saw that Geerz was in a daze, and stretched out his hand to push her shoulder. Only then did she react, put down the ax in her hand, picked up the large medicine box and walked over.

Elbaf's Spear is the inheritance of Elbaf's giant kingdom, but after years of development, the Elbaf's spear used by different giants also has certain differences. Like murloc karate, it has evolved into different genres.

Yamato's Elbaf's gun is inherited from Kaido, and Kaido learned it from Charlotte Lingling. It can be said that it is in the same line. present.

She was Charlotte Lingling's childhood playmate, and they were good friends before Charlotte Lingling's eating disorder broke out.

The chances for outsiders to learn the moves inherited from the Giants are very slim, and Yamato's moves have a hint of similarity to Charlotte Lingling, which makes Gertz a little suspicious.

Just before figuring out the details, I still have to see the companions first.

"Hairdin, how are you doing?"

"I still can't die. But the gap... is too big"

Among the young people of the giant clan, Hayerding is considered the best. He didn't expect to suffer a disastrous defeat not long after leaving the giant country, and he was still killed in seconds.

"Sorry, I'm sorry, I thought you should be very good at being so big, but I didn't expect you to be so weak. Ah, no, I didn't mean that, I just wanted to say that I didn't use this strength on purpose, and I wasn't right to overestimate, I says."

"Ahem, Your Excellency Guiji, needless to say, I understand what you mean."

Let Yamato continue to talk, Haerding may really die.

"Elbaf respects your strength. Your strength is strong enough. Logically speaking, I should fulfill my promise. But there is a problem. What is the relationship between you and that demon Charlotte Lingling?"

Herding and Geertz were also childhood playmates. He had also seen Charlotte Lingling, and even Geertz who was watching could tell, let alone him who was fighting head-on.

"Demon?"

"61 years ago, when I was only 12 years old, I, Elbaf, met Lingling for the first time. She was very talented. At the age of five, she had already shown a terrifying talent, so the elder asked her to come with us. study.

But on the twelve days of fasting during the winter solstice."

Gertz talked about what happened many years ago, and let Yamato understand that all giant countries reject Charlotte Lingling.

"Originally, the marriage was an opportunity to reverse the deadlock, but Lingling's daughter chose to escape the marriage. Although Prince Loki was not angry, he was very sad, and Lingling's reputation in Elbaf also further declined.

Outgoing giants can join any faction, but they must not have direct contact with Charlotte Lingling, otherwise they will be expelled from the giant clan. "

Elbaf was not so frantic as to reject all indirect connections. In that case, the underground world of the New World would have to be completely cut off. Without newspapers and shipping, Elbaf would also suffer huge losses.

So their ban is that they can't join the BIG MOM pirates, and they can't have any relationship with Charlotte Lingling's relatives, but nothing else.

"It doesn't matter, it's just that there are some transactions. According to the foster father, we may be enemies at some point, but there is no major conflict between our pirates now."

Gertz and Haerding exchanged glances, and they agreed with each other's decision.noVeLUSB.cOm

"We are willing to be your mercenaries, but we cannot perform any tasks to get close to Charlotte Lingling."

"Mission. Wait a minute, Robin! Who is in charge of our mission?"

Under the influence of strength, the New Giant Soldier Pirates changed their company, and became external mercenaries of Beasts under the name of Yamato, but these giants had some doubts about the thinking activities of this young lady.

For Beasts, this is just a trivial staff addition, but for some emerging companies, it is a painful blow.

"Hello, Bucky."

"Isn't this Mr. 3? Why are you still wearing that suit, those giants are coming soon, don't let them look down on us."

Using the cloak to stretch his body, Bucky is showing off his might in front of his younger brother.

He knows how much he is, so he can only increase deterrence in this way.

"That's what I want to say. Those giants said they found a better place to go, so I'm sorry for the previous incident. They said that if there is a chance, they will cooperate again."

"What?! Which **** dared to compete with this uncle for business! Who is it?!"

"Forget it, Bucky."

"3, times have changed, and now I am Shichibukai too! Little ones, someone"

"It's the beasts."

"Anyone want a drink?"

Bucky choked back his words abruptly, this is not something to offend, and there is no way for future employees to be pried away.

After recruiting a batch of new employees, Yamato and Robin also re-planned the itinerary, but she is not the only one who is recruiting people.

After Yamato recruited giants and Quinn recruited fun people, Tezolo also embarked on the road of looking for newcomers.

To be precise, he was just doing team building activities.

When the Dingshang war broke out, he thought that Beast Fruit would suffer a major blow, but he didn't expect that the development of things was completely different from what he thought.

Out of consideration for Kaido's strength and obsession with the "elixir of youth", the world government acquiesced in the existence of Beast Fruit.

Then they focused on the Pharmaceutical Department of Baishouguo. During this period, many people were poached from the medical department, and some undercover agents were mixed in, which indirectly made Foz Fu's work level soar.

After the aftermath of the Dingshang war gradually faded, Cavendish made his debut immediately. After nearly a year and a half of practice and his excellent face, he became popular and became a new star in the performing arts department.

And he also began to enjoy this feeling of being watched by everyone. For him, being a star seems to be much more enjoyable than being a pirate. like.

"Let me tell you, we have plenty of funds, right? Why did you come to the Kingdom of Tenakena? Except for the long-handed clan, there is nothing special here, right?"

The Kingdom of Tenakena is located on Jianshan Island, the great route. It is the hometown of the Long Hand Clan. It is also a relatively closed country, lacking understanding and awareness of the outside world.

"There is nothing special here, but it is said that there is a skeleton that can sing. I think this image is very suitable to fill our vacancy."
